PLYMOUTH HAS LARGE COLONY ON WEST COAST

Former Residents Recall Days "Back Home" - What They Are Doing.

By E. R. Eaton

Hollywood, California. - Possibly California has its movie colony with all its directors, stars, beautiful homes and aspiring but hungry movie actors and actresses, but it has other kinds of colonies as well.

There is a colony made up of former residents of Plymouth who have become more enthusiastic about California than the fast disappearing Michigan ever dared to be.

After it has been made to see many of them—and it has been a real pleasure to meet these former Plymouth residents who love the sunshine, the warm weather, the flowers and all the other things that go to make certain sections of California possibly one of the most delightful places in the world, but who have not forgotten their old friends and ties back home, and delight in recalling the many happy years they spent in Plymouth.

Many readers of the Mail will remember Mr. and Mrs. Charles D. Shattuck. They are now residents of Glendale, a city of 40,000 population. They left Plymouth back in 1913 to come to this western country.

Today Mr. Shattuck is house manager of the beautiful Elks temple of Glendale. The Elks lodge of Glendale has a membership of considerably over 1500. It occupies one of a large athletic club, where one can bowl, box, play cards, read or take part in a dozen or one other attractions offered by this progressive organization.

Over in Venice, by the always interesting Pacific, live Mr. and Mrs. O. M. Southworth, at 1626 Electric avenue. Mrs. Southworth will probably be better known in Plymouth as Mrs. E. L. Riggs.

Even though she is thoroughly enjoying all that California offers, she is keenly interested in Plymouth and all of her old friends. Her mother, Mrs. E. M. Reed, who will be 90 years of age next August, is in excellent health. She too recalls many happy days back in Plymouth, where a very large portion of her life was spent.

Mrs. Southworth has lived in California eleven years and during that time she has made twenty-nine trips across the continent back to her old home in Michigan. That is, she has made this many trips in going and coming. But Plymouth is not the only interesting place she has traveled to since coming to California. She has made two trips to Alaska. Mr. Southworth is a former resident of southwestern Michigan.

Mrs. Southworth is just as active apparently as years ago. She has some real estate investments in Venice which take a part of her time.

Plymouth DeMolay Hears Dr. M. S. Rice

Members of the Fellowship Chapter, Order of DeMolay, located at Northville, drove to Detroit, Sunday, March 15, to assemble with twelve other DeMolay Chapters of the Detroit District for an annual devotional day service.

The Sunday nearest March 18 is used by chapters all over the nation as the one Sunday that is officially reserved by the Grand Chapter for a devotional church in a body on a uniform date. This is in honor of Jacques DeMolay, for whom the order was named, who was burned at the stake on the evening of March 18, 1314.

At about 2:45 p. m. when over two hundred boys had congregated at the Loyalty Masonic Temple, 646 Lothrop avenue, a procession was formed with Dr. M. S. Rice, pastor of the First Baptist Church, at the head. After marching to the Metropolitan M. E. church, where a short musical program was arranged, Dr. M. S. Rice delivered a specially prepared sermon.

Upon the conclusion of his always worthy text, being so near the Fisher Building, the local boys journeyed up to the station where Ann Long, Monday, after marching to the Metropolitan M. E. church, where a short musical program was arranged, Dr. M. S. Rice delivered a specially prepared sermon.

Home Exposition Week Of April 5th At School

As a result of a committee meeting held Tuesday of this week to discuss plans for Plymouth Second Home Camp Exposition, a notice will be mailed every one having an exhibit last year and to others desiring space this year to be present at 10:00 o'clock sharp next Monday morning, March 23, at the Chamber of Commerce office.

With the exposition scheduled for the week of April 5th, committee members state that the number planning exhibits must be known by next Monday. This is necessary according to members of the committee because definite financial arrangements cannot be completed until the total number is known.

According to a statement from the Chamber of Commerce office, there are certain matters of policy remaining to be settled in connection with the exposition which everyone planning a display should have a voice in deciding.

On Thursday of last week, Mrs. Romeo Wood, Mrs. Karl Hillmer, Mrs. Wm. Miod, Mrs. George Gorton, Mrs. Frank Dicks, and Mrs. Oliver Marth gathered at the home of Mrs. Arlo Scott on Sausage avenue, where they enjoyed a cooperative dinner and quilting bee.

Much merriment resulted when Lath became excited and demanded a "round" and "Three Blind Mice" was sung with much enthusiasm.

During the intermission, Prudence Butterfield and Ann Loranger sang several pleasing numbers in the exact manner of one of their regular radio

WITNESS MANUFACTURE OF MONEY IN U. S. TREASURY

When William Connor and John Wilcox, well known Plymouth citizens visited Washington, D. C. on their trip home from Florida, they made several sight seeing expeditions to sights of interest around the Capitol.

Returning here Saturday after an extended visit in Florida and a pleasant motor trip through Georgia and South Carolina the two travelers were impressed with Uncle Sam's money making machinery as much as anything they had seen.

Mr. Connor stated that he was particularly interested in the fact that two-thirds of the employees in the process of making money, were women and that the majority of them were colored. They witnessed the manufacture of one and five dollar bills.

KIWANIS CLUB HEARS FATHER SCHUYLER OF NORTHVILLE TUESDAY

Members of the local Kiwanis club heard a very interesting talk Tuesday noon, by Father Joseph Schuyler of Northville. The program under the direction of Roy Crowe proved a most enjoyable one and his efforts to bring Father Schuyler to Plymouth were appreciated by everyone who heard the talk.

"That to be religious anyone must walk with his eyes cast on the ground or at the clouds is in my estimation merely a smoke screen to hide one's other side," stated the speaker. "My fifteen years of experience have taught me that to be religious it is not necessary for one to see any different than an ordinary person. The fact that I am a minister of the gospel does not make me any better or any different from the many men who sit here before me. I do not feel that one's religion always shows one's true inner self. And I believe that it is as possible for the man who smokes and indulges in other habits prevalent in this day to be just as religious as myself. We men of the cloth have one thing in common and that is the fact that we are ministers of the gospel. Many times today people are under the impression that churches or different creeds of religion are having among themselves a form of competition, this of course is not true. Religion is not a form of competition, it is one's choice and as long as we had one denomination that we believe in it is infinitely possible and intelligent to believe in it as in another," stated Father Schuyler.

COMMISSION HEARS FINANCIAL REPORT OF YEARS ACTIVITIES

At a regular meeting of the Village Commission held last Monday evening, Village Trustee George W. Rich, who presented a financial report to the Commission covering the financial affairs of the village for the past year, and showing that as a result of the definite program of economy pursued by the village administration during 1930 a total savings of $24,306.48 had been effected. The report pointed out that by cutting a flat ten per cent on all taxes levied last spring, the commission brought about an initial saving of $11,277.41. By careful handling of village business during the twelve-month period it has been found possible to close the year with a budget balance of $13,199.07. This amount, added to the savings brought about by the tax cut, brings the total savings for the year 1930 to $24,306.48.

The treasurer's report also shows that there has not been a deficit in any budget fund since 1926. Balances for the past four years have been as follows: 1927—$ 5,501.96 1928—26,781.17 1929—18,790.37 1930—13,199.07

The figures indicate a very satisfactory record for the four-year period. The report also points out that during the past eleven months a deficit of $18,979.45 in the water fund has been reduced to $11,563.04. Further, that while in 1929 a total of 43.02 per cent of taxes were paid to the village, the percentage had dropped to 37.55 in 1930 while the proportion paid for all other purposes except schools had increased during the year.

The report, taken in its entirety, indicates clearly that during the past year the village administration has handled the business committed to its care in a thoroughly satisfactory manner, and that the results obtained entitled them to the commendation of our tax payers and citizen in general.

Rotarians Hear Interesting Debate On Capital Punishment Between Capt. Denniston And Geo. A. Smith

WELL PREPARED SUBJECTS PROVIDE INTERESTING PROGRAM

The Plymouth Rotary Club, at its regular weekly noon luncheon meeting held last Friday, heard a very interesting presentation of the two sides of the question of capital punishment as a solution of the crime situation by Capt. Edw. Denniston, Superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction and George A. Smith, Superintendent of the Plymouth Public Schools.

Capt. Denniston, speaking in support of capital punishment, held that such a law should be in effect and applied to the gangster or thug who was a confirmed killer, and that only by applying capital punishment could such a person be eliminated as a menace to society. The speaker contended, however, that the sentencing judge should have the authority to impose a life sentence in cases that did not warrant a death sentence, otherwise many a guilty criminal would escape just punishment for his crime.

Supl. Smith stated, in opposing capital punishment, that he felt that the criminal should not be executed, but that he should be made the subject of laboratory study by psychologists and psychiatrists to determine the factors in his life, responsible for his criminal tendencies, and through the knowledge gained, properly applied to children in the schools, eliminate the causes that lead to crime and thus extend protection to society in the future.

Both sides of the subject were presented in very capable fashion, and the club members felt after the discussion that a good deal of valuable information had been presented on both sides of this controversial question.

FORREST ROBERTS NAMED NEW SALEM REP. SUPERVISOR

The defeat of Harry Atkinson, an incumbent of Salem township, at the Republican caucus last Saturday, proved to be one of the biggest surprises that has happened there in a political way in a number of years.

BICENTENNIAL FETE WILL BE NATION-WIDE

Members of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the D. A. R. are planning to help promote the bicentennial celebration for George Washington. That the celebration will be a great one is evidenced in the following story sent the local chapter from Washington, D. C.

If there is anyone in the United States who thinks that the celebration next year of the Two Hundredth Anniversary of the Birth of George Washington is going to be an affair of local and inconsequential proportions, that person should take the true statement of a representative, Sol Bloom, Associate Director of the George Washington Bicentennial Commission. Mr. Bloom, in stressing the fact that the bicentenary observance is to be nation-wide, said:

"The George Washington Bicentennial Celebration is to be different from any celebration ever held in America. We are planning no world fair; we are planning no national exposition. Instead of bringing the people to the celebration we are taking the celebration to the people."

George Washington is a national figure and the celebration in his honor will be one in which all people may participate. The program outlined and now under way provides activities for every man, woman and child during the year 1932. Suitable projects are also being arranged in which every State, city and town may take part.

"George Washington belongs to all America and all Americans, regardless of race, creed or color," continued Mr. Bloom. "He belongs to the North as well as the South; to the East as well as the West."

There is a definite motive behind the stupendous observance which will commence on February 22 next year. This motive is to present the true George Washington to his countrymen of today. To this end the ideals which the great first President represented throughout his entire life, the inestimable service he rendered his country and his own devotion to duty and honor will be stressed. Material phases will be excluded so far as possible from the celebration. Mr. Bloom went on to say:

"We want to reawaken in the hearts of all Americans the spirit of gratitude and reverence for America's leading citizen of all time. The best way to accomplish this purpose is to have local celebrations all over the United States. That is the reason why no one place has been singled out to be the center of the Celebration."

Mr. Bloom also pointed out that, contrary to the impression entertained in some places, the great Bicentennial celebration was not to take place in Washington, D. C. only. It is to be nation-wide in every sense of the word.

Hockey Team Is Given Surprise

Last Thursday evening March 12th, the wives of the married members of the Plymouth Hockey team gave the boys a very pleasant surprise and wound up the hockey season with a beautiful dinner served at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Dolbs, 624 Francis Street. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dolbs, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Dolbs, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Rutledge, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Block, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Roe, John Deste-fano, Bill Grierson, Nate Wineberg, Al Valenti, "Timmy" Morrison and Bill Brooks. The evening was spent playing cards and talking over the past successful season. Two chairs, Larry Pierson, Bill Langen and Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Garlett were unable to attend.

At the meeting of the club, following the address, committees on the sick, public relief, building a veterans' clubhouse, and rifle equipment reported. At this meeting also, by a unanimous vote of the Club, it was decided to authorize the Ex-Service Men's Club to sponsor Troop P-2 of the Boy Scouts. In conformity with club policy, the members wish it known that every endeavor will be made to make of this troop the crack troop of Plymouth not only in drill maneuvers, neatness of uniform and morale, but in numbers of individual honor scouts per troop. They have already in Bill Rambo as Scoutmaster a proven guide and counselor, and with the full support of the veterans, Bill will put his troop in front.

Boys are the citizens of tomorrow. The environment and training you give them today makes the difference between the good, the indifferent and the bad citizen of the future. Yours, Mr. Business Man, Mr. Professional Man, Mr. Worker, Mr. Ex-Service Man, is the responsibility to the boys of today, to help them to be the real men of tomorrow.

Ex-Service Men's Club Corres.

The Business and Professional Women's Club were invited to attend the Parent-Teachers' Association meeting at the Starweaver school on Monday evening, March 16th, as guests of Miss Florence Stader. Miss Stader's pupils furnished a very entertaining program of plays, recitations and music and the club were much pleased to accept the invitation.

MISCHIEVOUS TONGUES

One bit of wisdom which men begin acquiring from their earliest experience is the necessity of a proper misbelief in evil tongues. Evil reports about our neighbors start easily and fly fast. Who believes them indiscriminately finds himself shortly the only truly good person around the place. If he is so unhappy as to hear the current rumors about himself, he may even have to scratch his own name off the white list. There's a sort of person whose breath, like that of the fabled Chimæra, blackens and scorches everything it touches.

As far as individuals are concerned, the wise man learns to disregard the tongue of scandal. He believes evil of his neighbor unwillingly, and only after requiring the utmost proof. If the evil tale persists, the wise man for his own protection and his neighbor's will take pains, before believing, to go to the source of the facts. We have learned this lesson as it applies to persons. It has not been so well learned as it applies to peoples. This has a good deal to do with the persistent peril of war.

There are almost six hundred Rotary clubs in Europe and the Rotarian visitor from North America who goes about Europe attending meetings of these clubs, discovers no enemy peoples there. If he looks into their hearts a bit and gets a grasp of their different difficulties, he finds himself acquiring a sympathy for each and every one. Like our next-door neighbors at home, the peoples of the world are doing as well as circumstances allow. They have their own prejudices and shortness of view; but like the rest of us, each is doing the best he can.

Now there is a tongue of slander concerning peoples as there is a tongue of slander concerning persons. Some misguided persons have thought it necessary, for the promotion of patriotism, to make us hate other countries as we love our own. It is as easy to believe evil of strange peoples as it is to believe evil of the neighbor on the other side of the hill—easier, in fact.

All too often the inky tongue of evil is playing on that weakness. It is making us think we do not like this people or that, this nation or that. It is making us expect evil of them.

Just as we have learned to be suspicious of such talk about our neighbor around the corner, so it behooves us to be skeptical when it concerns our neighbors across a sea. With a nation as with a neighbor, when the tongue of evil is laid against it, we will withhold belief till we see the proof. This is the path to peace.—"Rotarian."

LET US LEARN OUR LESSON

In one of the speeches in congress advocating a $25,000,000 federal appropriation to buy food for the unemployed, a senator supposedly well versed in economic law proclaimed:

"It is the duty of the federal government to take such action as to eliminate suffering, hunger, and want on the part of our people in the future."

This may be good political propaganda, but it is unsound economics. It represents a fallacy that has become only too popular. As a panacea for our social and economic ills it should have no place in the American system of government.

The people themselves, not the government, are the ones who must safeguard their future. We have entirely too much of this thing of depending on the government and other agencies, and we are getting it at the sacrifice of personal thrift, planning and initiative.

The American people are just emerging from a period of suffering, want, and hunger. It was coming to us, for it was the price we had to pay for our national fault of hand-to-mouth living. It was a case of easy come, easy go. We spent riotously during the boom years of prosperity. We had no thought to the lean years which were to follow, and of which we had ample warning.

If we Americans only had something of the thrift that characterizes the French people, the recent period of depression would not have bothered us. We would have met it from the accumulated savings of the prosperous years. But we took no thought of the morrow. And when the morrow brought hunger we looked to others to help us, thereby penalizing them for their thrift and foresight.

Let us learn a much-needed lesson from our recent experience. When we get back on our feet again let us live wisely instead of too well. Let us forget the luxuries and the near luxuries until we have fortified ourselves to withstand another possible siege of industrial depression. Then we can smile at future vagaries of fate.

RELIEF AND POLITICS

Every right thinking person has profound sympathy for all who through no fault of their own find themselves unable to obtain the necessities of life. Measures for relief in such cases have a strong appeal, and it is to the credit of human nature that this is so.

But, unfortunately, certain politicians are apt to play upon the generous impulses of the public by seeking approval of ill-adviced and unsound schemes which are advanced in the hope of making political capital for their promoters. It is perfectly easy for a Senator or other legislator to gain a certain amount of publicity and applause through introducing a bill for raiding the treasury under the guise of affording relief for the destitute.

To carry out their plans, they would not hesitate to hamper the recovery of business and industry by imposing oppressive public burdens which would counteract the constructive efforts now being made to put more men on the payrolls. And right now bigger payrolls would afford the most effective and permanent means of relief.

These same politicians have not hesitated to reflect upon the Red Cross Society, the most capable and effective agency in the world in matters of personal relief. Red Cross officials declare that their efforts have been hindered by these attacks of politicians who want credit for themselves, which they seek to obtain by proposing vast government appropriations to be expended under the direction of other politically-minded agents.

President Hoover very aptly characterized such tactics as "playing politics at the expense of human misery."

MOTHERS' ASSISTANCE FUND

A bill before congress amends the maternity assistance law in such way as to insure assistance when most needed. It cuts red tape and looks to substantial relief in cases where money will provide care and attention to mother and child when without it the lives of both might be jeopardized. In states which adopted the Shepherd-Towner law, organizations are already at work to bring about the adoption of the amendment.

Proper care of mothers and children is a matter of social economics. The family is the unit of society, and the welfare of this unit determines the welfare of society. Preserved in health and strength, the unit makes society stronger. Permitted to become weak through sickness and death, the unit weakens society, becomes an economic waste. It therefore is the duty of society to itself to insure the welfare of its units.

And through its various agencies society can do this if it will. Some of these agencies are nicely supplemented by this mothers' assistance fund. Made more easily available this fund will more certainly accomplish its purpose.

RED CROSS DRIVE

The American Red Cross has undertaken to supply food to the farmers of the great drought-stricken area of this country. John Barton Payne, president of the organization, with the approval of President Hoover, has called for $10,000,000.

This is not a drive to help the people of some other country. It is to help some unfortunate people of this country. It is an opportunity for Americans to help Americans, just as they did in the California earthquake disaster and the Mississippi floods. And the help is needed not for the rehabilitation of farms—congress is attending to that—but for food. Some farmers are on the verge of starving.

If Americans could raise millions for the Japanese in their recent disaster, they certainly can raise $10,000,000 for themselves—for that's what it amounts to. Unless the farmers of the drought-stricken states are fed, the whole country will in the end suffer with them.

WHAT OTHER EDITORS ARE THINKING ABOUT

JOHN LOVETT
John Lovett, the super lobbyist, lives on a small farm over in Oakland county. Lovett and Fred Green had a fine visit Thursday afternoon showing that green, above everything else, is a forgiving soul. Four and two years ago Green listed Lovett along with Judas, Benedict Arnold, Jesse James and other notables of this character. Lovett says the former isn't the only person with tax worries. This year his taxes were at the rate of $90 an acre. He is in the drainage district of a million dollar ditch and the most expensive highway in Michigan passes in front of his property. He thought in round figures that the road cost $90,000 a mile, which sounds extravagant. Some of these items are probably responsible for the grand jury now sitting in Oakland county. Lovett occasionally writes a piece for Dick Tobin, an old Chicago Tribune pal who owns the Niles Star. Tobin is a brother-in-law of Ring Lardner, the humorist.—Charlotte Republican.

PAVED ROADS

Iowa is excitedly interested in the progress of her roads, and paving has gone on at an astonishing rate. There is however one phase of road work that has barely been started here. That is road beautification.

Other states have shown much more life in the matter of beautiful highways. As far back as 1921, Massachusetts began landscaping. Roads, there, are made wide enough for the propagation of trees and shrubs, and the state has appointed a group of men to take care of the work. In 1928 Pennsylvania followed suit, appointed a forestry unit consisting of five trained foresters, and three landscape architects. Field men are located in eight state districts.

As signboards mar the beauty of a highway, eleven states have regulatory measures. In Nevada, for instance, no permit is issued for signs that will measurably mar the roadside beauty or obstruct the view. Massachusetts keeps advertising matter 300 feet from the highway, except where it is conditions to the business it concerns. Connecticut regulates signs erected by filling stations and similar business places. Illinois controls the erection of signs within right-of-way limits of trunk-line highways, but has difficulty with signs inside corporate limits.

Iowa should certainly fall in line and make Iowa scenery visible to the hundreds of thousands of tourists and motorists. There is a charm along an Iowa road that we like to think peculiar in this state, and it should be developed, not spoiled.—Des Moines Tribune.

JUSTICE HOLMES AT 90

One of the most remarkable of living men is Justice Oliver Wendell Holmes of the United States Supreme Court, 90 years old on March 8. In spite of his age, he is one of the most alert members of that tribunal, both mentally and physically, and has no thought of retiring.

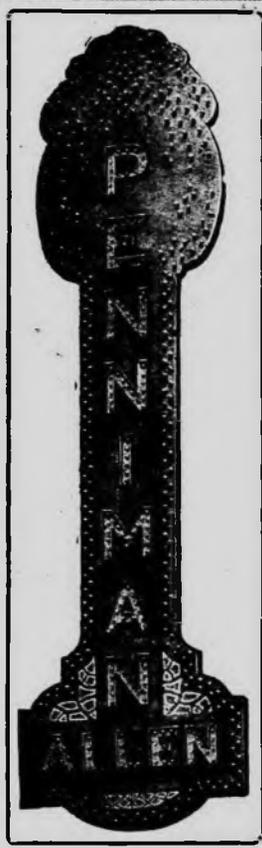

Justice Holmes is the son of the late Dr. Oliver Wendell Holmes, famous poet and essayist, and was born in Boston. After being graduated from Harvard in 1871 he served in the 30th Massachusetts Volunteers during the Civil War, being wounded three times and rising to the rank of lieutenant colonel.

After the war he finished his law studies and began practice in Boston. He was also instructor in constitutional law at Harvard, editor of the American Law Review, associate and chief justice of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, besides being active as lecturer and author.

He was appointed associate justice of the United States Supreme Court in 1902, since which time he has served continuously with high distinction. No other member of the court ever served in so great an age, and the indications are that he has several more years of distinguished usefulness before him. Ionis County News.

WAYNE NEEDS MORE VOICE

It will be an injustice to the more populous counties of Michigan if Representative Darlin's bill to revise the state's 13 congressional districts does not become a law. Such inadequate representation at Lansing as Wayne county has, for instance, can only mean that the wealthiest and most populous districts of Michigan must bow to the will of rural representatives whose constituencies play a comparatively small part in the life of the state. Wayne county's problems are not the same as, say, Montcalm county's, yet for years Wayne has been forced to bow to the will of legislators from just such rural communities. A reapportionment proposal was narrowly defeated last fall by the rural vote. Its defeat did more than anything else to make the voters of Wayne county realize their danger. It is doubtful if all the rural votes the state can muster would defeat such a proposal again. Representative Darlin's measure would divide the state into 13 districts, and would give Wayne county five congressmen and representation in part of the sixth district. Wayne county needs and deserves this additional volume of voice in Michigan affairs.—Dearborn Press.

Rosedale Gardens

By J. W. WALKER

Spring vs. Winter
 sorta struggle of and between the two have been our sorry lot to contend with the past two weeks, so, ending tomorrow, the decision will be given by the weather-man et al. to Spring. Sweet peas were planted without much ceremony, cut and angle worms were much in evidence in making the trenches. Now mother and daddy Gardente are planning the balance of the garden.

Reverence

After all, the essential requirement of funeral service is reverence of the loved one who has passed on, and sympathetic assistance to those who remain behind. While we have kept fully abreast of the times in technique and equipment, we have not lost sight of the fundamental need on which our profession is based.

bearing in mind we had frost three times last May and on the night eighth-ninth of June.

White-Blackbird
 or some such beast passed just north of K Emporium and office last Thursday p. m., rested on the big tree north of McFadden's for five minutes, then sprouted a three-foot span of white wings westward ho! Whatever it was, it was white and big. C. M. H. says it was a white eagle.

Base-Ball Team
 has not accomplished very much in way of practice lately owing to the weather. But they have gained in club talk enthusiasm and recruits, later to wit: Bert McKinney and hardy golfe champion Frank Wagner, and Harry Hansen.

Along these lines we might mention the fact that some of the young ladies (and older ones) are talking tennis, and we know at least three pair of plus-fours that have been sent to the laundry for golf opening soon (). Then with our gardens, kittens, puppies and what not to occupy our minds is it any wonder this care-free life is on our nerves to get full publicity from father and son banquets to the chronicles of girls who call themselves 'untilyl and ma's auxiliary nete.

Reading
 is still an indoor pastime for many, according to Miss Vera, R. Librarian. So to help matters, Miss Leleta Dawson loaned her fiver with a number of new books to trade in on R old ones. Now Mildred Gardente gets some fresh literature at the same time as fresh vegetables and fresh fish for Lenten dinners on days marked with a red fish on ye calendar.

New York City
 is entertaining with help of Grandparents Kinahan, the Misses Patricia and Bernice Kinahan, Berwick avenue, who left us in company with their daddy last week.

Easter Bunny
 in person, will visit each and every Gardente child in another two weeks. A number of them have been observing Lent by abstaining from all sweets, but are going to make up for it when the baskets of candy eggs and bunnies arrive.

Friday the 13th, the girls from all over met in the Boys' Gymnasium, Northwestern High School, for the Annual Birthday Ceremonial. Many of the local group and friends attended.

Sunday they, friends and parents, attended the Annual Sunday Service at R church, the program as follows: Prelude, Mrs. F. Ames; Entrance of Camp Fire Girls; doxology; invocation; Camp Fire Girls' hymn; "O Beautiful For Spacious Skies"; responsive reading; prayer; Camp Fire Creed. Eleanor Strachle, solo.

"Thy Life Was Given for Me," Evelyn Porteous; the Camp Fire Laws in Scripture (Book Beauty, Matt. 6:29-30, Sarah Davis; Give Service, Matt. 16:24-28, Kathryn Wassund; Pursue Knowledge, Proverbs 3:13-18, Frances Cooper; Be Trustworthy, Matt. 25:21, Anna Bagolous; Hold On To Health, Cor. 3:16-17, Esther Davis; Glorify Work, Proverbs 31:10, 27, 28, Dorothy Metzger; Be Happy, John 15:9-13, Marie Besmond; announcements; morning offering; hymn, "I Would Be True"; address, Rev. M. L. Bennett; hymn, "Holy, Holy, Holy"; benediction.

Wednesday was "Middle Day"—all wearing the uniforms of their group.

4-H Clubs
 Last Tuesday the girls and mothers had their regular secret session at the Rosedale School in the afternoon.

Tomorrow is the boys' Bird House Scripture (Book Beauty, Matt. 6:29-30, Sarah Davis; Give Service, Matt. 16:24-28, Kathryn Wassund; Pursue Knowledge, Proverbs 3:13-18, Frances Cooper; Be Trustworthy, Matt. 25:21, Anna Bagolous; Hold On To Health, Cor. 3:16-17, Esther Davis; Glorify Work, Proverbs 31:10, 27, 28, Dorothy Metzger; Be Happy, John 15:9-13, Marie Besmond; announcements; morning offering; hymn, "I Would Be True"; address, Rev. Next Tuesday afternoon at 2:30, the girls will entertain all at the school house. Everyone is invited to come.

CADY NEWS

The Girl Scouts' program given at Cady School Thursday evening, March 19, consisted of: Girl Scout Laws and Colors; music by W. H. S. Glee Club; tap dancing by Lona Roble and Wesley Hoffman; songs by Lois Hoffman; Uncle Neal and Miss Butterfield from W.J.R.; Cecil the magician, in forty minutes of magic.

The Cady P. T. A. met Friday, March 6th. The officers for next year were elected; they are as follows: President, Mrs. A. Berger; vice-president, Mrs. C. Schrader; secretary, Mrs. H. Gierwald; treasurer, Mrs. E. Wilson. The Girl Scouts served lunch after the meeting.

Miss Weliever gave us Achievement tests last Thursday.

Morris Lloyd is absent due to illness. March 24 will be Achievement Day for the 4-H Clubs at Cady. The Hough and Truesdell schools will join with us. Most of the members are finished with their work at the present time.

The Wayne County P. T. A. Council held its annual meeting and election at our school. The officers for the coming year are: President, Mrs. L. A. Harrington, Flat Rock; vice-president, Mrs. A. C. Burton, Rosedale Gardens; second vice-president, Mrs. Chester Dick, Dearborn; recording secretary, Mrs. Dorsey Hunt, Fischer School; corresponding secretary, Mrs. G. A. Bakewell, Plymouth; treasurer, Mrs. Eleanor Nichols, Dearborn. A delicious pot-luck supper followed the meeting, and Prof. Henderson gave a most inspiring address in the evening.

"Of course I remember the Plymouth Mail—didn't we do all kinds of advertising in it, and hasn't it kept me informed about all my old friends since I left there to live in this country? We just couldn't do without the news from Plymouth even though it has been eleven years since we left there," stated Mrs. Southworth.

Venice is just as much different from Glendale as any two cities could be, although it is doubtful if the distance between the two places is more than 35 or 40 miles. Venice is a city devoted entirely to sea shore attractions although in recent years the oil well industry has added considerably to its business activities.

Mrs. John E. Wilcox, who formerly lived on Union street in Plymouth, resides next to the Southworths. She has not been in the best of health during recent months, but recently has shown considerable improvement, state her friends.

Living over in beautiful Santa Monica by the sea are other Plymouth residents. Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Ayers have a most attractive home at 426 Palisades avenue, and Mrs. and Mrs. W. W. Bennett live at 441 Seventh St., another beautiful section of Santa Monica.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Armstrong reside in Burbank, Burbank is another close-by suburb of Los Angeles, just like Glendale, and it is growing about as fast as Glendale. Mrs. Armstrong is recovering from a badly broken arm she received some weeks ago when she went to call upon Mr. and Mrs. Cal Platt, who were at that time visiting with Mr. and Mrs. George Van De Carr, also former Plymouth residents. In some way she tripped on the stairs and in the fall, not only broke one arm, but received many severe bruises.

Lester Van De Carr, their son, is married and the father of two daughters. He is the manager of a factory in Los Angeles, but resides in Glendale.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Van De Carr, best remembered in Plymouth as Helen Van De Carr, was married sometime ago to Ted Kellenberger of Glendale, and they have one daughter.

There are several other former residents of Plymouth residing in Glendale, among them being Mrs. Anna McDonald, who will be remembered in Plymouth as Mrs. Anna Scotten. Her home is on Pioneer drive, Mrs. W. F. Markham and Mr. and Mrs. Ben Sprague are also Glendale residents. Dr. Lavina A. Ketchum, who is probably the newest of the Plymouth colony out here, has an excellent practice and is located in Beverly Hills; her offices being in one of the most attractive buildings in the county.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Armstrong, remembered in Plymouth as Irma Armstrong, is now Mrs. Lester Black of Alhambra. Mrs. Black is the mother of three active boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Riggs, the son of Mrs. Southworth, also make their home in Venice.

Mrs. Ben F. Miller, who was the widow of Dr. Kenyon of Plymouth, has a very beautiful home in Pomona. This is a city somewhat back from the coast line. It is located right in the heart of a very rich orange growing section. Mr. and Mrs. John Lundy make their home in Hollywood. He was a building contractor when he lived in Plymouth, but old Plymouth friends say that he now tries to find just as much time as he can to enjoy the sunshine of this country.

California is a big state, one that you cannot travel from the south to the north in a day's time or anywhere near it, and Los Angeles in the past ten years has become a city the next in size to Detroit with traffic conditions that no other place in the world would permit or stand for, so it is not an easy matter to cover as much ground as one would like, and there are some other former Plymouth residents here that the writer regrets he is not going to be able to see.

There is Mrs. R. P. Benton, living at 524 Cornell Drive in Burbank, William

Geigler, who makes his home at 342 Arden Avenue in Glendale, Dr. Ralph A. Hix at 35 West Main Street in Alhambra, Mrs. E. A. Kellenberger at 1004 North Magnolia Avenue, Burbank, Mrs. F. E. Lowe, who lives near Lodi in the northern part of the state, Mark Ladd of Torrance, a busy little city near Los Angeles, William Moss of Laguna Beach, Mrs. N. J. Smith of Ukiah, E. H. Tighe on East Orange Grove Drive in Pasadena, one of the most beautiful places in the world, B. J. Bradner of Los Angeles, E. M. Gates in City Terrace, Los Angeles, Jerry Stannard of Los Angeles and Mrs. Ida Gralinger of Laurel Avenue, Los Angeles. Doubtless there are many other former Plymouth residents in this part of the country, and if they enjoy sunshine, flowers, warm days and some extra cold nights, they are certainly getting all of it that California can offer.

The "Junior Choir" which has been training for some time will make its first regular appearance on Palm Sunday, furnishing the music for the morning services.

The Junior Missionary girls will meet with Miss Betty Barnes at her home 308 Ann Street next Saturday at 2 o'clock. Bring your goods and treasures and needles, as we are to make Bible garments for Miss Barnes's Indian babies.

Christian Science Notes
"Substance" was the subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches on Sunday, March 15.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, with all thy mind, with all thy strength, with all thy power; and thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself." (Matt. 22:37-39).

The Lesson Sermon also included the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Keep in mind the verity of being, that man is the image and likeness of God, in whom all being is painless and permanent. Remember that man's perfection is real and unchangeable, whereas imperfection is illusory, unproved, and is not brought about by divine Love" (p. 114).

CATHOLIC NOTES
Easter Sunday is April 5th.
Next Sunday is Holy Communion Sunday for the children.

There will be co-operative supper followed by the business and program meeting of the class. The annual reports will also be presented and officers for the next year elected.

EPISCOPAL NOTES
Passion-Tide
Sunday is Passion Sunday, the fifth Sunday in Lent. We enter now the saddest last two weeks in the life of the Master, when our thoughts should more seriously follow His steps to the Cross.

Every member of the church will want to be present at the services the next three Sundays—Passion Sunday, Palm Sunday, and Easter. On Good Friday surely we will all watch for one hour with Christ!

Service this Sunday: Morning prayer and sermon immediately after Easter Communion service with the blessing of the Palms; Good Friday, evening service with meditation on the Crucifixion of Christ; Easter Day, Holy Communion at 8 a. m., again at 10 a. m. Plan now to attend these services.

The program for children held last week proved to be of real inspiration and instruction to those who attended regularly. Ten who had perfect attendance throughout the week will receive mementos of the occasion this Sunday.

The Junior Brotherhood will continue to meet on Wednesday nights during Lent. The members are reminded of the aim for daily Bible reading, "not the light!"

Plans are under way for a stag-supper and entertainment for all the men of the church immediately after Easter. This will be sponsored by the Men's club. Other interesting programs will follow later in April. Watch for them.

Twenty girls and boys of the young or high school set were royally entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Melburn Partridge on Pennington avenue, Saturday evening, for the pleasure of their youngest son, Austin. The evening was most enjoyably passed in playing "kono," dancing and singing, after which a delicious luncheon was served by Mrs. Partridge, assisted by her sister, Mrs. Lucella Partridge. The guests included Miss Delight Taylor, Miss Catherine Dunn, Miss Rosemary West, Miss Betty Snell, Miss Ruth McConnell, Miss Coraline Rathburn, Miss Margaret Buzzard, Miss Helen Rihar, Miss Jane Whipple, Miss Elizabeth Whipple, Deward Taylor, J. D. McLarn, Don Bronson, Charles Drew, your, Daniel Carmichael, Sheldon Baker, Marvin Partridge, Robert Champe and Sanford Knapp.

Mrs. Henry J. Fisher and Mrs. DeLos Goebel delightfully entertained at a luncheon Tuesday, at the former's home on North Main street. Those attending this affair were Mrs. Vina Wingard, Mrs. Walter Hull, Mrs. Henry Tish, Mrs. Floyd Taylor of Wayne; Mrs. Carrie Austin, Mrs. Bessie Nimmerfall of Detroit; Mrs. Harold Beller, Mrs. James Honey, Mrs. Roy Fisher, Mrs. Fletcher Campbell and Miss Gertrude Gralinger.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Vealey was the scene of a delightful party on Tuesday evening, when Mrs. Vealey entertained her group of L. T. L. girls with a St. Patrick's party. Games were played until ten o'clock, when the hostess served a delicious supper. The guests were all seated at the long table in the dining room; the table was decorated with tiny green candles and two cunning dolls dressed all in green. The girls, upon leaving, all declared they had had a wonderful time.

The Plymouth Nutrition class met at the home of Mrs. G. H. Gordon on Maple St. "Planning the Family Meal" was the lesson and was presented by the leaders, Mrs. James Honey and Mrs. Harry Brown. The February lesson was reviewed and a true-false test based on McCollum was given. Mrs. Arcott and Mrs. Petz gave a report on vitamin E and the tea and coffee habit. NUTTY NATURAL HISTORY
BY HUGH MUTTON

THE COFFEE GROUND HOG

HERE is a very interesting species of swine found in the vicinity of Santos, Brazil, where the better grades of coffee grounds are grown. They are quite a pest to the plantation owners, as they delight in uprooting the young coffee-ground trees to nibble the fruit. Automatic coffee grinders are set as traps for the creature, and when one enters such a trap and comes out the other end as finely divided sausage, it is then true ground hog.

The one shown here inspecting a discarded crank from a coffee grinder has a walnut body and double peanut head. The ears are split almond kernels, and the tail is a pin that has been run through a washing machine several times to give it the kinky effect. The legs are cloves, and to them are attached the soft hairy bean feet.

Northern Sanatorium Sought

A group of 37 counties in Northern Michigan, at present without sanatorium protection against tuberculosis, will be provided with a 250 bed institution if a measure now before the State Legislature becomes law. Counties to be served by the proposed sanatorium are shown on the above map in black. The measure is being championed by Fred Ming, Speaker of the House of Representatives.

The Eighth grade gave special History reports first, then dramatized the Naturalization of Tony Salvo, an Italian, as a Citizenship project. Earl Zander, Howard Zander, and Doris Campbell dramatized "A Tax Assessor's Visit."

For wash bowl and tub, use borax dry on a cloth, mop or brush. Borax instantly removes deposits of mineral soap and grease. Pure borax is odorless and acts as a deodorant. Strong cleaning powders, soap, turpentine, kerosene, are highly objectionable because of the odor they leave. After using borax, rinse tub or bowl with hot water.

"I'm having wonderful success with my ELECTROCHEF* electric range"

"I BAKED A CAKE that was the NICEST I EVER MADE"

"Baking with my Electrochef is a wonderful experience. It's so delightfully simple, and there's no guesswork. The automatic oven makes baking easy. The very first cake I baked in my Electrochef turned out perfectly. It was light and fine-grained and tempting—one of the nicest I've ever made. Electric cooking is certainly marvelous. Now I can be sure of consistent baking results every time, without fail. I'm glad I discovered electric cooking with the Electrochef electric range."

* A study of one thousand families using the ELECTROCHEF electric range showed a cooking cost of less than one cent a meal a person.

P. H. S. STUDENTS GIVE PROGRAMS IN DRAMA CLUBS

A very interesting program was prepared by Duane Koenig last Friday in the Junior Drama Club. The most outstanding feature of the program was the speaker, Mrs. Parker of Plymouth, who gave some conical recitations. One of these was entitled "Starting Something in School," a portrait of a small boy's varied conversation while he is supposed to be singing with the rest of his classmates. "My Country 'Tis of Thee" was the remaining program was carried on like a broadcasting station with Uncle Neal and other radio celebrities. In their last meeting the Friday Drama Club chose a new name. After much discussion, they finally decided upon the name "Masque" for their club.

This program for last Thursday's Senior Drama Club was planned by the student, Dorothy Hiltner. The club was divided into four groups which were each to present an impromptu, original play. The first play represented a shoe store where various customers came to buy. Another play was done in pantomime. This was a photographer's studio. The third was a dancing school and what a dancing school. The last act was a very clever dramatization of the word "Washington."

CAMP FIRE ACTIVITIES ARE VARIED

Each year since 1928, the Camp Fire Girls have celebrated their birthday by having a special project. This year International Friendship is the theme.

The requirements that Camp Wotanick girls are working on are as follows:

- Group Activities
1. Take part in a Friendship Council Fire during birthday month. (This will be held March 21.)
 2. Handcraft (choose two)
 - a. Adapt a design from foreign pottery, embroidery or some other handcraft and apply it to the decoration of a piece of your own handcraft.
 - b. Make samples on material of at least ten embroidery stitches used in foreign embroidery.
 3. Song and Story (choose three)
 - a. Learn and sing before your Campfire group a song from a foreign country.
 - b. Learn to play some music or learn to dance a foreign dance; to tell a story or dramatize or pantomime an incident from the history or legend of some foreign country.
 4. Tell the story of the life and contribution of one important woman of some foreign country.
 5. Read and review at a Camp Fire meeting one book written by a foreign author. (This includes translations.)
 6. Service (choose three)
 - a. Learn the names and know the important facts of five great men who have immigrated to America and relate at Camp Fire or to a group of at least five people.
 - b. Learn the date and significance of one national holiday of five immigrant races.
 - c. Teach one kind of native handwork to five American girls.
 - d. Know and tell at a Camp Fire meeting what is being done to promote world peace.
- These requirements are for the nineteenth birthday honor which is a design stenciled on leather, of two hemispheres linked together by a bar. National Middle Day will be on March 18. The girls who will receive honors for having been Camp Fire girls for three years are: Madelyn Blunk and Esther Egge; Jean Strong, Zerepha Blunk and Janet Blickenstaff will receive five-year honors.
- For the last project the girls have been working on samples for the second requirement under Handcraft. Jean Strong had charge of this project. Under the leadership of Elizabeth Nichol, the girls are now working for National Needlework honors by sending for and making baby clothes. Each girl will make three articles. Madelyn Blunk is working for a scribe's honor by sending news of the Camp's work to the Detroit News page of Camp Fire news.

Several of the girls with their girlfriends, Mrs. Stevens, went to Detroit last Friday, to the Grand Council Fire held in the Northwestern High School gymnasium. After a bugle call, the guardians marched in, followed by about twenty-three hundred girls. Following a song, the girls and the audience pledged allegiance to the Stars and Stripes borne in by Boy Scouts. The impressive candle-lighting ceremony followed the singing of "America the Beautiful" and of a solo by Margaret Guss. One of the beautiful Camp Fire songs, "Burn, Fire, Burn," was sung with motions by the girls. The awarding of Woodgatherers', Firemakers' and Torchbearers' ranks followed the Camp Fire credo. The awarding of the Health, National Three Year and Five Year honors, Birthday and Big Hop honors and the National Shuta, Keda and Wakon Honors was followed by Irish, Czech-Slovakian, Swedish, Russian, Scotch, Dutch, Italian and Spanish dances performed by different Camp Fire groups. The ceremonial ended with the Fire Extinguishing Ceremony, "Lay Me to Sleep," "The Star Spangled Banner" and Taps. The gymnasium was decorated with flags of all nations contributed by the Detroit Flag Company.

SEASON OPENS FOR BASEBALL

The Plymouth High School baseball team has started spring practice in the school gymnasium, because the diamond is too muddy for decent practice. Almost all of the pitchers and catchers have been given a try-out, and the first cut will be made soon. All of last year's squad are back except Clyde Ferguson, who has had his eight semesters of athletics, and Coach Matheson and Captain Hix are planning to have a very successful year.

FIVE GIRLS PASS SHORTHAND TEST

The following girls, all members of the advanced shorthand class, Marion Gust, Irene Livingston, Viola Lutermoser, Amy Blackmore and Marion Hadley, wrote a one hundred word a minute shorthand test, with a transcription accuracy of over ninety-seven per cent. The paragraph written by William J. Bryan, follows:

The Real Business Man
You have made the definition of a business too limited in its application. The man who is employed for wages is as much a business man as his employer. The attorney in a country town is as much a business man as the corporation counsel in a great metropolis. The merchant in the crossroads store is as much a business man as the merchant of New York. The farmer who goes forth in the morning and tills all day, who begins in the spring and toils all summer and who by the application of brain and muscle to the natural resources of the country creates wealth is as much a business man as the man who goes upon the Board of Trade and bids upon the price of grain. The miners who go down a thousand feet into the earth or climb two thousand feet upon the cliff and bring forth from their hiding places the precious metals to be poured into the channels of trade are as much business men as the few financial magnates who corner the market of the world. These people are as deserving of the consideration of our party as any people in the country.

VARIED PROGRAM ENTERTAINS JUNIOR ASSEMBLY

The Junior High School assembly was opened with the playing of two numbers by the Junior orchestra. "Happy Days," led by Miss Schrader, and a march, "Let's Go," led by Lester Daly. Mr. Evans announced that there were several vacant places in the band, and that, if anyone desired to try for them, he should see him. Mr. Dykhouse announced that all report cards should be turned in at once, and also that people would not be allowed to take part in class or school games unless they had bought their Student Council tickets.

A dance was given by Elizabeth Ann Toibseier, a kindergarten, and a tap dance by Madelyn Lebkicker. After two yells, first the assembly and then just the 7-B's sang the Fight Song. They sang "Plymouth Will Shine Tonight" and then Billy Swadling danced the Charleston. The assembly was closed with two more yells.

HARD TIME PARTY WAS A SUCCESS

"Hark, hark, the dogs do bark. The beggars have come to town. Some in rags, and some in tags. And some in velvet gowns."

But, no, they could not have been beggars, for velvet gowns were very much lacking in the patched and ragged garments that graced, or disgraced, the active bodies of the Senior Girl Reserves and the 11-V boys who gathered together in the Gym last Tuesday, March 10, for their annual party. It was a hard time party, indeed, and the costumes were truly characteristic of the doleful present conditions.

The girls responsible for the pot-luck supper divided the group into partners by matching titles of popular songs. After a hilarious supper, the girls' share of the party was finished, and the boys took charge.

Led by Lester Daly, the group sang some popular songs or, if it better suit, some of their own. Such a wonderful harmony does result when each person sings in a different tone and pitch. Later the senior orchestra played and Edward DePorter and Charles Ball sang "You're the One I Care For" and "The King's Horses and the King's Men," with appropriate actions.

Then card tables were set up and luncheon began. Such a time! Just when a game got really interesting somebody would triumphantly shriek "Bunce," and on one must bounce to the next table or disconsolately greet the newcomers. Still other times, when the victorious shout resounded, just one roll of the dice and one uncontested point sent the holders of it on up.

At the end of the evening Viola Lutermoser's lace pantaloons and plumed hat won her the prize of a tiny crepe paper umbrella, and the toss of a coin won Lyndon Frlitz a sour tomato. Marvin Bannerman got a very cunning doll baby, and Jewell Reinger, a ring. Oh, yes, a very valuable ring, Steve Horvath hit a glass and let her listen. And that was the fitting end of a hilarious and successful party.

SURPRISE PARTY FOR CAMP FIRE TORCH BEARER

A very unique party was enjoyed by the campfire girls Thursday evening, March 12th. Mrs. Sidney Strong gave a surprise birthday dinner for her daughter, Jean. Mrs. Stevens, Elizabeth Nichol, Esther Egge, Janet Blickenstaff, Madelyn Blunk, Jane Whipple and Zerepha Blunk were there to greet Jean as she returned unsuspecting, from the library. Dinner was announced and the girls found their places at a table very attractively decorated. Four tall, blue, lighted tapers, and a white cake with seventeen small blue candles was the centerpiece. At each corner was a small wigwam of blue with painted symbols. These were made by Mr. Strong and Elizabeth. In front of each wigwam was a campfire made of twigs and red paper. "Candle," a very humorous game, was played. Elizabeth Nichol won high prize, and Esther Egge won low prize. The rest of the evening was spent in playing bridge. Zerepha Blunk won high prize and Elizabeth Nichol won low prize.

LOCAL GRADUATE WINS HONOR

A graduate of the class of '28, David Nichol, has been chosen as one of the dozen best students in journalistic activities in the University of Michigan. He has recently been elected to membership in the Kappa Tau Alpha, a national honorary fraternity composed of students who are outstanding in the journalistic field. David is one of the night editors of the Michigan Daily, a student publication which rivals any metropolitan newspaper outside of our largest city.

Another honor that David's friends are proud of is the fact that he has recently been elected president of his fraternity, the Lambda Chi Alpha.

LEAGUE TEST IS HELD FRIDAY

Little blue books and worried frowns mark six seniors from Miss Fogel's American history classes who are taking the League of Nations test Friday morning, March 20. This is the fifth annual test sponsored by the League of Nations associations, which is trying to make the people in the United States know and understand the League better. The association sent out the booklets and a sealed envelope containing the questions to Miss Fogel some time ago.

The envelope will be opened on Friday, and the entire morning will be given the contending pupils to write their answers. The two best papers must be sent in the same day. The best paper of all those sent in from all over the country will give its writer a free trip to Europe. There are also various money prizes.

JUNIORS WIN THRIFT BANNER

Mr. Bentley's senior group gained the thrift banner for last week by an 8 1/2% deposit. This week Mrs. Dykhouse's junior group took it from the seniors by an 8% deposit. The banner is given each week to the group having the greatest number of depositors and not the highest amount.

QUANTITY COOKING

ONE might suppose that more subtle results might be obtained in small quantity cooking than in large quantity cooking, and that the sauce for a king would have to be prepared in a small saucepan—that it would lose its delicate flavor if produced in gallon quantities for all the king's men. Some chefs may be able to get better results when working with small amounts but one very expert French cook, the chef de cuisine of one of the finest hotels, assures us that it is more often possible to produce subtleties of flavor in large quantity cooking than in small quantity cooking. There are sauces in which the merest drop of a certain flavor would be too much for a small amount. In a large quantity of the same sauce you may use just the amount needed to impart the very subtle flavor you desire. And in a large quantity you can use more sorts of seasoning to get the result you want. Just as an artist can often work out more interesting color schemes on a large canvas than in a miniature. Another interesting thing about large quantity cooking is that it is harder to give hard and fast rules as to amounts than in small quantity cooking, because a little deviation from normal in the flavor of the raw materials used makes a far greater difference when they are used in large amounts than in small.

KNOWING THE TREES

MAIDENHAIR TREE

(Ginkgo biloba.)

GINKGO is a tree of unusual appearance, its slender branches extending upward and outward from the trunk at an angle of approximately 45 degrees. The trunk and branches are straight but tapering, the bark dark brown or grayish, smooth in youth but becoming rough and scamed. The leaves are bright green and fan-shaped, and have several short clefts in the edge and grow from alternating short, button-like branches in clusters of from three to six. Ginkgo is a very peculiar, but beautiful tree and often grows to a height of more than fifty feet. It is very hardy and subject to few insect and disease attacks. There is an old Japanese tradition regarding the Ginkgo tree to the effect that young lovers will have good luck by touching the bark or branches. There is a specimen in New York city near the town hall which is the Mecca of romantic young people.

Through a Woman's Eyes

A MAN HAS ONLY ONE STOMACH!

"A HUSBAND is obliged to take his meals with his wife, either at home or outside." That, we learn from the daily news, was the ruling of a certain judge in the Vienna Central Criminal court, who he inflicted a fine on a certain Helen Pokorny for alienating the affections of the husband of Marie Gross. Frau Gross charged that her husband refused to eat at home but took luncheon and dinner every day in the rooms of Frau Pokorny, a cook! The husband declared that no affectionate relationship existed between him and the cook, but that he could not eat at home because "I cannot touch what my wife cooks, and am being ruined in health by attempting it." The judge, however, did not seem to sympathize with him. We don't have to invoke the old saying that the way to a man's heart is through his stomach to agree that Frau Gross had cause for complaint. And far be it from us to deny that a man should eat with his wife. But as a woman to women it must be admitted that the judge's gallantry in upholding the rights of the wife would hardly have been violated by a suggestion that she take lessons from the cook. After all, a man has some rights—and only one stomach!

Lucky Youngster

Notified that a child lay crushed under a concrete block which weighed nearly a ton, six men at Monticello, N. Y., worked frantically to raise it. After considerable labor the block was jacked up. Underneath, the youngster was found uninjured. He had been caught in a depression of the block and escaped its weight.

Brighten Mirrors and Windows

To wash windows—remove dust from sash and frame with a small brush or soft dry cloth. On the glass use a chamolis or soft cloth wrung out in a warm borax solution without soap (two tablespoons of pure borax to a gallon of water) giving special care to the corners of the panes, and washing the outside first. Dry quickly with the same chamolis wrung out tightly in clean water, or with a soft cloth. To wash mirrors and picture glass, use the same method as for windows, being careful to have chamolis or cloth wrung dry.

ONLY ONE PERSON IN 50 PAYS INCOME TAX

That only one person in every 50 has an income on which an income tax can be collected is shown by the returns for 1928 recently completed in Washington.

In other words, about 98 per cent of the American people have incomes which are so low they do not require a return to be made to the federal government or which, if a return is made, are non-taxable because the net income is exceeded by specific exemptions.

The treasury's statistics of income for the calendar year 1928 show returns for that year totaling 4,070,851, but of these only 81 per cent, or 2,523,083, were taxable. Of the total, 39 per cent, or 1,547,788, were non-taxable. Those who actually paid federal income taxes numbered slightly more than two per cent of the estimated population of 130,000,000 for 1928.

The total income reported for 1928 was $28,987,634,519. Deductions were made amounting to $3,701,307,097, leaving the net income of $25,286,327,422. Against the taxpayers net income are figured the exemptions to which he is entitled—$1,500 for a single person, $3,500 for a married person, $400 for each child, and so on.

In the case of 1,547,788 of the persons who made returns for 1928 the exemptions exceeded the net income, so that they had no tax to pay. The total net income of this group, before exemptions, was $4,194,682,822, and this is included in the total of $25,286,327,422 which the treasury tables show as the total net income reported for the year. The taxes which the government received for the year were paid by 2,523,083 persons, who had a total net income before exemptions, of $21,043,634,600.

More than one-fifth of this amount, or $4,451,207,085, was reported by 15,977 persons whose net incomes of $100,000 or more entitled them to be rated as millionaires.

More than one-twentieth of the amount, or $1,108,863,041, was reported by 241 persons having net incomes of $1,000,000 or more.

More than one-hundredth of the amount, or $253,359,358, was reported by 26 persons having net incomes in excess of $5,000,000.

Coming Attractions At Penniman-Allen

"SHE GOT WHAT SHE WANTED"

A dissatisfied wife is like the dog with the bone—she always thinks the man she hasn't got would be a better husband than the one she has. "She Got What She Wanted," the James Cruze Production showing at the Penniman-Allen Theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, March 25 and 26, presents Betty Compson in the role of a wife who is seeking what she calls "the soul of true love." Lee Tracy, Alan Hale, Gaston Glass, Dorothy Christy and Fred Kelsey complete the cast.

Malyha is the daughter of a Russian poet who married six times in search of true love and died advising his daughter not to give up hope of finding that thing that is as rare as a five-leaf clover. So Malyha, yearning of her life of cooking, washing and bed-making, harks to the love-making of her two boarders, Eddie and Dave. She decides to run away with Eddie.

Now Malyha and Boris made a contract when they married that, should either ever wish freedom, it should be granted on request, the party granting the divorce stipulating the terms. So Boris divorces Malyha, specifying that she shall be a boarder in their house—but it isn't Eddie Malyha marries, but Dave!

How this happens and how history repeats itself, getting funnier every time, is told in this mirth-quake of merry madness written by George Rosener. It is taken from a stage play that had a great success. James Cruze directed. Sam Zierler produced and RCA Photophone recorded. It's a Tiffany release.

paying any taxes on their reported net incomes did so by reason of their personal exemptions and credits for dependents, though in the $5,000 to $60,000 group and upward the provision allowing deductions on account of net loss for the prior year was also operative. Personal exemptions and credits for dependents, for all groups, amounted to $11,859,161,374, of which $5,474,177,001 was in the class of untaxed incomes. Net loss for the prior year gave credits amounting to the comparatively small sum of $33,616,475.

"THE W PLAN"

Revealing the fantastic plan of a warring nation to destroy its enemy in one smashing blow, "The W Plan," an unusual war film, comes to the Penniman-Allen Theatre on Friday and Saturday, March 27 and 28. The film released by Radio Pictures, depicts the operations of an officer in the British Intelligence Service, during the World War.

Although "The W Plan" deals with the war period, it is said to have a minimum of trite war scenes in it. The action takes place behind the German lines, and in the subterranean galleries which were part of a reputed plan to dig across "no man's land" and break the back of the Allied forces. How this plan was developed and eventually blasted by the ingenuity of a single man forms a story which has been termed by critics to be "brilliant and excellently exciting."

The few war scenes and air battle sequences are said to be authentic as they were filmed under the direction of Lt. Col. Graham Seton Hutchinson, D. S. O., M. C., who also wrote the story.

Included in the cast is a noted group of legitimate and screen actors. Heading the list of players are Brian Aherne and Madeleine Carroll. Aherne has been seen in "Shooting Stars" and "Underground." Others in the cast are Gordon Harker, Gibb McLaughlin, Mary Jerrold, C. M. Hallard, Milton Rosmer, Cameron Carr, and George Merritt.
