6,000 flock to 5th Fowl Festival

Zesters on parade

BY EGGMAR BIRDMAN

Plymouth's fifth annual Fowl Festival was another success, according to the more than 6,000 local and out-of-town birdwatchers who flocked to the festivities Sunday.

Saturday's events, new for the festival, went off without a hitch, although Plymouth Community Chamber of Commerce Executive Director Diane Williams said attendance was hurt because of the "miserable weather."

The Tyke and Trike Parade was won by Sharon Florance, four, of Plymouth, who won a winged hat for her tricked-up trike. Every child who entered also received a punchball.

Grand prize winner of the Egg Walk was Christopher Stans, 23, also of Plymouth. For successfully negotiating a course that some said would make Mario Andretti proud, Stans won the use of a new Lincoln Continental for a week. A total of 26 contestants tried their luck at keeping their eggs on their spoons. Eight semi-finalists also won brunch passes to the Mayflower. The real winner of the contest, however, were Jerry's kids, who garnered $47 for the fight against Muscular Dystrophy, compliments of the contestant's donations through the Chamber.

Sunday's activities were no less exciting. First on the day's agenda was the Fowl Festival Parade, filled with more than 75 entries, according to the Chamber's Williams. Plymouth police said the parade was so long that the first floats had made the circuit and parked before the rest of the entourage made it past the judges.

An estimated 6,000 spectators lined the walks from Ann Arbor Trail to City Hall to see the likes of eventual winner "Billy Bird I," entered by the RBTC Foundation of the Ford Motor Co. Saline plant, who won first place of $100; and "Peeper" of the Plymouth-Canton chapter of Parents Without Partners, who won $50. Third place of $25 was won by "Chickitron" representing Medar Corp. of Plymouth, who boasted the only cage lined with copies of The Crier,

"the only newspaper of sufficient quality for this application."

And what is a festival without a queen? So, chosen as the Fowl Fest's Queen of the Coop was Ruth Thompson of the Canton Zesters Club. Entrants in the contest, advertised for spring chickens only, won brunch passes for the Mayflower Hotel.

The chicken flying contest itself, object of the most intense spectator and media attention since Alex Karras' movie, began promptly at 2:30 p.m. on Main Street in front of the park.

New for this year was the absence of controlled release equipment -- entrants were hand-launched during this contest. A total of 103 entries divided into heats of four competitors each were launched into relative immortality along Main.

Plymouth man killed accidentally

A 32-year old Plymouth resident shot himself in a gun accident Monday. Killed was Dale Lenord Graves, 278 Irvin, Plymouth.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Thursday at Schrader Funeral Home.

According to Plymouth police, Mr. Graves and his wife, Carol had returned from a camping trip and were unloading their gear at about 5 p.m. when the accident occurred.

Inside a duffle bag was a loaded pistol which was apparently discharged when Mr. Graves picked up the bag and tossed it into the house, said Lt. Robert Commire of the Plymouth police. Apparently the gun was either cocked in the bag or it was cocked by Mr. Graves when he picked up the duffle bag and threw it, Commire added. Mr. Graves was struck in the chest, he said.

He was pronounced dead at St. Mary Hospital.

In addition to his wife, Carol, survivors include their three month old child.

Twp. election issue: Police services

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Certainly one of the major issues facing Plymouth Township candidates this election year is the question of police services.

Should Plymouth Township continue to contract with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department? Should it start its own police department? Should it contract with the City of Plymouth or other local agencies for police services? Or, should it consider contracting with other agencies, such as the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department?

Contracting with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department was suggested by Supervisor Tom Neebaert, before his defeat in the August primary, when the township was mulling over police service contracts last winter. Plymouth Township, although within Wayne County boundaries, borders on Washtenaw County.

The question of police services must be decided by the township's Board of Trustees within the next four years. And, since all terms of board members and the township supervisor, clerk, and treasurer run at the same time, this question must be dealt with

analysis

by the board within the next four years. The current-three-year contract with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department, will expire in May, 1983.

A recent opinion from Frank Kelley, Michigan's state attorney general, shed light on some of the alternatives faced by the Board of Trustees in terms of police services within the next four years.

Last winter when the township's Board of Trustees was mulling over police alternatives, it sought Kelley's opinion on two questions: Will the employment of one, full-time certified police officer constitute police protection and qualify a township for exemption from annexation? And, would a charter township qualify for exemption from annexation if it contract with an adjoining county for police services if the home county cannot provide this service?

Last January, the City of Plymouth dropped three annexation petitions for parts of and all of Plymouth Township. Under state Public Act 591, a charter township must provide police services to remain exempt from annexation.

In response to the first question, Kelley cited numerous court opinions, but did not give a specific answer. "It is, therefore, my opinion that the employment of one bonafide full-time certified police officer may constitute police protection . . . with respect to a particular charter township where the State Boundary Commission so finds, based upon the reasonableness standard."

In effect, Kelley said the State Boundary Commission, which rules on annexation petitions, may determine that a charter township with one officer has police protection. On the other hand, the commission may rule that it is not "reasonable" to find a charter township with a substantial population has police protection with one, full-time officer.

So, the question of whether one, full-time officer would constitute police protection

Flood plain insurance plan slated in Canton

Recently, a flood insurance study has been completed for Canton which will change the township's Federal Flood Insurance status.

Done under the auspices of the Federal Emergency Management Agency's (FEMA) Insurance and Mitigation Division, the study was contracted to Wade, Trim and Associates, Inc., who do much of the township's engineering work.

The study includes flood plain maps, flood elevation profiles, and flood insurance rate maps.

A public meeting for discussion of the study will be held Oct. 9 at 7:30 p.m. in the Township Hall. Robert Freitag, a FEMA flood insurance specialist, will attend to answer questions about the study. Additionally, representatives from the Department of Natural Resources and Wade, Trim and Associates will be present.

Items to be discussed include what the national flood plain insurance program is, how and from whom it may be purchased, how rates are determined and what the cost of flood insurance will cover.

According to Freitag, more than 200 studies have been done for Michigan municipipalities. In 1973, a priority list was formulated according to flood hazard and population size, and Canton's turn, so to speak, has come.

Freitag said, "Our office reviews the study first. Then, it is sent to the municipality for a public hearing and review. After a 90-day period, if there are no appeals to the study, we cancel the contract with the engineers and the document becomes record."

Once the contract is cancelled, Freitag said, the Insurance and Mitigation Division allows six months for the township to write a flood plain ordinance.

The amount of flood plain insurance available to homeowners and businessmen will double, and rates will be subject to "actuarial" rates rather than federally subsidized rates. Freitag states the actuarial rates will be keyed to existing flood risks established by the study.

Participation in the National Flood Insurance Program is volunteer, said Freitag, but each municipality is required to pass a flood plain ordinance. Consequently, he says, "We encourage residents in the flood plain to attend the hearing."

will face the Belleville Tigers Friday at 7:30 p.m. in an attempt to improve their overall record. The game will climax the school's Homecoming festivities. The Rocks are currently 3-2 overall and 2-2 in the Suburban Eight. (Crier photo by Robert Cameron)

To avoid state cutbacks

State police seek visibility in Twp., sheriffs say

BY PATRICIA BARTOLD

Who patrols Plymouth Township -- the Wayne County Sheriff's Department or the Michigan State Police?

That question has been asked by Wayne County sheriffs who say Michigan State Police officers are answering their calls. Det. Rick Fenton, who leads the Wayne County Sheriff's Department in Plymouth Township, says having the state police respond to sheriff's calls is a "commonplace occurrence."

However, he added, "It's super rare that they get there (to the home or business) before us."

Lt. William Tomszyk of the Michigan State Police would not comment on whether the allegations were true. "I have nothing to say. I'm not going to comment."

Northville's Michigan State Police Post recently laid off five officers, he said, due to state cutbacks. Currently there are 42 officers at the Northville post. The State Police are generally assigned to cover primary roads, including I-275 and M-14, which both run through Plymouth Township.

The sheriffs, which currently have a three-year contract with Plymouth Township, generally cover secondary roads, including roads such as Ann Arbor Road, and provide police protection throughout Plymouth Township.

"All we want to do is patrol the area," said Fenton. "We don't have any problem if a citizen calls them (the Michigan State Police) and they respond."

But, he said, the sheriffs don't want them to respond to calls made to the sheriff's department.

Fenton said the state police officers were "unprofessional and dangerous" when responding to calls, made to the sheriff's department. Michigan State Police generally pick up calls made to the sheriffs on their car radios, said Fenton.

"I'm worried about someone getting hurt," he said. When sheriffs have their

Learn about 7 proposals on Nov. 4 ballot Oct. 16

The Nov. 4 election will have a number of tough decisions for voters. To help clarify the seven proposals which will appear on the ballot, the League of Women Voters and the Plymouth Branch of the American Association of University Women have planned a meeting for the public on Thursday, Oct. 16 at 8 p.m.

It will be held at West Middle School Cafeteria, 4401 Ann Arbor Trail at Sheldon in Plymouth. All of the proposals will be explained by invited guest speakers and members of the LWV and the AAUW. The ballot proposals are:

PROPOSAL A -- The Smith-Ballard Tax Plan to provide property tax relief and shift financing of school operating costs to state income and business property taxes;

PROPOSAL B -- A proposal to lower the legal drinking age from 21 to 19 years of age;

PROPOSAL C -- The Legislative-Executive Tax Plan to shift some of the burden of the property tax to the state sales tax;

PROPOSAL D -- The Tisch Tax Plan to cut property taxes in half and require the state to replace from current state income revenues lost locally;

PROPOSAL E -- A proposal to finance construction of new prisons by increasing the income tax one-tenth of one percent for five years; ("There is no Proposal F because of possible confusion between E and F.")

PROPOSAL G -- A proposal to allow the legislative to pass laws modifying legislators' constitutional immunity from civil

First place was easily won by "Rollover Rooster" entered by Detroit Federal Savings and Loan of Northville, with a total flight of 130 feet. The nearest finishes was "Skyhawk III" from Dick Scott Buick of Plymouth, with a distance of 66 feet. Third place was won by "Weedeater III" from Saxton's Garden Center, also of Plymouth, who came right under the wire at 65 feet.

Crowds, according to city police, were also somewhat of a problem. Apparently, six extra officers were on duty to help control overflow into the intersection of Main and Ann Arbor Trail. Williams says, "We know we need more bleachers. Also, we may use more restraints next year to hold the crowds back."

PROPOSAL H -- A proposal to change the powers of the lieutenant governor and to provide a process for filling a vacancy in the office of lieutenant governor.

2-hour parking limits to be posted on Church St.

BY DAN BODENE

An end to the Church Street parking problem may be at hand, due to action by the Post Office and City Police.

In response to a petition by Church Street residents living between Harvey and Penniman led by Philip Hazlett, the City Manager's office and Police Department investigated ways to resolve six problems listed by Hazlett's group.

The problems included increased parking on the street by postal workers; increased traffic; lack of cooperation with Plymouth police; and width of the street being incompatible with parking on both sides of the street.

During Monday's City Commission meeting, City Manager Henry Graper, Jr. explained that cooperation between the city, Congressman Carl Pursell and Congressman William Ford had resulted in a total of 37 Canton mail carriers and clerks being moved to the Westland Post Office. No date was set for the postal move.

In addition, two-hour parking limit signs will be posted on the street for a 90-day period. Police Chief Tim Ford said the measure might force an end to the parking problem not caused by the postal workers.

Hazlett addressed the Commission, noting that parking problems with postal workers was not the only reason for the petition. He again cited a lack of cooperation with the police, and the problem of street width and driveway access.

Chief Ford stressed that the temporary traffic control order might solve the problems, coupled with the decreased postal traffic.

"We will try the least amount of (parking) control as possible," he added, in response to a request by Hazlett's group that parking be limited to only one side of the street.

Graper said the police department would investigate the possibility of parking on only one side of Church if access and visibility problems on the street continue after the conclusion of the 90-day traffic control order.

City to hear applicants for liquor license Oct. 15

After a special hearing for liquor-license applicants, members of Plymouth's City Commission have decided more study is needed before they can recommend awarding the remaining license.

Due to the pending certification of the 1980 population census, Plymouth may lose an available Class C liquor license. The licenses are awarded by the state Liquor Control Commission (LCC) on the basis of population. Plymouth's population has declined, according to the new census, and will lose eligibility for a remaining license.

City Manager Henry Graper, Jr. explained that although Plymouth will lose eligibility for the remaining license when the new census is certified in January, 1981, the license can be awarded if a city-approved application is received by the LCC as soon as possible.

At a special hearing Oct. 1 commissioners heard presentations by Garnet Beglinger and Audrey McClear of Emma's Restaurant; William Hann and John Lucas, of Liberty Bank Pub, Inc.; and Jim Somers of Little Caesars.

After hearing all three presentations, City Commissioners decided more information is needed before a recommendation for approval can be sent to the LCC. A special hearing for more detailed information, as well as presentations by other potential applicants, will be on Oct. 15.

New conductor to lead Symphony on Sunday

A new conductor of international repute will be on the podium for the Plymouth Symphony Sunday, Oct. 12, at 4 p.m. Conductor Johan van der Merwe, presently on the staff at the University of Michigan, has previously headed orchestras in South Africa and Europe.

Van der Merwe presents a warm European charm that is most appealing. Professionally, orchestra members are impressed with his efficient rehearsal techniques and musical knowledge, especially of stringed instruments. Van der Merwe will be making several adjustments to upgrade the symphony sound throughout the season. Meanwhile, orchestra members are enthusiastic about their new maestro.

The program consists of three works: Leonore Overture No. 3 by Beethoven; Concerto for Trumpet by Hummel; and Symphony No. 2 by Brahms.

Featured in the Hummel concerto will be Armando Ghitalla, also of the University of Michigan. Ghitalla played with the Band of America under Paul LaValle and then with the Boston Symphony where he played first trumpet for many years.

The brilliant and melodic concerto which Ghitalla will present has an interesting history of its own. Hummel, virtually unknown today except through this concerto, was a pupil of Mozart. Probably because of this instruction, Hummel was considered in his day to be a master of form and craftsmanship. Both these characteristics are evident in the trumpet concerto. It was one of the earliest pieces written for the modern keyed trumpet and, when it was first performed in Estherhazy Castle in 1804, it was greatly admired for its use of "tones never heard before" from the trumpet.

Opening the program will be the familiar Leonore Overture No. 3. Beethoven labored over this intended introduction to his only opera, "Fidelio," actually writing four different overtures to it. This work is considered to be the greatest of the four, full of the drama and joy with which the opera ends.

Brahms' second symphony known as his "Pastoral Symphony." Written in the sunny, tranquil hills of Austria, the work is said to be a complete reflection of Brahms' love of nature, full of "sunshine, blue skies, and clear rippling water."

Tickets for the concert will be available at the door. Advance sale tickets may be purchased in Plymouth at Beitner Jewelry on Ann Arbor Trail, Plymouth Book World on Forest Street and Heide's Flowers, Ann Arbor Trail at Harvey.

In Canton, tickets are available at Harvard Book in Harvard Square Shopping Center and at Arnoldt Williams Music on Canton Center near Ford.

Tickets are $4 for adults and $2 for senior citizens and full-time college students. Students, kindergarten through 12th grade, are admitted free.

A Girl Scout troop will provide babysitting for pre-schoolers during the concert. Free transportation for senior citizens is provided from Tonquish Creek Manor at 3:15 on the afternoon of the concert. This concert is made possible with the support of the state of Michigan through a grant from the Michigan Council for the Arts and a donation from the City of Plymouth.

Will sheriffs be cut back?

In a drive to cut costs, the Wayne County Board of Auditors has recommended that the county eliminate the sheriff's road patrol and its investigative deputies.

Currently the Plymouth Township Board of Trustees has a three-year contract with the sheriff's department for police protection.

"The sheriffs and the township Board of Trustees have entered into a contract in good faith," said Jim Ahhtar, a spokesperson for the sheriff's department. "We hope the Wayne County Board of Commissioners will live up to it."

The recommendations, which included cutting back the sheriff's department, were made to the Wayne County Board of Commissioners which will begin reviewing the 1981 budget shortly. However, the auditors' recommendations are often not followed by the Board of Commissioners.

Plymouth Township's contract calls for nine officers to be assigned in the township. The two, one-man cars provide round-the-clock police protection.

Start plans to expand post office

The Plymouth Post Office, long plagued by overcrowding and inefficiencies, should be expanded. We do not support the recent drive to transfer all Canton postal operations from Plymouth to the Westland Post Office.

Instead of separating Canton from the Plymouth Post Office, we support expanding the Plymouth Post Office to accommodate the needs of the Plymouth-Canton Community.

More space for the construction of a post office addition could be acquired south of the present post office. This move would relieve overcrowding as well as keep postal services for Canton residents in the same location.

To relieve parking problems and create more spaces, the City of Plymouth could consider setting up angle parking along Penniman Avenue. This would create more space for postal patrons, as well as employees, who currently park on residential streets rather than pay $10 to park in a lot.

Transferring Canton residents to the Westland Post Office, 6300 Wayne Rd., only creates a longer drive for them. The creation of a postal substation in Canton is a good idea, but we'd hate to see Cantonites forced to drive to Westland to pick up vacation mail and packages.

Congressmen William Ford's and Carl Pursell's efforts to solve this problem are long overdue. We're glad they've tackled this problem, but urge them to consider all the alternatives before a decision is reached.

Is cable TV worth it?

EDITOR:
CAVEAT EMPTOR (Buyer Beware!) . . .
After the Plymouth Township Hall received complaints and petitions to stop the work of Omnicom in the Plymouth Estates Sub-division, the Township Board decided to put that item on their next meeting's agenda to give both sides an opportunity to air their views.

The meeting on Oct. 1 came as a direct result of the progress of their work having been halted in mid-July, because residents voiced objections at strangers trespassing on their property with stakes and small machinery . . . and the surliness of the workers that did much to alienate their project rather than enhance it.

Why didn't they start installations in Beacon Hill? Afraid of lawyers?

Dennis Fassett, regional manager of Omnicom, was the main speaker. He expounded on "the many benefits cablevision provides the family" and some of his colleagues discussed their construction procedures. In their favor, the speakers were very glib . . . they could easily sell sand on a desert! The citizens present were mellifluously informed of all of cable television's benefits. (I salute P. T. Barnum's comment on the gullibility of people.)

● Benefit No. 1: If the homeowner signs up for installation at the time the workers are in their neighborhood . . . there will be no charge for installation hookup. (That means hurry up and join the bandwagon, folks -- because, if you decide after they've gone, they'll charge you $20 to return for hookup!)

● Benefit No. 2: There are 40 channels available to the subscribers of each pay service. The subscriber gets 35 channels for the discounted rate of $6.95 per month (they knock off $1 to entice you), however,

● Benefit No. 3: There are another five channels that will run you $6.95 each per month (also "discounted by $1" to enhance the sale) to have celebrities of "live shows from Las Vegas" come into your home, or first-run movies or various sports events, etc. ($41.70 per month saves a lot of money for those who go out to the movies . . . that's what he said!)

● Benefit No. 4: The subscriber is assured that there will not be a rate increase, at least for the first two years.

Try to do a little research to satisfy your own mind. But don't go through the exercise of futility that I did -- you can't look up Omnicom in Dun & Bradstreet/Standard Poor . . . because "they pay cash as they go" and due to the fact that they are a subsidiary of Captial Cities, which also owns WJR and The Oakland Press!

The Cable Television company was granted a franchise by our officials on the Township Board (ditto for Canton, Northville, etc.) for a 5 per cent kickback to our local coffers. They were considered a "utility" and granted carte blanche to utilize our easement! The Public Service Commission in Lansing does not consider them a utility (?) . . . The investors in Omnicom dictate that they should reap 27 per cent return per year over 15 years . . . and it goes on, ad nauseum.

Do you somehow feel that Joe Citizen doesn't have any say in his local government? Does anybody get the same sneaky feeling that these cable television companies are going to put "free television" out of business? We who live in this country known for its democracy should wonder if we aren't headed for government-controlled television as presently employed in some communist countries.

Are we so addicted to the boob tube that we plan to vegetate in front of it? You get what you pay for . . . and commercial-less programs are going to get us a lot of kidney problems . . .

MR. & MRS. ROBERT ROGERS

Don't rush liquor license

In the rush to beat losing a liquor license with the new census figures, The City of Plymouth is rushing hell-bent toward giving out the last free license.

While we applaud the city's thinking in using the license to develop commercial property tax base and contribution to the city, we caution against blindly allowing the last license to be wasted on something inappropriate.

It may take some special meetings, a little extra staff work in a hurry to see that the license is given to a worthwhile addition to the community, but that's the city's responsibility. Yes, act quickly, but not in blind haste.

Sheriffs submit monthly reports

They are long overdue, but they've finally arrived.

The Wayne County Sheriff's Department, which has a contract with the township for police services, has compiled its crime statistics for the months of June, July, August, and September. The contract calls for these reports to be submitted monthly.

We're glad that the sheriffs have gotten on the stick and submitted their reports to trustees. Let's hope they keep to this timetable in the future.

It's time for the Plymouth-Canton schools to take a survey. Topic: Why have the district's attempts to pass a bond issue failed?

Last winter, school administrators surveyed community residents on alternatives for housing students including renting classrooms from Livonia, realigning the grades, building new schools, and buying portable classrooms.

The survey revealed, to no one's surprise, that residents were overwhelmingly opposed to building new schools. This response, no doubt, was prompted by the fear of getting stuck with empty classrooms five or 10 years down the pike when the district's enrollment declines.

On the other side, residents were in favor of realigning the grades, a move designed to relieve overcrowding at the high schools.

Even with these results in hand, the school board failed to design a bond proposal that won voter approval. Two bond issues were defeated by voters. The first attempt in March was separated into two confusing proposals, both of which met defeat. The second proposal in June, a simplified, scaled-down version of the March proposal, also met defeat.

Still stuck with its initial problem of how to house students when the district doesn't have enough classrooms, the school board is left in a quandary.

That's why the board should take a community survey. It must find out why bond issues have failed and if the community sees student population and housing as problematic.

Such a survey may reveal that taxpayers aren't necessarily stingy; instead, a majority may feel; as though their children aren't getting their money's worth educationally. That perception, if verified, would open a new can of worms for the school board.

Whether the perception is true or based on false assumptions is irrelevant. There seems to be a growing sentiment from parents in the district that the quality of education offered in Plymouth-Canton is declining.

That perception, if verified as representative of a sizeable number of residents, needs to be addressed by the school board.

Furthermore, this survey should be written, circulated, and compiled by the school district's community relations person -- a position vacated in June and still unfilled. Meanwhile, the district's administrators are hatching up a plan to bring a $1.5 million bond proposal to voters in January, 1981.

Bringing a new proposal to the voters may make more sense if the school district's officials can figure out why past bond issues have failed -- and, if another attempt would have any chance of succeeding.

Why Canton rec center idea failed

In Canton recently a proposal for a recreational facility was shot down because of fears that the movie theater seating capacity might, in the future, lead to encroachment of X-rated movies.

Baloney.

After a series of exhaustive research projects conducted by the Planning Department, it has been determined that seating capacity has nothing to do with what is programmed in movie theaters.

Granted, the audiences that seem to prefer flicks like "Gidget Visits the Rams' Locker Room" are not likely to fill the Radio City Music Hall, but then again, there are many fine theaters which fall below the minimum seating capacity established by Canton ordinance. They aren't local in Canton, though.

Lift guilt from shopowners

Shopowners and property owners involved in the infamous Penniman Avenue Shops fire last February, are still bearing an unfair burden eight months later.

Because the fire was set by an arsonist, who is yet at large, the merchants and owners involved are still facing the unfair cloud of guilt. Insurance companies, utility companies (the phone company is still dunning some shops for the March phone bill) and suppliers are, in many instances, acting unfairly towards those innocent but involved. Granted, the crime is not solved, but some consideration must be given.

Let's all remember that these merchants and the landlords are suffering not only from the hazy cloud of someone's guilt, but also from the economic realities of the disaster.

Exchange isn't really so foreign

BY DAN BODENE

Foreign exchange students enrolled at CEP this year like many different things about the U.S., but unanimously dislike one thing -- the lack of more time to spend here.

There are eight foreign students at Canton and Salem high schools, and to look at them you wouldn't suspect they come from places like Spain, Germany, Brazil and Japan, to name a few.

Sweaters and blue jeans are the uniform of their stay in the Plymouth-Canton Community. All can speak English, very well, and, according to Nancy Bauer of the Salem Guidance Office, all are doing very well in class.

Most are sponsored by Youth For Understanding, based in Washington, D.C., and arrived in Michigan in late August for a year's stay. Luciano Deienno and Miguel Zaidan, both from Brazil, came under the auspices of Rotary International. They came last December and will leave for home in a few months.

All of the students are multi-lingual, which means it is not unusual to hear Arne Backman, who came from Sweden to study in America, talk about his French studies.

Each has a particular story about what they didn't expect in the U.S. Katharina Seiler from Germany remembers she was confused for a time over an American custom most people take for granted. "Everything was unusual," she said. "One thing was bathroom doors. In Germany we keep them closed all the time. Here, you leave them open."

Midori Yoshii of Japan was a little surprised at how classes are changed at Salem. "In Japan, we have nine or 10 classes a week, but they are all in one room. I was surprised to have to change classrooms so much." According to Luciano and Miguel, in Brazil the teachers change classrooms.

Other differences were noted in the American educational process. Carlos Cobiella of Spain marveled at the size of each class. "At home, there are about 15 students in my class. Here, there are 40 in each."

Scheduling was another wonder. "The big difference is the classes themselves," says Katharina. "There is almost no choice in German. Here, there is so much to choose from." Carlos adds, "In Spain, the government determines what part of a subject we will study. Here, I can choose." Hannele Hakli of Finland said, "In my country, we schedule two weeks at a time. Here, it's for half a year."

At first, most of the students found the adjustment a little tough. "On the first day, everybody saw all their old friends," recalls Hannele. "We didn't know anybody."

Soon enough, however, everyone seemed to fit in. "Teachers here are pretty nice," says Arne. "They try to help all the time." Ilka Spiegelger of Germany adds, "You make so many friends. We'll be here for such a short time it makes me mad."

Another source of amusement for virtually all the exchange students was how Americans feed themselves. In Finland, for instance, breakfast is a big meal, followed by a hot lunch and a small dinner. In European countries, lunch is also usually cooked, whereas in the U.S., it often consists of cold sandwiches or salads.

But then again, there is fast food. "These fast food places -- everything is in plastic," marvels Ilka. Arne added, "There is so much junk on hamburgers. In Sweden, a hamburger is a snack, not a meal."

Dislikes were fewer, but more universal. Virtually all the students decried the lack of public transportation. Arne says, "You can't go anywhere without a car." Katharina added that most of the exchange students could not drive without one of their adopted "parents" along. All of the students agreed there were more restrictions on them due to the transportation problem.

Although all of the exchange students are subject to the same classes and testing as all the other Salem and Canton students, most will not receive credit for the year once they return. Only Carlos will return to Spain with another year of study toward his graduation. Bauer says, however, "Their year abroad is an experience they can all take back with them."

Experiences of the group are not limited to those around the Plymouth-Canton area, either. YFA sponsors several trips per year to various places around the country, at an additional cost to the student. A Rotary tour sent Miguel and Luciano to 28 states in 24 days, for a total of 8,000 traveling miles. Miguel, who had never before seen snow, also went skiing last year at Boyne Mountain.

There are a few more things to get used to, say a number of the students. Getting up on cold, dark Michigan mornings, converting from the metric system and planning for Homecoming may be new, but for these students it's all in a day's work.

African adventure film scheduled

Second in the Travel and Adventure Series sponsored by the Plymouth Kiwanis Club, "High Adventure Beyond the Zambezi" will be presented Oct. 8 at Salem High.

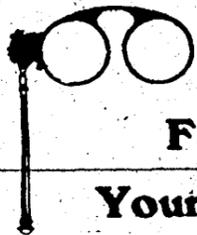

Shown at 8 p.m. in the school auditorium, the film was produced by Ronald Shanin, who has specialized in movies of remote regions of Africa. Shanin, formerly a Bell Aerospace Corp. rocket engineer, also has had photographs published in "Life," "Look," "Newsweek" and "Sports Illustrated" magazines.

Dealing with a safari originating in Johannesburg, South Africa, the film includes clips of two baby eagles Shanin raised, as well as segments of many different types of African wildlife.

In addition, Shanin includes footage of shy and elusive native tribes, including the Wadoma, known for having only two toes on each foot.

Kiwanis members characterize the film as full of variety, information and action.

City residents complain about kids lurking in alley

BY DAN BODENE

At a public hearing during Monday night's City Commission meeting, confusion arose as to the intent of a proposal to partially vacate an alley.

In response to a petition by residents, the hearing was held to determine the feasibility of vacating part of an alley between W. Ann Arbor Trail and Sheridan Avenue and leading from Sheldon Road to Evergreen Street.

After another debate in 1975, the City

Commission voted to deny the vacation, but instead erect a barrier in the alley, thus eliminating through traffic.

Monday night's hearing was to determine whether the middle portion should now be completely blocked, either by erecting a permanent barrier or allowing residents backing up to the proposed closed portion to move their fences all the way back, reclaiming the portion of the alley.

Many residents backing up to the alley apparently were unsure what the proposal would do. Wayne Bartlett, 1424 W. Ann Arbor Trail, asked whether the entire alley would be closed by the move, and questioned whether he would have continued access to his garage. Mr. and Mrs. David Schlick, 1463 Sheridan, felt the vacation of the alley portion might set a legal precedent allowing residents further down each end of the alley to close off their portions also.

City Attorney Charles Lowe then explained the proposal, noting that only the center portion of the alley bordering six lots might be closed. He said the rest of the alley on both ends would remain city property, and could not be reclaimed by residents without Commission approval.

Many other residents spoke against the proposal, noting potential problems of Fire-Department access, decreased access from one end of the alley to the other end, and the possibility that the alley vacation would not solve problems of vandalism.

Chief Ford admitted the area has been a problem due to the large number of school children using the alley to congregate. "The problem of student pedestrians in the alley smoking and vandalizing property has been less since 1975 but remains with us during the school year," according to Ford.

However, property owners requesting the partial alley vacation say the temporary barrier has not solved the problem. Elizabeth and David Mather, 1451 Sheridan, list "Stone throwing, destruction of property, and difficulty in keeping the area clean are some of the reasons for our request."

In addition, David LaPointe, 1437 Sheridan, says that 60 per cent of property owners bordering the alley are in favor of the partial vacation.

After closing the hearing, Mayor Mary Childs assigned the matter for consideration on the Oct. 20 City Commission agenda.

Graper cleared in lawsuit

Henry Graper, Jr., Plymouth City Manager, has been cleared of charges stemming from a lawsuit filed shortly after he ended his term last year as city manager of Dowagiac.

Filed by Skip Harding of Dowagiac in November, 1979, the lawsuit apparently came about after a contract between Harding's company and the city was cancelled. Graper said gravel which Harding had agreed to supply for a road-resurfacing project did not meet specifications.

Originally declining to investigate the matter, the Cass County Prosecutor's Office did check into the allegations after Harding's attorney contacted the Attorney General, who then requested the County Prosecutor, William Grimmer, to investigate.

Harding also filed a discrimination and civil rights violation lawsuit in federal court, due to the paving project's funding with federal community development funds.

Grimmer's investigation found no wrongdoing by Graper in the matter. However, other allegations toward the co-defendant in the suit, Director of Public Works Larry Rohacs, were found to be true. The prosecutor suggested Rohacs be dealt with by the City Manager and City Council if they so desired.

The lawsuit in Grand Rapids Federal Court is still pending a hearing on the matter.

Additionally, an investigation by the City of Dowagiac has also found Graper innocent of any impropriety in the Harding contract dismissal.

Graper said, "I feel the allegations were completely looked at by the prosecutor and I feel we didn't do anything wrong." He also said a Oct. 1 press conference on the matter was called because of stories run in South Bend and Dowagiac newspapers.

Graper added, "We feel that the prosecutor is being used to intimidate (Dowagiac) city officials. Both parties are innocent. I have contacted my attorney and we are meeting to determine whether we will counter sue for slander."

Did Twp. violate open meetings law?

Two Plymouth Township residents are planning to file a temporary injunction against the township's Board of Trustees and civil suits against six of the seven board members, charging both the board and the individuals with violating the Open Meetings Act.

James and Carol Levitte will file the cases in Wayne County Circuit Court on Thursday or Friday, she said Monday. Carol Levitte is a Democratic challenger for the township supervisor's post, however she said the charges were not related directly to her campaign.

"Whether I'm elected or not, no one's going to violate the (open meetings) act," she said. "I am for open meetings."

Specifically, the Levittes are charging the board with violating the act at least four times since May. The charges include; a board meeting in May in which Supervisor Tom Notebaert told a group of residents that "only one person could speak on an issue," said Carol Levitte, which violates their rights to speak to the board, she said; Two meetings on July 15 and 22 in which improper procedures were followed and the township board did not give the township attorney the authority to sign a contract for the golf course, said Carol Levitte; and a meeting on Sept. 9 in which trustees met with the township's new auditing firm at the Hillside Inn -- which Carol Levitte said is not a public place and, furthermore, no minutes of the meeting were kept of the meeting, she added.

The Levittes have not filed a civil suit against Trustee Lee Fidge. She didn't attend the Sept. 9 meeting because she said it was held improperly and did not keep within the Open Meetings Act.

THE HYDRAMATIC employes wave as they escort their fowl to the chicken flying contest during the parade.

TIKES ON TRIKES paraded for the judges on a cold Saturday morning, the first official event of the Fifth Annual Fowl Festival. Total entries for the parade were, from left, clown Stuart Hays, 4; behatted Sharon Florance, 4, who eventually won the contest; Indian Melissa Doody, 3; and Adam Leichtweis, 2, pushed by his brother Michael.

A BOUVIER DOG led this plucky friend during Sunday's parade.

Fowl event ruffles many feathers

WITH A WISH AND A PRAYER, four entrants lined up with their feathered friends, sending them aloft when the word "go" was hollered.

GRABBING his feathered friend after it flew is one of the catchers at the fifth annual Fowl Festival.

MEETING perhaps the biggest chicken of their lives were these youngsters, part of the 6,000-member crowd during the Fowl Fest Parade.

WILL IT DROP? That's what these spritely gentlemen, Scott Lerons, left, and Fred Hill, right, seem to be asking as they stroll the egg walk, a new feature of the Fowl Festival, on Saturday afternoon.

INTREPID Crier reporter Dan Bodomo prepares here to cast the "Fallet-ter Prize" to the winds of fate. After a fine start, the bird recognized a friend in the crowd and stopped to chat.

says, "State Rep. Perry Bullard will inform us on Proposal A, and Proposal C will be explained by Lois Work, school finance coordinator for New Detroit, Inc. and a member of the Commission for Property Tax Reduction."

Five-minute presentations on each proposal and a brief update on current Michigan taxation structure will be followed by a question-and-answer period.

"Because there are so many proposals, we feel it would be very helpful to the community to have an open meeting," stated LWV co-chairperson Michele Howard. "We cordially invite and encourage the public to attend."

Plymouth-Canton Community School

District radio station WSDP (88.1 FM) is making plans to tape-delay the meeting on Friday, Oct. 17 from 6 to 7:30 p.m. as a service to the community. Omnicom of Michigan will tape-delay the program on cable TV, Channel 3, on Thursday, Oct. 30 at 7 p.m. -- the first program from this community to be shown on a public-access channel.

Twp. to extend sheriff pact?

and qualify Plymouth Township from future annexation attempts is left in the jurisdiction of the State Boundary Commission, which rules on those attempts.

In response to the second question, Kelley said a charter township, such as Plymouth Township, could not qualify for exemption from annexation if it contracted with an out-county agency, such as the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

"... a charter township entering into a contract for police protection with a governmental agency, other than the county sheriff for the county wherein the township was located, would not qualify for exemption from annexation," Kelley wrote.

With Kelley's opinions on these two questions, at least one alternative faced by the Board of Trustees in terms of police service has been ruled out. First, the township cannot contract with the Washtenaw County Sheriff's Department.

And, the question of whether a one-officer department would qualify Plymouth Township from annexation attempts by neighboring communities is still up in the air. The board should consider that option with caution.

Other options -- such as contracting with the City of Plymouth or other local agencies -- will still be under consideration by the Board of Trustees within the next four years.

flashers on and are traveling down the road to get to the scene of an accident, it's dangerous to have another vehicle -- perhaps coming from a different direction -- responding to the same call, he added.

Fenton said the State Police are responding to calls made to the sheriffs because "they don't want to see their post cut."

The state is asking them to justify their existence and the locals (in the Northville area) have their own departments, said Fenton.

"All we're asking is that we sit down and work this out. While they (the State Police) are jumping our runs, they aren't covering their own area," he said.

Toilet nabbed

A portable toilet was stolen from Plymouth Township's McClumpha Park, Wayne County sheriffs report.

The larceny was reported to sheriffs at 11:55 a.m. last Saturday by township employe Robert Roabacer who said the toilet had been at the park at 4 p.m. Friday, said sheriffs. They also reported that a second toilet had been pushed over at the park.

City-Twp.OK library pact

A cooperative library services agreement has been worked out between the City and Township of Plymouth.

According to Library Director Pat Thomas, "The township is very much in favor of this agreement. It is long overdue that they have some input into the operation of the library."

The agreement will set up a five-member library commission. Two members each will be appointed from the city and township, with one more elected from Canton. City Manager Henry Graper, Jr. said he felt that Canton, which is now assembling its own library, would remove itself from the Dunning-Hough library operation within three years. The elected library commission slot then vacated would be filled from either the City or Township of Plymouth.

Members will be appointed for four-year terms. Graper added he would like it stated that a member could be removed for missing three meetings in a row, due to the difficulty of achieving a quorum with only five members. Meetings will be bi-monthly.

Library commission members will be responsible for preparing reports and recommendations to local government offices; receiving gifts and administering trusts; conducting and maintaining the public interest in the library; submitting budgetary needs; and representing the library in dealings with the Wayne County Public Library Board.

Thomas said that such an agreement is not new, stating the City and Township of Northville have had such a pact for several years.

Kiwanis Clubs help Girl Scouts at camp

Members of the Plymouth and Colonial Plymouth Kiwanis helped Girl Scouts apply 26 gallons of stain to their camp house at the Huron Valley Girl Council's Camp Crawford Troop House near Ypsilanti recently.

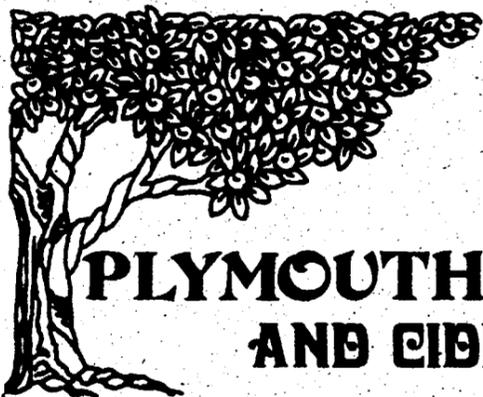

Bill Miller, George Kenyou, Bill Leonard, and Jim Vermeulen were Plymouthites who helped along with chairman of the project, Tim Yoe, a Colonial Plymouth Kiwanis member. Yoe is also a member of the Board of Directors of the Huron Valley Girl Scout Council.

Other Plymouth members who participated in the "staining bee" were Bill Robinson, Dick Anderson, Gene Overholt, and Ted Campbell.

Senior Girl Scouts Jeanne and Doris Yoe of Troop 501 in Plymouth prepared a spaghetti dinner for the stainers after they had finished. In addition to the stain, the Colonial Plymouth Kiwanis donated the food along with the Girl Scout Council.

Chiefs fumble way to league loss

BY JAY KEENAN

The Canton football team lost its homecoming Western Six League game Friday night, 21-0, as Northville rolled to a 13-0 first quarter lead and stoke the show from the lackluster Chiefs.

Western Six league game 21-0, Friday night.

Costly turnovers by the Chiefs set up all three of the Mustangs scoring drives, as Canton lost the ball five times on four fumbles and one interception.

"We gave the ball away too many times," said Chiefs Coach Richard Barr. "I don't know what went wrong and I was surprised we played this bad."

"Northville did a couple of things differently defensively and we tried to adjust at halftime. We moved the ball a little bit in the second half but we couldn't get it far enough to score."

The Mustangs first score came midway through the first quarter after junior halfback Mike Clayton fumbled to Northville at the Canton six-yard line.

Two plays later, Mustang quarterback Dave Greer fought his way into the endzone from 10 yards out for the touchdown. The extra point was good, and Northville led 7-0 with 6:50 remaining in the first quarter.

The Mustangs scored again in the first period on another Chief mishap following the kickoff.

With Canton at their own 41-yard line, Greer picked off a pass from Chief quarterback Bill Childs and returned the ball to the Canton 32 yard mark.

Several plays later, Greer hit Brian Pratt wide open in the endzone for a 23-yard touchdown pass. The extra point attempt was wide, and the first quarter ended with Northville leading 13-0.

The teams battled to a scoreless second quarter and the score remained the same at the half.

Halfway into the third quarter, the Chiefs took a Mustang punt and drove as close as

IT WASN'T THE kind of performance that the Canton football team would like to remember. In fact, the Chiefs had so much trouble last Friday that frustration became the word that night. Here Dave

League football triumph for Salem

BY KEN VOYLES

The Salem football squad warmed up for this weekend's homecoming game against Belleville by downing the Allen Park Jaguars, 20-6, in a hard fought football contest that was as fierce as the winter weather Friday. The Suburban Eight League win gives the Rocks a 3-2 overall record.

"They (Allen Park) came to play that is for sure. We had a good first quarter and fourth quarter but we didn't play much in between," said Salem Coach Tom Moshimer. "It was a tough game after the loss last week but the team stayed on top and came back playing when they had to."

The Rocks scored once in the first and second quarters and once in the final period.

The first touchdown came on the Rocks opening drive of the game. As has happened all year for the team, that first drive of the game proved very important in deciding the final victor.

This time Salem looked powerful. Ron Brewer and Dave Skone paced the slow ground attack that started at Salem's 49-yard mark.

Brewer drove 16 yards to the Allen Park 24-yard line, then seven yards, then seven more to the AP 10-yard line.

Brewer then ran three more times to the AP four-yard line. On a fourth down situation, Brewer broke into the endzone from right tackle. It was midway in the quarter. Brian Lewandowski's extra point kick was no good and Salem led, 6-0.

On the following drive for AP, the Jaguars drove to the Salem 23-yard line only to fumble away the football. The Rocks recovered at their own 15-yard line and finished the quarter driving to their 30.

In the second quarter, the drive faltered at midfield and Salem punted. AP received the football at its own 13-yard line, but failed to move the ball and were forced to punt.

On that punt, from the 15-yard line, the Salem interior line rushed through the AP front line and the punt was blocked. Dave Slavin picked up the football and scampered in the endzone for the touchdown. Again it was midway into the quarter.

A two-point conversion attempt was stopped and Salem was ahead at the intermission 12-0.

The entire third quarter was spent trying to move the football but neither squad is successful and the quarter ends still 12-0.

Seven minutes into the final quarter Salem was forced to punt deep in its end. AP received and took the ball at the Salem 39-yard line. From there the Jaguars took advantage of a 15-yard penalty to Salem and then scored when halfback John Longo threw a halfback pass to halfback Bob Vadasy for 21 yards. AP's two-point effort failed. Salem led 12-6.

Late in the quarter, Salem was forced to punt. AP received but Vadasy fumbled the punt and Salem took the football at the Jaguar 14-yard mark.

Quarterback Jeff Hubert threw a pass to Mark Kitz to the two-yard line and Slavin drove off tackle on the next play to score the touchdown. Less than a minute remained.

The two-point conversion was good and Salem tallied 20 to AP's six.

"The defense as usual was pretty good. We scored a touchdown then we seemed to let down, then we came back fighting harder than before. The let down is important and shouldn't happen and I got mad

Salem golfers at Bedford Invit

The top 28 teams in this state and from Ohio competed in the Bedford Golf Invitational last weekend. Among those squads was Bob Water's Salem contingent.

Other teams included the best five from Northwest Ohio, the best five in each of Class A and B and league champions from across the state.

Salem finished the competition and left early before the final standings were in, but according to Waters the Rocks bested more than half the field and placed in the top 12 teams.

"It was a great experience for the kids. It was wet and frozen and the scores were high that day. The medalist had a 79," said Waters. "It was a class, class field."

The Rocks geared for regional competition and the team tried to step above the let down and take control of the game again," said Moshimer.

Brewer paced the ground game with 72 yards in 15 carries. Skone had 40 yards and Slavin had 18 yards.

The Rocks were also aided by three interceptions one each by Kitz, Geoff Baker and Kirk Soluk.

The Rocks will be home this Friday for homecoming against Suburban Eight League opponent Belleville. The game will start at 7:30 p.m.

and Suburban Eight League finals with the Bedford event and two regular matches last week.

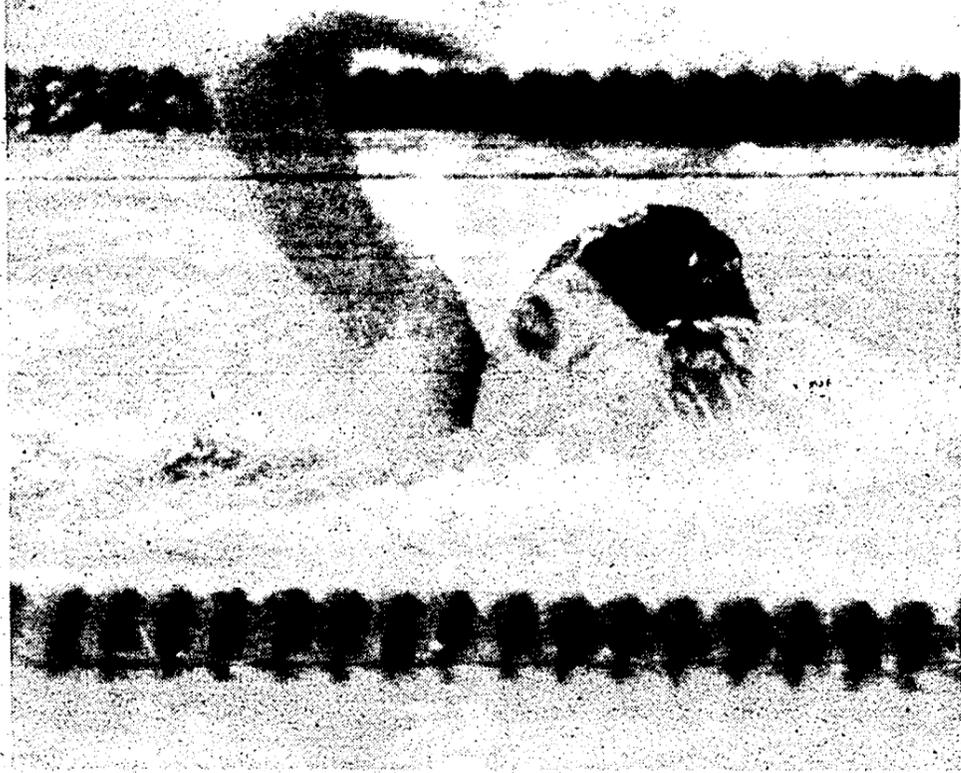

Salem will host the regional golf tourney for this locale on Friday at Brae-Burn Golf Course. The competition will start at 9:30 a.m. and run all day.

"We've got some highly skilled people and I look to do reasonably well," said Waters. "We have the home course advantage. We should be among the top three teams to finish."

If that is the case, Salem will advance to the state finals at Marywood Golf Course in Battle Creek on Oct. 18.

As for the Suburban Eight League match it will be held next Monday at Salem Hills

Salem swimmers 3rd at RU Relays

The Salem swimming team started last week with its first loss of the season, but managed to win another dual meet and finish third at the Redford Union Relays held last Saturday at RU and including nine teams from the area.

Livonia Stevenson won the relays with 92 points, while West Bloomfield was second with 69.

The Rocks tallied 58 points. Canton swimmers finished ninth with 23 points.

There were 10 different relay races and the Rocks successfully qualified for each event with strong efforts in the preliminary rounds of swimming.

The Rocks best finishes of the competition came in the 400-yard freestyle relay and the 200-yard backstroke relay with second places in each.

The foursome of Lisa Trahey, Ellen Wall, Kelly Brandt and Nancy Lazarus teamed up for second in the freestyle event with a time of 4:17.6, while Debbie Darlington, Sally Weimer, Amy Dunn and Linda Wochna had a time of 2:06.5 for second in the backstroke.

Divers Cindy McSurely and Patti Larson finished third for the Rocks with a combined total of 189.8 points.

Wochna, Corinne Cabadas, B.J. Ping and Terri Eudy combined for fourth in the 400-yard medley relay with a time of 4:36.7.

Kim Leesch, Karen Kohler, Kim Nelson and Corinne Cabadas were fourth in the 200-yard breaststroke with an effort of 2:30.9.

Eudy, Brandt, Lazarus and Julie Cabadas were fourth in the crescendo relay with a time of 5:19.6. Crescendo swimmers race 200, 150, 100 and 50 yards in that order.

Dunn, Ping, Wall and Weimer teamed for fifth in the 400-yard individual medley relay with a 4:54.2, while Julie Kenny, Trahey Leesch and Julie Cabadas were fifth in the 200-yard freestyle event with a time of 1:59.5.

"It was a really competitive meet. With Stevenson, Bloomfield, Bentley, Franklin, Trenton, Farmington and Canton there, it made for some strong swimming," said Salem Coach Chuck Olson.

"I was happy to see we placed in every event. We just wanted to qualify everybody and get everybody into the finals and we did that," continued Olson.

Last Thursday, the Rocks defeated Livonia Franklin 116-56 in a non-league swim meet. The Rocks were first and second in the medley relay when Darlington, Kohler, Ping and Eudy clocked 2:09.5 and Weimer, Nancy Workman, Brandt and Heather Campbell clocked 2:24.0.

Trahey was first in the 200-yard freestyle, 2:25.8, and Ruth Ettinger was second, 2:31.7.

Dunn won the 200-yard individual medley, 2:42.4, and Corinne Cabadas was second, 2:46.2.

Larson won the diving with 198.5 points and McSurely was second with 171.1 points.

Lazarus was first in the 100-yard freestyle, 1:02.6, and Weimer was second, 1:03.0.

Wall captured the 500-yard freestyle, 6:31, and Robin Cummings was third, 6:45.9.

Darlington won the 100-yard backstroke, 1:13.7, and Dede Downing was third, 1:28.1.

Eudy, Kohler and Leesch went one, two, three in the 100-yard breaststroke with times of 1:15.5, 1:22.5, and 1:29.6.

Canton swim team triumphs

The Canton girls' swim team improved its season record to 2-3 with a 95-68 win over Dearborn Fordson last week.

Kris Burns, Kim Massey, Mary Reardon, and Missey McMurray were winners in the 200-yard medley relay at 2:14.01. Reardon, Kathy Dunbar, Janet Powell, and Massey also took a first in the 400-yard freestyle relay, 4:31.19.

Other winning performances by the Chiefs were recorded by Kathy Stern in the 100-yard butterfly, 1:12.85; Debbie Dickinson in the 100-yard freestyle, 1:08.04; and McMurray in the 500-yard freestyle, 6:23.35.

Second place showings for Canton were provided by Powell in the 200-yard freestyle, 2:29.47; McMurray in the 200-yard individual medley, 2:51.49; Nancy Murphy in the 50-yard freestyle; Burns in the 100-yard backstroke, 1:19.32; and Brownyn Fitzgerald in the 100-yard breaststroke, 1:26.53.

Saturday, Canton competed in the Redford Union Invitationals and placed ninth in the 12-team event.

The Chiefs best performance came from Stern, Reardon, McMurray, and Massey who teamed up to provide a third-place

Julie Cabadas, Corinne Cabadas, Ping and Lazarus were first in the 400-yard freestyle race, 4:13.1, while Campbell, Renee Rudin, Beth Argende and Donna Kamen were third, 5:16.3.

The beginning of the week featured Brighton beating the Rocks 95-77 for the team's first loss in seven meets.

Best efforts that day for Salem were

Eudy, first in the 50-yard freestyle, 27 seconds and first in the 500-yard freestyle,

5:43.9; and Corinne Cabadas first in the breaststroke, 1:16.6, and Nelson second in that event, 1:21.8.

Gilles won No. 1 singles, 6-0 and 6-1, over Devorak; Carol Gillespie won No. 2 singles, 6-2 and 6-3, over McCalla; Carol Hathaway won No. 3 singles, 6-1 and 6-1, over Lively; and Dobel won No. 4 singles, 6-4, 5-7, and 7-6, over Hay.

Braun and Moon defeated Raymond and Salick, 6-0 and 6-0, while Maggio and Sterling beat Lively and Hay, 6-0 and 6-1, and Lynn Hathaway and Baker won, 6-0 and 6-0, over Baranski and Meyers.

Salem Coach Judy Braun has been quite pleased with the team's efforts citing doubles teams Maggio-Sterling and Baker-Hathaway as an example of the Rocks excellent play.

"We are ranked with the top teams in the state ninth or tenth and I fell slightly insulted. (Ann Arbor) Huron and Pioneer are ranked ahead of us and we did better than they did at the end of last year and at state," said Braun.

The Rocks were also highly pleased with the Kingswood Invitational last week seen as a measure of what the team can do. "We still could have played better at the invitational," said Braun.

(Editor's note -- At the Kingswood Invitational last week, the Salem doubles teams of Maggio-Sterling and Baker-Lynn Hathaway reached the finals of the doubles championships and not the consolation finals as reported.

Maggio-Sterling defeated Portage Northern, 6-0 and 6-1, then upset top ranked Grosse Pointe South, 6-2 and 6-4, before bowing in the championship, 6-4 and 6-3, to a Kingswood twosome.

Baker-Hathaway, at No. 3 doubles, defeated Sturgis, 6-2 and 6-1, then defeated Grosse Pointe South, 4-6, 6-3 and 6-0, before losing to Kingswood in the championship, 6-0 and 6-1.)

Canton cagers down WL Western, now 5-2 overall

BY JAY KEENAN

The Canton girls' basketball team collected their second straight Western Six victory of the season by downing Walled Lake Western, 72-59, Thursday night.

The win upped the Chiefs record to 2-0 in the league and 5-2 overall.

Despite the 13 point win, Canton Coach Mike McCauley admitted that his team didn't play up to their potential.

"It wasn't a real good game," said McCauley. "We played pretty sloppy, but we just took off on the fast break and ran with them."

Phyllis Cunningham, an assistant coach for the Chiefs, felt Canton didn't play as aggressive as they should because the Warriors had a poor record going into Thursday night's action.

"I think Canton let up and they thought it was too easy of a game," said Cunningham. "Walled Lake came in with a 1-6 record and we came in at 4-2."

The Chiefs had a slim 15-12 lead after the first quarter, and jumped to a 34-27 leading margin at the half.

The Warriors pulled to within a basket after one minute into the third quarter, but Canton increased the lead to 51-43 as the quarter ended.

In the final period, the Chiefs outscored Walled Lake by four points to slam the door, and secure another league victory.

Pearl Cunningham had the hottest night for Canton with 19 points. Jean Timlin and Cyndi Sovine followed with 12 and 11 points respectively.

"We're looking good overall, and we have almost all juniors this year that are going to be back," said McCauley. "This team is going to be tough for the next two years."

"This year we've got a lot more talent and we're going to show it."

Last Tuesday, the Chiefs were victorious in a non-league duel with Walled Lake Central edging them 59-57.

Canton jumped out in front with a 16-8 margin after the first quarter, and went in at halftime with a healthy 30-21 lead.

After the Chiefs ended the third ahead 44-36, the Vikings began to close the gap throughout the final stanza.

Walled Lake nearly came back to tie it in the final 42 seconds of the game with Canton leading 59-57. After a Chief foul, a Viking player attempted two shots from the line, but missed them both.

Central's last chance to send the game into overtime was stopped with 12 seconds remaining when Colleen Crissey stole the ball from a Viking counterpart on the Canton side of the court.

Reggie Ruggiero was the top shooter for the Chiefs with 23 points. Cunningham and Timlin were second in scoring with 12 points apiece.

Canton's next rival will be against Farmington Harrison, at Harrison tomorrow night, starting at 7:30 p.m.

Canton tennis team gains 2 league wins on Monday

The Canton girls tennis team raised its overall record to 6-3 and 5-2 in the Western Six League with two wins over Farmington Harrison on Monday, including a rain make-up, 4-3 and 4-3.

In the first match of the afternoon, at No. 1 singles, Eileen McGlenn lost to Joell Lukasiewicz 7-1 and 6-3, while Lori Smith defeat Karen Trevas at No. 2 singles 6-0 and 6-2.

Marianne Pink was victorious at No. 3 singles over Liz Kaviess of Harrison, 6-1 and 6-2, and Kris Harrison was awarded a win over Leslee Tsaffman by default.

At No. 1 doubles, Julie Swain and Sheryl Smith were downed by Burke and Burke, 6-3 and 6-3, and Lisa Scholtz and Heather Hawkins were defeated by Huntoon and Moehlman, 1-6, 6-4 and 12-10.

Barb Rupprecht and Ann O'Connell pulled off a win against Kappichioni and Fitzpatrick in third doubles, 6-0 and 6-1.

McGlenn was defeated by Lukassiewicz in her second match Monday at No. 1 singles, 6-1 and 6-1, while teammate Lori Smith picked up a victory at No. 2 singles over Trevas, 6-2 and 6-1.

At No. 3 singles, Pink won over Moehlman, 6-2 and 7-6 and Harrison best Jill Taylor, 7-5 and 6-3.

Swain and Smith lost for the second time to Burke and Burke, 7-5 and 6-4, and Scholtz and Hawkins were downed by Kaviess and Huntoon at No. 2 doubles, 6-3, 2-6 and 7-4.

In No. 3 doubles action, Rupprecht and O'Connell took their second straight victory of the day dumping Kappichioni and Allen 6-0 and 6-1.

The Chiefs, who are currently in second place in the Western Six behind Northville, are getting prepared for the league finals which will be held next Tuesday at Northville.

"We've been pretty consistent this year and I think we'll do pretty well," said Canton coach Cyndi Burnstein. "I don't know, however, if we'll be able to knock off Northville. They have a tough squad and they'll have to play below par in order for us to win."

Canton harriers win 7th

The Canton Cross Country team raised its Western Six record to 2-1 by racing to a 19-38 victory over Livonia Churchill last Thursday. The Chiefs overall record now stands at 7-1.

Canton's Steve West recorded the best performance of the afternoon with a time of 16:42.

Other Chief runners with strong showings were Brian Jones, second, at 16:45; Scott Hand, fourth, 16:55; Dan Inloes, seventh, 16:58; Mike Talaga, ninth, 17:14; Dave Bennett, 13th, 17:55; and Barron Smith, 14th, 18:12.

Jim Patterson had the Chargers' best time finishing third clocking 16:52. Marc Blais followed with a sixth-place finish at 16:57, and Jim Brodie was eighth at 17:04.

"We thought it was going to be a close contest against Churchill but our team ran a real good race," said Canton Coach Jim Hayes. "Our times throughout the year have been dropping drastically, which has helped us a lot."

"West ran his best run of the season by dropping 30 seconds off his time from last week's performance. Bennet has improved a lot also, but we still need to get his time down lower."

The girls' squad, also competed against Churchill 22-36 to lower their overall record to 0-2 and 0-1 in the league.

Julie Recla of the Chargers finished first at 20:39 followed by Linda Brown in second 20:59.

Canton runners scoring in the race were Cathy Brophy, third, 21:24; Charlotte Thomas, fourth, 23:21; Patty Rising, seventh, 24:09; Mary Bardelli 11th, 26:59; and Barb Rising, 13th 27:13.

"The girls are improving in their performances against the clock, but the team doesn't have enough committed to run as a team, which has kept us from competing," said Hayes.

The Chiefs next meet will be tomorrow against Farmington Harrison starting at 4 p.m. at Cass Benton.

the Northville 36 in an effort to get back in the game. On a fourth down situation, however, Childs mishandled the ball while attempting to pass and was nailed at the Mustang 43 to end any kind of a threat.

Northville's final tally came in the final stanza with nine minutes left in the game.

With Canton at their own 16-yard line, half-back Dave Simms tried to shag a late pitch from Childs, but the toss fell behind him and rolled to the Chiefs two-yard line.

On the Mustangs following series, Bob Thompson bullied his way across the goal line for the touchdown. The Mustangs scored a two point conversion on the extra point attempt to take a 21-0 lead with 8:34 left on the clock.

The Chiefs made a last ditch effort to get on the scoreboard in the final minute of play, but couldn't move further than the Northville 26. It was Canton's strongest offensive penetration of the evening.

"They gave us a different look" said Barr. "The first time when you play a team and run the wishbone offense, you never know what they're going to do to you."

"Northville wasn't in a straight 5-2 or 6-1. They put one linebacker over at nose-guard, and shifted the linebacker at tight end side between the end and tackle, and brought their monster back on their split end side.

"Then on defense, we'd decide to blitz and that's when they dump it over the middle. Next year I figure we're probably going to be a little more prepared and at least have a better idea what we're going to see."

The Chiefs had their least productive night in rushing of the season gaining a total of 47 yards. Scott Brookhouse had the best night in Canton's running game with 32 yards on 11 carries.

The Chiefs, who are now 1-4 overall and 0-3 in Western Six competition, are gearing up to ace Livonia Churchill Friday night at Churchill. Game time will be 7:30 p.m.

SOMETIMES TO tackle an opposing player it takes a little bit of luck and a long arm reach. In these two photos from Canton's gridiron clash with Northville last Friday night, Chief defensive tackle

Dan Jurek shows just how to bring down an enemy runner by grabbing the player's jersey (top photo) and then yanking him to the ground for a clean, somewhat unique tackle. Canton lost the Western Six League game 21-0. (Crier photos by Robert Cameron)

Canton golfers finish frustrating season

The Canton golf squad wound up its dismal duel season last week with losses in a league and non-league match.

The Chiefs will complete their season tomorrow against Waterford Mott and then go to the regionals at Brae-Burn Golf Course on Friday.

The Chiefs will also compete in their Western Six League match next Monday at Godwin Glenn Golf Course.

"We probably could come in the top three or four with just a little bit of luck," said Canton coach Cassey Cavell. "We've been up and down, but we'd like to think we could be in the top teams. It will be tough."

Last week against Northville, the Chiefs tumbled 204-215 in a league defeat.

Doug Moffatt carded a 42 as did Kevin Norton. Sean McManaman and Paul Norton had 43s, while Paul Phillips shot a 45.

"The kids are playing better than usual. It's the inexperience that hurt us most. We come into the final two or three holes of a course and we start to press it too much and we get tight so we don't finish as well as we start a match. Our troubles have come in those last holes," said Cavell.

Earlier the Chiefs fell to Redford Thurston and Salem in a three-way match. Canton scored 244.

Norton paced the Chiefs with a 46, while Moffatt and McManaman had 48s. Phillips shot a 49 and Dave Musch had a 53.

"It is a little late for us right now, but we are working to get and build that potential for next year so that we can be a contender," said Cavell.

Canton has won just one match in seven outings.

Volleyball teams still needed

There are still openings available for teams in three different volleyball leagues sponsored by the Canton Parks and Recreation.

A minimum of eight players per team is required. Entry fee is $50 per team.

The women's league will start Oct. 22 at Field Elementary School, while the men will get under way Oct. 23 at Miller Elementary. Also on that date a coed program will begin at Hulsing Elementary School.

For registration information call 397-1000 or visit the Parks and Recreation Office at 1150 South Canton Center Road.

Salem harriers suffer 2 defeats now 1-5 overall

The Salem cross country doesn't have much to cheer about when you look at its overall record of 1-5 but at the same time, coach Scott Dunson said that his charges are steadily improving with each meet and that the team is still showing some good times.

"Everybody has improved in every meet. We're a young team and the guys are looking to the next two years together," said Salem coach Dunson. "We've had a lot of good times on our part and the guys are not frustrated by not winning."

Salem lost to Dearborn 15:50 in a Suburban Eight League duel meet over a 5000-meter course.

Frank Brosnan paced the Rocks with an eighth place finish with a time of 17:55. Chris Kopach was next with a time of 18:00. Skip Whittaker had a 18:04, Chris Whittaker had a 18:35, and Brad Hartell rounded out Salem's top runners with an 18:42.

The Rocks also fell to Livonia Churchill 15:50. Brosnan clocked 17:55, Chris Whittaker, 18:02, Kopach, 18:11, Skip Whittaker, 18:15, and Hartell, 18:21.

The Rocks will be home tomorrow at Cass Benton for a league meet with Livonia Bentley. Meet time is 4 p.m.

Golf Course from 10 a.m. through the day.

"The interesting news about the league meet is that Trenton (which defeated Salem; earlier for its only loss) was upset by Dearborn. The league meet will be between Trenton and us on Monday," said Waters.

Earlier in the week, the Rocks defeated Dearborn Edsel Ford in a Suburban Eight League match and won a three-way match with Redford Thurston and Canton.

Register for junior basketball

The final date for registration of the Plymouth Canton Junior Basketball Association will be held Saturday Oct. 11 at Canton High's Phase III.

Registration will be conducted from 8:30 a.m. to 1 p.m. at the school for all leagues.

The season will get under way Oct. 23 with practice dates held weekly beforehand.

The program is also looking for volunteer help from adults and for referees. To inquire, stop during registration.

but we are consistent," said Salem Coach Bob Blohm. "It was a sound game for us."

According to Blohm, the Rocks toughest part of the season starts this week and has, in fact, already started with the team's game against Dearborn Edsel Ford yesterday.

"This is it. The toughest part of the schedule coming up. Bentley was picked to win (the league) and Edsel Ford was picked to win the league," Blohm said. "There are a lot of good teams coming our way and we have our work cut out for us."

Tomorrow, the Rocks will be at home against Livonia's Bentley and its powerhouse team, also unbeaten in eight outings. Game time is 6 p.m. for junior varsity and 7:30 p.m. for varsity.

Against Ypsilanti, the Rocks opened with nine points in the first quarter and had 11 more in the second. Ypsilanti went with three points in the first period and only two in the second.

The Rocks continued to pull away with 11 more points in the third quarter and 10 in the last quarter.

Ypsilanti finished with four and seven points in the second half.

Cheryl Sobkow had eight points for Salem, while Jan Mackenzie had six as did Carol Ross. Eileen Moore scored five points and Bonny Sutherland contributed four points.

"The teams we'll face tend to score a lot of points. We are a team that doesn't score a lot of points, but we are always in there fighting and have a good defensive game," said Blohm.

Junior baseball

The Plymouth Canton Junior Baseball Association will be holding a very important meeting tonite to elect a board of directors and make plans for the summer season in 1981.

The meeting will take place in Room 128 at Canton High, starting at 7:30 p.m.

car repairs to be.

Everything. Every time I fix your car.

Not only do you get a written estimate in advance, you get a certified mechanic to supervise the work on your car. You even get your old parts back to inspect.

Then, when I'm done, I'll back the work in writing:

You get a written limited warranty that covers all parts and labor for 90 days or 4,000 miles of normal driving, whichever comes first.

Any problems, bring your car and your warranty back. I'll do the work over or refund your money.

Now, maybe you didn't expect all that. But that doesn't mean you shouldn't be able to get it.
