

The tourist business is still in its infancy. In fact, it has barely started as far as Michigan is concerned. During the next ten or fifteen years, there will be two and three times as many people coming here to enjoy the shore lines of our Great Lakes and our fascinating northern country as at the present time. And because of this fact, we should be losing no time in preparing to care for these millions and millions of people who will be coming in increasing numbers each year to enjoy the summer and fall delights of the nation's popular vacation state.

That in brief was the statement of the writer at the annual meeting of the Eastern Michigan Tourist Association held last week in Bay City. Present were several hundreds of newspaper editors and tourist boosters from eastern and northern Michigan, men who know something of the tremendous importance of the tourist business to the future development of our great state.

Details of the meeting were worked out by Thomas Marston, veteran secretary of the Eastern Michigan Tourist Association. "Tom," as he is best known to his hundreds of friends, was busy nearly a quarter of a century ago boosting for the development of northern Michigan as a "resort" country. He was—and still is—intensely interested in conservation matters. He was one of the first to realize that "summer resort" development and conservation of our natural resources went hand in hand. Soon the "summer resort" business turned into the tourist business. That came along with the automobile and good highways.

Tom and his associates immediately went to work not only improving the fishing and hunting conditions of the northlands, but they urged and are still urging resort owners, hotel men and tourist cabin operators to develop their properties in such a way that Michigan will be able to handle all other states in providing acceptable accommodations for summer and fall visitors. They have never relented in their efforts to bring about better fishing and hunting.

Working right along side by side with Booster Marston has been Al Weber, editor of the Cheboygan Observer. Like Marston, he knows the problems of the northlands and he has been working like a Trojan to bring about the ideal conditions they hope to see prevail some day.

Possibly one should not mention just one or two—because there are hundreds of others living in that part of Michigan who are working diligently at all times to do all that they can to develop the tourist business of this great state.

Then too, why mention just the men? Editor Margaret Smith of the Vassar Pioneer-Times who during the summer permits in charge of the Michigan tourist office in Cincinnati, probably knows as much about the importance of the tourist business as any one other individual in the state. Not only does she know all about it, but like the other tourist boosters, she never permits an opportunity to go by without "doing a good turn" for Michigan's summer tourist business.

The writer urged that northern Michigan insist that its highways be made scenic ways instead of speedways. Not only that, but it was suggested that the trail roads of the northlands be marked so that they can be traveled with perfect safety. Some of the most beautiful drives of the country are over the trail roads of northern Michigan. But the public sees little of the hidden beauty in the "back country" because of the danger of becoming lost on the trail roads. They should not only be marked, but the roadbed should be improved. It isn't necessary to cut back the trees, bushes and vines that grow down to the very edge of these trails. Driving over these narrow shaded woods at any time from early spring to late fall provides one with an automobile trip that is different and interesting. One doesn't have to worry about some crazy, reckless automobile driver coming down the thoroughfare at breakneck speed and endangering everybody over a trail road. No one ever hears of an automobile collision on one of these thoroughfares, because the narrowness of them and the winding course that they follow makes speed impossible.

The tourist business for northern Michigan and the vast, beautiful Upper Peninsula, is just in its infancy. There is no other part of all America that holds so many attractions, so beautiful lake shore lines and unlimited bathing and other recreational facilities, as Michigan. Let's make the most of it—and help build for the good people of northern Michigan a great and prosperous industry. It will help them and it will help us. The East Michigan Tourist Association and all the other associations existing for the purpose of increasing the tourist business of Michigan should have our one hundred per cent backing. They are doing a good job, and doing it well.

Hallowe'en Plans For Boys and Girls Ready

Over 200 Prizes to Be Offered

Committees Doing Good Work in Preparing for Big Event

Plans for the third annual community Hallowe'en party, sponsored by the Plymouth Civic committee are progressing rapidly now that the spooky festival day is drawing near.

And, speaking of spooks on Hallowe'en eve reminds one of how these same little spooks in the past made a harrowing nightmare of the eve for grown-ups who, had plenty of window surfaces to attract the ghostly celebration. And plenty of mothers and fathers also wondered, too, if back streets and dark lanes were particularly healthy and safe for little girls and boy spooks.

A few thoughtful citizens thought of that a half dozen years ago and encouraged on by Captain Charles Thumme, whom

German Tourist D.A.R. Speaker

Mrs. Robert Coolman, of 1025 Seven Mile Road, Northville, was hostess Monday evening at the October meeting of the Sarah Ann Cochran chapter of the D.A.R. Mrs. Henry W. Baker, vice regent presided in the absence of Mrs. J. Merle Bennett.

Mrs. Kenneth Kitchen and Lyle Benjamin opened the meeting by leading the singing of "God Save America." Mr. Benjamin, accompanied by Mrs. Kitchen, then sang a group of three songs.

After the business meeting, Mrs. Allan Buckley introduced Mrs. Elsa Handorf of Ann Arbor, who has just recently returned from Germany. Mrs. Handorf related her experiences in securing passage back to this country. The terrifying night-spirit aboard a completely dark boat in the English channel and the rescuing of the crew of a boat which had been sunk by a German U-boat. Mrs. Handorf who is of German birth, in closing, expressed her gratitude at being back in a country at peace and miles removed from the war zone.

Dr. Harold Sparling, of Northville, talked on "National Defense." He explained the defense act of 1920. In over a hundred years of existence as a nation this act was the first ever passed by congress, establishing regulations of defense. Dr. Sparling also reviewed briefly the military history of the wars in which the United States had participated since its birth. Since the D.A.R. is especially interested in national defense this topic was very timely.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Carl Bryan and Mrs. Roy Larkins.

Plumbing Sabotage in Two New Parkway Comfort Stations

Completion of two new comfort stations in the Parkway system being erected between Plymouth and Northville will be considerably delayed as the result of sabotaging that has taken place during the last few days.

When workmen reported for duty Monday morning they found that newly laid soil and drain pipes in both the new stations had been filled with concrete and that the tile drains leading from the stations to the new county sewer line had been broken in several places apparently by a crowbar being driven down through the ground and through the sewer tiling.

Because of the fact that the concrete floor had already been laid over the sewer pipes, the builders of the two stations have found it necessary to tear out the concrete flooring in order to replace the destroyed pipes. The concrete had set solid when the damage was discovered.

County park officials say the contractor is at a loss to understand why the plumbing had been destroyed. He advised the officials that he has had no labor troubles and no one has been discharged from the jobs. One of the new stations is located on the Northville road just this side of Cass Benton park and the other new station is west of the Northville road a short distance north of the Five Mile road.

"Home Grown" Tobacco, Pears, Roses and Hornet's Nest in "Nubbin" Contest

Another week has passed and the only new "competitors" that have been entered in the Hough farm corn "nubbin" contest consist of two immense stalks of tobacco grown by P. B. Houchins at his place at 8654 Canton Center road, two of the biggest pears that have ever been displayed in Plymouth, picked from a tree at the home of Joseph Neumann, Lilley road, between Ford and Warren, and a hornet's nest brought to The Mail office by Albert Tait. Oh, yes, and two rosebuds!

The two pears, of the Keifer variety, have attracted almost as much attention as has the tobacco. One of the pears weighed just a trifle under one pound.

Mr. Houchins, who delights in growing unusual vegetables and plants on his place, raised 280 tobacco plants this year. He is now curing them for use. He declares that the tobacco is of fine texture and compares favorably with southern tobacco for color and quality.

It will be recalled that there was on display in The Mail office last fall a new variety of squash grown by Mr. Houchins that attracted much attention.

There's another entry that should not be overlooked. It is not often that an American Beauty rambler blossoms in October, but Earl Gray brought to The Mail office this week as an "entry" against the corn "nubbins" two rambler rosebuds that have created considerable interest.

What have you to offer?

Note—There was a corn entry that came to The Mail office Thursday morning, too late for a write-up this week. It will appear next week.

Annual Red Cross Campaign to Start Here Next Week

The annual Red Cross campaign of Plymouth, Newburg and Canton Center will open in Plymouth Monday morning, October 23. Membership booths will be maintained throughout the week in both the Plymouth United Savings and the First National banks for the convenience of the general public, after which personal solicitation will also be made in order that every member of this community may be reached.

By order of the Red Cross Committee.

Friday and Saturday to Be Busy Days

Plymouth's big telephone show opened its doors at 9 o'clock Thursday morning following a preview Wednesday night by employees of the Michigan Bell Telephone company, their families, friends, and special guests.

The Michigan Bell Open House will continue through Friday and Saturday, with the public invited to take a "behind-the-scenes" tour of the building at any time from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. and from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. daily. J. R. MacLachlan, manager for the company here, says that employees especially trained for the

I.O.O.F. Members Volunteer to Give Blood

City to Aid Order Financially, Commission Rules

Working in conjunction with the state chapter, several Plymouth members of the I.O.O.F. have volunteered to have their blood typed and give it in case of an emergency to deserving persons who are ill and unable to afford the services of a professional donor.

Earl Gray and Harry Hunter, members of the organization, were present at the city commission meeting, Monday night and requested on behalf of the Plymouth chapter that the city give financial aid to help them carry out their plan. Commissioners agreed to the proposition and authorized City Manager Clarence Elliott to work in conjunction with Mr. Gray and Mr. Hunter to investigate the program and buy the necessary chemicals to perform the blood typing so each type found may be catalogued.

According to reports from members of the I.O.O.F., the blood typing campaign is being worked out in various chapters over the state. Eventually the plan will be worked out in such a way so that cities in a vicinity will work together in performing the service.

STORE PURCHASES SANDING MACHINE FOR LOCAL USE

The Plymouth Hardware has purchased a floor sanding machine for the convenience of its customers, according to William Rose, proprietor of the store. The new machine is made by the Hilco Manufacturing company and is made for use in homes by people entirely unacquainted with its operation. Mr. Rose said the machine can be rented for a very reasonable sum by anyone interested in sanding their floors. An advertisement appearing elsewhere in this issue gives complete details about the machine.

CHANGE YPSI GAME DATE

Due to the fact that Plymouth teachers will be attending Teachers' Institute Friday, October 27, officials have seen fit to change the date of the Plymouth - Ypsilanti football game to Thursday, October 26, instead as it was previously scheduled on Friday.

The game will begin at 3:30 o'clock and will be at the Riverside park gridiron.

Report Shows Many Newcomers in Plymouth

Over 50 Apply for Address Change on Licenses

More than 50 new residents have come to Plymouth within the past month, according to data compiled by Chief of Police Vaughan Smith from changes of addresses on driver's licenses required under the state traffic laws.

All of these changes, states the Chief in his report to the city commission, have been requested by people who have lived in other parts of Michigan and have now taken up their permanent residence within this city.

The police department also issued 130 drivers' licenses and 159 chauffeurs' licenses during September. It accommodated 36 transients with lodging in the jail and responded to reports of nine peddlers in the city.

Nineteen dog complaints were responded to and three were impounded. During the month officers killed four dogs.

Speeding was again the cause for the most traffic violation tickets as 11 were arrested for the offense. Five were issued tickets for reckless driving. Three persons failed to stop at a stop street intersection and two were arrested for running through or turning right on a red light.

Improper license plates caused two persons to be given tickets while the same number were called in for improper parking. One person was operating a motor vehicle without an operator's license and one person was found to be driving with one which had expired. Fines were imposed to the extent of $91.00.

Plymouth officers found open doors in places of business 20 times during the month. Three persons were reported missing in the city and three sick or injured persons were taken to the hospital by the department.

Six Plymouth residents had guns registered and the department issued four gun license permits.

To Hold Exams for Rural Carrier

Notices of the civil service examination for the new rural route carrier to be appointed for the Plymouth postoffice have been received by Assistant Postmaster Beatrice Schultz, who is secretary of the Plymouth office of the federal civil service commission. Mrs. Schultz states that applications must be filed with her on or before Friday, October 27. Those desiring to take the examinations can secure proper blanks from Mrs. Schultz at the postoffice. The new carrier is made necessary by the creation of route 4 to take care of the annual amount of work that has fallen on carriers on routes 2 and 3.

Hunters Kill Big Fox as It Slyly Trails Pheasant Through Field

When William Garrett, well known barber shop operator over on Plymouth's Wall Street, Joseph Hudson, of Plymouth, and Dan Peterson, of Detroit, returned home from a hunting trip Wednesday night, they didn't bring a pheasant with them, but one of the best pheasant "hunters" in the world—a big red fox they had shot over in Lenawee county near Hudson. The three hunters, as they tramped through a field, suddenly saw a hen pheasant run out of the grass into the open. To their amazement they saw, slyly following it, a big fox. All of them fired almost at the same instant. The pheasant flew away and the fox dropped dead in its tracks. It is being mounted and will be placed on exhibit within a few weeks. Farmers told the hunters that fox in that locality had practically destroyed all small game hunting.

Hotel Filled to Capacity—No Room for State's Famous Governor

Plymouth had a very distinguished visitor in the city Tuesday evening and so crowded was the Mayflower hotel that it was necessary to send him over to the Dearborn Inn to spend the night.

When Former Governor Chase Osborn went into the hotel to register for the night, Manager Ralph Lorenz didn't have even a hall bed that hadn't been rented. In fact, for nearly three months, the hotel, except one or two week-ends, has been forced to turn away customers nearly every night.

It was with the greatest of regret that Manager Lorenz was forced to send the city's famous visitor to another hotel for the night, but there wasn't a single room in the hotel that could be made available. Governor Osborn, during his pilgrimages between the Upper Peninsula and his winter home in Georgia, frequently stops at the Mayflower.

Suburban Shrine Club Holds First Dinner-Dance of Season Tonight

Members of the Suburban Shrine club are expecting an excellent attendance this (Friday) evening at the first social event of the club for the coming winter season at the Mayflower Hotel. The committee in charge of arrangements announces that the ticket sale has been up to expectations and that there will probably be nearly 200 in attendance tonight at the dinner-dance.

Music and entertainment will be provided by the Haze Bennett organization, and from what members of the committee say, there will be plenty of excellent entertainment following the dinner. Because of the fact that this is the first dinner-dance of the year, an effort is going to be made to make it the outstanding affair of the fall. Among the entertainers will be the Ford Hill Billy singers and players.

Start Drive To Wipe Out Church Debt

CHARLES H. BENNETT

Funeral Today of H. S. Doerr

This (Friday) afternoon at 2:00 o'clock, at the Schrader Funeral home, will be held the funeral of H. S. Doerr, who passed away Wednesday morning at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, where he had been taken on Monday of this week.

Mr. Doerr was a well known implement dealer, having been in business first in Northville and then moving his business to Plymouth in 1923. Previous to that time he was a district manager and salesman for the International Harvester company for 16 years.

In 1911 Mr. Doerr was married to Mrs. Fannie Grace Judson of Detroit. In 1915 Mr. and Mrs. Doerr came to Plymouth to make their home, where, the same year, their only son, Philip Henry, was born.

For many years, before leaving Detroit, Mr. Doerr was an active member of the St. John's Lutheran church on Russell street where he retained his membership until his death, attending services there whenever possible until failing health prevented.

The funeral services today will be in charge of the St. John's pastor, Rev. Hans Horny, assisted by Rev. S. S. Closson, pastor of the First Methodist church of this city. Interment will be made in Riverside cemetery, a trio, consisting of Alfred Smith, Austin Whipple, and J. H. Joffe, will sing at the services.

Presbyterians Ask Pledges

Hope to Be Free of Obligations in Three Years

Determined to wipe out as quickly as possible the debt of the church created by the erection of a new edifice to take the place of the one destroyed four years ago by fire, members of the First Presbyterian church have instituted what they hope is their final drive for funds.

Out of the original debt of $83,132, there is a total of $22,536 yet to be paid. This amount would be under $20,000 provided some who made pledges three years ago make payment of their notes which fall due within the next two or three weeks. It is known that some of these obligations have not been paid, due entirely to the oversight of those who made pledges. Church officials hope that these payments will be made soon, in order to cut down the additional amount that must now be raised to pay off the mortgage notes against the church.

A finance committee, composed of Charles Bennett as chairman, and Raymond Bachelder, R. M. Daane, C. J. Dykhouse, R. D. Campbell, F. J. Fulton, J. S. Gallimore, Dr. G. H. Gordon, Edward Hawk, J. W. Kaiser, Raphael Mettetal, E. D. Paddock, Dr. Ed Rice, R. A. Roe, C. H. Rauch, Edwin A. Schrader, G. A. Smith, E. M. Stewart, Dr. J. H. Todd, S. E. Wall, William Wood and R. P. Woodworth has started an active campaign to secure pledges for the final payment. The pledges being asked extend over a period of three years and are payable monthly, if one desires to make them that way.

"We have one of the finest churches in America. People everywhere from every state to see it. It is something all of Plymouth is proud of, and we do not hesitate to go outside of our own membership to seek assistance. We regard our church as an active community institution," stated Chairman Bennett yesterday when discussing the fund campaign.

He declared that the committee members are meeting with wonderful success in their work and it is hoped that by the end of another week the entire amount of $22,536 that remains to be paid, can be fully pledged.

Three Hurt When Truck Hits Car

Mrs. Edward E. Curtis, 243 Union Street, and her daughter, Betty, are recovering from injuries received last Friday morning when their automobile was struck by a Washtenaw county highway department truck when they were driving to Salem. Mrs. Hugh Means of this city, who was also a passenger in the Curtis car, received severe bruises.

Betty Curtis, who was driving the car, was painfully, but not seriously, bruised in the crash.

It will be recalled that she was in a hospital for nearly three months two years ago when she was badly injured in another automobile accident on Middleboro road.

The truck was driven onto the highway from a gravel pit, neither of the drivers seeing the other until the instant of the crash. The Curtis automobile was badly damaged. Fortunately the low speed of the Curtis car prevented more serious injuries to the three occupants.

To Talk at State W. C. T. U. Convention

"Women and Their Relation to Municipal Government" is the subject of the address Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple will give when she appears before the state convention of the Michigan Women's Christian Temperance Union Wednesday, October 25, in Detroit.

The general subject for the day's talks will be "Women in Action." Such well known personalities in Michigan as Representative Ruth Thompson from Muskegon, Representative Dora Stockman, of East Lansing and Eleanor Hutzel, director of the women's division of the Detroit police department will appear with Mrs. Whipple on the day's program.

Among the few hunters who had what might be called good luck were Mr. and Mrs. John Sugen who hunted up in the Thumb district near Unionville. They brought home eight pheasants, one duck and a snipe.

Postmaster Is Back From Big Convention

Frank Learned Hears Much About P. O. Business

Postmaster Frank K. Learned returned this week from Washington, D.C., where he attended the National Post Office convention, along with more than five thousand delegates from all parts of the United States and territories.

The convention was of special interest this year and drew a larger crowd than usual because of being held in the national capital, which is the focal point of the vast postal department. Thus the visiting postmasters had the opportunity of meeting the heads of various divisions of the post office department and of discussing problems with them.

From the south portico of the White House President Roosevelt addressed the delegates assembled on the lawn below, encouraging the individual postmasters in their duties as representatives of the federal government in their communities.

The highlight of the convention was the banquet served to 3400 people at the Hotel Mayflower, at which Postmaster General Farley was guest of honor and speaker. This is believed to be the largest banquet ever held anywhere in the United States. In order to serve so large a crowd, it was necessary for the Mayflower Hotel to call upon the other hostesses of the District of Columbia for equipment and waiters.

Other members of Postmaster Learned's party were Mrs. Beatrice M. Schultz of Plymouth, Mrs. Horatio J. Abbott of Ann Arbor, Mrs. Emily Derr of Montgomery and Fred Van Atta of Northville.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt entertained the women of the convention at tea in the East Room of the White House last Thursday afternoon.

Other features of the convention included talks by the different department heads, sight-seeing trips to Mt. Vernon and Arlington National Cemetery, a scenic airplane flight over the District of Columbia and a visit to the gallery of the United States Senate, where Mr. Learned's party heard Senator Gerald P. Nye speaking on the arms embargo.

But 3 men are required to simulate the tread of 10,000 marching men for radio purposes. The sound of frying eggs is simulated by the crackling of cellophane and the sound of raindrops is made by dropping rice on brown paper.

Hallowe'en Plans for Boys and Girls

(Continued from Page 1) all children of Plymouth rely on as friend and protector, made the beginning of these annual parties. Captain Thumme, Harry Lush and Mr. and Mrs. Elton Eaton assisted by a few members of the Ex-Service Men's club, secured donations of apples and candy bars and Harry Lush turned over the 9:00 o'clock show at the Penman-Allyn theatre to the small celebrators. An evening safe from the wicked goblins of destructive activity, was the result and the good little spooks returned from their ghastly hunt safe and sound.

Three years ago the Civic committee undertook the task of planning and carrying out the area of a community Hallowe'en party these few citizens had started and so successful was it from the standpoint of the youthful participants, that it became an annual project of the Civic committee's duties.

This year John Jacobs was appointed general chairman of the party by President Floyd Eckles, of the Civic committee.

The second meeting of the Hallowe'en committee for 1939 was held at the city hall on Tuesday night, October 17.

John Jacobs, general chairman, opened the meeting. The chairman for the following sub-committees were appointed:

Food, Mrs. Ruby Terry; publicity, Arno B. Thompson; ways and means, Walter Harms; Scouts, Sidney Strong; construction, Clarence Elliott; entertainment, William Rose and Miss Ruth Hadley; safety, Vaughan Smith; parade marshal, Harry Mumby; treasurer, Clarence Elliott; secretary, Mrs. N. C. Rufus; prizes and judges, George Smith and Mrs. J. Jacobs. Additional members of the committee are Harry Barnes, Mrs. Harry Brown, Mrs. Alta Rice and Mrs. Jewel Bell.

Approximately 200 prizes will be given for costumes. Costumes will be judged on the originality of the costume rather than the quality. This will give all children an equal chance to win a prize.

The children of the community will be divided into two age groups. The first group will include children up to seven years. This group will meet at 6:30 p.m. on Hallowe'en night at the Central grade auditorium. The older children will assemble at the corner of Liberty and Stark-weather streets not later than 6:45 p.m. The children will be arranged in divisions for the

Open House at Telephone Office

(Continued from Page 1) occasion will act as guides and will explain the operation of all the intricate equipment in the building in simple, non-technical language.

Judging by the preview, the Open House event is both informational and entertaining. For one thing, visitors will visualize the enormous amount of talk that goes on every year, every day, and every hour, over Plymouth's telephone lines. For another, they will learn that telephone people are good "housekeepers." And, while all this is going on, they and their friends will be amused to hear their own voices over a telephone.

Manager MacLachlan points out that Plymouth residents make 1,517,000 local telephone calls a year. In addition, they talk over long distance circuits 128,000 times annually—to Detroit, other sections of Michigan, all over the United States.

Visitors will look over the telephone plant that makes possible these 1,643,000 local and long distance calls annually. That plant provides more than a million pathways of conversations, or connections, so that any one telephone here can be connected with any of at this year's shoot was one of the most successful since it was started five years ago.

Each year Plymouth Kiwanians sponsor the shoot in order to raise money for the benefit of under-privileged children of Plymouth and vicinity.

A. Bartlett Rice again proved his ability as a marksman by winning The Plymouth Mail silver loving cup for turning in the highest score during the shoot. He scored 93 out of a possible 100 points. This is the second consecutive year Mr. Rice has won the trophy. If he wins again next year the cup will be his to keep permanently.

The Perfection Laundry team, number 1, won the highest award for team shooting with a total of 721 points out of a possible 1,000. George Burr's county roads team finished a close second with 715 points. Each man on the winning team will receive a substantial award in merchandise from Plymouth stores.

Forty-five teams were entered in the shoot indicating that 450 individuals competed for team and individual honors. Over 20,000 rounds of ammunition were shot during the five-day contest.

Plymouth Kiwanians also sponsor the Potato club for high school children, the Cub Scouts and the Boys' club. The organization contributes to the University of Michigan hospital for crippled children, the Red Cross and the Salvation Army.

Other activities include packing Christmas baskets and presenting toys and clothing to the Plymouth needy, and in previous years, a turkey dinner was served for the under-privileged on Thanksgiving day.

Plans are now being made to send some Plymouth boys to a Kiwanis summer camp next year.

All these activities will share in the funds in some degree which are produced by participation in the gun shoot.

The shoot was a fine success, as far as the Kiwanis club is concerned, and because of this the good work which the Kiwanis club does in the field of under privileged children will be continued next year as it has been in the past," Mr. Bentley said.

To Build New Church
The Calvary Baptist church has recently purchased two lots at the northeast corner of Ann Arbor Trail and Elizabeth street on which they contemplate constructing a church building next summer, announced Rev. Lynn B. Stout, pastor.

The church is now located at the corner of Holbrook and Hard-inger. At the present time services are being conducted by Phil Ward, Detroit evangelist, who is accompanied by the musical Or-mans. The services will continue through Sunday night, October 29.

11th. Anniversary

For 11 years we have been serving Plymouth and vicinity with the best that the dry cleaning industry offers.

From time to time mechanical improvements are made to insure the public of a better dry cleaning service.

You have seen us grow from a small laundry and dry cleaning plant to one of the finest in Michigan . . . For 11 years we have built to serve you.

Recently we have installed a new pressure filter and vacuum still—the latest equipment in the dry cleaning industry. These mechanical devices insure you that your garments will not have the usual cleaning odor when they come from our plant.

A NEW SERVICE—Window cards will be distributed to Plymouth residents to command the attention of our drivers. A complete route of the city will be covered each morning between nine and ten o'clock. If you desire cleaning or laundry service, place one of our cards in the window or let us know by telephone.

Plymouth Osteopaths Will Attend Detroit Convention

Doctors Myron W. Hughes, Carl F. January and A. C. Williams, of Plymouth, will attend the annual convention of the Michigan State Osteopathic association in Detroit, October 24-26.

An almost unanimous attendance of Michigan osteopathic physicians is assured, as the convention has become an established method of exposing and exchanging all fresh developments of the year in the healing arts. Professors from the national osteopathic colleges will direct most of the discussions.

Nutrition Group Has First Lesson

Friday, October 12, seven members of the Joy Farms Nutrition group met at the home of Mrs. William Burdick on Gray road for the first lesson in the project. The interesting lecture on "Table Setting and Table Manners" was accompanied by an actual demonstration of table setting to illustrate proper table service. Plates, silver and etiquette of both hosts and guests, given by Miss Emma Du-Bord, Wayne county home demonstration agent.

The next lesson on "Planning and Serving a Buffet Dinner" will be given on November 8 at the home of Mrs. Duncan Burk, beginning at 11:00 a.m. by Miss DuBord.

Visitors are cordially invited to attend these classes. Anyone planning to do so, please get in touch with Mrs. Roy Wilcox, chairman.

Beavers' wood-cutting teeth are self-sharpening. Softer dentine on the inner side wears away faster than the hard enamel in front, leaving the incisors always tipped with a chisel edge.

Theatre Installs Newest Movie Sound System

Patrons Now Enjoy the Best of Tone in Pictures

Harry Lush, manager of the Penniman-Allen theatre, last week completed the installation of the latest and newest type sound reproducing system used by the motion picture industry. The new machine was used for the first time with the showing of "Four Feathers."

Patrons of the Penniman-Allen are enthusiastic in their praises of the RCA Photophone sound reproducing system, nearly every one who patronizes the theatre regularly noticing the improvement.

Working in the early hours of the morning so as not to interfere with the regular showings, RCA Victor sound engineers installed and tested the elaborate new sound system early last week.

A new uniform distribution of all sound frequencies to every part of the theatre has also been put in place behind the screen. The soundwaves penetrate tiny perforations in the screen, which are invisible from the auditorium and flow out from around the top and sides of the screen. In the projection booth a "high fidelity" soundhead has been incorporated into the picture projection system and powerful amplifier racks installed. A cable connects the sound projection apparatus with the loud speaker system.

Technical progress in the sound motion art has been so rapid since the time when speech and music were added to the picture on the screen, that sound reproducing systems of the earlier days are now hopelessly inadequate for recreating the finely recorded pictures of the present day," Mr. Lush said.

Previous systems have been able to reproduce tones as low as 100 cycles and as high as 6,000 cycles at the very best. The new RCA equipment can faithfully reproduce tones as low as 60 cycles and as high as 10,000 cycles. The range of volume has also been improved so that the merest whisper of the wind in the grass, the thundering roar of a Niagara, or the great crescendo of a symphony orchestra may be reproduced with equal fidelity.

The development of the new "Magic Voice of the Screen" sound system comes as the culmination of years of persistent research. This same group of engineers was responsible for most of the major advances in the phonograph, broadcasting and in marine and trans-oceanic communications.

With the installation of this remarkable new sound apparatus in the Penniman-Allen theatre, movie-goers of Plymouth can enjoy sound of the same high standard as that in the two finest theatres in the world, the Center theatre and Radio City Music Hall, of Rockefeller Center, New York, for the sound systems are practically identical in operation and quality of reproduction.

Matilda Blomert and Glenn B. Rex Wed

Beautiful bouquets of dahlias from Mrs. Irving Hamilton's garden made a perfect setting for another wedding in the Salem Federated church, on Saturday afternoon, October 14, when Glen B. Rex, formerly of Salem Township, now of Walth, Michigan, was united in marriage to Miss Matilda Mae Blomert of Walth, with the pastor, Rev. C. M. Pennell officiating. The young people were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Miller of Willow, Michigan, relatives of the bride, and Mrs. Ben Rex, the bridegroom's mother.

In the evening a reception was given for Mr. and Mrs. Rex at Walth where the former is employed as a carpenter and where they will live for the present.

Celebrates 11th Anniversary of Service Here

Perfection Laundry Adds New Equipment to Plant

Completing 11 years of active laundry and dry cleaning service to residents of Plymouth, Kenneth Corey, owner of the Perfection Laundry and Dry Cleaners, announced yesterday that the firm is celebrating the anniversary this week.

Although the firm is not offering the usual specials that are put up during an anniversary sale, he says that new equipment has recently been added to his already well-equipped plant. A pressure filter and vacuum still, used in the cleaning process, will eliminate undesirable odor that usually accompanies newly cleaned garments.

This week window cards will be distributed throughout the city so that Perfection drivers will pick up materials to be cleaned or laundered without making it necessary for housewives to call the firm or inform them otherwise.

The establishment is capable of handling a production of 2,000 pounds of laundry daily and modern cleaning and laundering machinery is in daily use on the 14,000 square feet of floor space occupied by the business.

In 1928, Mr. Corey came to Plymouth from Ann Arbor, purchased a building and established the laundry here. At that time he had three employees, while at the present time his force includes more than 20 workers. Plymouth residents have found in the last 11 years that the Perfection, only city owned and operated laundry in Plymouth, has equaled or bettered the work of outside competitors.

Mr. Corey begins his twelfth year in business here by saying that he will continue the service as it has been in the past, and will enlarge his plant, machinery and staff whenever necessary to provide first-rate production.

Woman's Club Meets Today in Ann Arbor

The members of the Woman's Club of Plymouth will meet at the Horace H. Rackham building in Ann Arbor today (Friday) at 2:00 o'clock.

Following a tour of the building, tea will be served in the auditorium.

Mrs. Stuart Dube, program hostess and Mrs. Robert Wesley, tea hostess, will be represented by the following committee: Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mrs. Paul Butz, Mrs. Frank Dunn, Mrs. Ralph G. Lorenz, Mrs. Earl Mastick, Mrs. Louise Tighe-Mulford, Mrs. Perry Richwine and Mrs. Seth Virgo.

J. C.'s Represented at State Convention

Delegates from the Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce attended the state convention which was held in Lansing Thursday.

Four state committees were represented at the convention by Plymouth members. Chairmen of local committees automatically become state committee members.

James Houk represented the Plymouth club in the civic beautification meeting; J. Rusling Cutler, civil identification; Lionel Coffin and Marvin Terry, sports; and Garnet Rush, Christmas activities. Chris Burkhardt from the Plymouth organization also attended the convention.

President Robert O. Wesley represented the local chapter on the state board which convened during the Thursday meeting.

According to a Philadelphia nose and throat specialist, America is breeding a race of people with larger but not better noses, the result, he says, of too dry air in the average American home during the winter season.

City Officials Speak at Detroit Meeting

City Managers Hold National Convention

Appearing before a group of members of the International City Managers' association who held their annual meeting in Detroit last week, City Manager Clarence H. Elliott, Tuesday morning, conducted a round table discussion in which 50 city managers of cities with populations from ten to 20 thousand participated.

His discussion centered around the subject "What Are the Chief Factors of Developing an Efficient Police Department in a Small City?"

Mr. Elliott said, in part: "I feel that there are three factors which should be considered in developing an effective police department in a small city.

"There must be no politics; personnel administration must be at a very high level, and public relations are of vital importance in a small city."

Mr. Elliott mentioned other factors which included good equipment for the men, good ordnance which will give authority to the police department and the provisions of good quarters.

The first morning of the convention, Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, a Plymouth city commissioner, spoke before the ladies of the organization using as her topic, "Interesting Persons and Places In and Near Detroit."

Her talk consisted of four main parts: Michigan as a state, Wayne county, Detroit and people in the vicinity. Some of the facts she gave out concerning Michigan were that this state has the longest coast line of any state in the union; more inland lakes; the first state university; the oldest agricultural college; stands fifth in income tax permits; fifth oldest municipal league, and 48 cities are managed under the city manager-commission system, as is Plymouth. More cities in Michigan are managed this way than in any other state, Commissioner Whipple said.

"For thirty years between 1798 and 1826, Wayne county included nearly all of Michigan, parts of Ohio, Indiana and Wisconsin. The area has decreased although the population has increased.

Detroit has the largest city owned park and the longest municipal street railway system in the world, she declared.

In telling the ladies of the convention about interesting places outside of Detroit, she gave some facts about the city of Plymouth. "This city has the largest air rifle manufacturing plant in the world, and located near it is the Burroughs factory which manufactures the largest number of adding machines. Plymouth is the only city in Wayne county under city manager-commission management. It is the fifth oldest under this government in the state," Mrs. Whipple said.

Other facts about Plymouth she mentioned were that it is the home of the first Christian Science church built in Michigan; it has the lowest tax rate of any city in Wayne county and it is situated in the center of the county park system.

Commissioner Whipple told the ladies about Mrs. Henry Ford's second largest rose garden in the world.

At the election of officers Monday, L. Perry Coochingham, city manager of Plymouth in 1931-1935, was named president of the organization for the ensuing year. Mr. Coochingham at the present time is Saginaw's city manager.

One of the high points of the convention came Wednesday evening at the annual banquet. Luther Buick, director of the New York Institute of Public Administration, spoke on the subject, "What Do Cities Do to and For Their Citizens?" His speech in short was an outline of the activities being undertaken by average cities.

Plymouth city commissioners attended the session at which Mr. Buick spoke as guests of City Manager Elliott.

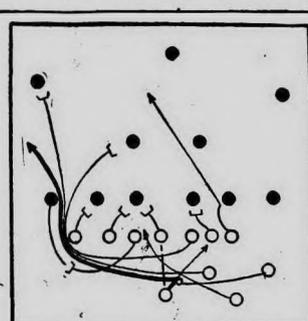

"The association meetings are splendid opportunities for city managers to talk with one another, to ask questions and compare notes," Mr. Elliott said. "Personal contacts at the convention are fully as important as the talks."

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. C. M. Pennell, pastor. Sunday morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. It is time to rally and go forward and the theme for meditation will be in keeping with this fact. A rally day program will be given in the Bible school hour, beginning at 11:45 a.m. Sunday evening hymn-sing, 7:30 p.m. Harvest Festival, Friday evening, October 20, at 8 o'clock. Aid meeting is to be held on Thursday, the 28th in the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts in the village with dinner at noon. The church needs you. Do you need the church?

NAGS ARE STILL CAR SHY. Vassar—Here's at least one team of horses that is still shy of automobiles, and probably will continue to be so. Joseph Caulfield, farm hand, was about to turn the team into a driveway from the main road. As he turned, a car attempting to pass was forced into the ditch. The horses were frightened and bolted, with Caulfield suffering a broken leg in the melée.

TOUCH-DOWN TACTICS

HOLY CROSS COLLEGE . . . Joseph L. Sheeketski Head Football Coach

This is the sixth in a series of six outstanding diagram plays by leading college coaches from Grantland Rice's new Football Guide.

Since the innovation of spinners to the Notre Dame offense, it has been proved conclusively that a balanced line with a box formation in the backfield has become more difficult to stop. The power to the weak side has become sufficiently great to warrant our running reverses as well as plays to the strong side. Many teams under-rate our attack to the weak side and consequently defend it as a weak side play, thus permitting the Notre Dame offense to become more effective.

The above play is one used by Holy Cross with much success. The tail back receives the ball, spins and fakes it to the full-back who plunges into the defensive weak side tackle. The ball is then handed to the half-back who races off the weak side tackle with two blockers ahead of him.

Rosedale Gardens

The First Presbyterian church of Plymouth was the scene Saturday evening for the wedding of Helen Mae Lee, to Charles Merritt Hanchett, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Hanchett, of Rosedale Gardens, the Rev. Walter Nichol officiating. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was gowned in white slipper satin. Her finger tip veil was of bridal illusion and she carried a shower bouquet of white tulle.

Etta Mae Johnson, aunt of the bride, was the maid of honor. She wore a gown of dusty rose taffeta and carried a bouquet of pink talisman roses.

Gloria Heichman, the bridesmaid, wore a gown of blue taffeta and carried red roses.

The two little flower girls, Barbara Ann Hanchett and Jacqueline Ann Hanchett, nieces of the bridegroom, were dressed in rose and blue moire and carried baskets of baby breath and rose petals.

Clyde Gardner, a life-long friend of the bridegroom, was best man. Clark Riley, of Owosso, walked with the bridesmaid, Gloria Heichman. The ushers were LaVerne Hanchett and Homer Johnson.

After the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was given at the Rosedale Gardens club house and Chuck Rauch's orchestra furnished music for the evening. The young couple will be at home in their apartment at 31416 Joy road, after a short wedding trip.

Harvey Ford, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Roberts, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. John Lutz, of Rosedale Gardens, and Helen Mae Lee, Saturday evening.

Mrs. James Riley and son, Clark, of Owosso, spent the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. R. Hanchett. Clark Riley was in the Lee-Hanchett wedding party.

Mrs. Ada Hanchett and little granddaughter, Jacqueline Ann, spent Saturday afternoon with Mr. and Mrs. Warren Otis, of Detroit.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith, of Farmington, called at the home of R. Hanchett Sunday afternoon.

The regular meeting of the Lydia Bible class of Calvary Baptist church was held last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Walter Beckwith on Ann street. There was a large attendance of members present, and two guests, Mrs. Richards, of Saginaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Beckwith, and Miss Irene Chappel, a blind singer from Grand Rapids. During the program, Miss Chappel sang several hymns, which were enjoyed by all present. After the program, there was a stork shower for one of the members of the class. She received many beautiful and useful gifts, as tokens of our love and appreciation. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Earl Spaulding, 640 Holbrook.

Well Known Editor Dies in Milford

Grant S. Rowe, of Milford, for years one of Michigan's best known newspaper publishers, father of Mrs. Earl Mastick of this city, died last Saturday at his home after an illness of many years. Mr. and Mrs. Rowe published and edited the Milford Times for 43 years, turning the conduct of the business over to their son after ill health forced his retirement. Mr. Rowe was one time a member of the board of directors of the Michigan Press association, a member of the board of education of Milford, serving as both secretary and treasurer of the board, an active member of the Milford Chamber of Commerce, the Baptist church and the Exchange club. For years he was one of the outstanding citizens of Oakland county.

Besides Mrs. Rowe and the daughter residing in Plymouth and Robert, of Milford, the following other children survive: Dorothy Rowe, of Royal Oak; Mrs. W. B. Heiser, of Lakewood, Ohio; Mrs. L. G. Maugh, of Ann Arbor; Mrs. Ruth Coe, of Detroit; and Mrs. Howard Hoag, of Vermontville, South Dakota.

The first naval college of which there is any record was established at Heres, Portugal, in 1415. A. D. Here King Henry, the "Navigator," called together famous seamen from every nation to instruct his countrymen.

A quick and effective way to loosen the top of a Mason, or other, jar that is screwed on too tightly to be easily turned, is to turn the jar upside down and tap the top of the cover sharply, but not TOO powerfully on a FLAT SURFACE. It loosens the cover grooves all around and the cover then comes off easily.

Society

Marguerite Melow was given a complete surprise, Wednesday evening, when about fifteen friends joined her in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Farmer in Northville, at the invitation of their daughter, Esther. The occasion was a miscellaneous shower for Marguerite and she received many lovely gifts. The hostess greeted her guests with an apron on and supplied each one with one as they arrived. Games were played with clothes pins, pillow cases, and so forth, duties pertaining to the home, and all had a jolly evening. The luncheon decorations were carried out in keeping with the coming event, Halloween. The following were present besides Miss Melow, her mother, Mrs. Anna Melow, her sister, Elsie Melow, Mrs. Alfred Farmer, Mrs. Mary Tibbitts, Mrs. Carlton Lewis, Mrs. Harold Young, Mrs. John Blyton, Mrs. Hatcher, Mrs. William A. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. Donald Potter, Sarah Gayde, Dorothy Price, Norma Coffin and Marian Taylor. Miss Melow will become the bride of Leslie Evans in the near future.

Mrs. Foster Kisabeth and two sons, Kenneth and Gordon, Mrs. Eston Gray and son, Donald, Mrs. Charles DoBozz and Miss Malvne Wassel have been spending a few days with the latter's mother in Duquesne, Pennsylvania. They plan to return home today.

Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Goddard will leave Sunday for a few days' visit in Chicago and will attend the American Metal convention being held in that city next week.

Margaret Lorenz and Helen Krueger, of Detroit, were supper guests, Sunday, of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph J. Lorenz.

The junior choir met with Junior McKim Tuesday evening for practice.

The first naval college of which there is any record was established at Heres, Portugal, in 1415. A. D. Here King Henry, the "Navigator," called together famous seamen from every nation to instruct his countrymen.

A quick and effective way to loosen the top of a Mason, or other, jar that is screwed on too tightly to be easily turned, is to turn the jar upside down and tap the top of the cover sharply, but not TOO powerfully on a FLAT SURFACE. It loosens the cover grooves all around and the cover then comes off easily.

Issue Over 1000 Hunting Licenses Here

Sell More Tags Than Allotted to City by Department

More than 1,000 hunting licenses were sold in Plymouth previous to the opening of hunting season Sunday, it was learned following reports from Plymouth's three outlets for the tags, Boyer's, The Plymouth Hardware and Keeler's service station.

The report is that the sale exceeded the license blank supply that was allotted to Plymouth and more blanks had to be secured to take care of the unusual demand. Unfortunately, all the names cannot be published as some returns were made to Lansing before the lists were copied.

Following is a list of persons who purchased their licenses last week:

Long Illness Causes Suicide

By attaching a connection to the exhaust pipe and fixing it in such a way so as to convey carbon monoxide fumes into his car, Edgar J. Weir, 40, a resident of Plymouth for a few days, took his own life late Thursday night. His self-destruction came as a result of a long illness, say relatives.

Mr. Weir was the husband of Marian Linendoll Weir who spent most of her early life in Plymouth. The two have been living in Cleveland, Ohio, in recent years.

The Weirs came to Plymouth about two weeks ago and were living in a house trailer which was parked at the rear of the O. J. Linendoll residence on Hamilton street, the home of Mrs. Weir's parents.

His body was found by Mr. Linendoll about 11:15. He immediately summoned a doctor who, upon arrival, said the man had been dead for about one-half an hour. The county coroner was called and pronounced the death a suicide.

Funeral services were held from the T. S. Richard Funeral home in Detroit. The body was taken to the White chapel in that city for cremation.

Northville Club Guest of Rotary

Members of the Northville Rotary club met with the Plymouth Rotary club last Friday noon in the first joint meeting of the two clubs held during the present year. The occasion was made doubly interesting for the two groups by the address of Robert Yerkes, of Northville, of his experiences while a resident on the Barbados island in the British West Indies.

Mr. Yerkes told in a most interesting way of the living conditions on that island, of the government and of the methods of conducting business.

He declared that the general public has an entirely erroneous idea of living conditions in the warm climates. The population of Barbados is nearly 90 per cent colored, the rainfall is exceptionally heavy and the chief business is growing and exporting cane syrup for sugar.

There were over 30 members of the Northville club present. President E. M. Bogart of the Northville club introduced Dr. Joseph Selady, of Northville, who acted as chairman of the meeting.

The man who wants for just the right time to start seldom gets anywhere.

Planning Now to Celebrate Their 70th Wedding Anniversary

"Come back next year and help us celebrate our 70th wedding anniversary," Mr. and Mrs. Henry B. Rowe, pioneer residents residing at the corner of Ford and Lots road, told their friends and relatives recently who gathered at their home to help them celebrate their 69th wedding anniversary.

"And I am sure they will be in just as good health as they were this year," said one who had attended the wedding celebration.

It is their happy, enthusiastic interest in life and the events of the day which keep their spirits up and which enable them to live so pleasantly long years after the three score and ten allotted to us," continued the visitor.

Already Mr. and Mrs. Rowe are looking forward to the 70th anniversary of their marriage which will take place on October 11, 1940.

The Rowes were married in Detroit in 1870. They moved to Plymouth 40 years ago and have been living at their present home since that time.

Of their four sons, three are living and all attended the anniversary celebration which was held at the Rowe homestead last week. Otis and wife who live with his parents; Willis and wife, of Belleville; and Mr. and Mrs. Asa Rowe of 187 Union street, Plymouth, and their children and grandchildren were present, representing three generations of Rowes.

One grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Rowe at the reunion were Lee and Jean, son and daughter of Henry C. and Ruth, Ann, Tommie, Richard and a small baby, children of Milton.

Other guests included Carrie Shingler, Mamie Barron, Mrs. Mary Dorn, neighbors of the Rowes 50 years ago, Mrs. Charles Lucas and Mr. and Mrs. William Lightbody of Detroit; Mrs. Amon Warner and daughter, of Plymouth, and many other friends who called on the happy couple during the day.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ford sent their congratulations and said that they would soon visit the Rowes. The two couples are well acquainted although Mr. Ford is 12 years younger than Mr. Rowe.

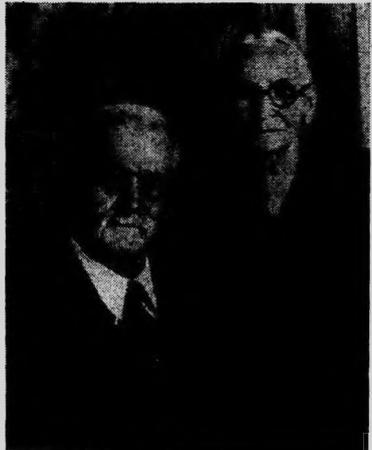

Mr. Rowe is 89 years old and his wife is 88. Both are in excellent health and do their share of the farm work each day. For the last 15 years, Mr. Rowe has spent much of his time on experiments with crop irrigation and still can be seen most any day in the fields near his home.

WHITE ROBIN SEEN

Bad Axe — Hearing a loud chirping in the back yard bird sanctuary she maintains, Mrs. R. S. Wade investigated. She discovered a pure white robin with a red breast as the center of attraction for other curious birds. It stayed but a short time and so was believed to be migrating.

EGG MAPS WORLD

Marion — An egg clearly marked with a map of the world on it has been laid by a Plymouth Rock hen near here. It was a light tan ground, with a deep brown. The owner of the hen said that just before the last World War she had an egg which was marked almost identical to this one.

Stars Again in U. of M. Game

Joseph Rogers from Plymouth, brilliant young substitute end on the University of Michigan football team, proved Saturday that his stellar performance against Michigan State two weeks ago was not just a "flash in the pan."

Rogers replaced Nicholson, varsity end, when he was injured in the game two weeks ago. He did such a good job in helping the University of Michigan turn back State that Coach Crisler started him against Iowa last Saturday.

The Plymouth youth was in on every play and twice during the first half he was responsible for tackling an Iowa star that the ball carrier fumbled and Michigan recovered. Following each recovery, Michigan marched over the goal.

Nicholson was sent in to take Rogers' place just before the first half ended. However, Coach Crisler put Rogers back in the game at the beginning of the third quarter.

Michigan won the game, 27-7.

Local Hunters Go After Moose

Cards have been received by Plymouth friends from Matt Powell and Bert McKinney, who have gone to northern Canada on a moose hunting trip, stating that they are leaving Sault Ste. Marie, Canada with Charles Murphy of Northville for a hunting lodge located somewhere about a hundred miles north of the Soo.

The two Plymouth hunters have been going to Canada for a number of years each fall on moose hunting trips. This year they have been joined by Mr. Murphy and in addition to doing some moose hunting, they hope to bring back to Plymouth a Canadian brown bear or two.

Their trip last year to Canada proved a fruitless one, but they are hoping for better luck this year by going to a new hunting location.

SOMEONE REMEMBERED

Dexter — Although it was 10 years later, someone remembered that Ira Ott, railroad station agent here, had saved a life. He recently received a framed photograph of a large bronze tablet headed "New York Central Lines, Honor Roll. In recognition of employees who at the risk of their lives saved others." His name was engraved under the heading of 1929. In that year he had leaped in front of a fast train and pulled a man to safety.

Popular Woman Writer to Be Next Detroit Town Hall Speaker

Elizabeth Hawes, author of "Fashion Is Spinach" and "Men Can Take It," who has set the fashion world on its heels by her daringly frank revelations, will be the Detroit Town Hall speaker in the Fisher theatre next Wednesday, October 25, at 11 a.m.

In her lecture, "How to Get a Dollar's Worth for a Dollar," the designer for Broadway's brightest stars will tell how not to be fooled by fashion. Her talk will include advice on how to buy clothes intelligently by figuring out what you really look like; how to pick out a dress that will be in style for three years; how to make sure you know what material a costume is made of, and whether it will last, and what to do when you buy something and it falls to pieces.

Now America's foremost designer, Elizabeth Hawes first caught the attention of the fashion world when she dared to show her collection of American clothes in Paris.

From Vassar, Miss Hawes went to Paris. For two years she was a "fashion pirate," bootlegging original models to wholesale manufacturers. She then reported fashions for The New Yorker and later worked as a stylist for Macy's and for Lord and Taylor. She resigned from this position to become assistant designer with Madame Groult in order to fulfill her original ambition to design clothes. Miss Hawes will be introduced by Mary Morris, fashion editor of the Detroit News.

Big Meeting for Townsend Club

The officers and members of Plymouth Townsend club are making preparations for Monday night, October 23 in the Grange hall for what promises to be one of the most interesting, important and well attended potluck dinners ever held by this club since it organized, over four years ago.

The Pontiac Townsend Drum and Bugle Corps is expected here to provide musical entertainment and George E. Gullen, of Detroit and Dearborn, will be the principal speaker. All members are requested to attend if possible.

The public is cordially invited and all are kindly asked to bring one hot dish for the table and sandwiches, pie, or cake; also your own dishes and silverware so that the ladies in charge can enjoy the entire program.

Livonia Center News

The Parent-Teacher association had a large attendance last Monday evening. Mrs. Tuck, past president of Wayne county P.T.A., talked on the meaning of the association. As the year's program was planned, the cooperation between the parents and teachers was promised a good school year. The school doctor and nurse will be at school Thursday of this week, and parents who have special problems may come, concerning a child's physical condition, at some time during the day.

There will be social dancing for the school children one afternoon each week from 3:30 until 4:00. This is only for the children who are now in Livonia Center school. Instrumental work will be done at school again this year, as a great many have requested this.

The first meeting of the Livonia Center Home Economics extension group was held Wednesday, October 11, at the home of Mrs. Charles Shelton. The leaders of this group are Mrs. Shelton and Mrs. Florence Zobel. Election of officers resulted in the following: Chairman, Mrs. Fred McQuestion; secretary, Mrs. Edna Egan; treasurer, Mrs. George Shely. Dates and topics for future lessons were outlined and then Miss Emma Dubord, county home demonstration agent, from Dearborn, worked out our first discussion with us, the Legal Phases of Home Management.

The next meeting is to be held on November 9, 1939, at the home of Mrs. John Martin, 15645 Farmington road. This extension service is in cooperation with the Michigan State college and the United States department of agriculture, and it looks like this will be an interesting year for the Home Managers of this community.

Hunting Season Opens—Report Fair Hunting

Game Wardens Make Biggest Bags During Opening Days Here

Game wardens operating in the vicinity of Plymouth and Northville on opening day of the hunting season this year, apparently "bagged" the biggest number of "birds" of any of the hunters in the field, at least half a dozen hunters from Detroit having been picked up the first day for alleged violations of game laws. Most of the arrests were for shooting hen pheasants.

Activities of conservation department officials in this part of Wayne county have been brought about by the urgent request of farmers and sportsmen who for years have been anxious to bring to an end game law violations in this locality.

Outside of the "good luck" of the conservation department officials, some few local hunters did have fair luck.

Jack Gothard, in addition to bringing down two nice pheasants, bagged a rabbit and a nice big fox squirrel. Jack Gettleton also bagged two pheasants. But strange as it may seem, some of the best hunters in this locality never got a shot at a pheasant on the opening day. Some since Sunday have shot a pheasant or two.

Hunters report that they have seen less game during the first part of the season than in previous years. Even rabbits have seemingly become scarce.

But squirrel hunting is reported the best in a number of years. While some hunters and supply dealers objected three years ago when the season was closed for a year, they are now reaping the benefits of it by enjoying some of the best squirrel hunting this part of the state has had in a dozen years.

Conservation officers who were out here during the early part of the week expressed their appreciation of the fine cooperation they are receiving from the sportsmen in this part of Wayne county. There is no question, it is stated, but what the organization of a conservation club has had much to do with cleaning up the hunting conditions about here.

But local sportsmen are now fully convinced that steps must immediately be taken to re-stock this part of the state not only with pheasants but rabbits as well, if there is to be any hunting in future years.

A number of Plymouth hunters went north on the opening day to hunt grouse instead of pheasants. Reports from the state conservation department say that grouse hunters are fortunate in finding their birds this year near the peak of their cycle of abundance that had its low point in 1934-35.

From the upper peninsula, where the season opened October 1, have come reports of an abundance of birds and fair to good hunting conditions as heavy foliage and high winds made the game hard to get. Hunting is good in the eastern end of the peninsula, fair in the western end with most birds taken near Kenton, Covington and Crystal Falls. Upper peninsula bags included partridge, sharp-tailed prairie chicken and rabbits.

To cope with the expected heavy concentration of hunters in southern counties during the season, 35 conservation officers from the upper peninsula and northern lower Michigan have reinforced the southern Michigan staff. Protection of hen pheasants particularly will be rigidly enforced.

Supplementing the work of department of conservation enforcement officers are more than 100 special deputy sheriffs, some of them paid by sportsmen's organizations interested in game law enforcement. Sunday hunting bans in southeastern Michigan counties somewhat complicate enforcement problems in adjoining counties.

Opening of the season found 110 cooperative hunting clubs in 24 counties and controlling 497,563 acres organized in cooperation with the conservation department and the Michigan State college extension service. Hunting is limited on the farm lands included in the club areas by a ticket system designed to protect farmers against trespass and vandalism while insuring continuance of controlled public hunting.

Gray squirrels may be shot in that northwestern part of the lower peninsula bounded by highways M-46, US-131, M-113 and Lake Michigan.

From numerous lower Michigan points have come reports that rabbits, favorite quarry of many a small game hunter, have increased considerably in numbers during the last year, but not about here.

Raccoon hunting, with no bag limit, will not begin until November 1, the season extending through December 15.

GLASS DESIRE RINGS ALARM

River Rouge Remember when you were a little kid and let the sun shine through a piece of glass to burn a hole in paper? Local youngsters seem to think the circular pieces of glass in fire alarm boxes make good lenses for this purpose. When they took one recently, the false alarm that resulted brought out a truck and two cars.

Once protected as a game animal, the rabbits of Australia have reproduced in such prodigious number that they have become a national pest. The government of New South Wales has offered a reward of $100,000 for a practical means of exterminating them.

HILCO SANDING MACHINE

EASY FOR ANYONE

It's easy. No special skill, no unusual strength are needed to operate the HILCO Sanding Machine. It is practically fool-proof, and sands right up to the quarter-round, reducing hand scraping to a small fraction. There is no need to hire anyone—you can handle it yourself.

SMALL COST

The rental charges are surprisingly low, and it's poor economy to waste new varnish or wax over dingy coats of old varnish. Ask our rental charges.

FAST WORK

The HILCO Sanding Machine works fast. Household routine need not be upset for long, because machine sanding does the job in less hours than handscraping would take days.

CLEAN

Amazingly clean because of its powerful dust collector, the HILCO Sanding Machine raises little more dust than a vacuum cleaner. There is no comparison in cleanliness with messy chemicals which cannot remedy the scratches and high spots in a floor.

HOUSEWIVES

Housewives know that it takes much less time and work to keep newly surfaced floors clean and bright. They can see their cleaning results because all dirt is on top, not under or in the finish. Any woman feels more like caring for floors that give no hint of drab age.

The Stroth team really went to town this week, rolling up a score of 2906. It's the first time in 10 years that a league team rolled up such a heavy score. Stroth's team consists of 10 members with scores of 213-221-219 for a 653 total. Still with all this heavy scoring, the Perfection Laundry team gave them a run for their money by taking one game from them. Simpson's took three from the Golden Glow, Koppitz Stars took three from Mayflower Hotel while Goldstein's team lost two to the Daisy.

Dancing To Be Youth Activity

Among the many featured activities for the young people of Plymouth is dancing. Last year dance instruction was given by Mrs. Edith Blake of the Detroit department of recreation. This year Jimmie Hunt, of the Art Barn faculty, has accepted the post and will give instruction in modern ballroom dancing to all young people in Plymouth who attend high school and are interested in dancing. The lessons will be given every Thursday night in the city hall from 7:00 until 8:00 o'clock. Mr. Hunt has studios in Ypsilanti and Wayne, as well as in Plymouth and has been of great assistance to many young people in those communities. The Youth Federation is very fortunate to have secured his services. The charge for these lessons is very small and it is hoped that a large group of young people will be at the city hall Thursday night to avail themselves of the opportunity.

Instruction will be given by class methods. The girls' lesson will be at 7:00 o'clock; the boys at 7:30. This, as well as all of the Youth Recreation activities, is sponsored by The Woman's Club of Plymouth.

Of special interest to the young dancers is the news that the auditorium in the Central school will be open for Youth Recreation dances each Friday night unless there is a dance at the high school. The hours and the charge will remain the same as at the city hall. These dances will be regulated as are the school dances and the dancers will be limited to young people in junior and senior high school. Mike and His Rhythm Kings will play for the first dance which will be given tonight (Friday) from 8:00 until 11:00 o'clock.

Last week the Story Hour group heard two plays on fire prevention as a part of fire convention week. This week they will hear more new stories and will also hear about the Halloween party which will take place Tuesday, October 31 in the auditorium. The play hours are 2:00 until 4:00 as usual and all children from five to 10 years old are welcome.

Crops Are Best in Many Years

As the crop season of 1939 nears its close, final yields now can be more fully appraised. As of October 1, nearly all of Michigan's field crops show better than average per-acre yields, and all tree fruits have a production in excess of the 10-year average. Weather conditions were unusually favorable for harvesting operations during September and rapid progress was made. Most crops were fully matured in advance of the first general frosts, which occurred in northern counties on September 23 and in southern counties on October 1. While moisture was plentiful in most of the northern counties, September was very dry throughout many southern counties.

The Michigan potato crop suffered a setback during September as a result of an attack of late blight. The disease developed rapidly during the early days of the month and, while partially checked in the drier sections by the extreme heat around the middle of the month, it has spread over many fields in the central and northern counties where it is causing considerable rot in affected unsprayed fields. The counties reporting presence of the disease represent approximately one-half of the state's total potato acreage. Lack of rainfall in some sections during September curtailed growth of tubers and some fields are yielding many small sized potatoes. These adverse factors were offset by good growing conditions and improved prospects in other counties where moisture was ample and no appreciable amount of disease exists. The estimated production is 27,825,000 bushels, which compares with 30,000,000 grown in 1938. In that year, culling consisted chiefly of over-sized and ill-shaped potatoes, whereas this year it will be mainly of under-sized and diseased tubers and is expected to be quite heavy.

For the third successive year Michigan bean yields have exceeded early season expectations. Harvesting was nearly completed by the end of September and, except in a few local areas, with a minimum of weather damage.

The production is placed at 4,205,000 bags against 4,567,000 bags in 1933. The proportion of cull beans, known in trade channels as "The Pick," is expected to be below average. White pea beans comprised 88 percent of the state's 1938 crop. Information on 1939 varieties is not yet available, but the proportion of white pea beans is expected to be somewhat less than last year because of an apparent increase in the acreage of cranberry beans in many counties.

The production of sugar beets is estimated at 936,000 tons compared with 1,005,000 tons in 1938. A slightly smaller acreage was planted and dry weather reduced the yields to a point slightly below those obtained a year ago.

Petition Filed for Curb and Gutter on Maple Street

A petition was filed with the city commission Monday night asking for the construction of a curb and gutter on Maple street between Pine and Hamilton. Commissioners ruled that a public hearing on the construction be held Monday night, October 30. The proposed construction, if there are no objections, will be a continuation of the curb and gutter already under construction on Maple street between Main and Deer streets.

Here's What we were Shooting at!

ROME, they tell us, wasn't built in a day. Well, neither was this 1940 Buick you see burning the breeze here.

You'll understand why when you know what we were aiming for. We wanted to combine in one car all the best we've learned in our 36 years in this business.

We think we've got it now. A stand-out sparkling car with action power and staying power.

It would be hopeless to try to list the whole range of new features—there are some 72 in all.

But you can't drive this car a mile without knowing that you have got hold of something that tops anything you ever handled.

It's smoother, steadier, firmer on the line. It gets up and goes right now, and keeps going without wander, tailwag or wind-swerve.

It takes the roughest roads in its stride, and while we don't want to go hinting about speed, this eager baby can do forty-five in first!

The sudden, soaring, millrace power of its matchless Dynaflex straight-eight engine, electrically balanced after assembly to micro-poised perfection, is velocity smoothed to velvet.

Yes, this beauty is our all-time high—the car we've been shooting at for 36 years.

Come drive it and you'll see why.

Church News

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nichol, pastor. 10:00 a.m., Sunday school; 11:00 a.m., worship; 6:30 p.m., young people. Much interest is being manifested in the banquet to be held at the church on Wednesday, October 25. The women of the church will serve a delicious meal after which a most interesting and unusual program will be presented. Elzada Clover, who made a remarkable trip through the Grand Canyon, was lost for several days, but came out with many fine pictures and a thrilling story, will be present and will present the pictures and tell her story. Tickets are on sale by men and women of the church. A capacity attendance is expected. The young people are planning a social meeting for next Sunday, with an outdoor weiner roast and a closing song service at the church. The school of leadership training will meet Monday evening from 7:30 p.m. to 9:30 p.m. The classes are well attended and fine work is being done.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. G. H. Enns, Th.D., pastor. Church work is in full swing again. Are you in the ranks of the marching army of Christ? Come hear "The Marching Orders of Christ" on Sunday morning at 10:00 a.m. At 11:15 a.m. we shine our weapons; young and old learn to use the "Sword of the Spirit" and the "Shield of Faith," exercising also in prayer and supplication. Will you not come and join us. The meeting of the young people is at 8:00 p.m. and the evening service at 7:00 p.m., when we will have a report from the state convention. On Thursday night the Women's Missionary society will meet in the home of Mrs. Stanley. On Wednesday prayer meeting at the usual hour followed by choir rehearsal. On Friday night, October 27, which is the last Friday in the month set aside for the monthly meeting of the Sunday school teachers and officers. Important matters will come up for discussion. Every member of the Sunday school staff is expected to be present. The meeting will be held in the parsonage at 7:30 p.m. Remember the quarterly business meeting on Wednesday night.

ROSEDALE GARDENS PRESBYTERIAN church. John B. Forsyth, minister. The preacher at the 11 o'clock service Sunday will be the Rev. Leonard Duckett, minister of the Presbyterian church at Ecorse. The Sunday school staff will have its regular meeting Wednesday evening at 7:30 in the church basement. The board of deacons will meet Thursday evening, October 26. A group of 55 women representing Presbyterian churches of Plymouth, Northville, Garden City, Dearborn and Redford, met Tuesday, October 17, in the church, in the first of a series of regional meetings, sponsored by the Women's Presbyterian society of Detroit Presbytery.

NAZARENE CHURCH. Robert A. North, pastor. Holbrook and Pearl streets. Bible school, 10:00; morning worship, 11:00; young people, 6:30; prayer and praise, Wednesday, 7:30. The "Homelike Church of Plymouth" extends to you a welcome to all services. On Sunday, October 29 we begin a series of meetings with George Woodward, a well known artist evangelist. Watch for further announcement of these services next week.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service, 8:00. "Probation after Death" will be the subject of the lesson sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, October 22, 1939. The golden text (James 1:12) is: "Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him." Among the Bible citations in this passage (Psalms 23:4): "Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 487): "Life is deathless. Life is the origin and ultimate of man, never attainable through death, but gained by walking in the pathway of Truth both before and after that which is called death."

ST. PETER'S EV. LUTHERAN church. Edgar Hoebecke, pastor. Sunday school, 9:30. Church service, 10:30.

S. A. L. E. M. CONGREGATIONAL church. Lucia M. Strub, minister. Divine worship, 10:30 a.m.; Sunday school, 11:45 a.m. Our last Sunday's rally day service was a very blessed service, largely attended and the recitations and music were very inspiring and helpful. Mrs. Edith Bookham and Miss Alice Willoughby united with the church at this service and received the right hand of fellowship. Little Jean Marcia Richmond was consecrated to the Lord and baptized. The choir rendered a very beautiful anthem. Mrs. Smith sang the lovely solo, "Face to Face" and was accompanied on the piano by her husband. The three duets of Mr. Watson and Mr. Richards were a great inspiration and blessing. Mrs. Osborne gave a lovely reading. The part the little children took in the choruses, music, piano solos and recitations was very touching and enjoyed by all present. Choir practice every Wednesday evening in the church. Prayer meeting, Thursday evening, 7:45 in the church this week. The Ladies' Aid will meet Thursday, November 9, in the town hall for dinner at 12 o'clock. There will also be a bake sale. All our friends in the community are most cordially invited.

ST. PAUL'S EV. LUTHERAN church. Livonia Center. Oscar J. Peters, pastor. English services at 10:45 a.m. Sunday school at 10:00.

CATHOLIC CHURCH. Rev. V. Renaud, pastor. 10:00 a.m., church service. The third sermon in a John 3: 16 series—"Man's Great Faith." Sermonette for children, "Wild Geese and Airplanes." Nursery care for small children. The whole family is provided for at this service. 11:30, Sunday school; 6:30, Epworth league—Service for youth. The three choirs rehearse on Thursday as follows: 3:30, children's choir; 7:00, high school choir; 7:30, senior choir. Wednesday, 6:30, junior department of the Sunday school has a potluck supper at the church. Parents are invited to come. Wednesday, November 1—Annual supper and bazaar by the general ladies' aid. The school of religion is meeting Monday evenings in the Presbyterian church from 7:30 to 9:30. Visitors are cordially invited.

THE CHURCH OF GOD.—211 Penniman ( upstairs), for the salvation of sinners, entire sanctification of believers, divine healing of the body, and the unity of all true Christians in the faith once delivered unto the saints. Sunday services: Bible school, 9:45 a.m.; morning worship, 11:00 a.m.; Y. P. service, 6:30 p.m.; Evangelistic service, 7:30 p.m. Services during the week: Tuesday, cottage prayer meeting (North Harvey street) 7:30 p.m.; Thursday, mid-week prayer meeting, 7:30 p.m. "For everyone that asketh reward, and he that seeketh judgment; and to him that knocketh it shall be opened. If a son shall ask bread of any of you that is a father, will he give him a stone? Or if he ask a fish, will he for a fish give him a serpent?" Luke 11: 10-11. From experience we know that an earthly father, one who loves his child, will do all possible to give that child things it needs when it asks for them. When looking at it from this standpoint how much more reasonable it is that our Heavenly Father shall give us the things we need when we ask for them. Are you believing and trusting in Christ? "And I say unto you, ask, and it shall be given you." Luke 11: 9. All are welcome to worship at the church you are never asked to join. Arno Thompson and Clifford Funk, co-pastors.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST church. Our Sabbath school services begin at 2:00 p. m. every Saturday afternoon. They are held in the Jewell and Blach building on the Ann Arbor trail. The preaching service begins at 3:15 p. m. Prayer meetings are held every Tuesday evening at 7:30 in the Jewell and Blach building. Young People's Missionary volunteer meetings are held every Friday evening at the home of John Denski, Ann Arbor road.

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Holbrook and Hardinberg. L. B. Stout, pastor. If you are looking for a personal invitation to the special meetings being held each night at 7:30 o'clock, except Saturday, this is "it." We would like to come into each of your homes and tell you all about them, but of course that would be impossible; therefore, you just come anyway and we are sure that you will be well repaid. As you no doubt know, Mr. Ward spent over 20 years in the underworld of Detroit, as a gangster. At the time of his conversion, about 10 years ago, he was drinking one-half gallon of whiskey and smoking 50 cigarettes every day; besides for 18 months before he was saved it had become necessary for him to smoke opium before he could go to sleep at night. Mr. Ward does not regard his crime, but Christ, but next Monday night he will be giving his life story, "From Crime to Christ." Every educator, police officer, preacher, parent, boy and girl should hear this message. Come to church tonight, Bulls-eye No. 49. Fire characterized the upper room meetings of the early church. Ice cream characterizes the supper room meeting today. Warm heart then, cold feet now.

SALVATION ARMY. Tuesday, 7:15 service at picnic farm; 8:30 band practice. Wednesday, 7:30, prayer meeting; 8:30, preparation class. Thursday, 2:00 p. m., Women's Home League; 7:15, Girl Guards. Sunday, 10:00 a.m., Sunday school; 11:00 a. m., Holy-ness meeting; 6:15 p. m., young people's legion; 7:30, open air; 8:00, public salvation meeting. We cordially invite the public to attend these services. Officers in charge, Captain Elizabeth Lemorie, Cadet Lovlia Bomser.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church. Harvey and Maple streets. Morning prayer and sermon, 10:00 a.m.; church school, 11:15. The Ladies' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. William Staszni, 1428 Sheridan, on Thursday, October 26 at 2:00 p.m.

FIRST METHODIST. Stamford S. Closson, pastor. 10:00 a.m., church service. The third sermon in a John 3: 16 series—"Man's Great Faith." Sermonette for children, "Wild Geese and Airplanes." Nursery care for small children. The whole family is provided for at this service. 11:30, Sunday school; 6:30, Epworth league—Service for youth. Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Lovett of Dearborn. Miss Mary Power of Detroit was a Sunday caller at the Henry Roots and on Thursday, October 12, Mrs. Root was surprised by the following group: W. R. Carleton, Miss Frances Carleton and Mrs. Clarence Gable, of Detroit and Mr. and Mrs. Otto F. Poelke of Buffalo, New York. Miss Nina Serrine and Stanley Daneske of Detroit were visitors this week at the Orin F. Rigley home. On Thursday, Mrs. George Sirrine attended a birthday party in Detroit at the home of her sister, Mrs. Daniel Sedlow. Jean Rigley, with a group of friends, attended the Plymouth-Dearborn football game in Dearborn last Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Stacey entertained the following guests Sunday: Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Yakes and Bill Rood, of Ann Arbor; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kennedy of Flint; J. W. Worden and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Stacey and family of Detroit. The men enjoyed the opening day of the hunting season. Geer School News A large crowd attended the first meeting of the P.T.A. Vice President Mrs. Ronald Hesse, conducted the meeting, owing to sickness in the home of the president, Mrs. William Grammel. After the business meeting, a minstrel show was presented by ladies from the Maccabees and Ex-Service Men's club of Plymouth. This was greatly enjoyed and very nicely done. Plans are in the air for the annual Thanksgiving supper. Mrs. Stacy attended the music meeting at Ann Arbor, Monday afternoon. The music work, directed by Michigan State college, will continue as in the past. Report cards were out Friday, since the marking system has changed to a six weeks period. The following children received a B average: Edwina Hogan, Howard Houghton, Arbutus Sherman, Mary Jane Billings, Donald Houghton and Janet Millross. Many of our pupils are out of school with chicken pox. The world's largest carpet is in a London theatre. It is 100 feet long and weighs more than 2,000 pounds and, to lift it, more than 25 men are required.

Points West

On Saturday, October 21, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Lidke are having a large family gathering in their home on Joy road, in celebration of the 50th anniversary of the Lidkes coming to America from Germany. Out of the 15 of the original members, 13 are still living; Gust, being the youngest. The oldest is Anna (Mrs. Carl Rengert), who, with her husband and family, Charles Rengert and Mary (now Mrs. Bob Gardner) came over at the same time. Out of town groups will come from Birmingham, Scottville and Ypsilanti. If all are able to attend, there will be approximately 150 members to make this unusual anniversary a gala one. Mrs. C. T. Aldrich and daughter, Patricia, of Clayton, visited the J. F. Roots over the weekend. Patricia is remaining for two weeks with her grandparents, while undergoing special treatment from Dr. Ross. Miss Sally Cutler came from Chicago Friday to visit her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cutler, on Ridge road. She brought, as her guest, Miss Winifred Garrison, also of Chicago. Sunday callers at the E. J. Cutler home included Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cutler and family, of Detroit; Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cutler and daughter, of Plymouth; and

PUBLIC COOPERATION.

It is quite surprising as well as pleasing to note the general complacency with which the public is accepting the request of the state legislature that no more special automobile license plates be issued.

The legislature, during the early part of the last session, discovered that the practice of issuing such license plate numbers as JOKE23 or MOO32 was costing the taxpayers something like $60,000 per year. It was decided by the law makers that the practice should be ended.

When it was suggested that a bill be passed making it illegal for the secretary of state to issue such licenses, Secretary of State Harry Kelly advised members of the legislature that he would comply with the suggestion without the necessity of a statute, being passed by the legislature to make the issuance of these plates illegal.

According to information being given out at the secretary of state's office, the public is cooperating in a most gratifying way to end this expensive public whim.

Here is another saving of some $50,000, or $60,000 made by the last legislature that can be used to help pay off some of the obligations that has resulted from the squandering of the previous administration.

NOT OUR PROBLEM—BUT!

In a recent issue of The Ypsilanti Press there appeared a news article which stated that the Washtenaw county board of supervisors is considering the advisability of collecting a property tax to maintain its county highways. Two members of the county road commission have signed a request to the supervisors asking for a land tax levy for highway purposes. One member refused to sign the request.

The Plymouth Mail is in full agreement with the one member of the road commission who refused to go on record as favoring a property tax for highway purposes.

There is no reason for it—and property owners cannot afford to pay additional taxes.

Michigan found out nearly two decades ago that there is such a thing as placing more taxes upon real estate than it can pay. In fact, it was this overloading of taxes upon real estate which led to the financial collapse of the state government some eight or ten years ago and resulted in the enactment of the sales tax law to provide sufficient funds to keep the state government functioning.

It is this excessive property tax that will soon deprive thousands and thousands of people throughout Michigan of their homes and their farms through the delinquent tax sale soon to be conducted by the state.

Why under the sun should general property be taxed for highway purposes when the state today is taking from the people of Michigan something like $50,000,000 per year in weight and gas tax for highway purposes EXCLUSIVELY? "We, the people" last year, as the result of a propaganda campaign conducted by the great oil and gas companies, decided by our votes that the state of Michigan could not collect more than a 3-cent tax on gasoline and that ALL money collected from such a tax could be used ONLY for highway purposes. Not only did we tie up exclusively for highway purposes all of the gas tax money, but we tied up the automobile weight tax funds for exactly the same purpose.

That is giving to the state highway department an income of practically $50,000,000 per year for highway purposes, an income that takes a good share out of the total of all funds raised by the state for governmental and institutional purposes. This total does NOT include the millions that have been allocated to the state for highway purposes by the federal government.

Washtenaw county, or no other county, should be giving consideration to the placing of additional taxes upon property. They should, however, be demanding that as long as all weight and gas tax money must be used exclusively for highway purposes, that a better distribution of it to counties be worked out in order to relieve property owners of some of the almost unbearable burden they are now forced to carry.

HE IS AN AMERICAN

He is an American. He hears an airplane overhead, and if he looks up at all does so in curiosity, neither in fear nor in the hope of seeing a protector.

His wife goes marketing, and her purchases are limited by her needs, her tastes, her budget, but not by decree.

He comes home of an evening through streets which are well lighted, not dimly in blue.

He reads his newspaper and knows that what it says is not concocted by a bureau, but an honest, untrammelled effort to present the truth.

He has never had a gas mask on.

He has never been in a bombproof shelter.

His military training, an R. O. T. C. course in college, he took because it excused him from the gym course, and it was not compulsory.

He belongs to such fraternal organizations and clubs as he wishes.

He adheres to a political party to the extent that he desires—the dominant one, if that be his choice, but with the distinct reservation that he may criticize any of its policies with all the vigor which to him seems proper—any other as his convictions dictate, even, if it be his decision, one which holds that the theory of government of the country is wrong and should be scrapped.

He does not believe, if his party is out of power, that the only way in which it can come into power is through a bloody revolution.

He converses with friends, even with chance acquaintances, expressing freely his opinion on any subject, without fear.

He does not expect his mail to be opened between posting and receipt, nor his telephone to be tapped.

He changes his place of dwelling, and does not report so doing to the police.

He has not registered with the police.

He carries an identification card only in case he should be the victim of a traffic accident.

He thinks of his neighbors across international borders—of those to the north as though they were across a state line, rather than as foreigners—of those to the south more as strangers since they speak a language different from his, and with the knowledge that there are now matters of difference between his government and theirs, but of neither with an expectancy of war.

He worships GOD in the fashion of his choice, without let.

His children are with him in his home, neither removed to a place of greater safety, if young, nor, if older, ordered ready to serve the state with sacrifice of limb or life.

He has his problems, his troubles, his uncertainties, but all others are not overshadowed by the imminence of battle and sudden death.

He should struggle to preserve his Americanism with its priceless privileges.

He is a fortunate man. He is an American.

From the New York Sun.

The "Code" of Good Hunters

Remember that hunting was once the sport of kings and princes only, and was regarded by them as an honorable and chivalrous pastime. Today it can be the sport of every man. Do nothing to degrade it.

Be considerate of others always. Do not use intoxicating beverages while hunting. Wear the back-tag of your hunting license at all time afield. Keep a copy of the Michigan game law digest in your hunting jacket, your car or your suit coat.

Study the game laws. Be firm in your determination to observe them.

Do not forget the law forbids the cleaning or dressing of game in the field so as to destroy the identity of sex or species. Wait till you get home.

Learn to distinguish readily the legal game species. Always be sure of your target before you shoot.

Always ask for the privilege of hunting on a farm. Be polite. Introduce yourself to the owner. Park your car out of the way in his yard.

Remember that under the Horton trespass law a farmer may have you arrested for entering his premises to hunt without permission, even though his land is neither fenced nor posted.

If you are responsible for any damage, or find that damage has been caused by others, report it to the landholder.

Learn by practice to handle and shoot a gun safely . . . before you go hunting.

Adopt the slogan "A gun is always loaded." Don't forget it! Leave a clean camp. Be careful in disposing of lighted matches and cigar or cigaret butts.

Do not forget, discard or lose the report form attached to your hunting license. Use it to report your game kill before February 15.

Cooperate with the conservation officer. He is employed to serve you and protect your rights. Sportsmen have nothing to fear from him.

HICK TOWNS

Did you ever feel a bit humiliated when someone spoke of your town as a "hick" town? To some people every town outside a large city is a hick town, but that's nothing to worry about or of which to feel ashamed. True, we have no skyscraper buildings, no big libraries, no zoos, no subways, no art galleries and not a lot of other good things the big city has, but neither do we have vice-ridden city governments, gangsters, labor wars, labor racketeering and a host of other evil things the big cities have, but do not boast much about. And now come some with the following satisfactions for the residents of the so-called hick towns:

"A hick town is a place where 27 out of 31 presidents were born and where 7 out of 9 immortals of New York's hall of fame originated. A hick-town that didn't have a name produced Lincoln. Hick-towns gave us most of our great literary figures of the past and practically all of those now living. Hick-towns produce our Edisons. And we might also suggest that a hick-town is a place where a boy has an excellent foundation for future greatness.—William Berkey in The Cassopolis Vigilant.

YOU NEED POTATOES, TOO

Among the silly fads that influenced eating habits of our people a while back was prejudice against potatoes. A lot of people who took a notion to diet without seeking guidance, cut out potatoes.

Well, here is science speaking: The New York State College of Home Economics says in a recent bulletin that the potato is the first vegetable to buy when low-cost health food is wanted. "For inexpensive yet healthful foods," says the authority,
