

It will not be long now before the hundreds and hundreds of thousands of enthusiastic Michigan tourists will be heading north to see the interesting sights that can be found only in northern Michigan.

There is one place that is always of interest to Michigan residents as well as people from other states—it is that historic place known as Mackinac Island and the surrounding country and lakes.

But before crossing over to the Island, one should not fail to see the restored Michilimackinac fort in Michilimackinac State Park, within the city limits of Mackinaw City.

From a recent report of the Mackinac Island State Park commission the following interesting description of what can be found in this state park has been taken: "This famous and historic park on the Straits of Mackinac, containing the restored fort and stockade which was the scene of the Pontiac massacre on June 4, 1763, has become a foremost attraction for northern Michigan summer visitors. It includes some 20 acres of woodland and a quarter mile of shore front. For more than 16 years it has been under the able administration of Custodian Chris Schneider.

Buildings in this park include a community hall, community kitchen, pavilion, bath houses and small craft pier, and the cottage occupied by the custodian. A typical northern Michigan zoo is maintained by the custodian. "Old Fort Michilimackinac was restored by the Park Commission some years ago on plans obtained from the British museum and on the exact lines of the original fort built more than 200 years ago. It includes a small Indian Village and a free historical museum. Here took place 175 years ago the historic Pontiac massacre.

"The village of Mackinac City has no sewer system, and a septic tank plan was installed at this park years ago, when its attendance was a few thousand each summer. In 1937, with an attendance of more than 100,000, and an automobile camp frequently occupied by several hundred cars and trailers, the old sewer system proved so entirely inadequate that the State Health Department was appealed to by the Commission to make a study of the imperative sanitary needs. As a result, the Administrative Board early in 1938 approved Health Department blueprints for a new sewer installation, with septic and chlorination tanks, which would fully meet the needs of this park for many years to come. At an expense of about $5,000 the new system was installed by the custodian and his men, saving the state several thousand dollars over estimates for this work from private contractors. It has been approved in its completion by the State Health engineers.

"This year the electric service available for trailers has been increased, and a small camping charge of 25c a day or $1.00 per week put into effect, providing free fuel, free use of the community kitchen, hall and all park facilities, day and night patrol and garbage disposal. All records were broken in park attendance in 1938, and the earnings from electric service and camp fees amounted to $2,492.00, as shown in the notarized report.

"A shower bath building is being built by park employees from lumber used for concrete frames in the new tanks. Park roads and paths have been restored after the trench work, buildings painted and the roof of the pavilion re-shingled.

"The 1938 attendance at this park is estimated at close to 115,000 visitors."

Hospital Day Proclamation

To the citizens of Plymouth: WHEREAS, our local hospital performs a great private service to the citizens of Plymouth and its vicinity, a service which saves them time, energy, and money because it is in our own community instead of miles away. WHEREAS, our local hospital performs a great public service for the city of Plymouth in that it cares for an enormous number of accident and emergency cases many times with very small remuneration and sometimes without any compensation at all; WHEREAS, the citizens of Plymouth may through such a proclamation as this show their appreciation for the fine humanitarian service which is rendered by hospitals in general; NOW THEREFORE, as mayor of Plymouth, I do proclaim Sunday, May 12, as Hospital Day in the city of Plymouth.

Local Doctors Attend Convention

Drs. Ed and Alta Rice attended a convention at the Book-Cadillac over the week-end. The principal lecturer was Dr. Dan Coombs, of Kansas City, who demonstrated his technique of diagnosis of pathological conditions in the body by X-ray and fluoroscopy of the colon.

Dr. Fitzgerald, of Cleveland, Ohio, also demonstrated adjustment technique. Dr. Pulowski, former teacher in the National College of Chiropractic, Chicago, gave a lecture on gynecology.

Celebrates 36th Anniversary of Business Here

It was just 36 years ago this week that William Pettingill started in business in Plymouth. Born down in Greenville, Kentucky, "Bill" was just a youngster when he came to Wayne one week-end to attend a family reunion. He was so impressed with Michigan that he searched for a job and before he knew it he was a full-fledged conductor on the O. & N.

On the 6th of May in 1904, Mr. Pettingill purchased a half interest in the Brown and Shafer Grocery store which was located at that time in the building owned by Edward Shafer which is now the Simon department store. Fifteen years later, Fred Campbell bought out Mr. Brown's interest in the store. It was then known as the Pettingill and Campbell grocery.

A few years later the store was forced to move because rats had undermined the Mickey Burch saloon which caused the two buildings to cave in. They then bought out the Davis grocery stock and moved into the building that is now occupied by the A. & P. store. A few months later Campbell and Pettingill moved into the old Kimball Drug store building which is now the Woodworth building. They stayed there until Mr. Pettingill took over. Mr. Campbell's interest, February 1, 1922, and 18 years ago moved to his present location.

In Mr. Pettingill's advertisement this week he compares present day prices with those offered in his ad 36 years ago. At the time of his moving he featured the celebrated Columbus stock food for horses, cattle and hogs. Today Mr. Pettingill no longer carries these items but features fresh frozen vegetables, fish and fowl. His price comparison on identical items will be interesting to Plymouth Mail readers.

Pontiac Dealer Tells of Progress

According to Ross L. Berry, local Pontiac dealer, the Pontiac Motor Car division of General Motors will have produced 2,000,000 cars each bearing the famed Indian head trademark—more than twice as many Indian heads as there were Indians in America when Columbus arrived.

The United States Bureau of Indian Affairs estimates there were 846,000 aboriginals in America in 1492.

Pontiac's trademark, streamlined now and moulded in plastic, was designed in 1926 when the first Pontiac appeared.

Demand for new cars here has been so great that the local agency is still behind on their deliveries. The Berry agency is located at 906 S. Main street in the Dettling garage. Ralph Hunter is associated with Mr. Berry in the agency.

Nominations to Open for Board Positions
Nominating petitions will be received from May 11 to 25 by the Plymouth board of education for two members to serve terms of three years. Superintendent George A. Smith announced Wednesday. Two trustees whose terms of office end this June are Mrs. S. D. Stron, who recently replaced Herald Hamill who moved from the school district, and George E. Fischer.

The election of members to the school board will be held June 10, and all persons wishing their names to appear on ballots for one of the two vacancies must have their petitions for nomination in the hands of the board by May 25.

Further notice as to time and place of registration and election will appear in The Plymouth Mail.

Two Bank Officers Are Descendants of Founders

Daisy, Plymouth Mail Are Only Other Half Century Firms in City

On Monday, May 13, the Plymouth United Savings bank will celebrate its fiftieth birthday anniversary. At that time it will join the ranks of Plymouth's Daisy (Manufacturing company and The Plymouth Mail in having served this community for more than a half century. The Daisy Manufacturing company is now in its fifty-fourth year and The Plymouth Mail in its fifty-second.

Way back in 1883 a group of Plymouth business men met to formulate the plans for organizing a new bank for Plymouth. The meeting was held above the old R. G. Hall store, now the Dodge Drug company. On December 12 of that year the bank was organized with a capital stock of $50,000 and 13 directors were elected to serve on the board.

T. C. Sherwood, father of Mrs. Maude Couper who resides at the corner of Penniman avenue and Harvey street, was the first president. Other directors were L. H. Bennett, father of C. H. Bennett who is now president of the bank and also president of the Daisy Manufacturing company; Samuel Lyndon, father of Afford Lyndon who owns the

Request City to Assume Xmas Lighting Expense

Chamber of Commerce Sends Representatives to Commission Meet

Walter Harms and Irving Blunk, representatives of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, were present at the Monday night meeting of the city commission and on behalf of the organization requested that the city assume the Christmas season lighting and street decoration expenses.

The representatives suggested that the city put the expense in the current budget so that residents as a whole will indirectly pay for the decorations, and not just a few business men and the Chamber of Commerce. It was agreed at a meeting of the business men that they will turn over all decorations and equipment which have been purchased in recent years.

Before giving the matter final consideration the city commission requested the city manager to consult the other cities about the proposal.

Providing the report is made by Monday night, consideration of the matter will be taken up at the budget hearing at that time. Otherwise, commissioners will study the matter at their next regular meeting, Monday, May 20.

Last year, the expense of lighting and decoration was shared jointly by the Chamber of Commerce and city of Plymouth, involving approximately $175 for each.

Most of the city's expense was in decorating the parks, while the business men's organization purchased lights and trees for the streets.

Garden Club to Meet Monday
The Plymouth branch of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will meet Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Lee C. Smith, 1494 Penniman avenue, as hostess.

On May 14 and 15, the annual state meeting will take place in Lansing in the Hotel Olds. Reservations must be made by May 10. On May 18 and 19 a pilgrimage of the following gardens in Grosse Pointe is to be made by the members of the Michigan branches: Mrs. Arthur Garden, Mrs. Harry N. Torrey, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell, Mrs. Richard H. Webber, Mrs. Carl Breer, Mrs. Raymond H. Berry, Mrs. Henry E. Candler, Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl and Mrs. Oscar Webber.

The speaker Monday will be Mrs. Herbert Byer of Rosedale Park. The assisting hostesses will be Mrs. H. L. Poppenger, Mrs. Clarence Moore, Mrs. R. Mulford, Mrs. William P. Wernett, Mrs. Jesse Tritton and Mrs. Horace Thatcher.

Clean-up and Paint-up Week Is Fixed by Mayor's Proclamation

To the citizens of Plymouth: WHEREAS, Plymouth has the reputation of being an unusually attractive, well-groomed city in which to live; WHEREAS, Plymouth is noted as the City of Homes, and the word "home" implies orderliness, neatness, and cleanliness; WHEREAS, there is need each spring for a special home beautification program to offset the grim and soot which are the necessary accompaniment of our northern winters;

NOW, THEREFORE, as Mayor of Plymouth, I do proclaim May 13 to May 18, inclusive, as Plymouth's paint-up and clean-up week. Our municipal garbage and rubbish collection agents will work overtime, if necessary, to collect your surplus refuse; our city manager, Clarence H. Elliott, has started a new program for regular cleaning of the streets in the business areas twice weekly besides a special Sunday morning collection of the papers that litter the down-town area every week-end; again this spring our city commission is continuing its program of municipal beautification through park improvements, more tree planting, and further surfacing and paving of streets that have curb and gutter.

With all this being done, if our individual citizens and homeowners will rake up, clean up, and paint up, we can make Plymouth what it has every right to be—the prettiest little city in Michigan.

City Voters Must Re-Register at City Hall

Population Increase Calls for Cancellation of Old Registrations

Every qualified elector in the city of Plymouth must re-register. All registrations made previous to this date are cancelled because the city is required by law to change the method of registration.

City Manager C. H. Elliott advised the city commission at the meeting Monday night of the action, which, in accordance with state law, is mandatory for all cities in the state with a population more than 5,000 to have what is commonly known as permanent registration.

Although the city of Plymouth is classed by the 1930 census as having a population under 5,000, the city manager was unofficially advised by Richard Wernette, of Detroit, sub-district leader of enumeration for this locality, that reports this year indicate that it is well in excess of 5,000. The most recent census figure has not been given out officially, but Mr. Wernette says that the number will be released within a few weeks.

The new method of registration does not affect school elections. It is only for elections involving city, state or national issues. Under the former set-up, persons who registered at one time were kept on the role unless the city clerk was advised, or by other methods, learned that they were dead or moved from the city.

According to rules established for permanent registration, a person loses the right to vote when he fails to go to the polls two years in succession. If he misses two times, he is automatically refused the right to an official vote in elections until he re-registers.

The city manager requests that qualified electors in the city of Plymouth register for voting as soon as possible so that there will be no last minute rush before the next election, held next fall. The new registration forms have been obtained. All persons who wish to register must appear personally at the city hall.

C. H. Rauch entertained a few guests at a dinner, Monday, in the Hotel Mayflower. Those present were Mrs. Mamie Lee, who left on Tuesday for her home in Kansas City, Missouri, after visiting for the past month in the Michigan branches; Mrs. Arthur Garden, Mrs. Harry N. Torrey, Mrs. Standish Backus, Mrs. Ledyard Mitchell, Mrs. Richard H. Webber, Mrs. Carl Breer, Mrs. Raymond H. Berry, Mrs. Henry E. Candler, Mrs. Theodore D. Buhl and Mrs. Oscar Webber.

The telephone career of Butler, who was born in Ontario, has extended into two countries, and two states in this country. He started with the Bell Telephone company of Canada in 1904 and at one time was with the Southern California Telephone company at Los Angeles.

His service with the Michigan Bell began when he started as an installer at Lansing in 1924. He came to Plymouth as a combination man in 1930 and remained here until the first of this year when he went to Farmington.

Butler was active in lodge circles here, being a member of the Masonic Order and the Modern Woodmen of America. He is also a member of the Telephone Pioneers of America, Wolverine chapter.

Rauch Property to Be Added to Civic Center

Purchase of the C. H. Rauch property at 694 Church street for the future site of a municipal library was announced by City Manager C. H. Elliott yesterday. It was considered a desirable site to build a library because it ties in with the idea of grouping a number of municipal buildings in a civic center around Central park as planned for the future by the city planning commission.

The price for the property as agreed on by Mr. Rauch and the city commission was $5,000. Necessary papers are now being prepared so that the city will

City Manager to Obtain Land for Parking Lot

To Condemn Property That Is Withheld From Purchase

City Manager C. H. Elliott was requested by the city commission at its meeting Monday night to secure options on land to be used for a municipal parking lot. The property which is to be considered for purchase is an area behind the stores on Main street and Penniman avenue.

If property owners withhold their land from the sale, the city manager has the consent of all commissioners to start condemnation proceedings.

The municipal parking question has been under consideration for several years. There is a definite need for such a space to relieve the congested parking conditions which exist. Heretofore it has been difficult to obtain the properties. Oftentimes the city and property owners could not agree on a price. Some refused to sell.

As a result of a meeting last week at which the city manager and all the principal property owners in the area met to discuss the problem, both parties agreed on what they thought was a fair price. The parking lot, as planned by the planning commission contains approximately 33,000 square feet, and will involve an expenditure of about $8,000 for the city.

Mr. Elliott will obtain the property options immediately and the land will be purchased following the start of the new fiscal year, July 1. He said that the options will be bought up about July 10.

Plans are now that a part of the lot will be improved so that parking facilities will be available during the summer months.

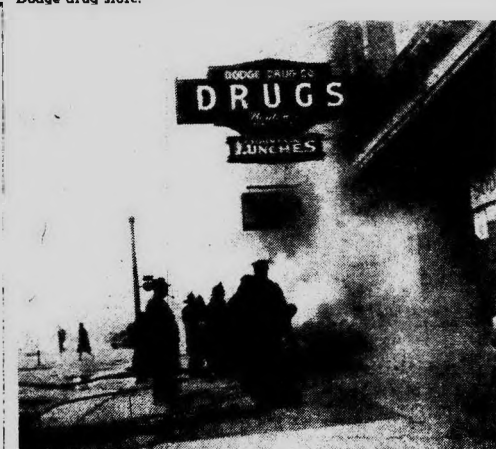

The commission received a letter from Plymouth's Chamber of Commerce stating that the organization is in an ideal position in favor of the municipal parking lot. Commissioners accepted the letter and placed it on file.

Poppy Sale on Saturday, May 25

Permission was granted the American Legion and Ex-Servicemen's club to hold their annual Poppy Day sale in Plymouth, Saturday, May 25, by the city commission at their meeting Monday night.

The organizations also requested that they be given the right to use Kellough park and city streets on Decoration day, May 30. Commissioners voted unanimously to grant this permission.

It is planned by the Ex-Servicemen that a dedicatory ceremony will be held Decoration day for a tree memorial, consisting of nine separate maples, which were planted some years ago in Central park in front of the school building.

Members of both organizations will dedicate each tree to one of Plymouth's war dead.

Originally the names of each of the soldiers were inscribed on a metal star which was set in a cement curbing near the trees. The curbing was torn out three years ago when the course of the street was changed in the park, although the trees were left undisturbed.

The club, with the cooperation of the city of Plymouth, has secured a marble-cement monument on which the original stars will be placed. The city planning commission recommended that the memorial be placed directly in front of the school entrance, about six feet from the sidewalk. It will be in the center of the grove of nine trees.

The men for whom the trees will be dedicated are Myron H. Beals, Charles Burch, Charles Chappell, Scott D. Cortrite, Walter E. Gordon, Vernon B. Henderson, David Oliver, Harry J. Rattenbury and J. Edward Tighe.

Stands 14th in Sale of Postal Savings Bonds

Ranks Much Higher Than Many Larger Michigan Cities

Among the 54 first class postoffices in Michigan, Plymouth landed in fourteenth place in the number of United States Savings bonds sold per capita to local residents during the year 1939.

This information was released to Postmaster Frank Learned yesterday by the United States Treasury department officials in Washington.

The total sales here during the last year amounted to $62,287.50, with the city of Hastings a close second.

Dowagiac, of similar size to Plymouth was in twenty-ninth place, Marshall was in forty-ninth place, with a total sale of only $33,675.

In the announcement sent Postmaster Learned, Secretary of the Treasury, Montgomery announced that the total sales of savings bonds in the United States through March 31, 1940, aggregated in maturity value more than $3,860,273,475, and that purchases have been made by approximately 1,987,374 investors. The total represents average purchases of $2,495,325 for each business day since March 1, 1935, when these bonds were first placed on sale. Deducting bonds redeemed, the maturity value of savings bonds outstanding on March 31, 1940, was approximately $3,495,573,600.

The total maturity value of purchases for the calendar year 1939 was $1,104,060,000, an average purchase for each business day of last year of $3,667,975.

United States savings bonds are sold on a discount basis and mature in ten years for one-third more than their purchase price. For example, $75 is the price. (Continued on page 8)

Furnace Explodes in Basement of Willoughby Store

Dodge Drug Stock Is Badly Damaged by Smoke and Steam

The explosion of a furnace in the basement of Willoughby Brothers' Walk Over Boot Shop on Main street caused a fire last Friday morning that resulted in damages to the extent of nearly $40,000. Fire spread so rapidly in the shoe store basement that it took the combined efforts of the Plymouth, Northville, Wayne County Training school, Detroit House of Correction fire departments and also a squadron of Detroit's specially trained rescue firemen nearly three hours to bring the blaze under control.

The shoe stock of the Willoughby store totaling in value about $20,000 was a complete loss and damage was estimated at about $10,000 to the building itself. The floor and all of the racks on the side of the store fell into the basement.

The Dodge drug store was badly damaged by smoke and the loss there was estimated at many thousands of dollars. Merchandise and the walls of the store were covered by smoke that rolled up the stairway which was used by both stores. The drug store was opened for business on Saturday and work is under way now to redecorate the store's interior.

Several thousand dollars worth of furniture was stored above the Dodge drug store and the Walk

Jene K. Brocklehurst Takes Dearborn Bride

Miss Evelyn Frances Couper-Smith and Jene Kendall Brocklehurst were united in marriage by the Rev. Herman Walker in the church of St. Mary's Catholic church in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, May 4, at 2:30 o'clock.

The bride ensemble included a street length dress of alpaca cloth in Alice blue with a simple V-neckline, short puffed sleeves, and a very full skirt. The hat, a navy blue velvet, was made of the dress material and edged with navy blue veil. Navy blue accessories and a corsage of gardenias completed the ensemble. The bride also wore the bridegroom's gift, a tiny gold locket.

Mrs. Edward DePorter was matron of honor. She was dressed in dusty pink crepe, styled with short puffed sleeves, high neckline, and a short jacket. Her accessories were brown, accented with a nosegay of fresh spring flowers.

Edward DePorter was best man. Mrs. A. K. Brocklehurst, the bridegroom's mother, selected a dusty pink colored dress with black accessories.

At the reception, which was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Brocklehurst, guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Brocklehurst and Miss Virginia Brocklehurst, parents and sister of the bridegroom, of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. C. DePorter, of San Diego, California; and Mrs. Anthony Sackes, of this city.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael C. Couper-Smith, of Dearborn, is a graduate of Fordson high school and attended Fordson Junior college. The bridegroom is a graduate of the Plymouth high school and attended Michigan State college. He now holds a position at the Mellon Institute in Pittsburgh in the vitamin research laboratory.

Mr. and Mrs. Brocklehurst are residing at 249 Myxton in Pittsburgh and have the best wish of all their friends in and around Plymouth.

To Observe Hospital Day Sunday

Plymouth Hospital Will Open Its Doors to Visitors

In observance of National Hospital Day to be held all over the nation Sunday, May 12, the Plymouth hospital cordially invites residents of Plymouth and vicinity to visit the institution, inspect equipment and observe the services rendered.

The Plymouth hospital is under the supervision of Alma and Lena Weist. In a statement to The Plymouth Mail inviting Plymouth residents and those living in the surrounding territory to visit the hospital Sunday, they said: "We cordially invite you to visit our hospital on National Hospital Day, Sunday, May 12. It is an occasion on which we are glad to welcome our many friends in order that we may show them what the hospital is accomplishing in behalf of the patient and the community."

"Your visits to the hospital probably have been in the interests of a patient—some one near and dear to you. Your observations then probably were only casually concerned, for the most part, with illness and recovery. Now we invite you to visit the hospital as our guest."

"We are anxious to see old friends and make new ones. Your visit will show you how the hospital functions with its staff of well-trained physicians and nurses, and with them, ready for every need, are pharmacists and other health workers. The numerous services which the hospital provides will be open for your inspection and we think that you will find them interesting."

"The rigid standard which the hospital maintains in the education of its nurses is only one of the reasons which makes a hospital the best of all possible places for you to be when you are ill. If you are unfamiliar with the workings of the hospital take advantage of National Hospital Day, May 12, to visit your local hospital, for on that day—the birth date of Florence Nightingale—America's hospitals throw wide their doors and bid the whole world welcome."

"The hospital's motto is, 'To better serve you and the community.'"

To Have Final Vesper Service

The final union vesper service of the year will be held Sunday afternoon at 4:00 o'clock at the Presbyterian church, Dr. John F. Edwards, pastor of St. Mark's Methodist church, of Detroit, will be the guest pastor for the day.

Dr. Edwards is well-known in Detroit and this locality. He comes from a family of preachers; of the Gospel, many of whom occupy pulpits in metropolitan Detroit.

The services have been sponsored each week for the past winter and spring by the First Baptist, Presbyterian and Methodist churches of this city. The public is cordially invited to the service Sunday afternoon.

Ruth Chatterton to Open Series

RUTH CHATTERTON

Monday night, May 13, the curtain rises on the eleventh annual Ann Arbor Dramatic season, again bringing to Michigan audiences brilliant artists in distinguished plays.

New York as well as local interest is being shown in the initial production, Bernard Shaw's genial comedy, "Pygmalion." Miss Ruth Chatterton, who is playing the lead in Ann Arbor, expects to do this play in New York next fall, and at least one New York producer will be in the Ann Arbor audience on opening night.

When first presented by the Theatre Guild in New York, "Pygmalion" was described by Frank Vreeland as "the most refreshing, intellectual, shrewd, bath on Broadway with the tingling drops of Shaw's wit to tickle the spine." Miss Chatterton, who has a notable record of achievement on both stage and screen, is felt to be perfectly cast for the characterization of the illiterate Cockney girl who is transformed into a charming person, seemingly of great social distinction. Barry Thomson, seen as Miss Chatterton's leading man in "Tonight We Dance," will play the role of Professor Higgins, who in his capacity of speech instructor, finds the little Cockney Elizabeth. The play ends with the feeling that Higgins will never give her up, and the audience feels that Shaw has built a delightful and fascinating play around this old Cinderella theme, bringing it realistically up to date. Louis Calhern will play the role of the romantic Colonel Pickering, friend of Professor Higgins.

Supporting Miss Chatterton, Mr. Thomson, and Mr. Calhern will be a splendid cast including the English actor, Richard Temple, as Doolittle, Alice John as Mrs. Higgins, with Grace Mills, Esther Mitchell, Fay Baker, J. P. Wilson, Guy Kingsley, and Horace McNally completing the list. "Pygmalion" will run every evening through the week, with matinees Thursday and Saturday at 3:15. Orders are still being taken for season tickets, the season running five weeks and presenting, beside "Pygmalion," "The Winter's Tale," "The World We Make," "The American premiere of 'Boyd's Shop,' and Molnar's 'The Guardsman.' Artists appearing include Mady Christians, Madge Evans, Whitford Kane, Hiram Sherman, John Emery, Diana Barrymore and many others.

WOOL IS STILL GOOD

FRANKENMUTH—An out of town customer recently brought a wool mattress to a local mill to be washed and carded. Although it has been in this country nearly 100 years, the wool was as good as new after it had been renovated.

Recent meeting on the campus at Michigan State college of some of the state's leaders in goat breeding brought out some interesting facts about goats. The animals are exceedingly dainty eaters, despite their reputation for thriving on empty tin cans. The animals like alfalfa, clover or soybean hay. Their diet also includes carrots, corn, barley, oats, linseed oilmeal, bran, steamed bone meal, salt and appetizer pellets.

Townsendites to Meet in Kellogg Park Again This Summer

Clarence Pankow, president of the Plymouth Townsend club, requested city commissioners at their meeting this week, to again permit the club to hold public outdoor meetings in Kellogg park on Saturday evenings this summer.

Commissioners ruled that the club might have their meetings in the park providing public address systems are not put in use. The meetings will be held at 8:00 o'clock and are to extend over a period from June through the month of September.

Women Pilots to Meet Here

The entire state chapter of the "Ninety-Nine" club, women pilots of Michigan, will meet at the Mayflower hotel, Sunday morning, for a breakfast meeting. Mrs. L. D. Montgomery, of North Haven, is chairman of the Michigan chapter for the current year, and is the only Plymouth member of the international organization of licensed women pilots. Margaret Haskell, of Northville, is also a member.

Mrs. Montgomery estimates that there will be 25 or 30 at the meeting. Some of them will fly their own planes to this city and land at the Triangle Glider port located at the corner of East Ann Arbor Trail and Ann Arbor road.

Following the breakfast and regular monthly meeting, it is planned that several glider-flying demonstrations will be given by members of the club at the port. Mrs. Montgomery said.

The club will have its annual spring supper party at the home of Alice Hammond, of Grrosse Pointe Farms, Saturday evening. Members will fly to Detroit Saturday, and then hop out to Plymouth Sunday. There will be members of the club present from Lansing, Kalamazoo, Saginaw, Bay City, Ypsilanti, Ann Arbor, Pontiac and Detroit, besides the two members from Plymouth and Northville.

Mother-Daughter Banquet Largely Attended

Readings, Play Highlight Evening's Entertainment

Filling every seat in the high school auditorium, a capacity crowd of 300, who attended the sixteenth annual mother-daughter banquet, held last Tuesday, May 7, found the interpretive readings of Mrs. Grace Dunshoe, graduate student of the University of Michigan, and the play, "Memories," depicting favorite songs of the decades from the '90's to the present day, the highlights of the evening.

Mrs. Dunshoe gave several readings of different types of characters. Aunt Hitty, who was slightly sour on the world; gentle Granny, who found the world lacking faith in God; the retiring neighbor, who felt the world should be taken over by the women; and the young German girl, who agreed with her. She also read a story of a rich little girl who insisted upon associating with the lower classes.

Ardith Rowland, "I Told Them All About You," introduced the toastmistress, Ruth Ash, president of the Senior Girl Reserves. She, in turn introduced Virginia Rock, "My Mom," who gave the toast to the mothers. Mrs. M. A. Arnold responded with a toast to the daughters. Vera Enns led the mothers and daughters in group singing.

At the conclusion of the banquet, Mrs. Dunshoe was presented with a lovely corsage of cultured lavender iris and yellow daisies by the Girl Reserves, sponsors of the annual affair.

Obituary

MRS. ELSIE HEWER

Mrs. Elsie Hewer, formerly of Livonia township, and who has resided at 644 Irvin street, Plymouth, passed away Wednesday evening, May 1, in the University hospital, Ann Arbor, at the age of 32 years. Mrs. Hewer is survived by her husband, Norman R. Hewer, two daughters and three sons, Donna, Shirley, Melvin, Milton and Roland; her mother Mrs. Annie Sprague, of Dearborn; six sisters and four brothers, Mrs. Minnie Smith, Mrs. Nina Durham and Mrs. Mabel Durham, all of Dearborn; Mrs. Milber Drake, of Dayton, Ohio; Mrs. Anna Dolbee, of Kalamazoo; and Mrs. Carrie Smith of Howell; C. W. and Arthur Sprague, both of Ypsilanti; J. C. Sprague, of Howell; and Orin Sprague, of Plymouth. Mrs. Hewer was brought to the Schrader Funeral home, Plymouth, from which place funeral services were held Sunday, May 5, at 2:00 p.m. Rev. Dan Binder, of the Evangelical church, of Dearborn, officiated and interment was made in Albion cemetery, Willis, Michigan.

EDWIN C. MCGUIRE

Edwin C. McGuire, beloved son of Jerome L. McGuire and Mrs. Estelle LaHave, step-son of Raymond LaHave, passed away at Providence hospital on May 4, of aplastic anemia, after two weeks' illness. He is also survived by three brothers, Donald J., Robert L. and Berle R.; half-brother of James LaHave; grand-son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel W. son, Requiem High Mass was held at St. Ann's church, Detroit and interment made in Riverside cemetery, Plymouth. "He went at the noon-tide when life is so sweet. So precious the swift flying hours. When sunbeams are sparkling on valley and pool. And tinting the sweet summer flowers. Shall we mourn for our loved one?" His journey is o'er. All trials and dangers are past. He has crossed the dark river and reached yonder shore. That beautiful Homeland at last.

To reach a port, we must sail, sometimes with the wind and sometimes against it, but we must sail, and not drift, nor lie at anchor. — Oliver Wendell Holmes.

KELVINATOR'S THE BUY IN 1940

Thanks to a New Program of Large-Volume Production and Low-Cost Selling

Now you can have America's finest quality electric refrigerator, delivered in your kitchen—for only $112.75.

No—it's not an out-of-date, year-old model being "cleared out", but a brand-new 1940 Kelvinator!

It took a daring new program to permit us to do this in the face of rising costs. Here's how Kelvinator did it. FIRST: Kelvinator found a more efficient way to distribute its products... and cut the cost of selling. This made a big saving.

SECOND: by putting 96% of production on six-cubic-foot models (and larger), Kelvinator was able to build big electric refrigerators at lower cost.

THIRD: in anticipation of greatly increased sales, Kelvinator doubled factory schedules, and passes the manufacturing savings to you.

And the result? You save as much as $30 to $60, compared with last year's figures. Look at this big Kelvinator model at right—in gleaming Permalux.

Open that Easy-Touch door and you'll find the best features money can buy. 11½ square feet of wide, roomy shelving... chip-proof, "life-time" Porcelain-on-steel cabinet interior... big storage tray... 84 cube freezing capacity... automatic light.

Its amazing, cost-cutting Polarsphere sealed unit uses current less than 20% of the time and has sufficient capacity to keep 5 refrigerators cold, under average household conditions.

If your present refrigerator is old, noisy—using up current—or if you're still getting along with an old-fashioned ice-box—come down to our showroom. See the new beautiful line of 1940 Kelvinators today!

Mrs. Harry Robinson and Miss Rose Hawthorne were joint hostesses at a lovely bridge party and a co-operative luncheon, Thursday, in their home on Braden road, when they had the members and former members of the Plymouth bridge club as guests. They were Mrs. Elia Chaffee, Mrs. Jennie Chaffee, Mrs. Nettie Dibble, Mrs. Nellie Shattuck, Mrs. Clinton Wilcox, Mrs. George H. Wilcox, Mrs. Luther Peck, Mrs. William T. Pettigill, Mrs. William Wood, Miss Mary Conner, Mrs. L. B. Warner, Mrs. Blanche Daniels, Mrs. Ernest L. Thrall, Mrs. J. H. Kimble, Mrs. Albert Gayde, of Plymouth; Mrs. Donald Neil McKinnon and Mrs. Fred Bennett, of Detroit. The home was beautifully decorated with spring flowers in pastel shades and all greatly enjoyed the opportunity of visiting together.

On Sunday Mrs. Myrtle Murray was the guest of honor at a dinner party given in the home of her daughter, Mrs. Arthur Blunk, in celebration of her birthday anniversary. A beautiful cake centered the table and yellow daffodils completed the color scheme of yellow and white. The guests here as follows: Mr. and Mrs. Frank Henderson, Mr. and Mrs. William A. Kirkpatrick, of Plymouth; Mr. and Mrs. Myrland Lyke and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Lyke and family, Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and daughter, Iva, Mrs. Opal Lyke and daughter, Doris, of Salem. In the evening other guests were Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Steffen and Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Koch, of Ann Arbor.

The following members of the Tuesday afternoon contract bridge group plan to attend the first play of the dramatic season, Ruth Chatterton in "Pygmalion," to be held in the Lydia Mendelsohn theatre, in Ann Arbor, Thursday afternoon, May 16: Mrs. R. L. Hills, Mrs. Paul Nutting, Mrs. Harold Stevens, Mrs. C. J. Dykhouse, Mrs. Albert Stever, Mrs. Myron W. Hughes, Mr. George M. Chute, Mrs. S. N. Thams, Mrs. George A. Smith, and the following ladies who have substituted during the last year: Mrs. William Kaiser, Mrs. Harold Curtis, Mrs. Edwin Rice, Mrs. F. Hughes, Mrs. L. Davis and Mrs. Anthony Matulis.

Although the birthdays of Patty and Sally Zink, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. David Zink, did not occur on Wednesday they celebrated them anyway as they were near that date. They were joined by about 50 other children at the Grange hall, where movies were shown and movies taken. Games were played too and later dainty luncheon served, the table being decorated in pink and blue. Each guest had a favor at his or her place at the table and all enjoyed the delicious birthday cakes and other refreshments.

Mrs. C. G. Draper will attend a miscellaneous shower this evening in Detroit honoring her niece, Virginia Merrill, of that city.

Fire Causes $40,000 Damage

Over Boot shop which belonged to the Blunk and Thatcher Furniture company. Smoke and steam damage was estimated on the furniture of about $5,000.

The Community Pharmacy which joins the shoe store on the south and the Lov-Lee beauty salon which is directly above the Community Pharmacy were badly damaged by smoke but other than that there was no other loss reported.

All of the stores that were damaged in the fire were well covered with insurance with the exception of the Willoughby shoe store where spring and summer merchandise just received ran the inventory well over the insured amount.

Mrs. Nettie Dibble, owner of the store building, stated that immediate steps would be taken to rebuild the store. During the time needed to rebuild the store the Willoughby management has opened offices in the Taylor and Blyton department store where they will carry on their regular services until they are again able to open their doors.

Blake Fisher, whose shoe repairing shop was located at the rear of the Walk-Over store reports that the fire did approximately $1100 worth of damage there. He has removed all the machinery from the building and is having it moved and refinished in preparation for moving back when the store is rebuilt. Some of it will be replaced by new and modern machines, he said.

At the present time, Mr. Fisher is taking care of his regular business by having shoes left at Dodge's drug store where he calls for them and does the repair work at Northville. Next week, Mr. Fisher reports that his machinery will be installed in the garage at the rear of his home on Burroughs avenue. At that time shoes to be serviced may either be left at the drug store or brought directly to his home.

Local firemen acted promptly and did an excellent job of containing the flames, August Meyers, Plymouth fireman, was overcome with smoke but is now at work repairing the fire. There were no other serious injuries with the exception of one or two slight burns on the hands of firemen who were in the store.

This is the first fire in that block since the one on April 11, 1894, when the entire section was burned to the ground.

Blunk and Thatcher will hold an auction sale of their damaged furniture on Wednesday of next week in their warehouse up over the Dodge drug company.

The salvage shoe stock of the Willoughby store will be offered for sale next week-end in the same location. While the Willoughby store is being rebuilt Mr. Willoughby is giving his treatments in the Taylor & Blyton department store.

The following interesting account of that disastrous blaze 43 years ago this spring is taken from a copy of the Detroit Free Press that E. C. Hough has had in the files at his office since that time.

Plymouth, April 18, 1897.—(Special.) At about 11:45 o'clock last night a fire was discovered by Mentor Bradner in the rear of the frame building occupied by George Van Decar as a barber shop. An alarm was immediately sounded, but the flames had made such a headway that it communicated with the First National Exchange bank building on the north and the O. A. Fraser store, occupied by Chaffee & Hunter, druggists, on the south side. These connected with adjacent buildings and the Van Decar barber shop, First National Exchange bank building and R. G. Hall's dry goods and grocery store, the May building, occupied by W. A. Bassett & Son, furniture, the brick store occupied by A. H. Dibble, boot and shoe dealer, the frame building occupied by J. L. Gale, druggist, and the hardware store of Alfred Lindon & Son all burned to the ground. Charles Miller's store, caught fire but the flames were extinguished before they had made much headway and the building was saved.

The postoffice and Dohm-streich Bros' dry goods store had narrow escapes. A telegram was sent to Detroit for assistance and an engine arrived here at 2:00 p.m. This morning too late to be of much assistance, but it was utilized to cut out the smoldering fire in ruins. The town is without any fire engines or other facilities of any consequence to fight the fire, and after the telegram to Detroit for assistance, the creek back of the stores was dammed to furnish water for the fire engine when it arrived.

Today the main occupation of nearly all the residents of this place consists of gazing at the hole in the ground, where formerly stood the principal business block in town. Not even the walls of many of the buildings which formerly stood on the corner of Main and Sutton streets, are left. Only the vault of the First National Bank and the smoking ruins are seen. In the public square are a few articles of furniture and odds and ends that were hastily taken from the different stores when the fire broke out late last night. A Free Press representative, figuring on calculations furnished by different losers, estimated that the total loss to property, consisting of buildings and stock, was about $40,000. Had not engine No. 8 from Detroit rendered efficient service, although arriving late on the scene and ending an insufficient water supply, the rest of the block, including the Berdan House, would have been destroyed. The primitive style of fighting the flames with buckets was not very successful of course, although the entire town turned out. The men worked hard, rushing to the flames with their buckets, but the smoke drove them back. Try as they would, they could not stop the progress of the fire. The buildings destroyed, consisting of two and three-story structures, belonged to Mrs. Coleman, Henry May, R. G. Hall, the First National bank, E. C. Lauffer, O. A. Fraser, Mrs. Penny and Charles Miller. It is stated that the buildings were set on fire, flames having first been seen running up the outside of one of the buildings, but no definite clue has been discovered of the incendiary. The heaviest losers are Chaffee & Hunter, O. A. Fraser, the First National Bank, R. G. Hall, John L. Gale, Mrs. Coleman, Henry F. May and Mr. Penny.

A good deal of stock was saved owing to the strenuous efforts of citizens, but much of this was badly damaged. For example, the stock of John L. Gale, druggist, was all hustled into the street but so great was the heat that most of it was seriously damaged, bottles, etc., being smashed in the confusion. It is estimated that the loss to Charles Miller's saloon was $2,000. He carried $3,000 insurance. A. D. Linden & Son, hardware dealers, lost $3,500 and carried $2,000 insurance. Chaffee & Hunter, drugs and groceries, lost about $7,500 and carried $4,000. Other losses are approximated as follows: O. A. Fraser, who owns the Chaffee & Hunter building, lost $5,000, insurance $2,000; the Ed Fellows and Masons in the Fraser building, lost $1,500, insurance $600; George Van Decar, barber, lost $400; the First National bank, lost $6,000, insurance $2,500; R. G. Hall, dry goods, lost $5,000, insurance $3,000; Bassett & Son, furniture dealers, lost $2,000, insurance $1,500; John Steele, jewelry and boots and shoes, lost $500, fully insured; John L. Gale, drugs and groceries, lost $4,000, insurance $4,500; the postoffice, no loss of any consequence; Mrs. Penny's building, lost $2,500, partially insured; Henry F. May's building, lost $3,000; Mrs. Coleman's building, lost $3,500, insured $2,500; Nettie Steele milliner lost $400, no insurance; Fred Sloman, barber, lost $150, no insurance; Alexander Black, boots and shoes, lost $400, no insurance; Charles Valentine, law office, lost $100, no insurance; the Plymouth Savings bank, lost $100; Berdan House, slight loss; E. C. Lauffer, lost $250.

The town hall is used as a storeroom for the stock taken from the different buildings. Cashier Fraser says that there is about $8,000 in cash in the vault of the First National bank. There are also numerous certificates, etc., many citizens having deposited their all there. The vault will be opened tomorrow. It has a double wall and it is thought everything within will be in good condition.

The engine from Detroit played upon the ruins until noon. The little village of Plymouth was visited by fire in 1856, when it was practically wiped away. No definite preparations are being made for the erection of new buildings. The smoking rafters will be first cleared away from the ruins, in order that the sparks may not ignite any other part of the town. The greatest credit is due citizens for the manner in which they fought the flames with buckets, the water supply coming from pumps and a small creek.

Grants Permit for Marquee

City commissioners, when they met Monday night, instructed City Manager Clarence H. Elliott to grant Harry Lush, builder of a new theatre on Penniman avenue, a permit to build a marquee which will extend out over the sidewalk.

The marquee will extend along the theatre building proper for 35 feet and plans call for its extension of nine and one-half feet from the building. It was decided that the permit will be continued "at the pleasure of the city commission," or in other words, until the commission sees fit to revoke it.

O'Neil Shows Alaskan Films

The near-capacity crowd which turned out to see the moving pictures of wild life in far northern Alaska as photographed by George (One Shot) O'Neil at the Monday night meeting of the Western Wayne County Conservation association attested to the fact that the films came up to the advance notices.

While O'Neil only brought three films out to the Hotel Mayflower meeting with him, the applause and the running of the one conversation was continually an evidence that the members and their friends who attended were enjoying a rare treat.

Many of the things shown in his movies by Mr. O'Neil were scenes that could only be taken by a man who goes out beyond the fringe of civilization to get. Among some of the more interesting "bits" were those showing a mother bear and her cub catching silver salmon in an Alaska creek that fairly teemed with these magnificent game fish running from six to 20 pounds in weight, several shovels of caribou in their native haunts, pictures of Kadiah and Silvertop Grizzly bears feeding among the rocks and in the low-lands, mountain sheep that seemed close enough to reach out and fly fishing for Dolly Varden trout in a stream so filled with these beautiful gamsters that no bait was used—only a spinner and hook.

Arthur M. Bartley, vice president of Duck Unlimited from New York also showed three colored films of movies which clearly demonstrated the arduous work which this national non-profit organization of sportsmen is doing to bring back good duck hunting in America. His pictures showed how this organization is damming the creeks and rivers in the cut marsh lands, on northern Canada to prevent the marshes from drying out during the hot mid-summer months, which kills hundreds of thousands of young ducklings which are not old or strong enough to migrate to lakes or marshes where water still remains. While the lack of water in these marshes hinders the ducks from maturing, the poison from alkali caused by the evaporation of the water from the marshes is also a prime reason for the death of the fleet-wing game bird that furnishes so much sport and food to the people of Michigan.

A Ducks Unlimited committee in the W.W.C.A. was appointed to work with the national body under the chairmanship of William Rambo, of Plymouth.

A one-minute standing in silver testimony was paid by the entire membership of the club to the untimely passing of Dr. Paul Butz, who was killed in an automobile accident while returning from Tawas on a fishing trip last week and who was not only one of the original organizers of the club but one of its most enthusiastic and willing workers. A suitable testimonial was also entered upon the minutes of the meeting.

Announcement was made that skeet shooting at the club's skeet field, one mile west of Plymouth, would be under way starting next Sunday morning at 10:00 o'clock and every Sunday morning from then on during the good weather of the summer and fall. All who enjoy skeet shooting are invited to meet with the club members at these shoots and participate.

Mr. and Mrs. Gifford visited Mr. and Mrs. Snyder while Bethel was showing Charlotte around. They enjoyed meeting each other which makes it better for them to write.

Bar Official Tells of Benefits

Says Publicity Saves Money for Taxpayers

Newspaper advertising performs a "very important function" in the Michigan legal system of providing public accounting notices to taxpayers and warning notices to individuals, according to Henry L. Woolfenden Jr., executive secretary of the State Bar of Michigan, state organization for attorneys.

As for the public accounting notice which is a published report of governmental bodies or individuals who are discharging public trust, Mr. Woolfenden says: "This type of notice is the best protection which the taxpayer has against incompetent or unscrupulous public officials."

"The value of the public accounting type of legal advertising is usually readily apparent to anyone whose attention is directed to it. Such notices are city commission proceedings, supervisors' proceedings, bank statements of condition, treasurers' reports, etc."

"No public official will spend money like a drunken sailor if a list of his expenditures is going to be published at the end of the month for all of his constituents to look over, and no dealer 'on the inside track' is going to sell the county a bill of goods at an exorbitant price when every competitor he's got will go over the list of county purchases with a fine tooth comb the minute it is published."

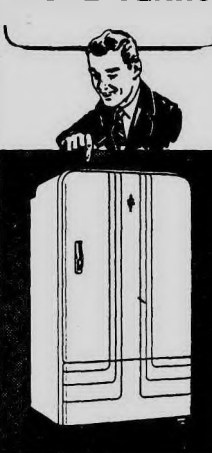

"A second-story man is not as apt to break into a house under an arc-light as he is one on a dark street; and a racketeer is not as apt to loot the public treasury if the spotlight of publicity is turned on his act as he is if he knows he can do it in the dark."

"I do not mean to say the published accountings required by law of public officials have completely stamped out incompetency and malfeasance in public office, but I do say that such legal advertising is the cheapest and most effective insurance the taxpayers can buy on the ability and integrity of their elected officials."

"If there is any fault to be found with legal advertising of this type, it is that there are too few of them. Many offices of a public or quasi-public nature, which are not now required to publish reports of their activities, might very well be required to do so. Some of the reports now required might well be required in more detail with additional benefit to the taxpayers."

"And if anyone says that 'nobody ever reads' these notices, I challenge him to attend a taxpayers' association meeting in your town or mine and see how many legal news clippings are taken out and quoted during the discussion. The citizens who are sincerely interested in governmental economy are sincerely interested in 'legal news.'"

In the opinion of the executive secretary of the State Bar of Michigan legal advertising is "just as important in the effective presentation of our constitutional guarantees of security as the work of the fire department is in the preservation of our homes."

Mr. Woolfenden warned, however, that "the whole purpose of legal advertising is prostituted unless it is placed in a legitimate newspaper with a bona fide general circulation in the community where it is published. The proper use of legal advertising is peculiarly a joint responsibility of the editors who publish such advertising and the lawyers who draft and place it for publication."

"It is squarely up to the Michigan Press association and the State Bar of Michigan to stamp out any legal advertising racket run by means of handbills under the name of newspapers."

Accident Victim Still in Hospital

Betty Knowles, the most seriously injured of seven young people from this locality who figure in an automobile crash at the corner of Six Mile and Northville roads, early the morning of April 20, is reported as improving slowly, although she has not completely regained consciousness since the accident. She is suffering from a concussion.

The injured were taken to Redford Receiving hospital where they were held for a time for ob-

Plan to Attend Church Conference
Several church school workers from Plymouth are planning to attend a special conference, which is sponsored by the De- troit Council of Churches and open to all churches in this sec- tion, to be held Thursday after- noon and evening, May 16, in the Northville Baptist church.
The visiting team will be com- posed of Mrs. H. G. Schenck, of the Central Christian church, Detroit; Mrs. Alice Guddard, of the Fort Street Presbyterian church, Detroit; Miss Della Green, director of Christian edu- cation in the Detroit Baptist Union; and Rev. J. Burt Bou- man of Lansing, secretary of the Michigan Council of Churches and Religious Education. The conference is one of four being held in the Detroit area.
At the evening session, at 7.30, four departmental conferences will be conducted, each by a member of the team. Miss Della Green will lead the conference for the nursery and beginners' department; Mrs. Schenck will have charge of that for the pri- mary and junior group; Mrs. Guddard will conduct the dis- cussion on the young people's department (ages from 12 up); and Mr. Bouman, who has given special recent study to this will guide the conference of adult workers. For vacation school workers this conference will be the only opportunity for special help afforded in this area this season.
Every delegate will bring sandwiches, of course, for the evening meal, which will be eaten in common in the dining room of the church. The Baptist ladies will provide coffee and all necessary dishes.
An evening offering will be taken for the minor expenses of the day's gathering.
Included in this conference, besides Plymouth and Northville, are Rosedale, Grosse Pointe, Garden City, Dixboro, Salem, South Lyon, Wixom, Novi and Walled Lake.

Lightning Bolt Strikes Home

Lightning struck the suburban home of Clyde Smith, Plymouth automobile dealer, who lives at 8010 Newburg road, early Monday morning at about 1 o'clock. Although the shock was strong enough to blast plaster from the walls and ceilings in many places, a fire was not started.

So far as it can be determined, the bolt struck the house on the roof, and traveled throughout the building by means of metal lath in the walls, ripping off plaster, blowing an electrical fuse box off the basement wall, breaking open a telephone box, and finally grounding itself on a metal pipe which leads into the ground.

Occupants of the house were all asleep when the bolt struck, but it made such a terrific noise that all were awakened. It travelled so rapidly through the house, that everything was over by the time they realized what had happened.

In many places, the metal lathing was ripped from the walls, the lath was so hot that from the lightning bolt, that in places where it fell to the floor, holes were burned. All electrical appliances in the house were damaged.

Insurance adjusters who investigated said that it was fortunate the house had metal lath in place of wood because otherwise it is probable a fire would have started.

Damage to the house was considerable. Mr. Smith said that it would have to be completely re-decorated.

Achievement Day Fixed for May 15

The home economics extension groups of Wayne county plan to hold their annual Achievement day on Wednesday, May 15, at the Methodist church in Wayne. Emma DuBord, Wayne county home demonstration agent.

For the last 10 months, 700 women have been enrolled in the following projects: Home furnishing, nutrition, landscape gardening, home management, tailoring, home nursing and reading. There will be exhibits on Achievement day to demonstrate the type of work accomplished by the women in the various projects, such as reconditioned furniture, bedspreads, articles showing good use of stitchery, tailored suits and coats, hand-sewn gloves, correct table service for dinners and buffet meals, calories, meals for convalescents, suitable bed linen and blankets, a household business center for the kitchen, selection of small kitchen equipment and a "kitchen plan" drawn to scale showing the arrangement of equipment in relation to economy of space, time and energy.

The exhibits, which will be found on the first and second floors of the church, will be opened to the public at 9:00 that morning. Luncheon will be served in the church dining room at 12:00. Directly following the luncheon in the dining room there will be a moving picture on the conservation of wild flowers. This feature on the program will be shown through the courtesy of the Dearborn branch of the National Farm and Garden association.

Rain Cancels 3 Softball Games

Because of rain and cold weather, only one game in the scheduled four was played last week in the city recreation league. Plymouth Platers defeated Daisy 2-1 in a game that was interesting, marked with innings of spectacular playing. The win chalked up another for the Platers who have now won both of their starts for the year.

Next week Monday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock there will be a meeting to organize the girls' softball league for summer play. It will be held in the crafts room at Central grade school. All girls interested in taking part in the league this year are requested to attend the meeting.

The schedule for next week follows: Monday, May 13, Sutherland vs. Daisy; Tuesday, May 14, Plymouth Plating vs. Schrader; Wednesday, May 15, Dunbar Davis vs. Daisy; Thursday, May 16, Perfection vs. Super Shell; Friday, May 17, Plymouth Hardware vs. Sutherland.

Standings and schedule of Starkweather league teams will appear in next week's issue of The Plymouth Mail.

Central league standings are as follows:

J. F. Winneur Townsend Guest

Townsend club members and guests enjoyed a full evening of entertainment last Monday when J. F. Winneur, of Detroit, an accomplished trombonist, appeared as a featured part of the program.

Mr. Winneur led a snappy song service which was interspersed with instrumental solos. As a conclusion, the guest delivered an interesting account of his work in Townsend club activities.

Townsendites will have their next regular meeting at the Grange Hall, Monday evening, May 13. The public is always welcome to attend the meetings.

have absolute title to the property.

The home which now stands on the property will not be used for the library building but it is planned that when the city is financially able, a new brick library building will be erected.

Present tenants on the property hold a lease which does not expire until April 30, 1941. The city manager said that although the city will take over the ownership of the property, the tenants will be permitted to stay as long as the lease is in force, and perhaps until the city decides to build the new library.

It may be a few years before the library can be actually built, but it is felt now that the property has been purchased, and more definite plans for the erection of the library can be made in the future.

Candidate Of-the-Week

Unopposed in his home state's Republican presidential primary Tuesday is Sen. Robert A. Taft of Ohio. He also has a full slate of unopposed candidates for delegates to the Republican national convention.

P. T. A. Sponsors Newspaper Drive

In order to raise money for their general fund, the Starkweather Parent-Teachers' association announces a drive for old newspapers. Mrs. Jesse Hines, president of the organization, says that money derived from the sale will be used only for the general fund maintenance.

The fund for which money is being raised by the old newspaper drive, aids school children who need medical attention, the services of an optometrist, and many other general expenses.

Plymouth residents may have their old papers called for by contacting Mrs. Hines, phone 241.

Down Plymouth in First Game

In their opening league game of the season at Riverside park Sunday, the Schrader-Haggerty baseball team was defeated by Amazo Sales, of Northville, 16-7. Both teams committed four misplays while the winners made 20 hits in Plymouth's seven.

A featured attraction at the game was the appearance of D. Ashton and the Northville Drum and Bugle corps who assisted the American Legion in flag raising ceremonies. State Representative Elton R. Eaton delivered a brief talk. The feature of the day came when Fred B. Schrader and John Haggerty, team sponsors, formed a battery to pitch and receive the first ball of the 1940 playing season.

Saturday, a team from Ypsilanti will meet the Plymouth Schrader-Haggerty nine on the Riverside diamond at 3:00 o'clock. Sunday the team from Plymouth will play at Trenton in a game scheduled at Sibley park, located on the corner of Sibley and Fort streets.

The Trenton team has been champions of the league for the past two years, and indications are that the game will be one in which spectators will see some fast baseball.

Announce Marble Contest Winners

Winners in the city marble tournament were announced this week. The tournament was put on for grade school children in conjunction with a similar contest sponsored in Detroit. There were two divisions, one for the girls and another for boys.

Arthur Sietloff, won in the boys' group and the girls' winner was Mary Kathryn Gillis.

The contest was open to fourth, fifth and sixth grade students. Starkweather grade school boys won in each of the three grade divisions and for girls, Central students held the highest positions.

Fourth grade winners were Muel Litzemberger and Marilyn Stevens; fifth grade, Russell Fulton and Mary Kathryn Gillis; and sixth grade, Arthur Sietloff and Barbara Shremaker.

Hough, now a member of the board of the bank; L. D. Shearer, E. P. St. John, L. N. Starkweather, George Van Sickle, O. R. Pettigill, S. J. Springer and William Gier.

T. C. Sherwood, first president of the bank, was appointed by Governor Cyrus Luce as Michigan's first bank commissioner and he served in that capacity from 1899 to 1896.

On May 15, 1890, the bank declared a voluntary liquidation and re-organized at the same time as the Plymouth Savings bank. New officers for that institution were E. C. Leach, president; L. H. Bennett, vice president; and L. C. Sherwood, cashier.

In 1893 the bank moved into the Vandaele building which is now the location of the A. & P. grocery store.

On July 2, 1903, the Plymouth Savings bank consolidated with the First National Exchange bank which was formerly located on the Wills property where the Standard Oil service station now stands on the corner of Main street and Ann Arbor Trail.

At that time there were 14 directors and the bank was capitalized at $75,000. New quarters were then taken in the building that now belongs to the Community Pharmacy. At this time Charles A. Fisher became president of the bank and served in that capacity for over 30 years. Mr. Fisher started to work with the bank in 1892.

The next move made by the bank was the purchase of its present site by President Fisher from Fanny Coleman in July, 1912. At that time there were four stores occupying the corner location and the purchase was made for $12,000. In 1919 work was started on the new building which is now in use. The old stores were torn down and a $30,000 building was erected which was put in use in 1920.

MORE THAN BIG— it's big in the right places!

Inside the car, where bigness really counts, you find a Ford V-8 extra "big for its size." Big by any measure, it's especially so at the important comfort points shown below. Check them now, then come in and try a Ford. It's got a lot of things like this that are just too good to miss!

A Measured from windshield to rear window, a Ford Sedan is 100 1/4 inches... this is longer than in a number of much higher-priced cars today!

B Kneeroom for rear-seat passengers in a Ford is considerably greater than that of any other car in its price class!

C With its compact V-type engine, the Ford is designed to carry rear-seat passengers farther ahead of the rear spring than any other car at this price—toward the center of the car where riding quality is best!

SURPRISING is the word for a 1940 Ford! Surprising because it gives so much you wouldn't expect at its low price. Surprising all-round performance, as proved when it won the big 3700-mile Argentine Grand Prize Road Race. Surprising gas economy, as proved when it gave most miles per gallon of all standard-equipped cars at its price in the Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run. Surprising in its big-car ride and room. Surprising in its long, long list of truly fine-car features. Come in today and get to know a Ford V-8!

This year talk "Trade" with your Ford Dealer first!

Service--friendly, helpful and accommodating--is in its fiftieth year at the Plymouth United Savings Bank

In the fifty-year interval since this bank was organized on May 13, 1890, there have been social, political and economic upheavals which have changed the maps of the world and, in fact, the very character of our civilization--a period encompassing both the heights of prosperity and the depths of depression. But through it all, the service of this Bank to our community has gone faithfully on. This is an outstanding fact in which we take great pride today as we commemorate fifty years of service.

To you who have been with us through these years and to our more recent friends we express our sincere thanks for your patronage, loyalty and cooperation. It has, indeed, been a privilege to have devoted these years of service to you. Your patronage, loyalty and cooperation have resulted in a consistently steady growth with an increase in resources from $341,466.69 on March 5, 1934 to $1,367,509.06 on December 31, 1939, a relatively short period.

During this period of growth it has been our privilege to have contributed materially to the advancement and betterment of the community. We are desirous to be of service to this community, always keeping in mind that our first responsibility is to you, our depositors, who have entrusted your funds to us.

We are pleased to render a type of service always in tune with the times, prompt, courteous and efficient, ever on the alert to make better banking services available. In our modern spacious building, conveniently located, you are afforded every known up-to-the-minute banking service with a sincere friendliness.

We shall continue to devote our best efforts to the welfare of this community and we trust that the services of this bank may prove of increasing usefulness to you and the succeeding generations in the years to come.

Alford S. London, secretary-treasurer of Protection Sprinkler Company.

For the first time, it is listed in the International Directory and of the Plymouth Trust & Savings Bank we present the first history of its origin.

From 1891 to 1908 this bank operated as the Plymouth National Bank and Trust Co. of Chicago. On January 12, 1908, this bank was reorganized, incorporated in the state of Ohio, to become a State Bank in order that the advantages of a bank chartered under the laws of Michigan might be obtained and made available to the colored people of the northern section of the Plymouth Savings Bank was signed on May 13, 1940 when the twenty-fifth anniversary of the incorporation of the charter number 12474 was celebrated. This organization was organized by the Rev. Dr. J. H. Williams, pastor of the Central A. M. E. Church, reported by 500 members, and a Board of directors was composed of thirteen members. The first organization of this kind was held in a building at 1116 Grand Street, known as the Grand Store, located in the basement of Mrs. Nettie Davis's home, and occupied by the Washington Shirt Shop and the Drug Store. The first building owned by the bank was at 1116 Grand Street, the building known as the Grand Store, and owned by A. S. Smith, a day and night clerk at A. G. Graham's.

The branch of the Plymouth State Savings bank, formerly located in River town, was looted in three holdups. The first was on February 18, 1927, when Branch Manager Frank Pierce was kidnapped and tied in a barn on the edge of town. The bandits managed to get away with about $300.

The second occurred in 1927 when two men attempted a hold-up but were unsuccessful in their attempt and were tracked in fresh snow by Chief of Police George Springer and caught and given prison sentences.

A third hold-up occurred about a year later when Vice President Charles O. Ball was in the branch. These bandits were also apprehended.

Churches Have Been Given Much Aid by Bank

Through Cooperation
Many Churches
Have Been Built

As the city churches serve in the spiritual and social lives of our citizens so has the Plymouth United Savings bank served in the building and up building of the church's throughout the last fifty eventful and changing years. Because of the gradual growth in numbers and the consequent need for more and larger houses of worship the men and women of the community have demanded that these needs be supplied and such demands call for capital to be repaid over a period of years. This old bank has always been in sympathy with the call of the times and through its officers and directors, been glad to assist just as far as possible in the work with good judgment and safety to its depositors. Bonds have been purchased and held, mortgages have been made at low interest rates, loans have been made over short periods to tide over lean years in the operating of churches and this has all been done with a fine spirit of co-operation and a desire to serve. It is often said that cold hearted business and the more tender and finer things of life have nothing in common. This may be so in practice as some people and some institutions but to this bank, the prevailing thought over half a century has been, that a village or city is just what the people and businesses in it want it to be, and without a group spirit of service, nothing can be built and maintained.

A perusal of the bank records indicate that since its organization, churches and benevolent groups and institutions have found a warm spot in the heart

Wherever there is government, be it national, state, county, township or municipal, there is need for financing. The governmental system of the city of Plymouth has grown from babyhood to mature manhood in the last 50 years and at each one of those years has called for financial service and aid in some form. The added responsibilities of increasing demands for comfort and convenience imposed upon public officials by citizens and taxpayers has been constant and at times severe. It is the American citizen's duty to get it, and then pay for it afterwards. This is so in local government.

When a street or a sewer system or a sidewalk is needed it is immediately wanted. When enlarged water plants are required it is the job of those in charge to have them ready for use. When the demand of the times requires more and larger municipal buildings, that demand is emphatic. And all these things have been needed, supplied and eventually paid for in the community. In all these years of gradually planning and building the city to its present state there has been no lack of financial resources to realize the improvements when and where the demand arose. The Plymouth United Savings bank has been of the mind that civic planning and building was a necessity and that it was the responsibility of the bank to offer and give its financial aid. The bank has enjoyed the service of the city for 50 years and it has given its service in return for the same period of time.

If a bond issue was sold, the bank has bought the bonds generously. If short time loans were required, those loans have been made at interest rates as low as possible and for as long as required. Collections on coupons, bills of lading, etc., have been handled for years and the commercial service of the bank has been enjoyed by the city treasurer since the bank organization.

The bank is probably one of the largest locally owned taxpayers in the city and over the half century period has paid into the city treasury many thousands of dollars in taxes and assessments on its bank buildings and other real estate owned. It is a proud boast of the officers and directors that they consider tax a first obligation to the city and its citizens in which their business is enjoyed.

The many men and women who have been employed by the village and city in the last 40 years have been considered worthy and welcome patrons of the bank and the modern services of the institution have been at their command. The bank has especially been cooperative with the police and fire departments. Information and out-of-town help has been supplied to police officers for forged checks and various crooks and many times this information has aided in the capture and conviction of persons only too willing to profit at the expense of local business houses and our citizens.

This bank and its increased modern service has watched Plymouth grow from a small struggling village to the modern little city it is today. It has seen the city service as we have now expand from a meager beginning. It is happy to congratulate the

It is happy to congratulate the village and city officials who have served over this period of years and to grant that the service of those men and women has played an important part in the municipal success of the community. The Plymouth United Savings bank sincerely believes in the practice of service to insure success throughout the years.

Cooperation of Bank Has Made Much Possible

Officials Tell of Their Part in Local Development

A perusal of the pictures taken in Plymouth during the last 50 years cannot help but convince one that the community has been a builder during that period. Every man and woman, every organization, every business house and factory having the privilege of existing during this span of time cannot help but believe that they have done their part in the building of the city. The main chance for the city has been from cross roads village to the present pleiad city.

The officers and directors as well as the stockholders of the Plymouth United Savings bank cannot be censored by any one for having the satisfaction that they have done their part in the building program. An individual mason, carpenter or contractor has a well earned right to boast that he has been a builder for any number of years because to be a builder is commendable and the right road for Americans to take. Schilling the mason who applies for foreign trades in this direction there must exist groups which have organized for the purpose of supplying funds to finance these construction programs. That has been the function of this bank.

Hundreds of homes have been built and their seeds have been sown and through the means of mortgaging loans made by this bank. Business houses have been financed for construction and operation for the convenience and service of the hundreds and thousands of persons trading in this community. Factories have always been welcome, and glad to erect their walls, install their machines and produce their wares in Plymouth and many dollars have been provided by this bank to insure a continuation of this industrial activity to the local and foreign trade.

This sincere cooperation has not been offered with the thought of profit only. Those in charge of the affairs of this bank have always realized that homes and stores and factories were a necessary part of the program if Plymouth was going to enjoy increased population, additional living pleasures and comforts with modern and improved conveniences. It was a part of the bank's service to make this money do its share of the job when and where it could best be applied. It would work to the benefit of all which ever way it was routed. The factory worker must have a place to live and stores from which to purchase the essential things of life, and in order to have the homes and money to patronize the business houses he must have a job in the factory or elsewhere. It, like all life, is a round robin affair and all dependent on the other parts. This bank with a 50-year record of service to Plymouth and Plymouth folks can, indeed, lift its part in the building of the store of our city as related.

Honor Banquet Plans Complete

Prof. Brum to Speak at High School May 24

By securing Professor J. L. Brum, head of the journalism department of the University of Michigan, as principal speaker, the Student Council has completed plans for the annual honor banquet to be held Friday, May 24, in the high school auditorium. It was announced last Tuesday.

Toastmaster for the occasion will be the president of the council and mayor of the school, Ivan Packard. Miss Nova Loyewell, instructor of freshman English at Plymouth for eight years will give the toast to the honored guests. Ruth Ann, valetudinarian and best girl citizen, will respond. Music will be furnished by the girls' octet under the direction of Miss Doris Hamill.

Groups that will be honored this year will include all those students who have maintained a B average or above the year preceding the banquet; the valetudinarian and salutatorian of this year's graduating class; those seniors outstanding in music and dramatics; students active in promoting good citizenship; the editor and assistant editor of the Pilgrim Prints; participants in debate; winners of the school contests in oratory, extemporaneous declamation, interpretive poetry, and short-story telling; boys outstanding in football, basketball, baseball, golf, tennis, track, and cross country; school cheer leaders; and all those girls who have received several letters.

Admission to the banquet will require the 1939-40 Student Council basketball ticket or 35 cents.

Tuberculosis Tests to Be Given May 15

The local high school in connection with the Detroit Tuberculosis society is offering special tuberculosis tests to the students this spring.

The tests, paid for by the annual sale of penny seals, will be performed by Dr. D. S. Brochman, of Detroit Tuberculosis society.

To be particularly noticed of senior high schools is the fact that the disease is prevalent among people of this age. May 15 will be the day when every student should take advantage of this offer to be absolutely certain that he has escaped the germ. Should his test prove positive, it is not a sign that he has contracted the disease but will be submitted to a free X-ray which will prove definitely the true situation.

Any student of the high school, especially of the upper three grades, is urged to take advantage of this opportunity.

HOW ABOUT A SODA?

Now that warm weather is coming the students' minds are likely to turn to Blizz or Dodge's and their heavenly sodas. Ah! Me! Along with these students thousands of Americans turn their thoughts to the two beverages it or in the United States there are ninety thousand soda fountains.

When people casually saunter into a drug store and order a double chocolate soda and receive a tall glass of bubbly brown liquid, they do not consider the origin of an ice cream soda. It is the French had not existed a man by the name of Elie Magliere Durand, who had served as pharmacist in Napoleon's army, we probably would not have been able to enjoy this necessity.

Durand was a highly educated man. He had been taught botany, mineralogy, laboratory work, chemistry, and pharmacy. By studying experiments of Venele of Montpellier he combined carbonic-acid gas and water and carbonate of soda and added a dash of flavoring, making a refreshing beverage.

When he first came to the United States he settled in Philadelphia. He rented a building for $500 for ten years. Establishing a pharmacy he decided that if he would sell beverages, his business would become greatly enlarged.

In 1825 he brought back from France mahogany cabinets, porcelain jars, chemicals, drugs, mirrors, and an apparatus with which to make this unknown beverage.

Durand's drug store at once became the gathering place of scientists, great men, and ordinary people who wanted to quench their thirst. By this development more than 30 thousand drug stores are equipped with fountains; forty thousand are present in other concessions; five thousand in department stores and five thousand in hotels and restaurants. Now, how about a soda?

SENIORS HOLD LAST DANCE

A small but enthusiastic group of Plymouth pupils attended the Senior dance held the evening of May 3. This dance, which was the seniors' last, was attended by 120 persons. The chaperones for the occasion were Mr. and Mrs. Lawton and Mr. and Mrs. Fisher. In the absence of Mr. Dykhouse, Mr. Smith was present. Music for the occasion was furnished by Don Mielbeck and his orchestra. A profit of about $7.00 was yielded.

Track Team Drops Meet to Dearborn

Taking seven firsts in the Plymouth-Dearborn track meet held in the icy races of May 1. Dearborn high school conquered the Rock (Plymouth) by a margin of 21 points. Although losing the meet, it was Plymouth's best showing to date. Plymouth's strongest field was its high-jumping with the distance runs next.

In the hurdling division Butler scored three points with a third place in the high hurdles and a tie for second in the low hurdles. Reader of Dearborn won the high hurdles in 19:02 and the low hurdles in 16.

Faring somewhat better in the dash events, Plymouth gained 10 points as Sessions took second place in the 100-yard dash and tied for second in the 220. Underhill also came through to win the 440 in 59:02. Dearborn's relay quartet won.

Plymouth did still better in the distance runs with two firsts and two thirds. Marshall, running time to form, took first place in a close race. His time for the half mile was 4:10. Dan finished third in the same event. Myers, as did Marshall, won his event in a close finish. The winning time was 5:07.2. Third place was taken for Plymouth by Wilson.

The field events yielded the Rocks 18 and a half points as a result of two firsts, two seconds and a tie for third. Frough and Pankow placed first in pole vaulting and high jumping respectively. Baker shot putted his way into second place, while Marshall helped the team flourish with a second place in the high jump. Harsha with a tie for third place in the broad jump prevented Plymouth from being slammed in that event.

The final score was 61 and a half to 41 and a half with Plymouth on the light end. Although it was the Rocks' third loss, Plymouth gained more points than in either the Birmingham or Rouge meet. Neither school was able to take all three placed in any event. Time for each of the running events tended to be slow as a result of the inclement weather.

9 Frames Needed to Defeat Wayne

When Umpire Tony Kreger read the starting pitchers for Tuesday's game, the Wayne boys were inclined to snicker for Plymouth was starting left-handed Bob Hancock, a small inexperienced pitcher against their mighty Carrio, a hurler who has been one of the best in the league for the last two years.

At the end of five innings, however, the smiles were on the faces of the Plymouth boys for the score was 3-2 in favor of Plymouth and Hancock had matched Carrio, pitch for pitch. Such was the game. Plymouth played with Wayne last Tuesday and won 4-3.

Hancock tired with one out and two on in the sixth and Coach Jensen rushed in "curve-ball" Kelly who proceeded to dispose of the next two batters to end the inning.

Plymouth thought they had the game in the bag in the seventh for the score was still 3-2 and two Wayne batters were out. Then it happened—a quick triple and single tied the score and the game went into extra innings.

It was not until the ninth that Plymouth was able to push across the winning run. Wesley Hoffman carried the mail for Plymouth and brought home the bacon when he went to first on a fielder's choice, stole second, went to third on Krumm's single and scored by winning tally while Carrio threw a wild pitch. Wayne scored their runs in the first, third and seventh, while Plymouth scored three in the fourth and one in the ninth to total their four runs.

Plymouth made 4 runs, 6 hits, and 3 errors. Wayne, 3 runs, 8 hits and 2 errors.

Some features of the game were—Wesley Hoffman's being spiked while tagging a man out at third; Charley Bulson's flattening of the Wayne catcher to allow three Plymouth runs to score; Larry Newman's tripping on his ear while trying to catch a man out of first; Gordon Robinson's near fight with the Wayne catcher.

Editor's note: Since a Pilgrim Prints member could not be present at the baseball game Tuesday, this was written by Larry Newman, catcher on the Plymouth team.

Information About Classroom Activities

The ten "A" and "B" English students, taught by Miss Kilham, are giving book reports. The English class is giving special occasion speeches. Each student is expected to give two speeches of introduction and one of acceptance, presentation, acceptance, and welcome. The class will begin speeches of conviction.

The English eleven classes of American literature are studying contemporary poets. English ten classes are studying "Idylls of the King" by Tennyson.

300 Participate In Musicales

Approximately 300 students from six schools in the district participated in the annual musical festival sponsored by the Twin Valley Activity association held at the Ypsilanti high school auditorium on May 2.

Guest conductor of the musicale was Professor Frederick Alexander of the Michigan State Normal college conservatory of music. Participants in the festival included ensembles from River Rouge; octettes from Plymouth and Ypsilanti; solos by Carol Cook, of Ypsilanti, Richard Warvel, of Birmingham and Floyd Ellison of Dearborn. Also included in the program were the Wayne Madrigal club, the Ecce double sextette, Ypsilanti clarinet quartet, and Miss Virginia Mutter, of Wayne, who rendered two violin solos. Mixed and separate renditions were presented by the girls' and boys' glee clubs.

Makin' the Rounds

As the weather gets nicer and the teacher bears down, but we've seen her give a wandering glance out of the window. If a certain man... who shall be the main speaker at one of the forthcoming banquets... keeps his word... you students are in for a big surprise!

Question of the week: Why is that Walled Lake and Northville dances receive more Plymouth patrons than do Plymouth dances?

The longest way home is the sweetest way home. Several people have decided that they're going to like college life after all.

Horray for assemblies... and pep meetings... Let's have more. Since trout season has opened, one hears more and more fish stories... once it was seven big ones... and now it's fourteen.

Maybe he's seeing double! We're beginning to agree with the lower classmen in their belief that the upper classmen appear dumb... but then we should talk... it's very noticeable that the senior girls are setting their steaks (stakes). It's always been puzzling as to the reason Nancy McLaren blushes so readily... Red, three years is a long time to make a nice boy wait... This was contributed.

Students Present Musical Tonight

Numerous and varied will be the talents displayed at the annual high school spring musical presented tonight (Friday) by students at 8:00 o'clock in the high school auditorium.

In addition to the several orchestral, band and choral arrangements, the seventh grade chorus will present two numbers. The violin trio, consisting of Allene Parmelee, Owen Gorton and Myrl Whitesell, will play, and Owen Gorton will present a solo. Neal Curtiss, trumpeter, is also on the program for a solo number. Joe Shultz will appear giving a number of accordion selections.

Vocal solos will be rendered by Patricia Kinahan, Justice Smith, Evelyn Bohl, Marie Ann Miller and Mildred Allen. In addition, Ruth Drews will play the piano and the girls' and boys' glee clubs will sing both classical and the lighter type of music. A girls' octet will also appear.

The band is under the direction of Lewis Evans, and Doug L. Hamill has charge of the orchestra and singing groups. Accompanists for the program are Vera Ess, Adelle Sweeney and Ruth Drews.

The program as it will be presented follows:

Orchestra Selections from "Carmen," Bizet; "Pique Dame," Fr. von Suppe; "Light Cavalry" overture, Fr. von Suppe.

Scarpulla Elected Honorary Track Captain

Joe Scarpulla was unanimously elected honorary captain of the Plymouth track team in a meeting held May 2. Joe, who will be remembered as having been injured in an automobile accident several weeks ago. Shortly afterward he became ill of scarlet fever. The accident and the illness following are keeping Joe from participating in the rest of the season. In the one meet in which he ran, though, he took third place in the low hurdles and second in the broad jump. Had Joe finished the season it would have been his fourth full year in track. He was also on the football team for four years and played varsity basketball two years. In addition to this he is president of the senior class as he has been during the three preceding years in high school.

Editorial Brevities

Due to irregular weather, spring sports have not progressed to date as far as they have been scheduled. Although this spring has been notably late as far as good weather is concerned, it might be a good idea to start the spring schedules a few weeks later. This would partially do away with the many postponements of track, baseball, tennis and golf matches which have been mandatory this year.

The Michigan High School Athletic Bulletin runs this quotable requete, a definition of being: "The repercussion of air through the empty spaces of the cranium."

The favorable attendance at the first attempt at a paid performance of one-act plays has proved the wisdom of this venture. The student council has stated that the contest of four one-act plays will be repeated next year.

Spring sports have begun, and with spring sports a number of visiting athletes are in Plymouth high school halls every week. Musicians who are in the band or orchestra can blame only themselves if an instrument is removed as has been found, too late, in previous years. The sole reason for double locking the music room every night is for protection of musical instruments. What a temptation to anyone is an expensive instrument, unguarded in the hall.

The selection of Professor John L. Brumman, department of journalism, University of Michigan, is in line with previous appropriate speakers for the honor banquet. The choice of authorities in a variety of fields is a better one than having a speech that is very similar to those of the preceding years.

Rock Golfers Take Northville

The Plymouth high school golf team came through Tuesday night to protect the school's honor for another year by defeating the Northville four by a team score of 347 to 404, a margin of 57 strokes. This match was originally started here last week, but due to atmospheric conditions only one nine was played at that time, so the match was concluded on Tuesday night at Northville's home course.

The individual scores for this match were very good considering that they were made on a mixture of two courses. Dick Dunlop, the only member of the squad to have played in every match this year by a team score of 83. Al Owens began the match last week but he was absent on Tuesday and so Captain Warren Hoffman took his place and between the two of them, they, too, scored an 83. Jim Zuckerman scored a fair 88 in this match and Bill Patrick shot a 93. Next week Plymouth is engaged to shoot a return match with Northville and the coach is very enthusiastic about their chances.

Rock Foursome Drops Ann Arbor Golf Match

The Plymouth golf team continued its slump Monday night when it dropped a golf match to Ann Arbor high school by a team score of 367 to 340. In the words of Coach Latture, "This team which started off the season with such high hopes has tumbled out miserably probably because of over-confidence."

Jack Sequin was high man of the day on the long course when he scored a 90 but Captain Hoffman and Dick Dunlop were close behind him with 92's apiece. Allen Owens was a big disappointment to himself and the team when he scored only a 93 after a brilliant 81 in his last match against Wayne. Al isn't in school today (Tuesday), 367 is a very poor score for this team (supposedly the first one) and with the regionals drawing near, Coach Latture has promised the team many hours of hard work in the gymnasium to get into shape. The coach promises that from now on he will pick men to play who are not so cocky and who will come through in the clinches with a victory.

Stark School News

Saturday morning, May 4, Carolyn Leuck, Betty Solberg, Stella Phillips, and Mr. Phillips went down to the WWJ broadcasting building and saw the March of Youth program. It was a very interesting program as well as educational. Before going into the building we saw a very interesting sight which caught our eye. As we walked out of the parking lot we saw four men walking up and down the sidewalk with signs reading "Shultz Trailer Company. This place unfair." We had never seen any picketers before so this proved to be an exciting incident. The program began at 11:30 a.m. and lasted until 12:40 p.m. On the way home, Mr. Phillips bought the girls refreshments. Although our school was not represented in the program we enjoyed it very much.

Monday, May 6 the children of Stark school went to the Northville Training school to rehearse for the festival which was held Tuesday, May 7. There, the upper grades practiced their songs and dances and the lower grades practiced their songs and dances. The festival began at 7:30 a.m. Everybody enjoyed themselves.

When brooks begin to ripple
And birds begin to sing,
And trees begin to blossom,
You know it must be spring.

When flowers lift their tiny
Heads above the sparkling dew,
And above to skies of blue clouds
Cling, you know it must be spring.

The last two ball games Stark school was scheduled to play were postponed. We hope there won't be any more postponements. Stark boys, so far, have won three games and lost one. The Stark boys' team have beaten Paterson, Newburg and Livonia Center schools. We have lost one game to Rosedale.

There was a show last week, Monday night, May 6 at 7:30 o'clock. The title was "County Fair". There were other selected short subjects.

There will be another show at 7:30 o'clock, Monday night, May 13. Frankie Darro and Kane Richmond in "Racing Blood". Hoof beats, heart beats, hair-raising, action, thrills, suspense. Comedy: "Taps for Turf Thrills". Everybody is welcome.

Champions Fishing as Aid to Longevity

ANOTHER Methuselah? — Tony Accetta (left), five-time winner of the U. S. professional all-around bait- and fly-casting title, believes the sport of fishing to be a panacea for human ills. He maintains that every month spent in piscatorial pursuit adds a year to one's life. On this basis, Tony, now 45, should live to be more than 200 years old, if he never engages in another day's fishing, for he estimates that he has spent an average of four full months each year with a rod and reel in his hands since embarking his career at the early age of six, following an unsuccessful experiment in the transmutation of his mother's pet goldfish into gold. Tony conceals that baring accidents a person might conceivably attain immortality, if his theory is correct. Nevertheless, he was not averse to preserving a record of his skill for posterity when the opportunity was offered him of starring in "Let's Go Fishing", 2-reel sound motion picture that has been produced and is being distributed by the Fisher Body division of General Motors. Here, Tony and Art Neu, former champion of the National Association of Scientific Anglers, demonstrate one of the more beneficial aspects of the sport.

What to do when the bug bites you!

Buick prices begin at $895* for Business Coupe (illustrated)

FIGURES show that about one out of every five able-to-purchase new-car buyers really wants a Buick more than any other car.

Not all will buy one.

Too many of them without even getting actual figures will shake their heads and sigh, "Nope! A car that big and handsome must be out of my reach!"

You'll be smarter than that, we know.

When the bug to own a Buick bites you, you'll figure that a car as talked-about as Buick must be looked at first—if you're going to have anything to go on in judging 1940 values.

You'll realize it doesn't cost a cent to find out how one feels under your own hand and what the delivered prices are.

So you'll walk in, please, to the nearest Buick dealer and boldly say:

"Let me have a good look at that car that's showing the rest of 'em what modern style is."

"Let me try out that big straight-eight engine that's electrically balanced after assembly for smoothness to match a wrist watch's works."

"Show me those big soft coil springs you talk about and how they smooth out that rough stretch down the street — and what's the business about recoil-mounted Knee-Action, heaviest frames at the price, five-foot front seat room in SUPER models, and six dozen new 1940 features?"

When you've got the answers through a good long ride—ask one more question: "How much?"

Current prices! start at $895* for the business coupe, delivered at Flint, Mich. To this add transportation based on rail rates, state and local taxes (if any), and optional equipment and accessories — though there will be few such "extras" you'll need.

That totals up to low delivered prices that are often only a few dimes more a day than on cars in the lowest-price class — so why hesitate or haggle?

When the bug bites you, get the facts — and you'll get a Buick and be happy!

A SERIOUS LOSS.

Plymouth suffered a most unfortunate fire loss last Friday morning when flames completely wiped out the Willoughby shoe store and damaged by smoke and heat two or three other stores. For a time it looked as though the damage was going to be far greater than what it proved to be, although the loss proved large as it was.

Fire is one thing that must be constantly safeguarded against, especially in buildings that do not have all of the modern fire prevention constructive ideas. But even a fire proof building is not entirely safe, as has frequently been proven.

The greatest safety measure is constant alertness and carefulness. While a person may carry what he believes to be sufficient insurance to cover fire damage, the insurance is never a sufficient amount to cover the entire loss due to a fire. Destroyed stock and fixtures can be partly replaced by insurance, but no insurance can restore the temporary loss of business, the long hours of extra work and troubles in restoring an orderly conducted business. One always loses by fire, therefore we should adopt every safety measure known to prevent fires—and CAREFULNESS is the greatest safety measure.

A "WASH-OUT."

Some few weeks ago The Plymouth Mail had occasion to call the attention of its readers to the unfortunate, misleading and inaccurate speech delivered by Senator Brown of Michigan in the United States senate pertaining to a legislative matter in Michigan. The northern Senator attempted to make it appear that a certain group in the Michigan legislature was responsible for an attempt to reduce The University of Michigan appropriation in retaliation for certain proposals some of its professors had made. Facts revealed by State Representative Faulkner of Barry county show that Senator Brown made deliberate misstatements in his address.

Now comes along news from Washington which shows Brown to be the guiding spirit in the scheme to kill the Hatch pure politics bill. This bill introduced by a western senator has for its purpose the tightening of election regulations, making all elections as nearly honest as possible and preventing the manipulations of political machines, the use of large sums of money and other questionable practices. It is due to his scheming that has made its passage impossible by congress.

Ring down the curtain on Mr. Brown. He has written himself into the class of being just another good ward politician, and not the non-partisan, alert, honest representative that Michigan thought it had sent to the United States senate.

A REAL DANGER.

As we go about our business from day to day, trying to keep things going as they should and at the same time do a little building for the future, the average person cannot help but reflect now and then about the dangerous situation across the Atlantic.

No real American has any desire to have any part in

But It's True

OUT OF THE 14 SHIPS WHICH SAILED FROM LIVERPOOL, ENGLAND, ON JAN. 27, 1917, WERE SUNK WITHIN 18 HOURS BY GERMAN SUBMARINES!

Mr. Howland found the seal on a beach when it was less than a month old. He kept it in his house, taught it many tricks. For one, he would place 20 sticks in a row, take away a certain number. The seal would then bark once for every stick left. Highest point of achievement was reached when the seal learned how to answer such verbal questions as: "How much are three and eight?" by giving the correct number of barks.

that war. But constantly the thought comes to the mind of the average individual as to just how soon that war might be brought right to our own front door-step. Our forefathers came here to get away from the wars and hatreds of Europe. They came here to establish a government that did not have for its purposes and aims, conflicts and conquests, to establish a government that would provide freedom of worship, freedom for individuals and equal opportunities for all.

Unfortunately in recent years, we have opened our gates to the scum of Europe and we have with us today certain groups who would destroy all that we have gained. They would lead us into the European conflict so that they might accomplish their vicious purposes.

As much as we regret to admit it, we have reached the point where every American must exercise the greatest of alertness in safeguarding the interests of our own country and our future.

Rambling Around

WITH EDITORS OF MICHIGAN

Their views about public problems and issues.

RIGHT FROM HOME.

Never, in our brief experience, have we witnessed, or felt, the lack of leadership in Republican affairs as at the present time. The party, with a pitifully weak state central committee and absolutely no outstanding leadership, is easy prey—even to the Christian Front. By easy prey, we mean, if the Democrats had anything better to offer. Governor Dickinson reminds us so much of our five-year-old boy with his first train of cars. He's having a lot of fun with the governorship (gaining weight on it, in fact) but seems to be doing nothing more than running the cars around the track to the amusement of the neighborhood kids. Our governor is a splendid man. We sincerely admire all the fine, wholesome qualities to which he privately subscribes. We only regret that he might have remained the lieutenant-governor of Michigan and thereby gone down in our memory, and that of our children, as a personage standing for something more than picaresque politics. Honestly, we're disappointed. (Other papers note: The Gazette is published in Eaton county.)—Frank Brown in The Bellevue Gazette.

CIVIL SERVICE MAY BE BACK IN THE POLITICAL PICTURE
We read that the Michigan Merit System association is coming to life along with the other flowers that bloom in the spring. This organization would establish an office in Lansing, solicit funds, and attempt to put its convictions on a ballot this fall—another attempt to amend the state constitution.

Granting that its leaders are earnest people and its avowed intentions are entirely honorable, we wonder if the people of the state are in any humor for more tinkering. What the Democrats did after civil service was adopted is history—unsavory history. There is no denying that the smart Democratic heads "blanketed" in a flock of their party's faithful.

When the Republicans arrived the last time, they used their political brains to discredit this act so far as it was possible. They cut the appropriation for the civil service department and left but a pallid shadow of the lusty babe that Governor Murphy had nourished.

All of which goes to prove that the Democrats used this "model law" to perpetuate their lineings in office, regardless of administration. Also, it has been proven that resourceful Republican were able to scuttle this law and make it rather ineffective—but not 100 percent so. There are still a host of Democratic "cousins" blithely holding their protected state jobs and thumbing their noses, literally and figuratively, at their Republican bosses.

The whole thing amounts to this: if there was an honest desire on the part of elective and appointive state officials to put into effect a common merit system, it could be done. If state employees could be hired and fired, and WOULD BE hired and fired, on their merits—why, that would be a good thing. If civil service is to be used to establish a lot of people in jobs in such a way that they cannot be removed without a jury trial, then it is worse than no law.

There may come a time when the affairs of this state will be such that an honest merit system can be established. We do not believe this is the time. In spite of all the ballyhoo about the "model law" which Michigan adopted and all the vindictive mouthings about the "ripper" law which supplanted it, there is a strong suspicion that neither side wants to be entirely honest and above board in this matter.

That being so—we believe it is—perhaps it would be well to forget civil service for a time.—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County (St. Johns) Republican-News.

OUR GREATEST RESOURCE

Philip F. LaFollette, former governor of Wisconsin, emphasized the tremendous and almost boundless resources of our United States of America the other day in two somewhat oratorical but very expressive sentences. He said:

"If we had prayed for everything you could think of, there is nothing you could ask for that we haven't got in terms of resources."

"We have all that is needed to build decent, secure standards of life."

And that is a great, a tremendous truth.

That in large measure is the reason America is what it is today.

But a greater reason for what America is today is the spirit of the men and women who have made it.

Is that spirit to be submerged for the sort of spirit which exists in the totalitarian countries of Europe?

God grant that it is not, and give us the courage and the persistence, the intelligence and the enterprise to do our part in bringing the right answer to that prayer.

That spirit, we believe, is a much greater and more important resource of our national life and prosperity than all the material resources we can measure or estimate or even imagine. T. O. Huckle in The Cadillac Evening News.

Several new houses are to be built in the new Plymouth Heights subdivision this summer.

Miss Sadie Bolton has resumed her position as clerk in J. L. Gale's store after an absence of several weeks on account of illness.

D. M. Berdan's handsome new bungalow on Ann Arbor street, opposite the park is fast nearing completion and will be a fine addition to that part of town.

Miss Venita Adams, who underwent an operation at her home on Adams street last Sunday morning is rapidly improving.

At 9:30 o'clock last Friday night, Plymouth became a "dry" town in so far as the three local bars were concerned in accordance with the vote of the people at the recent village election and the action of the council in rejecting all saloon licenses. There was no unusual demonstration that marked the closing hours, everything being quiet and orderly.

Mrs. W. O. Allen has purchased the Hood property on Penniman avenue. The old house which has been an old landmark in that part of town will be torn down. Mrs. Allen has also purchased a lot on the opposite side of Penniman avenue from Charles Merritt and expects to erect houses on both lots at some future time. This will make a fine improvement for Penniman avenue.

The Newburg church society sold the remainder of the lot on the corner to Mr. Chambers of Plymouth. He will build a house and blacksmith shop in the near future.

Buyers are in Livonia Center looking for timber to erect the temporary bridge to Belle Isle.

Mrs. Frank Peck, of Livonia Center, gave a family dinner Sunday in honor of her son, Harry's birthday. The guests numbered 17 and included Mr. and Mrs. Hovey Leese and son Don, Russell and William Wolff, of Detroit.

Mr. H. D. Peters entertained the O.H.S. club, of Livonia.
