Millage hike needed, schools predict

BY CHAS CHILD

To maintain present programs next year, the Plymouth-Canton School District will probably need "a mill or more," than presently levied, school officials estimate.

Superintendent Mike Hoben also said he will probably recommend that the Board of Education ask the voters for a bond issue to construct two or three elementary schools.

The schools will be about $600,000 short without additional mills, Hoben has figured in preparations for the upcoming millage election in the spring.

About 900 new students expected next year are the main reason for the deficit. The schools' projection committee estimate about 1,400 new pupils next year, but Assistant Superintendent Ray Hoedel said he is preparing next year's budget on the more conservative 900 figure.

Other factors which have raised expenses, Hoedel said, are: 1) a 30 per cent jump in utility costs; 2) the textbooks, shop materials, etc., and 3) replace equipment like typewriters and ditto machines.

Both Hoben and Hoedel emphasized that these figures are still preliminary and even when final will result in recommendations to the school board.

The board will make the final decision on how many operating mills and how much construction they ask the voters to approve. Three mills expire this year.

With the operating millage and bonds for new construction, voters may also be asked to approve a major renovation bond issue to repair many school buildings in the district.

Hoedel said the renovation bond issue may be similar to the 6.6 million proposal the voters turned down in June.

When these three requests for money goes before the voters is another decision the board must make in the next two months.

There are two possible election dates: One day in the week of April 24 through 29; and June 12. One day in the April week has been set for a special election and June 12 is the date of the annual school election.

One or more of the three possible requests could be scheduled on either of the two dates.

Explaining the need for the new elementary schools, Hoben said many indications point to increased growth in the next few years, including the opening of M-14 and I-96 freeways.

ESY (Extended School Year) is a good temporary way to handle the growth, but it will reach its saturation point, Hoben said.

Sunflower subdivision in Canton Township needs a new elementary school the most, followed by the growing area in Canton south of Ford Road, east of Canton Center Road, according to Hoben.

Unlike the $29 million bond proposal for new construction that was turned down by voters in June, the administration will recommend only a limited $5-7.5 million issue to build the two or three elementary schools, said Hoedel.

Revised height-setting footnote clears first 2 city hurdles

BY HANK MEIJER

A new, streamlined version of controversial Footnote 0, the clause in the City of Plymouth's Zoning Code which permits tall buildings in the Central Business District, appears headed for approval.

The original version of the footnote, which had been omitted in succeeding printings of the city zoning book, was declared invalid by City Attorney Chuck Lowe in an opinion issued last month. The footnote had been challenged by opponents of the proposed nine-story Dartmoor condominium complex slated to be built on a downtown parcel on Wing Street between Forest and Harvey.

That version, like the new one, said building heights could not exceed 1.5 times the sum of the abutting street right-of-way width, plus the distance that point sets back from the right-of-way. That restriction still allows buildings as high as Dartmoor within the Central Business District, which the new version defines for the first time as that area encircled by Wing, Harvey, Church, Union and Deer streets. Outside those limits, heights are limited to a maximum of 35 feet.

The new version, written by Lowe in consultation with city planners, was approved last week by the city's planning commission with only newly-appointed Commissioner Clay Fechter dissenting.

Lone dissenter Monday night, when the planning commission's recommendation came to the city commission, was Commissioner Bev McAninch, who, like Fechter, said the new definition of the Central Business District may have expanded it beyond what had originally existed.

The city commission approved the first reading of the ordinance by a 5-1 vote and scheduled a public hearing on the new footnote for Jan. 16 at 7:30 p.m. in the commission chamber in City Hall.

Canton gets grant to buy golf course

BY DONNA LOMAS

The Canton Board of Trustees was expected to discuss Tuesday the purchase of a golf course for the township after learning of a $200,000 grant from the U. S. Bureau of Outdoor Recreation to be applied towards the estimated $1 million purchase price of the 18-hole course.

Should the township trustees decide to vote against acquiring the Fellows Creek Golf Course on South Lotz road, the grant monies will be revoked.

The golf course has been recently appraised for $1,200,000 by the Edward J. McDonnell Company. A Canton consulting firm said the golf course could expect to net a "cash income of $85,000 to $105,000 annually from owning the Fellows Creek course."

Township officials may hire an independent managing firm to run the golf course rather than township recreation employees.

Supervisor Harold Stein has said the 18-hole course was a "good investment for the township and a way of preserving open space." He said the City of Farmington Hills had recently made an offer to purchase a golf course for $1.1 million as a means of increasing municipal revenue and also providing recreation to residents.

Citing Livonia municipal golf courses as another example, Stein said "they have never had a losing year."

Hunt goes on for killer of local man

BY DONNA LOMAS

A 26-year old local man who had been missing for several days was found shot to death Thursday afternoon in a snowbank on the grounds of the Plymouth Seventh Day Adventist Church on Napier Road in Superior Township.

David L. Cischke, 26, was found 200 yards from his home on the grounds in a snowy ravine by a Washtenaw County Sheriff search party and two tracking dogs. Sheriff's detectives said Cischke died from gunshot wounds.

Det. Charles Anderson of the Washtenaw County Detectives Bureau admitted authorities did not know where or when Cischke was shot.

"We received a report of a suspicious incident on the church grounds Dec. 9 and took it up," said Anderson. "The minister and a deacon there said there was something suspicious - holes in the door."

Anderson said there were gunshots blasted through the door of Cischke's yellow cinder-block home.

Anderson said there were gunshots blasted through the door of Cischke's yellow cinder-block home.

Sheriff's deputies failed to find Cischke following the report of the "suspicious" incident, Anderson said. A snowstorm that Friday afternoon and a freezing cold spell hampered further search efforts. Anderson said that when he was found, the Air Force veteran's body was snow covered and partially frozen.

Anderson refused comment on whether the shooting was drug-related.

He said there were no suspects in the case, but that several people were being questioned.

Cischke had been a part-time caretaker for the local Seventh Day Adventist Church for two years. He also worked for Garden City Auto Parts on Middlebelt Road.

The Rev. Robert Wiese, pastor of the church, said

Cischke was a member of the Seventh Day Adventist Church.

"He was a friendly, well-liked person," said The Rev. Wiese, who said he knew Cischke for about five years. "He liked the outdoors and camped a lot. He worked with the Pathfinders in Boy Scouts."

The Rev. Wiese said the 1970 graduate of the Adelphian Academy in Holly knew "quite a few people and had frequent guests. I think his only big problem was his recent separation from his wife."

"He was a dependable employe and good at his work," said the manager of Garden City Auto Parts. "He liked doing woodwork and had many friends."

Cischke is survived by his wife, Barbara of Plymouth; grandmother, Mrs. Stella Kenzorski of Detroit; parents, Wilbert and Audrey Cischke of Redford; brothers William, Donald and Paul of Redford, Robert of Livonia, James of Plymouth; sisters, Mrs. Vickie Watt of Eaton Rapids, Mrs. Diane Dowell of DeWitt, Mrs. Yvonne Brion of Allen Park; and a son, Jason.

Funeral services were held Monday at Ross Northrop and Sons Funeral Home in Northville. Burial was in Oakland Hills Cemetery.

Hearing tonight on zoning for Northville Rd. complex

A large turnout is expected at Plymouth Township Hall tonight for a public hearing on the rezoning of portions of a 15-acre site on Northville Road across from the Plymouth Hilton to permit construction of a shopping center, restaurant and apartment complex.

The developer, former Thunderbird Inn owner Art Kobierzynski has asked that property along Northville Road between Clemons and Hammill currently zoned residential be rezoned C-1 commercial. He plans to build a restaurant and lounge, a branch financial institution, a 24-hour restaurant and a small shopping center with grocery, hardware and perhaps 10 other stores on that commercial frontage, although township officials said portions of the complex would require C-2 zoning, for which Kobierzynski has not yet applied.

Part of the rear portion of the site, where the developer has proposed construction of six apartment buildings with a total of 204 units, is already zoned multiple residential, but a part that adjoins the subdivision to the rear is zoned single-family residential. Kobierzynski has asked that it be rezoned for the multiple housing.

The apartments have been proposed as two to five-story buildings, but a five-story, which falls into the township's mid-rise zoning classification, is currently permitted only on property adjacent to expressways. The proposed site is about a block and a half south of the new M-14 expressway.

The public hearing is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. in Township Hall, Ann Arbor Road at Lilley.

East gets roof repair

About $241,000 left over from the 1974 bond issue, will be used to repair East Middle School's roof, the Board of Education decided at a workshop Monday.

The cost of the roof repairs is estimated at about $200,000, but when the work can be done is uncertain. The original projects funded by the 1974 issue must be settled first before the roof repairs can be approved, Superintendent Mike Hoben said. It might be another year before the roof repairs can begin, he said.

The second priority for the leftover funds, the board decided, will be to air condition three schools now on the Extended School Year (ESY) program: Gallimore and Isbister elementary schools and Pioneer Middle School.

Treasurer Steven Harper said that the air conditioning will be done before this summer through the general fund, however. He said the leftover funds will be used to pay the general fund back.

Screen urged for overpass

The safety committee of the Plymouth-Canton School District is urging the State Highway department to put screening on a pedestrian overpass to be constructed near Robinwood Street over M-14.

Charlotte Petro, chairman of the safety committee said the highway department's original proposal did not include the screen. She said a meeting with department officials will be held in January to discuss the screening.

"We are still in the talking stages," she said.

Children affected by the safety feature on the overpass will be those who walk to Farrand Elementary School, and those who will use it to get to bus stops to go to the high schools and Central Middle School.

Injured kids recuperate

Jennifer and Jeffrey Shrewsbury, two Plymouth Township children who survived a plane crash in the Great Smoky Mountains in Tennessee nearly three weeks ago, have been moved to the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor.

A spokesperson for the University of Tennessee hospital said the Shrewsbury children had been released last Saturday.

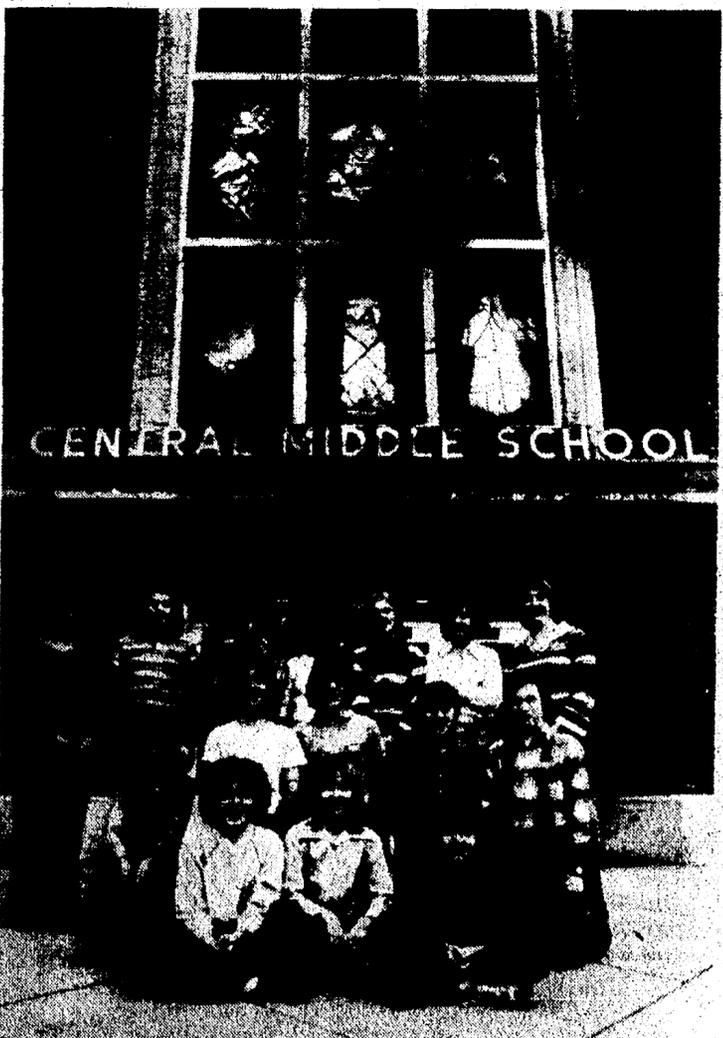

University of Michigan Hospital officials say Jennifer, 8, and Jeff, 10 who attend Isbister School in Plymouth Township, are in "fair" condition.

Twp. business decided over officials' lunch?

BY HANK MEIJER

When is an action an action? That question split the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees last week when trustees were called upon to pay the $24 cost of a recent luncheon meeting between four township officials and Wayne County Commissioner Royce Smith, whose district includes the Plymouth-Canton area.

While eating lunch Nov. 23 at the Round Table Club, Smith, who is seeking a newly-created post as head of the county DPW department, suggested the township could save thousands of dollars in financing its massive Byron-Sly-Tonquish Sanitary Sewer Project if the project were handled by the county DPW rather than by the county Road Commission.

To do that, however, the township officials said Smith told them, it might be necessary to finance the project under a different state bonding act than that approved by the township board last spring.

Under the bonding act which the township had been pursuing, Act 342, township residents could petition for a referendum to determine whether bonds should be issued to finance the project. But until recently, an Act 342 project fell under jurisdiction of the road commission. For the county DPW, which Smith hopes to head, to get the job, however, the project might have to be financed under Act 185, which allows no referendum.

Changes in state law may enable the township to finance the project under Act 342 and still work with the DPW, but no one seems to know for sure.

At the lunch, Smith apparently suggested to those present that the township ask the county to postpone final approval of the township's bonding proposal until a change could be made to Act 185.

Present at the lunch were Supervisor Tom Notebaert, Clerk Helen Richardson, Treasurer Joe West and Trustee Frank Millington. The officials acknowledged that Smith was seeking support for his appointment to the DPW post, but said they - as a majority of the township board - took no action as a result of their meeting with Smith.

Other township trustees disagreed.

Trustee Lee Fidge and Richard Gornick voted 'no' at the board's regular meeting last Tuesday when the board voted routinely to approve its bills.

Mrs. Fidge said that if no township business was transacted at the meeting, then the township should not have to pay for the officials' lunch. If business was transacted, however, justifying township payment of the tab, then why, she asked, were other township board members and residents not invited to the luncheon?

The day the four ate lunch, Notebaert also wrote the chairman of the Public Works Committee of the county Board of Commissioners to ask that no action be taken until after the township board's Dec. 27 meeting on the township's request for approval of the bonding project under Act 342.

Notebaert, who said the letter to the county was not a consequence of the meeting with Smith, said the request that the county not place the decision on its current agenda did not constitute an action requiring approval of the Township Board of Trustees.

At last Tuesday's meeting, Clerk Helen Richardson agreed. "There was no action taken," she said. Added Trustee Frank Millington, however, in defending the township expenditure for the lunch tab, "We did transact the business of the township, and we hope to save the township a lot of money" (by bringing the project under the control of the DPW rather than the road commission).

Countered Trustee Dick Gornick, "If you're going to be

Schools shouldn't cry 'wolf' at next bond try

The high marks the Extended School Year (ESY) program recently received from students, teachers and parents of Miller School should serve notice to the Board of Education that the need for new schools must be very clear before it asks the voters for money to build them.

ESY is not perfect. Teachers have complained of the extra time required to make it work, and the bugs in the complicated transportation system may never be completely ironed out.

Also, the vacation periods on some tracks are more desirable than others and it's sometimes difficult to hire baby-sitters for a three-week vacation while high school students are still in school.

Despite these problems, ESY passed the most crucial test: student achievement test results were high and the kids kept pace as they advanced grades.

The school board, then, should not hesitate to use ESY to handle the district's growth, especially at the elementary school level. The program does not work as well in the middle schools, because they have electives and many more extra-curricular activities which are easily disrupted by the four tracks coming and going.

When the board asks the voters for a new building bond issue - probably this spring - it should prove that existing schools won't be able to handle the students.

Since 1968, growth projections have overestimated the number of students coming into Plymouth and Canton. This led many voters to suspect that the board cried "wolf" when it asked the voters for the huge bond issue last spring.

We all know what happens to the boy who cries "wolf." He's eventually ignored.

This time around, let's be convinced new buildings are the only way to accommodate growth.

Thank you, Coach Moshimer, for fine job with Salem team

EDITOR:

At this time, we as parents of a senior football player at Salem High School wish to publicly thank Coach Tom Moshimer, head football coach and his assistants, Mr. Balconi, Mr. Sparkman, Mr. Krueger, and Mr. Barr for their excellent coaching and guidance administered to our son during his high school years.

Our son has excelled and achieved very high honors under the direction of Coach Moshimer. We are very proud of him and the entire football team. We feel fortunate our son had the opportunity to play, learn, and gain the valuable experience he has received being a part of Coach Moshimer's team.

The close unity of the fine young men on the team this year can only be obtained by proper coaching and guidance. They all received this from Coach Moshimer.

The individual awards were higher than any other high school team. Individual awards are too numerous to name in this letter. The team won the Suburban Eight Championship with nine wins and no losses. Coach Moshimer proudly earned the Coach of The Year Award

We wholeheartedly support these selections. Our wish is that the Freshmen, Sophomores, and Juniors at Salem continue to have the same opportunity our son had of being coached by Coach Moshimer.

Again a public and a personal Thank You to Coach Moshimer and his staff. We feel a sadness at this time and also an eagerness as our sons' future is being decided.

We will always remember this coaching staff and we will respect our son's decisions knowing he had proper guidance and training while maturing during his high school years.

Students- don't waste tax dollars

EDITOR:

We are supposed to watch our energy and costs of the fuel etc. Well here is a scoop for you:

Last Tuesday, I picked up my daughter from the Phase III building of Canton High School. While waiting in the parking lot of the school I watched two boys open the door and literally throw snowballs into the building and then leave the door open. The door stayed open for more than a half hour (I timed it) with people going in and out and not one of them closed the door. I finally got out of my car and went and closed the door myself because I couldn't stand the money being wasted.

Seems to me there should be a way for students to be told about these things - it is my tax money that is being used in such wasteful ways.

Thanks for listening - incidentally your paper is great!! Really gets more news for our community than the other one.

A CONCERNED PARENT

There are too many Canton liquor licenses

EDITOR:

I would like to express myself as to a matter that concerns all of us in the Canton Community.

As a Canton resident, I am exceedingly displeased that the Township, as well as the State, has allowed family-type restaurants such as Cyprus Gardens and Ming's in the Harvard Shopping Plaza to receive liquor licenses.

Living in the subdivision behind the center, my children often shop in the center. My children also have gone into these restaurants for a "burger and fries". However, neither they nor my wife and I shall frequent these stores any more.

We have enough places that already serve liquor in the township and I personally feel that a shopping center is not the place to serve alcoholic beverages.

I keep hearing of how the government and businesses are trying to upgrade the township. Is this the first step toward that end? If it is, then, I think they should stop trying so hard!!

Please don't misunderstand me. I enjoy social drinking as much as the next person, but I feel that with other restaurants, such as the Rusty Nail and the Roman Forum, already serving, isn't that enough?

I fully realize that one voice will not be heard, but I would like to ask both owners of these restaurants: Your food and atmosphere are excellent, so why do you have to serve liquor? Is it because you can't make enough money without having to sell liquor, too? I don't feel this is the case because I and the family are often seen eating at both places and I recommend them both to family and friends. However, now I will not.

I hope that this will be printed and maybe, just maybe, somebody else will feel the way I do and will also write and maybe somebody will listen.

I wish to remain anonymous since I live and work in Canton and don't wish to "shake any trees".

Center to face lawsuit?

Following the approval of "The Center" by the Canton Board of Trustees last week and the signing of an agreement between the Wayne County Road Commission and developers of The Center to pave 950 feet of Haggerty Road, the developers will likely be faced with a lawsuit brought against them by residents of nearby Bedford Villas subdivision.

David Perry, is an attorney representing homeowners in Bedford Villas. Perry said the lawsuit would consist of whether the Canton Zoning Board of Appeals had the right to grant variance on special use; the "defects" of the ZBA in the procedures used to grant such variance; and whether or not the ZBA was a valid board when

The Center was granted approval. Perry said he was representing a "few property owners" in Bedford Villas now, but that several more were interested. He would not give the names or a specific number of persons involved in the impending lawsuit because of "several threats, bribes and harass-

IN THE LATE '20s, many children went to see Santa Claus at the local department store and had their picture taken with Santa and his sleigh. (Note the stuffed reindeer.)

Wayne E. Rockwell, 54, of Warren Road in Canton was about five years old when this picture was taken. He was dressed in the cap and coat that was the style of those days.

Edgars film nature, swim with sea lions

WILLIAM AND EVELYN EDGAR

BY PHYLLIS REDFERN

Traveling for Evelyn and William Edgar has become not just a fun vacation but an educational experience in dealing with nature.

The Edgars have put together a series of nature logues. Bill Edgar said "we call them nature logues instead of travel logues, because they are filmed in the eyes of nature - our pictures are oriented towards animal, birds and scenery."

A retired research engineer from Ford Motor Company, Mr. Edgar now teaches part time at Henry Ford Community College. Evelyn Edgar is a former English teacher at Salem High School. In her last year of teaching she also taught a class in photojournalism.

As their two daughters were growing up, the Edgars camped in every state park in Michigan. Both were interested in working with scouting programs. Mrs. Edgar was an outdoor trainer and head of the camping committee for the Huron-Valley Girl Scouts.

Once their daughters were through with school, they decided to expand their travels to other states.

When they started traveling around the country more than 10 years ago, one of the first places they headed for was Bowdoin Spring, a wild life refuge in Montana.

One of their lecture series entitled "Beyond The Rockies" goes from Glacier National Park to Mt. Ranier. They made two trips to Mt. Ranier National Park, one in early spring when there was a lot of snow and one in July when most of the snow had melted.

"We took pictures of the same places both times we were there and they look like two completely different places" recalled Mr. Edgar.

They have films of Olympic National Forest in northwestern Washington. From there they went down the Pacific coast to the Crater Lake region which is known for its geological history.

Theater Guild to host Masterful marionettes

The Plymouth Theatre Guild will sponsor for one performance only a marionette play based on a Russian folk tale Dec. 29.

Theatre West Virginia's production of "The Firebird" will be performed Dec. 29 at 11 a.m. at The Cultural Center on Farmer Street for one performance only. Admission is $1.

Raymonds Masters, a resident of Plymouth, adapted the play from Russian folk tales. He will be a puppeteer in the marionette show along with Donald Watkins, also a Plymouth resident. Both are members of the Plymouth Theatre Guild.

Masters designed the marionettes, stage, scenery and props. He has worked with The Meredith Marionettes, a professional marionette company directed by Meredith Bixby in Saline.

Watkins, a cum laude graduate from Oliver College, has worked in college and professional theatre. He has also worked as a professional puppeteer with the Meredith Marionettes.

The play is a 50-minute six-scene children's allegory of self-discovery.

The 27 marionette bodies are hand-carved of wood and modern materials, such as polyurethane and aluminum.

The costumes and props were all custom-made specifically for the production of "The Firebird", said a Theatre Guild spokesperson.

Theatre West Virginia is a professional marionette company and has produced the outdoor musicals "Honey in the Rock" and "The Hatfields and the McCoys."

BY PHYLLIS REDFERN
Educational aides have been part of the Plymouth-Canton School District since 1967. Although many of the aides do not work directly with students, they all contribute to the education of our children.

Educational aides are sometimes confused with volunteer mothers working at the schools. Volunteer mothers are just what their name implies - mothers volunteering their time to help with certain classes or projects at school. Educational aides, however are hired by the school board. According to Florence Beier, public relations person at the school, "the number of aides for each school is based on the number of students". Beier also said that the aide's jobs vary from school to school because "each school is different and has different needs."

In September 1976 the Plymouth Education Aides Association (PEAA) was formed. Carol Mills, president of PEAA said there are many types of aides working in the schools. They work in playgrounds, lunch

B & E suspect nabbed Annie Brown lauded for handling of 911 call

City Police Dispatcher Annie Brown received a commendation from City Police Chief Tim Ford for her quick handling of a 911 emergency call she took from a Northville Township woman recently.

"She handled the entire situation extremely well," said Chief Ford. "It was an excellent example of how the 911 system should work."

Northville Township Police Chief Ron Nisun also praised Mrs. Brown for her efforts.

"Annie did an excellent job of relaying the necessary information right away," said Chief Nisun. "She also kept the line open, which is critical in obtaining information about the situation."

Nisun said the woman had a Plymouth exchange and dialed 911 when she heard a man breaking and entering into her home.

Mrs. Brown took the information and relayed it back to the Northville Township Police and two police cars responded -- one immediately, said Nisun.

"One car was only two blocks away," said Nisun. "The other car took a little more time because it was farther away and hampered by the snow."

Nisun said one man was apprehended inside the house and another who was waiting outside in a car, was also apprehended.

The woman apparently knew the man, Nisun said, but she refused to let him in. She became frightened when he broke into the house and then dialed the emergency number, he said.

Nisun said the man was charged with unlawful entry.

Schools ponder reading programs

BY CHAS CHILD

The Board of Education decided Monday to bolster the reading program in the Plymouth-Canton district's middle schools.

In a wide-ranging discussion of the reading programs at Pioneer, East, West and Central Middle schools, the administration told the board that emphasis will be put on improving teachers' ability to teach reading, selecting good textbooks, establishing standardized tests for the whole district and increasing communication between reading teachers.

Trustee Joe Gray asked for the workshop session because many students at Canton and Instead of exchanging gifts among themselves, the Brownies decided to share their holiday spirit with others. They provided a pair of mittens for each of their guests. The mittens were decoratively wrapped and distributed by Santa Claus.

The Brownies, with the help of their leaders Pat Graney and Sue Eix, served Christmas cookies and punch to their guests. They were assisted by their sister troop, Junior troop 216 of the Allen Cluster.

"Las Luminarias" (Vigil candles embedded in sand and placed in paper bags) have become a Christmas Eve tradition in many area churches. They are placed along sidewalks and drives symbolizing the welcome of the Holy Family and the Christ Child. The tradition dates back to the 16th century.

Members of Divine Saviour Parish in Canton sold 1100 luminarias kits this year in hopes of getting the custom started in individual homes. According to Janet Slade each kit contained seven candles "so we should have at least 7700 candles glowing in the Plymouth-Canton area this year."

Canton Planning Commission member Adolphus 'Gus' Matzo has resigned his membership short of his three-year term expiring.

Matzo, in a letter to Canton Supervisor Harold Stein Dec. 2 said his resignation was effective that date. His term would have expired Dec. 31.

"Basic philosophical differences in planning concepts between myself and other Commissioners and the Board of Trustees have become obvious during the past several months," he said in the letter. Matzo said he had "no desire to be associated with these concepts, as recently applied, and no doubt applied in future decisions."

The former Planning Commissioner acknowledged Planning Commission Chairman Bob Padgett's "professional and excellent carriage of duty as always outstanding."

Appointed to replace Matzo is Robert Shefferly of Hanford Street in Canton. Shefferly had resigned in 1973 when Supervisor Bob Greenstein took office, at Greenstein's request, he said.

Shefferly, administrative assistant to the National Advertising person at The Detroit News, said he was "honored" at being appointed.

"Once I get oriented to being on the Commission, I will dedicate myself to seeing Canton become a self-sustaining community," said Shefferly.

"We must concern ourselves with the energy problem -- no one has really accepted it, I like living in Canton," he added, "But we haven't been too realistic -- we must have business and industry to help us live here. I don't want to see it buried in quick-food places, but we should take each project one at a time and recognize our limitations."

ROBERT SHEFFERLY

Wade, Trim fees raised

The planning and engineering service of Wade, Trim and Associates to Canton Township has received a pay raise from the Canton Board of Trustees.

By a unanimous vote, the township board decided to raise the firm's fee of $650 per month to $1,150 per month.

The firm had not received a raise from the township for seven years. Wade and Trim officials said the fee was "left unchanged for too long" and they decided to ask the township to raise the pay.

For the monthly fee, Canton will receive George Peek, a professional community planner. He will attend two planning commission meetings, one township board meeting and six half-day sessions with township hall administrators.

Fund sets meeting

The annual meeting of the Plymouth Community Fund will be held Tuesday, Jan. 17 at Plymouth Township Hall at 8 p.m.

This year, the PCF exceeded their $250,000 by some $2,000 - or reached 101 per cent of their goal.

General Chairmanship for the 1978 PCF drive was passed from Dan LeBlond to Jim Boyce, the 1977 co-chairman.

School officials ask Sen. Faust for help

Officials of the Plymouth-Canton School District met Friday with a legislative aide of State Sen. William Faust and gave him suggestions to help the district.

School Board President Tom Yack said he told Aide Bob Pitzferro that the state should count students in the school district twice a year instead of just once. This count determines the amount of state aid the districts receive and in a rapidly growing area like Plymouth and Canton, the schools are educating many students which weren't counted early in the year.

School officials also told Pitzferro that since tax bills go out in December, the district must operate months before any revenue comes in. This means the schools must borrow money in the meantime and lose funds on interest payments.

Yack said besides airing these and other problems, the meeting was useful to open communication between the Sen. Faust and the school district.

Faust's district includes part of Canton. He is majority leader of the the senate.

Schools discuss reading

Salem high schools were behind in reading and unable to do the required work.

Reading teachers from all four middle schools assured the board that their schools had good reading programs.

"Reading is being consistently taught at all levels of the middle schools," said Assistant Superintendent for Instruction Mike Homes.

Trustee Dick Arlen said, however, that on many school papers written by students he has seen, there are misspellings unrecognized by the teacher.

The board got a detailed account of the special or slow-learner programs at the middle schools from the reading teachers. But both Arlen and Gray asked whether more day-to-day reading should be taught on a routine basis.

Homes also told the board that "a dollar can only stretch so far," and to bolster the reading program might mean taking funds from another area.

Because the board can't officially decide a matter at a workshop, the recommendations to upgrade the reading program will be voted on at an upcoming board meeting.

Traveling Edgars stress nature through film

name of another one of their film lectures. This presentation includes Glacial National Park in the Canadian Rockies, Lake Louise and Jasper. One of the most interesting parts of this lecture is the Banff Hot Springs. Workmen who used to bath in the hot springs wanted to preserve them said the Edgars "This is where the National Park of Canada started. The scenery is very beautiful in Jasper," said Mr. Edgar "especially the alpine flowers on Whistlers Mountain." These flowers are several varieties that only grow about one and a half to two inches high. Galapagos Islands, where Darwin developed his theory of evolution, is the Edgar's lengthiest lecture. "There are many wild animals there and they are all so tame" Mr. Edgar said.

One morning, Mr. Edgar enjoyed a swim with some sealions, but once was also attacked by a hawk while taking pictures of its nest.

"The male hawk came from behind and slammed my head into the camera" he said.

"Most of the animals on those Islands don't have an inborn fear of man because they have never been hunted" said Mr. Edgar.

The Edgars have several short nature logues. They have one on Texas, and one on the Mysteries of Migration - not only birds but animals too (whales and caribous).

Mrs. Edgar has a slide presentation on the "Four Seasons of Miller Woods" which deals primarily with plant life (flowers and trees). She works with garden clubs and school classes.

When asked their favorite places to travel, Mrs. Edgar decided the Rio Grande Valley because of the tropical birds.

"There are many beautiful Mexican birds in that region." Mr. Edgar said there were so many places that he liked that he really didn't have a particular favorite.

Travelling has taken the Edgars to every state in the country (except Alaska) and they have been to eight states in Mexico. Both agree that every state has something a little different to offer and because of that, the Edgars' nature logues offer something different also.

rooms and assist teachers. There are special education aides, and aides working in the library and resource centers, Mills said.

"As of now, they have no training except by the person they are working with," Mills said. She said all that is required to become an aide is a high school education. She also said that there are special education aides working with learning disabled students who are federally funded and are not part of the Plymouth Association.

There are between 80 and 90 aides working in the district now, according to membership chairman, Mary Jane Lambert. Lambert said there is a large turnover in aides because "the aide position is often used as a stepping-stone to a secretarial or some other job in the school district."

Lee Barati, an aide at Allen and treasurer of the PEAA said salary ranges from $2.40 to $3.50 per hour. She stated that some aides only work a few hours a day while others may work as many as seven and a half hours a day.

Many of teacher aides do clerical work like typing, mimeographing and correcting papers for the teachers. In the high schools, aides are frequently used in the resource centers. (English, science, math, home-making, and etc.).

The elementary, middle and high schools all use library aides. In the elementary schools, the library aides work with the volunteer mothers program. Each special education teacher working with children with a learning disability has a teacher aide. According to Mrs. Lambert, their primary job is "aiding anyone who needs help".

Rosalie Bails, a library aide at Fiegel feels that aides are finally being accepted as part of the school staff. She thinks the reason most people choose this kind of work is because they love working with children. According to Mrs. Bails, "the district doesn't really know how lucky they are".

Canton schedules meeting for Ford Road ideas

A public meeting has been set for Jan. 11 at Canton Township Hall to specifically hear comments from Canton residents on the proposed improvement of Ford Road from Canton Center to I-275 in Canton. The Michigan Department of State Highways and Transportation will have representatives at the meeting that will be held at the Canton Township Meeting Hall on Canton Center Road from 4 p.m. to 8 p.m.

Gerald McCarthy, Deputy Director of Highways for Michigan said the state is "aware of the developments taking place in Canton and are concerned of the traffic problems along Ford Road." Possibilities for Ford Road range from leaving it as is to construction of a five-lane highway with right-turn lanes or a seven-lane highway. McCarthy said tentative letting dates (awarding of bids for construction) are as follows: Canton Center to Sheldon -- May 1979; Sheldon to I-275 February 1981; and I-275 to Venoy (in Westland) - April 1980. Twp. officials talk at lunch Cont. from pg. 4 talking about an issue that has direct relevance to possible action of this board and it's done in that way with just part of the board, it's a very dangerous precedent I personally object to."

Both he and Mrs. Fidge had opposed bonding the sewer under Act 185 when it was first approved by the township two years ago - the board decided last spring to switch to Act 342. Both said the luncheon session, because the request for county postponement apparently grew out of it, may have constituted a secret meeting. Neither they nor the press was notified of the impromptu session.

Although Notebaert said there was no connection between the meeting and his letter to the county board of commissioners with the request to postpone action, he explained, in a letter to the other trustees - Fidge, Gornick and Maurice Breen - dated Nov. 23, the day of the luncheon meeting, "It was suggested that we ask for a postponement of the county's decision for two weeks to give us time to make the desired change."

Correction

Canton Township has not waived its one per cent collection fee for taxes this year either. The Crier stated last week that it had. Canton Treasurer Mike Gorman said the township could waive it, but another part of the tax bill would have to remain the same or go higher in order not to levy the collection fee.

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

CITY OF PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

At a meeting of the Zoning Board of Appeals to be held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Thursday, January 5, 1978, at 7:30 p.m., a public hearing will be held to consider the following:

APPEAL CASE NO. 78-2 -- JAMES M. JABARA -- 1354 Elm Street, Plymouth, Michigan 48170, requesting permission to install windows and ornamental doors on the east side of a proposed building to be built less than 10 feet from the interior lot line, at 963 W. Ann Arbor Trail, located in a B-3 (General Business District) zoning, which is in conflict with Article XIV, Section 5.186(h) of Chapter 52, Zoning, of the Plymouth City Code.

Section 5.186(h) reads, in part: "No side yards are required along the interior side lot lines, except as otherwise specified in the Building Code. The set-back shall be measured from the nearest side of the existing and/or proposed right-of-way lines, whichever is greater."

All interested parties will be given an ample opportunity to participate in the hearing and, at the close of said hearing, all comments and suggestions of those citizens participating will be considered by the Zoning Board of Appeals prior to rendering its decision.

ment" incidents that he said occurred during the summer.

Bedford Villas homeowners said they objected to the size and location of the project.

"Why couldn't they have located it out by Michigan Avenue where a Ramada Inn will be located?" one asked.

"Canton Township sold out residents to gain a road they would have eventually gotten anyway" said Perry. "$69,000 doesn't buy a lot of road."

Ned Apigian, a representative for the developers of The Center said "if they want to start a lawsuit, they'd better have a lot of money. The project is too damned good to be true for that place (Canton)."

Trash pick-up later for City during Christmas

Plymouth Department of Public Works will pick up rubbish one day later than usual, during the week of Dec. 26 through Dec. 30 according to DPW director Ken Vogras.

Vogras said Monday's rubbish will be picked up Tuesday, Tuesday's on Wednesday and so on. The late pick-up also applies to the week of Jan. 2 through Jan. 6, Vogras said.

City cops hold films

The City of Plymouth Police Department will host the showing of two training films dealing with the new decriminalization of drunk people in public law Friday, Dec. 30 at 2 p.m. at City Hall on Main Street.

City Police Officer Robert Henry will conduct the three hour session to community police officers.

Henry said the new law will send persons arrested for drunkenness to detoxification centers, two of which will be located in Wayne County.

Henry said the centers will be staffed by trained personnel who will 'dry out' those arrested and rehabilitate them.

Holiday radio

WSDP has planned two special holiday treats for its listeners on Friday, Dec. 23 an entire day of special Christmas programming has been planned.

Apigian said no date had been set yet on when the paving for Haggerty would begin.

"That isn't important," he said. "It is 99.9 per cent sure the federal government will approve the project."

"Work will begin not sooner than June", he said. "It can't begin now, it isn't the season. The paperwork should be done by spring."

The entire cost of the 950-foot paving will be $250,000. It will include five-lanes of reinforced concrete, with curb, enclosed drainage and traffic control devices, as specified in the agreement between Apigian and the commission.

Apigian said the developers of The Center have agreed to pay the Wayne County share of the project - 30 per cent or approximately $69,000. The rest, 70 per cent, will come from federal funds.

Wayne County is now looking for additional federal funds to completely pave Haggerty Road to Cherry Hill. The thought is that it would be cheaper in the long run to pave the entire road then in bits and pieces, said Bill Sutherland of the Road Commission.

The State of Michigan has already agreed to pay for paving the first 300 feet south of Ford Road.

No firm date has yet been set for any paving, said Sutherland. "It all depends when the state lets bids for their job. As far as we know that will be in 1979."

Chiefs win at buzzer!

Brent Eckles banked in a rebound at the buzzer to give Canton a 61-60 victory over highly regarded Livonia Bentley last night.

The rebound, off a desperation 30-foot jump shot by Butch King, left the Bentley team and coach stunned in disbelief.

The Bulldogs had come into the game 5-0 and were considered one of the powers in the state. The win boosts Canton's record to 2-3.

"I'm very pleased," Canton Coach Casey Cavell said. "We played a heckuva defensive game. And on offense we had good passing and kept control of the ball."

Canton had a slim 37-34 lead at halftime and kept a slim advantage until Bentley tied it at 55-55 with 5:05 left in the fourth quarter.

King, high scorer for the Chiefs with 20, kept Canton in the game in the fourth quarter with his outside shooting. He scored 10 of Canton's 12 points in the last stanza, all from the outside.

Eckles had 13 for Canton, followed by Russ Mandle with 10 and Kurt Herbert with seven.

Rocks whip Redford Union

Led by a 10-point outburst in the second quarter from Mike Christie, Salem whipped Redford Union 57-43, Saturday in Redford.

The Rocks were a bit rusty after a two-week layoff, but they still had more than enough to handle the Panthers.

Tom Ellinghausen was high-scorer for Salem as the team remained undefeated (4-0) and boosted their Suburban Eight mark to 2-0.

Both teams seemed tight in the first quarter. Missed shots and turnovers were more common than field goals but the Rocks still edged out to a 12-8 lead at the first-quarter buzzer.

In the second quarter, however, Christie got hot. Penetrating well and hitting from the outside, Christie scored 10 of Salem's 23 points and Salem had a comfortable lead going into the locker room, 35-21.

With quick passes and good movement, it was by far the Rocks' best quarter. Points didn't come so easy in the second half as the reasonably quick Panthers struggled to catch up and the Rocks' two-week lay-off seemed to show.

The Panthers pulled within nine points a couple of times but Salem's defense forced them into many poor shots.

The Rocks' defense smothered Redford throughout the night and that was the key to the victory.

Behind Ellinghausen in scoring were Christie with 12, and John Broderich with 11. Matt Etienne accounted for six and Dave Monk tallied four.

Three Rocks added two each: Rich Hewlett, Bob Hissom and Doug Agnew.

Ellinghausen also blocked two shots in a good defensive game for the 6'5" senior.

Salem's next home game is against Livonia Churchill in their Christmas tournament at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow night at Salem.

Bo and Tom

Michigan football Coach Bo Schembechler was seen with Salem grid Coach Tom Moshimer at the Rocks' basketball game with Redford Union Saturday.

Discussing future college football prospects, the two presumably went over the Wolverines' chances in the the Rose Bowl.

After Moshimer's 9-1 season, was Bo getting a few tips?

Chief grapplers finish third

Canton's Kyle Heaton stayed unbeaten this year by winning two matches by a combined 29-4 total score to win the 155-pound weight class in the Clarenceville Invitational Saturday.

Heavyweight Chuck Walker also won his class to lead the Chiefs to a third place finish out of eight teams.

Earlier in the week, Cantor beat both Franklin and Clarenceville in a double dual last Tuesday, but lost their opening Western Six contest to Walled Lake Western, 38-24, on Thursday.

In the Clarenceville Invitational, Heaton had a "super day," according to his coach, Dan Chrenko. In the first round he blanked his opponent, 16-0; won by default in the semifinals; and then whipped Steve Wilson of Southgate Schaefer, 15-4.

The victories give Heaton a sparkling 9-0 record on the season.

Walker also had an excellent day with a bye and two pins to win the heavyweight crown. He is now 9-3 for the year.

At 98 pounds, Tommy Herral finished second for the third week in a row in an invitational tournament. "That's great for a sophomore," Chrenko said.

Jeff Rey scored two decisions to get into the finals but he lost to Larry Sirls of South Lyon for second place at 132 pounds.

Also copping a second was Dennis Howell, a 165 pounder. He pinned his first opponent, took an 8-6 decision in the semifinals, but lost in the finals, 7-2, to a South Lyon wrestler.

Against Walled Lake Western, the Chiefs built a 24-23 point lead after eight of the 13 matches but could not win one of upper weights to lose, 38-24.

Salem keeps pinning...

Last year, Salem's wrestlers pinned their opponents 100 times. This year, they already have 76 with the season not even half over.

Leading the pinning derby is Rene Leist who jumped into sole possession of first place in Salem career pins when he held the shoulders of Edsel Ford's Kelly Carmichael to the mat for the count Thursday.

The pin gave him 30 for three years and every new pin will set a new record.

The Rocks whipped Edsel Ford, 40-17, to boost their league mark to 2-0 and their overall record to 9-0. Last Tuesday Salem kept the beat going by thrashing two non-league opponents, Clarenceville (53-11) and Livonia Franklin (56-14).

Against Edsel, Jimmy Schultz lost his opening match at 98 pounds, but at 105, Jeff Brown whipped Kevin Waara, 7-0.

The T-birds kept pace when

Reggie Gourd beat Rock Randy Viperman, 905, but from then on it was almost all Salem.

Leist pinned Carmichael at 3:05; Jimmy Ross pinned Matt Taylor of Edsel at 2:35, and Roger Penix of Salem won 11-4. Scott Piper and Joe Picola of Salem both lost at 145 and 155 pounds, respectively but Wally Brown won by forfeit as did Bob Dasher at heavyweight.

In between, Bruce Piper beat Dan Colstand of Edsel, 5-4 and at 191 pounds, Rock Bob Doherty whipped Mark Smith, 14-2.

The highlight of the Salem victory over Clarenceville was Randy Viperman's 13-10 victory over Mike Cirilly, a 28-2 wrestler last year. Notching pins in the contest were Salem's Schultz, Jeff Brown, Leist, Ross, Scott Piper and Dasher.

Pinning their Franklin counterparts the same evening were Schultz, Ernst, Leist, Piper and Doherty.

Churchill (and fouls) overcome Chiefs

BY JEFF REY

What happens when the whole first string has foul trouble with a total of 19 turnovers? You lose - plain and simple. That's what happened to the Canton Chiefs at the hands of Livonia Churchill on Friday 57-50.

It would be wrong to say that the Chargers alone beat Canton. They had some help when the Chiefs, who must have been in the Yuletide spirit, simply gave the game away.

"Fouls cleaned out our first string and we had a lot of turnovers," said an upset Casey Cavell after the game.

Canton committed a total of 21 fouls during the game which now leaves them at an unbelievable 78 so far in the season.

The Chiefs hustled their way into a four point lead in the first quarter 16-12. Cavell tried to change the pace by controlling the ball and forcing Churchill to make mistakes. The tactic blew up in their face when Canton began turning the ball over.

"We went into our control zone," said Cavell, "but we failed to maintain possession of the ball." Canton's lead diminished by halftime with Churchill jumping out in front by three, 28-25.

It was downhill from there for the Chiefs as Churchill scored 17 points in the third quarter to increase their lead to nine.

Canton's offense staged a final quarter comeback closing the gap by three points with four minutes left in the game. That's when the fouls began to take their toll with starters Randy Rienas and Brent Eckles leaving the game early. The Chiefs were unable to recover and eventually fell for the third time this season.

Junior Kurt Herbert, who was the only bring spot for the Chiefs, was high scorer with 18 points followed by Rusty Mandel with 10 and Butch King with eight. Herbert also managed 58% shooting from the field.

The Chiefs sit idle for the holidays but hope to turn things around on Tuesday, Jan. 3 against Livonia Franklin in a non-league event at Franklin.

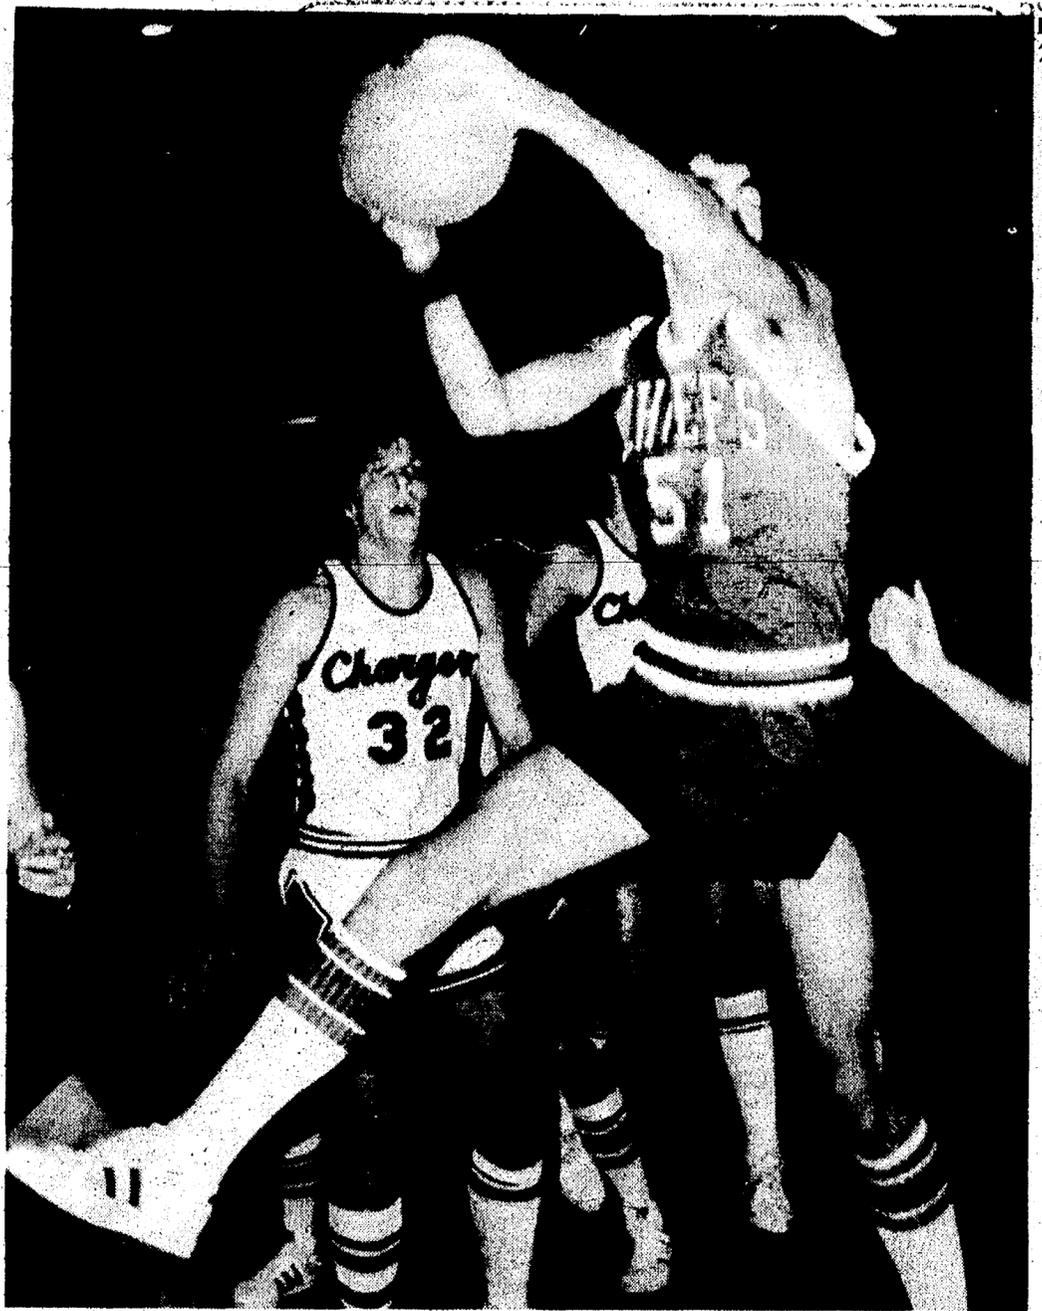

JV begins at 6:15 p.m. and Varsity following at 8 p.m.

OLGC wins 2

The boys varsity and JV basketball teams of Our Lady of Good Council both beat teams from St. Bernadine Saturday. The varsity won 42-35 and the JV rolled, 51-8.

Mumford loses

The team that beat Canton's girls basketball team in the state playoffs, Detroit Mumford, reached the finals of the tournament, but lost, 62-53, to Farmington Our Lady of Mercy on Saturday.

Chief tankers win two

The Canton Swim Team finished a successful week on Saturday picking up two dual meet wins and placing fourth in the Ypsilanti relays.

The Chiefs started out the week pulling off a close 87-85 victory over Ypsilanti in a dual meet on Tuesday. The win marked the first time Canton has ever beaten the powerful Ypsilanti swim team. "It went down to the last event," said coach Bill Faunce. "It's a great way to win a meet."

On Thursday the Chiefs took advantage of Walled Lake Western in their season's home opener by trouncing the Warriors, 114-54. Thursday's victory caused some interesting records to be broken. No. 1 for the first time the Chiefs won every event of an entire meet and they also never finished less than fifth place. In a dual meet points are awarded up to fifth place with sixth place receiving zero.

"It was an all around super effort," said Faunce.

The Chiefs closed the week picking up an outstanding five first place finishes in the Ypsi relays, but nevertheless only managed a fourth place finish.

"We're lacking in depth," said Faunce. "We needed some better finishes in consolation to complement our firsts."

"I guess you could say we won five battles, but lost the war," added Faunce.

Canton started off with the 200-yard medley relay team qualifying for the state meet with a 1:44.6 and setting a new pool record. Swimming the event for the Chiefs were Bob Cline, Paul Pederson, Steve Wood and Dave Tanner.

Pederson took two firsts individually and set two pool records: The 200 individual medley with a 2:05.8 and the 100 breaststroke with a 1:03.1.

Bob Cline picked up a win in the 100 backstroke with a 1:01.5 and the 400 freestyle relay team of Wood, Mike Gaab, Cline and Tanner finished on top, turning in a 3:31.8.

Sophomore Dave Smith placed fifth in two events, the 200 and 500 freestyles with times of 2:06.6 and 5:51.4.

"He's doing well for us," said Faunce.

Tanner also copped a 4th in the 200 individual medley along with Wood who placed fourth in the 100 butterfly.

Canton's opening meet against Farmington Harrison which was snowed out on December 8th has been rescheduled for January 17 at 7:30 p.m. in Harrison's pool.

Salem swimmers nipped

Salem's tankers lost a squeaker to West Bloomfield Thursday, but turned around and placed a respectable third in the Ypsilanti Invitational Saturday.

Craig Finley and Tom Rubadue recorded two first place finishes each against West Bloomfield but the Rocks still fell, 89-83.

Finley won the 100-yard backstroke with a time of 1:00.5 and the 200 individual medley in 2:10.0. "His time in the 200 I.M. was very good for a sophomore," said Coach Chuck Olson. "It's the second fastest time in the event for Salem, and the record is held by his brother, Ron."

Rubadue swam personal bests in both of his victories - the 500-yard freestyle (5:17.8) and the 200-yard freestyle (1:54.0).

In the 100-yard butterfly, Rob Kuebler touched first in a time of 57.7, his personal best also.

Salem also swept the 200-yard medley relay. First was the team of Mike Etienne, Craig Hoffman, Rubadue, and Jeff Harris. The team of Charlie Spurlock, Kuebler, Rod Henry, and Finley was second.

The Rocks scored quite well in the Ypsilanti Invitational, although five swimmers had been suspended by Olson for "non-academic disciplinary reasons."

Adrian won the meet with 314 points, followed by Ypsilanti's 248 and Salem's 233. Canton was close behind with 226 points and Jackson rounded out the team places with 170.

"I was pleased with our performances Saturday," Olson said. We swam a lot of younger kids who did quite well."

Finley again racked up two firsts - in the 200-yard and 500-yard freestyles -- both meet record times. His time in the 200 was 1:53.1 and he recorded a 5:00.4 in the 500.

In the 50-yard freestyle and the 100-yard freestyle, Rubadue copped second and Kuebler also recorded two seconds in the 100-yard butterfly and the 200-yard individual medley.

In other events, Jim LaRiche was fourth in diving with 194.2 points. John Atkinson finished ninth in diving, accumulating 140.9 points.

Bruce Harwood and Jeff Little finished fifth and 10th respectively in the 100-yard backstroke, in personal best times for both swimmers.

Salem's 400-yard freestyle relay placed third. The team consisted of Jeff Harris, Sprulock, Hoffman and Barry Lee.

Two Chiefs earn all West-6

Two Canton girls have been named to the first all-league basketball team of the Western Six: Kathy Sochacki and Kelly Heaton.

Also, Sue Reuk and Evie Pasek earned spots on the third team and Laura Butler and Kathie Peck received honorable mentions.

"Sochacki was a good team leader and a great hustler," Coach Mike McCauley said. "She shot 50 per cent of her field goal attempts and 64 per cent of her free throws."

Sochacki also won key games - two over Waterford Mott - with last minute clutch free throws. "She's a good college prospect," said her coach.

Heaton, a junior, was voted the team's Most Improved Player and averaged over 10 points per game. She also led the Chiefs defensively. She's a junior also, and McCauley said he's looking for big things next year from her.

The Canton coach also said he was disappointed that Reuk and Pasek weren't named to the second team.

"Out of the 10 best players in the Western Six, we had six of them," McCauley said.

REALTOR

AVOID FINANCIAL HEADACHES

Thinking about selling your home on your own? If so, you should commence a cram course in financing. How much money will you want down? How will you determine the prospect's credit history? Will you accept a second mortgage? Have you been in close contact with financial institutions, the FHA or VA? Can you advise a prospect where to get mortgage funds and who will pay what closing costs?

On the other hand, Realtors know that many sales are lost strictly for want of proper financing. They also know the intricate methods and sources of financing.

Honestly, the best way to market your home - probably your most valuable asset - is the professional way. Just as you would go to a doctor for medical aid, you should go to a Realtor for assistance in selling your home. It must make financial sense. Over 75% of all home sales are handled by people in the profession.
