

Peace Greatest Need of the World Rotarians Told

District Governor George Averill Visits The Local Club

World peace is the most important aim that Rotary clubs throughout all the nations can strive to accomplish. District Governor George R. Averill told members of the Plymouth Rotary club Friday noon.

Mr. Averill was elected district governor at the annual conference of the 23rd Rotary district held last April in London, Canada and this was his first official visit to the Plymouth club since his election.

In his check of the club's records and activities he was pleased to find its affairs in such excellent condition.

"You are especially to be commended for the work in behalf of boys that you have been doing. I think the idea of having different high school students attend these meetings for a month and later taking part in the club programs is indeed a most worthy effort. Your past president, Frank Lefevre, who originated the idea, is to be commended for it. I hope that the idea will spread throughout the entire Rotary world," he declared.

Previous to the regular meeting of the club, District Governor Averill spent an hour with chairmen of the various club committees. He told President Fred Sabom that from all he could find, everything indicated that the Plymouth club was off to a very successful year.

Has Praise For Mayflower Hotel

Among the many visitors at the Mayflower hotel Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. John Rockwell of Kalamazoo and their son and daughter from Boston, Mass. Mr. Rockwell, who is president of the Kalamazoo Tank & Silo company, was unsparring in his praises of the Mayflower.

"It is one of the nicest little hotels I was ever in. Plymouth should be proud of it and its excellent service. We have stopped here before in going to Detroit. I do not know of a better place between Kalamazoo and Detroit where one can secure a good meal than right here," Mr. Rockwell told Plymouth friends.

Marvin Terry has returned to Alton for his senior year in Alton college.

Police Will Enforce Dog Ordinance Here

The local police department is about to make a final canvass of the dog situation in Plymouth. Approximately seven-eighths of the dog owners in the city have applied for their 1936-37 licenses, and the remainder are urged to do so immediately.

Chief of Police Vaughan Smith has announced that the city dog ordinance will be strictly enforced, and that warrants will be sworn out against those owners who neglect to obtain licenses. They will be forced to appear in court where a fine will be imposed.

Local Woman Is Sponsor of Show

An outstanding event in the antique world will be the Detroit Antique show to be held at the Naval Armory, 7600 Jefferson avenue, east, from September 19 to 22 inclusive. It is being sponsored by Mrs. Viola B. Daley, well known Plymouth dealer.

The exhibit is the outgrowth of a steadily increasing interest in antiques on the part of residents of the middle west. In addition to the Detroit dealers, most of whom have reserved space out-of-town exhibitors will come from 10 states as far east as Maine and as far west as Kansas.

Pennsylvania dealers will show a large number of characteristic articles in pottery, homespun linens and pine furniture. Dealers from Connecticut will stress the primitive things of old New England, while Kansas dealers will bring an outstanding collection of Indian relics, as well as an unusual group of Indian dolls gathered from all the Indian tribes of Mexico, the United States and Canada.

Mrs. Daley has received word from prominent collectors in California, Texas and Maine that, although they will not exhibit, will attend the show. She plans to make the show a permanent event in the cultural and educational life of Detroit.

Six Injured Sunday In Crash Near Here

On Sunday evening six were injured, some seriously, when two cars collided on Plymouth road just east of Riverside cemetery. Hugo Meinicke, of Detroit, father of Walter Meinicke of this city, suffered a slight concussion, a cut, needing 12 stitches taken, in his forehead, and a fractured knee which was later put in a cast. Russell Knapp of Detroit, a brother-in-law of Mr. Meinicke, was thrown from the car to the pavement, sustaining a cracked bone near the hip, and now has his leg in a cast.

Mrs. Knapp was bruised and little Jimmy Meinicke, four-year-old son of Walter Meinicke, was cut on the forehead over the left eye. Martha and David Ingall of Plymouth, who were in the other car, received slight injuries. Both cars were wrecked. The injured were taken to the Plymouth hospital but on Monday Hugo Meinicke was taken to the Solvay hospital in Detroit.

Rathburn Makes Strong Run—City Vote Aids Allen

Popular Plymouth Candidate Gets Big Vote In Townships

Carrying the townships of Wayne county outside the city of Detroit by majorities much larger than given any other candidate on the ticket, Charles H. Rathburn, candidate for the Republican nomination for drain commissioner, was unable to overcome the big city vote of his opponents and late returns indicated that C. E. Allen had won the office by a safe majority.

Mr. Rathburn's opponents had practically no support outside the Detroit city limits. Possibly if Detroit voters could have been thoroughly advised that the position Mr. Rathburn sought was one pertaining to the townships only and that Detroit had not the slightest interest in the place, he might have been able to win more votes in that city. But in campaign time it is practically impossible to get such information to the voters.

Both Mr. Rathburn and Mr. Eaton were given wonderful support from their home community. A number of business men had signs placed over the streets advertising both candidates and they also engaged the Plymouth Civic band for a series of rallies held during the final week of the campaign in towns in the southern end of the district.

Without question the tour of the band the brief addresses made by the candidates and in their behalf by both Judge Ford Brooks and Supt. George Smith had most beneficial results.

The local candidates have time and again expressed their appreciation for the many fine things that have been done in their behalf. Seldom if ever have two candidates from the same place received such wholehearted support as did Mr. Rathburn and Mr. Eaton.

Mr. Rathburn's host of friends regret that he was unable to overcome the tremendous vote in Detroit as every one knows, that he would make an excellent record if he had been nominated and elected to the office he sought.

Ground Aviation Class Will Meet

The first meeting of the ground aviation course for adults will be held at 7 o'clock Tuesday evening in Room 13 of the high school building, Edward Holleran, instructor, announced this week.

Mr. Holleran, who is a graduate aeronautical engineer and a teacher at Cass Technical high school in Detroit, said that the attendance at this initial session would determine whether or not the course would be given the full semester, so all who are interested are urged to be present Tuesday evening. The proposed high school class also depends on whether or not an adult class is organized. So far about 20 seniors have indicated their desire to enroll in the course.

During the semester, the course takes up the basic fundamentals of aeronautics and aviation, with a certificate presented by completion of the work. A small fee will be charged the adults to cover the expense of the course.

New Service Station Will Open Saturday

Lustig Brothers will open a new Sinclair service station on Gravel street, back of the new postoffice building. The grand opening will be held Saturday and Sunday, on which days a quart of oil will be given free with the purchase of six or more gallons of gasoline.

Mrs. Franklin Knapp, of New Hudson, and Miss June Frederick were visitors Monday of a former schoolmate, Mrs. Claude Eaton, of Ypsilanti.

Mr. and Mrs. James H. Deeg and daughter, Leona Jean, of Detroit, were guests of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson, Sunday.

How Plymouth Voted in Primaries

Trends in the county and state election were fairly closely followed in the Plymouth city primary vote Tuesday, which gave Wilber M. Brucker the lead over Sen. James Couzens for the Republican nomination for the senatorship, and favored Prentiss Brown over Ralph Liddy, Prof. John Muyskens and Louis Ward on the Democratic ticket.

Gov. Frank D. Fitzgerald had no trouble in topping Roscoe Fitch, while Frank Murphy defeated George Welsh for the Democratic nomination. Luren D. Dickinson won the Republican nomination for lieutenant-governor from Thomas Read, and Congressman George Dondero was renominated over Bowen R. Goyer and Earl N. Nash.

The county vote gave Thomas Parrell the Republican nomination for county clerk over the present incumbent, Henry Montgomery, while Chester P. O'Hara won the nomination for prosecuting attorney over Gomer Krise and will oppose the Democratic nominee, Duncan C. McCrea, in November. Sheriff Henry Behrendt, Republican, will have to win the coming election from Thomas C. Wilcox, Democrat.

In Northville Republicans cast 383 votes for Brucker and 169 for Couzens. Read ran ahead of Dickinson, 114 votes to 68, while Dondero, with 370 votes, was followed by Nash with 101 and Goyer with 27. O'Hara and Krise, the leading contenders for prosecutor, received 244 and 188 votes respectively. Eaton received 452 votes for state representative, with about 30 votes scattered among his opponents. Langworthy, next highest, polled 11 of these.

The Plymouth vote Tuesday was as follows:

Ann Urban Weds Herbert Kalmback

The wedding ceremony uniting Miss Ann Helen Urban, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Niedospal of this city, and Herbert Kalmback, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy E. Kalmback of Rosedale Gardens, took place at 9 o'clock Saturday morning in St. Michael's church in Rosedale Gardens with the Rev. Father John Court officiating.

The church was beautifully decorated with gladiolus, in pastel shades, making a very effective background for the bridal party, with the bride gowned in white lace with finger-tip veil and long train, carrying white lilies and gypsophylla. The maid of honor, Miss Mary Urban, sister of the bride, wore peach moire with matching hat of net and carried yellow roses. The two bridesmaids, Miss Shirley Kalmback, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Hobbins, were gowned in orchid and blue moire, respectively, with veiled hats, and carried pink roses. The other members of the wedding party were the bridegroom, Sanford Knapp and Warren Basset of Plymouth and Mike Simo of Rosedale Gardens.

Before the ceremony "O Purland Me" was sung by Mr. Furland with organ accompaniment by Mr. Baker.

Following the ceremony a wedding breakfast was served for the bridal party and the immediate families. In the evening a reception was held, in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Kalmback, in the basement of St. Michael's church, which had been decorated for the occasion with gladiolus and white crepe paper. The guests numbered over 200.

Garden Club Plans Display Next Week

Members of the Plymouth Garden club are planning their first display in connection with the Presbyterian Fall Festival to be held Wednesday, September 23. Mrs. Otto Beyer has been named general chairman in charge. Mrs. Paul Wiedman is president.

Mr. and Mrs. William Hamilton and little daughter of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Ingall were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Kreger and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Packard Tuesday evening, the occasion being Mr. Kreger's birthday.

Mrs. Clarence F. Anderson and son, Junior, of Louisville, Kentucky, are guests of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Anderson and other relatives here this week.

Nomination For The Legislature Is Won By Eaton

Almost A 100 Percent Home Vote Gives Him Big Advantage

Aided by nearly a one hundred percent vote in Plymouth city and township, Northville and Livonia townships, Elton R. Eaton of Plymouth won the Republican nomination for the state legislature Tuesday by a majority that ran much over five hundred.

His candidacy was greatly aided by a much larger vote for him in Dearborn city and in Nankin township and other townships in the southern end of the district than had been expected. In fact, the Plymouth candidate carried both Van Buren and Sumpter townships by substantial majorities, in addition to Northville, Plymouth, Redford and Livonia townships. But it was in Plymouth city and township as well as in Northville and Livonia where the unusually large vote resulted in such an emphatic majority.

Not since the days when Ed Gayde represented this district in the state legislature has there been so much interest in the outcome of the legislative contest. Mr. Gayde had the same strong support from these localities.

Plymouth gave its legislative candidate a total of 621 votes. The highest number any other candidate for the same office received in Plymouth was 20. With the 161 votes from Plymouth township, there was a total of 782 votes from this one place for the other six candidates to overcome.

Added to this total were 452 more votes from Northville. The highest any other candidate received in Northville was 17 votes. Livonia added 227 to this total, making 1461 votes for the other six candidates to overcome from other parts of the district. This they were unable to do in view of the fact that nearly a thousand more votes were added to the above figures from Wayne, Belleville, Dearborn, Inkster and the townships to the south.

Because of the lateness of the count, many of the precincts not completing the work until late Wednesday, the exact returns are not available, but a fairly accurate count shows that Eaton received something like 2400 votes and his nearest opponent, Harold Langworthy, had something in the vicinity of 1300. The candidates from Dearborn averaged from 300 to 400 each. William Kronberg had better than 700.

In the city of Dearborn Eaton received 148 votes, Langworthy 71 and the Dearborn candidates about 250 to 300 each. Kronberg carried Dearborn township outside the city of Dearborn.

As the Fifth legislative district is strongly Republican, it appears that Plymouth after eight years has a chance to again have a representative in the state legislature. Lawrence Johnson was the last to serve from here in the state legislature.

Ann Arbor Trail Opened To Traffic

With the completion of the grade separation at Ann Arbor Trail and Canton Center road, the former highway was opened Tuesday to through traffic on US-12. The road had been closed since March when work on the grade separation was started, and all automobiles and trucks traveling from Detroit to Ann Arbor, or vice versa, had been detoured through Plymouth on the Plymouth road. Now that it is open once more, traffic on Main street is expected to be considerably less.

Band Concert On Wednesday Eve

No band concert is scheduled this week, but the final program of the summer season will be given Wednesday evening, Sept. 23 in Kellogg park. Hester of the Western Union telegraph office in Plymouth which just received word that his brother-in-law, Jeff Bratton, well known attorney of Paragould, Arkansas, has just won the Democratic nomination for state senator in the district in which he resides. Enforcement Of New Ordinance Is Started Here

Police Warn Drivers Of Violations Under This Law

With the new traffic ordinance in effect Tuesday, Chief of Police Vaughan Smith and other members of the police department have started in on their campaign of enforcement. They plan a strict and impartial drive to make the provisions of the ordinance effective, and are asking all residents of the city to help.

While some violations are known to all drivers of motor vehicles, there are very few who are aware of the more than 60 offenses for which they might be given tickets by the police department. These offenses are listed as follows, with the most common ones in bold type:

- DRIVING—Against signal (either red or amber light); backing more than 60 feet; no chains or improper chains on truck or trailer; cutting in and out of traffic; driving over fire hose; defective brakes or steering equipment; excessive noise, muffler, whistle or horn; excessive smoke; failure to give right of way to fire department or police; failure to stop for stop street; four in driver's seat; interfering with traffic signs; lap driving; more than two trailers; motor running unattended; no vision stickers on windshield; no red light or flag on projection; no white flag on tow line; no mirror on truck; driving to right of traffic; one-arm driving; overtaking vehicle at intersection; improper turn; parked "for sale" cars; riding outside vehicle; driving on or over sidewalk; slow cars not keeping to right; towing more than one disabled car; driving through funeral procession.

SPEEDING—Driving over 20 miles an hour in the business district or over 25 miles an hour in residential districts; reckless driving (the car not under control); defective brakes causing an accident; driving away from or failing to report an accident.

LICENSES—Dirty and obscured license plates; failure to change address on operator's license; improper license plates; missing or no license plates; no chauffeur's badge; no operator's license (never acquired, not on person, or expired); no public vehicle driver's license.

MISCELLANEOUS VIOLATIONS—Improper parking on wrong side of street, overtime parking, parking too near a fire hydrant and other parking violations; coasting on down grade in neutral; improper noise-making equipment; no receipt of registration; no windshield cleaner; driving to left center of street; blocking traffic; and all types of light violations.

The police department is calling attention to the fact that lighting regulations apply to bicycles as well as automobiles. Paragraph 1 of Section 44 of the traffic ordinance reads: "All other vehicles except as herein provided shall be equipped with one white lamp visible 200 feet to the front and one red lamp visible 200 feet to the rear thereof." All bicycles not so equipped will be forced off the streets at night and the riders liable to arrest. Parents with children riding bicycles are asked to note this, and also that bicycles may not be ridden on the sidewalks.

Zoning Ordinance Being Considered By City Officials

Purposes And Need For Such Regulation Is Discussed

Discussion of the value of a zoning ordinance is being taken up by the city commission members, who at their last meeting, heard a talk by T. Glenn Phillips, of Northville, noted landscape architect and a member of the Detroit City Planning commission.

He brought out three important points, namely that 70 percent of the urban population of the United States lives in zoned areas, that Detroit is the only large city without a zoning ordinance and that the great value of zoning comes in the stabilization of property values, something that Plymouth needs.

A "Zoning Primer" has been issued by the United States department of commerce which explains zoning, what it is, how it works and why it is needed. "Zoning is the application of fairness and common sense to the public regulations governing the use of private real estate," it says. "It is a painstaking, honest effort to provide each district or neighborhood as nearly as practicable with just such protection and just such liberty as are sensible to that particular district. . . . Zoning gives everyone who lives or does business in a community a chance for the reasonable enjoyment of his rights. At the same time it protects him from unreasonable injury by neighbors who seek private gain at his expense."

Zoning regulations differ in various districts according to the determined uses of the land for residence, business or manufacturing, and according to the advisable heights and ground area, but regulations are the same for all districts of the same type, the pamphlet points out.

Zoning protects both property and health, because it prevents stores, factories and shops from crowding residences, and large buildings from crowding and shadowing small ones, this government account states, adding, however, that zoning should go hand in hand with planning streets and providing for parks and playgrounds.

No New Evidence In Murder Case

Funeral services were held Saturday at 2 o'clock from the Schrader Brothers Funeral home for Alonzo Elliott, 75-year-old Plymouth township farmer who was shot and killed Tuesday evening at his home. The Rev. Walter Nichol officiated and burial was in Riverside cemetery.

No new evidence has been uncovered by the sheriff's office in their investigation to determine who murdered the old man as he sat alone in front of his radio. Questioning of relatives and friends brought nothing to light, and no clues have been turned up at the scene of the murder. However, authorities believe that it is just a matter of time before something comes up which will put them on the trail of the murderer.

Mr. and Mrs. John Henderson, Dr. and Mrs. Myron Hughes and Mr. and Mrs. Oral Rathburn spent the week-end at Rais Mills.

STUDY IT CAREFULLY

The material collected by City Manager Elliott pertaining to the city's water system is worthy of careful study. The city manager has assembled a considerable amount of interesting data. He has also definitely established the fact that there is another well, driven a number of years ago, out at the Plymouth pumping station that has never been used. Tests show that this well will produce a very considerable amount of water. While there is probably some additional information that should be sought and while we probably do not all agree with all of his conclusions, nevertheless, he has given the city commission some very valuable information and has provided material that ought to be of exceptional aid in helping the city to decide which is the right way to proceed in an effort to increase its water supply. It is indeed a very good starting point.

GOOD ADVICE TO FOLLOW

The other day George Mitte, a long time and highly respected resident of Plymouth, celebrated his 92nd birthday. In perfect health, with a mind as clear and as active as one many years his junior, he gave some advice that ought to be of value to any one seeking health and long life. He has never violated any of the rules of health and has always been careful about the amount of food eaten. He has worked and worked hard all of his life. It is much better to work than be idle he declares. It is good advice. The Plymouth Mail hopes that Mr. Mitte can live to enjoy many, many more birthdays.

SLOW DOWN!

Again The Plymouth Mail urges with all the force at its command that automobile drivers be careful while driving on the streets near the public schools. Nearly 2,000 children are crossing the streets many times a day and they will be using the thoroughfares constantly every day until next summer. Let us try and see to it that not a single school child of Plymouth is injured. As one observes a little fellow hopping along on a crutch with one leg gone, putting forth unusual efforts to keep up with his youthful friends as he hurries along to school, we cannot help but think how much joy and happiness has been taken out of his life as the result of an automobile accident. Slow down! Especially do we urge that the young boys and girls who are driving cars about town observe every safety rule. Observation has been that most of the fast driving on the streets is by youngsters. For your own good and for the good of every one, SLOW DOWN!

The World is full o' Sunshine

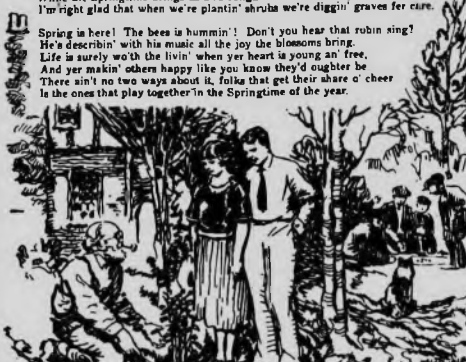

O. Lawrence Hawthorne

Spring again! That means the time is here for makin' better friends; People feels a lot more human when the long cold Winter ends. This ol' world was made fer laughter, seasoned jest a bit with tears, So I'd like to send a few ol' fashioned heart-throbs down the year, I like to see folks happy an' I like to hear 'em sing— Oh, the time that's best to sow the seeds o' love is in the Spring!

Yes, the world is full o' sunshine, but some folks don't seem to know That you've got to open wide yer doors if you would find it so. People ain't much good as neighbors till the grass gets pretty long An' they has to borrow garden tools! They find there ain't much wrong In exchange'n' bulbs an' lilac roots, and swappin' friends' chat. 'Cause the Springtime makes 'em feel that life was made fer things like that.

There's a lot o' satisfaction to be got from growin' smiles. It ain't long before their sweetens fill the air fer miles an' miles! There ain't half as many flowers as there really ought to be. So that leaves a heap o' cheer-producin' chance fer you an' me. While the Springtime brings us bird songs an' there's beauty everywhere, I'm right glad that when we're plantin' shrubs we're diggin' graves fer care.

Spring is here! The bees is hummin'! Don't you hear that robin sing? He's describin' with his music all the joy the blossoms bring. Life is surely worth the livin' when yer heart is young an' free, And yer makin' others happy like you know yer'd ought to be. There ain't no two ways about it, folks that get their share o' cheer Is the ones that play together in the Springtime of the year.

ONE MINUTE BIOGRAPHIES OF MICHIGAN GOVERNORS and their ACCOMPLISHMENTS

By Elton R. Eaton

EDWIN B. WINANS
No. 20
Livingston county furnished Michigan one of its few Democratic governors, Edwin B. Winans, chief executive of the state from 1891 to 1893, having been a resident of that county.

A graduate of Albion college, a gold hunter in California, a farmer of more than ordinary ability, Winans' career was a most interesting one. He was born in New York in 1826, his parents moving to Livingston county in Michigan in 1834.

Winans graduated from Albion college in 1850. Those who associated with him in school, declared that no man was more active than Winans in affairs among the students. Soon after graduating from school, he decided to hunt gold on the Pacific coast, crossing the country in the ways of that time, he spent eight years seeking an easy fortune. Before returning to Livingston county Winans had accumulated quite a fortune.

After settling down to farm life, he devoted most of his time to stock raising. In 1860 he was elected to the state legislature, serving two terms. He was a member of the constitutional convention of 1867 and in 1876 he was elected probate judge of his county. He served two terms in congress, winning out in a district that was strongly Republican.

Michigan Democrats put Winans up as their candidate for governor in 1891 and to the surprise of the Republicans he carried the state with a safe majority. His administrative work was devoted chiefly to the conduct of the official business of the executive office.

Thousands of people, especially those in the big cities, pack up a big lunch Sunday morning, and even on other days of the week, load up the family bus, and start out for the open country. Perhaps they have some particular stopping place in view, or it may be that any place outside the city where there are trees and grass will be the right place.

It is for such people as these that these roadside tables have been set up, and for other thousands of travelers who carry their own food and who wish to stop for lunch wherever lunch time overtakes them. Sometimes it may be by the side of the lake, or a running brook. Sometimes on a hilltop, with a wide view over the adjacent valley and to the hills beyond.

Always it is in some shady nook, where lunch may be enjoyed in comfort and quiet, while the traffic of the highway rolls by. This is one of the many ways in which Michigan is trying to give friendly service and make traveling up and down our highways convenient and pleasant for all sorts and conditions of people.—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

OTHERS THINK SO
Sometimes we feel that we'd now welcome the old fashioned saloon with open arms.—Joe Haas in The Holly Herald.

The Black Legion crowd are in for a lot of hell similar to what they visited upon their innocent victims, and strange as it may seem they don't seem to be enjoying it, but the present is nothing compared with the years of confinement when time behind iron bars will eat as a canker in their souls, and try as they may they'll never be able to wash the stain of murder from their minds.—J. E. McMullen in The Linden Leader.

What would have happened to any number of thriving towns in the northern part of the state if the authorities had routed the highways on an air line and stayed in the country, the same as they have done with new road projects in Central Michigan the last few years. Plainly speaking such towns would have died of dry rot. Just one town for illustration—Cheboygan. All of its industries had petered out with the advance of time and then the tourist industry came into existence. They will tell you in Cheboygan how the northern cities had to fight for their very existence when the state highway department started the idea of leaving the towns off of state trunk line routes. As the story is told, former Gov. Alex Groesbeck proved to be a godfather to their cause with sufficient influence to merit, a reward for all time to come.—Harry Izor in The Durand Express.

Banks Hold the Bag
Nearly 60 per cent of the national debt of $24,500,000,000 is owed to the banks of the nation. According to Senator Glass, a drop of ten per cent in the price of government bonds would put 60 per cent of the banks out of business. He says the New Deal forces the banks to buy.

No Political Assessment.
An old established custom on the part of both parties in Kansas was an assessment of five per cent on office-holders for campaign purposes. One of the first acts of Landon as governor of the state was the outlawing of any assessment on any office-holder.

$14,000 a Minute
As a spendthrift the Roosevelt administration has set a pace no other nation has ever equaled. It spends $14,000 each minute of the day and night; $840,000 each hour of each day, and $20,160,000 every day of the year. The taxpayers, and that means all of us, must pay it.

"Matter" will be the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Christian Science Churches throughout the world on Sunday, September 20.

Among the Bible citations is the following (Isaiah 55: 8, 9): "For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, saith the Lord. For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your thoughts."

Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 286): "God's thoughts are perfect and eternal, are substance and Life. Material and temporal thoughts are human, involving error and since God, Spirit, is the only cause, they lack a divine cause."

Root returned last Thursday night after a week in Chicago, attending with Mr. and Mrs. Richard Neale and little daughter, Frisella, and Miss Mildred Postiff the Youth's Conference at Moody Bible Institute. After Labor day they were guests in the home of Mrs. Neale's parents, Dr. and Mrs. Vita, of Riverside.

Evangelist Draws Interested Crowd

Keen interest in the evangelistic services being held by Evangelist C. J. Coon in the Masonic Temple is reported by those attending. The listeners feel well repaid for the effort made to be there every night. The special music rendered is a real treat to all who appreciate good music, and is very diversified, including orchestra numbers. The program of music begins at 7:45 each evening, and continues for 15 minutes. Then at the close of the lecture there is a special musical number to close the service.

While the music is generally enjoyed, still the lecture itself is the great attraction for those who appreciate an intelligent, straightforward presentation of Bible truth. The congregation is at once gripped by the message which is presented so attractively and so interestingly that the listeners are charmed by the beauty of Bible truth. No one is left in doubt regarding the sincerity of the evangelist. He feels his message and makes his hearers feel its weight and importance. He is not sensational, not the hysterical type of evangelist, but he is decidedly in earnest for the salvation of souls. If you hear him once you will want to hear him again. Some are coming from distances of several miles to hear him.

The topic for Friday night is, "What and Where is Heaven?" Will we know each other there? Will we have real bodies in Heaven? This should draw a large attendance.

There will be no service Saturday night, Sunday night the topic is to be, "Christ's Second Coming."

Group To Attend Preaching Mission

Several people in Plymouth are planning to attend sessions of the National Preaching Mission September 24 through 27 in Detroit. This interdenominational mission has been organized nationally by the Federal Council of Churches, and is sponsored in Michigan by the Detroit Council of Churches, with the Michigan Council of Religious Education and the Michigan Council of Churches cooperating.

The National Preaching Mission is a united attempt on the part of the churches to bring about a spiritual awakening in America. All forces of the church, ministers, teachers, officers, women and young people, are being drawn into this movement.

Following the four day mission in Detroit, two day missions will be held in the major Michigan cities October 1 to 20, and one day missions in other Michigan cities from October 20 to 31. Finally an eight day preaching mission will be held in every local church from November 15 to 22. The distinguished preachers who make up the national preaching mission team are led by the famous missionary-evangelist and author, E. Stanley Jones.

Back For Visit After Ten Years

"When we left here a little over ten years ago, street cars were rattling through the streets. There was no Mayflower hotel, no Plymouth Mail building or postoffice structure. It's surprising the number of changes that have been made for the better," stated Charles Riggs, who with Mrs. Riggs, have arrived here from Venice, California to visit for a few weeks.
Mr. and Mrs. Riggs lived here until ten and a half years ago. They moved from Plymouth directly to the Pacific coast where they have made their home since. "But Plymouth looks good to us. The town surely has grown. This new park is one of the finest things I have ever seen," said Mr. Riggs.

W. C. T. U. Plans Annual Meeting

The Woman's Christian Temperance Union will hold its annual meeting Thursday, September 24, at the home of the president, Mrs. Starkweather, 711 Starkweather avenue. Reports will be given and officers will be elected for the ensuing year. Those who can do so at this time are asked to pay their dues. All interested in temperance work are invited to attend the meeting next week. From the Union Signal: "Complaints that husbands are spending their pay checks for buying liquor on credit before they get the money were brought by wives to D. F. Burnett, state liquor commissioner for New Jersey, recently. As one wife wrote the commissioner, 'We have just about enough to eat at times, yet the men get their bottle of whisky without money any time they want it. We know our husbands would not drink so much if they had to pay cash for their whisky. But this credit business is terrible.'"

WHAT THE NEW SIGHT-SAVER LAMP MEANS TO School children

At school age, twenty children out of every hundred have defective vision. At college age, the number has increased to forty out of every hundred. This incredible and tragic story of crippled eyes can be blamed in large part on the needless abuse of the eyes—and partly to improper lighting in the home. Straining the eyes to read newspaper or a printed page under poor and inadequate light, writing or studying under a glaring lamp which casts harsh shadows... these are the things which will slowly but surely result in damaged eyesight. During school years, when a child is using his eyes extensively, it is doubly important that you have good lighting in the home. This is what the new Sight-Saver lamp provides. A diffusing bowl under the shade throws part of the light upward to the ceiling. This is reflected back and spread over a large area, providing room-wide light that is soft and restful, without glare. Have your children's eyes examined every year—and get one of the Sight-Saver lamps for your home.

Jean Steinhurst and Wayne Thompson Wed

The marriage of Jean Eloise Steinhurst, daughter of Mrs. Claire Steinhurst of this city, and Wayne Everett Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Thompson of Northville, was quietly performed at 6 o'clock Sunday in the Methodist Episcopal Church in Northville by the pastor, the Rev. Harry J. Lopp.

The bride, who was becomingly attired in a fall suit of hunter's green, trimmed with brown fur, wore accessories in brown, and a corsage in orange and white.

Mrs. Peter Maurice of Northville, who was matron-of-honor, wore an orange tweed suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white flowers.

A wedding dinner was enjoyed later in Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Thompson did not take a trip at this time but plan to go to New York later. They have many friends in Plymouth and Northville who extend best wishes. They will reside in Northville.

L. M. Prescott of Dixon, Illinois, is spending the week-end in Plymouth. He will be accompanied home by Mrs. Prescott and their daughter, Sally Wynn, who have been visiting here during the summer.

Detailed Water System Survey Made Public by City Manager

Last week City Manager Clarence H. Elliott submitted to the city commission his report on the city water problem, giving a complete history and description of the system and outlining his recommendations for the future. This report, omitting tables and graphs, appears here in full:

The present water system had its beginning in 1891 and 1892. On September 23, 1891 the people were asked to vote on a special bond issued of $30,000 to construct a gravity system from the Northrup spring. The vote was overwhelmingly in favor of it. No bonds were to be retired for at least twenty years. On March 15, 1892 the bonds were sold at 4 1/2% interest. Sheehan and Dunn were then given a contract to construct a ten inch vitrified tile creek line into the city which was to carry the supply.

The line was not satisfactory. In 1904 the Council found it "necessary and expedient" that the Village make "repairs, extensions and improvements to the system", in order to supply the inhabitants with water. They also authorized a special election to ascertain the public sentiment in regard to the issuance of $15,000 of water bonds to be paid in thirty years from date at 4%. Like the former issue these were sinking fund bonds with no provision made to retire them. For this work T. C. Brooks and Sons were awarded the contract.

No other major changes were made until 1910, when it was found necessary to furnish and install in a building and upon foundations two centrifugal pumping units, with motors, starting boxes, station wiring, connecting piping and other appurtenances. This contract was let to Chas. McIntosh and Company for $1025.00. In the same year at the suggestion of Hoad & Decker, Engineers of Ann Arbor, the steel tank was erected by the Pittsburgh-Des Moines Steel Company. This tank is still in use and holds a maximum of 154,000 gallons. The cost of the tank was $7,880.00.

In 1921 another bond issue of $75,000 was floated in order that a concrete reservoir with a capacity of 1,950,000 gallons of water might be built. Also at this same time an open well with a motor driven centrifugal pumping unit was built. This work was let on contract to the Cooper-Widenmann Construction Company of Detroit.

By 1925 it was apparent that something else must be done as the well at the Spring could not furnish water. It was therefore decided to place leads into it, thereby making it possible to collect water from a much wider area. About the same time two other wells were driven at the spring property: one an 8" and the other a 6". The former was driven to a depth of 65' and the latter to a depth of 97'. Both of these wells were tested at the time by means of a weir; the former showing a capacity of some 390 g. p. m. and the latter 350 g. p. m. However, it was impossible to find the maximum capacity which might be obtained. The latter well was driven thru a hard pan of 5' and hence is undoubtedly from a different source of supply than the others. Nevertheless, the 8" well was developed by placing over it a centrifugal pump driven by a 15 h. p. motor.

For this work, along with extension of mains, a bond issue of $40,000.00 was floated. In the following two years other mains were quickly added within the Village and other bonds were sold in order to do the work. During 1929 the Commission passed a resolution requiring that hereafter costs of service mains shall be paid by the abutting property. Later developments include the changing of motors at the Booster Station in 1930, a new pump at the big well in 1931 and a replacement motor in July of this year.

GENERAL DESCRIPTION OF THE WATERWORKS SYSTEM OF THE CITY

The water works system of the City of Plymouth is comprised principally of the following elements:

1. An underground water gathering system, consisting of infiltration galleries, driven wells and a large brick receiving well situated on the east side of Beck Road about one-half mile north of the Waterford Road.
2. Electric Motor driven pumping equipment at the gathering ground for delivering the water to the City.
3. A supply line from the gathering ground in a circuitous route across fields and along public highways from the gathering ground to the City.
4. A reinforced concrete storage reservoir connected with the supply line.
5. A booster pumping station, near the intersection of Mill and Starkweather, by means of which the water brought by the supply line is delivered into the City distribution system at a greater pressure.
6. A street distribution system and an elevated steel tank connected with this distribution system. The steel tank is located in the park at the rear of the Presbyterian Church property.

The source of water supply, situated some three miles north and two miles west of the City, lies within the valley of the south branch of the Middle River Rouge. The City now owns a small tract of about 20 acres upon which are situated the structural elements of the gathering system, but the natural area tributary to this system is of course much larger and extends westerly from the City property for some distance.

The present equipment at the source is the outgrowth of a continued development over a period of forty years, during which time considerable new construction has been added and several elements have been abandoned. The equipment in use and of real value at the present time includes two infiltration galleries built since 1921, of vitrified clay pipe laid with open joints; a large brick collecting well built in 1921 into which the galleries discharge their yield; and an independent 8" drilled well. The yield of the galleries and the collecting well is pumped by means of a vertical electric motor driven "Kewanee" centrifugal pump, having a rated capacity of 500 g. p. m. against a head of 40'. This unit was installed in 1931. There is also another pump in the collecting well. This is a vertical electric motor driven "Aurora" centrifugal pump, having a rated capacity of 400 g. p. m. against a similar head. This unit was installed in 1924. There is also in place and in operation during the summer months over the 8" well an electric motor driven "American" horizontal centrifugal pump. This pump is designed for a shallow well, but the lift is really too great for economical operation. A natural spring situated on the west side of Beck Road, the first source of supply developed in 1891 and 1892, has been abandoned as yielding a supply unsafe for consumption. Attention should be called to the fact that there is a 6" well driven near the collecting well which has never been used. For a cost of $500.00 this well could be equipped with a turbine pump, the operation of which should be economical. This measure would be highly desirable as it undoubtedly would yield water from a different strata. This would also build up the pressure at the spring and thereby force water into the reservoir for use in the City.

During the month of June, 1929, Hoad, Decker, Shoecraft and Drury, carried out several tests in order to determine the available yield of the present system. (This did not consider the 6" well). Quoting from this report the following statements were made: "So far as possible these tests were planned to indicate the yield of the several parts of the system, but in all cases this was not possible. The condition at the time of these tests were favorable to a high yield. During the spring and early summer months of each year the ground water table in the glacial drift of Michigan is usually above normal. At the particular times when it was found practicable to carry out these tests there were frequent showers which would also contribute materially to the yield. It must be borne in mind therefore that the results determined during these tests are probably high, and conservative estimates should be based upon somewhat lower values.

As a result of these tests the engineers estimated very conservatively that the yield of the system including the collecting well and the 8" driven well amounted at all seasons to at least 700 g. p. m. At seasons of high ground water, a considerably greater yield may of course be expected. If the 6" well is developed there is every reason to believe that the yield will be more than 1000 G. P. M.

On the hot summer days a yield of 700 g. p. m. will care amply for our population today. However, we must prepare for the future and as the City normally grows the 700 g. p. m. will be insufficient in a very short while to meet our demands. A 1000 g. p. m. should care for our needs until the year, 1955, when our population may reach 7500. Hence for a very small cost the City is assured over a period of the next twenty years with an ample supply of water. It might be necessary within a couple of years to replace the "American" pump with a new electrical turbine pump unit in the auxiliary well which would cut operation costs.

SUPPLY LINE AND RESERVOIR
The first supply line and reservoir as noted above from the gathering ground to the City was built in 1891 and 1892 and consisted of a line of 12" cast iron and vitrified clay pipe laid skirting the bluffs on the south side of the south branch of the Middle Rouge River. Part of this line was supplemented by a new line in 1924 and the old vitrified clay pipe has long been abandoned. The new line was built of cast iron pipe and was laid along a somewhat different route from that of the first. The exact locations are not known as no engineering plans of this improvement were placed on file. The employees of the Water Department know approximately where the line lays and within the next few months it is suggested that the Engineering Department place the information on record in order that any difficulties in the future might be avoided.

For many years, in fact until about 1921, the new line carried the supply from the gathering ground to the city of gravity. In 1921 at the time of building the collecting well, a "Chippewa" pump was installed. This pump, now replaced by a more modern one, delivered the water in to the supply line under some pressure; thereby, increasing its carrying capacity. In 1924 the "Aurora" pump was added for the same purpose.

An old uncovered earthen bank reservoir was built in the early years, on a hill-top about 1/4 mile South of the Waterford road and 1/4 mile West of the Northville Road on the line of the old supply line. This reservoir was at such an elevation that it filled by gravity through the pipe from the gathering ground and supplied water to the City at pressures then considered satisfactory.

In 1921, in order to eliminate the structural and unsanitary hazards of the old basin, a new reinforced concrete reservoir was built in the old excavation. The general condition of the supply line and reservoir is good. Twice each year the route is travelled to ascertain if any leaks are visible on the surface. It is possible, however, that leaks on the supply line will not appear on the surface due to the soil conditions.

BOOSTER PUMPING STATION
In 1916 the demands of the City for water had increased to such an amount that the supply line did not deliver water to the City at adequate pressure. This situation was met by the construction of a booster pumping station on North Mill Street near its intersection with the Northville Road. This station is a reinforced concrete and brick structure in which are housed two electric motor driven Rees-Roturb horizontal shaft pumping units, each having a rated capacity of 700 g. p. m. against a total suction and discharge of 100 feet. In 1929, upon the recommendation of the consulting engineers the 25 h. p. motors operating the pumps were replaced with 10 h. p. This saved considerable in power. Since making this move, it is very doubtful if the pumps will deliver 700 g. p. m. at the present time. Within the next few weeks it is contemplated that more study be given to the booster station to determine whether or not the City is getting the maximum efficiency. It may be that the pumps need some repairing. However, due to the dry weather, it was not thought feasible to discontinue the use of either pump during the past month.

DISTRIBUTION SYSTEM
The distribution system of the City of Plymouth consists of approximately the following lengths of street main:

- 22,060 feet of 4" pipe
 - 67,830 feet of 6" pipe
 - 5,120 feet of 8" pipe
 - 2,020 feet of 10" pipe
 - 230 feet of 12" pipe
- Undoubtedly there are some leaks in the lines. In 1929, Hoad, Decker, Shoecraft and Drury estimated that there was a leakage in our lines of 150 g. p. m. Many of these leaks have been repaired since that time. However, others may have developed. The water department makes repairs as quickly as a leak is discovered. It is now possible to buy detectors which are used in many places. It is suggested that one of these be purchased and careful examinations made throughout the City. The pumping of this volume of water continuously night and day for which no revenue is received is a most expensive item in plant operating costs.

The distribution system, it is agreed by the several engineers with whom I have talked, is the one weak point in our system. The water problem is not one primarily of more supply, but one of adequate pressure throughout the City and available water.

Perhaps the greatest criticism at the present time comes from the northwest part of the City. During the summer months it is impossible to get more than a trickle of water out of the garden hose or flush a toilet on the second floor. At such a time the inhabitants in other parts of the City, situated on a lower elevation, may enjoy the comforts of an adequate water supply.

In looking over the distribution system one finds no feeder mains in the north-western section. In nearly every direction the water is choked off by running through a 4" opening or suddenly coming to a dead end.

Several suggestions have been made to relieve the situation. Some suggest that another steel tank be erected at the same elevation as the present one, but on the higher part of the City. Some suggest another well located on Irving Street. Others suggest a booster pump. However, at the best these would only be temporary measures to correct a major need. The steel tank would cost a considerable amount and it is doubtful if it could be filled through the small pipes leading to it. Another well would also cost money, approximately $4500.00, and in addition would make for a decentralized pumping system. Then if in the future a softening plant should be desired, it would necessarily follow that two plants would have to be constructed rather than one. A booster pump also has its disadvantage, in that the pressure immediately in back of the pump would be extremely low.

Another problem also presents itself. In addition to low pressure areas there is the problem of adequate water for fire protection. The business district is fed with a 6" main. The schools have protection only through a 6" and 4" lines.

The proposed solution to both of these problems is the construction of 10" or 12" feeder mains. No matter how much water is available at the spring or at the City limits, we must realize that water is delivered in pipes too small to get us the desired amounts. More than 20% of our mains are 4" and less than 1% are 6" or better.

Perhaps some of the more flagrant exceptions to an adequate distribution system might be listed:

1. The steel tank regulating the pressures is fed actually by a 6" main.
2. Adams Street, which becomes one of the main feeders for the northwestern section, is 4" Blanche Street.
3. Irving, Arthur, Pacific, Sheridan, Golden Road, Dewey, Roosevelt, Blanche, Harding, Kellogg, South Mill and Holbrook Avenue, are all dead-end lines.
4. The water mains for the entire area south of Brush are fed with a 4" main.
5. The 4" bottleneck on Penniman West of Church Street.
6. Broken valve at Mill Street and Ann Arbor Trail.

The distribution system can be readily improved provided a long term program is strictly adhered to without borrowing or bonding. However, much thought, study and calculations should be given to it. Therefore, with your permission another report concerning a ten year program for the improvement will be presented in the very near future. In passing, attention should be called to the estimated reserve fund which is in excess of operating revenues. As the bonds which have in the past been floated are gradually paid, then the net income or reserve fund gradually grows larger. This fund should logically be used for development of the system. By following a long term program on a pay-as-you-go basis much more work may be done over a period of ten years than could be done by bonding at the present time. This is true because no interest payments would be necessary in order to make this clear, we need only to present our experience with floating bonds. Plymouth has issued $230,000 in bonds for water improvements. Part of this, $20,000, was for refunding bonds. Actually the City of Plymouth has obtained $210,000.00 worth of work. However, the water users will pay not $210,000.00 but $387,000.00. This means that for every dollar spent in the past, the present water consumer must pay $1.84. In the early history it was necessary to float bonds in order that the water might be furnished. Conditions have now changed to such an extent that the reserve funds should be ample to develop a good water system.

DETROIT WATER SUPPLY
Wayne County Park Commission is now constructing a 12" line from the Felician School located on Schoolcraft Road to the Park Drive at Newburg Road and then following the Park Drive to a point west of the Northville Road. This line will cross two City of Plymouth lines, one a 6" at Riverside Park and the other a 10" at Northville Road.

At the Felician School, the water pressure is now 40 lbs., but as the school is not in operation one may expect a lower pressure in the future. Engineers have estimated the theoretical pressure to be 13 lbs. at Riverside Park. If the pressure is this low, the County expects to build a small booster station at Newburg Road and thereby boost pressures to about 25 lbs.

It has been suggested that water might be obtained at the Riverside Park at the point of the present meter furnishing water to the Park Commission. This seems impracticable because the pressure of water of the City of Plymouth at this point is between 60 and 80 lbs. If a connection were made then our water would run into the Detroit main unless a booster pump, housed in a small building, was provided.

The Park Commission has placed a hydrant near one of the City's at Plymouth Road. It is therefore possible in cases of emergency to obtain water from the Detroit main into the Plymouth main by the use of a fire engine. This service will cost the City of Plymouth nothing. Nevertheless, little water could be passed through into our service lines. It would only supplement our present supply.

Perhaps a better location would be at Northville Road where our Booster Station is only 500 or 600 feet away. By the use of a ball and socket joint, standby service could be obtained. This connection would have the advantage of providing the City with some water if the supply main from the reservoir or spring should break. However, the supply would be necessarily limited. Our Booster pumps would soon empty the line unless the Detroit Water Board built booster stations along the route as the Felician School is about 100 feet lower in elevation than our business area. Then too, there are many users located along the line and as additional consumers are added the water obtainable would be less.

Furthermore, the Water Board would not like to have Plymouth and Detroit water mixed because of the possibility of contamination. From the standpoint of potability, undoubtedly the water from the spring is far superior to the Detroit water.

Officials in Detroit maintain that a 24" pipe should be laid on Plymouth Road to this City if adequate supplies are to be furnished to this section. A proposition was presented to the Wayne County Board of Supervisors incorporating this plan, but it was defeated.

RECOMMENDATIONS
Having in mind the existing physical plant, the conditions under which water service must be rendered in Plymouth, and the financial structure of the City, I feel that certain recommendations and observations should be made.

1. Inasmuch as engineers have ascertained that a capacity output at the spring is between 1400 and 2100 g. p. m. and further that a well is drilled but not equipped which if equipped would place the City out of immediate danger of a shortage of water, I therefore, recommend that the City equip the 6" well with a "Turbine" pump and make the changes necessary to make it efficient.
2. A tester or locator for leaks should be secured and an examination of all lines made as soon as possible.
3. That the engineering department proceed with a study of the efficiency of the pumps at the booster station, keeping in mind the possibility of increasing pressures and thereby increasing the amount of water to reach the City.
4. That the City Manager proceed with the preparation of a ten year program for the improvement of the distribution system.
5. That the PWA project be withdrawn.
6. That stand-by service be obtained from Detroit if the cost is not too great.
7. That all broken gate-valves be fixed as soon as possible and all leaks repaired as soon as discovered.

MEXICAN PRODUCTS DISPLAYED TO G. R.'s

The Girl Reserve groups were fortunate in having for their first meeting, Thursday, September 10, a talk by Miss Lickly who explained the unusual display of articles she brought back from her extended tour this summer. Miss Lickly spent the entire summer traveling in the southwest and western part of the continent, keeping as her base Mexico City. In Mexico she went as far south as Acapulco, west to Guadalajara, and east to Vera Cruz. The last three weeks of the summer she toured with friends the Pacific coast northward to Washington.

The Intermediate group elected for their officers

Ardeh Rowland, president; Betty Brown, vice president; Virginia Brocklehurst, secretary; Elburna Shradler, treasurer.

The fall training for football opened with a squad of 52, 10 of whom are letter-men from the previous year the remainder being made up of some of the more luckless boys who did not get a chance to show their ability. However, most of them are newcomers on Tuesday, September 1. This squad has been working very diligently during the last few weeks and will be able to show the fruits of their labor in the coming game with the Michigan School for the Deaf from Flint which is to be held on Saturday, September 19 on Plymouth's field. The admission for this game will be a quarter and if any one would like to get an idea of how the team is going to fare this year, he should turn out at the football field and get a glimpse of the future.

HOLD RECEPTION FOR BOARD AND TEACHERS

At the beginning of each school year the board of education and teachers of the public schools meet at an informal reception to become acquainted. Tuesday evening, September 15, was selected for this year's gathering. Miss Lickly, arithmetic teacher in the Junior high school, had an interesting display of souvenirs, which she brought back from Mexico. Refreshments, which had been planned by the host, Supt. G. A. Smith, were served.

SENIORS CHOOSE CLASS LEADERS

The 98 members of the class of '37 held the first meeting of their senior year last Friday morning, September 11, in Study 2, for the purpose of electing officers. A nominating committee, composed of two seniors from each home room, had previously met with the class advisers, Miss Lickly, Miss Wells, and Mr. Latture; and had selected these people as candidates: president and vice-president, Tom Brock; Jewel Starkweather, Dorothy Hearn, Pat McKinnon, and Florence Norton; secretary, Jeannette Brown, Edith Mettetal, and Phyllis Stewart; treasurer, Norma Jean Roe, Jean Dunham, and Francis Trombley. As a result of the voting Tom Brock received the highest number of ballots for president. Jewel Starkweather, second highest, became vice-president. Jeannette Brown was elected secretary, while Norma Jean Roe was chosen treasurer for the third consecutive year. All four officers were victorious by a close margin. A student council representative from each room was to be elected last Wednesday.

HOME ECONOMICS SUMMER HOME PROJECTS

The purpose of summer Home Economics Home projects is to encourage the girl to carry out Home Economics in the home and not leave it in the classroom when school closes. Home making is the basis of our standards of living and too much emphasis cannot be placed upon activities in the home, in which the girl lives. There were 31 girls enrolled in summer project work. They have had some very worthwhile and successful projects. Some of those carried out were: Canning, clothing, care and repair, child study, home furnishing, redecorating my room, meal preparation, fancy stitches, checking up my wardrobe.

The following girls were enrolled in summer home projects: Ames, Jeanne, Bartz, Lillian, Bridge Erma, Buehler, Hilda, Davis, Alice, Eberhart, Elaine, Everett, Glenda, Fulton, Ruth, Griffith, Betty, Hacht, Gwendolyn, Harer, Deborah, Hauk, Dorothy, Hughes, Dorothy, Holman, Delores, Henke, Elsie, Knowles, Betty, Korte, Marie, Matthews, Elizabeth, McNulty, Alice, McQuestion, Ruth, Nichols, Muriel, Parker, Betty, Schultz, Georgina, Shoemaker, Althea, Smith, Winifred, Smith, Merle, Sorenson, Shirley, Soth, Arlene, Tuck, Marion, Wefmo, Ida, Zobel, Virginia.

The girls have had two group meetings. On Saturday, June 27, Elaine Eberhart, Betty Knowles, Arlene Soth and Miss Lundin went to Battle Creek. There they visited Kellogg's Cereal plant. Then we went to Camp Kagawa north of Battle Creek where they visited the State Home Economics Vocational camp. There were about 150 home economics girls attending camp. They returned by way of Lansing.

Some of the home projects and some garments made during school were displayed at Wayne county fair.

The following projects were chosen to be sent to Miss Freegar, of State Home Economics department, Lansing, Michigan.

Child Study—by Delores Holman
Care and Repair—by Arlene Soth.
Redecorating My Room—by Winifred Smith.
