

Improvements Authorized For Local Schools

Grading, Repairs And Painting Some Of Jobs Approved

The Works Progress Administration offices in Detroit have sent to The Plymouth Mail the following news item pertaining to improvements that have been authorized for the Plymouth public schools.

Immediate construction has been authorized on two Plymouth projects by State WPA Administrator Harry L. Pierson, the work to cost $27,700 in total and provide employment for 77 men from welfare lists. One job calls for the laying of a storm sewer, the other for the rehabilitation of the city's three public schools.

Working three months, 28 WPA employees will spend 5,000 square feet of paint in the school houses, repair 10,000 square feet of roofing and replace all old coping. In addition, they will rewire the Central high school auditorium, paint 50 feet of mural and patch the plaster.

At Starbuck grade school the playground will be ploughed, scraped and graded. New bleachers and seats are included in the improvements. The federal government is providing $13,167 for the work and the city $2,592.

Without the aid of the WPA the school repairs could not have been undertaken as the city board of education has issued bonds amounting to $248,000, of which $10,000 is delinquent, a fire which destroyed the high school in 1916 and the rapid growth of the community necessitated the debts.

The storm sewer project will employ 49 men for three months, costing the city $1,413 and the government $10,693.

School Herd Is On Yearly Test

The Holstein-Friesian Association of Madison, Wisconsin, reports that the herd of registered Holsteins owned by the Wayne County Training School at Northville, has maintained a daily average yield of 40 pounds of fat per cow during the first 247 days of the current annual production test. Three cows in the herd have topped the 400 pound fat mark with top honours going to Waco's Segis with a credit of 448.6 pounds, fat and 1184.7 pounds milk. In milk production Waco's Marathon Ormsby Maid is high cow with a credit of 1237.1 pounds milk and 423.3 pounds fat. During the last reported test period fourteen cows topped the 40 pound fat mark with Waco's Ormsby Senation in the lead with a yield of 69.6 pounds fat and 2049 pounds milk. Two junior three-year-olds, Waco's Ormsby Maid and Waco's Ormsby Priscilla recently completed lactation records of 447.7 pounds fat and 417.2 pounds fat, respectively. Two other cows also completed lactation with yields of 400 pounds fat. These records were made in Class B (three milkings a day).

The Herd Improvement Test is a yearly test including all registered Holsteins in the herd. It is the newest and best form of official test as it furnishes the owner with production figures for every cow in the herd. Such information is absolutely essential to a breeding program designed to raise the herd to higher production levels and increased earning capacity. The Herd Test is gaining rapidly. At present it includes 438 herds and 12,700 cows, doubtless reach 500 herds before the close of the year.

Mrs. John C. Root Is Rebus Winner

Because Mrs. John C. ## Money Lies in Bank, No One Calls To Claim It

Times can't be so hard after all. There is still something over $11,000 belonging to depositors of the Milford First State Bank, which was released under the last 10 per cent dividend and for which the owners have not yet called.

This money should be in use, paying bills, buying something or invested for its owner's benefit and those who have not yet taken their dividend checks are asked to do so. Just bring your receiver's receipt, call at the bank and the check is yours. If you cannot come in person, mail the receiver's receipt of which each depositor has one, for endorsement and the check will be returned to you.

Incidentally there is still $4,000 left unclaimed for out of the first dividend payment last July—Milford Times.

New Basketball League Starts Season Monday

Eight Boys Teams And Four Girls Teams Enter For Series

The basketball league has reorganized for the season of 1935-36 with eight boys teams and four girls teams.

Each team will play fourteen games starting at 7 p.m. Monday, December 2nd at the high school.

Season tickets for one dollar will be placed on sale at the first game and will entitle you to all the games of the schedule and the play-offs. All players will be requested to purchase one of these cards which will admit them to any or all of the games in this league. The general admission price per evening, without one of these cards, will remain at five cents per person, all children below the sixth grade will be admitted free when accompanied by an adult.

The 1935-1936 schedule follows:

A play-off series will be played to decide the championship.

Under the Wagner bill the employer still would be permitted to watch the wheels go round.

New City Directory Shows Big Increase In Population—Books Are Now Being Distributed Here

Northville Also Shows Substantial Gain In Number of People Living There—Much Information of Value in Directory

Polk's 1936 Plymouth-Northville City Directory, listing 10,264 names in Plymouth, Northville and the surrounding rural routes, is now being distributed to subscribers. It is a volume of 295 pages, slightly thinner than the 1933 edition on account of the absence of advertising at the bottoms of the pages, as the publishers explain. There are 2,976 names in the Plymouth section, which compares with 2,552 in the 1929 edition. The Northville section holds 1,592 against 944 in the '29. The Plymouth and Northville rural routes sections list 4,120 and 1,576 names respectively.

The last census taken by the government showed the population of Plymouth to be just under 5000. With the increase shown in the new directory, and basing it upon the ratio that is usually figured by directory publishers, the population of Plymouth is doubtless somewhere in the neighborhood of 6000 at the present time.

The publishers found this a diversified community of 202 different classifications of activities. Some of these groups are represented by several concerns or practitioners each.

The name lists in the city directory represent the only "who's who" of all local persons seventeen and over, and the sole claim to public note of the vast majority of the citizens. It distinguishes married and single persons, heads of houses and roomers, employers and employees, etc.

Other features of the directory are householders' guides, rosters of government officers, descriptive sketches of the two cities, and combined classified.

There will be the customary distribution of the latest Plymouth-Northville City Directory to free-reference Directory Libraries in other cities, the publishers stated. R. L. Polk & Co. maintain a large Directory Library, available for free reference on the premises of the Plymouth-Northville people, at their national headquarters offices, 431 Howard St., Detroit.

Planned by John W. Adams and Harold F. Zimstein, the new Plymouth City Directory is edited by Sweet and Sage, Wiseman and Learned. Max Triska is the most picturesque name in the Northville section. Carl Ackerson is "the top," and Peter Zukoske is last.

Called Firemen To Wrong Address

When the fire department was called to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Knut Anderson, 312 North Harvey street, Sunday evening it first went to that number on South Harvey street, an error being made in the transmission of the correct street address when the telephone call was being made.

The fire department had reached the South Harvey street address when the error was discovered.

Remarkably good time was made by the department in getting to the correct address as soon as the mistake was discovered.

Apparently a match or a cigarette had been dropped into some refuse near the furnace in the basement. The damage was slight as the fire was quickly extinguished.

City Starts On Five Projects Approved by WPA

Sewer Laying, Curbing And Park Grading To Provide Work

After several weeks delay in getting the WPA program started in Plymouth, six projects have been released for starting. One of these projects is for the board of education and five for the city.

The board of education project includes general maintenance and repairs to the school building.

The five projects approved and released for the city includes the construction of storm sewers in Sunset avenue from the end of the sewer to the city wall to Blanche street and in the Tonquish Creek from the end of the 48 inch sewer to the Tonquish Creek; the construction of a sanitary sewer and storm sewer on Hamilton avenue; the construction of a cobblestone wall along the side of the Presbyterian Park and the grading of the park, the general maintenance of public buildings and structures; and the cleaning and flushing of sewers.

It will not be possible to start all of the city's projects simultaneously on account of the shortage of labor in this area. It is planned, however, to start the construction work on the Hamilton avenue sewers and on the park wall and the grading. The Hamilton avenue sewer is estimated to cost $17,076.00. The federal government will furnish $12,325.00 in relief labor, $640.00 in non-relief labor, $3,067.00 in the materials and supplies and $1,044.00 for rental of other equipment. The city will furnish $445.00 in equipment rental and miscellaneous tools and supplies. This project will provide a sanitary sewer on Hamilton avenue from Ann Arbor street to Union street.

The park wall and maintenance job is estimated to cost $7,200.00. The federal government will pay $5640.00 for labor and $657.00 for materials. The city will furnish equipment and miscellaneous material to the extent of $770.00. The work is estimated to employ fourteen men for a period of six months.

The Hamilton avenue sewer job will employ 75 men for a period of three months.

Because of the fact that the projects were approved so late in the season it will be necessary for the city to provide adequate drainage so that the surface water would not be carried to any great extent during the winter. The mere fact that a straight gutter line is established by the construction of concrete curbs will greatly improve the appearance of the street, it is hoped that persons living on built-up areas will be benefited.

It will be the intention of the city to complete as rapidly as possible, so that work can start on the other projects in the early Spring.

Many of the men have already been assigned to projects outside of the city, some at the Wayne County Training school, some at the Atlantic coast where the first Thanksgiving day in America was observed.

Thanksgiving is celebrated in memory of the day when the friendly Narragansett Indians saw the newcomers farmers of the English in 1620. The European cereals failed to grow on the sands of Cape Cod. These red men gave the Pilgrims corn, beans, squashes, wild turkeys, and wild grapes, all considered sacred gifts of the Great Spirit, the soil of America, says Dr. El Bates, advisor in Indian extension at the New York state college of agriculture.

However, he says this was not the first Thanksgiving. Although the feast day held in old Plymouth marked the beginning of the annual event in America, the rite was born as early man sought out his relationship to his creator. He wondered at the mystery of the seasons. This became associated with mystery and an element of fear; and to explain this, priests soon developed a ceremonial history tells of Thanksgiving among the Hebrews; the Norsemen; in the Congo; and in Tasmania as the seasonal waves through the quantities of fish on their shores.

To a simple people like the North American Indians, Thanksgiving was personal and sincere.

Charge Welfare Work Boss With Selling Jobs

Ray Nolan, 35, of the Fordson Hotel, faces examination in the court of Judge Schaefer Saturday morning on charges of operating an employment bureau without a license. Nolan was employed as an investigator by the city welfare department.

Nolan, police said, is accused of selling jobs to welfare dependents. He was first arrested on November 8 by Detective Lieutenant Reuben A. Orr and Detective H. Walters. He was released to an attorney on personal bond for his appearance in court the next day.

When he failed to appear another warrant was issued for his arrest and on November 13 he was apprehended in Detroit by Detective Howard Forman and Walters. On his arraignment last Thursday he pleaded not guilty and was held under $5,000 bond with two sureties, the highest ever demanded in a local court.—Dearborn Press.

Sidewalk Repair Jobs Are Put Off

City officials have been notified by the Wayne county office of the Works Progress Administration that the project covering the repair of sidewalks and the widening and repair of pavements has been temporarily deferred until Spring. This is due to the fact that concrete construction work on the surface of the ground is much more difficult in the winter than in the warmer months and the Detroit officials feel that greater progress will be made on these jobs by waiting until Spring.

Another project which has been deferred until Spring is the construction of curbing on unpaved streets. A project involving this work was submitted last summer, with the idea of constructing concrete curbs and gutters on streets on which the owners were willing to pay a nominal amount. It is estimated that under this project the curb work can be done at a cost not to exceed 35 cents per linear foot, which is about one-third of the actual contract cost of such work.

It is suggested that, in designing their streets improved by installing concrete curbs, obtain petitions at the City hall and have them circulated so that the program can be arranged during the warm months and the plans for assessing the cost of the curbing under this plan to the individual lot owner with a 50 foot lot would be $17.50, which is a very nominal cost compared with the type of improvement.

City Tax Collections Showing Much Higher Average Payments By Property Owners Than Year Ago

Thank God Better Business Is Reflected By Payments

A check-up made by the city treasurer of the status of tax collections for the city taxes of 1935 compared with the same period for 1934 shows an increase in payment of 9.5 per cent. On this date last year a total of 67.6 per cent of the taxes had been paid, while on the same date this year a total of 77.5 per cent has been paid.

The city treasurer has recently rebilled all delinquent taxes and called attention of the taxpayer to the advantages of paying the taxes before their return to the county treasurer.

Those who have not paid their 1935 city taxes still have until about the first of February to meet this obligation. After that date the delinquent tax roll will be prepared to be sent to the county treasurer. After the taxes are in the hands of the county treasurer, a 4 per cent collection fee is charged and interest at the rate of 3/4 per cent per month is also added. It will be of great advantage to pay the taxes at the city treasurer's office before February 1st.

The 1935 winter taxes including county and school taxes are being prepared at the city hall and notices will be mailed on or before December 1st.

The total winter tax rate is $2.95 less in tax than in 1934. This reduction is due to the elimination of a state tax, the reduction of the county tax by 15c per thousand and the reduction of the school tax by $1.54 per thousand. This will effect a considerable saving to the taxpayers of the city, as will be noted when the 1935 statements are received.

New Recreation Policies Set Up

At a meeting of the recreation committee held in the city hall last Saturday night, several matters of policy relative to the winter recreation program were discussed. Because of the fact that it is difficult to finance the recreation program, it was decided that a small charge should be made to participate.

The basketball players are being asked to pay the sum of $1.00 covering a fee membership, which membership will also entitle them to enter the basketball games as spectators during the nights when the teams on which they are playing are not participating. It was also decided to make a charge of five cents for adults participating in the gymnasium and volleyball programs. This small charge will help defray expenses of the locker rooms and make a much more elaborate program.

Party Menus To Be Club Subject

Last Thursday afternoon, Nov. 21, the Women's club of Plymouth entertained the Women's Club of Northville and the Wayne Arche club. An especially fine program was presented to a large and appreciative audience. Due to the absence of Mrs. Warren Worth, Mrs. Ruth E. Huston-Whipple presided over the program, and Mrs. J. T. Chapman took charge of the tea which followed.

The program opened with a lovely vocal duet "Tales from Hoffman" sung by Mrs. Maxwell Moon and Mrs. W. S. McAllister. Their second number was the much loved "Rosary." The accompaniment of Mrs. Goodwin Crumie added considerably to the beauty of these two selections.

Mrs. Whipple then introduced Mrs. George Stark, better known to most of her reading public as "Anne Campbell." The speaker immediately set her audience at ease, with her gracious personality. She titled her monologue "What's the use of Daily Poetry." In pursuing this topic (Continued on page six)

Special Services Thanksgiving Morn

Special Thanksgiving morning services have been announced by Father F. C. Lefevre for Our Lady of Good Council church.

The services will begin at 9 o'clock and continue for 1 hour. Special Thanksgiving services are open to every one, whether a member of the church or not. In fact, he states, that a special invitation is issued to non church members.

Plymouth and Thanksgiving America's Greatest Feast Day Originated In Community That Plymouth Was Named After

Thanksgiving day to Plymouth probably means a bit more, if such a thing is possible, than to the residents of other places in America. The community is named after the little settlement on the Atlantic coast where the first Thanksgiving day in America was observed.

Thanksgiving is celebrated in memory of the day when the friendly Narragansett Indians saw the newcomers farmers of the English in 1620. The European cereals failed to grow on the sands of Cape Cod. These red men gave the Pilgrims corn, beans, squashes, wild turkeys, and wild grapes, all considered sacred gifts of the Great Spirit, the soil of America, says Dr. El Bates, advisor in Indian extension at the New York state college of agriculture.

New City Directory Shows Big Increase In Population—Books Are Now Being Distributed Here

Northville Also Shows Substantial Gain In Number of People Living There—Much Information of Value in Directory

Polk's 1936 Plymouth-Northville City Directory, listing 10,264 names in Plymouth, Northville and the surrounding rural routes, is now being distributed to subscribers. It is a volume of 295 pages, slightly thinner than the 1933 edition on account of the absence of advertising at the bottoms of the pages, as the publishers explain. There are 2,976 names in the Plymouth section, which compares with 2,552 in the 1929 edition. The Northville section holds 1,592 against 944 in the '29. The Plymouth and Northville rural routes sections list 4,120 and 1,576 names respectively.

The last census taken by the government showed the population of Plymouth to be just under 5000. With the increase shown in the new directory, and basing it upon the ratio that is usually figured by directory publishers, the population of Plymouth is doubtless somewhere in the neighborhood of 6000 at the present time.

The publishers found this a diversified community of 202 different classifications of activities. Some of these groups are represented by several concerns or practitioners each.

AGAIN LET IT BE REPEATED

Some two years ago The Plymouth Mail strongly urged that some definite action be taken by some group or organization, newly formed or old, to work out a plan which will in some way "tie in" the beautiful park development along the east and north side of the city's boundary line, with the north and east parts of the city.

Workmen have in the past few days completed the highway development along Plymouth road and Wilcox road. It was over a year ago when the Northville road improvement was finished. This spring the county took over the connecting street from the Northville road to the Wilcox road along the south shore of the newly formed lake and have beautified that.

What the Wayne county road commission has done to improve the three entrances into the city on the north and east side has already added thousands and thousands of dollars to the value of any house or lot located within a half mile of the highway and park improvement.

There is not the slightest question but what this part of Plymouth can be made into one of the most beautiful places in the middle west if there is the rightly planned sort of improvement worked out. There must not only be individual efforts on the part of property owners, but there must be a "community" or united effort on the part of every one to carry the plan through successfully.

Landscaping, painting, grading, tree planting, flowers, repair work, a touch of the right kind of architectural designing to many of the houses and buildings, the improvement of vacant lots, backyards, sign board removals—and before you know it the entire east and north side of Plymouth is a very part of the finest parkway system in all America!

Again The Plymouth Mail puts forth this suggestion for consideration, believing that its accomplishment will not only add largely to the value of all property in that part of the city, but it will be of value and benefit to all of Plymouth.

This should be our first step because of its direct connection with the park. After this step has been taken we should carry the work to every part of our city, making all of Plymouth a very real part of the parkway system.

POLITICIANS "STIRRED"

Some of the great newspapers of the country had much to say the other day about the nomination in the Third Congressional district of Verner Main of Battle Creek by the Republicans for congress. A special election has been called to fill a vacancy created by death. Newspapers pointed out that the success of the Battle Creek candidate had "stirred" politicians in both the ranks of Republicans and Democrats, all because Mr. Main has given endorsement to the plan of Dr. Townsend that something should be done to care for men and women who have reached the point in life where they are no longer able to make a living for themselves.

Well, we quite agree that the time has come for the politicians to be "stirred."

One can walk up and down almost any street of Plymouth or any other street of any community of this country and count by the scores men and women along in years WHO THROUGH NO FAULT OF THEIR OWN have been deprived of the small sums they accumulated during younger days by the most diligent of toil to take care of their needs in the evening of life.

Their little "fortunes" were lost in investments APPROVED BY THE STATE, in banks that operated under state and national charters. When they bought stocks and bonds or put their money in savings accounts some years ago it was with the feeling that "this investment is safe because our state and nation says so."

Along came the depression and these men and women who had sold their farms or retired from their little shops and stores or because of their advancing years, had been dropped from the payrolls of industry and transportation, saw almost overnight their accumulations vanish into thin air.

No one has been held accountable for it all. It is hardly fair to say that any one individual or group of individuals is responsible for their plight.

But the "politicians" who were elected to take care of these things didn't do it. And they haven't done it! They hold up their hands in Holy Horror and say it cannot be done. They forget that they set up the system under which our elderly people were deprived of their all, without the slightest chance of ever again making a livelihood.

Instead of helping the elders, the state legislature and the congress have heaped upon their shoulders an additional taxation burden no one can carry, even their food and clothing now has been taxed. They pauperized a good class of citizens—substantial men and women who helped build our schools, our churches and our communities.

But there is one thing you can be sure of, the state legislatures and congress ARE GOING TO TAKE CARE OF THESE PEOPLE in some form or other. Maybe it will be the Townsend plan. Maybe it will be some other plan like the Townsend plan—or maybe it will be an entirely different plan—but THERE WILL BE A PLAN whereby the tax burden of the state and nation will be lifted from their shoulders and some form of assistance given to the good men and women who helped build this nation but have been reduced to want by its officialdom.

Time and again The Plymouth Mail has pointed out that there is enough money being paid to needless office holders to take care of the Townsend plan or any other similar plan without the raising of an additional penny by taxation. All you have got to do is look about you to see evidence of the truth of this statement.

The writer has known the Republican congressional nominee of the Third district for more than a quarter of a century—since the days when a sister was a teacher on his staff in the Niles schools. The Third district or the nation has nothing to fear from his election. He will be outstanding for his fairness. He possesses a real desire to serve the people of his district and his country. He is the type of a lawyer who WILL NOT be "retained" by some group or association interested in legislation. He is a worthwhile candidate and he will make an excellent record in congress, a record that the Third district will be proud of.

Now that factory employment and payrolls show a surprising gain, more than a little credit should be given to government agencies, who furnished temporary work to the jobbers until they could again be absorbed in industry. Many attempts are being made by critics of the National Democratic Administration to give business and industry the entire credit for recovery. But it is surely self evident that nothing tangible could have been accomplished if Uncle Sam had not furnished the money and the impetus to both capital and labor.

It would surely be an undesirable paradox if the administration, which restored public confidence, should be deprived of that confidence through carping criticism.

Rambling Around With Michigan Editors

GOING UP, UP!
State expenses are today up over a million and a half for the nine months just past, over the same period last year. The fact Gov. Fitzgerald promised to operate upon a "cash and carry" plan and reduce operating expenses. What in heck would he have done had he not the sales tax, the liquor tax, and other taxes inaugurated by Gov. Comstock to put him over?—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

THE VIEWS OF ANOTHER
In pussyfooting this issue (the old age pension) are the newspapers not adding to the tragic worry and confusion of our elderly distressed? This paper, as all our readers know, advocated old age security legislation months before the Townsend Plan was heard of. Every such proposal can only be successful as it is sound and sensible.

To require aged people to spend $200 a month in legitimate fields would, in many cases, prove a greater problem than anything they have experienced in the past.

This whole question is not one of silly sentiment but of mathematical sanity. If the writer had been the congressional candidate at this time in lieu of Mr. Smith—outside of his personal record—we would have the issues (what follows are the opinions of the editor and not Mr. Smith) up to the voters something after this fashion—Muri DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

RANK INSINUATION
We have regretted to read in many of our exchanges, little nasty articles of insinuation relative to some of our Lansing officials. Such insinuations are, of course, the meanest kind that can be said. A direct and honest statement of criticism, we regard as honorable, yea even desirable when made in good faith, and while such criticism may occasionally be unjustified and need correction, it can be done without injury to the criticized or the one making the criticism. But, underhanded blind insinuations are of the type which those of the weekly fraternity should be above.—Frank Bryce in The Grand Ledge Independent.

THE BRIGHTER SIDE
Is there anything more disgusting to hear than the fellow without any real complaint eternally howling? But how refreshing, when you hear the person you think has every reason to be downhearted always presenting the brightest side of life. Which do you think gets the most out of life?—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County Republican-News.

SAFETY
Maybe somebody has got the wrong cat by the tail. Careful surveys show that 3 percent of the motorists cause 90 percent of the accidents. So why get a million signatures to safety pledges? Might as well circulate a prohibition petition in a W.C.T.U. convention. Then four-fifths of the traffic accidents are due to carelessness of pedestrians. Starting from this point the going should be easy unless there is a bridge out ahead.—Senator Chester Howell in The Chesaning Argus.

TRUE, QUITE TRUE
'Twould have been much better if the welfare had always been left in the hands of ourselves.—Joe Haas in The Holly Herald.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST SCIENTIST

Cor. Main and Dodge Sts.
Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of twenty years.
Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism. Denounced" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, December 1.

Among the Bible citations is this passage (I Cor. 3:18, 19): "Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seemeth to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise. For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God."
Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 383): "Mind is the master of the corporeal senses, and can conquer sickness, sin and death. Exercise this God-given authority. Take possession of your body and govern its feeling and action. Rise in the strength of Spirit to resist all that is unlike good."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH

Richard W. Neale, Pastor.
"Thanks be unto God for His unspeakable gift."

Are you grateful to God for the gifts of His Son, as your Saviour? You doubtless have many temporal blessings for which to thank God. In II Corinthians 4:18 we read, "The things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." Eternal things are solid foundations for thanksgiving.

Unthankfulness is abnormal. Psalm 150:6 says, "Let everything that hath breath praise the Lord. Praise ye the Lord."
Our annual Thanksgiving Service for prayer, praise and fellowship will be held on Thanksgiving Day at 10 a. m. The pastor will give a Bible message. Invite your company and neighbors to this inspirational meeting. As the circle of testimony bears abundant evidence to His presence in power to save and care for His own, you will hear the doings of God, in answer to prayer. "The Lord hath done great things for us; whereof we are glad." Psalm 126:3.

The Young Peoples' Fellowship meets each Friday evening at 7:30. All the young folks are most welcome. Attendance and interest in these meetings are increasing.

Sunday morning the pastor plans to preach on: "What the Bible Teaches About the Baptism of the Holy Spirit." Text, Ephesians 4, verse 5. In the evening at 7:30, the theme, "The Rich Man and Lazarus and You!" From Luke Chapter 18.

Before each service and on Wednesday evenings at 7:30 the church meets for prayer.

There is an interesting Bible study class for you in our Bible School each Sunday at 11:15 a. m. We are growing. Come and grow with us!

"Grow in grace and in the knowledge of our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ." II Peter 3:18. You will feel our welcome! Meet with a happy, singing crowd.

The Story of the Bible Told in Pictures

Jesus Walks on the Water.—Following the feeding of the five thousand, Jesus prepared to depart across the sea of Galilee. "And straightway Jesus constrained His disciples to get into a ship, and to go before Him unto the other side, while He sent the multitudes away. He went up into a mountain apart to pray; and when the evening was come, He was there alone. But the ship was now in the midst of the sea, tossed with waves; for the wind was contrary. And in the fourth watch of the night, Jesus went unto them, walking on the sea. And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, It is a spirit; and they cried out for fear. But straightway Jesus spake unto them, saying, Be of good cheer; it is I; be not afraid."—Matt. 14: 22-23. This illustration is from Merian's story of the Bible in pictures, engraved in 1825-1830.

Another Dividend For Wayne Depositors

A 15 per cent dividend, totaling approximately $207,000, will be paid to former depositors of the Wayne Savings Bank beginning today, Friday, William B. Detweiler, receiver, stated. Checks may be called for at the bank today and can be cashed at the Wayne State Bank. No checks, however, will be given out without the presentation of the pass books by the claimants.

The bank will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. both Friday and Saturday.

The dividend at the present time is made possible by a loan of about $150,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The balance has been obtained through collections on mortgages, notes, etc. About 2,500 depositors will be benefited by the payoff which is the fourth since the closing of the bank on June 11, 1931. Three 5 per cent dividends have been paid, one in May, 1932, another in February, 1934 and the last in December, 1934. Ap-

Superintendent, Dr. Halmhuber, will speak.

The Sunday School Board has decided to adopt the attendance buttons for the Junior and Intermediate departments to encourage their attendance at the morning worship service. This is a series of buttons given through the year for attendance that leads to a gold pin at the end of the year for each boy and girl who has been regular in attendance. They attend the preaching service of the church.

The ladies of the church are planning a Christmas supper, December 10.

An old fashioned Box Social will be held at the church Monday night, December 9th under the auspices of the Wesleyan Sunday school class.

The December meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be a Christmas party at the church, Wednesday, December 4th with a potluck luncheon at 12:30. The program topic is "Christmas in other lands." Following the luncheon there will be singing of Christmas carols after which Mrs. Paul Christiansen will tell the story of "Christmas in Denmark." Mrs. Miller Ross will describe "Christmas in England." Miss Barbara Horton will render two vocal numbers. Christmas in France, Italy and the far north will be dramatized by ten girls. Each lady is requested to bring a ten cent gift.

Twelve Year Old Girl Writes Poem

"The Spirit of Safety" is the title of a well written poem by Shirley Galin, the 12 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Galin.

It seems that in the school the little lady attends, each pupil was required to write something pertaining to traffic safety.

Her effort took the form of verse, headed "The Spirit of Safety." It follows:
The Spirit of Safety, am I,
You minded me in days gone by,
Now ignored are the traffic lights
put up to heed

Pedestrians are killed by those who speed.
I have two stories to relate to you
Both of them could be very true.

Tommy was walking to school
Right near the curb he started to play
The school bell rang and he dashed for the door,
A car sped by; Tom is living no more.

Now a nicer story you'll hear
That will not bring forth a tear
Another boy was going to school,
He remembered every traffic rule,
He did not hurry and scurry and raced
Across the street at a very quick pace.

He stopped and looked and listened, too.
Please be like him, when on streets, won't you?

Wayne Depositors

A 15 per cent dividend, totaling approximately $207,000, will be paid to former depositors of the Wayne Savings Bank beginning today, Friday, William B. Detweiler, receiver, stated. Checks may be called for at the bank today and can be cashed at the Wayne State Bank. No checks, however, will be given out without the presentation of the pass books by the claimants.

The bank will be open from 8:30 a. m. to 3:30 p. m. both Friday and Saturday.

The dividend at the present time is made possible by a loan of about $150,000 from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation. The balance has been obtained through collections on mortgages, notes, etc. About 2,500 depositors will be benefited by the payoff which is the fourth since the closing of the bank on June 11, 1931. Three 5 per cent dividends have been paid, one in May, 1932, another in February, 1934 and the last in December, 1934. Ap-

Superintendent, Dr. Halmhuber, will speak.

The Sunday School Board has decided to adopt the attendance buttons for the Junior and Intermediate departments to encourage their attendance at the morning worship service. This is a series of buttons given through the year for attendance that leads to a gold pin at the end of the year for each boy and girl who has been regular in attendance. They attend the preaching service of the church.

The ladies of the church are planning a Christmas supper, December 10.

An old fashioned Box Social will be held at the church Monday night, December 9th under the auspices of the Wesleyan Sunday school class.

The December meeting of the Methodist Ladies Aid will be a Christmas party at the church, Wednesday, December 4th with a potluck luncheon at 12:30. The program topic is "Christmas in other lands." Following the luncheon there will be singing of Christmas carols after which Mrs. Paul Christiansen will tell the story of "Christmas in Denmark." Mrs. Miller Ross will describe "Christmas in England." Miss Barbara Horton will render two vocal numbers. Christmas in France, Italy and the far north will be dramatized by ten girls. Each lady is requested to bring a ten cent gift.

THANK YOU, AMERICA,

for more than a Million cars in 1935

This year Chevrolet has two very good reasons for saying, "Thank you, America."

One reason is that people have bought so many Chevrolet cars that production for the year will reach 1,040,000.

And the other reason is that they have placed a record number of orders for new 1936 Chevrolets during the first few weeks they have been on display.

Chevrolet is indeed happy to say, "Thank you, America," and to pledge continued adherence to the manufacturing and service policies which have won and held this friendship.

SECOND HOBBY NIGHT IS INTERESTING

Attended by hundreds of students and adults, Plymouth high school's second annual hobby night, sponsored by the student council, enjoyed an even greater success than that of last year, much interest being shown by the crowds which attended the exhibit held on the first floor of the high school, Friday evening, November 22, from 7:00 to 9:00. 638 tickets were distributed, of which the 363 sold gained $18.15 for the Student Council.

The hobbies shown were divided into four general classifications of art, handicraft, pets, and collections. Three awards were made in each division, consisting of first, second and third prize ribbons presented by the judges, who were Barbara Hubbell, Jacquelyn School, Lois Schaufle, and Russell Kirk. Group exhibits were made by the Stamp Club, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Home Economics group, 4-H club, agricultural department, library group, Pilgrim Prints, debate squad, and other organizations. Five cents admission was charged, exhibitors being admitted free.

Occupying the larger part of the auditorium, the many collections attracted special attention. Among the various entries in the competition were collections of foreign and United States stamps, Indian relics, sketches, currency of this country and others, old documents, pressed flowers, stones and minerals, toy automobiles, scrapbooks, cigarette packages, match books, pheasant feathers, World War equipment, tropical fish, antiques, chemistry, newspapers, and similar objects. The stamp club, under the direction of Miss Cary of the faculty, presented a special exhibit in this division.

Joe Merritt received first prize in this field, exhibiting four tables covered with blocks of cancelled United States and foreign stamps, first day covers, and special selections from his philatelic collection. His display occupied a greater space than any other single collection.

Second award was made to Charles Saylor, who displayed a large number of Indian relics and money. Russell received third place for his exhibit of curios, documents, and stamps.

The school stamp club displayed a map of the world with stamps from each country, as well as a history of the United States in stamps. Roger McClain was active in organizing this exhibit.

Near the collections was a table arranged by the debate squad, under the direction of Mr. Latture. Plymouth Boy Scouts showed the work of their organization in a large display. A novel touch was added to the occasion by the printing of souvenir cards by Robert Wingard and Donald Mitchell, in charge of the school press. This booth was awarded second place in the handicraft division.

The Girl Reserves presented a large variety of things they liked to do. Some chose knitting, some hobby others chose quilt making and the collection of quilt patterns, while many others chose various scrap books such as music, movie, recipe, poetry, stamps, and home making books. A large number of the girls were interested in different types of home economics including those of dress making, crocheting, embroidery, and the making of samplers. The collections of foreign newspapers and china figures were of great interest. Many, also, was that of old lace and handiwork.

The Drama Club's display proved to be very interesting in its showing of the art of make up chart, suitable color combinations for stage wear, the stage setting for the Junior Play, and how different noises are accomplished back stage.

Embroidered table and dresser scarfs, a powder puff pillow top, and dollies helped to make up the needlecraft Club's display. The Girl Scouts' table was occupied with a display of the various types of knots, map making, their troop flag, signal flags, and Girl Scout equipment.

Members of the Library Club did various kinds of library work such as shellocking books, putting in new cards, date slips, and pockets, book binding, poster making and the checking of the catalogue for subject cards. They also had on display their magazine and paper racks, a number of interesting books to read some that aid the librarian with his work.

A few of the girls chose finger painting as a hobby, while others picked indoor sports such as ping pong and hand shuffle board.

Young artists of the school displayed their work in the music room, where some of them drew pencil portraits of those attending the Hobby Night.

The Pilgrim Prints Staff had a large collection of many high school papers all over Michigan. Some of the schools had papers on their own while others had a school sheet in their city's newspaper. Among those whose news was contained in the city newspaper were South Lyon, Northville, Williamston, and Midland. Northville, and Plymouth high school's news take up almost one sheet of their city paper while South Lyon and Williamston only take up about four column spread, according to the size of their school.

COURT ASPIRANTS REPORT FOR TEAM

Basketball season has begun with a bang here at PHS. A squad of fifty-three boys filled with eagerness to make one of the teams has reported to Coach Matheson. The boys began their first night of practice by doing a lot of basket shooting in order to attain their shooting eye. They also performed the many basketball fundamentals that all basketball players should have some ability in. Before the week is over they will have scrimmages so that a cut in the squad can be made before the football players who have been given a week of rest report for practice.

This year's team finds several veterans back and the Rocks should have a fine season. These veterans are J. Kinsey, H. Wagenschütz, D. Schirfe, J. Williams, D. Gates and J. Gordon.

In the past many townfolks and students have attended games without knowing many of the rules. In order to clarify these rules, Coach Matheson is considering the possibility of having one night set aside for the people to come to the school and have these rules explained.

The Rock basketball schedule is as follows:
Dec. 4—Howell, here.
Dec. 13—Wayne, here.
Dec. 20—Ypsilanti, here.
Jan. 3—River Rouge, here.
Jan. 7—Northville, here.
Jan. 10—Ecorse, here.
Jan. 14—Dearborn, here.
Jan. 24—Wayne, here.
Jan. 31—Ypsilanti, here.
Feb. 7—River Rouge, here.
Feb. 10—Ecorse, here.
Feb. 21—Dearborn, here.
Feb. 28—Alummi, here.

The kindergarten children are enjoying their grocery store this week.

The stories of the kindergarten children this week are Thanksgiving, and Thanksgiving day. They are also making Thanksgiving booklets.

The first grade children are writing letters to Sally Lou Grove who is in the hospital, and Katherine Smith, who has just come home from the hospital.

Owen Kreger and Roswald Fulton are absent on account of illness.

The first grade pupils are making cupboards for clay dishes they have made. They are also making a table, chairs, and a stove, and a "Thank You" scrapbook.

The fourth grade children are making turkeys for a decoration. They have started reading out of the Arlo Books.

The second grade have made Thanksgiving booklets containing a story of the first Thanksgiving. The cover of this is a snow scene of a log cottage made of narrow strips of paper.

The sixth grade children made posters of different books for book week. Ten of them were put on the bulletin board.

The sixth grade handicraft class is making Christmas gifts for their parents and friends.

Ray Trimble, one of Plymouth's former all-around athletes, is continuing his football work at Ypsilanti Normal where he is named as the best candidate for pivot position. While in high school he played for four years as a prominent member of the Plymouth Rock's football squad, two years at fullback and two years at center. He was an aggressive fighter, an accurate passer, a good blocker and tackler, and captain of the team in his senior year. He was the most outstanding at center and in 1934 he received all-state election for that position. Besides being a star in football, Ray was a member of the student council and took an active part in both baseball and basketball. We were sorry to lose Ray but are glad he has carried on so well. In his case, Plymouth's loss is Ypsilanti's gain.

The Junior and Senior Drama clubs will unite this year for the annual Christmas Assembly in presenting a new type of Christmas play, a comedy, entitled "The Christmas Party." This play, though a departure from the usual Christmas presentations, is sure to be of unusual interest. The cast equally chosen from the two drama clubs will soon begin the active preparation. The drama clubs will be aided in this production by the music department under the general supervision of Miss Henry.

Articles for the Pilgrim Prints page which, when all are completed, will be sent to the Plymouth Mail office.

The pet display included dogs, cats, chickens, rabbits, and white mice.

PLYMOUTH DEBATORS DEFEAT ECORSE TEAMS

Winning two more debates for Plymouth this season, this school's affirmative and negative teams were victorious over Ecorse speakers in dual debates held simultaneously at both Plymouth and Ecorse high school during Thursday afternoon, November 21. Plymouth retains the highest debate standing in the Twin Valley Association.

The affirmative team representing Plymouth, which traveled to Ecorse for the contest, consisted of Edith Mettetal, Dorothy Hearn, and Tom Brock. Plymouth's negative team, debating here, included Florence Norton, Russell Kirk, and Jewel Starkweather.

Mr. McGonigle, debate instructor at Flint Central, judged the contest in Plymouth. Ecorse speakers were Charles Thomson, Victoria Tibula, and John Roach. The chairman was Mr. Lansburg of Plymouth's faculty.

In this debate the evils of private manufacture and the possible superiority of government manufacture of arms were discussed. Constructive speeches lasted eight minutes, and rebuttals four.

At the close of the contest, Mr. McGonigle offered criticism of the debate in general, touching upon the defects and merits of both teams. He stated that the debate was very close, and he was unable to judge it solely upon points outlined upon the ballot.

The first time the superior case analysis to the affirmative, but declared they should have presented the objective they offered for the adoption of the proposition more clearly and at an earlier time in the debate. He mentioned that the negative attack upon the proposition was good, but that they did not directly meet the third issue of the affirmative. However, in view of certain weaknesses in the affirmative presentation of their cases and because of the generally superior negative delivery, he awarded his decision to Plymouth.

At Ecorse, Plymouth's affirmative speakers met the negative team of Edna Stewart, Harold Jonas, and Walter Cochran. The judge was Mr. Lynch of Mackenzie High.

In this contest Plymouth recommended nationalization of the munitions industry, while Ecorse opposed such a scheme. The former team pointed out the facts in the present system, while the latter speakers argued the faults of government monopoly of this nature.

Deciding in favor of the affirmative, the judge, Mr. Lynch, stated that both teams had presented their arguments well, although the affirmative lay with Plymouth. He commented upon the superior delivery of the affirmative, praising the debating of Plymouth's third speaker, Tom Brock.

As a result of these two victories, Plymouth still leads two other teams in the Twin Valley Association in respect to debate. This squad has defeated Lincoln Park's negative team, Ypsilanti's negative, River Rouge's affirmative, and Ecorse's affirmative and negative. Plymouth speakers have yet to meet a team from Dearborn which will meet this school this week.

Only two more contests will be held in Plymouth this season. Larger audiences than usual have attended debates so far, and it is hoped that the uniformly victorious Plymouth teams will be encouraged by a larger attendance upon the two remaining occasions. If this school can repeat its previous victories over the other teams, it will win the league championship, as all other schools have already suffered at least one defeat.

The class of '36 has plans well underway for the traditional Senior Prom which will be held Friday, December 13 from 9 a. m. to 1 p. m. in the Plymouth high school auditorium.

As it is on Friday the thirteenth, horse shoes, black cats, luck pieces, and other superstitions will be much in evidence against a background of midnight blue and glittering stars.

Gene Regis will lead his eight piece dance band which formerly played at Blossom Heath, 5th Avenue Penthouse in New York, and over station WXYZ, and playing at present at Saks exclusive club in Detroit. His vivacious songstress, Dorothy Mason, who now sings over WWJ each Monday evening, will accompany him.

High school students and friends presenting invitations will be cordially welcomed.

The seniors having had their pictures taken a few weeks ago have received their proofs. Of course some are happy and some are gloomy they are to pay one-half of their picture bill upon ordering and the rest when their pictures come some time in December.

THE SEVEN HUNDRED

Next week Thursday and Friday the jovial Junior Class of 1937 is going to present its own imitation of the version of Huckleberry Finn. As you may know, this year is the one hundredth anniversary of Mark Twain's birth, and I assure you that in one way or another you will be surprised at what one hundred years can do to a perfectly good story. In order that you may know what to expect, I have been attending a few of the rehearsals. I usually get thrown out after about ten minutes, but after being thrown out so many times, I can get a fairly good idea of the play.

The keynote of the play is given by Huck Finn when he says, "I haven't time to listen to stale jokes." If you don't either, they would pay you to stay home. Huck says, "Before the play advances very far, you're impressed by the fact that the character of Mary Jane is doing an unnecessary amount of running in and out. The disappointing feature of her performance is that every time she runs out, she runs back in. Most of the audience are tempted to walk out without walking back in."

Huckleberry's father got killed off before the play started which is a fine beginning. Unfortunately the author got inconsistent and brings old man Finn back to life in the first act. He doesn't get real lively though until act three when he falls in love with one of the superfluous heroines.

Miller makes a beautiful bouquet of roses for the scream she emits just before she faints. A better way to work that scene would have been to have her faint a few seconds sooner. That would have saved Ireta's voice and the audience's nerves.

This play comes close to being as bad as last year's Junior Play, although it is a great improvement of last year's Senior Play. Don't take my word; take my advice. Come down and see for yourself.

The pupils of Miss Sly's room have completed interesting weathering projects in art class. The class is learning the arithmetic combinations which make fourteen.

The pupils of Mrs. Bird's room have completed Thanksgiving pictures and stories. They are making Indian projects at present. They also made the Mayflower in art class.

The 5 A's of Miss Detweiler's room have completed booklets on Egypt and are doing the same on Japan. The children made window decorations of turkeys. They are making excellent posters about China and Japan. Rosemary Ray has been missed by the room, having been absent a month. The children wrote her letters the other day.

The 4 B's of Miss Widmayer's room began division in arithmetic and are coming along very nicely. They have finished their South American trip and are about to begin one to "Esquimo Land." The A's are beginning the studying of the Platonic Solids. Heller and Paul Zimmerman are absent, but they are expected back soon. They are making Thanksgiving pictures and booklets.

Twelve children in the 1A and 1B of Mrs. Dewane's room made Thanksgiving posters. The rest of the class made a blackboard border of Pilgrims and turkeys. They have heard the story of the first Thanksgiving and have decided to set up a Pilgrim village in the home. Charles Heiseil will have charge of it. Betty Lee is back at school after a two week's illness.

The pupils of Miss Franz's room constructed a fireproof room, complete with beds, sleeping dolls, and a pole to slide down!

The lower room contains the two important trucks. They also made cut paper turkey posters.

The kindergarten colored and cut out Pilgrims. They also colored a turkey, which was drawing a wagon. A new pupil, Arthur Bartell, entered the afternoon class. They learned two poems, "Pumpkin Run Away," and "Thanksgiving Day is Coming."

They are making a Thanksgiving day dinner table and food like the Pilgrims had. The furniture and dishes are from their doll house and the food is painted clay.

The 6 B's of Mrs. Holliday's room have completed book reports and book plates. In art they did Chinese lettering.

The 1 B's of Miss Landon's room learned a Thanksgiving poem for language. They have a new member in their group; Arthur, teach who came from New York.

CENTRAL NOTES

The following pupils received prizes in the spelling contests held among the pupils of Miss Carr's room: Margaret Jean Nichol, Iris Dene Hitt, Dolores Wilson, Maxie Martin, Signe Hegge, Jimmy McAllister, Jean Crandell, and Robert Bloomhart. All these pupils received A's for eight weeks in succession. They received the PTA banner for the month of November for having the largest number of parents and friends representing their room at the November meeting. They have divided their room into four teams for spelling and have chosen Indian names for them. Jack Kenyon's team chose the name of Chippewa, Jimmy McAllister's chose the Big Clouds, Shirley Freeland's chose Hurons, and Marie Durant's chose Ojibways.

This last week the Big Clouds defeated the Chippewas, and the Hurons and Ojibways tied. Marie Durant and Nichol and Beth Ann Heiseil planned the chart on which the scores are kept. At the end of five weeks the two losing teams are to give a party for the two winning teams.

The pupils of Miss Sly's room have completed interesting weathering projects in art class. The class is learning the arithmetic combinations which make fourteen.

The pupils of Mrs. Bird's room have completed Thanksgiving pictures and stories. They are making Indian projects at present. They also made the Mayflower in art class.

Perhaps when you are walking down the hall or street you see some sophomores who look like they have really accomplished something! Well, they have! The bank account was found to be thirty dollars and ninety-six cents richer after the dance of November 15, the night of the victorious Northville game. A profit of one dollar and sixty-five cents was also made on selling peanuts at the game, so all in all, these sophomores really have accomplished a great deal in bettering the financial standing of the class.

Ed Howe: Instead of making an honest fight for honest principles, our best men are compromising with the devil. An honest fight will win; a compromise with evil always loses.

PERSONAL MENTION

He Leases Fair - Buy New Car Now Grounds For Sales And Help Workers

Captain E. C. Smith, well known auctioneer living on the Plymouth road west of this city, has just announced the leasing of the Washenaw county fair grounds buildings for each Saturday of the next three years where he will conduct weekly auction sales.

Capt. Smith plans to sell everything under the sun—but it will all be sold under cover, he states.

A lunch room has been opened up where one can secure a hot meal or hot coffee if they bring their own lunch along. The sales will start Saturday morning and continue until dark each Saturday. Capt. Smith says it is one of the largest ventures of the kind in the country as far as he knows. The lease does not cover the Saturday of the annual fair week.

New models of practically all automobiles are now being presented to the public two months earlier than usual—that is to say, in November or December of 1935 instead of in January 1936.

It is important that the public know why this early introduction of new cars has been fostered by the automobile manufacturers—and it is also important that the public give consideration to their own interests in timing their automobile purchases.

First, let me tell you the chief reason for this early offering of new cars. It is an attempt on the part of the automobile industry to spread production, distribution and sales throughout the year in order to stabilize employment in automobile plants.

Certainly the public at large favors the steadiest possible employment in the automobile business. We believe that if the public understands there is no disadvantage in early automobile buying they will cooperate to give steady, continuous employment to the hundreds of thousands of workers whose skill and industry play so large a part in supplying the country's transportation needs. In other words, we may look upon the objective of the automobile manufacturers as worthy. In addition, if they reduce the cost and raise the quality of the cars produced.

Now let us examine the interests of the public in purchasing a car at this time of the year. In looking into the question, we must remember that our automobile buying habits were formed years ago in the days of the open car—which gave but little protection from the weather—and during the time when road conditions were extremely bad in winter. There have been radical changes in these conditions.

The modern car has a closed, ventilated and heated body which makes winter driving as comfortable as summer driving. Road conditions in most communities are such that there is almost as much automobile traffic on the average winter day as in any other season of the year.

Part of the pleasure of owning and driving a new car, as everyone knows, is to have a new car when it is really new. There's a thrill in being among the first to step out in a smart, brand new model—and this thrill is accentuated by these new 1936 automobiles. They are the finest the industry has ever presented from any standpoint.

Every factory that makes motoring a keener pleasure reaches a climax in the cars now offered for your consideration. To wait is to deprive yourself of the benefits of the refinements and improvements which add so much to the safety and performance of these beautiful cars.

Then, too, there's a decided economy angle to buying a new car in November. Assuming that you have an old car to turn in on a new one, you'll get a much better valuation on it in November than you will after the first of the year. Regardless of how old your present car is today, after the first of the year it will be one year older from a used car standpoint.

Also, there is the matter of getting your present car in tip-top shape for winter driving. Why go to all the expense of replacing worn tires, grinding valves and buying new batteries when, by purchasing your new car now, you can have a car in perfect condition this winter—to give you greater safety, better performance, and more comfort than your old car possibly can give you?

Everyone knows that a new car is more economical, and more dependable to operate in winter than an old one.

Besides, as a further measure of economy and, considering values, prices on practically all cars are lower this Fall than they have been at any other time in automobile history. Upkeep costs are lower. Financing costs have been reduced materially. Recognizing the constructive attempt being made by the automobile industry, most states have arranged to license on a reasonable basis—the 1936 cars purchased this year. There never was a time when you could get more for your money than you can this Fall.

Many important developments throughout the years have made cars safer, smoother, and easier to drive in winter as well as in summer. I refer to such outstanding advancements in the earlier years as the self-starter, closed bodies and four wheel brakes.

The new products we are offering have such outstanding advancements as the Turret Top—which not only adds to the safety of a car but also contributes in no small measure to its smartness—improved hydraulic Brake—which makes braking action so much easier and so much more positive—No Draft Ventilation—which helps vision and promotes safety—and Kne Action—which makes a car so much easier to handle and so much smoother to ride in at every season of the year.

I sincerely suggest that you buy your new car this month if you possibly can. Then you'll not only have it nicely broken in for your Spring and Summer touring, but you'll also have it more

Prize Herefords Meet in Los Angeles

AMONG the many entries for the tenth annual Great Western Livestock show at Los Angeles were some of the best Herefords in that part of the country. Our illustration shows Beau Domino with Marvella Andre, Hollywood dancer. Heu is three years old, weighs 2,200 pounds and is owned by H. A. Baldwin, sugar magnate. He was sired by Superior Sixty-second, undefeated grand champion Hereford of the country.

New Member For Fire Department

The city commission has just approved the petition of Dale Rorabacher for membership in the Plymouth volunteer fire department. Mr. Rorabacher will fill the vacancy created by the resignation of Carl Greenlee, who was appointed to the police department last summer.

It is the custom of the fire department to accept new members by petition only. The petitions are first acted upon by present members of the fire department and then submitted to the commission for their approval.

The volunteer fire department now consists of fifteen men, and it is the plan of the department and the city commission to maintain the same high standard of personnel and efficiency that has prevailed for the many years of existence of the Department.

Provide Way To Aid Farm Debts

The Resettlement Administration has recently provided a Federally Supervised Farm Debt Adjustment service for each county in Michigan, it was announced at Madison today by R. I. Nowell, Regional Director for Region II, consisting of Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

This service contemplates a fair and impartial adjustment of the farmer's debts, based upon his assets and his ability to pay.

Such adjustment is a distinctly beneficial service to the debtor, the creditor and the community. Farmers who have been unable to refinance their real estate indebtedness should be especially interested in the program. Difficulties due to chattel mortgages and farm leases also will be considered. Further details concerning the program are expected soon.

In the meantime, farmers whose debt problems are distressing them, can receive immediate attention by writing or calling at the county agent's office or by addressing the Debt Adjustment Unit, Resettlement Administration, 401 Mutual Building, Lansing.

The service is directed from Regional Headquarters at Madison, Wisconsin, with W. T. Perrier in charge. District Supervisors under the direction of Clarence H. Wright, Regional Specialist at Lansing, will assist local county committees in carrying out the program.

Automobile Titles Will Be In New Form

Within a relatively short time, the familiar long yellow sheet on which titles to the more than 2 million motor vehicles in the state are registered will disappear, to be replaced by a new form about half the size of the present one. The new form will be on paper watermarked with the state seal, and printed in a matter on a faint gray background carrying an intricate design which would instantly betray any attempt to alter original writing. The new form will be virtually white. Sample copies were sent this week by Orville E. Atwood, Secretary of State, to sheriffs and police officials to familiarize them with the new form.

Another important change in the form is reservation of space in which "sticker" and license numbers for successive years will be written. Heretofore, license numbers for successive years have been endorsed on any available space on the face of the title. The new form contains space for recording of "sticker" and license numbers for 1935 to 1940 inclusive.

The primary reason for changing the size of the title is so that copies for filing in the Department of State can be made easily by photostatic process from original titles, a device for saving time and positively eliminating possibility of error in copying detailed information to forms now used for filing.

The present yellow forms have been in use for five years; prior to then, titles were printed on green tinted bond.

Opossum Hunter Having Good Luck

William Tegge, well known Plymouth barber, didn't go north deer hunting this year, nor last year, but Mr. Tegge has been having some of the finest sport during the past few weeks that any hunter could possibly have.

He has been hunting opossum and he has been having mighty good luck.

Hunting opossum in Michigan! Sure, right out around Cherry Hill and southwest of Salem, there is as good opossum hunting as any man could desire.

Saturday night while out for two or three hours, he bagged two nice ones, one weighing over ten pounds. Of course ten pounds isn't much for a southern bred opossum, but for one that has come to Michigan to live, it is a good sized one.

Not only has he been bagging opossum nearly every time he goes out hunting, but a few nights ago he shot a 20 pound coon.

Mr. Tegge declares that several others have had good luck hunting opossum in this section. Apparently they have migrated into this locality from the south as they were unknown in southern Michigan until recent years. Now they are becoming more common than coons.

Abe Goldstein Is Man of Good Luck

Abe Goldstein of the Goldstein Department store, is wearing a horseshoe right around his neck, these days.

He not only has had good luck, he says, but he intends to keep on having that same good luck.

When he read in The Plymouth Mail last week an account of some fellow who was posing as an engineer for the state highway department robbing several merchants in Plymouth, Wixom, and Novi, he recalled that the same individual had come to his store, ordered a half dozen pair of good woolen socks, some heavy flannel shirts, two jackets and numerous other articles that totalled a considerable amount of money in value.

The goods were all wrapped up nicely and Abe said these came to "so much."

"Now you just send the bill down to me at the highway office and it will be taken care of next pay day," said the phoney engineer.

"But I need the cash," said Abe. "Oh, that will be alright, you'll get it O.K.," said the would-be buyer.

Well, now I tell you what to do. I know Mr. McKenna down at the highway office very well. You go get from him a letter saying you are alright and you can have the goods," said Abe as he laid the package back on the counter.

"That's easy. I'll be right back," said the shopper.

Minutes went by, hours, then days and the package laid back of Abe's counter until he read the article in The Mail about what had happened. He's going to keep that horseshoe.

We believe it will be a long time before the people of this country will follow the leadership of the theorists and college economists into government ownership for America.

Large Addition To Sutherlands

Workmen have started the construction of a 1400 square foot addition to the Sutherland Greenhouses on Plymouth road, just west of South Main street.

When the addition is completed, the Sutherlands will have over 20,000 square feet of space under cover of glass. While it is not one of the largest greenhouses about here, it is rapidly becoming so.

The new addition is being built to the west of the present structures. Besides this greenhouse, which will be 14x100 feet, other improvements are being made about the greenhouse which add considerably to its growing capacity and convenience in handling the thousands and thousands of plants and flowers produced each year.

Short Termers Now Dig Ditches

Blake Gillis, assistant superintendent of the Detroit House of Correction, is having no trouble in finding work for the short-term prisoners who are being sent at the rate of a dozen to two dozen a day from Detroit for traffic violations.

"We just give 'em a pick and a shovel and put them out digging ditches. You know we've got a lot of land out around the Detroit House of Correction that must be drained and these fellows who burn up the streets of Detroit and run into safety zones make pretty good men on the end of a No. 2 shovel or swinging a pick-axe," stated Mr. Gillis the other day when asked what they were doing with the sudden influx of population at the institution.

For Your THANKSGIVING Table

Steadily increasing interest is being shown these days in private flying as well as in Commercial aviation, indicated by the number of new students learning to fly.

To fill the need of Private and Student flyers, The Wayne County Flying Service announce the purchase of a new enclosed radial Aeromarine Taylor Cub airplane. Wayne County Airport located at Goddard and Middle Belt roads is one of the finest airports in the country and is ideal for the student as well as the experienced pilot.

William (Bill) Jones a licensed student instructor and Transport Pilot and an employee at the airport for the past five years has been named in charge of flying operations and student instructions.

"The morning after" feeling wouldn't be so bad if it weren't for its tendency to last all day and into the following night.

"Party Menus"

she read many of her poems. They were not only read well, but were so close to the daily experience of us all, we were brought into a closer kinship with their author and each other. The emotions she evoked as she recited her poems of the "busy mother shaping souls," of "the baby boy's first hair cut," of herself cleaning "chimneys" of "Grandma's hour," were a mixture of smiles and tears.

Three of her poems were most inspiring in their message. "The Goal is there," "Let's Pretend," and "Thou Hast Remembered Me." She closed her afternoon's recital with a recital of her most popular verse "Companionship."

Everyone was sorry when she stopped, time seemed to have gone by on wings.

Miss Barbara Horton, accompanied by Mrs. M. J. O'Connor, sang two unusual numbers. The first was a Russian song by Rachmaninoff "To the Children." Its melancholy theme and plaintive tune suited Miss Horton's voice especially. She followed this with "The Florian Song." Both songs were beautifully sung and accompanied.

The tea which followed gave ample opportunity for the ladies present to meet Mrs. George Stark. A happy social time followed during which everyone refreshed themselves at one of the two artistically appointed tea tables. Mrs. George Stark, Mrs. Ray Johns, Mrs. Edson Huston, and Mrs. Maxwell Moon poured.

The committees of Mrs. Russell Roe and Mrs. L. P. Cookingham assisted Mrs. Warren Worth's committee in providing the dainty refreshments for the afternoon. These three committees should feel their efforts were highly successful for the entire program was extremely pleasant.

The next program is in charge of Mrs. Fred Winkler. A discussion of "Party Menus" will be given by Miss Marguerite Pressnell, demonstrator for the Detroit Edison and head of the Detroit Edison Home Service Department. Undoubtedly Miss Pressnell will give us many excellent suggestions for the coming holiday season. Her subject is the date and the time is as usual.

An unusual treat is in store for the members of the Woman's club on Tuesday, December 3rd. The club has been received from the Redford Child Study Club requesting the Plymouth Woman's club to be their guests on Tuesday, December 3rd at 1:30 at the Redford Ave. Presbyterian Church House, 17232 Redford Ave.

Mrs. Frederick B. Fisher of the Central Methodist Church of Detroit will speak on "Mothers of Other Lands." Her experience in foreign lands will furnish first hand information on this subject. There will also be a children's chorus from the Don Eubert School.

It is hoped that a large group of women will avail themselves of this opportunity and show their appreciation of this kind invitation. Those who plan to go are urged to get in touch with their chairman who will help arrange the transportation.

Plymouth Girl Learns To Fly

And Jump To Earth In Parachute

MISS MARGARET HASKELL
Courtesy The Detroit News

Education these days comprises about everything under the sun—even to parachute jumping and flying. That is the conclusion, anyway, that Dr. and Mrs. Robert Haskell of the Wayne County Training school have come to.

The other day news reports carried an article from Painesville, Ohio, where their daughter Miss Margaret Haskell, is a student at Lake Erie College, telling of the proficiency she was making in the art of flying.

The parents were somewhat amazed a day or so ago when they were advised that a news reel had been taken of their daughter as she tumbled through the air from a distance of several thousand feet in a parachute.

She made a safe landing—as the picture shows—but as the parachute opened, she dangled headfirst towards the earth for a time before she was able to righten herself on the ropes that held her securely to the parachute.

Of course the parents had been advised sometime ago that their daughter wanted to take the new course in aviation which had been started at the school. In fact before she could enroll in the class it was necessary for her to have their consent, which was given.

Miss Haskell, who is a graduate of the Plymouth high school with the class of 1932, before she was permitted to take to the air, was required to take a thorough course in aviation ground work, studying weather conditions and learning fundamentals in flying. There are 30 other girls taking the course.

If you must use a hammer—build a house.

A modern food expert is one who can look at a calf and tell how many chicken sandwiches it will make.

The open air crank should take up aviation. He'll get all the open air he can stand, a good deal quicker than he can by using his sleeping porch.

Lodge Is Pleased Over Good Show

Members of the IOOF lodge who sponsored that excellent production "Non-vision Island" which was presented two nights last week, Wednesday and Thursday evenings are highly satisfied with the excellent show that was put on by the Stagecrafters of Detroit.

While the venture was not a money making success, and bills were paid because of the liberality of the producers, the sponsors are highly pleased over the satisfaction that has been expressed pertaining to the show itself.

The committee in charge has expressed its appreciation over all of the assistance given in the effort to make the event a successful one.

First Touch Of Winter Weather

Plymouth residents felt the first real touch of winter last week-end when the mercury dropped to near 20 above for two nights and remained very close to that figure during a part of Friday.

Saturday a bright sun warmed up conditions a bit. The ground froze down to a depth of three or four inches.

Garages and service stations did a good business, but some thoughtful motorists who failed to put anti-freeze in the radiators of their cars had to go to the trouble of having them thawed out.

The cold weather brought an end to the long rainy spell that this part of the state had been experiencing.

Snow fell last Thursday afternoon for a time, but it melted almost as fast as it hit the ground.

The Thanksgiving Feast
Who says America has no traditions? Whoever it is has never heard of Thanksgiving, the one holiday that's all ours. It's the very stuff of which tradition is made.

More than 300 years ago the stalwart Pilgrims set aside a day at the end of the harvest to give thanks for the bounty that had followed the lean winter of their fear and sickness. And every year since the American people have set aside a day for Thanksgiving. A day when the whole family gathers to give thanks. A day that looms large in our memories of the past. Crisp cold weather and a roaring fire inside. And a dinner that surpassed the glories of the feasts of the Romans. A huge golden brown turkey roasted to a turn, mounds of baked squash, lakes of cranberry sauce, scores of relishes and jams, and at least three kinds of pie. Remember those groaning boards of your youth?

And today we still observe those traditions. As many of the family as possible can come home for the day. And the feast is still dominated by turkey, king of birds. After that we can go as far as we like with new touches, but the real center of the feast is still turkey. Let your vegetables be what you like best, start the meal with a cocktail instead of soup, even replace the pie with your favorite dessert, but serve turkey, or you really haven't a Thanksgiving Feast. Yet you won't have to spend days and days in preparation if you use the menu below. It's very festive and keeps to tradition.

Hot Spiced Tomato Juice
Roast Turkey
Garnished with Spiced Pineapple Rings
Squash
Glazed Onions
Cranberry Sauce
Lettuce Salad with French Dressing
Nothing filling is needed at this point. You know it.

Baked Indian Pudding
4 cups milk
8 tablespoons cornmeal
2 tablespoons butter
1 cup dark molasses
1 teaspoon salt
1-2 teaspoon ginger
2 eggs
Heat milk in double boiler. Moisten cornmeal and stir into scalded milk and cook, stirring constantly, for twenty minutes. Take from fire and add butter molasses, salt and ginger. Beat eggs well and add to first mixture. Pour into a greased pudding dish and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for two hours. Stir three or four times during the baking, adding a tablespoonful of cream each time.

Hints about cooking the Turkey (not that you probably don't know all there is to know about this art, but just for instance):

Wipe bird with damp cloth both inside and out.

Fill cavity with stuffing and sew up slit.

Truss-fold neck skin over the back and fasten down by crossing wings over back. The legs together and tie down to tail.

Brush bird liberally with melted butter to tenderize the skin and give it that tempting glaze. Tuck a quarter apple under each wing and leg. Place, breast-down, on roasting rack and seal in hot oven (475 degrees) reduce heat to 250 degrees and roast until tender, allowing 15 to 20 minutes for each pound.

Of First Importance
Breakfasts are of very first importance. They set the tempo for the day, and fortify your family for all the trials and tribulations that may meet them. They should provide energy and alertness and tempt sluggish morning appetites.

I know, it's terribly hard to be bright and cheerful and to prepare a heartening breakfast when you're only one eye open. But it seems to be one of those things that have to be done. It's really not nearly so hard as you would think if you get everything ready the night before. The table can be set with a bright peasant cloth and the prettiest dishes for cheer. And if the sunlight shines in a corner of the dining room it helps a lot if you set your table there. The cereal can be cooked and the fruit prepared the night before and that helps a lot too. And do plan your breakfasts carefully so that there will be some variety. And have something hot these chilly mornings besides the coffee or cereal. With hot, delicious food inside it's easy to face the day and you'll feel a lot more like attacking the usual household tasks if you've had a tempting and nourishing breakfast.

Here are a few easy and really delectable dishes to serve for breakfast.

Apple Rings with Baby Sausages
Instead of frying the rings in butter, fry them in the sausage fat. They're delicious and oh, so tempting looking. Just core and slice the apples as usual, dip in egg, roll in breadcrumbs and pop them in the pan the sausages have just left.

Pop-overs and Creamed Chipped Beef
The beef can be creamed the night before and just heated up in the double boiler. Take your popovers from the oven at the peak of their success and cut their tops off, butter them and fill their cavities with creamed beef. Replace tops. Makes a very heartening dish.

Popovers
1 cup flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
7-8 cup milk
2 eggs
1 teaspoon melted butter.
Put greased muffin tins in oven to thoroughly heat through. Mix dry ingredients, add milk slowly, then beaten eggs. Beat mixture with rotary egg beater for five minutes. Pour into heated pans and bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) 30 minutes. Be sure to fill your pans only about one-third full to allow for popping. Earthen ware muffin molds will glaze the bottoms of the popovers beautifully.

Waffle Sandwiches
Take waffles, crisp and golden brown, cut them from the waffle iron. Butter each little crevice and cut them in quarters. Place a quarter on a hot plate, pour over it creamed codfish and top with another quarter. Serve immediately. And here's one of those waffle recipes that practically guarantee success.
2 1/4 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder
3 eggs
1 1/2 cups milk
1/2 cup sugar
1/2 cup butter
Combine dry ingredients. Beat egg yolks slightly and add milk. Combine with dry ingredients.

No ideals of life will succeed which do not take into account human weaknesses and selfishness.

Ideal Children
The boy most popular among his mates is the one who is most cheerful and exuberant, the leader in games and fights, and unafraid of adults, according to research of a scientist. The popular girl, on the other hand, is the one who is neat, pretty and not necessarily a leader. The "ideal" girl must conform to adult standards.

Settlers Followed Buffalo
The American buffalo, a clumsy and heavy animal, instinctively avoided soft swampy ground, and the gentlest gradients when ascending heights. The first settlers of the West, knowing this, followed the buffalo trails as far as possible, sure that as long as they followed these buffalo trails their wagons were safest.

Origination of Sweet Corn
Sweet corn is thought to have been cultivated in the United States in the first half of the Nineteenth century. It is apparently an offshoot of field corn, whose accidental sweet grains the Indians did not trouble to propagate. Only the white man noticed the delicate difference and grew sweet corn for his own use leaving the field corn for animals.

One of the busiest building seasons local carpenters have experienced in many a summer has just about come to a close. Some of the builders are now doing inside work, but they expect to have this finished in two or three weeks and that will about wind up the construction work around here for the rest of this year they say. Nearly every carpenter, mason and brick layer in town has had almost steady work since May. Some of the local brick-layers are still smarting to think it was necessary for the brick work on the new postoffice to be done by outside workers.

Scout Work Is Demonstrated

The PTA first enjoyed the opening ceremonies of the Girl Scout Troop, 2, under the direction of Mrs. Mathias, and the impressiveness of the opening ceremony of the Girl Scouts was a revelation to most of those present.

Second on the program was a demonstration by Plymouth Troop 2, Boy Scouts, under the direction of Marvin Partridge, by two demonstrations, the signaling to camp after injury and the bringing in of an injured Scout, and the several types of bandages and bandaging.

Demonstrations of signaling were then exemplified by Troop P-3, under the direction of Mr. Mathias. The signaling was interesting, particularly the demonstrations of the Morse code using flashlights.

Bridge building was then demonstrated by Troop P-1, Boy Scouts, under the direction of Sidney Strong, and their ability to lash together pieces of log and make a substantial bridge was shown effectively.

Plymouth Girl Scouts Troop P-1, under the direction of Miss May, gave two demonstrations of singing—one about a campfire which Sidney Strong lighted in the auditorium. The singing of the Girl Scout Troop was especially interesting and well rendered.

The Boy Scouts of Troop 4 of Plymouth exemplified the leadership in a very pleasing and effective manner, using all the solemnity and mystery that surrounds investitures generally.

The closing ceremony was entered into by all Scouts, boys and girls, in which the Scout benediction was used.

This was a fine demonstration of the splendid effect of the pleasant activities of Scouting in making boys and girls happy. To the parents it was a demonstration of the fine training which is being given to their boys and girls by those associated with Scouting.

Friends of Mrs. Al Killeit have received word that she and her mother, Mrs. Nettie Dickerson are now nicely located at 50 Surfline Place, Long Beach, California.

Mrs. Francis M. Archibald, who had been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Hough, for several days, returned to her home in Elizabeth, New Jersey, Saturday.

Miss Elaine Frost of Grosse Pointe and Wilbur Murphy of Saginaw were guests Thanksgiving Day of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Murphy on Plymouth Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Collick of Ishpeming, Mr. and Mrs. S. Ecklund of Ann Arbor were guests Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Coello J. Hamilton on Hamilton avenue.

While firing the boiler at the Plymouth Plating Works last Thursday Gerald Hondorp had the misfortune to have the grate fall out cutting his lips so badly as to require six stitches to be taken in them. They are healing very nicely.

Mrs. A. E. Patterson left Wednesday to spend Thanksgiving Day until the fore part of next week with her sister, Mrs. Eva Sutherland, at Chicago, Ill. Mrs. Patterson's mother, Mrs. Evelyn Bruner, will spend the same time with her sister, Mrs. J. Cady, at Belleville.

The Ladies' Aid of the Lutheran church will meet on Wednesday afternoon, December 4, in the church basement. All members are urged to be present as this is the annual meeting and sunshine party. At six-thirty o'clock a pot luck supper will be enjoyed. Anyone interested in the church is welcome. In the evening various games will be played.

Humility and piety cease to be such as soon as they place themselves on public exhibition.

CHARLES CHRISTENSEN
Services for Charles Christensen, former Chrysler and Dodge dealer in Highland Park, were held at his home in Northville, Michigan, on Thursday, November 28, at 10 a.m. in Rural Hill Cemetery, Northville.

Mr. Christensen, 57, died Friday. He retired several years ago as president of the Waverly Motor Sales of Highland Park, after many years in the motor business.

He was a past master of Waverly Lodge No. 527 F. and A. M., and was a member of the Shrine, Damascus Commandery and King Cyrus Chapter. The funeral was under the auspices of Waverly Lodge. Many from Plymouth attended the services.

Surviving is his widow, Mrs. Marie Christensen who has been prominent for many years in the Order of the Eastern Star.

Cormorant Fishing at Night
In Japan cormorant fishing is done usually at night. Torches are lit, and as the fish, attracted by the light, gather around the boats or rafts, the birds are let into the water. This method of fishing also saves bait, for in daylight fishing with cormorants it is necessary to attract schools of fish by pouring a large amount of bait around each boat.

Commodore Perry's Flagship
When Commodore Perry sailed on his expedition to Japan, November 24, 1852, he was given the Missis-sippi for his flagship. However, after his arrival at Shanghai, the flag was transferred to the Susquehanna, the vessel which was designated as flagship of the squadron. The Susquehanna was built in the navy yard at Philadelphia, where she was launched in April, 1850.

Bees' Average Load
A bee's average load of nectar is about half the weight of its body.
