FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, Pastor

We wish you to consider this as a personal invitation to you, your family if you have such, and your churchless friends, to attend all the divine services at the First Presbyterian Church next Sunday and every Sunday of the year. Decide now. We believe it is due our inner and truer selves that the Lord's Day should find us in His house, with His people, worshipping at His altar and rejoicing in His goodness.

PLYMOUTH WINS TRACK MEET

Local High School Athletes Easily Win Over Chelsea and Wayne Last Saturday.

Last Friday marked the resumption of the old Tri-angular track meet, between Plymouth, Wayne and Chelsea, with the principal surprise of the meet in the way in which Plymouth led from the very first event, as there was not a time when the combined scores of the other two schools came within four points of the Plymouth team.

The meet opened with the 120-yard low hurdle, in which Plymouth took first and second. The next event was pole vault, in which Porter of Wayne, took first. This was the only first not taken by a Plymouth representative. The points continued to stack up until at the end of the meet, Plymouth had scored 79, Wayne 25 and Chelsea 10.

Stevens was high scoring man, taking five firsts, placing in seven events for a total of 28 1/2 points. Williams was next high with three firsts, with a total of 16 1/2. Kenyon and Sutherland also placed in four events each.

Along with this meet a dual girls meet was held between Plymouth and Wayne. Again the biggest surprise was the lack of competition furnished by the visitors, Plymouth taking every place, except second in the broad jump and 100-yard dash.

Summary of events follows: 120-Yard Hurdle—Bartlett, P., first; Kenyon, P., second; Higgs, W., third. Time 14.4.

Pole Vault—Porter, W., first; Pierce and Sutherland, P., tied for second. Height, 8 ft. 6 1/2 in.

100-Yard Dash—Williams, P., first; Seestedt, W., second; Collins, C., third.

Shot Put—Stevens, P., first; Norris, C., second; Baxter, W., third. Distance, 106.3.

High Jump—Kenyon, P., first; Porter W., second; Sutherland, P., third. Height, 5 ft. 3 in.

Half Mile Run—Stevens, P., first; Hicks, W., second; T. Trumbull, P., third. Time, 2:44.

Running Broad Jump—Williams, P., first; Stevens, P., second; Kenyon, P., third. Distance, 17.3 ft.

of Ypsilanti, who refereed the meet, for his fairness and for the promptness with which the different events were pulled off, the whole meet taking about four hours. The representatives of the boys' track team will take part in the State Interscholastic meet at East Lansing, today and tomorrow, June 2 and 3.

A week from today, June 9th, is the annual Four Square League track meet at Dearborn. Plymouth has an excellent chance, and we are hoping for a large group of rooters to pull with us against last year's champions.

WOMAN'S AUXILIARY MEETS NEXT WEDNESDAY

The Woman's Auxiliary of the Presbyterian church will hold its regular monthly meeting in the church house on Wednesday, June 7, at 2:30 p. m. An interesting program will be given. There will also be a pot-luck supper from 6:00 o'clock until all are served. As this is the last meeting before the summer vacation, let every member make an effort to be present. The following program will be given:

Reading—Ruth Hamilton. Violin Solo—Daniel Patterson. Recitation—Clarice Hamilton. Mrs. Busby's Pink Tea Comedy in One-Act. Mrs. Busby gives a Pink Tea and wishes she hadn't—Miss Ellen Gardner. Mr. Busby, otherwise known as Bob, makes his debut—Miss Gertrude Hillmer. Mrs. Upperten, certainly way up—Mrs. Frank Burrows. Mrs. Hightone, who has reached the topmost round—Mrs. B. E. Giles. Mrs. Wisacre, too elegant for anything and has no time for frivolities—Mrs. J. W. Blickenstaff. Mrs. Mary Busby, Bob's sister, who enjoys the whole situation—Mrs. Frank Smith. Mrs. Dashleigh, the widow who makes it interesting for everyone—Mrs. E. E. Champe. Annette, the maid—Mrs. Charles Humphries. Reading—Zerepha Blunk. Vocal Solo—Wayne VanDyne of Northville.

COMMENCEMENT WEEK EVENTS

The Baccalaureate sermon to the class of 1922 will take place on Sunday evening, June 18th, at the High school auditorium. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of the Presbyterian church, will give the sermon.

The Class Day exercises will take place at the High school auditorium on Tuesday evening, June 20th.

Commencement exercises will occur on Thursday evening, June 22, at the High school auditorium. President H. M. Crooks of Alma College, will deliver the address. His subject will be, "The Growth of Personality."

FREE ENTERTAINMENTS AGAIN THIS SUMMER

The business men have made arrangements for a series of free entertainments again this summer, as has been the custom here for a number of years. The services of the Millard band have been secured to furnish music, and the committee in charge are planning to have several dances on the street and other features during the coming summer season. The first entertainment will take place on Saturday evening, June 24th.

Mr. and Mrs. William T. Conner and daughter, Elizabeth, returned from Cambridge, Mass., Wednesday.

The Misses Ada M. Safford of Coldwater and Miss McIntyre of Grand Rapids, both well known here, attended the state convention of nurses at Muskegon, last week.

PLYMOUTH HONORS SOLDIER DEAD

IMPRESSIVE CEREMONIES HELD HERE DECORATION DAY IN HONOR OF FALLEN HEROES.

Plymouth paid tribute to its departed heroes with appropriate exercises, Tuesday, Decoration Day. At 1:30 o'clock a procession consisting of the Millard band and the members of Eddy Post, G. A. R., formed at Kellogg Park and marched to the High school auditorium, where the exercises of the day took place.

The platform of the auditorium was prettily decorated with flowers and the national colors. After a selection by the Millard band, the exercises were opened with the singing of America by the audience, led by Calvin Whipple with Miss Genevieve McClumpha at the piano. Supt. George A. Smith presided over the exercises.

After the invocation, which was pronounced by Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, Lincoln's Gettysburg Address was well given by Walter Ash. This was followed with a song nicely rendered by the Fourth Grade chorus. A reading by Miss Luva Rowland was splendidly given. The Girls' Glee Club rendered a song in a most pleasing manner. This was followed by a reading by Oliver Goldsmith, which was most impressively given. Rev. D. D. Nagle then gave the address of the day. Rev. Nagle took for his subject, "World Peace," and he brought a timely message to his hearers, that held their closest attention throughout. It was a most able address. The exercises concluded with the singing of "The Star Spangled Banner."

MEMORIAL SUNDAY

A beautiful memorial service was held in the High school auditorium, last Sunday morning at ten o'clock. There was a large attendance, and the members of Eddy Post, G. A. R., attended the service in a body. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the Presbyterian church, gave the sermon, which was one of the best ever heard here on a similar occasion. Several pleasing selections were given by a quartet composed of Everal Jolliffe, Harold Roberts, Mrs. W. S. Bake and Miss Evangeline Foster.

GAVE BIRTHDAY DINNER

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Murray entertained at a birthday dinner, last Sunday, at their home on Ann Arbor street, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and daughter, Ivah, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Lyke and children, Myrlan, Ronald and Doris, of Salem, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk and daughter, Zerepha, being the guests. The occasion was an annual affair, honoring five members of the family, whose birthdays occur in May.

NEW CITIZENS

Throughout this month High schools everywhere will be graduating girls and boys—turning out future citizens. It is a great event for them, and for all, for this is the young blood which, a few years hence, will be carrying on in all our social and business activities.

We sometimes feel that nothing so inspires one with the wish that everything in the world might be good, that success might be universal, that the road to honor and respect might be straight and smooth, as to see these girls and boys at the threshold of their careers. They have ideals which have not been soiled by the realities of life; their heads are in the clouds; the world invites them to conquer, and they are unafraid. It is an inspiring spectacle, and for the moment it routs the cynicism which failures and disappointments have bred in our older ones.

But there is one thing we'd like to call to the attention of every Plymouth boy and girl starting into life, those who are just leaving school, and that is the value of remembering that there isn't any more to be taken out of the world than you put in it. Each year finds the struggle for success growing more difficult, and it is the men and women who do things for the community in which they live who receive in return the best that community has to give. You are going to get out of the world just in proportion to what you put into it. And the sooner you start giving it the best there is in you that much sooner will be the best that is in others be given to you.

THIS MAN KNOWS

Speaking before a convention of newspaper men not long ago, Hon. A. P. Sandle, for years head of the Ohio State Fair Association, said: "The country editor has never made a million dollars. As a rule he makes more donations to the community than any other half-dozen folks. A man is always on the map if it has a real, live weekly paper to make a noise, advertise its merchants, and make people think. The rural paper is a power that is recognized by the political boss more than it is recognized by the home folks or even the home merchant. The clubs, the lodges and social events all want space in the home paper, whether the subscription price is paid up or not. The profit in a country paper is often the money that is credited on the books of the editors and never collected. The good editor is so busy getting out his paper and doing his work that he does not have time to collect. Everybody ought to take the home paper, so they will have a place for their funeral notice and so they will be sure of getting one their friends will not be ashamed of. Go around and subscribe now—and pay for it in advance."

DEATH OF MRS. CLINTON GOTTSCHALK

Plymouth friends were saddened the first of the week when it became known that Mrs. Mabel Gottschalk, wife of Clinton Gottschalk of this place, had passed away at the Homeopathic hospital, Ann Arbor, early Sunday morning, May 28th, after an illness of several weeks. Mrs. Gottschalk was taken to the hospital five weeks ago, and two weeks ago underwent an operation, but to no avail, as she gradually grew worse.

The funeral services were held from her late residence on South Main street, Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the First Presbyterian church of this place, officiating. Burial in Riverside cemetery. Mabel Henderson, eldest daughter of Annie and the late Andrew Henderson, was born in Detroit, Michigan, February 4, 1922. During her infancy the family moved to Northville, and at the death of her father in 1912, came to Plymouth, where she resided with her grandmother, and helped to care for an invalid aunt. Having been previously baptized at the Northville Episcopal church, at the age of seventeen she became a member of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, retaining her membership until the time of her death. She was married to Clinton Gottschalk, March 1, 1916. Two children, Olivene, aged 5, and Alice, aged 3, together with their father, remain to mourn their loss. She is also survived by her mother, one brother, Frank Henderson; one sister, Mrs. Ralph Dunham of Ypsilanti, and a large circle of other relatives and friends. She was a most patient sufferer and tried hard to get well and do her part, but God in His wisdom had decreed otherwise. "His finger touched her and she slept." "Servant of God well done. Rest from thy loved employ; The battle fought, the victory won. Enter the Master's joy. The peace at midnight came. She started up to hear; A mortal arrow pierced her frame. She fell but felt no fear. The pains of death are past. Labor and sorrow cease; And life's long warfare closed at last. Her soul is found in peace. Servant of Christ well done. Praise be thy new employ; And while eternal ages run, Rest in thy Saviour's joy."

A FINE CONCERT

The concert given in the High school auditorium last Friday evening by the J. L. Hudson Co. orchestra, male quartet and ladies quartet and soloists, under the auspices of the Ladies Aid of the Methodist church was fairly well attended, but what the audience lacked in numbers was made up in enthusiasm, for a splendid program was presented. The music, under the direction of Earl Van Amburg, consisted of vocal and instrumental numbers. Special mention should be made of the solo work done by Ernest Lindemeyer, cornetist, W. V. Webster, tuba soloist, and Arthur Cooper, xylophone. Several pleasing readings were presented by Alfred Cooperwhite. At the close of the concert favorable expressions were heard on every side.

"DON'T PAY TO BE CROOKED"

Life-time Criminal. Out of Large Experience, So Tells Court at His Trial

POSED AS "MAN OF MYSTERY"

Man Sent Up for Life Has Only Been Out of Prison 33 Months in Last 25 Years—Acts as Own Attorney in Omaha Court.

Omaha, Neb.—With only thirty-three months of freedom to his credit in the last twenty-five years, and even those months spent as a fugitive from Justice, Otto Cole, burglar, "con" man, booze runner and murderer, has just been sent to prison for the balance of his life by an Omaha court. Cole is forty-two years old now. He became a criminal at the age of seventeen years.
"But crookedness don't pay. It don't pay," Cole told the Omaha court when he was sent up for life.
Cole has seen the inside of many jails and penitentiaries. He has served time in Minnesota, Maryland, Ohio, Illinois and elsewhere. He escaped from the Baltimore City Jail, from the Joliet penitentiary and from other prisons. He has been paroled, pardoned and released on "good time," in addition to serving out his sentences. But he never kept out of trouble and no sooner was he released from a prison than he immediately went back into crime.
"But crookedness don't pay," he told the court. "I ought to know."

In Many Courts.
Cole had appeared before so many different courts that he has picked up quite a smattering of legal terms and methods. When arrested in Omaha and charged with the murder of Harry Hahn, a pawnbroker, he refused the assistance of the public defender and asked permission of the court to conduct his own defense. This was granted and throughout the trial Cole carried on his end of the case like a veteran attorney.

Cole posed as a "Man of Mystery" until the Bertillon experts got on his trail. He was a man of "good family" gone temporarily wrong and was shielding his family.
He was just seventeen years of age when he broke into the criminal limelight in Columbus, O., where, under the name of Richard Proctor, he was sent to prison for three years for burglary. He served his time and was released June 28, 1898.

It took Cole just eight days to get in trouble again. On July 6, 1898, he was arrested in Baltimore—was caught, red-handed, while committing a burglary. A month later, before he could be tried, he escaped.
This time Cole stayed out of trouble for two months. At last, he was not arrested again until October 8, 1898. On that date, in Chicago, he was sentenced to Joliet prison for burglary.
In ten days he was in trouble again, this time at Red Wing, Minn., for burglary. He was known as "E. F. English" in that trial. He served out his time in the Minnesota state prison, and at the expiration of his term was taken back to Joliet, to serve the remainder of his sentence in the Illinois prison. From Joliet he was paroled in January, 1910.

Couldn't Keep Straight.
But he couldn't keep straight. In a month or so he was back in the Joliet prison, where he was sent from Chicago on a robbery charge. He was discharged in September, 1910. This time he was using the name of "Edwin English." But in October, 1917, as "E. F. English" he was sent back to Joliet as a "recidivistic man" from Chicago. He escaped from Joliet in 1920.
Under the name of "Otto Cole" he came to Omaha two months ago and, according to numerous identifications at the police station, he committed a series of hold-ups and robberies of various kinds. Then, three weeks ago, it is charged, he cut red Harry Hahn's pawshop, and while attempting to rob the place, shot and killed the proprietor. He was caught red-handed after attempting to shoot officers who captured him.

Following his sentence to life in prison, Cole announced he intended devoting himself while in prison to the study of mechanical engineering, in which he claims to be ready he pretty well educated.

Giant Logger Consumes 43 Puffs in Two Hours

Hopkirk, Wash.—Orin Welsh, a giant logger, came to town this week from the woods and ate, at one sitting, during the course of two hours, 48 normal sized cream puffs.
Welsh had been in the logging camp all winter, but his longing for some sweetened entree led him to town. Friends hearing his craving were not at all surprised that three dozen cream puffs and the rest of the lot should disappear so rapidly. Welsh declared he had a wonderful gastronomic feat while by eating one dozen cream puffs, and in two hours he had consumed the rest of the dozen. The fourth dozen disappeared down his capacious throat.

The Home of the Soul
In olden times, it was believed that the seat of the soul was the stomach, most likely for the reason that a man is never so completely used up as when his stomach is out of order. For the cure of ordinary stomach troubles, there is nothing quite so prompt and satisfactory as Chamberlain's Tablets. They strengthen the stomach and enable it to perform its functions naturally. Give them a trial. They only cost a quarter.—Advertisement.

ANN ARBOR PLANS FOR LEGION RES

Expects Over 5,000 to Attend Fourth State Convention—Lands Will Be Speaker.

Ann Arbor—Five thousand delegates and visitors are expected to attend the fourth state convention of the American Legion here September 5 and 6. The Michigan Legion is now in the healthiest condition of its history, so that the large attendance seems assured.

All the sessions of the convention are to be held in the Hill auditorium, located at the university, while the delegates and visitors will be housed in the quarters which students occupy during the school year.
It was announced by officials from the Legion department headquarters, that Judge Knesaw M. Lands had accepted an invitation to address the convention on the first day, and that Congressman Joseph W. Fordney and Secretary of the Navy Donby had accepted the invitation to speak, providing congress was not in session at that time necessitating their presence in Washington.

Among the state officials who attended the informal dinner held here recently were Department Commander Paul A. Martin, Department Welfare Officer Frank B. Broderick, Department Adjutant Lyle D. Tabor, and Past Department Commander Augustus H. Gansser.
In his talk at the dinner State Commander Martin pleaded for a rebirth of patriotism, and a reaffirmation of the principles and ideals on which this country is founded. He declared that what the country needed today was more patriots and fewer politicians more courage in every day tasks and more people willing to put something into their communities rather than those always seeking what they can get out of them.

Detroit—Hanford MacNider, national commander of the American Legion and officials of the Michigan state department of the Legion will go by airplane from Detroit to Alpena some time during the coming summer to permit the commander to dedicate Alpena's new memorial building. Announcement that the trip would be made by air and that Captain Eddie Rickenbacker, the American ace, now a resident of Detroit, would pilot the plane, is made at state headquarters of the Legion here.

The Alpena building is described by state Legion officials to be one of the finest in the country in a city of Alpena's class. Date for the dedication will be set later, dependent upon arrangements that can be made by Commander MacNider to visit Michigan.
The state officials who will make the trip are Commander Paul Martin of Battle Creek, Adjutant Lyle D. Tabor of Detroit, Dr. Frank B. Broderick, welfare officer, Detroit, and probably John G. Emery, former national commander.

For Ten Dollars and Ninety Cents—This 30 x 3 1/2 Usco

THE 30 x 3 1/2 tire situation today is just this—

The man who buys an USCO at $10.90 is justified in believing that his money is going farther in tire value than it ever has gone or could go before.

Naturally he appreciates the quality of USCO. That was established long ago.

It is still fresh in his mind that USCO led the national market into the $10.90 price range.

The makers of U. S. Tires always intended the 30 x 3 1/2 USCO to be the highest value in its field.

At $10.90 it creates a new classification of money's worth.

The occasion was marked with an elaborate program dealing with the past season's work. At 8:30 o'clock dinner was served on the green in front of the play house with the members in special costumes. The numbers for the evening were a radio program, a couple of burlesques, a clever duet of Hawaiian music and a parody on the season's work. The players were organized in 1915 and have achieved the distinction of having the smallest play house in the world. To each member of the Players is due the highest compliment for their efforts in bringing to their audiences clean, wholesome entertainment, that has established for them a reputation recognized not only in their home town but abroad.—Ypsilanti Record.

Mr. Parre, whose previous appearance on a radio bill caused Saturday's numbers to be awaited with interest, made an even greater hit than before. Mr. Robinson, a newcomer to the News Radio family, also scored heavily with his listeners. Both men were accompanied by Mrs. Parre.—Wayne Weekly. Mr. Parre is well known in Plymouth where he has a class in violin instruction.

Helen Jane Hix was born July 27, 1898, and departed this life May 27, 1922, at the age of 23 years, 9 months and 27 days. Six years ago she was united in marriage to Wing L. Hix of Redford, Mich. Besides her husband, she leaves two children, Berte Belle and Douglas; her father and mother, three sisters and five brothers, her grandparents and a host of other relatives and friends to mourn their loss. Everything that loving hands could do was done, but the angel of God took her Saturday morning, at Harper hospital, where she was taken a few days before, and where she underwent a serious operation on her lungs, but the frail little body was not strong enough to withstand it. The funeral was held at her late home in Redford, Monday afternoon. Rev. Davis, Baptist minister of that place, spoke words of comfort to the sorrowing friends, and burial was in Grand Lawn cemetery, Redford. She was a loving wife and mother, and will be greatly missed by all who knew her.

"A voice we loved is still,
A place is vacant in our home,
Which never can be filled."

Friends from out of town who attended the funeral were: J. H. Fogarty and Miss Emma Spietz of Plymouth; Mrs. Bertha Theyer, Mrs. Mabel Badelt and Mrs. Frank Lewis of Wayne; Mrs. Joseph Roach and son, William, Mrs. Charles Wright and son, Erwin, Mrs. Arthur Hanchett and Miss Helen, Mrs. Ed Holmes and Miss Beatrice, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kubik, Mrs. Lizzie Kubik, Mrs. Edna Theyer, Mrs. James Cousins, Mrs. Paul Badelt, Mr. and Mrs. William Love and Mr. and Mrs. James Love of Perrinsville.

Ford Motor Number 6,000,000 was lifted from the assembly line in the Highland Park Ford Plant at 9:14 a. m., May 18th. Just 5 1-3 seconds later No. 6,000,001 was finished.

The unusually heavy demand for Ford cars and trucks at the present time has necessitated the building of 5400 motors daily. These are shipped in car load lots to the various Ford assembling plants throughout the United States.

The first Model "T" Ford motor was completed on October 1, 1908; number 1,000,000 left the assembly line December 10, 1915; and number 5,000,000 came through May 28, 1921.

Although the Ford Motor Company turned out a number of different models prior to 1908, the present numbering system began with the first Model "T."

WHAT AMERICA HAS DONE FOR EUROPE'S STARVING MILLIONS

In Eight Years Between Four and Five Billion in Foodstuffs Have Been Sent Into Famine-Stricken and War-Barren Countries—Charity Extends Across Europe Into Russia.

Thomas H. Dickinson, historian of the Hoover relief committee, has written for the New York Herald the first complete statement of America's contribution to the food relief of Europe that has ever been made. He says in part:

With the entrance of American food into Russia in the fall of 1921 American relief operations have traversed the continent of Europe. The span of these operations now covers eight years. It is not yet possible to give final figures on the mass of American food supplies delivered to Europe. The work done has, however, been of such a nature as to permit a summary of operations and a general suggestion of the main expenditures. American food relief operations began in Belgium immediately after the outbreak of the war. Inaugurated as a charitable and administrative undertaking while America was neutral, American participation broadened after our entrance into the war, and took upon itself an official character. Thereafter and until the signing of the peace, food relief for the allies in Europe provided one of the main avenues of American helpfulness in the war. After the war ended American relief again became a private undertaking and has been so supported by individual charity, supplemented by certain governmental grants, to this day. American food relief in Europe thus falls into three periods.

First—The period of our neutrality from August, 1914, to April, 1917. During this period the commission for relief in Belgium was the instrumental agency of relief.

Second—The period of American participation from April, 1917, to July, 1919. During this period the United States food administration was the official agency of relief.

Third—The period after the signing of the peace, during which the American relief administration has functioned as the agency of relief, with particular reference to the feeding of undernourished children.

Covers Nearly All Countries. During the eight years in which American agencies have been concerned in the feeding of Europe relief operations have extended into all countries, with the exception of Norway and Sweden on the north, Spain and Portugal on the south, Switzerland and Greece. American relief has been extended to Belgium as an innocent victim of the war, to the allies as colleagues in the war and to friend and foe alike, as well as to the new states of Europe after the close of hostilities.

While this work has been carried on under organizations with different names, all of them have had a continuing identity in that they have been under the direction of one man—Herbert Hoover—who first invented international food relief on modern lines.

For purposes of the digest it may be useful to distinguish between charitable contributions made by America to the feeding of Belgium throughout the period of our interest and those government grants from which came the mass of the support.

America's charitable contributions began in 1914 and continued to 1920. These were both in cash and in kind, and were collected both by organizations affiliated with the commission in the United States and by charitable individuals, foundations and national periodicals. From various charitable sources there went to Belgium from the United States something like thirty million dollars ($30,000,000) in this form. The exact figures cannot be given for the reason that certain donations were of combined British and American origin.

Relief in Belgium. Governmental subsidy to Belgium falls into two periods. In the first period, extending to the spring of 1917, support of Belgian relief came from subsidies extended by the treasuries of Great Britain and France. Together these amounted over the entire period of five and a half years to something under $200,000,000. During the second period, which begins with America's entrance into the war, support of Belgian relief came almost entirely from the United States treasury. The total United States credits to Belgium on this account amounted to $250,000,000.

While the commission for relief in Belgium was extending relief to Belgium it was at the same time extending relief to the occupied regions of northern France. Total private charity extended by the United States for the feeding of northern France amounted to $5,000,000. In addition to this there was extended by the United States treasury to France for the support of her occupied areas between June, 1917, and March, 1919, the total credits of $127,000,000.

With America's entrance into the war the whole relief front changed. The allies were exhausted, and so far from being able to engage in a program of extended relief themselves they were desperately in need of help.

Food relief now became a national problem for America, one of the first essentials of victory. For the purpose of this work the United States food administration was organized. The food administration functioned during two years, from July, 1917, to July, 1919. Its great service was the delivery of vast increased amounts of food to the European allies, and to the liberated nations, almost entirely on credit, up to the signing of the peace.

The total exports of foodstuffs handled by the food administration for the two-year period, 1917-1919, was $20,000,000, as compared with the annual average of three pre-war years of $6,000,000.

Changes in Duties. While the United States food administration continued to operate after the armistice and until July, 1919, there came with the armistice a significant change in its duties and operations. With the signing of the armistice there appeared in the horizon of Europe an entirely new group of nations requiring relief.

For the handling of these problems there was organized the American relief administration as an European adjunct of the food administration. The contributions by America to the liberated territories of Europe were extended through this administration between the months of November, 1918, and July, 1919, that is, during the armistice months. In considering these contributions and credits it should be remembered that their totals are included in the totals given above covering the operations of the United States food administration during the entire period of its existence.

America's contributions under this head were made in several ways. Certain contributions were made in the form of treasury grants of credit to small nations which had been allied in the war. The grants to Belgium have already been mentioned. In addition to these, grants of credits were made to Czechoslovakia in the sum of $50,000,000, Rumania in the sum of $25,000,000 and to Serbia in the sum of $15,000,000.

America's chief contribution of credits to the newer nations of Europe was derived from the $100,000,000 appropriation for European relief voted by congress early in 1919. The expenditures under this grant were roughly as follows:

In each case promissory notes were taken from the nation accepting the supplies.
Poland	$36,500,000
Czechoslovakia	5,700,000
Armenia	10,000,000
Cathonia	2,300,000
Latvia	2,900,000
Lithuania	2,400,000
Finland	3,800,000
North Russia	4,800,000
Total	$85,000,000

Help Former Enemies. The relief of former enemy territories provided special problems. The relief of Austria was accomplished by means of a credit of $48,000,000 extended by the United States to England, France and Italy to cover credits to Austria from these countries, the proceeds to be spent in purchase of relief supplies in America. The relief of Bulgaria and Germany was done on gold provided by these governments.

A large portion of the $100,000,000 fund is covered by the promissory notes of the nations to which relief supplies were sent. From this fund there came something like $11,000,000, which was expended in the first labors of children's relief inaugurated in Poland, Czechoslovakia, Serbia, Rumania, Finland, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania and northwest Russia. The money so expended was an outright gift.

The total relief supplies delivered by the United States between December 1, 1918, and August 31, 1919, amounted to 2,853,434 metric tons of an approximate value of $79,733,227; of this total $19,874,620, or 27.4 per cent, was delivered for cash; $59,858,607, or 68.5 per cent, was financed on credit, and $20,858,607, or 2.8 per cent, was given as charity.

When we came to the signing of the peace we entered the third period of America's relief efforts. Official expenditure was out of the question. What was done then had to be continued by private activity.

Millions for Children. At the end of the first year after the signing of the peace a total of $12,203,681.55 had been made available for children's relief in Europe. To this should be added something like $2,000,000 spent by the Near East relief in Armenia.

Recapitulating the expenditures for food relief under American management from the end of the war to June 30, 1921, we find that the figures came to about $50,000,000. To this should be added the food draft sales, amounting to $8,280,000.

With the summer of 1921 American relief entered its Russian phase. Relief was continued on a reduced scale in the needy countries of central Europe from funds already at hand.

The expenditures of one year in Russia will not be less than $50,000,000, and may be much more.

In a period of eight years America has contributed to Europe by charity or credit with certain small cash sales between $4,000,000,000 and $5,000,000,000 worth of foodstuffs.

Today's Reflections

Still another thing that indicates a return to the good old days, is that wrist watches are becoming fewer.

It might be a good idea to remind Plymouth mothers that if more of them were strappers, there'd be fewer "flappers."

It has been our observation that the average poor man's wife is just one darned installment payment away from another.

One objection some fellows seem to have to working is that there are too many things to do.

We overheard a Plymouth woman say a few days ago, that the men who would make perfect husbands always remain single.

Methuselah lived to be over 900 years old, but he never had to spend half his time dodging autos.

Some Plymouth men seem to think that a friend is always the fellow who cusses the same men they do.

The way the politicians are throwing their hats in the ring, they don't seem to care much what happens to hats.

We have always noticed that the man who was driven to drink was going that way anyhow.

Along about this time of year, the Plymouth citizen who owns a lawnmower starts in trying to remember which one of his neighbors borrowed it last.

You can't improve a Ford machine by trying to cross it with a locomotive.

No Plymouth woman is as old as she looks to herself, when her hair is done up in curl papers.

Wouldn't it be awful if the young girls now growing up didn't have any more sense than we think they have?

It's pretty hard to make the average editor believe that even in heaven a paper can print the truth without fear of losing a few subscribers.

Some of these days, Plymouth grandfathers can entertain the children by telling them that once upon a time they saw a runaway horse.

If all people were as bad as some people think they are, there would be an awful shortage of angels in heaven.

If you are going to have an auction, advertise it in the Mail.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Instead of our usual service last Sunday morning, our church united with the other churches in the Memorial day service, which was held in the High school auditorium. There was a large gathering present, who listened to the earnest and appropriate sermon delivered by the Rev. S. Conger Hathaway, pastor of the Presbyterian church, who took his text from 2 Tim. 4:7. "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith." Those who were not able to attend this service certainly missed a fine address.

Wednesday of last week a private baptismal service was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Hicks on West Ann Arbor road, when William and Bessie were baptised. The Rev. H. C. McCurdy, rector of Birmingham, officiated, and the vestry and church of St. John's were represented by Franklin L. Gibson, Dr. and Mrs. Jennings and Arthur J. Torre. Preceding the baptism, the Rev. McCurdy delivered a very earnest address to our young friends, who were about to be baptised, reminding them of the seriousness of the step they, as adults, were taking and of the great benefits and help this step would prove to them in any future work they would undertake, and in the "molding" of their future lives. The entries were duly made in the parish register and signed, and after a friendly visiting the assembly dispersed at a rather late hour. The members of the church welcome this family into our communion, and trust in time they will prove active, willing workers and faithful soldiers of the cross, "Unto their life's end." "In token that thou shalt not fear, Christ crucified to own, We print the cross upon thee here, And stamp thee His alone!"

The Plymouth chapter of the Junior Brotherhood of St. Andrews will meet this week at the home of Allen Strong on Penniman avenue. The secretary wants all members of the Brotherhood to be present.

Next Sunday, Martin Hausman of the Y. M. C. A., will be with us, and will preach the sermon. We invite all those who can be with us next Sunday, and to hear Mr. Hausman's address.

TOURIST CAMP AT STATE FAIR

Tourists from every section of the state will welcome the announcement by G. W. Dickinson, secretary-manager of the Michigan State Fair, of the establishment of a tourist camp at this year's fair, September 1 to 10.

The camp will be supervised by J. H. Brown, of Battle Creek, who, for years, has successfully conducted the annual Michigan Farmers' Automobile Tours. A plot of ground at Palmer avenue and Fifield street, just south of the Woman's building, will be given over to the tour camp, Mr. Dickinson announced.

The State Fair tourist camp is being established in response to scores of requests from farmers and business men throughout Michigan who seek a safe and convenient spot to park their automobiles, a sanitary place in which to erect tents and an opportunity to enjoy a visit to the state fair.

It is planned to conduct the camp similarly to those on the Michigan Farmers' Automobile Tours. Each tourist will be allotted ample space to park his automobile and erect a tent.

With the establishment of the Michigan State Fair Tourist Camp, police protection will be provided, relieving the tourist of all worry about his property and affording an opportunity for really enjoying the State Fair. Sanitary conditions also will be carefully guarded and nothing left undone so tourists who participate in the fair camp will enjoy themselves.

The Fair tourist camp is an outgrowth of the annual Michigan Farmers' Automobile Tours, the second tour of which will be concluded this year at Bay City, August 30, when many of those already registered for the trip are planning to head a pilgrimage of machines to the fair grounds.

Tourists who plan to visit the State Fair will have the opportunity to take advantage of the advance sale of tickets which will be put on at reduced rates in all cities in the state and will continue until the opening day of the fair.

It is the plan of Mr. Brown to provide those who intend to participate in the Michigan State Fair tourist camp with windshield posters if these tourists will address a letter to him at Battle Creek.

"HOME TOWN" PAPERS FOR HOSPITAL VETS

American Legion Plans Service Through Co-Operation of Newspaper Publishers.

Indianapolis, Ind.—Copies of the "home town" newspaper for each of the more than 30,000 veterans of the world war who are now confined to various government and private hospitals throughout the United States as the result of sickness or wounds incident to war service is included in plans which the American Legion is working on for making brighter the lives of these men.

Many Michigan newspapers now send free copies to the American Legion tubercular hospital at Battle Creek.

Preliminary steps which the ex-service men's organization has already taken to obtain this needed data shows that thousands of the wounded veterans receive practically no information of what is going on "back home."

When the information has been gathered, Legion officials in each town with an ex-service man in a hospital will ask the co-operation of the newspaper editors in an effort to obtain the papers gratis.

WOODEN LEGGED BOY WIT ARRIVES

No, he's not a cripple, but a ruddy cheeked 6 ft. boy, who possesses the happy faculty of making people smile with his humorous sayings.

This boy is a real entertainer. His remarks have taken the country by storm, even vaudeville actors and the movies quoting his witty sayings. The Plymouth Auto Supply Co., well known dealers here in town, thought so much of him they added him to their sales staff.

Our reporter on interviewing this youngster found him to be true to his advance notices.

Here are some of his latest jibes at the leading topics of the day: Many with no dough have lots of crust.

A prominent Woman's club—the rolling pin.

Our days are numbered—all calendars prove it.

Razz-berries are always in season. Blunt people make cutting remarks.

You can hatch a plan by setting your mind on it.

Many big people act small. Fake labels cover a multitude of sins.

You can see this boy in front of the Plymouth Auto Supply Co.'s place of business. He's on duty day and night, helping sell En-ar-co Motor Oil, "The Oil of a Million Tests," because it is refined with such painstaking care and scientific accuracy. The use of En-ar-co Motor Oil will keep your engine surprisingly free from engine trouble and repair costs.

"Chamberlain's Tablets have been used by my husband and myself off and on for the past five years. When my husband goes away from home he always takes a bottle of them along with him. Whenever I have that heavy feeling after eating, or feel dull and played out, I take one or two of Chamberlain's Tablets and they fix me up fine," writes Mrs. Newton Vreeland, Minoa, N. Y.
