WHOLE No. 1474

It puts the "PEP" into run down systems. It contains organic Iron, Malt, Manganese and Cod Liver Oil Extract, medicinal agents extensively used as a tonic and strength builder. Valuable for enriching the blood, for aiding the assimilation of food, and for building the health generally. If you have trouble recovering normal health after grippe, cold, bronchitis, or influenza, if your blood is not up to the standard, if your food assimilation is faulty, if you are tired or run down, then you need PEPTONA to help you. It is our best tonic; it is pleasant to take and easily tolerated by the most sensitive stomach. We will refund your money if it does not do you good. For sale only by antly entertained the members of the Woman's Literary Club, their husbands, the Board of Education and few other guests, numbering seventy-five, at their home on Main street, last Friday afternoon. This was a special meeting of the club in charge of the Civic committee for the purpose of listening to talks on Good Roads and Wayside Tree Planting.

The meeting was called to order by the chairman of the Civic committee, when the committee of the conservation committee of the Twentieth Century Club, then addressed the company on "Wayside Tree Planting" as a menorial to our departed sallors and soldiers. The idea of planting trees as a monument to our brave boys who accrificed their lives for their country has swept over the United States, and many of the states fiave taken up this splendid work. Said she, "We cannot all raise monuments, but we can plant a tree." Mrs. Fuller States, and many of the states fiave taken up this splendid work. Said she, "We cannot all raise monuments, but we can plant a tree." Mrs. Fuller of trees for wayside planting, and advised the planting of nut trees. The following is a portion of a poem composed by Mrs. Fuller in remembrance of "Our Boys:".

ECKLES-MICOL

One of the prettiest events of the season was the marriage of Mr. Howard Eckles to Miss Hilds Micol, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alexander-Micol of Forest avenue. The happy event took place at the home of the bride amid beautiful decorations of pink and white and before a large company of relatives and friends. The wedding supper was served Inmediately after the ceremony. The tables were prettily decorated in pink and white with pink and white carnations in artistic baskets. Rev. Luther Moore Bicknell, pastor of the Presbyterian church, officiated at the cermony. Mr. and Mrs. Eckles will take up their residence on the Eckles farm near Northville. The happy couple were the recipients of numerous and beautiful gifts and considerable money to help furnish their new home.

PLYMOUTH WILL NOT FAIL

The people of the community have gone "over the top" so many times during the days of stress and strain that they seem to have the habit, and of course will measure up fully to this, another urgent call.

Clothing—good practical clothing, discarded shoes, etc.—in fact, any wearing apparel, which can be used to advantage by the millions of destitute men, women and children in the war devastated countries—will be most acceptable. Bring, this clothing to the schoolhouse, first room at the left of main entrance, any afternoon this coming week. Someone will be in charge each afternoon, also on Saturday evening, April 5th, until 10 o'clock.

The need is very great. Let us do our duty. If you have but one article, bring that, it will help to make up our quota.

NEW COMMIS-

W. T. CONNER WAS CHOSEN TO SUCCEED HIMSELF AS PRESI DENT OF THE COMMISSION.

At a meeting of the new village commission held Monday evening, the formal organisation of that bedy was completed. W. T. Commer, who has served the village so efficiently as president of the commission during the past year, was unanimously elected to succeed himself for another, year. Mr. Couner has taken a great interest in the affairs of the village and in again selecting him to head the municipality for another term, the commission senformed a sappy and graceful act. The hadget for the commission year was talked over informatly, and at the next meeting of the segumission, the work of the coming year will be taken up with the unnicipal maghinery running immedialty. OBSERVE FIFTIETH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY AT THEIR

Mr. and Mrs. George Butler celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary at their farm, home, Tuesday, March 25, 1919. Mrs. Butler wore the same bonnet veil and gloves she wore on her wedding day, A musical and literary program was a feature of the day, being much enjoyed by all present. A poem composed by Mrs. Ralph Bills of Highland Park, a niece of Mrs. Butler, was read by Mrs. Fred Hoops of Wayne, and is given below. Another poem by Mrs. Andrew Rounds of Ann Arbor, an aunt of Mrs. Butler, who is 76 years of age, was also read. Rev. F. M. Field and Mrs. John Robinson led the friends in singing, "Blest Be the Tie That Binds." "The Old Gray Bonnet" was rendered by Mrs. Hoops and daughter and Mrs. Robinson most effectively. A piano solo by Mrs. M. M. Root of Ann Arbor, and Lohengrin's bridal chorus by Miss Louise Butler, granddaughter of Mr. Butler, and a short talk approprise for the occasion by Edgar Turney of Detroit, a nephew of Mrs. Butler, and a short talk approprise for the occasion by Edgar Turney of Detroit, a nephew of Mrs. Butler, and a short talk appropriate for the occasion by Edgar Turney of Detroit, a nephew of Mrs. Butler, completed the program. The happy couple of fifty years received many beautiful gifts including a large purse of gold. Friends and relatives were present from Flint, Ann Arbor, Detroit, Wayne, Inkster, Howell, New Boston and Birmingham. The children and grandchildren were all present.

Although there will be vacation in the Public schools next week, the sewing department of the Red Cross will be open every day as the building will be heated. This department is now hard at work on another quota of refuge garments and more help is needed. Another appeal is made to the women of Plymouth for aid in this important work. The members of Plymouth Branch have been faithful workers during the war, and it is hoped they will not fall in their efforts now. Come to headquarters any afternoon, except Saturday.

The knitting department of the Red Cross will also be open next week and more knitters are needed for the work. The legs of stocking will be knitted on the machine and the ladies will be asked to make the feet and finish the top. Come get out your knitting needles, and help the government in this relief work.

tween it and the old plant gives 58,800 additional square feet of floor.

The arrest of Oscar Dickerson in Detroit, last Saturday, and who now reposes in the county jail at Ann Arbor, may solve the mysterious disappearance of a herd of sixteen pedigreed steers from the Huron Farms company in Washtenaw county near Ann Arbor last fall. Dickerson was formerly in the employ of the company and when located in Detroit. Sported a $2,000 diamond, had $885 in money and owned two automobiles. Denying connection with the alleged theft, he was taken back to Ann Arbor to answer the charge of grand larceny. It was the slickest job of cattle stealing that has occurred in Washtenaw county for many years, and so mysteriously did they disappear that officers were wont to believe that the ground had opened up and swallowed them.—Ypsilanti Record.

The Inter-Class Basket Ball Games
The week beginning March twentyfirst was the week of the inter-class basket ball games for both the girls and the boys of the High school.
The first of these games was schedfuled to take place, Tuesday night at four o'clock, but because of the lecture in the auditorium, in the svening, the chairs would have to be placed in the afternoon, and so the game was postponed until Wednesday at the same time. It was agreed that the Freshment and the Sophomores should play first, and so four o'clock Wednesday afternon found the girls ready for the game. This game was unevenly matched from beginning to end, owing to the greater amount of practice and experience of the Sophomore girls, but the ninth graders played a fine game, considering that it was their first. This ended with a score one hundred twenty-one to one in favor of the Sophomores.

Juniors.

The third game between the two winning teams, the Sophomores and Juniors, took place Thursday evening of last week. At this game there were several spectators, but unlike the two preceding games, the girls were very evenly matched. This was a close and exciting scrap from beginning to end, both teams having to work hard for their points. The score was thirty-seven to eighteen in favor of the Sophomores. The teams declared that they had enjoyed the series of games very much, and each secretly hoped to win the championship next year.

Boys' Inter-Class Games
On the night of March 19, the first, of the boys' games on the inter-class schedule, was played between the Seniors and Sophomores. Although the Sophomores played hard, the Seniors won with a lead of 40 to 10.
On the following night the Seniors as winners of the night before, played the Juniors. It was a harder game, but the Seniors won again with a lead of 30 to 16, thus winning every game and the school championship.

Today's Reflections

When a Plymouth woman fishes for a husband she generally makes him feel small enough to go through the net. . .

Another objection to Bolshevism is that we're going to have as many tramps as we need anyhow since they lifted the "work or fight" regulations.

It's the easiest thing in the world to make a Plymouth woman happy. Just give her a chance to say, "I told you so."

There may be plenty of room at the top, but we have observed that som men, like some fish, like to feed at the bottom.

With every town planning to erect a soldiers' monument, any man who can lay bricks ought to be in demand for the next few years to

As one Plymouth man said yester-day, the farmer still argues that farming doesn't pay, but the automo-bile agent keeps right on trying to sell him a car.

Now that congress has adjourned its members will, we presume, go right ahead doing nothing, as usual.

We also want to impress upon Plymouth people that looking daggers and making pointed remarks doesn't necessarily indicate a sharp intellect.

If the Huns want to get food faste than they are getting it, they migh try raising from the bottom of th ocean some of the provision ship they bombed.

Sometimes we wonder if the Plymouth girls who wear their hai over their ears will hear the important question a soldier boy is apt task when he gets back home.

The Turk is not asking the peace conference to give him one cent for war damages, which leads us to believe that the Turk is glad he got out of it without being lynched.

The Plymouth merchants who won't spend a dollar in advertising are the same ones who'll lose many a dollar when goods take a drop from war-time quotations.

The allowance should provide a little margin to encourage careful buying and saving possibilities. It should not necessitate so much care or thought as to burden the growing youngster. It should never, under normal circumstances, be "helped out" by irregular gifts or expected to cover other than the recognized items. The allowance, with its purchasing responsibilities, should be increased gradually, steadily. By the time high school is reached the boy or girl should be huying practically all his or her own ciothes. The allowance should provide a interpy, out we are inding that specified exercise in play works wonders in Allsa Wardell tells an interesting story of a boy who called upon her in Cleveland, telling her of his manner of apportioning the rather generous allowance made by his father. He knew to a penny what every article he wore had cost him; he was intelligent regarding relative textile and wearing values; he saved steadily, systematically, with joy.

The child's allowance, it may be added, should be for necesities mainly, wirh but a fair and modest margin for personal tuxuries and pleasures. It should always be recognized as allowing, preferably invested in governmental securities. It should be carefully adjusted, rigidly adhered to on both sides of the burgain. Such respect and observance not only will teach the child good economic habits but will sholish many too frequent annoyances for the financial head of the family.

Each child given an allowance will understand that this sum, with his support and other parents provisions represents his fair thare of the family income, and that, as a decent citizen, he must not agk nor expect to exceed it. An adequate allowance system, moreover, will obviate the evil habit of crysing or pleading for special indulgences and more funds.

Time Table Change Effecting Plymouth

To our patrons residing in Plymouth, we wish to call attention to the fact that beginning March 30, the first car out of Plymouth for Detroit will leave at 5:28 a.m. instead of 5:38 a.m. as at present.

There will be no other change in the schedule, except that the time under which it will be operated will be called Central Standard to conform with federal requirements. This will be the same as the present Eastern Standard time and the hands of our clocks will not be touched at all. Please remember that this change in leaving time of the early morning car is effective March 30.

DELPHIAN'S MET

The Plymouth Delphian chapter held its regular meeting at the High school on Wednesday evening, March 26th, welcoming one new member. Among the topics discussed were-Egypt and the Pyramids. During the discussion on Pyramids, a curious fact was read about the pyramids of México, one of them being over two-hundred feet high. After the regular program was dispensed with, an interesting paper was read on, "The Earth's Formation." The next regular meeting will be held at the High school building on Wednesday, April 9th, at 7:90 p. m., sharp. Some of the subjects to be discussed will be, Social Life in Egypt, Family Life, Occupation, Education and Religious Customs, and a paper to be read on "The Theory of Eventium".

If you are going to have an aucon, advertise it in the Mail.
