7TH ANNUAL FATHER AND SON BANQUET A SUCCESS

Two Hundred and Fifty Attended Event Sponsored By Boy Scouts, Hi-Y and Torch Clubs Tuesday Evening.

An Interesting and Pleasing Program Was Given and the Rebekah Ladies Served a Splendid Dinner.

The seventh annual Father and Son banquet at the high school Tuesday night, kept up the high average set by those of former years. Nearly two hundred and fifty men and boys were there. Rev. D. W. Riley of the Baptist church invoked divine blessing on the gathering, and then the fellows sat down to a very appetizing, well served supper prepared by the Rebekah ladies and served under their direction by the members of the Girl Reservoirs. What they had to eat was as follows:

Roast Pork and Dressing
Mashed Potatoes
Escalloped Corn Cabbage Salad
Apple Pie Ice Cream
While all this was disappearing, Rip Collins and his Melody Boys, with Miss Gladys Schrader at the piano, and with two singers, entertained the banqueters with the latest orchestral music, deserving the generous applause given them. After the girls had cleared the tables, the yell masters, Bud Learned, Harold Stevens and Jimmie Stimpson, led the audience in yells for the "Dads" and for the "Sons." Then all joined with Cal Whipple in singing several of the old familiar songs.

WAYNE AIRPORT TO BE IMPROVED

$414,050 AUTHORIZED FOR CLEARING AND GRADING OF SITE.

The board of directors of the Detroit-Wayne Industrial airport Tuesday authorized expenditure of $414,050 for clearing and grading work and building of hangars on the 640-acre site near Wayne. The board also ordered that 175,000 shares of common stock, par value $10, be issued to finance completion of the project. Directors previously subscribed and paid for 24,000 shares at the same price. H. E. Smith, president of the airport, said the airport would eventually develop into one of the finest fields about the city. The fact that the Stinson plant is already located adjacent to the site and other aircraft plants contemplate moving to that section, he said, enhanced the value of the property. Prior to existing improvements the property was appraised at $1,071,000 by the Fidelity Trust company. It is located one mile from the Wayne city hall, and is reached from Detroit via Michigan avenue. In addition to Smith, officers are: William Metzger, George Stillwagen, Harvey Campbell and Edwin S. Smith.

The board of directors includes Frank Blar, president of the Union Trust company; Luther D. Thomas, president of the Fidelity Trust company; Judge Edward A. Major, Thomas Lambier, Edward A. Stinson, Edward Ver Linden, Mason Runney, George Hendrie, Newton Skillman, Walter W. Colbert, W. V. Baker, George Harrison Phelps, George Holley, Charles Handyside, Charles G. Minor and E. S. Evans.

Norman, George, Wilford, Stewart, Bert and Frank Hever, passed away very suddenly at the home of his son, Norman, Wednesday morning, Feb. 5. Funeral services will be held from Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Saturday at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. Interment will be made in Riverside cemetery.

The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Wm. Peas, 463 Ann St., March 10th.

FORMER PLYMOUTH BOY ATTORNEY IN BIG WESTERN SUIT

C. J. HENDERSON OF MT. VERNON, WASH., ASKS $3,200,000 FOR SQUATTE INDIANS.

INDIANS CLAIM THEY DID NOT SIGN 1855 TREATY DEEDING LAND TO GOVERNMENT.

We take the following article from the Mt. Vernon, Wash., Daily Herald, regarding a former Plymouth boy, and son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Henderson of this place, which will be of interest to Claude's many friends here: "Suit was instituted yesterday by Attorney C. J. Henderson, on behalf of the Squatte tribe of Indians against the United States government for $3,200,000 alleged to be due the tribe for approximately one and one-half million acres of land appropriated by the government from the Indians, without treaty or any settlement whatever. The action is brought under a separate act of congress which specifically empowered the Squatte tribe to institute this suit. "The lands in question are located in the vicinity of Concrete Lake, Lake Sauk river and some of the Cascades. "Away back in 1855, a treaty was signed by one Gollish, chief of the Lower Skagit Indians, which is purported to give the lands in question to the government in return for setting aside of certain Indian reservations and the giving to the membership of these tribes definite land allotments. "The Squatte tribe claims that their representative did not sign this treaty at the time the treaty was signed by the other tribes. "The Squatte and the Lower Skagit tribes were deadly enemies. In fact it is claimed by some of the old Squatte that, at the time the treaty was signed, it means instant death for members of one tribe to be found on the territory of the other and that the upper Skagit Indians, in order to trade with the white men, were forced to go on foot through the Cascade pass, then down the Columbia river to Portland, to avoid the enmity of the Lower Skagit tribes. "The suit was brought in the United States court of claims and will be tried in Washington, D. C.

Break In Water Main Shuts Off Supply Short Time

While crossing the Plymouth road near the Waterford road, the contractor, who is laying the water main from the city of Detroit to the Wayne County Training School and the House of Correction, had the misfortune to break the main pipe line that brings the water supply between the springs and the village. Monday afternoon about four o'clock. The contractor put his force of men at work with the village employees of the water department and the work of repairing the main started immediately. A new piece of pipe was brought from Detroit, and the break was completed and the water turned on about 11:00 o'clock the same evening. At 11:30 the pressure was back to normal. At the time of the break the big steel tank in the rear of the Presbyterian church was three-quarters full.

BETTER BUSINESS COMMITTEE OF MERCHANTS FORMED.

Following the example of the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce whose member merchants are united into a strong, well-organized progressive group under the direction and counsel of a Better Business Committee, Secretary Moore of the local Chamber of Commerce announces a Better Business Committee composed of Calvin Simons, chairman, Arthur Blunk, Albert Gayde, Harold Jolliffe and Robert Willoughby.

As soon as any definite plans are made they will be announced.

KIWANIANS AGAIN WIN BROOM BALL GAME

Last Monday night the Rotarians and Kiwanians played another broom ball game which ended in a victory for the Kiwanians, the score being 2-0. The game was played without skates on account of soft ice, and was not so full of thrills as the first game. However, upsets occurred quite frequently and was a little rough at times. The first period ended without any scoring on either side. In the second the Kiwanians managed to get the ball past Frank Rambo, the Rotarian goalie, for the first goal. Just before the period ended, Frank was caught napping and the second tally was chalked up. Penalties were given to "Bill" Wood for tripping, "Chuck" Garlett for slashing and Art Blunk and Ree for roughing it. "Doc" Champ played a bang-up game at center for the Rotarians, while Paul Hayward, Art Blunk, Don Sutherland, Bill Wood, Jesse Hake and Bob Willoughby alternated on the forward and defense lines and played their positions well. Wait Smith, the Kiwanian goalie, was kept busy at his post. Bob Jolliffe, "Doc" Thams and A. J. Richwine were the big defense men for the winners. Roy Fisher, Jack Emens, Harold Jolliffe and "Chuck" Garlett worked on the forward line. "Jolly" was warned for leaving off-side. Roy Fisher came very near being penalized for the same offense. Next Monday night at 8:00 o'clock the next game will be played on skates. Don't miss this sport.

Dental Work In Our Public Schools

Through the generous cooperation of our four local dentists, Plymouth boys and girls are privileged to have their teeth examined each fall. In addition to the above splendid service, Drs. Champe, Hover, Olsvayer and Thams are each very generously giving the school a half day this week, free of charge, in caring for teeth of the boys and girls whom their parents are unable to provide for. This is a wonderful service and will mean much towards not only the good health but improved scholarship for some of our boys and girls. The percentage of perfect teeth in Plymouth Public Schools is well up with and above those in communities surrounding Plymouth, and with such generous cooperation on the part of the local dentists, the percentage of perfect teeth is bound to gradually increase from year to year.

1809 Abraham Lincoln 1865

Each passing year serves to add to the love and reverence the American people have for the memory of Abraham Lincoln. No other American has ever approached the inner circles of men's hearts like the "Ball Splitter of the Sangamon." Born in abject poverty, amid primitive surroundings, his whole early life a series of bitter disappointments that would have discouraged the stoutest heart, he died to have his name forever engraved in the highest niche of human emotions throughout the entire world. He knew and understood the common people. He was of their kind and his great heart went out to them in sympathy so deep it marked him apart from his fellowmen. No other man was so mingled in public life as Abraham Lincoln. He knew the bitterness of being misunderstood—but through those darkened days he kept forward in his purpose to awaken in all hearts a new love of liberty, a new interpretation of our national purpose. He was the first among us to catch the spirit of real Americanism—he earned the right to be called the first American. He knew to side his time, And can his fame abide, Still patient in his simple faith sublime, Till the wise genera decide, Great captives with their guns and drums, Disturb our judgment for the hour, But at last silence comes: These all are gone, and standing like a tower, Our children shall behold his fame, New birth of our new soil, the first American.

HAVE NOT PURCHASED FACTORY SITE HERE

In response to an inquiry made by Berg D. Moore, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce, relative to the announcement in Detroit daily newspapers that the Detroit-Michigan Stone Company had purchased a site near Plymouth for a plant, officials of that company state was an error, as they had not purchased any property near this village.

High School Debators In Elimination Series

WINNING FOUR PRELIMINARY DEBATES ARE ELIGIBLE FOR ELIMINATION SERIES.

Once again, as in previous years, Plymouth High School has been sufficiently successful in the four preliminary debates to be one of the teams to be selected to take part in the elimination series. Our high school's success in getting into the elimination contest is getting to be a tradition because it has achieved this honor, with but one exception, every year since joining the league. Our first opponent in the elimination series was Trenton, on February 6, in the Plymouth High School auditorium, the contest coming just too late to get the report of it in today's Mail. A write-up in next week's Mail will tell of our success or failure last night.

It is earnestly hoped that the ladies will make a special effort to attend this meeting thereby showing their appreciation to Miss Johnson for furnishing the society this program.

Blunk, will be given on Wednesday evening, February 12th, at Jewell & Blach's hall, Plymouth, in honor of and for the benefit of the Ex-Service Men's Club. Rev. Oscar Beitz, the rector of St. John's, will preach a sermon appropriate for the occasion.

FORM PROTECTIVE ASSOCIATION FOR PROPERTY OWNERS

MICHIGAN REAL ESTATE ASSOCIATION TAKES ACTIVE PART IN STATE LEGISLATIVE AFFAIRS.

The aims of the Michigan Real Estate Association are: To raise the standard of efficiency of those engaged in the business by a study of advanced ideas in modern business practice as they apply to the real estate business, and the application of these ideas in their dealings with their clients under the high principles of the "Golden Rule"; To study the existing laws affecting real estate; To propose changes in present laws or suggest new laws of a beneficial nature; To observe legislative activities to the end that good laws may be passed and detrimental or vicious laws may be prevented; Having in mind all the time the promotion of legislative action along lines of greatest value to Michigan property owners.

This association for the past fifteen years has been the sole representative of real estate in legislative matters and as a consequence has established for itself a high standard of organized ability and is a recognized force in Michigan governmental activities. During the last legislative session 911 bills and 51 resolutions to amend the Constitution was introduced. Of this number nearly 200 were directly affecting real estate, either in the way of taxation, condemnation, conveyancing, the establishing of property rights, highways, exemption from taxation, or the collection of taxes.

It is at once evident this large number of legislative measures require constant attention and alertness on the part of trained legislative observers in order that those bills directly or indirectly applying to real estate may be promptly studied and acted upon by the legislative committee.

The legislative committee, headed by such outstanding men in the real estate profession, as Louis G. Palmer, president of the Michigan Real Estate Association; and Guy S. Green, president of the Hannan Realty Co. of Detroit, will devote the entire year of 1930 to the preparation of a consistent and comprehensive program, including the intensive study and consideration of the following subjects: Taxation, condemnation of property, related lands, mortgage tax laws, special taxes, especially those applying to the widening of streets and highways, and the codification of the real estate laws.

By this study this is a very ambitious and important program and will require the devotion of much time in committee service and travel on the part of committee members without compensation and those in position to judge speak very highly of the work being done by this organization. The Plymouth-Northville Real Estate Board is a member of the Michigan Real Estate Association and as such is taking a very active part in this commendable program.

Prominent Men Will Be Present As Speakers and Guests Wednesday Evening, February 12th.

Tickets Are Now On Sale At Local Banks and Chamber of Commerce Office.

A great deal of interest is being manifested in the annual election of officers and dinner meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to be held in the crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower, Wednesday evening, February 12th, at 6:30 o'clock. The tickets for the banquet are $1.00 each, and they can be purchased at any of the local banks or at the Chamber of Commerce office. The sale of tickets is progressing nicely and there is every indication that there will be a large attendance this year. William Wood is arranging for a most appetizing menu, and Bill knows what is good to eat. Perry Richwine and Secretary Moore will confer with P. W. Voorhies of Detroit, a former prominent and well known citizen of Plymouth, who has kindly consented to act as toastmaster of the evening, regarding the program and introduction of speakers and guests. With Mr. Voorhies to preside over the meeting, there is sure to be plenty of pep and enthusiasm.

PAUL W. VOORHIES
Toastmaster for Chamber of Commerce Annual Meeting and Banquet

Secretary Moore has received a letter from Vice-President L. C. Probert of the Pere Marquette Railway, who is to be the main speaker of the evening, stating that the Pere Marquette delegation would arrive in Plymouth about four o'clock on the day of the meeting. Mr. Moore has arranged to have a reception committee consisting of Paul Nutting, A. C. Dunn, H. K. Wrench and possibly several others to meet the Pere Marquette officials, to give them any information they may desire regarding Plymouth and show them the town and the many advantages it has to offer. It is hoped that every business man and citizen who is interested in the growth and progress of Plymouth will attend this meeting and banquet. If you have not yet purchased your ticket, do so today, so the committee may know as early as possible how many to prepare for.

PLYMOUTH PUCK CHASERS WIN ANOTHER GAME

DEFEAT DETROIT CREAMERY TEAM, 5-2.

Wednesday evening Plymouth hockey fans witnessed another game at the Plymouth Hockey Rink and saw the local team trim the Detroit Creamery outfit, 5-2. In the first and third periods the Plymouth team out-skated and outplayed the visitors by a large margin. In the second, however, the Creamery sextet had a slight edge on the local boys, scoring two goals within five minutes. The peppery Plymouthites took the lead after three minutes of fast hockey when Anderson slipped the puck past the creamery goalie for the first counter. Continuing at full speed ahead, the local squad, seven minutes later, added another when Mowatt out-smarted the visitors' defence and spread the meshes for the second goal. The third counter was secured by Rutherford on a hard shot that could not be saved. The period ended 3-0. Five minutes of the second period had passed when the Creamery team broke through for the first counter. This spurred them on and five minutes later they chalked up another. Plymouth perked up a little and decided the one goal margin was not sufficient. Block looked the disc on a rebound from Mowatt's shot, and easily beat the net minder for the fourth tally. The period ended 4-2. In the third stanza the Detroit boys were at sea. Scarcely could they get the puck past the first red line. The home team back-checked and so completely outplayed the opposing team in this period, they hadn't the slightest chance of scoring. "Chuck" Garlett was next to score, when he took a great pass from the corner from Mason, and bulged the twine for the fifth goal. Every man on the regular line-up scored for Plymouth. Arnold missed one by a narrow margin. Only the excellent work of the Creamery goalie kept the score to a three goal lead. Johnnie Destefano, the alert little goalie for Plymouth, turned in a good game and made several spectacular stops.

HALEY A. C. HOCKEY TEAM TO MEET PLYMOUTH TONIGHT

The Haley Athletic Club hockey team will journey to Plymouth tonight to battle with the local hockey team at the Plymouth Hockey Rink. This promises to be an exceptionally good game as the Haley squad are leading the Detroit Municipal League, having won four games and lost none. Those who followed the game last year will remember that Plymouth lost a tough game to Haley's in the play-off. Plymouth had the game won up to within a minute of the final whistle when Haley's tied it up. Overtime was played and neither team could get the deciding goal until thirty seconds before the gong, when Haley's beat the Plymouth goalie and won the game. This is the first opportunity the local team has had to get back at Haley's and if the weatherman give us good weather it is expected that a record breaking crowd will be on hand to witness this contest. The game will start at 8:15. Don't miss this game which is expected to be the best game of the season. Next Tuesday the Pere Marquette team of Detroit, will play here.

Mrs. A. J. Koenig was called to Flint last Monday, on account of the serious illness of her mother. She expects to return home Sunday.

AGED RUMMER IS MURDERED

FOUND DEAD IN BLIND PIG AT FRENCH LANDING; SLAYERS SET FIRE TO SHACK.

Search for the killers of Benjamin Laframboise, aged French Landing blind pig operator and namesake of "Muskra" Laframboise, wounded Canadian rum runner, Tuesday was aided by the discovery of numerous clues in the shack on Belleville road yesterday. Laframboise, 70 years old, was found with his throat cut, lying on the bed in his combined dwelling and speakeasy, by three employees of the Detroit Reduction company as they were on their way to work Tuesday morning. To cover their crime the murderers had attempted to burn the body by soaking the bedding with kerosene and applying a match. A bloody fingerprint, a stained

Kiwanians Hear Interesting Talk

Last Tuesday the Kiwanis Club had the pleasure of hearing one of its own members, Warren B. Lombard, give an exceedingly interesting talk on the National Association of Purchasing Agents, an organization of which he has been a director for a number of years. He said in part: "There is in Detroit a group of men united in a unique association. Although possessing a membership of hundreds of the most progressive commercial and industrial companies in the city, and although the local branch of a nationwide society, this group does not seek public notice; it takes part in no civic activity; it has no product to sell. This group is the Purchasing Agents Association of Detroit, a self-centered association based on the old-fashioned idea that a man's greatest usefulness comes from knowing his own job well. It is devoted to the narrow task of perfecting its members in their daily work. "But it is devoted to that narrow task with a broad purpose; nothing less than the establishment of highest ethical standards as the daily creed of modern business. "As details of its work, it collects and distributes to its members a wide range of authentic information about market conditions and price trends. It aids in locating sources of supply. It establishes efficient business methods. It instills the highest commercial ethics. "Recognizing the fact that without scientific methods in every department, no business can hope for outstanding success under present conditions, it fosters the habit of systematic buying in the light of accurate knowledge of the market. It recognizes purchasing as a profession and it labors to maintain professional standards in every business transaction."

IT WON'T BE LONG

Most of us feel that with the arrival of February the worst is over as far as winter is concerned. Not that we don't frequently have a lot of disagreeable weather after February 1, for we do. But we've noticed that Plymouth citizens commence to breathe a sigh of relief when February arrives. They know that no matter what may be on ahead in the shape of bad weather then, there can be but a few weeks of it, at the most.

The man who makes our holidays must have felt pretty good with the arrival of February, too, since he saw fit to cram it with special days even though it is the shortest month. With the groundhog strutting himself on Feb. 2; with two days for honoring two great statesmen, Lincoln on Feb. 12 and Washington on Feb. 22, and with sweethearts claiming Feb. 14, Valentine day, as their own, most everybody ought to be suited in the matter of holidays. And yet, as far as celebrating is concerned, the bankers are the only ones who get a chance to loaf. It keeps the balance of us working, holiday or no holiday, to get something to put in the banks.

But, work or no work, most of us are glad when February rolls around. We know it can't be long then until the green will be back in the trees, when fires won't need tending, when money can be spent for something besides fuel—and when garden truck will be showing its head. It's a short month, but thoughts like these certainly help to make it a mighty pleasant one.

TAXING GASOLINE

Invention of a new tax is always a dangerous thing, even though it may often be necessary. After the ground is broken and the tax is laid there is a tendency to increase it. More often than not increases are imposed. This is indicated by the gasoline tax. Barely ten years old, it has come into such wide popularity as a means of raising revenue that today a gas tax is levied in every state in the union.

In 20 states the rate is now 4c a gallon or more, and from $100,000,000 raised in this manner in 1925, the total taken from the pockets of motorists rose to $500,000,000 in 1929. We hear no specific complaints from motorists around Plymouth because they believe the taxation of gasoline was originally justified. But the practice of steadily increasing it, jumping it a cent or two every year or so, is certain to call forth a widespread and strenuous protest. As roads are built and paid for, and as the gas tax reaches the point where it is bringing in enough to take care of them, increases should cease. Gasoline is not always going to be as cheap as it is now, and when it jumps in price the additional tax is going to work a hardship on millions of motorists. With these considerations to be reckoned with our legislators should be content to let the tax rest where it is, or lower it. It they can't see the wisdom of doing so, then they deserve to be kept at home and others sent to the capital who can look that far ahead.

PAYING TAXES

No man regards the progress of his own community any more than the fellow who slacks in the payment of his taxes. He knows that it takes revenue to run his country, and that the chief source of that revenue is through taxation. And yet he endangers the prompt and successful operation of county affairs by either becoming delinquent altogether or withholding until the last second the tax money he knows he must eventually pay. For some reason, none of us enjoy paying taxes. Yet we ought to know that we wouldn't have much of a county if we didn't pay them. Whether it is pleasant or not we should, as good citizens, set an example by meeting this obligation the moment it is due. There are as few chronic “tax dodgers” around Plymouth as anywhere else in the country, and yet there are many who could be far more prompt than they are, and thus speed up the conduct of our county's business. Think it over, and we feel sure you will agree that it's a good business rule, as well as an example of good citizenship.

A TIMELY CAUTION

During the holiday season a Vermont woman baked a fruit cake. In reaching into a cupboard for a bottle of flavoring she got hold of a poisonous insecticide, and the family are the wiser for it. It was an unusual case, yet the same thing could happen right here in Plymouth at any time. Poisons for use on flowers or garden plants are almost a household necessity, and there are few homes in the community without some kind on hand. The very frequency with which they are used tends to make people careless as to where they are kept. The only safe way is to keep them locked up, or carefully stored beyond the reach of children, and they should always be kept away from food. There is no more excuse for being careless with poison than there is in being careless with kerosene and gasoline, and the Vermont case should be enough to convince us of that without waiting for more evidence.

ICE ON THE FARM

A three-year test of electric refrigeration on farms has just been completed by the government, and results show that the annual average cost of operation of an electric refrigerator in rural homes was $20.97 as compared to an average of $41.63 per year where ice was used. It was found that, on the whole, ice on the farm was as expensive as ice in the city. Breakdown of plants and current interruptions were very limited and the results obtained by the electric method were held to be superior to old methods of storing ice in winter for warm weather use. This is another great convenience, and safeguard against disease, being added to rural life. Certainly there should be an abundance of ice and refrigeration on the farm, where dairy products make it necessary. And now that a way has been devised to get it there's still another advantage in living on the farm has been provided.

ART MODERNE IN THE KITCHEN

If I were to ask you your opinion of modern art, I imagine your answers would be many and varied. “Oh, its very striking indeed for window decorations. . . attracts attention in their . . . may be all right for a person who likes the unusual. . . something faddish and bound to go out.” And yet, it you were to hear L. R. Horner, noted interior decorator of Cleveland, Ohio, express his idea of modern art, I fear that many of you would realize that it is not all shafts of lightning, sprinklers of stars, and something necessarily grotesque and ugly. Mr. Horner says that modern art is nothing more or less than a true and honest expression of the time and is very applicable to the typical home today provided the general principles of design are observed. We may have our poor and good modern art just as we have had examples of poor and good art in the past.

Modern art strikes out the unnecessary, brings forth that which is simple and attractive, and back of all is utility—the state of being useful—satisfying the present needs. Keeping these characteristics in mind, what room in the whole house is more adaptable to modern art than the present day kitchen? What room has greater need for comfort, suitability, and convenience than the work center of our home? Modern art has completely revolutionized the kitchen. Light and color, kitchen conveniences, labor-saving devices—all are results of the present day trend. No architect fails to note the necessity of natural light in a kitchen—to give brightness, plenty of fresh air, and to let in the beauty of the great outdoors. In wiring the kitchen, lights to see by rather than to look at are of vast importance. A semi-direct kitchen unit which gives general illumination in the room, also lights at the sink and range for more direct work show great improvement over the dimly lighted room of a few years back. Color in the kitchen is just as important today as it ever has been regardless of the fact that many people, particularly men, are trying to tell us that it is fast “going out.” Are the number of colored magazine illustrations decreasing? Are nature's colorings growing more dim? Will we turn from color entirely just because we have seen some poor example of it? No, indeed. Rather, I believe we are realizing the necessity of becoming educated in the use of color. We are beginning to think of it in terms of psychological effect rather than as a tangible something. Try a few tests before you become prejudiced against color. Run through a few magazines and see which illustrations are the most pleasing to you. Go through some model kitchens in our modern furniture and department stores. It is surprising how feelings waver and change as we step from one kitchen to another. It may be our entire outfitment, it may be a little trimming, it may be merely our kitchen utensils—but somewhere we are bound to add the modern and interesting note of color to our kitchens.

It is modern art which has given us our new scientifically and practical floor coverings which are so easy to keep clean and so charming to the eye. It is modern art which gives us our attractive wall finishes, our health-rendering automatic refrigerators, our immaculate ranges, and our energy-saving dish-washers.

A few years back our magazines were continually illustrating attractive living rooms, hallways and bedrooms. Then came the beautiful tiled bathroom fixtures which dazzled the eye of the reader. And now—it is the kitchen which is coming into the foreground. Entriguing, indeed, are the pictures we see today. Tiling on the wall and floor; range, sink, cabinets and refrigerator enclosed in the wall. No unnecessary floor space, nothing to get in the way—everything compact and simple, with nothing superfluous. Modern architects are using their art to take care of the housewives' needs and demands. Modern art means comfort, convenience, suitability, and beauty. So, after all, haven't we all accepted it—in our laundries, our kitchens—and particularly, our bathrooms?

Today's Reflections

Many a Plymouth husband is ready to admit that it's surprising what a woman can get out of a tin can. . . Sometimes after reading a daily newspaper we can't help but feel that there isn't anything straight in Chicago but the shooting.

The return of long skirts means that once again it will be possible for knock-knees to be heard and not seen.

Maybe after all static in a radio is just its protest against the jazz that is inflicted on it.

The hardest job a Plymouth girl who runs after a man has is holding him after she gets him.

You rarely hear of a person who didn't go up in one being killed in an airplane.

TORCH CLUB CLOSSES FIRST HALF SEMESTER ACTIVITIES

As the semester closes, the Torch Club has again elected their new officers which are as follows: President, William Henry; vice-president, Billy Kirkpatrick; secretary, Ed. Ash, and treasurer, Kenneth Gates. The members have been well pleased with the wonderful work of the officers, and in return the officers have been well satisfied with the everlastingly cooperation that the members have given. There is no question but that the Torch Club with the wonderful services of their director, Mr. Cobb, have carried on that purpose for which the club is organized.

Freshman Class Meeting

The class held a meeting Thursday, January 30, in which Ernest Archer was chosen to succeed Robert Haskell as student council representative of the class. The committee for the Stunt night program has decided upon their program. The Freshman class debate team is to hold a contest with the seniors to crown the champion class debate team. The date for this contest has not been definitely set, but it will be held within two weeks.

Teacher's Investigations Published

Claude Dykehouse, who teaches physics and chemistry in the local high school, working with Fred W. Moore of the Ottawa High School, has published in pamphlet form "A Study of the Relative Effectiveness of Two Methods of Reporting Laboratory Exercises in General Science." This work was under the direction of Prof. Curtis of the University of Michigan, and was printed in Science Education for May, 1929.

Breaks In History

Not since the Edison questionnaire has so much knowledge gone to waste as in the final exams this year. Many of the teachers learned new things and perhaps you can too. For instance, did you ever know: 1. That Cortez was the governor of the Texas Republic? 2. That his capture of Mexico was after the Mexican war? 3. That Lewis and Clark explored the St. Lawrence? 4. That George Rogers Clark founded Rhode Island? 5. That the revolution was during John Adams' administration? 6. That unwritten laws are laws that can be stretched? 7. That Alexander Hamilton was one of our presidents? 8. That the Louisiana Purchase was not until after 1850? 9. That the removal of deposits was the mining of gold? 10. That the Oregon settlement was propaganda for the constitution? 11. That Italy is a name given to officers of the Catholic church? 12. That Joan of Arc was the leader of the Protestant Revolution? 13. That Voltaire was the first historian? 14. That the Valcain is in France and that it was the home of Roman kings? 15. That Canossa is a building in Rome?

More Breaks

In this the twentieth century, we are still making amazing and wonderful discoveries according to the exams written last week. Heuba was the wife of Priam and the mother of fifty sons and daughters - From Virgil. One modern lad said that marriages increased the family greatly. From General Science, we find that anything that takes up sugar and has starch is called yeast. Humidifiers on furnaces give the air more molecules. Our study of the stars is called "astro-physics," which is very original. History has its drawbacks when the battle of Gettysburg was fought in 1916, and the two houses of congress are called Federalist and Antifederalist. The well known eighteenth amendment freed the slaves in the selected states. According to a very bright person America was first seen by Miles Standish. From Hygiene, some remarkable facts are: Six principal classes of foods are potatoes, vegetables, fruits, butter milk and bread. Another is: Cold storage is a cold in the head. Three kinds of insect carriers of disease are mosquitoes, flies and people. Excess of diet is eating certain kinds of food. This is a new one on the dentist's list as a disease the soldiers had during the war. These are some of the breaks made during the recent exams. - B. Kilgore.

Central Notes

General Notice
The P. T. A. of the Central School has bought a victrola for the grades, and the room that has the largest attendance of parents at the P. T. A. meetings has the use of the victrola for the month. Miss Weimann's, Miss Dixon's and Mrs. Holliday's boys and girls have enjoyed the victrola already.
I-B Room
Evelyn Elliott entered this room last week, coming from one of the Detroit kindergartens.
We promoted thirty-five children to the A-1 grade and took in twenty-seven people from the kindergarten, giving us a membership of thirty.
We are busy with our handwork making hearts and valentines and decorating the room for St. Valentine's Day.

Sugar Coated History

We write each day at the blackboard, and are learning form and rhythm.
The students of Plymouth High School do like to work! This startling confession was made by the American History classes, Thursday, two weeks ago, when Miss Flegel had the pupils who finished their exam early criticize the class and make suggestions as to how it could be made more interesting. However, we do not think this was a very wise thing to say for, certainly, Miss Flegel knows how to make a class interesting. Now we only hope that she will not take it too seriously. The majority of the students enjoy research work and like writing their theses on the development of our country. Maps are generally agreed to be helpful and the twelfth grade classes enjoy making them. There is quite a bit of disagreement over current events. Some people like them and some don't. Perhaps the pupils will like these better this semester since we are getting more magazines now. As to the suggestions some of the pupils said that they would like to have debates, and as a result the first one has been planned and is entitled "Resolved, that the Southern States Had a Right to Secede." Lectures also are to be a part of our program for this semester. They are to be given by the students but while they are in progress the class will be carried on like a lecture course. Yes, history contains in getting more and more interesting and we are quite privileged to get our candy-coated as we do rather than in the bitter doses of our predecessors.

'Round The World

No one has a complete education now-a-days until he has traveled around the world; therefore, this semester, The Travel Club has set out to acquire that patrolling polish especially noticeable in globe trotters. Having received their passports which were vided by the representatives of the various countries they are to visit, and having checked their baggage on board the sailing vessel, they arrived at Montreal and the great transoceanic ship which is to carry them to Europe. If all goes well, they will reach England on Monday. Miss Flegel, of course, is the pilot of the trip, but a different member is to be a guide in each country they visit. As for the duties of a guide are to know all the interesting spots and their history in the place he is showing, each one of the future guides will probably be cramming geography and tourists books instead of enjoying the sea trip without a care. The new members who have joined just in time to see the trip are as follows: Irene Anderson, Helen Berg, James Westerfield and William Tuck. May they be as hardy travelers, imaginatively, as the old members have proved themselves.

The Social Event of The Year

THE BARCELONIAN WILL CONTRIBUTE TO ITS ENJOYMENT.
Because the senior prom is the last social function sponsored by the class of '30, the seniors are very busy at the present endeavoring to make this occasion the most successful of all their parties. The plans for decorations are held secret as the class intends to surprise the dancers. The most interesting feature of the dance will be the Barcelona, one of the Knobel-Carl's leading orchestras of Detroit. This together with the unique decorations will afford all a very pleasant evening on February 14.

Senior Assembly

The great surprise of the last senior assembly was a fragment of a French play given by the French Club in that language. Fred Shear gave a synopsis of the play which was about Francois Thomas, a wealthy but very modest young man who is afraid of girls. He finally falls in love but is so terrified by the idea of asking the girl's father for his consent and by succeeding events that he becomes quite insane on that subject and completely forgets the girl's name. His uncle Morlot who has a safe and comfortable home as long as Francois is partially insane, decides to commit his nephew to an institution. It was at this point, while they were waiting at the institution that the scene given by the club began. Francois ties his uncle's hands after he dazes off. When the doctor enters, Francois informs him that he wishes to place his money-mad uncle in the institution. The uncle on waking, becomes very lively and acts really insane. Francois, suddenly coming to his senses, asks the doctor if he has a daughter named Claire. By chance Francois's sweetheart is really the doctor's daughter. At this point when the doctor calls Claire in, the uncle really loses his reason. The last scene shows Francois and Claire reunited.

Plymouth Meets Trenton Next

Plymouth and Trenton High Schools will clash in the pre-elimination debate held at the Plymouth High School Thursday, February 6, at 8:00 o'clock. This debate is scheduled because of a peculiar situation existing in the league. Sixty-nine schools have reached the final series. Of this number, ten are tied with twelve points each. These ten will debate Thursday or Friday, and the five winners will proceed in the regular elimination series. The first elimination debate will be held Friday, February 14, necessitating two debates in two weeks. This will make it rather hard for the twelve-point schools. Plymouth is anxious to defeat Trenton, not only to continue but also to make up for what happened last year at Trenton, where Plymouth lost the first elimination debate. Plymouth's team this year is young, but it has made quite a remarkable showing in every contest. Three people have debated all year, and they will continue throughout. These are Harold Stevens, Marion Gust and Lester Daily. Added attractions at the debate will be some vocal solos by Ted Baughn, songs coming by Margaret Wood, and a reading by Zephora Blunk.

NORTHVILLE WINS ANOTHER GAME FROM PLYMOUTH

Northville, by means of her Friday night victory, has practically eliminated Plymouth from the race for the pennant. As this game was the high light of the basketball season, a capacity crowd witnessed the affair. Plymouth took the floor determined to win, and did hold a 3-1 lead for the first session of the game. The orange and black forwards, however, sunk a barrage of shots to completely overcome the Rocks' lead. During the second half the blue and white team rallied considerably but not enough to overcome the orange and black lead. In the last quarter Northville made only one point, but the Rocks failed to score effectively so they could gain no advantage. LaFevre, Northville center, was the star of the tilt, sinking four field goals and two free shots. DePorter, Plymouth captain, took the blue and white lead with two field goals. The final score was 15 to 11 in favor of the visiting team, Northville. LINE-UP

The Second "R"

Let us discuss the second "R" for a while. Perhaps you have forgotten what the second "r" stands for. If this is the case we will have to tell you. Maybe you remember that once this country was dotted with little red school houses whose curriculum consisted of three subjects, reading, writing, and arithmetic. Yes, the second "r" must be "riting, although it has evolved into a much more ominous sounding word, "penmanship." In our school there are two hundred and twenty-five pupils taking penmanship. Among these there are only five from the tenth, eleventh and twelfth grades. Now you wonder why penmanship isn't more popular with the upper classes, but the answer is very simple—the upper classes have learned to write and find penmanship superfluous. No, the junior high school is particularly important of just what gradations one must go through to form beautiful "As, Bs, Cs," and—but you know your alphabet. However, more members of the junior high school have not earned their diplomas or improvement certificates. Now, if you did not take penmanship under just the same complicated system as ours you will wonder what diplomas and improvement certificates have to do with this world we live in and especially this world we write in. In the first place every student is required to take penmanship until he receives either an improvement certificate or a final certificate. For a test we use a red book with numerous drills in it which we must write. These consist of a series of nice fat ovals unravelling across the page, a "push and pull" exercise in which the pen is pushed and pulled vertically to form a fence across the page, and then exercises on both capitals and small letters. Palmer Method combines beauty with simplicity—I'm not speaking about the "push and pull" now—and ease with swiftness. After these drills are completed the papers are sent to the A. M. Palmer Company in Chicago, where they are judged for shape, the proper slant is toward the right for right-handed people and toward the left for left-handed people, for smoothness, and for any other reason. The latter is essential for swift and easy writing. If the writing is very good in all these things the pupil receives a final certificate or diploma on the payment of thirty-five cents. If the writing is not quite this good but better than any other drills, the pupil has sent in, he receives an improvement certificate. If the pupil receives either of these honors, he is not only excused from penmanship but he receives one credit towards graduation for the final, and one-half credit for the improvement certificate. Once a week the young "penmen" assemble in Mr. Day's, Miss Cary's or Miss Perkins' room, and write industriously for forty-five minutes. Mr. Day's group of tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders contains sixty-five members. Miss Cary's group of ninth graders, thirty-four, and Miss Perkins' group of seventh, eighth and ninth graders, one hundred, twenty-six. Plymouth High School has some good writers, too. All the new teachers think that as a whole our school has better penmanship than most other schools, and the president of the University of Michigan said that the Plymouth students in the University now rank among the best writers. No, one can ever say of us as they say of Horace Greeley, that a man whom we dismissed by letter used our letter as a railroad pass for years. Our letters of dismissal will always look like letters of dismissal!

A Newcomer

Because of the increased number of pupils who want to take certain subjects which are necessary to their courses, Miss Blanche Adcock has come to school. She who is teaching two commercial geography classes and three history classes, two 7-A and one ancient, was graduated from the University of Michigan with a Bachelor of Arts degree. She specialized in history as her major subject and in geography as her minor. Previous to her graduation from the Galesburg High School, she attended one year at Knox College at Galesburg, and has attended one year and two summers at Western Illinois Teachers' College. Her home town is Galesburg, Ill., where she has lived all of her life. She is coming to Michigan. Her experiences in Michigan, she said, are proving interesting, and she hopes to stay here for some time. Traveling seems to be Miss Adcock's pleasure, as she has traveled extensively in the United States. We hope that she will enjoy teaching in the high school.

Biological Survey has made an exhaustive study of the habits of these birds, and they state that the damage done to crops and fruits or in molesting other birds is small compared with the great work they do in feeding on insects. Some of the insects which the starlings destroy include the Japanese beetle which is spreading over the country; other insects which they are fond of are the cloverleaf weevil, cut-worms and grasshoppers. The conclusion of the survey is that the starling, in moderate numbers, is beneficial.

Class Basketball

The league of the classes has been under way about one week, and to date the standings are just about running according to forecasts. The ninth grade seems to be the dark horse in this race as it has come from behind to win twice so far.

The games are very interesting and provide amusement for the classes. They also teach the idea of sportsmanship and the fundamentals of basketball. The standings to date:

SHORT PISTON TRAVEL GIVES DURABILITY IN OAKLAND 8

LONG LIFE ALSO ASSURED BY MODERATE ENGINE SPEED AND PRESSURE OILING.

Although the new Oakland V-type Eight is one of the fastest cars on the road today, it also will prove one of the longest lived cars, according to the statement of factory engineers. A million miles and more of test driving has provided ample proof of their assertion.

Moderate engine speed and exceptionally short piston travel contribute importantly toward the durability of the new Eight, the engineers declare. The big, high compression engine with its 251 cubic inches of piston displacement, develops 85 horsepower at only 3200 revolutions per minute, a comparatively moderate motor speed as judged by present day standards.

Even more impressive is the new Oakland's piston travel of only 1.782 feet per mile. By the term piston travel per mile is meant the total distance that the piston moves up and down in its cylinder for each mile the car is driven on the road. The "square" bore to stroke ratio used in the new Oakland Eight engine has permitted the piston stroke to be reduced to only 3 1/4 inches or a total of 6 1/2 inches for the "round trip."

The average piston travel of American automobiles is somewhere in the neighborhood of 2,400 feet per mile. In the new Oakland Eight this figure has been reduced to 1,782 feet per mile. According to figures compiled by F. H. Kane, technical engineer for the Oakland Motor Car Company, each piston in the Oakland Eight engine will travel approximately 1,400 fewer miles during the course of a 12,000 mile year of driving than the average piston which travels 2,400 feet per mile. Since piston and cylinder wear are in direct proportion to piston travel, Mr. Kane points out that the Oakland enjoys an impressive advantage in this detail.

A further advantage provided by the Oakland's short piston travel, he says, is the reduction to a minimum of the internal strains and forces incident to engine operation. "And don't forget," he added, "when considering long engine life, that the Oakland Eight system of controlled pressure lubrication to every vital engine point including crankshaft, piston pins, valve operating parts and camshaft bearings, represents a further important contribution toward durability as do moderate motor speed and short piston travel."

POTATO STOCKS, JANUARY 1, 1930

The merchantable stocks of potatoes in the United States on January 1 in the hands of growers and dealers of the 35 late-producing states is 83,754,000 bushels according to the Government report released at noon today by Herbert E. Powell, Commissioner of Agriculture, and Verne H. Church, Agricultural Statistician. These holdings are the smallest since January 1, 1928, although nearly as large as those of January 1, 1927, with which they are comparable for analytical purposes.

The crop grown in 1929 was about 100 million bushels, or one per cent smaller than that of 1928, but the January 1 stocks were a fraction of a per cent larger than from the crop harvested last fall. Owing to the very short crop in Michigan last year, the stocks in the state are estimated at only 5,325,000 bushels, or about one-half those on January 1, 1927.

The average farm prices that prevailed in Michigan on October 15 and November 15, 1928 were $1.10 and $1.20 respectively per bushel; for the corresponding dates in 1929 they were $1.45 and $1.35 respectively. The higher prices last fall can be attributed to the fact that the Michigan crop was much shorter than in 1928.

Many farmers did not raise enough for home use and this lack of uniform distribution within the state strengthened the prices obtained by growers who were fortunate to have a surplus for sale. However, this may not be so much of a factor in connection with the sale of the remainder of the crop. The March 15 and April 15 prices for 1928 were $2.95. An increase of eighteen per cent in plantings is reported for the thirteen early southern states, which may cause increased competition for early potatoes during the late spring marketing of the remainder of the old crop.

As the good prices obtained for the 1929 crop were not due to a very small acreage planted but chiefly to yields below normal in many states, growers should not assume that a substantial increase in acreage and average yields will bring satisfactory prices. The increase in intended acreage in comparison with that reported a year ago is approximately two and one-half per cent. If the actual increase in plantings does not exceed this percentage, and the yield is not far from average for the country as a whole, fair prices should result.

ELECTRICAL REPAIRS

PROVE BIG ECONOMY Greater Beauty For Lovely Women

The resistance wire on any electrical household convenience may be likened to a main spring as when it is broken it leaves the article useless, but once replaced at a small cost, it restores the utility of the device.

Electric toasters, heaters, flat iron, cigar lighters are among the electrical articles most frequently discarded because of their broken resistance wires. Instead of replacing them with costly new articles, they may be repaired for a nominal sum.

Bear's Propensity for Hugging Termed Myth

The proverbial hugging propensity of bears is probably a myth, notwithstanding a vast amount of alleged testimony to the contrary. Literature, reference books and works on natural history contain numerous references to the "crushing embrace" or "deathly hug" of bears. Pope, for instance, says, "Tis a bear's talent not to kick, but hug." Nearly all careful observers are agreed that this notion is erroneous. It probably arose from faulty observation. Dr. W. Reid Blair, director of the New York Zoological park, says on this subject: "In regard to the proverbial hug, the story is apparently devoid of foundation. A bear, on account of its anatomical structure, strikes round with its paws as if grasping, and the blow of its powerful arm drives its claws into the body of its victim, which action apparently gave rise to its hugging reputation."—Exchange.

songs. The trend of the program here changed from what could be classed as preliminary to the principal, the speeches.

Three school organizations each year sponsor this banquet—the H.Y., the Torch Club and the Boy Scouts. In behalf of these clubs, Russell Wallace introduced Dr. S. N. Thoms, who acted as toastmaster. The doctor took the usual liberties with those on whom he called, but the score was in favor of the speakers after Dr. Spencer had seized the opportunity, which he said he had never had before, of getting back at toastmasters and the whole class of dentists all at once.

Gale Kenyon spoke to the toast "Our Dads," touching on both the lighter and more serious phases of the relationship between a boy and his father. "I'll remember," accompanied by Miss Gladys Schrader, sang two songs very acceptably.

A. J. Koenig, village manager, responded to "Our Boys." His concrete advice to the boy wishing to study his dad closer to him was to study the dad's hobby—be it golf or what not—and take him on a trip with him, or come as close to it as he can. The effect of doing things together would be potent anyway.

Cal Whipple led the audience in more songs after Mr. Koenig's talk, drawing the surmise from Dr. Spencer that Plymouth was democratic because the men sang "The Sidewalks of New York."

Dr. Thoms then introduced Dr. Wm. G. Spencer, president of Hillsdale College, as the principal speaker.

Dr. Spencer first attended to the toastmaster as related above. He then took as a basis of his speech the game of dominoes and its three fundamental rules—1, that the highest double leads; 2, that the piece that is played must be matched; and 3, that pieces must be given away to win, for the player first to run out of pieces is the winner. He applied these rules to life showing that through study, training and preparation are the necessary "highest doubles" with which to start a play for success in the game of life. Likewise, the trend of public thought and fashion in one's particular vocation must be studied and matched if successful progress is to be made. Finally, the pieces given away along the way to success, are one's efforts and achievements spent for the benefit of the greatest number and not hoarded for one's own selfish satisfaction. Dr. Spencer spoke forcefully, but in such fashion that his younger hearers could easily grasp the lessons brought out.

Dr. Thoms, after expressing "highest appreciation" of the audience to Dr. Spencer for his message, called on those present to join in a verse of The Star Spangled Banner. Rev. Oscar Seitz of St. John's Episcopal church pronounced the benediction; and the seventh annual Father and Son banquet became history.

Early Puritan Picnic

Perhaps the gentle reader would be interested in knowing how the Puritan chiefdom of the Massachusetts Bay colonists spent his first day in New England.

After exchange of greetings with Governor Endicott of the Salem colonists, Governor Winthrop says: "We . . . returned with them to Nathaneek, where we supped with a good venison pasty and good beer, and at night we returned to our ship. "In the meantime most of our people went on shore upon the land of Cape Ann, which lay very near us, and gathered store of fine strawberries."—Boston Post.

Black and Blue Spots

Those black and blue spots we sometimes find on various parts of the body are bruises. They are the most common of all injuries. Sometimes we find them and wonder how we got them. Bruises result when we receive a fall or are struck by a blunt instrument that doesn't break the skin. If the injury is slight no treatment is necessary, but cold compresses will help. In severe bruises apply the cold compresses, elevate the injured part to diminish the pain, then apply witch-hazel or some other soothing lotion. Be sure it is only a bruise and that no bones are broken.—Exchange.

Inexperienced

George, a wee citizen of the North side, had committed a forbidden act and was being reprimanded by his father. "George, I told you I'd spank you if you did that, didn't I?" asked his father. "Yes," George replied, a little forlornly. "Well, what shall I do with you?" asked his father, exasperated. "How do you think I know?" came the reply. "I've never been a father."—Indianapolis News.

Grade Separations

BETTER GRADE CROSSING SYSTEM WORKED OUT IN HAMMOND, IND., UNDER AUSPICES OF HAMMOND CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

The Hammond Chamber of Commerce deserves the praise and attention of the other communities throughout the United States. Hammond has gone at the grade crossing problem in a business-like way and a committee, known as the Citizens' Grade Crossing Elimination Committee, has been formed, which is working untiringly with the executives of the railroad companies in an effort to obtain a satisfactory solution of the problem. It is believed that the committee is endeavoring to establish an overhead system which will accommodate all the railroads and pass over the city without obstructing the highways or endangering the lives of citizens.

Every community in the United States having a similar problem should take notice of the activities of this neighboring city and perhaps learn a lesson or two.

Bobbed Hair Proved to Have Been Viking "Fad"

It has been definitely proved: Bobbed hair was the fashion over a thousand years ago. It cannot be claimed that it conquered the entire world at that time, but we know absolutely that the ancient Vikings, the robbers and seafarers of old, knew the style. This astounding fact, together with many others of perhaps less interest but even greater scientific importance, has been established through the discovery near Tilist, East Prussia, of a huge Viking burial place, dating from the Ninth, Tenth and Eleventh centuries. The finds are unusually rich. Each man's grave contains three or four iron swords, as many as a dozen lanceheads, bronze belt buckles, stirrups and snaffles. In the women's graves jewelry of all kinds was found, bronze bracelets, rings, necklaces, all beautifully wrought. A young woman with bobbed hair was found in one of these graves, with "zippers" used in place of buttons or pins to fasten garments.—Edgar Ansel in the Chicago Daily News.

"Dutch Treat" Makes No Hit With Modern Girl

To the young man who writes to ask if it is proper to let the girls pay for their share of an evening's entertainment we reply that it is. Perfectly proper but highly improbable.

Experiments have been made in this direction, but somehow or other they didn't work. Even when the girls propose the idea it doesn't make a hit with them if the boys take them too literally in the final settlement. Post-ively, the girls don't like it. Maybe it is because woman is more conservative than man, and one of her inherited privileges is to say that the woman pays while she sees that the man does it.

Of course, when the girls suggest a dutch treat the wise thing is to seem to fall in with the idea, and then to buzz your own girl into granting you the very special favor of letting you pay her shot. You can do this in the strictest confidence and with the safe promise not to tell anyone. You won't have to tell. The chances are that all the other boys are begging—and receiving—the same inestimable favor of paying the bill.—San Francisco Chronicle.

Chinese Delicacy

Chop suey originated at a dinner that Prince Li Hung Chang gave in New York when he made his trip around the world. Prince Li carried his own chef with him, and the menu was strictly Chinese. One of the dishes especially delighted the wife of the guest of honor, and she asked Li what it was. Prince Li called in his chef, and the chef replied in Chinese, "It is a creation of my own—a chop suey." The words "chop suey" mean a mixture, or hash. Prince Li said in English, "It is a chop suey." The American woman spread the news of chop suey, the wonderful dish. The name was taken up by the Chinese restaurants in America, and today chop suey is the chief concoction that they serve.

Helpful

The widow of a farmer was being consoled by a neighboring farmer, who happened to be a widower.

"Cheer up, woman," he said. "Ye're young yet, and good looking, an' you could soon get another husband."

"Oh, no, no," she replied, "who would take me?"

"Why, if I had a better pair of boots on I'd run away w' ye myself," said the widower, gallantly.

The widow, lifting her face and wiping her eyes, said, earnestly: "I wonder would John's fit you?"—England Birmingham Weekly Post.

Early Diving Suit

The diving suit is not so new as one might think. A patent was granted to John Stapleton on March 17, 1893, for "a new engine so by him contrived as to permit a person enclosed in it to walk under water, and to a new invented way to force air into any depth of water to supply the person in the said engine therewith and for continuing a lamp burning under water; also a way to desecrate and purify the air so as to make the same serviceable for respiration."

Ask Me

She had done everything wrong. She had disregarded the signal lights, then stalled in the middle of the street, and before starting had taken out her powder puff and started to apply it to her face. An irate traffic officer rushed up:

"Say, lady, do you know anything at all about traffic rules?"

"Why, yes. What is it that you want to know?"—Chatham News.

"In the old days," says Dad Plymouth, "girls enjoyed being graceful, but nowadays a lot of them get more of a kick out of being disgraceful."

Luxurious Car for Young Fish of America

A new de luxe all-steel car for the transportation and distribution of young fish has just been put in service by the bureau of fisheries at Washington. The car resembles a conventional pullman and is fitted with tanks which will contain half a million young fish, in addition to living quarters for the crew of caretakers who accompany the fishy passengers. The photograph shows E. C. Fearnow, superintendent of distribution of the bureau, examining some of the tanks.

Bartlett School Notes

Bartlett school entertained the Zone A teachers group Saturday, at an all day meeting. The forenoon was held at the schoolhouse. Miss Mary Jamison, helping teacher, was in charge. Reading and citizenship were discussed. At noon all adjourned to meet again at the Presbyterian church in Plymouth. A fine dinner was served to 112 teachers and members of the district, after which a program was given in charge of the zone president, Ray Schofield of Sheldon. A group of songs by Mrs. Stevens, a pupil at Detroit Teachers' College, was very much enjoyed. Assistant County School Commissioner Fred Fischer was present, and introduced the speaker, Dr. R. Clyde Ford of the M. S. N. C., who told a very delightful story of Michigan history. As Dr. Ford is the author of "Sandy MacDonald's Man," which is the basis of the seventh grade examination in reading this year, his talk was especially fitting.

Bartlett P. T. A. met at the schoolhouse Monday evening. After a short business meeting an exceptionally good program in charge of Mrs. John Shotka, Mrs. Matthew Swegles and Mrs. Frank Smith, was given. Amos and Andy, impersonated by two young men from Garden City, were present and furnished a highly amusing entertainment of singing, talking and music. Miss Ruth Adiska of Ypsilanti, who lived in Africa for seven years, gave a very instructive talk on Africa. She illustrated her talk with pictures and curios brought from there. She also spoke the language and sang one hymn in African. It was indeed a worth while program.

If the world is getting better why does the preacher always take the money out of the collection box and have it locked up in a bank?

Off Season for Fish, but Hardly for Fish Stories

Plattsburgh, N. Y.—Trout are caught in Schuyler Falls, near here, even out of season and by means not generally approved by disciples of Izak Walton. A farmer of Plattsburgh went to the Saranac river, near his home, recently to get a pail of water for the reservoir of his stove. Later in the day his wife discovered a fair-sized trout, cooked, in the water.

We heard a Plymouth man say yesterday that, personally, he favors the new long skirts if they're short enough.

We've also noticed there are as many broken resolutions a month after New Year as there are broken toys a week after Christmas.

Dad Plymouth says maybe the reason our forefathers were able to get so much work done is they didn't have to answer the telephone.

Christian Science Notes

"Love" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, February 2. Among the churches which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake; for their's is the kingdom of heaven." (Matt. 5:10). The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "The followers of Christ drank his cup. Ingratitude and persecution filled it to the brim; but God pours the riches of His love into the understanding and affections, giving us strength according to our day." (p. 5). The Lesson-Sermon for next Sunday, February 9th, will be "Spirit."

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Father and Son Service
A special Father and Son service will be conducted at St. John's church on Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock. Invitations have been sent to the Boy Scouts of the community to attend this service and to take a special part in recognition of the twentieth anniversary of the scout movement in the United States.
The theme of the sermon will be "The Perfect Partnership," dealing with the companionship which should exist between a boy and his father, as evidenced by the wonderful relationship which Jesus felt toward the heavenly Father, the perfect pattern of parenthood. It must be about my Father's business."
It is especially urged that all men and boys of the church attend this service; that it be made not merely a service for fathers and sons, but for the entire family. We cordially welcome not only the Scouts, but their mothers, families and friends to participate in this recognition of one of the most worthwhile movements in our country, the Father and Son Idea.
The Men's Club of St. John's is sponsoring a special program for men and boys on Wednesday, February 12, Lincoln's birthday. This will be a Father and Son supper, followed by a program of surprises. The boys, both young and old, are assured of a night of real sport. Come out and be a boy with us! Men, don't forget to bring that boy with you; if you haven't a son, borrow one!

BAPTIST NOTES

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist church will hold their regular annual business meeting at the church Wednesday afternoon, February 12th. Officers for the ensuing year will be elected. A pot-luck supper will be served at 6:30, to which every member and friend of the church is invited.
There were 47 of our young people's union who attended the banquet given at the Wayne B. Y. P. U. The Plymouth Union worked hard for seven weeks in order to win the banquet. A good time was anticipated by all, and needless to say, the dinner and program was of such character that no one was disappointed.
The B. Y. P. U. program for Sunday evening will be conducted by the division of evangelists. The general theme will be the Bible. If you are interested in an old book with up-to-date information, don't fail to miss this program.
A Valentine social will be the good time treat of this month for the Plymouth B. Y. P. U. It will be held in the church basement, Tuesday evening, February 12, at 6:30 p. m.
The "golden" best of the "purple" in a recent contest, so they will be responsible for the entertainment. Every B. Y. P. U. is urged to be present.

METHODIST NOTES

At the January meeting of the Philathea class, at the home of Mrs. Wm. Farley, the following officers were elected: President, Mrs. May Tait; vice-president, Mrs. M. Wellman; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Violet Quakenbush; teacher, Mrs. L. N. Dickerson; assistant teacher, Mrs. L. Clemens.

The one hundredth anniversary of Methodism in Plymouth was fittingly celebrated last Friday evening. By a family gathering at the church. After a delicious supper, prepared by the members of the L. A. S., Rev. George Nockels of the Nardin Park church, gave a splendid address. There will be two other jubilee suppers during the year, so that every member of our church will be able to attend at least one of them.

The service on Sunday night, as well as that on Sunday morning, is for your spiritual benefit; it is your service, and a greater number should get out to enjoy it. Come and sing the songs you love so well, before the sermon.
The February meeting of the missionary societies will be held at the home of Mrs. James Glass, 728 Burroughs Ave., next Wednesday, February 12th. A cooperative dinner will be in charge of Mrs. Wm. Hood and Mrs. Fred Lee, at 12:30 o'clock. Mrs. George Card will be the program leader, and Mrs. H. S. Doerr will have the devotions. All the women of the church are invited.

Wednesday evening, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, prayer and praise service, to which all are invited. We are studying Paul's letter to the Ephesians.
Saturday afternoon, February 15th, from two to five o'clock, the Junior Missionary boys and girls will enjoy their annual birthday party. There will be games, a story by Mrs. Doerr, and refreshments. All the Junior children are urged to come and bring a penny for each year of their age, for our Thank offering.

The L. A. S. annual bazaar will be held on Thursday, February 20. There will be for sale: Aprons, fancy articles and home made candy and baked goods. Beginning at 5:30, a chicken supper will be served. More particulars next week.

Salvation Army Notes.

Staff Capt. and Mrs. Conway will conduct special service Sunday evening at eight o'clock.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

Attendance at Sunday-school last Sunday was the largest which the records of the Fresh-air church show. Melburn Partridge, superintendent, and his fine staff of officers and teachers should be commended and should feel greatly encouraged.
The Leadership Training class Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p. m., is proving both interesting and helpful. It is open to all.
The Busy Women's Class met with Mrs. E. C. Leuch on Tuesday. Thirty-two sat down to the excellent cooperative dinner. This was followed by the reports of the executive, which showed the class to be flourishing. Then came an interesting program in which Mrs. Rose Tillotson, Miss Anna McMill and Miss Nettie Pelham took part. It was a good meeting.
Everyone should be present Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., to hear the play, "The Finger of God" presented by the Young People's Circle of Dodge Community House, Detroit.

Every one should be present Sunday evening at 7:30 p. m., to hear the play, "The Finger of God" presented by the Young People's Circle of Dodge Community House, Detroit.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the men of the parish.
Word has just been received that Rev. T. Hally died. He will be remembered by a number of people here, as he was pastor of this territory at one time. His funeral will be held Monday at 10:00 o'clock from St. Benedict's church, Highland Park. His death is a great loss to the diocese.
Those who were unable to have their throats blessed last Monday, will have an opportunity to receive this blessing Sunday after each mass.
Do not forget your fuel offering—nor to send your children to the instructions Saturday.

St. Peter's Lutheran

Last Friday evening, January 31st, our Ladies' Aid served a delicious chicken dinner to a hundred guests at the Lutheran annual Fathers and Sons banquet. Among the available places at the banquet tables had been reserved, the ladies managed somehow, as is the unique ability of all good housewives, to find room for quite a number of unexpected, but very welcome guests, by the simple expedient of setting up auxiliary tables in every nook and cranny of the hall. The meal was splendid. And we believe the fact that there were no frills, no salad forks to fuss with, no spoons to be picked up gingerly and applied by stealthily watching the next fellow to see which would be the proper one with which to attack a dish with an unappreciable foreign non-de-planned contributed notably to the zest and utter abandon with which the good food was dispatched.
An orchestra, composed of local talent, entertained delightfully and unobtrusively throughout the embarrassing soup course. Elwood Gates, a saxophoneist of no mean ability, a quartet that sang as one man, that is mostly on unison, and last as well as londest, the entire assembly raising their voices in song and harmony to the tunes of "O du lieber Augustin," "Old Black Joe" and other favorites, served to make of the banquet also a feast of musical accomplishment.

William Peck, a distinguished gentleman in behalf of the fathers, while his son, Wilbert, retaliated in no mediocre way at all in the interests of the sons. Billy Werner, a statesman and orator to be, gave his 5-year-old view on the situation as he saw it. Oliver Goldsmith will be remembered as the poor unfortunate boy, who has been handed down "Papa's bristles" and speculated as to who might be wearing those indestructible on Judgment Day. Ernie Westphal's story was blood-curdling, but humorous, nevertheless. We were surprised to learn that Albert Robble speaks such very good German and sorry at the same time that his humorous recitation could not be appreciated by all; still, we noticed that among others, Ernie Westphal appreciated it to the fullest. The new feature from Station R.U.M., starring Oliver and Otto as Rastus and Hamtome, concluded and topped an evening full of fun.

The following prizes were awarded: To Walter Schulz and son, Harold, for bravery in bringing the youngest son to Chris. Drews, for faithfulness at his post, being the oldest father with sons at the banquet; to Bill Blank, for results, in having brought the greatest number of sons of his own to the table.

New
yet sixteen years old!
GENERAL MOTORS'
lowest-priced eight

$1045 superior performance
AND UP

The development of the New Oakland Eight in reality goes back sixteen years. Several of the engineers responsible for its design participated in the production of General Motors' first eight, in 1914. Their extensive knowledge of eight-cylinder engines has resulted in a car of remarkably sound basic design, as well as one which has many advanced features. (Its 85-horsepower engine develops one horsepower for every 37 pounds of car weight. This explains why few cars are as fast—why few, if any, can climb hills so quickly or accelerate so swiftly in traffic. Those who have driven it know how well it merits the description, "the car with superior performance." (The New Oakland's power plant is also exceptionally smooth. Its inherent eight-cylinder smoothness has been increased by a complete down-draft fuel system—new type cylinder heads insuring uniform combustion—laminated steel spring and rubber engine mountings. (Considering its superior performance, exceptional smoothness and the beauty of its new Fisher bodies, the New Oakland Eight is very moderately priced. Greater Beauty - Finer Performance

Never has a Chevrolet car won greater praise for its appearance than the new Chevrolet Six. Its new Fisher bodies reveal in every detail the artistry that has made the Fisher name famous throughout the motor car world. In beauty of line and color, in balance and harmony of design, they represent one of the greatest style triumphs in Fisher history. Upholsteries are richer and more durable. The instrument panel carries a new and more attractive grouping of the control instruments. Seats are wider and deeper. In fact, not a single feature has been overlooked that would add to the comfort and convenience of both driver and passengers.

In addition to its new beauty, the new Chevrolet Six represents a remarkable advance in every phase of performance. Its improved six-cylinder valve-in-head engine has been increased to 50 horsepower—giving faster acceleration, and greater reserve power. Steering has been made safer and easier. Four Lovejoy hydraulic shock absorbers provide exceptional riding comfort. Fully enclosed, internal-expanding, weather-proof brakes give positive braking control. And numerous structural improvements add to the car's dependability, endurance and long life. Come in today and see this car. And remember, it is now available—

Margaret Kubie, Mrs. Peter Kubie and daughter, Margaret, spent Friday shopping in Detroit.

Miss Erma Seely spent the week-end with friends in Detroit. Word has been received that John Beyer and family have arrived at Santa Monica, California, recently, after quite a stay in Phoenix, Arizona. Mrs. Beyer's sister, Mrs. Forrest Smith, is some better but not able to go on to the coast as yet.

Saturday evening, Mrs. Paul Badelt was pleasantly surprised when her children and grandchildren came in to help her celebrate her sixty-ninth birthday. After a beautiful dinner and a pleasant evening, they departed wishing Mrs. Badelt many more happy birthdays.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Kubie, daughter, Margaret, and Henry Sell attended the shower given at Shower's Hall, Saturday evening in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Roach (formerly Miss Hazel Mott).

NEW DODGE 6 NOW ON DISPLAY

"The new Dodge Brothers Six is a striking example of dignified, sturdy automobile construction at an amazingly low price," says Earl Mastick of the Dodge Sales and Service, local Dodge and Plymouth dealers. "It has a number of interesting, outstanding features which distinguish it among six-cylinder motor cars in its price group. Improved Monopiece body construction, incorporating many added advantages due to recent advances in welding and stamping is brought to the low-priced six-cylinder field on this new car. Quantity production enables Dodge Brothers to offer style leadership in this type body at nominal prices for the first time since this important development in body building was introduced in the industry.

The genuine merit of the new Dodge Six is eloquently expressed in the basic simplicity of its design. The richness and distinction thus attained appeals directly to the discriminating value-seeker.

The brilliant performance of this new car is due to the noteworthy engineering experience that has gone into the design and construction of the engine. The power plant is especially notable for the amount of power per cubic inch of piston displacement and per pound of engine weight which it develops. It is also capable of continuous operation at sustained speeds with low fuel power. An exceptional degree of smoothness is achieved by the design of the heavy, rigidly supported, balanced and counterweighted crankshaft. The engine develops a maximum of 61 horsepower.

Comfortable riding qualities form another outstanding feature of the new Dodge Six. The ingenious method of mounting the shockboards of the Monopiece bodies directly on the substantial frame of the car gives the new six an inherent advantage in balance and roadability. Well designed springs of generous length add immeasurably to the comfort of passengers.

In both open and closed models there is plenty of width and head-room for passengers and driver. Narrow center posts and side supports permit greater visibility. With seams and body joints welded instead of riveted, annoying squeaks and rattles are entirely eliminated in the new Dodge.

Hydraulic, internal expanding four-wheel brakes give the driver positive control at all times. This, too, forms an outstanding feature of the new Dodge.

Body design, brakes, sturdy steering mechanism, engine flexibility, and better vision all combine to increase the safety factor in this car. Economy of operation and low cost of maintenance are insured by the efficiency engineered into the power plant, and by the durable construction of all body and chassis units.

"I Wish I Could Tell Everybody About Konjola"

MICHIGAN LADY TELLS HOW NEW MEDICINE PUT SPEEDY END TO HER SUFFERING.

MRS. C. SEAMAN

"I suffered terribly from stomach and kidney ailments," said Mrs. C. Seaman, 419 Webber street, Saginaw. "The simplest of foods caused gases to form in my stomach. I bloated and bled and the pain and discomfort was almost unbearable. I was bothered with shortness of breath and frequent dizzy spells. My kidneys weakened and my back pained me frightfully. I finally went to bed thoroughly ill and discouraged, and remained helpless for a long time.

"It is amazing, but three bottles of Konjola actually helped me so much that I was almost myself again. I no longer bloat after eating, and I can eat what I wish. Pains from the kidney and stomach weakness have disappeared, and I sleep well. I wish I could tell everyone about Konjola."

Konjola is sold in Plymouth at the Community Pharmacy and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

AIRPLANE INDUSTRY RANKING WITH CITY'S MAJOR ENDEAVORS

I. O. O. F. NOTES

Brothers: We have started the second month of this term. Let's make it a banner month for larger attendance and real enjoyment. We enjoyed a splendid attendance every meeting during January; let's keep it up. It is my earnest desire and wish that every member of local No. 32 attend lodge at least once during February.

"We started our degree work last Tuesday evening under the direction of good old Brother Triukaus, P. G., and hope to keep it up. There will be something in store for you each week so get the habit and be there."

If you are not in good standing and still want to remain one of us, you are cordially invited to attend and see for yourself what is going on and to take part in the good times we are having.

"Let's add to our slogan for this term, every brother bring a brother and watch our attendance grow."

"Any suggestions from the members which would tend to make our meetings more interesting will gladly be acted upon."

Yours in F. L. & T., Albert Fisher N. G.

Win. Streng, P. G., and H. Fisher, P. G., attended the funeral of August Kowalski in Detroit, last Thursday.

Fortteen officers present Tuesday evening. Were you one of the forty-two brothers present February 4th?

The committee appointed to assist the Rebekahs on a get-together meeting, consists of Brother E. Housman, chairman, and the following helpers: Brothers Bulson, P. M., J. A. Streng, P. G., Trimble, P. G., Wemp, P. G. So let's go and make a grand event on that occasion, the date to be given next week.

The first degree team will journey to Belleville next Tuesday evening. To arrange so all the brothers can go, lodge will call promptly at 7:00 p. m. Every brother living in the vicinity is invited. This is the first time we have visited that lodge in a body, so let's have a good representation.

Competitive second degree between Grandale, Oakwood, Brotherhood and Diamond lodges at Wayne Temple, Avery and Grand River, Saturday, February 16th at 4:00 p. m.

Brothers Hulson, P. M., J. A. Streng, P. G., Trimble, P. G., Wemp, P. G. reported they were leaving for Florida in a few days to make their residence there. Good luck Charlie and Jay.

Brother Langendam, V. G., is working at Birmingham.

"BEHIND THE MAKE-UP" AT THE ORIENTAL

"Behind the Make-up," a smashing all-talking heart drama of backstage featuring Hal Skelly, Fay Wray and William Powell in the leading roles, opens at the Oriental Theatre next Friday.

The story portrays the real emotions behind the smiles and smirks of the stage performers. Hal Skelly, easy-going, happy-go-lucky actor, drifts along settled in a mediocre groove.

His inferiority complex prevents him from exploiting his really fine ideas to advantage. He falls in love with Fay Wray, a little French waitress working in a restaurant where he eats. William Powell comes along, carries Skelly to Broadway fame but steals his ideas and wins his girl. Both Skelly and Miss Wray are fascinated by Powell's scintillating personality and it is only when events dim this fascination that they find their true selves.

There are songs that will be hits, written by Leo Robin and Newell Chase. Fay Wray sings a catchy

TOTAL VALUE OF PRODUCTS FOR YEAR, INCLUDING PARTS AND SUPPLIES, PASSES THE $20,000,000 MARK.

In Detroit the manufacture of airplanes and aircraft parts and materials is no longer regarded in the light of an infant industry. Figures that have just been compiled by the industrial department of the Detroit Board of Commerce show that during 1929 the total value of airplanes, component parts and supplies exceeded $20,000,000, of which total more than $7,000,000 was reached by the producers of complete airplanes. The Stout Aircraft division of the Ford Motor company alone produced planes valued at $3,163,900.

In the Detroit area there are more than 70 companies making aircraft, or parts and supplies. These firms include those entirely devoted to aircraft and those whose products include airplane supplies or materials. There are now six companies in the Detroit area in production of airplanes and there are 10 other airplane manufacturers in what is known as the experimental stage. One local company is devoted to the manufacture of lighter-than-air craft.

Four manufacturers of airplane engines are located in the manufacturing area of Detroit. There are 54 suppliers of other parts in this district in addition to 35 jobbers and wholesalers of aircraft supplies. Fifteen firms in or about Detroit are devoted to the sale, either wholesale or retail, of complete airplanes.

Last year showed tremendous gains in the aircraft industry in Detroit. About $3,500,000 was invested in new aircraft plants and equipment last year in this area.

The scope and importance of aircraft industry in Detroit demonstrates beyond any doubt that it is a large economic factor in the city's progress. Economically this industry has long since outgrown its swaddling clothes and has arrived at the estate of a healthy youth. No longer do Detroiters invest their capital and their time and efforts in aircraft because of the romance of that form of transport and travel or because it might be considered "modern" to be identified with the industry.

Detroit capital has spent long years of time and millions of dollars in proving the real economic factors in the manufacture and operation of aircraft. The result is that this city has far outdistanced many other communities whose appreciation of the importance of aircraft is based mainly on the romantic and colorful aspects of that industry.—Detroit Free Press.

French number and Skelly is seen as the happy-go-lucky hooper character similar to the one that won him fame in "The Dance of Life." Quaint scenes of old New Orleans; brilliant glimpses of Broadway's night life, and many interesting shots of sound motion pictures in the making give added entertainment value to this delightfully intriguing picture.

In addition there will be five acts of superior vaudeville on the stage, with the usual midnight performance on Saturday, which has developed into one of the weekly events of Detroit.

Statistics show there are more autos than bath tubs in this country. But you can't get a good trade-in on a bath tub.

The world was better luck in the days when we had more happier marriages and fewer rich divorce lawyers.

They're called "common" colds but we notice some of the best people around Plymouth have them.

MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS

"THE LOVE PARADE"

The ten hit songs featured in "The Love Parade" can be said to come "out of the night." Victor Schertzinger, who wrote the ten songs for "The Love Parade," which will appear at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, February 9, 10 and 11, does his composing in his home high above Hollywood—at night.

It is his method to work on his music at night, laboring through the dark hours and sometimes past dawn. All his musical compositions have their inception while he is at his desk, working only with pen and paper. Later he develops his melodies on his violin, fills in the harmonies at his piano and works out his orchestrations at the pipe organ.

It was just such a procedure that was followed in composing of such numbers from "The Love Parade" as "Dream Lover," "My Love Parade," "Nobody's Using It Now," and seven other popular hits.

Maurice Chevalier, Jeanette MacDonald, Lupino Lane and Lillian Roth head the stellar cast of principals in "The Love Parade."

"The Love Parade" is the story of the affairs d'amour of a queen of a mythical kingdom, played by Jeanette MacDonald, who falls in love and marries a prince, Maurice Chevalier. Their comical marital life, the troubles of a prince consort and general life in the palace form the background for this rollicking musical romance.

"FORWARD PASS"

Loretta Young and Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., the youngest screen team, play together again in "The Forward Pass," the first National picture of college life and football which comes to the Penniman Allen Theatre, Wednesday and Thursday, February 12 and 13.

Miss Young plays the college "vamp" in this gay story of the campus, and Fairbanks is a football player who at first fears the bumps of the game but proves at last to be game clean through.

A great cast of young players is seen in support of the favorite screen team. "Pennants" Byron, "Big Boy" Williams, Phyllis Crane, Bert Rome, Lane Chandler, Doris Callender and a host of college boys and girls are included in the big all-young cast. The entire football team of the University of Southern California plays in the football game, and also in dramatic roles. "The Forward Pass" was directed by Eddie Cline, noted for his comedy pictures, and it has many laughs to lighten the more dramatic moments of the love story, and also many thrills in the football sequences.

It is a typical story of college life, with all the carefree abandon of campus days and nights.

One feature of the picture is a "diet" dance, done by four heavy-weights who total 1,338 pounds.

"HALF WAY TO HEAVEN"

Every corner of the world has come to know Charles (Buddy) Rogers as a great dispenser of joyful entertainment and, in his latest action-romance, "Half Way to Heaven," which will show at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Friday and Saturday, February 14 and 15, he has a part which gives him all the opportunity he needs to amuse and thrill.

"Half Way to Heaven" brings Rogers to the all-talking screen as a youthful trapeze performer in a carnival. In this daring role, he falls in love with Jean Arthur, his feminine partner whose charms have also captured the heart of the third member of the act, Paul Lukas, a dangerous character whose fiery jealousy threatens even Rogers' life. Rogers' own skill and daring alone save him from Lukas' rage but Lukas vows to kill him while the trio are performing under the "big top."

The story comes to a smashing hair-raising climax when Rogers, evading Lukas' attempt on his life, turns on the villain, beats him so severely that Lukas leaves the show and Rogers and Miss Arthur are free to continue their interesting romance.

"Half Way to Heaven" was filmed in the modern manner by George Abbott, maker of the Moran and Mack picture "Why Bring That Up?" It is one of the first all-talking pictures to be made almost entirely outdoors and introduces some unique nature scenes and sounds to the talking screen. The cast is composed of well known veterans. In addition to Rogers, Miss Arthur and Lukas, the names include Helen Ware, well-known stage star; Oscar Apfel, former movie director; and Edna West, playing in her first all-talking picture after years of stage experience.

PYTHIANS HEAR GEO. A. SMITH

Plymouth Lodge No. 238, Knights of Pythias entertained the members and their families, also the members of the Pythian Sisters Temple and their families at a 6:30 o'clock banquet in the dining room of their Castle
Hall on Ann Arbor street, last week
Thursday night. After everyone had apparently been satisfied by a superabundance of cuts, R. W. Bingley, C.
C., acting as toastmaster, called on several of the Past Chancellors for remarks and concluded the speech making by having arranged for G. A.
Smith, superintendent of the local high school, to give a talk. Mr. Smith being an old "K. of P.," knew just exactly how and what to say to fit the situation, and everyone enjoyed his lecture which concerned "fraternism, very much." Next on the program was a spelling contest in which some of the old timers put up a mighty good race. Dewey Holloway refused to enter the contest and so did Jesse McLeod, but they both said they could have spelled the words, which really did end the battle. It was a very enjoyable evening for everyone.

RADIO TALK

Persons who are using obsolete radio sets are still in the Dark Ages of radio, according to Jesse Hake of the Jesse Hinke Hardware, local Crosley distributor.

"Radio fans who do not own a modern set are missing two-thirds of the enjoyment that should be theirs," said Mr. Hake. "The perfection of the modern screen grid receiver has given radio fans a new conception of the delights of broadcast reception. The Crosley models for 1930 incorporate every modern improvement, and are within the reach of every pocketbook.
These models have set a new standard in power, selectivity and fidelity of tone. The Crosley chassis may be obtained in any one of a large variety of handsome cabinets, or in an attractive metal case. For homes where electric service is not available, there is the Crosley 21, a battery set with three screen grid tubes." 1211c

butcher knife, a pistol with two discharged shells and footprints were the tangible evidence disclosed during the early investigation of the crime by Deputy Sheriffs Arthur Hitchins, Roy Skates and Thomas Dunnigan of Sheriff Ira Wilson's staff.

The fingerprint was on a page of a penciled notebook in which the victim apparently kept his patrons' accounts. The page bore the words "Flying Cloud" and a notation showing the supposed patron owed Laframboise $8.

The evening of the annual meeting, February 12th, there will be prominent men present as speakers and guests. Without exception every one of them can help Plymouth in connection with some phase of community progress whether it be improved transportation facilities, industrial development, real estate development, civic development, creating goodwill for local merchants, etc.

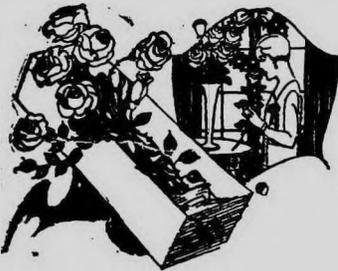

We want to send every one of them away from Plymouth satisfied that we are a progressive community. There is but one way to do this. They will never become sold on Plymouth unless they are convinced that Plymouth is sold on itself. If you want Plymouth to prosper attend this meeting. If you believe as we do that Plymouth has a distinct community identity and pride of community which should be preserved, attend this meeting.

Tickets have been placed on sale at the First National Bank, Plymouth, United Savings Bank, Plymouth, United Savings Bank Branch, and the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce office. We have pledged ourselves to have a large crowd present because we want the visitors to feel that we are joined together in a common cause. You can help us greatly by purchasing your ticket without delay at one of the above places.
