

Fix August 17th For Plymouth Day at Fair

Northville Board Plans Greatest Show Ever Held

Get ready for the big day! At the meeting of the directors of the Northville-Wayne County Fair association held at the village hall in Northville Monday night, Thursday, August 17 was fixed as Plymouth day for Wayne county's 23rd annual fair.

Plymouth directors of the association were requested by President Elmer Smith of the association to make such arrangements for the big day as the people of Plymouth desired.

"That's Plymouth's day and it is their show. The boosters from our fine neighboring city have a real welcome coming to them when they reach the fair entrance. Of course the Fair association will cooperate to the limit to make it a bigger and better Plymouth day than has ever taken place before," declared Mr. Smith. "And we will make the welcome a real one."

But that is going to be a pretty big job because of the fact that previous Plymouth days have been outstanding events with not hundreds, but thousands from this city and locality crowding the fair grounds.

Steps will be taken within the next two or three weeks to organize the big parade which has become an annual event on Plymouth day. Last year over 200 automobiles took part in the procession that traveled from Plymouth to the fair grounds at Northville.

An effort will be made this year to have nearly 500 cars in the parade.

The Plymouth high school band, which has featured Plymouth day at the fair with band music for the afternoon, will lead the parade to the fair grounds.

It will also be interesting news to Plymouth residents to know that the Plymouth city ladies have again made arrangements to serve meals under the grandstand. Numerous improvements are to be made in the dining room that will make the work more convenient for the ladies. Their efforts to better the profit for the church.

But that is not all the good news. President Smith and members of the fair board have decided that there will be running races this year in the Northville trotting races. Nearly 100 entries are expected for the running races.

In addition to the running races Secretary Dayton Bunn announces that the entries for the horse show are far in excess of any previous year. He declared that the horse show, which like the running races will cover a four-day period instead of three days as in past years, will be far the greatest horse show under-taking ever staged at Northville.

In fact, the Northville horse show has come to be regarded as by far the best in the state of Michigan and Secretary Bunn declares that the show this year will be the best the association has ever conducted.

Workmen have been busy for weeks improving the track, the track and stands around the infield. A new entrance gate has been built on the Center street side and many other improvements are under way.

"Just say to your friends in Plymouth that this year's fair is going to be the most better than anything we have ever held before that there will be no comparison," declared President Smith.

Meteor Streaks Across Sky

A number of Plymouth residents witnessed one of the greatest sights of their lives when they watched a giant meteor Tuesday night which appeared on the eastern horizon shortly before 9:00 p.m. and streaked across the sky leaving a trail of smoke, finally disappearing in the northwest.

As the ball of fire appeared it seemed to be the color of an acetylene flame but as it neared this locality the hue gradually turned to a deep red, looking and sounding like the hue of a fourth of July sky rocket.

A short time after the meteor passed the Plymouth region an explosion was heard which indicated that the meteor had burst. It is calculated that the time which elapsed between the brilliant flash of the meteor and the sound of the explosion indicated that the meteor probably disintegrated as far as 120 miles from this region. No fragments of the meteor have been found.

The fall was visible as far east as Buffalo and as far south as 300 miles beyond Cleveland. It is reported.

She's the Beautiful Huckleberry Queen of the Upper Peninsula

Blueberry Loveliness Named for Festival July 22 to 24

Interesting Manistique, an Upper Peninsula city, will present its first Blueberry Festival July 22-24, with a wealth of Indian and Paul Bunyan pageantry and mountains of blueberry pie. Many thousands of cases of this delicious small fruit are shipped each season from plains surrounding Manistique.

The Festival will open Saturday, July 22, with the coronation of blue-eyed Queen Ann Gorsche and a colorful parade featuring the biggest blueberry pie ever built. On Sunday a group of Ojibway Indians will stage a religious pageant in full tribal costume. The festival will close with a community picnic where an attempt will be made to fill up all hands to the ears with blueberry pie. Inasmuch as no human being has ever been known to have enough blueberry pie, this laudable effort is probably doomed to failure.

Manistique is a cool summer resorting center on the north side of Lake Michigan, well patronized by midwesterners and others who seek relief from summer heat and fever. Among the attractions are Indian Lake and its famed scenic golf course; Kitch-it-ki-pi, the big spring called by the Ojibways the "Mirrors of the Evening Star"; Hiawatha national forest and the world's largest blueberry plantation; the wide blueberry plains open to all pickers; and the vast Blaney park and Paul Bunyan museum, "33,000 Acres of Something Different."

Short drives from Manistique take the visitor to Mackinac Island, Ishamton Falls, the great ship locks at Sault Ste. Marie, Lake Superior and Grand Island, and the Pictured Rocks and sand dunes of Longfellow's "Song of Hiawatha."

Lightning Does Freak Things

It was a pretty lucky thing for Mr. and Mrs. George Ferguson, 135 Albion, that they happened to be away during the severe electrical storm that swept this part of the state last weekend. When they returned home Sunday night from Vanderbilt where they had been spending a few days' with relatives, they discovered that lightning had struck their house and garage and had apparently flashed from every electrical wire opening and appliance in the house.

The bolt struck the garage first and followed wires into the house. All of the plates around the electrical openings were blown off. One kitchen electrical opening plate was blown way into the dining room.

The gilt on the frame of a picture in the living room that was some five or six feet distant from any wire was burned off as clean as if some one had used a blow torch on the frame. Particles of gilt covered the rug.

A piece of wire laying over a file and some other tools in the garage were welded together by the lightning. Fortunately the house did not catch on fire and the damage was not large.

C. L. Finlan & Son to Build Offices

Ground has been broken for the foundation of the new C. L. Finlan & Son Insurance modernistic office building which is to be located on the corner of Forest avenue and West Ann Arbor Trail.

The building will be a one-story structure with a 28-foot frontage and a depth of 36 feet. It is to be constructed of cinder block and will be fireproof throughout.

It is expected that the building will be finished early in September.

There will be two suites of offices, one which will be used by the Finlan agency. An oil heater and air conditioner will be installed in the basement. The Finlan agency has been located in the Mayflower hotel ever since it was constructed. When they move in the fall it will be just 182 feet west of their present offices where they have spent so many years. A large parking space in the rear of the building will provide ample room for their cars.

At the present time Forest avenue as a road does not intersect West Ann Arbor Trail, but the street has been laid out and by the time the Finlan building is completed Forest avenue will have ample room for the trail. The office space so long occupied in the Mayflower hotel by the Finlan agency is to be taken over by the hotel company for its own use.

New Swimming Pool At Hilltop

Hilltop Farm Camp, located at 400 Beck road, Plymouth, is filled in capacity this summer. Thirty children from Saginaw, Detroit, Lansing and other surrounding communities are having a grand time, according to Mrs. Evedred Jolliffe, who conducts this interesting summer nursery school.

A fine new swimming pool has been added this year, also a large ladder apparatus for climbing, the ponies, swings, sand boxes, see-saws, basket balls, riding on the hay wagon, handicraft and other activities too numerous to mention, the children are having a happy time on the farm—a time they will never forget. Trained teachers are assisting.

Plymouth Rotarians Visit Wyandotte

President Floyd Eckles of the Plymouth Rotary club and nine other members attended the charter presentation to a new club in Wyandotte last Monday evening. Ralph Smith, Walter Harris, Blake Gillies, Paul Wiedman, Ted Beiner, Dave Galin, William Rose, Harold Curtis, and Harold Anderson, were those who accompanied President Eckles. The local Rotarians declared that the presentation ceremonies were among the most interesting they had ever witnessed.

Jimmy Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stevens, celebrated his birthday Wednesday with a party at his home at Silver Lake, when nine little friends joined him in games and luncheon. Don Sevey, of Wyandotte, was the only out-of-town guest.

Full Tuition to be Collected Next School Year

Board of Education Votes to Charge Pupil or District

The board of education is to collect full tuition per capita cost from all non-resident students next year. Under the new school law passed by the last legislature, per capita cost is to be paid to the high school, with the only deduction being approximately $12.15.

In order for a high school to receive 100 per cent of its total cost of operation per non-resident pupil, it is necessary to collect the $12.15 from the sending district which that district receives from the state or else from the individual non-resident pupil who attends high school.

"There is no question but what the intent of the legislature was to pay high school tuition in full, but a constitutional provision causes the state to pay the primary money (approximately $12.15) to the school district in which the high school pupil resides," Superintendent George A. Smith said.

The board of education at its July 10 meeting in recognition of the provisions of the new law voted unanimously to charge the sending districts or individual pupils $12.15, the amount which the constitutional provision would otherwise cause them to lose.

The superintendent of schools was directed to notify each district which sent pupils to Plymouth public schools last year the conditions under which non-resident pupils will be admitted for the coming year.

Band Concert Saturday Evening

Following the band concert in Kellogg park Saturday night by the Plymouth high school band, the merchants of Plymouth will have an important announcement to make at 9:00 o'clock. It pertains to the world fair trips and local business men urge every one interested in the trips to be present. The announcement will be made right after 9:00 o'clock.

Tennessee Preacher For Revival

Rev. J. Elwood Evans, pastor of the Berachah church of Houston, Texas, will give his closing messages Saturday evening at 7:30 at the tent, Sunday morning at 9:30 a.m.; also 3:00 o'clock and 7:30 p.m. in the tent on Michigan avenue, opposite the high school in Wayne.

Evangelist Fred Brown of Chattanooga, Tennessee, will continue the services in the tent, beginning July 18 through July 30. Evangelist Brown is a graduate of the Bob Jones college of Cleveland, Tennessee, and has just returned from his second trip abroad where he held many inspiring evangelistic campaigns. He will also tell us many interesting facts concerning European affairs.

Tonquish Creek Improvement Rapidly Nears Completion

Project Proposed Over 20 Years Goes Ahead

Within another week it is believed that the Tonquish creek improvement will be completed between Main and Harvey streets and that construction of the conduit will be well under way east of South Main street. The conduit to carry the street improvement water will be extended for a distance of two blocks east of Main street.

This improvement, which has been made possible through the excellent cooperation of County Commissioner George Dingman and the city commission, will not only remove one of the city's most obnoxious conditions, but it will make possible the extension of Forest avenue from Harvey to Main street. The city officials have already taken steps to carry the street improvement between Ann Arbor Trail and Main street in the near future, thereby providing much additional parking space when the work is completed.

It was over twenty years ago when it was first proposed that some steps be taken to rid the city of the Tonquish street nuisance. In recent years the creek has become nothing more than an open sewer flowing through the very heart of the city.

Before the end of another month, there will have been completed one of the most beneficial public improvements that has taken place in Plymouth in years, declare business men and others who have been active with public utility in bringing about the completion of this public project.

Salvation Army Helps Needy

Over 1060 articles of clothing and shoes have been given out to needy people in Plymouth by the Salvation Army in the last six months, according to the report for the last half year just made public. Over the same period of time the organization has assisted 119 families, 307 individuals and have distributed 30 articles of furniture. It has provided meals for two transients and the total value of relief given is $33,935.

The Women's Home league has held 24 meetings with a combined attendance of 189. They have spent 46 hours sewing. Two hundred thirty-eight and one-half hours were spent in visiting 349 families by the organization.

Senior religious services were held 42 times at the Detroit House of Correction with a combined attendance of 3988. War Cry, the Salvation Army paper, was given out to 372 individuals.

The Girl Guards had a combined attendance of 485 in the 25 meetings that they had. Four hundred forty-eight attended the 25 meetings of the Young People's League.

Corps Cadets had an attendance of 62 at their 21 meetings. The total of all the young people's classes and meetings was 123 with the attendance total set at 136.

This six months' service report of the Salvation Army is for the period ending June 30, 1939.

Boy, 13, Drowns at Northville

George Stratford, 13-year-old Farmington township boy, drowned at 2 o'clock, Thursday afternoon, July 6, in the Manning-Lockin gravel pit near Northville. Stratford had gone to swim with a group of neighbor boys.

Northville police were summoned when the drowning was discovered and recovered the body from about five feet of water. They worked unsuccessfully for an hour in an attempt to revive the boy. There were about fifty youngsters at the abandoned gravel pit when young Stratford sank.

Form Young Republicans' Club

A group of young people between the ages of 18 and 25 met at the home of Belya Barnes Wednesday evening, July 12, to form a Vandenberg-for-President club. Officers were elected and plans were made for a membership drive.

No Action Taken by Planning Body

No definite action was taken by the Planning commission at its special meeting Monday night. Communications were received asking that the zoning map be changed to enlarge the commercial area of the city.

A petition, signed by fifteen property owners, was presented at the meeting requesting that the business zone be extended on West Ann Arbor Trail to South Harvey street and down Harvey to the alley which is near Penniman street. The planning commission intends to take plenty of time in reviewing these cases so that the best interests of all citizens may be served.

A public hearing on the entire plan before the zoning ordinance and map are returned to the city commission will be granted.

Kiwanians Told of Convention

George S. Burr, who attended the International convention of the Kiwanis clubs held in Boston, June 19-22, gave an account of the convention at a recent Kiwanis meeting.

Originally scheduled to be the annual open meeting, the program was changed when it was learned that Plymouth's delegate, Mr. Burr, would be in time for it. In addition to his convention report he told of an extended trip which he took through the eastern states.

Ernest Henry has an interesting program planned for the next meeting Tuesday evening, July 18, at 6:10 at the Mayflower hotel.

Detroit Attorney To Reside in Plymouth

Among the new families which have moved to Plymouth in recent weeks are Attorney and Mrs. Howard Snyder of Detroit, who have taken the residence at 164 North Main street. Mr. Snyder has been a practicing attorney in Detroit since 1928. During that time he has built up an extensive legal practice. His offices are located at 729 Ford building. Mr. Snyder is a graduate of the Detroit College of Law. Previous to attending this law school he was a student at Wayne University and the West Virginia Law school. Like a large number of other Detroiters who have moved out to this city to enjoy its many advantages, Attorney Snyder finds that it is almost as easy to get to his offices in Detroit from Plymouth as from many sections located within the city limits of the metropolis.

Saturday night a family picnic was held at Benton park consisting of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Simmons, Mr. and Mrs. Marlin Simmons and son, Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simmons and daughter, Shirley, of Baltimore, Maryland; Miss Mable Greer and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Holdsworth, of Pontiac; Mr. and Mrs. William Greer and son, Kenneth, Mr. and Mrs. William Panock, of Chicago; and Miss Mary Jane Hamilton.

New Factory to Employ Over 100 Workers When Equipment Is Installed—Many Improvements Under Way

Announcement was made yesterday of the purchase of the factory of the National Window Shade company and site by the Wall Wire Products Company, a newly organized Michigan corporation with a capital stock of $150,000 preferred and $100,000 common.

Ross V. Heilman and E. L. Russell, two prominent Detroit business men, long experienced in the welded wire products business, vice presidents of the new company, are the active executives in charge of the business of the company.

The plant is being made ready for operation as rapidly as possible. Over $150,000 worth of equipment has already been ordered and first shipment is expected early next week. Installation will proceed as soon as the machines arrive.

The company expects to employ over 100 workers when the plant is placed in operation sometime in September. Mr. Russell stated yesterday that it was the intention of the company to hire as much local help as possible. "We are going to become a real part of the city and naturally in doing that it is our purpose to not only make our homes here, but to engage local residents and do as much of our business in Plymouth as possible," he stated.

Permit Trucks to Park on One Side of Penniman

"There was no snap judgment used in locating our plant. We checked over the entire metropolitan section carefully and our final decision was the location in Plymouth. Some communities offered sites or factory buildings, but we were more interested in locating our plant." Double Parking Law to be Enforced

No Parking signs for trucks have been removed along the north side of Penniman avenue. This action came as a result of a recommendation by the Chief of Police, Vaughan R. Smith at the city commission meeting, July 3.

Smith suggested that the signs be removed for a period of two months to lessen the problem of truck parking in the downtown area. Since the parking ban was put into effect the latter part of May there has been considerable complaint from the merchants whose business places have no alley entrances, thus the commission has lessened the ban for a short time and if the plan works out satisfactorily it is proposed that trucks will be allowed to park in the area until other arrangements will have been made.

"This is a temporary measure to see if the parking conditions will be improved in the other downtown streets by allowing trucks to park on the north side of Penniman avenue," Chief Smith said.

As vital and timely as the truck parking situation is the double parking problem. The city commission moved to prohibit it at their meeting May 22 and drew up an ordinance to that effect. Enforcement of the ordinance has been lax during the past few months. Chief Smith said that since that time the double parking menace has been lessened. Police officers have been lenient with double parkers recently, but now that everyone should be familiar with the law, Chief Smith has instructed his force to "bear down on violators."

The definition of double parking as given by the police department is "having a car placed so that it is standing still outside of the space provided for parking and in stopping traffic."

Heretofore this method of parking has been tolerated, but it will no longer be considered permissible for drivers to sit in their cars in the lane of traffic while somebody "runs into the store." The fact that the motor is running does not signify that the car is moving; and that excuse is no longer valid with Plymouth police. The only possible chance of standing still in the middle of traffic without being properly parked is that motorists are allowed to stop and pick up people who have "come back from the store" and are waiting at the edge of the street.

This should take no longer than opening and closing the door. The police department does not want the people to think that Plymouth is a "traffic trap," but instead it wants them to realize that every move they make to prohibit illegal parking, reckless driving, and other offenses for which motorists are given tickets, is helping to make it more safe for Plymouth's citizens.

Car Hits Tree; Two Killed

Two Detroiters, Dale Gillett, of 271 Smith and Jerome Webster, of 404 West Lafayette, were killed when the car in which they were riding careened off the road and crashed into a tree on Ladd road near Walled Lake, Sunday night.

In the car with Gillett and Webster were Mary Gruber, 3453 River, driver of the car; Edward Diving, 21 Custer, and Theodore Huse, of 4110 Buchanan. The three, not seriously hurt, were taken to Pontiac General hospital.

Miss Gruber said that she had lost control of the car and careened off the road.

German Sr. and Oliver, whose ages reach the 115-year mark and their gray hair showing beneath their ball caps, were elated to reach a decision over their much younger opponents. In fact, this veteran pitcher and catcher were in baseball some 25 years before their opponents were born. Their teammates were of good help with their bits as they secured some 14 hits off 3 pitchers while the "innings club" was able to obtain but 6.

Glider Pilots Return From Soaring Meet

Get Individual Honors and Win Fairchild Trophy

Members of the XYZ Soaring club returned Monday night to the Triangle Glider port, south of Plymouth, after a very successful two weeks at the National Soaring contest at Elmira, New York. As individuals, they brought back many honors and as a group, they won the Sherman Fairchild trophy, a symbol of group championship.

Those competing in the meet were Lyle Maxey, who recently established an altitude record for Michigan gliders, Alcide Santilli, Lyman Ward, Elmer Zook and Lloyd Macabe. Edward Lane had the job of crew chief and year-old Alan Kidston of Newburg was his assistant and the club mascot.

The contest opened June 24 with a total of 36 ships and 86 pilots from all parts of the United States competing. All pilots and crews worked hard during the two weeks trying to make the most points possible by flying as high, as far, and as long as possible. Best distance of the contest was made by Chester Decker, of New Jersey, with flight of 233 miles from Elmira to Atlantic City. Best altitude was made by Robert Stanley, a naval cadet from Florida, when he flew up into a violent thunderstorm to an altitude of 17,474 feet. Stanley was later forced to abandon his ship in mid-air and rely on his parachute when a wing broke off his sailplane during an aerobatics display.

The XYZ club was very successful in the competition. No very high individual scores were possible because the club's two ships had to be divided among the five pilots. In spite of this, Lyle Maxey placed second in his class and Lyman Ward distinguished himself by scoring fifth with the club's Franklin Utility glider. Elmer Zook won the duration prize in his class with a flight of four hours, 52 minutes, in which he flew 53 miles to Rush, Pennsylvania. This flight also completed his requirement for the international Silver "C" Soaring license. Lyle Maxey flew a distance of 51 miles to Colley, Pennsylvania, and reached an altitude of 5100 feet.

Maxey, Zook and Santilli, flying as a group, amassed almost twice as many points as any other group and won the Sherman Fairchild trophy, a symbol of group championship.

Other pilots from the local glider port who competed at Elmira were Silver "C" Pilot Art Schultz, John Novak, Bill Putman and Randy Chapman, who also won his Silver "C" at the contest.

Girl Scouts Elect Officers

Plymouth Girl Scouts, Troop 2, elected officers Monday night at their regular meeting.

The girls elected Sally Haas as treasurer of the troop; Janice Downing, scribe; Gloria Eckles and Barbara Martin, flag bearers; and Marion Oldenburg and Evelyn Elliott, color guards.

New patrol leaders will not be elected until the beginning of the school year.

The troop extended its sympathy to Marion Oldenburg who is ill with appendicitis in Champaign, Illinois. Gifts and letters have been sent to her. Saturday afternoon, the girls will go swimming at Portage lake.

Michigan's deepest oil well near White Cloud in Nowaygo county penetrates to a depth of 6,676 feet.

Offer Course in Leather Handicraft

Useful Articles to be Made in Recreation Class

A new item is to be introduced in the summer recreational program next week. Leather handicraft will start Monday with courses being offered in making useful articles out of leather. These classes will be open to members of both schools and during the course participants may make purses, key cases, pencil holders, bill folds, moccasins, etc.

Ruth Hadley and Dorothy Roe will lead people of all ages in group singing today (Friday) and every Friday for the rest of the summer months. There seems to be a great deal of interest in this phase of the recreation program which is shown by the increasing attendance each week.

Entries for the statewide novice tennis tournament must be in by Tuesday, July 18. Playoffs will start Friday, July 21, and contestants may make arrangements to play their match any time after the pairings are made. Competition is confined to men's and women's singles. All matches are to be the best two out of three sets.

Much interest was shown by the children last week when the trips to Rouge pool were started for boys and girls who desired to go swimming. The bus which transports the children free of charge to the pool leaves Central playground at 1:15 p.m. and Starkweather at 1:20. Two recreation staff members accompany the children to the pool each trip. Girls go on Tuesdays and boys on Fridays. The bus leaves the pool at 4:30 p.m. so that the children have time for supper.

The all-star selections from the Central league have been made and are printed in this week's Plymouth Mail. Selections were made from the Starkweather league Thursday and the list of players and the game date for the two teams will be announced next week.

For the group play next week in the afternoons there will be a checker tournament for both boys and girls.

Thelma's softball team stands at the top of the list in the girls' softball league who play their games at the Central playground. There are four teams in the league and the standings are:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Thelma's	3	0	1.000
Bakefish	1	1	.500
Heintz	0	2	.000
Next week Tuesday, July 18, Barnes will play Bakefish and the next evening the Heintz team meets Thelma's. Bakefish lost a game to Thelma's July 5, 11-2 and Barnes won from the Heintz team, July 6, 12-11.

Each week the Central league standings change but always it seems that there is a jumble of ties. Super Shell still stands high in the standings with a 778 percentage of games won. Daisy and Schrader are tied for second place with 625. Plymouth Hardware and Sutherland's are at a 556 deadlock for third position and Walkover and Times both stand at 444, holding down third

Select All-Star Softball Teams

Two all-star softball teams have been chosen from players in the Central playground league to play a game Thursday evening July 20 at 6:20 o'clock on the Central field.

Joe Demascio and J. Urban have been appointed managers of the two teams. The game will be a nine-inning affair, each team having three pitchers and two players for the other nine positions.

On Urban's team is O. Egloff (Schrader), R. Egloff (Sutherland), and D. Rorabacher (Daisy) as pitchers; Darnell (Super Shell) and F. Williams (Daisy) catchers; Simmons (Plymouth Hardware) and J. Smith (Super Shell), left fielders; Cline (Daisy) and Baker (Walkover), center fielders; and Moe (Super Shell) and Buttermore (Times), right fielders.

The following will play on Demascio's team: Gilder (Plymouth Hardware), V. Wagenschutz (Super Shell) and Kleinschmidt (Times), pitchers; B. Smith (Sutherland) and Krumm (Schrader), catchers; Burley (Super Shell) and Wolfe (Times), first basemen; Fisher (Super Shell) and Schrader (Plymouth Hardware), second basemen; G. Todd (Schrader) and C. Carr (Sutherland), shortstops; Dietle (Plymouth Hardware) and W. Carr (Sutherland), third basemen; R. Lee (Super Shell) and Leach (Daisy), short fielders; Schife (Daisy) and Carr (Sutherland), left fielders; Kincaid (Super Shell) and Wagenschutz (Plymouth Hardware), center fielders; and Drake (Schrader) and Jewell (Daisy), right fielders.

The Junior league schedule for next week is as follows: July 19, Mill at Forest; Starkweather at Harvey.

July 21, Forest at Starkweather; Harvey at Mill.

Senior leaguers play next week July 19, Forest at Dodge; Central at Starkweather.

July 21, Starkweather at Forest; Dodge at Central.

Three teams are tied for first place, honors in the Boy Scout league. Two teams have downed second place and the three remaining teams have failed to win a game. The standings are:

Team	W	L	Pct.
P4	2	0	1.000
NB1	2	0	1.000
N1	1	0	1.000
P3	1	1	.500
P2	1	1	.500
E1	0	1	.000
N7	0	2	.000
P1	0	2	.000

Last week P4 won from P3, 14-13; P2 took P1, 14-3; NB1 scored six runs to shut out the N7 team. Results from the N1-E1 game were not turned in.

The daily attendance continues to increase for all the playground grounds, and because of this, more activities are being started to take care of the number of new participants.

MRS. BERTHA BREMS

Mrs. Bertha B. Brems, who resided at 474 North Main street, passed away early Thursday morning, July 13, at the age of 80 years. She was the widow of the late Charles C. # Ringling Circus Comes to Detroit

The Big Show—Ringling Brothers and Barnum and Bailey—moving on four long railroad trains and carrying 1600 people, 50 elephants, 1009 menagerie animals, hundreds of horses and Gargantua the Great, world's largest and most ferocious captive gorilla, now displayed for close-ups in the menagerie, will exhibit in Detroit, three days, Sunday, July 16, at E. Warren and Conner, Monday and Tuesday, July 17 and 18, at Livernois and Elmhurst, with its huge big top air conditioned and re-styled in rainbow hues.

Twenty-two air cooling units, installed at intervals around the circumference of the world's largest tent, make it comfortable for the thousands in the stands on hot days. Drapes and gold tassels, gold and silver poles make the interior something new under the circus sun.

The new inaugural spectacle, produced by Charles Le Maire, former designer for the Ziegfeld Follies, is a streamlined pageant of almost unbelievable splendor. It is titled: "The World Comes to the World's Fair," and 2000 people and animals take part in its enactment.

Terrell Jacobs, renowned trainer, presents the largest group of performing wild animals ever assembled in America—50 lions, tigers and leopards in an amazing display.

Dorothy Herbert, macead rider of rearing and fire hurdling horses, back from European triumphs, heads a number with 70 girl riders on 70 Kentucky high school horses, all four-year-olds.

Under a blue big top ceiling, lighted as is a big New York musical show, the displays of The Greatest Show on Earth surpass all the massed attractions of former years.

There is a heavier contingent of stellar European features with the circus than ever before, for John Ringling North, its president, scoured the Continent with an open purse last winter. The more important newly imported attractions are: The Great Arturo, breath-taking dardevil and comic of the high wire; the Pilades, sensational leapers over elephants, camels and horses; the Zerbini, the Ortans and Filudys, Europe's greatest tector-board somersaulting acrobats; Albert Powell, contortionist star of the flying trapeze; the Aicardis, jugglers de luxe; the Ixawons, thrillers on the aerial bars; Hubert Castle, England's wonder comic of the tight wire; the famous European clown Albertino, and Lulu, most famous of woman clowns.

The horse numbers of the show are extraordinarily appealing, with William Heyer, Tamara Heyer and Dorothy Herbert featured in new and sensational numbers. Tex-Elmundt again

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Simmons and daughter, Shirley, have been visiting at the parental home for the last two weeks and Tuesday returned to their home in Baltimore, Maryland, accompanied by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. Simmons as far as Cleveland where they will all spend a few days with Harry Simmons and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eastin and the latter's mother, from St. Petersburg, Florida are making a brief visit with their son, Sidney Eastin of Warren road and their daughter of Romulus. From there they will go to New York to the World's Fair; then to New Jersey to visit their daughter and family and then return home.

Miss Ethel Beyer, of Burbank, California, who has been visiting relatives in Michigan for the past month, Mrs. Lillian Smith and William Worth, of Buffalo, New York, were week-end guests of their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Beyer and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Ebert, enroute to the former's home in California.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Klages of Romulus were hosts to the Wayne County Pomona Grange, Sunday, at their summer home at Wampler's lake, all enjoying a picnic dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Spicer, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Swegles and Mr. and Mrs. James Gates were their guests for the week-end.

The wedding date of Janet Bickenstaff and Frank Allister was announced Wednesday at a very lovely party given by her mother, Mrs. John Bickenstaff, at her summer home at Base lake, when she entertained 26 guests at a luncheon bridge. The news was known for a small card tucked in a tiny match box at each guest's place. The date has been set for Thursday, August 3. Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Virginia Spencer, of Ferndale, a former roommate at Michigan State college; Mary and Ed McKinnon, of Goderich, Ontario; and Mrs. Beulah Sorenson Stevens, of Detroit.

The members of the Ready Service class of the Presbyterian church who plan to go to Gun Lake on Tuesday, June 18, are urged to be at the church at 7:00 a.m. on that morning. Those who are driving plan to leave as near that time as possible. Take your own dishes and food as usual.

Grace Henderson motored to Columbus, Ohio, this week where her cousin, Virginia Case, joined her on a two weeks' vacation trip in the East. They will visit the former's brother, Jack Henderson and wife, in Plainfield, New Jersey, and the New York World's fair.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Palmeter and daughter, Mrs. Clifford Case and children, left last Tuesday for their home in Elmira, New York, after a few days' visit with their daughter, Mrs. H. R. Norgren, Irvin street. They were accompanied home by Mrs. Norgren, who visited other relatives in New York.

Mrs. Matilda Olsbro, who since she left last December for a visit in California has been visiting in various places, returned to Plymouth Tuesday evening. For the last three weeks she visited in Canada, spending time in Sackett, Milford and Belleville. She also attended the International races on the Bay of Quinte which she found most interesting.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. McKnight, who returned from a several months' stay in St. Petersburg and Clearwater Beach, Florida last week, are visiting their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Baccador, before going to their home in Chatham, Ontario. Their daughter, Mrs. Norman Chrysler and son, Mac, of Chatham, were here to greet them when they arrived in Plymouth. The latter returned to Chatham Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Rorabacher and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hively and son, Charles, of Romulus have returned from an extended motor trip through the upper peninsula. Along the way they stopped at Pincanning and East Tawas where they visited Mr. and Mrs. Miller. They then proceeded to Alpena, Cheboygan, Charlevoix, Petoskey, Traverse City, Ludington, Muskegon and Benton Harbor, spending a few hours with Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Jewell, friends and former residents of Plymouth. From Benton Harbor they went to Chicago and Two Rivers. On their return trip they visited South Bend, Elkhart, Kalamazoo and Jackson, where they enjoyed the Cascades in the evening, and other points of interest.

So many visitors tinkered with the lights and horn of the new fire truck at Winsted, Connecticut, that when an alarm sounded fremen found the battery had been worn out.

Young Boosters Take Steps for Civic Beauty

Members Make Suggestions to Projects Committee

Working in co-operation with the Chamber of Commerce to make Plymouth a better city in which to live, members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce Monday night at their regular meeting made numerous suggestions for city beautification which will be promoted as organization projects.

Suggestions were given to the projects committee which made an analysis of each suggestion and reported to the executive board. The questions were submitted to the members at the meeting Monday evening, July 10, at the Mayflower hotel.

As many of the Junior Chamber members are business men, one of the projects for the next month is to make a study of the reasons why Plymouth people do some of their buying in the larger cities in the vicinity. It is planned that questionnaires will be circulated throughout the residence districts in the city and each housewife will have an opportunity to tell the Plymouth merchants why she does some of her trading in other towns, or in other words, what the Plymouth merchants lack and by this method really find out the reasons for any business that might be going elsewhere.

Another project is the appointment of an advertising committee to investigate the possibilities of placing signs advertising Plymouth and the park system in various vantage points throughout the state.

In connection with the recently lifted ban on truck parking on the north side of Pennington it was brought to light that the city has an undeveloped parking space on the vacant lot on West Ann Arbor Trail near Main street. A committee was appointed by President Robert Wesley to investigate the matter to see if such a parking lot, if developed, will provide additional parking facilities.

The August 14 meeting will be an outdoor affair. The program, place, recreation, and all the details will be handled by a committee composed of Marvin Terry, Jim Meyers and John Gaffield.

An unknown Washington policeman has varied the standard testing sentence on typewriters. "Now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of their party," to make out of it a little humbly for peace. Last night at police headquarters the teletype started clicking. "This is a test. This is a test. XXXX . . . YYY Y . . . ZZZZ . . . Now is the time for all good men to stay out of war. Is it okay?"—Ex.

English Army Conscripts Off to Camp

The first 50,000 conscripts in Great Britain's compulsory military training program will leave for six months in camp in a mobilization beginning Saturday, July 15. Some of the youths, who are between the ages of 20 and 21, are shown above as they prepared for enrollment.

Wildlifers Eat Tame Steaks and Tell Fishing Whoppers

Second Annual Steak Roast Is Big Success

Never before were such big fish caught; never before did so many big ones get away; never before were so many 10- and 12-point bucks brought down; never before were hunting dogs better trained and never before were moose and bear so plentiful as on Monday night out in the big grove back of Melvin Guthrie's country home where the Western Wayne County Wildlife association devoured, home grown and tame, fried steaks and told whoppers that even some of the Wildlifers had difficulty in believing themselves.

That whopping big bluegill Lisle Alexander caught a few years ago up in Rifle lake grew to be nearly two foot long, instead of 12 inches. President Brick Champe told original stories about his fish catches and some of his listeners wondered if he had ever known about them before he told them.

William Gayde, veteran Plymouth pan fisherman, declared that it wasn't long ago when he went out on Sage lake and caught his limit before the anchor of his boat had even hit bottom. Jack Taylor and Eugene Orndorf recited the story again and again of a fishing jaunt up on the Mississagi river in Canada where the daring Pere Marquette engineer came near taking a toboggan ride on his engineering pants over the Slate falls. But there isn't much use in keeping this story up. It's about all the same, except that Abe Goldstein, Warren Harris, Mel. Guthrie and a country newspaper editor, assisted by half a dozen flunkies, fried potatoes and served the hottest and best sizzling steaks a pack of real fishermen and hunters ever ate. Paul Butz, Russell Powell and Gar. Evans assisted in the pouring.

The event was the second annual steak roast of the Western Wayne County Wildlife association. If the occasions continue to be so popular as the first two have proven to be, they will be held each year until the end of time.

P. S.—Ex-Mayor Hondorp and Stanley Corbett were the only doubting Thomases present who questioned some of the boasting but truthful (?) fish and hunting stories.

Parsonage at Denton Burns

The Methodist parsonage in Denton occupied by Rev. and Mrs. George Nevin and family burned to the ground about nine o'clock Monday morning.

The fire had evidently started from a laundry stove in the basement, and then spread up the walls to the attic where the fire was first discovered. Neighbors responded to the call for help and managed to save most of the furniture and clothing. A chemical truck was also secured from the Wayne County Road Commission but it was too late.

The large farm home, located on Denton road, one block from Michigan avenue, and its contents were insured.

Rev. Nevin serves the Denton, Cherry Hill and Sheldon Methodist churches. The Sheldon church burned last year and it is now being rebuilt.

Rev. and Mrs. Nevin plan to stay at the Jess Smith home for the present and their two daughters, Ruth and Barbara, will go to Lansing to stay with another sister, Mrs. Helen Hitchins. A son, Gordon, works in Ypsilanti.

Tells Fisherman to Keep Moving

For the angler who has not yet made the catch that will satisfy his yearnings, there is this advice:

"Watch the official reports in the local newspaper on fishing in the past week. Go where these reliable reports show good fishing exists. Don't be reluctant to move from one place to another."

This is the opinion of officials of the fish division of the department of conservation who are cooperating with sportsmen's clubs, tourist and resort groups and newspapers in distributing information each week on fishing results in all sections of the state.

Up-to-date reports are worthy of more dependence than other sources as this method takes into consideration the natural trend of fish development and activity, according to conservation authorities.

They point to the familiar statement of the discouraged fisherman, "Oh, don't go there; that lake is fished out," as an example of advice not in line with fishing records through the years. A general picture of fishing on a long-range basis leads to belief that it is impossible to take all the fish out of a lake by hook and line.

Although a lake may go well for several seasons and then slump, there is bound to be a revival of fishing there. That is the observation based on the rise and fall of the annual take of fish from lakes covered by reports to the conservation department.

An instance upholding this contention is a large lake in north-central Michigan where for years the resort owners and vacationers took considerable pleasure from the annual catch of pike. But the pike became scarce, only to give way to a boom in the catch of bluegills and other panfish.

Explanation for this is that the pike while there in great quantities had kept down the supply of smaller fish but as soon as the lake had apparently been "fished out" of pike, the bluegills gained in such numbers that they have kept alive the fishing activity on the lake.

It is believed to be extremely difficult, if not impossible, to exterminate a fish population by hook and line fishing in a limited open season. On the other hand dynamite, nets, poison and other measures can take a heavy toll of fish life. A limitation on fish can be created by lack of proper food, for fish can be produced in water only up to a limit allowed by the type of feeding available.

True happiness results from a realization of usefulness.

Chiropractors Convene at Soo

Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Rice, who attended the state convention of the Michigan Chiropractic association held from June 28 to 30, at Sault Sainte Marie, have returned home from their brief convention and vacation trip to the northlands.

The meeting was primarily an educational session during which noted people spoke before the organization, declared Dr. Rice.

The outstanding educators, Dr. Charles Brownell of Washington, D. C., grandson of D. D. Palmer, founder of Chiropractic and Cash Asher, noted journalist who writes chiropractic articles for the professional magazines and other periodicals, were the main speakers at the convention.

Dr. and Mrs. Rice spent a week in the north country, stopping at Grand Marais, Munising, Traverse City and other vacation centers.

Most of us might make far greater progress in the pursuit of happiness if we didn't try so many detours to dodge work.

Farmer's Day at College July 28

Observance of 25 years of service to the state's agriculture and home life by the federal-state-county cooperative extension service in agriculture and home economics is to be the keynote of the Michigan State College annual Farmers' Day to be held Friday, July 28.

Each summer the college invites the rural public to stroll the campus, through barns, field plots and laboratories as an inspection of current progress in research and experiments.

A bit of entertainment starts off the program this year. The four Girards of Gladstone, Michigan will display their bag of tricks in birling logs and fancy trick log riding. This opening event at 9:30 a. m. is to be held on the Red Cedar river near Farm Lane bridge.

E. L. Anthony, dean of agriculture, is general chairman for the day, working with V. R. Gardner, director of the experiment station, and R. J. Baldwin, extension director. R. W. Tenney, short course director, is program chairman.

When the lumberjacks' band quits playing after the Girards perform, guests will scatter over the campus and farms to pick out those departments which interest them most. Until noon the departments holding field and office open house will include agricultural engineering, animal husbandry, dairy farm crops, farm and horse, farm management, landscape, forestry, horticulture, poultry, short course, soils, veterinary, botany and entomology.

In the afternoon a program on the lawn north of the library opens with a concert by the Michigan Future Farmers' band. At two o'clock Frank Peck, president of the Federal Land Bank of St. Paul, will describe phases of a quarter century of agricultural progress. Mr. Peck served 22 years in Minnesota as extension director. Floats depicting how Michigan has been served by the extension service in agriculture and home economics will conclude the day's events.

Arctic visitors say that seals do not breathe through holes in the ice, but through a thin sheet of unbroken ice. The seal chews on the ice until it becomes sufficiently thin for him to breathe through.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00. "Life" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, July 16. The golden text (Amos 5:14) is: "Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so the Lord, the God of hosts, shall be with you, as ye have spoken." Among the Bible citations in this passage (1 John 5:20): "And we know that the Son of God is come, and hath given us an understanding, that we may know him that is true, and we are in him that is true, even in his Son Jesus Christ. This is the true God and eternal life." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy include the following (p. 264): "When we realize that Life is Spirit, never in nor of matter, this understanding will expand into self-completeness, finding all in God, good, and needing no other consciousness."

Lightning Strikes Twice in Storm Within a Half-Mile Near Here

Bolt Damages Farm Home and Kills Cow

Within an area of one-half mile, lightning struck twice Saturday morning about 4:45 in the electrical storm that passed over Plymouth.

The first bolt struck the farm house on the George Hake farm on Six Mile road in which William Turner was living. The lightning entered the house through a garret window. It cut a perfect 6-inch circle through a window glass and then proceeded to go out on the other side of the house through a similar window, breaking every one of the 12 classes from it. The charge of electricity then followed down into the rooms of the house. It knocked the plaster from the walls in spots in every room before it went into the basement. There a five-foot chunk was torn from a wooden sill as the charge finally found its way into the ground through a steel pipe.

Turner had just started for the barn when the lightning struck the house. He looked back and said that the instant the bolt hit, the house seemed to blaze as if it were a ball of flame.

Afterwards when he investigated the damaged and noticed that the lightning seemed to jump from nail to nail in the house, scorching the wood. Miraculously, the lightning did not cause a fire of any kind.

On the Charles Riddle farm, about one-half mile from the Hake place, another bolt struck and killed a cow.

The animal had sought the shelter of a large tree in the field in which she was pastured when the storm broke. It is thought lightning struck the tree and hit the cow which was standing under it, however, there are no marks from the bolt on the tree.

School Building Ready in Fall

Construction work at Plymouth public schools under the W.P.A. is progressing rapidly and will be completed for the opening of school in the fall. Additions are being built to the home economics laboratory, lunch room, and practice dining room.

The first floor in the former Wood home, purchased last year by the school district has been rearranged and refurnished for the accommodation of four classrooms which will open in September. A passageway is being built from the brick residence to the east entrance of the high school in order that pupils will not be exposed to cold and stormy weather in going to and from these classes. The commercial department will occupy most of the building in the newly acquired building.

The additional room for home economics, cafeteria and practice dining room will make possible the training of a larger number of girls in home economics without the crowding in the department which has existed in the last few years.

The original school laboratory was built to accommodate 24 girls in a class, and in recent years it has been necessary to have 35 and 40 in some classes and hence the enlarged laboratory facilities will make it possible to teach the larger classes and at the same time give each girl a laboratory table at which to work.

The enlarging of the cafeteria will tend to relieve the congestion which made it almost impossible for many boys and girls to use the lunch room during the noon hour.

Milford Fair on August 9 to 12

The Annual Oakland County Fair occurs the second week in August, opening on the 9th and closing Saturday evening, the 12th. Three big days, Thursday, Friday and Saturday will feature blue-blood livestock, racing, exhibits of agriculture products and farm equipment, entertainment and all the things that go to make up a good county fair.

Outstanding entertainment will be the Pine Ridge Follies on Thursday afternoon and evening and great show of peppy music, witty dialogue and clever comedy. On Friday and Saturday a program of circus and rodeo acts will be presented.

Tobacco Chanters Vie in Novel Auctioneers' Contest

The world's first tobacco auctioneer contest will be held Tuesday, July 18, at Wilson, North Carolina, in connection with the North Carolina tobacco festival. E. H. Valentini, one of the contestants (indicated by arrow), is shown above practicing for the unique contest. The auctioneer travels down one side of the long tobacco row with representatives of the warehouse. On the other side of the row are buyers. One of the auctioneer's most precious qualities is the ability to catch the buyer's signal, which may be anything from raising an eyebrow, or twitching a lip, to—as with the man in the right foreground—a flip of the thumb.

Michigan Berries Used by Railways

Producers' efforts to improve the quality of farm produce won further recognition during the week, with railroads operating in and from the state featuring Michigan farm produce on their diners. Attractive blue cards, with wording "To Add Delight to Any Meal, Eat Michigan Raspberries," are being attached to menus during the raspberry season, with beans and potatoes to be featured later, according to plans arranged by Agricultural Commissioner Elmer A. Beamer and Roy C. Vandercook, manager of the Michigan Railroads Association.

Vandercook pointed out that railroad officials have been closely watching the efforts of producers to improve quality, that this improvement has resulted not only in increase, rail shipments, but longer hauls, the fruits and vegetables from this state finding wider acceptance throughout the nation. This has been especially true of potatoes and beans, both of which are under compulsory inspection.

Records of the Department of Agriculture disclose that shipment of beans, potatoes and onions by rail account for approximately 15,000 carload shipment during the season. Prior to the past two years, rail shipments have been on the decline but with the advent of grading have shown an increase, the rails being used for longer hauls, and within the state for inspected products. It is these figures that impressed the railroads, according to Vandercook, and cause officials to reach decision to encourage the producers by the use of their products.

By special arrangement with the department, the raspberries used are inspected, although this product does not come under compulsory inspection, the railroads insisted upon inspected produce. Vandercook pointed out that although present plans call for featuring beans and potatoes, the program is flexible enough to include other products if featuring the raspberries proves to be successful. Among the lines featuring Michigan products are Michigan Central, Pennsylvania, Grand Trunk, Pere Marquette, Milwaukee and Detroit & Mackinac.

Southern Michigan farms by the thousands lack food and cover that will support the wildlife population during winter.

Michigan forests are particularly susceptible to early spring fires, due to rapid drying of lighter tree foliage which burns rapidly even when snow covers the ground.

New Street Over Top of Tonquish

The city commission has authorized City Manager C. H. Elliott to make a roadway 40 feet wide and establish a two-foot set-back rule on Forest avenue between West Ann Arbor Trail and Wing street. The new street will be directly over the top of the new Tonquish creek conduit.

Work on the street which was authorized in May, 1938, will begin as soon as the Tonquish creek conduit project is completed. The street as dedicated is 50-foot wide. If the setback rule is observed, eventually there will be enough space for a 7-foot sidewalk. A set-back rule is one that establishes the distance that building shall be from the property line.

Beavers are so suspicious of anything above water that traps for them must be set below the surface where they can be captured by rather obvious devices.

Paraffin used for sealing jellies should be "smoking" hot, since it sterilizes as well as seals. Tilt the glass in order that the melted paraffin may form a seal around the side of the glass as well as a covering for the top.

Nonagenarian Visits Relatives

"Feeling just fine" and looking as good as she feels, Mrs. Ann Wesche, who celebrated her ninetieth birthday June 23, is visiting her grandson, William Renner, at 366 West Ann Arbor trail for a few days before motoring back to her home at Memphis, Tennessee.

This is by no means Mrs. Wesche's first trip to Michigan. She said, "Yes, I've been back and forth between Memphis and Plymouth quite a few times, and each trip I find there is more to be seen in Michigan."

Last Wednesday Mrs. Wesche, accompanied by the Renner family, took in the Detroit zoo. Mrs. Wesche had seen it before, but that was when it was first opened.

After living in Memphis and seeing so much of the United States, Mrs. Wesche isn't at all interested in what is going on in her native Germany—except that she feels sorry for all those people back there.

Mrs. Wesche and her husband left Germany the day after they were married in 1874 and headed for America and Memphis. Boards in the sidewalk creaked under their weight and mud sloshed over their shoe tops as they crossed downtown Memphis, she declared.

Her young husband was killed after being kicked by a horse after being five months in the city. The widow earned a living by cooking and cleaning houses and six months later she gave birth to a baby girl, Katherine.

The young German mother married again four years later, this time to William Wesche, also a native German. He died six years later from malaria. Mrs. Wesche's daughter by her first marriage, Mrs. Kate Renner, accompanied her to Plymouth, along with her son by the second marriage, Gus Wesche, a lieutenant in the Memphis fire department. The other son, George Wesche, is a cigarmaker. Six of Mrs. Wesche's seven great-grandchildren live in Plymouth. They are Harriet, Lillian, William, Catherine, Louis and Oris Renner.

When Mrs. Wesche was preparing for her 10-day automobile trip to Michigan on her birthday a few friends surprised her by giving a party for her at the Wesche home.

Her hobbies are automobile riding, listening to the radio and "fooling with" her flowers.

A PUBLIC TRAGEDY

Sunday afternoon several hundreds of friends, neighbors and officials of the state government, stood with heads bowed as the remains of Leon D. Case, for more than a quarter of a century editor and publisher of The Watervliet Record, were laid in their final resting place beside those of Mrs. Case who had preceded him in death.

It was a sad funeral, one that seemed to be surrounded with a pathos hard to describe. The life of a good citizen of Watervliet, a faithful servant to the people of Michigan, had apparently terminated long before the days of usefulness were over.

Possibly it was the circumstances that surrounded his death that made it seem so tragic. He was as good a citizen as ever lived. Because of his known honesty, integrity and interest in public affairs, his community, county and district had time and time again selected him for responsible public positions. He served six years as a member of the state senate. It seemed that every one liked him. He was never mixed up in any little cliques or factions and he always tried to do his duty as he saw it.

Then he was elected secretary of state on the Democratic ticket.

When elevated to this high office he immediately became the victim of politics and politicians. He tried diligently to give to Michigan a good administration of his office, and as far as he personally was concerned, he did his duty as he saw it.

He had served a little over a year when his beloved associate through the years was taken by death after a long illness. The death of Mrs. Case seemed to take much of the happiness out of his life.

It was soon after her death when he discovered that some of his employees who had been selected by various political committees to serve with him in his important state position, had violated the public trust to which they had been assigned.

He appealed to his associates and his superior. He wanted the condition rectified. That was just before the last state election.

Those to whom he had gone, held up their hands in horror. They told him he should not and could not do anything just at that time. Everywhere his appeals were met with scorn and disapproval.

When the election was over, it was HONEST Leon Case who FIRST went to the newly elected secretary of state and advised him of the condition that prevailed in his own office and RECOMMENDED that he continue the investigation and take such action as he deemed necessary.

Then the public became advised of what had happened. A heart that had been saddened by death in his own family circle, was crushed when the misdeeds and disloyalty of political associates had brought a reflection upon his career of public service that had previously been without blemish.

A sorrowing heart, a worthy, honorable public career snatched by the greedy hands of others, was more than his highly conscientious spirit could endure. Soon after he left Lansing, in January, his health broke. Family, friends and physicians sought to aid and comfort him. But when a noble spirit is crushed, seemingly there isn't much that can be done about it.

Death finally ended the grieving life of a proud citizen. It was the real friends of the years gone by, the friends who knew Leon Case for what he was and for what he did, that crowded the funeral home when the last rites were held Sunday.

Leon Case was one of Michigan's truly worthy, honorable and courageous citizens. His memory will be cherished long after those of his political associates are forgotten.

A CITY OF HOMES

A number of years ago when the residents of this city decided upon a slogan for the community it was agreed that the ideal slogan should be "Plymouth—A Village of Homes." A number of years later when Plymouth became a city, it was voted to continue the slogan and call this ideal community, "Plymouth—A City of Homes."

Since the beginning of this place, over one hundred years ago, Plymouth has been known throughout Michigan as a community where its residents cherished above everything else the homes they had established in this fast growing and prosperous community. Its shaded streets, its well kept lawns, its homes maintained in good repair and general appearances, have won for Plymouth much of the favorable impression the city has had throughout this great commonwealth.

Nothing must be done to in any way damage or take away from Plymouth the full meaning of the slogan of the city. While it is true that we are expanding industrially, that does not mean that our attractive residential sections must be damaged by commercial invasion. Plymouth has plenty of room for business and industrial purposes, and it should guard with the greatest of care its attractive and strictly residential districts. This question is not an issue involving one, two or three individuals. It is a question involving the entire city and its future as well.

The same rule applies to our industrial sections.

When a person buys or builds a home near a business or industrial district, he does so knowing full well what the disadvantages might be and it is essential that he accept those conditions if he remains in that district. So it is when a person purchases a residential property in a residence section—he knows in advance that that part of the city is for residential purposes and not for commercial purposes, and he should abide by it accordingly.

It is the duty of the entire city of Plymouth to see to it that we live up to our cherished slogan—"Plymouth—A City of Homes," and see to it that our purposes prevail.

PROGRESSING BACKWARD

Notwithstanding all of the claims and counter-claims as to a more stabilized business condition, it seems that our state has anything but such a condition. From daily newspaper reports, strikes and labor differences are more serious and numerous than ever before.

Farmers complain that they cannot secure sufficient labor to harvest their crops, while at the same time claims are made that unemployment conditions are serious. About this locality cherries have spoiled on the trees because of lack of pickers.

Meanwhile people who have been given public assistance through WPA jobs are protesting a cut in this form of public aid made by congress. For some reason, they believe that the taxpayers can forever keep them employed at short hours and high wages at non-productive labor. Such a thing is an impossibility and if maintained for much longer, it will cause an absolute collapse of all business and government.

Surely the time has arrived for some real thinking on the part of every citizen. Not only that, but EVERY ONE must now realize that if we are again to go ahead instead of backward, there must be some sacrificing on the part of the entire public.

COMMON SENSE

The recommendations made to the present state officials by a committee of well known purchasing agents serving private industry pertaining to the hit-and-miss system by which the state does its purchasing should not be lightly considered by those in authority.

The report is filled with common sense suggestions. Not only does it suggest how conditions can be remedied, but it tells of the shameful way that Michigan purchasing has been conducted in recent years, at a cost of millions and millions of squandered tax dollars. How many of these wasted dollars have flowed into the pockets of favored friends of the various state job holders, no one knows, but doubtless the amount must be great.

The state officials of Michigan can render to the taxpayer a valued service if they will IMMEDIATELY put into force all of the recommendations made by the committee that the present laws permit. The Governor should see to it that if he calls a special session, such legislative steps as are recommended by the committee are taken, so that Michigan's buying dollars are used for that purpose only. It is high time that some state administration do something for the benefit of the taxpayers—and when we say taxpayers that means everybody these days. The federal government nor the state government has let any one escape from this public responsibility. But while the taxpayers are doing their part—it is all too apparent that the responsible public officials are NOT.

INTERESTING DATA

While there is much that we read these days of a disturbing nature, all is not gloom—no, not as long as the churches are able to hold their own and make gains.

Editor George Averill of The Birmingham Eccentric published some interesting church data in his excellent newspaper a few days ago that does provide the world with a ray of hope. There were 52,378,026 adherents to "organized religion" in the United States last year, according to the Year-book of American Churches, writes Editor Averill.

Referring only to persons thirteen years of age and older, the Yearbook gives the following figures:

32,940,965 Protestants, 15,492,016 Roman Catholics, and 2,930,232 Jews. There were 223,229 Protestant churches, 18,379 Roman Catholic churches, and 4,150 synagogues. In addition there were 714 Eastern Orthodox churches, 144 Polish National Catholic churches, and 51 Armenian churches.

Dr. Herman C. Weber, editor of the Yearbook, estimates that contributions from Protestant, Catholic, and Jewish bodies amounted to $729,060,000.

Estimating the membership of the Protestant denominations, the Yearbook, which was completed before the three branches of Methodists united, gave the following figures: Southern Baptist, 4,315,270; Northern Baptists, 1,408, 501; the Methodist Church, formerly known as the Methodist Church North, 3,980,280, Southern Methodists, 2,495,100; the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, 1,826,044; the Disciples of Christ, 1,484,337; Protestant Episcopal Church, 1,361,167; the National Baptist Convention (Negro), 3,437,930; the National Council of the Congregational and Christian Churches, 1,003,079; the Christian Science Church, 202,098; United Lutheran Church, 1,140,962; Synodical Lutheran Conference, 1,024,774 and American Lutheran, 1,024,774.

LAPSE OF MEMORY

Ex-Governor Murphy recently pointed a finger of scorn at Michigan's scuttling the civil service ship, and the prevalence of gambling in the state. Strangely he failed to mention the $30,000,000 deficit he left us.—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County Republican-News.

BERKEY SAYS O. K.

The appointment by Gov. Dickinson of Dr. H. A. Moyer to be State Health Commissioner has brought a flood of protest from professional socializers, but we have a feeling that a successful physician in a city the size of Charlotte is probably possessed of that measure of good common sense which may make him a better health commissioner for these times than a trained socialized spender who hasn't had to battle for his share of this world's goods.—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

A CRACK AT CONGRESS

Speaking of election-conscious politicians the affect that an election in the offing has on congress may be seen in part by the reaction of the Senate last week in considerably increasing agricultural appropriations over those already prepared by the House. In less than five hours and without a roll call, the upper house of congress added nearly three hundred and fifty millions to the appropriations for farm aid.

We must understand the position of those congressmen who vote for increased farm relief. Their constituents know that for years the bulk of relief money has been expended in the industrial cities. They know from experience that the farmer is undergoing severe economic strain and that the entire structure of American agriculture is withstanding heavy pounding. So long as the government continues its large-scale expenditures for public relief, either through work or otherwise, there will be a demand for bigger appropriations for the benefit of agriculture. With all signs pointing to the farm vote as the balance of power in the election next year, it may be safely assumed that the appropriations for the farmer will be liberal.—Frank D. Brown in The Bellevue Gazette.

CALLING HOLY NAMES

One day last week Attorney-General Frank D. Murphy publicly criticized Governor Luren D. Dickinson for signing the bill that has tipped open Murphy's attempted civil service reforms. Both Murphy and Dickinson claim to be holy men; both plead for the exculpation of every Christian attribute; sounds like St. Paul and St. Peter in a bitter argument, doesn't it?—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

DON'T PICK 'EM UP

We are inclined to believe that State Police Commissioner Oscar G. Olander is right when he asks for a law which will make hitch-hiking illegal. Of course no one is required to take on extra passengers and we are in the class who seldom do. But there are always those with big hearts who are inclined to feel that they are evidencing selfishness when they pass the stranger on the road. It is those who cannot resist the appeal of the extended thumb who need the protection.

But few know the dangers of the promiscuous carrying of

A GOOD SUGGESTION

We have an underdog complex. For that reason we wish that a modified Townsend Plan could be worked out. The $200 a month plan is economically hopeless and helpless. Whoever forced a roll call in congress really did the country a major service. Both parties have served notice on the Townsend followers and the country at large that the scheme is emotional rather than practical. In lieu of this defeated program we wish that a reasonable tilt could be made in state and federal funds for more liberal old age assistance benefits.—Muri H. DeFoe in The Charlotte Republican-Tribune.

A FRANK OPINION

A sympathetic Justice bashfully assessed a fish spearer five dollars before a Gaylord justice court last week. The fellow was attempting to spear fish in an Otsego county lake, and those fish in those lakes are one of the major things that attracts new business and lots of it to that community. Now if the Gaylord sportsman club, the Kiwanis Club or the Chamber of Commerce would only assess that judge he might contribute more to his community than he did in this measly fine.—Al Weber in The Cheboygan Observer.

GET THE WEEDY POLITICIANS!

If your garden is full of weeds, and you refuse to go out and pull them up, you would not blame anybody but yourself. If the garden of the world you live in has extravagant, incompetent and wasteful weeds—some of them a foreign nature—and you fail to do your duty as a citizen in removing them, can you blame anybody but yourself. If you really want to enjoy a weedless garden, or an efficient, honest government, you'll get it only by pulling up the weeds.—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.
