

Detroit Company Purchases Big Factory Site Here

Announcement has just been made of an important real estate transaction in Plymouth which means within the near future another factory for this city, the Universal Button Fastening & Button company of Detroit having purchased the 33-acre factory site at the corner of Lilley and Plymouth roads, along the Pere Marquette tracks just south of the city.

Frank Rambo conducted the negotiations for the owners of the site. This concern became interested in Plymouth about a year ago, as the result of the activities of the local Chamber of Commerce.

The company, which is now located at 2250 West Fort street in Detroit, has been in business since 1905 and employs between 175 and 200 people. Officials of the company have announced that they plan to build a new factory in the near future and move all of their operations to Plymouth.

Metal stamping, enameling, metal plating work and manufacturers' machinery for producing these articles are the products of the company, which for many years has been one of Detroit's well known industries.

The price for the 33-acre site has not been made public, but the location is regarded as one of the best in Wayne county for industrial purposes.

City Commissioners Clash Over Appointments Of Members To The County Board Of Supervisors

Mayor Hondorp And Mrs. Whipple Exchange Words

Another verbal exchange enlivened the city commission meeting Monday night when Mayor Pro-tem Ruth Huston-Whipple and Mayor Henry Hondorp clashed over the appointment of four city members to the Wayne county board of supervisors.

The mayor, with the approval of the city commission, appointed the city assessor and the city treasurer and then wanted to delay making the appointments of supervisors until a later meeting when Commissioner Arthur Blunk, who was absent, could attend. Other members of the commission, however, felt that the appointments should be made immediately, because according to the city attorney, the city charter made the appointments mandatory at this time.

NOW SUPERVISOR WHIPPLE

The mayor appointed City Assessor William B. Petz and Commissioners Blunk, Hondorp and George Robinson. The nominees were not confirmed, however, when Mrs. Whipple objected. She reminded the mayor that on April 11 the city commission had unanimously adopted a resolution stating that the four city members to the county board should be city commissioners.

The mayor declared that he felt that it was very important that City Assessor Petz be continued as a member of the board of supervisors. He pointed out that all other cities in the county appointed the assessor as one of the supervisors. He argued that the assessor could receive much valuable information in this manner as many taxation problems come before the board.

Mrs. Whipple insisted that the commission's previous resolution be carried out as all of these questions had been considered, before the commission adopted the resolution. The mayor then pointed out that he did not feel that a woman should be appointed to the supervisors' board.

Mrs. Whipple pointed out that there were several women on the board at the present time and there have been as many as eight women on the Wayne county board of supervisors in one year.

The mayor stated that no women attended the monthly meetings of the out-county supervisors, to which Comm. Whipple replied that she had attended several by special request, one, last spring at Dearborn which the mayor also attended.

The mayor again stated that it wasn't a woman's place to which Comm. Whipple replied that the supervisors are responsible for mothers' pensions, Eioise, and the Wayne County Training school, all of which are special interests of women.

Mayor Hondorp broke off the argument with the statement that he wouldn't appoint Mrs. Whipple to the board. Commissioner Wilson suggested that Mayor Hondorp relinquish the chair as presiding officer and let Commissioner Whipple preside as mayor pro-tem and appoint the dispute a supervisor. Mayor Hondorp agreed.

Mrs. Whipple then became acting mayor and immediately appointed herself as a member of the board of supervisors. Commissioner Wilson moved that the commission be dissolved and the commission be appointed by the board of supervisors. The commission supported the motion. Commissioners Whipple, Robinson and Wilson voted yes. Mayor Hondorp voted no.

Then Mrs. Whipple left the mayor's chair and Hondorp again presided. By a unanimous vote, the appointment of Commissioners Blunk, Hondorp and Robinson.

On Tuesday, Mayor Hondorp announced that he had decided to resign his supervisory job to

Number Of Measles Cases Drop Sharply

The number of communicable diseases dropped sharply during the month of April.

In a report to the city commission, it was stated that the number of measles cases dropped from 46 on March 31 to but 10 on April 30; that chicken pox was reduced from 18 to 8; that whooping cough fell off from 24 to 14 while the number of scarlet fever cases increased from 11 to 4.

It was pointed out that the four scarlet fever cases were confined to two families and the 14 whooping cough cases were in but seven families.

Twice-A-Week Garbage Service To Start May 16

Householders Urged To Co-operate On Rubbish Service

City Manager Clarence Elliott announced this week that the city's garbage collection service would start on the summer schedule, of two collections a week, on May 16.

The city trucks will pick up garbage at homes in the first and second wards on Mondays and Thursdays. Collection in the third and fourth wards will be on Tuesdays and Thursdays. The city also will pick up garbage at the stores on Wednesday and Saturday.

The city manager urged that all householders clean rubbish out of their basements and garages during the next week, before the summer garbage schedule starts, because the rubbish collection service will not be as often during the summer as heretofore. He pointed out that the city's trucks would be occupied most of the time with the extra garbage collections.

The city commission accepted the bid of Ray E. Grandsen and Al Brown for the disposal of the municipality's garbage. Under the contract Mr. Grandsen and Mr. Brown will jointly pay the city $500 for the garbage for the year. The city will deliver the garbage to the successful bidders.

Two Scout Troops Mark Anniversary

The tenth anniversary of the founding of two of Plymouth's Boy Scout Troops, P-2 and P-3 will be observed at a combined meeting to be held in the Central grade school auditorium at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday night, May 11.

Among the exhibits at the meeting will be the district scouting scrap-book containing the program of the first meeting in 1928. On that occasion P-1 was host. The leaders and boys in the two new troops were sworn in and the entire membership of the district was present. At that time sponsored both new troops were named honorary members. The Ex-Servicemen's club took over sponsorship of P-2 in 1931.

The birthday program will include demonstrations by members of the troops to show their skill in Scoutcraft. The Scout commissioner will present the troops with ten-year veteran badges for the troop flags.

Leaders of Troop P-2 during the ten years have included William Rambo, Claude J. Dyk-house, John W. Jacobs, and Scoutmaster Gilbert Williams. P-3's scoutmasters have been T. Elliott Weimer, Wilbur P. Murphy, L. H. Felton and Ferris J. Mathias.

Wildlife Group Seeks Regulation Of Hunting Lands

Farmers Will Be Asked To Co-operate With Sportsmen

Committees of the newly organized Western Wayne County Conservation association will interview farmers in the area to seek co-operation on a hunting land regulation plan.

Dr. Brick Champe, president of the association named the committees at the meeting of the organization held in Northville Monday night. More than 75 members attended. Plymouth members on the special committee include Frank Rambo, Matt Powell, Warren Harris, Samuel Spicer, Jesse Taylor and Bert Giles. The Northville committee members are George Hill, Howard Hall, Fred Hicks, William Forney and Harry Wagenschutz.

The decision to seek farmers-sportsmen co-operation in regulating hunting was made at the meeting after Mr. Burroughs, of the state conservation department, described the benefits of a system known as the "Williamston plan". The farmers near Williamston worked out a plan whereby all posted their lands to obtain "permits" tickets before hunting. Damage to property and livestock was reduced in this manner.

Mr. Burroughs said that now more than 30 communities have adopted the plan, the state conservation department furnishing the signs for posting.

The system, highly successful throughout the state, works in the following manner: All the land in the area is posted with instructions to the hunters. The hunter must drive to the home of the farmer on whose land he wants to hunt. Each farmer has a certain number of tickets which he issues without charge. The farmer can refuse a hunter, saying the tickets are all gone, if he believes the hunter would be destructive rather than sportsmanlike in hunting. Each hunter must leave his car parked in the farmer's yard while hunting and he is to be seen by the farmer when he is through hunting. The hunter agrees to close gates, climb over fences at posts, and not shoot near livestock or buildings.

In most sections of the state this plan regulates hunting and is halting the closing of land by farmers, who for years have suffered heavy losses from the carelessness of unregulated hunters.

The Plymouth - Northville group plans to contact farmers in the area, explain the program, and see whether it can be put in to effect. Dr. Champe said that he would call a joint meeting of farmers and sportsmen to work out the plan.

WARNING

Chief of Police Vaughan R. Smith issued a warning yesterday to all dog owners of Plymouth to observe their dogs during the next few weeks for signs of rabies. A black bull dog shot by the police department early Tuesday morning, was found to have rabies and it is known that this dog bit several other dogs owned in the south end of the city. Residents are asked to inform the police department of any animals that appear suspicious in their neighborhood.

HENRY HONDORP, Mayor

1938-39 Budget Is Studied By City Commission

No Objections Raised At Public Hearing

The city commission will hold a special session next Monday night to study the individual items of the proposed city budget for the year beginning July 1.

The budget and its annual public hearing on the budget last Monday night but no taxpayers had any comment to make on the subject. The general budget must be approved by the commission late this month.

The tentative general budget submitted several weeks ago totals $647,437 of which only $71,050 would be spread on the tax roll. Last year a total of $86,396 was appropriated of which $69,807 was levied on the tax roll. City officials indicated that no increase in tax rate would be necessary, new property being sufficient to care for the additional assessments.

Protests Cutting Road In Park

Directors of the Chamber of Commerce voted Wednesday night to make a strong protest to City Manager Clarence Elliott against the construction of a third road through the middle of the park in front of Central high school.

Completion of the present park and landscaping of the ground in front of the school and churches surrounding it is nearly completed. The road that previously ran in front of the school building has been closed and will be turned into lawn and a double highway has been constructed on the south side of the park. These improvements were made to beautify the park and eliminate a serious traffic hazard that was created by the two roads running in different courses.

The same one has proposed the building of a third road directly through the middle of the small park to handle traffic to and from the Methodist church. The Chamber of Commerce board went on record as being opposed to any such plan and needless plan and cited to the city manager that a greater traffic hazard would be caused by the third road than there was with the original two roads. They also informed the manager that they thought the additional expense was unnecessary and that another road would seriously enhance the beauty of the park. They pointed out also that it would serve no beneficial purpose of any kind.

City To Seek Dust Layer For Mill Street

Work Starts Soon On Main Street Improvements

The city commission instructed City Manager Clarence Elliott to ask the Wayne county road commission to apply dust layer on Mill street, between Plymouth road and Ann Arbor Trail.

The commission acted Monday night after reports of a nuisance from heavy clouds of dust on this street were received. The county took over maintenance of this street some time ago.

Work on improving Main street, from Penniman avenue to Fralick street, will be started as soon as the WPA, which has approved the project, assigns the men to the job. The old street car rails are to be eliminated, all bricks removed and cleaned and replaced.

The city commission has also instructed the city manager to prepare a WPA proposal for a sanitary sewer for two blocks on Herald street.

The commission also received and approved assessor's plat No. 13, which included proper descriptions of lots within the area bounded by Ann Arbor Trail, Harvey street, Penniman avenue and Lincoln street. The corners of all lots will be staked out. The plat is part of the long range plan to obtain correct descriptions of all property within the city.

Garlett Named City Treasurer

The city commission re-appointed Charles Garlett as city treasurer Monday night.

Other city officials re-named included William B. Petz as assessor, L. E. Wilson and Charles Finlan, members of the board of review; Harry Mumby, a member of trustees of Riverside cemetery; W. Cash and Mrs. Rosemary Lyke, members of the board of registration.

Commissioners Arthur Blunk and George Robinson were chosen as the auditing committee while Commissioner Ruth E. Huston-Whipple and Mayor Henry Hondorp will serve on the recreation committee.

Mrs. Mark Chaffee and Sidney D. Strong were named by the commission to fill vacancies on the city planning commission. The commission accepted the resignation of Mrs. Florence Johns, who has moved to Chicago. The other vacancy was caused by the recent resignation of Miss Alice Safford.

JUST PLAIN FOOLISHNESS

(From The London, England, Sphere)

The United States contains six percent of the world's area; seven percent of its population; it consumes 46 percent of the world's coffee, 53 percent of its tin, 56 percent of its rubber, 21 percent of its copper, 35 percent of its coal, 42 percent of its pig iron, 47 percent of its molybdenum, and 68 percent of its crude petroleum. The United States operates 60 percent of the world's telephone and telegraph facilities, owns 80 percent of the motor cars, operates 33 percent of all railroads; it produces 70 percent of the world's oil, 60 percent of the wheat and cotton, 50 percent of copper and pig iron, and 40 percent of coal and lead. It has nearly half the world's monetary metal; it has two-thirds of civilization's banking resources; its purchasing power is greater than that of the 50,000,000 people of Europe and much larger than that of the more than a billion Asiatics. Responsible leadership which cannot translate such a bulging, necessary, late-assured prosperity is destitute of capacity. Pompous statesmen looking over the edge solemnly declare that the methods by which it was created are all wrong, ought to be abandoned and must be discarded and that the time has come to substitute political management for individual initiative and supervision. There is only one way to characterize that proposal—it is just—damned—foolishness.

Hospital Day To Be Observed In Plymouth

Hospital To Welcome Visitors, Thursday May 12

National Hospital Day is observed throughout the country on May 12, because that date is the birthday of Florence Nightingale whose life was dedicated to raising the standards of caring for the sick in homes and hospitals. Miss Nightingale was called the "lady with a lamp" during the Crimean War because she went about in dark hours of the night, carrying a lamp so that she might minister to the sick and wounded soldiers.

The modern hospital of today with its efficient nursing service and scientific facilities exists because many men and women have shared the vision which inspired Florence Nightingale. It is fitting that one day in the year should be set aside for the purpose of making the public acquainted with the hospital and all that it means to welfare of everyone in the community. Most people do not give much thought to hospitals until the time comes when they or some of their dear ones require hospital care because of serious illness or accident. So, on National Hospital Day, most hospitals

Detroit Employees Visit Institutions

Ninety-three women members of the Detroit Municipal Employees club inspected the House of Correction and the Maybury sanitarium during an all-day trip here last Saturday.

Leaving Detroit early in the morning, the group visited the House of Correction where Capt. Edward Denniston explained each department of the institution. Mrs. Katherine Campbell, of the House of Correction staff, explained the women's division of the institution to the visitors. At noon the group had luncheon at Pen-Mar cafe in Rosedale Gardens.

During the afternoon the party visited Maybury sanitarium where Dr. Willis, superintendent, gave a talk in which he described the institution.

All Business Places Closed During Funeral

The city of Plymouth Wednesday afternoon paid final tribute to William A. Blunk, one of its pioneer and most active business leaders, who died Monday at his home after an illness of seven months' duration.

During the funeral hour between 4:00 and 5:00 o'clock, every business house in Plymouth was closed in respect to the memory of a citizen who had, over a long period of years, played an important part in the development of the community.

Mr. Blunk became ill last fall and upon the recommendation of physicians he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital in Ann Arbor, where after long treatment he recovered sufficiently to be returned to his home at 1087 Williams street. Recently it was found necessary to have hospital treatment resumed, but during the past two or three weeks his condition became gradually worse and he expired Monday.

He was born in Templin, Germany, April 13, 1860 and came to America in 1866, locating in Livonia township. Later the family cleared a farm near New Boston and after living in that locality a few years, he moved with his parents to a farm in Salem township.

It was on September 2, 1885 when he married Miss Minnie M. Bolgos, the wedding taking place in St. Peter's Lutheran church of Plymouth.

Four sons were born to this family, Ben W. Blunk, Manna G. Blunk, Arthur E. Blunk and Irving E. Blunk, who survive with their mother. All of them are well known Plymouth business leaders.

It was about 1905 when Mr. Blunk purchased a farm just one mile south of Plymouth where the family lived for several years. Then in 1913 Mr. and Mrs. Blunk purchased a 40-acre piece of land in the village of Plymouth, which is now known as the William A. Blunk sub-division.

Mr. Blunk built his first home on this sub-division at the corner of Blunk and Williams street. During subsequent years he improved that portion of the city and erected 52 new houses, his home building development being one of the largest and most important ever carried on in this city.

In 1922 he was the organizer of the Blunk Bros. store of which he was made president a position he had held since that time. While never very active in the store, no person could have been more interested and observing of its progress and expansion than was Mr. Blunk.

He was an active member of St. Peter's Lutheran church nearly half a century, and his faith in his religion endured to the very end. He retained his alert mental facilities to the very end, and was able to recognize every member of his family up to the minute of his passing.

He was an enthusiastic fisherman and that recent years greatly enjoyed the game of quots, of which he became very proficient.

Funeral services were conducted from the church, the Rev. Edgar Hoencke officiating. He was laid to rest in the mausoleum at Riverside cemetery.

Schools Inspected By State Fire Marshal

Plymouth public schools were recently inspected by Assistant State Fire Marshal C. A. Renner and found to be safe.

Renner recommended a few changes which the school officials have instituted. Renner advised that bleacher seats should not be stored in the corridors of Central high school building and that paints used in renovation work, should not be stored in the Huron-Canton school store room. Renner also asked that connections to machines in the manual training room be re-wired. All have been complied with.

Another suggestion, to place metal lath and cement to seal the ceiling over the boys' locker rooms at the high school, will be completed this summer.

City Commissioner Ruth Huston Whipple was a member of the Huron-Clinton Parkway committee that held a luncheon meeting in Lansing Tuesday for the purpose of considering the development of the Huron river parkway system. Following the meeting, the group had a conference with Governor Murphy.

Mrs. H. L. Duncanson and daughter, Mrs. Harold Young, attended a mother and daughter banquet last Friday in the Northwestern Christian church in Detroit.

WHAT FORMER GOVERNOR CHASE OSBORN ACCOMPLISHED IN STATE FINANCES JUST A QUARTER OF A CENTURY AGO

"Although the State had a deficit two years ago of a million dollars and consequently in DISGRACE, it is now out of debt and has a surplus in the treasury of near a million dollars. The rate of taxation has been lowered and should continue to lessen."
 (From his message to the legislature in Jan. 1913).

THE THIRD PARTY.

There has been considerable in the newspapers during the past few days about the effort of Governor LaFollette of Wisconsin to organize a new political party. The Governor says that there is a real need for an organization of this kind in the nation and that now is the time to start it.

We do not quite agree with that sentiment. There is no present need for a new third party. All that the nation needs is a good cleaning from within the two parties that we now have. The Democratic party has been taken over by crack-pot theorists and non-tax paying officials to such an extent that the substantial leadership it has possessed in other years no longer has anything to do with its policies or affairs. The Republican party today has a chance to place its affairs in control of an element that favors HONEST government, public service above personal gain and truly representative of the people of the country. A third party is not needed to end political domination by "high pressure" groups or to bring about an orderly and an economical administration of public affairs. It can be done from within the parties that are now the dominant political organizations of the country. Of course if these aims cannot be accomplished, then it is time to talk about a third political party.

COMMON SENSE.

Some one recently wrote an editorial on the trend of the present times which contains a lot of common sense. It follows in full, but The Mail is not able to give credit to the writer as its author's name, unfortunately, is unknown:

Politicians and social theorists of the world over are continually striving to crush one of the most basic urges of mankind: the urge of the individual to labor for profit. For some curious reason they think that once the profit motive is destroyed, the way to Utopia will be clear! They persistently refuse to heed the lessons of history which have proved beyond the shadow of a doubt that without a fair chance for profit the human animal ceases to put forth his best efforts. Without profit, progress gives way to a lethargic day-to-day existence, and personal liberty soon goes by the board, social theories notwithstanding.

When an individual buys a bond or a share of stock he does it for profit, and to help assure financial independence. The greater the risk, the greater the possible profit; unless the two go hand in hand the individual will bury his savings in an unproductive hole in the ground.

When a man works 15 hours a day and burns the midnight oil over some new invention, or labors tirelessly year after year to build up a business, again he does it for security and profit. He works in the hope that the fruits of his labor will bring comfort and happiness, not only to himself, but to his family.

Today we have a depression. We hear loud cries of "capital strike". The politicians howl because heavy industry is ominously quiet. They howl because unemployment is increasing. They howl and curse Wall street for bringing all this about. So what! Wall street had nothing to do with the present depression. Punitive taxation, government competition with private business, and an orgy of experimental regulation and legislation are largely responsible for the present troubles. In short, the profit motive is dangerously near extinction, and the country can enjoy no normal recovery until it is brought back to life. And government spending the country into bankruptcy is not the way to bring it back to life.

HOW YOU PAY TAXES.

A noted economist recently said "If taxes keep on mounting some day there will be a second Boston Tea Party." Most persons who do not pay income taxes believe taxes do not affect them very much. Here is some interesting information: More than eight percent of the cost of a pound of beef or pork is in hidden taxes; 10 percent of the cost of a suit of clothes, 25 percent of the cost of toothpaste, two cents of every loaf of bread, and six cents of the cost of a package of cigarettes goes to the tax collector. If a workman drinks two glasses of beer a day and smokes 20 cigarettes, he pays the government $45 a year in taxes. Through taxation or borrowing America must collect more than $17,000,000,000 this year to run our federal, state, county and municipal governments. This is three times the amount of money in circulation and amounts to more than $46,500,000 a day.

WHO MAKES UP THE MOB?

Some of our high public officials and political leaders have been doing a lot of talking recently about "mobs" and what the "mobs" are doing. Outside of a certain group always looking for opportunities to create disturbances, "mobs" are usually made up of men who are not working. Give these same men an opportunity to work, and instead of being "mobsters" they constitute the class to which most of us belong, the peaceful and industrious citizenship of the nation. Yes, mob rule can be ended quickly by steady employment.

Some folks make stamp collections
 And some just "gather moss."
 Some keep collecting dimes until
 Old Sharon rows them across;
 But the finest of all collections
 Is this—don't be confused—
 A perfect collection of alibis
 That you have never used!

The rarest of all collections
 Is a store of alibis
 That you have never resorted to,
 And it's one your friends will prize.
 So save your unused alibis,
 Just lock them in the vault,
 Nobody loves the man who cries
 "Of course, it's NOT MY FAULT!"

RAMBLING with Editors AROUND of Michigan

IT'S ABOUT TIME.

Small business firms always have had a tough time getting sufficient funds to operate with, even after demonstrating they possessed the knack of making a business pay.

Since 1932 banks have been baled out (with government funds), insurance companies kept from collapsing, railroads given gigantic loans and higher rates, the welfare folks have been aided with billions, big manufacturing companies have been able to get RFC money without much trouble. In fact, about everyone and his brother was helped—except the small business man and the smaller manufacturer. All they had to do was to meet increasing payrolls, increased taxes, increased inventories, increased local demands from churches and other worthy folks, increased hours of toil by himself, increased headaches in competition by better-financed or better-schooled chiselers than himself. The smaller business firms were being forced into cartels, or into bankruptcy. Either they had to join some buying or operating group or face the possible closing of their doors. Being in business was no fun.

Now has come long-delayed aid in the form of long-term loans, at five percent interest rate, from the RFC.

As these smaller firms are given credits, they will create additional employment; they will go into the markets for more merchandise; they will provide the steam to get the old commercial engine going again. For it is the small firms which do the greater part of the country's business. The big firms and the big manufacturers would be in a bad way without the cross-roads store keepers, the small factory that needs a new turbine, or conveyor line.

When the RFC money gets into the hands of the smaller manufacturers and the smaller merchants and business men, we expect to see a gradual and permanent recovery.

The RFC has a big job to do. There will be a flood of applicants. We believe the loans will be as worthwhile as the loans made by the HOLC, only 4 percent of which have gone "hay-wire". And even with the 4 percent the government does not stand to lose anything. In the case of the HOLC there are homes to be rented or sold. The taxpayers have lost nothing and will lose nothing.

In the case of the RFC loans to small business and manufacturing firms we foresee a similar probable record. The result to the country will be highly beneficial.—Floyd McGriff in The Redford Record.

HITHER AND YONDER HE GOES!

There will be no special session of the Michigan legislature—the governor doesn't stay in Michigan long enough to call one, much less attend one.—Stuyler Marshall in The Clinton County Republican News.

SOME COMMON SENSE.

Whatever may be the correct answer, it is certain that nothing is so destructive of personal efficiency as dawdling, unjustified, non-productive labor. Psychologists have long since discovered that a person employed at worthwhile, productive work, even working hard and long hours, will be less fatigued at the end of the day than one merely set at rolling stones and "killing time". Interest in his work, in the results contemplated and obtained, pride in a piece of work completed—these are the elements which carry the good worker through the day.

Just to continue to jibe the administration for its policies; just to joke about shovel leasers; just to taunt the boon-doggiers; just to lament, is not enough. If some form of work relief is to be carried on and as matters stand now it seems inevitable, then it behooves the thinking members of society to take a stand against existing soul destroying policies governing the expenditure of public money under guise of relief for the unemployed.

The unemployed is not relieved. No one knows better than the well-intentioned man or woman forced to accept WPA employment, the deadly effect it has upon him. It offers no hope for the future. It merely feeds his family for the present. He has no ambition to follow it as a permanent occupation. He can set no guide posts; he can lay no course, he knows his children are being robbed of their heritage, he sees himself older and his security less certain.

WPA offers no hope for the country, much less for the individual.

Why not stop it, take its administration away from the social service experimenters, put it on a solid basis of a day's work for a day's pay, quit competing with private industry, in fact, walk hand in hand with private enterprise and not in opposite ways. Everyday there are people seeking workers and there are none to be had. At the same time the lists of the men and women of America, officially listed as "unemployed" are growing. Let's quit this business of considering these neighbors of ours as social guinea pigs and treat them again as worthy American citizens, willing and competent.—Vernon J. Brown in The Ingham County News.

AVERILL USES DOUBLE BARREL GUN.

Governor Frank Murphy, whose greatest love seems to be that of traveling from one state to another, perhaps should be labeled "Gypsy Frank". The "gypsy" for his wandering proclivities, the "gyp" for his political patter about a more abundant life. The Governor certainly is applying the slogan: "See America First!"—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

NAZI RULE IN MICHIGAN?

Two farmers were before a justice court in Sanilac county last week, charged with the heinous crime of taking advantage of slack time of winter to wire their own farm homes and outbuildings for electricity. The warrants were issued on complaint of a state electrical inspector who complained the farm owners had not paid him for a permit.

As the late Will Rogers used to say, "All we know about it is what we read in the newspapers." Sanilac county newspapers claim that the court room was filled with irate farmers who have signed up under the REA co-operative scheme and who complain that the so-called co-operative has contracted with some concern for exclusive right to do all the wiring in the district at prices which the farmers contend are unreasonably high. Sanilac farmers also contend that the company insists on installing more wiring than they want and more than will be used, all at extra expense.

The hearing on the case was postponed. The outcome will be watched with interest. Can it be that even a farm electric co-operative cannot be operated without graft and low chiseling? Have we arrived in our boasted progress at a place where the owner of a farm is to be jailed or fined for doing his own mechanical work at his own expense with materials he himself has paid for? Have we Nazi rule in Michigan?—Harry Meyers in The Lapeer County Press.

CORRECT, MR. AVERILL, BUT POLITICIANS ARE TOO DUMB TO UNDERSTAND IT.

Our Local citizen, Draper S. Allen, head of the state sales tax division at Lansing, reports that sales tax returns for March amounted to $3,314,340.03, a decline of $125,377.10 from February. How can state officials expect sales tax returns to keep up when people are not working to get money to spend? And how will people get work unless private business—not politicians—create work? And why should private business "stick its neck out" when oppressive state and federal legislation and taxation make the venture so unprofitable?—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

WHAT APPLAUSE REALLY IS.

Most applause is just so much applesauce, and nobody knows it better than the fellow who is forever getting it. To be sure it is great stuff to the egotist, for everything that shines is gold to him.—J. E. McMullen in The Linden Leader.

Which Way Are You Heading?

Once in a while, a patient is irked by the thoroughness of my case history and the detail of my analytical work. Such a person does not realize the value of OLD case records. In my office, I have carefully preserved every bit of visual information about you that has ever come to my attention. Year by year, these records gain in importance, for they show with remarkable clearness which way your visual system is heading. Many times I can forecast and warn you—often I can head off some development that might cause you trouble later in life. In the full strength of our vitality, we seldom realize that we may be laying the foundation for conditions that will be sad handicaps as we grow older. We are all right now—nothing is troubling us and we assume that we will remain all right. History does not bear that charming optimism out. Seeing is a skill, most of which is learned and if we learn the wrong way, we may be able to adjust ourselves to it in the prime of vitality but the load becomes heavier about 45 and from then on we bemoan the fact that we are forced to give up so many of our pastimes and pleasures.

I shall never forget the pathos in an old man's voice as he begged me to do something to help him read his newspaper. His little 12-year-old granddaughter was stumbling through the difficult paragraphs at the sacrifice of her play time and he was so proud and so helpless, all at the same time, it touched my heart. But it was too late for him. Case records show the development of a case over the years and guide us in our work. Long standing troubles of any nature are exceedingly difficult to overcome. Some cannot be dislodged at all. Pays to begin early!

Makes Miniature Stage Coach

A miniature stage coach, not much more than 15 inches long, made to perfect scale, has been on display in one of the windows of The Plymouth Mail office for the past week or more. It has attracted unusual attention and comment from people who have seen it.

Its maker, Lew L. Price, manager of the Consumers Power company division for this part of Wayne county, used as material wood from an old cheese box, some stove crating, a few pieces of scrap tin and leather from some old shoes.

Nearly everyone has a hobby, and the making of small objects with a jig-saw is a hobby that keeps Mr. Price in his basement many hours during the week.

The oil should be changed to a heavier grade and the car should be greased to eliminate any possible squeaks and friction caused by heavy winter greases.

Batteries should be checked and every motorist should know that his tires will be safe when travelling on the highways.

PLYMOUTH NINE BEATS RIVER ROUGE

The River Rouge Panthers claved in vain at the varied offerings of Bob Hitt, Plymouth pitcher, as they went down in rapid succession in the first Twin Valley Athletic association game of this year. All told they garnered only one hit, a sharp single to left, two walks, one hit batsman and no runs, while the Rocks amassed four runs and seven hits, not the least of which was a mighty triple by Harold Leach, living up to his good reputation.

Bob Folsom reached first base twice as the result of walks; he was the only Plymouth player to get on by this method.

The Panthers used two pitchers, both port siders who mewed lamely as each saw two runs pushed across the plate as the result of his pitching. Each Panther pitcher also retired two Plymouth batters on strikes, while Hitt subdued seven Panthers in this fashion. Leading Plymouth slugger for the day was Wesley Barries Hoffman with two singles and a fielder's choice out of three trips to the plate.

Flawless ball was played by both sides, no errors being charged to either team. The Panthers' second pitcher, Settles by name, who is reported to have pitched a no-hitter, was treated with the same disrespect, as far as batting is concerned, that the Plymouth boys always show enemy pitchers. Four men were put to bat in an inning. They succeeded in doing this in the first, the second, the fifth and the dastardly sixth in which the single, spoiling Hitt's perfect game, was made by Martin, Panther left fielder.

In the second inning in which Plymouth scored one of her four runs the Rocks pitched men to bat. Folsom started proceedings with one of his numerous walks; Leach, after breaking his bat, grounded to deep second, enabling Folsom to reach second; Hoffman then poled a snappy single over second sending Folsom all the way home with the winning run. Krumm then grounded out to second and Gordie Robinson obligingly struck out. This same Gordie, however, more than made up for his deficit at bat by a very good catch with two outs in the sixth inning and a man on first, a River Rouge man, lifted a short fly to right which acting right fielder, Ham Newman, could not reach. Gordie, running with his back to the ball, took it over his shoulder after a nice run. This was perhaps the best play of the game.

If the Rocks keep the pace established in this game we may hope for a possible championship. Here's hoping.

DEARBORN DEFEATS PLYMOUTH TRACKERS

Plymouth lost its third track meet this year on Tuesday, May 3, to Dearborn on the local grounds. Getting off to a good start, Dearborn won several events and placed well in others, and finally won by the score of 80 to 24. There were a few exciting finishes; among the best was that of the mile; McMullen of Plymouth and Brewer of Dearborn, who had been fighting for the lead all through the last lap, were coming into the home stretch, and it looked as if Dearborn would win when McMullen put on a burst of speed

City Gives Night's Lodgings To 700 Visitors In One Year

The City of Plymouth "hotel" gives overnight lodgings to quite a number of guests each year. The "hotel" is the city jail, located in the basement of the city hall. Almost every night from one to 15 gentlemen of the road stop an officer or apply at the jail for a place to sleep. A total of 700 persons received overnight lodgings in 1937.

Police Chief Vaughan Smith reports that it is unnecessary for citizens to heed beggars' pleas for "money for a bed" because the city provides accommodations at the jail.

The city's "hotel" guests are not all bums, the Chief pointed

In Plymouth Hospital Day

(Continued From Page One) hold open house inviting the public to inspect their facilities and learn of the great work in the saving of human lives and the lessening of human suffering. Plymouth hospital invites the people of this community to observe National Hospital Day by visiting the hospital between the hours of 2:00 and 4:00 p.m. on May 12.

The hospital of today is becoming more and more essential in the practice of medicine. It is the focal point of medical practice and the fountain head of new discovery. Its facilities, such as X-ray and laboratory equipment are necessary aids in the diagnosis of disease. It is equipped to provide medical and surgical treatment which can be obtained nowhere else.

With hospital admissions in the United States last year exceeding the nine million mark, one person in 14 occupied a hospital bed sometime during the year. The hospital is rapidly becoming the birthplace of the nation. More than 900,000 or nearly half of all the babies born in the United States last year were born in hospitals.

Each year more mothers in every community select their local hospital as the most satisfactory birthplace for their babies. They do this because they find it more convenient, more economical, and safer than having the baby delivered at home. They know that the hospital has facilities especially adapted for the care of the mother and baby. Plenty of sterile supplies and linens are at hand and aseptic procedures prevent the infections which cost so many mothers their lives each year.

Another important reason why intelligent women prefer to have their babies born in a hospital is that following delivery they can recuperate more quickly, secure in the knowledge that the baby is under the careful supervision of both nurse and doctor. National statistics show that one-half of all the deaths in infancy occur in the first two weeks of life and that four-fifths of these deaths occur in the first day of life. Hospital care of the newborn saves many little lives and is an important factor in lowering the infant death rate.

In these days when motor traffic accidents are on the increase the hospital is indispensable in providing medical and surgical care for accident victims. Thousands of people injured in traffic accidents each year owe their lives to the fact that other people in small communities and large cities have valued human life sufficiently to establish and support hospitals which are ready at any hour of the day or night to minister to the sick and injured.

The hospital of today is also an important factor as a preventative agency. Hospital care in a number of cases often prevents developments of a serious nature, while the surgical correction of minor physical defects may prevent, and often does prevent, future serious illness or circumstances the major operation that

Campus Choristers Of Ypsi To Present May Festival Sunday

Unique among student organizations at Michigan State Normal college is its youngest musical club, the Campus Choristers made up of 30 young college men and women. The Choristers were organized last spring for the purpose of giving students a chance to sing, together the songs they love to sing, at the same time helping the entire student body to better understand and enjoy the best music.

Student Bernard Stone of Reading, Michigan, is director of the organization, which is entirely student governed and administered. This year a series of informal matinee musicales for students and faculty was inaugurated. At each succeeding program music on a higher level was presented and explained. The series has proven very popular.

As culmination of the year's activities the Campus Choristers will present the second annual Musical in Charles McKenny hall, Ypsilanti at 8:00 p.m., Sunday, May 8. The program which includes compositions from the works of Handel, Brahms, Palegrom, Smetana, Dett, Del Rio and Cain is designed to interest people in finer music which they can understand and enjoy.

Ruth Pennell Chosen Valedictorian

Here is an item of interest to all Plymouth high students and especially to all seniors! After figuring up the results Mr. Dykhouse has announced that Ruth Pennell is this year's valedictorian with an average of 96.57, and Doris Schmidt salutatorian with an average of 96.14. In her four years of high school Ruth has to her credit 26 A's and 2 B's while Doris has 24 A's and 4 B's. The averages are figured on a basis of A-97, B-91. Both of these are records to be proud of.

Ruth is taking a college course and plans to take a course in Christian education at Moody Bible Institute in Chicago, Illinois. She is musical; she has been in the orchestra four years, Junior chorus, Glee club and double quartet. Outside of that she has taken up piano playing, and, in addition, extempore speaking, and Girl Reserves.

Doris is taking a straight commercial course and plans to attend a business college when she graduates. Her favorite extracurricular activity has been dramatics in which she worked four years. She also took a great deal of music, being in junior chorus, glee club, and double quartet. She was in two declamation contests, representing the school in this phase one year. Other activities were Girl Reserves, Leaders' club and Library club.

PLYMOUTH SLUGFEST ROUTS REDFORD UNION

The local nine unleashed all its batting power last Monday, May 2, combining it with the three-hit pitching of Don Waterman to crush Redford Union under a lopsided 17-2 score. Bob Hitt led the stickwork with two singles and a double in three tries. He also garnered two walks and scored four runs.

Don Waterman, making his debut as a starting pitcher, hurled six hitless, scoreless innings, weakening in the sixth only, when the opposition coupled a walk, two singles, and a double for two tallies, its only scoring of the day. Waterman struck out five and walked an equal number. He received very good support, only two errors being charged to the pitchers.

Plymouth scored two runs in the first through two walks and singles by "Ham" Newman and Leach, but these were insignificant beside the rally the Rocks put on in the second. They batted around once, and half way around again, gathering in two runs in this gigantic effort. Two singles by Hoffman, one apiece by Waterman, Martin, Hitt and Krumm, two hit batsmen, a walk, and two errors figured in this rally. Another single by Leach, a run, and a walk accounted for a run in the third, and singles by Leach and Krumm, two walks, a double by Hitt, and an error produced three more runs in the fourth. The Rocks finished their scoring in the sixth when a pair of singles by Hitt and Darnell, as many errors, and a pass were made in two runs.

Clustered behind Bob Hitt in the hit parade came "Ham" Newman, Harold Leach, Wes Hoffman, and "Butch" Krumm, each with a brace of singles. Martin, Darnell, and Waterman had a brace apiece.

Miller, Redford Union catcher was badly injured in the second inning, when Ray Martin collided with him in a safe steal of home as Bob Folsom, only Rock regular to go hitless, struck out. It was thought that Miller's leg was broken just above the ankle.

Plymouth now holds a string of four victories and hopefully faces the highly-rated River Rouge team on Tuesday, May 3, the opening of T.V.A.A. league games.

PLYMOUTH NINE SCORES THIRD STRAIGHT RUN

The Rocks made it three wins in a row last Wednesday, April 27 as they defeated the Farmington nine by a one-sided score. Despite Farmington's hardest efforts they were able to compile only five runs, while Plymouth scored three times in the first, once in the second, six in the third and three in the fifth sending a grand total of 13 runs across the plate.

Bob Hitt fended for the home team on the pitching mound, allowing five runs and five hits. In the fourteen innings in which he has pitched, Bob has retired 17 batters on strikes.

The Farmington infield were somewhat lax in their fielding and let several unearned runs trickle through their fingers.

In each game played thus far, Plymouth has grown better and better as far as their capacity for making runs is concerned. The runs won by the Rocks in the third they won by 6-1, and they took this game 13-5.

AMATEUR SHOW SATURDAY, MAY 13

The dances held in the city hall will be on Saturday night only, during the month of May. This is to avoid conflict with school functions. The "High Steppers" will play Saturday night and a special program is planned. The amateur hour held two weeks ago proved so popular that next Saturday night, May 13, another one will be held. Anyone interested may come and participate.

Last Saturday night "Bing" McLain brought his friend, "Bazooka" and they both sang. "Bing" also sang Friday night. Come and hear them. Our last dance will be held Saturday, June 4 and it is tentatively planned to make it a costume party. Reserve that date for the dance. A good program is planned and the dance promises to be the best yet to wind up the season. The "High Steppers" will play as usual.

JUST MOM EDITORIAL

"Where did you get that lovely dress, Mary?" "Oh, Mother made it," is the casual conversation we often hear, or we might say, "Gee, Jim, who gave this swell party for you?" and the answer would probably be, "Oh, just Mom."

Do any of us ever stop to realize just how much time, effort, and money those mothers spent in accomplishing those things passed off so casually and scarcely with a word of thanks. Too many of us have the attitude that our mothers were made to work for us, and we rather expect them to do all these things only in their line of duty; we are quite provoked when they fail us once in a while.

When Mother's Day comes around once a year, we are all so willing and able to help Mother and are very considerate that she does no work that day, and we see that she has all sorts of gifts, but it is only for that one day; we are altogether too willing to let her go ahead and keep on working for us the next day.

Monday, May 9, is the mother and daughter banquet at which our mothers will be honored, and the future mothers of America will be advised as to the best course to lead in order to be fine upright women of tomorrow, but since we are at the present only sons and daughters it is our duty to do for our mothers all we can while we are young and able. We owe it to them.

Let us stop and think how much they have done for us. Why wait until Sunday to do something for our mothers? Why not do it now?

PLYMOUTH LOSES TRACK MEET TO WAYNE

The Plymouth track team lost the meet to Wayne last Thursday, April 28 by the score of 66-38. The meet was not very eventful, except for a rain storm which began soon after it started. Plymouth had very few first places and still fewer secondary places.

The outstanding trackers on the Plymouth team were: Mielbeck, who won the 100-yard dash; McMullen, who won the mile; and Prough who pole vaulted to first place.

Any boys wishing to come out for track will be welcome.

CANTON CENTER WINS NEWS SPELLING BEE

Steve Dely, Plymouth Junior high school spelling champion, lost out in the district bee at Northville last Friday, April 23, but was consoled by the handsome Detroit News medal with his name engraved on the back which he received there and by the fact that he gained tenth ranking in a field of 25. He was downed by the word "chaplain", evidently connecting it up with Charlie Chaplin.

Canton Center's representative will go to the Coliseum Friday, May 13, as the district's representative, having won this privilege at Northville.

CLASS NOTES

The girls' physical training classes have started baseball and tennis matches.

The class plans to hold a musical program on May 2 of recordings of poems which have been set to music. The sixth hour public speaking class has been giving acceptance and presentation speeches. During the latter part of the week welcome and farewell speeches will be given.

LET IT THAW!
Concrete Streets Resist Spring Break-Ups... Save Thousands of Dollars for Taxpayers
IT'S tough on everyone when spring thaws break up your streets. Business suffers when streets are closed for repairs. Motorists don't like the muddy chuckholes and ruts. And taxpayers pay the repair bills.
The answer is to pave with concrete—safe, smooth-riding and trouble-free the year around. Skid-resistant, wet or dry. Permanently free from mud, ruts and bumps.
Remember, too, concrete costs less to build as well as to maintain than other pavements of equal load-carrying capacity. Be sure your streets are paved with concrete.

Reed's Restaurant Opening Success

So large was the number of people who wanted to enjoy the opening day at Reed's remodeled and enlarged restaurant on Starkweather avenue, that all could not be served. It was the first time in many a year that dinner guests had to be turned away.

Says Cloudburst Was Just A "Mist"

"They didn't have any heavy rain out in California last winter when some houses were washed down into the river, roads and bridges were carried away by raging streams—no, it wasn't rain or a cloudburst that caused it. They only had a heavy mist out there," said Harry Ayers yesterday. Mr. and Mrs. Ayers have just returned from California where they spent the winter.

"Folks out in California now declare that the heavy rain that swept the state for three days and resulted in such terrific destruction was merely a mist. Well anyway, it was some mist," declared the well known Plymouth fruit grower.

"I was up in Death Valley at the time of the storm. It rained up there for three days, but we had no floods in that part of the state. But down at Santa Monica where we spend most of the winters, there was plenty of damage from the storm in that section."

Stealing Flowers From City Park

Efforts of city officials to beautify Kellogg park in the heart of the city are proving rather discouraging as the result of operations of vandals and the carelessness of people.

Vandals last Friday evening raided the beautiful tulip beds that were created last fall on the west side of the park and removed some 46 of the most attractive blossoms. It was not the work of children, say city officials, as the blossoms were carefully cut from the plants.

Police officers urge that people who witness others taking plants or flowers from the park, notify them of the offense, as it is desired to make an example of some guilty person in an effort to stop the thefts.

Not only have some of the flowers been cut, but vines and shrubs placed about the monument in the center of the park last year have been tramped down to such an extent that the city has now decided to place an iron fence around the monument.

"I couldn't keep house without a telephone"

WHAT a convenience sometimes to be able to shop by phone! No need to "drop everything" and go out on particularly busy days—or in bad weather.

How nice—and how important—to be in touch with the world even when you're home alone! The pleasant chat with the friend you don't have time to visit... the last-minute arrangements for spontaneous get-togethers, bridge games, movie parties and general good times with people you like—all these are made possible by your telephone.

No wonder so many women say: "I couldn't keep house without a telephone!" In so many practical ways this modern servant pays its own small salary—and for good measure adds much to the joy of living.

Plan Exhibits For Achievement Day

The Home Economics groups of Wayne county under the supervision of the Michigan State college extension division have planned an interesting program for their annual Achievement Day, Wednesday, May 11. The Wayne County Training school, very cooperatively, have turned over the auditorium, gymnasium and the teachers' lounge of their institution for the occasion. The exhibits will be housed in the lounge, the luncheon will be served in the gymnasium and the program will be staged in the auditorium.

The opening number on the program will be a "puppet show" presented by the home furnishing club of the Dearborn Woman's club. There will be two short plays, "The Sengens' Story" and "The Gingers' Story." Mrs. Guy Moore will direct the show. Reports of the year's accomplishments will be given on the morning program. Presentation of certificates to finishers of projects will be given by Emma Duford, county home demonstration agent. E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent, will explain the new agricultural program to the audience. The tailoring group will climax the morning session with a "style revue" of the coats and suits made this spring.

Following the luncheon, Miss Clara E. Starr, supervisor of music in Wayne county schools, will lead in the community singing, accompanied by Miss Isabelle Koersch.

The Wayne county 4-H clubs will precede the afternoon address with a short demonstration of one phase of their clothing work to their mothers.

The Wayne county executive committee has invited for the speaker of the day, Miss Sarah VanHoesen Jones of Rochester, Michigan. Her subject will be "Experiences of a Farm Woman." Miss Jones was born on the "VanHoesen Farm" located one and one-half miles northeast of Rochester, Michigan, which was acquired from the government by her ancestors in 1823. She was educated at the University of Chicago, graduating with a Ph. B. in French in 1914. In 1916 Miss Jones received an M.S. degree from the University of Wisconsin, and in 1921 a Ph. D. in genetics from the same institution. In 1932 the Michigan Farmer gave Sarah VanHoesen Jones the Master Farmer medal. She is the only lady in Michigan who has achieved this award. Since 1923 Miss Jones has been actively engaged in poultry work and in poultry and dairying since 1927. From her fine Holstein herd is produced certified vitamin D milk, which is consumed by the city of Detroit. With such a rich experience of the farm and her educational background, the Wayne county women are looking forward to her address with much interest.

Mrs. Walter Wilkie, a farm woman of Cherry Hill, will be chairman of the program for the entire day. Exhibits in the teachers' lounge will be opened from 9:00 a.m. to 3:30. Guests are always welcome to share the program with the home demonstration groups.

William Henry Harrison was the oldest president of the United States, inaugurated at age of 68; the youngest, Theodore Roosevelt, age 43.

IN MEMORIAM

The Mayflower Club.

IN MEMORIAM

In loving memory of Mrs. Ernest Frank, who passed away seven years ago, May 3, 1931.

You bid no one a last farewell, You said good-bye to none, Your living heart had ceased to beat.

Before we knew you were gone, Every day we sadly miss you; Deeply do we feel our loss; Lonely in our home without you.

Help us, O God, to bear our cross, Sleep on dear Mother, and take thy rest; God called you home when he thought best. Sadly missed by her husband and children.

CARD OF THANKS

I wish to thank those who so kindly remembered me in the many different ways while I was in the hospital. Your thoughtful-ness was appreciated.
