

City is Praised For Training Public Workers

Many Taking Special Courses In Their Fields

The Plymouth City Administration was complimented on its program of training city servants for better production while they are in service by the "City Managers News Letter," for November 15, published by the International City Managers association.

The following comment was published: "Can a city of 4,500 population organize a comprehensive program of in-service training?"

C. H. Elliott, city manager of Plymouth, Michigan, has the answer. A number of policemen and firemen have earned Red Cross certificates, and a number of volunteer firemen have attended state fire schools.

The police chief is a graduate of the National Police Academy and is enrolled in the association's course on the organization and functions of municipal government. The police captain has earned a certificate for fingerprinting identification and is enrolled in the association's police course.

The sewage disposal superintendent has taken a special course. The city manager is taking the association's personnel course; the city treasurer the finance course and a fireman the fire course. In addition, the city subscribes to a number of periodicals which are circulated among city employees and encourages membership in the professional organizations. Many cities several times Plymouth's size might well learn from Plymouth's program of in-service training.

The courses referred to above, all of them in book form, are paid for by the city with the exception of the city manager's course, which is paid for by the city manager personally.

However, the city stipulates that the employees taking the courses pay for them until the work is completed to safeguard the city against an employee starting the work and not completing it.

When the courses are completed and the city assured of getting the benefits from the employee who took the work he is reimbursed for the cost.

The courses then are placed in the city library so as to be available to other city employees who wish to advance themselves in the work of allied fields of municipal work.

Those referred to in the material taken from the News Letter, Elliott, Police Chief Vaughan R. Smith, Police Capt. Charles Thumme, Ernest W. Clapp, superintendent of sewage disposal, City Treasurer Charles Garlett and Fireman Louis Westfall.

Methodists Lead At The University

The Methodist church has the largest student enrollment of any church on the University of Michigan campus, according to a religious census taken recently.

The total number of students listed in this study was 11,217, of whom 9,100 are either members of churches or listed a preference for a given church. No church preference was indicated by 2,102.

The Methodist enrollment of 1,664 was followed by Presbyterian, 1,479; Jewish, 1,173; Catholic, 1,001; Episcopalian, 953; Congregationalist, 654; Lutheran, 575; and Baptist, 469. This is the year that the Roman Catholic and Jewish enrollment have gone over the one thousand mark.

It is significant to note, Dr. E. W. Blakeman, Counselor in Religious Education says, that the number of persons from community churches, Federated Churches, or interdenominational bodies has been steadily increasing at the university. This year 42 students from such organizations are enrolled.

STORIES WILL CLOSE FROM 10 TO 11 THANKSGIVING DAY

Educators Attend Dinner Party

The annual board of education dinner entertainment Thursday night at the high school was attended by 95 teachers, members of the board and other employees and their wives or husbands.

In an after-dinner entertainment, a short, one-act play was presented for the amusement of those present by Paul Weatherhead, Riley Lynch, Ernest Eberhart and Le Wallace. The play was entitled, "If Men Played Bridge as Women Do."

Two reels of motion pictures were presented on the new cinematic machine which was presented to the high school by the graduating senior last June. The picture consisted of a Mickey Mouse comic and a feature on forestry and lumbering.

D.A.R. Gives Aid To Indians

Members of the Sarah Ann Cochran Chapter of D.A.R. enjoyed a most interesting talk on Educational Work among Michigan Indians, given by Miss Olive Gwynn, Federal Director of Educational Work among the Indians of Michigan, at the regular meeting Monday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Fred A. Dibble.

There was a good attendance, and those present gained an insight into this very important work, and learned what could be done by the Chapter and by individual members to aid in it.

There are probably between 8,000 and 10,000 Indians in Michigan, the greatest number in any county being in Emmet County. Home building projects among them are similar to the rural and other housing schemes. All children are required to attend public schools until high school, when they can borrow funds to attend Haskell Institute or some other institution of higher learning.

Miss Gwynn had a splendid exhibit of baskets and rugs made by Indians in various places. The Chapter is cooperating with the Christmas committee of Plymouth in supplying dresses for needy children of this church district, considerably more than half a thousand being present.

Plymouth O. E. S. Installs Officers

The installation of the new corps of officers of Plymouth Chapter No. 115 O.E.S. will be an evening, November 29 at 8:00 o'clock in the Masonic Temple.

Ann Carley will be installed as worthy matron; A. K. Brocklehurst, worthy patron; Leota McCormick, associate matron; Chase Willett, associate patron; Winifred Downing, secretary; Carl Birch, treasurer; Catherine Henderson, conductress; Pearl Lundquist, associate conductress; Josie Innis, chaplain; Evelyn Brocklehurst, marshal; Dora Gallimore, organist; Adah, Isabelle Lueke; Ruth, Beulah Flaherty; Esther, Lillian Birchall; Martha, Alice Rabinun; Lillian, Mary Henry; Warder, Lillian Terry; Seninal, Robert Chappell.

Plymouth chapter is very happy to have as their installing officer Mrs. Florence Ryckman, worthy grand matron of the Grand Chapter of Michigan, Order of the Eastern Star. Mrs. Isabelle Schumacher, past matron of Park Corinthian and Past Grand Esthler, who will serve as grand installing marshal; Celeste Kohler, past matron of Orient chapter, Northville as chaplain; and Helen Rowe, past matron of Dearborn chapter will exemplify the floral ceremony.

Later a reception will follow with refreshments in the dining room. This is the one open evening to which members may invite their friends and a large number is expected.

Mrs. Evelyn Brocklehurst, the retiring matron, and her officers have had a most successful year and her work should be an inspiration to the new officers.

"American City" Prints Tax Letter

"The American City" for November publishes, under the caption, "A City Manager Enlightens the Taxpayers," the full text of the message sent from the Plymouth city hall to the taxpayers last spring in explanation of what tax monies are used for.

The self-explanatory subject matter had no other comment than the line of type under the letter, "What the people of Plymouth might expect for their taxes is told in this letter mailed to the taxpayers by City Manager Clarence H. Elliott."

The letter, which started, "A Personal Letter to You," was reproduced in full just as Plymouth taxpayers received it. "The American City" is one of the oldest magazines of its kind and goes to nearly every city in the United States, to all libraries and is included in the work of many high school civics classes.

Council Hears Complaint On Tree Damage

Decides To Make Inspection Of Alleys Project

The city commission Monday night heard a complaint that city crews working on the alleys have cut down large trees of value. The complainant referred particularly to the alley east of Adams street and south of Blanche street.

The city manager, Clarence H. Elliott, reports that the crews have been working two weeks to clear the alleys of debris so that the garbage and rubbish collection truck could get through in order to effect a material saving in time and effort in the collecting of garbage and rubbish.

Where small elms and maples are being cleared out, he said, the trees are being replanted along the roads so that such trees are not a total loss.

The commission decided that its members would have to make an inspection of the work before any decision could be reached in the matter. In the meantime, Mr. Elliott said, all large trees will be left untouched unless they block the alleys to the extent that a truck cannot get through the roadway.

It is essential that the alleys be cleared, he said for the effective picking up of garbage and rubbish. Otherwise he added, considerable time—and in the long run, money—is lost by letting the alleys remain clogged up.

Methodist Men Go To Ypsilanti

Last Friday evening a number of men of the First Methodist church of Plymouth drove to Ypsilanti where they attended a dinner sponsored by the men of the Methodist church of this church district, considerably more than half a thousand being present.

Rev. Stanford S. Closson, minister of the Plymouth Methodist church, who headed the local delegation, was greatly pleased at the interest in the event.

The address was delivered by Rev. Crane of Detroit, who recently came to this state from the east to fill the pulpit made vacant by the death of Dr. Fisher.

His plea was for a greater interest in the church by men of the nation, declaring that never before in the history of the world was there greater need than today for church activities.

Louis Holloway Recalls More Barber Shop History Of Plymouth

Maybe Charles McConnell thinks he knows something about the early history of barbers in Plymouth, but there is one citizen who can go back two or three generations ahead of the period when Mr. McConnell's barbering days started in Plymouth. That's Louis Holloway of North Harvey street.

After reading the article in last week's issue of The Mail about the Vanderbarber shop, Mr. Holloway did a bit of reminiscing, and he "reminisced" way back before the turn of the last half century.

"You know before the civil war you didn't have any barber in Plymouth. When we needed a haircut, some member of the family, generally the father, did the cutting. Sometimes one of the neighbors who was pretty handy with the shears, would give us a haircut in the yard, and he would cut our hair while we talked about the issues of the day," said Mr. Holloway.

"Most of the men as a rule shaved themselves. I mean those who didn't let their whiskers grow.

"The first barber to come to town was Doctor Day. He opened up a shop during the late Civil war days in what we called the 'hole in the wall' down on Main street, just this side of the old hotel. Then came a Mr. Brown, and Charlie Miller, then George Patterson, next Ernest Passage, then Orr Passage and a little later George Vanderbarber. Those days the barber shop was about the only place in town where the problems of the days were discussed. Saturday night was a great time around the barber shops," declared Mr. Holloway.

Plymouth Girl Sings For State Schoolmen

Entertainment for a conference Saturday of about 300 principals and superintendents of Michigan high schools at Michigan State college was provided by Miss Edith Mettetal, Michigan State sophomore from Plymouth, according to George Smith, Plymouth superintendent, and Claude A. Dykhous, Plymouth principal, who attended the meeting.

Miss Mettetal was one of two students in the music school who were selected to perform at the meeting. Miss Mettetal holds a scholarship in singing at M.S.C.

The conference was for high school officials on the grades made by students who graduated from their schools.

Plan Reception On Anniversary

Monday, November 28, Mr. and Mrs. William Felt of 580 Fairground avenue, will celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary and to make the day an ideal one, they have invited their friends and neighbors to come to their home at any time during the day for an exchange of greetings.

"Just say we will be pleased to have all our friends drop in at any time. You know we have lived here a long, long time and get many live to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary," said Mr. Felt when talking about the approaching event.

During their lifetime in Plymouth Mr. and Mrs. Felt have made hosts of good friends who will be pleased to greet them on this important occasion.

Mrs. Felt is 82 years of age and Mr. Felt is 80. Both are in good health, especially for people of such advanced years. They were married in Plymouth by the Rev. Brant, who was pastor of the First Methodist church of Plymouth.

Tonquish Plan Is Unopposed

Satisfaction with the new plan of assessment for the expenses of covering Tonquish Creek was indicated with the passing of the deadline Thursday, November 17, for filing an appeal to the probate court or a board of review on the method.

There remained only one hurdle for the plan before the method can be certified and work started. That is the deadline, set by law for Monday, November 28 for acceptance of a writ of certiorari for review before a higher court.

The new method of assessment, reached after a protest was made against the zoning system worked out earlier, was devised by George A. Dingman, county drain commissioner.

It calls for assessment of 14 per cent of the cost against the benefited area, a spread of 80 per cent against all city property, five per cent against Plymouth township and one per cent against the Wayne county road commission.

Farmer Killed In Auto Accident

Henry Navarro, 60, who resided on rural route No. 2, Plymouth, was fatally injured last Sunday night about 6:30 p.m. Navarro was walking across the Canton Center road, about a quarter mile south of Cherry Hill road, when he walked into the path of a car driven by Charles Richards, 48, 50260 Chase road, Belleville, route No. 1, which struck him.

Navarro had narrowly missed being hit by another car going in the opposite direction. That driver did not stop.

The pedestrian was taken to Beyer hospital in Ypsilanti by ambulance where he died less than three hours later from injuries sustained in the accident. Dr. Bradley Harris, coroner, said Navarro died from shock, broken right leg and arm, and a deep cut in the back of his head.

Thanksgiving!

Thanksgiving is basic in the constitution of man. We Americans think back to the Pilgrims but we must remember that the idea of Thanksgiving did not spring in any miraculous fashion from the brain of Governor Bradford in 1621. The 4th of July is distinctively and exclusively an American holiday but Thanksgiving is humanity's holiday.

Our Independence Day originated in 1776 but Thanksgiving is as old as man. Way back in the pages of the Old Testament we read of a time of thanksgiving: "And they went out into the field and gathered, and held festival, and went into the house of their god and did eat and drink." From this festival of the Canaanites came one of the major festivals of the Jews, "The Feast of the Tabernacles." Ancient Greece had a festival called the Thesmophoria. It was a Feast of Demeter, the goddess of agriculture. The Romans had a similar festival, Cerealia, in honor of Ceres, the goddess of the harvest. In Old England the autumnal festival is called the Harvest Home, in Scotland, the corn, and so on, and on around the house of their god and did eat and drink."

Back of the idea of thanksgiving is the truth that God is the ultimate Giver of all. The familiar lines of Matthew D. Babcock attest in beautiful brevity: "Back of the loaf is the snowy flour, And back of the flour the mill; And back of the mill is the wheat and the shower, And the sun and the Father's will."

On the human side thanksgiving is pure courtesy. Even a well-bred child says "thank-you" when he receives some gift or consideration from another. Isn't it strange, you tragic, that we are less courteous to God than we are to one another? Grace before meals is simply saying "thank you" to God for the gift of food. Because we are thoughtless others are thankless. Too many of us take life's blessings as a matter of course. Sunshine and rain, seedtime and harvest, health, food, shelter, clothes, friends, home, church—all we take as a matter of course. The Prodigal Son of Jesus' parable said to his earthly father, "Give me the portion of goods that 'fall to me,' little realizing that before things can fall into our hands someone had to put them up there. And that means work and effort, and often sacrifice, and always a great love."

Once more the earth hath brought forth plentifully. "All is safely gathered in, Ere the winter storms begin." In his parable of the sower Jesus was very conservative when He said that the good ground brought forth, some thirty-fold, some sixty and some an hundred-fold. Before me lies an ear of popcorn with a thousand kernels on it, all coming from a single seed kernel. God always does His part but often man miserably bungles. True, "the earth is the Lord's," but Edwin Markham adds, "yes, but we have stupidly made it the landlord's." There is plenty to pray, not so much "Give us this day our daily bread," as we do, give us grace to pass the bread to God's last creature.

Woman Changes Mind (It's Profitable News)

What right does every woman have? You're correct—the right to change her mind.

She had to have a woman change her mind into the "right" channels, especially if you're a merchant and have something that both you and the woman in the case would be thankful for if you sold it to her.

The Plymouth furniture store is thankful that the Plymouth Mail has enough pulling power to change a woman's mind. In this case the woman had placed an order for a suite of furniture with a Detroit contractor.

Then she saw a Bunk and in The Mail for a furniture suite. She went to the store, looked the suite over and changed her mind. She canceled the Detroit order and bought the suite of furniture from Bunk's.

Quality was right, price was right, and so is the plan to let The Plymouth Mail introduce your goods to discerning subscribers who know that "if it's in The Mail it's a buy."

Police Capt. Charles Thumme addressed the Salem Parent-Teachers association on "Why Young People Go Wrong" at a meeting held at the school last Friday night.

Annual Court Of Honor Held By Scouts

Awards Are Made To Boys For Good Work

Awards were presented to Boy Scouts, troops and leaders of the district at a Court of Honor held at the Wayne County Training school Thursday, November 17.

The next Court of Honor will be held February 9 at the Plymouth high school, it was announced.

Second Class Scout awards were made by Paul Harsha, of Rosedale, and first class awards by Rev. Thomas Smith, of Northville.

So many candidates for merit badges were present that the Scouts were divided into three groups. Awards were made by Alan Strong, of Plymouth, to the first group; Carleton Lewis, of Plymouth, second, and George Chute, of Plymouth, third.

The Star Rank awards were made by the Rev. Walter Nichol, of Plymouth, vice chairman of the district. Life Rank honors were conferred by William Hodson, field commissioner of the district.

A special award was made to Mr. Parmenter, of Northville, by the Northville troop for his valued assistance to the Scouts. He received a bronze statue as a token of the Scouts' esteem. The presentation was made by Scout Bob Hunter.

Senior Scout honors were conferred by Sidney Strong, Scout commissioner of the district. The Charles Meply award for the troop having the largest number of points earned by members at the Court of Honor was won by Northville.

The Northville troop also received the Loomis banner for the troop having the largest attendance at the Court of Honor.

Rotary Party Is Best Ever

Nearly 125 members of the Plymouth Rotary and their guests Monday evening enjoyed the annual Thanksgiving dinner party of the club at the Mayflower hotel. Seemingly, the popularity of this event is increasing among the membership, the attendance for this year's event being the largest the club has ever enjoyed.

As usual, the keno games were under the direction of the committee that has made the parties so successful, Charles H. Bennett, Harry Robinson and Carl Shear. These three, over a long period of years, have been selected by the various club presidents to conduct the main part of the Thanksgiving program.

President Andrew Dunn of the club, in behalf of the organization especially complimented Manager Clair Maben of the Mayflower hotel for the excellently fine menu that was served, one of the interesting and pleasing parts of the menu consisting of a fruit salad designed to resemble a Rotary wheel.

Regrets were expressed because of the absence of William Connor, the Thanksgiving party this year being the first one he had ever missed since they were started by the club. Mr. Connor, who has been ill at his home, was unable to be present, although his condition is reported as improving. Brothers physicians, however, thought it best for him not to attend. A change in the method of awarding prizes this year proved popular with club members.

Announcement is made elsewhere in this issue of The Mail of the removal of the offices of Drs. Edward and Althea Rice from the Schrader building on Main street to 747 West Ann Arbor Trail, just west of the telephone building.

In securing the new residence and office location Dr. Edward Rice stated that it would be more easily reached by their patients and that it would give them ground floor offices. In the near future the doctors have planned to make extensive alterations and improvements on the property.

Brock, winner of the general college oratorical contest last fall, placed third in the state oratory meet. He is a member of the varsity debate squad.

Request For Light Goes On Table

The city commission Monday night received a petition signed by a few Plymouth residents requesting that a street light be installed on Kellogg street near Tonquish Creek.

Clarence H. Elliott, city manager, reported to the commission that the present program of street lighting would use up the funds allotted in the budget for such work and that installation of the light requested would cause expenses to run over the budget.

He also declared that if a light were placed at the point requested there should be several other lights installed in sections where they are needed just as badly.

The commission decided to table the matter until the next budget is made up.

Father Lefevre will present a farewell address, to be followed by presentation of a purse to the retiring pastor and a welcome for the new pastor, the Rev. Father Victor J. Renault, formerly of Anchorville, who assumed his new duties here last week.

Mrs. Edna O'Connor will present vocal selections and there will be short talks by the Rev. Walter Nichol; George E. Smith, superintendent of schools; State Rep. Elton R. Fred Schrader, Masonic master; Mayor Henry Hondorp and the Rev. Dean Carey, of Ann Arbor. The toastmaster will be M. J. Murphy of Northville.

Father Lefevre already has taken over his new post as pastor of St. Margaret Mary's Church, Detroit, but will return to his former home for the farewell party by old friends.

Banks Release $25,000 In Christmas Funds

Over $3,000,000 Will Be Spent In Michigan

A total of $25,000 is being released in Plymouth by the city's two banks this week as returns on Christmas Savings club accounts.

This figure is part of a total of $30,000,000 released to about 7,000,000 Christmas club members by about 4,500 banking and financial institutions and other organizations during National Prosperity Week starting Monday, November 28, according to an announcement by Herbert F. Rawel, founder and president of the Christmas club.

The total distribution for 1938 is about three percent in excess of 1937 and the number of members to receive Christmas club accumulations shows an increase of approximately six per cent. The average distribution per member amounts to $47.00 as against $48.55 for 1937.

This decrease in per-member accumulation was apparently caused by pay roll lay-offs and pay roll reductions made effective during the early months of 1938. The estimates are based upon a substantial number of reports received from institutions operating the Christmas club plan in different sections of the country.

Using reports received in 1938 from individual Christmas club members and applying these reports to the entire distribution for 1938, the estimated fund of $30,000,000 will be used by the recipients approximately as follows:

Christmas purchases, $108,920,000; permanent savings, $88,110,000; year end bills, $48,200,000; taxes, $32,010,000; insurance premiums, $30,860,000; education, travel and charity, $13,860,000; mortgage interest, $7,590,000; unclassified, $4,520,000.

In the distribution of Christmas club funds this year, New York state leads the other states with about $95,000,000. Michigan's total is $3,800,000.

Christmas club members enrolled at institutions serviced by Christmas club corporation for 1938 will have an opportunity to participate in a $5,000,000 cash prize contest, the intent of which is to secure a slogan that best expresses the permanent thrift development features of the Christmas club idea.

City Observes Quiet Holiday

Thanksgiving was scheduled to be a quiet, family-style holiday for most of the residents in Plymouth this year, with the only civic observance being union church services in the evening.

The holiday is popularly believed to have descended from rites observed by the Pilgrims in gratitude for the relief they found on these shores far from religious persecution.

Actually, however, the custom is a prehistoric one, based on the old religious urge to thank kindly gods for the material blessings of Mother Nature, for bounteous crops and fat herds, for victory in war and honor in peace.

Thanksgiving this year had special significance for the world in view of reported persecution of Mother Nature, for bounteous crops and fat herds, for victory in war and honor in peace.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Stover were Friday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Bleitz, in Detroit in the afternoon attending the concert in the Masonic temple when they had the pleasure of seeing and hearing Lily Pons.

On Wednesday, Mrs. H. H. Shierk, Mrs. Leslie Taylor, Mrs. C. H. Tingey, Mrs. John C. Calhoun, Mrs. Fred Weinert, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Milton Stover of the Gardens and Mrs. J. B. Bond of Rosedale Park had luncheon at the Detroit Athletic club and attended the Cass theatre singing Lynn Fontanne and Alfred Lunt's "Amphitryon 38".

Mrs. Prehistoric—Great Scott! Why don't you get your hair cut? Mr. Prehistoric—Well, I went to see the barber this afternoon, but he hasn't got a sharp rock in the place.

WHAT ARE YOU DOING FOR IT? (By O. F. Beyer, of Beyer Drugs)

When you have a pain here or there what do you do about it? First, you should be glad you have it, for it's the way of "kipping you off" there's no chief in your "innards." Second, you should set about ascertaining the cause.

Usually your own or some friend's conception of the cause influences you to partake of some magic medicine, you or he heard of, for pains seemingly similar.

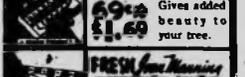

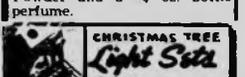

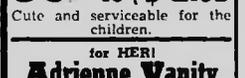

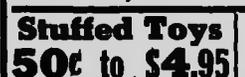

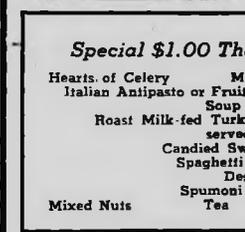

Perhaps you get along quite favorably for a time, then you and he have to guess again. Why?

Because nothing has been done that has reached the source of the trouble.

The safe and economical thing to do in such cases—in fact always at the first sign of illness—is to get in touch with a physician. It is his vocation to determine causes and to prescribe the necessary corrective measures.

Then his prescriptions should be expertly compounded in order to produce the desired results.

Churches

ST. PETER'S EV. LUTHERAN church. Special Thanksgiving service, 10:30 a.m. Our nation will prosper in direct proportion to the measure of consecration of her people to the service of Almighty God. The nation that forgets God will soon be forgotten of God. History bears out this truth. Then, in view of an unusually glorious history, in view of the prosperity and blessing of God on every hand, and this year, especially, in view of a return of better days for all of us—let us crowd our churches on the Day of Thanksgiving to lay our tribute of appreciation and devotion on our altars, imploring our God for further guidance and blessing!

ST. PETER'S EV. LUTHERAN church. Edgar Hoenecke, pastor. Sunday school 9:30. Morning service 10:30.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nichol, pastor. 10:00 a.m., Sunday school; 11:00 a.m., church worship; 8:30 p.m., young people. The people of the Presbyterian church are enjoying some reminiscences these days. A year ago last Sunday the first service was held in the new church. A year next Sunday the church was formally dedicated. The people feel that the building is proving itself well adapted to the purposes for which it was planned. The Mission Study class will meet next Tuesday evening at 7:00 p.m., at The Green Shutters, Newburg, where this group will be guests of Mrs. A. R. Kidston. The usual 25-cent meal will be provided by a committee and the class looks forward to a good attendance and good time. The closing session of the Leadership Training school will be held at the Methodist church, Plymouth, Monday, November 28, 7:30-9:30 p.m. Thursday of this week, November 24, a community Thanksgiving service will be held at First Baptist church at 10:00 a.m. All people are invited to share in this service. The Golden Text (Romans 8: 31) is: "If God be for us, who can be against us?" Among the Bible citations in this passage (Romans 8: 28): "And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following: (1) "At all times and under all circumstances, overcome evil with good. Know thyself, and God will supply the wisdom and the occasion for a victory over evil."

KNOW THYSELF
by DR. GEORGE D. GREER

WHAT IS MEANT BY "NERVOUS INDIGESTION"?

PEOPLE who get "nervous indigestion" are usually highly temperamental, or else are living lives of worry and high tension. It is definitely established that worry will stop the digestive process and cause food to lie undigested in the stomach for hours. This soon produces violent headaches and finally vomiting. It is purely an emotional disturbance that causes it. Excitement, anger, grief and similar emotions affect digestion in the same way. This is "nervous indigestion." In some cases the emotions may cause an excessive flow of gastric fluids that will eat into the lining of the stomach, or produce stomach ulcers and finally cancer. Removal of the emotional strain brings wonderful relief to such sufferers.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. There is a message for you, Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock when our pastor speaks on "Personal Evangelism." Bible school, 11:45 a.m., Curtis Hamilton, superintendent. The ladies of the Aid society announce their annual holiday bazaar with a dinner featuring fried chicken, Friday evening, December 2 and they plan to commence serving at 6:00 o'clock.

BEREA CHAPEL, Pent. Assemblies of God, John Walaskay, pastor. Meetings held in I.O.O.F. hall Sundays over Kroger store on Main street. Sunday school, 10:00 a.m.; morning worship, 11:00 a.m.; Y. P. meetings, 6:30 p.m.; evening service, 7:30 p.m. Prayer and study service will be held this Wednesday evening at 1600 Union street. "He is Our Help and Our Shield." Ps. 33: 30. The Psalmist said "I was brought low, and He (the Lord) helped me." Ps. 116: 6. He did not complain or murmur because he was brought low, but he did praise and give thanks because the Lord helped him, and said, "I will offer to Thee, the sacrifice of thanksgiving." Ver. 17. And then he bids us do likewise saying, "Praise ye the Lord." V. 19. Let us remember this Thanksgiving time to give thanks to whom thanks are due.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Holbrook and Harding. Lynn B. Stout, pastor. 615 North Mill street. And it is here again! What Thanksgiving. So goes life. And we looked ahead last year to this day it seemed a great way off, but now as we look back it seems but yesterday. The writer of the Psalms said: "We spend our years as a tale that is told; so teach us to number our days, that we may apply our hearts to wisdom." Ps. 90: 9, 12. The wise thing is to know Jesus Christ as a personal Savior. Mr. Spencer, a Christian business man will present the work of the Gideons at the morning service Sunday. The pastor will speak upon the "Reign of Christ for One Thousand Years on the Earth" at the 7:30 service. Of course, there is Bible school at 11:15 a.m., and B. Y. P. U. at 6:30 p.m. with prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30. Bullseye No. 13. More "drawing power" from the pew might help the "drawing power" of the pulpit.

Beautiful Riverside Mausoleum Nearing Completion

THE SIZE OF THE MAUSOLEUM is determined as to the number of compartments, and those available are limited in number. If you have not already made your reservation, do so now—delay will not work to your advantage.

A LITTLE THOUGHT will convince you that entombment in Riverside Mausoleum costs no more than a lot, monument, and other cemetery expenses.

A MODERN HEATING PLANT, lights, ventilation, permanency of construction and ready accessibility to every compartment are provided.

PERPETUAL CARE is assured from an endowment fund, the interest of which can be used for the care and maintenance of the building only.

Come out to the building and see for yourself the progress of construction. A request will bring full information with no obligation to buy.

Chinese Junk Still Controls River Traffic

—And One Even Crossed Pacific to Establish New Record!

Prepared by National Geographic Society, Washington, D. C.—WNU Service.

It is the news when a small but modern motorboat conquers an ocean, then the same accomplishment by a 36-foot sailing vessel designed 2,000 years ago comes under the head of maritime drama. Such a story recently made the headlines when a man, his wife, and two crew members arrived in California from Japan in a Chinese junk.

While modern steamers are becoming more numerous in Chinese waters, the old-fashioned junk, with its oblong sails, low, square bow, and high, decorated stern, continues to hold an important place in the economic life of old Cathay.

Behind it is a checked career as trader, fisherman, pirate, and man-of-war; yet this vessel still hauls much of China's vast domestic trade along coastal lanes and inland river roads. Bobbing up and down in the harbors of big cities, it offers the only home that millions of families have ever known.

Carried Early Compass.

The Chinese junk, though sometimes described as topheavy, slow, and lumbering, is, nevertheless, both adaptable and efficient in the hands of an expert sailor. Varying types have been evolved through centuries of use to meet current conditions and shipping needs of individual ports. Flat bottoms minimize injury when vessels go aground in the numerous shallows and sandbars that menace Chinese river traffic. Sails of cotton cloth or matting are so cut and balanced as to be quickly adjusted in frequent shifting squalls.

Certain shipping improvements finally adopted in Europe originated long ago with this craft. Trading between Canton and the Persian gulf in the Third century, Chinese junks carried early, if not the very first, crude compasses of magnetic iron needles.

Riding in junks in his travels a thousand years later, Marco Polo found them larger and more seaworthy than Venetian ships of the time. He was especially impressed with their airtight compartments, which, preventing a leak in one section of a craft from swamping the entire vessel, made it practically unsinkable.

On the intricate network of canals, creeks and rivers that substitute in China for motor roads and railways, junks carry much of the nation's enormous water-borne commerce. In all sizes, shapes and colors, they ply the three great river systems that cross the land from west to east—the Yangtze, the Yellow river, and the Sikiang, or West river. One meets them sailing smoothly in open waters or struggling through narrow, rocky gorges where treacherous rapids swirl.

In size they may range from a tiny single-sail craft to a five-masted trader carrying up to 400 tons of freight. Hardly recognizable as a junk at all is one Chinese native ship which more nearly resembles a "floating packing case."

Basketball Play Starts Monday

The Plymouth Community basketball league will start another season with first games scheduled to be played Monday, November 28.

The schedule for the opening games Monday is as follows:

Wilkie vs. Blunk, 8:00 p.m.

Tuesday games are:

Two Dances For Youth Recreation

There will be two youth recreation dances at the city hall this week-end. The dance Friday night is for young people 14 years old and over, the hours are 8:00 to 11:00 o'clock; the dance Saturday night is for young people under 14 years old and the hours are 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. Every one is welcome and it is hoped to have the usual large crowd. A surprise feature will be presented both nights.

The story hours, held in the city hall each Saturday morning, attracted many children last Saturday. Special games were played and a round-the-table story told about a turkey called "Dinner." Each Saturday morning new stories and games are played. Why not send the children this Saturday? There is always room for more. The hours are 9:00 o'clock for children of eight to 10 years old and 10:00 o'clock for children five to seven years old. This is a part of the recreation program sponsored by the Woman's club.

Besemer Issues Fire Warning

Keen eyes, used to spot danger centers in rural homes, can practically eliminate fire hazards which threaten lives and property each winter in Wayne county, it is pointed out by County Agricultural Agent E. I. Besemer. Eight causes of fires are held responsible for 85 percent of the fire losses in farm dwellings. Each of them is easy to correct. Some of the suggestions outlined by C. H. Jefferson, agricultural engineer at Michigan State college, indicate how simple it is to cut down the possibility of a serious blaze in a farm home. In the living room the danger spots call for a fireplace screen, metal ash trays for smokers, metal wastebasket, grounded radio antenna. Kitchens are danger spots. Kerosene or gasoline should not be used for starting stove or range fires. Matches need to be kept out of the reach of children. Chimneys should be supported on non-combustible foundations and stoves should not have wooden wainscoting behind them. Even curtains should be coralled to keep them away from heat or flame.

Bedrooms need inspection to see if electrical appliances are being used properly and safely. Cigarettes and matches again offer danger.

Basements and attics remain. Rubbish should not accumulate, chimneys should not leak nor have material stacked near by. Chimneys should be cleaned mechanically instead of with salt or other chemical. Roofs should be fireproof if possible.

Some weed seeds, buried in the soil, are capable of germinating after more than 50 years.

The larger slow-flying hawks feed to a very limited extent upon birds or poultry. Their principal food is mice and other small mammals.

Deep Sea Diver To Be Speaker

Direct from the most dangerous expedition of his career, Capt. John D. Craig, Hollywood adventure producer and deep-sea diver, will bring sensational new under-sea movies to illustrate his talk, "Danger Is My Business," before the Detroit Town Hall audience in the Fisher theatre Wednesday morning, November 30, at 11 o'clock. A natural story-teller and showman, Capt. Craig has been hailed as one of the lecture "finds" of recent years. His book, "Danger Is My Business," was a top best-seller for months.

Capt. Craig has returned from a summer on the Spanish Main with the only under-sea movies ever made on the dreaded Silver Shoals, graveyard of treasure-laden Spanish galleons. In a deep-sea world made perilous by vicious man-killing fish, violent and unpredictable currents and jagged under-water obstructions to pirate ships with legendary treasures buried in their holds. Fantastically beautiful coral forests—death traps to the unwary diver—grow on the floor of the treacherous reefs, 85 miles from land. Capt. Craig will show amazing moving pictures of these coral trees, the largest in the world, 40, 60 and 80 feet tall.

With his crew of daredevils, Capt. Craig has combed the world to make thrill sequences for Hollywood films. His under-sea pictures have won the coveted Academy Award.

Tickets for Capt. Craig's lecture are available at Grinnell's Music store, Detroit.

Stars were first photographed in 1850.

Mrs. Huston-Whipple Honored By Group

Mrs. Ruth Huston-Whipple, Plymouth city commissioner, was honored last week at the convention of the Municipal League in Detroit by election to the board of trustees. She is the first woman member ever to be elected to the board. She is shown in the picture above shortly after the election with the officials who were chosen to direct the affairs of the organization, which sponsors municipal legislation and a program of progress.

Dunham Gets Pershing Letter

Frank Dunham, 656 Amelia street, is showing his friends about the city a letter recently received from General John J. Pershing, expressing appreciation for a communication he had sent the General.

At one time during his early army career, General Pershing was a minor officer of the old Sixth Cavalry that was stationed in Arizona and other western states and territories during the Indian troubles.

Mr. Dunham as a lad joined the cavalry in 1883 and was a member of the troop up until 1895 when he left the army and returned to his home in this part of the state.

It was the year following his enlistment when he took part in his first engagement with the Indians. The regiment had been moved to a point on the Utah-Colorado line when there was a clash between the Utes and the soldiers.

As far as known Mr. Dunham is the only surviving soldier in this part of the state who took part in any of the Indian campaigns in the west during the early eighties.

Plymouth Corners' C. A. R. Holds Meeting

A meeting of the Plymouth Corners' society, Children of the American Revolution, was held November 19, at the home of Joan and Mary Lou Litsenberger, 241 Rayson street, Northville. The Junior president, Betty Ann Mastick, presided at the business meeting, after which Margery Merriam was in charge of an Armistice day program presented by the members who made reports about the causes and the costs of the World War, the Armistice, the unknown soldier, the Treaty of Versailles, and the results of the war that we are feeling today. Mrs. R. K. Leary, senior president, gave an interesting talk about her impression of the war and experiences of the first Armistice day. The group visited Sarah Ann Cochrane's grave in the Northville cemetery. A delicious lunch was served after this at the Litsenberger home.

Dykhouse Visits U. of M. Students

Claude J. Dykhouse, of Plymouth high school, was in Ann Arbor recently consulting with former students, now freshmen in the University of Michigan. University freshmen from Plymouth this year are: Astrid Hegge, Lawrence Smith, and Steve Eisner.

About 120 principals and teachers of 75 high schools and five junior colleges participated in the consultations. Altogether, approximately 575 freshmen visited with former teachers and principals, in the plan sponsored by Registrar Ira Smith of the University.

In operation for the past 11 years, the consultation plan is intended to bring about a closer relationship between the high school and the University. Much favorable comment on the consultation plan has been heard from students and high school and University officials, who have found the meetings beneficial as well as pleasant. Letters from principals who have participated indicate that they have acquired considerable information which has proved valuable in preparing students for a happier and more successful transition from high school to the University.

In general, the plan enables the high school teacher to detect faults in their own educational systems and to become more familiar with university methods and needs. Further, it permits the student to discuss his own problems and allows university instructors to become more familiar with preparatory school methods, thus promoting a better understanding of and sympathy for mutual problems by the two groups of educators.

The interview plan provides a medium of contact between the high school alumni and their former principals. It also gives the principal first hand information relative to the problems of the university student, so that he may understand from personal observation how to properly advise prospective university students while they are completing their preparatory courses in the high school.

To aid the visiting high school officials, each student to be interviewed was asked to fill out an interview sheet regarding his working conditions, his university preparation, and his present instruction. This sheet, together with informal grade reports on the first five weeks of the student's university work, was in the hands of the teacher at the time of the interview.

Since the origination of the plan here eleven years ago, it has become a regular part of the registrar's program in several other universities and colleges.

THANKFUL NO END FOR PEACE AND PLENTY—EDITORIAL

When Thanksgiving day was comparatively young it was used at times as a day of celebration for the return of peace. Congress recommended such a day in 1784 following the American Revolution and President Madison set aside another such holiday in 1815 when the War of 1812 was terminated.

In late September the nations of the earth narrowly averted becoming embroiled in a second World War. The margin by which this catastrophe was avoided was an insignificant number of mere short minutes. Whether those who settled the issue were right in their stand is an entirely different matter. The point is that they prolonged peace.

Now, if Congress and the President were so grateful for the cessation of war in the past, should not we be ever so much more thankful for the prevention of a conflict that came so near becoming reality, particularly since those who know predicted that it would be the finishing blow to civilization? It is certain that if war had come about, not very many of us would indulge in the customary stuffing into which our venerable holiday has degenerated. We would fare frugally, and like it too.

Let us keep these things in mind when we sit down to a hearty Thanksgiving dinner. If we do, the occasion at face value, we will be thankful no end for peace and plenty.

TEACHERS OUTLINE NEW SHOP COURSE

New ideas are buzzing in the heads of Mr. Ingram and Mr. Wallace these days. These two are working on a new course of study to be used in the industrial arts department. The plan will cover all phases of the work from the final year of general shop work.

The course will involve several occupations, says Mr. Wallace but will not include complicated handwork problems. The teachers intend to stress sheet metal and strap iron work together with electricity. A preliminary survey has already begun to determine the needs of the students.

ELEVEN HAS BEST SEASON IN 7 YEARS

The Rock gridiron machine ended hostilities and went into hibernation this week after having hung up the best record for a Plymouth team in seven years. It had won seven, tied one, and lost one, meanwhile tying with Ecorse for the Twin Valley Athletic Association title. In accomplishing this it had piled up a total of 149 points against a total of 37 for its foes. All in all it had ample reason to stick out its chest.

The Rocks started the season right by piling up their loftiest score in a 35-0 whipping of Redford Union, but dropped a hard-fought battle with Van Dyke, 6-0, for their only loss. They snapped back to defeat both Rochester and Dundee by identical scores, 20-0, and continued by subduing Wayne, 13-6. Time held them to a tie when the whistle ended a 13-13 draw with Dearborn as the Rocks lined up on the one-foot line. After eking out a close 7-6 victory over Clawson they finished off Ypsi 14-6, and ended the season on a high note by warping Northville 28-0. This brings Coach Jacob's record the last two years to twelve wins, three lost and a tie.

Nine seniors will be lost this year through graduation. Captain Jack Ross and Harold Leach, backs, have played their last high school football game, as have Jolliffe, Krumm, Thams, Olson, Darnell, Hull, and Lorenz in the line.

The record of the local eleven was strikingly parallel to that of the University of Michigan, which was once beaten and once tied, and had almost exactly the same point totals.

ALUMNA SINGS AT PRINCIPALS' MEETING

Miss Edith Mettetal, a graduate of Plymouth high school, who is now a sophomore at Michigan State college, gave two vocal solos during luncheon at the Union building on Saturday, November 19. The luncheon was given for the principals of Michigan who attended the conference on the Michigan state campus on Saturday and whose school has freshmen attending college at East Lansing. Mr. Dylhouse represented Plymouth and Plymouth's freshmen at the conference.

A total of 120,000 Americans engage in fishing as a livelihood.

SECOND MONTH HONOR ROLL

At the end of the second marking period it was found that approximately eleven per cent of all the students attained the honor roll.

There are 144 students in the senior class, twenty-six of whom, eighteen per cent, are on the honor roll. Two people, Mary Jane Parmalee and Dorothy O'Leary had all A's.

In the junior class of 127, sixteen per cent, or twelve and one-half per cent, were honor students but there was no one with all A's.

The sophomore class of 181 students had nineteen people, or ten per cent, on the honor roll. Two students had all A's, Ardith Rowland and Betty Scheppelle.

In the freshman class, which has 192 students, seventeen were on the honor roll. This is approximately nine per cent. Two of these, Nancy Dunham and Rosalind Postiff, had all A's.

The seventh and eighth grade had nearly the same percentage as the ninth grade. The eighth grade numbers 134 students, and eleven of these, or nine and one-half per cent, were on the honor roll. One student, Margaret Nichol had all A's. In the seventh grade, fourteen out of 141 students were on the honor roll. This is about nine per cent of the entire class. There were no all A's.

Plymouth Gains Fifth Straight Victory Over Northville

On a very dismal and rainy day with a slippery and muddy field Plymouth crushed the Northville eleven for the fifth straight time with a score of 27-0, on Friday, November 18. Scoring at least once in every quarter except the second and twice in the final quarter, the Rock's offense was in fine form. In the earlier parts of the game the backfield men of both teams seemed to have trouble getting started because of the condition of the field but toward the close of the game the players were getting used to the mud and not much slipping was noticed.

Northville's main offense was through the air, using as a specialty a lateral ending in a forward, and even this was bottled up by Plymouth every time it looked as if Northville might get started.

Plymouth's initial score came late in the first quarter, when after Northville had punted from deep in their territory, Ross in a few plays, including one of twenty yards on an end run, carried the ball to the enemy's five-yard line. Baker was here substituted for Ross and in the first play plunged over for a touchdown and also plunged over for the extra point.

Baker also scored the second touchdown. After Prough, Ross, and Gettleton had taken the ball to Northville's ten-yard line, Krumm dropped back out of the line into the fullback position and took it over only to have the play nullified by a five-yard penalty. Baker again came in and went over for the touchdown. The point after the touchdown was missed when the signals were crossed.

Plymouth's third touchdown came about half way through the fourth quarter on a pass from Leach to Prough. The pass came on the first play after Northville punted after holding Plymouth on their one-line. Ross kicked the point after the touchdown, making the score, 20-0.

The fourth touchdown was also the result of a pass again from Leach to Prough, which came after a short Northville punt. Olson dropped back out of the line to plunge over for the extra point making the final score of 27-0.

This was the last game on Plymouth's schedule and therefore was the last high school game for many of the players who are seniors this year. Those who ended their high school football careers are Jolliffe, Krumm, Thams, Olson, Darnell, Ross, Leach and Hull. These have all played important parts in all of Plymouth's victories and helped to top off a highly successful season with this victory over their chief rival, Northville.

COME AND BRING YOUR CHILDREN TO SEE "OUR CHILDREN."

Thursday and Friday, December 8 and 9 are the dates of the junior play, "Our Children," a comedy-drama in three acts to be presented in the high school auditorium at 8:00 o'clock under the direction of Miss Winnifred Ford who directed such successes as "Smilin' Through" and "Growing Pains."

The dialect in most parts provides a change from plays given in recent years.

The theme is that of an old German father who worships his son but neglects his eldest daughter and turns her out of his house because she loves the young foreman of his factory. Returning good for the evil given him by the girl's father, the young foreman helps redeem his idolized son and provides him a comfortable home.

The cast for Thursday is Martin Horvath, James Stevens, Margaret Erdelyi, Ruth Ash, Eugene Bakewell, Betty Barlow, Jean Anderson, Ivan Packard, Roger McClain, Warren Perkins, and Richard Strong. Friday's cast is Martin Horvath, James Stevens, Dorothy Bohl, Jane Springer, Eugene Bakewell, Patricia Arnold, Patricia Braidel, Ivan Packard, Roger McClain, Warren Perkins, and Richard Strong.

It is a play for young folks, no matter how old they have lived, and it is a play for parents. Go and see "Our Children" and take your children with you and be prepared for a very enjoyable evening.

RESERVE SPLIT FOUR GAMES

The reserve team under the direction of Mr. Ingram saw a mediocre football season. The first time they met the Northville reserves, they were defeated 26-0, but Plymouth came back a few weeks later to turn the tables to the tune of 13-0. The Rock reserves met a crushing defeat when they faced Dearborn, the score being 30-6 with Plymouth trailing, but Ypsi fell to the onrush of Plymouth's reserves to the tune of 13-8.

CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING—TAKE YOUR CHOICE

What does this day mean to you? To thank, to give, to share? Does its aim, its purpose, its goal, go through?

Or, really, don't you care? Mr. Roans, a typical man, arose rather late in the day, A yawn, a sigh; Thanksgiving began.

In the same old style and way. To him, this day is the same as the rest. With perhaps, one small exception. He eats a lot more of the food that tastes best.

And the meal gets the hearty reception. No thought of the day or what it implies. No notion of what he should give. He feasts for the time, and forgets Who supplies. He really forgets how to live.

Mr. Jones, who knows what this day should mean. Can solve his trouble at need. He gives thanks with an air that is calm and serene. We who are likely to laugh at his style. Considered outgrown and old. Know when we find that after awhile. His faith is worth more than his gold. He found his life worth living. He thanked, and gave; and shared with all. There's the meaning of Thanksgiving.

Twenty-three percent ordered medium sized rings, 12 percent large gold rings, 12 percent, small gold rings, 11 percent, pin and guard, seven percent, silver, and seven percent, small silver.

Household Hints

By BETTY WELLS

LIFE is pretty mixed up for the lady with a house. Just when we get all the gadgets we need for making things sail along on high, the world begins to snub us and we're left with the idea that home-making doesn't matter a lot anyway.

It's partly our fault. We've taken all this labor saving talk too much to heart, till we think the world owes us a button to push for every task in life. It's just as well to keep in mind the difference between drudgery and work, and remember all the jobs that will always have to be accomplished by the fine gusto of work. As we get rid of the drudgery, our energies and enthusiasm must go into the creative and constructive angles of home-making, into studying up on our jobs and really getting professional about it.

No time? Don't admit that. For here's where women today stand, darling—we have smaller families; we buy ready-made most of the things our grandmothers had to manufacture; we have mechanical help for all the heavy tasks; we're younger and prettier for our ages.

So if we're worked to death, we're doing a lot of putting something somewhere along the line and it's up to us to keep score of our days and find out where our time is going. How much is frittered away and how much is spent doing things the long way around. In short, we'd better get hold of all that extra time our labor-savers provide and make it sit up and talk. Use it to keep our minds as slicked up as our homes. Use it to learn the technical side of our job. What about vitamins and calories anyway and why are they important (aside from reducing)? How many of us have really read through any of the authoritative books on children? Do we know the furniture periods by sight and does the story of rags, the history of textiles enrich our daily lives?

Well then! When we become real experts in our work, we'll quit calling ourselves "Just housewives" and stop wishing for "something interesting" to do.

Interesting Color Scheme.

"I had stage fright when the painters came to do over my living room and dining room," writes Mrs. A. H. A. "And so I just had every thing painted ivory and let it go to that. I just didn't have the nerve to tell them what I really wanted. Now it's time to repeat again and I'd like to be forewarned with a plan for a more interesting color for these walls. I'd like to add warmth and spaciousness to these rooms and I'd greatly appreciate your help in doing it. The living room is 12 by 14 and joins the dining room, which is 12 by 12, through an arch without draperies or French doors.

"I have broadloom rugs in eggplant; the couch and two chairs are of light green wool with indistinct figures and the other chairs are in brown. The exposure is south and east and the draperies are a hand blocked linen with flowers—predomi-

"Painters give me stage-fright." nant colors are eggplant and green. How shall I paint walls and woodwork? Have you any suggestions for archway?

"The hall is L-shaped and so narrow that only a small table and lamp can be used in it. Rugs are green broadloom of soft light shade and draperies are figured green and brown linen. How should I paint the walls here? Many thanks for your help."

You have to be firm with painters! They have a way of looking so shocked at an unexpected color. You might try suggesting something really fantastic to begin—like black walls. They'll be so relieved when you compromise on apricot or mauve-pink that they'll go to work with a will.

Seriously, why wouldn't a soft powdery apricot be the thing for these walls? Or else a soft light mauve-pink? There you would have a tone harmonious with your other things, yet warm and spacious and not so commonplace as ivory. You might repeat the wall tone in accessories of glass in as near the same color as you can find. We'd have living room, dining room and hall walls painted all the same color or varied shades of one color.

Gives Lecture On Christian Science

"Health, abundance, and security are within the reach of every, industrious man and woman," declared Peter V. Ross, C. S. B., of San Francisco, in a lecture on Christian Science given last Sunday afternoon in Detroit. Many from Plymouth were present to hear the address.

Mr. Ross, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship of the Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, spoke in the Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 6240 West Chicago Blvd., Detroit. Referring to God as Life and to man as an exhibit of divine Life, he said: "Disease cannot be genuine. This is why sufferers are constantly in revolt against it. If disease were a reality people would have to accept it without protest, for realities cannot be evaded or overcome.

"Science insists that disease is in belief, in appearance, or in ignorance, rather than in reality. It belongs in the same category with the belief in the flatness of the earth. For certainly the earth appears flat. Occasionally this day may be found a person who believes it flat. Obviously the flatness is in his thought, in his ignorance. Some day the similar fact will dawn upon him that the earth is round. Then the flatness will be cured.

"Some day the undeniable fact will dawn upon the supposedly sick man that Life is God. Then his sickness will be healed, because disease and mortality cannot be ascribed to Deity. God is Life, then Life must be dis-

Buzz Saw Flies Off, Worker Hurt

William James suffered a very painful accident last Friday afternoon while cutting wood in the Sayre woods. The belt broke on the 36-inch buzz saw and as it wound around the pulley the saw loosened and came off. It struck Mr. James below his right knee, breaking his leg and cutting it quite severely where the tines penetrated. After seeking Mr. James' leg, the saw struck the ground, embedding itself a depth of about eight inches, then bounced out again. When it came out of the ground, Mr. James fell over it, cracking two ribs. That was Mr. James' more serious injury when he fell on the saw blade was no doubt due to the fact that he carried a metal spectacle case in his pocket which the blade struck as he fell. He was rushed to the office of Dr. F. A. Moreaux for first aid, then taken to Phillips ambulance to St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor. The injured leg had to be cut open and small splintered pieces of bone removed. Mr. James sufferred also from loss of blood. Doctors at first believed the leg would have to be amputated, but we are glad to state that at this writing they believe it can be saved. Mr. James will be 70 years old in a few months, which makes the injury even more serious. Mr. James' son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Albert James were near him when the accident occurred.—South Lyon Herald.

Household Hints

By BETTY WELLS

LIFE is pretty mixed up for the lady with a house. Just when we get all the gadgets we need for making things all snug up high, the world begins to snub us and we're left with the idea that home-making doesn't matter a lot anyway.

It's partly our fault. We've taken all this labor saving talk too much to heart, till we think the world owes us a button to push for every task in life.

No time? Don't admit that. For here's where women today stand, darlings—we have smaller families; we buy ready-made most of the things our grandmothers had to manufacture; we have mechanical

We think the world owes us more and better buttons to push. help for all the heavy tasks; we're younger and prettier for our ages.

Well then! When we become real experts in our work, we'll quit calling ourselves "Just housewives" and stop wishing for "something interesting" to do.

Interesting Color Scheme. "I had stage fright when the painters came to do over my living room and dining room," writes Mrs. A. H. A. "And so I just had every thing painted ivory and let it go at that. I just didn't have the nerve to tell them what I really wanted.

"I have broadloom rugs in eggplant; the couch and two chairs are light green wool with indistinct figures and the other chairs are in brown. The exposure is south and east and the draperies are a hand blocked linen with flowers—predominant colors are eggplant and green. How shall I paint walls and woodwork? Have you any suggestions for archway? "The hall is L-shaped and so narrow that only a small table and lamp can be used in it. Rugs are green broadloom of soft light shade and draperies are figured green and brown linen. How shall I paint the walls here? Many thanks for your help."

You have to be firm with painters. They have a way of looking so shocked at an unexpected color. You might try suggesting something really fantastic to begin—like black walls. They'll be so relieved when you compromise on apricot or mauve-pink that they'll go to work with a will.

Gives Lecture on Christian Science

"Health, abundance, and security are within the reach of every industrious man and woman," declared Peter V. Ross, C. S. B., of San Francisco, in a lecture on Christian Science given last Sunday afternoon in Detroit. Many of the Plymouth members were present to hear the address.

Mr. Ross, a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, spoke in the Fourth Church of Christ, Scientist, 5240 West Chicago Blvd., Detroit. Referring to "God as Life, and to man as an exhibit of divine Life, he said: "Disease cannot be genuine. This is why sufferers are constantly in revolt against it. If disease were a reality people would have to accept it without protest, for realities cannot be evaded or overcome.

"Science insists that disease is in belief, appearance, or in ignorance, rather than in reality. It belongs in the same category with the belief in the flatness of the earth. For certainly the earth appears flat. Occasionally to this day may be found a person who believes it flat. Obviously the flatness is in his thought, in his ignorance. Some day the simple fact will dawn upon him that the earth is round. Then the flatness will be cured.

"Some day the undeniable fact will dawn upon the supposedly sick man that Life is God. Then his sickness will be healed, because disease and mortality cannot be ascribed to Deity. If God is Life, then Life must be diseaseless, ageless, endless." "Human experience," he continued, "consists to a considerable degree in making choices and decisions. Christian Science acquaints the individual with the spiritual facts which enable him to judge and choose wisely and rightly.

A person makes a right choice, he gives himself a Science treatment, when he embraces Life and renounces everything opposed to Life. We are not recognizing that Life is irrepressible, conquerable, incorruptible. When he realizes as best he can that this restless Life is his, that it is in full and unrestricted operation right where his infirmity may seem to be. Which means that the infirmity is not there, is not his, is not an existence."

"Christian Science, discovered and founded by Mary Baker Eddy, has gone as wide as the earth, perhaps as has the Sermon on the Mount," stated the speaker. "In other words it has permeated universal thought. There is hardly a person in western civilization who is not talking a different and superior language, who is not pursuing a different and a better life, who is not living in a different and a better world because this great woman has lived and labored here."

Some day the undeniable fact will dawn upon the supposedly sick man that Life is God. Then his sickness will be healed, because disease and mortality cannot be ascribed to Deity. If God is Life, then Life must be dis-

THANKSGIVING.

Father of all, Thy name we bless, For all good things That we possess.

Father of all, Our praise we send, To Thee, our best And truest friend.

WHAT'S THIS?

Editor DeFoe in the last issue of his good newspaper, The Charlotte Republican-Tribune, hints that if all candidates for state offices are nominated by direct primary...

a much larger population than Eaton county, which is a strictly rural portion of the state.

But notwithstanding the fact that Eaton county has such an exceedingly small portion of the votes of the state, the two high places on the Republican ticket went to Eaton county residents.

How about Wilber Brucker, from Saginaw, Chase Osborn from the Soo, Fred Green from Ionia, Albert Sleeper from Bad Axe and Woodbridge Ferris from Big Rapids...

Kindly answer that one, Mr. DeFoe, if you think your argument is any good.

WASTED EFFORTS.

It is reported that hundreds of employees of the Michigan Unemployment Compensation commission in Detroit under the leadership of department heads are perfecting some sort of an organization for the purpose of trying to retain their jobs after a change of administration the first of the year.

Civil service was enacted to protect state workers from politics. But the civil service law was not passed for the purpose of keeping in political jobs state workers who not only devoted practically all their time during the last campaign to politics and contributed liberally of their money to "put over" their candidates.

Most of these employees ignored every intent and purpose of the state civil service law. They did it openly, boastfully and sneeringly. Now what right have they to ask for the protection of the very law that they ridiculed and made light of in the very first campaign held in the state since the enactment of the law?

JUST THINKIN' by Charles S. Kinnison

To My Boy

As on the Road of Life you start, There's one thing you should learn— And that is Life will not impart Each thing you feel you earn.

But still, my lad, don't ever think That Life is all unfair. And do not let your courage shrink; When you don't get your share.

For when it's all been said and done, The man most apt to win Is he who'll face each rising sun With strong, uplifted chin!

political candidate, and then in defeat, sneak back to their desks and demand protection under that very same law.

These fellows should resign before being kicked out. They owe it to the state to do so.

This one department, above all others, utterly disregarded the provisions of the civil service law. Some other departments over in Lansing did not, as an example the insurance department.

They are entitled to get kicked out—and the state should lose no time in applying the boot.

Rambling Around

with Editors of Michigan

WHY NOT? No one would want to deliberately call our Governor a liar when he says he did not know anything about levies upon state employees for his campaign, but then he must be dumber than that member of Congress who voted "NO" when he should have said "YES" because he suddenly remembered some plank in the Democratic platform and acted accordingly.—Milton Carmichael in The Detroit Courier.

GOVERNMENT REGULATION

It hardly seems logical yet John L. Lewis is demanding that the C. I. O. work for more government regulation for industry. Evidently he didn't read correctly the returns from last week's elections.

Henry Ford has done more for this country, for business, for the workers, for the country as a whole, than all the government agencies. If we have learned one thing in the past six years it is that government regulation means government control and government control means waste, idleness and misery.

The country is overrun with governmental meddlers. Washington is not big enough to hold the thousands of government offices with their swarms of employees eating out of the political trough. Business, small and big, must pay out an aggregate of billions of dollars a year to make out the reports and forms so that thousands of government employees will have something to read, something for an excuse for drawing their salary checks.

FITZGERALD HAS A BIG JOB

When a majority of Michigan voters went to the polls last week and defeated incumbent Democrats in high state offices for re-election, these voters did not place an unequivocal approval upon the winning Republicans. That fact ought to be skogenized and placed upon the desk of every Republican who takes over office January 1.

whether it be C. I. O. or any other organization, is greater than the people of Michigan.

The election Tuesday was a victory for sound-thinking citizens. It was a warning that no man can be the great powers of the governor's office to aid any select group at the expense of the whole people.

In the face of the great expenditure of money by Governor Murphy's forces that Michigan has ever seen, the people said by their votes that the ballot is still the only weapon that the people of Michigan need or expect to have used.

It was a victory, not of a man or of a party, but a victory of the people of a great Commonwealth who still believe in the American form of government.—George Welsh in The Grand Rapids Chronicle.

PILGRIMS' FAST DAY

Previous to the start of the Pilgrims from Leyden, Holland, on their trip to America, a solemn day of fasting was decreed, the day before leaving, the 21st day of July, 1620. After the landing in Plymouth, the Colonists experienced great hardships, and as a means of evidencing their reliance on Almighty God a solemn day of fasting was proclaimed for Wednesday, the 16th day of July, 1620. On this day no food was partaken of from sunrise to sunset, but the entire day was spent in religious observance and prayer.—Washington Star.

My Flag!

Respects Due The Flag It has been said that as a people we know very little about our flag and yet more careless in observance of the respects due it. During street parades thousands fail to stand at attention and salute their flag.

The Pledge of Allegiance Pledges of allegiance to the flag, while prescribed in some countries, are unofficial in the United States, except the oath of allegiance to the United States. Scouts, schools and most civic organizations use the following pledge of allegiance: "I pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America and to the republic for which it stands; one nation indivisible, with liberty and justice for all."

Saluting The Flag Saluting the flag by individuals and organized civic or military bodies is an almost universal custom in every country. Salute the flag, a "retreat," playing of national anthem and other ceremonies. Face The Flag! In uniform: Come to attention and salute. Not in uniform: Hold hat in right hand over heart, or hold hand over heart if without a hat and stand at attention.

During the ceremony of hoisting or lowering the flag all persons present should face the flag, stand at attention and salute. The salute to the flag in the moving column is rendered at the moment the flag passes. When the flag of the United States is passing in parade or review, the spectators, if walking, should halt, if sitting should rise and stand with their hats placed at their left shoulders until the flag has passed. This salute should be rendered every time the flag passes. Women should salute by placing the right hand over the heart. A person in uniform keeps his hat on and salutes, commencing his salute a short period before the flag reaches a point opposite him and keeping it until the flag has passed. If not in uniform, he uncovers and stands at attention. If in ranks, the salute way for uniformity, be given together on command. When passing the flag, one in uniform comes to salute six paces before reaching the flag and holds it until six paces past. If in ranks, each minor unit salutes together at the command of its leader. If not in uniform, one uncovers and faces the flag while passing. —Taken from Handbook for Boys by Senior Scout Troop 3 by permission of Scout Commissioner Mr. Strong.

EFFICIENT SEEING

Devoted to Eye Welfare for Everyone

This Thing Called Sight

If we are to understand what seeing is and means to us, we must recognize that what we call "light" doesn't really exist at all, in the way we use the idea. In the natural world, the world around us, there are certain types of vibrations or frequencies. These vibrations are felt, others are heard and the ones we are considering are SEEN—but only under certain circumstances.

Only when the vibration we call light strikes the retina of your eye and produces SENSATION, does seeing take place. That will help you understand why your eyes do not see—for they don't. They register the sensations of light and the optic nerve sends that sensation back to the brain—then the mind takes hold of the sensation and interprets (or translates) it into meaning. You remember the old problem: if a cannon is fired off in a desert and no one is near enough to hear it—is there any sound? The proper answer to that is that there is no sound—oh yes, a plenty of vibration—lots of it, but no sound until there are ears to take that vibration and translate it into sound. Optometry is the study of how your eyes receive light waves, how they transmit them back to the brain and HOW the mind interprets them. If you will remember that it is the mind that sees, the brain that does the work and the eye-balls that receive the sensation; if you will understand that you are dealing with sensation and not with light itself, you will then see why optometry is such an important service in the life of every man, woman and child. It corrects that which the individual has not been able to correct for himself. It deals with skills of seeing that have not been well learned, omitted or done the wrong way. Optometry corrects seeing FUNCTIONS—it does not treat diseases of the eyes, of which fortunately there are but few and a relatively small number of people are afflicted.
