

Joe Louis, World Champion Fighter, to Do Training for Detroit Battle at Northville Fair Grounds

Contracts Signed Provide for Use of Grounds for Over Month Following End of This Year's Fair

Plymouth and Northville will be bustling, hustling places during the last of August and early September for all the fight fans of the country—the announcement having just been made that the Northville-Wayne County fair grounds, three miles north of Plymouth, have been selected as the training grounds for the heavy-weight champion fighter, Joe Louis.

Contracts were signed Tuesday afternoon after both Northville and Plymouth had been visited by the business representatives of the world's most famous fighter. They came to Plymouth to look over its hotel and restaurant accommodations, and decided that this city being located so near to Northville, would be able to take care of some of the big crowds that always follow the training camps of famed fighters. In fact, there was an effort made to secure living quarters out at the Plymouth Country club for the fighter and his trainers, but this would have necessitated the installation of club house facilities for members for nearly six weeks of the season when golf playing is most popular.

The country home of Joseph Schlacks, southeast corner of the Newburg road and Eight Mile road, three miles east of Northville, will be used for the Louis residential purposes.

Contracts were arranged between the Northville-Wayne County Fair association and Manager John Roxborough by Attorney John Nelson of Plymouth.

The Northville fair and horse show takes place August 16, 17, 18 and 19. The champion fighter and his trainers will move in on the fairgrounds on August 26, a week after the fair is over, and remain in possession of the grounds until the day of the big fight in Detroit on September 27. This brief lapse of time will give the workers a chance to make such changes as are necessary at the fair grounds to accommodate the fight crowd.

The fact that all of the training of popular Joe Louis will be done at Northville will give local fight fans a chance to see his progress. There will be four public exhibitions of fighting each week between Joe and some of his sparring partners for which a slight charge will be made. The free show act stage in front of the grandstand will be fixed over into a fighting ring. Then too, according to Manager John Roxborough, the numerous bridle paths between Plymouth and Northville, will be used by the fighter for his daily road work-outs.

For about six weeks, it is going to be a big thing for Plymouth and Northville.

Bowlers Ask to Play on Sundays

Builders of Plymouth's new bowling alleys, regarded as among the best in this part of Michigan, will appear at the city commission meeting Monday and ask for a right to keep open during the entire week, the same privilege as extended to bowling alleys in Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and all the other communities about here.

If it was a general practice in all other cities and towns to keep bowling alleys closed on Sunday it is stated that the request would not be made, but because of the fact that local bowlers have been going to Ann Arbor, Redford and elsewhere on Sundays to get the sort of exercise that goes with bowling, local builders of the new alleys hope that the same rights will be granted here. It is pointed out by the builders that there seems to be some confusion about the question, as many people do not know that bowling alleys are open during the entire week in other cities and towns that have them. Bowling, it is declared, is not regarded as objectionable recreation in any way. In fact, it is looked upon as one of the cleanest forms of recreation that young people indulge in. That is why there has been no local objection, it is stated, to bowling alleys remaining open the entire week in other places.

Attorney Richwine Back in Offices

Attorney Perry Richwine, who suffered a broken ankle some weeks ago when thrown from his riding horse, has sufficiently recovered to be back in his offices again. Mr. and Mrs. Richwine and children, during the enforced absence from his offices, enjoyed a brief vacation trip in the East, visiting the New York World's Fair.

Twenty friends and neighbors surprised William Petz, Friday evening, the occasion honoring his birthday. Games were enjoyed and a delicious luncheon served. Mr. Petz was the recipient of many gifts.

Round the World Cyclist Here

Local Rotarians are hosts today at their noon meeting to Miss Peggy Allen, of Hayes, in Kent, England. Miss Allen, bound on what she hopes will be a round-the-world trip on a bicycle, stopped in Detroit Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. Arnold F. Merrill, who are friends of hers.

Mr. Merrill, a Highland Park Rotarian and auditor for the Eckles Coal and Supply company of Plymouth, called Floyd Eckles Thursday morning and informed him that he had prevailed on Miss Allen to appear before the Plymouth Rotarians and tell of some of the interesting experiences she has had on her trip so far.

Miss Allen landed at Montreal two months ago and pedaled to the World's Fair, New York. From there she left for Niagara Falls and Toronto and then on to Detroit. She carries 45 pounds of luggage on her bicycle, which weighs 32 pounds. She saved her money, earned clerking in department stores in England, Norway and Sweden. She is 25 years old.

From this locality she will leave for Yellowstone Park and from there to Vancouver where she will board ship for New Zealand. She says the only disagreeable things about her way of travel is summer heat and the fact that she gets lonesome.

Speeders Pay Much to City's Treasury

73 in June and July Given Tickets

Violations for speeding in the city caused the total of traffic tickets issued to jump to a new high total during the months of June and July. Thirty-one speeders in June, and 42 in July were given tickets.

Failing to stop at a stop street intersection was cause for issuing the second largest number of tickets. During June there were 12 violations recorded and in July police issued 11 such tickets. A total of 10 persons did not have their operators' license on their person when asked by the police and were given tickets for the violation. Six of these violations were in June.

There were four tickets issued for reckless driving in May and two in June; four for improper parking in June and one in July; three for running a red light in June and two in July.

In addition to the above violations which occurred in both months, two individuals were given tickets for an improper license; one person cut in on a funeral procession and one violator was given a ticket for passing traffic on the right.

July's total both in violations and fines exceeded that of the month of June. The police department issued 86 tickets in July of which the fines totaled $274. June fell short of this mark, there being 80 tickets issued and $216 worth of fines attached to them.

FINAL RITES HELD FOR MRS. CHARLES CASH

Funeral services were held last Monday morning for Mrs. Charles Cash, of Wixom, Michigan. Mrs. Cash was the mother of Bernice Cash, of Plymouth, and had many friends in this vicinity. She passed away at her home early Saturday morning after a brief illness.

She was born in Indiana and came to Michigan with her husband in 1913 and has made her home near Wixom since that time. She leaves besides her husband and a host of friends to mourn her loss, her father, Lewis Edmundson, of Pennville, Indiana, and children, Bernice, of Plymouth; Floyd, of New Hudson; Robert, of Ann Arbor; Edith Potts, of New Hudson; Jane Cork, of Rochester; James, of Wixom; Mae Driver, of Silver Lake; Donald, John, Charles and Charlotte Ann, all at home.

Services were held at the Phillips Funeral parlors in South Lyon and interment was made in the same city.

MASTICK MOVES TO NEW LOCATION

Earl S. Mastick, dealer in Dodge and Plymouth cars and Dodge trucks, formerly located at the corner of Main street and Ann Arbor road, has moved to a new downtown location at 275 South Main street.

The new location is in the showrooms formerly used by Harold Coolman in the Hi-Speed service station.

Mr. Mastick has facilities to service all makes of cars. He invites his host of friends to call on him at his new place of business.

Canal Anniversary Stamp Goes on Sale Soon

A special three-cent stamp commemorating the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Panama canal's opening will go on sale Tuesday, August 15. The stamp, printed in purple ink, has as its central motif framed portraits of former President Theodore Roosevelt and George W. Goethals, the canal's engineer.

Running Races And Horse Show To Feature Big Northville Fair

Plymouth Day August 17 Will Be Big Affair

In anticipation of the biggest crowds that have ever attended the Northville-Wayne county fair, the association is just now completing many improvements on the grounds which will be of advantage to the thousands who will come to see the running races.

President Elmer Smith states that he is surprised at the exceptional interest being shown by every one in the running races that have been scheduled for this year. In past years there have been three days of trotting races, but the association has booked running races for the full four days.

The fair which will open on Wednesday, August 16, and continue to Saturday night, August 20, will be Northville's best, state its officers. The four day horse show, in conjunction with the running races, ball games and other attractions, will be enough to keep every one interested.

Plymouth's day, which will be Thursday, August 17, as usual, will be one of the big features of the fair. Plymouth residents as always, are cooperating to help make the day a bigger success than in past years.

Full details will be announced in next week's issue of The Plymouth Mail for the parade to Northville.

Riley-Torrie Marriage Saturday

Miss Mary Riley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Riley of Nova Scotia, was united in marriage to Angus Torrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Torrie of Markdale, Ontario, Canada, Saturday, July 29, at 4:30 p. m. in the rectory of Our Lady of Good Counsel church, Fr. V. Renaud officiating.

The couple was attended by Mrs. Frank Riley, of Plymouth, sister-in-law of the bride, and Alex Torrie of Detroit, brother of the groom.

The bride was gowned in a white length pink lace dress with white accessories, and wore a corsage of roses. Her gown was dress was green spun rayon with white accessories. As a gift of the groom, Miss Riley wore a cameo locket on a gold chain.

The matron of honor wore a blue lace street length dress, white accessories and a rose corsage.

Immediate friends attended the wedding ceremony and following there was a reception for 50 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Jerome of Northville.

The newlyweds will honeymoon in Nova Scotia and Markdale, Ontario, Kazuhazua, Quebec, and other points of interest in that region for three weeks. They will make their home in Plymouth.

Mrs. Torrie came to Detroit 11 years. Donnelly's car was blamed for a fire that suddenly started as he was turning off South Main street on to West Ann Arbor Trail about 10:15 that night.

Firemen were called to put out the blaze. Luckily this fire was stopped before it could do great damage.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Thompson and small son, Blaine, of South Main street, were Friday evening visitors of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Thompson, in Detroit.

Wednesday Plymouth's Play Day

65 Children Are Treated Weekly at Dental Clinic

First Appointments Over; Start on Secondary

Nearly 65 children are treated at the dental clinic each week according to Mrs. Mary Strasen, Plymouth school nurse, and an average of 12 are given treatment daily.

The last five weeks have been given their first appointments; that is, cases that required immediate treatment, such as extractions of abscessed teeth, taking care of infections and the treatment of patients whose dental work would require more than one appointment.

Monday, Dr. William Zakrajsek, dentist in charge of the clinic and director of it, started his secondary appointments. This work requires mostly fillings and work where dental conditions do not require immediate attention.

The dental clinic is furnished by the Couzens fund and operated under the direction of the board of education. The eight weeks' clinic started June 26, and will end August 18.

Dr. Zakrajsek is assisted by Rose Niedopad and Mrs. Strasen is supervising the program for the board of education.

Mrs. Strasen's work is comprised of interviewing possible patients, and securing permission of parents for dental work for their children. No child may receive this treatment unless the parent presents a signed permit from the parent or guardian.

Response of the public has been very cooperative for the last five weeks, it is stated. However, there still are a few children who are hesitating to avail themselves of the opportunity of attending the dental clinic.

"Every child in Plymouth who is eligible for this free service should take advantage of the opportunity offered," Dr. Zakrajsek said.

The equipment which is owned by the Couzens fund will be moved to Northville, August 19, where Dr. Zakrajsek will conduct a similar clinic for a month.

Committee members whose aid and cooperation made the dental clinic possible in Plymouth are: Mrs. Nellie Bird, Mrs. Jewell Bell, Dr. B. E. Champe, Mrs. Edwin Campbell, Mrs. Frank Pierce, Mrs. George Farwell, Mrs. Lawrence Burgett, Mrs. Roy A. Proctor, Mrs. Ann Squires, Mrs. Hugh E. Law and Mrs. Edward Wilson.

It is the hope of the committee that the clinic will be continued next year so that dental defects may be eliminated.

Davis Is Novice Tennis Champ

Attorney Dunbar Davis was declared winner of the men's Plymouth bracket in the novice tennis tournament in Plymouth, Aug. 3. Davis, by winning his matches and becoming champion of the Plymouth center of the tournament will meet a winner from some other center in Michigan at Waterworks park, Saturday. The park is on East Jefferson avenue at Cadillac boulevard in Detroit.

Previous to defeating McLaren, Davis met and won from Earl Mastick, 8-6, 8-6; L. J. Bibar, 1-6, 7-5, 8-6; Chase Willett, 10-8, 6-4; and J. Gaffield, 6-1, 6-4.

The Plymouth-Riverside park center championship match was to have been played Wednesday evening between A. Parmenter and Bill Norman, but on account of rain the play-off was postponed until this noon (Friday) as all results are required to be in at that time.

In his climb up the ladder, Parmenter left the following amateurs by the wayside: Bill Baker, 9-7, 8-6; D. W. Whipple, 7-5, 6-1; J. McLean, 6-3, 6-3; W. McAlister, 6-0, 4-6, 6-3.

Bill Norman defeated his brother, Bob, 6-4, 6-4; E. Holdsworth, 6-2, 4-6, 8-6; George Johnson, 4-6, 6-2, 6-3; and D. Sweeney, 6-1, 6-3.

The champion in the women's division is to be determined this morning (Friday). Dorothy Barnes is scheduled to meet Betty Barlow for the championship.

Miss Barnes has defeated Beverly Smith, 7-5, 6-2; Ruth Hamilton Whipple, 6-0, 6-3; Margery Knowles, 6-0, 6-1; and Dolores Dettling, 6-0, 6-1.

In her march to the final step of the bracket Miss Barlow has taken P. Braidel, 6-3, 5-7, 6-1; Betty Barnes, 6-4, 2-6, 9-7; I. Nairn, 6-0, 6-2; and R. Hadley, 6-3, 6-1.

Prizes will be presented to the winners of each bracket by The Detroit News. As all the winners have not been determined, prizes will not be made known until after the tournament.

Finals in The Detroit News state novice tennis matches will be played at Waterworks park.

Committee Plans J. C. of C. Meeting

The committee in charge of the August meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce has big plans for Monday afternoon and evening, August 14.

Tentative arrangements are for the meeting to be an afternoon and evening affair at the Plymouth Country club. Golf, badminton, card games, etc. are in order for entertainment. Prizes will be given for winners in the various contests.

Watch next week's Mail for further details of the August meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce.

Ohio Man Killed at North Yard by Freight Train

William T. Booker, colored, about 25, of Dayton, Ohio, was instantly killed Sunday night when he fell under the wheels of a Pere Marquette railroad train at north yard in Plymouth.

No one is certain just how the accident occurred but trainmen expressed the belief that Booker fell from the train as it rounded a curve.

Trainmen were notified of the accident when six or seven colored men ran to them and said that some one had been killed on the tracks.

Night Patrolman Carl Greenlee investigated the accident. The victim was identified by the contents of his wallet which escaped being destroyed as the train ran over his body.

Booker's remains were taken to the county morgue where they will be left until claimed by relatives or buried in Potter's field.

Residents Asked to Attend Special Meeting

Residents of Plymouth who live on West Ann Arbor trail between Main street and Harvey and north on Harvey to point near Penniman avenue and those who live on West Ann Arbor trail from Main street as far east as Elizabeth and other property owners in the neighborhood will be requested by letter to attend a special meeting of the planning commission to be held at the city hall, Tuesday, August 8.

The purpose of the special meeting will be to discuss the problems of zoning in the area represented by the residents who are asked to attend the meeting. There will be two major issues discussed: (1) to extend the business area on Ann Arbor trail west to Harvey and along Harvey on the east side to a point near Penniman avenue; and (2) to extend the commercial area on Ann Arbor trail as far east as Elizabeth.

No definite action will be taken in these issues which are to be discussed Tuesday night at the special meeting.

One other problem that the planning commission has encountered is the proposition of extending the business area south on Main street. This issue will be taken up at a later date.

Colman to Speak to Townsend Club

Although the weather was threatening, a good attentive audience was present in Kellogg park last Tuesday evening to hear more about the Townsend National Recovery plan.

Next Tuesday evening, August 8, at 8:00 p.m., Blaine T. Colman, former mayor of Highland Park, will be the speaker.

The public is cordially invited to attend and hear him explain this great plan.

Robinsons Leave for New York Races

Off to the races—that is where Mr. and Mrs. Harry Robinson and Miss Rose Hawthorne will be when Sunday morning arrives. They are leaving for Gothen, New York, where one of the country's biggest harness horse meets takes place each year. Mr. Robinson has not missed one of these famous races in many years. While in the East they also expect to visit the New York World's Fair.

Mr. and Mrs. James Riley spent the week-end in Milwaukee, Wisconsin.

Community Picnic Expected to Attract Hundreds

Detailed Program Printed; Prizes Given to Winners

Everybody in Plymouth is invited to attend the community picnic to be held at Riverside park, Wednesday afternoon and evening, August 9. Harold P. Anderson is chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements for the picnic.

Space designated for the Plymouth picnic is the entire area from the wading pool up to and including the horse shoe pitching courts on both sides of the road. These grounds will provide ample space for the crowd that is expected to exceed that of last year.

Merchants have donated prizes and money for the contests on the program. There will be events for both young and old. One of the features of the program will be a ball and chain race which will be executed by married couples, the left leg of one being tied to the right leg of the other.

Free refreshments are offered by the committee including pop, ice cream and cookies. It is planned that Plymouth Boy Scouts will set up their first aid tent to administer any aid that may be demanded by the occasion.

A number of Plymouth merchants will close their places of business at noon Wednesday in observance of the affair. Those who will close have placed signs in their stores so that buyers may do their shopping in ample time before the picnic.

The German band, under the direction of Lewis Evans, high school band director, will give a concert at 7:00 o'clock. This organization is made up of high-school-age boys.

Committees in charge of arrangements for the program are: Harold P. Anderson, chairman; Clarence Elliott, William Rose, William Choffin, Howard Stark, Thomas Matulis, Floyd Eckles, R. H. Smith, John MacLachlan and Edgar Ericsson.

The program which will be under the supervision of the summer recreation officials is as follows:

- 1:30—50-yard sprints for boys and girls.
- 2:00—50-yard sprints for seven years old; 75-yard sprints for boys and girls seven to 10 years old.
- 2:15—Handicap races for boys; peanut carrying contest for girls.
- 2:30—Races for married women; races for married men; ball and chain races (couples).
- 2:45—Potato peeling contest for women; nail driving contest for men.
- 2:55—Watermelon eating contest for boys; watermelon eating contest for girls.
- 3:00—Husband calling contest for women; wife calling contest for men.
- 3:15—Balloon kicking contest for women; egg catching contest for men.
- 3:30—Tug of war for boys, 10 to 12 years old; Central vs. Starkweather.
- 3:45—Tug of war; merchants vs. all comers.
- 4:00—Softball; Old timers; married women vs. single women.
- 5:00—Tug of war; American Legion vs. Ex-Servicemen.
- 5:15—Tug of war; married women vs. single women.
- 5:30—Picnic peeling contest for men.
- 6:15—Softball; Rotary vs. Kiwanis.
- 7:00—Little German band concert under direction of Lewis Evans.

Boss Printer Cards Hole in One

It isn't very often that the printers who print The Plymouth Mail every week have the opportunity of putting their own names on the front page of the paper but in this case, we, the editors, think that this particular item deserves front page.

It seems that the plant superintendent, Ray Danol, became interested in golf early this year and has spent much time out on the golf courses around Plymouth. Saturday afternoon he played Hilltop Country club and during that game he performed one of those things in golf that everyone hopes for and only a very few are able to obtain, a hole in one.

Earl and Gale Kenyon were putting on the fourth green and after sinking their putts they waved to Mr. Danol on the fourth tee to shoot on. He used a seven iron and much to our surprise, and his, the ball hit about six inches from the cup and rolled in. The hole is 130 yards long. Needless to say, it was a miracle, but in any language it was a hole in one. Danol shot a nine on number five and turned in a card for the nine holes of 51.

Congressman Dondero Tells of Tax Increases Paid by Business

No Charge to be Made to Visit Roosevelt Library

(By Congressman Dondero)
Tax Levy Cited
The president of a large corporation in a recent report to stockholders on the company's heavy tax burden, said: "It seems that we are running our business for the benefit of the government instead of for the benefit of our stockholders."

A tax survey—covering Federal, state, and local taxation—just released by the American Federation of Investors supports this statement. Included in the survey are tax figures for 163 representative corporations and the totals disclose that taxes in 1938 were more than double the dividends paid by these corporations to their common stockholders. The far-reaching effect of this taxation is shown by the fact that these companies have 6,500,000 stockholders.

In 1938 the Chrysler corporation paid 52.8 per cent of its earnings in taxes. The company's tax levy represented $4.84 for each share of common stock as compared to dividends of $2.00 for each share. The corporation paid 1938 taxes at the rate of $428 for each employee.

In the same year 41.9 per cent of the earnings of the General Motors corporation went for the payment of taxes and the total tax bill of the corporation represented $450 for each employee. Another automobile manufacturer, the Hudson Motor Car company, paid taxes amounting to $1.39 for each share of stock but paid no dividends to its stockholders.

In the ratio of taxes to employees, the Detroit Edison company report shows the payment of 1938 taxes at the rate of $1.173 for every one of its 6,553 employees. The company paid 49.5 per cent of its earnings for taxes.

The repressive effect of our tax structure is decisively shown in the case of the United States Steel corporation. In 1938 this corporation showed earnings, before taxes, slightly in excess of 41 million dollars. When the tax collectors finished not only were these earnings gone but a deficit of $7,717,454 was incurred. As a result 168,399 common stockholders received no dividends.

In the steel industry as a whole taxes were 64 percent greater in 1938, when the industry lost money, than in 1929 when it had a prosperous year.

A Fiscal Report
Now that the 1939 fiscal year, beginning July 1, 1938 and ending June 30, 1939, is complete, the report shows that the Federal government collected $5,668,000,000 during the year and spent $9,210,000,000, leaving a $3,542,000,000 deficit for the year. Your per capita share of this deficit is $27.25. Since March 4, 1933, the Federal government has taken in $29,042,902,000 and spent $50,207,840,000, for a consolidated deficit of $21,164,737,000. As of June 30, 1939 your per capita share of the national debt was $311.08, which is an increase of $25.65 in a single year. This per capita increase for 1939 alone is more than twice the per capita for our entire national debt as late as 1916.

Franklin Roosevelt Library
When Senate Joint Resolution 118, providing for the establishment and maintenance of the Franklin D. Roosevelt library at Hyde Park, was before the House for consideration, Rep. Treadway proposed an amendment to eliminate the admission charge of 25 cents per person "for the privilege of visiting and viewing" the property. Rep. Treadway suggested: "Let us at least be a little dignified in dealing with this proposition and not make it a dime-museum proposition, charging admission not only to the building but to the grounds as well." His amendment was adopted. Then the House proceeded to pass the bill by a vote of 221 to 124.

Three Way Tie For Second Place In Scout League

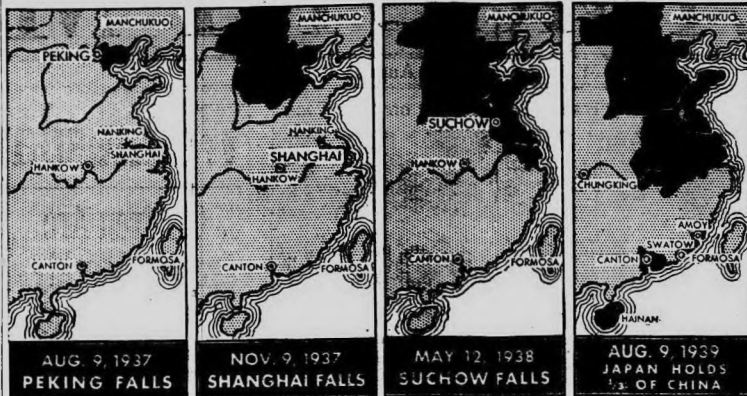

Three teams are tied for second place honors in the Boy Scout softball league. The Newburg team still holds first place and the second place tie is between Northville 1, Plymouth 4, and Plymouth 3.

Last week Plymouth 1 was defeated by Northville 7, 8-1; Plymouth 3 took Elm 1 by the score, 7-3; Northville 1 won from Plymouth 4, 8-1 and when the game between Newburg and Plymouth 2 was called on account of darkness, the score was tied, no game being recorded on the standings that follow:

Team	W	L	Pct.
Newburg	3	0	1.000
Northville 1	3	1	.750
Plymouth 4	3	1	.750
Plymouth 3	3	1	.750
Plymouth 2	1	2	.333
Northville 2	1	3	.250
Elm 1	0	3	.000
Plymouth 1	0	3	.000

Trenton Plans Celebration

A full evening's program of ribbon-cutting, speaking, entertainment and dancing will mark the official celebration of the opening of the new West Road viaduct in the village of Trenton Friday, August 11.

William F. Von Moll, supervisor of Monguagon township, will have the honor of cutting the ribbon, thereby throwing the viaduct open to traffic formally. Von Moll was one of the early proponents of the construction of the viaduct.

The festivities will center around the corner of Fourth and Pine, at the eastern approach to the viaduct. A stand will be erected on the school grounds.

Camping Trip Pleasing Affair

Friday, several members of the Jay club went to Silver Lake on a camping trip. The trip was so successful, despite rain, ants, and mosquitoes, that both the Cardinal and the Jay clubs will go again August 25. This camping period will last until the following Tuesday, August 29.

The Cardinal club will leave Friday morning and plans to stay until Saturday night when the camp will be taken over by the Jay club. Their camping period will end Tuesday. Many of the girls will be getting their first taste of camp life and will enjoy the experience of tenting out.

Next Thursday August 10, the Starkweather Junior American Citizens club will spend the entire day at Silver Lake, leaving from Starkweather school at 9:00 o'clock in the morning and returning at 9:00 o'clock that night.

The Central J. A. C. club will spend Monday, August 14, at Silver Lake. That group will also leave at 9:00 o'clock from the high school returning that evening. On each of these trips, two or more of the girls' mothers will accompany the group as well as the club leader and one or more life-guard. It is hoped that all club members will be able to attend.

The Central J. A. C. club had a potluck picnic in Riverside park Wednesday. Starkweather club members met at their leader's home Tuesday evening. The Cardinal club played baseball at the Wayne County Training School Thursday and spent Friday evening at the Walled Lake amusement park. The Jay club had an interesting meeting Thursday evening at the city hall at which club members discussed plans for the second camping trip.

All members of the girls' clubs are expected to attend community sing rehearsal every Tuesday and Friday at 2:00 o'clock in the grade school auditorium. Anyone else who is interested in singing may take part in the sing by appearing for practice at those hours. All boys and girls are urged to avail themselves of the opportunity to participate. Ruth Hadley, director of the sing said.

Two Plymouth Women to Take Isle Royal Trip

Members of News Hikers Club Leave Saturday

Two Plymouth young women, Hazel Lickfelt and Clara Tyler, will accompany Detroit hikers on a 12-day hike over Isle Royal in Lake Superior. The club leaves Detroit Saturday, August 5.

The E-Che-Kar club as the organization is called gets its name from the Blackfoot Indians who gave it to them two years ago when they were on a hiking trip through Glacier National park. Miss Lickfelt was in that group. The Indian name means "sore feet."

This year's hike will last 12 days. Ten club members will leave Detroit Saturday and proceed to Copper Harbor in the Upper Peninsula. From that point the hikers will take a boat to Isle Royal, where they will spend their vacation fishing and hiking.

Each hiker will carry his own provisions, blankets and other things. When the time the E-Che-Kars reach Isle Royal until they leave about two weeks later, they will not have direct communication with the state as they plan to pitch camp on the interior of the island wherever they happen to be when night falls. No tents will be used and the hikers will sleep in sleeping-bags or in a blanket roll.

Elmer C. Adams of the staff of The Detroit News is one of the members and organizers of the club. He will also take the Isle Royal trip.

A very delightful party was given Tuesday evening, by Annelia Zielasko in her home on Hix road when she entertained 18 guests at a shower for Betty Wilkie, a bride-elect of this month. The guests enjoyed playing bridge bingo after which the guest of honor was presented a book of poems, telling her where she would find gifts from those present, which proved to be a set of cast aluminum. At the luncheon which was served later the guests were seated at one long table decorated in yellow and white. The following enjoyed Miss Zielasko's hospitality: Miss Wilkie, her mother, Mrs. Edward Wilkie, Mrs. Zielasko, Irene Zielasko, Helen Schultz, Jean Blunt, Edith Donnelly, Catherine Jewell, Bernice and Vivian Delvo, Jane Dodge, Jessica Goebel, Margaret Herter, Helen Ribar Goebel, Betty Ridley, Madeline Potter, Mildred Zielasko and Irene Laharski.

Mrs. Elmore Carney entertained at a delightful luncheon Thursday of last week in honor of Mrs. John Guild Staudt (Ruth Allison) of Tulsa, Oklahoma. Garden flowers decorated the home. Those who enjoyed an afternoon of visiting and reminiscing were Mrs. Barbara Bake Stecker, Mrs. Ruth Waterman Proctor, Mrs. Mena Bolton Wilkins, Mrs. Henrietta Hondorp Debs, Evelyn Schrader of Plymouth; Mrs. Grace Lee Carney, of Yale; Mrs. Marie Miller Watters, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Reber entertained 15 guests at a party Friday, in honor of their cousin, Miss Marie Nolling, of Nebraska. On Sunday Mr. and Mrs. O. F. Eyer honored Miss Nolling, their cousin and Wilhelmina Hendrickson, at a garden supper having covers laid for 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Winston Cooper of Penniman avenue are holding open house at their residence Saturday evening for friends of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Powers of Indianapolis, Indiana. Mrs. Powers is the former Dorothy Moore, who lived in Plymouth for a number of years.

Carol Ann, a seven-pound baby girl, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Tony Piesczak at the Plymouth hospital late Sunday afternoon. The Piesczaks reside on Plymouth route two. Dr. Luther Peck was the attending physician and reports that both mother and baby are doing fine.

Mrs. Harold Cook and son, Richard, of Riverside, California, and Mrs. Oliver Young, of Paris, California, arrived in Plymouth Friday for a month's visit with the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter A. Miller, of Russell street.

Katherine Schultz has been the guest of her fiancé's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Jordan, in New Ulm, Iowa. The last few weeks and also touring in Minnesota.

Baseball Goes Streamlined at Wichita Tourney

Thanks to Ray Dumont, president of the National Semi-Professional Baseball Congress, a host of innovations will be on hand at Wichita, Kansas, Friday, August 11, when 30 regional titlists begin a tournament leading to the national semi-pro title. Dumont perfected the striped umpire's uniform being worn here by Paul Fair "to give umpires more color." He also invented the ingenious home plate duster-offer which, he says, eliminates the umpire's "janitorial" duty. The duster is operated from the dugout at a signal from the umpire, 150 pounds of air pressure forcing a cylinder to rise in the plate and shoot six out of holes in the cylinder's sides. When air pressure is released, the cylinder falls back. The tournament climaxes a nationwide series of 700 district and 48 state tournaments which began May 7.

Opposes Transfer of Mothers' Pension Control

Local Supervisor Tells Reasons For Opposition

(By Ruth Huston Whipple)

Thursday, July 27, the Wayne county board of supervisors in special session voted not to appropriate money for mothers' pensions in next year's budget. This was a very important step because of the history of mothers' pensions in Wayne county and because of the number of mothers and children involved.

For 28 years, since mothers' pension became the law in Michigan in 1913, Wayne county has supported them faithfully. Since the depression many counties have regulated mothers' pensions, until this last year 54 counties were not contributing a penny for that purpose. Even during the depression years Wayne county has spent annually $1,000,000, $1,250,000, $1,300,000, $1,697,963 in 1936-37, $1,700,000 in 1937-38 and $1,700,000 in 1938-39. The appropriation recommended for 1939-40 was again $1,700,000.

An analysis of the mothers' pension load in Wayne county revealed that there were 2,600 straight mothers' pension cases with 7,274 children being cared for at an average annual cost per child of $233.70. There are the cases being cared for by our present county appropriation of $1,700,000 under the jurisdiction of Judge D. A. Healy of probate court.

At present also Wayne county has 4,900 cases with 10,135 children being cared for under the federal appropriation for aid to dependent children at an average annual cost per child of $233.22. These all at present are under the welfare administration.

Then Wayne county has 1900 cases still on welfare with approximately 4,700 children who should be on mothers' pensions. This makes a grand total of 9,400 cases with 19,735 dependent children all of whom will be cared for by the social security division of the welfare administration after December 1, 1939. The citizens of Wayne county should consider seriously some of the social problems that give us 19,735 dependent children to be cared for each year by public funds.

At the joint meeting of the ways and means and welfare committees on Wednesday, July 26, several questions were asked. First, which were administered better, the 2,600 mothers' pension cases under Judge Healy, or the 4,900 aid to dependent children cases under social security? There was a difference of only $48.00 per year in case costs, and administration was considered satisfactory in both divisions. It is universally conceded that mothers' pensions have been well taken care of by Judge D. J. Healy and by Judge Henry S. Hulbert before him.

A second question was whether or not Wayne county's repudiation of mothers' pensions this year would be necessarily permanent. The answer was no; if Wayne county has the money and wants to appropriate money for mothers' pensions a year from now, it can do so.

A third question was, will repudiating mothers' pensions mean more federal aid for Wayne county? Supervisor Edward Jeffries, chairman of the ways and means committee says that it means $2,000,000 more federal aid. Other officials set the amount a million or more lower. However, all agreed that transferring mothers' pension cases to social security does mean some additional federal funds for Wayne county, although no one knew the exact sum.

A fourth question was, will there be enough state and federal money to care for the whole burden of 19,735 dependent children? Mr. Miriani of the state welfare commission, answered probably there would not be, because the state legislature appropriated only four million of the six million asked for this purpose. Those supervisors who thought about it at all realized that there will be two or three months at the end of the year when the mothers' pension cases may suffer, because Wayne county made no appropriation.

A fifth question was, what reason do the Wayne county auditors give for not recommending the county appropriation of $1,700,000? Under the new welfare act Wayne county must appropriate around $500,000 for out-county relief to be assessed against the out-county alone. Detroit expects to operate its own welfare department and will make its own appropriation. This year's county budget is within $100,000 of the five mills allowed Wayne county by the allocation board under the 15-mill limitation. Therefore, it is legally impossible to appropriate $500,000 for out-county relief in addition to the present budget. Since it seems impossible to cut other county appropriations, since mothers' pensions can be transferred to social security, since this transfer means saving $1,700,000 for the county, getting rid of mothers' pension appears the easiest way to get the money that must be raised for general relief purposes.

The seventh question asked, where will the $1,700,000.00 saved by transferring mothers' pensions go? Again no definite answer was given at the committee meeting. Probably to general relief with the out-county getting approximately $350,000.00 and Detroit the remaining $1,350,000. Some of it may go to bolster the crippled children's fund so mercilessly cut at Lansing. The supervisors will have a chance to see where it has gone when they receive the new budget from the auditors Monday, September 18.

In summary, then, there were seven reasons for voting no on the transfer of mothers' pensions and only one reason for voting yes. Wayne county has had mothers' pensions 26 years; there is a difference of only 48 cents more per child per year under mothers' pensions. There are social objections to having mothers' pension cases administered like direct relief even though under a social security division, killing the mothers' pension this year sets a bad precedent for next year and means that the mothers' pension staff of Juvenile Court will have been broken up; there will not be enough state and federal money to care for the 19,735 children during the whole year. The amount of additional money Wayne County will receive after the transfer is a big question, and exactly where the $1,700,000.00 saved from mothers' pensions will go is another question unanswered until September 18. These seven reasons are sufficient cause for voting no. I am convinced that if the 152 supervisors had been asked to abolish mothers' pensions, the majority would have voted no.

But when they were asked not to appropriate $1,700,000.00 for mothers' pensions, they voted yes, because they wanted the money for direct relief under

WHY IS IT DIFFICULT TO WALK STRAIGHT WITH YOUR EYES CLOSED?

BECAUSE one of your legs is shorter than the other one and unless the eyes are open, enabling the brain to direct your feet through your eyes, the course of one long step and one short step will cause you to walk in circles unless you have trained yourself through diligent practice to pursue a straight course. If you don't believe me, get a tape line and measure your two legs from hip to feet and then close your eyes and take a walk—without peeping! See where you land!

Mrs. Harmon Smith, Mrs. Bessie Dunning and daughter, Margaret, returned Thursday of last week from a visit with Mrs. J. C. McCurdy, a sister of Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Dunning, in Kellogg, Idaho. They were accompanied home by their niece, Mrs. R. D. Leisk, of Kellogg, who remained until Thursday of this week and then left for a visit with relatives in Houghton before going to her home.

Guests in the home of Mrs. Eleanor Warner, Ann street, recently were Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Warner, son Richard of Kalamazoo; Mrs. Cora MacLaren, Detroit; Herbert Warner, of West Lake, near Kalamazoo; and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Warner and daughter, Jean, of Chicago, and Port Huron. On Sunday, July 23, a family picnic was held at the Warner farm in Nankin with 14 relatives present.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Parmalee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Fisher, of Birmingham, last week at their summer home at Munuscong on St. Mary's river. While away, their daughters, Ruth and Allene, spent the time visiting their uncle and aunt, Dr. and Mrs. L. A. Carey in Atlanta. All returned home Thursday.

Mrs. Clara Galsterer, of Frankentuth, is spending the week with her sister, Mrs. Oliver Goldsmith.

On Thursday afternoon Mrs. Charles Lee entertained at a shower for her sister, Mrs. Joseph Freshman. There were 18 guests present, who enjoyed playing buncos for a time after which a dainty luncheon was served with pink and white as the color scheme. The guests included Mrs. Freshman, Mrs. Richard Vealey, Elizabeth Vealey, Mrs. Harold Micol, Mrs. George Michelin, Mrs. Lois Crumb, Mrs. Bert Tomlinson, of Plymouth, Mrs. William Hodson, III, of Rosedale Gardens, Mrs. Franklin Knapp, New Hudson, Mrs. Edward Caudell, Mrs. Lee Durham, Nina Durham, of Redford, Mrs. John Freshman, Lorraine Secord and Marlice Sunley, of Wayne, Mabel Steller, Mrs. Steller, Mrs. Doris Campbell and Mrs. Roman Ceciskl, of Garden City.

To Open New Bowling Alley September 5

Appropriately Called Parkview Recreation; Working on Interior

It was decided last week that the bowling alley building at 854 West Ann Arbor Trail shall be called The Parkview Recreation. This name is appropriate because of the fact that the alleys practically border on Kellogg park, and the park is easily viewed from the building.

With the exterior finished, workers have turned to completing the inside of the building. In the past week alleys have been sanded, leveled and the ball-return tracks have been laid. Frames for the Buckus Automatic Ball Setters are in place, also the backstops. Other equipment, such as the ball tracks, racks, checks and posts at the front of the tracks are made by the American Bowling and Billiard corporation. It is of latest development and is strictly modern.

These particular checks are something new for this locality. They are called "Hydro-checks," and are built with a hydraulic arrangement so that when balls are returned to the rack, they are checked before hitting other balls on the rack by a hydraulic stop that works much on the same principle as a door check. When finished the alleys will be a natural wood color with blue molding separating adjoining gutters. The American and Backus equipment is blue, trimmed with chromium. Backstops are of heavy padding covered with blue leather. Ceilings are of buff colored plaster board marked off in beveled foot-squares. At the rear of the pits there will be a back-drop of heavy material, such as felt, to deaden the sound. Also there will be a sound-arrester in front of the alleys. This is a partition of material for absorbing sound that will extend from the ceiling to within four feet of the alleys. This partition will be covered with red velvet. Walls are to be finished in cream color.

It is planned that from 15 to 18 persons will be employed at the Parkview recreation. Included in this number will be approximately ten pinsetters. The remainder will be workers to keep the alleys in condition, clerks for the concession room, and a janitor.

Play will start the day following Labor Day at which time all equipment will be in place and the alleys will be in perfect condition. Their condition is assured by the fact that each one will be inspected by a representative of the National Bowling association. Every foot has to be approved for levelness and surface-perfectness. No tournaments or matches of any sort may be held at the recreation if the alleys do not pass this inspection.

Dress Shoppe Moves to Main Street

The Evelyn Dress Shoppe, managed and owned by Evelyn Stanible, has moved to a new location on Main street. Formerly located at 342 Pennington, occupying half the building used by the Dickerson Millinery shop, Miss Stanible has moved in with the P-D Cleaners and The Book Shelf at 289 South Main street. The new location is about one block from the building formerly occupied by Miss Stanible. She handles ladies' hosiery in conjunction with her dress business.

Lights Out! Britain Tests Air Defenses

Great Britain's regular army and air forces with reserves and auxiliaries will join civilian reserves Wednesday, August 9, in the island's most comprehensive air defense mobilization to date. The exercises will be featured by a "blackout" covering half of England. Soldiers are shown here manning anti-aircraft weapons during a "blackout."

Tomato Canning Time Is Near

Now is the time for all good women to come to the aid of their country by canning tomatoes. The National Canners Association has issued a booklet for typewriters and newspaper teletypes, and now is the time for Plymouth homemakers to put up those tomatoes for this winter.

Besides chili sauce, tomato preserves, and tomato pickles, canned tomatoes lend themselves to thousands of nutritious and yet inexpensive dishes. Often called the poor man's orange, tomatoes in recent years have won a high place in the estimation of dietitians and food specialists.

Although the United States Bureau of Agricultural Economics says that the 1939 crop will be lighter, there will be sufficient production in the middle west to care for the needs of ambitious housewives.

On one market alone, the non-profit city-owned and city-operated market at Benton Harbor, it is estimated there will be receipts of three-fourths million packages between now and November. There also will be adequate supplies from regions around Plymouth at moderate cost.

Preferred by many home canners are the Pritchard, John Baer, Marglobe, Chalk's Jewell, Early Baltimore, and Stone varieties. For slicing the Ponderosa or Beef Steak variety is popular. Canned either open kettle or cold pack method, tomatoes put up at home will prove a welcome addition to the family fare in the months to come.

Milford Fair to Open Next Week

Many Interesting Features Planned

Milford will be the destination of thousands of people next week, all bound for the Oakland County Fair, Milford, August 10 and 11. The Oakland County Fair have been so long associated that going to the fair will seem just the right thing to do at this time of year.

The Oakland County Fair is one of the state's oldest, celebrating its 59th annual showing this year. Always it has been recognized as one of the better "bite fairs" of the state. For its showing this year, livestock exhibits and agricultural aspects are featured. Here will be shown a fine array of draft horses, mules, ponies and saddle horses, cattle, sheep and swine. Judging of livestock will take place on Thursday and all livestock will be paraded before the grandstand every day. Exhibits of fruits, grains, flowers, home economics and clothing will be made in the Oakland County building, as well as many commercial exhibits. Plans are also in the making for an exhibit of antiques by the Edison Institute.

4-H and FFA groups of boys and girls are encouraged in that premiums are offered in special livestock classes, and their animals are also eligible to compete in the open classes.

Farmers will find the exhibit of farm implements and tractors of unusual interest and most of the best known makes will be represented. Farmers will have a chance to see and compare this machinery at close range.

For amusement and entertainment, the fair will present nine events of racing each afternoon, with purses offered for saddle horses, Welsh and Shetland heats. On Thursday afternoon and evening, the Pine Ridge Follies, a group of singing, dancing, playing stars, are here directly from Pine Ridge. On Friday and Saturday, a big circus and rodeo will entertain, with high class animal and circus acts, cowboys and cowgirls in riding, roping and shooting. Other fine entertainment features are the horse-pulling contests on Thursday and Friday, an ox team showing the pioneer way, and on Saturday night, as a feature, V. F. W. state championship drum and bugle corps will come here for a demonstration. Big fireworks displays will close each evening program.

"Our acts our angels are, or good or ill, our fatal shadows that walk by us still."—John Fletcher.

Rotarians Hear Tales of Travel

Rotarians met at the Mayflower hotel Friday noon for their regular weekly meeting and heard a number of their members tell interesting bits about recent trips.

Among those who relayed stories of big fish, game and trekking through the wilds of North America were Harry Robinson, Bill Baker and George Smith.

It is expected that Glenn Jewell will have a lot to say when he is called on to enlighten his brethren on the Jewell's recent trip through the eastern part of the country.

How's Fishing? This Tells Story

All species of fish are biting satisfactorily in most sections of northern Michigan, and fair results are being obtained in the majority of counties south of the Grand Traverse region, according to a summary prepared by the state department of conservation.

Good fishing prevails in the upper peninsula. Bass, bluegills and walleye pike were among the leaders in the area north of the Wisconsin line. Trolling for trout on Lake Superior at the western end was reported as excellent.

The heat wave produced "spotty" trout angling. Trout streams in the western upper peninsula district were receding, and fishing had steadily improved. In Menominee and Delta counties a number of small streams were down to a low water level which adversely affected fish life. The best trout fishing in the locality was in large rivers carrying cooler water. Good trout catches were general in eastern sections.

Below the Straits, northern counties found fishing "settling down to its mid-summer average" one official reported, indicating the effect of warm weather in slowing up fishing. Trout streams also were low, and the scarcity of flies made grasshoppers and artificial flies tempting trout bait.

Fair fishing marked the Alpena district, with pike biting faster than the previous week. In the Huron national forest region all species showed up in excellent fashion. Around Roscommon fishing divided between "fair and poor." Northwest of Grand Rapids there had been no rain in two weeks, causing less favorable lake fishing. Counties surrounding Midland saw slow fishing but better than the week before.

Larger bluegills were being taken than in several years, said the Kalamazoo district summary. Calico bass in the area were doing a normal amount of biting. Elsewhere in the southern counties fishing was "spotty" and prospects were better.

It takes more than food to make a child grow, say child specialists. They recommend as necessities, plenty of fresh air, sleep and sunshine and playtime with companions of approximately the same age and in pleasant surroundings.

Plan Flower Show for September

Garden Club Plans Annual Event

There were 21 members of the Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association who enjoyed the generous hospitality of Mrs. Carl Shear, on Thursday of last week, at her summer home at Base lake. Those who wished enjoyed a swim before partaking of the bounteous picnic luncheon which was served at tables placed on the lawn by the lake.

During the course of the afternoon the guests had the privilege of visiting the gardens of Mr. and Mrs. Leach, neighbors of Mrs. Shear; also a visit to the lovely summer home of Mrs. John W. Elickenstaff, another member of the Plymouth group. Later on a few plaved bridge after which the guests bid their hostess goodbye with many thanks to her for such a happy day. Through the generosity of Mrs. Shear, the gathering will be an annual event.

Plans are going forward for the Flower Show which is to be held on Friday and Saturday, September 8 and 9, in the Central grade auditorium. Invitations are to be sent to the 21 branches of Michigan to attend.

The local branch has received an invitation to attend the Flower Show to be held by the Rosedale Garden branch and the Civic association of Rosedale Gardens, on Friday evening, August 11, in the Community Club house of the Gardens; also to the East Detroit show to be held on August 26, in the commission room of the Municipal building of that city.

Aircraft Inspectors Wanted in U. S. Civil Service

Notices have been received by Assistant Postmistress Beatrice Schultz, who is also the Plymouth secretary of the civil service commission, of examinations for aircraft inspection work. Mrs. Schultz has complete information at the postoffice about these examinations as well as the type of work to be done. Inquiry should be made immediately by those interested as applications must be filed in Washington not later than August 14.

Conservation Club to Meet Monday Eve.

The regular August meeting of the Western Wayne County Conservation association will take place Monday evening at 8:00 o'clock at the Mayflower hotel. According to President Brick Champe, the matters to be discussed will be of a routine nature, in addition to a thorough discussion of the Williamston hunting plan. The association, which started that plan about here last fall, will continue it this year, as it worked out to the benefit of farmers as well as hunters. Some of the officers have heard of some protest against the plan, but on what grounds, it is not stated.

New Plant Bug Appears in County

The four-lined leaf bug has made an appearance in some localities. It causes small round dead spots on the leaves of shasta daisies and some garden crops.

The young insects are dark colored with considerable red on their backs. The full grown insects are greenish in color with definite black lines down their backs which gives them the name four-lined leaf bug. This is a sucking insect and must be controlled by a contact spray such as derris or rotenone or nicotine sulphate in soapy water.

A meeting to elect officers for the Wayne County Dairy Herd Improvement association will be held at the Wayne library, Tuesday, August 8 at 8:00 p.m. All members having testing done are urged to be present and any others interested in herd testing are invited to attend.

Several 4-H club members attended the state Holstein picnic and field day at the Pontiac State hospital July 25.

Dudley Scott, Romulus, Clarence and Lawrence Schaefer of Wyandotte entered the 4-H judging contests.

Others who attended were Mrs. Scott, of Romulus; Harold Schaefer, Willard Schaefer, Nelson Schaefer and George Schaefer, of Wyandotte; William Eristow and son, Allan, of Flat Rock; William Singer, of Riverview; C. E. Elliott and Roy Schepfle of the Wayne County Training school and George Rogers, of Eloise.

The program and events commemorated the 50th anniversary of the founding of the State Institutional Herd at Pontiac.

Moody Bible Students Visit in City

Cecil L. Minser, of Salem, Ohio and Arvid E. Burden, both students of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, arrived at the latter's home on Adams street this morning (Friday). They will be joined by Miss Enomy Joy, of Lansing, Michigan and Bert Schaefer, of Salem, Ohio for the week-end.

Later Mr. Schaefer and Mr. Minser will accompany Miss Joy to Lansing on their way home to Salem, Ohio.

Texas Oil Station Going Good

John D. Merkiel, the company field manager of the Texas Coal and Oil company on his recent visit here, stated he was very enthusiastic over the rapid progress their new gas station is making at 260 South Main street.

Asked whether his company contemplated on making any changes in the station in view of these facts, Mr. Merkiel replied, "We're really going to town at this Plymouth station, and if business keeps on the increase as it has since our opening we will be compelled to increase our underground storage in the very near future. We are already convinced that the present storage is inadequate to properly handle a greater volume of business. Of course this change would necessitate an entire new service by keeping the station open 24 hours a day. This is a service that this city is in great need of. We will announce this additional service through our regular advertising in The Plymouth Mail. L. Roy Crites, our station manager, is a very capable man and will remain on the job."

Tie Game Played by All-Stars

A game played between the two all-star teams from Starkweather league, Thursday, was called at the end of the ninth inning on account of darkness.

When called, each team had seven runs.

One team was managed by Smith and the other by Logan. These boys are from the Studebaker team and William's Service team respectively and handled their all-star aggregations in fine style.

As originally planned the winner of this game was to play a team managed by Johnny Urban of the Central league, last night (Thursday). As the tie will be played off tonight (Friday) at Starkweather diamond, playground officials picked a team from the two that tied to play the Urban outfit.

Smith's team had Monte, Pasco, Eckles, McGarry and A. Glass as its battery while J. Verish, and C. Allen worked for Logan.

Monte struck out six, walked one and allowed four to hit safely. Pasco neither fanned nor walked anybody while allowing three hits; Eckles walked one man, struck out one and allowed one hit.

Verish for the other team allowed four hits, walked one and six batters walked away from the plate after fanning or being called out. Gilbert struck out one, walked three and allowed four hits.

The results were, for Smith's team, seven runs, eight hits, seven strikeouts and five left on base; for Logan's team, seven runs, eight hits, seven strikeouts and six left on base.

The feature of the game was a three-base hit stretched to a home run by Hamilton of Logan's team. C. McGarry of the other team also copped a three-bagger.

The scores by innings were: Smith 0 0 0 1 3 0 0 7; Logan 0 0 1 0 1 0 2 3-7.

Smith's lineup was Kreeger, 1b; Cieslinski, ss; Mauk, 3b; C. McGarry, 2b; B. McGarry, c; W. Patrick, rf; and Monte, p. Substitutes were B. Allen, 3b; A. Glass, c; Schryer, lf; Johnson, rf; Pasco, p; and Eckles, p.

The lineup for the Logan team was Lee, ss; Cramb, cf; C. Allen, c; Workup, 1b; Verish, 3b; Davis, 1b; Miller, 2b; Vantassel, rf; Partridge, lf; and J. Verish, p. Substitutes were Westfall, ss; Gilbert, p; and Hamilton, 2b.

Like Eggs? Here is Prize Way to Use Plenty of Them in Getting a Meal

One of 20 from those eligible in 25 states is Mrs. W. E. Otis, Mason, Michigan, for her egg meal menu prepared in a national contest for a $1,000 prize awarded Friday.

The activity is one of the features of the World's Poultry Congress now being held in Cleveland. Mrs. Otis appeared there Monday to demonstrate before national food judges her version of a good meal featuring eggs. She was recently named at Michigan State College as one of the five best menu planners in the state and subsequently was picked by the national committee to go to Cleveland.

For six persons the meal which she prepared in East Lansing requires 24 eggs. She lives on a small farm and her speciality in addition to housework is raising poultry. Her family of three prefers their eggs in any form except soft boiled. Her recipes were derived from tested ones in newspapers, magazines and cookbooks.

Here is the menu she suggested and prepared:

Orange sherbet in fruit punch
French omelet with saute mushrooms
Twice baked potatoes
Green beans with Bearnaise sauce
Fruit salad with pineapple dressing
Clyverleaf rolls
Celery, olives, beet pickles
Chocolate peppermint roll, coffee.

Crop Failures Elsewhere, But Bumper Crop in Michigan

State Prospects Are Best in Many Years

(By Gene Allman)

Michigan's moist and cool summer to date augurs "happy days" for both farmer and merchant.

As contrasted with a near drought and excessive heat in the Far West and some parts of the West and Northwest, Michigan has been blessed with ample moisture and a temperature slightly above average. The result of this favorable growing weather has been that the condition of fruit and field crops, with the possible exception of spring wheat, is now above average.

The composite condition of 16 leading field and fruit crops is 81.9 per cent of normal, compared with 77.7 per cent a year ago and a 10-year average of 73.5 per cent. It is announced here by Verne H. Church, Michigan's senior agricultural statistician for the federal and state departments of agriculture.

While Michigan is 20th in acreage of farm lands, it ranked recently first in cherries, second in potatoes and field beans, third in grapes, fourth in pears and peaches, fifth in apples, alfalfa, hay and buckwheat, sixth in sugar beets and tame hay, seventh in flaxseed, clover and timothy, eighth in rye, ninth in winter wheat and oats, and tenth in corn and barley.

Yes, things are looking up for Fall!

Fruit Prospects Good

The family fruit cellar should be amply filled before snow flies. Michigan consumers, because they live in a famed fruit belt, have always had easy access to choice fruit for canning purposes.

The peach yield is expected to near the all-time record set in 1898 with a 98 per cent normal crop which indicates a production of 2,730,000 bushels. Peach growers are somewhat concerned according to reports, with a steady increase in the planting of orchards. In any event the consumer will have plenty of peaches to can this summer.

The apple crop is also reported to be at 75 per cent of normal, compared with 42 per cent a year ago and a 10-year average of 57 per cent. The May freeze was Nature's method of thinning out the fruit, and even then hand-thinning will be needed on some varieties to insure good quality at the bumper yield.

Grape Yield Heavy

The 1939 grape crop in Michigan is headed for approximately 59,600 tons compared with 16,990 tons. However, bearing capacity is declining through removal of vineyards which are not being replaced.

Cherries are also plentiful and of good quality. The July output was for 34,190 tons compared with 14,940 tons in 1938 and a 10-year average production of 29,423 tons. The full bearing capacity of all cherry orchards in Michigan has increased 28 per cent in the past 10 years.

Plums, blackberries, strawberries and even cantaloupes are also in the better-than-average class.

Good Field Crops

Good news comes also from growers of field crops.

Here are the crop acreage ratings for Michigan:

Spring wheat—18 per cent increase
Barley—15 per cent increase
Potatoes—6 per cent increase
Soy beans—75 per cent increase
Flax—50 per cent increase
Decreased acreage in planting exists for the following crops:
Beet sugar—4 per cent less.

Crop Failures Elsewhere, But Bumper Crop in Michigan

Winter wheat—21 per cent less

Corn—3 per cent under last year.
Field beans—6 per cent decline.

23 Per Cent More Pigs

Pigs is pigs, so the old saying goes, and Michigan's spring pig crop is 23 per cent larger than the crop of a year ago and the largest since 1927.

The number of sows that farrowed this spring is estimated at 124,000, or 31 per cent more than the previous spring and 32 per cent more than the 10-year average.

Yet, although there has been a gain of pork on the hoof, the price of pork at the counter recently went up. All in all, the outlook for pork profits is reported to be exceptionally good.

All fits into the picture of good times on Michigan rural routes and Main Street this fall.

Retail Business Good

Despite strike clouds and the ever-present relief worries, Michigan's retail business is better than it was a year ago.

Retailers in Detroit, which is the automobile center that sets the pace for all the state, report an increase in sales of 15 to 18 per cent over a year ago. Wholesale have the smallest carry-over of consumer goods in years.

Furthermore, the tourist business—second only to automobiles in economic importance—has buoyed the state's retail sales a way above the national average. The traditional summer slump just doesn't exist in many parts of the state. A count of outstate automobiles by the state highway department also indicates that the 1939 season, contrary to world fairs, will be about average and possibly better than normal. The capricious weatherman will have much to do with the final tally.

Back to Go Back to Michigan

"I Want to Go Back to Michigan," the official song of the 90th annual Michigan State Fair at Detroit September 1-10, is fully in keeping with 1939 trends.

Whereas over two-thirds of Michigan's population of 4,640,000 resides in cities and towns, the population trend today is back to the farm. On Jan. 1, 1939, the national farm population was 32,059,000, almost an all-time high (it was 32,077,000 in 1910). Between 1910 and 1927, the farm population declined two millions. But between 1928 and 1939, a decade of marked unemployment problems in cities, the population on farms actually increased two millions.

This condition is true particularly in the southern half of the lower peninsula. For the recreational-Bay City line (this division is recognized by the 1939 state law board act whereby the state conservation department holds title to tax land north of the line, and the state board is to offer the rest at public sale) populations have declined since the turn of the century. Actually 57 counties had fewer people in 1930 than at some previous time.

Labor Relations

Governor Lauren D. Dickinson won his first skirmish on the labor relations front.

Notifying local authorities that failure to enforce the law would result in state action, the state executive was instrumental in bringing about an early peace in the Pontiac automobile body strike.

Representative of the manufacturers' attitude to the law is the following comment made by John L. Lovett, manager, Michigan Manufacturers' association, at Battle Creek: "Michigan's new labor relations law is a decidedly fair piece of legislation because it protects the non-union laborer from coercion and brow-beating by union men and gives him the right to work if he wants to. The law will not be much good unless it is properly enforced."

Special Session

The present WPA controversy inspired Mayor Reading of Detroit to predict acute relief troubles in industrial cities before 1940.

In the opinion of many legislators, the welfare appropriation for the fiscal year that began July 1 will not last out the 12 months. The lowered sum was justified at the time on the grounds of economy and a hope that the administration expense would be lowered while local communities shared more of the load.

A special session of the legislature is likely early in 1940 to consider additional appropriation for relief and old-age assistance. The school people, too, will probably ask for additional state aid.

Thus the present "budget balancing" achievement may be on paper only.

Better Get That New Auto License!

Car owners who now have only first half year license plates and who wish to obtain second half tags are reminded by Harry F. Kelly, secretary of state, that they must have the title to their car with them and must also surrender the plates they are now using. Many motorists leave their titles at home and are vexed when they learn that their registration slips are not sufficient under the law to obtain plates. Numerous other persons are disgruntled when they find, when visiting license plate offices, without their cars, that the first half plates must be turned in before full year plates can be obtained. They forget that the half plates are good until August 31 and that their plates might be illegally used by some other person on another car. In the secretary of state's offices such plates are destroyed just as soon as a car owner turns them in.

Secretary Kelly reports that although full year plates at half price have been on sale in all of his offices since July 11 the demand to date has been very light.

Elmer Gates Family Visiting in Michigan

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Gates and son, Harvey, of California, spent the last week with his father, Joe Gates and his brother, Fred Gates and family, of this city. He also called on many of his cousins in Buffalo, New York. From that city Mr. Gates and family will return to their home in Los Angeles, California, where they have made their home for the last 14 years.

It's easy to remember there are 14 pounds of smooth brome grass seed in a bushel, but don't try to count how many seeds there are in a pound, advise members of the Michigan State College farm crops department. Apparently there are approximately 136,900 seeds in a pound. Increasing attention is being paid to smooth brome in Michigan because with alfalfa it is a drought resistant and excellent midsummer pasture crop.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00. "Spirit" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, August 6. The golden text (1 Corinthians 2:11) is: "What man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? Even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God." Among the Bible citations is this passage (Galatians 5:16): "This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science text-book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 167): "It is not wise to take a halting and half-way position or to expect to work equally with Spirit and matter. Truth and error. There is but one way—namely, God and His idea—which leads to spiritual being."

FIRST METHODIST, Stanford S. Closson, pastor, 10:00 a.m. Sunday school. There are groups for all ages. 11:00 a.m. union service in the Methodist church with Rev. Walter Nichol of the Presbyterian church in charge.

CATHOLIC CHURCH.—Rev. V. Renaud, pastor, Sunday—Mass at 8:00, 10:00 and 11:30. Confessions Saturday nights at 7:30 and before each mass. Societies—The Holy Name Society for all men and young men. Communion the second Sunday of the month. The Ladies' Altar Society receives Holy Communion the third Sunday of each month. All the ladies of the parish are to belong to this society. Children's Sunday—Every child of the parish should go to communion every fourth Sunday of the month. Instructions in religion conducted each Saturday morning at 10:00 by the Felician Sisters. All children that have not completed their 8th grade are obliged to attend these religious instructions.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church—Harvey and Maple streets. Morning prayer and sermon at 10:00 a.m.

NAZARENE CHURCH, Holbrook and Pearl streets. Robert A. North, pastor. Bible school, 10:00; morning worship, 11:00; young people, 7:30; evening service, 7:30; prayer meeting, Wednesday, 7:30. Sunday, August 6 is the first Sunday of our church year. We are closing the year with an increase in every department of the church. Our financial report is especially gratifying, with a 20 per cent increase over last year. Our Sunday school shows a 16 per cent gain. The future is just as bright as the promises of God. If you are looking for a growing church with a great future, come to "The Homelike Church" of Plymouth.

BEREA GOSPEL CHAPEL—Pentecostal Assemblies of God. John Walasky, pastor. Tent services at corner of Elizabeth and Ann Arbor street. Meetings will be held this week on Wednesday and Friday nights with Allen Cherry, of Canada, as the speaker. Sunday services are: Sunday school, 10:00; morning worship, 11:00; evening service, 7:45 p.m. Dear reader, have you ever stopped to think, "Where will you spend eternity?" Jesus said in Matt. 11:28 "Come unto me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden and I will give you rest." Come one, come all to the meetings. A hearty welcome awaits you.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH, Holbrook and Hardenberg. Lynn B. Stout, pastor. To hear the average Christian today excuse, apologize, explain, etc., their own poor miserable failures, and the failures of the church in this age, it is no wonder that the outsider remains outside. The pastor will be bringing the second in a series of messages Sunday night upon the general theme: "My God Shall Supply All Your Needs." "The Needs of the Soul" for next Sunday at 7:30 p.m. Preaching at 10:00 a.m. followed by Bible school, 11:15 a.m., prayer meeting every Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. Bulls Eye No. 41. The preacher who questions the first chapter of Genesis has a questionable ministry.

ST. PAUL'S EV. LUTHERAN church, Livonia Center. Oscar J. Peters, pastor. There will be no services this Sunday.

P. service, 6:30 p.m. Evangelistic services, 7:45 p.m. Week night services: Tuesday, cottage prayer meeting, (347 North Harvey); Thursday, mid-week prayer meeting. Then said Jesus unto his disciples, "any man will come after me, let him deny himself and take up his cross and follow me." Matt. 16: 24. Oh, the great joy and manifold blessings of following this great Savior. We must deny ourselves of everything that is not of the will of God and take up our cross and follow Him. Then will he be our mighty Savior and our source of all joy. A hearty welcome is extended to one and all to come and worship and learn about our Lord. Co-pastors, Arno Thompson and Clifford Funk.

Urge Gas Truck Drivers to be Cautious at Railway Crossings

Michigan owners and operators of trucks carrying inflammable liquids were urged today by the Michigan Railroads association to adopt measures to prevent their drivers from taking unnecessary risks at grade crossings.

"The gods who rule over the grade crossings have kept Michigan free of train-gasoline truck crashes up to now," the association declares. "But only continuous and increased caution will prevent in Michigan grievous accidents of this sort that have happened in other states.

"With the opening of new oil fields in the state there has been a sharp rise in truck haulage of gasoline and increase in number of gas trucks traversing grade crossings. Unless driver caution increases it is inevitable that crashes will occur. No crossing smashups surpass such crashes in horrible results. Almost always truck and engine crews and sometimes train passengers are burned, often fatally, and property damage is enormous.

"Seemingly the responsibility is largely the truck driver's and inflexible rules for his conduct at grade crossings profitably could be laid down by his employer."

U. S. Railroads, the association reports, last year carried more than a half billion pounds of dynamite, powder, ammunition and blasting caps without accident, injury or death, the twelfth consecutive year that no one was killed or injured in connection with such movement on U.S. and Canadian railroads. Only one person was killed and 31 injured last year in the rail movement of more than a billion gallons of gasoline and other inflammable, corrosive and explosive acids, liquids and gases.

Hilltop Golf Tournament Has 34 Contestants

John Powers Wins Championship Flight

Thirty-four Plymouth golfers, comprising three flights, teed off Sunday at the Hilltop Country club in the first medal play championship of the year.

In the championship flight, Bill Choffin led the pack in the morning but Gordon Moe soon outscored him and finally John Powers was declared the winner with 111 strokes for the 27-hole match.

Contestants vied for top honors in the three flights for trophies as first prizes and golf balls for second and third place winners.

Paul Richards, the leading amateur of the club, was unable to compete because of illness.

The first and second flights of 18 holes each were won by Mel Clement, with an 80, and Pete Foster shooting an 89.

Following is a list of the entries and scores: 27-hole championship flight—John Powers, 111; Gordon Moe, 112; Bill Choffin, 114; Jack McAllister, 118; Ralph Lorenz, 119; Larry Moe, 120; Bus Riffenburg, 121; Bud Archer, 121; Herb Burley, 123; Bob Johnston, 124; Lionel Coffin, 125; and Ivan Baldwin, 127.

Eighteen-hole first flight—Mel Clement, 80; Lee Card, 81; Bill Ray, 82; George Kenyon, 84; Roy McAllister, 84; Murray Rowland, 86; Al Conery, 88; Howard Dick, 90; Marvin Terry, 90; Joe Archer, 91; Earl Markham, 92; Chuck Wolfe, 93; Norman MacLeod, 95; Harold Mitchell, 97; Mike O'Conner, 97; H. W. Thatcher, 99; and Homey Jewell, 99.

Eighteen-hole second flight—Pete Foster, 89; Floyd Steer, 94; Ray Danol, 94; C. D. VanVleck, 101; and Mick Lockwood, 102.

The next medal tournament will be played at the Hilltop Country club August 13, a week from Sunday.

Secretary of State Issues Drivers' License Statement

Harry F. Kelly, secretary of state, has issued a statement to applicants for motor vehicle operators' licenses who have moved since making application.

Mr. Kelly says that if their licenses do not reach them within 14 days after the application has been mailed, they should inquire at their local postoffice.

Usually five-day service is given. Delay is occasionally experienced when mail sent to the old address is not forwarded promptly to the new address by the local postoffice.

Mr. Kelly also advises one to notify local police or sheriff's offices of any change in address, in conformity with the motor vehicle laws. Officers will then notify the department of state.

Children to See Detroit Tigers Play August 22

150 Invited by Tigers' President, Walter O. Briggs

Recreation Director Anthony S. Matulis has received a communication from Walter Briggs, president of the Detroit Tiger baseball team, inviting 150 boys and girls from the city of Plymouth to attend a baseball game between Detroit and the Philadelphia Athletics at Briggs' stadium, Tuesday, August 22. The invitation was immediately accepted.

The director wrote to President Briggs about a month ago asking a reduced rate for the 150 children who desired to see the game. The invitation to the children to come as personal guests of Briggs and to have a section reserved for them was a complete surprise to Matulis and his staff.

First preference will be given to children who have the best attendance record in the playground activities.

Transportation will be by automobile and children will be admitted to the game upon the personal identification by Mr. Matulis or one of his staff.

The Schrader softball team was victorious Friday night when they defeated the Register of Deeds' team from Detroit 3-2. The Detroit team was composed of five men and five women from the office.

Bill Epps hit a home run in the last home inning which tied the score as the Deeds' team previously was leading, 2-1. Going into extra innings, the Detroit team failed to score in their half of the eighth, and Plymouth came through with one run to win the game when they came to bat.

Les Herter and Butch Krumm, working for Plymouth and Bruce and Smith for the Detroit team formed the batteries.

Children of Plymouth have in truth "taken to the water" this summer since the recreation program has furnished transportation and a special price for them to go to Rouge pool every Tuesday, for the girls, and Thursday, the boys' day. One hundred nineteen young people enjoyed this privilege last week.

The recreation picnic will be held in conjunction with the community picnic this year. It is planned that most of the playground leaders and officials will be working at the park that day to supervise games and other activities that are in order for the day, Wednesday, August 9.

Following are the results of softball games played at Central playground last week:
Monday — Daisy 2, Sutherland 0.
Tuesday — Schrader 5; Plymouth Hardware 1; Barnes 2; Heintz 6.
Wednesday — Super Shell 13, Walkover 9; Thelma 10, Bakefish 1.
Friday — Daisy 6, Times 3.

The standings for Central league are:
Super Shell 10 2 .833
Schrader 9 3 .750
Plym. Hardware 7 5 .583
Daisy 7 5 .583
Sutherland 6 5 .545
Walkover 4 8 .333
Times 4 8 .333
Plymouth Mail 0 11 .000

Old Time Ball Team Booked for Northville Fair

Harry German to Battle for Stars of Other Days

The Northville Fair association has as one of its first day features a baseball game scheduled between the Detroit-Country Old Timers and the Pontiac Old Timers. These two teams will be composed of a number of past stars of the game and each club will have no less than 12 or 15 players who will have plenty of action in the game. Some of the players of each team have been playing ball all the season and are in condition to go through the entire game. Others will give good account of themselves while participating. By Old Timers we must take into consideration that most of the players in the Northville Fair game will be men from 35 to 60 years of age.

The Detroit-Country Old Timers team will be managed by Harry German of Carleton who has had a team of veterans out all the season and even has defeated several independent young clubs, such as Flat Rock, Monroe, Romulus and Plymouth. Detroit Veterans defeated the Country Old Timers 4-3 but the Country Old Timers were successful against a Plymouth Inter-county league club, 12-5. Players who will represent the Detroit-Country team at Northville will be such well known players as Bobby Veach, Mike Menosky, Harry German Sr., Stanley Darling, the Kansas City clown, George Oliver, Al Dittich, Tony Dugray, Tankie Fuller and others. German and French will be on the mound while Oliver and Crittenden will be on the receiving end.

The Pontiac Old Timers will be headed by Goodrow Rogers who at one time was an ace on the St. Louis Browns of the national league. He is a catcher and his performance in a game recently at Pontiac proved that he still can make many young fellows take notice.

Other gray haired but nimble on foot veterans on the Pontiac club are Steve Griffen, Oppenier, Bumpus Jones, Blanding, etc. Pontiac has three pitchers that are able to still fool good players at bat and also three pitchers with scars and jimmied fingers but these gamblers are yet willing and do still make some of the younger generations wonder with amazement.

Another feature that comes right along with this baseball game of veterans will be the umpiring of "Singing Bill" Byron who will officiate behind the plate and aided on the field by two other umpires. Byron is now past sixty years of age and was in the National league as an umpire for 18 years. He recently umpired a double-header and his singing voice on balls and strikes rang over the entire field like a loud-speaker. Players in his younger days respected his decisions and he was recognized as one of the best arbiters in the game.

With all the mentioned veterans besides others that will take part in this game, interest should appeal to baseball fans and entertainment in big lots handed out by the gray haired athletes while at bat and on the baseball field.

Well-lighted basement and attic stairways and lights in the cellar and laundry help reduce accidents.

Telephone Team Takes Lead

The Bell Telephone golf team this week again took the lead in the third annual Plymouth golf league whose matches are played at Hilltop Country club.

Jewell Cleaners advanced another place during last week's play. They are now holding down third place, coming up from seventh in five weeks.

Second place is held by the Barbers, stepping down a peg and winning only one point from The Plymouth Mail team last week, who went down a place in spite of winning four points.

It is a close race for first place and anything can happen in the five remaining weeks of tournament play.

Team standings and points followed: Bell Telephone, 39; Barbers, 38; Jewell Cleaners, 36 1/2; Mac's Service, 34; Plymouth Mail, 33; Newburg Ford, 30 1/2; Todd's Cash Market, 29 1/2; Sanitary Bakery, 28; Wild and company, 27 1/2; Union Paper & Twine, 26 1/2; Metro-Life, 26 1/2; Blunk & Thatcher, 26; Maybury San, 22 1/2; Bill's Market, 15; Ken and Ork, 13 1/2; and Cloverdale, 13.

The schedule for next week is as follows:
August 8—Barbers vs. Todd's; Blunk & Thatcher vs. Newburg Fords; Cloverdale vs. Metro-Life.
August 9—Bell Telephone vs. Bakery; Ken & Ork vs. Mac's Service; Jewell's vs. Maybury San.
August 10—Bill's Market vs. The Plymouth Mail; Union Paper & Twine vs. Wild and company.

Schrader-Haggerty Takes Detroit Team

Just missing a shut-out, the Schrader-Haggerty baseball team of Plymouth defeated the Detroit Olympics at Detroit, Sunday, by the score, 21 to 1. Two complete batters worked for Plymouth, Molnar and Wolfe, and Williams and Schombberger.

Williams, versatile Plymouth player, has played every one of the nine positions on the team at some time this year. Sunday, he pitched, and in the four innings that he was in there, he threw perfect ball; that is, no hit and no run. He also had a banzai day at the plate.

Saturday the team will play at the Jackson State Prison and on Sunday, Inkster meets Schrader-Haggerty team at Riverside park.

THE BEST EDITORIAL.

Probably the best "editorial" to appear in any newspaper in recent weeks wasn't an editorial written by some newspaper writer, but an editorial expression given to the newspapers by Henry Ford on his 76th birthday. His statement is filled with optimism, common sense and inspiration. Said Mr. Ford:

"In a way, one feels sorry for those who have had so little of experience that they think we are going through the worst times that ever were. After you grow mature enough to really see things, you discover that every period of life has its hardships.

"I don't remember a time when the country was not going through some kind of trouble—if it wasn't one thing it was another. Only, in the past, there were not so many people anxious to make a good thing for themselves out of making other people believe how badly off they were.

"The younger generation that is growing up will not regard today's conditions in any worse light than we now regard conditions of 50 years ago. I mean by that, nothing seen in retrospect is ever so bad as we thought it at the time.

"War? Well, I think we've seen the last of it. At least I am going to keep on saying we have seen the last of it, and I hope a lot of others will begin to say it.

"There is nothing improbable in the opinion that war is already a thing of the past. Every nation in favor of war is practically ruined by it today.

"The younger generation is all right, but perhaps a little too much in a hurry. Many people are in too great a hurry. That is one of the principal reasons we are not getting anywhere very fast. Take it individually—the 'pushing' type of person doesn't advance very far, or isn't able to hold the advance he makes.

"It is the same in national affairs. We have been in a great hurry to do something quick—and what has been the result? We haven't time to think what we ought to do, or where we ought to begin, and the result is that we have not gone anywhere.

"It might be worth while to think again of where we started from in the first place. We began with the land. Fifty years ago that is where people expected to begin. Nowadays they expect to begin in cushioned chairs.

"I would have more confidence in the success of any one who went clear back to the beginning and started from the land again.

"Business? Well, as I say, I haven't the slightest doubt about what is ahead, but it will take a few months. You can put it down as certain that any one who has gloomy views of this country's condition or its immediate future is on the wrong track.

"Events are going to prove him wrong."

THE ONE OBJECT.

When Michigan taxpayers pay into the public treasury money for welfare purposes, they do so for the purpose of aiding those who are in actual distress and are without funds to purchase the necessities which will provide relief for themselves.

It is an old saying that "the poor we have with us" but the condition in the years long ago which gave rise to such an assertion does not prevail today. Our "poor" problem is an entirely different one than it was a hundred, or fifty or twenty-five years ago.

Back in those days, it was not a burden to the taxpayers to care for those in distress, because the "welfare load" was comparatively unknown. We had the poorhouses to which we sent the "paupers" and those who generally through their own misappet lives, approached their declining years without funds and unable to provide their own support. Then it was a disgrace to seek public alms.

But a World War into which we were plunged without reason or justification and over six years of political meddling with the natural economic functions of a nation have created the alarming condition in which the nation finds itself with a vast number of men and women unable to turn a hand to provide themselves and those dependent upon them with proper sustenance.

We find ourselves in the position today where the dwindling funds of the taxpayers of Michigan must be used to feed, clothe and provide shelter for a very large number of our deserving citizens.

It is a responsibility that has come to us and one that must be accepted. Our public officials have the task of administering tax dollars for welfare.

Any public official, any person directly or indirectly associated in any public capacity, who would use our welfare organization or welfare funds for political purposes or for political advantage, is unfit for public service of any kind.

Relief is the last thing in the world that should be made a political football. It is a burden that is about breaking the backs of the taxpayers and every penny should be expended only for the purpose of relieving hunger and suffering and rehabilitating our unfortunates insofar as possible to do so.

Our one object should be in seeing to it that the filthy hands of selfish, aspiring and misfit political job holders have nothing to do with our relief problem. If we can entirely eliminate that type of public official, our welfare burden will not be such a difficult one to carry.

THE WILDLIFE ASSOCIATION.

It was not much more than a year ago when some one hundred enthusiastic sportsmen living in this part of Wayne county organized The Western Wayne County Wildlife Association. The purpose of it was to encourage the development of better hunting and fishing and to inspire a more general observance of regulations which serve to bring about this condition.

During its brief existence it has already accomplished much—but probably its most beneficial work has been in creating a greater interest in a problem that means so much to Michigan.

Feeding of wild birds, promoting strict observance of game regulations and creation of conditions which assist in better hunting and fishing are most worthy objects. The Association should have one thousand members instead of one hundred.

THE RIGHT STEP.

It is good news to read that the newly appointed state welfare commission is trying to find a way for the elimination of the dual set-up in the state welfare department. The original welfare bill that came from the house of representatives committee and which passed the house of representatives eliminated the dual set-up that had been proposed in the original "administration" bill.

When the amended measure got over in the senate chamber, the senate refused to accept the house amendments and insisted upon the dual control in both administration and authority. The effort of the house to eliminate this obnoxious feature was defeated in conference committee.

Upon the final vote, house advocates of the more economical single administrative plan finally accepted the senate changes in order to insure to the state some sort of a more unified plan of welfare administration than had prevailed.

The new commission is on the right track and it is to be hoped that it will be able to work out a satisfactory single administrative plan. It will be far more economical for the taxpayers of the state and it will insure less complex administrative authority.

It is going right down into the political sewer for any one to attempt to inject politics into welfare matters. We hope that the new welfare commission will stand steadfast in its determination to keep politics out of it.

ABOUT MR. HUDSON.

Lansing newspaper dispatches said the other day that the Governor had agreed to the demands of state office holders that Grant Hudson, former congressman, be removed as a state purchasing agent. It will be recalled that Mr. Hudson was appointed to this position soon after the elevation of Governor Dickinson to his present post. The appointment was made at the time there was a demand being made for strict honesty in the conduct of all state purchasing. While Mr. Hudson was an inexperienced buyer, the public believed him to be strictly honest and he was appointed because of this public confidence in him. Nothing has happened to change this public belief in Mr. Hudson.

So the news from Lansing that he is to be relegated is somewhat distressing. It is not only distressing, but it is alarming. Just why should anyone like Mr. Hudson be treated in such a way? To be elevated to an important public position, then thrown out without cause is damaging to any man's reputation. Along with it always goes the threat of an unwarranted "amearing" process to justify the action. It is to be regretted that the Governor has not remained firm in his original purposes. If he had not intended to keep Mr. Hudson permanently, he should not have appointed him. It would appear that he is permitting not only a good friend but an honest public official to be sacrificed—for what purpose?

WHAT DEMOCRATS SAY.

The writer of this column has been extremely critical at times, of the administration at Washington, and that in spite of the fact that we accepted President Roosevelt at face value when he went into office, believing, as we did, that he meant what he had said in his speech accepting the first nomination and in his first inaugural address. Perhaps we have seemed at times to be critical merely for the sake of partisanship—something of which we hope never to be guilty. Just to show that we have not even been so critical of the President as some of the leading members of his own party we wish you would read the following paragraphs from some of their speeches:

After stating that the enormous spending of public money had not decreased unemployment, Senator Adams, Democrat, of Colorado said:

"I think that is a reflection upon us, and the manner in which we have expended the money. It seems to me that we have nothing to be proud of when we spend $11,000,000,000 in a fiscal year, and have the unemployment condition which now exists.

I think it is time we studied ourselves and our program, and wondered if we were wise, and whether we were on the right track."

In discussing the grant of $35,000,000 additional to the T. V. A., Congressman Andrew J. May, Democrat, of Kentucky said: "When we Democrats talk about our 1932 platform, when we talk about relief for this and funds for that and our constituents look us straight in the face and ask us, 'Can you explain how it is you deliberately voted for the Tennessee Valley Authority that has demonstrated its extravagance and its unthriftiness an extra $35,000,000 to turn it loose down in the South to exploit a few more taxpaying industries?' How are you going to answer that?"

A Georgia Democrat, Congressman Eugene E. Cox, in discussing the grant of emergency powers to President Roosevelt, makes a charge more grave than any we have made. He said: "Emergency powers were granted the President by Congress in a period of grave emergency, but with the general understanding that those powers would be returned to the Congress the moment the emergency was over. Not only have none of those powers been returned to Congress, but the administration constantly has sought to enlarge and to consolidate its powers and to obtain congressional grants of new ones."

Here's a statement from a Virginia Democrat, Congressman Woodrum, touching on the effect of government spending as it affects youth:

"I still say that it is not the province of the Federal Government to give a college education to the young people of this country. And I deny that you are doing any accommodation or favor to the American boy or the American girl to put him or her in a mental or psychological attitude of waiting for the postman to bring their little pittance from Uncle Sam the first of the month."

We could go through the Congressional Record and clip many more paragraphs by Democrats, some even more critical than the above, but these will suffice to show that in these days criticism of the President's spending program is not a matter of partisan prejudice, because the most severe critics have been and are members of his own party. This being the case, our Democratic friends can give us credit for not being more critical than the leaders of their own party.

Now that we have seen what leading Democrats say about our President, let us look at what is said by another party. Earl Browder, general secretary of the Communist party in America, openly avowed his support of President Roosevelt for a third term at a mass meeting of the Young Communists' League in New York. He asserted that the radical element in our country could not hope to be represented by the Republican party and that Mr. Roosevelt "must be elected."—William Berkeley in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

YOUR VEGETABLE PLOT.

Your little vegetable plot, however small, is a heritage from the whole world; corn, beans and squash were first civilized for it by the ancient cliff dwellers of the Southwest; your onions came from Palestine; your asparagus from Siberia; North Europe gave you cabbage, broccoli, cauliflower; the tomatoes came from Peru; your muskmelons from Persia; watermelons from Africa; beets and carrots are native to South Europe; your peas came from Egypt and your lettuce from China.—George O. St. Charles in The Dearborn Independent.

GOOD GOVERNMENT.

The strength of a million people lies in the strength of its average citizen. The strength of good government lies in the strength of its average citizen's desires for good government. The strength of a steamer's huge hawser lies in the strength of each individual strand of manila fiber that combines to make it. Good government like a good, strong hawser, requires good citizens. "Are you a good citizen?" is a question each of us can be asked these days.—George Averill in The Birmingham Eccentric.

EFFICIENT SEEING

Devoted to Eye Welfare for Everyone

BE SMART - AND YOUR EYES WON'T!

When your eyes smart and burn, you are having a "symptom." The smarting and burning are not a cause, but an effect, warning you of a crisis in your visual mechanism. The cause is the thing to go after—and then you get rid of the effect!

Before your professional optometrist decides what to do for you he takes at least 32 different "findings" or measurements of your seeing ability. Next, he analyzes these results to find out the relationship of the function of focus to the function of convergence (the in-turning of your eyes when you look at an object close at hand). You can understand that the trouble lies in the relationship between the two functions rather than in the functions themselves when we tell you that your accommodation (focussing) is controlled by your automatic nervous system, while your convergence (the in-turning) is controlled by your somatic nervous system. Your visual system is the only place in your entire body where these two nervous systems have to work simultaneously, side by side.

All this takes time to measure and study. That is why no "ten minute examination" will suffice for your precious eye-sight. Too many important factors are overlooked when your eyes are "tested." A minimum analytical examination requires adequate time.
