LOCAL DEBATERS WIN OVER ECORSE TEAM

HOWELL HIGH DEBATING TEAM MEETS THE LOCAL DEBATERS AT PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL AUDITORIUM, FEBRUARY 18.

Remember the Plymouth-Howell debate at Plymouth High school auditorium, Friday evening, Feb. 15. Plymouth High school's debating team motored to Ecorse, last Friday evening, February 4th, where they debated and defeated the Ecorse trio 3 to 0. The Ecorse High school assembly hall was so crowded that at least one-half of the audience had to stand throughout the debate. Consequently our team spoke under rather trying conditions, although the audience was very courteous throughout the evening. The Ecorse team consisted of two girls and one boy, who knew their speeches thoroughly and had their rebuttal carefully prepared. The Plymouth team consisting of Lyman Judson, Etha Wiseley and Charles Chappel, gave their main speeches with much poise and enthusiasm, and did better work in rebuttal than they did at Ypsilanti. The judges who gave us the 3 to 0 decision and our fourth forensic victory this year were: Mr. Arough, assistant Wayne county superintendent; Mr. Rossa of Wyandotte High school, who coached a debating team in northern Michigan for five years, and Mr. Rivet of the faculty of Northeastern High school, Detroit. This fourth victory for Plymouth ought to take every local citizen to Plymouth High school auditorium, Friday evening, February 18, to hear Plymouth debate with Howell High school. So far in the state series Howell has lost one debate to Ann Arbor, and won three unannouncedly from Ypsilanti Central High, Flushing and Fenton High schools, respectively. Plymouth has won four debates, from Northville, Hamtramck, Ypsilanti Normal High and Ecorse. Because of the experience of the two teams and because it is the last debate which can be guaranteed here in Plymouth this year, you ought to hear the Howell-Plymouth debate, Friday evening, Feb. 18th, at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, 15c and 25c.

NEW BOULEVARD LIGHTS

The village commission closed a contract Monday night for the installation of a boulevard lighting system. The commission has selected an artistic iron post with single globe lamp with canopy of 600 candle power. Ninety of these lights will be installed as follows: Pennington avenue from Main to Harvey street, Main street from Mill street to Wing street, south side of Church street from Main street to Presbyterian church, around and in Kellogg Park, Liberty street between Starkweather and Mill street, and Starkweather from Liberty street to the P. M. depot. The work of installing the new lighting system will commence as soon as the frost is out of the ground. One of the new lights is on display in the window of R. R. Parrott's office.

HOME TALENT PLAY

The three-act home talent play, entitled, "Star Bright," will be given at the Pennington Allen theatre, Wednesday evening, February 23rd. The play, which will be presented under the auspices of the L. O. T. M., and under the direction of Mrs. Jaynes, is given for the benefit of the starving children of Europe. Admission for adults, 35c; children under 12 years, 20c. The following is the cast of characters:
 Lemuel Bright.....Warren Lombard
 William Walker Smith.....Frank Barrows
 Walter William Smythe.....Harry Gebhardt

LOCAL TEACHERS' ENTERTAIN

NORTHVILLE AND WAYNE TEACHERS WERE PLEASANTLY ENTERTAINED AT HIGH SCHOOL LAST WEEK THURSDAY EVENING.

The Plymouth High school was the scene of a very pleasant occasion, Thursday evening, February 3. The Plymouth teachers entertained the teachers from Wayne and Northville schools. The invitation included the husbands and wives of the married teachers. The guests were met at the door by a reception committee, who escorted them to a place to leave their wraps, and from there to the kindergarten room, where introductions were in order. A few games and stunts were indulged in until the formation of a double line was ordered for the grand march to the auditorium. The two long tables were set for eighty, and the covers were of crepe paper in blue and white, the school colors. Blue candles furnished the light and the candle sticks were set in beds of smilax. The place cards were hand lettered in the colors of the school to which the teacher belonged. The two-course dinner was as follows: Roast pork, mashed potatoes, gravy, lima beans, carrot marmalade, pickles, fruit salad with whipped cream, Parker house rolls, coffee and apple pie a la mode.

At the close of the dinner, Prof. McKay of Ypsilanti, gave a very interesting talk about T. E. Daley, the poet, and illustrated his talk with a number of poems. Prof. McKay was especially good in the dialect poems and won hearty applause. Games and a social time filled the remainder of the evening.

DEATH OF WELL KNOWN CITIZEN

ELMER TONCRAY PASSED AWAY SUDDENLY LAST FRIDAY MORNING; FUNERAL SUNDAY AFTERNOON.

Elmer Toncray, a well known citizen of this village, died very suddenly at his home on Starkweather avenue, last Friday morning, Feb. 4th. Mr. Toncray had been in failing health for the past several months, but continued his work at the Markham Air Rifle Co.'s plant, where he had been employed for the past sixteen years, until about four weeks ago. A pleurocy was the cause of death. Mr. Toncray was a man highly respected by all who knew him. He had been a resident of Plymouth for the past eighteen years. His funeral services were held from his late home on Starkweather avenue, Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock, Rev. F. M. Field officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Elmer Toncray was born in the town of Brighton, May 3, 1849, spending his boyhood in that locality. Later he went to Milford where he was united in marriage to Miss Delphine Moner in 1875. To this union there were born four children, two sons and two daughters, Mrs. Charles Adams of Detroit, Bert Toncray of Pontiac; Frank Toncray of Plymouth, and Mrs. Henry Ray, the latter passing away less than a year ago, being the first break in the family. Early Friday morning February 4th, he passed away very peacefully, leaving the wife and three children, together with a host of friends to mourn his death.

BANK WILL OBSERVE LEGAL HOLIDAY SATURDAY

The Plymouth United Savings Bank will be closed all day and evening, Saturday, February 13th, Lincoln's Birthday, which is a legal holiday. Patrons will please bear this in mind, and transact their business today, Friday.

F. W. Hillman has purchased the property at the corner of Maple avenue and South Main street. Mr. Hillman expects to erect a garage upon this site in the near future to be used as a service station and repair room for the cars that pass by, which he has the agency in Plymouth and vicinity.

CIVIL WAR VETERAN ANSWERS TAPS

DR. ABRAM PELHAM, FOR MANY YEARS A PROMINENT RESIDENT OF PLYMOUTH, PASSED AWAY TUESDAY.

Another veteran of the Civil war was honorably mustered out of service last Tuesday, when Dr. Abram Pelham responded to the last call. Dr. Pelham was a long time resident of Plymouth, having practiced dentistry here for more than thirty years. He was born in Delaware county, New York, August 15, 1832. January 31, 1854, he was married at Tecumseh, Michigan, to Margaret Verman Steele, who passed away December 3, 1901. Three children were born to them, Herbert Maury Pelham, who died at Iron Mountain, Michigan, April 23, 1920, and two daughters with whom he made his home during his declining years, Miss Cora Louise Pelham and Miss Nettie Pelham, both of Plymouth.

Dr. Pelham was a charter member of Eddy Post, G. A. R., and served as its first commander, and for many years was prominently identified with the local organization. He was a man highly esteemed by all who knew him, and during his long residence here had made a host of friends and acquaintances. A memorial volume, published in 1864, entitled, "Annals of the Army of the Cumberland," contains a picture of the then-youthful lieutenant in his uniform, and among other things says of him, "He entered the service November 7, 1861. With his regiment he served under General Buell in Kentucky and Tennessee, most of the time acting as quartermaster. He was with the army at Nashville when General Rosecrans assumed command, and was afterwards in the battle of Stone River. His rank and position was that of first lieutenant in the 13th Michigan Volunteers."

At the close of the war, he resided at Tecumseh, Michigan, where he was a member of the Baptist church, later removing to Galesburg, and finally in 1871 to Plymouth, where the remainder of his life was spent. Besides the daughters, he is survived by a granddaughter, Miss Ora Pelham, of Ann Arbor, and two sisters, Mrs. Susie Gowdy of Coldwater, Michigan, and Mrs. Ella Landin of Georgia.

Brief funeral services will be conducted this afternoon, Friday, Feb. 11th, at Schrader Bros. Funeral Home by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the Presbyterian church.

COMMUNITY BANQUET POSTPONED TO MARCH 2

At a meeting of the Community banquet committee, which was held last Monday night, the date for the banquet was advanced from Tuesday, February 22nd, to Wednesday, March 2nd. The change was found necessary on account of conflicting engagements on the part of the speakers desired.

SETTLING DOWN

In recent talks with Plymouth business men, and from a careful perusal of outside newspapers, we are inclined to believe that prices on everything are about to become settled again, and that no decided drops need be expected in the future. Of course, there will be a few things selling possibly a few cents cheaper, but prices generally appear to have reached a solid foundation now, and if changes come throughout the spring and summer months it will be a gradual level.

For this reason the man who has been on a "buying strike" should himself get back to normal. We realize that the time for wild spending has gone by. War and all its horrors has gone. We can't forget it, but we can leave it in the past like any other bad memory, and get back on the job as we once were. No merchant is going to encourage you in foolish spending. But we believe you will be wise in accepting their verdict that prices have at last reached the stable point, and that fluctuations will now be small in either way. Whatever you have held off buying, now would be a safe time to buy it. Factories announce the period of readjusting fast nearing an end, and they are now in pretty good shape to see into the future, a thing they could not do a year or more ago. They are assuring your home merchant a stable price, as a rule, on the things he buys. So your are pretty safe in taking the merchant's word for it that you are not going to profit very much and may stand to lose, if you do not get back to buying in the old way.

MARKETING REFORM

It is becoming more evident every day that the greatest of all necessities in connection with our food supply is a radical reduction of the "spread" in prices between the farm producer and the city consumer. We all know that there is too wide a difference in the price at the farm and on the city market stand, and we all know that as a rule nothing tends to discourage production more than for the producer to set the big end of the profit going into the pockets of a few middlemen more than who raises it to the one who consumes it.

We have talked along this line with many farmers when they are in Plymouth on business, and as a rule they feel that the great trouble lies in the failure of our legislators to give market reform the attention it deserves. They do not appear to want rigid laws, or laws that would bring about a revolution in buying, but they do feel that something should be done to regulate prices a little better after the commodity has left the hand of the producer. And they also feel that unless this is done farmers throughout the entire land are going to be discouraged to the point where we will no longer be raising more than we consume and enough to export.

Personally, we believe a remedy can be found, and we believe our legislators are the men to find it. At least, they can do no wiser thing than give this matter attention.

A BOARD OF COMMERCE

There are two kinds of towns in this country that are drifting and getting no place; that are really entitled to sympathy. One is the town that could support a live Commercial Club, but won't, and the other is the town that has a Commercial Club, but won't help it to live.

Residents of Plymouth know enough about the inside workings of a live, snappy, progressive organization of business and professional men in other towns to know what could be accomplished here. They don't have to be told that for natural resources, for a place in which to rear a family, no other community on the face of the earth offers better advantages than this. Yet the average citizen is apt to content himself with leaving it to the other fellow to place these facts before the outside world. The newspaper does its share, and it speaks a good word for the people and community every week. But it must be backed up by the hearty cooperation of all citizens to make its boost for the town successful.

Any man knows two horses can pull more than one. Then why shouldn't twenty men accomplish more, when pulling in the same direction, than a half-dozen. And why should the majority be content to let the town stand still because a few are willing to let it drag along? The argument is all in favor of the live Commercial Club, or Chamber of Commerce, or whatever you may choose to call such an organization. But if it isn't a live one, and one in which every citizen takes an individual interest and lends a helping hand, then it is even worse than none, and still leaves the town in a helpless position so far as progress is concerned.

No one was hurt and after a hour delay, a wheel was borrowed from the Bell garage and the party proceeded on their way to Detroit without further mishap. The curbstone was unharmed.

DEATH OF ROBERT HUTTON

Robert F. Hutton, a much respected Canton farmer, passed away at his home south of town, last week Thursday evening, February 3rd. Mr. Hutton had been in poor health for the past five years, but was able to get about the greater part of the time. He was confined to his bed only a few days previous to his death.

The deceased was born in Topsham, Vermont, in 1874, and came to Michigan twenty-two years ago. He lived one year in Northville, and the remainder of the time has resided on the Tillotson farm south of the village. He was united in marriage to Miss Louise Gerat in 1901. Two children were born to them, a daughter, Blanche, and one son, Henry, who with their mother survive him. He also leaves three sisters and one brother in Vermont.

Mr. Hutton was a member of the Maccabees, the Grange and the Gleaners, having served as Chief Saturday in the latter society, and was also active in Grange work, as long as his health would permit.

The funeral services were held from his late residence, Sunday afternoon at one o'clock, Rev. F. M. Field, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church, conducting the services. Burial in Riverside cemetery. Plymouth friends extend sympathy to the bereaved family.

THOUSANDS GATHER AT RURAL CONGRESS

ALL ATTENDANCE RECORDS BROKEN AT ANNUAL M. A. C. FARMERS' WEEK, THE TOTAL BEING ABOVE 5,000.

By far the largest gathering of farmers ever brought together in Michigan for a meeting of its kind, assembled at East Lansing from January 31 to February 4, during the annual Farmers' Week at M. A. C. Agricultural men from every part of the state were among the crowd of visitors, a check of registration placing the attendance well above 5,000.

Favorable weather all through the early part of the week played a large part in bringing in the farmers. Meetings of the sixteen associations and conferences held during the week were all crowded, the State Farm Bureau, of course, drawing the biggest attendance at its annual business meeting on February 3 and 4.

Educational exhibits covering every phase of agricultural work proved to be among the most popular features of the program. Field crops, horticulture, animal husbandry, dairy products, mechanics, soils and other major divisions of the agricultural field were represented by graphically presented exhibits, bearing upon vital problems of production and distribution. The present demand for improved marketing machinery and facilities to distribute farm products was reflected in the displays, the key note or central theme of which was based on "Marketing."

SCHOOL NOTES

The English 12 class is studying Edmund Burke's speech on "Conciliation with America."
The following children were promoted to the third grade: Helen Arthur, Arden Centell, Lucy Cope, Elizabeth Strong, Genevieve Schuler, Steve Ribar, Winona Kenter, William Lorenz, Emma Meyer, Louise Newell, Orlin Perkins.

The sixth and seventh grade classes in manual training are beginning the study and construction of bird houses. The eighth grade is learning to file saws, and the ninth grade class is beginning on the lathe.

The following people visited the fifth grade last week: Mrs. Tillotson, Mrs. Howell, Mrs. Withee, Mrs. Strong.

The sixth grade is now working on patriotic songs in preparation for a patriotic program to be given, with the aid of the fourth and fifth grades, near the date of February 22.

The fourth and fifth grades, in drawing are making valentines.

In the boys' game at Farmington, the Blue and White ran against the strongest opposition of the season, and in spite of hard fighting went down to overwhelming defeat, so that when the timekeeper's whistle blew the official score was 50-3 for Farmington. There is little to be said for the home team, except that they were clearly outclassed in every department of the game, and that Tait seemed to be lucky to get the three points he did.

Farmington's team looks like a championship crew, and played basket ball every minute. The Plymouth line-up follows: R. F. Tait, Sayles; L. F. Doudt; C. M. Strassen; L. C. Miller (Capt.); Wiselley; R. G. Walker, Tait.

The last girls' basket ball game was held in Farmington, Friday night. Both our boys' and girls' teams went there on the interurban that left Plymouth at 6:07. The girls game was a good fast one played with lots of spirit on both sides. The Farmington girls were good fighters, especially keeping our guards busy every minute. Their baskets were made mostly from the free throw line, as the number of fowls were called against the Plymouth girls. On the other hand our baskets were made from the field, as our centers kept the ball in our end of the field the majority of the time. The final score was 26 to 19 in favor of Plymouth, this being our fifth game and our fifth game won.

THE THEATRE

A tribute to Man o' War, whose victory over Sir Barton in the great race at Windsor is exclusively pictured in every detail in "The Race of the Age," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, Feb. 12th.

Educational, in releasing "The Race of the Age," claims that the feats of Man o' War do really afford an inspiration, a lesson in clean living, in gameness, in never admitting defeat—the synonym of attaining victory.

The program for this date also includes Mack Sennett's super comedy, "Married Life." A five-reel wonder of laughs and thrills.

Another famous stage farce serves as a vehicle for Bryant Washburn in "Mrs. Temple's Telegram," which will be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre on Tuesday, February 9th. The genial star is said to have been afforded the best opportunity yet to display his comedy talents. Wanda Hawley is the leading woman. James Cruze directed. It is a Paramount Artcraft picture, and a laughable mixup of jealous wives and husbands and a designing little "vamp."

A terrific electrical storm serves as the background for one of the most dramatic scenes in "Folly of the Storm Country," starring Mildred Harris Chaplin, and to be shown at the Penniman Allen theatre, Thursday, February 17th. Oscar Bennett, a farmer, is struck by lightning and taken to Polly's little cabin in the squatter community by Evelyn Robertson, the woman whom he secretly married years before. Robert Robertson, whom Polly loves, bursts in on the scene, and is surprised at the sight of the dying man in bed. Evelyn, to guard her own secret, tells Robert that Bennett is "Polly's man." Loathing Polly, Robert leaves without awaiting further explanations, but later he comes to know the whole truth of the complicated situation, after Bennett dies and Evelyn marries the rich land owner, arch enemy of the squatters.

The NEW EDISON

"The Phonograph with a Soul"

"Who is the most sophisticated man in New York?" Mr. Edison pronounced Wm. J. Burns, who gladly made the Mood Change Chart, to assist Mr. Edison in his research work. Mr. Burns' Chart is reproduced. Mr. Edison needs thousands of these charts. Won't you help him by filling out a Chart?

MOOD CHANGE CHART

An Analysis of Your Mental Reactions to Music, as RE-CREATED by the New Edison, "The Phonograph with a Soul."

Date of Test: Mar 10, 1921

1. Place: Edison Club

2. Time (last 2 in season): Morning Afternoon Evening

3. Weather (last 2 in season): Dull Warm Bright Cold

4. What kind of music did you like best? (check all words which describe each mood and its source): Tender Majestic Weird Solemn Soothing Gay Martial Exciting Sad Simple Dreamy

5. What was your mood immediately preceding test? (check all in season): Serious Worried Gay Careless Depressed Nervous Exhilarated Composed Fatigued Sad or Unlanguid Joyful Discouraged or Optimistic

6. As a result of the test, what were your most noticeable mood changes? (Specify to give, get to serious, worried to careless, nervous to composed, etc.)

MOOD CHANGE: Nervous - became for Lorraine
Sad for - became for Alice Blue Brown

7. Please comment on manner in which mood changes occurred: I came from a very serious company and noted the fact that I was the mood for

Wm. J. Burns Head of Wm. J. Burns International Detective Agency

Wm. J. Burns filled out the first Mood Change Chart

Will You Fill Out a Chart for Mr. Edison?

MR. BURNS pronounced the test most interesting. He enjoyed it and was glad to help Mr. Edison.

You'll enjoy filling out a Mood Change Chart also—and we know you will eagerly help the great inventor in his latest research into the effects of music on the minds and moods of mankind.

Read Mr. Burns' Chart. Then come to our store. Make the test. Learn how music affects your moods. Your Chart will be sent to Mr. Edison.

If you own a New Edison, ask us for a supply of Charts and invite your friends for a Mood Change Chart party. They will find it more entertaining than the Ouija board. If you do not own a New Edison, we will lend you an instrument with a supply of RE-CREATIONS, for giving a Mood Change Party. The New Edison has perfect realism. Its RE-CREATION of music cannot be distinguished from the original music. This makes it possible for every home to enjoy the full benefits of the world's best music.

KING'S CORNERS

The Helping Hand society met this month at the home of Mrs. Myers, with a good attendance. Among the visitors present were Mrs. William Smith and daughter, Mrs. Donald Ryder, and Mrs. Fred Steinhale of the Newburg Aid society, and Charles Call of Ypsilanti. After the business meeting they adjourned to meet the first Wednesday in March at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parrish. The work for roll call will begin with O.

Mrs. C. Parrish has been on the sick list for the past week. Mrs. David McCracken entertained her two sisters, Mrs. Blanchard from Flint, and Mrs. Wright, the week-end.

Mrs. Urbanyeck is convalescing, but Mr. Urbanyeck continues quite poorly. Mrs. George Hix was taken seriously sick while in Plymouth, and was taken to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Walter Schiffe, where she remained until Saturday evening, when she was brought home and is still quite sick.

Mrs. Charles Parrish and son, Frank, attended the funeral of Mrs. Fogarty, Tuesday afternoon.

Gus Remus returned Saturday night from the home of his parents at Metz, Mich., where he was called by the sickness and death of his brother, Peter.

The teacher, Miss Whitney, is having school in morning and afternoon sessions. There are so many children that she can't handle them.

Matt. Pisarek was a Detroit visitor, Tuesday. James King, formerly of this place, but who is living with his daughter, Mrs. Arthur Walker near Salem, was able to attend the society meeting, last Wednesday at Mrs. Myers.

Mrs. Robert McKee is much improved in health, which her many friends are pleased to hear.

NEWBURG

Rev. Raycraft preached a fine sermon Sunday last, from St. Matthew 25:13. There were seventy-two in Sunday-school. The services will continue to be held at the usual time, 2:00 o'clock, with Sunday-school afterwards. Everyone welcome.

Don't forget the L. A. S. social at the hall, this Friday. Ladies please bring box with lunch for two. Hot coffee will be served.

Epworth League service every Sunday evening at 7:00 o'clock. There were forty present, last Sunday night.

The Patriotic Society will meet Friday, February 18th, at the home of Comrade Perkins and wife in Plymouth. Dinner at noon. Everyone invited.

Miss Beatrice Davey entertained her Sunday-school class, also Mrs. Donald Ryder's class at her home, last Saturday afternoon. The usual good time was had, where there are a bunch of young people together.

Ed. Youngs and family from Walkerville, have come to live with their sisters, Misses Anna and Ada Youngs.

Miss Ada Youngs is visiting her aunt in Kingston, Tuscola county.

Miss Emma Arnold has returned home, after spending a number of weeks with her niece, Mrs. Sarah Campbell of Birmingham.

Miss Beulah Ryder was the guest of Miss Ernestine Roe in Ypsilanti, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Lockow and baby of Birmingham, and Mr. and Mrs. Deo Duryea of Detroit, spent Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Duryea.

Mrs. Charles Duryea is on the sick list.

The Gleaners have commenced work on their hall. Mark Joy is doing the work.

Mrs. Stewart Lowrey has left for Rose Center to care for Mrs. Elmer Barlow, who is ill with scarlet fever.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Clemens entertained the Sunday-school board, Tuesday evening, at their pleasant home. A short discussion on Sunday-school work was followed by games and music. The hostess served a tasty lunch, which all enjoyed.

Rev. Raycraft of Wayne, met with them.

Adelle Carson is attending Plymouth school.

Newburg School Notes

Because of our large number of pupils, 71, in a conference between director and teacher, acting under instructions from the office, it was decided that in our school, we carry out the following plan: The first four grades, chart, first, second and third, 32 in all, come for just the morning sessions, going home at noon. The pupils in all the other grades are to have the full day's work each day.

Charles Duryea, Gladys Horton, Dorothy Dunn, Leona Knickerbocker, Hazel Lomas and, Eldora Morrow have returned to school and are well again. Margaret Kramer is still unable to attend school.

New pupils: Earl Hardleben, Edward Hardleben, Ivan and Kenneth Youngs and Sara Jane Allen.

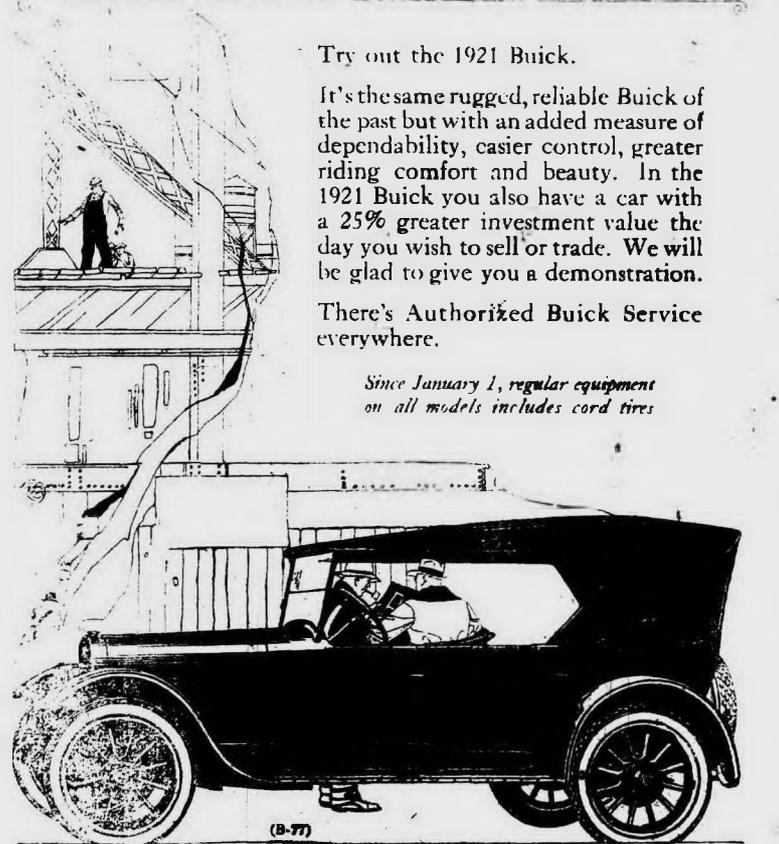

OBITUARY

Mrs. Sarah Fogarty passed from this life after a short illness, Feb. 5, 1921. She had been in poor health for months, but was such a patient sufferer that no one realized that she was slipping away till the shock came.

Mrs. Fogarty was born at Brighton, Ontario, April 26, 1846, where she lived until she came to Canton, Michigan, with her family about forty-five years ago. She joined the Methodist church in early life. She was lovingly known as "Granny" to a host of friends and relatives. Her life was one of good works. Besides her daughter, Mrs. Philip Dingley, with whom she lived, she leaves two sons, J. H. Fogarty of Canton, and E. O. Fogarty of Denton, seven grandchildren, two sisters and two brothers. She will be mourned by all, from the little ones whose mittens she knit to the old friends, who are waiting only a little while to join her in the great beyond.

The funeral services were held from the Dingley home, Tuesday afternoon.

THE UNITED GUN CLUB

Several Detroit shooters motored out Sunday, January 30, to test their skill at the flying clays. Although the day was cloudy and cold, several good scores were penciled on the sheets. Unfinished runs were made by Bill Cavers (43) and Jim Hartwell (38). Mrs. Cavers, for some time past an expert rifle shot, took her first try-out at trap-shooting. R. Vallaux made a score of 17 out of 25 in practice after the regular program. This was his second appearance on the firing line. Following is the result of the 50-target program:

C. Merritt	38 out of 50
E. Hartford	39 out of 50
J. Hartwick	46 out of 50
H. Passage	45 out of 50
J. Patterson	39 out of 50

The institute is being planned by the Howell Board of Commerce, and the speakers are secured through the extension department of the U. of M.
Butterflies in January and right out in the open in Michigan! Mrs. Elmer Copman of Highland, is our authority for stating that on January 26, she and her husband not only saw one flitting about in the woods near their home, but they caught it and took it home as proof positive to any skeptical friends.—Milford Times.

Surveyors for the state were in town four days last week for the purpose of locating a new bridge for the good roads to enter the village from the north. Three routes were surveyed, and one of them will be chosen. Does this mean that the Detroit Edison company will soon commence operations on their big dam at this place?—Belleville Enterprise.

A couple of weeks ago, William Spencer of Livonia township, concluded to have a chicken for dinner, and instead of taking his axe with which to dispatch the "bird" of his choice, he decided to try his marksmanship with his revolver. He secured his chicken all right, but in doing so he had the misfortune to "plow" a very neat furrow in the index finger of his left hand with the bullet which killed the chicken. Better use the axe next time, Bill.—Northville Record.

Through the efforts of Representative Milo N. Johnson, the Northville High school received from Lansing the first of the week a fine lot of equipment for the gym, consisting of three foot balls, one soccer foot ball, a volley ball, one basket ball, six indoor base balls, three indoor base ball bats. This donation was secured from the state commission having the supervision of all sparring contests, and the faculty and students are very grateful to Mr. Johnson for his efforts.—Northville Record.

With last week's issue the South Lyon Herald completed the fortieth year of its publication. Editor Pierce, who purchased the paper from the present editor of the Mail, thirteen years ago, is giving the citizens of that village and vicinity a splendid paper, and one they may well be proud of and judging by the liberal patronage the paper is receiving, his efforts are appreciated by the good people of South Lyon. From the fact that our first experience in the precarious occupation of conducting a newspaper was gained in the office of the South Lyon Herald, the weekly visits of that paper to our exchange table are always looked forward to with a great deal of pleasure and satisfaction, as we note the doings of its citizens and the progress of the community, faithfully recorded each week. We congratulate you, Brother Pierce, on your well-earned success, and may the years to come bring you a still greater measure of success and prosperity.

Persons who were divorced or separated by mutual agreement during the year, also must consider themselves as single persons.
The status of the taxpayer on December 31, 1920, determines the amount of the exemptions. If on that day the taxpayer was married and living with wife or husband, claim may be made for the $2,000 exemption. If single, or married and not living with wife or husband on December 31, the exemption is only $1,000.
Persons who reached majority during the year, and whose earnings for that year amounted to $1,000 or more, or $2,000 or more, according to their marital status, must file a return and pay a tax on their net income in excess of those amounts.
To avoid penalty, the return must be in the hands of the Collector of Internal Revenue for the district in which the taxpayer lives, or has his principal place of business, on or before midnight of March 15, 1921.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is a favorite with the mothers of small children for colds, croup and whooping cough. Its pleasant taste and the prompt cures which it effects, has won the good opinion of mothers everywhere. Presbyterian Notes

Over twenty attended the initial session of the Communicants' class, last Sunday. S. D. Strong is in charge of the Ready Service class during the pastor's absence.
Yes, something is going to happen. The Busy Woman's Bible class held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Joel Bradner, last Thursday afternoon. A pot-luck dinner was served at noon.
At a meeting of the executive committee of the Christian Endeavor, held Monday night at the home of Miss Genevieve McClumpha, reports were heard and plans discussed for the party to be given Tuesday night, February 15th. Come and hear about it next Sunday night.

The trustees of the Presbyterian church have secured the use of the High school auditorium, Saturday each week from two to four, and have placed it at the disposal of all boys and girls below the seventh grade for use in playing basket ball. This is not for Presbyterians only, but for all boys and girls within the limits specified. The upper grades are excluded because they have the use of the room at other times during the week. J. W. Henderson and Mr. and Mrs. S. Conger Hathaway are acting as overseers, and a nominal charge of five cents per week is made to each child participating. This is to help pay the expense of opening the building each week, the trustees paying the balance.

Splendid response was made to the pastor's request, last Sunday that a petition be signed and sent to each branch of the state legislature, praying them to retain and continue the state police. A report furnished by Sergeant Schrader of the local force, was read at the morning service. The state police are taking no initiative in this matter, and the report was made public only in response to a request made by the pastor. Those desiring to co-operate in this cause should send individual letters to the representative and senator of this district. Hon. Milo Johnson is the representative and Hon.

W. J. Hayes the senator. Address, Lansing.

Baptist Notes

Sunday with all its sunshine increased the church attendance both morning and evening. Rev. Palmer Harknough of Ontario, Wisconsin, spoke to the people in the morning, using the book of Jude as his text. Everyone enjoyed the exposition of the majesty of God was wonderful.

The pastor spoke in the evening from Luke 19:9, "This day is salvation come to this house." The attendance was large.

One hour before the evening service the young people organized themselves into a society to be called "The Baptist Young People's Union of the First Baptist Church of Plymouth." Rollin Allenbaugh is president; Miss Esther Estep, secretary; Jivivias Williams, treasurer.

The time of meeting is one hour before the regular preaching service Sunday night. All young people are invited and will be welcome to all meetings.

The Sunday-school is still on the gain, and the superintendent, Maurice Williams, urged the scholars to find every boy and girl who was not attending Sunday-school at any other church to invite them to come and a class with us.

A new addition to the orchestra last Sunday, a mandolin.

Monday evening, February 14th, the Sunday-school will give a Valentine social at the church. Remember the requirements.

Promotion exercises last Sunday and giving of certificates to boys and girls who come upstairs after this in higher classes.

The Ladies' Aid society met at the parsonage, Wednesday, a large number being present. The president, Mrs. Murray, was sick, and Mrs. Sarah Bartlett presided.

SOUTH FREE CHURCH

Rev. Edwards attended the meeting at the M. E. church in Ypsilanti, Sunday. He led in prayer, after which the Brotherhood held a song service, followed by Bishop Henderson of Detroit, who gave a splendid sermon, and Mrs. Henderson sang a solo. During the three services, about $12,000 was pledged to repair the church and over one hundred young people came forward to consecrate themselves to Christ. Altogether it was a great and profitable meeting.

Mrs. E. L. Strang, Mrs. T. P. Geer, Mrs. Charles Root, Mrs. Samuel Dixon, Gertrude Walker, Lucy Burrell, Mrs. Maurice Galpin attended the meetings in Ypsilanti, Sunday.

Earl Jacob of Belleville, was calling on John Fornhez, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Milton Geer called on Mrs. Theda Lyke, Monday, and Mr. Geer was in Plymouth that day.

LIVONIA CENTER

A box social and dance will be given by the patrons of district No. 4, at the Livonia town hall, Feb. 14th. The proceeds will be used to purchase an instrument for the Livonia school. A cordial invitation is extended to all and the ladies are requested to bring a box. Supper will be served for those who do not bring boxes.

The sixth grade language class have memorized Riley's poem, "The Name of Old Glory."

The eighth grade are studying orthography.

The sixth grade arithmetic class are reviewing fractions.

The following pupils were in perfect attendance during the month of January: Grace Wolfrom, Grace Lee, Lena and John Rieger, Albert Sump, Earl and Ethel Smith.

About fifteen boys from the Rough and Ready school visited the Livonia Center school, where they engaged in a game of soccer ball. In spite of the fact that some of Livonia's best players were absent, the score was one to one.

Day After Day

In the morning as you lace your Warner's Rust-Proof for another day's wear, do you not often think how trustworthy and dependable it is?

So unlike ordinary corsets, which soon begin to show the effects of every-day wear—their lines growing less firm and their material and boning gradually giving way—but keep their good lines—through hard wear and after repeated washings.
