

Christmas Lights To Go Up This Month

Chairman Frank Terry Gets Busy On Street Decorations

No time is being lost by Chairman Frank Terry and members of his committee appointed recently by President Stewart Dodge of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce to work out details for the decoration of Plymouth's business streets for the Christmas holidays.

At a meeting held Monday night, Chairman Terry stated that it was his hope to have all the colored Christmas street lights up and burning the first day after Thanksgiving. While in past years an effort has been made to have the lights placed three or four weeks before Christmas, the hopes have not been attained.

By starting early, Mr. Terry and members of the committee believe that they can have all the lights up and ready to turn on the day after Thanksgiving.

President Stewart Dodge of the business men's organization, attended the committee meeting, and gave his approval to the plan to get busy at once on the project. In fact, his appointment of Mr. Terry as chairman of the committee some two weeks ago was for the purpose of getting the project started in plenty of time to prevent a rush at the last minute.

Members of the committee serving with Mr. Terry are Howard Stark, Carl Caplin, Sterling Eaton, Harold Coolman, William Rose, William Choffin and Mr. Dodge, the organization's president.

Mr. Terry, Sterling Eaton and Carl Caplin will serve as the finance committee for the south end of the city and Mr. Rose and Mr. Choffin will raise necessary funds in the north end.

Harold Coolman and Howard Stark will direct the placing of the lights in the south end and Mr. Rose and Choffin in the north end of town.

Mr. Caplin will handle all funds and committees were instructed to immediately get busy to raise a sufficient amount to take care of the decorations for this year.

New Addition For Precision Co.

Within three weeks from the time the Precision Products company moved into its new plant, corner of Mill and Amelia streets, it has been necessary for the concern to start the construction of a new addition. Monday morning Contractor Paul Wood started work on another addition 30x50 feet, one story high, which he hopes to have finished within two weeks' time. Business at the plant, which has been moved here from Kalamazoo, is rushing at the present time, nearly 70 men now being on the payroll of the company.

James Gates is the other member of the local Grange, having been accorded the same honor.

Hallowe'en Party Proves Big Success

Only One Window In Entire City Marked By Soap

Outstanding as the most successful event of its kind ever undertaken in this community, the big Hallowe'en party arranged for the children of the city last Saturday night, far exceeded the expectations of those who worked to make it such a success.

As a result of the entertainment provided the children there were no deprecations committed within the city, and as far as known only one window in all Plymouth was soaped that night. Trips to other nearby communities Sunday morning revealed what havoc had been wrought to display windows by youngsters who thought they were having a good time. But their fun was nothing as compared to the fun that Plymouth residents provided its boys and girls.

The idea, born in the minds of Officer Charles Thumme of the Plymouth police department, and Manager Harry Lush of the Penniman-Allen theatre, a few years ago, has developed into an outstanding community affair.

It was these two who first provided something interesting for the boys and girls of Plymouth on Hallowe'en night, with bits of good things to eat, then a free show at the Penniman-Allen theatre.

This year, because of Hallowe'en falling on Saturday night, it was necessary to provide additional outdoor entertainment for the young people. So it was that a big community party following a parade of youngsters in costume that was a real event in itself, took place at the Daisy parking lot. There motion pictures, good things to eat and a general happy time was enjoyed by hundreds of the boys and girls of Plymouth.

In return for the thoughtfulness of the elders, the boys and girls didn't soap windows, disturb property or do any of the hundreds of little things that have in past years proved so annoying to people.

It was a great event, far more successful than had been anticipated—and as beneficial. It was proof of what can be done when the entire community pulls together to do something worth while.

In addition to the prizes previously acknowledged in The Plymouth Mail the following unsolicited gifts were made: candy, Mrs. Homer Burton; girl's dress and sweater, Eckles Coal company; scout knife and hunting knife, Huston's; wrist watch by Draper's Jewelry store.

Following are the parade prize winners:

Townsend Club To Meet In City Hall

U. S. A. Heggblom, attorney in Detroit, gave a stirring talk on the Townsend Plan, Monday evening in the Grange hall, before a goodly sized audience. It was the most interesting talk ever given on the Townsend Plan in Plymouth. On Tuesday evening, November 9, the club will have a meeting in the city hall, meeting to start promptly at 8:00, and the speaker will be Judge M. C. Summers, of California, who is on a speaking tour through the United States for the Townsend clubs. It is hoped that many who have never attended a Townsend meeting will avail themselves of this opportunity.

Ex-Service Men Plan Armistice Day Event

Charles Thumme Named As Chairman Of Committee

The 19th annual observance of Armistice Day in Plymouth will be commemorated in fitting manner by the Ex-Service Men's club of Plymouth.

Charles Thumme, as chairman of the committee, and Harry Brown and William Vanderveen assisting, announce a genuine old-fashioned dance and harvest party to be held at Jewell and Blain hall, with Sallotte's orchestra providing the music. Cider and doughnuts will be served throughout the evening and the hall will be decorated in fitting manner carrying out the harvest theme.

All who enjoy a real old fashioned time are assured of one on Thursday, November 11, by the Ex-Service men.

Three door prizes will be given away and although some modern dances will be provided the big part of the program will be devoted to old fashioned dances and music that will bring back the memories of the stirring days of '17 and '18.

As in previous years, the Ex-Service men will interrupt the jollity and gaiety at 11:00 p.m. and present a ritual of silence in memory of their comrades who were left behind "over there" and in memory of the comrades who have answered the last bugle call since the first Armistice in '18.

The ritual committee, Melvin Algure and Arno Thompson are in charge of this section of the Armistice observance and a special invitation is given to all the citizens to see and become a part of this ritual of remembrance.

'Money' Pumpkins For A Penny

An advertisement in this issue of The Plymouth Mail announces the first anniversary sale of the Plymouth Hardware. The store was purchased one year ago by William Rose from L. E. Wilson and during the last 12 months many various lines of merchandise have been added until today the hardware is one of the best in this section of Michigan.

In announcing the special sale, Mr. Rose stated that he desired to show his appreciation to the people of this community for the splendid reception they had given him since coming here.

Pumpkins can be purchased at the sale for a penny and some of them contain half dollars, quarters, dimes, nickels, and pennies. Every customer is entitled to a pumpkin with a sale purchase. Standard merchandise items are priced below cost and the sale will continue for one full week, closing Saturday night, November 13.

On Saturday of this week a washing machine demonstration will be held in the store and every lady who witnesses it will be given free a handy clothes pin bag that holds 80 clothes pins.

Church Wedding For Mary Magdalene Lee and Peter Tonkovich

On Saturday morning, October 30, at Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Mary Magdalene Lee, daughter of Frank Tracy of Midland, became the bride of Peter Tonkovich, son of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tonkovich.

The bride was lovely in a gown of aqua blue satin, fashioned princess style, with short puffed sleeves. Her finger tip veil was secured by clusters of flowers. She carried a bouquet of Johanna Hill roses.

Attending the bride as maid of honor, was Mary Tonkovich, sister of the bridegroom, who wore a gown of rust moire taffeta, with a tiara to match her arm bouquet of Tulleman roses.

The bridesmaid, Evelyn Kovalevski, wore a frock of peacock blue taffeta. Her flowers were yellow roses.

Raymond Levandowski was best man, while Joe Schomberger acted as usher.

The wedding breakfast was held at the Mayflower hotel for 25 guests.

Later, Mr. and Mrs. Tonkovich left for a motor trip to Tennessee. Upon their return they will reside at 287 Holbrook avenue.

Timely Discovery of Fire Saves New Church From Serious Damage

Only the timely discovery last Friday morning of a small fire in the new Presbyterian church saved the beautiful new edifice from serious damage or destruction by flames.

To Louis Westfall, an employee of the Daisy company, who was on his way to work, goes the credit for taking such quick action that the church was saved. As he walked along Church street he glanced at the new building. He thought he saw a flickering light inside. Fearing it might be a fire he ran to the city hall where two firemen had been kept on duty that night because of the breaking of a city water main, and told them of his discovery. The three hurried back to the church, called Rev. Walter Nichol, and upon entering the building, found the main auditorium partly filled with smoke.

A small box filled with shavings from a floor that had just been sanded and shoved into a closet of the main corridor, had in some way caught fire and the mass of shavings were one bed of burning coals. A hole had been burned through the floor, but fortunately the box had not dropped into the basement. The fire was quickly extinguished without additional damage.

There is some mystery as to just how the fire started. The suggestion that a burning cigarette had been thrown into the box has been denied and it is claimed that the fire started from spontaneous combustion in the shavings from the floor. The slight damage has been repaired and the opening of the church will take place on November 21 as planned.

Starts Church For Juniors

No need for any Methodist to stay home to look after "Jack" or "Jim", "Mary" or the baby from now on during regular service hours on Sunday morning.

Announcement has been made by Rev. S. S. Closson of the organization of a junior church and nursery that will function each Sunday during regular church hours from 10 o'clock until 11:15. Now the whole family can go to church and Mother and Dad don't have to worry about the children and babies.

The junior church staff that will look after the boys and girls is composed of Miss Jewel Sparling, Mrs. Donald Sutherland, Mrs. Roy Fisher and Mrs. William Squires. The nursery staff is composed of Mrs. Dale Davis, Aileen Soth and Cella Lewis.

"We think we have pretty well taken care of the whole family," stated Rev. Closson when discussing the new plan.

Seek Volunteer City Firemen

Members of the city commission instructed City Manager Clarence Elliott to secure additional members for the fire department at their regular meeting last Monday night. Due to the many new houses and other buildings being constructed in the city it was felt necessary to increase the number of firemen now on duty. A want ad in the classified section of this issue of The Plymouth Mail gives more details on how to secure one of the positions.

Rev. and Mrs. J. George Peters of Bowling Green, Ohio, and Miss Edith Heidel of Pasadena, California, were dinner guests Thursday of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd R. Sherman.

Legion Plans For Paper Sale

Fix Saturday, December 11, As Date

Members of the American Legion, according to Commander John Moyer, have made preliminary arrangements for the annual newsboy paper sale on December 11 for the purpose of raising funds to be used for charitable purposes at Christmas time.

Commander Moyer states that while all of the details have not yet been worked out, he hopes to have the 1937 sale one of the most profitable the Legion has ever conducted.

Later on committees will be appointed and other details perfected for the sale, in which all of the Legion and Auxiliary members will be asked to take part.

The Legion, each year, conducts a large amount of charitable work for the benefit of unfortunate children in and around Plymouth.

Given Surprise On Their 40th Wedding Anniversary

It was a real surprise that was tendered Mr. and Mrs. Burt Nelson last Sunday when their children, Millard of Lansing, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freydl of Northville, planned a celebration of their parents' 40th wedding anniversary. Upon their return home after an automobile trip to Dearborn where they had been taken by their son, Millard, they found there to greet them 35 of their relatives.

At 8:30 the guests were invited to the dining room, where a luncheon was served. The 40th wedding anniversary being the "ruby" wedding, the decoration scheme was carried out in colors of red and white. A huge wedding cake, made by Mrs. Schultz of Northville frosted in white and red, formed the center piece on the table. Four large tapers and white baskets, tied with red ribbons for favors, provided additional decorations for the table.

Many beautiful and useful gifts were received by Mr. and Mrs. Nelson.

An interesting feature in connection with the celebration is the fact that the home where it took place was the place where they first met at a New Year's party on December 31, 1894. It was given by Mr. and Mrs. Sylvania Sober in honor of their little did they realize at that time that the house would be their future home, where they have resided for the past 37 years. The first three years of their married life was spent on Mr. Nelson's father's farm.

The guests at the anniversary celebration were, Mrs. Addie Waters, Mr. and Mrs. Burt Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freydl, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Drake and Mrs. Grace Hurdman of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. Norman Twichell and family of Whitmore lake, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Freydl and sons, Robert and Charles, of Northville, and Miss Cline-Smith.

Plan Banquet Wednesday Evening In Honor of Manufacturers of City And To Provide "Get Acquainted" Event

His Administration Wins Praise

GEORGE A. SMITH

After two most successful years as chairman of the largest Teachers' Conference district within the state, Supt. George A. Smith last week turned over his duties to Boyd Nixon of Hamtramck, who has served with him as vice-chairman. Mr. Smith's administration of the affairs of the public school teachers in the great metropolitan district of Michigan has been outstanding because of its success. The nearly 10,000 teachers have the highest of praise for the good work accomplished by him during the two years he served as the executive of their conference organization. Meetings of the conference were held in Detroit last week.

He took the matter up with the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce recently and as a result it was decided that a rather informal dinner at the Mayflower Wednesday evening would provide an excellent way to show the city's appreciation to those who provide a very large percent of the employment in the city.

The program will not be a long one, as President Dodge desires to make the occasion one where retailers can become better acquainted with the industrial leaders of the city.

The speaker will be Judge Joseph Moynihan of Detroit. The tickets are now on sale and if you should not be approached by the committee, they can be secured at the desk in the Mayflower hotel. It would be well to get your ticket as early as possible, states President Dodge. The price of the tickets has been fixed so that a portion of the amount can go into the treasury of the Chamber of Commerce, which is now at the lowest point it has been in sometime.

Every business man in Plymouth has a special invitation to attend.

Public Invited To Attend School

As has been the custom for several years in celebration of National Education Week, Plymouth high school is holding night school which all adults in the community are invited to attend from 7:30 until 9:00 Thursday evening, November 11. The fifth hour classes will meet from 7:30 until 8:00 o'clock, the sixth hour from 8:00 until 8:30, and the seventh from 8:30 until 9:00. In the past years approximately 300 people have attended this evening session. An excellent opportunity for parents to see how the present school system functions and to obtain answers to questions about various phases of school life is afforded during this evening session. Student council is stationing guides on each floor to assist visitors in finding the various rooms.

Methodists Banquet, Nov. 9

Everything is in readiness for the third annual Methodist church building fund benefit banquet which will take place at the church Tuesday evening, November 9 at 6:30 o'clock.

For the occasion, Dr. Frederick Fisher, former Methodist bishop of India and one of the outstanding churchmen of America has been secured as the speaker of the evening. His subject will be, "The World As I See It," an especially timely matter for discussion. Dr. Fisher is regarded as an authority upon international problems.

Two musical numbers will be given, Miss Mary Jane Demme and Harold Joffe providing the selections. A delicious menu has been arranged. Everyone is invited.

All Business Men Invited

Judge Moynihan Of Detroit Will Be Only Speaker

Next Wednesday evening at 7:00 o'clock at the Mayflower hotel will take place a banquet given by the retail merchants of Plymouth in honor of the manufacturers of Plymouth. Not only will the event be in honor of the industrial leaders of the city, but the occasion will provide an introduction to the community of new industrial leaders who are locating in Plymouth.

President Stewart Dodge of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, states that the business men of the city have for a long time desired to show to the manufacturers of the community, the old established concerns, as well as the new ones that are now locating here, the appreciation of the community for what they are doing towards building up this locality.

He took the matter up with the board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce recently and as a result it was decided that a rather informal dinner at the Mayflower Wednesday evening would provide an excellent way to show the city's appreciation to those who provide a very large percent of the employment in the city.

The program will not be a long one, as President Dodge desires to make the occasion one where retailers can become better acquainted with the industrial leaders of the city.

The speaker will be Judge Joseph Moynihan of Detroit. The tickets are now on sale and if you should not be approached by the committee, they can be secured at the desk in the Mayflower hotel. It would be well to get your ticket as early as possible, states President Dodge. The price of the tickets has been fixed so that a portion of the amount can go into the treasury of the Chamber of Commerce, which is now at the lowest point it has been in sometime.

Every business man in Plymouth has a special invitation to attend.

Society News

Miss Hazel Lickfelt entertained 25 young people at a Halloween party Saturday night at her home on South Main street. Two smiling pumpkin sentries acted as door men to welcome the guests and from then on they had to struggle through a dark labyrinth filled with horrors and creeping things. Many the shrieks that pierced the blackness as they emerged into a subterranean cavern lighted only by the fire from the witch's cauldron, and by drinking of the magic potion were admitted to the witch's circle. There were games with prizes that popped and crawled. When the clock struck 12:00 the lights went out and the "devil" himself appeared in smoke and fire. The evening ended in a treasure hunt that led to a table attractively decorated with good things to eat. That's where the party was supposed to end but thanks to the kindness of some school boys it just began for those who found their tires all flat and only one pump among the cars. But it was Halloween.

Mrs. Blake Fisher of Burroughs avenue, was given a most delightful surprise Sunday when she arrived home from church for on entering she found that her daughter, Dorothy, had planned a dinner in celebration of her birthday. The table which was decorated with yellow and white chrysanthemums and lighted tapers, was marked for ten. The invited guests were Mrs. Minnie Coggins, an aunt, of Sandusky, Eldon Coggins and Mrs. Henry Coggins, of Memphis, Lester Norman, of Detroit, Beulah Wagenschutz, Margaret Cline and Bernard De Mascio, of Plymouth. Mrs. Fisher received several gifts in honor of the occasion.

On Friday evening the members of the Ambassador and Friday evening bridge clubs and their husbands will entertain at a farewell party for Mr. and Mrs. James Stevens, who are to move to Indiana in the near future, the affair to be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. Harry Reck, on Penniman avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finlan entertained at a family dinner Sunday having as their guests Mr. and Mrs. John Comiskey of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. McClear, of Royal Oak, and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Finlan and family, of Plymouth.

William Thams, son of Dr. and Mrs. S. N. Thams, who is a student at the University of Oklahoma, has recently become a member of Delta Tau Delta fraternity, which ranked during the past year highest in scholarship.

"FORGIVE HIM, FOR HE KNOWS NOT WHAT HE SAYS"

According to a newspaper dispatch from South Haven published in some of the state papers last Saturday, Congressman Clare E. Hoffman of Allegan is reported to have said that he was "praying for a depression to bring us back to our senses".

If Congressman Hoffman meant just what he was quoted as saying, he meant that he was praying to have jobless men again go hungry, praying to have women and children suffer for lack of warmth, food and clothing, praying to have the little fellow in business wiped from existence.

He knows, and every person knows that a depression hits hardest at those who have the least. Only a fool and a knave would pray for a depression, with all the hunger, the despair and the destitution that go with it, no matter what the goal might be. Who could wish to see a little child go hungry? Who could be so cold and inhuman as to have a desire to see a man or woman go shivering down the street for lack of food and warm clothing, just to "bring us back to our senses"?

It is almost beyond belief that a member of congress, elected for the purpose of helping to solve some of the great problems now confronting us, could have such a damnable, miserable thought in his mind, say nothing about uttering it aloud at a meeting of citizens in his district.

The people, Mr. Hoffman, are in full possession of their "senses". They know what they have been TRYING to do and they know what they would like to do, and their aim is a worthy one.

But the trouble lies entirely on your doorstep and the doorstep of every political office holder of your type and belief. YOU and your kind have let false prophets rise up to try and do the job YOU are supposed to do. You are responsible for all that has taken place, don't forget that.

The people of this country have but one desire in their hearts. That desire is to have a sufficiency great enough to provide themselves and those dependent upon them with enough upon which to live in decent respectability.

No, Mr. Hoffman, you do not have to "pray for a depression" to bring that about. All you and your associates in that great, powerful congress have to do, is to see to it that the PEOPLE, all the people, of this country get a square and an honest deal!

LET THE PEOPLE DECIDE.

A sufficient number of petitions have been filed with the secretary of state in Lansing to require the submission to the voters at the next state election the question of whether the so-called emergency welfare department of government shall be made a permanent agency with its hundreds of additional job holders for the people to support.

Under the constitution of the state the filing of the petitions will prevent the proposed welfare organization as provided under the new law from becoming effective until after the people have decided at the next election whether they wish to place their approval upon it.

Lansing newspaper dispatches quote the chief lobbyist of the professional welfare politicians as saying that the law books of the state will be searched diligently in an effort to find a law to prevent this question from being decided by the voters.

Such a statement coming from him is not at all surprising. That is the trouble, those who have been and are now in control of the welfare problem have but one desire and purpose, and that is to place as far as possible away from the electorate any control over the department whatsoever.

Surely the time has arrived for the PEOPLE to have a little something more to say about the welfare administration than they have had. Maybe if the people had had more to say about this problem, the welfare administration would not have written into Michigan history the shameful chapter that it has.

If the proposed new welfare administration set-up which is nothing more than a continuation in power of those who have manipulated it for the past three or four years, plus many new powers and duties is a good thing for Michigan why shall these professional welfare politicians fear to have the matter passed upon by the voters?

The truth of the matter is that those who sponsored this anti-public legislation know full well that when the searchlight of public opinion is thrown upon it in an election, it will NOT stand the test.

That is why they will turn heaven and earth to keep the people from having the opportunity to exercise their rights as citizens and decide a question that is of the utmost interest to EVERY person.

After all, isn't this a government of the people, and haven't we a right to decide issues of this kind? If our rights as voters are to be taken from us, then we might just as well call in a dictator and organize the firing squads.

When Springtime Returns

When the Spring, with its joy and its beauty,
Comes again to the valleys and hills,
And the songs of the birds and the flowers,
Add their charm to the woodlands and hills,
Then my heart knows a wistful emotion
That I find rather hard to define—
For the Spring always brings recollections
Of that first little sweetheart of mine.

Many years have gone by since that Springtime
When we promised we'd always be true—
When we caught that first moment of rapture
We were sure no one else ever knew;
But in fancy I still see the moonlight
As it danced in the gold of her hair,
And I still hear the low, gentle music
Of her voice on the sweet-enticing air.

Life has brought other loves, other friendships;
I have known many joys in my day;
As a suitor and husband and father,
I have trod the conventional way;
But when Springtime returns, there is something
Very tender and precious and fine
That awakens—and sets me to dreaming
Of that first little sweetheart of mine.

EVERY ONE PLEASED.

Plymouth's big Hallowe'en party for all the boys and girls in the city last Saturday night was a far greater success than the citizens who sponsored it had dared hoped for. It seemed that every one, including the fathers and mothers, had a good time. It was a splendid idea and it worked out most successfully. The result? Just as all had anticipated, there was not a single incident reported that caused any one annoyance. The old idea that Hallowe'en time brings with it the right to do some petty damage to property or create some annoyance to the residents of a city will quickly pass out if community Hallowe'en parties such as took place here Saturday night are continued.

NO FURTHER WORRY.

The sincere Republicans who thoroughly believe in honest government FOR THE PEOPLE should not worry themselves much about presidential candidates. They have three outstanding prospects, Alex J. Groesbeck of Michigan, Mayor LaGuardia of New York City, and David Lawrence, editor of The United States News. They are for and of the people and have the ability to put the country back on the right track. From these three the Republicans should make their selection—but will they?

RAMBLING with Editors of Michigan AROUND

REGULATIONS FAIL TO REGULATE.

The recent stock slump deflated a lot of paper values on Wall Street. The sheep have been sheared again; the new federal regulations failed to regulate. The American people seem very fond of trying to beat the devil at his own game, whether it's Wall Street, the slot-machines, mixing booze and gas; or what have you.—Emerson Gil-dart in The Utica-Sentinel.

HE WOULD SILENCE THE "HAS-BEENS".

The two has-beens, Hoover and Landon, are trying to break into the political limelight, but as yet they are a long way from the grand-stand with the average voter. The Republican party in the next presidential election must get away from the old idea of lampooning the opposition, for that is the very thing that gives them a lot of free advertising and is in no way a credit to any legitimate cause.—J. E. McMullen in The Linden Leader.

SAYS IT IS TOO BAD.

There is a touch of pathos in Father Coughlin's forced retirement from public notice. He had some value as a crusader, in that he made the people think, but as he found power he seemed to lose poise and dignity. The great Catholic church, the strength of which is its dignity and culture, and in a measure explains its discipline, cannot sit back and even indirectly approve of the poolroom language employed by the Royal Oak priest. In other words, priest or layman, one's highest usefulness to the social order comes from being a gentleman.—Muri H. DePoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

FILORELLA LaGUARDIA.

A man worth watching politically is Mayor Fiorello LaGuardia of New York. Heading a fusion ticket, he broke the power of the potent Tammany organization, and has given the "big city" some of the best government it has ever enjoyed. He's politically wise and in spite of a squatty figure and voice lacking oratorical resonance has that indefinable quality known as "color". He is tremendously popular in New York whose huge vote is an important factor in any election. Although nominally a Republican, he is really an independent who could never be very closely confined by the platforms or machinery of any party.—Dick Cook in The Hastings Banner.

UNCLE SAM DIPS INTO LODGE FUNDS.

Here's news for lodge officers. They are subject to the new social security tax, however meager may be their remuneration as secretaries or other paid employees of their fraternal groups. The Masonic Chronicle, published in Chicago, cites the dictum of the commissioner of internal revenue that fraternal bodies are subject to all requirements of the law; that accounts must be kept of moneys disbursed to paid employees (officers), proper returns made to the government and the amount of the tax forwarded. The ruling seems far-fetched. In the smaller communities lodges pay their secretaries from $10 to $50 a year, and remunerate other officers, particularly those who perform the duties of lodge janitors, in small amounts. If the lodge spends $50 or $100 a year to com-ily expect to move there soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Heide were pleasantly entertained last Tuesday evening when 16 of their friends motored over from Ann Arbor, bringing with them a be-lated wedding gift, a very handsome cluny lace center piece. Light refreshments were served late in the evening.

pensate its officers, it must make the social security return and pay the tax of 50 cents or $1.00.

In the cities lodge officers are more liberally compensated. Salaries of secretaries often run from $200 to $1,500 per year. Grand lodge secretaries and other dignitaries receive even more princely stipends.

On the whole, however, the cost of tabulating the returns and collecting the social security tax from lodges will consume a large part of the revenues derived. But it will provide more jobs for workers in the social security setup, a new field which has already added unrevealed thousands to federal payrolls.—Dick Cochrane in The Hartford Day-Spring.

50,000 OF YOUR NEIGHBORS

You CAN afford it!

A few years ago, an electric range cost several times as much as an ordinary stove. Today, an electric range costs no more than the average stove of comparable size and features: the price is just about the same. . . . And look at the VALUE you receive in an electric range!

An electric range is built to serve you many years. Twelve years is the average length of time a family keeps a stove. That means that the stove you buy today will be cooking for you in 1949 . . . "Electric cooking is MODERN cooking—it is the latest thing"—that is what many women say when they switch to electric cooking. During the past year 10,000 women in and around Detroit have switched to an electric range, and today 50,000 of your neighbors cook with electricity.

Consider these advantages of an electric range—reatures that no other stove and no other cooking method can give you: Absolute CLEANLINESS, with pure heat from a glowing wire—heat as clean as sunlight. BETTER FLAVOR—meats and vegetables cooked in their own juices to melting tenderness. Healthful WATER-LESS COOKING, with precious minerals and important food values sealed-in. And best of all, the ease with which you can keep your kitchen bright and clean and sparkling . . . because an electric range does not burn fuel and therefore walls and curtains stay clean and utensils remain bright. There are no matches or flame in the kitchen.

When you buy a new stove, GET YOUR MONEY'S WORTH! If you are paying the same price, choose the stove that will give you more. Only an electric range has these extra advantages of electric cooking!

ONLY AN ELECTRIC RANGE GIVES YOU ALL THESE IMPORTANT FEATURES

If one takes out a license to hunt as the Indians did, they cannot hunt with rifle when the season opens the middle of the month.

Brain Storms

By W. J. Cameron

Speaking on the Ford Sunday evening hour recently, W. J. Cameron gave to the country the following common sense idea of how this hysteria-swept country can and should be kept out of war some of the politicians are now talking about:

"A few months ago a movie film was shown that had a remarkable effect on those who saw it. No movie star appeared in it, no author wrote the script, not a single scene of it was made in a studio or on choice locations. It was as innocent of professional direction as a hurricane. And a hurricane it was, showing in actual motion and sound the turbulence of wide sections of American thought—if thought is the word—during the previous three or four years.

"Someone had taken the best newsreels of the period and cut from them in chronological sequence a record of the movements that had roused the expectancy or cupidity or fanaticism of millions of Americans since 1934—movements that had inflamed the zeal of millions of followers (only one movement was included that commanded less than a million—and had caused other millions to tremble for the nation's security.

"We saw public officials, private citizens, clergymen, shouting from platforms, haranguing the radio, rushing by airplane from coast to coast, being interviewed through the curtains of sleeping-car berths, addressing outdoor crowds so vast that their farther fringes were lost in distance. We saw great convention halls packed to the roof and heard the thunderous shouts of multitudes hailing their respective new messiahs. We saw the streets of numerous cities thronged with processions miles long—seething, sweltering masses that blazed and blared in a furor uproarious beyond description. We heard scraps of speeches, some raving and rabid, some rapturous and ecstatic with the hope of an immediate financial millennium.

"The film conducted us to the side of stately desks where high officials unctuously announced old heresies as new gospel. We heard the plaintive hymns that voiced the faith and hope of patient assemblages of sincere men and women. We were given views of the interiors of various national headquarters where actually ten million names of solemnly pledged and paying members were on file. We saw thousands of petitioners come by car and train personally to demonstrate their strength to the lawmakers of the land. It was a mighty emotional conflagration built of impossible promises, and fanned by a headlong hatred of mythical enemies that had neither form nor habitation save in the throbbing imaginations of the leaders. It was like a dozen revolutions raging at once.

"Yet, even as we sat there, amidst the whirlwind and the tumult of that amazing period—even as we sat there, all of it had vanished from the sunlit world outside; hardly one movement remained to command a first-page headline. The leaders had returned to their obscurity; only two still held their place in the public eye, and since that day even they have shrunk more than a little.

"Those movements doubtless did some good by mentally hiding their adherents over a bad three years and by rendering many of them immune to similar future contagions. The fire of honest though mistaken zeal doubtless yields a temporary warmth, but it also burns away much dross.

"That film served to remind us that we are constantly confusing public opinion with public conviction. Three months ago we talked of things that no one mentions now. Today we talk of something else. Tomorrow we may be talking of war. Already the powder train is being laid to start that explosion in our brain.

"When war talk begins—if it does—our first line of defense will be the steadiness of our heads. Let's keep our heads! War is not a position we can back out of as easily as we back away from a movement that temporarily has hypnotized us. When war talk arises, our first duty is to put in the front rank of our thinking this great protective fact: there is no war-making power in this country save that of the people exercised through their Congress. No diplomat, no official has authority to utter a word or perform an act that even remotely moves toward war. For war is quite different from the peaceable movements we saw in that film; it is an infernal fire that burns humanity to a cinder.

"That whole solmen business is in the hands of the more than 400 American citizens who represent the 48 States in Congress—Congress whose members live amongst the people of the United States and who know what we think, not under the spell of political eloquence or at the tail-end of special trains, but what we think at home around the evening lamp. Congress should not for one instant forget that it is the medium of the people's mind, and of no other.

"From the fatal suction of mad emotional whirlpools Congress and the people may both be saved by keeping these facts steadily to the fore."

The history of the horse shows it as one of the world's most curious animals. Its gradual change from a tiny many-toed animal, to one that walks on the end of a single toe, is without parallel.

Repeal Of Postal Savings Act Encouraged

Has served purpose intended and no longer needed.

Much time and effort has been devoted by Banking associations during recent months in making a complete study of the Postal Savings System as it affects individual communities. As a result of these studies the repeal of the Postal Savings Act is being encouraged. It is pointed out that the system has served the purpose for which it was intended, that of providing a place for individuals to deposit surplus funds with the protection of the Government against loss.

We now have the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation set up by an Act of Congress as a permanent organization to insure the deposits of its member banks up to $5000.00 for each individual depositor. Thus the individual receives the same governmental protection by depositing in their own local bank. Withdrawal of the Government from the banking of deposits directly through its agency the Postal Savings System is being encouraged by Banking associations. Bank depositors have the benefit of comparable interest rates plus the immediate availability of all or part of their funds at any time. Funds deposited in your local banks are re-lent to the local people by the bank which benefits the community from which the funds are received. We encourage you to make this Your Bank and deposit your funds with us. Avail yourself of our services.

Rocks Come From Behind To Conquer Wayne 6-2

After trailing for more than a quarter of the game, the Plymouth Rocks terminated an amazing march down the field in a touchdown, snatching victory from a powerful Wayne team that had previously been the leading contender for supremacy in the T.V.A.A. league. Wayne was upset on her home grounds. Perfect football weather prevailed Saturday except for a strong west wind, and a large crowd attended.

Dick Gilles re-entered the Plymouth lineup, and his play was one of the great deciding factors in Plymouth's victory. Moe's pass-snagging was also of much help. Sullivan, a 215 pound back, did most of Wayne's ball-carrying but he was easily stopped.

Just before game time Krumm sprained his ankle and Lawrence Smith replaced him.

Wayne scouted the Plymouth team for a double wingback style of offense, but the Plymouth coach crossed them up by using an old "T" formation. After Moe grabbed a pass for twenty yards and Gilles made another first down, Ross called for the spread play, designed for the Wayne game. The play was pulled out of mothballs but it worked nevertheless and enabled Plymouth to win.

In the first quarter play was practically even, with Wayne having the advantage with two first downs to one for Plymouth. The locals were in danger towards the end of the period when the wind caught a high punt and carried it to Plymouth's four-yard line. Moe caught a pass for ten yards however, and Leach was able to punt out of difficulty easily.

The second quarter featured Wayne's only score. With Plymouth holding the ball on her own 21-yard line, Sackett centered the ball over Leach's head. Before Leach could recover it and get it back over the goal line, Wayne tacklers downed him for a touchback. Many passes were thrown in this quarter, three of which were intercepted, two of them by Wayne.

At the beginning of the second half, Plymouth marched down the field and scored the touchdown that won the game. Wayne fought desperately but could not hold the rampaging Rocks.

Wayne tried desperately to score in the last period but could not. The Blue and Gold made three first downs in this quarter while Plymouth gained two. The game ended with the ball on Plymouth's 41-yard line.

Wayne was thoroughly out-foxed in this encounter and is sure to be seeking revenge when the two schools meet again in other sports.

LOCK THAT LOCKER!

—EDITORIAL

"Mr. Dykhouse, my history book has disappeared from my locker. Has it been turned in?"

"Not unless it is on the shelf or in the case. Did you have a lock on your locker?"

"No. We were going to get one this noon," or, "We took it off between classes," or, "We just did not bother with one."

These are only a few of the dozens of excuses that students who have lost books pour into the ever-listening ears of our principal. Get what can be done when so many of the students do not obey the simple rule of keeping a locker locked?

According to a recent survey, of all the lockers on the second floor 128 were locked and 17 were unlocked; on the third floor 147 were locked and 87 were unlocked. Some students had been careless enough to leave the doors open!

Granted that it takes the sacrifice of a few candy bars and ice cream cones to purchase a lock, that it takes a few extra seconds to open the locker, but candy and ice cream either give you a toothache or make you fat, and the few extra seconds it takes to open a lock will neither "make nor break" you. Remember that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure.

River Rouge high school has worked out a very effective system of making the students keep their lockers locked. Each night monitors remove the books from all unlocked lockers. The students to whom these books belong must go to the room set aside for this purpose and claim their belongings. If there are several who must start the day in this manner a few might be made late to class and if this happens too often and Teacher gets cross, probably a lock will be speedily purchased. Perhaps if Plymouth introduces a similar system, we, as students, would become more alert to the importance of this simple rite.

In many city schools, one who does not keep lockers locked is deprived of the chance to use one, and must carry his belongings with him.

Will you please remember to keep your locker locked? It will save Mr. Dykhouse from hearing so many tales of missing books and prevent some prized possession of yours from disappearing.

Part of the "baggage" carried on trips by the slaves of wealthy travelers in ancient Greece and Rome consisted of portable vegetable gardens, complete with growing melons and young shoots.

If you have trouble in starting your motor, turn on the lights and step on the starter again. If the lights grow weak, either your battery is weak, or there is some mechanical trouble in the starter or motor.

SECOND "11" WINS FROM REDFORD

The Rocks' second "11" under the coaching of Mr. Ingram is improving very rapidly much to his satisfaction. About six of the players are scheduled to win places on the varsity next season. While the team started badly by losing to Dearborn and Ypsilanti they have picked up and won their last encounter with Redford 12-0, both touchdowns being made by Houghton, one on a line smash and the other on a pass. Mr. Ingram said, "We expect to win consistently from now on if the team keeps on improving."

ODE TO THE IMMORTAL "A"

I think that I shall never see
A grade more lovely than a "B";
A "B" whose saving grade points
rest;
Where "D", or "E", or even less
Have made us look to God all day,
And lift our lanky arms to pray.
A "B" whose grade will let us rate
The mark we need to graduate.
Poems are made by fools, they say,
But only God can make an "A".

CENTRAL GRADE SCHOOL NOTES

The first graders celebrated Hallowe'en last Thursday with a costume party. They played games and had apples, popcorn, and candy for the refreshments. In reading they have a new story entitled, "Something Punny". The two people that have not been absent nor tardy since the beginning of school are Hens Powers and Virginia Smith. Luther Losey returned to school after being absent for quite a while because of scarlet fever. The pupils have cut out pictures and are reading stories to put under them.

Mrs. Disbrow's first grade is making a collection of pictures of houses in order to select a good color for the house they have been building. They had a costume party on Thursday to celebrate Hallowe'en.

Miss Inge's second grade has organized a citizenship club. They have numerous rules but one that is especially emphasized is "Be Courteous". The president is Sally Gustafson and the vice-president, Eunice Barrett. Every Friday the children can select and prepare a story to tell. This is called the reading club and the president of the citizenship club officiates. The pupils had a Hallowe'en party on Thursday. In their social studies' class they are studying the mailman. They are going to make a post-office. In art they drew pictures of the mailmen. In reading they are studying the "Adventures of Tappy Cushion Tail".

Miss Weatherhead's second grade had 10 P.T.A. members to visit their room. They had a Hallowe'en party Thursday afternoon. Elton McAllister has returned to school after being ill for some time. The class is making a model of a village for their community project.

The fourth grade in Miss Robinson's room has organized a Civic Health club. The two aims of the club are health and citizenship. The club elected their officers last week. The president is Jack D'Haene, vice-president, Eleanor Hart, secretary-treasurer, Gerald Smetters, health officer, Helen Rossow, and librarian, Ardis Curtis. This week the room has two new gold-fish. Their names are Blacky and Goldie. They have finished the owl designs they were making last week and have put them up for decorations. They are making a collection of dog pictures. Soon they expect to start a project in paper-mache work.

The fifth grade of Mr. Beridge's room has organized a court. They chose a bench of four judges to judge all cases and pass sentences. The judges are Rosamund Bushby, Ralph Bachelder, Billy Bennett, and Donna Becker. They also have policemen who give real tickets for misdemeanors. The policemen are James Rotarius, Beverly Flies, Joan Gilles, Charles Burden, Junior Davis, and Lois Meincke.

CLASS NOTES

Miss Allen's eleven A fourth and seventh hour English classes have started the reading of the November issue of the Reader's Digest.

Miss Waldorf's tenth grade English class has completed a thorough study of correct usage in grammar. The next unit of work is letter writing; in this field personal letters—letters of thanks, congratulation, sympathy, and friendly—will be studied first. After the principles of this type have been mastered, the writing of formal and informal invitations and business letters will be studied.

The public speaking class, under the direction of Miss Waldorf, is working on special occasion speeches. This phase of the work is unusually interesting because the class works together in groups of two. The types of speeches given are announcements, introductions, welcome speeches, farewell speeches, and speeches of presentation and acceptance.

Having completed the study of the cell as a basis of all life, Mr. Wallace's biology class has begun the study of structure and function of roots and the stems of plants. The general science classes are studying general astronomy making charts illustrating the path of the planets of the solar system. Study sheets have been introduced to help students pick out the essential parts of their lessons and to develop inquisitive reading in science.

The four classes in Miss Fiegel's American history course have finished the study of the American Revolution with a general test. During the course of study, students made outlines of the causes of the Revolution and the Revolution itself and located on maps the important places during this period.

The F.F.A. planned to go to Riverside park for a picnic last Thursday, but only Donald Schmidt and Wesley Bakewell were able to be there.

Mr. Lynch's biology class is now busy collecting insects and leaves. The farm crops class is occupied with the identification of seeds.

The members of the junior science club elected their officers last Monday. Those chosen were: Robert Kirkpatrick, president; Valbert Groth, vice president; and William Patrick, secretary-treasurer.

Miss Tyler's English classes have just finished giving their book reports. The seventh grade class is now studying and writing ballads. The eighth grade is studying descriptions.

Donna Wilson is the clerk. Juanita Petty is the secretary. They have also organized a health club. Everybody receiving no dirty marks is to obtain a star each week.

PLYMOUTH FACES NORTHVILLE TODAY

Years ago two small towns met in their first football game. Since then once every year these two teams, although not in the same league, have met for their annual contest—and so through the years a friendly rivalry has grown between these two teams. Plymouth and Northville.

This year the game is to be played in Plymouth Riverside park at 3:30 today. It will be the last game of the season unless Coach Jacobi gets one more exhibition game.

Northville has found hard going this year with a light team. They won their one and only game from Van Dyke, while Plymouth has had a fairly good season starting out fine and ending with an unexpected victory over Wayne. There is only one team that Plymouth and Northville have each played, that is Redford Union. Plymouth beat Redford Union 24-0 and Northville won from them 38-7. With this as a comparison it should be a close game but it must also be considered that Plymouth played larger and harder schools winning four, tying one, and losing two.

A large parade from the high school to the park is planned for Friday. This will start at the end of the sixth hour. It is expected that this game will bring the largest crowd of the season.

BORDINE CHAIRMAN OF SENIOR PROM

Heading the various committees for this year's Senior Prom is Gerald Bordine as general chairman. Assisting him are Merle Smith, chairman of invitations and program; Betty Flaherty, refreshments; Ellen Nyström, publicity; Robert Beyer, orchestra; Catherine Kaletsky, decorations; James McClain, construction; Wallace James, floor and furniture; Marguerite Broegman, chaperones, hosts, checkman; Dean Vandaland, ham, ceiling; Ralph Fisher, lights and wiring; and Richard Gilles, clean-up. Miss Allen, Miss Waldorf, Miss Fry, Miss Tyler, and Mr. Ingram are advisers. The prom will come off December 17.

Larro EGG MASH

More Extra Eggs . . . MORE PROFIT

A ton of Larro Egg Mash will feed about 50 hens for a year. Suppose it makes each hen lay only one extra egg per month. (It will actually do much better than that.) But suppose they lay only one extra egg. That's 50 dozen extra eggs for the year from the flock . . . and at 30c per dozen those eggs mean $15.00 extra profit for you from only one ton of Larro Egg Mash. Larro Egg Mash may cost a little more than your present ration—but don't let that hinder you from feeding it when one extra egg per month from each hen will cancel a $15.00 difference in cost. We know you'll make more money if you feed the Larro way.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church.—Walter Nichol, pastor. Services at Masonic Temple, 10 a.m., morning worship; 11:30 a.m., Sunday school; 8:30 p.m., Young People. The interests of the Presbyterian people these days are centered largely on matters concerning the occupation of the new church building. On Sunday, November 21, the congregation will assemble at the Masonic temple at 10:00 a.m. This will include the Sunday school. There will be a brief devotional period and then with the little folk in the lead the whole body will march up to the new church and, singing one of the songs of the Zion, will enter the door which at that time will open to receive the first congregation of worshippers to gather there. Sunday, November 28 has been set as dedication day when the congregation will formally set apart to religious uses the building on which they have long been working. December 5, the windows and organ will be dedicated at separate services and December 12 is to be the consummation of these dedicatory services when there will be a reception of members and all will unite in the observance of the Sacrament of the Lord's supper. On Mondays, classes in preparation for church membership will be held at the manse. One class meets 3:30-4:15 p.m. The other, 7:30 to 8:15 p.m. All are welcome to attend these classes. Children will be received in baptism on Sunday, November 28 at the dedicatory service. All parents desiring to present children are asked to speak to the pastor. The Women's Auxiliary will meet at the Masonic temple on Wednesday, November 10, at 2:30 p.m. Mrs. Van W. Hale is chairman of this meeting and Mrs. Russell A. Roe is hostess. Plans for the annual bazaar will be discussed and completed at this meeting. The annual bazaar and dinner will be held at the Masonic temple on Wednesday, November 17. There will be a most interesting lot of booths at which articles useful and beautiful will be for sale. All the people of the church are asked to assist in furnishing these booths with a copious supply of such articles, baked goods, fancy work, plain sewing, vegetables, fruit, etc. The monthly Sunday evening fellowship hour will be held at the First Baptist church, Mill street on November 14, at 7:30 p.m. Beginning Sunday, November 28, Sunday school will assemble in three separate divisions, the nursery beginners and primary in one division, the juniors in a second division and the intermediates, seniors, young people and adults in a third division. Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 218): "When we wake to the truth of being, all disease, pain, weakness, weariness, sorrow, sin, death, will be unknown, and the mortal dream will forever cease."

TELEPHONE SERVICE HAS INCREASED IN VALUE; RATES HAVE DECREASED
Michigan today is enjoying really remarkable values in telephone service.
The Company's material and labor costs have increased substantially since reductions in rates were made in 1934, 1935 and 1936. In 1934 rates for service to farmers and for long distance service were reduced; in 1935 the long distance night rate was made effective at 7 o'clock every night and was extended to all day every Sunday; in 1936 further reductions were made in the rates for long distance and for various other services and items of equipment, and the charges for installing and moving telephones were drastically cut.
At the same time the average individual's income has improved, and prices asked for many other items and services have gone up.
Yet telephone service is still available at the reduced rates; the quality of the service never was higher; and its value to the community is increasing daily, as indicated by the increasing number of calls made per telephone.
