Plymouth Bank Official Identifies Former Convict As Member of Gang Which Looted Bank of $6,628 May 5

Kehrl Points Out Gunman Arrested In Missouri

Floyd Kehrl, president of the First National bank, went to St. Louis, Missouri, this week and pointed out one of the three gunmen who on May 5 escaped with $6,628 of the Plymouth bank's money in a daring robbery.

Upon his return here Kehrl said that the bandit, apprehended by East St. Louis police, on information from Jay Newman, special agent in charge of the Detroit office of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, was Willard O'Brien, alias Long of Escorse, Michigan, who was released in April, 1936, after serving a six-year robbery armed term at Jackson prison.

The Plymouth bank president said that O'Brien was the gunman who forced Cashier Jack Taylor to open the bank vault and who stood guard in the basement over Taylor, Kehrl, Margaret Dunning and Ruth Hamburger while the other bandit was scooping up the money.

O'Brien, the first suspect arrested in connection with the wave of nine bank robberies which have occurred in Michigan since January 1, waived extradition after being identified by Kehrl and was returned to Detroit Wednesday. He will face prosecution in the federal courts on a bank robbery charge inasmuch as the Plymouth bank as well as approximately 80 percent of the nation's banks now come under federal law enforcement because of the deposit insurance.

Officers announced that Eleanor Duvall, a woman with O'Brien, at the time of his arrest, will be charged with conspiracy. In the apartment the officers found ten new men's suits and $1,300 in cash. O'Brien had purchased a new Buick sedan recently and had just bought a beer tavern in East St. Louis which he had planned to operate.

Victims of the other eight Michigan bank robberies, including the Northville bank robbed two weeks before the gunmen invaded Plymouth, will view O'Brien in Detroit in an attempt to connect him with the other hold-ups.

The identities of the other two gunmen who participated in the Plymouth bank job are known and the capture of the rest of the gang is expected in the near future. The manhunt carried on by the federal agents, the state police and the county sheriff's deputies is continuing.

Dog License Fees Are Due On June 1

Police Chief Vaughn Smith warned owners of all dogs in the city that 1937-38 license money is due on June 1.

The license fee is $1 for each female or male dog and after July 1 there will be a 50 cent penalty added to this amount. The licenses may be obtained at the city treasurer's office in the city hall.

Last year 350 dogs were licensed in Plymouth.

During July and August all dogs, under the city ordinance, must be confined to the premises of the owner at all times.

Church Construction To Be Completed Sept. 1

Construction of the First Presbyterian church in Plymouth will be completed by September 1. Thomas Moss, architect for the new building, announced this week.

Some delay in the work was incurred through the stoppage of plastering caused by a Wayne county strike in this trade. Work has been resumed now and good progress is reported.

A. & P. Clerks Sale Proves Big Success

The Clerks' Week sale at the Plymouth Atlantic and Pacific Food stores which ended Saturday night provided the biggest volume of business since November, 1929, according to Howard Stark, manager of the store.

The total volume was but a few dollars under the biggest week in the history of the store, which occurred in 1929. Stark stated in behalf of his store that he appreciated the support given the store.

Attention Scouts And Scouters

Within a few weeks 25,000 or more scouts, representing every state in the union and dozens of foreign countries, will be encamped in the nation's capitol city, under the shadow of historic shrines.

Never before has scouting offered such an opportunity to build troop tradition. Every troop our great council should be able to say with pride "We sent a delegate to America's first national jamboree."

How many scouts are going? That's up to you, Mr. Scouter. Any would-be candidates must make their initial reservation at once. Time is very short. Many scouts are thinking about going. To be safe they must reserve a place for themselves, at once.

School Students' Fingerprints Taken This Week

Wayne County Expert To Show Movies Friday Night

Students of Plymouth schools are being fingerprinted this week by Robert Moore, head of the Wayne county identification bureau and his assistant.

Moore began the task Wednesday morning with more than 350 students voluntarily asking to be fingerprinted. Many others including the Boy Scouts previously had had their prints taken by Capt. Charles Thummie, in charge of identification work for the Plymouth police department.

One copy of each set of fingerprints will be sent to the Federal Bureau of Investigation for its huge civilian file in Washington while Moore will retain the other set for the Wayne county file.

In view of the large number of unidentified dead reported annually throughout the country in automobile accidents, disasters and other cases fingerprint experts are asking the co-operation of every citizen to reduce this number by submission to fingerprinting.

Anyone interested in this phase of identification work should attend the free movies at the Plymouth high school at 7:30 p.m. Friday when Mr. Moore will show slides portraying the history and interesting cases which were solved by fingerprinting. In the latter classification is the history of Al Capone's downfall.

Plymouth Woman To Attend World W.C.T.U. Conclave

Mrs. Todd Will Represent State At Washington

Clara Patterson Todd, of Plymouth, who is serving her fourth year as treasurer of the Michigan Women's Christian Temperance Union, leaves Sunday for Washington, D. C., to attend the W.W.C.T.U. convention which starts next Tuesday.

Mrs. Todd will drive to the nation's capitol and will be accompanied by Mrs. Lois Arnold, of Battle Creek; Mrs. Alice Campbell, of Royal Oak; Mrs. Julia A. Hutton, Mrs. A. L. McLean, and Miss Louise McCreary, all of Detroit.

Mrs. Todd will represent the state organization by carrying the Michigan flag in the world's procession on next Thursday evening.

International friendship and goodwill will be the outstanding feature of the convention which will attract at least 4,000 delegates from all the nations of the world. Greetings from President Roosevelt and other officials and daily business sessions will fill out the program of the convention which will close on June 8.

Miss Ida Brown of Ann Arbor will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brown soon for California.

Three Plymouth Girls To Broadcast Saturday

If you tune in Chicago radio station WLS Saturday from 12 o'clock noon to 1:15 p.m. you will hear three Plymouth girls on the air.

Patricia Cassidy, Florence Norton and Edith Mettelat, three members of the 1937 high school graduating class, have been invited to form a trio to sing over the special broadcast from Chicago.

Rev. and Mrs. P. Ray Norton will leave Friday to take the girls to Chicago.

Rosedale And Elm Schools Present Diplomas To 17

Joint Graduation Exercises Held Wednesday

Thirteen Rosedale students and four from Elm school received eighth grade diplomas at joint graduation exercises held in the community house at Rosedale Gardens Wednesday.

There was no formal committee and those that took it upon themselves to make such arrangements as necessary invited every one who found it convenient to make the trip to Lansing.

Upon their arrival in Lansing, a dinner was arranged at the Olds hotel.

The Plymouth visitors had the pleasure of hearing a few words of greeting from Governor Frank Murphy and Lieutenant Governor Leo Nowicki, who happened to be near during the informal dinner of the Plymouth visitors.

A Stanley James, president of the school board, spoke words of greetings to the students and parents and then two graduates Pauline Taylor and Patricia Kinahan presented piano and vocal solos respectively.

The commencement address was given by Charles E. Brake, deputy superintendent of Wayne county schools.

The eighth grade chorus gave two more numbers, "John Peel" and "All Through the Night" and then diplomas were presented.

Miss Dorothy Bentley, teacher in charge of the Elm school, called the four graduates, the largest number ever to finish at this school, to the front of the platform to receive their diplomas. They were Ernestine Mead, Victor De Wolf, Edward Lostutter and Arthur Zentz.

Simpson To Move To New Location

Bill Simpson announced this week that he will move his restaurant to the Main street building south of the Consumers Power company next week.

The new location will be called "Simpson's Sandwich Shop" with sandwiches and beer as specialties. The new building has been completely renovated and modern fixtures and equipment installed throughout. It will have a seating capacity of 100 persons.

Bill, who has operated the Plymouth hotel for almost four years, will announce the formal opening date in next week's Plymouth Mail.

Plymouth W. C. T. U. Meeting Held

A very enjoyable meeting of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union was held on the afternoon of May 20, at the home of Mrs. L. B. Stark of Maple avenue.

To raise money for the Willard centenary fund, the Plymouth union is putting on sale a booklet of poems entitled "Treasures" written by Nettie H. Pelham for this purpose.

Mrs. Todd was present with the booklets and arrangements were made for their sale by the members.

The June meeting will be held at the home of the president, Mrs. Mary Starkweather. The date will be given later.

Mrs. Bessie Salow spent the weekend in Hazel Park.

Mrs. Ida Brown of Ann Arbor will visit her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Brown soon for California.

Business Men Visit State Representative

Nearly Half Hundred Go To Lansing Wednesday Evening

Nearly fifty business men of Plymouth visited the city of Lansing Wednesday evening to extend to E. R. Eaton, state representative from this district, their appreciation for his efforts in behalf of this district and the state at large.

What, in the beginning, had been planned as a visit of half a dozen or so developed into one of the largest delegations that ever visited Lansing from this city. It was an entirely informal affair and when the special bus left Plymouth late Wednesday it contained a group of citizens of both parties and never was there a more congenial group.

There was no formal committee and those that took it upon themselves to make such arrangements as necessary invited every one who found it convenient to make the trip to Lansing.

Upon their arrival in Lansing, a dinner was arranged at the Olds hotel.

The Plymouth visitors had the pleasure of hearing a few words of greeting from Governor Frank Murphy and Lieutenant Governor Leo Nowicki, who happened to be near during the informal dinner of the Plymouth visitors.

A Stanley James, president of the school board, spoke words of greetings to the students and parents and then two graduates Pauline Taylor and Patricia Kinahan presented piano and vocal solos respectively.

The commencement address was given by Charles E. Brake, deputy superintendent of Wayne county schools.

The eighth grade chorus gave two more numbers, "John Peel" and "All Through the Night" and then diplomas were presented.

Miss Dorothy Bentley, teacher in charge of the Elm school, called the four graduates, the largest number ever to finish at this school, to the front of the platform to receive their diplomas. They were Ernestine Mead, Victor De Wolf, Edward Lostutter and Arthur Zentz.

The following composed the group that made up the informal party which went to Lansing:

Irving E. Blunk, Jake J. Stromich, Floyd Wilson, Harold B. Coolman, Walter A. Harms, J. J. McLaren, Stanley R. Hill, John Blackenback, C. H. Rathburn, Dr. Paul W. Butz, Edward L. Mills, Floyd G. Eckles, A. Goldstein, R. J. Lorenz, Glenn Smith, Clifford Smith, Charles F. Murphy, P. J. Wedemeyer, H. Anderson, J. Rusling Cutler, Clyde E. Smith, A. E. Blund, C. H. Elliott, Lyle Alexander, David Galin, Roy E. Crowe, E. J. Allison, C. G. Shear, Bill Rose, Norman Denne, William Wood, Jim Lyons, L. J. Murphy, Elmer Zuckerman, Fred Schrader, Sterling Eaton, Henry Honord, C. Harold Finian, V. R. Smith.

The association not only is doing the greatest amount of business since its organization, but it has enjoyed an increase of over 50 percent since January 1, 1936.

Since December 1, the association has averaged five mortgage loans a month in Plymouth and vicinity.

Under the present federal charter, the local association is able to offer insurance on its investors' accounts up to $5,000.00, and the insurance has played a large part in the recent growth of the association.

Dr. Aulenback showed how often people are faced by adverse conditions which seem overwhelming at the time and consequently they admit defeat without enjoying life or contributing to humanity's advancement.

On the other hand, it was pointed out, those national figures who have been forced to conquer obstacles are also the ones who have given life to some cause or ideal.

The Cranbrook clergyman dwelt on the need of young people for companionship of the opposite sex and on the need for everyone to protect his body in order to get the best equipment.

At the May directors' meeting, the association directors expressed their desire to continue their present conservative policy of assisting any worthy family in purchasing or building a new home, where the prospective home owner had proper references and could show the ability to take care of the monthly payments called for by their mortgage plan.

The local association is in a position to help in fulfilling the local need for new homes in this locality.

GARDEN CITY SHUTS OUT WYANDOTTE, 7-0

Ray Pyle scored the first shut-out of the season in the Michigan Inter-County league by turning back Wyandotte 7 to 0 in the opening game at Garden City last Sunday.

Pyle was ably supported by his teammates who did not make an error during the game in spite of the bad condition of the field due to the recent rains. Allowing but five hits and no walks, Pyle coasted to an easy victory when the Gas House Gang took advantage of numerous Wyandotte errors to score 7 runs in the game.

Johnny O'Brien and Tatro led the hitting with two safeties each.

Mrs. Bessie Salow spent the weekend in Hazel Park.

Parade and Appropriate Services In Kellogg Park Planned To Honor Memory of War Dead Here Monday

Program For Decoration Day Completed

Plymouth will honor the memory of her dead war heroes with appropriate Decoration day ceremonies next Monday.

Under the direction of the American Legion and Ex-Service Men's club, plans were completed this week for a parade which will form at Central park in front of the high school at 9:30 a.m.

The Plymouth city band will head the line of march and will be followed by massed colors and a firing squad. Next Gold Star mothers and widows of Civil War veterans will ride in automobiles.

Marching will be the Spanish American War veterans, members of the American Legion and Ex-Service Men's clubs and the auxiliaries of the latter two. Next in line will be the high school band.

Members of fraternal organizations, the Boy Scouts and Girl Scouts.

The parade will start from Central park, then west on Church street to Harvey street, south on Harvey to Ann Arbor and east on Ann Arbor to the center of Kellogg park.

John Jacobs will be parade marshal while Harry Hunter will be officer of the day.

Harold Anderson will be master of ceremonies in charge of the program at Kellogg park which will follow the parade.

The Rev. Father Frank Lefevre will pronounce the invocation. The high school girls' double quartet will present two numbers while the address of the day will be given by B. W. Waldrop, vice president of the Detroit Savings bank and first zone commander of the American Legion.

Boy Scouts will place wreaths on the monument and then a firing squad will fire a salute in memory of their dead comrades.

Howard Culver and Kenneth Stevens will blow taps and the city band will play "Star Spangled Banner" to close the program.

Although Decoration day will fall on Sunday this year Plymouth will celebrate it Monday with most of the business places planning to close their establishments all day Monday.

Delegates To P. T. A. Meeting

Wayne County Council's delegates to the 41st convention of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, held in Richmond, Virginia, May 2-7, inclusive, were Mrs. George Meininger, of Rockwood, the newly-elected president of the council and Mrs. Chester L. Tuck, of Dearborn, the retiring president. They were accompanied by George Meininger, Mrs. Fred Blakeley and Mrs. Russell Fisher.

Mrs. J. K. Pettengill of Wayne University, Detroit, was elected national president for a term of three years.

Founders honored at this convention were Mrs. Dessalee Dudley of Grand Rapids and Miss Claire Wheeler, state historian, representing Michigan.

The convention closed Friday, May 7, with a trip to historical Williamsburg, Jamestown and Yorktown.

Friday, May 14, Wayne county council planted a tree to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the founding of the parent-teacher movement.

An oak tree, symbol of the work, was planted on the school grounds of the Gibralton school.

This association was presented the tree because they had the largest attendance of teachers and officers at the council meetings during the year just ending.

Fred Fischer, county school superintendent, presented the tree and Mrs. George Meininger accepted. A very fitting and appropriate program was prepared by Mrs. Cleo Parsons, a teacher of the school.

This past week, Mrs. Meininger and Mrs. Tuck, represented the council at the state convention, held in Petoskey, Michigan, May 19, 20 and 21.

Wayne county had a very fine representation of delegates from local associations throughout the county.

MASS PRODUCTION.

All sorts of promises and pledges were made during the campaign last fall about the elimination of slot machines, economy in government, a reduction in the number of useless job holders and the ending of the spoils system in public affairs.

After nearly six months of the "new deal" in Michigan we have more slot machines than ever, we have the biggest army of payroll goose-steppers in the history of Michigan, we have a state government that is so expensive that it may topple over from its vast expenditures and we have more "spoils" in the system" than any half dozen other administrations have ever known.

The creation of public jobs and the addition of new names to the public payrolls has entered upon the mass production stage. When and where it will stop no man knows—and it will probably not end until the overburdened taxpayer rises up in his outraged might to strike down what is fast developing into one of the most outrageous conditions in all the history of Michigan.

FUTURE MEMORIALS.

Memorial day is undergoing a process of evolution. It was established after the Civil War as a specific occasion for paying tribute to the Northern soldiers who had fallen in that struggle. Then the wounds of war still were bleeding. The armed clashes below the Potomac had brought heart-breaks into thousands of homes.

But the specific occasion that gave birth to the holiday is receding into the mists of history. During the intervening half century there have been tendencies in two directions—one toward a festival of patriotism and one toward an occasion of general memorial for all the dead.

It is this latter tendency which is likely to conquer in the end. It seems probable that gradually the occasion will attain the status of All Soul's day in some of the European countries. It will be one day in the year given over entirely to the memory of all those who have fallen on the battlefields of life and gone before us on that mysterious pilgrimage into the dark. But it will come in the high tide of the month of flowers, symbols of ever-recurring life and hope, rather than in the melancholy mists of autumn, when contemplation of death is most natural.

A people has need of such a day. The actual observance of Memorial day long has transcended the specific purpose for which it was established. It has become a time of family mourning, not alone for soldiers who died for their country, but for mothers and fathers, sisters, brothers, husbands, wives and children. They are all gone as comrades in the one great war which encompasses all other wars—that of the weak, helpless mortal against the forces of fate and nature.

The time may come when May 30 will be the most profoundly religious occasion of the year, when the relations of men with each other, which result in states and cults and wars, will be buried temporarily in contemplation of the relations of all men with the powers which rule the waves of the great ocean of time and space upon which our little world is tossed through the great darkness.

IF.

If some poor, uninformed county, village or township official had dipped his hands into the public welfare funds and put into his own pockets by certain systems "within the law," as much public money as has been done by some of the high-up administrators of welfare, an outraged public would be crying for crucifixion and punishment to the "full extent of the law." But seemingly the thing that is wrong for the "little fellow" to do is perfectly justified if some so-called intellectual social leader does it.

No wonder there is a distrust on the part of the public of all of its political leaders of today. No wonder the men and women one contacts up and down the main streets of Michigan and out on the farm lands and within the factories have a feeling that there are few in public life to be trusted.

Men who should regard a public office as a public trust have turned their jobs into cess-pools of greed and favoritism. The time is here for an awakening—but that awakening is NOT going to come through any political party.

The men and women who, since the beginning of Michigan, have carried the state along to its greatness—the so-called little fellows out on the farms and up and down the main streets—are the ones who must soon hear the cry to take Michigan out of the control of the MONEY leeches now carrying the state down to the lowest ebb in its history.

The Popcorn Man

by LAWRENCE
HAWTHORNE

I'd like t' be the Popcorn Man!
He rides around all day—
An' makes a lot o' money, too.
Cause all the children pay
For popcorn, peanuts, ice cream cones
An' candy, gum an'—Well,
Whatever else a Popcorn Man
Is hopin' he can sell!

I bet it lots o' fun t' blow
A whistle all day long—
An' I'd fig up a siren, too.
An' prob'ly a gong.
I'd use 'em all in every block!
The big folks might get mad,
But all the kids along the street,
You bet, would sure be glad!
An' here's the best: When I got home,
I'd give myself a treat;
I'd say, "Jus' help yourself, my boy,
To all that you can eat!"
You see, I'd never t' spend
A nickel or a dime—
An' golly, that's what any guy
Would call a darn good time!

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

TAX THE LITTLE FELLOW.

People of small and moderate means may think they escape taxation because they pay few or no direct taxes. But they are in reality among the heaviest taxed of all people, on a percentage basis.

A study conducted in two typical states, Illinois and New York, by Dr. Mabel Newcomer, Vassar economist, is of special interest. In New York a typical wage-earner with an income of $2,000, pays $276 to $334 annually in taxes. In Michigan, where there is a sales tax, he pays between $279 and $359.

On a national average, taxes take approximately 20 percent of income. This money is collected mainly through indirect taxes. The tax paid by the shoe manufacturer and the retail store is passed on to the shoe buyer. The tax levied against the electric company is a necessary and substantial part of the consumer's bill. So it goes, with everything we buy, luxury or necessity.

You can't beat taxation. Government can't live off the rich; there aren't enough of them. It must rely on those of small means for sustenance. These are facts that should be understood by every citizen.—Frank Bryce in The Grand Ledge Independent.

A GOOD NAME NOW.

Back a dozen or even five years ago the name "Nowicki" would have been classified in the average upstate household as just another down river foreigner from Hamtramck; or worse. Times have changed and how. These foreign groups, especially in Detroit, have been welded into potential units of political strength and private influence. The Negro and Polish vote solidly for a candidate could easily decide any Michigan election.—Muri H. DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

F. H. A. AND WORKMEN'S HOMES

The Federal Housing Act was designed to get homes for the American people. The act has been a flop, insofar as the average factory worker in the metropolitan Detroit area is concerned. He neither has been able to rent a home at a fair price, nor get a loan with which to build himself a habitation at a fair price. He is very much left out of the housing picture.

The average workman wants a home that will cost not more than $3500. Some want homes that will cost even less. Most want a plot of ground 75 feet wide and twice that long. There is plenty of such land in northwest Detroit, or adjacent to the city.

The F. H. A. act does not take into consideration the fact that the average worker has from $300 to $500, at the most, to pay down on a home. Also the F. H. A. is geared up to a banker's idea of a dandy income and not what a worker can afford to pay in the shape of interest. The F. H. A. is not in the least concerned about when a worker might be able to own his home free and clear.

The F. H. A. insofar as we have been able to learn, is not the least interested in making any considerable number of loans below $3,000 each. Nor is it concerned whether working people live in tents, double up in dilapidated homes built many years ago, or try to get along in some tar-paper shanty that must do under the circumstances. When governmental agencies, insurance companies and other lending agencies and the building industry is not much concerned about the matter.

So we have a situation today whereunder a workingman can acquire a $3500 value home by paying about $10,000 for it.

The F. H. A. thing is a joke, insofar as the factory worker is concerned. For speculative building of homes of the better class, it is doing great things. But the big need hereabouts today is a new community of homes for working people at low cost. We should do something about it.—Floyd McGriff in The Redford Record.

Chicks Never Touch The Earth

Chicks—direct from the eggs into the frying pan that have never had their feet on the ground—that's something new, but that is just what is being accomplished out on the L. E. Jennings poultry farm on East Ann Arbor road, just south of Newburg lake.

Mr. Jennings recently completed the installation of new electric hot-water heating equipment that keeps the chicks within the hatchery from the time they are hatched until ready for market. They live during the eight weeks on wire floors and are fed food especially designed to make them good for the market as fryers.

The machine has a capacity of 1000 chicks per month. They are not ready for the market until they weigh about two pounds.

Die to the little hatreds; die to greed;

Die to the old ignoble selves we knew;

Die to the base contempts of sect and creed.

And rise again, like these, with souls as true.

Nay (since these died before their task was finished)

Attempt new heights, bring even their dreams to birth;

Build us that better world, Oh, not diminished

By one true splendor that they planned on earth.

And that's not done by sword, or tongue, or pen.

There's but one way. God makes us better men.

—Alfred Noyes.

ST. PAUL'S EVANGELICAL Lutheran church, Livonia Center. O. J. Peters, pastor. No services in this church on Sunday, May 30. All our members are cordially invited to the services at the state fair grounds commemorating the centennial of Michigan at 3:00 p.m. Welcome and bring your friends.

SALEM CONGREGATIONAL church, Lucia M. Stroh, minister. There will be no service in our church next Sunday. The union memorial service will be held in the Federated church, Rev. Cora M. Pennell will give the memorial address. Our congregation will unite with them. The pastor has been asked to take charge of a baptismal service at Joslin lake next Sunday. A class of candidates from Underrill and Salem will be baptized. This coming Thursday the Lightbearers Sunday school class holds a party in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wendt on the Six Mile road in honor of their son, Lloyd's birthday. All of the class and friends are cordially invited.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist—Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of twenty years, Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00.

"Ancient and Modern Necromancy, alias Mesmerism and Hypnotism, Denounced" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 30. Among the Bible citations is this passage Isa. 14: 24, 27: "The Lord of hosts hath sworn, saying, Surely as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand: For the Lord of hosts hath purposed, and who shall disannul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?" Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 266): "The power of the human will should be exercised only in subordination to Truth; else it will misguide the judgment and free the lower propensities."

Practical because it harmonizes with every other color—and is doubly smart for an all-white outfit!

It pays to use the best available and yet it costs no more.

Fred Burnett, pastor of the Holly Baptist church will give the address. Mr. Burnett was licensed to preach years ago by the Baptist unit of our church and, we always welcome his coming among

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH—Corner Hardenburg and North Holbrook avenue. Friend: Did you know that more than thirty million persons are enrolled in the Sunday schools of the world? That number seems so small when we learn that boys and girls by the thousands are within the shores of our own country, who have at no time, entered the folds of a Sunday school. If all these, and the church members too, knew what the Sunday school is really for, the enrollment would jump upward millions upon millions. The true Sunday school has its being only because of the Gospel, the "Good News" of the Lord Jesus Christ must be made known to those within and without. Is your boy or your girl attending Sunday school? If not—bring them this Sunday at 11:30 a.m. On Wednesday evening, we meet for a prayer and praise service, 7:30. Bring your Bible for a good old fashioned study of God's Word. Services this Sunday as usual—if you come, you can help to make them unusual. Morning worship at 10 o'clock; evening evangelistic service 7:45 p.m. Mid-week prayer meeting, Thursday 7:45 p.m. A hearty welcome awaits you at the Church of God. Pastor, Rev. E. L. Harris, 3805 Ford road. (Not Pentecostal).

SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST Services Saturday afternoon at 2 p.m. Bible school following. Prayer service Tuesday evening, 8:00 p.m. at Jewell-Bleich hall. Testimony study every Friday evening at various homes.

Plymouth Eastern Star Observes 43rd Birthday

A delightful evening was spent by members and visitors at the 43rd birthday dinner of the Order of the Eastern Star last Tuesday.

Mrs. Thelma LeRoy of Royal Oak sang two numbers and presented a whistling number. Welda Selle and Jessica Goebel gave humorous readings. Worth Marion Winfield Downing presented the past matrons and patrons with a remembrance and the life members with a rose. The assembly then went to the chapter room where degrees of the order were exemplified by the officers of the Plymouth chapter.

of the late Anna Lange Micol. He is survived by one son, Harold A. Micol of Plymouth; two brothers, August of Pontiac and Alexander of Plymouth; and one sister, Mrs. Anna Stroll also of Plymouth. The remains were brought to the Schrader funeral home, from which place funeral services were held Sunday. May 23, at 4 p.m. Interment was made in Riverside cemetery. Rev. Loya Sutherland officiating.

PLYMOUTH ERROES LOSE GAME WITH WAYNE, 12-5

The Plymouth nine threw away another game to the tune of 12-5 when it played the Wayne team on Tuesday, May 18. A steady drizzle fell during most of the game and it must have dampened the ardor of the fans, for only a handful showed up, and they in autos. It also made the ball somewhat wet, which made pitching rather difficult.

Bob Hitt pitched the entire game for Plymouth and did his usual good job. He gave only four scattered hits and struck out five. Temple, who went the whole route for Wayne, gave five hits and struck out eleven, including every member of the Plymouth team except Trinka and Robbins, who garnered two of the five hits.

Plymouth got four of her five runs in the first innings. After a walk, a hit batsman, and an error at first had loaded the bases, Lloyd Trinka smacked a timely hit into left, scoring two runs. Robbins was out at the plate trying to take advantage of the slow fielding of the Wayne outfield. Krumm was the second batsman to be hit by the Wayne pitcher. Temple, in the first inning, and he advanced to second when Folsom hit the ball back to the pitcher and was thrown out at first a moment later. Trinka scored and Krumm moved to third when the third baseman erred on Gilles' hard grounder. Krumm scored the fourth and last run of the inning on a balk as Egloff struck out.

Folsom and Giles singled in succession to open the fourth, advanced on a wild pitch, and Folsom scored on an error at short. Plymouth scored no more runs.

Wayne also scored in the first inning on a walk, a hit, and two errors. She scored in the third, also, on two more errors, two stolen bases and a hit.

The best fielding play of the game came in the fourth—a double play by the Plymouth infield. With Williams on first, Temple grounded to Robbins, and the ball was relayed from Robbins to Egloff to Trinka for two outs. Plymouth lost the lead in the fifth when it scored five runs on only one hit. Six errors did most of the work. From then on the game was all Wayne.

We made a summary of how the runs that scored got on base and we found that only one run got on base through a hit; all others were walks, hit batsmen, and errors. Fourteen errors were made by the Plymouth team, which has an average of over six errors a game now, and still going up.

BORDINE HEADS COMMITTEES FOR JUNIOR SENIOR BANQUET

In the crystal dining room of the Mayflower hotel 108 Juniors will entertain 101 seniors, the members of the teaching staff and the school board, at a banquet on June 11 at 6:30 o'clock. The theme of the banquet will be concerned with a flower garden. Don Patterson and his four-piece orchestra will provide dance music from 9:00 until 11:00 o'clock. Chairmen of the various committees for the banquet are: Gerald Bordine, general chairman; Catherine Kaltsky, chairman of decorations; Marian Shoebridge, chairman of the orchestra; Leona Mault, chairman of table arrangements; and Doris Schmidt, chairman of invitations. Miss Walord is general supervisor.

EGGE PLACES IN STATE MEET

Robert Egge, sole representative of the Plymouth track team in the state track meet held at Lansing on Saturday, May 22, succeeded in taking a fourth position in the high jumping event. The wet weather was the main obstacle in the path of the prep trackers, and was also responsible for Egge missing his final jump. Birmingham, the defending champion in the Class B schools, retained its title and remain champions for 1937 in the B class leagues.

LOCAL GOLFERS DROP TO SIXTH IN REGIONAL

The Regional Golf tournament was played at Ann Arbor, Saturday, May 22. The teams were divided into three groups. In class A, Ann Arbor with a score of 368 took first place. Henry Ford Trade came second with 455 as their score. These two teams will play in the state tournament at Grand Rapids May 29. De LaSalle took third place and Catholic Central fourth. Their scores were 465 and 478.

In class B, Redford Union took first place with a score of 367. Mt. Clemens came second and Howell third with scores of 380 and 390. These teams will play in the state tournament. Ypsilanti took fourth place, Baldwin of Birmingham fifth. Plymouth sixth, and Wayne seventh.

In class C, University high took first place. They will play at the state tournament. St. Frederick and St. Thomas took second and third places.

Plymouth played East Lansing Monday, May 24 at East Lansing.

CENTRAL GRADE NOTES

The kiddies in Miss Marian's kindergarten have started reading. They are bringing magazines from home and are cutting out pictures to make booklets of the family of Mother and Father, Dick, Jane and Bobby. They are going to make up their own stories about each member of the family. Jackie Pinkerton has returned after a very long illness. Barbara Smith has been transferred to Starkweather.

Paul Denham of Miss Landon's room has moved to Detroit.

Miss DeWeale's pupils have been making free hand illustrations of the various means of transportation for an art project. They have taken their last vocabulary test. The doll house has been completed.

The kiddies in Miss Frantz's room have planted gardens, and they have already come up, consisting of marigolds, nasturtiums, melons, and beans. In bird study they have completed the Bob White.

Miss Moore was a visitor in Miss Sly's room last week.

The children in Miss Weatherhead's room visited The Plymouth Mail last week and learned many interesting things about printing. Beth McGee brought two kittens to school again. Raymond Smith found a young sparrow which was a visitor in the room during one recess. Ray Kelly, Joan Sockow, and Vivian Anderson have been absent for sometime because of illness.

Miss Widmayer's pupils have completed their bird booklets. In geography they are learning about China during their visit there and are making booklets about the characteristics of the Chinese. In language they are learning the use of possession, especially the apostrophe. Jack Coulter and Patricia Hershenson have entered from Detroit.

The pupils in Miss Carr's room have started to make large pictures in art class portraying the different means of modern transportation. The 5A students are making booklets in geography; some of them have chosen Alaska as their topic while others have chosen Mexico. They have found many good pictures to illustrate the booklets also.

In 6B geography Mr. Berridge's pupils have completed their airplane trip across Africa. The 6A pupils are studying the new Baltic countries. Bird booklets have been completed. In art the students have been drawing coronation pictures. In the soft ball league Billy Donahue's Tigers are now in the lead.

The SB boys and girls in Miss Hornbeck's room have begun the introduction to fractions in arithmetic. In 5A geography the class is learning about Mexico and is very interested in hemp. One of the boys brought some binder twine to school to show them what hemp is like. The SB pupils are studying the east south central states and the blue grass region. Half the room that was out because of measles have now returned.

SENIOR BIOGRAPHIES

John Moore, known as "Pete" to you and me, was born in Detroit but has attended Plymouth schools all his life. While in high school he has made an excellent record in scholarship, ranking very high in the class, and in activities of the school. Pete has been in the musicals, stunt night, Hi-Y, Pilgrim Prints, Plythean, Torch club, and glee club. In Hi-Y club, he was president and he was honored at the honor banquet for Plythean work. After graduation he will attend Wayne University before taking a civil service examination for some form of government work. His favorite subject is definitely not solid geometry but happens to be physics. Peter is particularly fond of camping and outdoor sports and dislikes waiting for people and washing dishes.

Ellen Mulry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mulry, started her education in Plymouth, but went to St. Vincent's school in Detroit for the first grade. However, she decided that she liked Plymouth best and came back to finish her high school education here. She has been a member of Girl Reserves, Library club, and Leaders' club, of which she is president this year. Ellen likes all sports but ice skating is her favorite. Her favorite pastime is eating, she likes all kinds of food and plenty of it. After she graduates, she hopes to attend the Detroit Art academy and study fashion designing. Ellen's ambition is to own a hockey team and when her ship comes in she intends to do so.

James Nairn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Nairn of Sheridan avenue, has been a student in the Plymouth schools from the kindergarten on. James has red hair, and blushes very easily, a performance that may easily be witnessed by peering into the physics class room. His favorite hobby is taxidermy and he often tramps around the woods seeking new subjects in their natural surroundings. Two of his favorite pastimes are hunting and fishing, but unlike most fishermen, his biggest fish never escaped. If someone should ask Jim what his idea of Utopia is, he would probably say a nice quiet stream on a summer day with a lunch of strawberry short cake and a radio bursting forth with Benny Goodman's music. James plans to enter the University of Michigan sometime in the future to take up a course in chemical engineering, a subject in which he is very interested.

Donald Passage, son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Passage of Haggerty road, entered the Plymouth school in the lower grades and he has attended here since then.

Donald's only, and naturally, favorite hobby is tennis and he has been on the high school tennis team for quite a few seasons. Benny Goodman's music with its soothing charm comforts Donald's angelic nature but the same effect may be produced by giving him a nice red apple—an item that he always enjoys. At the present time Donald plans to work but would like to enter Michigan State college.

Miss Maunula's students wrote original poetry. The art class has started a mural telling the favorite stories of the pupils. Jimmy Pierce has eight flowers in his flower pot—this means that he has read eight library books in one month; Marian Fisher is second with seven flowers.

A house wren was observed feeding its young 1,217 times in one day.

inaw before entering the high school here as a seventh grader. She has taken a general course and has been a member of the glee club every year. In her leisure time she likes to swim, sing, and dance. After being graduated Virginia plans to study beauty culture so that she can operate her own shop.

Norma Jean Roe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Roe, was born in Sainte Marie, Michigan but has obtained all her education in Plymouth schools. While in high school she has been a member of Girl Reserves, double quartet, and orchestra, and played the part of Beth in "Little Women". "Rick", as her friends call her, likes to handle money and has been class treasurer for four years. She likes to spend her spare time either in playing the piano or in going to shows and her favorite orchestra is Fred Waring's. After she graduates, Norma expects to be her hobby and DeBussy's works especially appeal to her.

Barbara, the blue-eyed blonde daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Nutting, was born in Toledo, Ohio, eighteen years ago and now lives at 1055 Williams street. She attended Whittier school in Toledo and entered the Plymouth schools in the second grade. Barbara would like to teach speech and drama and plans to attend the Michigan State Normal college at Ypsilanti. While in high school Barbara has belonged to Glee club, Girl Reserves, and Drama club. Her favorite subjects are speech and French, although she says her French marks aren't so good. Her hobbies are collecting photographs and stamps. Barbara's pet aversion is very decided. It is, in her own words: "people who sit and copy other people's work and then get good marks while teachers smile—while some do their own work and get bum marks—and teachers glare". Barbara would like to travel a lot, and we're sure that she wouldn't travel alone—for he's a persistent fellow.

STARKWEATHER NOTES

Mary Ann Teller, a student in Miss Farrand's room, is moving to California. Carl Johansson won the speldown; William Woods has won the most speldowns. The geography class is finishing the study of Canada.

Biographies of historical characters are being written by Miss Sparling's history class. The art class is making pictures with which to decorate the room. The geography class is studying about the interesting country of Russia. The penmanship finals have been sent in to the company for rating.

Miss Rathburn's fourth grade geography class has finished the notebooks about the pignies of Africa. The girls have finished painting and dipping vases for the garden project. The art class is making health postes. Every one is very proud because the language class has studied the correct way to set a table.

For the second time this semester George Newton's spelling team has won a gold star. The fifth grade boys of Miss Bock's room are making a bird bath; the girls are building bird houses. The penmanship drills have been sent in to the Palmer company. The fifth grade geography class has completed the study of the west south-central states and is beginning the east south-central group; the fourth grade is studying China. Paul Decker was injured during a baseball game.

Miss Maunula's students wrote original poetry. The art class has started a mural telling the favorite stories of the pupils. Jimmy Pierce has eight flowers in his flower pot—this means that he has read eight library books in one month; Marian Fisher is second with seven flowers.

A house wren was observed feeding its young 1,217 times in one day.

CLASS NOTES

Miss Walldorf's fourth hour English class is writing personal letters.

The 10B English class has completed the study of essays—nature, informal, and adventure. They are now studying lyric poetry. Outside of class they are reading George Eliot's "Silas Marner".

Perfection Ties For First Place

Harold Pisarek's great relief pitching saved the game for the Perfection Laundry last Sunday against the strong Glen Gray team from Highland Park. Pisarek went into the game in the sixth inning with the score 6 to 5 in favor of the local lads and the bases loaded and two balls and no strikes on the batter (Legault). He struck out Legault by throwing five strikes and no balls and with the count three and two on Smith, the next batter, he caused him to ground out to short. Then Harold Pisarek pitched a hitless seventh, eighth and ninth innings to keep Perfection Laundry in first place tie with Belleville, Cass, Benton and Plymouth Schrader's.

Stone, Bonn and H. Pisarek led the local hitters for the day. Stone got two singles in four times up, while Bonn had a triple and a single in four trips and Pisarek had one single in two times at bat.

Next week Warren Bassett will be back with the local boys after spending the last week end in the Wayne hospital.

BEEF The most misrepresented item in the meat industry; for it matters not how fancy a name you give inferior grades of beef it doesn't change the taste. Of course, the housewife knows better after the meal has been prepared and the Sunday dinner spoiled. The Purity Market built a reputation of honest dealings in Plymouth for nearly ten years and we are going to abide by this policy in the future. We admit that beef is high in price and because there are many families who cannot afford the very best at present prices, we have arranged to supply you with your daily needs at prices that will be in keeping with your budget. Here is an example of how reasonably good fresh beef can be bought at the Purity Market.

A statement from Dave Galin: "It is my intention to make this, the formal opening of my new store on Penniman avenue, one long to be remembered in Plymouth. I believe it will be the greatest money saving celebration ever staged for the buyer of meats or groceries."

I am extending you a personal invitation to come and inspect this fine, clean, up-to-date food market. Select your table needs from a new, fresh stock of quality merchandise. Taste the fine variety of delicious sausages and luncheon meats which we manufacture. See our own hickory smoked, sugar-cured hams and bacon. Get your share of the free goods that we are offering and treat your children to the show at our expense."

Grosse Pointe Quality

is pleased to announce the appointment of

Purity Market
as its distributor

This finer line of canned foods is brought to you at much lower prices and greater savings than ever before due to carload purchases of co-operative buying which Mr. Galin is able to participate in.

We invite you to inspect our PRICES and our QUALITY.

We will be open from 7 to 10 a.m. Decoration Day for your convenience.

We are grateful to our neighbors on Penniman avenue for the friendly reception they afforded us upon our arrival in their midst. We pledge ourselves to a continued policy of keeping and making good friends.
