BREAK GROUND FOR NEW MAYFLOWER HOTEL

F. D. Schrader, Vice-President of the Board of Directors of New Hotel, Turns First Shovel of Dirt and Makes Brief Address Last Monday Morning.

The Big Steam Shovel is Making Fast Progress in Removing Dirt for the Basement.

Last Monday morning ground was broken for Plymouth's new community hotel, The Mayflower. The board of directors, Eugene Wilhelm of the firm of Verner, Wilhelm & Molloy, architects for the new building, and Mr. Stibbard, of the Stibbard Construction Company, general contractors for the building, and a number of other citizens were present, and although no formal ceremonies had been planned, the event was marked in a most fitting manner.

The first shovel of dirt was thrown out by F. D. Schrader, vice president of the hotel corporation, who made a few remarks in which he spoke of the work of the board in bringing the project up to the point when the actual work of the new building had been started, and that when completed the new hotel would be something of which the citizens could point to with pride and satisfaction. Following the brief ceremony, pictures of the group were taken by L. L. Ball and H. R. Lush.

The signal was then given, and the big steam shovel, which was in readiness, began throwing out the dirt, and as fast as the trucks could be loaded the first loads of dirt were being carted away, and the work of constructing Plymouth's modern hotel was under way.

John Nardi of Detroit, has the contract for the excavating, with A. E. Derbin of that city in charge. The Stibbard Construction Company of Detroit, who have the general contract, have a force of men constructing a board fence around the property, to remain while the work of building is in progress.

PLYMOUTH WINS EXTEMPORÉ CONTEST

Josephine Schmidt, representing Plymouth High school, and Carpenter Hewitt representing Birmingham High school, won first and second places in the district extempore contest at Wyandotte last Friday afternoon.

Josephine Schmidt took for her subject, "Our Policy in Nicaragua," while Mr. Hewitt won with a talk on "New York State's New Criminal Laws."

The other competing schools were Grosse Ile, Wyandotte and Ferndale. This is the first year that the high schools of the state have competed in extempore speaking. The subjects are mailed by the state manager from Kalamazoo. An hour before the contest, each speaker draws three subjects. He may reject two, and talk on the third. The contestants all work in one room for the hour preceding the contest. No one may confer with them. Then they assemble in the auditorium, and speak for six minutes on the subject they have chosen.

By winning last Friday afternoon, Josephine Schmidt won for our school a handsome new banner in our school colors. She also won the right to compete in the state contest at Kalamazoo, May 7th, when medals will be awarded the winners of the first three places.

PLYMOUTH HIGH ATHLETES IN TRAINING FOR TRACK MEET

THE TEAM THAT WILL REPRESENT LOCAL SCHOOL IN ANNUAL TRACK MEET WILL BE STRONG CONTENDER FOR THE CUP.

Plymouth High athletes are getting in training for the coming annual track meet of the Suburban League, which takes place early in June, and which event is one of the biggest of the year in school athletics. Plymouth won the championship of the league last year, and it looks as if they would be a strong contender for the cup again next June. Some of the stars of last year will be on the team that will represent Plymouth this year. Among them are Donalt, Rambo, Carmichael, Crumm and Rattenbury.

Among the new ones that are eligible to compete this year, are Charles and Erwin Foster, Leroy Simmons, Claude Gebhardt, David, Nichol and Elmer Carney.

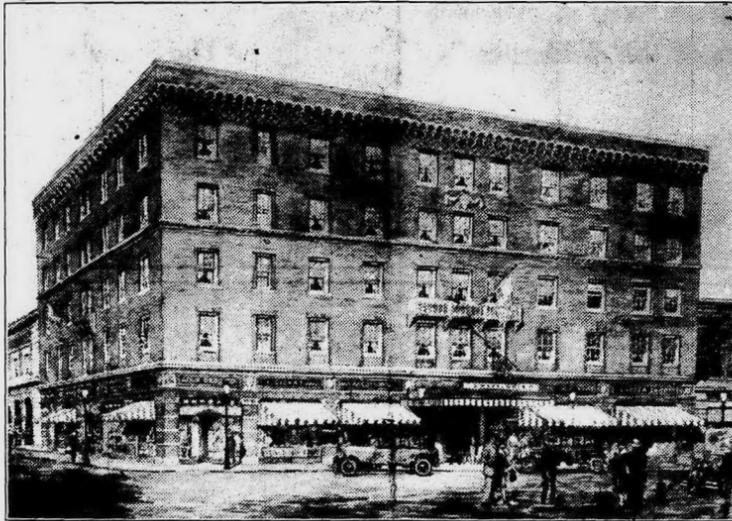

Coch Page will put his men through an intensive course of training, in preparation for the big meet, which is to take place somewhere between the 4th and 11th of June, at Ypsilanti. Previous to that time, his team will participate in the following meets:

May 4th, dual meet with Ypsilanti Normal Reserves, at Plymouth.
May 17th, triangle meet at Plymouth, between teams representing Northville, Ypsilanti and Plymouth.
May 21st, dual meet with Dearborn at Plymouth.

BASEBALL OPENING AT HOUSE OF CORRECTION FARM.

The opening ball game at the House of Correction Farm will take place Sunday, May 1st, when the De-Ho-Co baseball team will meet the Detroit Municipal ball team, at 3:00 o'clock. Previous to the opening of the game, a flag will be raised by the Plymouth Ex-Service Men's Club. The Detroit Police Department band will furnish music. A forty-minute bus service will be maintained between Plymouth and the grounds.

The Mayflower, Plymouth's New Community Hotel

We take pleasure in presenting here with the architect's drawing of Plymouth's new community hotel, the Mayflower, now in course of construction at the corner of Ann Arbor and South Main streets. The picture shows the building five stories in height, which it is expected it will be eventually, but for the present the building will be three stories in height.

The new hotel will have fifty-one rooms, twenty-five with bath tub, lavatory and toilet; fifteen rooms with lavatory and toilet, and eleven rooms with lavatory.

The first floor will have six stores, coffee shop, crystal dining room, kitchen, lobby, check room, palm room with fireplace. The basement will contain the boiler room, storage for kitchen, storage for stores, ventilating room, public lavatory and toilets. There will be a barber shop on the first floor.

The floor of the dining room will be constructed so as to be used for dancing.

A small dining room will be available on the second floor, and can be used as sample room for salesmen.

The lobby will contain the desk, manager's office, check room and public telephone booth.

All of the stores are to have modern store fronts.

The main entrance to the hotel will be on West Ann Arbor street, with another entrance on South Main street.

Several applications have already been received by Secretary J. M. Larkins, for store rooms.

The following committees are now working on operation, kitchen equipment, decoration, furnishings and building:

Operation—Chairman, J. M. Larkins; E. K. Bennett, Frank Rambo.

Decoration and Furnishings—Chairman, Carl Shear; Edward Garde, E. K. Bennett.

Kitchen and Coffee Shop Equipment—Chairman, F. D. Schrader; Frank Rambo, J. M. Larkins.

Building—Chairman, F. D. Schrader; E. O. Huston, Paul Wiedmann.

BUILDING AND LOANS SHOW INCREASE.

According to J. W. Leslie of Grand Rapids, president of the Michigan Building and Loan League, reports from Michigan Building & Loan Associations show assets of $111,708,174.93 as of January 1, 1927, against $97,200,073.14 for January, 1926. 9,530 homes were financed in 1926 by these associations.

There are now upwards of 12,500 Building & Loans in this country with combined resources of $6,000,000,000 and 10,000,000 members. Growth has been extremely rapid, the increase since 1913 being 100 per cent. Today, 45% of all money put out to finance homes is furnished by Building & Loan Associations.

The increase in number of borrowing members of Building and Loans is a reliable indication of the widespread growth of home ownership. The corresponding increase of investing members clearly reflects national prosperity and a substantial interest in thrift and saving.

BASEBALL

Plymouth Merchants will open the season Sunday, May 1st, on Burroughs Field, meeting the strong Royal Oak Merchants. The Merchants are putting on the field all home talent, young and aggressive ball players, and will expect an appreciative support of Plymouth fans. Britcher, Honey or Rorabacher will pitch for Plymouth, Sunday, with Strasen catching. Game called at 3:00 o'clock.

Last Sunday, the Merchants defeated the Nethem Club in a practice game, 7 to 3. Giles, Trimble and Milross playing in midseason form.

Miss Margaret Miller, who has been spending the winter in Indianapolis, Ind., has returned home.

Addie Westfall Fisher was born in Livonia township, May 30, 1873, and departed this life on April 23, 1927, at her daughter's home in Northville.

PROMINENT CITIZEN PASSES AWAY

D. M. BERDAN DIES IN DETROIT HOSPITAL, TUESDAY AFTERNOON; FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE HELD TODAY.

D. M. Berdan, one of Plymouth's prominent and best known citizens, passed away at Grace hospital, Detroit, Tuesday afternoon about four o'clock. Mr. Berdan had been in failing health for about a year. He was taken to the hospital six weeks ago, and he had steadily failed until the end.

He was a man of the highest integrity, and had a large circle of friends and acquaintances by whom he will be greatly missed in the community where he has lived so long.

Dewey M. Berdan was born on the Berdan farm, just west of the village on the Ann Arbor road, now owned by C. H. Bennett, on November 1, 1855. He was the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Byron Berdan, and was the eldest of six children, who with the exception of one sister, Mrs. George S. Durfee of this place, and one brother, Herbert L. Berdan of Detroit, have preceded him in death.

In 1883, he went to North Dakota, where he engaged in farming on a large scale for a period of thirty years. In 1903, he returned to Plymouth, and soon after purchased the Plymouth Hotel, which he successfully operated for a number of years.

The funeral services were held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Friday afternoon at 3:00 o'clock. Rev. B. W. Pullinger, rector of Christ Episcopal church, Detroit, officiated. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Plymouth was well represented in a double page spread in last Sunday's issue of the Detroit Free Press, in which photographs, news stories and advertising portrayed the desirability of the section from Grand River avenue to the village of Plymouth.

Photographic reproductions of the Daisy Air Ride plant, a street scene and a beautiful scenic spot in the tourist park together with several news stories regarding this community were broadcasted to the more than three hundred thousand readers of that newspaper.

Among the news stories carried in the Sunday issue, was the following, under a two-column heading, reproduced for the benefit of those who failed to read it in the Free Press:

"Within a few minutes drive from the portals of Detroit is the community from which Plymouth road gets its name. Among the hills and dales of what is perhaps one of the most scenic sections of the entire county, Plymouth is a constant invitation to those who desire the utmost out of life." Frank Rambo, president of the Greater Plymouth association, stated Saturday.

"Plymouth long has been noted for her splendid home environment," he declared. "The beauty of the district has claimed as residents many who have their business contacts in Detroit. Her industrial possibilities and actualities, however, are not so well known. Within the past month an organization has been perfected pledged to tell the world about the facilities and opportunities that exist in that community for the industrialist."

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER BANQUET

The third mother and daughter banquet will be given in the High school auditorium on Wednesday evening, May 11, at six-thirty o'clock. It is being sponsored by the Junior and Senior Girl Reserves and the three groups of Camp Fire Girls, who will have charge of the ticket sale. The dinner is to be served by the Baptist Ladies' Aid Society, and the tickets are 75c.

Mrs. Ray of the personnel department of Highland Park High school, has been secured as the principal speaker. During the fall semester, she spoke for the 4 C's campaign, and was so well liked that she was asked for this banquet; it was found that this was the only open date Mrs. Ray had for that week, and the date originally set was changed to May 11th. Mrs. Shattuck has been secured for the toastmistress, and Virginia Giles speaks for the Camp Fire. Ruth Hamilton for the Junior Girl Reserves, and the president, Katherine Wilcox, for the Senior group. One other place has not been filled on the program, but the completed list will be in next week's paper.

Rail Junction Point.

"Plymouth is favored from an industrial standpoint by the fact that it is possible to ship by rail from practically every point of the compass. It is the junction point for north and south, east and west travel on the Pere Marquette with connection facilities for practically every rail line that enters Detroit. It is a common boast among manufacturers in that community, and they include most everything from air rifles to piston rings, that have two to four days advantage in the shipments of finished products over any concern in competition with them in Detroit.

"In mentioning Plymouth industries it might be well to state that the community has the largest factory in the world exclusively devoted to the manufacture of air rifles. It also is estimated that 25 million of the 40 million of automobiles traversing the highways of the world are equipped in some manner with Plymouth made parts. This may include piston rings, manifolds, hood clamps, gears or other accessories. An invitation is now being extended by the Greater Plymouth association that will unquestionably add to the number of industries located there.

"Within the past two years Plymouth has become the hub of a network of concrete highways that is leaving a decided impression on the growth of the community. North and south highways were completed in the past year tying in with the previous constructed east and west arteries, resulting in a traffic condition that is now receiving the attention of municipal authorities.

Has Home Appeal.

"Plymouth has an exceptional appeal from a residential standpoint in that her location is approximately midway between the finest educational facilities in the state and the industrial and business life of Detroit. The University of Michigan at Ann Arbor is only 20 minutes drive from Plymouth, the state normal at Ypsilanti even less, and this has contributed materially to her splendid growth. Business men find it convenient to live in Plymouth, with their business requirements only 45 minutes distant, the children availing themselves of the educational facilities and not subjected to the necessity of living away from home.

"Plymouth road leads to something finer in the life of the American family. Westward Ho' was the slogan of the pioneer, but in this instance the pioneering has all been finished, and the trail is one of pleasure alone."

REV. FRANK M. FIELD WILL PREACH ANNIVERSARY SERMON.

Rev. Frank M. Field of Flint, and a former pastor of the local Methodist Episcopal church, will preach the anniversary sermon on the occasion of the tenth anniversary of the dedication of the present church. Rev. Field was pastor of the church at that time, and his many Plymouth friends will be glad of the opportunity to hear him again next Sunday. There will be special musical selections under the direction of Wayne VanDyne. The public is cordially invited to attend this service.

WATER AND WIND.

Events of the past few weeks indicate that it is next to impossible for this country to pass through the spring season without catastrophes and disasters. Scores of lives wiped out in a violent Texas tornado and millions of dollars in property damage along the Mississippi river must be written into the history of the year 1927.

There is really no lesson to be taught by these disasters, unless it is to remind us that this is a mighty big country in which we live, and that it is pretty hard for the elements to treat all kindly. Some parts of it must have sunshine while others have rain; some parts must have wind while others have calm. We can never tell in what part the water and the wind is going to come next. No section is immune from tornadoes and cyclones, and even though a town may be inland, cloud bursts have a way of making themselves felt in places where there is never any danger from rising rivers.

Wind and water at this season of the year is natural and we have to take what comes. Plymouth and surrounding community are as safe from death and property damage by storm and flood as any other section of the country, and yet our turn to suffer may come tomorrow. About the only thing to be done is to invest as heavily as we possibly can in insurance, since that is really the only protection left us and the only assurance that we can build our home back over head if we are unfortunate enough to lose it. There is but one way to profit by the calamities that have just beset the people along the Mississippi and the Texas tornado belt. That is not to stand by idly hoping that this section will be spared, but to see to it in advance that there will be money enough forthcoming if our property is destroyed to reconstruct it when the storm has passed on or the waters have subsided.

EARLY BE TIMELY.

In our mail comes a request from that great organization down at Washington City known as the American Automobile Association, an organization made up of the 850 secretaries of auto clubs in every section of the United States. It may seem a little early to be sending it out, and yet when we consider the value of its timely advice it deserves attention right now.

"Please caution your readers around Plymouth who expect to use their automobiles for driving into strange territory and along roads unfamiliar to them to use a little extra caution this spring and summer," reads the bulletin. "In all parts of the country auto travel is now growing heavier. New roadside stands for the sale of food and new sources of drinking water supply are being offered on all sides. The driver on a strange road takes a long chance in eating and drinking just anything he can get his hands on. Many deaths occurred last year as a result of it. Won't you help us to keep down this unnecessary death rate by warning your people to be sure that the food they get at roadside stands is pure and wholesome and the water they drink along the road is not contaminated with disease germs?"

And that is the purpose of these few lines. To urge any of our citizens who may be driving strange roads, now that pretty driving days are here, to guard against unnecessary disease by making sure that what they eat and drink is pure.

THE BUSY BRUSH.

The busiest brush in all the land today is the whitewash brush. Its effect is being seen and felt in every section—seen because it is attractive to the eye and felt because it is one of the surest disease-prevention customs to which Americans are addicted. Any time of year is a good time to use the whitewash brush, but right now, while Plymouth residents still have the spring cleaning fever is the most appropriate time. Not everyone, however, knows how to mix the best whitewash, though anyone can apply it. So we're going to give you what government says is the best whitewash recipe known. Here it is—use it liberally and let your neighbor copy it: "Carefully slake 38 pounds of good quicklime; strain the paste, while still thick, through wire strainer and add about four gallons of hot water. While stirring vigorously pour into the lime mixture a solution made by first dissolving 12 pounds of salt and six ounces of alum in about four gallons of hot water and then adding one quart of molasses. Thin with water. Apply the mixture with an ordinary whitewash brush."

PROCLAMATION

IN REGARD TO THE CONTROL OF THE EUROPEAN CORN BORER.

The fact having been determined by the United States Department of Agriculture that an injurious insect, the European corn borer, new to and now somewhat widely spread over the counties of Monroe, Wayne, Lenawee, Washtenaw, Macomb, Oakland, Livingston, St. Clair, Lapeer, Genesee, Sanilac, Tuscola, Huron, Hillsdale, Branch, Jackson, Calhoun, Ingham and Shiawassee, and certain townships in St. Joseph, Kalamazoo, Saginaw and Bay Counties, and

In view of the fact that the Federal Government has made an appropriation of $10,000,000 and the State of Michigan $200,000 for the purpose of assisting the farmers in combatting this undesirable insect, it is deemed essential that an appeal be made to the people living in the cities and villages to take part in this clean-up program so that the $50,000,000 corn crop, the $100,000,000 dairy business, the $14,000,000 hog industry and the $13,000,000 sheep industry, all depending largely upon the corn crop, may be saved to this state.

The farmers are cheerfully responding to this clean-up program and I am sure that if the people living in the cities and villages realize the importance of cleaning up their gardens where corn was grown they will respond as readily.

The corn borer hatches out into a moth during the month of June, and as a moth, wings its way to the open country, there to start a new family of borers to destroy the growing corn crop.

Realizing the importance of a general clean-up program as a means of controlling, and eliminating if possible, this undesirable insect, I, Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture for Michigan, under and by virtue of authority conferred upon me by the statutes of this state do hereby issue a proclamation calling upon the Mayors of Cities, Presidents of Villages, Chiefs of Police, Boy Scouts, members of dinner clubs, civic organizations and organizations of every kind, to interest themselves in seeing that a thorough clean-up is done within the boundaries of their municipalities.

We are engaged in a war against a foreign enemy, the European corn borer. Every good American citizen will do his part in exterminating this pest which threatens the corn crop of not only Michigan, but of the United States as well.

Commissioner of Agriculture of the State of Michigan.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Last Tuesday the parish celebrated the feast of Our Lady of Good Counsel. Services were held at 8:00 o'clock, with a very good representation of the clergy present. The adult choir sang appropriate hymns for the occasion and did justice to themselves worthy of commendation. The following clergy were present and guests of the parish, and were entertained by the pastor, Rev. F. T. Kelly, of Dowagiac; W. A. Graeber, Sturgis; F. McQuillan, Pinckney; E. De Puydt, Brighton; L. Gaffner, Brightmoor; J. Rockford, Redford; L. Chapman, Detroit; J. Schuller, Northville.

The Rev. W. A. Graeber delivered the sermon, taking as his topic, "The Virtues of Mother."

The First Communion class begins the first Saturday in May.

The Nethem baseball team is anxiously awaiting good weather so that they may demonstrate their keen ability with all contenders.

A special meeting of the Nethem club was held last Monday evening in the Mahogany room. A large number of the members of the club were present, and much business was transacted in the form of entertainment, refreshments and sociability. Propositions regarding the future were brought up, and further announcements are to be made in the near future. Three boys, M. Yuchasz, B. Maskell and T. Morrison, entertained the crowd with refreshments and luncheon, a real surprise to all the members. Do it again, boys. The hot dogs were good. Having completed the business transactions, the evening was spent in dancing amongst themselves.

Next Sunday is financial report

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

On Thursday evening, May 5th, at 7:30 o'clock, Miss Lucy Schaefer of the National Board, will speak at the First Presbyterian church. This promises to be a rare treat to all who can attend. Calvin Whipple will sing, and the people of Plymouth are invited to hear this interesting presentation of some of our national work.

Mrs. Shaw's class had a fine attendance at their meeting Tuesday evening. The dinner was excellent, and was made doubly interesting by the magic appearance of a birthday cake in honor of the president, Mrs. Champe.

WILL HOLD CLINICS

Many children will enter school this fall. It is the first big change that comes into the life of a child and he should be in the very best physical condition possible. Realizing this, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has made the "summer round-up" a permanent activity. This is our first "summer round-up" in rural Wayne county and the following schedule has been arranged:

Zone "A"—Monday, May 2nd, at 9:00 a. m.—Dr. Brisbols and other physicians. At Episcopal parish house, Plymouth, Mrs. George D. Michelin, Zone "A" vice-president, Plymouth.

Zone "B"—Tuesday, May 3rd, at 9:00 a. m.—Dr. Sparling. At Community hall and church, West Point Park, Seven Mile road, near Farmington road. Mrs. Ethel Middlewood, Farmington, Zone "B" vice-president.

Zone "C"—Thursday, May 5th, at 1:00 p. m.—Dr. Parker. At Methodist church, Inkster. Mrs. W. E. VanVlear, Inkster, Zone "C" vice-president.

Zone "D"—Wednesday, May 4th, at 9:00 a. m.—Dr. Walker. At Methodist church, Romulus. At 1:00 p. m.—Dr. Earle. At Episcopal church, Wayne. Mrs. J. F. Hahn, Route No. 1, Wayne, Zone "D" vice-president.

Zone "E"—Friday, May 6th, at 1:00 p. m.—Dr. Graudfield. At Improvement Hill, New Boston. Mrs. Albert Brady, Romulus, Zone "E" vice-president.

Zone "F"—Friday, May 6th, at 9:00 a. m.—Dr. Proud and Dr. Boyd. At Flat Rock High school. Mrs. Herman Schrandt, Flat Rock, Zone "F" vice-president.

Since we live in Zone "A" we are asked to bring our children on May 2nd to St. John's parish house, Plymouth. If for any reason you prefer to go to one of the other clinics you are welcome to do so.

The doctor will make a very thorough examination of your child in your presence and tell you if there are any defects. You are then advised to visit your family physician for advice and treatment.

We are hoping to have present our county supervising nurse and our zone nurse, our zone helping teacher, our county social worker, our home demonstration agent or county nutritionist, a pre-school expert from the Merrill-Palmer school and other pre-school advisors. You will have an opportunity for conferences with these workers regarding problems of care, food and behavior.

Younger children from two to six years of age will be examined if you wish and if time permits.

Please be at the clinic promptly and bring a large towel with you. If you cannot arrange for transportation someone will call for you if you will go to the nearest school to you.

Cinnamon Lasted Long

Twenty-four years ago, a few days after Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Steerwald of Ghent, N. Y., were married, the bride wished to pickle some pigs' feet, but found that she had no cinnamon. She asked her husband to get a supply and he returned home with five pounds of stick cinnamon, which, in those days, was the only kind used in pickling. The package nearly filled the rear part of the Steerwald buggy. Mrs. Steerwald has just used the last stick of the twenty-four-year-old cinnamon at butchering time to flavor a batch of hockies.

A liner ad in the Mail will help you to dispose of that piece of used furniture.

Buick Power is proved on the 24-Hour Hill

Buick knows that the famous Buick Valve-in-Head Engine produces more power for its size than any other automobile engine on earth.

Buick has proved this fact decisively at the great Proving Ground of General Motors, on the "24-Hour Hill"—a mechanical device which faithfully duplicates the pull of any hill for any number of miles.

Test, not guess, is the basis for Buick design. Buick success is founded on this constant search for the new and better thing—on this accurate, beforehand knowledge of results.

Something Lacking in Men of Great Minds

Many great philosophers have shown an extraordinary inability to carry out their teachings in daily life. Their precepts are sound enough; their wisdom is undoubted. Yet they are foolish fellows, after all. The reason is not so obscure as it seems at first sight. A man may have a fine brain, so that, in the quiet of his study, he can put in words great wisdom. But along with that fine brain may go a weak character which balks him whenever he attempts to cope with stark reality. John Stuart Mill was a great philosopher. But in his daily life he committed every conceivable blunder. Thomas Carlyle concentrated his profound mind on the causes of misery in the world, and made his own home utterly unhappy by an uncontrolled and irritable temperament. He could give the world a lot; but for his long-suffering wife, who he loved in his own way, he had little but harsh words, scoldings, and churlishness. Anatole France, greatest of modern French writers and commentators on life, said, shortly before he died: "I have never known a moment's happiness." Why had he not known happiness? Surely because, for all his wisdom, he had not, after all, mastered the art of life. The great German philosopher, Schopenhauer, whose treatises on metaphysics are classic, was a fool in the affairs of life. While writing his monumental treatises on philosophy he yet contrived to be so peevish, suspicious, and quarrelsome that his own mother, with whom he lived, requested him to go away from her. It is said that he had not a single friend. Many a simple, ignorant man possesses more real wisdom than a learned professor. The true test is action; those men are wise, who live wisely.

Successful Book Thief Fortunately for our literary treasures, dishonesty among librarians is extremely rare, but the arrest of the curator of a Paris library for trying to sell a valuable Thirteenth-century MS. in his charge to a London bookseller recalls the deprivations of the most successful book thief on record—Count Guglielmo Libri, for many years Inspector general of public libraries in France. In the course of his visits of inspection Libri contrived to remove from the various collections a remarkable number of valuable books and manuscripts, and before discovery managed to accumulate some $200,000 by the sale of his plunder. In 1848 a warrant was issued for his arrest, but he had friends at court and was enabled to escape to England, where he lived very comfortably for many years on the proceeds of his stolen treasures.

Toys Thought Wonderful Mechanical toys, such as trains, dancing maimes and swimming ducks, were produced as scientific wonders for grownups by the great experimenters of early days instead of as playthings for children, according to a writer in the Montreal Family Herald. The more ignorant people of the time believed them to be miraculous and sometimes the makers had narrow escapes from execution as wizards. One scientist made a fly which, after a flight into the room, would return to his hand. He also produced a mechanical eagle in honor of the visit of an emperor to Nuremberg. The eagle flew several times about the emperor as he entered the city. Lifelike canaries that sing naturally when wound up, are common today. The first of this type of toy was exhibited in 1851.

Tribute to Loveliness Age Does Not Wither It was long a reproach against our countrywomen that, while America was admittedly a land of pretty girls, their beauty did not wear well; too often it vanished with their youth. But the famous Spanish artist, Zuloaga, has noted that nowadays things are different. He praises the beauty of American girls, declaring indeed, with gratifying emphasis, that it is "of a kind which increases with age." England, not the United States, has been long the country of beauty well-preserved, and the beautiful grandmothers of England—vigorous and charming women of ageless beauty, not silver-haired old ladies in capes—were long the marvel not only of traveling Americans but of the continental nations of Europe. Edward Lear, the author of "The Owl and the Pussy Cat," "The Jumblies" and much other fables and delightful nonsense, was long the only man staying in Malta, he was invited to a dinner party at which were present, besides British officers from the garrison, several naval officers from foreign ships lying in the harbor. "Sitting next to the captain of an Austrian frigate," he recorded, "a German officer said to a subaltern—the conversation was about the good looks of women—I do think the English woman consorts her apparent galspish longer than all the women; yes, even as far as her antics." "The poor subaltern, with confusion all I ventured to interpret: 'The Englishwoman preserves her appearance of youth longer than all women, even if she be old.'" No wonder the subaltern was puzzled; not every one would have guessed as quickly as Lear did that "galspish" meant girlhood and "antics" neither sportive agility nor unseemly antics, but simply antiquity or age.—Youth's Companion.

KIWANIANS AND LADIES ENJOY SOCIAL DINNER AND DANCE

THE LOCAL CLUB OBSERVES ONE HUNDRED AND TENTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE SIGNING OF THE RUSH-BAGGOT TREATY BETWEEN U. S. AND CANADA TUESDAY.

Plymouth Kiwanians observed the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Rush-Baggot treaty between the United States and Canada, at the regular meeting of the club last Tuesday noon. The week had been indicated as Canada-United States week by Kiwanis International, and was generally observed by clubs throughout the two countries.

The Rush-Baggot treaty represented the first step between the two countries in the establishment of harmonious relations between the nations and covered specifically the maintenance of limited armed forces on the water touched by the boundary lines.

The program Tuesday was under the direction of Roy Fisher and Julius Kaiser and in consonance with the desires of the international organization the committee provided a speaker formerly identified with the Canadian banking fraternity, H. Clifford Hyatt. Mr. Hyatt is now connected in an official capacity with the Dime Savings Bank, Detroit.

"Canada at the present time is producing more than 80% of the nickel mined in the world," said Mr. Hyatt, "and this coupled with her other mining activities has within ten years enabled her to recover from the effects of the war in a nobler manner than any other country involved, excepting only the United States."

"Our sister nation suffered tremendously in the loss of man power during the war, but in spite of this her income from timber resources, agriculture, exports, etc., has grown with each succeeding year until now capitalists from the United States are recognizing the tremendous possibilities north of the border and are pouring untold millions into her development."

One of the interesting facts developed by Mr. Hyatt, touched the financial status of Canada. He stated that in the period following the war, when all the nations involved were harassed by financial difficulties, Canada suffered but 26 bank failures, thirteen of which repaid 100% to their depositors, the others ranging down to approximately 50%, a splendid testimonial of her stability and recuperative power.

Previous to Mr. Hyatt's address, the club was favored with a few minutes talk by Miss Bock, director of amateur theatricals, regarding the possibility of putting on a Kiwanis show for Plymouth. Upon motion by "Stew" Dodge, the president was instructed to appoint a committee to confer with Miss Bock.

Approximately seventy-five Kiwanians and their wives enjoyed a social dinner and dance at the Episcopal church last Thursday evening, the ladies of the church serving the dinner.

President Hoyer, garbed in his most illuminative smile and a new suit, presided over the meeting, assisted by his right bower and "custodian of the can," Perley Deal. Consternation was thrown into the hearts and minds of twelve Kiwanians present, when Dr. Hoyer announced that minute and a half addresses would be called for later from the twelve mentioned. As the names were called, floods of color traveled over the faces of the victims in much the same manner as mercury rises in a thermometer. Sighs of relief were heard a half hour later when it was announced that the speeches would not be required until a later meeting.

Following the dinner, dancing was enjoyed to music by Patterson's orchestra, with several tables of five hundred in progress on the second floor.

The affair was under the direction of Stewart Dodge and committee, and proved one of the most enjoyable given by the club.

At the regular meeting of the Kiwanis club a week ago, the members enjoyed an address on Child Welfare, by Rev. Charles Strasen, pastor of the Plymouth Lutheran church.

THE JAY-WALKER.

The jay-walker, who used to like to cut across the street diagonally between corners, or walk in the center of a public highway, is fast disappearing from our midst. But there are still enough of his kind to worry motorists, and to help fill up the papers with auto accidents. The jay-walker is a menace both to himself and the motorist. He is always in the wrong place at the right time, making brakes grind and forcing automobiles into curbs, fences or trees. His practice is both unnecessary and dangerous. There is no excuse for it, and it should be as natural for a man to remain in a safe place along a rural highway as it is in a town or city street. They invite trouble when they dodge across the street, or cross it anywhere except at a regular crossing. And public sympathy is fast turning to the motorist instead of the jay-walker when a fatal accident occurs. There is danger anywhere you cross a street. But there is far less danger when you cross it at the place where it is intended and expected that you will cross.

"Loudness" of Thunder

It is reported that experiments made in the Jefferson physical laboratory showed that the astounding noise of a lightning flash is largely due to the dissociation of water vapor, through an explosion of the hydrogen and oxygen gases produced by such dissociation.

In these mimic lightning experiments there was produced a torrent of huge electric sparks. The noise of the discharge was so great that the operator had to stop his ears with cotton and then wrap a heavy cloth round them.

Naming Coney Island

How Coney Island, New York city's popular resort, got its name is not clear but one version of its early history is that Henrik Hudson, whose ship, the Half Moon, lay off the island in 1609, gave it the name Coney, a corruption of Coleman, the name of a petty officer on the Half Moon, killed by the Indians and buried in the sands nearby. Another version is that Coney is a distortion of Coney, Dutch for rabbit, because the island was supposed to be infested with rabbits, says the Dearborn Independent. Before Hudson's visit, the Indians called the island, Narrioch.

Famous Name

The beloved John Burroughs, naturalist and author, occupied a house in the Catskills which became a mecca for all who knew his noble life and works. Entertaining a week-end party of New Yorkers, an admiring neighbor took his guests to introduce them to the illustrious veteran. As they departed, one much interested during the reception drew the host aside to remark confidentially: "He seems to be pretty wise, but who'd ever thought he could invent an adding machine?" — Christian Science Monitor.

Evolution of the Watch

It was Peter Henlein of Nuremberg who made the first watch—that is, a portable timekeeper, as distinct from a clock. This was very soon after the year 1500. But it was not until after the end of the century that anyone thought of making a watch which could be easily slipped into the pocket—the pocket of a thief as well as of an honest man, as was unfortunately proved by the stealing of Oliver Cromwell's watch from the London museum, says the Daily News, London.

NASH

Leads the World in Motor Car Value

You can see why Nash has extra power

The extra power that makes Nash a more capable car to drive, particularly on the hills or in dense traffic, is directly due to extra-efficient design.

The Nash Straight Line Drive, for instance, diagrammed above.

Nash power flows directly from the engine to the rear axle in a straight line. There are no angles along the route to waste energy, as there would be if the motor were mounted parallel to the frame, as the ordinary motor is.

The Straight Line Drive accounts in part for Nash aggressiveness—for the powerful pick-up at low speeds (where you need it most). You will always notice it is the Nash that gets away soonest when the traffic starts.

The Straight Line Drive also avoids wear on the universal joints, and thereby prevents noise and looseness.

Of course, it takes a little longer and costs more to build Nash this better way—

—But any Nash owner will tell you it makes a lot of difference in the results he gets.

OBITUARY

Ira Belle, daughter of Thomas and Margaret McClumpha of Canton township, came into being March 9, 1855, and departed April 18, 1927, aged 72 years, one month and nine days. Being the baby of the family, with two sisters and five brothers, and the country, life was most pleasant for this little girl with such poor eyesight. At the age of fourteen, the sense of sight was forever obliterated, but not her joy in living.

Miss McClumpha always loved life—intense with a love of music and religion, the doings of the community, friendship and appreciation, with an excellent memory. She was a very good companion. Twenty-three years ago, she left the farm to be a member of her brother's family in Plymouth, and was most happy at the kindly care always given her by her sister-in-law, Mrs. Wm. McClumpha and daughters. Her parents, sisters and brothers passed away before her.

The funeral was held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home last week Thursday, a cold dark rainy day, so symbolic of her outward life, but surrounded by a wealth of beautiful flowers, also a symbol of what may be done with a dark background. The beauty of the flowers was supplemented by the very eloquent sermon of Rev. Walter Nichol, and the beautiful songs of Mrs. W. S. Baker. Interment was in Riverside.

Her nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Harry McClumpha of Pittsburgh, Pa., and niece, Mrs. Harry McClumpha of Tribes Hill, N. Y., attended the funeral.

 THE VALUE OF SELECTING A CAR THIS WAY

Select—in the fullest, literal meaning of the term which is "to choose by comparison."

SINCE Oldsmobile offered this obviously sound suggestion—to choose by comparison—hundreds have come to our own showroom and looked at Oldsmobile. They have sat in the driver's seat and compared the many conveniences that make driving a pleasure. They have sat in the rear seat and compared the comfort. They have stood off and appraised its smartness. Their immediate impulse has been to drive this car they liked so well. And out on the road they have become certain of the wisdom of choosing an Oldsmobile.

OBITUARY

It pleased our Lord and Master to call out of this life Harold Roy Drews, at the Harper hospital, Friday evening, April 22nd. His death came as a great shock to all in the community. About ten days previous to his death, he swallowed a peanut that lodged in his bronchial tube. Pneumonia developed, and he gradually grew worse. Friday morning he was taken to the hospital, where an x-ray was taken, disclosing the location of the peanut at the opening of the lung. The little one was too much weakened to overcome the operation, and passed out of this life on that same evening, after the operation.

Harold Roy Drews was born November 18, 1924 in Plymouth. He attained the age of two years, five months and four days. He leaves to mourn their loss, the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Drews, two brothers, Kahri and Donald, one brother, Clifford, preceding him in death three years ago; the grandparents, and a large circle of relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Monday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock, Rev. Lucia M. Stroh, pastor of the Congregational church of Salem and Worden, officiating. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

BUILD NOW!

Prices Are Normal Again!

Building material prices are again normal, not because the saturation point in construction has been reached, but because all industries have readjusted, labor is again on even keel and America is swinging merrily along on a safe and sane economical program. The saturation point in building will never be reached in the United States. An investment in a home or improvements will always be good. Look back at the record of the United States—and you will find no reason to fear the future.

Building Materials of All Kinds

We specialize in building materials of all kinds. We handle only first-grade lumber, which by test has always proved most economical in the long run. No matter what you plan on building, repairing or improving, we have the materials—and at a price as low as can be found anywhere.

SCHOOL NOTES

Musicals

The High school glee club, orchestra and band, under the direction of Miss Forsythe and Mr. Dykhouse, will present a High school musical on Friday evening, April 29th, at 7:30 o'clock. This is to be given in place of the annual opera, so that all who are members of these organizations may take part. Several special numbers besides a dance by Velma Pitz, Ithea Peck, Doris Whipple, Virginia Giles, Elizabeth Burrows and Pauline Deal will be included.

Physical Training Exhibition

The annual Senior High physical training exhibition was given Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the auditorium. Mr. Page and Miss Smith are to be complimented on their patient and admirable drilling.

J-Hop Is Great Success

The J-Hop given last Friday evening, April 22nd, in the High school auditorium, was without doubt the prettiest of our school parties to date. The decorations were artistically carried out in a variety of pastel shades of green, pink, lavender, yellow, white and blue. An entire false ceiling was made of twisted crepe paper ribbons, and the lights were dropped below this level and shaded with pink and white apple blossoms, combined with sweeping paper streamers.

One very clever idea was the little old-fashioned stone well where delicious punch was served between dances. This was very effectively entwined with artificial flowers and vines, like the basket of trailing blossoms which hung at the other end of the hall.

The stage also was canopied with colorful ribbons, white ferns and palms were placed about in different nooks, giving a softened effect.

Small dance programs with tiny blue pencils were presented to each guest at the door, by little Jean Joliffe and Donald Passage, who carried them in fancy baskets. Music was furnished for the occasion by the Paterson orchestra. Laurence Rattoufury, the class president, and his guest, Miss Barbara Horton, led the grand march, followed by the other class officers and guests.

Miss Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Smith and a number of parents championed the party, and much credit is due the patrons, Mr. Holcomb, Miss Gwatkin, Mr. Dykhouse and Miss Shuffmaster, for their sponsorship and excellent cooperation with the class at all times. Elizabeth Murray

CORN BORER CLEANUP

CHILDREN MAY ASSIST

L. A. Seamon, control supervisor, announces that arrangements have been made with Fred C. Fischer, deputy school commissioner, whereby children may help with the cleanup campaign without loss of school time. Any school boy or girl in Wayne county who is ten years old or over will be allowed to stay out of school any three days this coming week to work on corn cleanup. They will be given full credit for school work and attendance for the three days providing they work at home or for neighbors or for anyone having corn material of any sort to be taken care of. The pay shall be at the rate of fifteen cents per hour and dinner.

The supervisors and inspectors report fine cooperation on the part of the land owners and this provision has been made on account of the large amount of hand work that has been found necessary in some cases.

COMPETITION GROWING KEEN

Frank V. Blakely, field secretary of the Michigan Tourist and Resort association, says that at least $100,000 will have to be spent upon advertising this year in order that the state may hold its own in attracting summer vacationists.

Wisconsin, Mr. Blakely reports, is raising $250,000. Minnesota intends to spend $150,000. California will use $3,000,000, and Florida as high as $20,000,000.

Competition for the campers, the cottagers, the fishermen and the automobile travelers is on among the states. It is no longer merely necessary to publish the pictures of a bathing girl, and five-pound bass and a resort hotel in order to get trade. The general reputation of a state as an area of lakes and broad cool forests will not, by itself, ensure business. Other states have lakes and they have forests and they, too, can recite figures about new roads built, state parks opened, brooks that go tumbling down the rocks and expanses of waxed floors upon which young people can dance. To come out triumphant in the competition, the sections that can please recreationists must advertise their possessions.

Mr. Blakely probably astonishes a good many people in Michigan by his statement that, conservatively estimated, the tourists left $150,000,000 in the western part of the state last year. Taking that as a basis, he figures that the business of supplying vacationists with their needs and pleasures is the second largest of Michigan. Probably he is sure of his ground. And just as certainly he can argue that if Michigan does not keep pace with modern methods of drawing attention to its wares it is going to be out of pocket. Detroit Free Press.

FERTILIZERS TO AID BORER CONTROL WORK

ACID PHOSPHATE HASTENS MATURITY OF CORN CROP AND SHORTENS GROWING SEASON.

Proper use of fertilizers may play an important part in the control of the European corn borer, according to Prof. M. M. McCool of the soils department at Michigan State College.

Experiments are now being conducted by various agricultural stations with early and late planted corn as a means of corn borer control. In either case, fertilizer will undoubtedly be of great aid as it hastens the maturity of the crop and makes possible a shorter growing season.

Ample food supply is essential for quick and vigorous plant growth. With a sufficient supply of manure, 300 or 400 pounds of acid phosphate per acre is all that is usually necessary when the corn crop follows a mixed meadow, clover, or alfalfa sod. Under other conditions, mixed fertilizers containing a high percentage of phosphate give the best results.

If the manure supply is not ample and the soil is deficient in humus, it is advisable to utilize a 4-12-4 commercial fertilizer at the rate of 125 pounds per acre. On sandy or sandy loam soils which are low in fertility, a complete fertilizer is recommended with an analysis of either 2-16-2, 3-12-4, or 4-16-4.

When fertilizer is used with the intent of also benefitting the succeeding crop, 200 to 400 pounds per acre should be thoroughly incorporated in the soil before the corn is planted.

TOWNS MUST DISPOSE OF ALL CORN REFUSE

BACKYARD GARDENERS, ELEVATORS AND FACTORIES REQUIRED TO COMPLY WITH CLEAN-UP REGULATIONS.

Garden patches of sweet corn in villages and cities, and corn refuse ground running factories, broom factories and other process agents, are required to be cleaned up prior to May 1, in order to comply with the state and federal regulations governing the suppression of the European corn borer, according to L. H. Wortley, federal administrator of corn borer control work.

"People residing in villages and cities are not immune to control regulations," says Wortley, "and they will be expected to clean up corn debris about their premises just as farmers are. It would be unfair to require farmers to clean up and at the same time permit sources of infestation to exist in villages and cities."

A communication has been forwarded by Wortley to public officials in the quarantined area calling their attention to control regulations adopted under the federal act and approved by the legislature. Their whole-hearted cooperation is asked in the clean-up campaign.

The regulations provide that all corn stalks, cobs and corn refuse shall be destroyed by burning or by turning completely under prior to May 1.

Burning is recommended as the most practical method of disposing of corn refuse in villages and cities. Corn debris should not be placed on city dumps as the borer is not destroyed in this manner.

Livingston county is fast becoming a fast alfalfa growing county and by all reports the average has more than tripled in the past three years. During the past winter, 32 carloads of alfalfa hay was shipped to the state of New Jersey from this county. This is just another source of revenue that can be added to the resources of Livingston county farmers. This should be another reason why farmers ought to seriously consider the planting of alfalfa again this year.—Brighton Argus.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

"SYSONBY"

Sysonby is to be placed in a room in the Museum of Natural History in New York City.

To the average American the name means nothing.

It might be that of a cigar, a confection, a play or a new author.

In fact, it is the name of one of the greatest race horses America has produced, and the skeleton will be placed in a new room devoted to horses and their development as an example of a great race horse.

Nothing drops out of sight quicker than a race horse that has quit winning races, unless it is a man who accomplishes something and then stops.

The applause and interest lasts as long as the accomplishments go on.

When they stop people turn to something else.

Pleasant old age is usually the least interesting period of life to outsiders. This is because it is a time of reminiscence of going over and over accomplishments of the past rather than of achieving new victories.

A little over thirty years ago the locomotive Number 999 was familiar to everyone. It was the fastest engine then known and had made a speed of one hundred miles an hour.

A few years ago, before it was placed on exhibition, it was almost entirely forgotten, used to haul a milk train up and down the rails where it had once been king.

Other bigger and stronger engines had come and its past performance had sunk out of sight.

Napoleon said: "My power would fall did I not support it with new achievements. Conquest has made me what I am and conquest must sustain me."

A little cynicism in regard to applause is a healthy thing.

The less a person thinks about a past achievement the more other people are liable to think about it.

"As a horse when he has run," said Marcus Aurelius, "a dog when he has tracked the game, a bee when it has made the honey, so a man when he has done a good act, does not call out for others to come and see, but goes on to another act, as a vine goes on to produce again the grapes in season."

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says it's easy to remember the time when people saw very little of a modest girl.

After they've graduated from college a lot of young fellows are in need of a post-graduate course in a reform school.

It remains for Dad Plymouth to reason it out that scraps from the table go into the garbage can and scraps at the table go into the divorce courts.

Dad Plymouth is of the opinion that a lot of fellows who "ride" their enjoyes or their hired help walk the plank at home.

"The trouble with this world," declares Dad Plymouth, "is that too many people would rather live well than live right."

One of the saddest things in life is for a boy who is crazy about dogs to grow up and marry a woman who is crazy about puddles.

Nobody was killed during the recent Chicago election, unless it was Old Man Chicago.

"There have been a lot of mean things said about the flapper," asserts Dad Plymouth, "but nobody ever claimed that she is over-dressed."

Today's Reflections

A man in Vermont got a life sentence and stopped eating. That's one way to shorten a sentence.

Poland has a new president, and we'll wager a hand-embroidered door-knob that there isn't a citizen of Plymouth who can pronounce it.

Europe's troubles come from the fact that she insists on marching behind a band instead of a plow.

More than one Plymouth man is credited with being hard-headed when the fact of the business is he is only hard-hearted.

A manufacturer says 85 per cent of the American people can drive cars. He means that number can sit behind a steering wheel and trust to luck.

Our idea of a good way to waste an hour would be to listen to a dog show over a radio set.

The year 1927 promises to be another hard one for those people around Plymouth who think they can get something for nothing.

As we understand our agricultural geography, a farm is a neglected body of land surrounded by prosperity.

Education is great stuff, but it often happens that the boy who never passed the eighth grade has to help support a brother who went through college.

Any time a Plymouth man asks you for an honest opinion of himself he means he wants a mess of saveloy.

"My idea of an ideal wife," says Dad Plymouth, "is one who would rather hear her husband say 'I love you' than to hear him say 'Here's $10.'"

In a bungalowette with a dinette and a kitchenette we suppose the bride could be called the housekeeperette.

The New York official who offers $5,000 for a good "lie detector" seems to have overlooked the modern wife.

No Plymouth man really reaches the age of discretion until he commences to find out that all of the darned fools are not in one political party.

Some wealthy women spend their time doing things for the poor while their husbands spend their time doing things to the poor.

Family quarrels over money occur because father has it and mother wants it, or mother has it and father wants it, or because neither one of them has it.

It pays to advertise in the Mail. Who says so? Everybody.

COUNTY CHAMPIONS OF 4-H CLUBS

FINAL RALLY COMPLETES YEAR'S PROJECT.

Wayne High school gymnasium was the scene of varied activities Saturday when about 400 boys and girls, parents, teachers and friends assembled for the county round-up.

Games, led by Mrs. Lois B. Sharpe, opened the forenoon program. The music memory contest, conducted by Miss Lois Corbett, gave the boys and girls a chance to recognize tunes and instruments which they had heard during the preceding months.

The afternoon program was opened by the chairman, Morris Huberman, of Detroit. After a word of welcome by Superintendent D. S. Yape of the Wayne High school and response by Morris Huberman, the various clubs responded to roll call by giving yells, songs, violin and piano solos, recitations and stunts.

The following county champions were announced by Miss Lois Corbett, home demonstration agent: Miss Sylvia Wixson and Nevels Pearson, assistant state leaders of 4-H club work.

Canning, first year—Laella Swetzes, Plymouth.

Canning, second year—Alice Burrell, Plymouth.

Canning, third year—Harriet Corwin, Plymouth.

Music memory contest—William Schoen, of Maple Grove school, first; Margery Van Amburg, of Allen school, second; Ada Eyre, of Norris school, third.

Clothing, first year—Elizabeth Kernus, of Maple Grove school, first; Bernadine Berneski, of Perrinville school, second; Norma Ferstle, of Maple Grove school, third.

Clothing, second year—Luettia West, of Cherry Hill, first; Nada King, of Maple Grove school, second; Kuarig Vartanian, of Harvard school, and Nina Luettia, of Belleville school, tied for third.

Clothing, third year—Evelyn Wright, of East Nankin school, first; Bessie Hunt, of Harvard school, second; Gertrude Ruppel, of Belleville, third.

Household management—Melita Kaiser, of Maple Grove school, first.

Hot lunch—Denton club, led by Miss Alonthea Kline, first; Newburg club, led by Miss Clara Grimm, second; Stark club, led by Mrs. Nellie Beyer, third; Allen and Perrinville clubs received honorable mention.

Handicraft, first year—August Gehel, of Maple Grove school, first; Glen Smith, of Denton school, second; Michael Grissowa, of Walker school, third; Melvin Snyder, of Perrinville school, and Hugh Brown, of Maple Grove school, honorable mention.

Handicraft, second year—George Hulobard, of Tyler Street school, first; Robert Simmons, of Cherry Hill school, second; Lewis Robson, of Tyler Street school, third.

Ralph Carr, county agricultural agent, reported that of 16 hot lunch clubs, 20 clothing clubs and 17 handicraft clubs, involving 602 boys and girls, 560 of them completed the projects, which averaged 93 per cent finishers.

As a treat and compensation for such splendid achievement, the county extension staff arranged a concert to be given by All-city Elementary School orchestra of Detroit, led by Fowler Smith. Mr. Smith led the group in a few songs, among which he introduced "The Song of Michigan," written by Anne Campbell, the Detroit News poet. After several orchestra numbers, the four instrument families were introduced in turn, and several representative instruments were played alone. The two instruments that stood in high favor with the boys and girls were the violinello, played by a national champion, and the harp, played by a small miss of 12 years.

We are all grateful to Mr. Smith and his orchestra for the splendid entertainment which brought this perfect day to a close.

KITCHEN TOUR FOR WAYNE COUNTY WOMEN.

In spite of threatening clouds and rain last Thursday more than sixty women ventured to brave the weather and visit kitchens in various parts of the county. Six kitchens conveniently located with new or improved features were on the list to be visited. The convenient arrangements, correct heights of working surfaces, special cooking equipment, refrigerators, kelinators, window cupboards, electric stoves, built-in conveniences, good lighting and color schemes, all proved so interesting that nineteen cars with their passengers made the entire trip. The tour started from Wayne at 10:00 o'clock, visiting first Mrs. Sherman at New Boston and Mrs. James Carmichael, south of Wayne. After the women had their lunch at Wayne the kitchens visited in order were: Mrs. Perry Campbell's, on the Canton Center road; Mrs. F. L. Becker's, near Plymouth; Miss Bertha Warner's, in Plymouth, and Mrs. Fred Gotts', Jr., in Northville. The hostesses were very gracious and helped materially by explaining their kitchens to the guests. The crowd disbursed at 4:00 o'clock, expressing a desire for another such event in the future.

FORMER PLYMOUTH GIRL WINS DEBATING HONORS

MISS EVA MAE GRIFFITH, MEMBER OF YPSILANTI NORMAL DEBATING TEAM, A GRADUATE OF PLYMOUTH SCHOOLS.

We take the following from the Normal College News:

Two of Ypsilanti's women debaters, Eva Mae Griffith and Margaret Hale, maintaining the affirmative side of the question, "Resolved, that Congress shall be empowered to enact uniform marriage and divorce laws," defeated the Heidelberg University team, consisting of Esther Daniels and Harriet Wade, Tuesday evening in a spirited debate in the Little Theatre.

Miss Agnes Crow, a member of the Normal faculty, as chairman of the debate, outlined the time schedule to be followed, and introduced the speakers. Margaret Hale was the first speaker and opened the argument for the affirmative. Esther Daniels for the negative.

The Heidelberg team, from Ohio, stopped here for this debate on their way to the contest held by Pi Kappa Delta, national honorary forensic society, at Lansing, April 13 and 14. Eva Mae Griffith is to be one of the Ypsilanti representatives at this contest.

The judge, Professor H. L. Ewbank of Albion College, made his decision extremely interesting by stating the criterion he had used as an aid to judging. It was as follows: ability in public speaking, analysis of the question, evidence and strategy in rebuttal. He thought the two teams about equal in analysis and evidence, and based his decision for Ypsilanti on the first and last points.

The Ypsilanti speakers won many honors at the Pi Kappa Delta provincial meeting at Lansing, last Wednesday and Thursday. Three gold medals were won by the Ypsilanti contestants and Ypsi placed high in every event.

After being defeated in their first debate, the women's debate team came back strong and won all the remaining contests and took first place in debating. They received a defeat from Kalamazoo and then won from Heidelberg twice and Kalamazoo in the final tilt to carry off honors.

Eva Mae Griffith and Evelyn Elliott of the women's debating team, represented the Michigan State Normal College at Lansing, April 13 and 14.

Eva Griffith was a former resident of Plymouth, and a member of the Plymouth High school debating team.

The Common Things

The common and the familiar—how soon they cease to impress us! The great service of genius, speaking through art and literature, is to pierce through our callousness and indifference and give us fresh impressions of things as they really are: to present things in new combinations, or from new points of view, so that they shall surprise and delight us like a new revelation. When poetry does this, or when art does it, or when science does it, it recreates the world for us, and for the moment we are again Adam in paradise.—John Burroughs.

The Hardy Ant

Scientists agree the ant is one of the hardest of all living creatures, tests showing an ant beheaded will live and keep on working for many weeks. The digger wasp is one of the interesting little creatures, depositing its eggs in a burrow it has completed and into which it has dragged a few caterpillars, usually only two, to provide food. Then it carries earth to close the hole of the burrow and has been watched using a small pebble as a hammer to stamp down solidly the earth it has used to close up and seal the door.

This Week

SEE WHAT WE SEE.

SACCO-VANZETTI.

STUDY VITAMINS.

EGYPT AND U. S. A.

Recently Mr. Gifford, head of the telephone company, proved that "television" making it possible to see and hear individuals or crowds hundreds of miles away, is practical.

The question, "How can that be made useful?" is answered in a way that in centuries to come will shed light on our civilization.

"There is no doubt about it," you are told, "the only way in which television can be made profitable is IN CONNECTION WITH PRIZE FIGHTS." People will pay well to see men fighting and to hear the yells of the mob gathered around the prize ring. Would television make money enabling distant crowds to see and hear great preachers or college professors? It would NOT.

A conference of college students has decided against trial marriage, quite solemnly, by a vote of 16 to 7. Wise Providence has decided against it by a vote of about 100 to 0.

When the seven young gentlemen who think they believe in trial marriage fall in love, they will know positively the marriage they plan is to last forever, would detest the theory of a trial, and insult anybody suggesting it.

Or if not, they would not be worth marrying.

"It would be better for Massachusetts and the administration of justice generally, if a commission could be appointed to investigate the evidence on which Sacco and Vanzetti are condemned to die." That is the opinion of the Rev. Roland D. Sawyer, Congressional clergyman and member of the Massachusetts legislature. The commission, for which he introduces a bill, would consist of the Chief Justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, and four others to be appointed by the Governor. The commission would be authorized to recommend to the Governor a new trial or such course as might seem necessary.

The impression that justice in the United States is in a hurry to execute anybody or determined to do so should be carefully avoided. This is a case that has never been passed upon, as regards the evidence, by any but one judge, and a case in which after-the-war excitement played a considerable part.

An Egyptian tomb near the Giza Pyramids, opened by Vienna scientists, contains the record and mummy of a very rich dwarf married to an impoverished princess, thousands of years ago.

Our rich princesses marry mental dwarfs, rich in titles. That's the difference, and that Egyptian princess had the better of it. She got something in exchange for her hand, with the long, tapering fingers.

Interest yourself in vitamins. Dr. H. C. Sherman, learned professor of chemistry, proves that vitamins bring maturity earlier and make it last longer. Vitamins are found in milk, butter, lettuce and all green vegetables, cod liver oil, red wine (barred here), fruits, yeast, etc.

In addition to vitamins, mineral salts are absolutely necessary to life. No animal can live without them.

Public school education should include information on diet. Mothers especially are interested in vitamins. Experiments with animals show vitamins influence the number of the young and successful rearing after birth.

There is much prosperity in this country, and, fortunately for us, it is not all based on "natural resources"—oil, iron, coal, forests, good soil, etc. Most of it comes from inside the national skull. Sir Ernest Benn observes that American prosperity is, in many cases, five per cent natural resources, ninety-five per cent work intelligently organized. If natural resources alone counted, "Brazil, Liberia and Iceland would be the world's most prosperous countries."

Commander Udt, greatest German flier left over from the war, will fly in a gliding plane without any engine from a mountain peak in Bavaria, 2,000 feet high.

This means literally tobogganing from the top of a mountain to the valley below on thin air. It would astonish those long dead and buried that used to smile at the poem describing Darius Green and his flying machine.

A CARD—The Plymouth Fire Department wishes to thank everybody who helped to make their annual dancing party April 18th such a splendid success. Especially do they wish to thank the business men for their loyal support.

THE THEATRE

"THE RED MILL"

Come opera on the screen. Surely when it's done by Marlon Davies: "The Red Mill," stage sensation of a few seasons ago, proves one of the most fitting, delightful—and without rather thrilling vehicles the famous Cosmopolitan beauty has ever appeared in. Those who remember her "Yoland," "Lights of Old Broadway" or "Beverly of Graustark" will get a new conception of her many-sided talents by watching her in "The Red Mill," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, May 1 and 2.

It is a new Marlon Davies that this play has given the screen—a light, some, colorful creature of evanescent moods and charming little ways—a whimsical sense of humor and an amazing capability for poignant dramatic acting—all rolled into a quaint Dutch costume, with wooden shoes and blonde pigtails.

The story is a romance of Holland—sometimes verging on the tragic, with a number of thrills and an eerie adventure in a haunted mill. But—throughout it teems with comedy—apocryphous situations between Miss Davies and her Irish lover, played by Owen Moore; a hilarious love affair between Karl Dane, of "Big Parade" fame, and Louise Fazenda, veteran of custard pie comedies of the screen, and other rollicking bits.

The story was adapted from the stage hit by Victor Herbert and Henry Blossom; one of the most widely known comic operas of late years. Adapted to the screen, the dramatic elements of its plot were stressed by Frances Marion, the scenarist, but all its lightsome comedy vein was kept intact. Miss Davies' inimitable vein of humor found a ready expression which is a forcible contrast to her clever emotional acting.

"WINNERS OF THE WILDERNESS"

An exquisite blend of history and colorful romance!

A terse, but apt, description of "Winners of the Wilderness," Tim McCoy's latest historical Western for Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, May 3 and 4.

Again, Louis B. Mayer, head of the largest film manufacturing plant in the world, has kept his word when he promised picturegoers "something new in Westerns."

Casual thought would not stamp this picture as a "Western," but it is when one stops to consider that Fort Duquesne (now Pittsburgh) was far west in 1755, the year in which this marvelous film drama was laid.

It is not a "Western" in the sense of cowboys, steers and bandits, but it is a frontier picture with a colorful setting that the more recent frontier could not duplicate.

McCoy has proved that he is a real actor, inasmuch as he gives a performance suggestive of chivalry, gallantry and romance.

The makers of this big feature have not left all of the honors to the star. They have given him Joan Crawford in the featured feminine lead and a cast of supporting players that would do credit to any star, or stars, of the screen.

Roy D'Arcy, Frank Currier, Tom O'Brien, Edward Connelly, Louise Lorraine, Lionel Belmore and a number of lesser known, but sterling character players, who have the roles of some of the great historical characters of the day.

"Winners of the Wilderness" is laid in Quebec, Virginia and Duquesne. The great historical high spot of this swiftly-moving drama is the massacre of General Braddock's proud legions by French and Indians in ambush. Without doubt it is a truly great historical romance.

"THE SHOW"

Mystery plus mystery—that is the formula on which Tod Browning built his latest production. And—the sum total is heart throbs.

He took the strangest of settings—the interior of a Budapest "Palace of Illusions," with bodiless heads, ghosts, mermaids and other strange things created by magician's optical illusions; coupled this outre location with a striking mystery in his story—and out of it evolved one of the sweetest love stories ever told on the screen in "The Show," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Thursday and Friday, May 5 and 6.

The famous director of "The Unholy Three" used his bent for the mysterious in life as a setting for the art of John Gilbert and Renee Adoree, of "Big Parade" fame, in the new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production. He placed them in the most eerie locale one could imagine—a mystery sideshow on the border of Budapest's strange underworld. Gilbert is a barker in the "sideshow," Miss Adoree is the Salome dancer.

He then works out a story so dramatic—so astounding, that the audience is left gasping at its sheer audacity. He makes it actually—bammers home the truths in life with a trip-hammer intensity. The drama fairly lives.

The cast includes Lionel Barrymore as "The Greek," sinister gangster leader; Edward Connelly, who has one of the greatest roles in his long career as the old blind man of the story; Gertrude Short and Andy MacLennan. John Gilbert reaches an intensity of emotional acting that is little short of genius, and Miss Adoree has one of the most effective roles she has ever played in the Browning production. Browning has given the world "The Unholy Three" and others—but "The Show" casts a new light on his uncanny grasp of the drama.

"GOD GAVE ME TWENTY CENTS"

Using the same ingenious devices for creating suspense which have already won him everlasting fame, Herbert Brenon has taken Dixie Wilson's tale of the New Orleans Mardi Gras, "God Gave Me Twenty Cents," and turned it into such a film as should make even the author's heart beat with pride. Paramount's production which arrives at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, May 7th, is comparable to the best pictures which have so far been produced and because of it, both director and cast are destined to garner much praise.

The four featured players—Lois Moran, Lya de Putti, Jack Mulhall and William Collier Jr.—each have "fat" roles to which they do full justice. Miss Moran plays the young wife who falls in love with an unscrupulous sailor, for all its worth. Mulhall is the gambler who loved as he gambled, not too wisely but too many. The vamp of "Variety" has her best part since coming to America, as the woman who placed her happiness on the flip of two coins—which she knew were crooked. Collier enacts a different sort of "heavy" after a series of hero roles.

As for the story—it is a rich, colorful affair in which Mulhall marries the little girl he'd met during the Mardi Gras carnival, only to have his home broken up by a former sweetheart who walks into his life and then refuses to leave it.

"I suffered from kidney trouble. Misery to stoop, agony to rise up, just sick all over. Foley Pills, a diuretic stimulant for the kidneys, made a big difference in me. I feel like another person, stronger and better in every way."

Harry Ward Brinkman, the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinkman, passed away Thursday, April 27.

It was thought that he had suffered from the flu, which he had some time ago. He was born on the farm where they now live, 38 years ago last November. He had spent nearly all his life here, only going west for a time to stay with his brother, Burton. He had always been of a kind and amiable disposition, and his untimely death only seems to make it harder for those left. The funeral was held from the funeral home in Ann Arbor, Wednesday, at 1:30 p. m., and the burial was in Leland cemetery. He is survived by his parents, one brother, Burton of Armstrong Creek, Wis., and one sister, Mrs. A. A. Fahrner of Ann Arbor.
