

GOVERNOR GREEN VISITS PLYMOUTH

MANY COUNTY CANDIDATES ACCOMPANIED THE GOVERNOR ON HIS SWING AROUND THE COUNTY ON WEDNESDAY.

Governor Fred W. Green, accompanied by the Wayne County Republican candidates visited Plymouth Wednesday noon on a tour of the County. About fifty automobiles were in the caravan when it reached Plymouth on the swing around the county. Each one of the candidates for county office were introduced and several of them spoke briefly.

George A. Smith, superintendent of the Plymouth schools, introduced Governor Green. The Governor paid our townsmen, Mr. Smith, a fine tribute regarding his services as a member of the board of control of the state school at Coldwater, and the interest that he has for the welfare of state charges in that institution. The speaker briefly touched upon the work of state affairs that had been accomplished during the past two years.

Owing to the short time in which to advertise the rally, there was not as large an attendance as there would have been.

The candidates left here about two o'clock for Bethville, the next stop in the itinerary.

De-Ho-Co Team Feted At Banquet

THE BIG BANQUET AND PROGRAM WAS HELD AT THE FORT SHELBY HOTEL LAST SATURDAY EVENING.

On Saturday, October 27th, members of the De-Ho-Co baseball team were the guests of honor at a banquet held in the Fort Shelby Hotel, Detroit, and given by the Inter-County League in commemoration of their winning the league championship.

The Hon. Jos. A. Moynihan, Circuit Judge, presided as toastmaster and the speakers of the evening were Elton R. Eaton, editor of the Northville Record; Hon. Guy A. Miller, Circuit Judge; E. A. Bartz, President of Holly Board of Commerce; Thomas F. O'Mara, President of Inter-County League; Adolph Koenig, Village Manager of Plymouth; and Charles Wilson, Assistant Prosecutor of Pontiac.

On behalf of Governor Fred Green, Judge Moynihan presented the Governor Green cup, emblematic of the championship of Holly County and Captain Denniston, Superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, as manager of the De-Ho-Co team, made the speech of acceptance. Captain Denniston also made the presentation to each member of the De-Ho-Co team of a check representing their share of the treasury surplus.

The evening was an enjoyable one for the hundred or more guests who attended, and in addition to the excellent meal, each guest was given a souvenir menu and program, with their name printed in gold letters. In the lower, right hand corner, a souvenir booklet containing a story of the De-Ho-Co Park and the history of the De-Ho-Co players was also given each guest. The story of De-Ho-Co Park is quite interesting and the following is a verbatim quotation from the booklet:

"The De-Ho-Co Baseball team was organized in 1920. At that time among the players were Sam Farris, 'H' Long, A. P. Davis, Ed. Colvin, Harry Hunter, J. E. Denniston, Emmet Kincaid, A. B. Thompson, and Steve Wall.

"There was a building on the left field foul line and home plate was located there. The season of 1922 found the diamond laid out in its present location with a grandstand which held 50 people. The ground south of first base sunk away rapidly until it became a valley. The ground which is now left and center field was on top of a ridge and was about twelve feet higher than second base is now. The year of 1923 saw some of the hill removed and the low ground back of first base filled to some extent and the grandstand enlarged. In 1924 still more improvements with the addition of dugouts for players. This continued until 1926. That fall the grandstand was torn down and the present one built, with shower baths and lockers in the club rooms where the players of both teams can change clothes and have a shower bath after the game. The dugouts have running water in each so that players have drinking water during the game. The grandstand has one thousand seats, all reserved and the bleachers will take care of five hundred more."

"The Inter-County League was organized over by Thomas F. O'Mara, President; Edward Denniston, Vice-President; and Violet E. Johnston, Secretary-Treasurer; and was comprised of the following teams: Lake Orion, Rochester, Pontiac, Holly, De-Ho-Co, Saffridge Field, West Point, and Detroit Municipal Employees.

Both President O'Mara and Vice-President Denniston expressed themselves as well satisfied with the season's play and with the exception of a few weak teams, all games were bitterly contested. Both officials expressed the intention of either strengthening these weak teams or replacing them with stronger teams and gave an assurance that even more closely contested games will be the order next season.

Bazzani; delicious candy at the candy booth; surprises and fun at the fish pond, under the direction of Mr. and Mrs. Hook; all you can eat for lunch at the Canary cafe, under the leadership of Mr. Bird, and last, but not least, your fortune told by Mme. Gouletta and her three charming daughters. Come for an evening of fun and incidentally add to the building fund.

So Say We All

By Albert T. Reid

An Envious Record Of Faithfulness And Efficiency

The re-election of Thomas F. Farrell to the important office of county clerk term after term—and if memory holds, always with increased majorities—for the past 20 years, is without parallel anywhere in the United States and reflects great credit on the voters of Wayne county for their sagacity in appreciating and rewarding faithfulness and efficiency in a public servant.

THOMAS F. FARRELL

The county clerk's office is the safety deposit vault of the vital records, facts and statistics that insure the legality of all that enters into the industrial, business, professional and social life of the great city of Detroit and Wayne county, and while desired and necessary information (and the daily applications run into the hundreds) might have been "somewhere" prior to Mr. Farrell's incumbency, to locate the same made the detection of the needle in the proverbial haystack a snap compared with the dreary, laborious—and oftentimes futile—attempts on the part of attorneys, officials and private citizens when such business brought them to the only available source—the county clerk's office.

To correct this irritating—let us say dangerous—condition, Mr. Farrell completely revolutionized the careless, antiquated systems he found in vogue when he took over the reins, and today—as voluntarily attested by all the newspapers of Detroit, the Detroit Citizens' League, the bench and bar, United States officials, abstract and title firms, and the leading business and professional firms—the Wayne county clerk's office is a model of accurate filing—instantly and conveniently available—from the beginning of the county's history right up to the last tick of the clock. Add further—something that every man, woman and child in Wayne county seems to know or sense—no information, no matter how seemingly small or unimportant it might appear—but one is assured it will be "looked up" instantly and provided with accuracy and courtesy.

No matter what a voter's preference may be for the new man at the White House in Washington, look for Thomas F. Farrell's name on the Republican county ticket, and put an X there. We cannot by any manner of means afford to lose the continued services of an official that has always given such high grade, conscientious and efficient service.

LARGE REGISTRATION OF VOTERS THIS YEAR

A TOTAL OF 2,362 HAVE REGISTERED IN PLYMOUTH TOWNSHIP.

Miss Lina Duffee, township clerk, reports a total registration in Plymouth township of 2,362 voters. This is by far the largest number of registrations ever recorded in the township. Precinct Number 1, has a total registration of 1,568 while precinct Number 2 has a total of 814. Never before have people taken such a keen interest in a presidential election as they have this year and there is little doubt that the largest vote ever recorded in Plymouth township will be cast next Tuesday, November 6th.

To facilitate the counting of the ballots, the election commission of Wayne County have given permission to the township board to procure the services of two extra clerks to assist the election board in tallying the votes.

Five Boy Scouts were in the other car on their way to the football game in Ann Arbor, and they were considerably cut up with flying glass. The injured were given surgical attention at the office of Dr. A. E. Patterson.

Annual Football Game At Northville

PLYMOUTH AND NORTHVILLE HIGH WILL MEET ON GRID-IRON AT NORTHVILLE TODAY.

Plymouth High school goes to Northville Friday afternoon for their annual game with Northville High school. Both schools have strong teams this season and the game promises to be well contested and full of thrills. It will be a fine opportunity for Plymouth people outside the school to join the group and enjoy the thrills that will come to you when the two schools meet.

If you have extra room in your car you can take two or three high school students the High School will be glad to supply the passengers.

This is the one game that you have been waiting for so don't lose the opportunity to have the fun which you always enjoy on this occasion.

Remember to be at the fair ground at Northville at 2:30 today, Friday.

The entrance to the alley leading from South Harvey street to the rear of the theatre and stores on Penniman avenue has been paved to a distance of 50 feet from Harvey street and a flat top catch basin installed to provide drainage. This improvement eliminates a muddy and springy condition of this part of the alley that has caused much trouble and which could not be remedied in any way except by paving.

Plans, specifications and estimates have been accepted by the commission for the construction of a system of storm sewers in South Harvey street and adjacent area, from Smith Wing street to the creek. Bids have been advertised for, and will be opened Monday evening for the construction of the sewers.

The attention of the public is called to the difficulty being encountered by the village, when the fire siren is sounded, in securing the proper information as to the location of fires with promptness, particularly during the evening or early morning hours, due to the great number of persons calling the central office for the same information, when the alarm sounds. At a recent fire a delay of three minutes was experienced by the manager in securing information as to the location of the fire, due to the great number of calls being handled at the phone office. It is easy to see where a little consideration of this matter by the public at large may prove very effective in improving fire protection service in the village.

Storm drain and paving assessment notices have been mailed out during the past week. Though these assessments are due November 1st, they are payable at any time during November without interest or penalty.

Famous Impersonator Gives First Number

The first number on the entertainment course which the junior class is sponsoring was given Monday evening, October 22. For more than an hour and a half Mr. Ratto, famous impersonator, swayed the large audience from laughter, to gaiety, to seriousness as he presented his character in makeup. He pointed in full view of his audience, telling an appropriate story the while. Pennington finished, he turned to the table mirror, adjusted his wig, and faced about to surprise his audience with the accuracy of a character distinct in appearance, speech and action, and with a personality all his own.

The second number on the entertainment course will be the junior play Thursday night, Nov. 22. The play is under the direction of Miss Johnson. Further details will be given later.

For the four remaining numbers the Junior play, Brown-Mentley Brothers, Law Street and Vienna's Hawaiians, the season tickets are reduced from $1.75 and $1.25 to $1.25 and 90c.

THE BEST PAYING CAR.

The motorist who gets 100 per cent dividends out of his car is the one who uses it to carry him to meetings held to further the improvement and also to make him a progressive citizen. He gets most out of it when it takes him to social gatherings, where he enters into closer and happier reunion with his neighbors. He reaps dividends by giving pleasure to those who do not have a car of their own. He gets a return on his investment when he uses his car to take vacation jaunts into other communities, where he sees how others work and play and live; where he gets a broader vision of the nation he lives in and a better understanding of those who live in it and who help to make it what it is. The motorist who uses his car for these things gets his money out of the car, and anyone around Plymouth who doubts it should try it and see for himself.

OUR GASOLINE SUPPLY.

When he hasn't anything more serious to think about the average auto owner drives along wondering how long this country's gasoline supply will hold out. Usually he winds up by concluding that before many years have rolled around some other kind of fuel will have to be found for propelling automobiles. But geologists and scientists disagree with him, for here comes a statement from one of them, Dr. Gus Egluff, to the effect that there is enough gasoline in sight to operate the 30,000,000 autos now in use for 2,500 years. At present crude oil is being taken from beneath 2,500,000 acres of land in America. Geologists agree that there is a plentiful supply beneath a remaining 1,100,000,000 acres not yet drilled upon. So worry over a gasoline shortage seems to be out of order for the next few hundred years to come.

FALL DANGERS.

The arrival of fall brings two common dangers to every community—the dangers that arise from carelessly handled firearms and the danger of death from onoxide gas. The average Plymouth citizen doesn't need to be told that scores of deaths will occur from these two causes between now and the return of spring; but he does need to be reminded that the only way he can escape is by heeding this timely warning.

Climbing a fence and pulling the gun through after you is one of the most frequent causes of hunting fatalities. Carelessness in its handling in woods or underbrush is another, while every year the grave-diggers put in extra hours preparing places for the victims of hunters who fired without knowing exactly where their companions were located. Care and care alone will prevent such fatalities. But the man who starts his auto in a closed garage on a cold morning is perhaps the most careless of all. No matter how much he may know about the car, he doesn't know enough to escape death once he has breathed into his lungs the escaping gasoline fumes. It is all over so suddenly that few, indeed, have lived to tell how it affects the human body. Keep that in mind and be sure the garage doors are wide open before starting the car. Then see that it is backed out into the open air the moment you get it started. Don't leave it running inside the garage.

A NATIONAL NEED.

More than the usual interest attaches to a report just made by the American Automobile Association of conditions encountered during the recent touring season by the average motorist. The report discloses many "bare spots," chief among them being the complaint of motorists that there exists such a mixed-up system of highway marking all over the country that it detracts greatly from the pleasures of touring.

"Millions of motorists are sick and tired of the over-changing traffic regulations into which they run from county to county and state to state," reads the report, and we believe a majority of motorists around Plymouth who have taken auto tours the past summer will heartily agree with the statement. Difficulty in finding one's way through our larger towns and cities is also held in the report to be the cause of protests from tourists. They can't understand why, if a road can be properly marked, it isn't also possible to extend the markers on through a town or city so that any driver of ordinary intelligence can find his way without having to stop and inquire at every street corner.

With all our boasted progress it does seem that here is one place wherein we have a lot of room for improvement. A uniformed system of highway marking and a standard set of traffic rules that would apply in every city and town alike would go far toward solving the worst problems tourists now encounter. Something along this line will have to be done, and to the average motorist's way of thinking the sooner it is started the better.

FOOD FOR THOUGHT.

We see where a Chicago manufacturer of foodstuffs has announced he will spend a million dollars in advertising his products during 1929. When asked why, he answered: "Because advertising speaks to everybody, and I can talk to only a few. How can I sell them what they want if I don't tell them I've got it for sale? I can't visit every home in the U. S. and tell the people living in those homes that if they'll buy my products they'll save money. But the newspapers and magazines can visit every home—and they do. So I am going to have them carry my message into words that I can't reach in any other way." There's a sermon in a few words, and an argument no one can dispute. There's also an example in it for the Plymouth man who has anything to sell, but who hasn't yet learned the best way to sell it. "Howe can you sell a man what he wants to buy if you don't let him know you've got it for sale?" There's something for every man in business to think over.

FOR BETTER SCHOOLS.

We've no desire to find fault with the parents of Plymouth school children. We are sure they average up with those of any other community in America. But we do believe they are overlooking something of great value to themselves, their children and the community at large in not showing a more active co-operation in the work of the schools in this section.

It isn't necessary to visit the school your child attends at frequent intervals, though it is a fine thing to drop in on them occasionally and observe their work. But it is necessary to the success of the schools to show the scholars that we, too, are interested. Hurrying the child off in the morning and never stopping to ask in the evening as to what progress it made during the day soon leads the child to believe that education can't be of very much value else grownups would be taking more interest in it and in them. That makes it more difficult for the teacher to impress children with the importance of applying every moment of the school day to study.

We've a right to be proud of the schools in this community, but we can make them produce still better results, and without any additional expenditure. Show the children, and the teacher, that you are deeply interested in their work. You can easily do it by making frequent inquiries as to their progress.

AGAIN VESUVIUS MAKES A THREAT

Gives Warning of Fiery Activity Going On.

Naples.—Vesuvius is treacherous. She is flashing red by night and by day pouring into the blue sky a column of sulphurous smoke which floats off in a breeze for mile upon mile, or in calm air rises straight toward the vault of the sky for many hundreds of feet.

Vesuvius in normal mood shows only a wisp of smoke and does not make the night over her red with sudden flashes of fire nor does she rumble so. A few weeks ago she was, to all appearances, sound asleep. She takes long sleeps; she has been known to sleep for 500 years. So long did she sleep after her destruction of Pompeii and Herculaneum that it became almost a legend and was forgotten by the peasants dwelling about her. Goats grazed in the crater upon the rich green grass that grew along the shores of two lakes deep within that mighty hole.

Then suddenly she gave warning, which few heeded, and poured seven rivers of fire down into the surrounding villages, destroying them and killing hundreds. One of these rivers rushed pell-mell into the Bay of Naples, where the water boiled for days. This was the great eruption of 1631. The peasants dwelling in Torre del Greco and in Massa di Somma and other small settlements that were wiped out took it that demons lived somewhere under the mountain.

Now Vesuvius is again in eruption; not a tremendous one such as the recorded eruptions of the past, but one at least showing she still has vitality. She has not driven the population away from her base, but her grand pyrotechnical display has again become a lively attraction for visitors.

Novel Greenhouse Has
 Own Coal Bed and River

Estevan, Sask.—Near here, in the Souris river valley, is to be established a novel greenhouse.

Not only will it grow flowers, potted plants and vegetables under the largest glassed-in space in western Canada, but its owners will mine on the greenhouse property the coal to keep its roses and carnations, lilies and all the other species of growing things blooming in the chill winter months, it is disclosed by the department of colonization and development of the Canadian Pacific railway.

The various units of the greenhouse will cover 100 acres of land and the enterprise has been incorporated at $400,000 under a dominion charter. The railway states R. C. Mitchell will head the new firm, which will ship its flowers and produce to all the markets of the Canadian west, as well as many in the western United States.

Through the property winds the Souris river, so there is not only coal but water at hand. According to the report there are nine acres of coal land with a seam of good coal nine feet thick close to the proposed site of the central steam-heating plant of the establishment.

Test Duralumin Bars for Use in Airplanes

Washington.—Small, precisely measured bars of duralumin, vibrating at the rate of about 700,000 cycles an hour, maintain a continuous loud hum in one of the laboratories of the bureau of standards.

Driven pneumatically, each bar is kept in vibration until it cracks, or has withstood two or three hundred million cycles of this rapid slight bending to and fro which subjects the metallic fibers of each side to alternate stresses of compression and tension.

The purpose is to ascertain just how much stress this aluminum alloy can be expected to withstand without "fatigue" failure when used in the construction of aircraft, where lightness, dependability and strength are important considerations.

Little Things

Little foxes that spoil the vineyards: Little compromises with the world; disobedience to the still small voice in little things; little indulgences of the flesh to the neglect of duty; little strokes of poetry; doing evil in little things that good may come; and the beauty, and the fruitfulness of the vine are sacrificed.—J. Hudson Taylor.

HOMES

HOMEBUILDERS

Are you thinking of building? Are you considering a house or a HOME? A house may be a shell, consisting of walls, floors and a roof, which represents only shelter and privacy without offering the owner any of the comforts of a home. The A-A-HOME is the result of thoughtful and careful planning and brings to you a house that represents all that the word HOME means in its truest sense.

The returns of the election will be broadcast by the N. B. C. and the results will be made known in the Mahogany room over the radio. All are welcome to listen in. The auditorium will be open.

METHODIST NOTES

"He which soweth sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which soweth bountifully shall reap also bountifully."
Sunday morning being the first Sunday of the month, is Missionary Education day in the Sunday school. Let us have 100 per cent attendance.
The new teachers in the junior department of the Sunday school are the Misses Grace Lee, Margaret Clemens, Winnifred Joffie and Genevieve Bird and Mrs. Albert Groth.
The Red Cross drive is on this week and it is your responsibility, as well as that of the solicitors, so don't wait to be asked to go in and subscribe and aid a very worthy cause, one which we could not dispense with.
The outcome of the election will, to a certain extent, depend on whether or not you vote next Tuesday, Nov. 6. Let us all be good citizens and exercise our elective franchise.
Next Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock p. m. is the monthly L. A. S. meeting, to which all the women of the church are cordially invited. Mrs. Nowland and her daughter, Mrs. Sewell, are our hostesses. Mrs. Sara Ross is the devotional leader and Mrs. Frank Dicks and Mrs. Carlton Lewis have the program.
Wednesday evening, beginning with a cooperative supper at 6:30, is our church training night. Everyone in the church is urged to come and join in this happy time. Bring the children, as the classes are over by 8 o'clock and they can then get to bed on time. There is a class for them, so the parents can enjoy either the mission or the Bible study class.
We are indebted to Miller Ross for the beautiful basket of chrysanthemums which we all, so much admired last Sunday. His new shaggy lavender ones were particularly beautiful.
The senior missionary society was hostess to the Children's Missionary society and their mothers to the number of sixty at a party at the church last Monday afternoon. Following a social hour, the children, under their leader, Mrs. George Card, gave a short program of recitations and songs. Then they were invited to the dining room, where prettily decorated tables awaited them, and where Mrs. Card, assisted by Miss Spicer and Mrs. Finlind, served "hush-assured" cakes and lemon whip cream. The children brought their little boxes, which yielded about ten dollars. This money goes to help care for little children less fortunate than others.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
The holy communion is offered this Sunday as a memorial of all our departed friends and loved ones. Remember them before the altar at this service. "Make them to be numbered with thy saints in glory everlasting."
Next Sunday is the tenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The service that morning will be given over to the observance of Armistice day.
Bishop Page will administer the rite of confirmation next Sunday night, Nov. 11, at 7:30 o'clock. The entire parish should make a very earnest effort to be present, not only to hear the bishop but in order to welcome into the complete fellowship of the church those who are to be confirmed. It is a very important event in their lives, and we should all do our part in making it a day to be remembered with joy in the years to come.
All people of Plymouth interested in hearing Bishop Page are cordially invited to attend the confirmation service next Sunday, at which time the bishop will deliver the sermon. This is an opportunity which usually comes but once a year. Bishop Page is one of the outstanding leaders of the Episcopal church in the field of religious education. He is greatly interested in building up efficient methods of instruction, but chiefly his interest lies in the children themselves, realizing that the younger generations are the church of the future. A manual of instruction for confirmation and the holy communion has been compiled by the bishop and we are using it in our classes this year. It would be very helpful to many who have already been confirmed. If any would like to purchase copies, the rector will be glad to order them.
The Woman's Guild meets Wednesday morning, Nov. 7, at 10 o'clock, to sew for the bazaar to be held Thursday, Nov. 15.

It is a very important event in their lives, and we should all do our part in making it a day to be remembered with joy in the years to come.
All people of Plymouth interested in hearing Bishop Page are cordially invited to attend the confirmation service next Sunday, at which time the bishop will deliver the sermon. This is an opportunity which usually comes but once a year. Bishop Page is one of the outstanding leaders of the Episcopal church in the field of religious education. He is greatly interested in building up efficient methods of instruction, but chiefly his interest lies in the children themselves, realizing that the younger generations are the church of the future. A manual of instruction for confirmation and the holy communion has been compiled by the bishop and we are using it in our classes this year. It would be very helpful to many who have already been confirmed. If any would like to purchase copies, the rector will be glad to order them.
The Woman's Guild meets Wednesday morning, Nov. 7, at 10 o'clock, to sew for the bazaar to be held Thursday, Nov. 15.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
The holy communion is offered this Sunday as a memorial of all our departed friends and loved ones. Remember them before the altar at this service. "Make them to be numbered with thy saints in glory everlasting."
Next Sunday is the tenth anniversary of the signing of the armistice. The service that morning will be given over to the observance of Armistice day.
Bishop Page will administer the rite of confirmation next Sunday night, Nov. 11, at 7:30 o'clock. The entire parish should make a very earnest effort to be present, not only to hear the bishop but in order to welcome into the complete fellowship of the church those who are to be confirmed. It is a very important event in their lives, and we should all do our part in making it a day to be remembered with joy in the years to come.

Ultra-Violet Rays Soon Fade Paintings

Saranac Inn, N. Y.—Exposed paintings, and especially those which are conserved as a national treasure, should never be lighted more than is necessary, and, preferably, they should be lighted through an artificial illumination so corrected as to approach daylight in quality.

This is the suggestion of J. A. MacIntyre and H. Buckley of his majesty's office of works and national physical laboratory of England, who have made an extensive study of picture fading. Their findings were presented in a paper, "Protection of Pictures and Museum Pieces from Fading," which was presented at the session of the International Illumination congress here.

Ultra-violet rays are in general the dominant cause of fading, the scientists set forth, and the elimination of these rays was urged. Because the modern paint manufacturer does not require his pigment to last more than a few years at the most, the subject of fading is most important. It was pointed out, if any of the present-day masterpieces are to be preserved for posterity.

MOVE OXYGEN GAS IN LIQUID FORM

New Process Cuts Cost of Shipping.

Berlin.—Oxygen used in highly compressed form in industrial undertakings can now be delivered in light brass containers instead of the heavy steel bottles formerly used and requiring two men to carry.

Dr. Paul Heylandt, Berlin chemist and inventor, has discovered a process by which the gas can be manufactured and delivered in liquid form. His invention has won for him the honorary degree of doctor of engineering from the Charlottenburg Institute of Technology here.

The oxygen gas is reduced to a liquid by Doctor Heylandt's process, is then poured into specially devised containers on automobile trucks and is carried from plant to plant much as gasoline or oil is delivered. The needs of the customers are supplied by merely opening a faucet and letting the desired quantity run into the small containers supplied to each customer.

At a nominal rental the customer is also supplied with apparatus for converting the liquid oxygen into compressed gas, which is then stored in the steel bottles that were hitherto transported back and forth.

Mr. Gutman's Record As County Auditor

Mr. William Gutman, who has been a lifelong resident of the City of Detroit, was elected to the Council of that City in 1903 and held that office until December 1913, at which time he resigned to take the office of Wayne County Auditor, in which capacity he has served ever since. During the time that he has held this office, he has administered the affairs of Wayne County coming under his supervision in an energetic and efficient manner and has stood firmly for the adoption of up-to-date business methods and the introduction of modern office appliances wherever possible in the administrative structure of the County government.

When he took office, plans of subdivided property were being recorded without any regard for orderly plan, and in many other respects without fulfilling the prime requisites of proper platting procedure. It was one of his first endeavors as a member of the County Plat Board to establish an adequate County plan and to seek proper legislation to control the problem. In 1925 a comprehensive platting law was passed that empowers the Board of Auditors to control platting procedure in a sufficiently definitive manner to insure conformity with a broad and co-ordinated general plan, and to assure property holders of a maximum protection of their vested interests. The proper control of platting since instituted has saved the City of Detroit many millions of dollars in street widenings and openings.

Mr. Gutman stood sponsor for Wayne County's Abstract Department which is now furnishing valuable grants service to thousands of citizens in Wayne County and which provides at cost an efficient abstracting service to other townships. The Department has reached its present status thru a long period of tedious and trying developmental preparation, and in a remarkably short time has become a self-sustaining public utility. It is apparent that his diligent application has given a worthwhile service to the citizens of Wayne County.

At the present time, the Board of Auditors, of which Mr. Gutman is Chairman, is working on, and has under contemplation, several other forward-looking projects concerning which brief mention should be made.

The first is a financial program covering in a comprehensive manner the capital expenditures which it is believed by the Board of Auditors will be necessary over the period of the next ten years for Wayne County's welfare institutions.

The present method of issuing bonds covering such capital expenditures is a cumbersome procedure, lacking in basic economy. The program sponsored as an alternative, contemplates the financing of recurring capital expenditures out of the annual tax budget.

This procedure would eliminate heavy interest charges, would provide funds as needed, and in many other ways would offer a more satisfactory and economic solution of the problem of financing capital expenditures.

The Board of Auditors prepared a report on this project and submitted it to the Board of Supervisors at its last session, at which time it was given the unanimous endorsement of that Body. This plan is endorsed by Mr. Gutman because he feels that it will save the taxpayers of Wayne County several million dollars, and it is to be hoped that the electorate of Wayne County will give it their affirmative vote on November 6th.

In the preparation of this financial program the Board of Auditors received the benefit of the cooperation of the Detroit Bureau of Governmental Research and the counsel of the Finance and Administration Committee of the Detroit Board of Commerce. The plan since submitted has been unanimously approved by Wayne County's civic organizations.

The second project is the revision of the present method of tax collection procedure in the City of Detroit and the County of Wayne. This is being done with the cooperation of the Detroit Board of Assessors and contemplates the replacing of the present annual preparation of tax and assessment rolls and the present method of prebidding with the use of modern addressing equipment and perforating machines. Such change in the method will result in a great saving of money and will furnish a much more satisfactory and efficient system of tax collection than that now in vogue.

The Board of Auditors has planned a new Administrative Division of the Auditors' Office, to be known as the Department of Systems and Research, whose function shall be to compile necessary statistics for all County Departments and Institutions; to make studies covering the financial and administrative problems of said Departments; and to prepare and install wherever needed such systems for the more efficient administration of the work in the various County Departments as shall put them upon a par with the finest industrial organizations.

Mr. Gutman has always served conscientiously the best interests of the electorate whose confidence has for so long retained him in public office. His past records in this important public office has been such as to commend his further retention, and it is to be hoped that the people of Wayne County will recognize their opportunity to retain an efficient public officer by casting their vote for him on November 6th.

A Wonderful Machine

In the Highland Park plant of the Ford Motor Company at Detroit there is a machine which tries with all the efficient friendliness of an engine of destruction, to shake the life out of a Ford automobile radiator in the shortest possible time.

Ten hours is the time allotted to this machine, known as an "agitator," to do all within its power to ruin a water-filled Ford radiator. At the end of that period the much-abused radiator is taken off the machine and examined by experts for any signs of damage and a brand new Ford radiator, also filled with water, is put on for another ten hours of torment.

This agitator device is part of the testing equipment for radiators that are being built for the new model "A" Ford car. When you watch it agitating and shaking the radiator you have a feeling that no automobile driver could drive a car over roads and at a speed which would give it such a severe shaking and still hold on to his wheel and his seat. Then the factory foreman tells you that within the period of ten hours this agitator gives the new radiator more and severer jars and jolts than the average Ford car will get in its whole lifetime of service.

And he tells you also that the great majority of radiators tested on this agitator come through the ordeal without a sign of injury. Those that spring even the smallest leaks are rare indeed.

Then the foreman takes you through the radiator factory and shows you why this is so. He shows you that every part of the radiator which is touched by water is made of either copper or brass, which will not rust and which will resist corrosion to a high degree. He shows you also that the construction of the entire radiator is rugged and strong—parts welded and soldered together in such a manner that shaking vibration and road jar cannot shake them apart.

To make sure that the finished radiator is free from leaks or potential leaks, as soon as it comes off the assembly line it is given a severe compressed air test. Filled with air under high pressure and sealed, the radiator is submerged in a tank of water. If there is the slightest sign of bubbles, due to escaping air, the radiator is thrown out as faulty.

The foreman points out to you also the fittings of this new Ford radiator which make it an unusually efficient unit of the cooling system. The upper and lower tanks are large. The openings through which the water flows from the tanks into the radiator tubes are bell-shaped, thus providing faster flow and faster circulation of the water. The tubes of copper and the fins of brass permit very rapid radiation of the heat and therefore quicker cooling.

Throughout the radiator of the new Ford car has been built in keeping with the greater power, speed and durability of the model "A" Ford.

FINDING BOY IS NOT TWIN, GIRL FLEES

Shocked When "Brother" Locates His Own Kin.

New York.—Shocked by realization that the boy whom she regarded as her twin brother was in reality no relation at all, and that his own true brothers and sisters had suddenly appeared to displace her in her affections, Jessica Hart Trogan, twenty-two, of Freeport, L. I., has disappeared from her home, leaving no clue to her whereabouts.

Her "brother," William Hart, recently told the curious story, a story that has kept their neighbors excited ever since Jessica's disappearance. "It all started in Camden, N. J.," said Hart. "Three families were living there, the Stricklands, the Furnesses and the Harts. I was the youngest of the Furness family, and when I was six years old my mother died. During the funeral preparations my father decided to entrust me to the care of the Harts, an elderly couple who had always been his friends.

Go to Nashville. "I was to stay there only a week, but just before my mother's burial the Harts suddenly left for Nashville, Tenn., where Jessica and I were brought up as their children. I was fourteen years old, Jessica and I were then taken back to Camden, always believing we were brother and sister, though knowing we were adopted.

"Meanwhile the Furnesses had moved to Philadelphia, so I never knew who my real parents were. When the war came I enlisted, though only seventeen years old. Jessica had meantime been married. Her husband was a pilot of a Standard Oil company plane in South America, but he was killed just a week later, and both the Harts died just after the Armistice.

"We then went to live in Freeport with Mr. and Mrs. Bergstrom, who were old friends of the Harts. Jessica helped with the housework and I got odd jobs. Then about a month ago I wrote to Mr. Strickland, asking him to get a job in his silk business. He happened to show it to an elderly woman who knew the Furnesses and Harts in Camden. She knew my family had always been looking for me and she wrote them in Philadelphia. "A few days later a Mrs. Sue Porter, my real sister, wrote me and asked me to come and visit her for a week in North Philadelphia. I was awfully surprised, of course, but I told Jessica and together we motored down to Mrs. Potter's house.

"Sister" Faints at Fete. Hart described the reception he received from his family, which included another sister, Mrs. Mary Rotz, and his brothers, George and Edward. He said that Jessica grew more and more uncomfortable during the welcome and finally fainted "dead away." He said he tried to comfort her, but he couldn't help making a fuss over his new family.

"Gosh!" he said, "blood will tell you know. I just couldn't help liking them, and even on the way back Jessica wouldn't sit beside me once." The week after his return from Philadelphia Jessica disappeared. Then she sent him a card from Freeport, saying that she was going to Geneva, N. Y. Hart characterized this as a bluff, because, he said, he was sure she knew no one there. Hart said he would change his name to Furness. When asked about his future plans, he said he didn't know. "I'm going in search of Jessica, if she doesn't show up soon. Meanwhile, I'll stick to my job."

ANOTHER MONEY CROP.

That timber growing, not timber hoarding, will solve America's forestry problems is the view of those who have surveyed the question most carefully. No longer does anyone whose judgment counts look upon conservation as a locking-up of natural resources, but rather as the most efficient use of them. This certainly holds true of our timber reserves. To protect our timber against fires and other wastes is a prime duty of both the government and organized industry. But protection alone is not sufficient. There must be also replanting of lands now barren and unsuited to anything else but timber growing; and there must be such a system of taxation as will encourage, instead of virtually preventing, the growing of timber on a large scale as a money crop. If the crop does not pay, it will not be produced; and pay it cannot unless relieved of heavy taxes until its maturity and marketing. Then it should, naturally, pay its due portion of public revenue.

Complaint was made by Walter Bronson that following the construction of the culvert on S. Harvey St. and the removal of the headwall and storm sewer section from his property, the bank of the creek was not restored to its former condition. It was moved by Comm. Shear, supported by Comm. ### FINANCING AIRSHIPS.

OUR PROPERTY. THE "BEST" SPEAKEASIES. REMOVES OWN APPENDIX.

Dr. Eckener and his fellow officers of the big Zeppelin hope American capital will interest itself in the building of five airships for trans-Atlantic flights.

A big New York bank is said to be interested.

All are interested in the development of aviation. Every useful new thing helps general prosperity. If we can't build the airships ourselves, the next best thing is to finance them.

Mr. Alfred P. Sloan, Jr., of General Motors, and his associates will sooner or later get into the airplane field.

McClintic Marshall, a firm of Pittsburgh now constructing ready-made steel frames for houses—might we turn from steel to duralumin to build all-metal dirigibles and frames.

Great demand for automobiles, keeping all plants at capacity production, is one proof of prosperity.

The Northwest and Middle-West report good business.

If we were much more prosperous, we could hardly stand it. That is to say, some of us could hardly stand it. But it is not so with all, unfortunately.

In New York a man, fifty years old, having vainly sought a job open to gray hairs, tried to hang himself from a thirty-story window. He did not succeed in hanging himself, but fell and was killed.

Mr. Roy Howard looks before he leaps and decides not to leap, after having alcoholic drinks analyzed in many of New York's "best" speakeries.

In eight "high grade" establishments his agents purchased liquors actually deadly. Only two or three places out of twenty-eight sold whiskies non-poisonous.

And they also were poisonous, since alcohol, as fuels use it, is always a poison.

Something new in modern surgery. Dr. Robert Meals, young surgeon of Hollywood, thought that shock after surgical operation is caused by anaesthetics, not by the operation.

To test his theory he removed his own appendix, lying on the operating table propped up, asking the assistance of a brother surgeon only in locating the appendix and removing adhesions.

A fine display of self-control and "courage."
Local anaesthesia was employed, but could not prevent internal pain.

This operation again raises the question, "What is courage?"

It reminds us that not long ago before anaesthetics were used, all operations were accompanied by terrible pain.

The clergy said it was a shame to use anaesthetics because it defeated the will of God, who desired his creatures to suffer. That opinion has been abandoned.

Japan will send to Brazil at least 1,000 colonists each year. Nachiro Fukuhara, head of a $5,000,000 Japanese syndicate, will direct colonization in the rich state of Para source of excellent rubber.

Already one city in Brazil is inhabited almost exclusively by Japanese.

The Japanese are kind to their children. No Japanese ever strikes a child. Consequently the children thrive, and families are big. Grandchildren of Americans now living may see an important branch of Asia established on the continent south of us.

That is the business of Brazil and Japan, not ours.

Mussolini says the Italian press is perfectly free, but it must not criticize Fascism, or his policies. Newspapers MAY criticize his violin playing if they choose.

Mussolini remembers that Napoleon said, "My government could not last two weeks if I allowed liberty to the press."

Extraordinary are Mussolini's success and good judgment. He appears on the page of history, a cross between Mohammed and Marcus Aurelius, and apart from his assertion that liberty is an unimportant word, we find little to criticize in his doings, remembering that if Italy had not had Mussolini it would have had anarchy.

Grain Crops Need Extra Plant Food

FERTILIZERS YIELD GOOD PROFIT WHEN USED IN MICHIGAN FIELDS.

Salesmen for wildcat stocks are mere pikers when their claims for returns on investment are compared with returns obtained from the use of fertilizer on this year's barley crop on the farms of George Miskell, Charlotte; Russell Burke, Dimondale, and Clair Rossman, Dimondale.

The fertilizers were applied at the rate of 225 pounds per acre; several different analyses were tested, and check strips where no fertilizers were applied were left in each field.

The check strips, with no fertilizer, yielded 229 bushels per acre; an application of 20 per cent superphosphate increased the yield to 236 bushels; where 2-16-8 fertilizer was used the yield was 333 bushels, and the use of 4-16-8 gave a yield of 354 bushels.

Legumes were seeded in all of the fields where the tests were made and the beneficial effect of fertilizer upon the seedlings was easily seen.

Members of the Michigan State college soils department who supervised the tests say that these farmers received an average return of 50 per cent profit upon their investment in fertilizers for barley and that the increased yields of hay which they will get is an extra dividend.

A 2-16-4 fertilizer and a 4-16-8 are two of the analyses recommended for use on upland soils where a legume is to be seeded in the barley. The exact fertilizer to use depends upon the type of soil and the previous treatment which it has received. County agricultural agents or the college soils department will give specific advice on fertilizers to any farmer who makes such a request.

Chiropractic Gets Results

Ques.—I have a little girl 22 mo. old who is very bowlegged. Do you think Chiropractic Adjustments can help her?

Ans.—It is very doubtful if Adjustments will help in a case of this kind.

Ques.—Saw your ad in a letter that was left in my mail box. Is your Chiropractic good for bronchitis? I cough all the time and when I lie down it is worse than ever. I have taken all kinds of coughdrops with no relief. Can't sleep nights so I thought I would write you and I have the same thing the matter with my ears. They just run all the time and I get deaf nearly every time I take cold so you let me know what you think about both cases as soon as possible.

Ans.—Chiropractic Adjustments have proved very beneficial in cases of Bronchitis. If you will put yourself in the hands of a competent Chiropractor and take adjustments just as often as he deems necessary there is every reason that you will be benefited materially. Chiropractic locates the cause of the trouble and removes it.

Ques.—What will Chiropractic do for Leukemia?

Ans.—Leukemia is an abnormal condition of the blood where there is a great increase in the number of white corpuscles. There are different forms of leukemia, one form in which the spleen and bone marrow are involved, the other form in which the spleen and lymphatics are involved but which ever form you are suffering from, the object of the chiropractor will be to bring back to normal the spleen, bone marrow or lymphatics, and in this way the differences between the number of red and white corpuscles will be more stabilized. A goodly percentage of these cases have been improved, as shown by the building up of the bodily tissues and the regaining of considerable physical strength. We suggest that you call upon your local chiropractor that he may be able to make an analysis of your condition, after which it will be easier to render an intelligent opinion upon your particular case.

Ques.—I would like to have you answer this question. Large lump growing in the neck near the throat and under the arm pits which I think is known as enlarged glands. Will Chiropractic Adjustments reduce these?

Ans.—You are suffering from an enlargement of the lymphatic glands and the answer to your question depends largely upon the duration of this trouble. Chiropractic Adjustments should help you by removing the cause, always providing it is not of too long duration.

Ques.—What will Chiropractic do for my case? I cannot control my mind or brain. They seem to work all the time concerning the past and I cannot think for the future. The medical doctor says I have melancholia but have been doctoring with him all winter without any help. Four days ago I started taking Chiropractic Adjustments and I hope they will help me. I am so weak, so nervous, cannot walk or talk straight. If I could only control my brain I would be alright but I cannot. I have lost over forty pounds in three months. Please let me hear from you.

Ans.—From your question and letter we would say that this is emphatically a case for the Chiropractors. By all means keep on taking Adjustments. Do not be in too great a hurry to get results. Chiropractic has obtained some wonderful results in similar cases. Let us know how you are progressing.

Ques.—I have a friend who has Huntington's Chorea and I will be pleased to have you advise me whether this disease responds to Chiropractic treatment.

Ans.—The Chiropractor adjusts the cause instead of treating the effect. Chorea is essentially a nervous trouble and if the Nerve Pressure, which will be found to be present in your case, is removed, you will undoubtedly get relief. By all means see a Chiropractor at once.

Ques.—What will Chiropractic do for a weak heart? I have been troubled for two years and am losing strength and also my hearing and eyesight are very poor. Doctors say it is a leakage of one valve. Am not able to do any work which requires exertion. Have been farming for the past 12 years.

Ans.—The sooner you see a Chiropractor and ask him to examine your spine so that he can ascertain the location of the nerve pressure which is the cause of your trouble, the sooner you will find out that Chiropractic Adjustments will help you materially.

Picked Up About Town

According to Dad Plymouth, the biggest liar in the world is the fellow who says "Keep straight ahead and take the first turn to the right; you can't miss it."

The church is an important part of the machinery—and it's also an important part of the joy-ride.

"There are two kinds of second-hand autos offered for sale now," says Dad Plymouth, "used cars and misused cars."

Dad Plymouth says the only animal in the world that has hind-sight is the mule, and he kicks about it.

"The man," asserts Dad Plymouth, "who never thought of putting a blanket on his horse when he parked it outside for four hours on a cold day has a son who always forgets to throw a blanket over the radiator."

A wealth of imagination is a fine thing, but it won't pay your bills.

"Another need in this country," declares Dad Plymouth, "is some way to satisfy a chicken appetite on an unmet salary."

Today's Reflections

The reason men have to have pockets is because they can't stick things down their necks the way women do.

Maybe you've noticed that some Plymouth men are not careful in their language as long as they are talking to someone they can lick.

Another reason for reducing the size of submarines is they'll hold fewer men when they go under and stay under.

A good cure for tonsillitis is a sleeve wrapped around your neck with a young lady's arm in it.

Experience is a good teacher, but at that it never seems able to teach some people around Plymouth to mind their own business.

The real honest-to-goodness Christian doesn't crave a mansion in the sky. He'd be satisfied with a bungalow.

Vitamins are all right according to the health authorities, but a morning breakfast of ham and eggs gets us over the rough places in the day's work.

Some Plymouth people have been stung so often that the minute you get friendly with them they wonder how much you are going to touch them for.

Hanging a horseshoe over the door may bring you luck, if you don't forget to tack the door before you go to bed.

Our idea of a dumb bride is that one in Omaha who went to the grocery for string beans and asked how much they were a string.

About the surest way for anyone in Plymouth to get laughed at is to go around handing out free advice.

If it wasn't for the optimists who would take our daughters off of our hands?

In the fall a young man's fancy lightly turns to the price of a new overcoat.

It takes a lot of people to make a world, including those motorists around Plymouth who paste the pictures of bathing girls on their windshields.

Sermons can now be sent to a man's home by radio, but no one has devised a way to pass the contribution box by wireless.

Why is it some Plymouth people seem to get so much pleasure in trying to keep everybody else from having any?

AROUND ABOUT US

A large sign, directing motorists to South Lyon, has recently been erected near the South Lyon road, at Kensington bridge on Grand River road. This sign was presented to the Board of Commerce by William N. McMann, of the Michigan Seamless Tube Co., to whom thanks, not only of the board, but of the village, is due.—South Lyon Herald.

The Board of Supervisors of Oakland county have voted an appropriation of $5,000 to the Milford fair.

Increasing business at the plant of the Michigan Seamless Tube Co. calls for larger quarters and present plans will soon materialize into an addition built onto the west end of the factory. Foundations are now in and work is to be started in the near future on the new building. The General Machine & Iron Works of Plymouth has the contract to furnish 10 tons of structural steel for the addition. When this is completed the plant will have about double the space of the original building. The Michigan Seamless Tube Co. is gradually expanding and more men are steadily being added to the payroll. Completion of the new building with installation of machinery will mean a still larger increase in employment for South Lyon. The steady and healthy growth of this manufacturing concern means a great deal to the people of this town, and everyone will experience a feeling of pride upon learning of the success this concern is accomplishing.—South Lyon Herald.

Thinking Out Loud

"All women are alike," says Lady Allouby. "This thought should be a great comfort to many husbands."

A judge permitted a divorced violinist to remarry because he behaved himself for more than five years. The law certainly does push punishment to extreme limits!

A Russian scientist says he has invented a fireproof coal. Many home owners know that it is by no means a new invention.

Now that Gene Tunney has been referred to in the papers as Mr. James Joseph Tunney, we can believe he has stepped out of the ring.

There are many reasons for going "straight," and now a new one is added to the list. Prisons are going to be equipped with radios!

To keep peace in the family, many a man finds two radios necessary—one for political speeches, and one for dance music!

Dad Plymouth says considering how well barber shops are supplied with mirrors it's a wonder women were not patronizing them years ago.

MARVELOUS WORK OF NEW KONJOLA MEDICINE TOLD

Community Pharmacy to Introduce Advanced Remedy for First Time in Plymouth.

If you were told that one single medicine put hundreds of men and women back to work in Indianapolis, and other large cities after they had been idle for months with health troubles, it would sound impossible.

G. H. MOSBY
Discoverer of Konjola

wouldn't it? And that countless people were completely relieved of rheumatism and neuritis, that they were able to walk again, without cane or crutches, and that this same medicine restored health to men and women who had suffered with stomach and kidney troubles for years, that complete relief had come in cases of misery where health resorts, expensive treatments and medicine upon medicine had failed—indeed it seems impossible. Yet it is all true and the medicine that has done all these things is the new Konjola, which is being introduced starting today at the Community Pharmacy, Plymouth.

Whenever introduced, this Konjola is vastly different and more effective in thousands of cases of ill health than any previously known medicine. It is a remarkable liquid compound for the following well-known troubles:

RHEUMATISM—Especially severe cases, where pains are intense, muscles swollen, joints stiff and rigid. In the milder cases of this disease Konjola relieves almost at once, and this medicine brings the same results to the neuritis victim that it produces for the rheumatic sufferers.

STOMACH, LIVER, KIDNEYS AND BOWEL TROUBLES—Nearly all forms of misery that arise from these unhealthy organs have been so quickly relieved by Konjola that men and women sufferers everywhere were surprised. It is the action of this medicine on the organs of the inner system that removes toxic poisons from the system and brings quick relief in so many cases. The secret of this Konjola is the way it acts on the important functional organs of the body, namely, the stomach, liver, kidneys and bowels. So many diseases and long standing disorders of these organs were so completely conquered and entirely banished by this new compound that thousands of people in larger cities were able to give up taking medicine for time to come.

After the great accomplishments and wonderful work of Konjola in other sections, it is declared that this medicine is what hundreds of sufferers in Plymouth and vicinity have long needed to actually reach their cases, and preparations are being made to introduce Konjola for the first time at the Community Pharmacy, where this medicine will be sold and explained to the public daily.

Our idea of enterprise is a surgeon advertising a "removal" sale.

Virginia Talbot has been given a place on the staff to help Madison Shingleton with the grade news. To interview every teacher in both the Starkweather and Plymouth schools every week is quite a task, especially when the teachers have to be seen before school opens either in the morning or noon, as they do not like to be bothered during school hours if it can be avoided.

Also Bruce Miller, a ninth grader, has been added to the staff as an athletic editor. By having a ninth and tenth grade on the staff, when the senior member leaves there will always be someone with experience at the beginning of each year to carry on the work of the athletic editor. We will want everyone to notice especially the write-up of last week's game by Bruce. It will give him experience for further write-ups.

PLYMOUTH WINS FROM FARMINGTON 12 TO 6.

Plymouth doubled her chances of winning the Suburban League Championship by defeating Farmington 12 to 6. This is Plymouth's third league game and she has won 2 and only lost 1. She is still in the race for the championship. Two league games are yet left to play, those with Northville and Wayne.

First Quarter

Herick kicked off to Cox who ran the ball from his 10-yard line to his 20-yard line. Otis made a yard on a wide end run but Cox fumbled but recovered. Otis took the ball for a line smash which resulted in no gain. The next play was an incomplete pass, Cox to Otis; the latter then kicked outside on the 25-yard line. Herick made 2 yards on an end run. Beagle took the ball for 2 yards off tackle. On the next play he fumbled but recovered, losing 2 yards. Herick shot a pass to Straub but it was grounded. It was Farmington's ball on the 20-yard line. Carney tackled Otis for a 2 yard loss. The next play was an incomplete pass. Otis then pointed to Gust who fumbled and the ball was recovered for Farmington. Otis lost 2 yards on end run. A pass, McCulley to Otis, was incomplete. It was Plymouth's ball on the 35-yard line. Herick made 5 yards on end run. Beagle lost a yard, trying the line. Herick then kicked to Otis who was tackled by Carney on the 20-yard line. Otis gained 5 yards on a slanting end run. Cox lost 3 yards on a criss-cross play. Otis kicked to Gust. Orr took the ball for seven yards and Beagle, with good interference, made 30 yards.

Second Quarter

Beagle gained 9 yards on an end run. Herick took the ball 2 yards on a line plunge. Orr also hit the line but was stopped for no gain. Orr took the ball again, this time making 3 yards off tackle. Beagle gained 4 yards and a first down. Herick picked up a yard on a line buck. On the next play he kicked over the line for a touchdown. The kick for point failed. Herick kicked off to Otis, who was stopped by Straub and Fockler on the 20-yard line. Otis lost 5 yards on an end run. He then pointed to Gust who fumbled but recovered. Beagle tried the line and gained a yard. On the next play Beagle completed a pass to Gust for 7 yards. Orr took the ball for no gain around left end. Herick kicked and Carney downed the ball. Messall made 4 yards through line. The next play was an incomplete pass which was almost intercepted by Gust but it was grounded. Otis got off a quick pass to Gust who fumbled and Farmington man recovered the ball. On an end run, Otis gained 5 yards. On the play Straub was hurt and Plymouth took time out. McCulley tossed a pass to Cox for 8 yards. Otis picked up 10 yards on an end run. Within inches of a touchdown, a Farmington man fumbled and a Plymouth player recovered it. Herick kicked to Cox who received it on the 40-yard line and ran it back 10 yards. At this point Rodman replaced Straub for Plymouth. Cox gained 2 yards on an end run. McCulley shot a pass to Turner for 2 yards more. Farmington had failed to make first down, and so it was Plymouth's ball on the 25-yard line. Orr made 4 yards on a wide end run. Herick picked up 4 yards on the opposite end. Beagle hit the line for a yard. Orr made it first down by an end run of 6 yards. Beagle made 5 yards on a line plunge off tackle as the quarter ended.

Third Quarter

Herick punted over the Farmington goal line and the ball was put into play on the 20-yard line. Otis gained 2 yards on an end run. Cox added 3 more by a line plunge. Otis again tried an end run this time gaining 3 yards. He then kicked to Carney. Herick took the ball for 2 yards on a line plunge. Orr gained 8 yards around left end. Beagle added 3 yards more on a smash off tackle. Herick was stopped for no gain on an end run. It was then Farmington's ball. Otis kicked to Gust who again fumbled and Farmington recovered. McCulley fumbled behind the line and Plymouth recovered. Orr tried the line successfully for 3 yards. Beagle was stopped for no gain on a play off tackle. On an end run Herick gained 5 yards before he was tackled. Beagle made a yard on a wide end run. Plymouth called time out. Gust was hurt and Lanker replaced him. On a line plunge Beagle made a yard. On the play Herick cut in between the Farmington's left end and tackle who were blocked, and gained 8 yards before the secondary defense stopped him. Orr shot off tackle for 5 yards. Herick skirted an end for 5 yards, and again circled an end this time for 10 yards. At this point Plymouth was penalized five yards for delaying the game. Herick made 2 yards on an end run. Orr fumbled and Farmington recovered. Otis gained a yard and Keaton recovered for Plymouth.

Fourth Quarter

Beagle made 3 yards on an end run. Here Plymouth was penalized 15 yards for holding. Herick circled the Farmington right end for 15 yards. On the next play he kicked to Straub for 15 yards. Herick then ran 15 yards for a touchdown. The try for point failed. Herick kicked off to Otis who fumbled but recovered. He eluded several Plymouth tacklers and ran 20 yards before he was stopped. Two passes were tried but both were intercepted. On the next play for 5 yards. He kicked to Plymouth's 20 yard line. Herick gained 5 yards around end. Orr made 5 yards around the opposite end. On the next play there was a fumble but Lanker recovered. Plymouth's kick was partially blocked. Curtis replaced Orr for Plymouth. Otis lost 2 yards on a line smash. McCulley passed to Straub for 15 yards. Otis went over for a touchdown. Kick for point failed. Otis kicked off to Lanker who was stopped by 2 tacklers. Herick made 5 yards around end. Curtis fumbled but recovered. He then pointed to Otis. Farmington's first play was an incomplete pass. A pass, McCulley to Otis, was grounded as the whistle ended the game.

THE TRAVEL CLUB

At the last meeting of the travel club they took a trip to the home of Louis Alcott in Concord and from there to Salem, to Marblehead, and then to Gloucester. Miss Asman, who traveled there this summer, described every point of interest and showed pictures. On one side of the Alcott home, Emerson lived and on the other side, Margaret Sidney, who wrote the Five Little Peppers series. Miss Asman described the closet in which all the things which the four sisters used for their theatricals, were kept—the crowns, the swords, the gift beads and the dresses which they enjoyed playing with so much. Louise Alcott's journal was there, opened to the words written just the day before she died. In Salem they saw the witchcraft house, the House of Seven Gables, the whipping post, and the gallows hill where long ago as many as seventeen were hung at one time. The club is to have a party on November the second at Hobbs Travis' home. They have decided to call themselves "Los Gitanos" but unless you happen to know Spanish you will not know what it means for they will never tell.

IN TUNE WITH THE UNIVERSE.

Everyone was exceedingly pleased with the assembly of last Wednesday. Lawrence Hart, of Ohio State university, spoke to us on the subject matter, "In Tune With The Universe." He began by a short analysis of what mankind just invariably wishes for—money, beauty in every form, good looks, knowledge, easy life and a chance to make real every opportunity. Life is a constant "keeping up with the Joneses." A four-cylinder car is all right until the other party gets a six; cotton-hosiery suits little Mary until the Jones off-spring wears silk. But, no matter how many Joneses we try to keep up with there will always be some one higher with something better. If we, as individuals, are unhappy because we covet the good fortune of others, we always will remain dissatisfied, because, so long as our happiness depends upon what the other world can give us, either in the way of possessions or acclamation, of pleasures or successes, it is impure, and with impure, it is impure, and with impure, it is impure. There are few times when we are really happy for a sense of bereaving, of agitation is almost always present in some form or other. A king, very unhappy, sent wise men eastward, westward, northward and southward to find a truly happy man. For seven years they searched, one wise man found him, but this man had not a shirt to send back—for he was a beggar.

We are always wishing—if only I were captain of the team, president of my class, or cheerleader. Mr. Hart has talked with six presidents of the United States, and none of these six were happy. Friends were treacherous, discredited them, cheated them, ridiculed them. Rich men have to contend with more whisperings, drawbacks, duties, less privacy, less leisure and opportunity. Do not wait for fame to bring happiness with it. Leisure is a will-o'-the-wisp. It is in order to be happy, but that brings a little bigger, better, and brighter than the year before—be proud!

(c) "How much knowledge do we need to be happy?" If we know just a little more about anything—our studies than the year before—be proud. (d) "What sort of work must we have to be happy?" The kind we are fitted for, work we can do better than somebody else, whether we are paid or not; work we can improve in—not too mechanical.

Pershing said: "The secret of happiness is to prepare for the next day by doing our best today and leave the rest to God." Cultivate faith—feel the world is growing better for your presence in it—have the benefit of the doubt—believe the best. Do not believe folks say things just to be mean—a reason is concealed behind it. Do not take offense at every little thing your friends say. There is only one time we can be happy and only one place we can be happy on earth—Now and here. Let's keep up with our own pasts and not the Joneses, and always compare our own situation to someone's less fortunate. Be well balanced, not possessive—sing one-track minds, but many amusements, books, pictures, ideas, ways of serving God and hopes." The secret of happiness is to keep on growing. For anything growing is in tune with the universe.

STARWEATHER NOTES.

Miss Studer's room is very prettily decorated with witches and pumpkins for Halloween.

John Russell Moore is ill, but the pupils hope he will soon return.

The arithmetic class is adding numbers in columns of three and progressing nicely.

Kenneth Smith, of the third A, and Catherine O'Hara, of the fourth B, are moving to Detroit.

If at first you don't succeed, try, try again." Miss Mole's fifth graders have found this age-old maxim true. After several attempts to win the P. T. A. banner they put on two plays at the last meeting and now they have it.

CENTRAL SCHOOL NOTES.

Miss Wilmore's room is glad to have a new pupil, Robert Wilson, in her morning class.

Mrs. Root's room has two new pupils, Harold and Madeline Wilson, from a Detroit school, Wednesday, Oct. 31, her room will give a party in the last 15 minutes instead of recess. Group 1 of this class is enjoying the new Allman readers.

Harry Wrentham, Billy Thomas and Allyn Bennett have received gold stars for having perfect teeth.

The children in Miss Hodges' room have given a little program for the next parent-teachers' meeting. They borrowed Miss Wilmore's victrola and played a little surprise. Mrs. Stinson's visit to this class was enjoyed by everyone.

Posters are being made by the members of Miss Weatherhead's class. A plant was brought in by Lois Selman. Monday Mrs. Jones visited them and brought new health material.

The picture study booklets made by the pupils of Miss Hallahan are completed. Their honor roll has been finished also. Eileen Archer is ahead in spelling.

Kenneth Timmie has returned to Mrs. Holliday's room after being absent with the mumps. The children are making a vegetable and fruit alphabet, illustrating each letter by either a fruit or vegetable.

DEBATING

The Plymouth High school debating squad is getting off to a good start. So far they have had three practice debates, without judges. Two against Northville and one with Ypsilanti Central High School. In all of these they showed up very well, as groups and as individuals.

In the debate Tuesday, October 23, against Northville at Northville, our negative team showed up to good advantage. They showed good preparation as individuals and worked well together as a team. Alice Gilbert, Ruth Root and Margaret Dunning debated for Plymouth while Catherine Stutter, Allen Beard and Madeline Cole opposed them.

To make Marjorie Dunn, Margaret Dunning and Ruth Root debate their best you must make them angry. At least it seemed that way in the debate against Ypsilanti. In all of these girls in which these girls participated, the Ypsilanti team, composed of Virginia LaForge, James Westcott and Max Williamson, made several statements which the Plymouth girls did not like and it irritated them, hence they debated better. As a whole Mr. Perdue was well satisfied. The debate took place at Ypsilanti Central High School on Monday, October 22.

NATURE STUDY CLUB

Orlyn Whittaker
The Nature Study Club have been studying about birds for the last few weeks, with the object of knowing more birds at sight, and to learn more facts about those we already knew. We are making a study of the appearance, noting especially, the field marks, and the habits of the Common Water Birds—the Loons, the Gulls, Ducks, Geese, Herons, Cranes; of the shore birds—the Marsh birds, the Rails, Snipe, etc. of the land birds, the quail, quince, pheasant and pigeons; of the various hawks, woodpecks, and the different kinds of woodpecks.

Last Thursday we continued our study by going out-doors and felt re-peatedly. The day's list is as follows: Starlings 6, Grackles 2, Downy Woodpecker 1, Robin 1, Brown Creepers 2, Nuthatch 1, Myrtle Warbler 1, Golden Crowned Kinglet 2, several Goldfinches, a lot of Juncos, and one Cardinal.

Next Thursday we plan to visit the Tourist Camp, and we hope to see a few more.

The following are officers of our club: President, Billy Henry; Secretary, Orlyn Whittaker.

WITH THE MUSIC CLASSES

The Girls' and Boy's Glee clubs are purchasing Michigan Song leaflets so that they may sing from them in class. The High School Orchestra deserves praise as it played at the alumni play Tuesday and Wednesday nights without a conductor.

The following persons were chosen to go to Orchestra Hall Wednesday, October twenty-fourth: Billy Kirkpatrick, Sylvester Shoner, James Livingston, Louise Grandstaff, Doris Herick, Vivian Towle, Elizabeth Currie, June Fredericks, Coralline Edwards, Rose Ann West, and Katherine Compton. All enjoyed the concert and will work extra hard to go again.

JUNIOR NEEDLEWORK CLUB

The ancient art of crocheting is being revived again in our High School by the Junior Needlework Club.

Officers in this group are Beulah Wagonshutz, president; Ethel Davis, secretary-treasurer.

They have subscribed for the Needlework Magazine and in general, intend to keep in touch with the popular embroideries.

AROUND THE CAMP FIRE

Were you ever present at a Halloween Hobo Party? I have not been either, but the Camp Fire girls are doing a great deal of fun next Monday night at theirs. Committees have been appointed to plan it and assure success.

At its last meeting this group also made plans for a November Ceremony and worked on the scrapbooks they intend to send to a free hospital.

SENIOR HOME HEC CLUB.

Last week, the Home Hec club had their Halloween party. Everyone came muskied. There were many queer people—a witch, a gypsy, two jolly farmer boys in overalls and large shoes, and Miss Birkenhauer came as a lady with a party, and short dress, while Mrs. Dykelouse, at whose house the party was given, was a clown. First they guessed who each was and there was a prize for the most right. Next the witch told each one's fortune with apple seeds, and then each made a witch for herself out of a cloths-pin, a marshmallow and some black crepe paper, with a prize for the best one. It sounds as though they must have had a good time.

Don't forget the doughnut sale on November 6th. Phone orders to 449.

GOING, GOING, GOING, GONE!

Why didn't you "abail" come down to see the antique show put on by the eighth graders? Arrowheads, swords, bayonets, army kits, helmets, gas-masks, shawls, coins, dishes, everything, and all old, except of course, those things that were used in the World War, although there are lots of people who have never seen real, but less-scarred things. Robert Haskell brought a flag kit (with longest-to-goatness flags in it) and a gun with a bayonet screwed to the barrel that was used in the Philippine War, besides other articles which are extremely valuable because of their age. William Rucker had a mercur, made in 1775, fashioned out of iron. Ernest Archer displayed some glassware—a cup and saut dish, over a hundred years old. One had to take his knife

SOCCER LEAGUE

The Junior High Soccer League is several games behind schedule, on account of bad weather. So far they have played five games; the eighth grade has won two from the ninth and lost one to the seventh; the ninth has won two from the seventh and lost two to the eighth; and the seventh grade has won one from the eighth and lost two to the ninth. In the coming Monday, October 29th, the eighth grade will play from the ninth grade in a light game score 1-0.

The present standings are:

Team	Won	Lost	Points
Eighth	2	1	666
Ninth	2	2	500
Seventh	1	2	333

LES DOUZE PETITS DIABLES

Perhaps you cannot decipher the French but if you know the number of "little devils" which the French Club has in it. They have ordered little devil pins also but really they are not as "devilish" as they seem. This group has a newspaper too—Le Journal Intime. It is first edited on the black board and later typewritten and given to members for future reference. The club members brought all kinds of vegetables to a recent meeting and learned their French names. Another gathering was devoted to singing songs in this adopted tongue, doing setting-up exercises and playing games. At the last meeting they set a table in French fashion, and had a French table conversation.

CLICK! CLICK! CLICK!

As the Camera Club had to wait for some material before making definite plans, it is starting somewhat later than the other groups in the school. Material has been received from the Eastman Kodak Company and the members expect to learn a great deal from it.

Officers have been elected as follows: John Randall, president; Clyde Ferguson, vice-president; Virginia Talbot, secretary-treasurer.

CHECKING ON THE TEXT-BOOK.

Learning that a member of the physics class was going up in an airplane, Mr. Dykelouse asked him to take an aneroid barometer from that department. He took readings every two hundred feet as far as the barometer would register, which was 1,000 feet, and recorded his results. These the class compared with the numbers in their text-books and the figures corresponded exactly. There is a partial vacuum in the meter which registers the height and amount of air pressure which is shown by an arrow. A meter like this is a peculiar thing to study because it does not appear complex at all and yet it is so.

TO GET THE SALT OUT OF THE DISH, AND THEN TRUST TO LUCK THAT IT WILL NOT ALL FALL IN ONE HEAP.

Annabelle Worthy furnished some old-fashioned beer jars and a German Bible dated 1845. J. D. McLaren brought an Indian tom-tom, an axe with the handle off, arrowheads, a tomhawk, all of which were found and dug up from the earth around here. Quite interesting was a spinning wheel owned by Edward Aiscort. Although rather small, it is very practical and the wheel is operated by a small pedal pressed by the foot. Mr. Smith has a hand deed signed by Martha Van Buren. That was when Michigan settlers were still paying land from the government. There was also a Spanish scarf and a black cape made in 1910, which was brought by Laura Kincaid. Vera Woods also brought a Harper's magazine for August, 1898, and an old copy of the Century, with full details of the battle between the Monitor and the Merrimack. A piece of tapestry worked in yellow and red with the Lord's prayer printed in German on it, hung on the blackboard. Mr. Lindquist read it very nicely, we are glad to note.

Lorone Bailey brought two pistols, one with three barrels. I suppose that was for focusing. If the man happened to be fat you turned it side ways; if he was tall you held it straight. The poorest of shots could hardly miss, for once pointed in the general direction one could rest assured. An old musket with the sights off leaned against the wall—you know, one of the kind that comes out like a horn on the end. One could not help knowing that a lot of the World War weapons had been "over the top." A steel helmet had a very clear bullet dent in it. I wonder how he felt when he heard it zing—so close! Besides these there were many, many other things too numerous to mention on display. It all came about as a discussion of industrial revolution in the eighth grade history class. Some one wanted an "antique day" and all judged in.

Dr. Frank Crane Says

WAR ANYWHERE DISASTROUS

President Coolidge delivered a message on Decoration Day of this year in which he pointed out the fact that no matter where a war might break out in the world it would be prejudicial to this country.

War is simply lawlessness and destruction and the commercial interests of the United States today are so widespread, our investments and trade relations are so far reaching that it is almost impossible to conceive of any conflict anywhere on earth which would not affect us injuriously.

The President also stressed the fact that the United States is engaged in warfare only for the protection of American citizens. It is incumbent upon every nation to protect its own citizens.

Unfortunately the plan of Woodrow Wilson for a league of nations did not receive universal support. While this writer enthusiastically supported Mr. Wilson's plan he holds no brief for any one plan.

Equally to be approved are the efforts of Secretary of State Kellogg to conclude a treaty with European powers for the complete outlawry of war. Just so we arrive at a stage of civilization where war is not countenanced and glorified it makes no difference by what route we get there.

Mr. Coolidge also laid stress upon the best argument of the most intelligent pacifists, to wit, that "the chief defenses of America lie not in her armed forces but in the industry, prosperity and patriotism of her people; these are of far greater importance than preparedness."

The same day at Thibault, France, General Pershing addressed an audience where he said that "millions of graves cry out against war, and the big nations must show the way to durable peace."

He continued that war threatened civilization because of the "fallacious theory that war is an essential element in the national policy of a government," and an erroneous belief that nations become great through aggressive undertakings.

General Pershing insisted that history disproves that the expansion of one modern civilized nation at the expense of the other can be permanent.

"There would appear to be no longer reason," he said, "why the leading civilized powers could not agree among themselves to the general principle of the elimination of wars as an avowed instrument of national policy."

It need not interfere with the necessities of reasonable armament, he said, "nor the fulfillment of consistent obligations."

The day is coming when public opinion, the final arbiter of destiny, will rapidly turn against war.

THE THEATRE

"THE WRIGHT IDEA"

An exceptionally large cast of clever screen players were secured by Producer C. C. Burr for the filming of his latest First National picture, "The Wright Idea," starring Johnny Hines, which is coming to the Penniman Allen theatre Sunday and Monday, November 4th and 5th.

This interesting comedy of a young man's struggles to market his unique invention of an ink possessing luminous qualities, gives Johnny Hines a vehicle in which he can display his versatility in the most laugh-provoking situations. The comedian has been getting away from the slapstick, gag type of comedy, and is introducing new situations which develop from the struggles of every-day-folks to get ahead.

Louise Lorraine, who was Johnny's leading woman in "Chinatown Charlie," again plays opposite the comedian. Edmund Bresse appears in the role of a "nut." Other members of the large cast include Walter James, Fred Kelsey, Henry Herbert, Charles Gibby, Monte Montague, Henry Barrows, Arthur Millette, Betty Egan, Blanche Craig, George Irving, Charles Gerrard, Richard Maitland, Jack McHugh, Kashi Herold and others. Charles Hines directed.

"THE FIRST KISS"

A simple, yet forceful love tale is "The First Kiss," co-starring Fay Wray and Gary Cooper. "Paramount's Glorious Young Lovers," which comes to the Penniman Allen theatre Wednesday and Thursday, Nov. 7 and 8. It is by far one of the finest efforts on the part of any producing organizations in transferring a really fine story to the screen.

Aside from the masterful handling of all characters of the story by the cast themselves, one is struck by the authentic manner in which the story rolls along. It is true, it is, most of all, inspiring.

Fay Wray and Gary Cooper appear as the principal characters in the same picture for the second time in their screen career in "The First Kiss." Their first effort, "The Legion of the Condemned," has already made motion picture history. "The First Kiss" will make it again.

The story was adapted from "Four Brothers" by the famed short story writer, Tristram Tupper, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post. It has, briefly, to do with the efforts of a young man to make successful men out of three lazy brothers, all born of an old family of Maryland, but which has fallen down. The young man, whom you may guess now to be Gary Cooper, is an oysterman very much in love with the town's richest belle, Fay Wray. The gulf between them is successfully closed, which forms one of the most interesting and heart-throbbing stories ever shown here.

Others in the cast are Lane Chandler, Leslie Fenton and Paul Fix as the three brothers, and Malcolm Williams and Monroe Owsley, who have good parts. Rowland V. Lee directed.

"STOCKS AND BLONDES"

Wall street brokers are noted for their tight-lipped proclivities and giving information, in the style of the celebrated Octavius Roy Cohen, is the last thing they are fond of. Yet there are ways of making even Wall Street brokers talk, as Jacqueline Logan and Gertrude Astor so delightfully reveal in FBO's feature special, "Stocks and Blondes," coming to the Penniman Allen theatre, Saturday, November 10.

Portraying the roles of a pair of gold-diggers who shake down the heavy sugar daddies of Wall Street, Jacqueline Logan as "Patsy" and Gertrude Astor as Goldie, dancers in a Broadway cabaret, obtain the confidence of Powers, a big stock gambler, who is manipulating the market for enormous profits. With the thorough contempt for the ignorance of women which most big business men possess, Powers and his associates discuss their business secrets in the presence of these cabaret queens. "Patsy," who is ambitious to lead a wholesome home life and is in love with a broker's clerk, passes the information thus garnered on to him and he uses it to make a fortune on the exchange.

The photoplay takes on a note of intermingled comedy and pathos at this point when "Tommy," the broker's clerk, gets a swelled head and gives "Patsy" the cold shoulder. But, with the same feminine cleverness which she used to elevate him in the world, she sets about to deflate his ego.

How "Patsy" carries on this fight for the love of the foolish boy she has made and endeavors to break the thrill and clutch of Wall Street gamblers playing the ticker for millions, the jazz and revelry of Broadway cabaret life, the folly of pleasure-seeking millionaires and the tactics of New York's beautiful gold-diggers are all shown in thrilling and uproarious episodes in this exceptionally fine feature.

It's Bound To Come

We hear a lot of talk around Plymouth about "farm relief," though a lot of it is indulged in by those who haven't any farm that needs relieving. But it is a favorite topic of conversation, and especially when we have a presidential race on.

Everyone is entitled to his opinion as to what would afford the greatest relief in the agricultural sections of our country. As for us, we believe the rural communities are going to get more actual benefit out of the radio than from anything else—and we'll cite a case to prove it. We read that a few weeks ago 100 carloads of cattle arrived at the stockyards in Fort Worth, Texas. The radio station there broadcasted the cattle receipts that evening, and the next day only two cars of cattle arrived. As a result, a market that was about to be swamped with cattle was saved, and prices remained firm. Instead of declining, those who had cattle for sale learned through the radio that the market was glutted—and they saved money by holding what they had to sell.

If the radio, still in its infancy, can do this for the man who raises livestock, it can do it for those who raise grain, cotton, fruit, poultry or anything else on which they must depend for a living. It will be the finest protection this country ever had against the professional market sharks who have been raising and lowering prices as they pleased. You bet we're going to get "farm relief." But it is more apt to come over the radio than through political channels.

Since prohibition grape production in California has increased 200 per cent. Grape juice is certainly becoming popular.

A powerful puglist has given up the ring to become a dentist. Well, we suppose he will be able to put his patients to sleep without expensive anaesthetics.

A Cincinnati thief stole 25 pairs of shoes, gnawing the left toe out of ten more pairs. Evidently figured that's how the bootleggers get their stuff.

Never before in the history of motor car manufacture have the motorists of America welcomed any new automobile as they are welcoming the Silver Anniversary Buick with new Masterpiece Bodies by Fisher!

Sweeping into the market at a time when motor car lines were practically standardized—when imitation was destroying individuality—these epic Buick creations introduced an entirely new mode—

A mode of body-symmetry—of size and magnificence—of soft contours instead of straight lines—of embossed side and hood panels involving the most costly steel paneling work employed on any car in the world!

And as the weeks have passed—and the full significance of Buick's achievement has become apparent to the public—enthusiasm for this car has swelled and grown to unprecedented proportions!

Buick sales records have been broken! Production schedules have been increased again and again! The great Buick plants are working to the limit of their capacity to supply the demand.

PYTHON RAISES CAIN IN HELL'S KITCHEN

Zaza's Pet Gets Loose and Stirs Things Up.

New York.—This much is certain—if Mrs. Peter Olson, who is thirty-two, and a snake dancer in three-day vaudeville, takes that reptile back to her apartment, Mrs. Louis Munno, whose husband works nights, moves out. And who wouldn't?

This domestic impasse was arrived at logically, but amid considerable confusion and five stalwart cops, recently while a gaudy assemblage from Hell's Kitchen, where lots of queer things happen, looked, listened and gossiped.

Mrs. Olson, whose dancing name is Aida Zaza, had made a pet of an eight foot 35 pound brown and white python. Several days ago she went out and after she had returned late at night the python also went out—unexpectedly. It may be that Bozo, Mrs. Olson's pet monkey, loosened the door on the snake's cage—but be that as it is, nobody told Mrs. Munno, who lives on the same floor, about it.

Mrs. Munno Alarmed

Therefore, when a couple of jars crashed to the floor in Mrs. Munno's kitchen she naturally was alarmed. In another room, adjoining the kitchen, slept Joseph, her twelve-year-old son.

She cautiously opened the door for a peek, switching on the lights. She blinked once, for there, behind the stove, was a snake poking its head at her and hissing. One blink was enough. Gathering the loose folds of her dressing gown as best she could, Mrs. Munno dashed for the stairway and bounded down three and four steps at a time, emitting a scream per leap. And such screams! Patrolman Edward Welch says she was audible from Times square to the Hudson river.

Into the clammy morning and the arms of Welch dashed the vociferous Mrs. Munno.

"Oh, officer get your gun! There's a terrible snake or something in my apartment!"

Now, Officer Welch had heard those screams. And so he looked at Mrs. Munno with that pained expression with which any cop might be expected to look at any woman who, clad in a thin wrapper and a loud voice, comes dashing into the street at four o'clock in the morning talking excitedly about snakes.

Nevertheless, he went to investigate. As was to be expected the reptile resisted this. Welch whacked at the snake with his night stick and the python defended himself as best he could. Welch ordered and executed a perfect one man retreat, while Mrs. Munno looked into the room of Joseph, by some miracle or other still asleep.

Patrolman Welch considered. This was a battle that already called for reinforcements. So he called the West 47th Street station.

"Say," he shouted. "There's a big snake down here. What'll I do?"

"Well," challenged Lieut. Edward Moran sleepily. "We ain't got no snake chumpers up here."

"But I ain't got the D. T.'s," Welch insisted. "This here's a real live snake and it's about fifteen feet long. I gotta have some help."

Lieut. Moran dispatched Sergt. Joseph Stanton and four members of the emergency squad with pitch bars and a body sack to subdue the snake. They arrived, with a large contingent of neighbors attracted by the excitement, and set to work.

During the melee somebody stuck a yard stick down the snake's mouth. An eight foot python with 20 inches of stick rasping against its esophagus is nobody's plaything, as five of New York's finest soon found. They located one of the huge pinchers about its neck and another about its body. Now they had it, but what next?

Somebody brought the body sack, normally used to carry corpses. They laid it on the floor in front of the snake. Writhing mightily, the python's head was soon poked inside. Bit by bit they wormed in the rest, yardstick and all, and off went Mrs. Olson's python to the police station.

There she claimed it, but her claim was held up until experts from the Bronx zoo could determine its relative harmlessness.

MILLIONS TIED UP IN ROYAL JEWELS

Costly Gems Used to Bedeck Ruling Monarchs.

Washington.—Old Turkish sultans who loved to gaze upon their jewels perhaps would turn over in their graves if they knew that the new Turkish officials were considering the sale of their precious horde to establish a state bank.

"The Turkish crown jewels, for many years hidden in the green vaults of Constantinople, are among the world's largest collections," says a bulletin from the Washington, D. C. headquarters of the National Geographic society. "The Sultans' throne is of massive beaten gold, studded with diamonds, rubies and emeralds set in mosaic. It has been appraised at more than $15,000,000.

"Few travelers have ever broken through the seclusion of the treasure room to see the jewels and only lately have photographers been permitted to take pictures of the collection. There is another throne of ebony and sandalwood, inlaid with mother-of-pearl, rubies, emeralds and sapphires; a toilet set thickly studded with turquoise and diamonds; and armor, pistols, saddles, sandals, slippers, turbans, daggers, swords and canes, all bejeweled, not to mention the long strands of pearls as large as cherries, rings, bracelets, anklets, and all sorts of other gorgeously designed jewelry for various uses.

"One wonders if the old sultans were thrilled to drink out of the tankard gleaming with 3,000 diamonds, or to stick their hands into a salad bowl containing a half bushel of uncut stones or a half peck of huttons studded with diamonds, one of the world's largest emeralds, as large as a man's hand, is included in the collection."

Tsar's Dazzling Crown.

"Since the Tsar was overthrown the Russian crown jewels now in Moscow, have been in the spotlight with rumors of their sale. Some authorities claim the Russian horde to be the world's largest. The head of the Tsar must have dazzled with 32,800 carats of diamonds and rows of pearls at royal functions, when he wore his best headdress. There are other regal crowns of magnificent filigree work, artistically set with colored stones above a base of expensive fur.

"The famous Shah diamond which formerly hung in front of the peacock throne when it was in possession of the emperor of India, is in the collection and scattered here and there among the gorgeous array are diamonds as big as walnuts, rubies and emeralds as large as pigeon eggs, inlaid golden plates, bejeweled wall hangings, robes, swords, scepters, pendants, canes, staffs, religious emblems, tapestries, and what-nots. The famous Orloff diamond reposes in the handle of Catharine the Great's scepter.

"The brightest spot within the gray walls of the Tower of London, if not in London itself, is the jewel room where the crown jewels of Great Britain are on exhibition. To reach the large glass case which incloses the gems, one has to run the gauntlet of guards from the lowly but dignified 'beekeepers' (Yeomen of the guard) to some of the picked guards of the empire. And should a visitor attempt to take one of the gems he likes most, he would find that an unseen steel safe would immediately encase the treasures, the door behind him would become fast, and the outer gates of the tower walls would clang shut to avert his escape. Appraisers admit that $30,000,000 is a low estimate of the value of the royal jewelry.

"One of the most striking pieces is Queen Mary's crown. Laid on a white satin pillow, it scintillates with many jewels including the famous Kohinoor (Mountain of Light) diamond. Some of the smaller diamonds were cut from the Cullinan, the largest diamond ever found. In the rough it weighed 3,104 carats.

"Fortunately, the king wears the crown of England but a few minutes during his coronation ceremony. It is a magnificent creation weighing five pounds—somewhat heavy for comfortable headdress. Its golden form is nearly hidden by diamonds, rubies and sapphires. The king's crown, of lighter weight, contains the Black Prince ruby and beneath it 700 diamonds cut from the Cullinan stone.

Carpet of Pearls

"The princess of India have been collecting jewels for thousands of years and among them are some of the most elaborate displays of gems. It was from India that the famous Peacock throne was taken to Teheran, Persia. Shah Jahar, one of the great Mogul moguls dully sat on this solid gold four poster seat, dispensing justice. The monarch's back rested against rubies, emeralds and sapphires which adorned the peacock's tail, while overhead was a pearl-fringed canopy. His turban was ablaze with diamonds, his chest hidden by ropes of pearls, and his fingers literally wrapped in gold and precious stones.

"The carpet of pearls, in the Nuzerbagh palace at Baroda is one of the world famous jeweled creations. It is 8 by 6 feet square. Besides the pearls which form the larger part of the carpet, there are three large diamonds, 32 small diamonds, 1200 rubies and 500 emeralds which form a flower design in the center.

"The Gaekwar of Baroda is said to have the largest collection of pearls and the Maharajah of Indore runs a close second. A royal wedding or state function attended by the Indian princes in their jewels represents many millions of dollars."

The Middle Ground

"I've been all over town, looking for shoes." What a common expression! The shoe man hears it every day—and some days, many times.

You may have been influenced by some newspaper item or perhaps a style worn by a friend (purchased in some other town). Of course you have a right to expect to get the style you want.

WALK-OVER has never attempted to go to extremes in the matter of styles, excepting only when fit of style is absolutely certain. We know the importance of fit—a delicate matter in shoes. Fit is the first basis of style in any new thing WALK OVER creates.

We are satisfied to hold the MIDDLE GROUND (a safe position) in the matter of styles
