CHAMBER OF COMMERCE DIRECTORS ELECT OFFICERS

Harry C. Robinson Elected President of the Organization for Ensuing Year.

Membership Drive Will Be Inaugurated Week of January 19.

The new board of directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday evening, and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Harry C. Robinson.
First Vice Pres.—S. D. Strong.
Second Vice Pres.—Wm. Wood.
Treasurer—Calvin Whipple.
Secretary—H. S. Lee.
Asst. Secretary—J. E. Taylor.
Directors—A. E. Blunk, C. G. Shear, E. C. Hough, William Burrows.

In choosing Mr. Robinson as president of the Chamber of Commerce for the coming year, a better choice could not have been made; he is energetic and progressive, a real booster for Plymouth, and his wide experience in public matters especially fits him for this important position.

The re-election of Harry S. Lee as secretary for the coming year, is a well merited recognition of his splendid services in this capacity for the past year. Mr. Lee has taken a great interest in the work of the Chamber of Commerce and the progress of Plymouth, and has given much valuable time and attention to its affairs, and the C. of C. are fortunate in having him as secretary for another year. J. E. Taylor, who has been the efficient assistant secretary for the past year, was re-appointed for the coming year.

The other officers and directors, who will guide the affairs of the Chamber of Commerce, are all well known and capable men, who will give their best efforts to the Chamber of Commerce, and the welfare of the village during the coming year.

The retiring members of the board, W. T. Pettigill, H. R. Lush, Frank Rambo, Oliver Martin, E. J. Allison and Henry Fisher are entitled to much credit for their work and interest during their terms of office.

The annual campaign for memberships will be opened with the week of January 19th, when it is expected that every old member will renew their memberships, and many new names will be enrolled in the Chamber of Commerce.

The coming year is going to mark an important epoch in the progress of Plymouth, and the work of the Chamber of Commerce is going to be an important factor in the solving and accomplishment of many problems with which the village will be confronted. Everybody who has the best interests of the village at heart, needs to get back of the Chamber of Commerce and give it their wholehearted support. Boost the Chamber of Commerce and you are boosting Plymouth.

WATCH NIGHT SERVICE

About forty-five faithful folks were in attendance at the Watch Night service at the Methodist church, last Wednesday evening. A little after 9:00 o'clock, the pastor led in a good song service, after which Rev. Paul Havens, pastor of the Newburg church, gave a heart-searching sermon that was a splendid setting for the opening of the New Year. Following this, Rev. and Mrs. Nagle sang a duet, with Mrs. Paul Havens presiding ably at the piano.

From 10:15 to 11:00, a delightful hour of recreational games and stunts were indulged in, which added to the enjoyment of the evening. Afterward the committee served coffee and doughnuts. The last half hour of the year was spent with prayer and praise and testimony. Mr. Allen sang a beautiful solo. Just as the clock said one minute to twelve, the folks present bowed in prayer, and continued thus while the bells joyously rang in the New Year. It is doubtful if anyone can find a better way to close a year and a new one than in prayer. As the prayer of the prayer, all arose and sang "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow," and then joining hands, they sang, "That Olden Time." Then came

PEOPLES STATE BANK BANQUET STOCKHOLDERS

The second banquet of the stockholders of the Peoples State Bank of Plymouth, was held at the Methodist Community Building, Wednesday evening, at 6:30 o'clock. The banquet marked the occasion of the bank's business going over the $300,000 mark. There were about one hundred present, including stockholders and their ladies. The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church served a splendid banquet, during the serving of which Daniel Patterson and Miss Helen Eagen rendered several musical numbers in a most pleasing manner. Following the banquet the ladies' quartet, Mesdames Cassidy, Olsaver, Moon and Bake rendered several beautiful selections, with Mrs. Gilbert Brown at the piano.

President J. B. Hubert introduced F. H. Gressel, business development manager of the First National Bank of Detroit, who gave a very interesting talk on Business Development. After the conclusion of the program at the Community hall, the party went to the Penniman Allen theatre, where they saw a splendid entertainment. It was a most pleasant occasion for all who attended.

MRS. WATIE WHIPPLE PASSES AWAY

Mrs. Watie Whipple died at her home in Northville, early Monday morning, after a short illness. Mrs. Whipple was well known in Plymouth, having resided for many years on the Whipple farm, three miles northeast of Plymouth on the Ridge road, previous to her removal to Northville several years ago. She was a lady highly esteemed by all who knew her, and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

The deceased was born in Livonia township on January 23, 1851, and was nearly 74 years of age. Her husband, Edwin F. Whipple died about 25 years ago. She leaves four sons, Calvin, Elmore, Arthur E. and Austin Whipple to mourn their loss. The funeral services were held from her late home, Thursday afternoon at two o'clock, Rev. S. Conger Hathaway of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, officiating. The interment took place in Riverside cemetery, Plymouth.

AUTHORIZE PURCHASE OF NEW FIRE PUMPER.

At an adjourned regular meeting of the village commission, held Tuesday afternoon, the commission authorized the purchase of a new fire engine pumper, the make of which will depend upon the most satisfactory supply of equipment which can be secured with the machine. The contract for the new pumper will be let within a week in all probability. We understand it is the intention to retain the present fire truck, which is a good idea. Plymouth needs this additional fire equipment, and the commission have taken the right step in authorizing its purchase.

LOCAL NEWS

The play, "Stop Thief," given by the Senior class of the Plymouth High school, Tuesday evening, was well attended and was very well presented, indeed.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Plachta attended the annual dinner given their salesmen by Caspar Hoffman Co., real estate dealers, at Detroit, last Saturday evening. Mr. Plachta has charge of the Vanduyke office for the Caspar Hoffman Co.

Little Robert Mettetal, son of Raphael Mettetal, had the misfortune to fall from the loft in the barn, last Saturday, breaking his left arm. He was taken to Bayor hospital, Ypsilanti, and is getting along nicely at this writing.

Three hose carts and three extension ladders were purchased in 1895, and were named the Royal, Aetna and Phoenix. The first fire chief was Fred Lamphere, who at one time conducted a harness shop in this village. The present fire truck was purchased in 1919.

BASKET BALL TONIGHT

The Plymouth High boys' and girls' basket ball teams will open the league season with the Northville High boys' and girls' teams at the local High school auditorium, this Friday evening. This promises to be an interesting game, as each team is desirous of winning the opening game. The game will start at 7:30 o'clock. Admission, 25c and 35c. Don't miss the opening game.

WOMAN'S CLUB

The Woman's Club held its regular meeting at the Presbyterian church, last Friday, with its president, Mrs. Charles Humphries, conducting a short business session. A short intermission followed, then Mrs. C. H. Bennett, chairman of the lecture division, called the meeting to order, beginning the program with a piano solo, Florence Waltz, by Mrs. Fred Tighe, followed by a gracious encore. A vocal trio, "To a Wild Rose," McDowell, was rendered by Mesdames Moon, Bake and Olsaver, accompanied by Mrs. G. Brown.

Mrs. Bennett then introduced Prof. T. E. Rankin of the U. of M. Extension Work, who gave a very scholarly talk on "What is Going on in the Literary World." Prof. Rankin is an authority on the subject of the human mind, and he is gifted with a long and clear enunciation in several languages after a student of human nature, world conditions. Prof. Rankin pressed one point, never to quote and never to criticize a book unless one reads it from cover to cover, and proved that production of literature is the final proof that a race is civilized. He believes that we all live our lives and as we are influenced by some particular book, and that it is well for us to inquire into the real popularity of a book, quoting the influence of one book as the real cause of a recent Chicago crime.

After the lecture, a social hour was enjoyed in the church parlors. The table was decorated with a large bouquet of carnations, and tea poured by Mrs. McKinnon and Mrs. Humphries.

Next Friday, the club is entertained by the Northville club. Wednesday afternoon is the day of the baby clinic at the school, to which every baby should go before school days, and club members might explain this to parents.

NEW CHEVROLET MODELS ON DISPLAY

The Allison-Bachelor Motor Sales announce in their advertisement today, that the new 1925 Chevrolets are now on display at their salesroom. The new models are right up to the minute in every particular, and they are certainly a very classy car.

The most important features of the new models are the disc clutch, enclosed flywheel, semi-floating rear axle and many others, such as balloon tires, disc wheels, duo finish, one-piece windshield, nickel plated radiator, three inches lower in body design and semi-elliptic springs.

ROTARY CLUB ENTERTAINED BY REDFORD EXCHANGEITES

The Plymouth Rotary Club had the pleasure of being entertained by several members of the Redford Exchange Club, who put on a very laughable comedy sketch at the noonday luncheon last week Friday. To say that the local club enjoyed the entertainment would be putting it mildly, and everyone is hoping that the folks from Redford will come again soon, for they are sure some entertainers.

Another pleasing event of the luncheon last Friday, was the presentation of a Rotary bell to the club by Rotarian E. C. Hough, in a few well chosen remarks. The bell was accepted in the name of the club by President George A. Smith, who thanked the donor, and spoke words of appreciation for the handsome gift. The bell is to be used by the president of the club in presiding over the meetings.

DEATH OF JOSEPH WEBBER

Joseph Webber, a highly respected farmer of Plymouth township for many years, passed away at his home near this village, Sunday, January 4th, at the age of 82 years, 2 months and 4 days. Mr. Webber had been in failing health for the past three years. The funeral services were held from the home, Wednesday morning, Rev. Fr. Lefevre officiating. The interment took place in Riverside cemetery.

Joseph Webber was born near Metz, Province of Lorraine, France, October 30, 1843. He came to America with his parents when two years of age. When 26 years of age, he was united in marriage with Frances Bahen, who preceded him in death, March 9, 1913. Six children were born to this union, three of whom are left to mourn his departure, Mrs. W. K. McGorey, William C. Webber and Mrs. Florence Ewing, also six grandchildren. Nearly all of his life was spent in Wayne county, and he had resided for 27 years upon the farm near Plymouth.

PORTLAND, ORE., GIRL WINS $15,000 HOME IN LIGHTING CONTEST

Competing with over two million school children in the United States and Canada, of which nearly one million actually submitted fairy tales, verses and essays in the Home Lighting Contest, Julia Groo, 87 North 23rd street, Portland, Oregon, eighteen years of age, was decided the winner of the $15,000 Model Electric Home, offered by the Lighting Educational Committee, 680 Fifth avenue, New York City. This home will be built on a lot provided by Miss Groo anywhere she desires. Ten other boys and girls in various portions of the United States and Canada received scholarships, ranging in value from $300 to $1,200.

The international judges of the Home Lighting Contest were William McAndrew, superintendent of schools, Chicago, Illinois; Mrs. William Brown Meloney, editor, the Delineator; B. C. Forbes, editor, Forbes Magazine; Sarah L. Rhodes, principal, P. S. No. 28, Brooklyn, N. Y.; George D. Shepherdson, professor of electrical engineering, University of Minnesota; George R. Anderson, professor of illuminating engineering, University of Toronto, and M. H. Aylesworth, executive manager of the National Electric Light Association, representing Franklin T. Griffith, president of that association, who was unable to be present. The judges selected the winning essays from over 45,000 prize winners in 4,784 local communities in the United States and Canada. Each community was allowed to submit ten to fifty local winners for the judges' consideration, according to its population.

With the use of a Home Lighting Primer containing lessons on home lighting, the contestants were obliged to do three things in the competition: First, to make an investigation of their own and two neighbors' homes, and report in the primer of the lighting conditions therein. Second, to cut figures from a catalog in the primer and paste them in what they thought were the proper places in the "lightless" illustrations of rooms also contained in the primer. Third, to write an essay explaining how they would change the lighting equipment in their own homes to conform with present day lighting standards. Miss Groo was adjudged the winner because she completed most rigidly with the rules of the contest and presented an essay which was clear, well written and adequate.

The five boys and girls who won scholarships are as follows: Two Second Prizes of $1,200 Scholarships in American or Canadian colleges:

George R. Pinarc, 451 Elwood avenue, Oakland, California.

Dorothy Lathe, East Aylmer, Quebec, Canada.

Two Third Prizes of $600 Scholarships in American or Canadian colleges:

John Patten Crawford, 1226 West Walnut street, Kokomo, Indiana.

Lucile Brewer, Gainesville, Georgia.

Two Fourth Prizes of $600 Scholarships in American or Canadian Colleges:

Joe Kelly, 839 East Washington street, Martinsville, Indiana.

Irene Kline, 274 State street, Lowell, New York.

Two Fifth Prizes of $300 Scholarships in American or Canadian colleges:

Roswell Edward Brett, 937 Gotham street, Watertown, New York.

Mary W. Holman, Huntsville, Missouri.

Two Sixth Prizes of $300 Scholarships in American or Canadian colleges:

Everett Ehler Wigger, 40 North Main street, West Alexandria, Ohio.

Eleanor Kathleen Link, 58 Aurora street, Lancaster, New York.

John J. Klopp, aged 68 years, died at the home of his sister, Mrs. J. H. Palmer, 522 Adams street, Saturday, January 3rd. A short service was held from the Palmer home, Tuesday morning, Rev. Fr. Lefevre officiating, and the remains were taken to Elkhart, Indiana, for interment.

On Tuesday of this week, C. A. Fox and local associates, who were the majority stockholders, sold the Plymouth & Northville Gas Company to the Gas Engineering Service Company of Battle Creek, Michigan.

The Gas Engineering Service owns and operates plants in the following cities: Marshall, Owosso, Alma, Alpena, Sault Ste. Marie, Michigan; Waycross, Georgia, and West Palm Beach, Florida. It is also affiliated with the Battle Creek Gas Company. Negotiations for the transfer of the property were conducted by George W. Mechem, attorney, and P. W. Seymour, president and treasurer of the Service Company.

B. B. Adams, formerly of Marshall, Michigan, will arrive in a few days to take charge of the property as local manager. Mr. Adams will make his permanent home in Plymouth.

It is expected that the new owners will develop considerably the field for the local company.

PRESENTED WITH HANDSOME GIFT

If you should chance to see H. C. Robinson of Plymouth slight from a car some day bearing under his arm a very handsome leather traveling bag, do not think that he has decided to "pack his grip and take a trip" and to leave his happy home in our neighboring city to become a resident of Northville. He would be welcome here, of course, but he is needed in Plymouth and we do not desire to be selfish. Mr. Robinson received as a Christmas gift from the Northville Wayne County Fair association a handsome bag and in the bag was a box of his favorite cigars. This present was not made with the idea of winning him away from Plymouth either, but the officers and directors of the fair just wanted to in some way express their appreciation for his untiring services in behalf of the fair and they decided upon the traveling bag, which was left at his home last week Wednesday. Mrs. Robinson presented him with the gift Christmas morning, and it is said that it was with difficulty that he concluded his breakfast of ham and of course the gift was unexpected but it is the sincere wish of his many Northville friends that he may be able to enjoy many delightful tours—with his good wife—and that the traveling bag may prove of real service to him.

Mr. Robinson has officiated as starting judge at all of our fairs and he has never charged nor has he ever received any compensation for his valuable services. Not only has he served as judge three days each year, but for weeks and months before each annual fair he has been an enthusiastic friend of the association and has worked diligently and with enthusiasm for its success. The hand bag is but small recompense for his services, but it expresses the sincere appreciation of the officers and directors of the fair—Northville Record, Friday, January 2, 1925.

The Record is right, Plymouth needs our genial Harry, but in an unselfish spirit we are glad that he is able to assist our good neighbors in making their fair, which by the way has come to be our fair also, the splendid success that it has always been. Mr. Robinson is deeply appreciative of the splendid gift above referred to, and the kind words of the Record, and through the Mail, he wishes to thank the association and his Northville friends.

FREYMAN-HUCKLE

At the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Clizbe in Detroit, Christmas eve, the marriage of Miss Josephine Huckle and Sterling Freyman was solemnized. Rev. Kuhman performed the nuptials in the presence of a few young people, friends of the bride and groom. The wedding march was played by Miss Josephine Schell. The bride was very lovely in a flame colored georgette dress and a wreath of silver orange blossoms in her hair. Following the ceremony a wedding supper was served. The bride's home was artistically decorated with wreaths, poinsettias and lighted candles for the occasion. Mr. and Mrs. Freyman will make their home in Plymouth—Redford Record.

SIELOFF-BORDINE

A very pretty informal wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Sioloff, last week Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock, when their son, Mayford H. and Miss Laura M. Bordine were united in marriage. At the appointed hour to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, the bridal party took their places before a flower banked altar. The Rev. Charles Strasen performed the ceremony, using the impressive double ring service.

The bride was charmingly gowned in peacock blue roshanara crepe trimmed in white fur. She carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. She was attended by her cousin, Miss Myrtle Bendel, who was dressed in blue charmeuse trimmed in fur, and carried a bouquet of Columbia roses.

The groom was attended by his brother, Theodore A. Sioloff. The rings were carried in two pink roses, by little Elizabeth Louise Sioloff, a niece of the groom.

After the ceremony, a bounteous dinner was served to about thirty-five guests. They received many useful and beautiful gifts. After a short wedding trip, the happy couple will be at home on their farm in Salem township.

"STOP THIEF"

In "Stop Thief," to be played at the High school auditorium, Tuesday, January 6th, there is a world of fun built upon the idea of the kleptomaniac. What is a kleptomaniac? He is a person who "takes things unconsciously," as James Cluney puts it in the play. And the world at large is inclined to ask with Jack Doogan, the real burglar, "Can you get away with it?" or say with him, "Gee, what an alibi!"

To get at the idea of the play in another way, if you had entered a house as a sure-enough burglar, how would you feel to find that there was a man there ahead of you who believed that he had taken "unconsciously," all the things you tried to lay your hands on? The author of "Stop Thief" was not content with this. Not one but two characters are self-confessed kleptomaniacs, and they not only help Jack Doogan in his effort to keep the knowledge of the thefts from the police, but they enlist his aid to keep them from "taking things"—to Jack's satisfaction as well as their own.

Any suggestion of the story of the play would be incomplete without a reference to Nell, the demure lady's maid, and the clever assistant to the burglar. And besides these, a correspondence school detective and a big-as-life police sergeant complicated things still more.

A mere mention of the Seniors, who take the parts, is sufficient guaranty that the audience will get their money's worth of fun. Everett Cummins, who provided such mirth as Bobby Tarver in "Green Stockings," and "Johnny White" in "The Intimate Strangers," is funnier than ever, as the infirm absent-minded Mr. Carr. Mrs. Carr is played by Juanita Coe, so well received as Celia in "Green Stockings," while Doris Coleman, the "Lady Trenchard" of that play, is near perfection as the maid. Russell Nieman, who played father of these two last year, fills the part of the burglar even better.

Ernest Ambrus has laid aside the role of the gruff old admiral for that of the brusque and threatening Jamison, and again the audience will roar even louder at the change. The rest of the cast are new to high school dramatics. Yet those who are acquainted with them will begin to smile in anticipation as they read the names of George Palmer as Cluney, the prospective son-in-law; Pierre Kenyon as his friend, the doctor; Lawrence Holmes as the burly police sergeant, with Dale Wilson, Byron Becker and Francis Hieny as his assistants; John Shomberger as the detective, and Doyle Rowland as the minister. Thelma Davey will play the bride-to-be, with Thelma Packard and Lila Tegge as her sisters, Joan and Caroline.

"Stop Thief" is the most pretentious comedy yet attempted by the Plymouth High school group. With a large cast—17 in all—and without a change of scene, the action is fast, and the fun continuous. The Seniors hope to make this the best of their career. Since it is to be given on a school night, the play will begin promptly at 7:30, a half hour earlier than most such entertainments.

Tickets are already on sale, and may be obtained from any of the Seniors, at 25c for students and 35c for adults. Reserved seats are 10c extra, are still available at the office of R. R. Parrott.
