Many Attend the Lincoln Chautauqua

Plymouth People Enjoy Six Days of Splendid Entertainments.

Over Four Hundred People Pledge to Buy Tickets Another Year.

The Lincoln Chautauqua, which opened in Plymouth last week Thursday for six days, closed with the entertainment given Tuesday evening. The twelve splendid numbers offered this year made good in every particular. There was a great variety, the highest class music from some of the greatest artists, with a little of the novelty interwoven; thought-provoking lectures, human interest speakers and entertainers. Every program was pleasing and entertaining. In point of attendance the Chautauqua this year surpassed that of last year, but the number of season tickets sold fell below the number of tickets the committee had guaranteed the sale of by quite a few, and the members had to make up the deficit.

The Chautauqua was opened Thursday afternoon by the Rita Rich Company with a program of music and mirth. It was a splendid program and pleased the audience immensely. The evening's entertainment included besides the Rita Rich Company, the pageant, "Columbia's Awakening," which was presented by about seventy-five young people of the community, under the direction of the junior supervisors, the Misses Stillwell and DeGroot, assisted by Mrs. Calvin Whipple and Miss Cassina Penney of this place. The pageant was divided into three scenes. The opening scene represented the birth of America, and closed with the minstrel very prettily danced by the colonial gentlemen and their ladies. The second scene represented Uncle Sam and Savings Bank searching for the good fairy, Thrift, which had been banished from the country by the bad fairy, Extravagance. The little fairies in their dainty costumes and the children representing many other nations of the world gave their songs and dances in a most pleasing manner. In this scene the good fairy, Thrift, was discovered by Uncle Sam and invited to return to America. The third and last scene was Columbia's birthday party. Many little fairies were present, bringing her flowers and the good fairy, Thrift, was present and was again restored to her rightful place. The ladies who assisted in presenting the pageant are deserving of great credit, and it seems incredible that such pleasing results could be obtained from only one week's work, as each one in the pageant is worthy of special mention. The pageant closed with a drill by the Boy Scouts.

Then followed a splendid lecture by Eba. N. I. Nolan. Mr. Nolan has appeared before Plymouth audiences on several previous occasions, and he is a very popular lecturer here. His lecture, last Thursday evening, was wholesome and sounded popular sentiments. No better man could have been selected for the opening day. Mr. Nolan will be welcome in Plymouth again.

Friday afternoon's entertainment was provided by the American Glee Club, and a splendid lecture on food conservation and domestic science by Miss Margaret Hall. Both were very enjoyable. The evening's attractions were the Glee Club and Robert Bowman in character delineations. Mr. Bowman gave a very clever performance.

Saturday afternoon's attractions were Mrs. Ringdorf and Company and a lecture by Mrs. Louise McIntyre on health and hygiene for the war. The soprano solos of Mrs. Ringdorf were beautifully rendered, and her juvenile readings were much enjoyed. Miss Marie McAfee, pianist and harpist, is a musician of rare ability, and her numbers were greatly appreciated. The evening's entertainment was given by Mrs. Ringdorf and Company and the Plymouth in magic and minstrel reading. The latter were very clever in giving their various demonstrations.

Sunday afternoon's program was provided by the Spring-Smith-Holmes Octet and a lecture by Maynard Deery. The Spring-Smith-Holmes Octet has appeared in Plymouth on one entertainment and concert and they are considered as the best in the city.

and he held the close attention of his hearers throughout. The evening program was given by the Smith-Spring-Holmes Octet. Quintet and it is needless to say that every number by that superb organization was enjoyed to the fullest.

The Keller Concert Co. furnished music and entertainment for Monday afternoon's program and Princess Neawanna gave an interesting lecture on "Indian Life." The Misses Keller are concert musicians of rare ability and each number was well received. A feature of their recital was the presentation of some original compositions of Miss L. A. Keller for piano and voice. Princess Neawanna's description of Indian life and customs was very interesting indeed. The evening entertainment was provided by the Misses Keller and a lecture by Ada L. Ward. Perhaps no number on the entire Chautauqua program was so well received as was the one given by Miss Ward. She is an English entertainer and lecturer, and was the first woman to go into the trenches on the battlefields of France. Her description of the life of a soldier in the great conflict in Europe was wonderful and throughout her entire talk held the breathless attention of her hearers. With a blackboard she visualized the hopes, fears, joys and glooms of the boys over there. She completely captivated her audience and many were heard to exclaim that this one number alone was worth the price of a season ticket.

The Lincoln Ladies' Orchestra appeared on Tuesday afternoon. Their musical numbers were well received and much enjoyed. The Lincoln Ladies' Orchestra and the Magill Company were the attractions for the evening performance. The Magill Company is a dramatic organization and is composed of three members. They presented a very pleasing playlet that was well received.

On the last night of the Chautauqua, it was announced that pledges had been received for 402 tickets, in event a Chautauqua was held again next summer. It is the general sentiment that another Chautauqua should be held next year.

Ask Anyone Who Has Used It.

There are families who always aim to keep a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house for use in case it is needed, and find that it is not only a good investment, but saves them no end of suffering. As to its reliability, ask anyone who has used it. Advt.

VEGETABLE HINTS

Try steaming green vegetables instead of boiling them.

Soak wilted vegetables in cold water until they are crisp and fresh.

Soak celery and cabbage for 15 or 20 minutes before using so that any insects or worms will come out.

The French like peas cooked in lettuce leaves. In the top of a double boiler or laid in lettuce leaves in the top of a strainer. Sometimes, too, they add a parsley leaf or a mint leaf to peas in the cooking to give them flavor, but the plain flavor of well cooked green peas is very pleasing without any additions.

Cook beets, carrots and parsnips before peeling. The skins come off after cooking in a very economical and easy way.

Potatoes, too, may well be cooked in their jackets.

To remove the skins of tomatoes, dip them into a pan of boiling water, then chill. The skins can then be easily removed.

If you boil your vegetables, never throw away the water in which they were cooked. It contains valuable material. Use it as the basis of a soup.

Radishes red or white, when a little too late to be eaten raw, may be cooked like turnips and served.

Heat tons are one of the most delicious of greens.

UNITED STATES, LAST HOPE

"The United States is the last reservoir of men, the last reservoir of ships, the last reservoir of munitions and the last reservoir of food upon which the Allied world must depend if Germany is to be defeated and if we are to be free men." Herbert Hoover.

EARL C. MICHENER OF ADRIAN

Candidate for Nomination for Representative in Congress. Second District.

Has lived in Lenawee county thirty-one years. Forty-one years of agriculture by occupation. Served eight years as Assistant and Prosecuting Attorney—four years as Assistant and four dry years as Prosecutor in the county.

He is not the candidate of any faction, organization or machine. If nominated and elected he will at all times energetically represent the masses of the people.

He stands for a new deal. Believes that a Congressman should be elected by the people; that he should not buy his votes with money, or secure his election by pre-election promises. Neither does he believe that one or two men in each county should have the right to dictate which candidates will receive the votes in that county for any office. He stands for clean politics and a square deal. He has never been a candidate for Congress and has no enemies to punish and no political friends to reward.

He is for AMERICA FIRST, LAST AND ALL THE TIME.

If you want such a man go to the Primary on August 27th, and vote for him.

A GROUP OF MICHIGAN BABIES ENTERED IN STATE FAIR CONTEST

Year by year the Better Babies Contest conducted annually by the Michigan State Fair, to be held in Detroit from August 20 to September 8, has been increasing in size and importance. G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the fair association, has been particularly interested in this phase of the fair work, believing that one of the first duties of the American public is to give its undivided support to the child welfare work, providing for the care and health of the future citizens. The contest at the coming exposition will assume greater proportions on account of the active interest the federal government is showing in the baby movement by taking a national survey of the babies in the country.

Mr and Mrs. C. G. Curtiss of Monroe, were guests of Asa Lyon and family, Saturday and Sunday. W. A. Secord of this village, has accepted a position as linotype operator in the office of the Ypsilanti Record. Mrs. Philip Brown of Chicago, whose husband is stationed at Camp Grant, Ill., is spending a few weeks with Mrs. Huldah Knapp.

PREMIER ATTRACTIONS ON STATE FAIR MIDWAY. Government Exposition of Clean Amusement As A War Measure Causes Fair to Increase Expenditures. One of the essentials of war times is good, clean, wholesome amusement. The United States government has put its official stamp of approval on meritorious carnival and circus organizations. Our President, Woodrow Wilson, issued a special message endorsing good, clean and moral entertainments. Secretary McAdoo, director general of railroads, endorsed amusements when he issued orders to furnish special trains and train crews to transport these organizations about the country. High officials of the National Council of Defense have gone on record as favoring all proper amusement for their psychological effect on the people. Mothers, sweethearts, wives and sisters of the boys "Over There" need recreation of all sorts to divert their attention from the horrors of war and alleviate the mental strain consistent with the daily casualty lists issued by the government. Acting upon this premise, G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the Michigan State Fair, has given his personal attention to arranging the Midway and other attractions at the coming exposition.

MICHIGAN STATE FAIR PRESIDENT. JOHN E. HAGGERTY. John E. Haggerty, President of the Michigan State Fair, is a member of the Wayne County Good Roads Commission. Mr. Haggerty has not confined his activities to the county work but has been particularly insistent upon improved drives and good side walks at the Fair Grounds. Each year at his instigation long stretches of pavement and sidewalk are installed. At the 1918 exposition to be held in Detroit, August 30-September 5, over 40,000 square feet of new pavement and 80,000 square feet of new sidewalk will be ready for the visitors.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS. Northville's Wayne County Fair is to be pulled off September 24-27, four big days. The annual reunion of the 22nd Michigan Infantry will be held in Pontiac August 28-29 next. The huckleberry crop is said to be a light one this year. They are selling around 22 cents per quart at the grocery, when they are obtainable. Prohibition is credited with having reduced the population of Eloise about 25 per cent. The inmates now number 558 and is the lowest for years. South Lyon's Chautauque, held recently, was a great success. The ladies of the Red Cross handled the sale of tickets, and thereby added a nice sum to their treasury. The Northville Record was forty-nine years old last week. Here's hoping that the Record, which is one of our most valued exchanges, may enjoy many more years of prosperity upon the journalistic sea. Millard's Plymouth Band of 32 pieces gave a splendid concert on our streets, Thursday evening. The Lincoln Chautauque which starts at that place Friday and runs for one week, will be advertised.—Belleville Enterprise. The Lakeview hotel at Whitmore Lake was recently raided by Washburn county officers, as the result of a quiet investigation, which has been in progress for some time past. Liquors of various sorts were found stored in the cellar and the proprietor, James E. Burke, was placed under arrest. The Deep Springs Water Co.'s plant near the P. M. railway station has become one of Northville's show places. Seven or eight hundred people visited the building Sunday, 366 of them registering. Only visitors from places other than Northville and vicinity are registered.—Northville Record. Assistant Prosecutor Paul W. Voorhies, formerly of Plymouth, is one of the four candidates endorsed by Detroit Bar Association for the Circuit Judgeship primaries. Mr. Voorhies has many friends in this vicinity, who are wishing him success as a most capable man for such a place.—Northville Record. Michigan soldiers and sailors discharged from the military service owing to tubercular infection, will be treated at the state tuberculosis sanitarium at Howell. The War Preparedness Board of Lansing, has voted an appropriation of $21,000 from the $5,000,000 war fund, which will be used to increase the facilities at the sanitarium so that military patients can receive proper care and attention. Probably the best field of wheat raised in Wayne county was on the Quirk farms, VanBuren township. One piece that was gathered and garnered by Dan Allison went a little better than 30 bushels to the acre. It was free of all weeds and readily passed M. A. C. inspection, through which it will all be sold to help build up the future wheat crop of Michigan. While Red Rock did not do as good as some anticipated, it went about two to one, considering the average for Wayne county this year, which is certainly encouraging.

COMFORTS PROVIDED DURING STATE FAIR. Thousands of Dollars Spent for Convenience of Patrons. Physical comfort and personal convenience of the visitors at the Michigan State Fair for 1918, are receiving more attention by the fair association than ever before during any single year in the history of the organization. Thousands of dollars are being expended on the grounds on improvements, which, while having no direct bearing on the exhibits or the fair itself, will add materially to the pleasure derived by the patrons. Over 40,000 square feet of pavement is under construction; 80,000 square feet of new sidewalk will be in readiness when the exhibition opens on August 30 in Detroit; additional comfort stations and retiring cloisters are being provided in every section of the grounds; and hundreds of settees and benches are being placed in the shady nooks. A 32-foot pavement, adjoining to a 12-foot sidewalk, is being constructed from the administration building to the grand stand. Patrons of the coming fair will have a solid sidewalk and pavement to travel from the time of leaving the car until seated in the grand stand. A complete remodeling of the entire lighting system throughout the ground has recently been inaugurated and will become effective before the fair opens. The old, obsolete platinum lamps have been discarded and the more modern nitrogen globes have been installed in all the old fixtures, as well as many additional clusters which have been placed on the grounds. This new lighting equipment will not only increase the light during the exhibition, but will be a large financial saving to the management. Through salvaging the platinum in the old lamps and, with the current which will be saved by the modern bulbs, G. W. Dickinson, Secretary-Manager of the fair, declares the re-organization will pay for itself within two years. Comfort and convenience of the visitors, Mr. Dickinson announces, is one of the primary motives of the fair management and during the ten days of the 1918 State Fair the equipment for this purpose will be greater than ever before. W. H. H. Seger that "foxy grandpa," almost 80 years of age, started yesterday on his annual trip down the Huron via row boat. He was accompanied this trip by three of his grandsons, William and Albert Seger and Roy Crippen. Herald Jacobs was also one of the party. They pitch their tent at any good place when night overtakes them.—Brighton Argus. Stomach and Liver Troubles. No end of misery and actual suffering is caused by disorders of the stomach and liver, and may be avoided by the use of Chamberlain's Tablets. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.—Adv't.

One of the largest Good Roads conventions ever held in the country will be in session three days, September 3, 4, 5, at the fair grounds when the annual meeting of the Michigan State Good Roads Association will convene. On account of the necessity of good roads as a war measure, a special request to attend has been made to every road man in Michigan, by the Hon. Philip T. Colgrove, president of the association. In order to facilitate the road men's movement, Mr. Dickinson, is arranging a motor road building machinery exhibit and demonstration for the benefit of the delegates. Auto Races at State Fair. Many of the world's greatest speed demons will compete for championship honors during the three days of automobile racing at the Michigan State Fair, in Detroit, August 29-September 1. A number of extra races have been arranged by G. W. SCHOOL OPEN FOR BLINDED FIGHTERS

VOCATIONAL INSTRUCTION AND REHABILITATION AT HOSPITAL IN BALTIMORE.

MEN TAUGHT USEFUL TRADES

Soldiers in Field and Camp Get Many Books—Secretary Wilson Explains General Mobilization of Labor for War Industries.

From Committee on Public Information, Washington.—Returning federal soldiers, sailors and marines are being received now for vocational instruction and rehabilitation at Hospital Training School, General Hospital No. 7, the former home of Mrs. T. Harrison Garnett, at Baltimore, Md. The hospital is outfitted to accommodate 200 men and has large recreation fields and an extensive acreage in gardens.

Col. James Bordley of the surgeon general's office in charge of the re-education of the blind, has announced the appointment of O. H. Burritt of the Pennsylvania Institute for the instruction of the blind as the educational director of this army hospital training school, with Miss Jenny A. Turner, former designer for the Massachusetts commission for the blind, as a reconstruction aide. Miss Turner has been working with the returned wounded soldiers at the Walter Reed hospital, Washington.

The blinded soldiers from overseas will be discharged from the hospital after they have been taught a practical self-supporting trade, and sent out in good physical condition, and raised to read standard printing in raised type. The men will be sent to their own home communities and placed in the trades for which they have been trained. Red Cross workers will watch after their welfare.

Co-operating with the army medical department, the Red Cross Institute for the Blind is now making a national survey of industries open to blinded soldiers. Instructions will be made to conform with preparations for these industries. The federal board for vocational education is arranging a plan for the economic and social supervision of all wounded and maimed soldiers.

The war service committee of the American Library association reports that 435,000 books were shipped to American soldiers in France up to July 1. The books went in tonnage space granted at the request of General Pershing on the decks of transports, where they were used by the men on the voyage and unpacked for use in France; in naval vessels for naval bases abroad; and in Red Cross tonnage for the hospitals in France and England.

A total of more than 2,500,000 books have been supplied by the American Library association to the camps and stations in the United States and overseas. Approximately 500,000 of these books were purchased, others having come as gifts from the American people through the public libraries of the country. Nearly 40 library buildings have been erected, and 800 camps in America, alone, have received collections of books.

Two hundred librarians, including leaders in their profession in this country, are giving their time to library war service. Most of these are serving as camp librarians, assistants, and organizers in the field; others are in dispatch offices for the shipment of books to France.

Methods of thrift now enforced in the army quartermaster general's office, including the repair of clothing and shoes, where possible, have cut down the issue of new clothing and shoes from 30 to 40 per cent in some instances.

The plants where the mending is done are run in connection with forts and camps by the camp quartermaster. When a soldier tears or rips a garment he turns it in to his supply officer. When the soles of his shoes wear out or the heel runs down, the shoes go back to the same officer. These garments and shoes are taken to the repair shops managed by the conservation and reclamation officer. When repaired and put in order they are returned to the original owner if possible, and if the original owner cannot be located they serve some other soldier.

Hundreds of women are being employed by the war department in the work of repairing the garments of soldiers and in the laundries at camps and cantonments. Preference in this employment is given the wives, sisters, and mothers of men in the service. By paying $1 a month a soldier is entitled to a weekly bundle of laundry in which the number of articles is not limited.

Do not waste ice, says the United States food administration. Do not use as a luxury to serve with salads, fruits, and sea foods and do not put more than is necessary in glasses of water, tea, and other drinks.

There is to be no curtailment on the use of ice as a necessity, but it should be used carefully in localities where any shortage is indicated. It is considered a necessity when used to preserve food and in administering comfort, and every reasonable effort will be made to see that families are supplied with their legitimate needs.

MANAGEMENT IN WESTERN CANADA FARM LAND PRICES

Stories of phenomenal advancement and prosperity in Western Canada have been told the reading public for some years past. The stories were told when there were hundreds of thousands of acres of splendid land adjacent to railways and projected lines, which could be had on the payment of a mere $10 entry fee, and under cultivation and living conditions. As was prophesied then, the day has come when these are few. There are still available thousands of these; they are some distance now from the railways. The land is as good as ever, but pioneering conditions will have changed. A great many are still taking advantage of this free offer from the government. The story was told when good lands near lines of railway could be bought for from $3 to $10 per acre and the prophecy made that these prices would double in a few years, for the intrinsic value was far more than that. That day has come more quickly than expected. The immense crops of grain that could be raised has brought about the change, and the demand for low priced lands with maximum returns has prompted the keen purchaser as well as the owner of higher priced land from which no greater return could be looked for. Prices of land in Western Canada are still advancing, and will continue to advance until, of course, the limit is reached—when returns will warrant no further increase. That day is not far distant. But, in the meantime, there are large tracts of land owned by land companies and private individuals that have not felt the advance that has been shown in other districts. The opportunity to purchase these should not be lost sight of, and if there are those amongst the readers of this article, which is authorized by the Canadian government, who wish cheap land, such lands as produce from 25 to 40 bushels per acre, and will pay for themselves out of one year's crop, advantage should be taken of the present opportunity.

Coming to Alberta with his family thirteen years ago, his assets consisting of a small outfit and $200 in cash, Mr. O. F. Malmborg has accumulated by farming and live stock raising assets to the value of more than $300,000, and has a personal credit, worth on demand, $100,000. He has not speculated in land, but bought only to farm. Near Blackie, Alberta, he operates 3,100 acres of wheat land. He has just purchased an additional 11,500 acres near Cardston, in Southern Alberta. His personal credit enabled him to finance this deal in Calgary in a little over three hours. The ranch just purchased is a fully equipped stock and grain ranch. At the present time it carries a thousand head of cattle and several hundred horses, and is fully equipped with buildings, machinery, corrals, sheep sheds, dipping vats, etc. That is a story from one district. Let us select one from a district some hundred or more miles from that.

"Peter A. Klansen, who recently moved to Herbert, Sask., from Kansas, has purchased a section of prairie land in the Hillsboro district, about 24 miles northwest of Herbert, for which he paid $12,000 cash. He is erecting temporary buildings to live in while putting the place in cultivation, and, this summer plans to erect good buildings on the farm and equip it for a home. Mr. Klansen recently sold his 80-acre farm in Kansas for $15,000 and is investing the proceeds in Canada."

With the proceeds of the sale of his land in Kansas, this farmer purchased in Saskatchewan a piece eight times as large as he had previously been farming, and had a balance with which to purchase equipment, stock, etc., of $3,000. Moreover as land in Saskatchewan may be expected to yield twice as much grain per acre, he will be able to produce sixteen times as much as formerly.

The average value of farm land for the whole of Canada, including land improved and unimproved, together with dwelling houses, barns, stables and other farm buildings, is approximately $44 per acre as compared with $41 in 1916, according to the latest report of the Census and Statistics branch at Ottawa. A children's recreation drive is on to continue during July and August, under the auspices of the children's bureau, department of labor, and the woman's committee of the council of national defense. It will culminate in "patriotic play week," September 1-7, in which the work of 100,000,000 women in organizing recreation in 10,000 communities will come to an end.

"To be strong for victory the nation must let her children play," said Charles Frederick Waller, associate secretary of the Playgrounds and Recreation Association of America. No time nor money can be spared from war-winning activities, but the winning of the war depends on man power, and man power cannot be sustained in any nation without health and wholesomeness in the children.

Far worse than exhausting America's financial capital would be the exhaustion of child life, which is manpower capital. "England and France began as the United States has been tempted to begin—by letting the children pay too heavily for the war in child labor, increased delinquency, overtaxed nerves, weakened bodies, and premature deaths, but England and France turned to lift war burdens from the children by giving them a chance to play. There is urgent need to give our boys and girls an American square deal—their safety valve of play."

Don't ignore footwear. You must have a good spinal column to keep up with a good job. The condition of the spinal column depends greatly on the feet." Be picturesque if you wish, but be sensible. Wear good stout heels to preserve health."

It is the low prices at which land can be obtained in Western Canada which is rendering this country such an important factor in the production of foodstuffs at the present time. It is enabling men who have been farming small areas in older districts to take up and farm with the same capital areas not only many times as great, but which are also capable of producing considerably larger crops to the acre.—Advertisement.

Save the Babies

INFANT MORTALITY is something frightful. We can hardly realize that of all the children born in civilized countries, twenty-two per cent., or nearly one-quarter, die before they reach one year; thirty-seven per cent., or more than one-third, before they are five, and one-half before they are fifteen!

We do not hesitate to say that a timely use of Castoria would save many of these precious lives. Neither do we hesitate to say that many of these infantile deaths are occasioned by the use of dangerous preparations. Drops, tinctures and soothing syrups sold for children's complaints contain more or less opium or morphia. They are, in considerable quantities, deadly poisons. In any quantity, they stupefy, retard circulation and lead to congestions, sickness, death. There can be no danger in the use of Castoria if it bears the signature of Cass. H. Fletcher as it contains no opiates or narcotics of any kind.

Genuine Castoria always bears the signature of Cass. H. Fletcher

Ability Recognized. "Noah had the whole ocean to himself. He didn't have to be much of a navigator." "Maybe. But you will admit he was a wonder as an animal trainer."

No Sentiment About It. "I presume you are keeping his old love letters for sentimental reasons?" "No. For business reasons. I may want to sue him for breach of promise."

Hot Weather Hits Us Hardest in Stomach

Keep a close watch on your stomach this summer. We need all our fighting strength. War work—change of diet—will make us all easier prey to stomach and bowel trouble than ever before. It is so easy to become overheated on a blazing hot day, especially after eating a hearty meal. And then the excessive heat makes us flood our stomachs with all kinds of cold drinks. That's bad at any time; much worse—even dangerous—when there is the slightest feeling of stomach trouble.

Keep the stomach sweet and cool and free from too much acid—that's about all that is necessary. It's not so much the diet as to keep the poison from starting trouble. You can easily do this if you will just take a tablet or two of EATONIC after your meals.

EATONIC is the wonderful new compound that absorbs the harmful gases and juices and almost instantly drives away stomach misery.

Instead of sudden and painful attacks of indigestion, after you begin using EATONIC you'll forget you have a stomach. And there will be no more heartburn, food repeating, sour stomach, gas pains, or that lumpy, bloated feeling you have so often experienced after eating. Then your appetite—you know how hard it is to satisfy in hot weather—will eat two EATONIC Tablets a half hour before meals—and you will enjoy the results and feel better in every way.

These are a few reasons why you should start using EATONIC today and fortify your stomach against the chances of a hot summer. It costs only five for a big package. Your druggist whom you know and trust, will properly refund your money if you get no more than satisfied.

Tired Nervous Mothers

Should Profit by the Experience of These Two Women

Buffalo, N. Y.—"I am the mother of four children, and for nearly three years I suffered from a female trouble with pains in my back and side, and a general weakness. I had professional attendance most of that time but did not seem to get well. As a last resort I decided to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound which I had seen advertised in the newspapers, and in two weeks noticed a marked improvement. I continued its use, and am now free from pain and able to do all my household work."—Mrs. R. B. ZELINSKA, 408 Wells Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

Burlington, Ind.—"I had a displacement and suffered so badly from it at times I could not get on my feet at all. I was all run down, and at last I got down to do my household work. I was so weak that I could not do a thing. I took Pinkham's Compound and in two weeks I was able to get on my feet and do my household work. I am now as well as ever."—Mrs. J. H. The Low 20th Century Manure Spreaders

PAY THEIR WAY

In actual dollars and cents, Low 20th Century manure spreaders pay their way—and then some. On a central Illinois farm, half a field was covered with manure properly applied by means of a spreader, the other half of the field was left bare.

The field was planted to corn. As soon as the corn became a few inches high, it was apparent that the manured half of the field would yield more than the unmanured half. As the corn grew, the difference rapidly became apparent. When the corn was husked, the manured half of the field averaged 32.6 bushels per acre more than the unmanured half of the field.

At the market price of $0.50 per bushel, the spreader paid the farmer the sum of $16.30 per acre. Ten acres would total $163. There is no question in this farmer's mind about the Low 20th Century spreader paying its own way.

A good spreader has more good reasons for being a part of the farmer's equipment than any other implement. It makes money, saves labor, increases production, pays debts, and accomplishes a much dreaded job easily. It is more essential than a grain binder; the one produces, the other reaps; it works more days and saves more hard work than the binder.

No matter what the size of your farm, there's a Low Century manure spreader for it.
