BIG EVENT PLANNED BY PLYMOUTH BUSINESS MEN

WILL STAGE HOME COMPLETE EXPOSITION WEEK OF JUNE 23rd

Monday noon of this week, a large and enthusiastic group met at a luncheon meeting at the Hotel Mayflower to discuss in a preliminary way plans for a Plymouth Home Complete Exposition.

Secretary Moore of the Chamber of Commerce gave them the following report:

About a week ago Mr. Hayward brought him a report as an eye witness as to how interesting and successful a similar event had been in Ypsilanti. Secretary Moore immediately conferred with the Secretary of the Ypsilanti Board of Commerce and obtained information as to the nature of exhibits, size of booths, costs, etc. He called a luncheon committee meeting of the following men: Carl Shear, Paul Hayward, Russell Dettling and John McLaren. They were interested and decided the first information to obtain was whether or not space of sufficient size for the event could be found in Plymouth. Mr. George A. Smith was approached by this committee and consent was given for the use of the ground floor corridors and auditorium of the High school building.

Thursday morning of last week Secretary Moore took the following men with him to Ypsilanti: John McLaren, Russell Dettling and J. K. Shontz, where first hand interviews were had with eight or ten of the business men who had had exhibits in the Ypsilanti Home Complete Exposition.

The reports obtained were uniformly flattering as to the success of the event and the benefits derived therefrom.

The large meeting held Monday noon of this week was the result. Two major committees were formed at Monday's meeting, a Publicity Committee with Carl Shear, chairman; Fred Schrader, Fred Mills, Arthur Blunk and William Wood; and an Arrangements Committee with Russell Roe, chairman; Ed. Huston, J. K. Shontz, Robert Todd, Russell Dettling, Joseph Cavanaugh and Paul Hayward.

The purpose of a Home Complete Exposition is to give the people of Plymouth and surrounding trade area a better idea than they have ever had before as to the wide range of merchandise handled by Plymouth merchants.

material dealers, dealers of all types of mechanical appliances, etc. The displays and it will be worth while attending. A more complete story will be carried in this paper as soon as a complete list of exhibitors has been announced and as soon as the details of displays and possibly entertainment have been worked out.

This event will be of interest to anyone who may wish to have a display and if anyone has been overlooked to date it is only because of a large amount of work which had to be done in a short time. Secretary Moore has interviewed as many of the local business men as he could get around to in the time he has had to devote to this event to date. If anyone has been overlooked please get in touch immediately with Secretary Moore or with the members of the committees announced above.

Former Plymouth Boy Weds May 17

We take the following from the Chelsea paper regarding the marriage of George F. Raviller, son of Mr. and Mrs. George C. Raviller, former well known residents of Plymouth:

The marriage of Miss Louise G. Nemethy and George F. Raviller, both of Chelsea, was solemnized at six o'clock Saturday evening, May 17, at the Congregational parsonage, Rev. A. E. Potts officiating.

The bride wore a gown of blue lace and carried a shower bouquet of Joanna roses and lilies of the valley.

Following the ceremony, a wedding dinner was served to the immediate relatives at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Turnbull. The room was attractively decorated with a profusion of pink roses, a gift from the bride's father, Joseph Nemethy of Detroit.

The bride is a graduate of Chelsea high school, class of 1929, while the groom who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. C. Raviller of the Wayside Floral gardens, attended Howe Military Academy, at Howe, Indiana.

The newly married couple left for a brief wedding trip. They will make their home in the Turnbull apartments on Garfield street.

PUBLIC INVITED TO BANQUET

Plans are complete for Plymouth's first American Legion Convention which is scheduled to occupy the spotlight in Plymouth from 2:00 p. m. until about six o'clock next Sunday afternoon. Close to a thousand visitors are expected to crowd Plymouth's downtown streets during the afternoon when the members of the second congressional district Legion Posts and the ladies of the auxiliaries of the same district, together with hundreds of visitors from Northville, Detroit and other cities not in the second district will come here for the celebration. Arrangements have been made to have the business district decorated with flags for the afternoon, while uniformed musical organizations from several posts will add to the patriotic atmosphere that will pervade while Plymouth plays host to the veterans of the World War.

Things will start at about 2:00 p. m. when a parade will form at the High school, following a route down Church St. to Harvey, Harvey to Ann Arbor St. and Ann Arbor Street to Kellogg Park where, amid military honors, the nation's flag will be hoisted to the top of the Kellogg Park flag-staff.

After the parade breaks up, the crowd will go to the High school building where an hour's business session of the Legion and Auxiliary will take place, presided over by the respective district commanders. After the business meetings, a big chicken dinner will be served by the ladies of the Order of the Eastern Star in the Masonic temple, which will be followed by a varied and interesting program at which Major Basil D. Edwards, professor of Military Tactics at the University of Michigan, will be the principal speaker. The public is cordially invited to attend and participate in any and all of the events of the day, the only cost will be a $1.00 ticket for the banquet. Ex-Service men are especially invited and urged to attend.

DEATH OF MRS. LUCY A. SMITH

Mrs. Lucy A. Smith passed away at her home at 615 Mill St., Thursday morning, May 22, at 11:40 o'clock, after an illness of about two months, although she had long suffered from a heart affliction.

She was born in Nankin, Wayne County, November 3rd, 1852, the third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reuben J. Brown (Betty Ann Kingsley). She attended school in her home district and later the Michigan State Normal at Ypsilanti. After teaching several years in Nankin township, she was married on December 29, 1880, to Charles Frederick Smith, who preceded her in death. They formerly resided on a farm west of Plymouth, now a part of the Detroit House of Correction farm, but since the spring of 1910 Mrs. Smith has made her home in Plymouth.

She leaves to mourn their loss, three children, Mrs. Ada Murray of this place, Mrs. Helen Gibson of Northville and Rescoe B. Smith of West Canning, New Hampshire; four grandchildren, two brothers, Dr. Leroy Brown of St. Paul, Minn., and Randolph Brown of Kalkaska, Michigan; and a sister, Mrs. Lydia King of Ypsilanti.

Mrs. Smith was a descendant on both maternal and paternal lines of the Massachusetts Bay and Plymouth colonies, and her ancestors served in the Colonial and Revolutionary wars. She was one of the oldest members of the Plymouth Grange, and was a faithful member of the order until failing health prevented her further attendance.

The funeral services were conducted at her home Saturday afternoon, May 24, at 3:00 o'clock, with Rev. Donald W. Riley officiating. Burial was in Riverside cemetery.

National Bank Observing Sixth Anniversary

The First National Bank is observing its sixth anniversary, and this week have taken a half page ad in which they show by comparative figures the growth of the bank from the first year of its establishment up to the present time. The officers and directors are to be congratulated upon the success that has rewarded their efforts.

ANN ARBOR MAN DIES IN CAR CRASH ON ANN ARBOR ROAD

Edison Company Executive Fatally Injured As Auto-Overtakes Following Collision Five Miles West of Plymouth.

William E. Underdown, of Ann Arbor, was fatally injured shortly after nine o'clock Monday morning when the car which he was driving struck a vehicle driven by Joseph Grammel and overturned on the Plymouth road at a point about five miles west of Plymouth. He was 47 years of age.

A call was sent into Plymouth for help and Dr. A. E. Patterson and Schrader Bros. ambulance were hurried to the scene of the accident, but the unfortunate man was beyond medical aid.

According to officers, Grammel, alone in his car, was driving east and was about to make a left turn into the driveway of the Thomas Gardner farm when he saw Underdown's car approaching from the rear. Grammel told the officers he stopped his car well over on the right side of the road, waiting for Mr. Underdown to pass him on the left side of the highway. Apparently Underdown, who was alone in his car, believed Grammel was going to complete the left turn, for a moment later his roadster struck Grammel's car on the right rear fender and hubcap, reports of the accident say. Officers said Underdown's car turned over many times, coming to a stop about 150 feet from the scene of the crash. Mr. Underdown was thrown from the vehicle, passersby finding him lying on the pavement.

The accident, according to officers, was witnessed by Ralph Allen, an employee on the Gardner farm. Allen said the Underdown car struck the right rear of Grammel's machine and turned over many times.

The body was taken to an undertaking establishment in Ann Arbor.

Mr. Underdown was born in New York state and was graduated from Cornell university in 1907. He came to Ann Arbor in 1912 to assume the position of manager of the Huron Farms Co., the farm property interests of the Detroit Edison Co. in this district. He was married and has four sons.

The program of the Tuesday noon luncheon at the Mayflower, was in charge of the agriculture committee, Chairman Harmon A. Smith introduced as his speaker, Mr. Harris, a seedman of Ann Arbor, who gave a very instructive talk on "Plants." THE VILLAGE HAS SHOWN A GROWTH OF 56 PERCENT

The population of Plymouth has jumped 56 per cent over the 1920 figure 4,470 in the present census, according to the figures just released by H. W. Klansse, supervisor of the census of this district. In 1920 Plymouth had a population of 2,857, and in 1930 only 3,471. There were four farms enumerated in this area at the fifteenth census which has just been taken.

Taking the census as a basis, Plymouth has had a splendid growth in the past ten years and shows that our village is upon the upward trend.

Very few towns in Michigan have shown a greater percentage of increase in population than has Plymouth. Let's keep it up.

Funeral services were held from the Schrader Bros. Funeral Home, Tuesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, Rev. E. Hoencke officiating. Interment took place in the Tyler street cemetery.

Herald Hamill, H. F. Brand, Roswell Tanager, Merritt Crumbe, Jack Taylor and Oscar Alshro attended the Masonic Grand Lodge, Tuesday, at Jackson.

Maybe they didn't quite know what it was all about, but they did know that it was a soldier who stood there with those scarlet flowers asking folk to buy. Who can tell what those childish imaginations pictured? Row upon row of white crosses showing wondrously under the white moonlight of Flander's Field? Perhaps not. What child's mind could visualize the awful solemnity of such a scene. Most likely they knew, only that daddy once was dressed like the poppy man, and that daddy had said, "I always buy a poppy to help my Buddies, and to remember Jack." Those two pennies will help buy a plant that on tomorrow's sunrise will grow upon some hero's grave. A petal or two will represent those tiny tots who died and time withers the stem, maybe those petals will drop right into the spirit heart of a war worn warrior, bringing into it the fragrance of a child's faith and charity.

TIMELY ADVICE.

The best way to get anything done is to go ahead and do it. That applies to safeguarding health the same as anything else. June, according to physicians is the opening month of the most dangerous time of year from a standpoint of illness and epidemics. It is the month when the insect world multiplies fastest, hatching out millions of pests that will in a few weeks be carrying disease germs.

Since every citizen of Plymouth knows without being told that weeds are the greatest breeding places of disease-carrying insects, we wonder why anyone tolerates a single weed on his premises. If cut now, the danger is over until along late in the summer. Stamping out breeding places before the pests have a chance to breed is the most deadly way yet found to exterminate them. You seldom hear of an epidemic of sickness in a community whose citizens never permit the weeds to attain their full height, and who keep them down all through the summer. Nothing flourishes like a weed, and nothing needs as prompt attention if you expect to keep them from getting the start of you.

It doesn't cost anything, just a little time and energy, to mow them. But it does cost a lot of money for doctors and drugs if a wave of illness sweeps over the community. And in many instances the expense extends to the undertaker, too. We insure our homes against fire. Why not insure our health against disease-carrying insects by mowing the weeds now and depriving them of breeding places?

RUNNING THE STREETS

We recently overheard a Plymouth man, of good standing and a credit to the community, say that what real meanness he learned as a kid he picked up running around the neighborhood after school hours and loafing down town at night. That this man didn't turn out a failure, according to his own statement, is due to the fact that his father saw which way he was headed, and turned his steps in the right direction.

There isn't much to be learned by a boy on the street after dark, and especially if he is doing his loafing along with other boys. There are daylight hours for games and exercise—things that every healthy boy must have. But the kind of things he is apt to talk about, or listen to, while loitering around at night are not the kind that are going to be worth very much to him in after years.

Your boy may feel that you are a little too severe if you discourage such a practice; he may even feel that as a parent you are not as progressive as those who do let their boys have their own way at all times. But experience has shown that he will live to thank you for any kind of severity that will keep him off of the street at night and in the home where there is always some means whereby he can employ his mind to good advantage and enjoy himself at the same time. It's all a matter of how you start him off. But we've got to remember that boys are boys, the world over; the boys of this community are no different than those of other neighborhoods. But in no community can they gain anything helpful or beneficial by running the streets at night.

FORD'S NEW SCHEME

It may sound foolish to the average Plymouth citizen, but one of the hardest things a rich man has to contend with is finding, some way to give away his money usefully. Every fellow has a different idea of how he would give it away if he had it, and everyone has his own idea about it. So it is of interest to read that Ford has his. He now proposes to use $100,000,000 in founding schools throughout the United States that will teach trades. He wants schools to turn out men whom jobs would seek, instead of schools that turn out graduates seeking jobs. And it's a good idea, since we live in an age of machinery, mechanics, science and specialization and really don't need the highbrow stuff that Yale and Harvard and other such institutions center their activities on. As in former instances, Henry Ford seems to have originated a pretty valuable idea and we believe the people of every section of the country will welcome the day when he starts to put it into practice.

WHO IS THE GOAT?

Figures just given out by the American Automobile Association show that in 1929 the average per capita tax on autos was $28.56. That is to say if the taxes collected from auto owners were equally divided, it would mean $28.56 out of each man's pocket. In the year, 1928, it amounted to $25.24, so there was a jump in auto taxation of 13 per cent in a single year. In 1919 it was only $8.55, so auto taxation has increased 300 per cent in 11 years. In addition, the revenues collected by the various states in the form of gasoline taxes increased 29 per cent in 1929. Assuming that these figures are accurate, and there is no reason to believe they are not, it ought to be plain to Plymouth motorists just who is being made the goat of the tax gatherer. Wonder how long we'd stand for it if everything else was taxed as heavily and as unfairly as the automobile?

HERE'S A REMEDY

Every year along about this time we get the outing and picnic fever and the call of the outdoors is hard to resist. With it comes the usual "itching" that springs from too close contact with poison ivy. Despite repeated warnings, however, just as many will fall victims to it this year as ever, so we feel that suggesting a helpful remedy is timely. Lead acetate (sugar of lead) is recommended as the best of all. Have the druggist dissolve the concentrated crystals in a given amount of 50 to 75 per cent medicated alcohol until he has a milky solution. Rub this solution into the skin several times a day. Sugar of lead is poisonous and must not be left where the youngsters can get it for internal use. Milk of magnesia rubbed on the affected parts will also give relief. Washing the hands in warm water with a strong laundry soap immediately after touching the poisonous plant may prevent a severe case of poisoning, and a strong solution of baking soda will do much to relieve the itching.

Facts About Telephones

The first telephone directory ever issued in the world was published in New Haven in February, 1878, one month after the opening of the world's first commercial exchange. With the recent death of Emil A. Gressner, for many years a prominent pharmacist of New Haven, whose name appeared in this first telephone directory, there remains only one of the original subscribers now living. He is Dr. E. L. R. Thomson, whose father, Dr. C. S. Thomson, was also among those early believers in the telephone.

A daily average of 2,185,000 local telephone calls were made in 1929 over the Bell lines in the State of New Jersey, as compared with 1,976,000 such calls for the average day of 1928.

The first monarch to make use of the recently inaugurated ship-to-shore radio telephone service was King Alfonso of Spain, who telephoned the captain of the British liner Olympic in mid-ocean.

A $40,000,000 loan was recently negotiated by the transatlantic telephone service. The loan was made by a New York banking group headed by Dillon, Read & Company, to the Royal Dutch-Shell oil interests in London.

At the beginning of 1930 there was a total of 804,643 Bell-owned and Bell-connecting telephones in the State of Michigan, an increase of approximately 50,000 during the preceding twelve months. Over these telephones there was a daily average of 3,000,000 exchange messages, while the outward toll messages for the year numbered 50,000 daily.

Telephone subscribers in Egypt are provided with telephone directories in either Arabic or European characters and have the option of making their calls in either Arabic, English, French or Italian. Consequently, telephone operators in that country are fair linguists. The operators employed are women and girls in the large cities and towns for day duty only, and men in the smaller provincial towns.

The new Police Department magazine in New York City, which was recently established bears as its name a telephone number—"Spring 3100," the telephone number of the New York Police Department.

When the British Prime Minister visits his Scottish home at Lossiemouth he keeps in touch with his staff at No. 10 Downing Street by telephone. Calls for the Prime Minister always take priority.

The first French telephone exchange was established in Paris in June, 1876, with seven subscribers. After a period of fifty years' growth France has a total of 883,406 telephones, 314,541 of which are in the Paris area.

An enterprising newspaper man on the Boston Post has figured out that if all of the 3,100 separate issues of 33,000,000 copies of directories issued annually in the United States were combined in one volume, it would contain 30,000,000 lines printed on 82,000 pages and would be eleven feet thick.

Feeding The Vegetable Garden

The need of vegetables in the diet has been given great emphasis in recent years. Had the facts now known been available to our parents in our childhood, we would probably suffer less from poor teeth and other ailments. The amount of attention now given to human health has made for increased interest in the vegetable garden.

In order to get good results from our garden it is necessary that our plants be properly cared for. Vegetables are heavy feeders. They make a rapid growth and build a great amount of food material in a relatively short time. Vegetables must have all of the plantfood elements necessary for growth. Most of our soils are deficient in plantfood and good results can seldom be obtained unless complete balanced food is applied to the soil.

Correct feeding not only assures larger yields of vegetables but it also produces a more tender product. Vegetables are usually recommended in the diet primarily because of their mineral content. The food supply of the plants has a great deal to do with the amounts of these minerals stored in the vegetables. For best results, feed your vegetable garden with a complete, scientifically balanced plantfood.

Picked Up About Town

That Mexican boy born with six arms shouldn't have any trouble getting a job as bill-poster on a windy day.

"Why is it?" asks Dad Plymouth. "That the average woman no sooner gets into society than she gets busy trying to keep other women out."

Dad Plymouth says that maybe the reason why big cities have department stores where they sell everything is because nobody knows what women want.

"It doesn't seem possible there could be so much unemployment in this country," asserts Dad Plymouth "with so many of us taking care of other people's business."

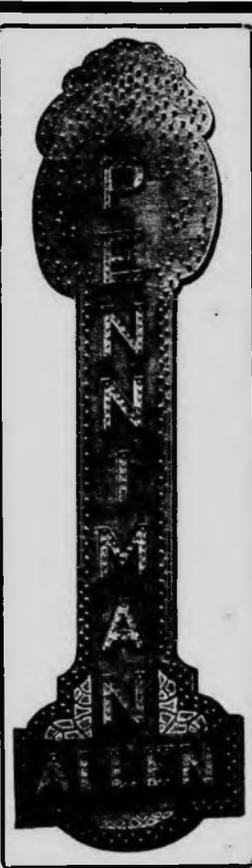

Dad Plymouth declares that in this day of long skirts and changeable waists there's the only way you can tell where a girl bends is to watch her when she sits down.

There's one thing nice about airplane travel. The roar of the motor drowns out all comment from the back seat.

Some fellows believe so strongly in "personal liberty" that they try to drink up all the country's Jamaica ginger.

This is the season when a lot of Plymouth boys must make up their minds whether to get married or go on driving with one hand for a while longer.

What has become of the old-fashioned cobbler who drove pegs in new shoe soles to keep them from squeaking?

Robinson Sub. Wins 9-5 From Fast Methodists

The Robinson Sub. team defeated the Methodist boys last Friday evening at the high school diamond, the final tally being 9-5.

Although the Robinson Sub. outfit opened the second and third innings with a big lead, they were not assured of victory until the last batter had retired, as the Methodists staged rallies in the seventh and eighth innings which looked as if they would finish up on the winning side. In both the seventh and eighth innings the Methodists were able to fill the bases with none out, but managed to pull in but two runs in the two innings.

The "Robbins" played well when they got in tight places, but errors were too numerous on both sides to be called a good game. Thursday, tonight, the Robbins play the Dunn Steel squad.

PLYMOUTH WINS THIRD STRAIGHT VICTORY; TROUNCES BURGER 4-1

WILL MEET LIBERTY A. C. NEXT SUNDAY.

Plymouth added their third straight victory last Sunday at the home field in defeating the fast Burger Creamery team of Detroit. The game was fast from the start, neither team scoring until the fifth when the locals found Fowler for three hits to score one run. Burgers, however, came back in their half of the sixth, to knot the score.

The locals scored in the sixth, seventh and eighth, while Burgers could not push over another run though having two men on bases in the eighth.

Moore again pitched stellar ball with good steady support behind him. Kracht, Plymouth's firstsacker, made some sensational stops that sure saved the ball game. He handled chances twice, with men on bases, which looked like impossible catches.

Ritchie also played a nice left field. When it comes to speed, he sure is there. His sensational shoe-string catches in Sunday's game robbed Burgers of two or three hits.

Oliver, the Creamery's short-stop, also played his position well, going directly behind second to rob Walker of a hit which would have resulted in a run for the locals.

Next Sunday Plymouth plays Liberty A. C. of Detroit, a dashy ball team that will show the locals one of the fastest double play combinations in semi-pro ball in Detroit. A fast game can be expected, so come out and boost for the home team.

Rocks Defeat Masons, 13-8

The Rocks turned back the Masons Monday night, in one of the hottest contests of the season. Both teams were fighting every minute throughout the entire game, but the Rocks proved to be the best team in the pinches. There was plenty of action all through the game to keep the spectators on the edge of their seats and the players on their toes.

Home runs were hit by Fisher of the Rocks, and Guss of the Masons who got two. The winning pitcher, Marhesson, and the losing pitcher, Baker.

DE-HO-CO TRIMS WYANDOTTE 9-6

A nice crowd turned out and bared the chilly winds to witness the game between the farmers and Wyandotte. Up until the seventh it looked like a shot for Rowland who until that time had allowed but three hits. But in the seventh three substitutes were sent in and staged a rally that near spelled defeat for the farmers. Six hits included one three-bagger together with a high throw by Jaska and a wild pitch by Rowland netted six runs. But in the eighth and ninth Rowland set them down in one-two-three order. The farmers had no trouble with Foster's offerings and scored 2 in the first on two hits and an error by Monroe. Dennison started the 2nd and was safe when Zak threw wild to Millspaugh. Lazor sacrificed, Howland rolled out to first. Dostefano walked. Hammond got his second hit scoring Dennison. Jaska doubled. Hammond scoring. Martin singled scoring Jaska and was caught between second and thrown out. The farmers were successful in the third, fourth and fifth but on three hits and an error by Hobel scored three in the sixth, for a total of nine.

Corbett who pitched a full game in the morning replaced Foster in the seventh and did not allow a man to reach first.

Wednesday evening at six o'clock p. m. De-Ho-Co plays the All Star Ranger Girls of Chicago on the Wayne County Fair grounds at Northville. Decoration Day in the forenoon, Plymouth and De-Ho-Co will play a game at the Plymouth grounds. In the afternoon, De-Ho-Co plays Port Huron at De-Ho-Co Park. A beautiful band made beaded bag and a folding Kobak will be given away.

DETROITERS FALL TO HAGGERTY A C

Victory Over Woodward A. C. Makes It Two Out of Three For Haggerty A. C.

Displaying a timely batting punch that included twelve well placed hits, the Haggerty A. C. defeated the Woodward A. C. of Detroit last Sunday 8 to 7, and chalked up their second victory of the season.

The game was fast and interesting, filled with plenty of excitement in the last few innings played. Although the Haggerty A. C. opened with a big lead, they were not assured of the victory until the closing batter had been retired, as the Detroiters staged a rally in the seventh that accounted for four of their total runs. Five of the seven markers made by Woodward A. C. were obtained on errors by the home team.

Norman (Dutch) Atchinson started for Haggerty A. C. and struck out seven and was touched for only four hits. Alvin (Burr) Collins followed Atchinson in the sixth and allowed five hits and struck out four. Nine of the locals were strike out victims of Hooley who went the route for Woodward.

Decoration Day the fans will find that two games will be played at Canton Park. De-Ho-Co will be visitors in the forenoon and Chelsea in the afternoon. The first game will start at 10:00 o'clock and the second at 2:00 o'clock. Everyone knows where De-Ho-Co balls from so lets see what happens when they team up with Haggerty A. C. Chelsea will play in this locality for the first time and it has been said they are coming down to beat Haggerty A. C.—well, come to the game and see for yourself.

Sunday, June 1, Del Pratts of Ypsilanti will cross bats with the Haggerty A. C. at Canton Park. Two evenly matched teams will light it out beginning at 2:30 o'clock.

NETHEM WINS FROM INVADERS

Many patrons of Nethem ball club missed witnessing a perfect ball game at Newburg last Sunday. Nethem was out-hit by invaders, four to three, but air-tight pitching of Horvath in the pinches saved the day. Horvath had the boys in the hole most of the time, and by doing this he struck out nine, which is a good day's work against a good class-A club.

Only twenty-nine men faced Nadeau in eight innings, the above evidence shows that the bases were scarcely populated, and in fact five out of the eight innings not a man reached first for Nethem.

R. Levandowski was the first to get on, and that was in the fifth inning, when a free ticket was issued to him. Johnny Schombberger got the first hit of the game in the seventh inning as leadoff man, but was forced at second when Coy attempted to sacrifice. Then Hank Rebitzke knocked a single to right and went to second on the throw to third. Then R. Levandowski knocked a fly to deep right, which scored the winning run. The Detroit Police were left stranded when Joe Schombberger and A. Rebitzke hit weak taps to the box, which ended the scoring for the day.

The boys played air-tight ball except for one error apiece.

Nadeau has two teams coming out this week, and we don't want you to miss witnessing the following teams at Newburg, Decoration Day at 3:00 p. m., Liberty A. C. of Detroit, conquerors of Haggerty A. C., will try to stop Nethem's winning streak. Sunday, June first, Nethem has booked a great drawing card or a team of Babe Ruths and Hank Wilsons. The Detroit Police, who have failed to lose a game this season, Don't forget to see the fence busters at Newburg. H. Coy will captain the team Decoration Day and Hank Rebitzke will have charge Sunday.

LEVANDOWSKI'S BLOW IN SEVENTH INNING SCORES WINNING RUN OF GAME.

PRESBYTERIAN NOTES.

Sunday, June 8th, is the 1500th anniversary of Pentecost. This congregation will observe the sacrament of the Lord's Supper on that day.

On Tuesday of next week, June 3, the Busy Women's Class will meet at the home of Mrs. Fulton on the Lotz road, Canton. Every member will make a special effort to be present. There will be cooperative dinner at noon. The afternoon will be devoted to business and entertainment.

Preparations are well in hand for the Children's Day service to be given Sunday, June 15th, at 10:30 a. m.

Wednesday, June 4, the Presbyterian Women's Auxiliary will meet with the Northville Women's Union. The meeting will be held in the Presbyterian church at Northville at 2:30 p. m. o'clock. All who can go, are asked to be at the Plymouth Presbyterian church not later than 2:00 p. m. Cars will be there to take everyone to Northville. Women who drive are urged to arrange to take their cars and to see that others have the offer of a ride. The program will be given by the Plymouth Auxiliary. A play, “The Blue Cashmere Gown” will be presented by members of the Mission Study Class.

EPISCOPAL NOTES

Jesus said to His disciples: “Wait for the promise of the Father, which ye have heard of me; for John truly baptized with water; but ye shall be baptized with the Holy Ghost not many days hence.”—Acts 1:4. They were expecting Pentecost.

Expect great things from God; attempt great things for God. This was the attitude of the early Christian church. Come to church next Sunday expecting help from God; He will not fail you! Then go home, resolved to attempt greater things for Him than you have ever done before.

Only one more week until Pentecost. Prepare for it by coming to church on Sunday morning. The regular first Sunday of the month communion service has been postponed one week.

There will be a celebration of the Holy Communion on Pentecost, or Whit-Sunday, June 8, at 10:00 a. m. Every faithful communicant should endeavor to be there. This is the great climax of the Christian year: the “birthday of the church.”

The regular meeting of the Woman's Guild will be held on the first Wednesday of the month, June 4. A noon luncheon meeting is being planned.

BAPTIST NOTES

A Children's Day program is being planned by the Sunday school department. It is to be given at the evening service, June 8. An account of the program will be given in next week's Mail.

Last Sunday evening there were 57 present for B. Y. P. U. The ordinary conditions this night he considered a fairly good number, but since the attendance contest is in progress with Farmington, it was not a sufficient number to place us in the winning margin; they had 65 present. There are yet two more Sundays in which Plymouth may redeem themselves. A program is being planned for Sunday, and should prove of interest to everyone since it is to be a memorial service.

Our mid-week prayer meetings have been well attended the past number of weeks. We are studying together the book of Genesis, chapter by chapter. This is proving to be a very profitable hour and a special effort is being made to have every member present.

CATHOLIC NOTES

Sunday is the first Sunday of the month of June.

The services held in the church last Sunday were very inspiring, the occasion being twenty youngsters making their First Holy Communion. A very large congregation was present to congratulate the children; the choir nobly assisted in making the celebration a day long to be remembered.

Next Tuesday the pastor will assist at the marriage of his cousin, in Bay City, Mich.

John Heoney, the brother of Angus Heoney, is sick at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor.

The scarlet fever sign has been removed from the Rutledge home, and all are well.

The grounds around the church are beginning to shape themselves into a real haven of rest and pleasure.

The Bishop will obtain the class of 1930, June 8, at Sacred Heart Seminary. This is the first class of our seminary, recently built, to be ordained.

Neither defeated the Invaders of Detroit, last Sunday, 1 to 0—a very interesting game. Friday, Decoration Day, the boys will play on their grounds at 3:00 o'clock.

Christian Science Notes

“Soul and Body” was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, May 25. Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: “Lord, thou wilt ordain peace for us: for thou also hast wrought all our works in us.” (Isa. 26:12).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, “Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures,” by Mary Baker Eddy: “As astronomy reverses the human perception of the solar system, so Christian Science reverses the seeming relation of Soul and body and makes body tributary to Mind” (p. 119).

Three Pairs.

There is economy in buying both gloves and stockings three pairs at a time. If anything happens to one, you can use the second to mate up with the other pairs and the combination lasts far longer than three singles.

METHODIST NOTES

“As they were looking, He was taken up, and a cloud received Him out of their sight” (Acts 1:9).

“We have reached Ascension Day, forty days after Easter. He had been accustomed them to His absence by appearances at different and longer intervals, and it was necessary for their good to break off altogether His presence in the senses that the spiritual world might be more real to their souls. For think how it is with us when some dear one leaves us for a distant city. What importance at once every bit of news from that city assumes in our eyes. So it is when any dear one follows Christ to the world of spirits. How near that world at once appears to us. How often we think of it, and wonder what the beloved is doing there.”

For the benefit of those who do not know: The Sunday evening service is held at the usual hour, 7:15 to 8:00 o'clock, with a song service preceding the sermon. Also the mid-week meeting is held at the same hour on Wednesday night. You will all be welcome.

Tuesday evening, 7:45, the official board will meet at the church.

Wednesday, June 4, the annual I. A. S. picnic and business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Jessie Nash on West Ann Arbor St. All the women of the church are cordially invited to come. A cooperative dinner will be served at 1:00 o'clock. Each one is requested to bring sandwiches, and one other food, also her own silver plate and cups.

Sunday, June 8, will be observed as Pentecost Day, with the Holy Communion and reception of members. Plan not to miss this great day. We read in the book of Acts that when the day of Pentecost was come, that they all being together in one place were all filled with the Holy Ghost. Let us not miss a blessing by being absent. Christ's power to bless has not been lessened in the nineteen hundred years that have intervened since that wonderful day so long ago.

Thrips May Damage State Fruit Crops

INSECT IS REPORTED IN UNUSUAL NUMBERS IN MICHIGAN THIS YEAR.

An insect, the dower thrips, which is not usually present in Michigan in sufficient numbers to cause damage to fruit crops, has been reported to be so abundant this year that the entomology department at Michigan State College advises the use of control measures to prevent injuries to fruit.

The last previous years when damage was done by the insect in this state were 1918 and 1919. Especially favorable weather conditions or the absence of natural enemies apparently permit the thrips to multiply rapidly in certain years.

Damage to fruit can be prevented by the use of nicotine, either as a spray or as a dust. The nicotine can be applied as a special spray or can be included in the regular early sprays. Peaches should be sprayed as soon as the shucks fall, and raspberries should receive the spray before the plants blossom.

Detailed directions for the proper mixing of sprays for the control of thrips can be obtained from the entomology department at the College or from county agricultural agents.

Most of the reports of the presence of thrips have been made from the western section of the State, but it is probably present in all parts. It is a tiny insect which will escape notice unless the plants upon which it is feeding are closely inspected.

There is an old adage that “He who has no head needs no hat” and Dad Plymouth says maybe that's the reason so many young fellows are running around bareheaded.

We've noticed that the average Plymouth woman stops telling her age when her age starts telling on her.

THE DETROIT EDISON CO.

Radio Telephone Circuit of 5,300 Miles Connects Bell System Telephones With South America

Overseas Switchboard at New York

Receiving Antenna at Netcong N.J.

Power Panel and Control Turret

Slowly, but surely, progress in the science of communication is shrinking the earth's surface and conquering time and space. A little more than three years ago, the first commercial radio telephone channel from North America to Great Britain was opened by the American Telephone and Telegraph Company. From the very beginning this trans-Atlantic telephone service has been popular with the public, and it has steadily gained in usage until now there are four radio telephone channels operating between the continents of North America and Europe.

April 3 last witnessed the opening by the same company of telephone service between North America, and South America, and the interconnection of 20,000,000 telephones in the United States, as well as all the telephones in Cuba, and all the principal points in Mexico and Canada, with the telephone stations in the Argentine Republic and the cities of Santiago, in Chile, and Montevideo in Uruguay. This, we are shortening the distance between our southern neighbors as we have already shortened the distance across the Atlantic ocean to the continent of Europe.

The first link between the continents of Europe and North America was a long wave radio telephone circuit which has since been supplemented by three short wave circuits. For various scientific reasons, the first telephone link between South America and the United States is a short wave circuit 5,300 miles in length, which connects the overseas radio stations of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company in this country with the International Telephone and Telegraph Corporation's stations in the vicinity of Buenos Aires.

The service will be in operation for eight hours daily, 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., New York time. The rate for a three minute conversation between New York and all points in the Province of Buenos Aires is $36. For calls to and from other parts of the United States, the same charges will be added to this base rate as are now added to the rate for trans-Atlantic service.

During the first twenty-four hours of service between the two continents, 71 calls were received from various portions of the United States to Buenos Aires and to Santiago. The service was opened by Walter S. Gifford, President of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, after introductory speeches had been made by President Hoover and Acting Secretary of State Cotton. The President spoke to President Hanoz of Chile, then President Juan Campeseguy of Uruguay, and Mr. Cotton, the Acting Secretary of State, to the Uruguayan Minister for Foreign Affairs. The President, as will be remembered, visited these South American countries shortly before he took office, and he expressed his appreciation at being able to converse with these gentlemen again by means of the radio telephone.

Let us, for a moment, consider the pathway of Mr. Hoover's call from Washington, D. C. Mr. Hoover's voice traveled from Washington to the overseas switchboard located at the offices of the American Telephone and Telegraph Company, Walker St., New York, and from there by wire to Lawrenceville, N. J. where the overseas transmitter amplified Mr. Hoover's voice and sent it over the thousands of miles to the receiving station located a few miles from Buenos Aires. When people talk from South America, the call is carried to a transmitter located at Hurlingham, Argentina, and from there, by radio, to the American Telephone and Telegraph Company's receiving station at Netcong, N. J. Here the voice is re-amplified and sent by wire over the regular telephone system to the person speaking on the American end of the circuit.

For the present there will only be a single talking circuit composed of two radio channels. These channels will be operated on three different pairs of wave lengths, each pair being used for a different time of day. Running in a direction at a slight angle to the meridian and having its center near the Equator, the circuit encounters more favorable average ether conditions than exist on the trans-Atlantic circuit, which makes for more reliable transmission. Because of these generally better conditions, and also because of the comparatively short twilight period, extreme variations in the quality of transmission over the circuit are materially reduced. Shortly after the ceremonies at which President Hoover, Mr. Gifford and others were present, the operators began putting through the calls already filed by a score of subscribers at both ends of the circuit. While most of the calls were from people in New York City, some of them involved such distant points as Los Angeles, San Francisco, and, in South America, Santiago.

President Hoover's greeting to President Juan Campeseguy of Uruguay contained the following, which expresses the President's views on the importance of international communication:

"These increasingly numerous ties, created through the cooperation of scientific endeavor and commercial necessities, form the material part of the strong bond, the other part of which is intellectual and spiritual fraternity, that fortunately exists between our two countries."

BRACELETS NOW MATCH BLOUSES

Whether your sleeves are long, short or non-existent it is well to wear a bracelet or two. One of the newest concepts in bracelets is a circle made of disks in soft colors to match the shades adopted by blouses. These blouse bracelets may be had in two-color combinations for an ensemble that employs a contrasting color.

Silver Jewelry.

Very interesting jewelry done entirely in silver is now to be had, and it fits in beautifully with the strictly feminine mores. Some of the pieces are lovely copies of antiques.

An Extra Table.

One never has too many tables. A small tip table of birch beautifully finished in mahogany is an excellent choice and a very inexpensive one, since it is priced slightly more than $10.

SEED PIECES AFFECT YIELDS OF POTATOES

TOO MUCH CUTTING LOWERS YIELDS AND QUALITY OF MICHIGAN TUBERS.

The planting of small-sized seed potato pieces decreases the size of the crop and increases the number of tubers which are affected with hollow heart, according to data obtained in two years of experiments conducted by the farm crops department of Michigan State College.

The tests were made at the Rossman Brothers Farm at Lakeview, the W. K. Sollows Farm at Augusta, and the College farm, East Lansing. Certified Russet Rural seed was used in all of the trials.

The sizes of pieces used were one-half ounce, one ounce, one and one-half ounce, and two ounce. The average yields in bushels per acre obtained for the two years were, with one-half ounce pieces, 91.4, with one ounce, 108.7, with one and one-half ounce, 123.4, and with two ounce, 129.4. No hollow heart was found in any of the potatoes grown in 1929, which was due to favorable weather conditions. In 1928, the crop grown from the half ounce pieces contained twice as many hollow potatoes as the crop grown from the one and one-half ounce pieces.

The seed should be cut in thick pieces to avoid drying out in the soil after it is planted. Approximately 15 bushels of seed cut to one and one-half ounce size will be needed to plant one acre.

One possible way to eliminate shine on navy blue or black suits is to press them with a woolen cloth covering which has been wrung out of vinegar water.

Dame Fashion Smiles

By Grace Jewett Austin

Grace J. Austin

Did you ever study a Greek statue of a woman and notice how the beautiful folds of the skirt go rippling down to her feet? The Greeks gained those folds by using plenty of material and giving it very little restraint so that the folds fell in natural fashion. The sculptors caught the spirit of this artistic drapery, and that is the reason the whole world still goes to school to the Greek sculptor for studies of beautiful women.

Now that the clouds of discussion and questioning are clearing away a bit from the new styles, Dame Fashion wonders if many are not noticing that often and again there are dresses that have the true beauty of the classic Greek. Soft is the word for materials, even when they are of the substance of tweed for rough service. Those who shrieked, a few months ago, that hoops and bustles and all sorts of monstrosities were scheduled to return, mistook the spirit of the time. Probably never since the days of the Greeks were there so many genuine worshippers of beauty, and so many who have given it a life's ardent study as at the present day, and these can be trusted not to make distortions out of women and girls.

If there is one characteristic more notable than another this season, it is rippling folds. One may see them on the front of pretty blouses to be worn with tailored suits; capes fall in folds by the very nature of their form. Even the hats get a touch of the draped effect, with their down-dropping sides, or the fluttering little black veils that soften some of the brims.

And as for the hat-modes!—well, statuesque is the only word. There may be a place aboard a yacht for breeze-blown locks—although Dame Fashion almost doubts even that. But if you have a classic marble bust in your home or in some collection convenient for you to examine, just go and study it and then do likewise, and you will be a modern of the moderns! These light little hats with their lacelike fragility to appearance, and yet often with astonishingly good wearing qualities, are proving becoming to their wearers. A young woman entered a room the other evening wearing such a hat, and for the moment Dame Fashion took her for a college girl. Then she realized that this was really the mother-of-a-busky, six-foot son. The caressing quality of these down-dropping side hats still impresses one with the feeling that they are warm-hearted, affectionate hats in spite of their fairylike lightness.

It was only recently that Dame Fashion ran across a lengthy story of the way queens and their ladies in waiting of centuries gone by used to toil upon the elaborate embroidery for the gowns and other articles of wearing apparel. Indeed, a shawl brought from Norway was lately shown to her that was rich and brilliant with hand-embroidered flowers. But the Twentieth century is too busy for such toil; there is too much to read, too many wonderful places to visit, altogether too much to be seen and heard. Yet the century is so clever that the happy, cheerful effects of embroidered work are gained with great swiftness. A pretty woman wearing one of the gay printed silks aglow with flowers is just as lovely as though she had spent a thousand hours in embroidery.

Today's Reflections

Reading that a Boston man has invented a fishing rod that will hold a pint of whiskey, Dad Plymouth says it begins to look as though the fish that get away this year will be bigger than ever.

We wish to announce that the three chief topics of conversation around Plymouth this summer will be prohibition, divorce and second-hand cars.

It won't be long now until one of the prettiest pictures ever seen in Plymouth homes will again be common. We refer to a hubb of butter skidding round on a golden-brown roasting ear.

If one cup of vinegar is put with the water in which colored tablecloths are washed it will prevent the color running. Iron them while still damp and they will look equal to new.

There are still a few men in Plymouth who imagine they've done about three-fourths of the house-cleaning when they clean the soot out of the stovepipe.

No matter how many husbands she has had no woman ever thinks it is all right to have more than one chin.

Home is the place where you don't have to lay down a ten-cent tip every time you ask for a drink of water.

Germany has sent over her best heavyweight fighter to be measured for an old-fashioned American knockout.

You buy a certain car because you believe it will give you more satisfying service than any other car at the price. You should buy your insurance on that car with the same idea in mind—securing the best protection and the best service it is possible to get for the premium you pay.

Seeing Big League BASEBALL

By BILLY EVANS Sports writer, Big League Umpire and General Manager of the Cleveland Indians

Umpires are human and make mistakes. In my long career I know of only one umpire who always insisted that he never made a mistake in his life. He was the late Silk O'Loughlin, one of the most colorful arbitrators that ever graced the game.

"If I was you, Silk, I would see one of the best throat specialists in the city just as soon as the game is over." "Why are you so interested in my throat trouble?"

"Simply, because, if you ever lose your voice you are through as an umpire. It's your only asset." Silk was furious and in the next inning, anxious to chase the fresh person, he seized an incident that really didn't merit ejection from the game but nevertheless sent the player to the showers.

Kind remarks about Silk's voice being his only asset as an umpire. Sometimes I doubted it but never was I able to get Silk to admit that he might have been wrong.

O'Loughlin was Irish. It is hardly necessary to state that fact; his name is sufficient. Never will I forget the delight Silk took in one of his favorite ejaculations to protesting players. As the Clancy, McCarthys, O'Neills and Burkes would cluster around Silk and tell him how blind he was, he would listen for a time and then with a wave of his arm that meant trouble would shout:

"Get out of here. Never missed one in my life. Too late to start now. The pope for religion, O'Loughlin for baseball, both infallible."

That remark always drew the ire of the players, but they went on their way because they knew that was the final ultimatum before chasing them to the showers. That was his favorite line for handling ball players of Irish extraction.

If after some decision Silk perceived that among the players protesting his ruling were men bearing the name of Schmidt, Mueller, Schneider and others of German extraction, he would listen for a time in evident disgust and then, having heard enough, he would invariably say:

"If you fellows are not back in your position when I reach the plate, all of you are through for the day. There isn't any use of being Dutch if you're not dumb." The Schmidts, Muellers and Schneiders didn't like that expression, but they knew it was Silk's final ultimatum and that they had better be on their way.

SCHAFFER GIVEN HIGHEST RATING

Placed First by National Ranking Committee.

Jake Schaefer is placed first in 18.2 balkline, Johnny Layton in three cushions, and Ralph Greenleaf in pocket billiards, according to the rating by the ranking committee of the National Billiard Association of America.

In three cushions the unexpected is found, for three balkline players are placed among the first ten. Willie Hoppe is placed at No. 2, Welker Cochran at No. 6, and Schaefer at No. 8.

In pocket billiards Frank Taberski was placed second over Erwin Rudolph, although Rudolph was second and Taberski third in the last world's title tournament. Taberski's consistency and his ability to adapt himself to all kinds of playing conditions were the determining factors.

Heinie Wagner, Red Sox hooker, has changed Bobby Reeve's side arm throw to first base.

Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, world baseball champion, says one of the biggest satisfactions of his baseball life is his purchase of Mose Grove for the Athletics. Mack says no other pitcher in the history of baseball was as fast as his big ace. Grove is faster now than at any time since he joined the Athletics is the opinion of Earl Mack, Connie's son, who is affiliated with the Athletics. The veteran manager, always cautious, says, "I don't know whether Bob is faster now than ever before, but I do know he is plenty fast and he's a whole lot smarter. He has adopted a crackjack change of pace delivery. Watch him and you'll see that he throws it with all the motions he used when chucking his fast one."

Philadelphia claims the best board of strategy in the league. William ("Kid") Gleason and Edward Trowbridge Collins are advisors to Mr. McGillicuddy. Each had a crack at managing the Chicago White Sox in the past. Gleason, as we said before, managed a Chicago team that was one of the greatest baseball has known. Collins was one of the game's leading second basemen. Before he went to Chicago as a player, he was the brightest star in the famous Mackian constellation, the Athletic machine of 16 and 17 years ago. In Chicago he was a member of the great 1919 team.

This is Chirley Comiskey's fifty-fifth year in organized baseball. He is president of the Chicago White Sox.

The American League is trying an experiment this season, naming an official scorer in each city in the circuit, who will be paid by the league, the idea being to make the scoring more uniform than it has been in the past with the baseball writers taking turns calling the plays.

Denman Thompson, sports editor of the Star, has been designated as official scorer for Washington this season, with Frank H. Young, of the Post, and John B. Keller, of the Star, first and second alternates, respectively.

John Skube, young infielder, was sent to a Pirate farm, Columbia of the Sally league.

The nearest to a perfect day or year. In 1910, Jones, an outfielder with the St. Paul club, played 165 games, accepting 358 chances, with but one error. There are records of outfielders going through a season without making an error, but the chances offered and games played were considerably less.

Harvard University will engage in intercollegiate swimming for the first time next winter and has arranged seven dual meets. The Crimson squad will stage six of the contests in its new $300,000 pool. Army will be opposed at West Point Feb. 25.

In the revival of league baseball among major university clubs of the East, Yale finds itself with a winning tradition to defend. In the American College Baseball association of the eighties, the Elis won five pennants in six years' competition. Following this the Elis swept three straight championships in the Yale-Harvard-Princeton league in which each of its two rivals in four games.

Lefty O'Doul, who hit .398 last season to lead the National league batsmen, says regarding background, "Background has a lot to do with hitting. There isn't a background in any big league park except one that bothers me. I can't hit in Chicago. I don't see how anyone can. Those white strifes in the center field stands at Wrigley field are terrible."

Dan Howley has not overlooked the reserve department in building his Cincinnati club for the 1930 race. Dan's three regular outfielders will be Heilmann, Meusel and Allen and three men in reserve are Swanson, Walker and Webb, ex-regulars. He has two men each for the infield posts—Stripp and Dressen for third, Ford and Durocher for short, Crite and Cucchiello for second, and Kelly and Heilmann for first.

When Walter Berger, recruit outfielder of the Braves, drove a ball over the center field wall in Cincinnati, while appearing as a pinch hitter, he did something few players have done before. Just four balls had been hit there, Berger making it five. The other heroes are Ethan Allen, Babe Ruth, Hank Wilson and Babe Herman.

Confiscate $2,000 Worth of Nets

Five miles of gill nets, valued at more than $2,000 were confiscated by the Department of Conservation when the Commercial Fisheries Patrol No. 1, under command of Captain Charles J. Allers, discovered the unlicensed nets in Michigan waters near the Beaver Islands.

The nets were taken to the warehouse operated by the Division of Fisheries at Cheshogan. According to tags on the nets, they were owned by Wisconsin fishermen and had been laid far over on the Michigan side of Lake Michigan.

The nets were seized on the grounds that they were being used in Michigan waters without the necessary Michigan commercial fishermen's license.

Watch Campfires

When forest fire wardens answered a call to the banks of the Manistee River, they found a deserted fishing camp, burned. The tent was in ashes. Two fish rods and reels were scorched. A pan of fish and a pan of beans over the abandoned camp fire had been charred to cinders.

Two anglers, frightened when their camp fire got out of their control just as they were preparing a meal, ran away. The fire they had permitted to start burned over ten acres before it was placed under control.

OIL ON WATERS RETURNS BASS

Bass anglers should carry a can of fish oil with them. The Bureau of Fisheries has found that a small amount of this oil introduced to the surface of bass ponds on the windward side soon will allay wave action and bring to view bass schools.

The oil is not harmful to the fish and is effective for about thirty minutes.

Sport Notes

Charles A. Honk, new owner of the Harrisburg club of the N. Y.-P. league saw only one baseball game in his lifetime before becoming a manager. He said he bought as a civic duty.

Douglas Taitt, the outfielder acquired by Little Rock from the Chicago White Sox, has decided to report to the Travelers. He first protested against playing in the Southern league.

All profits made at Arlington race park in Chicago go back into the plant or into larger purses. Last year the track made $80,000 and this year the purses are larger.

When trouble descends on Burt Shotton, manager of the Phillies, he reads mystery stories to keep his mind off base ball.

Tennessee hasn't lost a football game since November 13, 1926. The Vols have been tied three times since their last defeat and each tie knocked them out of a Southern conference championship.

Big Grid Receipts

Football receipts of the University of Missouri last year, totaling $143,204.03, were the largest of any year in Missouri athletic history. The net profit for the season, as figured by the Missouri Committee on Intercollegiate Athletics, was $24,534.03. The total expenses were $70,730.80, which included $48,502 running expenses; $15,478.50 stadium surtax to retire bonds for construction of the new Memorial stadium.

NATURE NOTES

The Roscoe, N. Y., Rod and Gun Club is making strenuous efforts to have the waters in its territory among the best in the state. They are feeding 5,000 trout in two ponds and hope to increase the size of the ponds so they can accommodate many more fish.

A bill providing that there should be no open season in New York State for grouse and partridge until 1931 has been vetoed by Gov. Roosevelt. Protests were made by sportsmen in all parts of the state.

A national organization for the protection of the interests of trappers has been formed, called the American Trappers' Association, with headquarters in Columbus, Ohio. It is interesting to note that the vice-president of the association is N. E. Sharp, of Plymouth, California. The organization is a non-profit association, dedicated to perpetuating trapping in general and the protection of all beneficial wild life.

The Cheshire County Fish and Game Club in New Hampshire unanimously voted in favor of state legislation for the licensing of cats. It was brought out in the general discussion that cats were destructive animals, especially in regard to bird life.

Farmers in Pennsylvania killed 1,193 deer as a protection to property during 1929. This was the largest number killed by farmers since this privilege was granted them. In 1923 they killed 321 deer, and in 1927 nearly 900 were killed.

The use of uncolored or colored goldfish for bait purposes in Michigan inland lakes and streams should not be allowed," says Conservation Chairman W. H. Loutit. "Just liberate a few of these fish in any water and within a few years they will be the dominant species in the pond."

As a protection to Salmon and other sea fish, the State of Washington pays a bounty of $3 for the scalps of every seal or sea lion killed in the waters of the State.

The University of Hawaii football team will probably invite the University of Idaho gridmen to play Christmas and New Year's games at Honolulu.

The University of Alabama, alma mater of several big league stars, has turned out another likely prospect in Hugh Starling, right handed pitcher, who has been signed by Atlanta of the Southern league.

Washington's three Nims have had much to do with the winning streak—Jones, Rice and West.

"IN THE NEXT ROOM"

"In the Next Room," to appear at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Friday and Saturday, May 30 and 31, is the best of all the screen mystery thrillers. It is the most original, the most ingenious, the most teasingly exciting.

Jack Mulhall and Alice Day had a really brilliant cast. "In the Next Room," is admirably acted. That is a big part of its charm and effectiveness.

The story, which was adapted from the stage play by Eleanor Hobson Belmont and Harriet Ford, is a happy mingling of comedy and terror. That is a hard team to drive, but the feat has been perfectly accomplished.

The plot, well planned and well knit, concerns the purchase of a Boule cabinet by an antique collector (played by John St. Polis). The police and Jack Mulhall as a young reporter, arrive in response to a phone call saying a murder has been committed. They are just a little bit previous, as the murders happen after they have arrived. There are jewels, secret passageways, a sinister one-legged man, and a host of other things to thrill the spectators and add to the story's interest.

Mulhall, as always, is amusing and likeable and altogether capable. Alice Day has the heroine's role. Others of special note in the cast are Jane Winston, Robert O'Connor, Claude Allister.

SALEM

"THE LIGHT OF THE WESTERN STARS"

RICHARD ARLEN is seen as a swaggering, brazen and wholly lovable lover in his featured role in "The Light of Western Stars," which will be shown at the Penniman Allen Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, June 1, 2, and 3. With a part closely resembling his inimitable role in "The Virginian," Arlen gives a great portrayal in this Zane Grey outdoor action-romance.

Mary Brian is the heroine of this thrilling story and she is here every bit as sweet as she was in "The Virginian," or in "Burning Up," in which she was seen with Arlen recently. The story is exciting and fast-moving, and replete with spectacular scenes, such as a gigantic wild horse stampede which would be hard to match for realism and startling beauty.

"The Light of Western Stars" in novel form was one of the best-sellers of the year. Paramount has captured the true spirit of the moving story. Arlen, a young cattle foreman, in a moment of desperation, vows to marry the first white woman he meets. That woman happens to be Mary Brian, who resents his insult. In a succession of adventurous events, Arlen manages to offset his initial poor impression and wins the girl.

There are several excellent humorous roles in the story, portrayed by Harry Green, whose dialect comedy is funnier than ever in this strange setting, and by William LeMaire, the garrulous sentinel of "Only the Brave." Fred Kohler furnishes the thrills as the badman who comes between Arlen and his girl.

"The Light of Western Stars" is well worth seeing for its romance, its thrills, its spectacle, or its humor, but chiefly, we recommend it for its great all-around entertainment.

"SWELLHEAD"

"SOME day you're going to be sitting on top of the world," adoring little Mamie told Bill in the days when the only encouragement he got was his own and her belief in him. Bill was trying hard to be a fighter, but the only record he had achieved was an unbroken one of three fights, and then Mamie won a goodly sum in betting on a fight and secretly used it to get him started right in the fight game.

The tennis courts are getting along in good shape now, and it is expected that they will be in service this week. Roy Snell and a few other young men got busy Saturday and Wednesday evenings. They would like to have a little more help before the ground dries up too much. Then on with the play! Make your reservations early or late with Brian Snell.

Lloyd R. Hiron is lecturing at a Gooch's Drug pillers convention. Didn't know he could do it (Gh we mean) and how!

From the box into the fire, is an excellent way of expressing the weatherman's tricks last week. Monday eve at 6:30 post noon it was 37, and Thursday at same hour, 104 deg. Falt. that is by "R" grocer's thermometer. Whether that there tangerine color has anything to do with it or not, such was the temperature, and now let pins and comes are in season. Spirea and lila are unusually in prominence this year, as are the yellow rosa bushes about our by-ways. Pleyssnekk is a runner-up for third place, and the foraminids looks as if it would be next to blossom forth.

There were more cars on Sunday, June 8, than on Sunday, June 7. The cars on Sunday, June 8, could say Plymouth road was all broken out with the auto-poxes or something.

Our school teachers are due for a severe pangrizing (trace Noah Webster) and let it go at that. To put through in less than nine months, such a gang of overenergized blooded folk like ours is some job! Thanks (rising voice) to Misses Belden, Smith, Roe and Mrs. Knill, and the boys say: "I hope don't forget Mr. Al Rhode who taught us manual training including bird houses."

Describing the farewell addressed one of our teachers, one of the high school next semester young ladies told her mother: "Teacher had to hold back the tears, and her nose got all red, and she got out her powder puff, powdered her nose and chin, touched her hair lightly, and then waited with a mounting glow of excitement for the next bus, which was approaching proportionally. Then she smiled, cause it was Chester driving the 457—and that's that!"

We went in "R" new pill rollers half-to the other afternoon and heard some more Ephemerids. We won't put it in the paper, not because we care about it, but because this here journal goes through the mails, and besides that we always want those there folks to believe they are still of the "sweet, loving, quiet kind." Still waters run deep—but this particular one we heard was deep, oh, so deep! But not female! (Chuck McK.)

The wind was blowing real hard from the west after meridian, and one of the new brickmasons thought he heard Gabriel blowing his horn and he got kinda pale and angelic like, way up there on the scaff. One of the wood hutchertians suggested it might be Little Boy Blue, but being no corn was up that way, we decided it was Chuck Duryee, and the tinful sounds coming from the "home folks" gas emporium.

It is obvious that school has "left out" as the kiddies are up later, both morning and evening. The countryside once more reverberates with childish laughter and squabbles. And the smaller jabberboxes are further away from home without mother than ever, as the sisters and brothers have relieved mother of a little care, while poor mother prepares additional food for resharpened appetites.

And did you notice the translucent window signs on "R" new store windows? Some class, ain't it? And, oh, such a lovely beauty!

Mrs. Marshall was over from Toledo, last week, and spent most of her time looking over her property here. She reports all the little Marshalls well.

Mrs. Walter Stevenson was also a visitor in the gardens, looking over her house. Mr. Stevenson is still at Marine Hospital, and doing as well as can be. All the youngsters being with grandparents.

Rev. R. A. X. Wilson, Jr. and Mrs. Wilson are leaving us this week for parts as yet unknown. We wish them well and God-speed, and good luck, but they return for a visit once in a while.

The nimpuses are jumping over and playing checkers with some chicken pecks, with measles playing chaperon or something, among a number of the kiddies. 'Tis a awful time to do it now that there is no school, they should have visited last winter.

John notice the chimney and basement walls in the new Medlow home? Sorta tres machavelian, huh! Blah! (Bill Davis gang.)

The parson approached us on the other post meridian kinda approbrious like, and admonished us on our boastfulness, but we cleared ourselves of all suspicion of some disease by alluding to the facts of our pretty places, and told him that it was not boasting we do, but praising, and anyone who could not see it our way must surely be suffering with ophthalmia, or something. Thinking we called him a bad name he sed solong.

John Maliland is away on business trips to New York and Chicago. Mrs. Maliland expects to join her husband in seeing sights of the windy city.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Weibert have been away on business trip "all over." On their return Saturday noon, the big maple was ill and had to get a severe rhinuing.

Hence, the Briggs' great dame is a "bit and run." The hit a driver on Plymouth Road Sunday noon. The driver dived west as fast as it could go, and Bruce bounded north on the cow path as far as the railroad woods, both were outta sight in no seconds flat. The driver never dived back, but the Briggs boys went after Bruce, and it took four hours to get back. No harm to Bruce but a little abrasions on thighs.

A number of Gardenites got up before breakfast Sunday and went to Our Lady of Good Counsel Church to witness 8:00 a. m. mass, and the inspiring spectacle of twenty youngsters receiving their first Holy Communion. Rosedale, as usual was well represented in percentage (100%) L. C. Mildred Maly Walker and Mary Patricia Kinahan. Church was crowded to the doors. Fr. LeFevre preached a most excellent sermon for the kiddies as well as mothers and fathers.

Last Sunday, Rev. R. A. X. Wilson, Jr. addressed the Rosedale Community Church for the last of his period as a Gardenite. Many came to his "prayer service" and to bid our pastor God-speed. Next Sunday, June 1, W. R. (Bill) Townsend will conduct morning worship at our church. We expect that you should come with the family and the Sunday company. If you all don't know Bill, it's about time you did. Choir come too!!

Our friends and neighbors, the boys at the National Airways, Inc. at Mid-dlebet and U. S. 12, had a time Sunday, bug-raiding, speech-making by Judge Henry Sweeney and a new "Ear" emporium were all in the order of the day. Show-off flights began at sunrise and ended with the sunset. A cold stiff breeze blowing kept many indoors that otherwise may have enjoyed the time better. However, we wish them good luck.

Moving a Door Saved Moving a House

THEY wanted to move the house. "Don't do that," advised an architect, "just change the entrance so your house fronts on the other street. Here, I'll show you."

When the architect finished his sketch he not only had changed the entrance, but had brought the old home up-to-date. And they were surprised at the comparatively low cost of the transformation.

WCTU

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union met Thursday, May 22nd, at the home of Mrs. Emma Ruff. The excellent program of the day was in charge of Mrs. John Rutenbury and consisted of the reading of several interesting clippings relative to prohibition in various states; also of the reading of several well chosen poems. Perhaps the most beautiful of these selections was one entitled "Be Kind," which was read by Mrs. Lauffer. A very old poem was read by the president, Mrs. Vealey. It was written in 1863, by a Civil War veteran, and contained a version of the Lord's Prayer skillfully woven into verse.

An invitation was given by the president for the Union to hold a strawberry festival at her home Thursday, June 26. It is expected that Mrs. Downer, the District President, will be present for this occasion.

Echoes from the Michigan Union: "I still feel that prohibition is the greatest experiment yet made to benefit man."—Thomas A. Edison.

"The eighteenth amendment is recognized by the men and women of our country, the women especially, as the greatest force for the comfort and prosperity of the United States."

Slight Warning Given of Deadly Poison Gas

Carbon monoxide poisoning is one of the greatest dangers of modern life. The gas, given off by almost all forms of combustion, has no smell and gives no ordinary warning, but two symptoms have been noted which may be valuable.

First, there may be a slight swelling and hardening of the small arteries which one can feel beating in the temples; second, there is often a slight weakness of the muscles in the back of the legs.

In treating a case the victim should not be moved more than necessary; the air must be fresh and should not be cold; the patient should be kept absolutely quiet until recovery is complete. Artificial respiration is necessary if breathing has ceased, but the most important thing is prompt use of a modern inhalation apparatus using oxygen and a little carbon dioxide.

If you add cream of tartar to fudge, it will kill the excess sweetness. Add about an eighth of a teaspoon to an ordinary batch and your fudge is just sweet enough.

Relief From Curse of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause."

But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose.

Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night. Next day bright. Get 24 for 25c today at the nearest Rexall Drug Store. Beyer Pharmacy.

DETROIT HANGAR IS MODEL FOR COUNTRY

Fine Structure Dedicated at City Airport.

Detroit.—Sited within 20 minutes of the Detroit city hall, at Connors and Gratiot avenues, the new million-dollar exposition building and hangar of the Detroit city airport approaches the specifications for an "A" rating by the Department of Commerce, according to William J. Wallace, engineer-manager of the airport.

The hangar, dedicated at the All-American Aircraft show, was built under the direct supervision of Perry Fellowes, city engineer.

The airport site occupies 250 acres of ground and includes, besides the main hangar, a city owned service hangar and two privately owned hangars. The field is "L" shaped and is completely drained by a system of tile drains in rock filled trenches, resulting in more than seventeen miles or drain tile and five miles of crock sewers.

Comparing the hangar to those of other airports Wallace said, "I do not believe there is a better equipped hangar in the country than that of the Detroit city airport."

Good Runways.

"There are more paved runways at the Detroit airport than at any other airport I know of. The safety and convenience that these afford are important factors. I believe in placing this airport in a permanent place in national aviation."

There are four paved runways, two and one-half miles in length, 100 feet in width, providing a six direction service for the planes. Future plans provide for additional direction and parallel runways, Wallace said.

The exterior of the hangar, which extends 1014 feet in length and 200 feet in width, is faced in buff-colored brick and trimmed with cut stone, with stucco over the door openings. The interior wall is faced with salt-glazed tile, in full range buff tones.

A control tower surmounts the north end of the hangar, from which all lighting and signal systems operate. A small transformer switch house has been installed on French road.

Motor Operated.

The hangar has two doors with a clear span of 80 feet, 20 feet high; ten doors with a clear span of 100 feet, 20 feet high, and two doors with a clear span of 150 feet, 25 feet and 30 feet high, providing for efficient entrance and exit for airplanes. The 150-foot doors are motor operated.

The filling of the creek bed which traversed the field of the airport has been in progress during the past two years, and together with the grading operations, has provided a smooth surface with no slope more than 2 per cent in any direction. The hills in some instances have exceeded 30 feet.

In general the field is level and the elevation is 618 feet above sea level. "The major unit in the development of the Detroit City airport," according to Wallace, "is to be followed by the erection of other buildings when needed."

"This is not contemplated until additional property has been acquired, when another hangar similar to the one just dedicated, together with an administration building and a power house of sufficient capacity to heat the present and future buildings, will be built on the port."

"It is planned that underground steam lines will connect the power plant with the present and future buildings."

Where They Must Fly High

New York.—The highest mountain peak in the United States, Mount Whitney, is 14,501 feet high, yet Yankee flyers are forced to a higher altitude in South America to work their way through a pass in the Andes. Upsallata pass, 50 miles north of Santiago, is the only available opening in the Andes. Pilots of the Santiago-Buenos Aires leg of the New York, Rio, and Buenos Aires line burde it at 18,000 feet.

Today's Reflections.

BOARD OF REVIEW

A meeting of the Township Board of Review will be held at the Village Hall, Monday and Tuesday, June 9th and 10th, 1930, for the purpose of reviewing the tax roll. Property owners who desire to examine their assessments may do so on these dates.

CHARLES RATHBURN, Supervisor.

They say that poverty isn't a crime. But just the same the penalty is hard labor.

Another pathetic figure is the Plymouth woman who has kept so healthy that she never could have an operation to talk about.

One trouble with this world is that modern houses are too small to live in and modern salaries are too small to live on.

The way they stay up all night you would think the rising generation had the idea it isn't possible to have any fun in the daytime.

Occasionally we see a Plymouth woman who gives us the impression that the only thing she lost by dieting was her disposition.

Another thing the average Plymouth citizen is thankful for is that his clothes don't wear out as quickly as his patience.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

The attention of the public is hereby called to the provisions of Ordinance No. 88 of the Village of Plymouth, now in full force and effect, governing the care and maintenance of public alleys.

Property owners within the village are required to keep the public alleys abutting their premises free and clear of all ashes, rubbish, etc., and must clear away any existing accumulation at once. Citizens are therefore requested to look after the removal of such rubbish, etc., at once, so that alleys may be restored to a presentable condition with a minimum of delay.

A. J. KOENIG, Village Clerk.

New York Not Ready for Department of Aviation

Albany, N. Y.—The time has not yet come in New York for the establishment of a state department of aviation, the New York aviation commission, a temporary legislative committee created in 1928 to study the need and development of aviation, says in its annual report to Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

"In the future some such provision may be found necessary," the report says, "but for the present it is the belief of the commission that the most efficient and economical method of procedure in the state regulation of aeronautics is a continuation of the commission."

The report sets forth that there are now 89 landing fields in the state as compared with 39 a year ago. It recommends that the state department of education be instructed to license all flying schools in the state, and that the state police be equipped with airplanes. It recommends that airplanes that do not have approved type certificates be not allowed to fly within the state.
