

PRIMARY DAY NEAR AT HAND

Candidates To Know The Verdict of Voters Next Week

Next Tuesday, September 13, Michigan voters will go to the polls and select for the various parties the candidates that will represent them in the final election in November. The duty confronting the voters is no small one because never before have there been so many candidates from which to make a selection.

Probably of greatest interest is the contest for Republican nomination for the governorship. Governor or William M. Brucker has without question waged the hardest battle any candidate for re-nomination ever put up for that office. He has already secured the support of a large number of the state, devoting it of importance to carry his personal statement of Michigan affairs direct to the voters.

Opposing Governor Brucker are three candidates in the Republican field, George Welsh, former city manager of Grand Rapids, James Quinn of Grand Rapids, James State senator, and Arlo Bailey, a Shawwassee county farmer who has turned himself the hitherto candidate. Of these candidates probably the former Grand Rapids official has waged the hardest fight, but he has made no where nearly as many friends as Governor Brucker. This latter is no stranger to Michigan politics, having served in the legislature for a number of years as well as having been elected lieutenant governor for two terms.

Unemployment and an unsettled economic condition has probably resulted in a greater interest in the gubernatorial race than has ever before been manifested in Michigan. This same interest prevails in nearly every contest for various political offices.

On the Democratic side of the house are three candidates for the nomination for governor, William Constock the veteran fighter of Democracy, is opposed by Claude Carney of Kalamazoo and Judge O'Brien of Detroit. The latter is known to have considerable Upper Peninsula strength where he lived for a great many years. Constock's candidacy has the backing of many of his party leaders. Mrs. Ball of Plymouth has managed Judge O'Brien's candidacy among women voters.

For lieutenant governor, Loren Dickinson of Charlotte is facing the hardest fight he ever had to retain the place frequently given to him by Republicans without opposition. This year former state senator Charles Sink of Ann Arbor, has put up a battle equal to this place and many predict that he may win the nomination.

Of interest in this locality is the race in both the Republican and Democratic primaries for nomination to Congress. Plymouth is now a part of the new 17th congressional district.

Perry Richwine of Plymouth, one of the last entries in the Republican contest, has been waging a most energetic fight. He has given practically all of his time to the campaign since his entry and his friends believe that in a field of fourteen Republicans and thirteen Democratic candidates, he may win. He has local home support.

Another nearby candidate, Robert Yerkes of Northville, who was one of the first to get into the contest and probably has spent more time than any other two candidates in an effort to win the nomination. It looked upon as another serious contender. Roy Burgess of Redford has spent a considerable portion of his time in this vicinity calling upon Republican leaders and voters. There are nearly a dozen more candidates in this Republican contest, all hoping the lightning will strike the right place.

Michael Murphy of Northville had a break when the Detroit Circle League made him the preferred candidate in the Democratic contest for congress. There are twelve other candidates, mostly all from Oakland county.

Frank Learned of Plymouth was also given the same highly sought preference by the League for the Democratic nomination to the state legislature from this district. Dr. Bishop of Dearborn is the unopposed Republican candidate. Learned has two Dearborn candidates opposing him for this nomination.

Plymouth has been over-run with candidates for various county offices, candidates for sheriff, candidates for treasurer, and voters for every place on the sun. Some have made friends, some made votes and some have lost votes.

At any rate when Mr. and Mrs. Plymouth go to the polls next Tuesday morning, they will be presented with the largest primary ballot they ever saw, whether they are Republicans or Democrats, as there are almost as many Democratic candidates as there are Republican candidates. Democrats have a hope in this time of depression that the spoils of political victory will fall their way—but what the voters will do remains for the election tellers to reveal.

Governor Brings Plymouth A Message of Better Times

State's Chief Executive Reviews Work Of His Administration In Address Tuesday Noon In Kellogg Park

Bringing a message of encouragement, a prediction of better times based upon an upward turn of business the second over, and a plea for support providing his administration of economy and tax reduction has met with the approval of the voters, Governor William M. Brucker Tuesday noon made the first political address that Plymouth has heard during the present campaign.

Mid-day political meetings, generally unpopular with voters, did not prove so in Plymouth for several hundred gathered in Kellogg park to listen to the review of his administration as presented by the chief executive of Michigan.

Previous to the meeting some fifty local business men were guests at a luncheon at the Mayflower hotel, honoring Governor Brucker. The governor took occasion to thank Mayor Henderson, Supervisor Charles Hartburn, and Fred Schaefer for their courtesy in arranging the affair.

Proceeding to the park, a good sized crowd awaited the arrival of the governor's party.

Mayor Henderson presented Attorney General Paul W. Voorhies to the voters, declaring that the services given to Michigan by the former resident of Plymouth had not only been an honor to Plymouth, but the entire state as well.

The introduction of Governor Brucker by Attorney General Voorhies, was brief, but of a most laudatory nature. Mr. Voorhies declared that the Governor merited re-nomination and re-election upon the accomplishments of his first term and he hoped that his old friends in Plymouth would see to it that Governor Brucker secured the support of this community on primary election day.

It was then that Governor Brucker took occasion to thank the voters of this locality for the support they had given him in the primary two years ago, and immediately launched into a review of his work for the state during the past two years and asked for re-nomination and re-election if the voters approved of what he had done for the state.

"In spite of adverse conditions, in spite of almost constant criticism, we have made progress in tax reduction in Michigan. In the effort to be of service to the state, I have had the earnest and hearty cooperation of the members of my cabinet of whom your distinguished fellow townsmen, the attorney general, is a member. I have had the same cooperation from members of the state legislature," said the Governor.

"We have made a reduction of more than twenty percent in the state tax during two years notwithstanding the fact that we opened a new hospital at Ypsilanti where additional doctors, nurses and others had to be employed. Additions have been made to other state institutions that required an addition to the operation costs of the state, but by the reduction of salaries and cutting of other expenses, we have made a saving that will be reflected in your next receipts. It is no bad that you will not be able to get your tax receipts before the election so you will know directly what we have done. The department officials, in fact every one connected with the state government have worked in an effort to help us balance our budget by cutting expenses. Every one had a cut except those whose salaries were in the lower brackets.

"Michigan has made most creditable progress in state welfare. We were among the first to originate a winter highway construction program to provide work for the unemployed. In fact the federal government as well as a number of other states have now adopted our winter highway program and will use it elsewhere in the nation just as we did last year.

"I want you to know just what your Republican state government has done for you and I want you to know that I appreciate the fine hospitality you have shown me here today. Better times are in store for us and I would like, with your approval of my work, to continue as governor during the time when conditions are different than they have been during the past two years, at a time when our state is more prosperous, as it surely will be."

Early indications are that Plymouth High School will have one of its best football teams on the gridiron this year. The weekly looking records are already making much progress in early season practice and Coach Matheson is leaving no stones unturned in an effort to have his team ready for action when they meet Willard Lake here on September 23rd.

This year will mark the entrance at Plymouth into Class B football and the new schedule will bring the local youths into some mighty fast competition. The Twin Valley Activity Association, newly formed last year, consists of Ypsilanti, Dearborn, Wayne, Boscawen and River Rouge and Plymouth. These five teams would make a tough schedule for any high school but Plymouth is anticipating a strong team this season and has booked other games with Willard Lake, Detroit Country Day School, and Northville.

Captain Jim Williams leads the list of last years regulars who are now getting in shape. Much is expected of Williams this year and he should have a great season at halfback. The center of the line will be well strengthened by Lester Basset veteran center who will play his fourth and final year of high school football this season. Another fourth year veteran is Arthur Bannerman who at guard will be a strong support for the backs. Don Bronson a end and Warren Basset at tackle will complete the nucleus around which a line must be built.

Two quarterbacks are at the disposal of Coach Matheson. Bobby Champ and Melvin Bink, both capable ball tappers and signal callers. Ray Triable will be back at the fullback position and should prove a great ground gather on line plunges for the Rocks. Two other veteran half backs, J. D. McLaren and Mathew McCallum will give opponents much trouble with passing and open field running.

A host of promising reserves are making strong bids for regular positions on the eleven this year and from the amount of excellent material there is to choose from Plymouth should have an exceptionally fine team. Those who are outstanding are:

Grant Miller, Bill Ivey, Wilbur Gray, Harold Chie, Ellwood Elliott, Sheldon Baker, Nell Currie, Kenneth Davis, Alfred Gates, Ellwood Gates, Fred Hestler, Lester Harter, Sam Knapp, Don Melow, Marvin Partridge, Austin Partridge, Donald Potter, Leland Rorabacher, Richard Judd, Sylvester Shoner, Norman Wagner, Harold Williams.

The schedule for this year is: Sept. 22—Willard Lake, here; Oct. 30—Detroit Country Day, there; Oct. 7—River Rouge, there; Oct. 14—Ypsilanti, here; Oct. 21—Ecorse, here; Oct. 28—Wayne, here; Nov. 4—Northville, there; Nov. 11—Dearborn, there; Nov. 18—Twin Valley Activity Assn.

City Commissioner George Robinson Tuesday night elected a member of the Wayne county board of supervisors by the city commission to take the place made vacant by the recent death of Robert Mimmack. Mr. Robinson will have his first opportunity to serve on the board during the October session, one of the most important held during the year.

Local Employees Unite To Promote Interests of Company Here

Last Friday evening the employees of the Pere Marquette Railroad met in Bayers Hall and organized a Boosters Club. Several of the P. M. officials were out from Detroit. Mr. Bickers made the principal address. One of the points brought out by the address was that insurance companies and savings banks hold $4,300,000,000 in railroad bonds. The man who paragonizes the trucks may find his security on his deposits or life insurance policies shrinking to the vanishing point, resulting in much higher insurance cost.

Two years ago the Pere Marquette paid at Plymouth $25,000 a month to 175 employees. All of Plymouth should be interested in a company which paid as much in wages as that.

There will be a public meeting in about three weeks at which the public will be invited. It is hoped to make this a rising meeting with speakers from outside. E. W. Hamill, local Pere Marquette agent.

His machine was hauled fifty feet down the track, the engine being knocked completely out of the frame.

McGinnis said he was on the way to Ann Arbor to see the races at the fair there last Saturday. He was removed to his home in Flint.

PERE MARQUETTE BOOSTER CLUB IS ORGANIZED HERE

DRIVES CAR INTO SIDE OF TRAIN, BADLY HURT

Driving his car into the side of a Pere Marquette train early last Saturday morning in the Moreland road crossing, William P. McGinnis of Flint who has been keeping a race horse over at the Northville fair grounds, miraculously escaped death, but suffered serious injuries. The car was completely demolished.

The train was stopped and backed up to where the wreck had taken place and trainmen picked McGinnis out of the machine and brought him into Plymouth. He was taken to Dr. Patterson's office where his cuts were sewed up and his injuries treated.

McGinnis was unable to explain how the accident happened. It was shortly before 7 o'clock in the morning and there was not an obstruction of any kind to prevent his view of the train as it approached from the west. The train was being slowed down at the time for the signals.

His machine was hauled fifty feet down the track, the engine being knocked completely out of the frame.

McGinnis said he was on the way to Ann Arbor to see the races at the fair there last Saturday. He was removed to his home in Flint.

HUMAN BUSINESS FRAILTY

The shop owner or merchant who finds fault with the way the other fellow is doing business, quite frequently is the man who himself is constantly doing things opposite to rules that are best for the community. Most every line of business today is confronted with some problem or another pertaining to competition. It is really good that the business world revolves on principles of this sort. Without them we would all become stale; there would be no pep or enthusiasm and we would be a lazy and indolent lot.

A community where merchants refuse to trade with one another is a weak spot. Yet there are places like this. The money left at home would be utilized by home folks over and over again. Once it is transferred from the locality to a larger center, it is lost to the pool; perhaps never to return. A sad thought and it reads almost like an obituary. It is slow death to a community. Merchants in larger centers will have little need for spending money in the small town and they don't propose to do so. They are however, baiting small town citizenry constantly and thereby sapping the strength from smaller communities. Why be weak and fall for it?

What can be done about it? United action on the part of merchants will help. Patronize the other business man when he sells something out of your line. If you sell groceries don't look for a cheap wholesaler to sell you a suit of clothes at cost, etc. Pay your neighbor his reasonable profit. He could perhaps buy groceries at wholesale if he tried. The same is true in the printing field. The small town merchant who spends money to have printing done away from home is not fair to that community. He is spending this money with an outside firm that brings little or nothing to the town in question. Surely it is doing nothing to build the town up.—Independent, Jordan Minnesota.

FAITH BUILDS; FEAR DESTROYS

Among the most distressing results of the present depressed conditions and state of muddled thinking are the unjust and unfair runs on perfectly sound and solvent banks.

Ten, five, three, years or one year ago a thousand people put $1,000 each into a commercial bank or savings bank. On their savings the banks have paid interest regularly because they have properly and as was expected put the money, less the legal cash reserves, into secured mortgages, bonds and other approved collateral, to be paid back at stipulated future dates at rates of interest which show a reasonable profit over that paid the depositors, which is the bank's fair hire for many services rendered.

In the regular course of events, barring isolated cases of default, every depositor can get his money back any time he needs it.

But comes now a horde of uniformed, ill-advised, fear-imbued depositors all in a day and demand their money "right now."

This, as any thoughtful person knows, is financial suicide. A proper part of the deposits are out, as above stated, on properly secured loans and investments, and the bank could not possibly pay everybody at once. Result, close the bank; tie up everything; shut down business; break the directors.

And does all of this hardship get one's money "right now?" It does not. One must be content to wait until the state banking department, through slow and expensive processes, can collect the outstanding accounts and pay back a little at a time just as the bank had it not been forced could have done with profit to all.

Faith and confidence, two beneficial human characteristics, inspiring the placing of the deposits in the banks when we were sane and normal and useful financial institutions. Fear and broken faith, twin enemies and destroyers—blindly, unintelligently, stupidly, tear them down in a day.—Spokane Valley Herald, Opportunity, Washington.

THE CHALLENGE OF CHANGE

If there is one thing the average person fears it is to be grabbed by the back of the neck, yanked out of his accustomed environment, and dropped into strange surroundings.

We are born with a dread of change. Instinctively we resist any interruption of the accustomed tempo of our lives. Our impulse is to do everything possible to keep things as they are.

This fear of change, this dread of something new, is what makes the present so unsettled, so uncertain, so discouraging to many of us. We just can not realize that the old order has passed, that it has become necessary for us to adapt ourselves to new conditions, new viewpoints, new environment.

And yet history tends to prove that most changes are for the better. Without these occasional upsets that jar us loose from our smug complacency, tear us from the ruts into which we have gravitated, there can be no progress. Therefore we should welcome change, not fear it. It is the call to battle. It gives us a chance to prove that we are men, not robots.

FACTS SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES

It is not for us to say whether the Reconstruction Finance Corporation is doing what it set out to do or is supposed to do. It takes a keen grasp of finance and economics to speak with authority on these points.

It has been charged that the corporation is discriminating in favor of the large banks and the big financial centers and refusing to assist the little fellows.

Records of the corporation, reveal that 92 per cent of the money the corporation has loaned has gone to banks in cities of fewer than 100,000 population, 76 per cent to towns of fewer than 10,000 population. And, as the result, bank failures in these small places have virtually ceased.

The dissemination of falsehoods is not going to help clear up the present situation. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation has troubles enough of its own without being made the target of political claptrap.

OBLIGATIONS

As the Chinese put it: "Obligations are fetters that handicap and restrain us." Not a bad definition.

Of course there are obligations we can not avoid and which we must discharge as best we can. But there also are obligations which we can and should avoid. Some of these we can never discharge.

Such obligations reflect poor judgment and lack of independence; they question intelligence and moral perception; they impeach character and reputation; they enslave us when we should be masters of ourselves.

Fettered by obligations we should and could have avoided, we can not avail ourselves of opportunity, sometimes we can not call our souls our own.

"Freedom from obligation, except to humanity, is," said Addison, "essential to that peace of mind, that independence of action that enables one to live as he should as a unit of society."

PUT MILK AND BUTTER BACK ON TABLE

What Livingston County needs most today is a fair price for milk. Surrounded by unfortunate conditions, embracing decreased consumption, high hauling rates, surpluses and association assessments the local milk check has shrunk to almost microscopic proportions. The dealers and association officials all scamper behind the surplus barricade as the safest shelter in times of stress. The producer continues to deliver his milk, and grumblingly accepts the many deductions, while another tries to get along as best she can.

The family milk pitcher in the rural districts represents a formidable enemy of the milk surplus. The milk pitcher on the farm table supplemented by dairy butter can do much to stabilize the dairy industry. The dairy cow population is increasing, low prices of farm products makes it necessary to rely upon the dairy cow for immediate cash. These facts tend to lower the prices of liquid milk and butter fat. Constructive and whole hearted use of dairy products in the rural communities offers both cash and health returns to the farm home that admits the idea in theory and practice. 54 million people in the nation are classified as rural, and within this great group there is a wonderful field as yet hardly scratched by constructive educational work in the value of milk and butter on the family table.—Wm. Canfield in The Livingston County Republican, Howell.

EDITOR'S LAMENT

Getting out a paper is no picnic. If we publish original matter, they say we lack variety.

If we publish things from other papers, we are too lazy to write.

If we stay on our job, we ought to be out resting now.

If we don't print contributions, we don't show proper appreciation.

If we do print them, the paper is filled with "junk."

Like as not, some fellow will say we swiped this from another paper. He's right—we did.

The above article does not mention the fact that newspapers make mistakes. Mistakes will happen and we are sorry.—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

STUBBED HIS TOE

It seems that Governor Roosevelt laid himself open to criticism when, in his Columbus speech recently, he presented his plan for reform of the stock exchange methods.

Now, the stock exchange is located in New York City, in a state over which Governor Roosevelt now presides and over which he has presided for the past four years. He has had ample opportunity as governor to initiate the very reforms that he now advocates the federal government to bring about but never has he mentioned any of them in his annual messages.

One is led to wonder if the genial governor is simply fishing for something to hang his political hat upon.—Thomas Conlin in The Crystal Falls Diamond Drill.

THE ROCK OF LIFE INSURANCE

Aside from building up a profitable business that will carry itself, which most people cannot hope to attain to, there are two common ways of creating an estate that will take care of the family of the man who creates it after he is gone, or that will yield a living income for him and his family when he retires from active work.

One is to save money and invest it in good securities with the hope that they will continue to pay dividends and will increase in value.

The other is life insurance.

Four years ago there was room for a debate about the relative value of these two methods.

There is hardly room for any such debate now.

One man worked and saved and invested, and saw his investment grow, say close to the hundred thousand dollars which was his objective. In the early fall of 1920, with security prices still rising, that goal was in sight and he had an income from his investment of four thousand dollars.

Another man had chosen life insurance as his method of protecting his family and his own old age, and he had paid-up policies with a face value of a hundred thousand dollars.

Today the man whose estate was worth a hundred thousand dollars and yielded four thousand a year owns, even if he was unusually wise in his investments, a remnant of a few thousands and an income of less than a thousand dollars.

While the man who chose life insurance still has his paid-up policies, and they are still worth every penny of the hundred thousand dollars they stood for in 1920.

That is because the American life insurance plan is sound, because the great American life insurance companies are wisely managed, and because public regulation of this most precious of all financial responsibilities is careful and efficient.

Life insurance stands out of the present emergency, solid as a rock, like a lighthouse showing the way out of the storm to safety.—The Toledo Blade.

Health Notes

Good habits are the best health insurance.

Irregularity of habits and excesses bring on diseases.

Abuse of many a thing good in itself results disastrously.

For All Who Mourn

That he was dear to you so many a year.

But darkens your distress? Would you he were less worthy and less dear?

That you might grieve the less?

He was a golden fount that freely poured.

What goldenly endures. And though that fount be gone, its bounty, stored.

And treasured, still is yours.

The past is deathless. Souls are wells too deep.

To spend their stored gains. All that he gave to you is yours to keep.

While memory remains.

Who never had and lost, forlorn are they.

Far more than you and I who had and have, Grudge not the price we pay.

For love that can not die.

Soap and Success

Some time ago a manufacturer of cleansing products offered free soap to the needy.

"Why soap?" a cynic remarked.

"The families of the destitute can't get soap!"

He forgot the scriptural line "Man does not live by bread alone."

That manufacturer of soap might have explained that clean bodies in clean houses are the foundations even of bread-getting, and that cleanliness is next to godliness in more senses than one.

Self respect is basic to all human effort, and a little soap often washes off a lot of hesitancy and incapacity.

Some of the greatest men of history have remarked upon the tonic effect of a bath and a clean shirt. The experience proved to them that such things make new men of us, often.

A woman has often discovered new energy and interests in life as she scrubbed the floor, washed the windows, and polished the furniture. Drudgery? Yes, and no. There is hard work enough, in all truth; but if there were no hard work there would be no easy work.

Keeping clean is one way of keeping alive. Even if we must dig, let us dig clean—if we can.

That manufacturer of cleansing products knew his soap suds.

The Vagabond

Give to me the life I love.

Let the love go by me.

Give the jolly heaven above.

And the byway with me.

But in the bush with stars to see.

Bread I dip in the river—

There's the life for a man like me.

There's the life forever.

Or let autumn fall on me.

Where autumn lingers.

Silencing the bird on tree.

Blowing the lime from me.

White as meal the frosty field—

Warm the fireside haven—

Not to autumn will I yield.

Not to winter even!

Let the blow fall soon or late.

Let what will be o'er me.

Give the face of earth around.

And the road before me.

Wealth I ask not, hope nor love.

Nor a friend to know me.

All I ask, the heaven above.

And the road below me.

—Robert Louis Stevenson

Let's Be Friends

Dear, good people, let's be friends—

Now, and till the journey ends:

For thus we'll surely win God's love.

And we shall meet in heaven above.

Let us have mercy and good-will.

Teaching the Master always, till

We reach at last that shining shore

Where sin and sorrow are no more.

Let us be kind to everyone.

Helpful to all, mistrusting none.

Living the life He'd wish to see—

We can not doubt what that would be!

Give to each and all in need

Of a cheering word or a kindly deed.

Keeping our hearts pure, clean and true.

That is what He would have us do!

A Prayer

Our Father, who art the guide of mankind, wilt thou let Thy province bring forth in our own beloved land the fruits of righteousness, contentment, and prosperity? Bless us with the wonderful grace of the Master—with His courage, with His forbearance, and with His sympathy for all men. May all nations be united in faith and hope. Take out of every conflict the sting of bitterness, of selfishness, that a true feeling of brotherhood and cooperation may be felt throughout the world. May prejudice flee away, may all suspicion disappear, and may all peoples come to the knowledge of the Lord God as their Heavenly Father upon earth.

His entire lifetime since the age of three, has been spent in Detroit. Ambitions as a boy, he never was afraid of work, no matter how humble its calling. He prepared himself for the shoe business by learning the trade of a cobbler in the factory of Hazen S. Pingree, which he first served in the capacity of office boy. This thoroughness of preparation was signal of success to come to Herman R. Lau later as a business man and as a public servant.

DR. ALBERT L. FRENCH
CANDIDATE FOR
CORONER

DR. ALBERT L. FRENCH
Qualifications and character backed by actual experience should be the prime factors in determining the capability of a candidate for public office.

The office of County Coroner has been an important one since its inception by King Richard in the Eleventh Century. It is primarily concerned in protecting the interests of the people as well as the state at a time when emotional stress and tragedy exist. It entails a thorough knowledge of medicine and surgery, pathology, law, executive ability and judicial temperament. It takes on added importance in these days of organized crime and calls for complete cooperation between the prosecuting attorney, sheriff's office and other law enforcement agencies to insure the successful prosecution of criminals.

Dr. Albert L. French, present coroner, was born in Detroit and after graduating from Detroit College of Medicine and Harper Hospital engaged in private practice as a physician and surgeon for 22 years. He was appointed County Physician in 1914 and served for six years in that capacity when he was promoted to supervise the County Health Department as Chief Medical Examiner for four years. He was also an instructor in pathology on the teachers' staff of the Detroit College of Medicine and Surgery from 1916 to 1920.

During those ten years with the county medical department, Dr. French conducted, personally, thousands of autopsies and testified in hundreds of civil and criminal cases in the various courts and not in one single instance has his testimony been successfully contradicted or set aside by the State Supreme court.

This diversified experience competently fitted him for the office of County Coroner and the people elected him by a large majority six years ago. He has held this office of public trust for four terms and expects to enter upon his fifth term with the deserved and merited support of the electorate in the coming primary and election.

and they have been discharged by Mr. Lau most satisfactorily, and he is privileged to point with much pride to a record of accomplishment that promises to be generally endorsed by the voters of his party in the coming primaries, and by the general vote in the election in November.

HARRY G. JACKSON
CANDIDATE FOR
STATE SENATOR

HARRY G. JACKSON
Harry G. Jackson, a lawyer with offices in Highland Park, is a republican candidate for State Senator from this district, which comprises the townships of Northville, Plymouth, Redford and Livonia, City of Highland Park the 16th and 22nd Wards in Detroit, and the north end of the 8th and 12th Wards of Detroit; enlisted in the United States Army in 1918, and received an honorable discharge from the Army after the Armistice was signed; he is a graduate of the Business Institute, Detroit College of Law, enrolled in the University of Michigan 1923-1924; conducted a private business, and now is practicing law. His qualifications are such as to merit the nomination in the primaries.

Through Mr. Jackson's contact with individuals from various walks of life, he has become familiar with the economic and social questions of this day which should be solved in the coming sessions of our State Legislature.

The principles which he advocates in his platform can be summarized as follows: Creation of employment for our people instead of charity; further economy in State government, thereby resulting in a reduction of taxation so that the cost of operating our government will be within the ability of our people to pay for such; a more rigid regulation by the State over all banks and investment institutions, so as to guarantee to our people the safe deposit of their money; Elimination of a State tax on real estate if possible so as to foster and encourage private ownership of property; reformation of the workman's compensation law so as to effectuate a more liberal interpretation of such law in protection of our people in industrial employment; an old age pension act which will aid our citizens who can no longer find employment and have no one to support them, such is humanitarian legislation which is needed and will not add any additional taxation to the public; a State movement to encourage agriculture and cultivation of land owned by the State; thereby returning land to the tax roll which at the present time is of no profitable gain to our people. State control over the sale of alcoholic beverages when the 18th amendment is repealed as advocated in the republican platform.

Mr. Jackson is particularly interested in reducing taxation and believes by so doing, a new spirit will be injected in our people, more prosperous conditions will be enjoyed, and additional employment will be created. He believes burdensome taxation to be depressing and demoralizing to our people. We need a man of Mr. Jackson's caliber in our State Senate, one who understands the problems of the various individuals who make up our State government. He is 32 years of age and is sufficiently aggressive and represents the intelligent progressive movement of the state.

Mr. Jackson when elected assures the public that every person will have just representation as far as he can carry such out.

DR. McBRIDE IS SEEKING SENATORIAL NOMINATION
A more general representation of vocations among members of the state legislature is suggested in the candidacy of Dr. Walter C. McBride of 12876 Washington Avenue, whose name will go to the voters at the coming primary for State Senator in the Eighteenth district, embracing Highland Park and Northwestern Detroit, on the Republican ticket. Dr. McBride's many friends in the city call attention to the fact that his academic training and business activity especially equip him for the consideration of legislative questions, particularly those pertaining to public health, state institutions and the institutional care of children.

Dr. McBride conducts his practice of dentistry at 680 Fisher Building, and has a national reputation in his profession. He edits a local dental publication, is Associate Editor of the Michigan State Dental Journal and is the author of a book on juvenile dentistry.

FRANK BRINKWORTH
CANDIDATE FOR Congress

FRANK BRINKWORTH
As a candidate for Congress I make economy the keynote of my platform and pledge myself to do everything humanly possible to help balance the budget by reducing expenses and not by an increase of taxes.

Repeal of 18th Amendment: The repeal of this amendment will save the taxpayers of this country hundreds of millions of dollars, now spent in ineffectual enforcement.

Repeal of Volstead and Jones Laws: The repeal of these laws will restore beer and wines and change what is now a source of expense into needed revenue.

Repeal of Sales Tax on Automobiles and Accessories: This industry has always been singled out for unfair taxation. The removal of this tax will help in a way to reduce prices on these products which will be reflected by some increase of business in this territory.

Anti-Trust Laws: A strict application of same to prevent monopoly in all lines of business.

Stabilization of Prices: To prevent "cut throat" competition would urge the passage of Capper Kelly Bill.

Banking: In view of the numerous bank failures, would urge revision of the banking laws to provide for stricter supervision. Also the passage of a Bank Deposit Guarantee Law.

Reduction of Expense: Would urge abolition of needless commissions and the consolidation of departments to prevent duplication of work.

Payment of Veterans Bonus: I feel that we owe this to the men who gave up everything to go to our defense and pledge myself to work for same.

Tariff Revision: Downward revision of the Hawley-Smoot Tariff Act. Will do much toward restoring OUR foreign trade.

Experience: (In conclusion) For a number of years served as chairman of committee on Laws and Legislation, Oklahoma State Federation of Labor. Served as member of Oklahoma State Legislature and was active in all measures for the benefit of labor, the farmer, and small business men. Joint author of amendments to Workmen's Compensation Act. Worked for passage of Boiler Inspection Law, Safe Scaffolding Law, additional factory inspectors and Pure Seed Law.

Not interested in legislation for the selected few but will work at all times for that which will do the greatest good for the greatest number.

Resident of this district 12 years. Occupation: Steam Engineer. Ask for a Democratic ballot and vote for Frank Brinkworth, for Representative in Congress, 17th Congressional District.

GEO. T. CARTWRIGHT
CANDIDATE FOR Congress

To the electorate of Northville and Plymouth and the surrounding territory of these cities I make this brief statement. There is no doubt but what you have honest and capable candidates for Congress residing in your community. In justice to yourself and the territory that this district includes, you should feel the responsibility of acquainting yourself with other candidates and their convictions and attitudes toward the major problems and issues that are involved in this Congressional campaign.

The importance of selecting a man who will be representative not only of the people, but of the problems of the district he represents and the issues before all the people of the nation as of most vital significance in nominating a candidate who has the ability to fulfill his convictions or at least make a determined effort to have them fulfilled.

Any man who offers himself for a public office as important as that of Representative in Congress should have as a background a thorough knowledge of the needs of all the people, such knowledge can only be acquired after a study of years, not months or weeks. Mere casual observations or conclusions formed from such observations cannot reflect the true status of affairs.

It is because he has devoted many years in the acquiring of facts and information about the people in his district and their needs and demands that Mr. Cartwright submits his name to the electorate in this Congressional primary.

There must be an entire readjustment of hours of labor for at least sixty per cent of the people in this country before we can be assured of a return to conditions as favorable as the five year period prior to the year 1928. Men and women must have employment which they must be reasonably sure of for years, not months; and the only possible way of accomplishing this is by reduction of the hours of labor and in increasing wages to a slightly higher scale than that prevailing in 1925 and 1926. This method will offer employment to at least twenty per cent more people.

Unemployment insurance will be as ordinary as compensation insurance within the next ten years. Properly controlled, and intelligently administered this reform can prove a real benefit to both employer and employee. It is going to receive considerable recognition by this government within the next four years.

Re-establishment of the confidence of the people in our banking system will only be effected through a uniform banking law with strict government supervision and either guarantee of deposits by the government or a government owned financial corporation which will assure banks of immediate assistance during panic periods.

It will be necessary within the next four years for this government to submit a plan to our foreign debtors by which they will be able to pay their indebtedness to us. The ratification of the Great Lakes-St. Lawrence Waterway Treaty is of great importance to this district.

Fundamental changes in the Prohibition laws and constitutional provisions will be adopted within the next four years and sensible, sane regulatory laws for the control of the liquor industry and the revenue to be received therefrom are problems that must be faced.

The payment of the soldiers' bonus will receive attention from this new Congress; and it will be necessary to formulate legislation for this purpose which will not be injurious to the country's general financial condition.

These and other important problems demand that you as a voter use that same care and caution in casting your ballot for your Congressman as you use in your personal affairs.

CANDIDATE FOR County Treasurer

DAVID GORDON
David Gordon, candidate for the Republican nomination for County Treasurer, is making his campaign on 1932 lines, stressing the need of better and less costly administration of this vitally important office in the county's business affairs.

While any candidate for public support can make promises, force is given to Mr. Gordon's campaign by the fact that he has had seven years' experience as chief deputy to the County Treasurer and is more intimately acquainted with the duties and business details of the office than any other man in Wayne County.

Gordon was the first outstanding public official to attack the evil of nepotism in the employment of office assistance, starting his attack four years ago. Recently much publicity has been given to the widespread employment in county offices of family members and "in-laws" of officeholders. That the County Treasurer's office will not be a "family affair" under the administration is the definite promise made by Gordon.

Courtesy as well as efficiency in the conduct of the treasurer's office is the aim of Mr. Gordon. He declares that the office being a chief cog in Wayne's business administration, should be conducted on strict business lines, including every possible economy in operation and as close a control of all overhead expense as a well-managed private business handling millions of dollars annually would insist upon.

Gordon's years of experience in public life not only has made him thoroughly acquainted with the county's business affairs, but also has made him widely known among the citizenry of the city of Detroit and of all parts of Wayne County. From literally thousands of these, he has received personal assurances of their support in his campaign.

RICH WINE
Expresses Constructive Republican Program

Perry W. Richwine, Plymouth attorney, one of the leading candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress in the newly organized 17th Congressional District, announces his platform as follows:

1. The immediate reduction of governmental expense.
2. The payment of the soldiers' bonus as soon as possible without jeopardizing the financial stability of the government. It is my opinion that it would be advisable to issue currency at this time to be retired by annual appropriations on or before 1945.
3. Immediate action on constructive banking legislation.
4. To encourage legislation which will provide the working man with such continuous wages as will assure himself and his family of the comforts of life.
5. The immediate development of the St. Lawrence Waterway.
6. The immediate deportation of foreigners with criminal records who have not taken necessary steps to become naturalized.
7. To proceed toward a mutual disarmament of all nations to relieve the taxpayers of the enormous tax burden of preparing for war, and until the nations can mutually agree and carry out a disarmament program, the United States should establish and maintain such sea, land and air forces as are necessary to maintain peace and tranquility of the American People.
8. Prompt and effective farm legislation.
9. To establish and maintain a system of home loan banks which will make it possible for every thrifty citizen to purchase and pay for a home.
10. Law enforcement.

GEORGE DONDERO FOR CONGRESS

Royal Oak's First Mayor And Former School Board President

One of the pleasing features of the congressional campaign in the 17th district is the straight forward manner in which George A. Dondero is meeting the issues of the day. While most aspirants to this office are resting their hopes in personal appeal and the costly balhyho, this modern champion of the people's rights takes his objective seriously and has thus exhibited the essentials of a worthy legislator.

And in these trying times this is the type of consideration that every thoughtful voter likes to see but seldom experiences. Perhaps it is because Mr. Dondero is nationally known as an authority on Abraham Lincoln, that he so ably advances the ideas of Lincoln as well fitting present day needs.

Like "Honest Abe," Mr. Dondero casts his lot with the producers of the field and shop, advocating legislation that will contribute toward an even flow of production and employment as against the un-American elite.

As a step in this direction this capable candidate proposes that costs of government be reduced in every direction as far as consistent with sound progress. This he offers in contrast to the levying of new taxes.

Mr. Dondero was born in Greenfield township, now a part of the 2nd ward in Detroit, which is in this district, on Dec. 10, 1883. In 1888 he went to Royal Oak with his parents and has resided here since.

He was graduated from Royal Oak high school in 1903. He was a teacher in the Oxford schools for one year and at Big Beaver for three years. In 1910, he was graduated from the Detroit College of Law and has practiced for the last 22 years.

Since 1906 he has been closely identified with the history and growth of Royal Oak. He was village clerk in 1905-06; township treasurer, 1907-08; village assessor, 1909; village attorney, 1911-21; assistant county prosecutor, 1915-19.

He was chairman of the charter commission which drafted the city charter in 1921, and in the fall of that year was elected as Royal Oak's first mayor.

He was also instrumental in the growth of Royal Oak high school, was elected to the school board in 1910 and served continuously until 1928. He was board president for the last 13 years of his service.

SOME REAL PEACHES

Such peaches you never did see—those that Daniel Goakes out on the Plymouth road and C. W. Honeywell, another grower out on the Ann Arbor road, brought to the Mail office this week. Romeo, South Haven, or Georgia have nothing on Plymouth when it comes to growing peaches. Some of the Elbertas that Mr. Honeywell brought to the Mail office weighed ten pounds and over. All of the peach growers in this locality are now harvesting their excellent crop.

Pictures To Show Bible School Life

"It is a little bit of heaven here on earth"—so some one has described life at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. A life lived among a thousand folks who have dedicated their entire lives to God for the service of others and who are in training for that work, must be different from life as it is lived in general.

On Friday evening, September 9, the people of neighboring towns will have an opportunity to see the four reels of motion pictures of "Life at The Moody Bible Institute." F. B. Wittick of Detroit, who is a representative of the Institute, will show the pictures at the Salem Federated Church at eight o'clock. There will be a short musical program, including negro spirituals before the pictures. Admission to this splendid evening's entertainment will be free and the offering will be given to the Institute to further its influence.

SOME REAL PEACHES

Such peaches you never did see—those that Daniel Goakes out on the Plymouth road and C. W. Honeywell, another grower out on the Ann Arbor road, brought to the Mail office this week. Romeo, South Haven, or Georgia have nothing on Plymouth when it comes to growing peaches. Some of the Elbertas that Mr. Honeywell brought to the Mail office weighed ten pounds and over. All of the peach growers in this locality are now harvesting their excellent crop.

Pictures To Show Bible School Life

"It is a little bit of heaven here on earth"—so some one has described life at the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago. A life lived among a thousand folks who have dedicated their entire lives to God for the service of others and who are in training for that work, must be different from life as it is lived in general.

On Friday evening, September 9, the people of neighboring towns will have an opportunity to see the four reels of motion pictures of "Life at The Moody Bible Institute." F. B. Wittick of Detroit, who is a representative of the Institute, will show the pictures at the Salem Federated Church at eight o'clock. There will be a short musical program, including negro spirituals before the pictures. Admission to this splendid evening's entertainment will be free and the offering will be given to the Institute to further its influence.

Why M. J. Murphy Merits Your Support!

As chairman of the Murphy for Congress Club, allow me to make an earnest appeal to the readers of the Plymouth Mail, and to the voters in the 17th district, to be sure and go to the polls on Sept. 13th and cast your vote for M. J. Murphy, but more than that, each and every one make himself and herself responsible for at least five more votes. Please keep in mind that you are not only supporting one of our own, but you are supporting a man endorsed by three million men in the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, Michigan League, Woman's Organization of National Prohibition Reform, and the Michigan Battalion of Crusaders for Congress.

His whole life has been spent in the interests of the working man, and civic improvement. He has always been in favor of the completion of St. Lawrence waterway. Selective immigration, to admit only those suited for American citizenship and America's needs. He is a firm believer in old age pension, and believes that the Soldier's bonus should be paid in cash at the earliest possible date. In regard to the eighteenth amendment he feels that under the present system it is an utter failure, and that modification along constructive lines is in order, with a definite provision for the prevention of the return of the saloon.

I have personally known M. J. as a neighbor, member of the Reptilian Club, and co-worker in the Central Welfare, and I am glad to state that he is well qualified, capable, honest and sincere. Again I say M. J. Murphy merits your support. To vote for Murphy ask for a Democratic ballot at the primaries.

Senate Candidate Has Support Here

Plymouth friends of John W. Reid, one of the candidates for the Republican nomination for state senator on the Republican ticket from this district, are waging an active fight in his behalf. While Mr. Reid was born in Grand Rapids he has lived and served in Wayne county practically all his life. He served for several years in the Wayne county abstract office of C. St. Barrion. It was during this period that he attended night sessions of the Detroit College of Law and graduated as a lawyer, one of the four highest in his class, of forty-two members. A year after his graduation he accepted a position in the City Engineer's Office, Detroit. This led later to his promotion to the position of engineer in charge of the bureau of grade separation and bridges, which he held for five years. Then followed his appointment, during Senator James J. Thayer's administration, as mayor, to the office of city engineer, which he filled for one and a half years.

Frank E. Doremus, then mayor, 1923, appointed him Commissioner of Public Works, and he was re-appointed by Mayors Smith and Lodge, holding the position for over six and one half years, the longest period for any commissioner except one.

For a period of twelve years prior to March 1930, he was a member of the Wayne county board of supervisors, serving four six and one half years as chairman of the committee on roads and bridges.

He is a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the Detroit and Michigan Engineering Societies; member and past president of the American Society of Municipal Engineers, and an active member of the Safety and Traffic Committee of the Detroit Automobile Club.

WILLIAM E. KIRBY
CANDIDATE FOR
STATE SENATOR

WILLIAM E. KIRBY

The Republican party placed a plank in its platform relative to the St. Lawrence deep water way and signed a treaty on the subject. Let us keep the party in power until this treaty has been ratified. Why? When it is through and we can ship our wheat, oats, corn and barley to the nations of the earth at a freight rate so we can compete with other grain growing countries then the farmer will be able to sell and at a far better price. The farmer will then be able to buy the things he needs and the city worker will be put to work.

We should also place and keep in our legislative halls at Lansing men that will keep our State going right upon this very important matter. WILLIAM E. KIRBY candidate for State Senator in the eighteenth district has made a study of this subject.

Mr. Kirby is acquainted with the practice of the large manufacturers, having served in their offices for thirteen years.

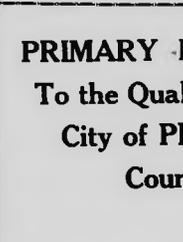

He taught school in his younger days and will keep the matter of education well in mind.

He has been a lawyer for nineteen years.

Mr. Kirby advocates the St. Lawrence deep water way; strict economy everywhere; bond approval by taxpayers ONLY; aid for grade schools to guarantee at least an eighth grade education to all children.

Your vote will be appreciated.

WADE VAN VALKENBURG
CANDIDATE FOR
CIRCUIT JUDGE

WADE VAN VALKENBURG

Wade Van Valkenburg, candidate for the Democratic nomination for Circuit Judge, to fill vacancy in Wayne County, agreed to answer questions asked in the article in this paper of September 2nd in regard to what attitude a judge should take when he encounters faulty and improper laws and what protection should be given the public in dealings with dishonest and unscrupulous lawyers.

For over one hundred years the governments in America have existed on the theory that the departments, namely legislative, judicial, and executive should remain separate, but act as a check on one another.

Mr. Van Valkenburg feels that when faulty legislation comes to attention of judges that it is their duty to report their observations to the legislature and allow the latter to use their own good judgment in the matter.

DR. WALTER MCBRIDE
CANDIDATE FOR
State Senator

DR. WALTER C. MCBRIDE

For illustration: A factory worker saved his money for several months for the purpose of installing a new furnace in his home. After the job was completed, he paid the contractor in full, but very unfortunately the latter failed to pay the dealer from whom he had purchased the furnace and a lion was placed on the home. Therefore there was nothing for the poor factory worker to do but save the money all over again in order to save his home.

Of course a judge must apply the law as it stands, but he should inform the legislature of such unjust results of their laws and furnish them with some idea as to how the law can be amended so as to protect the dealer, but at the same time prevent frauds of the type explained above.

In regard to lawyers, 95% are honest and dependable, but the public must be protected against the other 5%. Perhaps an example is needed.

About six years ago an elderly lady, while walking down the sidewalk was struck from behind by a truck driven by an intoxicated man. She was severely injured and an attorney was engaged to prosecute her case against the company owning the truck. The lawyer took a fee of twenty-five and the agreement was made that in addition to the above named amount he was to have one-half of the amount collected. The attorney never started the suit at all, left the State, and the poor lady was not informed of this until her claim had been outlawed.

The judges and the bar associations cannot afford to allow such things to happen. If nothing else can be done, the latter would be wise to take out insurance as a protection against such obvious frauds. Furthermore, it is the duty of every judge to assist the bar associations in every way possible to keep the legal profession on a high plain in order that all may have confidence and respect for it.

Wade Van Valkenburg is a liberal minded individual and ready to carry out a program as outlined above. A vote for him on the 13th of September will be greatly appreciated both by his many friends and the committee in charge of his campaign.

RIPPEY A CANDIDATE FOR STATE SENATOR

Owen Rippey of the 18th Senatorial District is a candidate for the Republic nomination for State Senatorship to succeed Claude H. Stevens, who declined to stand for re-election.

Mr. Rippey is a practicing attorney and has a branch office, open evening, at 21240 Fenkell Avenue.

While the late Edwin Denby was Secretary of the Navy, Mr. Rippey was his private secretary, and for four years he was Secretary of the Board of Wayne County Road Commissioners. His platform is very simple and it seems to us entirely appropriate in these times. It is: "Pay as you go; if you can't pay, don't go."

CANDIDATE FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS

Edwin E. Brown, for a number of years publisher of the Northville Record, is a candidate for register of deeds for Washtenaw county at the primary election to be held next Tuesday. Mr. Brown will greatly appreciate the support of his old friends and acquaintances in Salem and Superior townships.

EARL K. GULLEN
CANDIDATE FOR
Probate Judge

EARL K. GULLEN

Charles A. Sink is Strong Candidate For Lieut. Governor

Charles A. Sink, for many years State Senator, Representative, and holder of various important political offices, has been a resident of Detroit's metropolitan area for more than thirty years. He is still in his early fifties as compared with his opponents both of whom are over seventy years of age. Mr. Sink has just closed a strenuous campaigning tour which has taken him into practically every county in the State. On all sides, political leads, editors and substantial citizens are backing his candidacy.

As a member of the House or Senate for a dozen years, he has been sympathetic and active in behalf of the needs of Wayne County and the thickly populated area in Southeastern Michigan, at the same time not being unmindful of the rural needs of the state. Mr. Sink worked his way through the University of Michigan, served many years on the Ann Arbor City Council, twelve years on the Board of Education, was Secretary of the League of Michigan Municipalities, has served twice in the lower house, three times in the upper house of the Michigan Legislature, is a member of the State Central Committee, was recently elected by the Ann Arbor post of the American Legion with the concurrence of state and national associations for meritorious and peace-time service, and during the war received a King Albert medal for his services in behalf of starving Belgian children. He has made an enviable record in public life for fairness, sincerity and an understanding of the great principles of government which has won for him a host of friends.

An opportunity is provided now to place in this responsible office a man is conversant with, and who has shown a sympathetic understanding with metropolitan problems, in a career of many years.

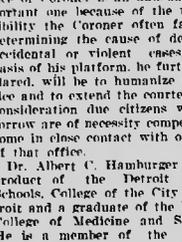

HOW TO PREVENT WINTER KILL-OF LAWN EXPLAINED

Feeding lawns and perennials a square meal in the fall to protect them against winter killing is now the practice of better home gardeners. This is particularly advisable when your lawn has gone through a hot, dry summer and is naturally in a weakened condition.

Most people think it is the freezing of the plants above the surface of the soil that does the damage to lawns and plants during winter. It is not the case. It is the systematic freezing and thawing of the soil itself, which causes an expansion and contraction of the soil and breaks the roots of the plants, especially those with small, weak root systems. This movement of the soil by expansion and contraction is now known as "heaving," states Howard Eckles.

As a protection against these winter hardships, experienced gardeners are recommending feeding your lawn and plants a square meal of a balanced plant food. The application of it on established and new lawns in the late summer and early fall develops strong, vigorous root systems that will help prevent winter killing.

DR. ALBERT C. HAMBURGER
CANDIDATE FOR
Coroner

DR. ALBERT C. HAMBURGER

Dr. Albert C. Hamburger, practicing physician in Detroit for a number of years, filed the maximum number of petitions allowed by law with the County Clerk for the Coroner's office of Wayne County on the Democratic ticket. His candidacy was the result of the earnest solicitation on the part of hundreds of his friends, who felt that his training and ability particularly fitted him to the office which he aspires.

Those who have been privileged to know him know that he is capable, honest, efficient and courteous and a man who is worthy and well qualified for the responsibilities of an official position.

Dr. Hamburger believes the office of Coroner is an unusually important one because of the responsibility the Coroner often faces in determining the cause of death in accidental or violent cases. The basis of his platform, he further declared, will be to humanize the office and to extend the courtesy and consideration due citizens who by sorrow are of necessity compelled to come in close contact with officials of that office.

PATRICK J. O'GRADY
CANDIDATE FOR Sheriff

PATRICK J. O'GRADY

Dr. McBride conducts a practice of Children's Dentistry at 600 Fish or Bligh, Detroit and enjoys a national reputation within his profession. He is a member in good standing in the local, state and national dental organizations. He edits a local dental publication, is associate editor of the Michigan State Dental Journal and is the author of a book on Juvenile Dentistry.

A vote for him will be a vote for unbiased and liberal legislation.

In the placing of Patrick J. O'Grady's name on the ballot for Sheriff, the people of Wayne County will have the opportunity of voting for the greatest law-enforcing officer that the Middle West has ever had.

Patrick J. O'Grady's rugged honesty, and colorful record of twenty-six years of meritorious service in the Detroit Police Department, rising from the rank of patrolman to that of Superintendent, is eloquent evidence of his fitness for the office of Sheriff of Wayne County.

He was a national reputation as an ace detective in his numerous and daring captures of notorious hold-up men and bank robbers. His police pension, honestly earned, he will turn over to the Relief Fund for Unemployed during his term as Sheriff, if elected. He also intends divorcing politics from the Sheriff's office, and advocating an efficient and economical administration.

O'Grady seeks the support of all law-abiding citizens of Wayne County, and will assure active cooperation and fair-minded respect for all other law-enforcing departments in the County. He has an unimpaired record to be proud of, and asks his supporters to conduct a clean-cut campaign and refrain from any political "mud-slinging" whatsoever.

If elected to the office of Sheriff, O'Grady promises to see that all laws are enforced, and also pledges that no special favors are granted to the few. He believes many changes can be made in the Sheriff's office that will save the people of Wayne County considerable money.

He intends building up the Sheriff's office to a high state of efficiency, and his personnel, which would comprise men of good character and ability, will be chosen with a due regard for equitable representation from the various sections of the country. He personally would instruct his deputies in the matter of police work, and thru a member of the Prosecutor's Office they would be thoroughly coached in the manner in which to present and follow their cases thru the Courts.

The People of Wayne County, as lovers of clean, honest and efficient government, should support O'Grady to a voter.

If the voters, before going to the polls on September 13th, will give serious consideration to the qualifications of the candidates, they cannot help but vote for Patrick J. O'Grady for Sheriff, regardless of party.

Charles A. Sink Is Strong Candidate For Lieut. Governor

Charles A. Sink, for many years State Senator, Representative, and holder of various important political offices, has been a resident of Detroit's metropolitan area for more than thirty years. He is still in his early fifties as compared with his opponents both of whom are over seventy years of age. Mr. Sink has just closed a strenuous campaigning tour which has taken him into practically every county in the State. On all sides, political leads, editors and substantial citizens are backing his candidacy.

As a member of the House or Senate for a dozen years, he has been sympathetic and active in behalf of the needs of Wayne County and the thickly populated area in Southeastern Michigan, at the same time not being unmindful of the rural needs of the state. Mr. Sink worked his way through the University of Michigan, served many years on the Ann Arbor City Council, twelve years on the Board of Education, was Secretary of the League of Michigan Municipalities, has served twice in the lower house, three times in the upper house of the Michigan Legislature, is a member of the State Central Committee, was recently elected by the Ann Arbor post of the American Legion with the concurrence of state and national associations for meritorious and peace-time service, and during the war received a King Albert medal for his services in behalf of starving Belgian children. He has made an enviable record in public life for fairness, sincerity and an understanding of the great principles of government which has won for him a host of friends.

An opportunity is provided now to place in this responsible office a man is conversant with, and who has shown a sympathetic understanding with metropolitan problems, in a career of many years.

HOW TO PREVENT WINTER KILL-OF LAWN EXPLAINED

Feeding lawns and perennials a square meal in the fall to protect them against winter killing is now the practice of better home gardeners. This is particularly advisable when your lawn has gone through a hot, dry summer and is naturally in a weakened condition.

Most people think it is the freezing of the plants above the surface of the soil that does the damage to lawns and plants during winter. It is not the case. It is the systematic freezing and thawing of the soil itself, which causes an expansion and contraction of the soil and breaks the roots of the plants, especially those with small, weak root systems. This movement of the soil by expansion and contraction is now known as "heaving," states Howard Eckles.

As a protection against these winter hardships, experienced gardeners are recommending feeding your lawn and plants a square meal of a balanced plant food. The application of it on established and new lawns in the late summer and early fall develops strong, vigorous root systems that will help prevent winter killing.

Patrick J. O'Grady
CANDIDATE FOR Sheriff

Dr. McBride conducts a practice of Children's Dentistry at 600 Fish or Bligh, Detroit and enjoys a national reputation within his profession. He is a member in good standing in the local, state and national dental organizations. He edits a local dental publication, is associate editor of the Michigan State Dental Journal and is the author of a book on Juvenile Dentistry.

A vote for him will be a vote for unbiased and liberal legislation.

In the placing of Patrick J. O'Grady's name on the ballot for Sheriff, the people of Wayne County will have the opportunity of voting for the greatest law-enforcing officer that the Middle West has ever had.

VOTE FOR ROBERT G. YERKES

- Farmer • Lawyer • Business Man •
- World War Veteran •

No congressional district in the United States contains a greater diversity of population and interests than our new 17th District of Michigan. We have farms and factories, small towns and large cities, large residential areas and business centers, in two different counties. To properly and adequately represent such a district in Congress, its representative must be a man of unusual INTELLIGENCE, CAPACITY AND COURAGE, a man with a high sense of duty who has the welfare of the people at heart.

Robert G. Yerkes is the one candidate for Congress who has the comprehensive understanding and experience which the task of representing the 17th District demands. As owner and operator of Braeside Farms, Novi Township, Oakland County, where members of his family have resided since 1824, Mr. Yerkes is thoroughly acquainted with farm problems. He has a personal, vital interest in agricultural legislation.

As a member of the law firm of Yerkes, Goddard and McClintock, Mr. Yerkes has come into contact with a wide range of problems affecting people of this District. He can and will devote himself to being helpful to his constituents in every part of the District, as their Congressman.

As a business-man and a taxpayer, Robert G. Yerkes has the experience, the seasoned judgment, the breadth of vision that this important office requires.

A World War Veteran and member of the American Legion (Lloyd H. Green Post of Northville), "Bob" Yerkes has a particularly keen interest in the affairs and problems of his comrades with whom he served. He stands ready to serve in peace as in war, and will devote his entire time to the welfare of this District.

Error
In last week's col, the headliner was thinking of his offspring, or something, as he picked out a piece of triangle with two legs instead of one arm and one leg, thus changing the meaning of the item, which headline should have read four (4) years old for the Rosedale Presbyterian church, instead of 3 years old, meaning just a quarter of R church's actual age. So we apologize Evangeline and Pearlina.

is being organized by Rev. John E. Contway. The men of the community and country-side got together for the first time last evening. At this early date we can not say much about who's who or what's what, but will next week, the only exception being that it is a known fact that whatever Father "Jack" does he does right, so watch for and listen for the big news, next Friday's paper.
Curiosity
burned the kitty's nose, but it remained for the outside of the community and country-side got together for the first time last evening. At this early date we can not say much about who's who or what's what, but will next week, the only exception being that it is a known fact that whatever Father "Jack" does he does right, so watch for and listen for the big news, next Friday's paper.
King Vidor, who produced the picture, insisted that the raging surf scenes of "The Bird of Paradise" be actual. He directed the sequences from a precarious seat in a swiftly moving canoe, taking the same hazards as the performers all risking, serious spills constantly.
Creighton Chaney, son of the late Lon Chaney, makes his film debut in "Bird of Paradise."
"UNASHAMED"
With one of the most sensational trial sequences in the history of talking pictures, and with a mystery injected into an ultra-modern romance of the youth of today, "Unashamed" comes to the Pennington Allen Theatre Wednesday, Sept. 14.
The new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production is a dramatic story of today, in which its heroine, in her quest for thrills and romance, finds herself in the toils of a fate that forces on her the choice of her brother's life or the loss of her own reputation. Among the players are Helen Twelvetrees, Robert Young, Lewis Stone, Jean Harlow, John Miljan, Monroe Owsley, Robert Warwick, Gertrude Michael and Wilfred North.
"DEVIL AND THE DEEP"
Against the romantic background of a seaport on the north African coast and the neighboring Sahara, Tallulah Bankhead, Gary Cooper, and Charles Laughton cast a dramatic story of love and jealousy in "Devil and the Deep," the new film which will be seen at the Pennington Allen Theatre Saturday, September 17.
Miss Bankhead is seen in her latest film as Pauline Sturm, beautiful wife of the commander of a British submarine stationed on the Mediterranean. This man, genial and lovable to his friends, is really obsessed to the point of insanity with a conviction that his wife is unfaithful to him. His suspicions finally drive her into a love affair with a young lieutenant in her husband's command, and, faced with the proof of his suspicions, Sturm goes entirely insane. The method of his revenge carries the film into a melodramatic climax aboard a sinking submarine.

Start Plans For The Sale of Christmas Seals in Michigan

"BIRD OF PARADISE"
Some of the most spectacular nature scenes ever pictured on the screen are among the highlights of the glamorous "Bird of Paradise," appearing at the Pennington Allen Theatre Sunday and Monday, September 11 and 12.
Three hundred native Hawaiian canoeists appeared with Dolores Del Rio, and Joel McCrea, in the thrilling water episodes. Of those, approximately 100 were the finest outrigger experts to be found on the islands, where the unit of forty RKU players went on location.

How well will Michigan's line of defense against tuberculosis be held in 1933?
Some 57 million answers to this query will be sought starting Thanksgiving Day when that number of the 1932 edition of tuberculosis Christmas seals is placed on sale in the state. Delivery of the seals has just been made to the Michigan Tuberculosis Association and affiliated county societies, preparatory to the task of distribution in late November.
An optimistic prediction of success in the coming sale, and consequently in the public anti-tuberculosis work to be done next year in Michigan, is voiced by T. J. Werle, executive secretary of the Michigan Tuberculosis Association.
"We in Michigan recently observed a phenomenon of nature, in the partial eclipse of the sun, that strikingly illustrates the course of events in the anti-tuberculosis campaign during the past quarter century, as well as its position today," he said.
"Compared to twenty-five years ago, when it literally placed in complete eclipse the chances thousands had for disease-free life, tuberculosis today only half obscures our people from health."
"Will it eventually be entirely and permanently removed as an obscuring and a defacing factor on our well-being? I firmly believe it will. People now understand that just as permanent with-holding of the light of the sun would soon kill all living things, return of tuberculosis to its old position, blotting out health, would mean each year in Michigan alone the indiscriminate killing of thousands of men, women and children."
"That is something we cannot afford to have happen. It surely will not occur as the voluntary campaign against the disease is given its annual impetus through pennies and dollars from the sale of Christmas seals."

Correlative passages read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, included the following (p. 478): "From beginning to end, whatever is mortal is composed of material human beliefs and of no reflecting else. That only is real which reflects God."

Interesting bits of news Taken from Plymouth Mail

It is reported that 42 railroad tickets were sold here Monday for Salem, the occasion being the home coming celebration at Salem. The Plymouth band was in attendance. While lightning and wind did considerable damage west and south of here last Sunday evening, this vicinity escaped very luckily. Frank Tillotson was thrown out of his wagon at the creamery last Tuesday and received some minor cuts and bruises. The curious "whistle" now blows at 7:30 when it is time for all children under 16 to be off the streets, unless accompanied by their parents. Bert Robinson is taking Mr. Bird's place on route five this week owing to the illness of Carrier Birch. During a very severe thunder storm Sunday evening, lightning struck the large barn on the Allen Dunning farm on Plymouth road half a mile east of here, killing a team of valuable horses and burning to the ground all the buildings except the house. The season's crop from 160 acres were also destroyed. Henry Robinson of the north side who has been in England this summer visiting his brother and sister, has sailed from Liverpool home. For Sale—Arlington property estate on South Main street, inquire E. W. Voorhies. Farmers can now make alcohol. The new regulations respecting the manufacture and use of denatured alcohol went into effect Monday. Farmers or any group of farmers can now make it without government regulation or supervision. It is expected to be an important addition to the production of the country.

Road Commission Makes Big Saving

The total tax recommended to the Board of Supervisors, to spread at their annual session in September for all departments of the County Road Commission is a little over four cents on each one thousand dollars of equalized assessed valuation of the County, stated Road Commissioner William F. Butler yesterday.

This amount is made up of the County Park budget of $104,450.00 which is 7 per cent lower than any previous budget despite a much larger area of parks to care for and maintain, and a recommended budget of $78,847.00 for maintaining and operating the County Airport, which is 24 per cent lower than any previous budget. Neither the Park budget nor the Airport budget contain any amounts for capital expenditures, stated Mr. Butler.

Last year $2,300,000.000 was levied as a County Road tax, which is being eliminated entirely, $1,948,079.49 which was levied last year for the purpose of paying off Cover road and Rouge bridge bonds is also being eliminated through the medium of the Horton Act which was passed by the special session of the legislature.

The city taxpayer further benefits to the extent of upwards of another $2,000,000.00 by being relieved of the payment of condemnation awards and the rebuilding of widgy Granton Avenue in the City of Detroit, which task the Road Commission is now vigorously pushing and one side of which will be opened to traffic about November 15th, stated Mr. Butler.

The taxpayer living in the townships of Wayne County further benefits by the operation of the Horton Act which I favored and worked for, continued Mr. Butler. By the first of next April, forty per cent of all township roads will be turned over to the County to maintain and improve, inasmuch as the average Wayne County township road tax amounts to in approximately a dollar on a thousand dollar valuation, this from should be on at least 40 per cent.

With a total recommendation of $164,327.00 to be spread on the tax rolls of Wayne County for the coming year for roads, bridges, parks, parkways, airport, superhighways and Cover road assessments as imposed to the half mill tax of $2,300,000.00; the $2,000,000.00 for Greater widening and the $1,948,079.49 for Cover road and bridge bonds levied for 1932, here is a real measure of tax economy that can be felt right down to the pocket book, said Mr. Butler.

Attractive pictures, poems, stories, and pages of paper dolls cut from current magazines and pasted on large sheets of wrapping paper of uniform size may be fastened together to make fascinating scrap books for the children on rainy and sick-bed days.

MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CO.

"I'M NOT AFRAID TO STAY ALONE . . . WITH A TELEPHONE IN THE HOUSE"

The knowledge that there is a telephone in the house to protect yourself and loved ones provides peace of mind and a feeling of security. For, whatever emergency may arise, your telephone will summon doctor, firemen, police or other help immediately, day or night.

Few things offer so much protection and usefulness at such little cost as the telephone.

Light your way to BETTER BUSINESS

It isn't much use waiting for "good times" to come back. Wishing (as a lot of people have pointed out) won't bring the turn in business. But there's mighty good reason to believe that hard work - coupled with a little initiative - will help bring things back to normal.

Whether or not the improvement in conditions is at hand, now is certainly the time to get ready for it. When the upturn comes, you should be in a position to take full advantage of it. Once things "start moving," they will move rapidly - and perhaps the day is not far distant!

Brightly lighted windows and a well-lighted store are two of your strongest assets in a bid for increased sales. Light attracts customers - it is powerfully magnetic. Well-lighted windows improve the appearance of merchandise and give you a strong advantage over competitors. And good lighting works just as successfully for the small store as for the large. Remember, too, that light is one of the cheapest things you buy. Why not enlist its aid in your behalf?

Without charge our lighting engineers will gladly measure your lighting, inspect your equipment, and make suitable recommendations.

Prohibition Forces To Hold Luncheon Monday at Church

A prohibition luncheon to be addressed by Dr. Ira Landrith, one of the leading speakers of the Allied Forces, will be held here at 12:15 Monday, September 12 at the Methodist church. The price of the luncheon will be 25c.

Dr. Landrith will talk on "My Party Right Not Wrong" and all who are interested are invited to come and hear him. Members of the committee on arrangements are planning an attendance representative of the whole city, and many leading citizens will be present.

Dr. Landrith is one of the foremost temperance leaders in the country and has long been a speaker on the prohibition question. During the past year, as one of the Speakers of the Allied Campaigners, he has travelled all over the United States in an effort to educate and enroll the great dry army, talking in more than five hundred cities. During this tour more than one and a half million people have enrolled as supporters of the Eighteenth Amendment. Millions more have yet to be reached, on his present tour. Dr. Landrith is emphasizing the need for organized action politically on the part of the drys.

For some time Dr. Landrith has been closely associated with Dr. Daniel A. Poling, chairman of the Allied Forces, who recently announced that he and his organization would stand firmly behind Mr. Hoover in the coming election. Officers of the Allied Forces feel that in this stand they are raising the strongest available bulwark of protection. Dr. Landrith will discuss the political situation and the presidential candidates as these matters relate to prohibition in his address here. All men, women and young people who wish to hear the facts on this vital question before going to the polls in November, will want to hear him.

Citizens here who wish to join in the fight in an active way will be organized into a local unit of Allied Citizens, and Dr. Landrith will outline a program of work to be carried on between now and Election Day.

Plymouth voters will be interested in the news that Birmingham at a special election Tuesday decided to throw off its village form of government and become a city. This place of some 10,000 population, included itself as being the largest village in Michigan, but the voters decided that it was too expensive to remain a village and so voted to write a new charter immediately.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Lewis and Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Palmer of Detroit called on Mr. and Mrs. Sheldon Galt Labor Day.
