ENTERING ON LIFE

"Some things God gives often; some, He gives only once. The seasons return again and again, and the flowers change with the months, but youth comes twice to none. While we have it we think little of it, but we never cease to look back to it fondly when it is gone."

The truth of these words forces us to the conclusion that, "the days of our youth" are important days. And they are so important because they are the days of decision. As youth enters upon life there are great questions submitted to him for his decision.

In view of this fact the below-mentioned church is going to observe what is called Vocation Day. Each preaching service is to be in the interests of our youth and the young people are especially invited to attend these services.

Bacon Will Be A Candidate In 1916

Mark E. Bacon, of Wyandotte, will be a republican candidate for congress from the second district again in 1916. He makes the announcement in communications to friends here from Palm Beach, Fla., where he, with his family, is spending the remainder of the winter. Mr. Bacon was a candidate for congress several years ago, but was not nominated under the old convention system. In the last campaign Mr. Bacon was nominated and went out of Wayne county with a large majority, which was overcome, however, by the "home vote" of Samuel W. Beakes, democrat, of Ann Arbor, the latter being elected for a second term.

Lincoln Anniversary

Eddy Post No. 231, G. A. R. will observe Lincoln's birthday, Friday, February 12, assisted by Supt. Reels and the pupils of the public schools, with appropriate exercises at the village hall at two o'clock standard time. One of the features of the afternoon will be the presentation of a beautiful flag 8x16 feet to the village of Plymouth by Eddy Post. Commander Ass Joy will present the flag on behalf of the Post and it will be accepted for the village by President Hillmer. A fine program is being prepared by the schools, and the public is cordially invited to attend these exercises. No admission will be charged.

New Officers Elected

At a special meeting of The Star of Bethlehem, held in the I. O. O. F. hall last Tuesday evening, the following officers were installed for the ensuing year:

- Com.—Lady Curtis.
- Vice Com.—Lady Kate Baird.
- Scribe and Accountant—Lady Cora Blunk.
- Treas.—Sir Chas. Curtis.
- Marshal—Sir Elmer Blunk.
- Inside Sentinel—Sir John Mott.
- Outside Sentinel—Sir William Munn.
- Chaplain—Lady Della Blunk.
- Past Com.—Lady Abbie Felt.
- Legate—Sir C. G. Curtis.

The first degree was conferred upon one candidate, and the Eastern Star degree was conferred upon three. The meeting was well attended and after the work, refreshments were served.

Another special meeting of the Star of Bethlehem was held at the village hall on Wednesday evening, Feb. 3, at which the village hall was dedicated to the village of Plymouth.

The ladies of the Presbyterian church will serve a hot dinner at the church Wednesday, Feb. 17. More particulars next week.

If you want a healthy and beautiful head of hair, use Val Dona Hair Tonic. Price 50c and $1.00 a bottle. For sale only at Pinckney's Pharmacy.

Although a Republican township caucus for the naming of delegates to the county convention was held last week Wednesday, another was held Wednesday of this week, owing to the fact that the county committee had designated Feb. 3, as the day caucus should be held throughout the county. Karl Hillmer was chairman of the meeting and W. T. Felt, secretary. W. H. Hoyt, F. W. Samsen and George Richardson were chosen as delegates.

Council Had a Busy and Important Session

At the regular meeting of the village council Monday evening a petition signed by 120 electors of the village of Plymouth was presented to the council asking that body to pass a resolution to submit to the voters of the village an opportunity to express their wishes at the coming village election, March 8th, as to whether they were in favor of the village council accepting or rejecting the saloon licenses in this village for the year 1915-1916. The council by an unanimous vote adopted a resolution granting the request of the petitioners. The purpose of the petition, as we understand it and as it was explained by several present interested in the matter, was to get the sentiment of the people in regard to this question, that it might serve as a guide to the village council in granting or rejecting saloon licenses when they are presented for that purpose.

Another resolution was presented to the council asking that an amendment to the village charter be made, and that the proposition be put up to a vote of the electors at the coming village election. The main purpose of the amendment is to provide for a manager for the village at a salary of not more than $200 per month, who shall have general control over the affairs of the village, subject to direction of the council. The resolution was laid upon the table for thirty days, and in the meantime ordered to be published in the Mail, that the voters may have an opportunity to fully understand what it provides for. The official council proceedings of this meeting will appear in the next issue of the Mail.

Grangers Held Interesting Meeting

In spite of the severely cold weather last Saturday, the joint meeting of Washtenaw and Wayne county Post No. 1 Granges was well attended. About 500 Grange members were present at the business session in the forenoon, the officers of both counties occupying their respective stations.

Wayne county officers were: President, Bro. English; Vice President, Bro. English; Secretary, Bro. English; Treasurer, Bro. English; and other officers.

The meeting was held in the upper hall to the program. A resolution was passed to petition the state legislature to create a market commission for the purpose of equalizing the sale and distribution of produce; also a resolution to censure Congressman Beakes for voting against the proposed constitutional amendment in favor of prohibition. A short lecturers' conference was conducted by Sister Wagar, lecturer of Wayne county Post No. 1, during which several lecturers told of things accomplished and their plans for the future. Plymouth Grange orchestra gave two selections of music; an excellent paper was read by Sister Stephen of Ypsilanti Grange; three selections of music were given by the North Sylvan Grange quartette which were well received as encores. These were greatly enjoyed, especially "Everybody Loves a Lullaby" and "The Star of Bethlehem." Sister Daisy Lamm of Plymouth Grange, gave a presentation, and the remainder of the time was given to Sister Jennie Budd, secretary of the State Grange, who gave a very interesting talk on her trip to Arkansas, where she went with other agricultural educators to observe the cotton growers in other lines of farming and in bettering their home conditions.

Wayne county Post No. 1 is invited to meet with Washtenaw at Ann Arbor, March 2nd.—Doc.

Mrs. Marshall Smith of Bedford, and Mrs. G. W. Samsen of Detroit, were members of the State Grange, Mrs. W. F. D.

Last Friday, Henry Millman, who is employed at Bennett Mfg. Co.'s factory, got with what threatened to be a very serious accident. While uncoiling a bundle of wire, one of the ends slipped and hit the lad in the eye. The boy was immediately taken to Harper hospital and it was at first feared that the sight of his eye was gone, but later reports have come from there that they are now hopeful of saving his sight.

THE PLYMOUTH MAIL

F. W. SAMSEN
L. B. SAMSEN, Editor and Manager

During the next few weeks there will do doubt be more or less agitation of the liquor question in Plymouth. The Mail, like other newspapers in the smaller towns in Michigan, will remain absolutely neutral on this question, although its columns will be open for articles on both sides, properly signed by the authors, and will be published at the rate of five cents per line.

The idea of a Carnegie library for Plymouth which was mentioned in the Mail recently, seems to have awakened considerable interest in the matter. It is the sentiment of a great many that Plymouth should put forth every effort to secure an institution of this kind. We understand that the Women's League club is much in favor of the project and will take some action in the matter at their meeting held today. The Mail would be glad to print communications from all who are interested in the securing of a Carnegie library for Plymouth.

A Saline lady has 75 hens that have made a clear profit of $229.97 for one year. She says, "We live on an 80-acre farm and began December 1, 1913, with 75 Barred Rock pullets. They were worth 80 cents apiece at that time, but gave a profit of $2.08 apiece by the end of the year. This is an increase of six cents, or 80 per cent. What other hens raised will do the same?"

Re-appointed Deputy Sheriff for Plymouth

Deputy Sheriff George W. Springer has been re-appointed deputy sheriff for Plymouth township by Sheriff Milton Oakman of Wayne county. As a deserved compliment and a recognition of his ability and services as an officer, Mr. Springer was offered a deputyship on the sheriff's force in the city, but he thought it best to decline the position. For seventeen years Mr. Springer has served as an officer of the law in this township, first as a constable and for the past eleven years as deputy sheriff. During these years, especially the past few years, Officer Springer has had some experiences that the average citizen would not care to pass through. Being absolutely fearless and active in the discharge of his duty as an officer, he has many times placed his life in peril in rounding up desperate characters, who are continually passing through the railroad yards in this village, and his name has become known far and wide among the fraternity of crooks, as a good man to keep clear of. Many times in the dead of night when our citizens are safe and asleep in their homes, Officer Springer is making his way through the railroad yards upon a dangerous mission, or perhaps he is patrolling the village streets on the lookout for some suspicious characters who have been seen hanging around during the day. Plymouth is indeed fortunate in having a guardian of the law who is always on the job as Officer Springer has proved himself to be. In the ferreting out of crime, Officer Springer has shown splendid ability in a number of instances and his clever work has brought the guilty parties to justice. George is probably one of the busiest men in Plymouth, for besides his duties as deputy sheriff he is engaged in the manufacture of cigars, village marshal, village health officer and has charge of the local opera house. With all these duties, he finds time to be an enthusiastic booster for Plymouth and a genial good fellow.

If you want to live in the kind of a town you like, you needn't slip your clothes in a grip and start on a long, long hike. You'll find what you left behind, for there's nothing that's really new. It's a knock at yourself when you knock your town; it isn't your town, it's you! Real towns are not made by men afraid lest somebody else goes ahead. When everyone works and nobody shirks you can raise a town from the dead. And if while you make your personal stake your neighbor can make one too, your town will be what you want to see. It isn't your town it's you.
