School board eyes massive budget cutbacks

BY HANK MEIJER

Plymouth School board members may soon be faced with cutting some $600,000 from their 1975-76 budget.

Board members and administrators met in a workshop session Monday night to discuss possible cutbacks that could trim the proposed budget to less than $17.4 million.

For workshop purposes, administrators projected expenditures of $17.376 million against revenues of $17.345 million for a $31,000 deficit after more than $600,000 in cutbacks.

Among the nearly two dozen reductions proposed are the hiring of 20, rather than 28 special education teachers, for a saving of some $118,000; delayed replacement of buses, $88,000 savings; elimination of 13 custodial positions, $90,000; a reduction of about $4 per student, or $52,000, in teaching supplies; and smaller cutbacks in teacher aides, library books and audio-visual materials, contracted service, travel and seminar expenses for central administrators, printing and publications expenses and a secretary cutback in the central offices.

Also proposed are the delayed hiring of a new assistant superintendent for instruction, for a saving of $20,000; and elimination of a placement coordinator for vocational education, who would have received $11,900.

Projected increases the board must wrestle with before the budget can be approved by the Nov. 1 deadline include the hiring of 10 new teachers this year at a cost of $102,000, and additional $24,000 in special education tuition, and a projected jump of $48,000 in utility bills.

"We're trying to make cuts without affecting staff personnel," Supt. John M. Hoben said to board members Marda Benson, Marcia Borowski, George Lawton, Tom Yack, Joe Gray and E.J. McClendon. "With a $500,000 to $600,000 reduction, we're still $31,000 from a balanced budget."

"If this year's budget is tough, next year's is really going to be tough, adding three new schools, and maybe four if Canton Phase III is completed."

A change in the state aid formula will provide the district with 27 per cent less state aid than last year, because local state equalized valuation has gained.

A reduction in custodial staff would mean the loss of two janitors at Plymouth-Salem, one each at Plymouth-Canton and each of the middle schools, and one-half from each of the elementary schools.

Centennial Educational Park Marching Band Director Jim Griffiths asked board members for more than $1,000 to transport his band members and their instruments to Western Michigan University for a solo performance Sept. 27.

Board members are expected to consider the request at their next regular meeting, Monday.

Spending cut proposed in new Canton budget

BY KATHY KUENZER

The Canton Board of Trustees was scheduled to meet last night in a study session on the 1976 budget proposed this week by Supervisor Bob Greenstein.

While the budget is considered to be in rough form, revenue projected at $1.47 million the next year amount to an increase of $419,000 over last year.

Few major changes in expenditures are proposed, except in the area of capital expenditures, which would drop from $443,000 to $258,000.

Last year's cash-on-hand carry-over into the 1975 budget was $430,000. Depending on the amount left over at the end of this year, trustees could ask for a much greater allocation for land purchases, which Treasurer Carl Parsell has maintained are "prices never cheaper than today."

Expenditures in the proposed budget are down $10,000 from last year, when township operations cost $1,482,100.

A public hearing on the proposed budget will be held as part of the regular Canton Board of Trustees meeting Tuesday, Sept. 23, at 8 p.m. in the Township Meeting Hall. The trustees then have five weeks in which to finalize the budget before the Nov. 1 statutory deadline.

Agardy to switch to Catholic high school?

High school freshman David Agardy, recently denied permission to transfer from Plymouth-Canton to Plymouth-Salem, had not enrolled in either local high school as of Monday.

According to school officials, young Agardy, who has been touted by some as a promising prep basketball player, has reportedly enrolled in a Detroit metropolitan area Catholic high school.

Agardy is the younger brother of Eric Agardy, who starred for the 1974-75 Rock cage squad. Mr. and Mrs. Julius Agardy, the boy's parents asked school officials to permit an exception to their school attendance area policy because they had purchased their home here so that their sons might both be coached by Salem mentor Fred Thomann.

When the Plymouth School Board rejected their request, the Agardys took the district to court and lost.

Old house razed on Trail

A DOWNTOWN LANDMARK was razed last week on Ann Arbor Trail near Main. The Markham House, built by the holder of the first patent for a BB air rifle, a product which spawned the Daisy Air Rifle, will be replaced by a parking lot, that will serve office facilities behind where the home stood. The three-story wood structure was owned by attorney Robert Delaney. (Photo by Brian Watkins.)

Defense begins in Umney trial

Defense attorney Robert Delaney presented his opening statements and proofs yesterday in the trial of Robert Umney of Plymouth for the Jan. 28 gunshot death of Terry Buchman.

The defense is expected to rest its case this week before Wayne County Circuit court Judge Horace Gilmore. The prosecution concluded its case Sept. 9.

Twelve jurors and two alternates Monday morning visited the scene of the shooting near Joy and Ridge roads. Gilmore, Delaney, Wayne County Sheriff's Detectives Larry Patterson and Robert Pond and Prosecutor Richard Whitney also viewed the intersection where the fatal shot was allegedly fired.

Gilmore Monday denied two defense motions. The first would have reduced the charge from first to second degree murder. The second would have granted immunity to a defense witness and permitted his testimony to be given in a closed courtroom.

Gilmore said a motion to grant immunity could only be given by mutual consent of the prosecutor and judge.

Expected to testify yesterday was psychiatrist Dr. Joel Dreyer of Southfield and a Westland policeman said to be familiar with associates of the defendant.

Umney is the third person to be tried in the slaying. Barry L. Provow, also charged with first degree murder, awaits a sealed verdict decision by Circuit Judge Thomas Roumell to be rendered after a verdict is rendered in the Umney trial. His wife, Leslie Provow, pleaded guilty to manslaughter and is out on bond. Her sentencing is expected later this month.

Firm would build 9-story complex for senior citizens

Officials of the Federal Community Resources Corp. of Ferndale were expected to go before the Plymouth Township Planning Commission tonight (Wednesday) to seek re-zoning of nearly 16 acres east of Haggerty and south of Joy for a nine-story, 399-unit, senior citizens housing facility.

License extended

The Plymouth City Commission Monday night agreed to grant a six-month extension to R. Terry Cuson to complete requirements for a Class "C" liquor license for a proposed restaurant in downtown Plymouth.

Cuson and builder Joe Nahra were represented by attorneys who asked that the commission grant them the extension for their establishment at 555 Forest because of possible new commitment for financing the venture.

Although the commission was uncertain of the financial commitments Cuson felt he had, it agreed to grant the six-month extension on the condition the builder report monthly on the building's progress.

Commissioner Norm Battermann cast the only no vote.

In a public hearing on the proposed re-zoning Aug. 20, residents of the Bradbury condominium complex south of the site questioned the height of such a complex and burdens it would place on their sewer system.

The developers, who have yet to receive approval of the location from the Michigan State Housing Development Authority, have requested that zoning on the site be changed from R-2A and R-1 to M-R, or mid-rise. Under the township's zoning laws, a mid-rise may be as high as nine stories.

At the public hearing, Township Planner Norm Dietrich said site plan studies should be made to determine the impact of such population densities, the intensity of use, the scale and location of structures and the traffic volume.

The planning commission can only recommend action on zoning matters. The township board must grant final approval for such a change.

CANTON RESIDENTS took a look at the inside of their new recreation hall Sunday during an open house. Checking out the kitchen in the newly-remodeled facility, which is located on Michigan Avenue near Geddes, are Dan

Debt levy eased

Township lowers millage rate

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last week lowered the township's total millage rate from 3.25 mills to 3.00.

The board unanimously agreed to maintain for 1975 a levy of 1.00 mill for general operation and .5 mill for the fire department, while reducing its debt retirement levy from 1.75 mills to 1.50.

With a rise in the state equalized valuation of property in the township, however, the lower millage rate is expected to yield $645,161.34 this year, compared to $575,915.68 on 3.25 mills this year.

Overall, the township's assessed valuation has risen from $177.2 million in 1974 to $215 million this year.

An increase in the millage of Schoolcraft Community College and a decline in the bond rate levied by the Plymouth Community School District, coupled with the township's own reduction, will drop the total millage rate township residents pay from 42.35 to 41.82.

The reduction on the township' millage for debt retirement will leave it some $3,000 short, with the remainder slated to come from the general fund.

"I see no reason why you should levy more than 1.5 mills," Township Clerk Helen Richardson told the board at its last meeting. "What we are doing is reducing our rate for bonded indebtedness."

Emil Raab returns to conduct symphony

Despite the serious illness of conductor Wayne Dunlap of the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra, the season will go on as scheduled.

Mrs. Jane Moehle, president of the Symphony Society, says that while Dunlap is at home and progressing well, it has been necessary to seek a temporary replacement.

That replacement will be Emil Raab, associate professor of Music at Bowling Green State University, Bowling Green Ohio. Raab is also conductor of the university orchestra there.

Raab was formerly at the University of Michigan, where he was concertmaster of the university orchestra before going to Bowling Green. He also conducted the Plymouth Symphony during the 1955-56 season while Dunlap studied in Vienna under a Fulbright scholarship.

Mrs. Moehle says orchestra members who played under Raab's direction earlier are "delighted he will be Dunlap's substitute."

Symphony boosters hope Dunlap will return to the orchestra by mid-season.

ROMEO AND DORA WOOD

Photographer Romeo Wood dies, in business here since 1908

Services will be held today (Wednesday) at 3 p.m. in Schrader Funeral Home for Romeo S. Wood, 90, who was believed to have been Plymouth's oldest active businessman and a photographer here since 1908.

Wood, who died in his home on Ann Arbor Trail Sunday, Sept. 14, was born in Wayne in 1885. He came to Plymouth in 1898 and opened his first photography studio in a second floor room on Penniman Avenue in 1908.

He had remained active in photography until he became ill a few weeks ago.

He is survived by his wife, Dora, whom he married here in 1911. He was a member of the Plymouth Historical Society and the Plymouth 60-Plus Club.

Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery.

Poole would tape meetings

Meetings of the Canton Township Board of Trustees may soon be recorded if one trustee has his way.

Trustee Jim Poole last week asked if it would be possible to purchase a tape recorder to record business meetings in the Township Meeting Hall.

Supervisor Bob Greenstein said the room already has a public address system, but that it is not used because of poor acoustics.

The room has neither drapes nor carpeting and the sound is said to reverberate.

Greenstein said the room may be redecorated soon, and that a recording system could conceivably be incorporated into the existing public address equipment.

The board asked that the clerk advertise for bids on the recording system.

Trip money gets strings

Canton's new senior citizens clubs will still be receiving township money for their trips this year, but a few strings have been attached by the Township Board.

Treasurer Carl Parsell at last week's board meeting said he hadn't signed the two $500 checks to the Canton Senior Citizens Club and the Royal Holiday Mobile Home Senior Citizens Club because of complaints from non-member senior citizens that they were prohibited from going on trips with the groups, even though they were Canton residents.

The board solved the problem by passing a simple resolution that any money given to the senior citizens by the township will be used exclusively for travel, and that trip participants may be any senior citizens living in Canton.

Good idea but... the wrong time

So often in politics, good motives leave a bad taste when the timing is off.

Such was the case last week when the president and vice-president of the Plymouth School Board refused to approve a contract for cafeteria personnel because substitute employees — all of whom happen to be women — would receive only $2 an hour.

With talk of not permitting "slave wages" and taking action "for women everywhere", Marcia Borowski and Marda Benson held up approval of a contract which the school cafeteria staff had already ratified.

Granted they made it clear to school administrators that certain jobs should not be ill-paid just because they are done by women. No one can dispute their argument that it's impossible to support a family on $2 an hour.

But a meeting where the board is to pass on a contract already agreed to by the employees is simply the wrong time to bring out arguments.

It's no way to treat employees who have negotiated contracts with administrators, only to discover that in certain of their job classifications board members might intend that they receive more money.

The timing — "The regulating of occurrence, pace or coordinating to achieve the most desirable effects," as the dictionary has it, was way off.

It's not enough for one board member to mention to one administrator his or her feeling about a contract under negotiation.

Before negotiations start, board members should give administrators their consensus opinion on what aspects of a given contract warrant change. The administrators can then negotiate the package with those new factors in mind and the employees can have a clearer understanding of what direction their negotiations should take. Only then might more desirable effects be achieved.

To object to a contract at the last minute in the name of women everywhere is not only too little, too late, but also an abuse of the board's policy-making responsibilities.

Amo, amas, amat

Parents near Farrand Elementary School have been complaining recently that youths were loitering around the building in the evenings and raising Cain.

In his letter to the Michigan State Police requesting additional police patrols of the area, Plymouth School Supt. John M. Hoben said the youths "conjugate behind the school." We assume he meant "conjugate", but certainly if they're conjugating verbs, what more appropriate place than on school grounds?

On the other hand, perhaps Hoben meant conjugate as "joined together, esp. in pairs," (as our standard dictionary describes it). That would lead us to ask — what's really going on at night behind Farrand School?

Let's control noise pollution

Editor:

Two years ago you printed my letter complaining about the deplorable conditions we had to put up with in regard to Ann Arbor Road between the railroad overpass and Sheldon Road.

Now that we have that problem licked, thanks to your help, there is another problem that I want to call your attention to.

In last week's paper, you printed an article on how the Federal government will soon be asked to share the $2.5 million cost of sound barriers that would shield Plymouth Township subdivisions from I-275 traffic noise. How about some of you politicians seeking office soon, going to bat for us poor suffering people living on Sheldon Road in the City of Plymouth and get us some relief too?

We must have 10 times more traffic on Sheldon Road than I-275 and getting more every day. And yet nothing is done to cut down on the traffic.

If public complaints are any indication, the frustrating sounds of modern times have decreased within Detroit, while it's getting noisier in the suburbs, and Plymouth is getting more than its share.

We need strict anti-noise ordinances in an effort to avoid becoming acoustical slums.

The bad villains are the big gravel and cement trucks that make life miserable day and night.

Also train whistles and airplanes should be controlled for noise inside the city limits.

I wonder if our council is willing to pass a five-page noise ordinance like Farmington Hills has? St. Claire Shores passed a stringent anti-noise law in 1972 after resident complained about loud vehicular noises, ranging from motorcycles to trucks, which bombarded the serenity of their neighborhood.

The city purchased 10 decibel-measuring instruments to help enforce its ordinance, which stipulates that any sound measuring more than 80 decibels is unlawful. Grosse Pointe Woods' ordinance, which will be a year old Jan. 1, bans anyone from making sounds which exceed 85 decibels. Maximum penalty for violators is 90 days in jail and a $500 fine.

The city of Plymouth would get rich in a year's time if we had the same ordinance in our books. A good example was the loudspeaker in Kellogg Park during the festival.

All the good music in our bandshell was drowned out by the stupid loudspeakers that made it impossible to enjoy the good food.

A current noise problem confronting Plymouth is one involving motorcycles. Dealers are forbidden to sell high-noise motorcycles in Detroit, but this doesn't seem to stop the noise-makers we have in Plymouth.

Noise is the curse of modern times and a major environmental problem, and people's hearing is increasingly affected. Noise is measured in decibels and according to the WHO report, 140 decibels can produce insanity.

Here in the City of Plymouth, we are now on the threshold of pain and we need help soon.

OLOS WAHLSTROM

Thank you

Jill Comstock:

Thanks so much for all the support in promoting the Plymouth Community Arts Council Arts and Crafts Show. It was really appreciated.

The Festival was truly covered great, and without the help of the newspapers I doubt would be so successful.

Decorate hydrants

Ever get the urge to do something about those red monstrosities that are also necessities — common, everyday fire hydrants?

If you happen to live in Canton Township, you may have a chance to let your creative touch take wing. At the last township board meeting the trustees unanimously agreed to allow the residents of Canton to "paint the fire hydrants as thy feel," with hopes that the Bicentennial celebration of the nation will be reflected in the finished product.

It's a clever idea, and one that has been tried successfully in nearby communities. The Girl Scouts in the City of Northville were given that project earlier this year. Visitors to Farmington will see many "little soldiers" standing along the curb — soldiers who are actually cleverly painted hydrants.

The Canton project has not been strictly organized, and we hope interested "artists" will cooperate with each other. Surely there should be no problem with finding an available hydrant — the DPW in Canton reports that there are some 3,000 to choose from.

This is a real chance for a fun project for clubs, schools and local scout groups to enjoy. There is no contest involved and those who enjoy the finished product.

So have at it, you aspiring artists in Canton. Let your imagination be your guide (along with an eye for the aesthetic). Whether you decide on a stars and stripes theme or a more elaborate Revolutionary soldier, your contribution will remain until the hydrant needs a new coat of paint.

Down on the farm

Fifteen days in DeHoCo for stealing three dinners at the Rotary Club's Fall Festival Chicken Barbecue?

That's the sentence one of two Livonia men received last week in Plymouth's 35th District Court.

They should have known better, Plymouth's Rotarians are a generous lot, and certainly wouldn't have allowed someone who couldn't afford a $3 ticket to go hungry.

But then, Plymouth Police report that the two men were disorderly. They deserved punishment. But rather than spend 15 days in the Detroit House of Corrections for their misconduct, wouldn't it have been more appropriate to assign them 15 days labor on the Rotary Farm.

Plymouth's Rotarians might have welcomed the help, and the sentence couldn't help but be more constructive.

seek $2,000

for beauty

Tonquish Creek Manor's card parties, bake sales and upcoming bazaar Nov. 6 all have one aim in common this year: to raise the final $2,000 needed to finance construction of a complete three-dryer beauty shop in the downtown Plymouth senior citizens' facility.

"It's been in the thought stage for three years and we've been working hard at fundraising for the last five years," said Daisy Proctor, director of senior citizens activities at the manor.

Mrs. Proctor said the manor hopes to purchase the beauty shop equipment -- right now residents have the use of one dryer -- by Jan. 1, 1976.

Some $2,500 has already been raised for the project, with help from the Kiwanis Club of Colonial Plymouth and the Business and Professional Women's Club.

Mrs. Proctor noted that many lady residents of the manor aren't able to leave the building, and an in-house beauty shop would make life more comfortable for them.

The manor's Nov. 6 bazaar is its major fundraising activity of the year, and Tonquish Creek officials hope a successful event will bring the beauty shop closer to reality.

According to Mrs. Proctor, help from the community is also welcome and needed. To donate, make a check care of Tonquish Creek Manor Beauty Shop payable to Daisy Proctor at the manor on Sheridan St.

hopes will study "current problems, hopes and aspirations" in Canton.

Members appointed (with their affiliations) were Walter Fluegge, Royal Holiday Homes Park; R.H. Kirchgatter, Canton Chamber of Commerce; Elizabeth Skorina, Northwest Canton Homeowners; Brian Foust, Plymouth Landing; Paul Garascia, Nottingham Forest; Betty Hamann, Windsor Park; Nancy Bain, Camelot; Milt Moore, Pickwick; Hilda Matzo, Holiday Park; and Waldo (Walt) Schram, Canterbury Mews. Carriage Hills homeowners said their by-laws prohibited an appointment.

Greenstein named as the group's first assignment the study of the fire-protection millage issue recently revived by a group of homeowners. At the last board meeting it was suggested that the CAC be given that duty instead. Betty Hamann, spokesperson for the homeowners, agreed that the CAC would be an appropriate place for the study.

Trustee Jim Poole abstained from voting, because he said he "never saw the list before and don't know half the names."

When Greenstein told Poole he could not abstain, except for financial reasons, according to the rules which govern Michigan Townships; Poole again maintained his abstention.

Greenstein then instructed the clerk to record Poole's vote as a "no." He said Poole could have come to the township offices to read the list of CAC appointees "till the cows come home. If he wanted to, he could have prepared."

Trustee Brian Schwall questioned Greenstein's right to determine how a board members votes. Schwall then moved that legal opinion be sought from the township attorney to determine the legality of abstaining when financial involvement was not present and the legality of the supervisor's telling the clerk how a board member has voted in the case of such an abstention. Clerk John Flodin supported the motion, which passed unanimously.

Homebuyer says price advertising misleading

BY KATHY KUENZER

An attorney for a home buyer in Canton Township last week asked the Board of Trustees what to do about subdivisions in the township where homes are being built at values lower than advertised prices.

Peter Bundarin, attorney for Duane Clark, who recently built a home in the Olde Plymouth 2 Subdivision of the Carriage Hills development, told the board his client has built a $45,000 home in the subdivision, which advertised models "from $42,490." Clark then learned that a home was to be built next to his at a cost of about $35,000.

Bundarin asked the board if there were any way new home buyers could insure that houses in their subdivisions would be built at the higher advertised prices.

Bundarin said the board should "reconsider the present ordinance with regard to minimum square footage" of homes on various lot sizes.

Supervisor Bob Greenstein told Bundarin the developer is protected under the Planned

Unit Development (PUD) agreement he has made with the township. The PUD agreement states that smaller homes may be put on odd-shaped lots, many of which are corner lots.

Clark's home is next to a corner lot.

Greenstein also said he had been contacted by Clark before he sought legal advice from Bundarin, and that Clark was told by Greenstein to speak to the manager of the Republic Development, builders of the subdivision and developers of Carriage Hills.

According to Greenstein, Republic told Clark he could either "have his money back or sign a waiver" with respect to his complaint against the smaller home next to his. "Your client seemed happy with the arrangement offered him," said Greenstein.

"I told Republic that in regard to the sign I'd be happy to this Carriage Hills subdivision he represents said was surprised to have a lower-price home built next to his. (Crier photo) defend a client against them," added Greenstein.

Greenstein said there is a "real constitutional question regarding the minimum square footage of homes" on various lot sizes. "I really don't know how we can deal with it," he said.

Bundarin said his client, since talking with Greenstein about the arrangement with Republic, has directed another letter of complaint to them.

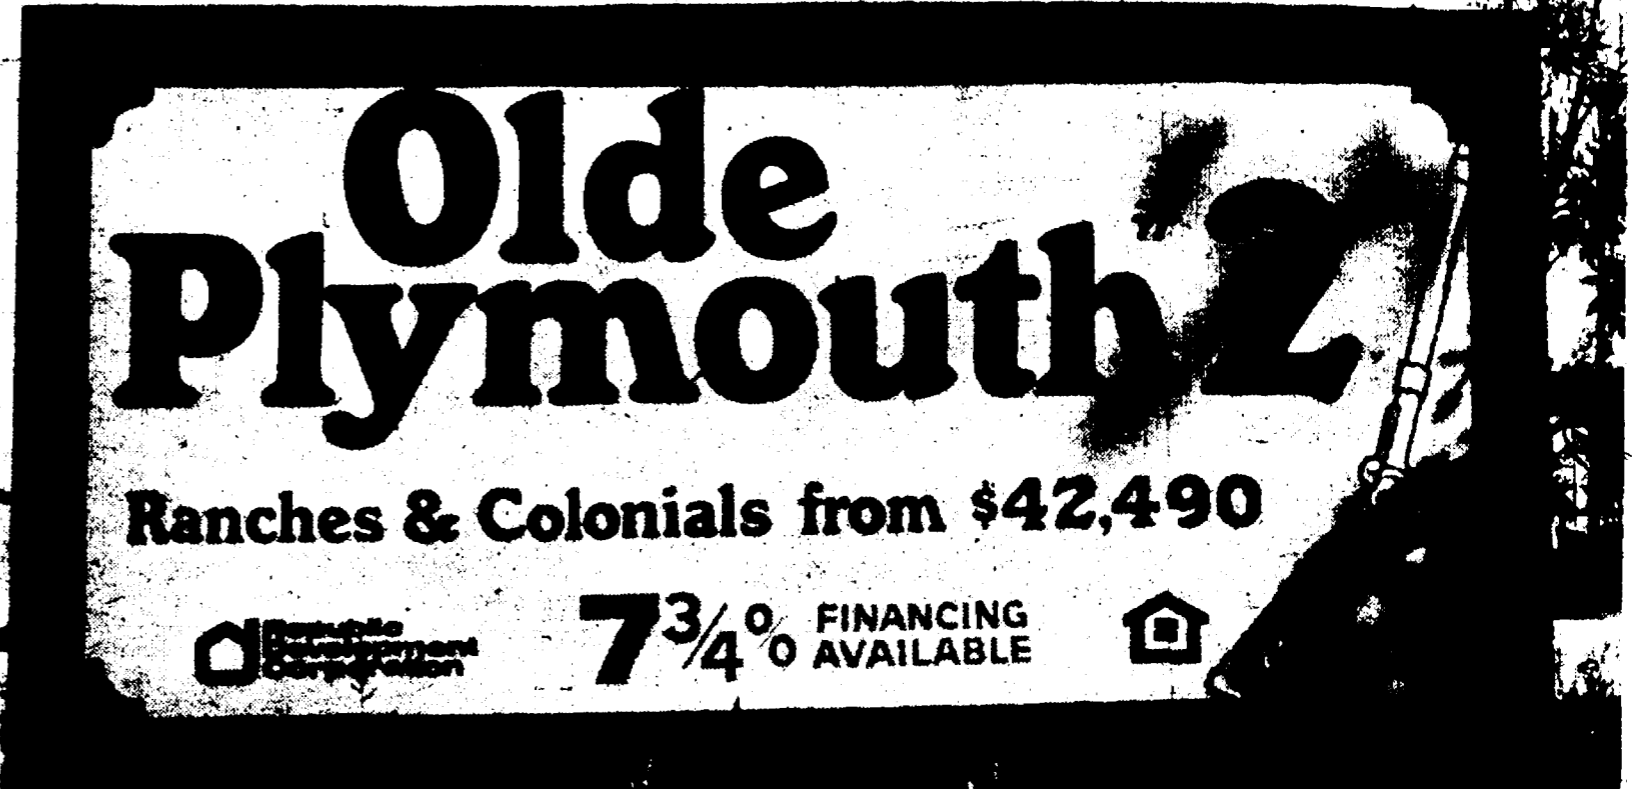

Bundarin also asked if a PUD agreement were amended if a minimum house size could be stipulated. Greenstein assured him that it could.

Greenstein told Bundarin that in a tour he had taken through the Carriage Hills development, "most of the corner lots have smaller homes -- at least $10,000 cheaper -- and they have wood fronts, not brick."

Trustee Bob Myers asked if it would be proper for the board to send a letter to the Office of Consumer Affairs in Lansing concerning the complaint by Clark.

Greenstein said that would be up to Bundarin.

Republic Development was unavailable for comment.

$70,000 approved for lighting Twp. wiring goes underground

The Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last week agreed to spend $70,000 to install underground wiring and 35 street light along its side of newly-widened Ann Arbor Road between Sheldon and Lilley.

By a 4-3 vote, the board accepted the recommendation of its township administrators to install underground wiring instead of above-ground, which would have cost about $17,500. Earlier the board defeated by the same vote a motion by Trustee Gerald Burke to install overhead wires.

Township Supervisor J.D. McLaren, Clerk Helen Richardson, Treasurer Joe West and Trustee Russell Ash supported the underground wiring, while Trustees Burke, Richard Gornick and Frank Millington opposed it, advocating the uses of poles and above-ground wires.

The City of Plymouth side of the street already has poles to which wiring for its street lights will be attached.

The township's $70,000 initial expenditure will come from Federal revenue sharing funds.

The three opponents of the underground wiring claimed the expenditure would not benefit all township residents and would not improve the business corridor's appearance substantially more than overhead wiring.

"If we were talking about a virgin piece of land, I might consider underground lighting," said Trustee Burke.

Gornick agreed. "Ann Arbor Road is not perfect," he said, "And 35 strands of wire aren't going to debilitate it that much more. What we're doing is something for them (Ann Arbor Road merchants) that we don't do for people in subdivisions. I'd rather see the money as a down payment for a swimming pool at the recreation site - something that would benefit all of the township."

"There is a tremendous difference because this is the only major commercial area in the township," Mrs. Richardson replied. "The merchants didn't asked for the road to be widened; almost every merchant has gone right down the line with improvements.

"There's no question in my mind that underground lighting is better."

In recent weeks, most merchants have installed sidewalks and many are landscaping

Grange workers tell Fest success secrets

BY DONNA LOMAS

Hard work and long hours went into making the Plymouth Grange Fall Festival a huge success.

The secret to that success was not only the secret recipes and home cooking the Grange is famous for, but also the hours of hard work put in by several members of the Grange.

"The little people, the ones who are never noticed, did the work," said Ruth Strebbing, chairman of the Grange. "The kitchen crew served a continuous stream of visitors for three days and because of them we served a crowd unsurpassed in size in any other year."

Mrs. Strebbing said "an unusual amount of people" came to sample homemade pea soup, chili, vegetable soup, German potato salad, and hot turkey sandwiches with gravy. "We had little food left to start with Saturday night," Mrs. Strebbing said. "The kitchen crew had to go out and buy more to start off Saturday night and also for Sunday, because the stores are closed then."

Lloyd and Nellie Fillmore, who have been members of the Grange for 25 years, put in eight hour stints Saturday working with the kitchen crew to feed hungry diners. Many in the crew, which included Mr. and Mrs. John Carlson, Bessie Salow, Marcilla Coverdill, and Vera Gunzales, worked all weekend in shifts that lasted nearly 10 hours each. The 12 members sat down only once, the hour between the lunch and dinner rushes. But even that hour was spent preparing more dishes for the evening diners.

"We never dreamed we would serve so many people," said Mrs. Strebbing. "The kitchen crew did an incredible job of organizing everything. Kaye Miller, Iva Shipley, and Esther Jacobs prepared many of the home cooked dishes, cleaned and cooked vegetables, and cleaned

Fest prizes awarded

Several prizes were awarded by area organizations during Plymouth's Fall Festival last week.

Winner of a two-day trip to Toronto for two, given by the Plymouth Community Credit Union, was Stephen Hines of 487 1/2 N. Mill, Plymouth.

Another trip for two to Toronto given by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce was won by Judy Miller of Royal Oak.

The Plymouth Towne 'n Country 4-H Club contest gave away a side of beef to St. Clair Shore's Association of Detroit, a 10-speed bike to Mrs. Paul Cargo, formerly of Plymouth; and a $15 Meijer Thrifty Acres gift certificate to Mrs. Kalavanas of Enerson Dr. in Canton Township.

Henry Toussaint of Northville won two free passes to the Detroit Lions football games in a First National Bank of Plymouth contest.

up afterwards."

"We had many repeat customers Saturday night, especially the hot turkey and gravy sandwiches," Mrs.

Strebbing added. "Without people on the crew like Louise Norgrove, James Henry and Louise Jabara, we never would have had the success we did.

DISPLAYING THE BALLOON from Plymouth's Fall Festival he found in his field near Brantford, Ontario, is Robert Thomson.

Mike's balloon

That must have been some gas the Optimists used in their Fall Festival balloons this year -- just ask Michael Henkel, a first grader at Smith Elementary School.

Mike let his balloon go Sunday at the Fall Festival with his name and address attached on a card.

It was found the next morning near Brantford, Ontario, some 200 miles away, by a 14-year old Robert Thomson, who wrote Mike of his discovery.

Thomson sent along his picture to Mike and was written up in the "Brantford Expositor."

Mike, five, who lives at 265 Maple in Plymouth, has released balloons at the 1974 and 1973 festivals but never has one returned. He was happy to see Thomson respond this time -- it makes great material for "show and tell," Mike said.

Bulldogs bite Canton, 20-6

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

It was a case of the Livonia Bentley Bulldogs capitalizing on every opportunity when the Plymouth-Canton Chiefs couldn't, as the Chiefs Centennial Park opener went to the Livonia visitors 20-6 last Friday night.

The non-league contest marked the first time these two schools have ever faced each other on the gridiron.

Bentley wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as the Bulldog offense drove 70 yards in only five plays on their second possession to record the season's first touchdown. The big play of that drive was a 44-yard quarterback run. The extra point kick went through the uprights and the Bulldogs held a 7-0 lead after the first eight minutes of play.

It seemed as if the Chiefs might come back. They literally owned the ball in the second quarter, running 21 plays to only six for Bentley.

Fumble recoveries by Steve Salyer and Bob Yauck set up two great scoring opportunities for the Chiefs, but they failed to cash in. Canton twice penetrated to the Bulldogs 31 in the second period, but couldn't go any farther, keeping the score 7-0 at the half.

The story was the same for the Chiefs in the third quarter, as another golden opportunity slipped away. Yauck recovered his second fumble of the night on the Bentley 13-yard line. A nine-yard pass play from quarterback Tom Close to tight end Dave Pink moved the ball down to the four, but the drive was stifled right there, as the Bulldog defense held again.

Bentley couldn't move the ball from that deep in its own territory and was forced to punt but Mark Hutton failed to receive the punt fumbling the ball back to Bulldogs on the Chiefs 25-yard line.

The Bulldogs wasted no time capitalizing on the costly error. They threw a pass on the first play from scrimmage for the score.

"That's the play that turned the game around," said head coach Jim Muneio after the loss. "It was a real shame, because we had the play defended. The quarterback did a good job of the way, but I'll give Salem of a day -- Canton by 8."

side when he intended to throw to someone else."

The final Bentley score came toward the end of the quarter, as the Bulldogs took advantage of another Chief mistake, driving only nine yards after blocking a Dave Pink punt. Tom Rudolph blocked the extra point kick, but the score rose to 20-0.

The Chiefs scored their lone touchdown in the final period as Jim Tiller returned a Bentley punt 62 yards for the score. Mike Ogden received the punt, but handed the ball off to Tiller, who flew down the left sideline untouched.

After the game Muneio said, "We are going to age as the season goes on, I thought we could play over our errors, but we didn't."

Canton ran more plays than Bentley, 49-40, but gained only 135 yards to 194 for the Bulldogs. Tom Close completed six of 17 passes for 64 yards, with Pink catching four of the aeriels. Ogden led the rushing for Canton with 36 yards in 11 carries. Tiller gained 32 in seven runs and Steve Hanis ran for 30 yards in five carries before suffering a broken collar bone in the second quarter that may cost him the rest of the season.

Junior John Young and sophomore Jerry Symonds played excellent games at linebacker.

Double losses, first ever

Last week's double loss on the gridiron by the Plymouth-Salem Rocks and the Plymouth-Canton Chiefs marks the first time since the split of the two school's varsity competition two years ago that both teams have lost football games in the same week.

DOC Prognosticates

The home opener for the Plymouth-Salem Rocks is this Friday night at 8 p.m. It also marks the beginning of the Suburban Eight League season, as the Rocks begin defense of their 1974 title against Redford Union.

Costly mistakes at the wrong times cost Redford Union its opener last week against Livonia Stevenson, 16-0.

Plymouth found out quickly it wasn't going to be another undefeated season like last year, falling to Bloomfield Hills Andover, 21-6.

The game should be even most of the way, but I'll give Salem of a day -- Canton by 8."

the advantage because of the home field -- Salem by 2.

The Plymouth-Canton Chiefs have another non-league matchup this Friday, as they travel to Dearborn Heights Annapolis for a 3:30 p.m. contest.

Annapolis, coming off an opening setback to Battle Creek, 32-6 last week, is anxious to come back from the opener.

The Chiefs suffered a 20-6 loss at the hands of Livonia Bentley last Friday, but should be ready for this one if quarterback Tom Close has any kind of a day -- Canton by 8."

Stymied in opener, 21-6

Rocks streak ends

BY DENNIS O'CONNOR

"Part of it was inexperience, part of it was inconsistency, part of it was a lack of hitting and part of it was not very good coaching," said head coach Tom Moshimer after his Plymouth-Salem Rocks lost their opener 21-6 at the hands of Bloomfield Hills Andover before a television audience last Friday night.

The loss was the first for Moshimer since November of 1973 as a 10-game winning streak ended at the Andover field. It also marked the first time in the five years these non-league foes have met that Andover has beaten Plymouth.

The Rocks gave the Barons their first touchdown just before the half. Plymouth drove down inside the Andover 10-yard line when an interception returned all the way back to the Plymouth 15 stopped the drive.

Andover proceeded to score from that point, holding a 7-0 lead at intermission. As Moshimer said, "We lost our poise after that first score."

Andover scored its final 14 points in the third period to open up a 21-0 lead. The lone Plymouth points came in the fourth quarter on a pass from Steve Maisner to Jeff Horton that finished the scoring for the night.

"We beat ourselves more than they beat us, but they came out hitting, outcoached us and deserved to win," he said.

Tigers honor state champions

Winning a state championship gives a squad special recognition and privileges, even if it's three months after the season ends.

Although the high school sports scene has shifted to fall activities, last spring's Plymouth-Salem baseball team still enjoys the riches of its Class A title. One bonus saw the Rocks honored at the Detroit Tiger Baltimore Orioles baseball game last Sunday, along with other championship baseball teams from around the state.

All the Plymouth athletes sat in special reserved seats during the contest.

Wayne Sparkman, coach of the baseball champions, received another bit of recognition for his fine team last week, as a resolution of the state legislature was passed honoring the squads great performance. Part of the resolution reads as follows:

"Whereas, coach Wayne Sparkman recently took his Plymouth-Salem High School baseball team all the way to the 1975 State Class A high school baseball championship; and

"Whereas, it was the Rocks superior pitching which earned the ballclub its State Class A baseball crown. The team's victory culminated what many observers considered to be the most impressive team performance in high school baseball

"Whereas, the spectacular performance of the Plymouth Rocks is most worthy of special recognition. The State Class A Title is well-merited award for the many hours of preparation, dedication and energetic performance demonstrated by this highly skilled and talented athletic team and its outstanding coach;

It was later resolved that all members of the team will receive a glass-enclosed copy of the resolution in the near future.

Talent boosts Rock net hopes

Five years of building a girls tennis team at Plymouth-Salem may pay off this season for coach Janet Lawson, as this years Rocks include a lot of seniors with plenty of experience.

"Barring injuries and depending on the right combination of doubles teams, this can be our year," Lawson said, "We have the talent."

In finishing second last season to Trenton in the Suburban Eight League with an identical finish in the regionals, the Rock compiles a dual meet record of 4-1 in league play and had only two losses overall.

Five seniors were lost from last year's squad -- Beth Redmond (captain and first doubles player), Mary Jane Donovan, Liz Moehle, Pat Cooper and Nancy Kosinski.

The strength of the Rocks this season will depend on returning seniors Cici Warwick and Karen Cook, the first and second singles players of the Rocks last year.

Becky Crespo, an incoming freshman, has boasted hopes for the team. She will compete in the third singles spot.

Laura Hastings heads all the list of seniors competing in doubles action this season. Experienced players include Suzanne Hartnett, Cheryl Kordick, Barb Yockey, Kathy Ulrich and Ann Sulkowski.

Returning juniors expected to see action are Cathy Suddendorf, Lynne Stone, Kathy Kehnam and Nancy Grotz.

Newcomers to the team include senior Stephanie Kulak and Lourne Chatterly and Laurene Kirchoff.

"Eric Hunter Award" for frosh gridders

Before the start of last Friday night's home football opener between Plymouth-Canton and Livonia Bentley, the crowd rose in silence in memory of Eric Hunter.

Hunter, a freshman wrestler and football player, will also be remembered when future most valuable freshman football players will receive the annual "Eric Hunter Award" for their achievements.

The winner of the 1974 Eric Hunter Award was Eric Hunter.

Rock gals start right

The Plymouth-Salem girls tennis team opened the season on the right foot by grabbing non-league victories over Northville and a tough Ann Arbor Huron team last week.

The Northville win on Wednesday was a 5-0 white wash, as Cici Warwick, Karen Cook and Becky Crespo won their singles matches by identical scores of 6-1, 6-0.

The Huron win was a sweet one, as all three doubles teams were victorious in pulling out a 4-3 triumph.

Netters fall

The Plymouth-Canton girls tennis team lost its first match of the season last Tuesday, as Livonia Franklin blanked the Chief netters 5-0.

The lone bright spot of the match was the play of second singles player Mary Riffe. Only a sophomore, she lost a close decision 6-4, 7-6.

Doc's Corner

by Dennis O'Connor

I'm sure both Plymouth-Salem and Plymouth-Canton high school gridders would just as soon forget their 1975 season openers, as both squads took it on the chin last Friday night.

But the thing that disturbed me more than the two losses was a total bush performance by the marching band which played at the Canton-Bentley home opener.

In the fourth quarter of the contest, when the game was clearly out of reach for the Chiefs, part of the pep music section of the marching band sitting in the stands started playing "Mickey Mouse."

I feel that was a very Mickey Mouse thing for the band to do. Here is a so-called Centennial Educational Park Marching Band that is supposed to support both high schools. But their performance in the stands was utterly disgusting to me, and showed how much support Canton really gets under the one-band system.

Here is a band that has traveled to Rose and Orange Bowls and are supposed to have a lot of class. Well, they showed a total lack of class last Friday night.

Seniors lift Chief golf hopes

Experienced seniors make up this year's Plymouth-Canton golf team, as seven of the first eight returning letterwinners have been with the program for the past three years.

"We came on strong late last season," coach John Crosson said.

The Chiefs ended the 1974 year in second place behind only Northville in the Western Six League meet.

The only loss to Canton this season is captain Marty Peck, who is currently trying out for the Central Michigan golf squad.

Leading players this season include seniors Mark Nurmi, Mike Macoha, Lou Denski, John Pearson, Brady Mitchum, Mike Sochaki and Mark Siebert and junior Steve Morman.

Crosson had plenty of praise for his players, saying, "It's not a case of them putting on the clubs for the first time (In August), they have been practicing all summer, and last spring."

Baseball nominations close

Nominations for the brand new 20-person board of the Plymouth Community Junior Baseball League have reached 24.

Tonight is the final night for anyone to join the list and run for a position on the board, as nominations will be closed after the organization meeting starts at 7:30 p.m. in room 128 of Plymouth-Canton High School.

Here is your chance to get involved in the junior baseball program and help make it a better one for all kids in the community.

Baseball experience is not a prerequisite for some board positions.

Candidates filing as of Friday, Sept. 12 include: Nils Korsnes

- Charles Ploughman
- Rick Williams
- Jerry Stevens
- Len Roberts
- Don Champagne
- John Anderson
- Fred Hallway
- Jeanne Goodrich
- Dan Goodrich
- Jack Armstrong
- Marsha Malpas

He also noted with pride his teams' academic achievements.

Northville is always tough in the Western Six League, and Waterford Mott should be strong as well.

"We're not in a favored position, but we will be a strong contender," Crosson said.

Harriers trip at Thurston

The Plymouth-Canton Cross-country team opened its season last Thursday afternoon with a non-league loss to Thurston 20-41.

Brian Bennett was the top Chief runner, coming in second with a time of 17:38. Junior Bill Murphy was sixth at 18:17 and senior Tom Kelly 10th at 18:53.

Mark Zydeck and Alex Smith Samsin finished 11th and 12th respectively.

Rock linksmen drub foe

After finishing third in a five-way meet last Monday (Sept. 8) at Brighton, the Plymouth-Salem golf team proceeded to bury its next two opponents on the following days.

Dearborn High school of the Suburban Eight League won the meet at Brighton with the score of 316. The Rocks, lead by Mike Mullens' 83, wound up at 341. Jackson Luman Christi, Riverside and host Brighton were the other teams competing.

"The course was beautiful, but there was a six-inch rough," coach Bob Water said. "For the first time out it was a good effort."

The first home match of the season was also the initial Sub 8 League match, as the Rocks handles Dearborn Edsel Ford 158-178 on Tuesday. John Beems got Plymouth off on the right foot with an eagle on the first hole at Brea Burn. Beems holed a seven-iron shot from the fairway. Dave Pierce led the Rocks with a round of 38.

RU strides nip Salem

It's hard to be pleased after an opening loss, but that is what the Plymouth-Salem cross country team after its 28-30 setback at the hands of Suburban Eight League for Redford Union in the rain last Thursday at Cass Benton.

Walt White and Scott Kleam finished one, two for the Rocks, with times of 16:40, and 16:42 respectively. Curt Judd, the lone senior on the squad, was fifth, while freshmen Jeff Econom and Bill Kennedy showed promise. Econom was 10th with an 18:46 clocking.

"Redford Union was regional champ, finished third in the league last season and had a strong team again this year," said coach Steve Rea.

Plymouth Schools Minutes

PLYMOUTH COMMUNITY SCHOOL DISTRICT BOARD OF EDUCATION MINUTES

Following is a synopsis of approved minutes of a regular meeting of the Board of Education of Plymouth held on September 1, 1975, at Canton High School. Member Gray was not present. Minutes of the regular meeting of August 25 were approved as corrected.

Citizens Suggestion: Mr. J. Van Dyke expressed concerns of Geer School area parents regarding maintenance of two teachers at the Geer School, rather than reduction to one teacher and second to fifth-graders only being included at the school. A meeting with administration was set for August 26 to discuss the problem with parents and the Board referred to the matter to the Superintendent to resolve. Mr. L. Bennett rose to address the Board on proposed changes in attendance boundaries, and with provision of equality of opportunity at both Canton and Salem High Schools. He specifically asked about the Track program at Canton.

Administration Reports: Conversations with Plymouth Township Attorney were reported regarding Beacon Hills No. 4 Subdivision, with possible landlock of school property occurring in that area. Administration was directed to follow up subject with the Wayne County Road Commission and find out if same criteria and standards would exist for township builders as would apply to the school district in Canton township area.

Old Business: The Board approved the name of Elizabeth Wineland for nomination as a Director from Group 5 for the Michigan Association of School Boards, and of Frank E. Devoe and Willie Murray as Directors at Large. Members McClendon and Borowski were designated as Board delegates to the meeting of the Michigan Association.

A motion to allow student David Agardy to attend the Plymouth-Salem High School due to the fact that his parents had purchased a home in an area in the apparent erroneous view that all their children would be assured attendance there, was defeated unanimously. Attorney Breen representing the Agardy parents again explained the facts in the case, indicating this was not a recruitment problem. The Board expressed apology for delay in the decision. The Board then passed a statement of intent on the attendance policy set for the Centennial Educational Park based on the middle school feeder system.

The Goals of the Board of Education previously discussed were adopted as presented.

Mr. R. Miller from Northwest Canton Homeowners Association spoke to the issue of location of flying site for Flying Pilgrims Club. No members from the Club were in attendance and the resolution made at August 25 meeting was continued in effect until such time as the Club could report back on relocation possibilities.

New Business: Fourteen new contracts were approved for teachers for the 1975-76 school year. The resignation of Kathleen Cepela, Central Middle School, was accepted. Contracts in the amount of $8,193 awarded to Steel Equipment Company for lockers at East Middle school and th Smiley Brothers Company in the amount of $5,959 for a re-conditioned Baldwin grand piano for Canton High School.

Policies: Board By-laws No. 9005, 9007.3, 9011 and 9014.1 were approved, and No. 9009.2 was returned for further revision. The meeting was adjourned at 9:25 p.m.

This is a synopsis. Complete minutes and tape recording of proceedings can be obtained at the Board Central Offices, 454 S. Harvey Street.

Rock, Chief harriers eye winning seasons

Experience — another stepping stone in the building of a cross-country team at Plymouth-Salem, is present this season, as the Rocks gear for an upper division finish in the Suburban Eight League.

The only man Plymouth lost to graduation was Mark DeMerritt. All of last year's starters are ready to go.

Curt Judd is the only returning senior letter winner. Bill Collins, in his first season, is the other senior on the squad.

Walt White, Bob Hess, Jim Feldkamp, Bill Otto and Tom Kindree — are returning juniors. Hess is the only sore spot in the team. He suffered a broken ankle last month.

Good-looking sophomore runners include Scott Kleam — one of the top freshmen in the state last season, Brad Gigliotti, Andy Fishwich, Frank Gabbert, and Dan Lyberger. Two freshmen who look like strong runners are Bill Kennedy and Jeff Econom.

"We didn't win a league dual meet last year, but we came on strong at the end," said coach Steve Rea.

Despite being shutout, the Rocks did show the necessary improvement of any young team last season, as they finished sixth in the Suburban Eight League meet and ninth among 18 teams in regional competition.

"All the returners look strong and their teams are good," Rea said.

It will be a young and rebuilding cross-country team at Plymouth-Canton High School this season, as only two Chief starters return.

Co-captain Brian Bennett and Tom Kelly head the list of runners, along with junior letterman Bob Richardson who saw only limited action last year.

Bennett qualified for the state meet in his two previous seasons on the Chiefs squad, finishing strong in the regionals.

Canton lost five seniors to graduation from the last squad that finished fourth in the Western Six League. Mike Potter, Mike Guzman, Steve Sally, Marko Chisnell and Greg Krug all graduated.

Newcomers are counting on juniors Bill Murphy, Mark Zydeck, Ken and Al Krug.

The Chiefs will compete in the Class A regionals for the first time this season, and will get a tough welcome from the good teams in western Wayne County. The two previous seasons said Canton run in the Class B regional.

According to coach Brian Schwall, Livonia Churchill is the team to beat in the Western Six.

Golfers sans Roth gear for title bid

The Plymouth-Salem golf team comes off two of the most successful back-to-back seasons ever in the history of a sport at the high school.

After winning the Class A state championship on 1973, the Ricks rebounded with their second consecutive league and regional titles and an impressive 11th place finish in state competition last season.

Fireman collect

Plymouth Township Firefighters and volunteer firemen collected contributions totalling $2075.68 in their 1975 drive to combat Muscular Dystrophy.

Drive chairman, Larry Groth appeared on the campaign's Labor Day Telethon to present the check to muscular dystrophy officials.

Plus seeks pre-school children

Youngsters who will be four years old on or before Dec. 1 and who live in the Starkweather, Isbister or Central school attendance areas may be eligible for a special pre-school learning program.

The staff of the PLUS (Pupils Learning Useful Skills) program is gearing up for another year of work with pre-school four-year-olds who can profit from early exposure to readiness skills.

Mary Fritz, project director for the Federally-funded program, says her staff is anxious to locate every eligible child and inform his or her family of the opportunities for placement in PLUS.

PLUS aims at strengthening a youngsters cognitive skills—language, auditory, comprehension and motor — and affective skills — emotional, self-care, self-concept, social — through weekly classes, either at Farrand School or in a neighborhood home.

A special feature of the program is that a parent (usually mother) and the child attend ses-

But despite all its success, Plymouth still has five returning lettermen, two of whom were part of the top foursome last season.

The biggest loss for the 1975 Rocks is graduated all-state Jeff Roth, who led the Plymouth teams for three years. Chuck Thomas is the other golfer lost to graduation.

Returning letter winners include senior Dave Pierce, John Beems, Randy Lorenz and Dan Hafly and junior Mike Mellen.

A youth movement this season is led by surprise player Ted Kuhns, a sophomore and freshmen Jim Rodgers and Craig Stevens.

Coach Bob Waters' program has boomed over the years. More than 50 golfers showed up for tryouts last month at Plymouth's home course, Brae Burn.

sions together. While the child is busy with class and teacher, the parent is learning skills to be used at home to help the child.

Last year's PLUS program included 124 parent-child combinations, 64 of whom attended sessions at Farrand, and 60 of whom attended three classes a month in a home and one class a month at Farrand.

Mrs. Fritz says results of the post-teaching done at the end of last year's programs showed a definite improvement in the skills developed by the children.

PLUS is offered entirely free to those families participating. Transportation to the schools is included.

For further information about being included in the survey of all four-year-olds in the Starkweather, Isbister and Central areas, call one of the three school offices or contact Mrs. Fritz at 453-0260.

Registrants will be notified by phone or letter of orientation to be held at Farrand School for both parents and children.

their properties. She attacked arguments that the township with its lower tax rate, should not be expected to install more expensive lighting on its side of the street than the city is on the north side.

"It doesn't mean we have to put aboveground lighting just because the city does," she said.

The $8,505 annual cost of the lighting would be budgeted in the township's general fund. The 1975-76 budget allocates $7,200 for lighting, and would have to be more than doubled to absorb bills for the 35 new sodium lights planned.

Cubs sweep to 2nd 'C' crown

Winning tee-ball (C League) championships seems to have become a habit with the Cubs, as they roared to their second straight title this summer.

The Cubs lost only one game during their last two regular seasons. This season, the seven and eight year olds, lost their initial game to the Braves, but were never defeated again. They finished the regular season in the National League tied with the Braves, but beat them in a playoff game. The Cubs then topped the American champion Athletics to win the title.

According to managers Kerry Nelson and Mike Weidman, the key to the success of the Cubs this year was their excellent hitting.

"Even when we were down, the hitting never stopped," one said. "We always got the hits when we needed them."

Leading hitters were Mike McKinney, Scott Schubert, Jeff Kralick and Eric Gray.

Nelson added that a strong defensive infield also boosted the team's fortunes. Leading ~~gloves~~ were Tom Trulard, Kralick, Bob Tellier, Gray and Jim Weidman.

Yee trips in nationals

Dale Yee of the Plymouth men's modified softball league competed and won the ASA state tournament last week in Redford.

Yee played in the nationals in Port Huron, where they won their first game but got knocked out in the next two contests.

Due to continual rain last week, the state tourney was shortened to a single elimination event between the ten competing teams.

Yee won the championship with three consecutive Wednesday night wins over Livonia teams.

Roman Chariot, the first opponent, fell behind 4-0 in the opening inning, going into the last stanza, and finally bowed to Yee 10-8. Jim Lawson hit a homerun in the contest and Steve Williams, Jim Outlaw, Rich Rettig and manager Dick Colomina chipped in with two hits each.

St. Michaels was no match for Yee in the second game, falling 10-4. Gary Gray hit a homer in that one.

The championship game against St. Geneve's saw Yee jump into an early 4-0 lead in the first and eventually win 7-5. The big hit in the opening stanza was a bases-loaded three-run triple by Lawson. Bob Duman led Yee's hitting attack with three safeties. Tom Lock was the winning pitcher.

Yee traveled to Port Huron Friday for the weekend tourney that hosted 25 teams from all over the nation.

Yee beat its first opponent Village Tavern from Spokane, Wash., 15-6. Tavern scored three runs to start the first, but Yee came right back with 10 runs in the bottom half of the inning to put the game away.
