

NEW BUS SCHEDULE NOW IN OPERATION

Last Monday the Detroit Motor Bus Company placed a new schedule in operation for their buses between Plymouth and Detroit. It replaces one which was started last November through the efforts of a Chamber of Commerce committee organized in response to calls received as to the unsatisfactory character of the bus service. The bus company claims that they have been losing too much money on the Plymouth line, and that of all to any of the during the day, only about three paid enough to run the bus.

When this new schedule was brought out, the Chamber of Commerce committee got together with Sheldon Sons Company of Rosedale Gardens and the bus company to see what could be done. The committee is not satisfied with the Plymouth people for several reasons. Except for a few buses during the rush hours, the trip now must be taken in two stages, a transfer being necessary at Tremen and Division roads. The transfer is to Tremen-Boulevard-Lafayette buses which do not traverse the section of Detroit which most Plymouth riders need to reach. And during these "off" hours, Plymouth and Plymouth road patrons must take their chances and crowd in with local passengers. It is known that some who have been regular daily patrons of this line must now seek other means of transportation or stay at home—both in Detroit—because the routes and the times of the Plymouth buses no longer offer service which is practical for these persons.

The bus company claimed that Plymouth people were not taking enough advantage of the better service offered last November, but admitted that they have done no advertising to build up the patronage. The only answer to any of the Plymouth arguments was that according to directions from the bus company board, the new schedule must be tried out. One through bus to Detroit in the morning which has recently been leaving Plymouth at 7:00 o'clock and which does not show on the new time card, was replaced by the Sheldon company and the Plymouth committee. This is for the use of those who must be at work in Detroit about 8:30.

The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce will be glad to compile data as to the experience of Plymouth people with this new timing and routing, and as to their feeling with regard to it. A schedule is not cast iron, and if enough information can be shown the Detroit Motor Bus Company, as to the needs of this section for better service, Mr. Board of that company would probably be the first to recommend such changes.

Mrs. H. R. Merrell Dies In Detroit

Mrs. H. R. Merrell, aged 60 years, the mother of thirteen children, two of whom are still living, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Eva Healy, in Detroit, on Saturday, February 16. Mrs. Merrell was well known in this vicinity, where she had made many friends during visits here. For a number of years past she had spent the summers with her daughters in this locality. Mrs. E. A. Kohler of Northville, and Mr. S. J. Sawyer of Plymouth, the twelve surviving children, who were with her to aid in making her last days an happy ones are: Oren, Maude, Emma, Eva, Nettie, Charles, Florence, Walter and Mary of Detroit; Dorothy of New York; Sarah of Plymouth, and Celest of Northville.

The funeral was held from the home under the auspices of the Eastern Star chapter of which she had long been a member.—Northville Record.

Death of Mrs. Lavina Vantassel

Lavina A. Travis was born at Porter, Pa., November 29, 1858. In March, 1880, she was married to John C. Vantassel. To this union eight children were born, of whom seven survive. Mrs. J. S. Carley, Plymouth; Russell Vantassel, Jr., Edinboro, Pa.; Edna Vantassel of Philadelphia, Pa.; Ray Vantassel of Bessmer, Pa.; Ralph E. Vantassel, Plymouth; Clara Vantassel of York, Pa.; Harry Vantassel of Franklin, Pa. She is also survived by 26 grandchildren and seven great grandchildren. Mrs. Vantassel had spent her entire life in Pennsylvania until she came to Plymouth to make her home with her son, Ralph E. Vantassel. The deceased had made a host of friends and never lost any.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, February 13th, at 2:00 p. m., Dr. F. A. Lendrum officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

D. A. R. Colonial Tea

A very pretty colonial tea was held at the home of Mrs. J. E. Hubert on Ann Arbor road. It being the regular meeting of February 17, the Sarah Ann Cochrane chapter of the D. A. R. held their business meeting first, after which was a very interesting program. Mrs. Robert H. Reck gave a lovely patriotic reading in which was revealed how the fairies made the flag of courage, love and truth. Mrs. Reck was in colonial costume which added greatly to the charming way she gave the reading. Mrs. Roger Vaughn sang two very pretty songs, and her selections were very much enjoyed by all present. Then Mrs. George Wilcox read a clipping of an interesting account of the Indians and the Quakers called the "Lath String."

The last thing on the program was a letter from Dolly Mattison's old home written by a friend of Mrs. Reck's who now lives there. This letter read by Mrs. Nichol was very interesting in its historical facts. Tea was then served by the social committee; Mrs. Rand, the regent, presided.

All in all, the meeting was very delightful and exceedingly interesting.

WOMAN'S CLUB MEETS TODAY

Today, Friday, the Woman's Club meets at the Hotel Mayflower at 2:15 p. m. Dr. Hankell of the Wayne County Training School will speak; also an interesting musical program.

Kiwanians Hear The Story of Gas

Kiwanians Carl Haner, assistant manager of the local plant of the Michigan Federated Utilities, gave his fellow Kiwanians an instructive and interesting talk on the manufacture and distribution of gas at their noon-day meeting last Tuesday.

Using an elaborate drawing he had made for the occasion, he traced the process of gas production from the coal to the kitchen cook stove, explaining the intricacies of the system as well as going into the history of the industry. "Gas was first discovered," he stated "by an inquisitive Frenchman who noticed the peculiar odors emanating from the decomposed coal in a mine. Carrying on experiments, he learned that the odor was inflammable, and soon the world had a new servant. "Gas," continued Mr. Haner, "was first introduced into the United States and used commercially in Baltimore about 1812, and since that time its use, particularly by industry, has grown to astounding proportions."

Death of Mrs. Byron P. Willett

Frances Vlock was born at Chicago, March 9th, 1863. Her life was spent in Chicago and the southern states, coming again to Chicago at the age of thirty, where she remained until her marriage to Byron P. Willett, April 26th, 1910. The greater part of her married life was spent in Detroit and Plymouth, where she made friends readily and who learned to love her for her sunny, kind and unselfish disposition. The last few years of her life were spent entirely in Plymouth, where she devoted her time to her home and those whom she loved. Those who knew her best loved her most, and found her to be a welcome guest and an addition to any crowd where her ready wit, willing hands, and the rays of sunshine she seemed to bring brought life to the gathering.

There are many deaths caused through the passing of this life, which came Monday morning, February 17th, 1930 at Providence hospital, after a week of intense suffering following a major operation. It was a most beautiful parting, surrounded by her husband, sisters, brothers-in-law and those in whom she was so interested in life. Her entrance into a new life was emblematic of her living, one of beauty. While we, in our worldly wisdom, find it so difficult to understand the reason for the taking of one so young, so loved, so appreciated, so needed to add to the sunshine of life, we can only be comforted in the thought that she is at rest in the arms of one who can love and appreciate her so much more, and that her suffering is at an end.

She leaves such a vacancy in the lives of her husband, her sisters, Mrs. Stanley Lonsky of Kulpont, Penn.; Mrs. Jack Swick, Mrs. Edward Hynick and Mrs. Frank Spaffler of Chicago; a younger sister having preceded her several years ago. In addition to these, she leaves a host of relatives and friends. How we loved her we alone know; why, oh, why did she have to go? Why couldn't we keep her always near. Her smile and kindness was sure to cheer.

If we could only keep her in our life, she was our sunshine through toll and strife.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from her late home on Holbrook avenue at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. D. W. Hilley officiating. Mrs. W. S. B. Baker, and Mrs. Boris Hamill rendered a violin selection.

League of Women Voters Honored

At the fiftieth suffrage convention at St. Louis ten years ago last March, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt electrified her audience of young and old suffragists by proposing a memorial dedicated to the memory of our brave departed leaders, the most natural, the most appropriate, the most patriotic memorial that could be suggested—a League of Women Voters. In April of this year, at Louisville, that League of Women Voters will celebrate its fifth anniversary by inscribing upon a tablet of honor a roll of leaders, many of them still with us, others departed, to whom we owe the winning of the vote or the service to which it has been dedicated. In the names of these women, gifts of money are to be offered, not for current expenses but as a permanent fund from which the income may be used to carry on that service.

In Michigan, from many three women have been chosen for this national roll of honor. In their names we shall make a gift to perpetuate their influence and to carry on the work they began. The Michigan League of Women Voters has nominated Mrs. Wilbur Brotherton of Detroit, first president of the Wayne County Equal Suffrage association and first president of the Michigan League of Women Voters and still an active supporter; Mrs. James MacPherson, of Saginaw and Pasadena, suffragist and leader in this state in the League of Women Voters, and Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, who will always live in the hearts of women of Michigan as well as of the entire country because of her pioneering in many of the women's movements of her time. Mrs. Katherine Atkinson is chairman of the anniversary and memorial committee for the county and associated with her are Mrs. Perry Farrell, Mrs. Myron B. Vorce and Mrs. G. A. Bentley, president of the Wayne County League. Miss Ljma Durfee was appointed chairman of the Plymouth League. The funds from the benefit bridge to be held at the Hotel Mayflower on February 28th, will be given to this fund as a gift honoring the name of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw.

LOCAL LIBRARY GROWING

The local branch of the Wayne County Library has made a rapid growth since it has been in its present location. Each week sees new patrons added to its list. The local library spends fourth in the list of Wayne County libraries for the largest number of new patrons added during the past year, and third in point of circulation. For the month of January, the library had a total of 4399 books out. The library is in charge of Mrs. Ada Murray, who makes a most obliging and courteous librarian.

BORN 1732 George Washington DIED 1799

"O Son of Virginia, thy men'sy divine
Forever will halo this country of thine,
Not here alone in the battle's wild strife,
But here in every detail of thy life.
So noble, unselfish, heroic, and true,
A God-given gift to thy country were you;
And lovingly, tenderly guarding thy shrine,
Columbia points proud, and says: 'He is mine.'"

SENIOR PROM A SUCCESS

ONE HUNDRED AND THIRTY-EIGHT COUPLES DANCED TO SPLENDID MUSIC BY BARCELONIANS ORCHESTRA LAST FRIDAY NIGHT.

The fourth annual Senior Prom has come and gone—and it was a great success. One hundred and thirty-eight couples danced to the strains of the Barcelonians orchestra, in a winter night scene. From a low, dark blue sky many stars twinkled through a maze of falling snowflakes. The stage was transformed into snowdrifts and icebergs in the distance a beautiful aurora borealis shone in all its brilliant glory. The wall decorations were of icebergs, snowdrifts, igloos and boats sketched on white paper. Altogether the effect was strikingly beautiful.

As the couples danced to the popular numbers they also became thirsty, and soon delicious punch was available at the entrance of an igloo. At eleven o'clock the orchestra struck up "Hail To The Victors," a signal that the grand march was to begin. Russell Wallace, senior class president, and his guest, Lois Caldwell, led the procession through the halls and into figure marching in the gym until they decided to start dancing after which everybody followed with enthusiasm. A few dances later, it was announced that the Dancing Ballers would give an exhibition. Their classical ballroom dancing was marveled at and received a great deal of applause.

After that, serpentine became the fun of the moment and dancing was found to be something of a difficult through the twisting, tangled mass. Finally at one o'clock the Barcelonians played "Home, Sweet Home," assuring the dancers that 1930's Senior Prom was at its end.

The various committee chairmen were: Max Cool, lighting; Frank Clemens, decorations; Russell Wallace, program; Helen Bridge, invitations; Fred Shear, music; Gale Kenyon, stage. Everyone was on a committee and had definite work to do in preparing for the prom. Cooperation is the word suitable for their conduct. Those who received were Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. William Sutherland, Rev. and Mrs. Nichol, Mr. and Mrs. Emens, Mr. and Mrs. Cobb, Russell Wallace, Lois Caldwell, Mrs. Murray and Miss Fiegel. The sapersones were Mr. and Mrs. Strong, Mr. and Mrs. Shaver, Mrs. Shingleton, Mr. and Mrs. Gallimore, Mr. and Mrs. Kenter, Mr. and Mrs. Kenyon, Mrs. Rathburn and Mrs. Loey.

Letting You In On A Secret

Secretary Moore of the Chamber of Commerce tells us that he almost suffered a relapse about ten o'clock the morning of the annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, when he was informed by Vice-President Bowman of the Pere Marquette Hotel that President Probert, the man he had been waiting on for weeks to be on the program, had been called to Boston on a matter which could not be delayed. He wants the following conversation made public:

Mr. Moore, calling the Pere Marquette offices: "May I speak to Mr. Jackson, please?" (Mr. Probert's secretary).

Mr. Jackson: "Say, I'm glad that you called. We have been trying to reach you."

Mr. Moore (to himself): "What's happened now?"

Mr. Bowman's voice on the phone: "Say, Moore, Mr. Probert had to go to Boston; he was sorry to disappoint you, but he had no choice. What shall we do about it?"

Mr. Moore: "Gosh, I hope that you can do something. I don't want to be left out on a limb."

Mr. Bowman: "How many do you expect will attend your meeting?"

Mr. Moore: "I look for a crowd—close to two hundred."

Mr. Bowman: "Well, back you up, and I'll have to cancel a trip to New York City to do it, but I can't make a speech."

Mr. Moore: "So can I, but I want you to appear on the program if only for a few minutes."

Mr. Bowman: "I'll try to get Judge Merriam to 'pitch-in' for us. How many more do you want me to bring?"

Mr. Moore: "As many as you care to."

The rest is a matter of public knowledge. Mr. Bowman kept his promise. He brought three leading officials of the Pere Marquette, Mr. Booth, Mr. Badger and Judge Merriam, with him. Against his wishes, Mr. Bowman appeared on the program. Without preparation, Judge Merriam consented to talk. (He did not know until almost noon Wednesday, the 12th, that he had a meeting scheduled for that evening.)

Mr. Moore wants to thus publicly acknowledge his deep appreciation to Mr. Bowman, Judge Merriam, Mr. Booth and Mr. Badger, and hopes by thus revealing what occurred on the morning of the 12th that the people of Plymouth will realize what a public spirited, broad minded group of regular fellows are in charge of the "new" Pere Marquette.

Benefit Card Party

Benefiting the fund for the tenth anniversary and honor roll of the National League of Women Voters, the Plymouth League is sponsoring a card party at the Hotel Mayflower Friday, February 28th, at 2:30 p. m. Besides bridge there will be tables for five hundred and peddles. Prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. Tickets are 50c. Reservations may be made with Miss Ljma Durfee, or Mrs. Myron B. Vorce. All who play are cordially invited to attend. The proceeds will be presented to the National League as a gift honoring the memory of Dr. Anna Howard Shaw, and will be added to the perpetual fund being raised throughout Michigan in her name.

PIANO RECITAL

Miss Anna L. Young presents Josie Nash in a recital at the studio in the Plymouth United Savings Bank Building, Penniman avenue entrance, on Wednesday, February 28th, at 8:00 p. m. The public is invited.

WAYNE COUNTY BUYS LAND HERE

$315,145 PAID FOR 16 PARCELS OF LAND BETWEEN NORTHVILLE AND NEWBURG.

The board of supervisors of Wayne County at its session last Monday, voted to spend $315,145 for 16 parcels of property as the nucleus for a park and driveway to extend along the River Rouge shore line near Northville, Plymouth and Newburg. The money will purchase 373 acres, costing $500 to $1,000 per acre.

While the land represents only a fraction of what will be needed, options could not be obtained easily on the remainder. It was stated, and this remaining property will probably be sought under condemnation proceedings.

This driveway will be a part of the connecting link of parks in Wayne County, and will be a most beautiful and scenic driveway when it is ultimately completed.

Early Morning Fire

The fire department was called to the home of Homer Singer on Kologer street at about six o'clock Tuesday morning, by a fire which originated from the furnace in the basement. The basement and second floor were badly damaged by the flames, while the second floor was somewhat damaged by smoke. Mr. Singer had some insurance on both the house and contents.

Typhoid Outbreak Apparently Under Control

STATE AUTHORITIES STUDYING LOCAL HEALTH SITUATION

The outbreak of typhoid in the village, which has been the cause of much concern to our citizens the past two weeks, has apparently reached the stage where it can be stated that the epidemic is definitely under control, and that fears that the milk and water supplies might have been the cause of the infection can be set aside.

Dr. A. E. Patterson, health officer, submits the following statement as to the present status of the entire situation, which statement is in accord with the findings of Dr. Murphy, of the Michigan Department of Health, who is here investigating the cause of the outbreak:

The present outbreak of typhoid in Plymouth has been the cause of grave concern to the general public, our physicians and the village administration, and all have been cooperating to the fullest extent to combat the situation. I present herewith the essential developments in the situation up to the present, so that the public may know definitely what is being done, and so that the numerous unfounded rumors may be dispelled.

Dr. Murphy of the Michigan Department of Health, has been in Plymouth the past several days for the express purpose of studying the whole situation, with a view of running down the cause of our outbreak if possible. He intends to remain in Plymouth until this work is accomplished. Likewise investigators from the state are undertaking a thorough and complete investigation of the entire milk supply coming into Plymouth, with the aim of thoroughly inspecting not only the creameries supplying the retail trade, but the farms which produce the milk.

The water supply of the village was the first factor subjected to close scrutiny at the beginning of our investigation. Repeated tests and examinations of the water to date have, however, produced entirely negative results, which seems to place our water supply above suspicion.

Thorough investigation of the milk supply, together with tests of the milk, has so far given no evidence of the milk being the source of infection, further and continued investigation of the milk and its production and distribution will be made, however, with the view of producing the greatest possible safeguards about this most important portion of our food supply.

It would appear from present indications that the epidemic has reached its height and is subsiding. A majority of the cases have been of a very mild type, and no recurrence of the outbreak is looked for. A careful investigation is being made of all raw foods, particularly of vegetables, as possible sources of the infection. Meanwhile thorough cooking of all raw vegetables, at least for a few days, would be suggested as an advisable precaution until our investigation has proceeded to the point where such foods can definitely be placed above suspicion.

Signed,
DR. A. E. PATTERSON,
Health Officer.

Dr. Waite Speaks To Rotary Club

There was a large attendance at the meeting of the Rotary Club last Friday at the Hotel Mayflower and the meeting was a good one. Dr. Paul W. Butz was received as a member with appropriate addresses by John W. Black-entaff and George A. Smith.

Dr. Waite of the Michigan Narcotic Educational Association, spoke briefly of the work of that organization.

The address of the day was given by Professor R. Clyde Ford of Ypsilanti State Normal College, who spoke on those qualities of character and life which go to make a real Rotarian. The address was followed with the keenest interest and was replete with stories told in Professor Ford's inimitable way.

The club was also much interested in a brief address, given by Dr. S. V. S. Rao of Madras, India, who spoke of the inter-relationships of this country with that far away land.

Legionnaires Will Celebrate With Installation

Plans are complete for the initial public function of the newly formed Myron H. Beals Post of the American Legion, which will take place next Monday evening in the crystal dining room of the Hotel Mayflower.

When the officers of the Plymouth Post will be installed in their offices by Commander Raymond H. Kelley of the Department of Michigan.

Several prominent Michigan Legionnaires will be present at the function as well as representatives from many Legion posts in nearby cities, who will take this opportunity to convey the greetings and good wishes of their respective posts to the latest number of the Legion family in Michigan. Plymouth's Gold Star mothers and fathers have been invited as guests of honor.

The program calls for a fine dinner, the singing of the favorite songs of the doughboy and girl of war days, short talks by Department Commander Kelley and Post Commander A. H. Gensler, the formal installation of the post's officers and hilarity and joy by everybody. Balloons, noisemakers and paper hats will be provided to stimulate the festive spirit, and the dining room will be appropriately decorated in honor of the nation's Legionnaires served in its home of war.

Tickets for the party are in the hands of the members of the new post and can be secured at the hotel desk or at any bank. All former servicemen are urged to attend, and promised an enjoyable evening if they do.

While the affair is being staged primarily for the veterans of the World War and their wives, anyone who cares to attend is extended a cordial welcome, according to post officers.

"Membership in the Beals Post has now reached twenty-five," said Fred G. Eckles, adjutant, "and we are holding our charter list open for a while in the hopes of greatly swelling our numbers before our permanent charter is granted. Membership costs but three dollars annually," he continued, "and two of those dollars go toward the great work that is being done by the Legion for the disabled comrades and their dependents, and pays a member's subscription to the American Legion Magazine, the foremost veterans' periodical in the United States. There are nearly two hundred veterans of the World War in and around Plymouth," he declared, "and every one of them would identify himself with this national organization if he really understood what it has accomplished for him and his disabled buddies in the past, and what its future possibilities are."

Mrs. August Schaufele Dies

Mrs. August Schaufele passed away at her home at 883 Brush street, Wednesday afternoon, February 19th, at 12:30 o'clock. The funeral services will be held from the home Saturday afternoon at 2:00 o'clock. Rev. Walter Cooper will officiate. A large number of notices will be given next week.

C. OF C. ELECT NEW OFFICERS

HARRY K. WRENCH WILL HEAD THE ORGANIZATION AS PRESIDENT FOR COMING YEAR.

The newly elected board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce met Tuesday evening for the first time and elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

President—Harry K. Wrench
Vice-President—Arthur E. Bink
Treasurer—Ernest J. Allison

The new officers are all well known and prominent business men of the village, and they will bring into the organization a wide experience in various business activities that will prove of inestimable value in the solving of the problems that will come before the year.

The above officers, with the following comprise the board of directors: John W. Blackentaff, Russell Roe, Roy Fisher, Paul Hayward and Herald Handil.

The officers met Wednesday to formulate a program for the coming year and to discuss plans for the membership campaign which will soon be launched.

The enthusiastic way the new board took hold of things at their initial meeting would indicate that they certainly mean business, and it now remains for the citizens of Plymouth to give them their wholehearted support in helping to make a bigger and better Plymouth.

"AUNT LUCIA" COMING SOON

EX-SERVICE MEN'S CLUB PRESENT COLLEGIATE COMEDY WITH CAST OF 150.

On March 5th and 6th, the famous collegiate comedy, "Aunt Lucia," will be staged at the high school auditorium under the auspices of the Ex-Service Men's Club. It promises to be one of the biggest home talent shows ever staged in this community and includes a cast of 150 local people.

The show is a story of the homecoming at Bala-Bala College. Bert Swadlow, well known in local dramatic circles, plays the part of Aunt Lucia. The play is a moderate character in which Swadlow takes the part of young Waldson, a college boy, who dressed in an old ladies' outfit for the entertainment of his fraternity brothers, is mistaken for Lucia Wakefield, an old maid, and consequently falls into a lot of unfortunate circumstances. He has several old men such as the butler and the man, Mr. Collins, the widower, and the old bachelor professor falling in love with him and proposing to him.

Resides the play proper, one of the big sensations of the show "Aunt Lucia," will be the men's flapper chorus. This group consists of thirty prominent business men playing the parts of college girls. These men will represent such characters as Clara Bow, Cleopatra, the Girl with the Million Dollar Legs, etc. They will strut and dance their way across the stage on March 5th and 6th, and no one can afford to miss them. You have, no doubt, seen choruses and seen shows, but you have never seen anything like the famous Flapper Chorus of "Aunt Lucia."

John E. McGill Dies In Detroit

John E. McGill of Detroit, and a former resident of Plymouth, brother of Miss Anna McGill of this place, died at his home in that city Wednesday. Funeral services will be held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home today, Friday, at 3:00 p. m., Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. Interment in Riverside cemetery.

Scoreless Tie Ends Broom-Ball Game

The fourth broom-ball game between the local Kiwanis and Rotary clubs closed last Monday evening in a scoreless tie. Overtime was played, but still there was no scoring. It was a hard-fought game from beginning to end, with neither side having the advantage over the other.

Two more games were to be played to complete the series, but due to the mild weather the remaining games will have to be cancelled.

THE 1930 CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The new officers and directors of the Chamber of Commerce are now ready for work, and judging from the personnel of the board, they are going to make the Chamber of Commerce for 1930 no small factor in the progress and growth of Plymouth. These men are going to give freely of their time and efforts in making the Chamber of Commerce the success that it should be. But they cannot do it alone, they must have the hearty cooperation of every citizen if big results are to be achieved. It is the duty of every citizen to get back of the organization and help them sell Plymouth to the world. Let's make the Chamber of Commerce known as a go-getter.

THE TYPHOID CASES

The prompt and efficient manner in which the local health department has handled the typhoid cases which seem to be prevalent in the village to some extent, is very commendable, indeed. The bringing in of the state officials to get at the very source of the cause was a step in the right direction, and the precautionary measures which were issued relative to the boiling of all water and milk was a matter of safeguarding the health of the community until the matter of the cause of the appearance of disease here could be definitely determined. The Lansing authorities have pronounced the water and milk which supplies the village to be O. K.

A CRYING NEED

At a recent meeting of the American Auto Association in New York it was decided to draft a uniform traffic code and to go into every state in the union and urge legislatures to enact it into law. It sounds so good that we hasten to notify Plymouth motorists of it, feeling sure that every one of them will want to get behind it and boost it when the time comes. Nothing is more annoying than to find one set of traffic rules in force in one community, and an entirely different set of rules being observed in another town or city a dozen miles away. In fact, motorists who make long tours get so tired of the jumbled up traffic rules that they frequently quit trying to solve them and drive as their best judgment directs. A set of traffic rules that would apply to the entire United States certainly seems to be a crying need, and we believe every state legislature will see the wisdom of adopting it. We also hope, for the sake of safer motoring and the conservation of human life that the movement is put through without unnecessary delay.

A SENSIBLE WAR

According to government reports there is to be no let-up this year in the fight waged throughout the middle west for the past several years on the European corn-borer. In fact, a group of experts have spent their time during the winter months in making even more extensive plans for pushing the campaign, determined to see that the borer does not find its way into other states that have so far escaped its ravages. The quarantines conducted in past years have held the operations of the borer to a very small locality when the entire nation is taken into consideration. It is an expensive war, but worth far more than it costs. There are insect pests enough to be contended with in all parts of the country without permitting the corn-borer to get a foothold and become nation-wide in its destruction. Let us hope, for the sake of the general good, that the warfare goes right on without a let up until the last indication of this destructive pest is wiped out.

TAKE A NEW HITCH

Without a single exception you'll find that the Plymouth man who feels that the town's business is his business is a good citizen. He usually doesn't expect others to spend their time and money building up and brightening the community while he sits back and slacks on the job. He knows that his neighbor's success is also his success, and that criticizing or condemning organizations that are trying to be helpful is a poor way of making progress toward the things desired. If he feels like finding fault, he usually finds fault with himself, and lets it go at that. And we've observed that he seems to live happier and to get more out of life than the other kind—of whom we still have a few. There's an old adage to the effect that "It's never too late to learn." And we are devoting this brief space to urge those who haven't yet learned that the town's business is their business to pull up and take a new hitch now, and not leave the entire job of making it a better community to the other fellow.

AN OLD TIME WINTER

We've read a good deal of weather news in the past few months, but up to the hour of going to press we haven't been able to find a single instance where in any part of the U. S. is complaining about not getting enough winter. With the lowest temperatures along the Canadian border recorded since 1917, and with frost registered as far south as Miami, it seems no part of the nation escaped its share of the cold.

Older residents around Plymouth who delight in boasting that "we don't have long, hard winters like we used to" are puzzled now; they are having a hard time explaining why the winter nearing a close can't be counted as an old-fashioned one. And the corn-husk and the goose-bone prophets have either forgotten that they made such a prediction, or they've gone into their holes and pulled the holes after them.

But we're over the worst part now, and we can afford to draw a long breath and start smiling. Government reports of winter wheat condition are cheering, while all of us know that a hard winter, when it is not followed by a spring filled with freezing temperatures, is the finest thing in the world for fruit. Past records show that exceptional crop seasons have always followed severe winters. And the weather we had throughout the United States this winter can certainly be set down as exceptionally severe.

"COURTESY WEEK"

It seems we're to have several new "weeks" this year, and already the city of Cleveland, Ohio, has started the ball rolling with what they recently saw fit to call "Courtesy Week." Like many of them, it has some merit. In fact, this one is so good that we can't understand why every section should not adopt it, Plymouth included, and observe it during the entire year instead of just for one week.

"Courtesy Week" is a week when everybody is supposed to be extremely polite to everybody else. The motorist slows down to let a pedestrian pass instead of honking a nerve-racking horn and glaring like a tiger. The man who jostles you or steps on your toes is expected to stop long enough to assure you of his sorrow, instead of mumbling an inarticulate "excuse me," that doesn't mean anything. Boys and girls are supposed to address their elders as boys and girls did back in what we often refer to as "the good old days." Neighbors are supposed to say nothing but kind and complimentary things about other neighbors, instead of back-biting them, as they gossip over the rear fence.

There seems to be no end to the good things we can do during "Courtesy Week" that we overlook or neglect to do during the other 51 weeks in the year. The Ohio city reports that it worked out fine there; that it reduced accidents and made everybody happier. That being the case, why can't we have a little "Courtesy Week" of our own right here at home? There is no law against it.

Miss Gladys Bayler was a Sunday visitor at the home of E. J. Cutler. Miss Harwick, a student at Ypsilanti, was the guest of Miss Katherine Purdy, Saturday and Sunday.

Donald Ryder of Chicago, a student at the U. of M., spent the past week at the Ryder farm.

Miss May Gilbert spent the weekend with the family of her brother, Harry Gilbert.

E. J. Cutler took a business trip to Savannah, Ga., this week.

James Purdy, a senior at Albion College, made his parents a flying visit last Saturday.

Verne Mackinder and family spent Sunday at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Mackinder.

Mrs. Carrie Hatt is making an extended visit with her sister, Mrs. Clark Mackinder.

Mrs. Gregg is still seriously ill at the home of her niece, Mrs. Jesse Thomas.

Mrs. Edgar Stevens is also seriously ill at this writing.

Mrs. James McNabb called on Mrs. James Joy at University Hospital, Tuesday, and found her recovering nicely from a serious operation on her spine.

On Saturday evening, March 1, the Sunday-school and Epworth League will hold a social meeting at the L. A. S. hall, to which everyone is invited. The party will be in charge of a deputation team from the Wesleyan Guild of Ann Arbor. Sunday, March 2, this team will have charge of all the church services. It is hoped there will be a

ILL 6 YEARS! NEW KONJOLA GAVE RELIEF

ANOTHER QUICK TRIUMPH SCORED BY NEW AND DIFFERENT MEDICINE OVER STUBBORN AILMENTS.

MRS. FRANCIS STREET

"I am glad to let the public know what Konjola has done for me," said Mrs. Francis Street, 608 North Oakley street, Saginaw. "For six years I was trying medicine after medicine in an endeavor to get relief from severe stomach and liver troubles. Nothing, it seemed, could give me relief, and I kept getting worse. I became so ill that I could not eat anything but toast and milk, and for a long time lived on milk alone. I became very nervous. I had lost all faith in medicines, but finally yielded to a friend who insisted that I try this new Konjola. After the first bottle I could notice a change for the better, and I kept on until I had taken eight bottles. By that time my health was restored. I have no stomach or liver trouble and constipation is a thing of the past."

Konjola is sold in Plymouth at the Community Pharmacy and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

good attendance at all these meetings. Mrs. Emma Ryder writes that she is greatly enjoying the "sunny south" and feels sorry for those who have to shovel coal to keep warm.

ABOUT NEW DISHES

If your family is rather wary of new food combinations, be a bit sulky about introducing new ones to them. Slip in a new vegetable when the dessert is a family favorite, or pop up their appetites with a pretty fruit cocktail, then bring in a new entree. Soon they will be asking for that new dish you gave them a while ago.

It won't be long now until Plymouth people can commence putting up martin and wren boxes for the English sparrows to live in.

An ideal husband is the Plymouth man who has sense enough to remember his wife's birthday and forget how many she has had.

Another thing we are sure of is that if there were an East and West pole Admiral Byrd would fly over them.

Guessing is a silly waste of effort. Just notice how little effect it has on the weather.

WASHINGTON— THE FINANCIER

Washington's ability as a statesman, a diplomat, a general, and an executive is well known. But his success as a financier is worthy of great admiration, too.

On his twenty-first birthday he owned over 1,500 acres of Virginia soil that he had paid for himself from his savings as a surveyor. Upon his marriage he became the custodian of approximately $100,000.

Then came the Revolution. As general of the Continental troops and as our first President, he refused all compensation. Furthermore, he expended a large part of his private fortune to feed and clothe his needy troops.

In spite of his generosity he returned to private life at Mount Vernon in 1796 with sufficient funds to live on comfortably. His secret was in being thrifty as a young man, and wise expenditure in later years. And think how much greater the facilities are for both now-a-days.

From Our Bookshelves

What a beautiful conglomeration of colors will soon decorate our library shelves! Books certainly are getting more and more beautiful...

For our juvenile readers we have "Madam Red Apple" by Mary Graham Bonner, a delightful story of a little girl four years old...

Also we have the book "What Happened After" by Patien Beard, which completes the lives of such well known characters as Jack and the Beanstalk...

In the book "American Folk and Fairy Tales" by Rachel Field we learn why the chipmunk's back is striped, and many such legends as that of the falling star.

Among the new books for girls, is "A Study of Divine Corners" by Faith Baldwin. Judy is the president of a society which is allowed to use a summer camp on the St. Lawrence River.

For boys we have the books, "The Trail of the Red Fox" by Pitt L. Fitzgerald, which tells of Gregory Neil's exciting encounters with Indians during a hunt...

We may also learn about the air in the book, "The Boy with the U. S. Weatherman" which is one of the "U. S. Service Series".

For those interested in art there are the books "Art in Everyday Life" by Goldstein, and "The Goldsmith of Florence" by Catharine Gibson.

In the field of vocations we have the book "Occupations for Women" by O. Lathin Hatcher, which every girl should read at least once before long.

For all budding historians, especially American historians, we have the ten volumes of "Standard American History" the fifteen volumes of "The Pageant of America"...

Central Grade Notes (Crowded Out Last Week)

For being neither absent nor tardy during the first semester in kindergarten, prizes were given to Janice Covert, Owen Gorton, Cecil Glass, and Rita Schief.

Twenty-seven children were promoted to the B first grade from the Kindergarten, and now there are thirty-four in Kindergarten A, and thirteen in Kindergarten B class.

Mrs. Root's first B's are learning to be quite patriotic. They have learned a song about the flag, America, and how to salute the flag which they used in their little program on Lincoln's birthday.

There are ten children in the room that have perfect teeth. They are Frederick Biener, Alvin Bennett, Pearl Denton, Johanna McGean, Kathlyn Micol, James Pennell, William Wernert, Raymond Wright, Doris Ruse and Jack Talbot.

Many children are out with chicken pox and their little classmates hope that they are feeling better and will return soon.

There is an enrollment of forty in Miss Farrand's 4-A. Elizabeth Hegge and Robert Soper are spelling captains. Elizabeth's side is in the lead.

In Miss Fenner's room the fifth graders are making pictures of their reading story "Molly and Whistle-blinkie". Barbara Hubbell's spelling team had the highest percentage in spelling on Friday.

Miss Hallinan's 6-A students have chosen sides for their spelling contest. Jack Kinsey and Roland Rhead are the captains. Virginia Heintz was absent all last week because of illness.

Principal Publishes Results of Study in Michigan Education Journal

Principal J. R. Emens has contributed an article for the February number of the Michigan Education Journal on "Newsjapers Interpret the School".

"The need for a definite public relations program is recognized. The local newspaper is one of the potent agencies in the program of disseminating information. The problem that arises may be separated into four main issues: (1) What constitutes desirable and adequate information concerning the school activities? (2) How and by whom should this information be selected, written, and prepared for printing? (3) Where in the paper should these articles be printed? and (4) How may this desired space in the columns of the local paper be obtained?"

What is School News? "What constitutes desirable and adequate information concerning school activities? In a recent study (by the writer) of information furnished by high school papers in twelve Class B Michigan high schools, the following items were accorded the number of column inches of space indicated: Average Column Inches per Week: Athletics - 41.2 inches, Extra Curricular - 74.7 inches, Miscellaneous - 100.2 inches, Informational Material - 22.8 inches, Class Room Instruction - 16.4 inches.

It is apparent that such information gives to the reader a very biased opinion of the modern high school and its aims and activities. Outline a Program: "The superintendent and principals as an administrative committee on public relations in smaller centers should outline a program to furnish adequate and desirable information to the community. This information probably should be at least 33.3 per cent general information, including: activities of the board of education, financial statements, Parent-Teacher associations, teachers groups, building projects, instructional costs, explanation of school projects, administration and supervisory functions, child accounting, and school plant. One-third may be devoted to class room activities, including articles concerning all phases of class room work, exhibits, pictures of rooms, English stories, and experiments. This section should include cuts and prints, pictures, and decorative work. The other third should be devoted to the non-curricular activities, including character clubs, athletics, class activities, forensic activities, and social functions.

The agents responsible for the selection and preparation of this information should be organized into a committee. In a small town if there is a journalism class in the high school a large part of the writing may be done by the members. In this case the committee should consist of the superintendent, principals, the teacher of journalism, one teacher from each building, and the pupil editor. If there is no journalism class, the same plan may be followed except that a club or newspaper group in the high school be organized. The members of this organization should prepare the weekly news for publication. The topics concerning class room activities and extra curricular organizations should be their special field. They can also write informational articles of various types, and can, by interview, prepare other statements. The teachers and administrative committee members also can prepare or collect other articles of public relations value.

Results Can Be Determined: "The success of public relation programs as expressed through the newspaper, can only be determined by the increased interest, understanding, and support of the school program, because the local citizenry will realize better the values, conditions, needs, and results of public education in the community."

Debating This Season

The season in debating ends in a wall plaque awarded by the Detroit Free Press to schools that have attained a certain standing. But, back of the plaque, are other ends and results.

Make the measure of debating its value as a contribution to community, school and student life. There have been three contests on the home platform during the year, local students participating. Local people invited, a link in a state league organization, making Plymouth representative in the field of public appearance, as well as in the popular and valuable physical sports.

Debating has been a topic of school interest and school discussion. Plymouth was one among 266 schools in a race to find the superior teams, and finally the superior team of the state, a matter of concern to the student who stands behind his school in all strength-matching contests.

G. R. Conference

At the Girl Reserve Conference held in Detroit, Saturday, February 15th, the Plymouth group was represented by Mrs. Crumble, G. R. advisor, Dora Gallimore, Vaun Campbell, Louise Grandstaff and Elizabeth Strong.

The morning they attended a discussion meeting; then in the afternoon each one of the what-aver group discussion she was interested in.

French Contest

The first year French class, enviously hearing of a party which concluded a contest in the second year Latin class, decided that they too would have a contest. Jean Strong and Henrietta Winkler were chosen as captains and teams were formed.

It has not yet been decided how long the contest will last, but it will probably be till the last of May or the first of June.

Varsity Club

Meeting for the first time in Coach Matheson's room, the varsity club was a complete success. This club is made up of letter men of the high school and nobles on jobs except these.

Ypsi Tumbling Team Entertains Between Acts

During the half and the intermission between games, the Michigan State Normal Tumbling team entertained the spectators. Both demonstrations on the parallel bars and on the mats were given. Many gasps of dismay issued from the sidelines at some of the stunts.

Class Basketball

By virtue of their victories over weaker teams, the teams eight and twelve still share the lead in the class basketball tournament in the high school. Team eight had quite an easy time with number five, winning by the lopsided score of 18 to 0.

The Music Department

The band has accepted seven more members. Milton Moe on the baritone, Mason Potter, George Ulrich and James Johnson on the cornet, William Holston, saxophone, William Thams, clarinet and Robert South on the trombone.

Soap carving and airship making are the activities of the seven members in the toy making club this semester, which is under the direction of Miss Cooper. Besides soap carving and airship making, they will also carve out toys of wood.

Red hearts, witty verses, tiny cupid, crane paper covered boxes, and lacy valentines seemed to be uppermost in the minds of all small Central school pupils last Friday.

The children in Mrs. Root's 1-B student reader, sent work started booklets made by cutting verses apart and pasting them under corresponding pictures to check in accuracy in reading.

The second grade reading classes have divided into teams and much competition is going on. The 2-B class is divided into the army and navy, and at the present the navy is ahead.

In Miss Field's room Lois Schaufele's group in spelling is one point ahead, and the honor roll for this week is Jean Hamill, Donald McLeod, Glenn Kaiser, Douglas Sockow, Viola Burden, Iva Brown, Muriel Kelly, and, of course, the captain, Lois Schaufele.

The Men Serve Supper

The female Gardenites got their heads together about this here culinary business, though admitting that the female of the species hereabouts were the best cooks in all this wide world, they (the men) claim that the lady folks were second to none; but who can be said to be the second and who can be the none? Why us men folks of course! That is we claim that we are the "second," and to prove it we just up and got after everyone and proved it by having them eat the pudding to do the proving.

To make the short story longer, the Lady-Gardenites and all the little Gardenites punctiliously dressed and got all dolled up for the occasion on Wednesday afternoon, and from pishpash began arriving singly and in groups at the banquet hall under and beneath our church.

The culinary artistry was prepared with most meticulous care, well cooked and well served, nothing left undone that would be incongruous with the appetite of the most fastidious. And now many a Lady-Gardenite is patting herself on the back that in case anything happened at home she could rely upon her better half to carry on the oat end of the household, as well as wash the dishes. Though the menu was not set with frills and ruffles, it was at least substantial and is set forth herewith for the sake and benefit of those who were not present, or who disbelieved the men-folks and had distained from a possible visit to our local pill rollers for relief:

- MENU
- Roast Meats a la Rosedale
  - Baked Beans Arden Style
  - Cabbage Salad a la Melrose
  - Potatoes au gratin
  - Pickles Pembroke Vintage
  - Cheeses rare Berwick
  - Apples a la Crauston
  - Celery i. e. Ingram
  - Coffee viz. Blackburn
  - Tea a la Water Tower
  - Home-made pies

Buttermilkers' Special
When the lady-folks give a supper, dance or supper it is up to the men-folks to watch over the babies and kiddies until the business is all over and the dish towels hung up to dry. Well, knowing that the lady-folks liked to nod their heads together over the wonderful set-out and to do some planning and scheming that they in the future might find a way to employ the men-folks about the kitchen at home and abroad, the men-folks, thoughtful as always, prepared something for to keep the kiddies quiet while all this latter business was coming itself out, so they rigged up a "moon pitcher" outfit to keep the kiddies in one place, if not to keep them quiet. So we had the album called and named "The Cricket on the Hearth." This the kiddies as well as their mothers so much enjoyed that they have it in their heads to have something of the sort come again and often.

The "new" bus schedule went into effect last Monday, and ever since complaints have been coming into these columns. The first victims of this here transfer business reported that they had to wait thirty-five minutes for the transfer bus to come along and when it did it took it another six minutes to get started on its way to the city hall. Others have been reporting like experiences, and others are going to give up the bus line entirely, not that they are going to buy an airplane or something, but are going to "drive in." After all blowing their heads off, they finally decided that what would be the best thing to do if the bus neeple are not making a paying enterprise of it, is to have at least more through service from 6:30 to 9:00 a. m. and from 4:30 to 6:30 p. m. We all admit that the driving weather since the last schedule went into effect, we mean the one that we had all winter, has been very bad, buses would often fail to go all the way to the city hall, and rarely if ever made either point on time. Well, in the future, we will probably get this matter ironed out to the satisfaction of all, and perhaps will have airplane service, who knows?

Many folks have stayed away from church this winter on account of the weather. It is certainly to be regretted that the parson or the committee, or whoever it is, seems to have the lumpy faculty of always picking a stormy night for something going on. It is never to be forgotten that the night that our Boy Scouts entertained at the High Court of Honor, that our church was crowded to the doors, in fact there were over a hundred folks down from Plymouth, Northville, Newburg and the countryside, not counting those from home, and what we meant to say in the beginning was that it was a bitter cold night, wild winds, snow and ice-plenty, and the mercury was flitting and making eyes at the zero mark all afternoon and evening. This winter our church has always been warm and cozy, in fact, has been too warm at times, so no matter what the weather may be, as we will have it whether or not, take a run over when you know there is something going on, and if you don't hear about it, why, ask a Boy Scout or Girl, they always know, and besides our boys have taken it upon themselves to deliver to every home in the vicinity the weekly church bulletin. So look for that, if you are not receiving your copy promptly, or desire an additional one, to mail a friend as an invitation, call one of the boys and you will get your copy or copies. This week it is No. 13, which is lucky or at least not unlucky.

The big red placards on the Boyd homestead on Melrose avenue have been removed, so now all may enter and leave. This a long, long time for two active children to remain cooped up, and we wish to congratulate the mother who so carefully watched over these two youngsters and nursed them back to health. We never had the scarlet fever, but had the mumps, which, it is said, is the same thing, only in one place and a different besides, but that only kept us away from school for a week, and praise be, it rained every day, but if it had snowed we know it would not have been so pleasant.

The boys from the National Airways are sailing round over head, as the weather becomes milder they are out bright and early, and from all accounts are having a big program in view for this spring and summer.

The planes are not the only thing seeing these mornings that the sun sees fit to get up almost as early as we and will before long be up much earlier. We had in mind to ask the Boy Scouts about this, but it will be corrected Friday evening if it is not correct: Well, the other awing is that we hear numerous birds chirping, twittering, singing and chattering all through the woods and even to our door step very early these mornings. Now what was wrong with the foregoing?

If the folks living on Pembroke road had some way of nickleplating, they could save a lot of money this summer on electric refrigeration and ice for the home brew or milk or whatever. As Pembroke sure has the ice, not only on the lower road, but all due west of them in the boys' flying field, the baseball field, etc., so called because the snow-balls have been flying around there all winter and in melting have created some ten inches to two feet of ice over some hundred acres or more and to think we have just about got out wind from the forest and grass fire down that way, which was so hot and smoky that it would have turned elephants into bacon and smoked liver-wurst or something.

Last Friday afternoon a Buttermilk, one Ed Sullivan, slipped and fell in front of his home like a load of lead pipes, or something. We were just about to call the plumber and have Ed put together again when he got himself on two feet again, he and his samples, and, blaming it all on us, he went in the house to get out the medicine and other things in the bathroom. That is why Ed stayed home from the Boy Scout meeting last time.

One of the Buttermilkers got us in a corner this evening, and stated that he had come out from town every evening on the 4:30 p. m. bus, and further reported that something should be done about this here bus business, schedules, etc., made and whatever, and a letter or commission to be appointed to visit with Mayor Bowles or somebody. When asked what he suggested, it was this, or words to the same effect, only more effective: "Keep traffic moving just a mile or so faster than 20 miles in the city has per signs on traffic signals; as most people move along like chloroformed snails, it was suggested that the bus driver carry along a bag of salt to put on their tails thereby melting them up so the bus could go on; and the most sensible of all appeared to us to be that the bus company (who claim that they are losing money) would employ a veterinary surgeon to cut off part of the big buses coming to and fro this way, that is if they could not afford to buy and use smaller ones. This latter seems to be the most sensible thing for us to hope, ask and pray for, and for the bus company to operate with least expense, and that is a number of smaller buses that will carry us folks all the way there and all the way back, and not have us taking more time in waiting for the transfer bus at Division and Tireman than it takes to walk the balance of the way to the city hall.

Signs of Spring: Tuesday morning last, Art Bruggeman reports that he saw and entertained or rather was entertained in a flock of blackbirds and a couple pairs of robins, this was at and by the pump house on Arden avenue. We believe Art, as we saw several meadowlarks by our hangarette Monday evening at sun down. And then comes a flock of Girl Scouts who report that they also had seen a pair of robins and had smelled the odor of lilacs, though we can explain the last, for at the time and place reported was at Arden and Plymouth roads, and it was only Clyde Masters sweeping out the barber shop after a strenuous hair cutting and shaving with lilac vegetal on the side.

They were planning on a bridegroom luncheon for twelve. "How many degrees in a pound?" asked Lady Gardenite of "R" grocer boy. "Dunno," says he, "never was on the dogcatchers squad, but heard Mr. Jack Weaver say that he saw two hundred there." Whereupon the ladies ordered sandwich spread and some of that new-fangled cheese that comes all done up like old-fashioned cut plug, with silver-foil and all. Which same indicates and proves nuthin'!

Miss Estel Ludvig has again returned to her post as fashion artist in the big village to the southeast of us. Besides tails and flares on skirts and dresses, Miss Ludvig reports that the latest thing in fashionable circles is the new face powder, which is a variegated green. Whatever that is, it must be, according to all explanations and accounts that if you have violet blue eyes, your face powder is violet blue green, and if they are sky blue then your powder is sky green, and if your eyes are black then the green is the same shade as a black eye is about six days after it happens. No, we don't think you are green to believe this, but it is true, nevertheless, though we may not have remembered the combination, but we do remember that it is green, green, green and some more green, and we know positively that you and you as well as us have not blue, violet, lavender colored hair to match up the green powder with. So when you see one or more of these freaks of the female species you will remember that we had previously elucidated the mystery in these columns. So there, cookie boy, we have saved you from a horrible death by fright in case you get up all a green next Sunday afternoon.

Yes, horrible visage, shades of a black cat's auntie, we got that valentine, and we think the delay was that the postmaster held it up so he could look over the laws on such subjects. However, if you did not get the one we sent you, it is because the Federal Atty. is, keeping it to present to the grand jury for indictment or to the psychopathic commission as who knows your photograph and you at large too!

There appears to be no ocular indication of new buildings going up, we always build up new ones here, but from all indications of an early spring, including groundpig day, and robins and snow and ice, particularly melting snow and ice, it won't be long now that we will hear Hurd Smith and Jim Flanagan calling to their horses and mules in exravating, and the brick-masons working for money and the ring of the carpenters' hammers, etc. Which all goes to show that there will be a new carpenter's apprentice this spring for the old one gave up the idea of solving the mystery of why the carpenter's hammer rings, his saw sings, but the masons' frowls and hods cannot play at peanner's. Not that we wish to be rude, but we have several seasons' experience, and will be safe in saying that several people who have signified their intention to be the first to build this spring, will according to the laws of averages, be the last to start as well as finish, thereby missing the best time of the year to get their gardens and lawns in shape to look the least bit presentable.

Mrs. J. W. Walker's game arm is out of spirits and forms, and she now carries it about all done up in bandages and tapes.

Greatness Was Born Of Foresight

Washington looked beyond the immediate present. He saw future developments that other men could not imagine. He foresaw, and he prepared.

What an inspiration for every one whose ambition has created a goal hard to reach! How loudly it proclaims the wisdom of preparation! No better foresight could be exemplified than that of building a financial reserve, held in safe-keeping here where generous interest is paid, and helpful, friendly counsel encourages financial growth.

In respect to the memory of Washington this bank will not be open on his birthday, Saturday, February twenty-second

These Electrical Conveniences ARE USEFUL YET INEXPENSIVE

Waffle Iron $5.95

Waffles—light, crisp, golden, and served piping hot—are a delightful treat that the family looks forward to. There are many delicious kinds—chocolate waffles, gingerbread waffles, or spiced waffles—all are at their best when made with an electric waffle iron. This nickel plated iron makes waffles in two minutes, right at the table at your elbow, without grease or smoke.

Electric Clock $9.75 and up

One of the most useful of household appliances is the electric clock. The electric clock is a modern timekeeper—it needs no winding, no attention. You simply plug it into an electric outlet and it keeps accurate time, faithfully and automatically. Enjoy this new convenience—install an electric clock in your home.

These appliances are reasonably priced, yet carry the unconditional Detroit Edison guarantee.

Electric Percolator $4.50

Once you have known the convenience of an electric percolator, you will never be without one. Plug in the connection—and in a few minutes you hear the bubbling of hot, richly flavored coffee, right at your elbow. This 7-cup electric percolator is aluminum paneled and an attractive addition to your table. Simple in construction and operation, it is easily and quickly cleaned. A safety fuse protects it against injury when the percolator is started without water or boils dry.

I. O. O. F. NOTES

Brothers: Members of Tonquish Lodge, do you realize that when you come to the lodge, that it makes your brothers happy, and if you stay away that you make the pleasure out of the other brothers? Now Tuesday night we put on the second degree, and you know our degree work is wonderful. Don't you think that the candidates are more impressed if they see the lodge full of members? Next Tuesday we're going to put on the third degree and you know after the work we give a little lunch. Now then, will you cheer with us, in our happiness and come next Tuesday.

Yours in F. L. & T.
W. G. Moritz Langendam,
Vice-Grand.

Archie Meladugh, P. G., had the misfortune of falling and spraining an ankle last Friday evening, and Albert Williams, P. G., cracked his wrist Monday, cranking a Ford.

Tuesday, February 11th, we traveled to Galaxy lodge at Belleville, and worked the first degree, after which we were served with a bountiful lunch and a well arranged program.

Wm. J. Stewart, P. G., who has been one of us for over 60 years, was with us Tuesday evening. Come often, Brother Stewart.

The second degree was splendidly given Tuesday evening, under the leadership of Captain Earl Gray, P. G., and next Tuesday, the third degree will be given under the leadership of Captain Wm. Trimble, P. G.

The entertainment given jointly by the Rebekahs and Oddfellows for members and their friends Friday, February 14th, was well attended, 107 being present. After all had been filled with oysters, they adjourned to the second floor, where progressive pedro was played. Brother Fred Stanbie winning every game.

Wm. Streng, P. G., fell Monday, injuring his head. Brother Streng is living at 822 North Mill St.

We are sorry to hear of the sudden death of Sister Bolton at Northville, Friday, February 14th. Our sympathies are extended to Brother Frank Bolton.

Fifteen officers present out of a possible seventeen.

Check trimming is liked on house dresses this season. Here is shown a charming little frock worn by a popular movie actress.

SALEM

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ryder and son, and Rev. J. J. Halliday were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts.

Miss Frances Anderson spent the week-end with friends in Detroit. Mrs. James Dickie of South Lyon, was a Saturday dinner guest of her parents, and the Misses Dorothy and Ruth Foreman of Detroit, were Sunday guests at their home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Wright and children of Detroit, were Sunday callers at the G. C. Burnham home. Rev. J. J. Halliday left Sunday afternoon for Delaware, Ohio, to spend a week with his family.

Mrs. John Herrick and daughter, Doris, and friend, were Detroit visitors, Sunday.

The Bethany Bible class and Ladies' Auxiliary society of the Congregational church will sponsor a wonderful "Father and Son" banquet, Friday evening, February 28th, in the town hall, at 8:00 p. m. Rev. Albert Potts of Chelsea, will be the speaker, a man well liked and very popular among men. Telesford Longton, a member of the Metropolitan Opera Co., and a favorite radio artist, will be the soloist. Mr. Daniels of Detroit, will be the "key" leader. Other splendid features are an instrumental trio of boys playing the violin, accordion and harmonica, besides some good home talent speakers. Come and enjoy a big evening all for 50c a single ticket. Get busy and purchase your ticket as they are going fast.

Mrs. Lucia M. Stroth arranged a double surprise party on Monday evening for both her mother and Miss D. Stoffer, whose birthdays are two days apart. The Advance Guard Bible class of the Congregational church were the other guests, and held their meeting just before sitting down to a long table to partake of a fine lunch. The table was effectively decorated in red and white, with a valentine favor at each place. Several beautiful cakes with white icing and little red heart candies and other good things made it look very attractive. A most enjoyable evening passed away only too fast.

PAGEANT TO BE STAGED DURING FAIR

Something different for fair visitors in Northville this year—a whole lot different—and a program that is bound to please the most particular—that is the object of the Northville Wayne County Fair association and that is the reason the officials and committees have booked a big historical pageant to be presented during fair week this year.

The dates of the fair have been fixed for August 19th to 23rd, and from present plans of the officials it is their hope and aim to make the fair so much different that it will hardly seem like the same event.

Not only do they hope to increase the number of displays, but an effort is going to be made to change the vaudiville acts that are given each afternoon and evening. It has been found that the fair at Marshall takes place at the same time of the Northville fair, and negotiations are now under way with the officials of the Marshall fair association to bring about a change of acts between the two fairs, giving to Northville fair visitors ten or twelve different acts during the fair instead of five or six as has been the usual practice.

The historical pageant that will be presented each evening will be one of the biggest things ever attempted by the fair association. It will require hundreds of people for the various acts. It will be something like, but still different, from a similar feature that was staged last year at the Milford fair. Officials of the association hope to make it as successful as the Milford act proved to be, if not more so.

President Schrader, Fred Lyke, Elmer Smith, Ed. Starkweather and Secretary Floyd Northrop and several other fair board members recently attended the annual meeting of county fairs held in Detroit, and it was while they were at this meeting that they were fortunate in getting so many new features for the 1930 fair at Northville.

Work on the pageant will be started early in the summer and by the time the fair dates are here, the biggest outdoor show ever attempted in Northville will be ready for fair visitors.

Fred Lyke, who has charge of the concessions, is greatly pleased over the project of having the biggest midway at the fair this year, the association has ever had. While at Detroit he was able to book a number of new applicants and many of the old ones advised him that they were going to return for this year's fair.

Fair followers said Northville had acted wisely in setting their fair dates ahead. It gets away from the cold and rainy weather that during the past three or four years has proven such a detriment to the fair.

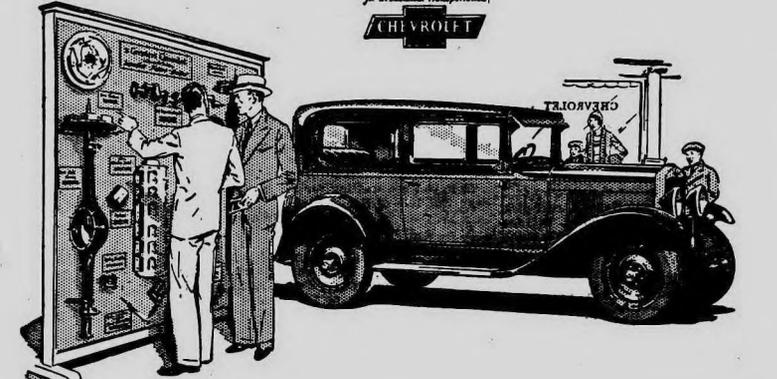

Marvin Sloan also believes that he will be able to get a much larger entry list for the racing events.

In fact prospects were never so good for a successful fair as this year—if early arrangements for the program of entertainment is any indication of what is going to happen—Northville Record.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear husband and father, William H. Maynard who left us six years ago today, February 21, 1924.

Dearest husband how I miss you. Tears in silence often flow. But I have one consolation in knowing that you are waiting for me in that Beautiful Isle of Somewhere. Wife and children.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving memory of our dear son, Ansel F. Roddenberg, who died one year ago today, February 21. A precious one from us has gone. A voice we loved is stilled. A place is vacant in our home which never can be filled. Sadly missed by his parents and sister Mr. and Mrs. Paul Roddenberg and Mildred. 1tp

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Vernon B. Henderson who died at Camp Custer February 19th, 1918.

He was kind, yes, wonderfully so. And gentle in every way. If he couldn't speak well of others, then he had nothing to say. He tenderly cared for his loved ones. To his friends he always was true. And when God laid His hand on your heart strings.

He left sweetest memories for you. Mother, Sister and Brother. 1p

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of our dear grandson and nephew Ansel Roddenberg, who died one year ago today, February 21, 1929. Who was it, Lord, he had to go? For oh, dear Lord, we loved him so. Just in the flower of boyish charm, How sweet the days in which he dreamed.

And oh, how sweet and fair he seemed. But you have called him home to Thee. Then can't not love him more than we. The broken-hearted Roddenberg Family.

Daughter no longer pulls at her skirt to cover her knees, but her hands keep in practice. She can still pull Dad's leg.

The difference between a modern couple and the Siamese Twins is that nothing is easier than separating a modern couple.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

It used to be considered in school work for children the "three r's"—reading, 'riting and 'rithmetic—what simplified spellers they were in those days!—were the foundations of all things to be learned. Dame Fashion mediated the other day on the idea that woman, in her dress plans has "three r's" to consider—

Grace J. Austin, face, form and "frizzes." The last is not a specially poetic name for hair—but it is the only one to fit the "r" plan.

Of them all, the "frizzes," or the color of the hair, and the color of the eyes have been supposed for years to set the keynote for things to be worn or let severely alone. The red-haired woman is almost sure to look her best in green, and so is in quite good luck this year. The pure blondes in pastels, which are especially emphasized in southern wear; the brown-haired in nearly every shade but gray, and the real brunette in black and gold creations find their best charm.

There is a little secret about the uneven hemline. Dame Fashion has just learned it, but it seems highly reasonable. It is said to give illusion and rhythm in addition to being more becoming than a straight-around ankle-length gown. The uneven hemline takes away that flutter of anxious thought with which many a woman has stood on tiptoe before her mirror, questioning, "Does my dress hang straight?"

Dame Fashion not so long ago had an opportunity for observing the gowns of about 600 women who had assembled from all quarters of a large state at its capital, to spend two days in a civic and semi-political convention. In their business sessions there were many ensemble suits to be seen, with three-quarter length coats, often heavily trimmed with fur.

The governor's wife received these women at the executive mansion with an evening reception. Among the company in general, black evening gowns predominated, followed in number by red ones, and then by gold or golden tan. Lace was a favorite material, and was more in evidence than velvet. The hostess received in a gown of gold brocade, with four inset flares in the long skirt, which had a pronouncedly uneven hemline.

One of the noted political women present, holding an office in congress, wore eggshell satin and lace, studded with pearl trimming and rhinestones. The president of the convention wore a long black lace gown, with pearls as jewels, while a national committee woman, most strikingly gowned of all, wore an evening ensemble of cloth of gold, having wide flares inset at both sides of the skirt, and her three-quarter cape of the ensemble edged with ermine.

But after all, most of us are more interested in pretty wear for the home kitchen than for a governor's drawing room. Not so many mornings ago when the day was exceedingly gray and cheerless, Dame Fashion saw a young woman come out to sweep her front walk. She wore a smock that was simply glorious for its mixed designs in brilliant color, modernistic or Chinese or whatever it may have been. It gave such a thrill of pleasure just to see it for a moment. Artists were the first to adopt the smock—but how about it? Isn't nearly every girl and woman in these days an artist in life? (© 1930, Western Newspaper Union.)

An Ensemble of Tweed Is Approved by Paris

Showing a dressy ensemble in gray and mauve flecked tweed, a recent arrival from Paris. The feminine blouse and soft gray fur are practical as well as elegant.

Pajama Ensemble

One of the smartest of the new pajama ensembles is a two piece affair in cut velvet of chateau rose. The trousers are of green crepe, bordered in printed zephyr, as is the coat, which is cut on princess lines.

Enjoy Picnic Party At Benedict Home

A picnic was enjoyed by a number of Michigan and New York tourists on the lawn at the home of E. D. Benedict, 206 E. Park St., Lakeland, Florida, Saturday. After a sumptuous noonday meal, shuffle board, quoits and other games were played. While this is Mr. Benedict's eighth winter in Florida, it is the first experience for the majority of the guests, who will take back with them pleasant memories of Lakeland, Florida, when they return to their northern homes next spring. Those present from Michigan, were Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Belleville; Mrs. Edward G. Hoops, George E. Hoops, Miss Leora Hoops of Wayne; Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Backberry; Miss Stella Backberry of Romulus; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Westfall, Mr. and Mrs. Preston Parshall of Plymouth; and the following from New York: Mrs. Eva Gee, Cortland; Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Setz, Muhopae Falls; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ballard, Miss M. V. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Hatch-Kiss, Ithaca; S. D. B. Benedict, Albany.

Municipal Notes

BY THE MANAGER

The soft weather of the past few days has brought numerous complaints of pools of water standing in streets—particularly unimproved streets. In many cases investigation of these complaints reveals the fact that there is no storm sewer upon the street to carry off the water. This means that the surface water must remain until it can run off into the ground. The remedy for such a condition can only be the installation of a storm sewer, with catch basins so located as to drain the surface water away as soon as it collects. Citizens who may be interested in petitioning for such improvements may secure petitions from the village officers, and the earlier in the season that such petitions are presented, the better the chance of having the sewer installed. As a matter of information, the village pays one-third the cost of all sewer installations.

Central P. T. A. Tea

The Central P. T. A. held their first of a series of teas at the high school, Tuesday, February 18th. About fifteen tables were served. Miss Schrader gave a very delightful program of songs and instrumental music by the children in her classes, and Gladys Schultz gave a lovely recitation.

We cleared over $10 for the afternoon, and hope to get a good start with that on necessary dental and medical attention for the children. Miss Schrader and the ladies of the committee and hostesses are to be heartily thanked for helping make this a tea success.

Central P. T. A.

The Central P. T. A. held their regular monthly meeting in the high school auditorium Wednesday, February 12th. A short business meeting was held first. Due to weather and traffic conditions, one speaker for the evening was unable to be present. An invitation to attend the meeting of Starkweather P. T. A. was extended.

Miss Hallahan's room presented a fine program including numbers by the orchestra, a guitar solo by Vernon Hitt and a fire drill and songs by the class. March is, we hope, to be a banner month. It is the month of election of officers and payment of dues for next year. A nominating committee of one teacher and two mothers has consented to make up a slate, and we want to collect dues from all members so we may have our full list of state bulletins next year again.

RABBIT BREEDERS

A general mass meeting of all the rabbit breeders in and around Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Milan, Saline, Dexter, Plymouth and Northville, will be held at 23 North Adams St., Ypsilanti, (first brick store north of Cleary College), on Monday, February 24th, at 8:00 o'clock p. m. The purpose of this meeting is to develop a ready and steady market for rabbit meat. There will be present several speakers representing Michigan State Rabbit and Cavy Breeder's Association, the Greater Detroit Rabbit and Cavy Breeder's Association, and other local rabbit associations.

This will be one of the most important meetings of this season, and all are cordially invited. Don't miss it.

FRAIN'S LAKE

Township board of Superior held a meeting at the town hall, to discuss permitting of Detroit parties to establish a cemetery on what is known as the Dan Jewell farm, providing drainage, soil and water are satisfactory. The permission was granted. The P. T. A. of Geer school is giving dance at Dixboro hall, Friday evening, February 28th. Schaffer's orchestra will furnish the music. Everybody come and have a good time. Mr. and Mrs. John Root, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Gardner, Mr. and Mrs. Linton Proctor and Mr. and Mrs. William Grammel attended a card party near Redford, Saturday evening. Mr. and Mrs. William Rudick and sons, Lawrence, Russell and William, Jr., of Plymouth, and Mr. and Mrs. John Eschels and children and Grandma Eschels of Detroit, were Sunday afternoon visitors at the Gust Eschels home. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rengert spent Wednesday in Plymouth with Mr. and Mrs. Charles Rengert. Murry Fishbeck, poultry club member, expects to have a model brooder house built for him by the agricultural engineering department, Michigan State College. He will furnish the material, and the engineers for the college will direct the work of building with the assistance of other poultry club members. The brooder house will be used as a model, showing the approved type of brooder house. Mrs. Winifred Gill, teacher of Geer school is ill at her home near Cherry Hill. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rengert are going to celebrate their golden wedding anniversary February 22nd, at the Lutheran church in Ypsilanti. Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nankee and daughter, Cecil, were Detroit visitors, Sunday. Several ladies of the Geer school P. T. A., gathered at the home of Mrs. Thomas Gardner, Monday afternoon, and pieced quilt blocks for a quilt which will be disposed of at a dance which the P. T. A. is having February 28th. Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rengert were in Ypsilanti, Sunday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Keller, where they celebrated Mr. Rengert's 78th birthday. The Frain's Lake P. T. A. will meet at the school Friday evening, with Mr. and Mrs. Will Schrader acting as host and hostess. A fence has been erected enclosing Booker T. Washington Memorial Park. A large amount of shrubbery has been planted, and preparations for erecting a replica of the Abraham Lincoln cabin has been started. Mr. and Mrs. Itoy Proctor of Plymouth, were Monday evening guests at the Linton Proctor home.

Mrs. William Grammel entertained her mother, Mrs. Douglas, over the weekend. Clifford Fishbeck and family of Detroit, were recent guests at the home of his parents here. Miss Ruth Root, who is attending college at Ypsilanti, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Root. Mrs. C. Price entertained the Bi-Weekly Bridge and Luncheon club last Wednesday afternoon. The awards went to Mrs. S. James, first; Mrs. H. Eggleston, second; Mrs. C. Price, consolation, and Mrs. C. H. Brown, booty. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. Eggleston next Wednesday afternoon.

Former Resident Dies at York, Pa.

William E. Springsteen, for several years a resident of Plymouth, passed away February 16, 1930, at 9:40 a. m. at the home of his step-daughter, Mrs. James E. Lee, 570 Madison Ave., York Pa., at the age of 91 years, 9 months. He was born in Rochester, N. Y., on August 10, 1838, and moved to Michigan at an early age. A short service was held at the home the evening of February 17th, at 7:30, and the remains were then taken to Washington, D. C., for interment in Arlington Cemetery on February 18th, with full military honors. Mr. Springsteen's many friends in Plymouth will remember him as a kindly old gentleman and a friend to man.

Mild Winters Not Right for Trees

Definite Amount of Severe Weather Required for Needed Changes.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.) Severe winters in the North usually mean short crops, but with peaches in Georgia and apples southward from Virginia, the rule works just the other way. This is because temperate-zone fruit trees require a definite amount of cold weather during which certain changes are carried on which prepare them for growth in the spring. This period of "rest," which is so definitely required for many trees and plants, is really therefore a period of slight but important changes in the trees. Growth Delayed in Spring. Dr. M. B. Wolfe, of the United States Department of Agriculture, observed many years ago, that our northern fruits, such as the peach, when cultivated too far south in Georgia, frequently exhibit symptoms of delayed growth in the spring, attributable to lack of sufficient resting period. Dr. Lee M. Hutchins, of the same department, has recently observed the same phenomena and points out that as a rule, in about one year in five, the mild winters of Georgia do not give peach trees the required amount of resting period, and the result is what peach growers call "prolonged dormancy." When this happens, peach trees in the lower portion of the state fail to bloom at their regular time. Finally they bloom, from a weak to several weeks late. This disturbance may interfere with the setting of the fruit, and the ripening of the fruit may also be thrown off schedule and come in with the crop in other parts of the state farther north, which tends to make an overcrowded market. Albany Is Limit. Albany is given by Doctor Hutchins as about the southern limit for the commercial production of our standard varieties of peaches. South of this limit the trees during most winters do not get enough cold weather for maximum production. The same principle applies to apples in a zone much farther north.

Agricultural Hints

- Kill the early weeds. A good crop cannot be grown on an impoverished soil. Get a wheel hoe, so the boys can take care of the garden. Make the change gradually from dry hay to green grass. Clover hay is two-and-a-half and alfalfa three-and-a-half times as rich in digestible protein as is timothy. Sacked limestone can be piled in the field and covered with building paper or straw. Haul it this winter. The use of high-grade seed potatoes would increase the returns from the potato crop of the country by many millions of dollars. Probably the largest single item in tractor cost is depreciation, followed closely by fuel cost. An idle tractor is a poor investment. Superphosphate is equally well adapted for use on the dropping boards of the poultry house as in the gutters of the dairy barn. Fence posts, unless they are of cedar and oak, and cheap, should be given a preservative treatment before they are set in the ground. Any silage remaining in the silo can be kept over for next winter with little loss by covering with roofing paper and weighting down to expel and keep out air. Tests at the various experiment stations indicate that both wire and cloth base glass substitutes lose at least one-fourth of their efficiency in transmitting the ultra violet rays when they become dusty or dirty.

Corn and Peas Favored as Home Garden Staples

High quality sweet corn can be grown in most any garden the season through, say horticulturists of the University of Minnesota. Starting with Early Dow, which is about ten days ahead of Golden Bantam, or with Pickaninny, a rather low growing, bushy type, with ears near the ground, the gardener can follow with successive plantings of the standard Bantam and have highly flavored toothsome ears for his table until early fall. Peas, a good second for corn in the garden, should be planted as soon as the ground can be worked. Alaska and Thomas Laxton are good early varieties. Those recommended for later use are Little Marvel, a dwarf which is fairly early; Gradus and Alderman, a tall, large podded plant which also produces rather late in the season. New Zealand spinach and chard will furnish minerals, vitamins and bulk to the diet in the form of greens all through the season, and one or the other, or both, if there is room in the garden, should be grown.

Christian Science Notes

"Soul" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science churches on Sunday, February 16.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "My soul shall be satisfied with marrow and fatness, and my mouth shall praise thee with joyful lips." (Ps. 63:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The sun is not affected by the revolution of the earth. So Science reveals Soul as God, untouched by sin and death—as the central Life and Intelligence around which circle harmoniously all things in the systems of Mind." (Page 310).

The Lesson-Sermon for next Sunday, February 23 is "Mind."

EPISCOPAL NOTES

THE MAN WHO GOES TO CHURCH
The man who goes to church regularly preaches to all men that he believes in God. The man who stays at home preaches that his duty to God is not a matter of great importance.

How do you stand? Are you for or against the church? Does your example count "plus" or "minus"? Is your influence positive or negative at 10:00 o'clock on Sunday morning?

Sunday is Sextagesima Sunday, "about sixty days until Easter." Begin now to prepare for Easter. Attend the special Lenten services; particularly we look forward to the addition of an evening hour of worship, with special speakers as last year. Parents, cooperate with us in keeping up your children's attendance at the church school. Encourage their interest in the Lenten program. "Readers of the Cross" to be held after school at four o'clock each Wednesday during Lent.

A pre-Lenten Sunday School party (for all except the senior class) will be given on Washington's birthday, Saturday, February 22, from 2 to 4 p. m. The seniors will have their treat on Saturday, March 1.

The musical show, "His and Hers" produced by members of the parish, will be presented on Wednesday, February 26. Those taking part have spent a great deal of time and effort in the preparation of the music and costumes, and promise an attractive program. They urge your support by evening and telling your friends! You will enjoy the show!

METHODIST NOTES
"Behold the upright!" (Psalm 37:37). Let us recall Washington's own words: "The perpetuity of this nation depends upon the religious education of the young." Again, "While we are duly performing the duty of good soldiers we certainly ought not to be inattentive to the higher duties of religion. To the distinguished character of a patriot it should be our highest glory to add the more distinguished character of a Christian." It is not strange that the guiding principles reflected in these utterances should have developed the character which inspired Daniel Webster to say: "America is cherished to the world by the character of Washington. And if our American institutions had done nothing else, that alone would have entitled them to the respect of mankind."

Wednesday evening, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, prayer and praise service. These inspirational services deserve your best attention. One of our greatest life is so highly developed, that it does not need all the encouragement he can get. Jesus Christ, himself, spent frequent periods in prayer, apart from the cares of the world. You will be welcome, and receive help on Wednesday night.

Sunday morning, February 23rd, will be observed as Father and Son Sunday. Every man is invited to be present with a son, owned or borrowed.

Sunday evening service, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, with a song service preceding the sermon. If there is a question you wish to have answered, or a particular subject you wish to hear discussed, get it to Dr. Lendrum during the week and then come the following Sunday evening.

Next Saturday afternoon, February 22nd, the Junior Missionary children will hold a bake sale at the Wolf Grocery store. They are urged to have their baked goods there early.

The Bonnet class will hold their regular business meeting Friday evening (tonight) at the church. Co-operative dinner, featuring cherry pies at 6:30. Come with plans for our work for this year. A splendid entertainment is being planned by Mrs. Harry Brown and Mrs. Emerson Woods.

CATHOLIC NOTES
Instructions Saturday at 9:30 a. m. for all the children.
Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the children.

Choir practice Friday at 4:00 and 8:00 p. m. In preparation for Lent. Let the children report in the afternoon and the men in the evening.

Sunday is the last Sunday of February. Have you turned in your report for the month?

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.
Thirty-two reported attendance at the meeting of the Ready Service Class at the home of Mrs. Reek, 171 Blunk avenue, on Tuesday last. The dinner was excellent, and was followed by the business meeting of the class presided over by Mrs. Draper, the president. Plans were made for certain work to be accomplished throughout the year. The meeting was then turned over to the convener of the program committee, Mrs. C. B. Weaver, who called on Mrs. Starkweather for a musical number, and on Mrs. Stringer for a reading. These were followed by some cleverly arranged games, after which the meeting broke up, everyone voting Mrs. Reek and Mrs. Bailor exceptional fine hostesses.

The leadership training class on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 p. m. is bringing out some most helpful discussions. It is open to all.

Next week the Mission Study Class meets at the home of Mrs. B. E. Champe, 1260 West Ann Arbor street. There will be cooperative supper at 6:30 p. m. to be followed by the business meeting and a program.

The congregational year ends March 31. The annual meeting is April 2nd.

BAPTIST NOTES
The Sunday morning and evening attendance has been splendid and surely an inspiration to people as well as pastor. "Forsake not the assembling of yourselves together." Heb. 10:25.

Next Sunday evening the pastor's sermon, continuing a series on fulfilled prophecy, will deal with the Resurrection of Christ.

At the time of going to press our pastor is having a spiritual refreshment, attending the Pastors' Retreat at Lansing.

(Owing to the spreading typhoid fever in our community, it was deemed wise to postpone the fish supper announced for Friday, February 21st, until some future date.)

The girls of Mrs. Riley's Sunday-School class thoroughly enjoyed themselves at a pot-luck supper held in the church last Monday evening. A very interesting program was given by a number of the girls, songs were sung and all entered into a round table discussion on "How we can better our class."

Around About Us

2000 tons of ice were put up by Paul Clark at Belleville this year.

The Milford Times has completed its fifty-ninth year of publication.

Only 468 pieces of property are advertised in the delinquent tax list, now being published in Livingston county.—Milford Times.

The new Hartland Methodist church house and Betsay Crouse library are to be dedicated on Sunday, February 23.—Milford Times.

Five calls outside the Belleville village limits will not be answered in the future unless arrangements and deposit have been made previous to the time of the fire.

Organization of a Boy Scout troop in Farmington took place Tuesday, following a meeting last week at which 21 boys signified their desire to form the troop.

Mr. Wilson & Sons are planning to build barns on their farm near Fowlerville on M-16 this season, replacing those burned last summer.—Milford Times.

Receipts at the local postoffice for the month of January were $5,759.63 while those of the corresponding month of 1929 were $6,095.27.—Ypsilanti Daily Press.

Approximately $15,000 has been pledged by merchants in Mt. Clemens in an effort to secure construction of the proposed new courthouse for Macomb County.

Washington County had 21,112 passenger automobiles, 55 motorcycles and 2,827 commercial vehicles registered during 1929 according to figures released by the state.

The Detroit Creamery Company of Detroit have given their patrons notice that the milk house at Bonnius will be closed, March 1st. Frederick J. Mink, Sr., has been the manager there for about twenty-five years.—Belleville Enterprise.

23 employees are necessary to manage the storehouse at the University of Michigan, which keeps on hand all materials pertaining to building, hospital supplies and office supplies. 270 gross of pencils and 20,000 pounds of typing paper were used by the university in 1929.

Horses, mules, swine and sheep have decreased in the state. There are now 35 per cent less horses than ten years ago. Only 6,000 mules are owned by farmers throughout the state. There is, however, a slight upward tendency in the number of dairy cows.

Thieves entered the high school building at Chelsea last Wednesday night or Thursday morning but obtained only a small sum of money. It was thought they were looking for the receipts from a minstrel show given the night before.

Due to general business conditions, the Commerce township board passed a resolution last week asking that the county road commission postpone for a year the building of a paved highway from Commerce Village west to the intersection with the Milford-Wixom road.

The township board of Superior held a meeting recently at the town hall for discussing the permitting of Detroit parties the privilege of establishing a cemetery on what is known as the Dan Jewell farm, providing drainage, soil and water are satisfactory for the purpose. The provision was granted.—Washtenaw Tribune.

How about letting the people know that house you have for sale or for rent? A want ad in the Mail costs very little and you'd be surprised at the results! Try one next week.

Makes $499 in less than a year with 500 hatchery chicks

When we tell you that Hatchery Chicks pay, we give you the facts to prove it. Here's one example from hundreds we could quote: Miss A. Weber, a National Prize Winner, bought 500 Hatchery Chicks. She sold all the cockerels and netted $150 on them. She kept 200 pullets which "began laying late in November," she says, "and up to the present time I have made $349 on the eggs."

Let us help you build a big pay flock
And right now we are ready to supply you with baby chicks that will pay you big profits. We'll supply you with chicks that are strong and healthy; the kind that live; the kind that put on weight fast and start to lay early. Get our prices. Then place your order. Tell us how many you want and when you want them. Put your foot on a big pay basis this season.

Send for Free Book
And let us send you our book of price "How to raise your baby chicks."

MOTION PICTURE PROGRAMS

"CONDEMNED"

The most unusual setting in picture history, the acting of such screen and stage stars as Ronald Colman, Ann Harding and Louis Wolheim, and the power of a story from the hands of two famous authors, are among the noteworthy features of "Condemned."

Its story is adapted from "Condemned to Devil's Island," Blair Niles' famous novel of life in the French penal colonies in South America. Sidney Howard, famed New York dramatist, winner of the Pulitzer Prize for "They Knew What They Wanted," put "Condemned" into screen form and wrote the dialogue. It is directed by Wesley Ruggles.

In addition to Ronald Colman, in the starring role of the dashing French convict, the cast includes Ann Harding, Broadway stage star who made a national sensation in the title role of "The Trial of Mary Dugan" and has been a tremendous success in "Paris Bound," her first picture; Louis Wolheim, most noted character actor on the screen, and Dudley Digges, star of the New York Theatre Guild.

Another famous name associated with this production is that of William Cameron Menzies, noted artist, who designed the sets. "Condemned" is a story of romance growing between the mistreated wife of the warden of the prison on Devil's Island and a convict whose sympathy for her plight ripens into love. Unique scenes of the interiors of prison-ships and squalid jails, thrilling escapes through the tropical jungles, and all the atmosphere of a group of desperate criminals huddled together on what is known as "The Island of Living Death" combine to make "Condemned" one of the production sensations of the year.

"THE MARRIAGE PLAYGROUND"

"The Marriage Playground," an all-talking moving picture with all the elements of perfect entertainment—pathos, romance, comedy and drama, is coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre, as the main attraction Wednesday and Thursday, February 20 and 21.

Based on the novel "The Children" by Edith Wharton, this production moves along swiftly, stirring the heart of the beholder to continuous emotional response. It concerns the revolt of the younger generation against the divorcee-razed, thrill-chasing behavior of their elders.

Mary Brian, as Judith Wheeler, is featured in the leading female role. Co-featured with her as the young American who befriends the unfortunate Wheeler children is Fredric March.

Huntley Gordon and Lilyan Tashman are the renegade parents. The roles of the young Wheelers are played by Philippe de Lacy, Billy Seay, Ruby Parsely, Little Mizal, Anita Louise and Donald Smith, the latter a nine-months-old baby.

Additional support is furnished by Kay Francis, William Austin, Jocelyn Lee, Maude Turner Gordon, Joan Standing and David Newell.

Miss Brian was a silent film favorite before the advent of the talkies brought her new laurels. She was recently seen and heard in "The Man I Love," "The Virginian" and "River of Romance." Fredric March stepped from the legitimate stage into big and successful roles in the talking screen just about a year ago. His first appearance was in Clara Bow's "The Wild Party," as the college professor. He played with distinction in "The Struggle Murder Mystery" and "Jealousy."

"THE ISLE OF LOST SHIPS"

Finding a marine hinterland of seaweed, dead, floating ships; submarine scenes above and below the surface; shipwreck on a big liner and drama on the mysterious Sargasso Sea—that's a real problem for the film sound experts.

In fact, it is the greatest to date, according to Irvin Willat, who filmed "The Isle of Lost Ships," coming to the Penniman Allen Theatre Friday and Saturday, February 28 and March 1st.

That you might hear as well as see this big special produced by First National Pictures, Willat and a veritable army of technicians worked for months on sea and land, on sound problems alone. The scenic backgrounds presented a tremendous technical problem in themselves, but they were insignificant in comparison to the complexities of sound.

Imagine a crowded liner plunging through a rough sea; the collision with a derelict; crashes and screams and orders shouted through megaphones; the mad rush of passengers on the decks! Imagine the sounds as well as sights, on a huge, crippled, drifting liner, deserted by all but three persons.

Then the problem of sound in an island of dead ships, the Sargasso Sea's central eddy where derelicts of many centuries collected and were made into a floating island and ship's graveyard by the sea—and a few women—who had floated in on them! Finally, escape during a gun battle on this unique island via a submarine!

A powerful all-star cast supported by many colorful character people appears in "The Isle of Lost Ships." Virginia Valli and Jason Robards are the lovers; Robert O'Connor, stage star, has a colorful role as a detective who is returning the hero to prison and "the chair," and Noah Beery is the villain.

"The Isle of Lost Ships" is based on Crittenden Marriot's novel. Its locale has been used in no other film and in very few works of fiction.

FEBRUARY PARTY SUGGESTIONS

Chicken in Toasted Logs

- 4 tablespoons flour, 4 tablespoons butter, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon paprika, 2 cups chicken broth, 1/2 cup mushroom liquid, 2 cups diced chicken, 1/2 pound fresh mushrooms, 2 loaves sandwich bread.

Wash the mushrooms quickly with water or wipe with a damp cloth. If skin is tough, peel, then remove stems and cut in small pieces. Cover peelings and stems with cold water and allow to boil. Reserve this liquid to make the sauce. Cut mushroom caps and saute in 4 tablespoons of butter for about 8 minutes. Melt 2 tablespoons of butter in saucepan, add 4 tablespoons of flour, and stir until well blended, then add chicken broth and mushroom liquid and allow to boil until smooth. Add seasoning, diced chicken and saute mushrooms.

Cut bread in shape of logs 2x3x4 inches, and hollow out center. Toast and brush with melted butter. Fill the toasted logs with chicken mixture.

Potato Chips

Wash and pare two pounds potatoes, slice thin. Allow to stand in a bowl of cold water about two hours, changing water twice. Drain, plunge in a kettle of boiling water and boil one minute. Drain again, and cover with cold water. Take from water and dry between towels. Fry in deep fat at 375 degrees F. to 400 degrees F. until brown. Drain on paper and sprinkle with salt.

Old Glory Salad

- 2 cups sugar, 2 cups boiling water, 1/2 cup cinnamon candy, 8 apples pared and cored. Put sugar, water and candy in saucepan and allow to come to the boil. Place four of the prepared apples in the syrup, cover and boil for about 5 minutes, turn and allow to cook until apples are tender. Remove from syrup and cook other apples. Chill apples and serve on crisp lettuce leaves with mayonnaise.

Individual Cherry Pies

- 2 1/2 cups canned cherries, 2 tablespoons cornstarch, 1 tablespoon cold water, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 1/2 cups whipping cream, 8 maraschino cherries. Make a paste of cornstarch and cold water, add to the canned cherries. Cook in double boiler 10 minutes. Remove from the fire, add butter. Cool. Pour into baked individual pastry shells. Decorate with whipped cream, using pastry bag. Garnish with maraschino cherries.

Pastry

- 1 1/2 cups pastry flour, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/2 teaspoon baking powder, 1/3 cup lard, About 4 tablespoons cold water. Sift flour, measure and sift with dry ingredients. Cut in shortening and add cold water to make a stiff dough. Toss on floured board; pat and roll out. Bake on inverted individual pie plates at 420 degrees F. about 11 minutes.

Washington Pie

Beat one-third cup of butter to a cream; gradually beat in one cup of sugar; add two eggs, beaten light, one-half cup of milk and one and one-half cups of sifted flour; sifted again with two and one-half teaspoonsfuls of baking powder. Bake in a deep pan; when cool, split into two equal layers, spread thickly with raspberry jam, put together. Sprinkle the top with powdered sugar; decorate with cherries. This cake pie can be baked in two layers but the jam softens the texture better if not spread on a brown crust.

Helen Taylor, Home Service Director, will be glad to help you with your baking problems.

Change Your Shoes And Be Comfortable

The human foot is subject to expansion and contraction. After the foot has warmed inside the shoe, it expands and unless the shoe is made to fit properly, the foot will tighten inside the shoe and the circulation of the blood will be somewhat restricted. This impairs the comfort, efficiency and health of the foot. Not only should shoes be perfectly fitted to allow for this expansion and contraction, but they should be changed every four hours. People who suffer from foot ailments seldom experience discomfort during the first few hours of the day because the feet have not reached the state of expansion or abnormal condition.

TIPPECANOE POTATOES

Bake medium size potatoes until tender. Cut in half, carefully scoop centers into bowl, and mash well adding salt, pepper, butter and hot milk. When creamy return to the shells, sprinkle with grated cheese and paprika and brown quickly in broiler.

This Great Remedy Mul-So-Lax

People came from all around Plymouth to learn about this great preparation which is being featured by the Dodge Drug Co. Many free trial bottles of Mul-So-Lax were given to those who brought in coupons. Several people who called, had already taken Mul-So-Lax and knew its merits. This remedy which has become famous in Detroit, almost overnight will doubtless become a big seller in Plymouth, states Mr. Dodge.

THOUSANDS HAVE FOUND
HEALTH THROUGH MUL-SO-LAX

Hundreds of voluntary testimonials are in the files of the Mul-So-Lax Laboratories, many from nearby people in Detroit, Highland Park and Pontiac. Such popularity can only be earned by restoring people to their usual good health, and that is just what Mul-So-Lax does.

Mul-So-Lax Brings Relief in a Natural Way

Mul-So-Lax is a scientific preparation which lubricates the entire intestinal tract, mixing with and softening the feces and causing the organs of elimination to act in a normal healthy manner. It soon clears the system of poisonous matter and Nature does the rest.

Physicians Indorse Mul-So-Lax

It fills a distinct need in modern medicine, and is highly approved for the purpose it is intended for. It contains no alcohol, no harsh cathartics, no habit forming drugs, no sugar or alkalis. Nursing and expectant mothers can take it safely, for it does not effect the child.

PLEASING CLOTHES FOR LITTLE BOYS

Should Be Smartly Masculine in Cut and Well Made.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture)

Clothes influence the character and happiness of children. Qualities of character that are very definitely affected by their clothing are self-reliance and independence. At a very early age, less than three years, a child can learn to dress and undress without help, provided all his clothes are designed with this aim in view. A little patience will soon teach a small boy just how his trousers should be buttoned on the waist, if the fastenings are as simple as possible and placed where he can reach them. Besides developing independence, the ability to dress himself and go to the toilet alone will save a great deal of time for the mother.

Many people believe that boys care little about their appearance, and point to their apparent indifference when they are playing actively in soiled or torn garments. If they were given suitable playsuits, however, they would not look so disreputable, and they would be equally happy in and unconscious of their clothing while at play. Being dressed for play, in any case, is quite a different matter from being dressed for appearance before other people, to go to school, for example, even a nursery school; or to be taken to somebody's house. A queer or ill-fitting suit or one of an ugly color will make a little boy just as uncomfortable as his little sister would be under similar circumstances.

Boy's clothes should be smartly masculine in cut and well tailored, but they may have plenty of color, according to what the child likes and what is becoming. Some children are very sensitive to colors, and this should never be ignored or ridiculed. Their likes and dislikes should be considered as far as possible. Usually children's taste in color is reliable, although a trifle primitive. With a little guidance in choice, they may receive much happiness from the color of their clothes, and at the same time develop good taste.

Workmanship not of the best can ruin a good selection in design and color. Accurate cutting followed by

Each leader will work out a color scheme for her own kitchen. This work is supervised by Miss Emma DuBord, County Home Demonstration Agent, 303 Dearborn Building, Dearborn, Mich.

MARRIED IN TOLEDO

A bit of interesting news of the past week is that of the marriage of Miss Rose Basset, of 538 Cleveland avenue, Dearborn, and Robert J. Douglas of Plymouth. The ceremony was performed in Toledo, Ohio, Saturday—Dearborn Press, February 13.

Evil of Poor Construction

There is a section of almost every town that gave promise of fine things five or ten years ago. The houses in it were all new then. The streets wandered pleasantly into the meadows from which they grew. Now it presents a specter of premature age and decay. The little homes sag dejectedly; their faces are gray with neglect.

You have seen this sudden flowering and withering of a new community. It must have happened at least once under your eyes. You must know the reason for the unhappy end. It was poor, inadequate construction nothing else.

Ideal Spirit in Oath

The "Athenian Oath" which was used in ancient Greece is: "We will never bring disgrace to this our city by any act of cowardice or dishonesty. We will fight for the ideals and sacred things of the city. We will revere and obey the city's laws, and do our best to inculcate a like respect and reverence in others. We will strive unceasingly to quicken the public's sense of duty. We will transmit this city to those who come after us, greater, better and more beautiful than it was transmitted to us."

Protecting a man while he frisks others in Chicago is called "racketeering." In Washington it is called tariff making.

"Another trouble with this country," says Dad Plymouth "is that too many men are more careful of the kind of alcohol they put in their radiators than they are of the kind they put in their stomachs."
