275 MEMBERS SECURED FOR 1924

Although the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce fell a little short of their goal of 500 members for 1924, 275 Plymouthites have signed up for the coming year with excellent prospects of passing the 300 mark within the next two weeks. The present membership is nearly double that of last year, and everything is all set for a year of hard work toward a "Bigger and Better Plymouth."

The membership campaign which closed last Saturday night, was full of pep and enthusiasm from start to finish, and the generous prizes donated by Plymouth merchants were a great incentive to the go-getters to bring in the new members.

"Powerful Frank" Rambo led the list with 47 new members to his credit, and was awarded the first prize of a $25.00 pair of gold cuff links donated by the H. S. Lee Foundry & Machine Co.

"Smilin' Bill" Pettingill was second, with 22 new converts added to the fold. He was awarded the $20 goldpiece donated by the Plymouth United Savings Bank. Harry Lush finished third, winning the $18.50 sheep-lined coat donated by Blunk Brothers, and was followed by Wm. B. Petz in fourth place, winning the table lamp donated by Gayde Bros. The special prizes were awarded as follows: Geo. A. Smith, a new pair of soles and heels to the fattest member; Miss Thompson, a fern to the first new lady member; A. J. Richwine, a blanket to the new member living outside the village who brought in the most new members. William Rambo gets his choice of a pencil or pen awarded to the Boy Scout who brought in the most new members. Edwin Schrader won a scout knife for being second high Boy Scout. Ten show tickets were awarded to the first five new members to bring in a new member by Harry Lush.

The window display contest was won by Blunk Brothers, who got a half page ad in the Plymouth Mail as their prize.

The box of candy donated by Mr. Hovey, was awarded to Ferne Kessler in recognition of her services as official stenographer for the membership committee.

$6,000,000 TO BE SPENT TO START "GRAYTON" CITY

NEW COMMUNITY BETWEEN DETROIT AND PLYMOUTH TO BE 1 1/2 MILES FROM CITY HALL ON STEAM ROAD.

The Plymouth Road Development Corporation is making plans for the creation of a new residential and industrial community between Detroit and Plymouth to be known as Grayton and which will involve a development of about 3,500 acres. Marketing and improvement of this land by selling agencies will involve expenditures in excess of $6,000,000, it is said.

The Robert Herndon Co. has been designated as selling agents for the first block of property to be marketed in lots. This first unit contains 336 acres and it is at the junction of Telegraph Road and the Pere Marquette Railway main line to Grand Rapids and Chicago. Commuter Center.

It is planned to establish, through this development, one of the finest commuter centers in the country. It will be served by the Pere Marquette directly into its Third street station. The stockholders and directors of the Plymouth Road Development Corporation include Paul R. Gray, David Gray, the Gray Estate, Joseph Mack, Luman W. Goodenough, William R. Kaies, Fred J. Fisher, Bert J. Craig, W. A. Ryan, H. E. Coffin, Roy D. Chapin, H. H. Emmons, William L. Carpenter, J. W. Anderson, Frank L. Kingsen-smith, John Bolde, D. M. Ferry, Jr., C. C. Wittingham, Paul W. Voorhis, Henry L. Lyster, Henry M. Bodman, Julian H. Harris and E. S. Nichols.

The property to be developed extends between Plymouth and Schoolcraft Roads, from Telegraph Road west to the limits of Plymouth, with the tracks of the Pere Marquette through the center of it. The site of the proposed village of Grayton is contained in the first unit to be marketed by the Robert Herndon Syndicate. The commuter station at Telegraph Road (plans of which are now being prepared by architects) will form the nucleus of the new community. Four other independent real estate firms, thus far, have taken contracts to dispose of other sections of the tract for development.

1 1/2 Miles From City Hall. The initial development is 1 1/2 miles from the Detroit City Hall and will provide facilities for a rapid and orderly community growth. It is expected that Detroit city water will be extended to the property.

Warner and Warner, engineers, are laying out the acreage for an ideal development based on plans prepared after an intensive study of commuter centers in the east, including the famous Forest Hills of Hetty Green on Long Island, New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, and other cities were studied in this respect.

The Grayton property already is served by four trains daily over the Pere Marquette into Detroit. The line is now being double tracked and the railroad officials have stated that this will be increased as the population of the area makes it necessary. Eight minute service to the Ford River Rouge plant now is available.

This property is accessible also for motor car or bus service over either Plymouth, Schoolcraft and Telegraph Roads, or over Grand River, Warren or Michigan avenues. Plymouth Road is to be paved from Detroit through to Ann Arbor next summer, as is Telegraph Road between Michigan and Grand River avenues. It is adjacent to River Rouge Park, of 1,200 acres, Detroit's largest park, and several public and private golf clubs. It is rolling, well drained and of exceptional fertility.—Detroit Sunday News.

H. S. LEE NEW SECRETARY CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Wm. B. Petz, who has so splendidly served the Chamber of Commerce the past year in the capacity of secretary, having announced his retirement, the board of directors, at its meeting last Tuesday evening, prevailed upon Harry S. Lee to assume the duties of this office. An assistant to the secretary will be employed to devote his full time to the interests of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Lee will serve without compensation. The new secretary is a busy man, and the board feels that they were fortunate, indeed, to secure his services, and that he will be able to inject sufficient "pep" and energy into the coming year's activities to make 1924 a banner year for the C. of C. in Plymouth. In taking over the secretaryship, Mr. Lee has been assured of the whole-hearted support of many business men and the organization as a whole. He is an able and experienced business man, and a better choice could not be made.

"A Bigger and Better Plymouth" is the pass word for 1924. With a greatly increased membership and a live bunch of officers and directors, the Chamber of Commerce is in a position to do much toward achieving that ideal. The Chamber of Commerce must have the active and loyal co-operation of its members as well as the community at large, if it is to do its best work. The Board of Directors meets every Tuesday night at 7:30, in the C. of C. rooms over Fractor's store. Every member is welcome to attend these meetings. Every member is invited to bring his views and ideas to the attention of the board, who can take appropriate action to bring about the desired results.

The Chamber of Commerce is the only local organization which is representative of the entire community, and it must necessarily follow that it is the only logical organization to bring about results which will benefit the community as a whole. It needs your whole-hearted support; it needs your counsel and opinions, it needs YOU.

Get behind the C. of C. and BOOST.

Rev. S. Conger Hathaway was in Battle Creek, Wednesday.

About thirty ladies attended the thimble party at Mrs. Jake Streng's Wednesday afternoon. After the business meeting, refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Dunham and daughters, Marble and Onalee, of Belleville, spent Sunday with the former's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. David Corkins.

At a special meeting of the village commission, Wednesday afternoon, Daniel F. Murray was elected to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of R. R. Parrott outside the village limits.

AS TO THE WEATHER

We overheard a Plymouth man say a few days ago that he likes cold weather, that it "fills him with pep," and all that sort of thing. And then there we are willing to stake our last summer's straw hat that he never had to drive an old road wagon when the tires were creaking on a frozen road, and with a team that moved like snails. He didn't have to drink his water out of a frozen bucket with a gourd that was second cousin to an icicle; he probably didn't have to sleep in a room that hadn't a fireplace, grate or stove, and didn't have to get up in the morning to view ice pictures on the window panes that looked like somebody had splattered them with buttermilk. On top of that, he didn't have to shovel his way to the barn two squares away and milk from two to six cows, everyone of them with a deadly ball of mud frozen in her tail right where it was convenient for her to switch it around and catch a fellow alongside the head; and right after breakfast he didn't have to walk two miles through a wind so raw a fellow was afraid to rub his ears for fear they would break off in his hand.

We can stand our share of cold weather, but when it comes to liking it, there's nothing to it. We've no complaint against what the poet calls "a shrewd and nipping air," but when we got out of the sled and skate age and started in fighting the world for our own share of the bread and butter that was being passed around, we got out of the habit of liking cold weather. We learned that a fellow does more and better work with his coat off and his sleeves rolled up—so they can mark us up as disagreeing with the fellow who says he likes cold weather—and they can send us the shirt-sleeve brand all the year 'round if they want $ to.

THINK FIRST

People who are ready to cut down a fine old shade tree the moment it seems to obstruct a sidewalk or interfere with business the least bit, ought to pause before they order the axe applied and consider how long it took that tree to become what it is. We may well look at old trees with respect, even with veneration. Think what they have seen, how many and what different phases of progress. The famous old Washington elm, which recently came down in Cambridge, Mass., was estimated to have been from 204 to 210 years old. What tremendous changes have taken place during the life of that tree. When it was planted this country consisted of only a few scattered colonies, and New York City had a population of only 30,000.

It took years and years to grow many of the stately trees we find around Plymouth, but it takes a few minutes to rob mankind of their beauty and comfort. Once gone they are gone forever, and the man of middle-age who plans one to replace another will not live to see his planting attain maturity. These old trees have value apart from beauty and cooling shade. They are a part of the life of the town and the community, and older residents who have grown up with them, and watched them grow have learned to love them, to almost look upon them as a part of their own life. When one of them is cut it is like the passing of an old friend.

We don't believe in letting anything stand in the way of progress or of home-building or of reasonable business expansion, but before any more trees are cut, why not stop and think it over. Maybe there's a way to get along without cutting it a way that it will not interfere with progress and yet leave you happier because you spared the axe.

PLYMOUTH MAN WON CORN CONTEST.

At the Northville Wayne County Fair last fall the association offered a prize of $25 in cash for the best yield of corn in Wayne county during the season. The corn contest created a great deal of interest among the farmers of the county, and the display was a most exceptional one. J. M. Swagles of Plymouth, won the prize offered by the fair, his yield being 85.31 bushels per acre.—Northville Record.

OBITUARY

Rev. Gillespie H. Whitney was born in Orewell, Ohio, April 28, 1858. His mother having died when he was but four years of age, his early life for various reasons became a struggle to get ahead, until after many difficulties and handicaps, he graduated from Mt. Union College at Alliance, Ohio, in 1884, he was united in marriage to Elma, Jessie Earle, to which union were born three children: Grace Elma now a public school teacher at St. Joseph, Missouri; Raymond Earl, at present a teacher in the government schools of the Philippine Islands; and Ruth Irene, now married and living in Plymouth.

At the session of the Detroit Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1884, he was admitted on trial, and two years later into full membership as an ordained minister. His first pastorate was at Hartland, Michigan, and the first ten years of his ministry were spent in the upper peninsula.

After 34 years of active service in the Methodist ministry, he retired in 1918, since which time he has made his home in Plymouth until January 28 of this year, after months of failing health, and while on a trip to Florida to spend the winter, he passed to his eternal reward.

His first wife preceded him in death April 1, 1912, and on June 25, 1913, he was married to Marie Kayser of Birmingham, Mich. His wife and three children, and a host of other relatives and friends, including many brothers in the ministry, sincerely mourn their loss, but rejoice with him in his advancement to the better realm.

Thus has departed another one of God's faithful ministering servants, whose ministry was marked with the special favor of the All-seeing and All-wise Father. To estimate the long trail of accumulated good begun in human lives through the 34 years of this man's christian ministry is impossible, but we know the record is written, not only in the Recording Angel's Book, but in the many lives which his useful and fruitful ministry has blessed.

Funeral services were held from the home in Plymouth on West Ann Arbor St., last Friday, at 1:30 and at the Methodist church at 2:00 o'clock. The services were in charge of Rev. D. D. Nagle, pastor of the local church, and assisted by Dr. H. A. Leason, District Superintendent of this District of the church, and Dr. O. F. Winton of Ann Arbor, a retired brother minister. Burial was in Roseland Park Cemetery, near Birmingham.

The Chemist and the Cow

A chemist is the first man to enter every car of raw material that reaches the LARRO mill. Samples are taken and carefully tested—they must be up to LARRO quality standard or that car is rejected. Every ingredient gets this preliminary test—there is no guesswork—it must be "right" before it is considered good enough to go into LARRO.

And LARRO in its finished state is analyzed every fifteen minutes for protein, fat and fibre content. Everything must be exact. Cows don't go off feed on LARRO, because LARRO never goes off standard.

Put your cows on this better ration and watch your milk profits grow.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Varied were the topics indulged at the Woman's Club, last Friday. Mrs. Howard Brown sent in a good mental "photo" (written) of the Fine Arts meeting in Detroit, and Mrs. George Robinson also made one share the good obtained at the Detroit Federation. Mrs. D. F. Murray talked on radio progress; Mrs. Martin Stringer pictured politics in Italy from the view point of the Fascisti; Mrs. George Smith gave good impressions of air craft and the coming possibility; while Mrs. H. Shattuck wrote on the U. S. cruisers. The instructive program was enlivened by two enjoyable musical numbers, "Moonlight Revels" (piano duet) by Misses Dorothy Hillman and Corine Howell, and "The Polish Dance" by Miss Hillman.

Today, the members are in attendance with the Arche Club ladies of Wayne. Suggestions at the business session are that members find a way to get phonograph records for the old ladies at Eloise, and add their efforts to the federation to encourage artists during this Art Week.

THE UNIVERSAL CAR

Forecasting A Tremendous Spring Demand

more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars and Trucks could not be filled.

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before—and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer will be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

A small deposit down, with easy payments of the balance arranged, or your enrollment under the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, will put your order on the preferred list for spring delivery.

THE THEATRE

"TWENTY-ONE"

The Richard Barthelmess of old, with a nice close modern haircut, will be seen as the star of "Twenty-One," the First National picture to be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre on Saturday, February 9th. "Twenty-One" is a modern story, having been adapted to the screen from the novel "Wild Apples" written by Grace McGowan Cook and Alice McGowan. In his last two vehicles, "The Bright Shawl" and "The Fighting Blade," period pictures, Dick had to wear his hair long. In "Twenty-One" Barthelmess is said to have a role that is particularly well suited to his talents. He has the part of a young man who in order to circumvent the plans of his wealthy parents to forestall his marriage to a poor girl, runs away to the city to remain in hiding until he is twenty-one. In the city he becomes a taxicab driver as a means of gaining a livelihood and as such encounters some strange and exciting adventures.

"THE SPOILERS"

Milton Sills and Noah Beery, principals in Jesse D. Hampton's picture, "The Spoilers," claim the world's championship in the long distance fighting handicap. Sills, playing the role of Glennister, and Beery in the role of McNamara, battled five straight days, shed quantities of real gore and received more black and blue spots than there are on a Chinese lottery ticket before they satisfied Director Lambert Hillier. They were taking scenes in the fight which occurs between the two enemies in Rex Beach's novel, "The Spoilers," which comes next Sunday and Monday, to the Penniman Allen theatre, and were determined to outdo the famous screen battle staged by William Farnum and Tom Sant-schi in a film version of the book made ten years ago.

"FASHION ROW"

"Fashion Row," described as the most sumptuous and entertaining of Mae Murray's pictures, will come to the Penniman Allen theatre, Wednesday, February 13. Miss Murray has the role of two sisters, one of them a Broadway actress, who gives up her stage career to marry, and the other a Russian peasant girl. The arrival of Zita, and the appearance of a man who belonged to Olga Farinova's past, complicated matters for Olga. Miss Murray's gowns and dances are high-lights of "Fashion Row," while there are many scenes of lavish beauty. Earle Fox, Freeman Wood, Elmo Lincoln and Mathilde Brundage are in the cast. "Fashion Row" was directed by Robert Z. Leonard, director general of Tiffany productions, of which M. A. Hoffman is general manager. Sada Cowan and Howard Higgin wrote the story. Miss Murray, Oliver T. Marsh was photographer, and Horace Jackson, art director. "Fashion Row" is a Metro picture.

How You Save

Most homes use the electric sweeper. A prime reason is its economy. Here is an estimate of the money it saves in the course of a year:

312 hours of sweeping, dusting, beating rugs and other incidental work, at, say, 30 cents an hour $ 93.60
Avoids the frequent replacement of brooms, dust pans, dust cloths, brushes, etc., say 10.00
Prevents wear on rugs and carpets due to imbedded grit, which cannot be removed by broom, say 5.00
Total saving in 12 months $108.60

To say nothing of the saving of priceless health and strength. Come in and talk with us about this.

WILL ESTABLISH FIVE SCHOLARSHIPS.

The public and parochial school authorities of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties have approved the recently announced plan of the Union Trust Company of Detroit, to establish five $1,000 scholarships in any American college or university for the high school seniors in the counties named.

The Union Trust Company in deciding to set aside $5,000 annually for the purpose of awarding these scholarships was actuated by the desire to further the cause of higher education and to promote on the part of the younger generation a greater interest in economic matters.

The test for the award of the scholarships in 1924 will be essays on the subject of "The Selection of Investments." This subject has been selected because of its vital importance to almost every individual in view of enormous losses which are suffered by the public each year through unwise investments.

The Better Business Bureau of Detroit, in making a summary on the annual losses in stock frauds alone, says that the sum is so huge that a paved highway could be extended for 1,800 miles across the United States with fifty-foot building lots on either side, a house erected on every lot at the cost of $5,000, furniture provided for each house at an expense of $3,000, and $2,000 provided for operation for each family for the first year. The defraying of these expenses would leave a residue of approximately $50,000,000.

The high school seniors who enter the contest will find a limited number of books in the libraries that will be of help to them in the preparation of their essays, and the Union Trust Company officials suggest that the contestants interview their local bankers, life insurance representatives, bond dealers, real estate dealers or successful business men, and get their information first hand.

All essays must be handed in to the faculties of the schools, in the case of the Detroit, Highland Park and Hamtramck schools, and to the committees appointed by the county school commissioners in case of the remaining public schools, on or before May 15, 1924.

Essays to be judged by committees appointed by the county school commissioners shall be delivered to the following officials: For Wayne county public school, E. W. Yost, Wayne county building, Detroit; for Oakland county public schools, E. J. Lederle, Pontiac; for Macomb county public schools, Will J. Lee, Mt. Clemens. All parochial schools to Rev. Father Charles Linskey, 611 McDougall avenue, Detroit.

The scholarship awards will be announced to the winners, by letter, and in the public press, on August 1, 1924, in order that the necessary formalities may be arranged with the colleges or universities, selected by the winners.

The judges who shall name the winners of the scholarships and of the secondary rewards are: The Hon. Henry S. Hulbert, Detroit; the Hon. Alexis C. Angell, Detroit, and Hon. John H. Patterson, Pontiac.

SCHOOL NOTES

GRADE NOTES

Double sessions began in the third grade room the first of this semester. Mrs. George Wilcox, Mrs. Wm. B. Petz and Mrs. Guy Weeks were visitors in the first and second grades; Mrs. Withey, Mrs. Doerr, Mrs. McLaren and Mrs. Weeks in the third grade; Mrs. Fease in the fifth, and Mrs. Straub in the sixth during last week.

Thirty-nine were promoted from the kindergarten room to the first grade. Roberta Chappel, Alice Lee, Mary Jane Hamilton, Marjorie Clay and Elva Hill, through excellent work, were promoted from third grade to fourth grade. B. X., omitting third grade. A. X., twenty-four fifth A's were promoted to the sixth. Elnora Sackett was promoted from Ay division to Ax, and Winona Kenter and Madelon Shingleton from Ax to A. The sixth grade is divided into three divisions of Ay, Ax and A, according to their ability for doing work, being the highest.

The children of the first and second grades are making valentines for each other, and will have a Valentine box the 14th of February. Miss Willmore will give her kindergarten pupils a Valentine box on February 14th.

Grade notes were written by Doris Van Arsdale.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

High school notes were written by Catherine Learned.

The High school orchestra played Thursday evening before and between acts at the entertainment given by the foot ball boys. The Boy's Glee Club also furnished other between-act musical numbers.

George Barlow is now a member of our Junior Chorus.

To stimulate interest in the study of costumes, the seventh and eighth grade art class is having work in costume designing.

Since the Juniors had concessions at the basket ball game last Friday night, the Girl Scouts will sell chocolate bars and apples this week.

Some of the Seniors are trying for the Union Trust scholarship. Two scholarships of $1000 each are offered in Wayne county outside of Detroit, Hamtramck and Highland Park.

Next week starts basket ball schedule in the boys' physical training classes. Monday is given to basket ball work, and Wednesday and Friday are donated to journal work including apparatus.

A fine dinner was enjoyed by the members of the Aggie Club Wednesday noon.

The Freshman class entertained the Junior high school in a very clever manner last Friday afternoon. Songs, old and modern, and acted out by the members dressed in very appropriate costumes. Wendell Doudt made an excellent Greek in illustrating "Yes, We Have No Bananas." Winifred Draper and Alice Hathaway made a hit with their Romeo and Juliet song.

The high school looks at the list of visitors in the grades, and wonders why no one comes to its classes. Surely high school work is interesting.

The seventh grade Girl Scouts met Wednesday night, to organize patrols. They have the patrol leader and secretary elected, and have two very promising patrols. They also have chosen patrol colors and names.

BOYS' GAME

Losing by a final score of 19 to 14, Plymouth's first team played Farmington's at Farmington, Friday, February 1. Our opponents' advantage lay in the fact that their men were very much taller and heavier than ours. The score at the end of the first half was 10 to 3 in their favor, but with a change in line-up, Plymouth was able to out score them by two points in the last half. Lawrence Holmes of Plymouth, deserves credit for his unusual playing.

The Plymouth line-up was as follows: r. g. Holmes; l. g. Draper; c. Kenyon; l. f. Doudt; r. f. Millard. Referee—Mr. Graves from Ypsilanti Normal.

Substitutes—Cline for Kenyon; Kenyon for Doudt; Palmer for Millard; Cline for Holmes; Kenyon for Cline; Doudt for Kenyon.

We play Redford this Friday night on the home floor.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Our service last Sunday was in the evening, the Rev. Frank Copeland preaching from the text I John 3-21, "Beloved, if our hearts condemn us not, then have we confidence in God." Mr. Tracy sang the solo, "The Plains of Peace," in his usual good voice.

At the church school in the morning, there was an excellent attendance. The pupils are taking a real interest in the "Christian Nature Series," which is being, taught and which is very encouraging to the teachers.

Tonight, Friday, there will be a meeting of the gentry at Mr. Strong's office in the village hall.

Next Wednesday afternoon, the 13th, the Ladies' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. Whitmore on West Ann Arbor street at 2:00 o'clock, when all members are asked to be present.

Next Sunday the church service will be in the morning at 10:00 o'clock, with the service of the Holy Communion. Church school as usual at 11:15.

Everybody will be welcome.

LOCAL NEWS

Miss Gladys Schrader is driving a handsome new Ford coach.

Mrs. Letta Dixon spent Sunday with friends at Pontiac.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Krumm spent the week-end with their son, Herbert Krumm and family, of Pontiac.

The Ladies' Aid of Livonia will hold their next meeting with Mrs. John Baze, Wednesday, February 13th.

Miss Eva Griffith, who is teaching in the Cooper's Corners school this year, has been elected president of the north group of Wayne county rural school teachers.

Mrs. B. E. Gilas went to Rochester, Minn., Monday evening. Her father, A. D. Macham, who is in a hospital there, underwent a second operation, Wednesday morning, which from the latest report was very successful.

Judge George P. Codd, Thursday of last week, ordered a padlock for a year on premises at 905 North Mill street, this village, occupied by Lee McDonald, as a cigar store and soft drink parlor. Eugene A. Walling, assistant prosecuting attorney, introduced evidence to show that liquor was sold at the place. McDonald was acquitted by a jury in Judge DeWitt H. Merriman's court Wednesday, the day previous, of a charge of violating the prohibition law when it was shown that the officers had raided McDonald's home, when the warrant only called for search of premises at 905 and 915 North Mill street.

WILL WE CELEBRATE OUR CENTENNIAL?

The records show that Plymouth was settled in 1824, therefore the present year marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of Plymouth. Are we to have some suitable celebration to mark this most important epoch in the history of the village, or is it to go unobserved? If we are to have a celebration of some kind, it is time that something be done in the way of arrangements, etc. Many towns celebrate the centennial of their founding, and it is altogether fitting that Plymouth should do likewise.

We believe the Chamber of Commerce should take hold of this matter, and give it the proper impetus. Other organizations in the village and citizens in general would be glad to co-operate in making an event of this kind the success that it should be. Ann Arbor and Farmington are two nearby towns that will observe their founding with centennial celebrations this coming summer.

It might be interesting to note that the William and Allen Tibbits families were the first settlers in Plymouth township, as they purchased 800 acres of land and lived thereon in 1824. The next year the William and Erastus Starkweather families settled here. The Root and Taft families coming also the same year. Detroit had a population of 2000 at that time.

COMMUNITY HAPPENINGS

The day meeting and the chicken-dinner at Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hauk's was well attended, there being about fifty in attendance. The program was all that could be desired.

Mr. Osier, county agent from Washburn county, occupying Mr. Watts' place on the program, presented "The Economic Side of Production," which was appreciated by all. Mr. Carr gave an account of some work accomplished in Wayne county during the last year, and also an outline of this year's activities. The next meeting will be as usual, the last Wednesday in February, the 27th, at Mr. and Mrs. A. O. Huston's.

The members of the North Canton Home Economic club will remember the meeting, Tuesday afternoon, Feb. 12th, also at Mrs. A. O. Huston's, on Canton Center road.
