COLLEGE ENTRANCE REQUIREMENTS—POOR STUDENTS REJECTED

Local High School Offers Advantages To Students; Honor Roll Increasing.

Plymouth High School offers to the youth of the community the courses necessary for College and University entrance. This College Preparatory course is listed on the High School Course of Study with the list of required subjects, so that every parent and pupil may know just which subjects to take. Every college in the North Central Association of Colleges and High Schools requires for entrance: 3 years of English; 2 years of History, one of which must be American History; 1 year of Algebra; 1 year of Geometry; and 2 years of Foreign Language, 1 year of Laboratory Science and 4 electives, only 3 of which may be vocational.

However the Colleges and Universities will not admit all students who complete the above subjects. The Universities and Colleges insist upon an official recommendation from the High School. This is the form sent out by the University of Michigan: Scholarship Standing and Certificate of Recommendation

This is to certify that (give name in full) of (number of street) (city) (state) was graduated from the (name) High School of (location) on (date), has completed the work shown in detail below, and is hereby officially recommended for admission without examination to the (name of school or college) of the University of Michigan. Entered this school (date) (he or she) ranks (highest or 2nd highest, etc.) in (his or her) class, consisting of (number) members. Mental tests (name of test, date administered, points scored), I. Q. percentile standing in grade group. Passing grade in school (D) required for recommendation to U. of M. (B). Length of recitation period, (45 minutes).

The University also requires the following personal recommendations: Personal Qualifications Blank

The following questions have to be filled out by the principal as to very low, low, fairly high, high, very high, and superior:

I. Literary and Scholastic Ability and Attainments, (1) Intellectual capacity; (2) Intellectual performance; (3) Originality.

II. Force of Character and Leadership, (1) Evenness of disposition; (2) Responsibility; (3) Leadership; (4) Popularity.

III. Output of Energy, (1) Health; (2) Industry in studies; (3) Vigor in sports; (4) In punctuality.

The principal also fills out the following questions:

Does the candidate approach your ideal of what a University student should be? Is there any marked defect, not covered by the rating scale, in the candidate's personality or character or preparation? Has any marked change been noticed in applicant's scholastic attitude and record during his last year or two of preparation for college? Considering this candidate's abilities, interests, and probable aptitude, what special field or profession should be emphasized in his college course? Has the candidate shown plain and good sportsmanship in athletics? What consideration in regard to health, absence from school, necessity for working during school time, or participation in school activities, should be taken into account in interpreting his school record? Write frankly any further information about this applicant which you think would better enable us to understand and guide this student in his life at the University of Michigan. Taking into account the candidate's preparation in the different studies and his plans and ambitions, please list below the subjects which you believe he is best qualified to pursue during his first year of college work? Michigan State College, Lansing, furnishes the following blank:

an earnest effort to do creditable work? Other colleges and normal schools have similar enrollment requirements, consequently it becomes very important that every boy or girl who wishes to attend college observe the regulations for entrance. Dr. Alexander Ruthven, newly appointed President of the University of Michigan, states in his acceptance speech: "The university is to be considered a detached educational unit designed to admit and to train only those of our youth who have the aptitudes and habits for higher learning. . . these students are to be selected solely on the basis of their qualifications and training. The University should accept only those students adequately prepared to pursue advanced studies."

To be officially recommended to the universities a high school pupil must have graduated with 16 units of work, have the subjects required by the university, and must maintain an average scholarship of B, or 85 or better, according to the Michigan Standardized marking system.

To be officially recommended to smaller collegiate institutions a pupil must have graduated from High School with 16 units of credit, including the subjects required for entrance, and must have maintained an average scholarship of C plus, or 85 or better, according to the Michigan standardized marking system.

The Honor Roll for the third marking period is as follows:

A New Year

Some of us around Plymouth have cause to complain of our lot during the year passing into history it wouldn't be human nature if we didn't. And yet, if we will be fair with ourselves and compare our own conditions with the conditions of a good many others in the neighborhood we will be quick to banish our petty complaints.

Taken by and large, the nation's crops in 1929 were highly satisfactory. Working conditions and wages were normal up to the moment of the crash in Wall Street, a crash that can always be expected when men who prefer to speculate for their money run the stakes too high. And even that event has not crippled anything save the auto business to any serious extent. Unemployment in the larger cities is greater than at this time last year, due to industrial readjustments made necessary by the decline in stocks. But everywhere construction and road building programs for 1930 are being made on a scale much larger than usual and even the most pessimistic are forced to admit that if only one-half of these programs are carried out it still will be a prosperous year.

We see no real cause for alarm over conditions in this country as we enter a new year. Things could be better in many respects—but just pause and consider how much worse they could be, and how much worse they have been. With this in mind, let us set our faces toward the future and resolve to do our part, individually as a good citizen and collectively as an enterprising community, to make 1930 a surprise to the pessimists and joy-killers. It can be done. Seeking to our jobs and talking better times instead of practical and protesting cynicism will do it. So, with the

PLYMOUTH WINS HOCKEY MATCH

DETROIT MOTOR BUS CO. OF DE. TROIT, LOSES BY A SCORE OF 2 TO 0.

The Plymouth Hockey team played a smart game of hockey last Monday evening in their new rink, when they defeated the Detroit Motor Bus Co. of Detroit, by a score of 2-0. The Motor Bus team is one of the municipal league teams and a fast bunch of skaters but they couldn't get their machine working sufficiently to take home the bacon.

From the first whistle starting the game off, the home team got under a full head of steam and didn't stop during the entire first period. The regular forward line composed of "Chuck" Garlett, Claire Block and Del Anderson were in good condition and kept the play around the Motor Bus net the majority of the time. Their back checking was also very effective. The defense positions were held down by J. C. Rutherford and Dan Quirk, who played with the Plymouth team last year is starting out good. It was Quirk who bagged the first goal in the first period. Douglas made a solo dash down the ice, passed to Dan who beat the Detroit goalie flat footed for the first counter. The period ended with no further scoring.

The second opened up with a bang, the Detroit boys fighting hard to even the score. It couldn't be done, as Johnnie, the goalie, was right on the job. This session ended, with the score remaining the same. However, in this period Block picked up a loose puck and with a wicked shot, sent it sizzling past the goalie, through the net and into the fence. The good referee disallowed it. It was discovered that there was a hole in the net and time was taken out for mending.

In the third stanza, Eddie Dobbs secured the second counter by picking up the rebound following "Chuck" Garlett's shot.

The game was refereed by Bill Brooks of Ann Arbor. Anderson and Destefano, both new members of the team, are showing up well and with the opportunity for practicing this winter, and Plymouth should be able to hold their own with any of the teams in the suburban towns or teams belonging to the Detroit Municipal League.

A game is scheduled for tonight, with the Barton Plumber's team of Detroit. Bortwin were 1927 City Champions and the outcome of this game will be anticipated with considerable interest.

NEW FORDS TO BE ON DISPLAY

Starting last week Monday the Ford Motor Company began shipping to its branches all over the country the improved models of the Ford car. From these branches the cars will be distributed to dealers so that every dealer in the United States will have on display the improved models at the same time.

Following this unusual policy, the Detroit area will be the last section to receive models of the new cars for display purposes.

The improved Ford automobiles have a higher radiator, small wheels, and larger tires, with a streamline body. Many other improvements have been made but these are the most outstanding from appearance.

The new cars are being shipped daily in large numbers to the area dealer located in box cars. It is anticipated that every dealer in the country will have the new models on display early in January.

Local High School Musician Records With Orchestra

Local High School Musician Records With Orchestra

Maynard J. Larkins, a member of the Plymouth High School Orchestra, won unusual distinction when chosen last summer for membership in the National High School Orchestra which meets for eight weeks each summer at the National High School Orchestra and Band Camp at Interlochen, Michigan. One of the achievements of this significant orchestra, composed of the finest high school musicians of America, was the recording of six selections for the Victor Talking Machine Company.

The recordings were made at Interlochen, Mich., in the beautiful outdoor theatre at the Camp which the recording directors pronounced as possessing perfect acoustic properties for recording.

Maynard was a member of the violin section when the recordings were made. He says the experience was one never to be forgotten because of the nervous tension and the perfection of performance required for recording. He says the slightest imperfection in the playing of any one of the 215 players necessitated an entirely new trial by the entire orchestra.

The selections recorded included two compositions by Carl Busch which were dedicated to the National High School Orchestra and played for the first time at Interlochen, "At Sunset" and "Hill Blues Dance." Other selections recorded were "Song of the Volga Boatmen" by Stoesel, "Cripple Creek" by Stringfield, "Heartwounds" by Grieg and Andante from First Symphony by Beethoven. The records will be released in January and all royalties received from the sale will be used in adding equipment to the National High School Orchestra and Band Camp.

Woman's Club Stage Christmas Party

Following a brief business meeting held in the dining room of the Hotel Mayflower, and presided over by the president, Mrs. B. R. Gilbert, the chairman, Mrs. O. B. Borck welcomed the members and their younger guests, inviting the older folk to return to "Childhood Land" for the afternoon, and to assure their safe sojourn, the "fair queen of the land," Fatsy McKinnon, with her assistants, directed the way.

Seated on a throne of white, attired in a costume befitting a fairy queen, with her fairy group seated around her, Fatsy introduced first saintly little "Fairy," Gladys Richards, who gave "Christmas" as her theme.

"A Knight," Robert Champe, who sang so pleasantly, two lovely Christmas songs, accompanied at the piano by "Princess" Gladys Schindler.

"Dance" "Nymph" Irene Hunsberger, who interspersed so charmingly in ballet dance "The Snow Queen" "Santas" "Sweet Singers," eight young girls from Mrs. Holliday's class, dressed in red and green tulle paper dresses, who gave a dainty drill followed by a lovely Christmas song, accompanied at the piano by Princess Gladys Schindler.

"Snow Fairy," Helen Jess Blunk, "The Queen of the Land," Fatsy McKinnon, and the "Santas" Little Helper, Ruth Kirkpatrick, who gave those delightful lines, "Twas the night before Christmas, etc.," at the conclusion of which Old Santa's sleigh burst into the room, and from well filled trays, brought a heavenly lighted tree, with the help of the mittee, gave to some seventy-nine big and little folks a gift, also individual bagged candy canes to all the children. Delicious ice cream and cake were served from the Mayflower kitchen. Then with many pleasant exchanges of Christmas greetings and words of delight and laughter from the children, a happy Christmas party was brought to a close.

PINROCKS ARE AGAIN WINS

Miss Frank Jane White, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. White, of Plymouth, was the winner of the Pinrock contest, held at the home of Mrs. White, on Thursday evening, December 26. She was defeated by Miss Edna White, of the same family.

The contest was held at the home of Mrs. White, on Thursday evening, December 26. It was a very interesting and enjoyable affair, and the contest was won by Miss Frank Jane White.

KIWANIANS HEAR "K" ORGANIZER

KIWANIANS HEAR "K" ORGANIZER

The Kiwanis club at its Tuesday meeting was presented with one of the finest and most enjoyable programs of the year through the courtesy of Wm. J. (Uncle Bill) Burrows. Mr. Burrows ably presented Albert E. Buss, of Detroit, an accomplished baritone singer, a cornet player of marked ability, a humorist and an inspiring speaker who will long be remembered by those who heard him.

Mr. Burrows also presented Joseph France who gave a short talk. Mr. France was responsible for the birth of the Kiwanis organization, having organized Detroit Number One Kiwanis club which was the start of Kiwanis and which now has over fourteen hundred clubs throughout the United States and Canada.

C. W. Loomis Dies

Charles W. Loomis, son of Oliver and Harriet Loomis, was born in Spaulding, November 23, 1882. When a small child his mother died, leaving him with her parents who took him to their home in Wauwatosa, Wisconsin. Here he spent his entire life. He passed away at his home in Wauwatosa on December 5 and leaves to mourn their loss, his wife and two daughters. Funeral services were held from the Masonic Temple on Monday afternoon, December 9, with interment in Wauwatosa cemetery. Rev. F. H. Fahringer, pastor of the Underwood Memorial Baptist church, delivered a very impressive address at the service.

Christmas Music To Be Repeated

Owing to many requests the choir of the Methodist Episcopal church will repeat its Christmas music next Sunday morning. The following musical program will be rendered, the service to begin at 10:30 o'clock:

Anthem—"Even Unto Bethlehem," by the Mixed Quartet; Anthem—"The Cradle Song," Male Quartet; Duet—"O Little Town of Bethlehem"; Anthem—"Bethlehem"; Mixed Quartet; Anthem—"The First Noel"; Male Quartet; Anthem—"Break Forth Into Joy," Mixed Quartet.

"Rio Rita" At Local Theatre

The eighth wonder of the world is coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre next Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, December 29, 30 and 31, "Rio Rita," featuring Bebe Daniels and John Boles, assisted by many other featured players. In this picture, there is music, splendor, romance, drama and color, all blended together under the direction of Florenz Ziegfeld. Never before has the screen or stage seen so many rich qualities in one picture. Don't fail to see "Rio Rita," unmatched in spectacle, beauty and sheer dramatic grandeur.

ATTENTION! G. E. ALUMNAE

The annual reunion and supper will occur Friday, January 3, at the M. E. church at 5:30. Fifty seats will be charged for the supper, since the group is becoming so large that it is difficult for the local members to bear the expense. The early hour leaves the evening free for those who have other engagements. Many cannot come till six; those can also be served. The M. E. women wish to know by Tuesday, December 31, as to the number. Someone has been delegated to see the members, but perhaps cannot contact you. Write to G. E. Alumnae, c/o The Mail, Box 11, Plymouth, Mich.

The new year is now upon us. We are all looking forward to it with interest and anticipation. It is a time of new beginnings and new opportunities. Let us make the most of it and strive to be better people than we were in the past year.

DAISY AND KING RIFLE COMPANIES TREAT EMPLOYEES

Sixth Annual Daisy Christmas Party Was Held at the Penniman Allen Theatre Last Saturday Afternoon.

King Manufacturing Co. Entertains Their Employees at a Banquet the Same Evening.

The King Manufacturing Co. entertained their employees and members of their families at a 6:30 dinner at the Hotel Mayflower, last Saturday evening. Following a splendid dinner, E. S. Roe, president of the company, welcomed the guests in a few remarks. Cass S. Hough, secretary of the company presented Louis Fisher with a box of cigars from the company, as having been in their employ over a period of 33 years.

Mr. Hough said that the business outlook for the company for the coming year was very good, and predicted a banner year. It was a most pleasant evening for everyone present.

Ski Champions To Meet At Rochester

The first national meet of the American Ski Association will be held this year at the Rochester Ski Slide at the Bloomer State Park. It has been announced. The first meeting will be held January 19.

Thousands of persons were attracted to the park last year to witness the ski-jumping contests and the organization of a professional ski-jumpers association is expected to attract an even greater number this winter.

Anders Haugen, Minneapolis, captain of the 1924 and 1928 American Olympic ski team and four time national champion; Lars Haugen, seven time national champion; Henry Hall, Detroit, and his brothers, Carl, Clarence, Arthur and Mike; Casper Olmon, Chicago, and Rex Rex, Detroit, have entered the contests.

Mrs. Susan Whing Passes Away Sunday

The SUN RISES ON A NEW AGE

By Clara Agee Hays

NEW YEARS have dawned before but never a year as new, as strange, as tremendous as 1930.

With 1930 breaks the full sunrise of a New Age.

The years come booming in like tides breaking upon Humanity's hopeful beach. Each leaves its treasure or its dross and ebbs away toward the horizon of Time.

The year of 1930, as all who have vision can see, is the highest, the mightiest tide that has ever come towering into our port of Hope.

We can see gleaming in its diamond-like spray the promise that soon there will be no more poverty to chill the hearts of ragged mothers and to steal the laughter of children. The year of 1930 opens a new era in which the statesman, the economist, and (most important of all) the ordinary citizen will succeed in banishing want. In time there will be no hunger that shall want for bread, no cry of pain that will not be answered by ministering hands.

The tide of the New Age carries on its crest treasure chests of brotherhood's unquenchable gold, cargoes of enthusiasm. We can hear in its thunderous advance the diapason of a new idealism.

Nineteen hundred and thirty should be a great year. We have all been made neighbors by the magic of wings and winged words.

In the New Year we will be more than neighbors. We will become good neighbors.

NOW FOR THE CENSUS

It won't be long now until the census takers will be abroad in the land, counting noses to determine the exact size of Uncle Sam's big family and gathering statistics covering everything under the sun.

It's a big job, and one as important as it is big. If the real facts are not brought out census figures are misleading and pave the way for mistakes in the future. For that reason no one should regard the census-taker with suspicion, or furnish him with false statements, or seek to evade answering his questions correctly. He is not sent out to over-value your property, to raise your taxes or to pry into your private affairs. For that reason full and free answers should always be made to the questions he will have to ask.

Our new census will be nothing more than a stock-taking of the nation and its resources—a guide for future development and improvement. The exact size of the nation, along with actual conditions of agriculture, stock-raising, industry and employment cannot be secured in any other way. And we profit in our daily lives through knowing exactly how far we have progressed in 10 years, and what is needed to insure further progress. We feel sure everyone around Plymouth will cooperate with the census-takers when they start out on their task. It is just another way of demonstrating good citizenship and loyalty to the country and its institutions.

H. W. Klammer, managing editor of the Dearborn Press, Dearborn, is the official census taker of this district.

NOT ALL GONE

It may be news to a good many around Plymouth to learn the day of the pioneering homesteader is still here, even though the old covered wagon has given way to the auto. Citizens of the U. S. anxious to make new homes filed patents on 4,612,722 acres of public land in 1929. More than 30,000 persons have filed land claims during the present year, while the government derived $6,000,000 from this source. The greatest part of this, of course, came through leases on lands on which there are oil wells or mines. But the fact that 30,000 people secured homes from Uncle Sam in the past 12 months is enough to show that all the good things haven't been snapped up yet. And the fact that many millions of acres will be awarded to homesteaders in the years to come ought to be of interest to the man who often feels he would like to go back to the days of his forefathers, even though he might have to do so minus the covered wagon and the flint-lock rifle.

THIS SETTLES IT

We see in a daily paper a brief dispatch from Madrid to the effect that the King of Spain dips his doughnuts or toast in his coffee. And we hasten to carry the good news to every Plymouth man whose good wife has threatened to shoot him or divorce him if he didn't quit doing the same thing. If a king is democratic enough to souse his doughnut in a cup of coffee, why can't an ordinary husband of an American queen do the same thing? It looks like a new step toward liberty, and if a member of the royal family does it who knows but it will soon become stylish and we can all dip to our heart's content, even when there is company at the table? More power to you, King Alfonso. You may have your faults as a ruler, but you certainly know how to get the most enjoyment out of doughnuts and coffee. May your shadow never grow less—and your nerve never weaken when your better-half delivers her curtal lectures on table manners.

WINTER ACCIDENTS

The more disagreeable the weather

and the more dangerous the highways the fewer our motor accidents. It is easily understood. Even the motorist who is addicted to “taking chances” drives more carefully when hazards face him on all sides. But the same thing doesn't hold good in the home, for there are more mishaps inside the house during winter than in the warm months. More people are hurt in falls and, of course, more suffer from burns. This, too, is easily explained. Since we are indoors more at this season of the year than at any other time. But it is worth keeping in mind. It may save us from taking unnecessary chances on step-ladders, chairs and slippery porches and steps. Care alone will cut down the number of accidents in the home. Just as extreme care in bad weather cuts down the number of auto accidents.

Northville shall not have more than one pool table for each thousand of its population, according to an amendment to its pool room ordinance passed last Monday night by the commission. The pool rooms now in business may continue, but the amendment bars another pool room until the village has grown a thousand.

Dr. Lavina Ketchum, who was located in Northville, has opened an office in Westwood Hills, Calhoun.

The new fire department of North Township, with Water Truck no. 10, chief, are installing the new fire engine recently purchased by the township. On account of disastrous fires in our town within recent months, everyone will feel more at ease with fire fighting facilities near at hand.—Northville Record.

Wednesday's blizzard crippled traffic, too, as well as show drivers made driving almost impossible. The Michigan Bell Telephone Co. reports much damage to their toll lines. Sagging under a heavy load of ice, wires brought down about 50 poles between South Lyon and Brighton and 35 poles between here and Plymouth. Workmen labored until three o'clock Thursday morning on the Brighton line.—South Lyon Herald.

Alvah Chase of Island Lake, recently caught two fine pickerel weighing 11½ pounds. The two were caught in about 20 minutes.

Unable to attend the wedding of his daughter, Miss Florence Mills, a graduate of Yassar, Major Byron J. Mills “gave her away” over long distance telephone wires when she was married recently to Albert Hawkins in Calgary, Canada. Major Mills was at his home in Seattle, Wash., when the words came over the wire, “Who giveth this woman away?” “I do,” answered the bride's father in Seattle and the marriage ceremony became a fact.—Farmington Enterprise.

As the result of a kick in the head during a basketball game last week Tuesday night, Marjorie Atkinson, a member of the Farmington High School basketball team, suffered a loss of faculties which continued for several hours, during which time she was sent to a hospital.

John Litzenger, assistant cashier of the Lapham State Savings bank, is the first to announce himself as a candidate for village treasurer in the coming spring election in Northville.

The recently formed Dearborn Automobile Dealers Association will have its first auto show on January 11, 12, 13, 14 and 15, 1930, in the Peoples Outfitting store on Warren avenue.

The Dearborn high school was the scene of a most interesting meeting last week Wednesday, when the members of the various boards of education and the superintendent of the schools in Wayne county were guests of the Dearborn Board of Education.

Blinded by steam from the brick plant of the Haggerty company, nine automobiles were piled up in a bad wreck on Michigan avenue, last week Tuesday afternoon.

Over 50,000 Christmas seals were sold by pupils of the Redford area and Redford township elementary schools. A total of $547.61 was turned in to the chairman.

Speedy Relief For Sore Throat

THIS DOCTOR'S PRESCRIPTION REQUIRES NO GARGLING.

No longer is it necessary to gargle and choke with nasty tasting medicines to relieve sore throat. Now you can get almost instant relief with one swallow of a doctor's prescription. This prescription was refined so often and became so popular that the druggist who originally filled it decided to put it up under the name Thoxine and make it available to everyone.

The remarkable thing about Thoxine is that it relieves almost instantly, yet contains nothing harmful. It is pleasant tasting, and safe for the whole family, and is guaranteed to relieve sore throats or coughs in 15 minutes or money back. Just ask for Thoxine, 35c., 60c., and $1.00. Sold by Dodge Drug Co., and all other good drug stores. 12-27-29

Holiday Entertaining

By HELEN SUZANNE TAYLOR

When the daughter at school returns home for the holidays, bringing with her a guest or two, there is sure to be a round of parties, bridges, teas and similar occasions to celebrate this gay season of the year. Many a young girl will be accepting the responsibility of a hostess for the first time and she should plan to have that type of party which she is most interested in so that her first attempt at "hostessing" may be a decided success.

She may take advantage of our unusually snowy landscape and invite her friends to a coasting, sleighing or skating party. The "feed" following such vigorous exercise is always a welcome sight, but it may be made still more inviting if served at bridge tables arranged near the open fire. With a lighted candle rising from a mound of young evergreen or pine branches, on each table, a crackling wood fire will do the rest toward establishing a cozy, hearty and fragrant atmosphere. The menu for such a party need not necessarily be elaborate—the main requirement is that it be filling enough to satisfy the appetites of a group of hungry young people who have exerted themselves to an unusual extent. Toasted sandwiches, creamed omelets, waffles with sausages, etc., are very appropriate as the main dish, with possibly pie, plum pudding or cake for dessert.

Creamed Stuffed Egg
Hard cook as many eggs as needed for the number of guests to be served. When cold, shell and cut in half lengthwise, removing yolks. Mash yolks and add salt, pepper, chopped chives to taste, and mayonnaise to moisten. Stuff whites with yolk mixture and press together to make them look whole. Make a rich medium white sauce, adding three tablespoons of chopped pimento and three tablespoons of devilled ham to every two cups of sauce. Pour sauce over eggs and reheat. Garnish with parsley and serve with toast triangles.

Now that the toasted sandwich on joys such universal popularity, it would be very fitting indeed to serve it as an important part of your menu. When accompanied by a salad of greens or fruit and a cup of coffee, it makes a complete and satisfying lunch. You may choose a filling of sliced tomato and crisp bacon, very thin slices of cheese and ham, a filling of salmon flavored with a bit of minced onion, or possibly slices of cooked chicken; but no matter what kind of filling you have, a toasted sandwich must be served warm as that is one of its most splendid features.

If your daughter is going to have her entertainment in the form of a bridge luncheon or tea, a more dainty and elaborate menu must be planned. Creamed chicken served in patty shells and garnished with tiny slices of pimento and green pepper, or mushroom souffle with green pepper sauce, are two suggestions for luncheon main dishes. They, of course, must be accompanied by a suitable salad and a dainty dessert such as individual frosted cakes and ice cream, or any one of the many new and interesting frozen desserts which may be made so easily in your refrigerator.

To make mushroom souffle pan boil in fat one-half pound of previously washed, fresh mushrooms until tender. Chop fine and with liquor which is in pan add to two cups of hot medium white sauce. Then add one teaspoonful finely chopped onion, and pour on beaten yolks of three eggs, stirring constantly. Cool, for in a sizzling hot pan, pour into greased baking dish, and place in pan of hot water. Bake in a moderate oven of 375 degrees until set.

The green pepper sauce is made by adding one-fourth cup of chopped green pepper and one hard cooked egg, which has been shelled and chopped, to one tablespoonful of butter, one tablespoonful of flour, and one-fourth teaspoonful salt. Blend and add one cupful milk. Cook in a double boiler until thick. Pour over souffle.

Call Miss Taylor at the Gas Company if you would like suggestions for your next party.

Penniman Allen Theatre Plymouth, Michigan MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS

favorite since his outstanding appearances in "Gentlemen of the Press" and "The Lady Lies," will be heard in the featured role of Trampas, the ring-leader of the cattle rustlers in the play.

"The Virginian," a novel by Owen Wister, was first published in the 80's, and it was acclaimed at that time as the great American novel. Many American leaders in literary circles maintain that it is still the greatest American novel ever written. It was rewritten for the stage by Wister and Kirk LaShelle and as a play it earned widespread renown, bringing immortal fame to a number of actors who played its title role to packed houses all over the country.

The talking picture brings "The Virginian" to the public in a new and more engaging medium—a medium that gives this romantic theme a fuller scope and a much more realistic treatment. All the authentic sounds of the cattle range, the dialog of the principals, the third dimension, one might say, is brought to the screen in this New Show World production.

"DARK STREETS"
Frank Lloyd, director of "Dark Streets," went to the height of realism in filming gangster sequences for the First National picture which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Friday and Saturday, January 3 and 4.

The robbery of the Acme Silk Company's warehouse, a focal point in the dramatic story, was patterned after the famous burglary several years ago of the Union Ice and Storage Company's warehouse in Los Angeles. Lloyd dispatched set designers to the Los Angeles scene to copy the studio set from the ice company's warehouse and the streets in the vicinity.

From police officers who worked on the case the director borrowed the plan of action used by the burglars and then used the same routine for his film. Details, such as the lighting of a cigarette by the crooks which caused their discovery, were incorporated into the screen story.

Only in the outcome of the robbery did Lloyd veer from his realistic example. In the actual robbery, three crooks were killed and the burglary frustrated. The film story gives an unusual twist to the ending.

Jack Mulhall portrays a dual leading role in "Dark Streets." He is both gangster and cop, twin brothers. Lila Lee is the girl. The cast includes Angie Harrington, Maurice Black, Pat Harmon and E. H. Calvert.

"RIO RITA"
As Florenz Ziegfeld has "clarified" the American girl, so Radio Pictures glorifies Ziegfeld in its superb spectacle of music, beauty and drama coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, December 29, 30 and 31, "Rio Rita."

All the rich qualities which drew Broadway crowds for 42 consecutive weeks to the Ziegfeld Theatre have been retained in the film production and to these have been added mobility and magnitude which the stage, even under the direction of Ziegfeld, could not hope to attain.

Against the most lavish sets yet seen on the screen is played and sung the magnificent drama of the Mexican borderland by Bebe Daniels, John Boles and a supporting cast of hundreds. Mighty vocal choruses, inspiring dance routines and beauty assemblages show for the first time the endless possibilities of the speaking screen.

In the huge cast are Robert Woolsey and Bert Wheeler, crack comedians of the original show; Don Alvarado, popular screen player; Dorothy Lee, flapper sensation of "Syncopation"; Helen Kaiser, Follies beauty; Georges Hebevirt, Tiny Sanford, Sam Nelson and Eva Rosita. More than a hundred glorious girls, the Pietro Cimoli grand chorus of eighty male voices and the famed Radio Pictures symphony orchestra are among other features.

The whole of the second part of the production is filmed in technical-color and is a sumptuously furnished galloon anchored in the Rio Grande.

In addition to "Rio Rita," "Following the Sun Around," "The Kinkajou" and other of the lovely melodies from the original show, two new songs are heard. These, also composed by Harry Tierney and Joe McCarthy, are "Sweetheart, We Need Each Other" and "You're Always in My Arms."

"THE VIRGINIAN"

Three of Paramount's most active and most powerful actors will be seen and heard in "The Virginian," all-taking classic at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, January 1 and 2. They are Gary Cooper, Richard Arlen and Mary Brian. Each has had phenomenal success in the new medium of talking pictures and each is a great favorite.

Cooper plays the role of the Virginian, Arlen is Steve and Miss Brian is cast as Molly Wood, the school teacher with whom the Virginian falls in love. Walter Huston, veteran of the Broadway stage, and a great movie

Municipal Notes

BY THE MANAGER

The snowfall of the past few days, rated by the weather bureau at Detroit as the heaviest in eighteen years, has placed a burden of work upon all villages and cities in this part of the state far beyond what is usually encountered during the average winter season. The county has, with its large village, leaving us the job of clearing the side streets. With our limited equipment this is proving a real task, but we hope that by the end of the week all of our streets will again be passable for motor traffic.

In cooperation with the merchants and others, the village has lighted up one of the evergreen trees in Kellogg Park as a Christmas tree, in an effort to typify as far as possible, the prevalent Christmas spirit. With the addition of the snow the tree presents a really charming appearance. See our Christmas tree when you are again in the uptown district.

Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to all.

Considerable tape-armored cable is being laid in the territory of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company as part of an extensive toll cable development covering a five year period with an approximate cost of $45,000,000. In laying cable of this type, the work is greatly facilitated by the use of the caterpillar-type tractors drawn by motor-driven tractors. The cable is reeled off from the reels of the tractor. In this way three miles of cable may be laid per hour. The tape-armored cable is laid in trenches 30 inches deep and 15 inches wide, generally in rights-of-way thru private land. No conduits are used in laying this type of cable.

A submarine cable, the largest cable of its type that can be manufactured at the present time, has been laid between Martha's Vineyard, off the southeastern coast of Massachusetts, and the mainland. The new cable will serve the Island of Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket with telephone service. In 1916 a small cable was laid and is still in use.

All points in Czechoslovakia are now included within the scope of the Transatlantic telephone system.

The first automatic telephone exchange in Russia has recently been completed. It serves the city of Rostov-on-Don.

A New Year's Discovery

By Katherine Edelman

IT WAS a typical mid-winter New Year's eve. Snow was falling in soft, feathery flakes, turning the city into a panorama of beauty. Dorothy Crandell caught her breath sharply as she looked at the picture.

Suddenly she slipped on her brakes; in her interest she had almost run over a little fellow on the snow-covered park drive. Jumping out hastily, she inquired of the boy if he was hurt.

"No, ma'am," he answered, half apologetically. "I—I'm sorry I was in the way. I ought to have been looking out, but—but I was worried about my ma."

"Oh, it was all my fault," Dorothy answered, surprised at herself. "And—and I'm so glad you're not hurt. If you tell me where you're going, I'll be glad to take you there."

"You see, ma'am," the little fellow tried hard to keep the quaver out of his voice, "my ma is real sick and—and I thought, maybe, I could shovel snow for some rich folks to help out."

Dorothy Crandell was not in the habit of paying particular attention to ragged urchins. Born in the lap of luxury, she had never taken any interest in those who have to wrest an existence from life. Now she was shaken out of her usual selfishness, and frightened, too, by the thought that she might have killed the boy.

And, too, the manliness of the little fellow, coupled with his solicitude for his mother, touched her strangely. Something awoke Dorothy's heart that had never come to life before. Then she took the boy into her car and drove back with him to the little cottage down in the hollow where his mother lay ill.

In the two hours that followed Dorothy Crandell made the discovery that she had been of very little real service in the world before. For the first time in her life she felt the glow of happiness that comes from helping others.

The gratitude and appreciation of the sick woman touched her beyond measure. Tears had welled in the faded eyes as she took the pill that Dorothy pressed into her hand at leaving. "As soon as Jim comes back from the hospital and we get on our feet again, I'll pay every cent of it back," she said.

"No—and you mustn't think of it," Dorothy answered back. This New Year's experience had awakened her to the discovery that life's greatest happiness lies in making others happy.

Her New Year's Surprise
By Lily Rutherford Morris

GRACE DAVIS looked up from her office desk into the eyes of a strange young man. He was smiling down on her.

"Would you please write me a letter tomorrow? I'm going home for the holidays, and here's my address," depositing a slip of paper before her.

Grace stared incredulously. "Such impertinence! I don't even know you!"

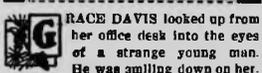

"I don't mean to be impertinent, really. I can't explain now why I'm making the request, but I will on my return after Christmas."

"But—"

"It is most important that I receive at least one letter from you. Say anything you wish, but please write. He left without another word and Grace sat motionless, staring after him. There was no one in the office to talk to, so she just stared and wondered.

Finally, she picked up the slip bearing his address and read: "Ben Graham, Avondale, Kentucky."

Where had she heard that name before? Somewhere, surely. "He was a

...nice looking chap anyway," she mused; "and there might be an honorable purpose back of the request. I think I'll give him a tryout."

It was a queer letter that Grace sent, but a nice one came back from Ben—so interesting that she sent another and was sorry that the holiday season lasted no longer. There was some doubt about knowing him after ward.

On January 1 Grace again looked up from her desk into the eyes of Ben, and again he was smiling.

"Happy New Year! I have come to explain," he said.

"Well, I'm waiting. Do satisfy my curiosity."

"That was a fraternity initiation stunt. I had to do it."

"Oh! Now I know why your name seemed familiar. You are in college here?"

"Yes. One of the fellows knew you and picked you out for me to come to with that request. Am I to be forgiven for the 'impertinence'?"

"You are a good sport, Ben, and I'm for you!" holding out a hand which he eagerly seized, saying: "Happy New Year again! What about a dinner date for tonight?"

Resolution Might Help

A young man asks a medical publicist what to do about a tendency to lose his balance in a dark room. Maybe he should have made a New Year's resolution.

Never Too Late

Any day is a good day to start the New Year right for persons who have not done so already.

London's first trunk telephone line was opened with Brighton on December 17, 1884.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Frank G. Murray, who passed away two years ago, December 23, 1927.

"It seemeth such a little way to me, Across to that strange country, The Beyond."

For it has grown to be The home of those of whom I am So fond.

And so for me there is no Death, It is but crossing, with abated breath, A little strip of sea.

To find one's loved ones waiting on the shore, More beautiful, more precious, than before."

His loving wife and children.

When the American Gas Association held its annual convention at Atlantic City, a convention address was delivered in England and was heard by the 6,000 persons attending the convention through the transatlantic telephone service. This is the first instance of the transatlantic telephone being used to transmit an address from England during a public utility convention.

A CARD—We wish to thank the ladies of the church and the P. T. A. for the lovely plants they sent Mr. MacKinder and the neighbors and friends for their kindness while Mr. MacKinder was so lame.

The program was under the direction of Mrs. Gladys Thomas and the Gubrie.

Little David Ryder Smith arrived Thursday morning, December 19, to gladden the hearts of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Smith. They have the congratulations of their many friends.

A very lovely Christmas party was given by Mr. and Mrs. George Schmidt at their beautiful home on Plymouth road, last week Wednesday evening, for their neighbors and friends. Old Santa was there to distribute gifts, and delicious refreshments were served by the hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Schmidt and family left for Florida, Saturday evening, by train.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Ryder and Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Bakeswell attended the wedding of Miss Viola Hargray to Francis Cronk of Wayne, in the First Baptist Church of Wayne. Miss Hargray is the primary teacher of the Newburg school, and Newburg friends extend congratulations.

The program at the school house Friday evening was well attended. The children all took their parts well. All the Newburg students at Albion are home for the holidays.

The Queen Esther girls held a party at Lydia Joy's, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Anna Eliza Farewell is spending the winter with her daughter, Nettie, in Detroit.

Newburg friends sympathize with Mrs. Louisa Bennett of Plymouth, who had the misfortune to fall and break her wrist recently.

To Wish You a Happy, Prosperous New Year

It's the old wish—but it's the best wish, too. Back of it stands every member of our staff.

Of the memories of 1929 the most outstanding is that of the spirit of friendship which so many people in and around Plymouth extend toward us. The twelve months just ended were rich in those assets of confidence and cooperation.

The coming of 1930 brings a new opportunity, for the Plymouth United Savings Bank, we feel—to reach a new high level of usefulness to our friends.

And a new responsibility—to meet every requirement in service promptly, that we may have a part in making 1930 "the best year ever" for our friends.

great blessing are you thankful?

We open our doors with this opportunity for the community to share our profits and when we feel this saving will be mostly appreciated by our customers. As we are facing another prosperous year every article from pins to dining room suites must be pulled out and inventoried. We are going to pull them out for these 3 days—let you look this merchandise over, and to purchase at this BIG SAVING of

20% OFF

This 20 per cent off takes in every article of our entire stock—FURNITURE, FLOOR COVERINGS, DRY GOODS, LADIES' READY-TO-WEAR, MEN'S FURNISHINGS, HOSIERY, MEN'S BOOTS AND SHOES. January Clearance Sales sound big but 20 per cent means the same. Merchandise Below Cost sounds big, but fishie. If we did this how long could we serve you? But there will be merchandise below cost—merchandise that will accumulate in broken sizes, colors and that's what we hope to dispose of to make room for new. On January 2 we will practically be closed, but will be glad to wait on you for any of your wants. When taking inventory it is impossible to give our customers the courtesy they deserve. Paul Bunton's New Year
 By James Lewis Hays

"If you could only crack a whole row of nuts at once!" "That's too much efficiency, Bub," said Uncle Charlie opening another pecan. "I ought to tell you about Paul Bunton's New Year's resolve."

Bob and Jim and Bub shouted. Anything about the giant wood cutter!

"Well, it was on New Year's day, like this, the winter of the blue snow. He wouldn't waste a speck of time or a single motion in the year to come. And off he biked, a mile at a step, to fetch his big blue ox and get busy."

"Was that the time he plowed the Grand Canyon?"

"No, Jim, he had to log off North Dakota that year. He harnessed the ox to his big tree shaver and made a new blade for it by breaking off the top of Iron mountain and hammering it out with his flat. Away they went, mowing trees.

"Paul noticed whenever the blue ox reared it stood swinging its tail. So he strapped a great ax to the ox's tail and stopped him, after that, by a tall tree.

"Back and forth went the tall, and whack, whack the great trees fell with a mighty swish. And they went on cutting trees and not wasting a motion.

"But the trees the ox cut down with his tail fanned him until he began to sneeze. Paul didn't think it would hurt the blue ox, but he didn't want such violent sneezes to waste. So one of his axmen carved a gigantic wooden windmill and set it in front of the ox every time they stopped.

"Kerchoo! Kerchoo! the blue ox would sneeze and 'whif' would go the windmill. Every time it whizzed it would make Paul Bunton's sawmill cut a hundred logs."

"How could it?" Bob asked.

"Oh, easy! Paul fastened it to the sawmill by radio."

The total value of Michigan's crops for 1929 is only 5 per cent below that of 1928, but the actual cash income from crops sold is much less than last year's. The potato crop was not much more than one-half as large, but the total value was sixty per cent greater because of much higher prices. Notwithstanding this fact, the small crop afforded only a limited quantity for sale and farmers in some localities had to buy their supply for home use. Lower bean prices have reduced the total value and income by twenty per cent although the volume was nearly the same as in 1928. Lower prices for wheat and hay have partially offset the gains in production. Prices of other crops are not far from what they were one year ago, but the production is decidedly less in most cases. For some of these crops prices are a little higher than on December 1 of last year.

The indications last spring were for a decreased acreage of potatoes and increased plantings of beans, and as pointed out at that time by the Michigan Cooperative Crop Reporting Service, would, under average conditions, result in better prices for potatoes and lower ones for beans. Because of extreme drought, both crops yielded far below normal which favored better prices than expected at that time, but a good yield of beans was obtained in several western competing states and the importation of a considerable volume of foreign beans during the last two months has tended to depress the market for the present on that crop.

The drought which prevailed from about the middle of July until October was the severest in 35 years. While it greatly reduced the yield of all late crops, harvesting was accomplished under ideal conditions with a minimum of effort. The quality of all crops was generally above the average.

"Sure!" scorned Jim.

"But," continued Uncle Charlie, reaching for another handful of nuts, "the sneeze got worse and the blue ox had to be put to bed. Paul lost a week's work fetching hot water bottles and porous plasters an acre square, before the ox was well. So he made his New Year's resolve over."

"He whittled a tall pine into a penholder, put in a fresh point, and wrote in letters ten feet high, in a book bigger than this house:

"I resolve to leave well enough alone and not try to do everything at once."

If nature is so grand, why did she give the thickest skulls to those who have least to protect.

A SMILE OR A FROWN?

When the Christmas bills pour in, will you meet them with a carefree smile or a foreboding frown? Can you pay "C. O. D." or must you look forward to weeks of drudging sacrifice to make up a deficit caused by Christmas spending?

Meet Christmas 1930 With A Smile

Settle the matter for 1930 by joining our Christmas Savings Club. Members pay as little as 25 cents a week or as much as $20 a week and draw out a few weeks before Christmas—

$12.50 to $1000*

This is the modern way to dispose of the Christmas spending problem. It is both sensible and scientific to set aside the required amount as you earn it—a fraction of the total each week or each month as income is received.

Try it this year. Come in and find out all about the Christmas Club. Or write or phone as best suits your convenience.

* Plus interest if payments are punctually made.

Christian Science Notes
"Is the Universe, including Man, evolved by Atomic Force" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, December 22.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest." (Heb. 12:18).
The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The true theory of the universe, including man, is not in material history but in spiritual development. Inspired though relinquishes a material, sensual, and mortal theory of the universe, and adopts the spiritual and immortal." (p. 547).
Sunday, December 29th, the Lesson-Sermon will be "Christian Science."

BAPTIST NOTES
The young people's society had a very interesting program Sunday evening, which was in keeping with the Christmas season. There were 128 present. At the close of the service, the president played the role of Santa and passed out a treat to everyone present.

A most interesting and successful Christmas program was conducted Sunday evening. The service was very well attended, all the seats were filled before the service began, and chairs had to be used to accommodate the crowd. The first part of the program consisted of recitations and songs from the Bible folk. The latter part, musical solos, both vocal and instrumental, pantomime, and a drama, "The Birth of Christ," which was given by twenty-three young people. The service was closed by the singing of two anthems, "A Fair Rose" and "Gloria."
Beginning Sunday morning, Evangelist W. S. Colgrove will conduct a series of evangelistic meetings covering a period of three weeks. Rev. Colgrove has just closed a very successful meeting with the Puritan Ave. Baptist church, Detroit. He comes very highly recommended, and the local church is looking forward to his coming with much anticipation.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.
The Christmas music by the choir at both morning and evening service, was much enjoyed last Sunday. The Christmas tree entertainment on Monday evening proved a fine success. Despite the snow and cold there was a very large attendance and everyone was in the happy mood which Christmas time brings. The program was bright, varied and interesting. There were songs, exercises, and recitations. These were followed by an operetta, "The Earl of the Santa Claus Trail," which was very well done and after which Santa actually appeared and distributed his gifts to all.

The congregation is pleased to have a number of our young folk, who are home for Christmas vacation, meeting with us.
Sunday, January 5, the sacrament of the Lord's Supper will be observed at the morning service.

Three Ailments
Banished By
New Konjola
"THROUGH DEEDS, NOT WORDS HAS KONJOLA WON ME FOR A LIFE-LONG FRIEND," HE SAYS.

MR. DELBERT RITTENHOUSE
"Through deeds, not words, has Konjola won me for a life-long friend," said Mr. Delbert Rittenhouse, 2029 De Hoop Avenue, Grand Rapids. "For a long time I was in intense distress from indigestion, liver and kidney trouble. These three ailments combined to make life miserable. I could not eat a meal without suffering afterward. My sleep was disturbed at all hours of the night by irregular bladder actions. I was subject to dizzy spells and headaches."
"Two bottles of Konjola did me more good than all the other medicines and treatments I tried together. Day by day my condition improved. Now, after a brief treatment, all trace of those three ailments are gone. I eat, sleep and feel better than for many years. There is no doubt in my mind but what Konjola is the Master Medicine."
Konjola is sold in Plymouth at the Community Pharmacy and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

METHODIST NOTES

"And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all men unto me" John 12:32.
Next Thursday, January 2 (note the change in the day), will occur the regular meeting of the L. A. S. Our hostesses will be Mrs. Wm. Hood, Mrs. J. Q. Smith and Mrs. Elmer Gray. Mrs. Sara Ross has the devotions, and the program will be under the direction of Mrs. Ivan Gray and Mrs. George Collins.
While making New Year resolutions let us resolve, here and now, to be in our places at church at least once every Sunday, and to truly "lift up the Christ," that this coming year of nineteen hundred thirty, this anniversary of Pentecost, may be another Pentecost. The best year, spiritually, we have ever experienced. With God's help we can do it. Let us lay aside every weight, and the sin that doth so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us, looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith.
Keep in mind the three-act play, "All in the Family," to be given next month.

SALEM

The Federated Church will hold their monthly church night, Friday evening, January 3. Walter Hastings will give an interesting talk and also show pictures of bird and animal life. The annual fish supper will also be served, and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Price, 50c. and 25c.

Violet Ray Operations Used In Industry

OAKLAND SAFETY INSPECTOR EXPERIENCES CURATIVE POWERS IN "MECHANICAL" SUNBURN.

While certain shop employees of the Oakland Motor Car Company cannot spare the time to bask in the Florida winter sunshine, they receive all the beneficial effects from the new carbon arc welding equipment recently installed.

A. A. Vitt, Safety Inspector was the first to realize that the Arc Welding equipment produces a radiant sun tan on the operators of these machines. While inspecting the machines for final O. K. he received all the effects of a blistering day on the Florida Keys. Metal masks, protecting face and neck from the violet rays, were immediately ordered for all arc welding operators.

With the new equipment it is possible to weld together the two halves of the Oakland banjo type rear axle housing in one operation.
By welding in a single operation, a strong flexible weld is achieved which affords an added improvement in the construction of Oakland and Pontiac rear axles. Six definite savings in manufacturing process are also made.
Upon completion of the installation, four of these new arc welding machines will be in operation, working in pairs. Each pair of machines is enclosed in a seven foot corrugated metal partition in order to protect the eyes of nearby workers from the powerful violet ray.

The New Year

By Will D. Muse
in Atlanta Constitution

I COME to you on the wings of dawn
That is fringed with gold and gray.
I come when the curtains of night are drawn
For the march of a new-born day—
I come—all fresh from the hand of God
To you, to the roe and the crumbling clod.

Each day is a jewel brought for you
To bring on life's dim fire,
Hopes that are born in your heart anew,
Where old regrets lie dead—
Each day a gift from the God who sees
Your innermost truth—all you pain or please!

Each day is heralded, a gift to you,
To use as your heart may will:
You can live them false or live them true
Till death your pulses still—
But be not deceived, for the senseless clod
Will tell the tale in the face of God.

I come with the message of winter chill,
And the blessings of rain and sun;
The glory of forest, and field and hill,
And the vapors where rivers run—
I bring sweet life to the roe and clod,
And you—from the vaults of a watchful God.

IF YOU'D HAVE SOME FUN

State Takes Rank In Chemical Field

VALUE OF GOODS PRODUCED AND MANUFACTURED IN MICHIGAN DURING CURRENT YEAR WILL EXCEED $135,700,000.

BY C. C. MCGILL,
Secretary, Public Affairs Bureau, Detroit Board of Commerce.

About a dozen counties in the southeastern section of Michigan comprise one of the leading areas in the world in the production of chemical products, pharmaceuticals and toilet goods. Detroit is recognized as the leading city in the world in the production of drugs and toilet preparations.

For the current year the value of these products produced and manufactured in Michigan will exceed $135,700,000. Experts will be valued at more than $100,000,000 in value of these manufactured products may be imagined when the fact is known that one manufacturer of medicines and medical supplies in Detroit makes more than 4,000 different products.

In Michigan there are 69 factories employing more than 9,000 men and women which produce basic chemicals or manufactured articles in the pharmaceutical line. Payrolls in these plants total more than $10,500,000 annually. There are 26 plants manufacturing pharmaceutical products, the 1929 value of which will exceed $37,000,000.

Soda Ash Imported
Before the discovery almost 40 years ago of the huge salt beds along the Detroit and St. Clair rivers and in the southern Peninsula of Michigan, all of the soda ash for the manufacture of plate glass had to be imported from Belgium and England. The vast importance of this discovery for the industrial future of Detroit is apparent when it is realized that bicarbonate of soda, which is derived from the salt beds, is used in bleaching, the purification of gas and oil, the tanning of leather, the scouring of wool, tempering of steel and for many other purposes. The aggregate thickness of these salt beds averages about 400 feet and it is estimated that the supply is sufficient to last for several centuries.

The great pharmaceutical and chemical industry which has expanded in the proximity of the salt beds has been a great factor in the development of industry in Michigan. The course of the drug and chemical industry has been substantial and on a firm foundation. This industry is not one which fluctuates with the season and continues on a steady upward climb almost without regard to business conditions generally. This is because the products of these manufacturers are bought in every civilized community throughout the world, they have very little effect on this important Michigan industry.

Market Good.
At present the market for basic chemicals is very good. The demand for soda ash depends principally on the production of plate glass, which is now at a very good level. Local plants, which are the principal sources of supply for this product, are now enjoying a flourishing activity. Manufacturers of all lines in the drug and chemical industry are looking for a substantial increase in business during the coming year. Because, as it has been said, there is little if any fluctuation in this industry, next year's volume of trade can be predicted to a remarkable degree of accuracy.—Free Press.

THREE NEW McFADDEN BOOKS

The name of Bernarr Macfadden is known to millions, but very little of the man and the remarkable story of his rise to wealth and power is known. Now the story is told. Three books about Macfadden are announced by Lewis Copeland Company of New York.

One book, "Bernarr Macfadden—A Study in Success," by Clement Wood, deals with an appraisal and interpretation of the physical culturist in the publishing industry.

The second book is entitled, "The True Story of Bernarr Macfadden," by Fulton Oursler. This volume is a fact-narrative, giving the story of a poor boy who won health, wealth, education and power, through his own efforts.

The third book, "Chats With The Macfadden Family," by Grace Perkins, shows the actual demonstration of Mr. Macfadden's well-known views on health as it relates to family life.

Americans in all walks of life are curious about this man Macfadden who, in a very short time, has acquired control of magazines with an aggregate circulation of more than five million and many daily newspapers. Whatever may be one's viewpoint, this Macfadden is a figure of modern America. The story of his life and an evaluation of his career should prove of deep and intense interest.

NOTICE TO PROPERTY OWNERS
This is to call attention to the fact that owners or occupants of property within the Village are required by ordinance to remove from sidewalks abutting their property all snow or ice within twenty-four hours after same may have fallen or accumulated thereon. In case of neglect or refusal of the owner or occupant to clear such walks the Village is authorized to do the work at the expense of the owner, the cost of such work to be assessed against the abutting property if not paid.

A. J. KOENIG,
Village Clerk.

Concrete Blocks Very Popular

The great increase in the use of concrete blocks in Detroit has been one of the striking developments in the building industry during the past fifteen years, according to the Concrete Products Association. Fifteen years ago the manufacture of concrete block and other concrete building units was carried on in small plants with a meager yearly output. During the last ten years the annual output has reached the total of 15,000,000 units.

Due to the fact that there are in the Detroit area a number of well equipped plants, builders and architects are assured at all times of a dependable source of supply. One of the most important reasons why the concrete block industry has attained its high position in the building field is that the department of buildings and safety engineering had had in force a rigid code as to inspection and strength requirements. Today, concrete blocks manufactured and sold in the city of Detroit multiple a crushing strength of at least 700 pounds per square inch of their gross sectional area.

Increased use of concrete block is demonstrated not only by the fact that a large majority of the basements are built of this material, but many above grade walls in high class residences in Grosse Pointe and Palmer Woods are built wholly or in part of these units. —Free Press.

A REAL NEW YEAR

By Blanche Tanner Dillin

MUSIC and dancing within the brightly lighted cabaret, while across the street in the shelter of a doorway a shabbily dressed young man, his coat pulled closely around him and his right hand on a cold object in his pocket, watched the slowly moving line of cars stop, leave their passengers and move on.

Five years ago tonight, Harlan Moore had celebrated New Year's eve in this same city with some school friends. A bitter quarrel with his father had followed his arrival home, across the river, out in the country, early the next morning. Later that day angry and somewhat ashamed he had left home unaccompanied, fully determined never to return.

The years since had been hard, and now almost penniless, without work and discouraged, a desperate plan, a way out of worry and want for a while, had suggested itself. It was dangerous—but then no one cared what happened to him—and the value of those jewels would keep him for a long time.

He stepped out and felt the now softly falling snow, which filled the unusually warm air, on his face. But an officer approaching drove him back. His heart beating hard and yet cold, he wondered if he had the courage to see the plan through. His hand tightened on the object in his pocket as midnight struck.

Just before the usual din proclaimed the New Year's birth, the orchestra in the cabaret swung into the strains of "Goin' Home." Scenes long forgotten flooded Harlan Moore's memory. Again he saw the old home, and again the pained look in his father's eyes—pained to think that his son could come home in such condition. As memories crowded fast on each other he wiped a mist from his eyes. He jerked himself up quickly—he couldn't be a baby—besides he hadn't done anything wicked—hadn't—something whispered, but he had planned to.

As the dread of facing the years ahead gripped him, the temptation came to see his plan through and take the consequences.

Added to the other memories the longing expressed in his mother's last letter served to sharpen his wish for home, and before he realized it he was rushing down the street. In one pocket was enough money for the ferry trip and across the river he could walk home. The object in his other pocket he would throw into the river and have that off his mind.

"This is a real New Year," he happily exclaimed. Just then he bumped into some one—"Where do you think you are going!" the person growled and he looked into the eyes of a police officer, but there was no fear in his voice or eyes, just peace and joy as he answered, "Why goin' home!" and laughed with sheer delight at the advice—"Well go then."

President Hoover has a telephone on his desk. Heretofore the president had to go to a booth, adjoining his private office, when he wished to use a phone.

The city of Youngstown, Ohio, shows a gain of 34 per cent in Long Distance calls over last year as against an average increase of 20 per cent throughout the state.

The State of Delaware now has more than 82,000 telephones connected by a network of 128,549 miles of wire, representing an investment in telephone plant of over $7,000,000.

90,000,000 POUNDS OF METAL FABRICATED IN OAKLAND FACTORY.

Ninety million pounds of metal, enough to make all metal stamped parts required for 225,000 cars, was fabricated at the stamping plant of the Oakland Motor Car Company during the past season, according to H. H. Matheson, assistant superintendent of productive operations.

Exclusive of parts department requirements the stamping plant produces approximately 150 metal stampings for each Oakland and Pontiac car. This involves nearly 500 press operations per car.

Four years ago the first stamping plant capable of fabricating the company's full requirements was installed. It contained 75,000 square feet of floor space. At the present time, due to increased production, metal stamping activities cover approximately 250,000 square feet of floor space, in which are operated 300 presses, ranging in size from 175 tons to a 50-ton capacity press.

ROSEDALE GARDENS EPHEMERALS

ROSEDALE GROCERY ROBBED TWICE

Clarence Hoffman, of the firm McKinney and Hoffman, and also McKinney are advising somebody or bodies sorta electracially, as it were, that they had just better stay at home, or at least some place before they spoil everything and commit suicide in "R" grocery. And they have the backing up of all in the neighborhood of shadows from the light on the water tower. So for the thirteenth time this same said cracker and cheese dispensary has been the victim of vandalism, or systematic robbery or some such thing. "No, it is no leffin matter," as the Jew said when he found that the fire insurance had expired three days before the fire. This is serious business.

Last Thursday the scrawlage or thieves just broke in a large plate glass window on the Berwick avenue side of the store and removed some 150 pounds of butter, 60 pounds of the best coffee, a case of fresh eggs, tea enough for a Chinese wake; and then on Sunday night, broke into the same window, yes, the same window, but very securely boarded and screened up. This last time they had a taste for cigarettes, candy, and evidently had tasted the butter as they took away the groceries. They then took all the tools of the butcher shop but the meat block and the refrigerator. Evidently they are going in the grocery business somewhere and have deferred taking the refrigerator until next summer when it is more urgently needed, or else they forgot it but their hurry to get away. However, will be on the watch for these kind of folks, and the village undertaker may get a job in the event of the return of one or all of the robbers.

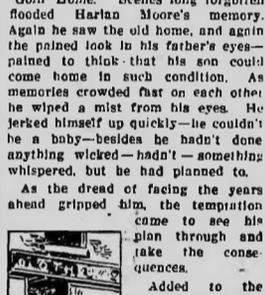

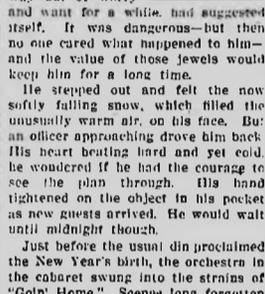

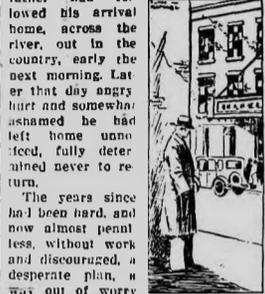

Then there is Shearer's store down by Grand (our neighbor gardeners) whose store was broken into last Thursday night, and the thieves pacified the dog somehow or other, but last Sunday night the dog had a good Sunday dinner and was not very hungry, and barked and scared them away. According to Mr. Shearer, he had heard the dog barking, and thought that he saw a couple of dark forms trying the windows of the store.

We have been thinking of having a lock put on the water tower, and must attend to that this very day, as it would be a terrible thing to have someone steal that, light and all. We would not be able to pilot our way home these stormy foggy nights, or if they happened to take it down by Plymouth some place we might run out of gas and have to walk back. Let's hope they don't steal it anyhow.

Seems to be epidemic, or contagious, or something, as lately all one hears about is how many places have been held up and how many have been robbed lately. Now comes the report of one Monsieur Floyd, who has the Owl Barbecue at the cross corners down by Middlebelt. During the period of our Christmas celebration Friday evening or sometime between that time and the next morning, the building was unoccupied and was broken into. Floyd reports the loss of cash register, clothing, smoked hams and fresh hams, and bread, coffee, sugar and the cigars, cigarettes and chewing gum—in fact, everything to eat and wear and smoke in the place. Of course, it is out of the question to post a sheriff or policeman at every door or in every building or store, but still, feel that something should be done about it. We do not know what to suggest, but just get together and see what we can do to protect not only barbecues and grocery stores, but other places as well.

L. W. Lemon, from our neighbor Gardens, came over Sunday morning to kid us about being moved under, but upon arrival he talked about other things, as we had cleared our ways by that time.

BOY SCOUTS AGAIN ON JOB Thursday there was not much mail, Friday none, and Saturday some, but

Today's Reflections

A doctor may do something for feet that are swollen, but the Plymouth man whose head is that way is beyond relief.

Wouldn't it be fine for Washington City residents if they could heat their homes with the hot air congress provides?

It takes all kinds of people to make a world, including those who like their food flavored with garlic.

We've heard Plymouth girls boast they could marry anybody they pleased. But they're usually the kind that never please anybody.

Maybe the reason we yell louder about heat in winter than in summer is because we don't have to pay for it by the ton.

Times change, but that little word "if" still stands between us and some mighty big things.

Plymouth mothers never realize what small homes they live in until they try hiding something from the kids.

Any man around Plymouth with potatoes and cabbage in the cellar and canned fruit, bacon and lard in the pantry doesn't need to do much worrying over what happens in Wall Street.

Now that the movie actresses have to talk maybe it won't be long until they will also be obliged to think.

How can you possibly cross the street when all the autos keep coming along like this.

Another thing harder than eating molasses candy with store teeth is trying to convince a modern Plymouth girl that she could learn to be helpful in a kitchen.

With some fellows the merriest Christmas hell is the one that jingles on the cash register.

After all is said and done the best way to put an end to wars is not to start any.

The lively stable business might still be thriving in Plymouth if some smart chap had thought of a plan for trading in the old horse on a new one.

Marrying is pretty much like everything else," declares Dad Plymouth, "when it is done right in the first place it doesn't have to be done over two or three times."

"I'd have a lot more admiration for the doctors," asserts Ma Plymouth "if they could find a way to cut out a man's meanness as easily as they cut out his appendix."

"The saddest fellow in town," says Dad Plymouth "is the one who will believe him long that nobody will believe him when he says he lost money in Wall Street."

When a man figures in an auto accident it is quite a strain on his wife to admit in court that he was right.

Dad Plymouth asserts that to a wife a husband isn't worth much around the house but always worth more than he gets where he is employed.
