

PLYMOUTH WILL HAVE ANOTHER NEW BUSINESS BLOCK

Jewell & Blaich, Plumbing and Heating Firm, Have Let Contract for Two-story Brick Block.

Jewell & Blaich, plumbing and heating, have commenced the erection of a splendid new business block on the site of the old wooden building they have occupied for the past several years. Clinton Gottschalk has the building contract, and he has the old building torn down, and work is progressing nicely on the preliminary work for the new building. The building that was razed was one of the oldest in the village, and old residents say that it has stood at the point of the park for nearly one hundred years. For many years it was used by the late Harry Willis as a blacksmith shop. The frame work of the building was solid oak material and in splendid condition.

The new building will be of brick and tile construction, and will be modern in every detail. There will be two stories on the ground floor. Jewell & Blaich will occupy the store on the west side of the building with their salesroom and office, while Jesse McLeod will occupy the store on the east side with his line of electric light fixtures and electrical appliances.

Jewell & Blaich will use that part of the building at the rear of the new store for their work shop as heretofore.

The basement will be given over to a large dining room. The second floor will be used by the Knights of Pythias for a lodge room and dance hall, and will have a floor space of 40x60 feet.

The building will have a modern front and will make a very attractive addition to this part of the village when it is all completed.

During the erection of the new building, Jewell & Blaich and Jesse McLeod are using a room in the residence adjoining their property on the west, for their office.

CELEBRATED FIFTY-SEVENTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Nathaniel Ryder were agreeably surprised at their home on Ann street, last Sunday, March 18th, when their children and grandchildren gathered there to remind them that it was their fifty-seventh wedding anniversary. They brought with them well filled baskets and had a fine dinner served.

The guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Clay Kingsley and daughter, Madelyn, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Baker of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Ryder and children of Royal Oak; Mrs. Lena Orr and children, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Ryder, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Woodworth and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Woodworth of Plymouth.

D. A. R. WILL HAVE PIONEER EXHIBIT

The pioneer exhibit sponsored by the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution will be given on Friday afternoon and evening, March 30th, at the Presbyterian church home. Admission for adults will be 25 cents. Tickets may be obtained from members of the local chapter. School children will be admitted for 10 cents, payable at the door.

We are asking the townspeople to co-operate in loaning for that time articles which have a pioneer significance—dolls, daguerotypes, baby clothes, clocks, pictures, linens, bedspreads, jewelry or anything of a historic value. Persons having articles which they are willing to lend please notify Mrs. R. E. Cooper, Mrs. P. A. Lendrum or Mrs. George Wilcox.

CHAPPEL-KEDS

Charles Chapel, a summer popular Plymouth boy, and Miss Louise Kedd of Detroit, were quietly married March 17, at Northville, by Rev. O. G. Riess, at the Lutheran parsonage. The groom, a member of P. E. S. 22, holds a responsible position at the Maybury Sanatorium, and the bride has, for several years, been connected with the Howell Gold Building Co. They began housekeeping at Highland Park.

NORTHVILLE LEGION WILL GIVE PLAY HERE

"TURN TO THE RIGHT" WILL BE SEEN AT PENNIMAN ALLEN THEATRE, WEDNESDAY EVENING, MARCH 28TH.

Due to the fact that so many Plymouth and Northville people were unable to witness the presentation of the Legion play "Turn to the Right" at Northville, it has been booked at the Penniman Allen theatre, Plymouth, Wednesday evening, March 28th.

"Turn to the Right" is a comedy in a prologue and three acts, by Winchell Smith and John E. Hazzard, and is produced by special arrangement with Samuel French of New York. This is a royalty play which was produced in New York by John L. Golden, and is now being played by the leading stock companies throughout the United States. It is a piece which will thrill and hold the interest of any audience, drying a tear with a smile in such a clever way that you will be glad that you laughed and cried in sympathy with the players. A strong cast, under the direction of Lisle Alexander, has been working for two months to smoothen it to its present state of perfection, and it is ready for you.

Special attention is called to the stage settings and mechanical effects, which drew exclamations of praise from those who witnessed it before. These features will be duplicated for you on Wednesday night.

The entire lower floor is reserved, and tickets will be on sale at the Community Pharmacy, starting Monday morning, March 26th. The price of admission is 50c for the lower floor, and 35c for the balcony. Don't miss this. Remember the date, Wednesday, March 28th, at the Penniman Allen theatre. Curtain at 8:15 sharp, and secure your tickets early. Under the auspices of Lloyd H. Green Post, No. 147, American Legion.

GAS COMPANY HAS OWN WATER SUPPLY

Many people no doubt, expected that when the water was shut-off last week Tuesday, that the gas company would have to close down their plant, as has happened on previous occasions when the village was temporarily without water supply, but in this they were happily disappointed. The gas company some time ago put down a well, which gives them an abundance of water and of course their service was not interrupted during the time the water was off. If it had not been for this, many of our citizens would have been to a further inconvenience of not having fuel for cooking purposes.

DEATH OF MRS. FRANK KOHLER

Mrs. Frank Kohler died at her home southeast of Plymouth, at the corner of Lilly and Bonaparte roads, Tuesday, March 13th, at the age of 87 years. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Frank, Jr., and George. Funeral services were held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home last week Friday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, Dr. Sutherland, of Detroit, officiating. The interment was made at Riverside cemetery.

IS INSTALLING PASTEURIZING EQUIPMENT IN DAIRY PLANT.

R. L. Hill is installing the pasteurizing equipment for pasteurizing milk in his dairy plant. Mr. Hill expects to have the equipment completely installed in a few days, when he will be able to furnish pasteurized milk to his patrons.

Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Gale spent last week with their son, Walter Gale, and family near Ypsilanti.

REPORT OF THE PRESIDENT OF THE VILLAGE COMMISSION

The following is a brief report of the work done by the village from April 1, 1927, to March 1, 1928, and also some of the money spent by the village during this period.

There were 5,612 feet of water mains built at a total cost of $10,000.42.

The cost of maintaining our water mains during this period was $448.73. There was $2,222.35 spent for storm sewers in the Hough subdivision out of this budget for 3,443 feet of sewers, which were completed last April.

Nine hundred dollars was paid on a storm sewer on Arthur street which had been built previous to this year. One hundred and eighty-six feet of 12-inch storm sewer built on Penniman avenue from Garfield avenue west cost $408.61.

A 12-inch storm sewer built on South Harvey street for a distance of 230 feet cost $440.26.

Six hundred six dollars and seven cents was spent for capital outlay on storm sewers.

There were 2,726 feet of storm sewers put in on Penniman avenue, Arthur street and Garfield avenue at a cost of $8,885.74. The sizes of these sewers were from 12 inches to 42 inches. These were laid out and inspected under the manager's direction, which saved the village two and a half per cent of the above cost, which would have been paid to Hoad, Decker, Shoecraft & Drury in addition.

There were 3,582 feet of 8-inch sanitary sewers completed this year of the 1926 sanitary sewer program. All of 1927 sanitary sewer program, consisting of 19,632.4 feet of eight-inch sanitary sewers, with 11,687.7 feet of house connections, were completed this year.

In addition there was a large number of house connections made to the 1925 and 1926 sewer programs. Lead pipe water connections were put into ever lot on Ann Arbor street from Main street to Mill street and also on Penniman avenue from Harvey street to Moreland avenue.

Changing the contract with the Detroit Edison company for pumping of water at the spring from a flat rate to an energy contract caused a saving to the village of at least one thousand dollars per year. Repairing the water reservoir, which holds 1,750,000 gallons of water, by closing the cracks properly as is being done now will save a large amount of money. The estimated amount of water saved in one month after the reservoir is repaired will pay for the total cost of repairing it.

The 450,000-gallon water tank should be connected automatically with the booster pumps so that the water in the tank will float on the line and keep the water pressure between certain limits at all times. This has been the plan of the commission.

The change made in the water department by making it self-sustaining will save the village a deficit of about

CLARENCE ALSBRO DIES AFTER A SHORT ILLNESS

Clarence Wallace Alsbro was born in Salem August 17, 1874, the third son of Hudson and Pricilla Alsbro. On Nov. 24, 1897, he was united in marriage to Matilda Giegler. This union was blessed with one son, Oscar Alsbro. He lived in Salem until April, 1912. He moved to Plymouth, where he has since resided. Mr. Alsbro was a devoted husband, a loving father and kind neighbor, always willing to help others in time of need. He was confined to his bed only a few days, and on Saturday morning, March 17, death released him from all earthly cares. Besides his wife and son he is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Jennie Smith, of Salem, and Mrs. Nellie Corbin, of Grand Rapids; one brother, Ellsworth, of Lansing; several nieces and nephews and a host of friends to mourn their loss.

PLYMOUTH EDUCATIONAL TUBERCULOSIS CAMPAIGN

Popular Lecture and Motion Pictures at High School Auditorium Tuesday Afternoon, March 27.

Dr. Douglas, of Maybury Sanatorium, Will Have Charge of Meeting at 3:00 P. M.

Through the efforts of Mrs. C. H. Bonnett, one of the directors of the tuberculosis society of Detroit and Wayne county, the campaign has already begun in Plymouth, and will be continued next week.

Tuberculosis can be cured more easily than any other dangerous, chronic disease. Some doctors say "arrested," others say "cured"—it amounts to the same thing. If it is detected in its early stages it can be stopped before serious damage is done.

For thousands of years tuberculosis has been mankind's great scourge. Whole families have been blotted out to prevent it and how to cure it, one family in every 50 pays toll to this disease. These tragedies are largely due to ignorance or neglect.

Young people of high school age and young women up to the age of 25 are especially susceptible. Tuberculosis exacts heavy penalties from men and women between 25 and 50—at the time when most needed by their families.

The danger signals of tuberculosis are usually plain to be seen and the danger is great—unless the signals are heeded. Tuberculosis is like a fire started by a match. Stepped on immediately, the fire is stamped out completely; but if permitted to gain too much headway it sweeps on to destruction.

In this month of March a nationwide campaign for the early diagnosis of tuberculosis will be conducted by more than 1,500 tuberculosis and health associations of the United States. They will organize meetings where information will be given, motion pictures and posters will be shown and pamphlets distributed, all emphasizing the importance of early diagnosis.

People will be told to watch for the first signs of tuberculosis. They will be asked to answer these four questions:

1. Do you tire easily?
2. Are you losing weight?
3. Do you suffer from indigestion?
4. Have you a cough which hangs on?

There will be many instances, of course, in which people may have all four of these weaknesses without having contracted tuberculosis; but if answer is "yes" to any one or more of these questions act instantly. Go to your physician for a complete medical examination. He will not merely put his ear to your partly covered chest and then give an opinion. With stethoscope on bare chest, perhaps with X-ray photographs and other diagnostic tests, he will seek to discover definitely the condition of your lungs. Then he will advise what should be done for prevention or cure.

Hopeful but ill-advised sufferers have wasted millions of dollars on so-called "remedies" for tuberculosis, in spite of the fact that all great medical authorities agree that not one person has ever been cured in this way. But, on the other hand, many thousands of tuberculosis patients who have gone to a sanatorium and had the benefit of scientific medical care in addition to rest, fresh air, sunshine and nourishing foods have come back to their families cured. Every modern sanatorium that is built to care for tuberculosis patients helps to reduce the death rate. The big life-saving message to the nation in March will be "Find out—don't wait."

HERE THEY COME.

The frost is getting out of the ground in various parts of the country now; milder weather is a favorite prediction of the forecasters and highways all over the nation are in shape for auto traffic. It won't be long now until the knock of the peddler will again be heard on Plymouth doors, for the army of canvassers and distributors of cheap-john stuff of every description has emerged from winter quarters and is taking to the road. Get ready to be visited by the usual number of pests, for they are sure to be out in force again this year. And while you are waiting for the first one to rap on your door you might rehearse the only speech that sends them on their way: "Don't need anything today, thanks—we patronize our own home-town merchants." Learn it today and be ready to say it, for the peddling army is now about to start on its annual invasion.

ANOTHER ONE GONE.

Another institution that seems to have vanished from Plymouth and from thousands of other towns throughout the length and breadth of the land is the old "around the stove club." It was a seasonal institution that lasted from early in the fall until the arrival of spring, and the old base-burner at the back end of a general store was its favorite place of assembly.

The around-the-stove gatherings of a generation ago were in the nature of an open forum, and the subjects discussed were wide and varied. It was the clearing-house for community gossip, while the mighty affairs of government and the dolms of the community came in for a large share of attention. And the criticisms were generally made with a good deal of emphasis and sometimes with language not intended for polite society. If somebody in the community purposed to build a house the plans were criticised by the wise-ones gathered around the stove. The failure of anybody in the neighborhood to "watch his step" quickly received their attention, while community progress received many knocks by those who donated freely to the sawdust-filled box that served as a cuspidor, but sparingly to anything else.

The "around-the-stove" critics have nearly all passed out, but some there are who still remember it as an institution of the town, and one that was probably worth something to the community since those who gathered there to "cuss and discuss" might have been engaged in actual mischief if they had not had this favorite meeting place about the old base-burner stove.

"THE FARM PROBLEM."

No matter what we do for a living, where we live or how we live, we still hear much concerning "the farm problem." Yet to thousands of citizens it isn't very clear. Senator Capper explains that it is the difference between the value of what the farmer sells and what he buys. "The situation is this," he says: "The things a farmer sells bring 34 per cent more than before the war, but the average selling price of what he must buy is 59 per cent higher than before the war. In other words, the farmer's dollar is worth 85 cents, while the rest of us have a dollar with an exchange value of 100 cents."

It must appear to any clear-minded Plymouth man who will do a little thinking that there really is a "farm problem," and that it is up to this country to solve it as speedily as possible. Although farming is the nation's biggest business, and the farmers have more money invested in plant and machinery than any other industry, he has not had a fair return on his money in the past several years. Every politician will soon be claiming that "his party" is going to solve the problem; but it can't be solved by legislation. New laws can make the farmer's pathway smoother, however, by providing equitable freight rates and lower taxation; but everyone should remember that this is a campaign year, that political promises are pretty much like pie-crust, and that it never is a good idea to hope for too much. Then if the "farm problem" isn't solved in another year the disappointment won't be so keen.

ANOTHER HOLIDAY.

A resolution has been offered in the U. S. senate providing for still another national holiday. It proposes to set aside the first Thursday in October each year as Agricultural day, the purpose of which would be to encourage consideration of farming problems and other matters of well-being and national interest. It would be celebrated with gatherings at convenient places in each county, where programs of speeches by farm agents, agricultural experts and public officials could be carried out, along with an open forum in which every resident could join in discussion of questions affecting the welfare of his particular community. In view of the importance of such gatherings, we believe Agricultural day would be a fitting and appropriate addition to our list of holidays and also feel, in so far as those residing around Plymouth are concerned, that it would be one of more general interest than is shown in several that are already on the calendar.

ALWAYS WELCOME.

One fellow who is always welcome at the front door in this and every other community is the free delivery mail carrier. Nobody motions from the window for him to stay away. Nobody ever stops him at the front steps and says "We don't want any mail today." In fact, everybody is happy to see him coming up the walk, or stopping at the mail box. He is a tried and true bearer of tidings and the offering he holds in his hand is always pleasantly received. His job is not the most pleasant one in the world by any means, since it takes him out into all kinds of weather; but, like a real soldier, he is always to be found at his post of duty, uncompensated and uncomplaining. His job is not the most pleasant one in the world by any means, since it takes him out into all kinds of weather; but, like a real soldier, he is always to be found at his post of duty, uncompensated and uncomplaining. ### PLAY A DECIDED SUCCESS

The dramatic play entitled, "Dearest," was presented at the Newburg hall, last week Wednesday and Thursday evenings. Each night the house was filled to capacity. Much credit is due to the director, Mrs. James McNabb, as each one showed splendid training. This play will be presented at the Livonia town hall, Monday evening, March 26th, at eight o'clock. Music will be furnished by the Burch orchestra, and singing by Mr. and Mrs. Harmon Klingsley of Wayne.

POMONA GRANGE MEETS HERE

Pomona Grange will be the guests of Plymouth Grange at the Grange hall, Saturday, March 24th. A business meeting will be held at 11:00 o'clock in the forenoon, to be followed by a dinner at 12:00 o'clock noon. The speakers for the afternoon's program are B. P. Hicks of the Public Utilities Commission of Lansing, and C. V. Ballard of M. S. C.

We would appreciate it if you would phone or send news items to the Mail office. We are always glad to get them.

SINGING

People spend a vast deal of money every year in listening to singing.

But the trouble is they simply listen to it. They are auditors and not singers.

We like to crowd the bleachers, watch baseball and football and tennis games, and we like to go to grand opera and concerts and vaudeville and hear them sing.

But the best part of singing is the reaction upon the singer himself.

We are notoriously bad singers.

We hire chorists in churches to sing for us when we ought to be singing ourselves.

Do it yourself, is the best advice in physical culture.

Let us not have so many things done for us, but do them ourselves, and we will be better off. It may be pleasant to have a masseur or a masseuse work at you, but the best form of exercise is automotive.

Get out and take a walk or play a game or do something that starts the sweat and thus improve the sewage system of the body, something that circulates the blood rapidly.

Exercise should be taken judiciously, of course, but the best form of exercise is mild exercise which you do regularly. Irregular exercise or exercise once in a while is about as good as none at all.

Many people are constantly making spurs toward physical culture, but spurs are not what we need. We require regularity.

Take any form of physical exercise, any system, for they all embrace about the same points, only adopt some system that will bring the unused muscles of the body into play.

There is no better healthful exercise than singing, provided we do the singing ourselves.

Public school teachers tell us that almost any number of youths can be taught to sing, and it is an art that we should all cultivate.

There is no better music than congregational singing.

The Germans, all of them, can sing their national hymn, and the British non-conformist congregations are vocal.

We alone are too much inclined to be mere auditors and not doers.

NEWBURG

On Saturday afternoon the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Leonard on Newburg road, caught fire and burned to the ground. They saved some of the things on the first floor. They are now living in the Horton house at Newburg.

Rev. and Mrs. F. I. Walker of Chelsea, were calling on Newburg friends, Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Turnbull of Port Huron, were Sunday visitors at the Carney home.

Mrs. Kesarie visited Mrs. Thomas, Wednesday.

Rev. and Mrs. F. I. Walker had dinner on Monday, with Mr. and Mrs. Mark Joy.

Howard Stevens and wife of Detroit spent Sunday with Edgar Stevens and family.

Clark Bassett of South Bend, Ind., has been visiting his brothers, Floyd and James Bassett.

Mrs. Marlen Simons and Mrs. Edgar Stevens attended the Community Club at the home of Mrs. Paughorn at Farmington, last week.

Mr. and Mrs. I. Gunsolly spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. George Booth in Detroit.

Mrs. Wight, Mrs. Booth and Mrs. Holsington of Detroit, and Miss H. Holsington of Plymouth, were entertained by Mrs. Gunsolly last week Thursday.

Burt Paddock and sons, Charles and Dwight, ate Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ryder.

Twenty-eight ladies of Newburg community met Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Donald Ryder. They gave Mrs. Leonard a kitchen shower, and the ladies tied and finished four quilts for her.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Jewell one morning last week saw quite a sight in their yard. It was a robin, a goldfinch and a full grown deer. It is presumed the deer escaped from Ford's park.

"DEARIES"

Nearly all Newburg turned out to see the play, "Dearies," given by the League and Queen Esther girls Wednesday and Thursday evenings. The play represents several weeks of hard work, under the direction of Mrs. Lydia McNabb.

The leading role, that of Kate, the discontented orphan, was played by Alice Gilbert very well. Sweet Babes, another orphan, was Viola Luttermoser, who did her best to help Kate out of the orphanage. Marion Taylor took the part of Mrs. Main, the wheezy, nervous proprietress of the orphanage, who entertained with her scripture quotations. Sylvia Langthorne, in love with Dick Hall, a man not of her parents' choice, and a most pampered girl, and aristocratic Mrs. Chase, the grandmother, were played by Sarah Cutler and Mrs. Cutler, respectively. Margaret Bassett was the dignified, sympathetic mother, Mrs. Langthorne. Charlotte Leonard very successfully made herself into a negro mammy, and then very cleverly revealed herself as Dick Hall, Sylvia's lover.

Humor throughout was furnished by Joy McNabb, alias Lena, the idiot of the orphanage, who fell into a tub of hot water, drank poison, and ended the play by revealing herself as Kate's mother.

Between acts entertainment was furnished Wednesday night by Alice Bakewell, who gave a humorous reading, "Under the Automobile Seat," and by two of the orphans who sang several little camp songs. Thursday evening, we were fortunate in having Mr. Eastlake of Ann Arbor, to entertain us with his banjo, Hawaiian guitar and ukelele. He was very well received, and it is hoped we may have him again for an entertainment in the future.

Those who failed to see the play may still see it on Monday evening, March 26th, at the Livonia town hall.

Dear Friends:

I want to mention today something about glassware again. The boss says he never has sold so much of it before. I tell him it's the advertising but he says it's the quality of the merchandise.

I never argue with him.

There's this much to say about the glassware, though—he's got a wonderful line of it. Sherbets, goblets, ice teas, nut sets, frappe sets, wine sets, etc. The wine sets, of course, are the prohibition kind and are to be used only for grape juice. This is all in the light glassware, of course. Very dainty and delicate.

They make wonderful gifts, these sets.

The rates quoted above are Station-to-Station night rates, effective from 8:30 p. m. to 4:30 a. m.

A Station-to-Station call is one that is made to a certain telephone, rather than to some person in particular.

If you do not know the number of the distant telephone, give the operator the name and address and specify that you will talk with "anyone" who answers at the called telephone.

Day rates, 4:30 a. m. to 7 p. m., and evening rates, 7 p. m. to 8:30 p. m., are higher than night rates.

A Person-to-Person call, because more work is involved, costs more than a Station-to-Station call. The rate on a Person-to-Person call is the same at all hours.

GROCERIES For Thrifty Housewives

There is keen satisfaction in getting groceries at saving prices—but the small saving is not worth while if you are getting inferior products. That sort of economy is penny-wise and pound foolish—the health of your family depends upon good, wholesome food.

Our patrons know that the Partridge store stands for quality, satisfaction, service and low price, and that they can do no better than to make this store their regular headquarters for good groceries. If you do not trade here let us convince you, too.

Phone us your order if it isn't convenient for you to shop personally. We will select your groceries with the same care you yourself would give to the order.

AND WE GUARANTEE SATISFACTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and family were Sunday callers at the home of Mrs. Ada Brown.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church will meet after the services next Sunday morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Burch and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burch attended the funeral of their cousin, C. Myron Burch, in Detroit, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Frazer of Battle Creek, were guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Wrench, Tuesday. The latter is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frazer.

Born, March 17th, to Mr. and Mrs. Carrol Tassin of Palmer avenue, an eight-pound son, Melvin James. Before her marriage, Mrs. Tassin was Miss Lila Dell of Battle Creek.

William Todd, a former resident of Plymouth, is critically ill in a hospital in Santa Monica, California. His father, James Todd, and brother, Robert Todd, of this place, are at Santa Monica.

H. A. Shattering, bridge engineer of Wayne County, gave a very interesting talk before the Rotary Club last Friday, at their noon luncheon. The speaker was introduced by Rotarian Merle Bennett.

Herman Schaefer has purchased the farm known as the Ross farm, in Salem township. Perry Woodworth negotiated the deal. Mr. Woodworth also closed the deal whereby Frank Lang, of Detroit, purchased a farm near Tecumseh.

The St. Patrick's dance given at the Masonic temple last Friday evening under the auspices of the Eastern Star was well attended and a most enjoyable party for those in attendance. Splendid music was furnished by Lorenzen's orchestra.

Mrs. O. F. Beyer entertained thirty young people at her home last Tuesday evening, the occasion being her daughter Helen's sixteenth birthday. Games were played and refreshments were served. Miss Helen received a number of beautiful gifts from the guests present.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Felt entertained the Pleasure Club at their home on Fairground avenue, Wednesday evening. Honors for the evening's entertainment of progressive pairs were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Wolfkast, while Mrs. Russell Cook and Ralph Cole were consoled. Late in the evening, a delightful lunch was served.

A grass fire near the corner of Wing and South Harvey streets called out the fire department Wednesday afternoon. Shortly after the return from the fire the department responded to another call when fire was discovered on the roof of a vacant house opposite the H. S. Lee Foundry and Machine company's plant. The damage was confined entirely to the roof.

Another large crowd of diners were at the Hotel Mayflower last Sunday to enjoy the splendid dinner which is being served there every Sunday. Many people from neighboring towns are getting the habit of coming to our splendid hospitality for Sunday dinners. The music of the Students' Harmony Group rendered during the hours from 12:30 to 3:00 is greatly enjoyed and highly commented on.

Stewart Montgomery, 62 years old, for years one of Northville's prominent residents, died in Detroit Tuesday, where he had been taken for an operation. Mr. Montgomery had been spending the winter with his family in Florida and had returned home Monday. He had not been in the best of health for some time and his early return from the south was due to his physical condition. Mr. Montgomery had served on the school board and village council. He had many friends in Plymouth who will regret to learn of his death.

Huelva, Spain, Plans Shaft to Columbus

Huelva, Spain.—A great monument to Columbus initiated in America is to be erected in the place where the explorer spent his last night before sailing on his quest.

Almost three-quarters of a century ago the monastery of La Rabida, whence Columbus sailed to the New world, was ordered demolished by the government and the land where it stood, save that occupied by the little church, was ordered turned over to truck gardeners for the raising of onions and cauliflower.

But the governor who received the order was soon removed and his successor declined to carry out the royal decree. His name was Mariano Castillo and in his honor the city of Huelva has named a street after him and the monastery has now placed his portrait in the room occupied by Father Marchena, who helped Columbus in his enterprise.

"What, ten dollars per day?"

"No, perhaps."

She: "Are you very busy right now, Mr. Barber?"

He: "Yes, I'm scraping an acquaintance."

WILL WRITE ESSAYS ON MASTER PLAN OF HIGHWAYS

CONTENTS SPONSORED BY ROAD COMMISSIONERS OF WAYNE, OAKLAND AND MACOMB COUNTIES.

PRIZES TOTALING $250 IN GOLD WILL BE GIVEN FOR BEST ESSAYS.

Hundreds of students in high school within a 20-mile radius of Detroit will compete in an essay contest on the Master Plan of Highways, starting Monday. In an effort to interest the thousands of students in the problem of traffic and road building, the Detroit Automobile club announced today that prizes totaling $250 in gold will be given for the best essays.

This contest is being sponsored by the road commissioners of Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties, together with county school commissioners, high school principals and English teachers. The board of judges for the contest is composed of Major John P. Hallahan, engineer of the Rapid Transit commission; Edward N. Hines, Wayne county road commissioner; Richard Harfst, manager of the Detroit Automobile club; Paul Rheanus, principal of the Mt. Clemens High school, and George Averill, editor of the Birmingham Eclectic.

The prizes to be given will consist of: First, $50 in gold, donated by Col. Sidney D. Waldon, president of the Detroit Rapid Transit commission, for the best essay from any boy in the entire district; next, $20 in gold contributed by the Detroit Automobile club for the best essay submitted by any girl in the entire district. John S. Haggerty, secretary of state and a member of the Wayne County Road commission, has donated a prize of $50 in gold, to be divided $25 to the second best essay from either a boy or girl in the entire district and $25 to the best essay from either a boy or girl from Wayne county, to be awarded after the first three prizes have been judged. The Macomb County Road commission is also giving a $25 prize for the best essay produced in Macomb county and the Oakland County Road commission is giving another $25 prize for the best essay from Oakland county. These last two are to be awarded after prize-winners from the entire district have been picked.

School libraries have been supplied with copies of all reports bearing on this subject and such other printed matter as is available and of interest in the contest. The contest will continue until May 1 and within the next few weeks various tours will be arranged for the participants who are now registering for the contest in order that they may visit Wider Woodward, Ford road, Stephenson and other highways.

According to Major Hallahan, chairman of the board of judges, the purpose of this contest is to educate high school children, who will all be taxpayers in the near future, on the value of good roads and what they mean to a community, as well as to afford an incentive whereby they will study out the Master plan of super-highways.

B. F. KEITH'S TEMPLE THEATRE

Detroit, Michigan

When a two-man act is given a headline position on a vaudeville bill, you will know that there is a show you cannot afford to miss. If you have not heard of Steve Frohn and Johnny Palace, keep your ears open next week because all of Detroit will be singing the praises of this gifted duo. With a supreme comedy sense that never fails to score, this popular team combines a musical ability that is astounding. Steve Frohn does things with a guitar that should make Nels Lucas look to his laurels, and he adds a pleasing tenor voice of notable clearness and quality. Johnny Palace is an unusual comedian but when he starts to sing with his partner you will know that here is that long sought perfect balance of real comedy and perfect music. The next feature act on this outstanding show will be Eddie Allen and Doris Canfield, who will dash right in and spread a large share of happiness and laughs. These two youthful comedians call their act "Things and Stuff," and from what we remember of them they surely know their stuff.

None other than Chita and her Pals will appear in "Flaming Youth," a red-hot combination of song, dance and girls. And then Ross Wyse, Jr., with Mr. and Mrs. Ross Wyse will be seen in "Kidding Father." From the billing they are not kidding father a bit for he has the whole family working in the act. An extra attraction on the bill will be Carol Inez and Richard DeWyn in "An Art Classic." This attractive young couple should prove an attraction to lovers of the dance.

The featured photoplay will be "Ladies Must Dress," starring Virginia Valli. This will tell of how some women attract attention by their clothes and some by their lack of them.

MUNICIPAL
NOTES
BY THE MANAGER

To correct a wrong impression that has been spread about town that the manager cut the trees on South Main street contrary to the commission's orders, the following are exact copies of the minutes of the commission meetings:

A regular meeting of the commission in the commission room of the village hall, Monday evening, June 20, 1927, at 7:00 p. m.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Learned, who moved its adoption, supported by Commissioner Pierce:

Resolved, That the sound trees except poplars on the west side of South Main street be left in place and the walk built around them, the president and manager being authorized to decide on the line of the walk.

Ayes—Commissioners Henderson, Learned, Pierce and President Fisher. Nays—Commissioner Hendorp. Carried.

A regular meeting of the commission in the commission room of the village hall held on Monday evening, July 18, 1927, at 7:00 p. m.

The manager was instructed to carry a resolution included in the minutes of June 20th, regarding the cutting of trees interfering with the construction of sidewalks, that the original resolution regarding the construction of sidewalks and the removing of trees be strictly adhered to.

The original resolution was as follows:

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Fisher, who moved its adoption, seconded by Commissioner Henderson:

Resolved, That all concrete sidewalks hereafter built in the Village of Plymouth in front of any property shall be so laid that the inner line shall be one foot outside of the recognized side line of the street in property where descriptions extend to the center of the street. Such restrictions shall apply not only to new walks built but to all replacements of old walks.

Be it further resolved, That no exceptions shall be made to the foregoing, unless by the unanimous sanction of the village commission. Carried unanimously. (This was passed April 5, 1928.)

After the meeting of July 18, 1927, the trees were cut as ordered and the walk put one foot from the property line. On the 15th of August, 1927, after all these trees were cut, at a regular meeting of the commission, held at the village hall at 7:00 p. m., the following motion was made:

A motion was made by Commissioner Pierce, seconded by Commissioner Learned, that the sidewalk resolution adopted April 5, 1928, which stated that no exceptions could be made unless by unanimous action of the village commission be amended to read, no exception shall be made except by the consent of three-fifths of the village commission. Motion carried.

A roof fire which started at Albert G. Reddeman's house at 640 Maple avenue on March 17 at 7:20 a. m. was put out by the village fire department with chemicals. It took about one hour to put the fire out.

All the unpaved streets are rapidly being put back in good shape with our float and grader.

The village water reservoir is being repaired at the present time and ought to be in operation in about one week.

Judge to Vagrant: "So you can't get a job because you don't know a trade, eh? Well, six months in the work house should teach you one."

Vagrant: "How about a correspondence course, your honor?"

PLANNING BETTER HOMES WEEK

BETTER HOMES CAMPAIGN—PLYMOUTH DEMONSTRATION CENTER.

A house, now under construction by Crumble & Wood in the Maplecroft subdivision, will be completely furnished and landscaped under the direction of a general committee and will be used as a demonstration center for all Wayne county. General meetings at which various phases of home improvements will be discussed will be held in Plymouth and other communities during the week of April 22-28.

The general arrangements committee, headed by Ralph Carr, county agricultural agent, met in Plymouth High school Thursday afternoon, March 15. Various committees reported on the following cooperation activities:

Mrs. Bentley, president of the Parent-Teacher Council of Wayne County, reported on a plan for programs to be given during April by the Parent-Teacher association. These programs—stimulating interest in music, good reading and home play will tend to make the home a social center for the family.

Miss Dawson, Wayne county librarian, stated that the library will place in the demonstration house a set of about two hundred books, suitable for a home library. All visitors at the home will receive a list of these books, including prices and publishing houses.

Mrs. Dykhouse, local chairman for Plymouth, reported that the school newspaper staff will superintend the publicity. The Boy Scouts will solve the traffic problems. The art department will make posters, spreading the news of better homes. Miss Schrader will take care of the musical programs. Mrs. Dykhouse will give a demonstration of the various activities connected with home economics.

Mrs. Sharpe, county supervising nurse, announced that the May Day Child Health day will tie up the better homes campaign with the summer round-up clinics to be held during the first week of May. The nursery room in the home will be properly furnished for small children. A demonstration will be given showing how to administer a sun bath to babies.

Mr. Holcomb plans to have his horticulture and agriculture classes show methods of planting shrubs and trees and explain such during the demonstration week. A model in miniature of the "home beautiful" demonstration house will also be made by these classes and placed on exhibition.

Mr. Peterson, of Denton, said that the organizations of Boy Scouts, Hi-Y and 4-H boys could co-operate in various ways in the work of the campaign. A model home work shop for boys, with tool kit, handicraft books and magazines, will be shown in the basement of the home.

Mr. Deal, assistant manager of the gas company, offered to furnish a gas stove tinted to correspond with kitchen coloring, and any other appliances as desired by the house furnishing committee.

All clubs and interested individuals will find an opportunity during this better homes week for useful and constructive work as part, either of the local or county programs.

BONAPARTE ROAD NOT TO BE BUILT

RESIDENTS ASK COMMISSION TO CHANGE PLANS BECAUSE OF HIGH COSTS.

Bonaparte road, between Telegraph and Canton Center road, was withdrawn from the list of roads to be paved at an early date. Leroy C. Smith, engineer-manager of the Board of County Road Commissioners, announced Saturday.

Three months ago we were presented a petition signed by 63 per cent of the abutting property owners for the pavement of Bonaparte road on a 120-foot right-of-way between Telegraph road and the Canton Center road." Mr. Smith said. "A few days ago a petition bearing the signatures of 50 per cent of the abutting property owners was filed with the commission, protesting against paving the road because of the cost under the Covert Act to the individual property owners."

"The number of signatures on the second petition showed that many of the farmers who had signed the first petition had changed their minds in the meantime. "From a traffic point of view, nothing is lost by having this road remain a mud road, as there are Plymouth road to the north and Ford road to the south of Bonaparte road which have concrete pavements and are handling all the traffic moving in that section satisfactorily. For this reason the Board of County Road Commissioners readily turned down the first petition."—Detroit News.

PERE MARQUETTE WILL SPEND $5,000,000 ON IMPROVEMENTS.

The improvements and betterments to the Pere Marquette for the current year will represent an aggregate outlay of approximately $5,000,000. Among the improvements listed are:

Automatic signals and centralized train control is being installed between Saginaw and Plymouth, where the heavy traffic between Flint and Toledo and Flint and Detroit, in addition Ludington line, gives to this section of the road a high traffic density. By means of this installation, an operator in a tower under the direct supervision of that which comes from the Saginaw shifts the traffic from one track to another. In this manner, traffic is materially expedited. This installation between Plymouth and Flint will cost about $300,000.

Various yard extensions and side tracks on all divisions are to be made at a total expenditure of $233,000. Similar work designs to give greater facilities at Wyoming yards, Grand Rapids, are planned at an outlay of $300,000, and new yard facilities at Oak and vicinity, Detroit, are proposed at a cost of $90,000.

An appropriation of $21,000 has been made for interlocking plants at Plymouth and Reed City.

Tom: "Say, did you ever kiss a girl in a quiet spot?"

Bill: "Yes, but the spot was only quiet while I was kissing it."

"It takes Tom a night and a day to tell a story. He'd make a pretty good bookkeeper."

"How's zat?"

"He's never short in his accounts."

CAPTAIN EDWARD DENNISTON ADDRESSES KIWANIS CLUB.

Under the chairmanship of Kiwanian Stanley T. Corbett, Captain Denniston of the Detroit House of Correction gave the local Kiwanis club an interesting talk on new developments at the prison farm and the new women's prison near Plymouth. "When the new women's department is opened," said the captain, "we will have the most scientific and advanced penal institution in the world." Captain Denniston is well known in and around Plymouth and his appearances here are always looked forward to with interest.

KIWANIANS ENTERTAIN LADIES.

The members of the local Kiwanis club entertained their wives and friends last Thursday evening with a dinner at the Mayflower hotel, after which bridge was enjoyed until 8:30, when the party attended the Penniman Allen theatre and witnessed the screen production, "Sharpshooters."

Through the courtesy of Manager Harry Lush, a novel and interesting musical act was presented to the guests in addition to the regular attraction.

EDWARD RENO, THE MAGICIAN.

For 35 years Edward Reno, who will appear here on the Lyceum course Thursday, March 29, at 8:00 o'clock in the High school auditorium, has been a magician, and in that time he has traveled all over the world, including India, Syria and Egypt.

Reno is constantly inventing new things in magic and illusions, also in foreign lands he picked up many things not known even to professionals. Magic, like everything else, has progressed with rapid strides during the past few years. Never was there a better demand for up-to-date illusions and sleight-of-hand than now, but there is no room nowadays for anyone who does not keep strictly abreast of the profession.

Reno has the usual light paraphernalia, but performs his tricks in ordinary evening dress, and so adroitly as to escape detection in every case. In this respect he is a wonder. He does things that seem absolutely impossible of execution without the aid of supernatural agencies.

Not the least enjoyable feature of Reno's performance is the running fire of comment with which he enlivens everything he does. These fragmentary remarks are full of fun and wit, with flash after flash of good-tempered satire aimed at himself or his work. He is a man of fine personality and engaging stage presence, with a keen mentality and an artistic appreciation of the success he has achieved in his profession.

In his performance he springs one surprise after another on his audience, keeping all in a state of breathless wonder and delight.

Here are some of the features of Reno's programs:

The evolution of a magician's mind. Mysterious cornucopis and enchanted rabbit.

Hatched, matched and dispatched—a romance in the lives of a pair of ring doves.

The steel detective a Pink-tonian suggestion.

The serial and the always-popular inexhaustible hat.

Mysterious changes, manipulations and Hindoo transformations.

A guinea pig's troubles in two chapters.

The wizard's omelet, introducing the talented goose, "Jim."

The story of a little bird—the children's delight.

Father Neptune's fishery.

Mind reading extraordinary, in which a spectator assumes the title role.

Spiritualistic tests, embracing slates, spirit pitcher and other tests.

Chinese and Japanese magic, illustrated by favorite tricks of the oriental magicians.

The Magi's vision—a test of the Yogo Hindoo magic.

Production and vanishing of objects of all sizes and shapes.

The Garden of Flora.

Empress Eugenie's favorite handkerchief trick.

Oriental feasts and ideas produced only by Reno's rapid-fire magic.

Single admission tickets will be sold at the door. Price 50 cents.

A CARD—We wish to thank the kind friends and neighbors, the King Mfg. Co., those who furnished auto and Dr. Lendrum for his comforting words in our sad bereavement. Mrs. Matilda Alsbro, Oscar Alsbro.

Sousa's Band Will Be a Big Feature at the State Fair

MANY OTHER ATTRACTIONS HAVE ALREADY BEEN LINED UP FOR THE BIG SHOW SEPTEMBER 2 TO 8.

Featuring two daily concerts by Lieutenant-Commander John Philip Sousa and his famous band of 70 internationally known musicians and soloists, the Michigan State fair will open its seventy-ninth annual exhibition Sunday, September 2, continuing through Saturday, September 8.

Sousa's band, noted for the playing of its famous director's march compositions, will be heard by the public at a 25-cent admission charge, which includes entrance to the grounds and many of its attractions. Ordinarily, Sousa's concerts range in admission prices as high as $1.

On Sunday afternoon Sousa will give a sacred concert, following in the evening by a patriotic program assisted by Boy Scout and Camp Fire Girl organizations and units of the Michigan National Guard. No midway shows or amusements will be open on Sunday.

The remaining six days of the week Sousa will give concerts in the grove daily in the afternoon, and in the coliseum, in conjunction with the horse show, in the evening. No charge will be made at the coliseum entrance in the evening. The interior layout of the coliseum will give the public ample opportunity to hear the concert, although for those who desire, seats will be available at 25, 50 and 75 cents.

Eighteen of the most expensive and highest type of vaudeville acts ever engaged by a state fair will appear daily, both afternoon and evening, in front of the grandstand, with the exception of Sunday. Al Sweet and his famous band from Chicago will appear with the vaudeville entertainers. This is the most elaborate and expensive entertainment program in the State fair's history.

In the evening the majestic fireworks spectacle—"A Night in Baghdad"—a super-production of the Theatre Trustful Fireworks company, will appear nightly, in addition to the impressive vaudeville program of children acts. This oriental fantasy—the most striking display of fireworks and set pieces ever produced to date, will portray the streets, walls, and buildings of the ancient city of Baghdad in all its mysterious and beautiful splendor. A specially trained ballet—much enlarged over the previous year—will be seen during the presentation of night life in Baghdad, lending exotic charm to the scene.

Three harness races will be held in front of the grandstand on five afternoons during the week—from Monday to Friday, inclusive. A spectacular automobile race, with some of the best known drivers in the country, will be staged on Saturday afternoon under official sanction of the American Automobile association. All these events will be in addition to the daily vaudeville features.

Baldin & Cherry Carnival company, a near midway show, will supply the attractions for the afternoon and evening sessions of the midway—larger and more extensive than ever before. These offerings will be of the highest caliber, with absolutely no features that would be objectionable.

Exhibits of farm products, machinery, home economic displays and various departments of the state industries will be housed in more completely equipped and better lighted buildings than in any preceding fair. Daily live stock judging will be held in the coliseum. At the evening horse show in the coliseum scores of Detroit's most noted society leaders and millionaires will put their hunters and jumpers through their paces for the coveted ribbons. A different class of horse will be featured each night and the jumping exhibit will bring many noted horses from other cities.

Admission to the fair remains the same as last year—25 cents. Children under 10 will be admitted free. Automobiles will be charged 25 cents at the special automobile entrance, with free and practically unlimited parking space.

The fair this year will set a new high record for both the quality and number of its amusement offerings, according to Manager Fred A. Chapman, with Sousa's world-famous band, the stellar attraction of the week's entertainment.

There are two kinds of disappointing men—those who take no for an answer and those who don't even try.

"Smoking may not keep a girl out of heaven," asserts Dad Plymouth, "but it's mighty apt to keep some of them out of matrimony."

Film Stars Will Be Heard Over Radio

DODGE BROTHERS SPONSORS GIGANTIC NEW NATIONAL RADIO HOOK-UP IN "DODGE FILM STARS RADIO HOUR."

ENTIRE NATION TO HEAR HOLLYWOOD MOVIE COLONY PUT ON AIR BY AUTOMOTIVE COMPANY.

FAIRBANKS, CHAPLIN, NORMA TALMADGE, DELORES DEL RIO, D. W. GRIFFITH, JOHN BARRYMORE TO BE DODGE STARS IN SUCCESSOR TO THE VICTORY HOUR.

Dodge Brothers, Inc., of Detroit, will sponsor one of the biggest radio hook-ups yet accomplished when, on Thursday evening, March 29th, 1928, movie stars of Hollywood go on the air nationally in the "Dodge Film Stars Radio Hour."

Dodge Brothers, which has been a leader in use of radio for national entertainment hook-ups, introduced the Victory Six in a national broadcast the first of the year. The "Dodge Film Stars Radio Hour" will be on an even larger scale, with Norma Talmadge, Charlie Chaplin, Douglas Fairbanks, D. W. Griffith, John Barrymore and Dolores Del Rio as artists. Paul Whiteman and his band, broadcasting from New York, will be part of the program.

More than two score radio stations will be used, and the hook-up by the National Broadcasting company will be consolidated through two trans-continental telephone lines of the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

The "Dodge Film Stars Radio Hour" is to be on the air from 9:00 to 10:30 p. m., Eastern Standard time. Douglas Fairbanks will act as toastmaster at his Hollywood bungalow, whence the stars will broadcast. He himself will talk on "Keeping Fit."

John Barrymore will render Hamlet's "Soliloquy." Norma Talmadge is to speak on "Women's Fashions in the Motion Picture World." D. W. Griffith has chosen "Love" as the subject of his talk, while Dolores Del Rio will sing a Spanish song.

As was the case with the Victory hour early this year, the new radio event is coordinated with extensive newspaper and magazine advertising of the Dodge Brothers cars and Grauman Brothers trucks.

The program is the result of negotiations which have been carried on for more than three weeks by wire, telephone and conference between executives in New York, Detroit and Los Angeles, and involving representatives of Dodge Brothers, the United Artists, the National Broadcasting company and the American Telephone and Telegraph company.

At one time, after arrangements for services of the motion picture stars had been secured, it seemed possible that the event could not be carried through as planned because of the solid bookings on the air. The "Dodge Film Stars Radio Hour," however, was finally made possible through the courtesy of the Check Neal Coffee company, which yielded their Maxwell House Coffee hour to Dodge Brothers in order that the program might be carried through nationally.

LADIES' AUXILIARY SERVES SPLENDID SUPPER TO EX-SERVICE MEN'S CLUB.

On Monday evening, March 12th, another wonderful supper was served by the Ladies' Auxiliary to the Ex-Service Men's Club. The thing so appealing about these suppers to the boys, is the fact that there is always plenty of "seconds." After supper, business sessions were in order. The ladies are planning a dancing party to be given in the near future, formal notice of which will appear in this paper later. The boys had the pleasure of annexing another new member, Dr. Harold Brishols. This new buddy has consented to be the official dispenser of pills and iodine. A code of by-laws was read before the club, and was adopted. Cards furnished the social hour for the evening.

ADDRESSING PACKAGES ON ONE SIDE FAVORED.

The Post Office department requests that parcels be addressed on one side only. If this is done they receive better and faster treatment on the part of employees and special handling and special delivery stamps are noted with more ease, which will help improve the service.

Oddities

From HERE and THERE

Farmers Make Things Grow in Barren Ireland

Reykjavik, Iceland, March 22.—National cultivation of the land is now a national slogan in Iceland, while formerly there was little cultivation of the soil. Land reclamation has gone on for five years in the surroundings of Reykjavik.

Bogs have been changed into green meadows, and all kinds of agricultural experiments have been undertaken, some with great success. Things that Icelanders themselves had sworn would never be able to grow, thrive wonderfully well.

Yes, We Have No Horseradish!

Chicago, Ill., March 22.—The price of horseradish has advanced 300% to 27 cents a pound as one of the results of the Mississippi floods. The Illinois Chamber of Commerce reports whole counties of horseradish wiped out. Wild horseradish, which has a fearful kick, is being substituted in the boiled beef industry.

Two New York Farmhouses Date to the Pioneer 1680s

New York, N. Y., March 22.—Dr. James E. Boyle of the New York State College of Agriculture has conducted a contest in order to find out the oldest New York farmhouse. A farmhouse built in 1684 owned by Mrs. Jay Downs of Southampton, Suffolk County, L. I., was judged to be the oldest in the state. The house is in good condition.

Another house built about the same time as the Downs house is the old Mabie house at Rotterdam Junction, Schenectady County. Local historians do not agree on the date it was built, except that it was between 1680 and 1690. Mabies have lived in the house until the last twenty-seven years, and the property is still in the same family ownership.

A Flash, And Girl Sightless From Birth Could See

Lincoln, Neb., March 22.—Miss Joan Getz, sightless for the eighteen years of her life, because of injured optic nerves, suddenly gained her vision as she was sitting before her radio.

"I was just sitting there listening to the music," Miss Getz said, "when all of a sudden I felt a shudder go through me. There was a flash and I could see."

Wills Almost Entire Fortune To His Pet Dog

Denver, Colo., March 22.—Sheep, a shaggy old dog, need not worry about the future. He has inherited part of a fortune of $110,000. Fred H. Forrester, an eccentric Denver resident, willed almost his entire fortune to his pet dog Sheep and to other canine inhabitants of the state of Colorado.

Sheep had been Forrester's pal for a decade.

Relatives of Forrester filed objections to the will but were overruled. It was decided that the money constituted a legitimate charity fund that will be handled by the Colorado Bureau of Child and Animal Protection.

For many days after the death of Forrester, Sheep refused to eat and in other ways manifested grief for his dead master.

Parrot Once Pet of President Harrison

Omaha, Neb., March 22.—Polly, 70-year-old African parrot now belonging to John A. Metcalf of Omaha, belonged to President Benjamin Harrison when he occupied the White House. At that time the bird was said to be at least thirty years old.

Polly still remembers many of her presidential master's sayings and other White House lore. "The President" is one of the old bird's frequent outbursts, as are "where is that boy Rob?" and "that Russian." Harrison used to go through the White House looking for his son and saying: "Where is that boy Rob?" When a certain Russian called on him he would call him "that Russian."

Congressman Has Kept Cigar Given By Grant 48 Years Ago

Wethersfield, Ct., March 22.—Hart Fenn, Congressman from the first Connecticut district, has a cigar that is pretty near half a century old. He keeps it in a tin box. It is one of his treasured possessions, as it was handed to him by President U. S. Grant.

The representative, a former newspaper man, was interviewing Grant during the Garfield-Hancock campaign when the general lighted a cigar and passed another to his interviewer.

Fenn quickly substituted it for one in his pocket and has preserved it to the present day.

... don't Experiment ask SUCCESSFUL Farmers

COMPARATIVE tests made by successful farmers in this locality prove that "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers produce larger yields, better quality, and increased profits from every acre.

Read the letters printed at the right. Any of these farmers will be glad to tell you of their success with "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers. Do not let this opportunity to increase your profits slip by.

"AA QUALITY" Fertilizers produce better crops—consistently profitable crops even in the "bad" seasons. These Fertilizers provide just the right balance of the necessary plant-food elements to maintain continuous growth, even under adverse conditions.

Nothing is taken for granted in making "AA QUALITY" goods. Their formulae are based upon a thorough knowledge of the needs of each crop and each soil condition, checked by constant field tests.

Every batch of "AA QUALITY" goods is tested in our laboratory—our own tests are fully as exacting as any encountered in the field.

Over sixty years of experience and more than sixty years of successful crop production are back of every bag of these fertilizers. Perfect mechanical condition, always.

Make more money from every dollar invested in fertilizer this season by using "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers on your crops. Insist on getting "AA QUALITY" Fertilizers from your dealer.

100 BUSHELS OF CORN PER ACRE. Mr. Owen Zant, of Thompson, Marshall Co., Ind., says: "By the proper use of 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizer in sufficient amounts I have grown what our county agent estimates will be a 125-bushel-to-the-acre crop, in spite of the fact that this has been a poor corn year. This corn ripened two weeks ahead of our fertilized corn and is of fine quality."—October 11, 1927.

EARLY MATURITY AND GOOD QUALITY. Mr. E. T. Harper, of Sharpsville, Tippecanoe Co., Ind., says: "This season I had the best field of corn I ever raised, and attribute the early ripening and good quality to the use of Horseshoe Fertilizer ('AA QUALITY'). It is a good free driller, and the strength of same better than of other makes I have used."—October 23, 1927.

MICHIGAN GROWER WINS PRIZES WITH "AA QUALITY." Mr. John C. Wilk, of St. Louis, Gratot Co., Mich., says: "I have been showing farm products at the Michigan State Fair and Chicago International for 5 years with very good success. Five consecutive sweepstakes cups on wheat, two on potatoes and first on beans, barley, oats and soy beans at the Michigan State Fair; two world's championships on soy beans, and two on beans at Chicago in the past three years. I used 'AA QUALITY' Fertilizers on all my crops, and find that they especially fit into my scheme of livestock, sweet clover and a cultivated crop, thereby making a balanced ration for the plants."—October 4, 1927.

$1,000 PER ACRE FROM ONIONS. Mr. Roy Baldridge, of Davison, Genesee Co., Mich., says: "This year I used 700 lbs. of Horseshoe Fertilizer ('AA QUALITY') per acre on my 7 acres of onions. The yield was approximately 800 bushels per acre of saleable onions, which are bringing me $1.25 per bushel, due to the fact that they matured early and are of the best quality."—October 4, 1927.

Rural Women Study Ways to Ease Work

MANY GROUPS ENROLL IN COURSES GIVEN BY HOME MANAGEMENT SPECIALISTS.

Farm women have no union hours, but more than 1500 of them in Michigan are trying out methods of lightening the tasks that they perform every day, according to the reports of home management specialists at Michigan State College.

First year courses in home management methods are being given in Kalamazoo, Van Buren, Oakland and Kent counties. Farm women in Wayne, Ottawa and Isabella are taking the second year course.

One of the means of making the day's work easier is to adjust the heights of tables and other working surfaces so that they are the correct height for the person working upon them. To test the height, stand erect before the table and place the hands upon the top. If the palms lie flat on the table while the person's arms are held straight and the body erect, the working height is correct.

Stores can be placed on blocks, and fuel boxes can have legs attached to raise them to a desired level. In lifting objects, less effort is required if both knees are bent in lowering the body to start the lift.

The home management specialists say that a housewife who lies down and relaxes a short time every day is exhibiting good judgment rather than rebellion against work. Women are also advised that the etiquette books do not require that such tasks as ironing, peeling fruits and dish washing be performed while standing. A kitchen chair or stool which is the proper height will save its owner a great deal of energy.

President Endorses Citizens Military Training Camps

MICHIGAN'S QUOTA THIS YEAR 1,878, WAYNE COUNTY'S QUOTA BEING 478.

Calvin Coolidge, president of the United States, has endorsed the Citizens' Military Training camps, two of which will be held in Michigan this summer, one at Camp Custer and the other at Fort Brady. President Coolidge has further manifested his approval of the C. M. T. C. by enrolling both of his sons in one of the training camps. John Coolidge graduating and his brother died before he completed his training. President Coolidge says:

"These camps are an essential plan of national security. They promote obedience to law and respect for the institutions of a well ordered society. Young men are helped to physical health, mental vigor and moral excellence. Social understanding and democratic feeling are developed; love and reverence for the flag are the natural outcome of the training. Courtesy in act, sympathy in feeling, tolerance in thought, are the ideals."

Camp Custer and Fort Brady training camps will open on July 26 and close August 25, according to an announcement by Phelps Newberry, civilian aide for Michigan to Secretary of War Davis. All young men living in Michigan between the ages of 17 and 24 years, of good moral character and physically sound, are eligible for the 30 days' training, with all expenses paid by the United States government.

Mr. Newberry announces that Michigan's quota this year is 1,878, and of this number 347 young men are already volunteered to attend this summer's camp. They are all young men who have attended previous camps and are anxious to continue the training. The volunteer enrollments of these young men speaks volumes for the training camps and is considered a wonderful endorsement of the opportunity given every young man by the government. Three counties in Michigan have already enrolled their quota, according to an announcement by Mr. Newberry. These are Bay county, Baraga county and Lake county. Wayne county's quota is 478 and J. M. O'Dea, chairman of the Wayne county committee, announces that already 120 young men living in Wayne county have enrolled.

Stuart Schram, chairman of the C. M. T. C. activities of Michigan department, American Legion, has sent out a letter to all members of the American Legion in this state asking their cooperation and assistance in assisting in getting Michigan's quota for the C. M. T. C. Each post commander of the legion has been appealed to take charge of this work, in his community and get his members to cooperate.

Information regarding the camps and application blanks can be obtained by writing to Phelps Newberry, Civilian Aide for Michigan to Secretary of War Davis, 443 Bank Tower, Detroit, Mich. All medical examinations of applicants are furnished free, and no boy or his parents should pay a cent, Mr. Newberry says.

Picked Up About Town

Dad Plymouth says the old-fashioned hired man named William was the original farm relief Bill.

At last they've found something noisier than a fog horn. Minneapolis is holding soup eating contests.

"When the ladies start paying some attention to time," says Dad Plymouth, "we suppose they will begin making wrist watches for women that will keep time."

It is as hard for some people to keep a secret as it is for all of us to keep the Ten Commandments.

Dad Plymouth says he can remember when the parents who worried until their children were all in bed could at least rest peacefully from 12 o'clock on.

When it comes to making a date, a girl isn't as interested in what is in the boy's head as in what is in his father's garage.

ORATORY AND DECLAMATION.

"Three times and out" seemed to be the superstition which governed the date of the declamation and oratorical contest this year. The date had been set first for Thursday night, March 22d, but when Miss Roe returned she found so much that needed doing that Tuesday, the 21st, seemed to be a far better time. One might say no wonder something happened when a date so unlucky as the 21st was chosen. It lived up to its name, when about twelve o'clock the news came that the water main between Plymouth and Northville was broken. This absolutely killed any hope that a contest might be held that night, as the school would be closed for both the speakers and the audience. After another consultation it was decided that the contest must be held at the rather inconvenient time of 3:30 o'clock on March 21st. That is why, when the contest began, there was no exceptional rush for seats. Indeed, it was really at the other extreme, as most of the audience had empty seats on all sides of them. This should have made it very easy for the young speakers, but even then a little nervousness was apparent.

William Blake, a member of the public speaking class, acted as chairman. He opened the contest by telling why it was held and of the later sub-district, district and state contests. Then the declaimers were introduced. Lois Caldwell was the first speaker, giving "Citizenship," written by William Frey. She was especially outstanding for her directness and enunciation which caused her to be placed among the first four contestants for first honors in declamation. Toddy Baughman came next with the "Death of Garfield," by J. C. Blaine. His voice and gestures made him a very close contestant for first honors, but finally gave him second place. "A Vision of War," by R. G. Ingersoll, did win first place. It was given by Ruth Hetsler, whose gestures, expression and the emotional qualities of her speech made her the winner in the declamation contest. Madelon Shingleton concluded the declaimers with "The Minute Man," by G. W. Curtis. Her outstanding characteristics were clearness. The work done by these declaimers has been very good this year, as Plymouth has many future speakers.

At this point the program was turned over to the orators. Each student has spent much time on his oration as choice of subject and getting material with which to work are very important things in the young orator's mind. Seven people tried out this year—Franklin Atkinson, Margaret Dunning, Alice Gilbert, Joy McNabb, Leslie Rowland, Ramona Segnitz and Heloise Travis. Two main points form the basis for the placing of the orators. They are: First, the thought and content of the oration, and second, delivery. The judges were especially careful in judging delivery, as the winners of the oratorical contest will represent Plymouth at the next contest. After much deliberation the judges decided that Franklin Atkinson, with his oration on "Imperialism," had won. He received this place because of his voice, gestures and force. As the winner of second place, or honorable mention, Margaret Dunning, with her oration on "Crime," was chosen. Her delivery was outstanding by her personality, gestures, voice and force.

In both contests the decisions were very close, as there was but one point between the winners of first and second place. The judges were Mrs. Ada Murray, Rev. Walter Nichol and Sidney Strong. More interest has been shown in these contests than ever before, as about twenty students went out for declamation and seven for oratory. The speech department of Plymouth High school is certainly growing.

Now Franklin Atkinson and Ruth Hetsler have about one month in which to work in preparation for the sub-district contest, which is to be on April 12th. Plymouth, Northville, Wayne, Dearborn, Belleville and Fordson will compete for declamation honors.

Oratory does not seem to be so popular, as only Plymouth, Northville, Belleville and Fordson are in the race; for that Plymouth seems to have a good chance this year, as Franklin Atkinson won first place in the sub-district contest last year and third in the district. Ruth Hetsler has not had the experience, of course, but by the work she has done in her few months' training her chances look well. We are hoping to have at least one of our speakers in the district contest in Detroit, which comes May 1th.

JUNIOR GIRL RESERVE CONTEST IS COMPLETED.

Last week we told you of the terrible battle going on in the high school between the bears and the wildcats. This week we are glad to be able to report that the struggle is over even though it did result in the defeat of one of these great families. It is sad to relate but true: the bears, led by June Jewell, have once and for all proved their superiority over the wildcats, led by Lucille Helms. All they did was to gain a few more subscriptions to the Curtis magazines than the wildcats, but that was plenty to make their wave their color, which is green, by the way, victoriously over their opponents' heads. All in all, this struggle has proved very beneficial to the Junior Girl Reserve club, as it will receive about thirty dollars into its treasury. But even then the wildcats are in rather a sorry plight, as it is they who will have to give the party which is to be the reward of the victors.

CAPITAL PUNISHMENT ARGUMENT IS AGAIN RENEWED.

Is capital punishment against the Bible? Does a country that kills for punishment of murder lessen that crime within her own borders? Does capital punishment really punish the criminal or are there other punishments which will do the deed for the murderer and society? All of these questions played vital parts in the debate held in the public speaking class last week on the proposition, "Resolved, that capital punishment should be abolished in the United States."

The affirmative team showed that capital punishment is not stopping murder, as the average criminal is not governed by the punishment awaiting him but by the desire to kill. A man who is about to kill his neighbor because of hatred, fear or jealousy is not going to stop and think "If I kill this man I will be killed for it." He goes blindly ahead and when the heat of the moment has passed fear comes into his heart as he thinks of the electric chair on the rope. But the man is dead, so shall society take the responsibility of adding another death to this one. In the ten commandments it is stated: "Thou shalt not kill." Did this mean that a country cannot avenge itself on a person who has willfully taken another's life? The affirmative team contends it does, but that is a question for each to decide for himself. The affirmative believe that there are better and more civilized methods of punishment than hanging or the electric chair. The plan is to send the prisoners away to some out of the way spot of land or island where they will all have to work growing things. All the money gained from the sale of this produce will be used to help the murdered person's family. In the end it is believed that the criminals will be reformed by this close contact with nature and God.

The negative came back at these statements with the fact that most murder is committed because of mental disorder rather than simply a desire to kill. These believe that these practically insane people would be far better dead as they are only in the way and a detriment to society while they are alive. The negative also contend that if when a person kills he knows it will mean sure death to himself he will stop to think of the consequences which will follow. England, who enforces her laws, has less murder than the City of Chicago in the United States. Hence, of course, has capital punishment, but how many times has it been enforced in the terrible crime of the past ten years there? This is one point on which both negative and affirmative agree—that the United States should enforce her laws far more than at the present time. The negative also quoted many verses from the Bible which seemed to absolutely refute the "Thou shalt not kill" statement. Neither side could base much of its argument on the Bible, as it seems to support both sides in the verses quoted.

Capital punishment is an old question which will always cause much comment from the world. It has never been really proven which side of this topic is the better, as it has depended too much upon enforcement of the law. Most people will generally agree that a life imprisonment is worse than being killed, but how many times the life prisoners are let out when only half of their sentence is served. This is what is causing capital punishment to gain such a large following.

BOOK REPORTS.

The seventh and eighth grades have been busily preparing their book reports for the past few weeks. Although thought of with much dread by the students, these reports are very interesting. Books are carefully selected by the English teacher and placed on a list in the library. Each pupil then selects a book on which to report. After the content has been carefully read the author's life must be studied. The pupil must become familiar with his biography and with some of his other writings. When all the necessary steps are finished a minute report is either written or given orally.

The seventh grade were given this the past week and the eighth grade have theirs prepared for next week.

BIGGER AND BETTER PLATHAEN.

The sale of our Plymouth High school annual began Tuesday. Like all good things, it promises to be larger and better than ever before. None of us want to miss this life-long reminder of our happy high school days.

We have developed some astonishing artists, poets and authors, and by their willing assistance the Plathæan will be much better than previous ones. Could the grandfather Plathæan view their work he would be incredibly proud of his grandsons—the Plathæans of 1928.

KING THIRST REIGNS.

No serious faced students trudging through the halls burdened with only heavy volumes of Latin and chemistry; no patient teachers carefully explaining the complexities of English and geometry! And all—because down by the waterworks something went wrong.

Tuesday morning the news went round that the water in the drinking fountains was slowly ebbing away. After their premature dismissal, one might have expected a downcast, mournful, thirsty procession wending their way homeward. Even there they found water was at a premium. For two long days and a night thirst reigned in the homes of the Plymouth High school pupils.

The only inhabitants of our familiar school building were the few diligent seniors, who bravely faced all the privations of a desert to practice industriously for their play which holds fast to the rule, "The show must go on."

CITIZENS' CLUB.

The officers for the past week in this new English club were elected as follows:

Marie Chapman, president; Mary Urban, secretary; Helen Compton, program chairman. The officers change every week, so that by the end of the year all members will have had the opportunity to prove his ability as an executive.

The program chairman arranged topics for reports to be given by individual members of the club at various intervals during the week. The following reports were given: Gladys Zietseh—Story of Copper. Elizabeth Simich—Story of Wheat. Russell Eklaf—Story of Barley. Frank Beckwith—Story of Rye. Virginia Woodworth—Story of Oats. Henry Ronger—Story of Oil. Janet Eklaf—Story of Corn. Merle Welker—Story of Cotton. Donald Moore—Story of Wood. Mary Urban—Story of Tobacco. Frank Learned—Story of Iron. Albin Krimman—Story of Coal. Marie Chapman—Story of Gold. Mary Jane Hamilton—Story of Silver.

Georgia Britcher—Story of Tea. Charles Woodward—Story of Coffee.

EDWARD RENT, THE MAGICIAN.

Recently, in a city in Kansas, Reno, the magician who will appear here on the Lagoon course Thursday, March 22d at seven o'clock in the high school auditorium, performed the electric light globe trick a number of times. In fact, nearly every night for a week's engagement.

In this trick a handkerchief is borrowed from a lady and put into a pistol, which in turn is fired at an electric light globe. The audience can see the handkerchief returned. The pleasant feature of the trick is that while the globe may be taken from the footlights or some other position where it can be seen plainly, still the globe is not damaged in the least.

Reno was surprised at the close of the engagement to receive a bill for six broken light globes. He took the whole matter in a pleasant spirit and paid the bill rather than enlighten the mind of the manager, who truly was angry and believed that Reno actually did the impossible.

Single admissions for Friday will be 20 cents.

THE AGGIE CLUB BANQUET

Soon after 6:30 last Friday evening, as banquets do not start on time, about a hundred and three people, including boys and girls, mothers and fathers, Kivans and friends sat down to a supper consisting of roast first ham, brown gravy, mashed potatoes, omelette, corn, fruit salad, pickles, buttered rolls, apple pie and ice cream.

Anyone sitting near the speakers' table during the supper could have heard expressions such as: "Gosh, I'm scared; my knees are shaking." And many similar sayings. But when they were speaking or taking part after the toastmaster, Irone Krauter, president of the Aggie Club, had cleverly introduced each one you would never have known that such remarks as before mentioned had been said.

The first speaker was Russell Partridge, an alumnus of the Aggie Club and a recent graduate of the Michigan State College. Mr. Partridge spoke about the activities of the Aggie Club in the past. Next Harold Hubert and Elmore Carney spoke a number of popular songs which were enjoyed by everyone. Miss Elizabeth Spicer then told of the activities of the present Aggie Club, and how it was going to sponsor club work in the rural schools. Miss Lois Corbett, in her pleasing manner, told of how the club would have to go about to sponsor the club work. A piano solo, which was enjoyed, was rendered by Miss Heloise Travis.

Then came the main speaker, Mr. Lamorette, Genesee county boys' and girls' club leader and secretary of the Y. M. C. A. there. He told about the "Permanent Results of Club Work." He came right to the point in his speech, and said that club work in rural communities was giving the boys and girls the economic, social and religious standings that they needed. He said that what we are we get from experience or what we do.

He made the people see the splendid work and cooperation Mr. Holcomb, the "Ag" teacher in P. H. S. was giving to agricultural advancement. In all, his speech was well enjoyed by all.

This concluded the program, and it can be said that the banquet was a decided success.

STARKWEATHER SCHOOL.

In Mrs. Moles' room the pupils made booklets about the Starkweather school. A huge picture of a tooth was made and all those having perfect teeth have their names on it.

The 2A are studying how people dress in the different parts of the world, from the Eskimos to the Africans and the Chinese to us.

Miss Stader's 2A and B pupils have nearly finished their kite contest. Each row is represented on the black row to get their kite colored first while it is colored more, according to the row's progress in good behavior. The row to get their kite colored first wins. The pupils in the 2A and B are working for their gold star buttons in penmanship.

Nearly every room in the school is being dressed up in Easter legs, such as bunnies, eggs, ducks and flowers.

Helen Reber is the spelling champion of the 6th grade in the Starkweather school. She won on the word cellar.

Mrs. Lee's sixth grade has organized a citizenship club, with the following officers: President, Rosemary West; vice-president, Ruth Adams; secretary, Joan Cassidy; and treasurer, Wilbur Kincaid.

Every Monday morning for the opening exercises each pupil responds with a current event.

CENTRAL SCHOOL.

Harold Burley is the spelling champion of the 6th grade. Hurrah for Harold!

Clara Cummings entered the 6B last Monday morning.

Alvin Wagenschutz, who is ill, has been getting a lot of correspondence lately, for the whole room has written letters to him.

Every room has a spelling champion. Geraldine Vesley is the 5th grade champion. The 5th grade has been studying the "Harp of the Winds," by Homer Martin, for picture study.

In Miss Hodges' room Margaret Grogman, Ruth Reddeman, Jane Barley, Francis Dungan, Betty Mastick, Dorothy O'Grady, Mike Spitz and Warren Todd have been neither absent nor tardy this semester.

In the 6A Marvin Partridge and Margaret Buzzard were elected spelling champions for Miss Finner's room. Ruth Bieby has returned to Miss Finner's room after being absent two weeks. The pupils are glad to have her back. Also Ellen Mulry is back in school after being absent on account of whooping cough.

THE SPELLING CONTEST

Each year the Detroit News puts on a spelling contest for every public and parochial school in Detroit and vicinity. This causes much enthusiasm and interest among the pupils.

The first contest is for the grade championship, the reward being a Standard College Dictionary. The second contest is for the school championship; the reward this time is a Frank & Wagnall's International Atlas. Both of these prizes are worth working for.

Then comes the district contest, and last of all the final one at the Michigan State Fair Grounds. The prize here is a trip to Washington and a chance to enter the national spelling bee.

As in previous years, the grades five and six of Plymouth schools, entered the contest.

Last Friday afternoon, the grade bees were held. In the sixth grade in the Starkweather school, Helen Bieby became champion. She defeated Edwin Wignard, Ruth Eklaf, Catherine Compton, Jane Lofth, Rosemary West, Wendell Martin, Doris Lockwood, Joan Cassidy and Billy Swadling. In the fifth grade of this school a boy was the winner, Kenneth Davis. Donna Bridger, Grace Highfield, Elaine Shingleton, Gertrude Schryver, Margaret Grandle, Anna May Jones, Richard Hahn, George Curtis and Edward Elliott composed the fifth grade team.

In the sixth grade of Central school, Harold Burley was the winner, defeating Jean Joffie, Eileen Archer, June Nash, Alexander Konarski, Arlene Tye, Catherine Dunn, Margaret McGree, Sylvia Wank and Lucile Whelden. The fifth grade spelling team was: Geraldine Vesley, Esther Bieby, Blanch Shutz, Romaine Lee, Bernard Wank, Rhea Rathburn, Vicar Towle, Thelma Lunsford, Florence Gray and Alexandra Konarski. The winner was Thelma Lunsford.

These winners will try out for the school championship to be held some time in the near future.

The seventh grade champion is Kenneth Greer, winning the honor by correctly spelling the word "carver." The other members of the team were: Margaret Elmer, Richard Gordon, Helen Holden, Rose Albrecht, Irene Humphries, Melvin Blunk, Carroll Lee.

The eighth grade champion is Gladys Zietseh, and the rest of the team are: Marjorie Clay, Roberta Chappel, Donald Moore, Robert Haidley, John Dungan, Ella Tibble, Marie Beebe, Roulah Wagenschutz, Mary Albrecht.

THE THEATRE

"OPEN RANGE"

In any line of commercial endeavor there is one individual or one company who by the excellence of its product establishes a standard for comparison. Which is simply by way of saying that the author-producer combination of Zane Grey and Paramount is the standard by which Western screen entertainment is measured.

"Open Range," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Sunday and Monday, March 25 and 26, is the latest production to prove the supremacy of the Zane Grey stories as scenario material. As adapted by John Stone and J. Walter Ruben, this new picture of romance and adventure in the menacing dangers of the old west "Open Range" is a worthy successor to the long series which includes "Wanderer of the Wasteland," "The Vanishing American," "Forsaken River," "Drums of the Desert," and many others. Clifford Smith has directed in a vigorous style in keeping with the virility of the story.

Briefly, it recounts the adventure in love of one Tex Smith, a cowboy who was good and knew it. He sees a picture of Lucy Blake, falls in love with the subject and determines to win her as his wife. But it proves a harder task than he imagines, for it leads him into intrigue, danger and disgrace. With an almost overwhelming accusation of cattle-rustling lodged against him, he is able to square himself only by saving the girl's village from an Indian attack by stampeding a cattle herd into it.

It is the most thrilling climax ever seen in a Western picture by this writer.

The cast is interesting, not only because of admirable performances, but because it offers new faces for Zane Grey fans. Lane Chandler, newest of the screen "discoveries," is the handsome, upstanding hero. Betty Bronson, the "Peter Pan" girl, is the heroine in this, her first Western. And Fred Kohler, known as the "wolf of the screen" plays a half-breed with convincing menace.

"SAILORS' WIVES"

If sailors have sweethearts in every port, it is only logical to assume that sailors' wives look elsewhere for diversion while their seagoing husbands are away from home.

Such is the sentiment expressed by one of the characters of the picture which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre, Tuesday and Wednesday, March 27 and 28, and from it is taken the title, "Sailors' Wives," First National's pictorialization of the Warner Fabian novel of the same name.

Those responsible for the production of this story have woven from the novel an intensely dramatic and gripping tale of a familiar level of American society, dealing with a highly-strung and sensitive girl doomed to certain bitter disappointments because of an unescapable fate and who determines to make the most of life while she may.

A new and intriguing Mary Astor, easily different from her customary screen personality, is seen in the leading feminine role, and many of this pretty actress' admirers will contend it is her outstanding performance.

Lloyd Hughes, in the masculine lead, has opportunities for a performance of highly dramatic quality, and draws a completely convincing and natural characterization. The large supporting cast contributes several outstanding performances, including those by Earle Foxe, Olive Tell, Gayne Whitman and others.

Much credit for the dramatic power of the production should go to Joseph Henbury, the director, who displays great sympathetic feeling and an ability to imbue his players with understanding and emotional power.

Henry Robert produced "Sailors' Wives" for First National Pictures. Boss Meredyth adapted the story to the screen.

"HONEYMOON EXPRESS"

Florence Vidor, whose patriotic countenance and mannerisms have won her popularity the world over, is presented in a new and distinctive role on the screen at the Penniman Allen theatre, where her newest Paramount starring vehicle, "Honeymoon Hate," will be shown Thursday and Friday, March 29 and 30.

As the impetuous and fiery Gail Grant, daughter of American wealth, who is used to getting what she wants, Miss Vidor appears to splendid advantage and displays a peppery aggressiveness that is refreshing.

"Honeymoon Hate" has been adapted from Alice M. Williamson's story of the same name, which appeared recently in a national magazine. Luther Reed directed, and did an excellent job of it.

"Honeymoon Hate" has Venice for its locale; Venice with its strumming guitars, soothing waters and atmosphere of romantic bliss. Most of the story occurs in the Hotel Danieli, and right from the start one gets action. You are introduced to the dashing Gail Grant as a fellow companion on a gondola, and things start happening the moment she arrives at the hotel, when she finds she hasn't been given the Imperial suite.

The plot concerns her adventures in Venice and her meeting with a certain Prince Bantariak. Moonlight and environment bring about a marriage of the two and each tries to tame the other. The girl needs taming the most and the prince accomplishes this most cleverly.

The cast is excellent. Miss Vidor is just as beautiful and charming as ever. Tullio Carmanati makes a fine prince and William Austin steals many a scene with his personation of the eccentric Banning-Green, rival for her hand. Corliss Palmer and Shirley Dorman score as Mrs. Fremont Gage No. 1 and No. 11, respectively. Eddie Ellsler displays a keen sense of comedy as Miss Molesey, Miss Vidor's companion. The balance of the cast is equally as strong.

"A TEXAS STEER"

The comedy riot of the season, "A Texas Steer," with Will Rogers, America's cowboy-humorist and Congress-man-at-large, and it fully justified the notices acclaiming it the outstanding comedy of the season.

Adding to the humorous situations in the famous old Charles Hoyt stage success, are Will Rogers' own jokes, quite as funny as they are cracked up to be. The ex-Mayor of Beverly is surrounded by an all-star cast.

"A Texas Steer," produced by Sam E. Bork for First National Pictures, and directed by Richard Wallace who made "McFadden's Flats," has Will Rogers in the role of a Texas cattleman elected to Congress against his wishes through the scheming of a socially-ambitious wife and daughter.

Exteriors were actually taken in Washington, and the whole production, authentic in every detail, represents the big effort of First National Pictures to make a comedy special to make the millions of theatregoers roar with laughter. The picture gives the inimitable Will the opportunity to air his pet aversion—Congress!

Louise Fazenda has the role of "Ma" Brander, the wife. Ann Rork is the charming daughter, Bossey, and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., is in the role of the dulle sweetheart. Around Bossey and the dulle a sweet and interesting romance is woven.

Sam Hardy, of musical comedy fame, has the part of Brassy Gail, the lobbyist; George Marion, Sr., who created the role of Fishlock, "minister to Dahomey" in the stage success, has the same part in the screen version, and Mack Swain, William Orland and Lucien Littlefield are the picturesque Texas politicians. And Jamison has the part of Othello, the servant in Washington, who tries to "high hat" the "Minister to Dahomey," and Arthur Hoyt is the comic in the part of "Ma" Brander's social secretary.

You'll see "A Texas Steer" at the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, March 31. You'll roar with laughter. There's only one Will Rogers. Nobody can afford to miss him. You can't help but enjoy the splendid comedy.

No Gargle

No longer is it necessary to gargle or to choke with nasty tasting patent medicines or gargles to relieve sore throat. One swallow of a famous physician's prescription called Thoxine is guaranteed to relieve within 15 minutes. It goes direct to the cause; is far superior to gargles.

Thoxine does not contain iron, chloroform or dope. It is pleasant tasting; is harmless and safe for the whole family. Sold under money back guarantee of quick relief, 35c., 60c. and $1.00. Sold by Dodge Drug Co. and all good drug stores.

Every Organ in the Body is Vital to You

Every organ in our bodies is vital to our welfare and continued health.

These organs are kept healthy and functioning as a result of the active, intelligent energy sent out from the brain.

This nerve force is transmitted to the organs of the body by the spinal nerves. To protect these nerves and as support to the body we have a spinal column.

The spinal column is made up of separate, movable bones. If one of these bones becomes out of place pressure results on the nerve.

The Chiropractor relieves this pressure by adjusting the vertebra that is out of place.

AROUND ABOUT US

There is going to be a bus station in New Hudson, at the Travel Inn, for the buses running between Detroit and Lansing.

Oliver Dix, proprietor of Lakeland Fur Exchange, south of Salem, says the past winter has not been a good one for fur dealers.

A delegation of approximately 300 citizens of Brighton, was in Lansing on March 12th, to meet the governor on the matter of re-routing U. S. 23.

Will Ely of Northville, has been nominated by the Republicans of that township for the office of supervisor. Mr. Ely is well known in Plymouth.

Charles Newman of Pleasant Valley, recently sold five Duroc-Jersey pigs at Milford, that were six months old and averaged 211 pounds apiece, dressed.

Construction is to begin Monday on a new $15,000 store building at the corner of Grand River and Seven Mile roads by Frank Elwel, Redford contractor.

Plans have about been completed for the erection of the new steel and concrete grandstand at the Northville fair grounds. The new structure will seat 3,100 people.

The Redford branch of the Detroit Public Library has been receiving contributions of books and magazines this week, for the American Merchant Marine, for the benefit of lighthouse keepers, sailors and seamen.

Thomas Roper, well known centurion of this vicinity, who has passed the hundred-year mark by nearly five months, died Wednesday morning at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Harriet Van Dyke, in Southfield township.—Redford Record.

After 45 years' separation, two friends of schoolboy days met again in Northville recently. The men were Charles Wedow of Walled Lake and Clarence Cornwell, who were schoolmates in the old Bassett School district.—Farmington Enterprise.

A huge bouquet of 100 red carnations marked the one-hundredth birthday of Farmington's first centenarian on Tuesday of last week. So far as is known, Mrs. Beulah Gibson Noble, of Switzer road, is the first resident of that section to attain 100 years of age.

Dr. M. S. Pittman, of the faculty of the Ypsilanti State Normal college, was elected president of the Michigan rural education society at the meeting held at Western State Teachers' college last Friday. Dr. Pittman will succeed Dr. Ernest Burnham, of Western State.

A plan is under consideration for Catholic services at Walled Lake this summer, in charge of Rev. Joseph Schuler of Northville. Many of the summer colonists are Catholics and they desire to have a temporary place to worship for the summer months.—Milford Times.

Extension of both street car and bus service in the Redford area within the immediate future for the accommodation of residents in the Grand Lawn cemetery district and Brightmoor, was announced this week by Del Smith, general manager of the Detroit Street Railways.

According to the State Highway Commission, U. S. 16, known as Grand River road and connecting the state metropolis with the capital city, is going to be made safer for motorists. Several traffic obstacles are to be removed and the campaign is scheduled to begin on the first of next month.—Brighton Argus.

Howell is to have a modern greenhouse just east of the city limits. The Winkhouse Floral Co. has erected a complete brick and stone power house 30x50, with a heating unit and ple to care for all houses now and more units can be added when expansion takes place. The main greenhouse is 37x200 feet in size.

On Saturday evening, March 10th, at 10 o'clock, William M. Graves of Plymouth, brought his bride, Mildred Moore, also of Plymouth, to be united in marriage at the Methodist Episcopal parsonage by Rev. William Richards. The beautiful ring service was used, the ceremony being witnessed by Eudora Birch and Ralph Bovee, friends of the bridal pair.—Northville Record.

Mrs. Irving Ulrich and son have returned from California, where they have been spending the winter. Mrs. Ulrich spent most of her time down in the Imperial Valley at El Centro, where her brother has a ranch. The Imperial Valley is without question the most fertile garden spot of the world, and practically all of the winter vegetables that come to the east during the winter are raised in this valley.—Northville Record.

Birmingham neighbors of Harry Brooks, who lost his life three weeks ago when his plane plunged into the Atlantic off the coast of Florida, are planning to finance a $25,000 memorial monument for him. J. B. Wood is chairman of the committee, which is composed of citizens of Southfield township: Clyde Gass, secretary, and George Bingham, treasurer. The finance committee is Mr. Bingham, Stuart Reid, Joseph Doe, Elmer Klock, William Shepherd and Daniel E. Hughes. It is expected the memorial will be erected on a site belonging to Southfield township at the corner of Burx road and Ten and One-half-Mile road.

Today's Reflections

We've also noticed that quite often the Plymouth girl who has said all along that she wouldn't marry the best man on earth doesn't.

We read in an exchange that a man can make an easy living out of chickens. And some chickens can do even better out of a man.

An old-timer is a fellow who can remember at the time the murderer is brought to trial just when the murder was committed.

Our advice to the Plymouth man who wants to do something big and clean before he dies is to wash an elephant.

Women are never satisfied. Even a grass widow can become green with envy.

This is the day and age when an outlaw robs you of money while an in-law takes it on a promise to pay it back.

The old-fashioned Plymouth girl who used to exercise to improve her complexion now has a daughter who is afraid to sneeze for fear she will blow it off.

These doctors who advocate walking for health seems to forget that walking has grown to be pretty unhealthy since the auto came.

A Kansas City man says one good way to prevent submarine disasters would be never to let one go to sea without a lot of politicians on board.

The Plymouth husband with a wife addicted to making it hot for him should be careful not to wear a celluloid collar.

When older Plymouth residents did their courting they saved a little money because there was no two-cent to see what they will take to get food the old hay-burners.

MEN MADE OF METAL. THE GENEROSITY OF NATURE. PLANT IDLE? CERTAINLY. A GOOD ITALIAN LAW.

R. J. Wensley, inventor of a mechanical man that unveiled a statue of George Washington, believes that men made of metal will liberate us from industrial slavery, as Washington liberated us from European tyranny.

Workers need not fear that metallic "robots" will ruin the labor market. Long ago mechanical men and women made their appearance in machinery of all kinds, driven by steam and electricity. One machine does the knitting for ten thousand women, one locomotive pulls the load of a thousand stages coaches, replacing 1,000 drivers.

The perfected machine will not be an imitation man standing upright on two legs. That position man achieved to look out over high grass for enemies and prey, in the beginning, and to look up at the stars later. Mechanical men can be only an interesting curiosity, not an industrial success. Science improves on nature and does not imitate it; the ultimate flying machine without bird wings or methods will prove that.

From a big orange tree in Southern California the Riverside Chamber of Commerce sends 126 oranges to as many newspaper editors. The tree is one of two imported from Brazil by the United States Department of Agriculture. Those two trees are the father and mother of all the "Washington navel trees" that make up great groves in Southern California.

Similarly, a few cherry trees brought by Lucullus from his wars in Asia, are the ancestors of millions of cherry trees that small American boys climb every year. Such are the wealth and generosity of Nature.

Mr. Rogers at Muscle Shoals, inspects with his mournful cowboy eye a $150,000,000 plant built by the people to produce nitrogen to supply cheap fertilizer for farmers, and explosives in case of war.

Mr. Rogers remarks that such a plant lying idle is enlightening. It means that the Government isn't quite ready to deliver the plant over to the power trust.

And until the power trust gets it, that trust won't let anybody else use the Muscle Shoals plant.

Thanks to Mussolini's common sense, a new law compels merchants in Italy to mark prices plainly and stick to the prices. That will increase foreign buying, especially by Americans, who do not like to pay double or devote half an hour to bargaining over a trifle.

Merchants in Italy won't like it, but their business and prosperity will increase.

Machinery will be devised eventually to do the so-called back breaking farm work that proud United States citizens, accustomed to their automobiles, no longer will do.

But nothing should be done too suddenly, unless the Government is willing to precipitate hard times over a wide area.

Newspapers tell of a baby "dead ten times." Ten times in its short five weeks of life the baby's heart stopped beating in a struggle against pneumonia. Ten times it was revived and it probably will live. The doctors did wonders.

There is just a line about the mother. Still weak, following the baby's birth, she gave her blood in transfusion to save her baby's life. Her name is Mrs. G. E. Olmstead, and what she did ten million mothers would do, gladly.

Sam: "Down where I come from we feed our hens ice, otherwise they'd lay hard-boiled eggs."

Bo: "Why man, that ain't nothing. Out in our country it's so dry you have to pin the postage stamps on the letters to keep them from falling off."

You never can tell. Maybe the Plymouth woman who persists in back-seat driving is only trying to get even with her husband for turning up his nose at her cooking.

Expect Good Price

For Michigan Beef

SURVEY SHOWS PAST PRICE
CYCLES INDICATE GOOD
MARKET FOR 1928.

A continuation of relatively high prices for beef cattle throughout 1928 is expected by members of the economics department at Michigan State college.

A survey of the prices of beef in comparison with the prices of other commodities shows that in the past the prices of beef have moved in cycles and that these cycles average fifteen years of time between successive periods of high prices.

The last previous period of high prices reached its maximum in 1915. Studies made by the United States department of agriculture show that the number of beef cattle on farms is exceptionally low at the present time.

This scarcity of cattle arouses brisk bidding by feeders for stocker cattle. The economics department at the college points out that even when prices for beef are high it is possible for the feeder to lose money if he pays a speculative price for his feeder steers.

The increasing number of dairy cattle will permit the marketing of a growing number of unproductive cows, and these animals compete on the market with the lower grades of beef animals. The low price of pork is also a contributing factor in holding down the consumption of beef.

ELECTION NOTICE

A primary nominating election will be held in both precincts of Plymouth township on Monday, April 2, 1928, to provide for the expression by the qualified voters of the several political parties of their choice for president of the United States, as prescribed by Act No. 351 Public Acts of 1925.

A special election will be held Monday, April 2, 1928, to submit to a vote of the electors of the county of Wayne, the question of contracting an indebtedness in the sum of $500,000.00 and issuing bonds therefor, the proceeds of said bond issue to be used for the construction of a hospital unit at the Eloise Hospital and infirmary.

All township officers will be elected at this time.

Also a proposition to light all paved roads in Plymouth township, and those parts of North Territorial and Moreland roads in Plymouth township, will be submitted to the voters.

METHODIST NOTES

"For the Son of man is come to save that which was lost."

We had a delightful time at the church training night last week. It is just a big family supper at 6:15, and the song service led by Everett Jolliffe is a goodly thing to take part in. The classes are most interesting. Taken all together it is a very profitable way to spend two hours on Wednesday night.

The Junior Missionary boys and girls will meet next Wednesday directly after school. There will be an interesting and profitable program, and it is hoped they will all be present.

We are to have a big home talent entertainment soon, thanks to Mrs. Hillman's circle of the L. A. S., who have completed arrangements with the John B. Rogers Producing Co. for the singing of "All Aboard," a snappy musical comedy of merit. This is one of the latest and best of the firm's offerings, and will be seen here exactly as it was shown in New York, with special scenery, costumes, etc. It gives promise of being the best show of its kind ever shown in Plymouth. More particulars later.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES

The Ready Service Class held a fine meeting at Mrs. Freyman's home on Tuesday. Miss Bertha Warner gave the class a beautifully made quilt top. The class decided to purchase material for a back, and the quilting will probably be done at the next meeting. A sewing committee, of which Mrs. Freyman, Mrs. Potter and Mrs. Hordorff are the members, has interesting plans in preparation for the bazaar next autumn.

Herald Hamill's class of boys has enjoyed an active basketball season. Recently they challenged the Men's Class to a game, and the two teams met on Tuesday night. Mettetal, Ashton, Stewart, Miller, Partridge and Gordon represented the men, while Randall, Williams, Partridge, Rocker, Hordorff and Segnitz played for the boys. The game was a good one full of fun and action. The sides proved to be evenly matched, the decision being in doubt till the last minute of play. Final score—Boys, 15; men, 11.

Mrs. Shaw's class will meet at the home of Mrs. Harvey Segnitz, Main street, on Tuesday evening, March 27. Pot-luck supper at 6:30 p. m., after which the evening will be spent in study and social entertainment.

The sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed the first Sunday of April. All church members should plan to be present.

BAPTIST NOTES

R. L. Klenke will preach at the Baptist church Sunday morning. He is well known in Plymouth, and we trust many shall be present Sunday morning to hear him.

The spring bazaar will be held Thursday, March 29th.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Lenten devotions are held every Wednesday and Friday nights at 8:00 o'clock. A very good attendance has been present to date, and it is hoped that all will attend these devotions the last two weeks. A week from Sunday is Palm Sunday. The palms will be blessed before the high mass.

The boys and men, enthusiastic over baseball, are giving a card party in the auditorium next Thursday night for the benefit of the ball team, so as to equip the players this season. The admission is 50 cents a person, and a social invitation is extended to all. Thomas Lavandoski will be in charge of the ball team this year. All indications point to a good ball team and Nethem will again bring honor to itself as it did last year.

The St. Patrick's dance was well patronized and all enjoyed themselves to the fun, frolic and music of Jean Goldkette's orchestra. A very pleasant crowd was in the auditorium, and each enjoyed himself as a true Irishman.

Holy Sepulchre cemetery, situated in the northwestern part of the city, Franklin and Ten Mile roads, is now open and lots are being sold to the public. The cemetery promises to be one of the most beautiful resting places in the country. Messrs. John Van Boun and J. Meredith have been delegated by headquarters to canvass this section in the interest of the cemetery.

Mabel Van Boun has returned to her home from St. Joseph Mercy hospital and is rapidly recovering from her operation. Mrs. Hy Lehman is still numbered amongst the sick but is slowly on the gain.

Do not forget yourself denial banks. All must be filled and returned the Sunday after Easter.

Next Sunday is the children's communion Sunday. Send your children to catechism instruction on Saturday. The Nethem club will meet Monday night in the Mahogany room.

HANFORD SCHOOL.

The Hanford School held its annual P. T. A. meeting Monday night. A pot-luck supper was served, and the election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. Bori Smart, president; Miss Horton, vice-president; Mrs. Josephine Waldecker, secretary, and E. W. Moyer, treasurer. The meeting recommended that the school board purchase another piece of playground equipment for the school.

In the absence of their speaker, Mrs. Sharpe, Miss Horton gave a demonstration in arithmetic in the third and fifth grades, which was enjoyed by all. She then called for an old fashioned spelling bee. Mrs. Mamie McCumphy and L. A. Wisley were the champion spellers.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Wilkie of Cherry Hill entertained the Beck road pedro club Wednesday night. Honors were awarded to Mrs. Violet Hank and Lawrence Miller, while Nina Fisher and Walter Miller were consoling. Brick ice cream and angel food cake were served for refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Easton returned home from Florida, Thursday of last week.
