America Faces Grim Task, Dave Nichol Declares

Hundreds Hear Youthful Writer Tell of Germany

If any one of the more than 300 people who crowded the banquet hall of the Presbyterian church last Thursday evening went there with an idea that the present world war is something residents of southern Michigan do not have to worry about very much, they returned home with an entirely different idea. It was an exceedingly dark and grave picture that David M. Nichol, son of Rev. and Mrs. Walter Nichol, who has just returned from Berlin where he served as correspondent of The Chicago News for nearly two years, painted for the United States before members of his father's church and their friends.

For nearly two hours he answered questions after briefly telling of his flight to and from the land that Dictator Hitler has turned into one vast training field for an army that knows nothing of mercy for men, women or children. Only death and destruction is its aim and goal. It was an unusual homecoming for the youthful newspaper correspondent, a homecoming that he will long remember, because his friends took occasion to make the event a tribute to a Plymouth lad who has accomplished something miraculous in the newspaper world.

Dave Nichol is probably the only staff reporter of a newspaper ever to be taken direct from a city news room and sent as a war correspondent to the most vital center of a conflict that is tearing an entire world to pieces. To his everlasting credit, he made good on the most important foreign assignment ever given a youngster of his age.

His special articles have been featured in nearly half a hundred of America's outstanding daily newspapers and now The Chicago News has given him temporary leave for a series of lecture engagements.

It was Edwin Schrader, an old Plymouth high school and University friend who pleasantly conducted the formalities in presenting Dave to an audience made up of people he had known since boyhood. And it was a warm welcome they gave him.

Briefly he told of his flight across the Atlantic to the Azores, Barcelona, Madrid and then of his arrival in Berlin. While still flying miles above the earth and a long distance from Berlin, he caught his first glimpse of Nazi military alertness. His plane was met high in the clouds by German military planes whose pilots made sure the craft was not an enemy fighting plane.

"Germany is devoting its entire energy to the war. Nazi Socialism is built for war and war alone. It wants more children for more workers and more soldiers and more wars," stated Mr. Nichol.

"Nazi Socialism believes it has a right to smash into any country it chooses. The new order has no respect for the rights of other nations."

"They loot every country they conquer. What the army does not use, they ship home to Germany. The people of Greece are starving to death. Conditions in Poland are said to be equally as bad, and in Belgium, too."

"War prisoners are forced to keep the German munition factories producing. They can grow the crops for Germany. The people of France are not for Nazi Germany. Probably less than five percent are supporters of the Nazi National Socialism. Some one in France said that some day the people will rise up and chase the Germans out with sticks, if they have nothing else to do with it. There is hatred everywhere for Germany."

"Nazi Germany is immensely strong. No one should expect Germany to crack up from within. If we win this war, Germany will have to be beaten. That is going to be no easy task, for they have the capacity for suffering."

"Our own country does not yet realize how grim the Germans are fighting. We here are wasting a lot of time on non-essentials. I was surprised the other day when in Washington to read so much and hear so much about some fan dancer. That seemed to be more important than the war."

"Everybody in Germany has more money than they know what to do with, but the trouble is they can't find anything to buy with their money. So the money is no good to them."

"The church is doomed in that country. Some semblance of a school system is being maintained but it is entirely under control of the Nazi party."

"I have come to have a very deep respect for the common people of Europe, who are the real sufferers in this war," stated the youthful speaker.

Mr. Nichol came directly to Plymouth from Washington. The owner of the paper upon which (Continued on page 5)

City Officials Favor Common-Sense Plan for Homes for Munition Workers

Telegrams were sent to President Roosevelt, Senators Arthur Vandenberg and Prentiss Brown, Representative George A. Dondero, the Federal Housing Administration and Governor Murray D. Van Wagoner from the city commission of Plymouth this week in opposition to the proposal to build a new city at Willow Run, because of the fact that there is available more than enough improved lots in established communities to care for all the needs of the new plant.

"The city council of Plymouth strenuously objects to the formation of a new city at Willow Run. Plymouth has 629 vacant lots with improvements available for building immediately, also 160 acres of unimproved land adjacent to improvements. Within a radius of 15 miles of the bomber plant, there are sufficient lots with improvements to care for needs," declared the telegram sent to government officials following a special session of the city commission Monday afternoon.

It was the unanimous opinion of the members of the city commission that before new cities are planned, lots in Plymouth and all neighboring towns with existing improvements should be used. It was further pointed out that it is not practical at this time to use labor for installing utilities and improvements for new cities when so much improved property is already available.

L. E. Wilson, City Commissioner and Ex-Mayor, Dies

Funeral Services for Civic Leader Will Be Held This Afternoon

Lloyd Edgar Wilson, a member of the city commission and a former mayor of Plymouth who had been active in civic affairs in this city for many years, passed away at his home on Mill street early Tuesday morning, following a long illness.

Born on March 22, 1884 in Alpena, Michigan, the son of Fred A. and Edna Wilson, he attended Alpena public schools and was an express agent there for 16 years. He was later associated with the Cadillac Motor Car company for 18 years. Mr. Wilson married Pearl L. Joffile of Plymouth on May 8, 1926. He established the Wilson Hardware company in Plymouth in 1925 and sold his business in 1935 because of failing health.

He served a term as mayor of Plymouth from 1939 to 1940 and has been a member of the city commission from 1935 to 1942. Before failing health forced him into inactivity on the city commission about five months ago, Mr. Wilson was faithful in his attendance at all commission meetings and conscientious in performing his duties. He was a member of the city board of review for two years and had served with the Wayne County Road commission for the past three years.

Survivors include his widow, Pearl; two sons, Marvin and Lynn; a daughter, Mrs. Bernice Burnette of Plymouth and two grandchildren. Funeral services will be held Friday afternoon (today) at 2 o'clock from the Schrader funeral home, Rev. S. S. Closson, pastor of the First Methodist church of which Mr. Wilson was a member since 1925, will officiate, and the city commissioners will act as honorary pallbearers. Burial will be in Riverside cemetery.

Robert Waldecker Contributes 115 Old Auto License Plates

Robert Waldecker, whose farm is located on Warren road, is doing his share for national defense to help win the war. Farmer Waldecker contributed this week a bundle of 115 old automobile license plates to the auto license bureau office. He has saved them for the past 32 years.

He is believed to hold the record for saving the most license plates over such a period of years, dating from 1910. The collection of license plates included farm commercial and passenger tags, both half and full year, which will be turned over to the state for salvage as scrap metal.

Phone Company Reduces Rates

New Uniform Schedule Takes Effect in April

The Michigan Bell Telephone company announced this week that uniform schedules of reduced local service rates will go into effect on the billing date beginning April 26 at the Plymouth office and other exchanges of comparable size and with less than 10,000 main telephone stations.

John R. MacLachlan, manager for the company, said that local service charges of about 28,000 customers in 88 exchanges throughout the state will be reduced a total of from $120,000 to $130,000 a year as a result of the rate adjustment. The uniform schedule is contained in a recent order of the Michigan Public Service Commission growing out of negotiations with the company.

The rate adjustment in Plymouth will effect reductions of 25 cents a month for individual line service and two-party service. Service charges for extension lines in private residences will be reduced from 75 to 50 cents to Plymouth patrons of the company. There are now 2,201 stations in the Plymouth exchange.

With respect to exchanges where existing rates are below those specified in the order, the Commission said no increases will be granted "except upon application by the company and after due notice and hearing."

"Due largely to the unequal growth of the exchanges since they were last classified in 1919, and the failure subsequently to regroup them," the Commission's order said, "the present rate situation with respect to the smaller exchanges reflects a rather incongruous condition."

Parole Officials To Visit Prison

State Association Plans Conference

The Michigan Probation and Parole association will hold a regional meeting in Plymouth at the Detroit House of Correction and the Hotel Mayflower Friday and Saturday, February 27 and 28. The meeting is called by the executive committee of the association to better acquaint probation and parole officers and jurists of the various courts with the modern approach to penology as exemplified in the Detroit House of Correction, "a prison without walls."

Participants in a panel group discussion on Friday's program will include Dr. Garrett Heyns, director of the state department of corrections; Ralph Hall Ferriss, assistant director of corrections in charge of probation; John H. Eliason, member of the state parole board; Honorable John V. Brennan, judge of Recorder's Court in Detroit, and Honorable Charles O. Arch, out-state Circuit judge of Hillsdale. Conferences will be held at the prison and at the Mayflower hotel, with Warden A. Blake Gillies as chairman.

Plymouth Township Holds Caucus Mar. 2

Plymouth township caucus will be held at the Grange hall on Union street Monday, March 2 at two o'clock for the purpose of nominating township officers. The township caucus committee includes Bert Tomlinson, chairman; Mrs. Jess Tritten and Mrs. Floyd Miller.

Officers to be nominated include a supervisor, clerk, treasurer, justice of the peace (full-term), highway commissioner, four constables and a member of the board of review.

Did You Know That

Sanford Leslie of East Side Drive had the misfortune Sunday to fall on the ice and break his leg. He was taken to Session's hospital, Northville, for medical care.

School Drills Prove Success

Plan to Stage Weekly Air Raid Rehearsals

Plymouth's first practice air raid drills were successfully carried out in each of the three public schools last Friday and they will become a part of the school's weekly routine, according to Superintendent George A. Smith.

An assembly was held Friday morning to instruct students of the junior and senior high school grades of the air raid drill procedure.

The warning alarm was sounded by four short blasts of the regular fire drill alarm in both the Plymouth high and Central grade schools. The fire drill alarm is given with a sustained blast of the siren. At Starkweather grade school, the alarm was sounded by a horn operated by dry cell batteries.

Students in the high school were moved into the hallways of the first and second floors of the building, where concrete slab overhead affords the best of protection. The third and top floor was not used. Junior high students occupied the first floor corridors and the senior high students were on the second floor. In less than two minutes, every student in the high school building and annex was moved from his classroom to the hallway refuge, away from glass windows and entrances. Each of the 1,130 students in the building was given a space of five square feet in the hallways. The drill was accomplished, according to Principal C. J. Dykhouse, in good order and in less time than a regular fire drill requires.

The drill at Central grade school was conducted Friday morning. The 535 students of that school marched in line into the corridors of the first and second floors of the building also in about two minutes. They remained in the halls for about ten minutes while Mrs. Nellie Bird, principal, checked the line-up to see that all of the children had the required four square feet of space. Patrol boys and service girls assisted as monitors.

The 322 students at the Starkweather grade school responded to the air raid alarm Friday afternoon. The pipe froze from condensation in the sprinkling system on the second floor of the warehouse and water from the large storage tank flooded the second floor level and leaked through to the first floor, where the furniture was stored.

Bedroom suites and occasional chairs were damaged before the water system was shut off. When the leak occurred, a safety alarm rang and Police Officer Louis Sherman investigated and shut the water off within ten minutes. Furniture stored in the warehouse is all covered by insurance and the damaged goods will be replaced, according to the store management.

Letters were sent to parents of all school children before Friday's rehearsal stating that "in view of present conditions, it seems advisable to supplement our present program of fire drills with a program of regular air raid drills as a matter of protection against the unlikely possibility that such an event will sometime happen. While your children are being given the best possible protection in school, you, as parents, should cooperate by staying at home in your own refuge room. Do not try to reach the school, either personally or by telephone, if an emergency should come. The wires must be kept clear for urgent messages, according to directions from the U. S. Office of Civilian Defense, in case of air raid alarms."

J.C.C. Collects Waste Paper Each Saturday

The Junior Chamber of Commerce is sponsoring the collection of waste paper each Saturday to aid the national defense effort. Those wishing the pick-up truck to stop for waste paper contributions are asked to clip a JayCee waste paper collection ad which appears in The Plymouth Mail this week and to display it in their front windows on Saturday. Information about the waste paper program may be obtained from President Frank Waish or James Hauk.

No Honesty Left? Plenty of It, if You Are Looking for It

What has happened to the old fashioned honesty in this world? Nothing, nothing at all. There is still honesty in this old world, and plenty of it, if you are looking for it.

The other day William Epps lost a pocketbook containing $95.00.

He had about given it up for good, when Jack Woodard, a pin-boy employed at the Plymouth Recreation bowling alleys, heard that Mr. Epps had lost his pocketbook.

Young Woodard sought out the owner, returned the lost cash to him—and for his honesty, was substantially rewarded.

Yes, there is plenty of honesty left in this old world if you are looking for it.

The Plymouth Book club entertained the members of the Northville Book club Tuesday afternoon, at an interesting meeting and tea. Miss Shenover, of one of the branch libraries in Detroit gave a book review. Tea was served to 37 ladies.

Highlights of President Roosevelt's Challenge to America's Enemies

The broad oceans which have been heralded in the past as our protection from attack have become endless battlefields on which we are constantly being challenged by our enemies.

Until our flow of supplies gives us clear superiority we must keep on striking our enemies wherever and whenever we can meet them, even if, for a while, we have to yield ground. Actually we are taking a heavy toll of the enemy every day that goes by.

Fireside Pose

FLOYD ECKLES

Manv... afraid that we may be sticking our necks out, want our national bird to be turned into a turtle, but we prefer to retain the eagle as it is—flying high and striking hard.

Your Government has unmistakable confidence in your ability to hear the worst, without flinching or losing heart. You must, in turn, have complete confidence that your Government is keeping nothing from you except information that will help the enemy.

On January 6 I set certain definite goals of production for airplanes, tanks, guns and ships. The Axis propagandists called them fantastic. Tonight, nearly two months later, and after a careful survey of progress by Donald Nelson and others charged with responsibility for our production, I can tell you that these goals will be attained.

Here are three high purposes for every American: 1. We shall not stop work for a single day. 2. We shall not demand special gains or special privileges or advantages for any group or occupation. 3. We shall give up conveniences and modify the routine of our lives if our country asks us to do so.

Broken Waterpipe Causes $3,000 Loss

Leak in Warehouse Damages Furniture

Blunk and Thatcher Furniture company lost $3,000 worth of furniture when a pipe burst in the water sprinkling system in the company's warehouse on North Main street early Monday morning. The pipe froze from condensation in the sprinkling system on the second floor of the warehouse and water from the large storage tank flooded the second floor level and leaked through to the first floor, where the furniture was stored.

Bedroom suites and occasional chairs were damaged before the water system was shut off. When the leak occurred, a safety alarm rang and Police Officer Louis Sherman investigated and shut the water off within ten minutes. Furniture stored in the warehouse is all covered by insurance and the damaged goods will be replaced, according to the store management.

Plymouth Grill Enlarges

Alex Trufin, owner and manager of the Plymouth Grill, which opened less than six months ago, has already found it necessary to considerably enlarge the facilities of his popular north side eating place to care for his rapidly increasing business.

Workmen have completed the enlargement of the kitchen, which permits Mr. Trufin to do all the pastry baking for his restaurant. Not only has he installed a large baking equipment, but he has put in much new kitchen equipment and a new exhaust fan.

"We have gone beyond all expectations in our business. Little did I realize that we would do so well when we opened," stated Mr. Trufin yesterday. "We want to thank our friends for their patronage. They have been fine and we have helped us greatly, for which we are most appreciative."

State Offers Lots in Scavenger Sale

A scavenger land sale of local properties on which taxes are delinquent for 1937 and prior years will be held in Detroit within the next week. The date of the sale has not been definitely set but it is believed it will be during the week of March 9.

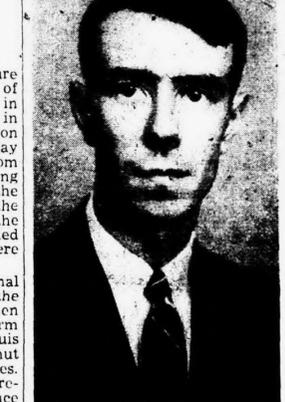

There are 76 lots in Plymouth on which bids will be received at the office of the state land board on the second floor of the Cadillac Square building in Detroit from 9 a. m. to 12 and from 1 to 4 p. m. Information on the locations of these lots may be obtained at the city hall in Plymouth.

Auto License Bureau To Remain Open Later

The auto license bureau of the local secretary of state's office will remain open until 9 o'clock Friday and Saturday nights, February 27 and 28 to accommodate motorists wishing to obtain their 1942 license plates. The deadline is midnight Saturday, February 28.

Elmer Huston Whipple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Austin Whipple, is recovering nicely from a strep throat and gland infection. The treatments taken at the Ford hospital, the past week, has made his recovery rapid.

Heads Scout Drive

JAMES HAUK

James Hauk of the Fisher shoe store has been appointed chairman of the sustaining membership committee of the Plymouth district, Boy Scouts of America, which includes Plymouth, Livonia and Northville. Under his direction, the membership committee is busily engaged in what promises to be a most successful year for Scouting.

JayCees Hold Bowling Tourney and Dinner

The Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce entertained at a bowling tournament at the Plymouth Recreation and Parkway Recreation alleys Sunday evening, followed by a dinner and dance in the Jewell and Blaik hall.

Guests from the Ann Arbor JayCee chapter swept the honors in the bowling tournament. The four local men's teams, bowling at Plymouth Recreation, were captained by Edward Sinta, George Todd, Marvin Partridge and John MacLachlan, and the Plymouth women's team, bowling at the Parkway Recreation, was led by Mrs. Jack McAllister. Ann Arbor won a trophy cup donated by the Plymouth Lumber and Coal company. The cup will be engraved and presented to the chapter at a later meeting.

Marvin Terry won a prize for the high single score in the men's division; Mrs. McAllister's team won the high three-game total and Mrs. Jayson Lyke won the high single total honors. Don Lightfoot, sports committee chairman, was in charge of the program. The next JayCee meeting will be March 4 at the Hotel Mayflower, with dinner at 6:30 o'clock.

Late Tax Payments Due Before March 1

The final date for late tax payments at the Plymouth city hall is March 1, according to City Treasurer Charles Garrett. Late tax payments are acceptable until that date with a four per cent penalty. After March 1, late payments must be made at the County building in Detroit.

Earl Mastick Buys Cars From J. T. Chapman

Earl Mastick, local Dodge dealer, has purchased the new Plymouth cars left in stock from J. T. Chapman who recently went out of business. George Collins and Son garage on Main street will continue to do service repair work for the Mastick agency as in the past.

Mayor Appoints Floyd Eckles Chief Air Warden

Local Defense Council Recruits Corps of Air Raid Wardens for City

Floyd Eckles has been nominated Chief Air Raid Warden of Plymouth by Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple and his credentials sent to Lansing for approval by Governor Van Wagoner and the state defense council. Warden Eckles has been appointed to replace Harold Anderson who resigned his position.

Warden Eckles is a graduate of Plymouth high school and the University of Michigan, a member of the American Legion and the Rotary club and saw service in France during the last World War. According to instructions from the Michigan Defense Council, the chief air raid warden will be held responsible for the recruiting and training of air raid wardens, for their equipment and assignment to posts of duty, for the organization and allocation of such posts.

The chief air raid warden will be subordinate to the chief of police and his jurisdiction includes Plymouth and Plymouth township, the same districts included under the local defense council by whose chairman the warden is nominated and appointed.

A corps of 240 air raid wardens is being recruited from the civilian defense registration lists at the city hall to organize within the city of Plymouth first. This week City Manager C. H. Elliott and Warden Eckles are organizing the city by precincts and blocks. One person will be assigned to each block with the assistance of a committee of volunteer workers headed by Mrs. Harry Hunter.

This is the third and final week of air raid training classes at Wayne University which have been attended by Harry Hunter, chief air raid warden at the Detroit House of Correction, William Rose and Harold Anderson of Plymouth. Air raid training classes in Plymouth will be organized next week.

Pamphlets containing air raid instructions for civilians were promised to the Plymouth defense council by next week from Ann Richards of Detroit, according to Mayo Whipple.

Dr. Robert H. Haskell Is Kiwanis Speaker

Dr. Robert H. Haskell of the Wayne County Training school spoke at a meeting of the Plymouth Kiwanis club Tuesday evening. Dr. Haskell explained the organization and program of the training school, its honor system and experiment in self-government. Program chairman for the evening was Roy Crites.

William P. Lovett, executive secretary of the Detroit Citizens' League, will appear before the local Kiwanians next Tuesday evening to discuss the Wayne County Mess and What to Do About It." Paul Ramsdell of the Kiwanis club is in charge of the program.

Lidgard Bros. Market Equipped for Defense

Lidgard Brothers' market on Starkweather avenue is the first store in Plymouth fully equipped for defense fire-fighting. The modern grocery store has buckets filled with dry sand and all other equipment necessary to meet any emergency in the event of an air raid attack upon this city. Persons are invited to visit the Lidgard market to inspect the new defense equipment for suggestions in home-protection.

City Plans Trial Air Raid Alarm Saturday

Plymouth's first trial air raid alarm will be sounded Saturday noon to test hearing distances of the signal and to familiarize the civilian population with the procedure. Spotters will be assigned to designated locations in and around the city to report the success of the test. Citizens are advised that the siren will be sounded by one sustained blast for two minutes' duration Saturday noon.

City to Nominate Candidates For Commission

Only One Contest On Ballot for Decision of Plymouth Voters

Plymouth voters will go to the polls next Monday, March 2 for the primary election to nominate two candidates for the short one-year term on the city commission. A commissioner is to be elected in the spring general election April 6 to fill the vacancy created by the death of the late L. E. Wilson.

There are approximately 3,000 qualified voters registered for the primary election in Plymouth, according to City Clerk C. H. Elliott. While many people do not consider a primary election of importance, it is pointed out that it is the duty of every American citizen to exercise his voting privilege and it is particularly important to elect men best qualified for office during these times of national emergency. Absent voters' ballots may be obtained at the city hall until Saturday and they must be delivered on election day.

Candidates for the short-term election are Richard Straub, Burton E. Giles and Carlton Lewis. Polling places will be open from 7 a. m. to 8 p. m. at the following locations: Precinct 1, city hall; precinct 2, Starkweather school; precinct 3, Plymouth high school and precinct 4, St. John's Episcopal church, Harvey and Maple streets. The attention of voters is called to the change in the precinct 4 polling place from the former location at B. E. Giles real estate office to the Episcopal church, corner South Harvey and Maple streets.

Unusual Program For Garden Clubs

Plymouth, Rosedale Unite for Luncheon

The annual spring luncheon of the Plymouth and Rosedale Garden branches of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association will be held at 12:30 o'clock, Monday, March 9, in the Hotel Mayflower with the Plymouth branch as hostess.

An outstanding program will be provided by the Rosedale branch. John and Frank Craighhead twin brothers, will give a talk with colored slides of the "Life with an Indian Prince." The two young men, who returned from a trip around the world last fall, spent three months with this Indian prince. The February issue of the National Geographic magazine contains a lengthy article with many pictures on this subject. They are now finishing their studies at the University of Michigan.

Each member of either group is privileged to invite a guest to this luncheon but all tickets must be purchased by Thursday, March 5, in order that Mrs. George M. Chute, luncheon chairman, and her committee will know the number of reservations. Tickets for the Plymouth branch may be obtained at the Jack and Bill shop, Plymouth, and the Rosedale members may purchase theirs from Mrs. Clarence Bucknell, 9914 Cranston avenue, Rosedale Gardens.

Lidgard Bros. Market Equipped for Defense

Lidgard Brothers' market on Starkweather avenue is the first store in Plymouth fully equipped for defense fire-fighting. aged as a result of raids throughout England, it is reported.

The Egyptian agency of the American Bible society reports that it had distributed large quantities of Bibles, New Testaments, and scripture portions to Italian war prisoners in Egypt, Sudan, Uganda, and in Capetown. Besides Bibles in the Italian language there were calls for large numbers in Amharic, Arabic, and Galla. "This is the only literature which most of the Italian prisoners possess, and I know that they are read a good deal," says one grateful recipient.

Christian people who are in a good state of health are advised by the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America to donate of their blood for the relief of human suffering in America and in the war-torn corners of the earth. Says the Council, which represents practically all American Protestant groups, "for the first time in history, it is now possible for one to give his blood in the certain knowledge that it will save the lives of others without the loss of one's own life. Methods which the Red Cross now utilizes make it possible to give blood in New York which may save life in China, or to give it in Seattle to save life in Iceland. . . . By giving to a 'blood bank' one is not giving his alms before men to be seen of them. The fact that the blood of races and of nations can thus be mixed and used to save one another's lives, the Council points out, proves that there is no scientific justification for the myth that blood is the basis of racial discrimination."

Of the 100 leper stations, missions and leprosariums around the world supported by the American Mission to Lepers, 83 are in operation and 17 have fallen behind the iron curtain of war, according to Eugene R. Kellerberger, M.D., general secretary of the Mission. Of the four in Japan, two are known to be carried on by the Japanese Christians; one in Formosa is being carried on by a committee of Christians; others in Japan, in Korea, in occupied China, in Thailand, and in the Philippines (four centers) are cut off from their normal basis of support and are marked "status unknown." It is believed that most of these are closed and the inmates scattered.

According to Dr. Leslie B. Moss, coordinator under the Federal Council of Churches of Christ in America, of the relief appeals that are being made in the Protestant churches of the country, there are eight approved civilian relief projects and these will need $6,000,000 in 1942 to carry on their services; one-third of this amount to be secured within the churches. These approved agencies, in addition to those within denominations, are: Church Committee for China Relief, Central Bureau for European Relief, American Friends Service Committee, International Missionary Council, War Prisoners Aid of the Y.M.C.A., War Emergency Committee, International Missionary Council, War Prisoners Aid of the Y.M.C.A., War Emergency Committee of the Y.W.C.A., the American Bible Society, and the American Committee for Christian Refugees.

"The American Mother of 1942" is to be named before the end of this year by the American Mothers' National Committee of the Golden Rule Foundation from nominations made during the next few months by "friends and neighbors." The qualifications of the nominee include: a successful mother whose children have achieved, a sense of social and world relationships, ability to make friends and to appear at ease in public. Nominations should be sent to Mrs. James F. Looman, 60 East 42 Street, New York City, chairman of the committee. The American Mother selected for 1941 was Mrs. Dona Shelby Diehl of Kentucky.

Among the unusual items in the tremendous list of purchases made each year by the Ford Motor company are "four tons of beeswax, 312,000 pounds of castor oil, and 325,000 pounds of cork."

The themes of the various Lenten services, together with the scripture texts upon which they are based, follow. The mixed choir and the male chorus will provide appropriate music for all of these services alternately. Wednesday, March 4. "The False Trial of the Sanhedrin Predicted." Psalm 109: 1-5. Wednesday, March 11. "Christ's Intercessory Prayer Prophesied." Isaiah 53:12. Wednesday, March 18. "The Solitude of His Agony Foreseen." Psalm 69: 1-21. Wed., Mar. 25. "The Depth of His Agony Presaged." Psalm 22: 1-19. Maundy Thursday, April 2. Celebration of Holy Communion. The Desertion of His Disciples Forecast." Zachariah 13: 6-7. Good Friday, April 3. "The Two Faces of Death." Psalm 116: 1-4. The Manner and Purpose of His Death Announced." Isaiah 53: 1-9. Easter, April 5. Sunrise Service at Six A.M. "The Resurrection—a Fulfillment of Prophecy." Psalm 16: 9-11. Easter, April 5. Holy Communion Service at 10:30. "The Fruits of the Resurrection Joyously Anticipated." Round 23. Make an earnest resolve not to miss a single one of these strengthening services. The front line of our country's defense is spiritual strength in her Christian population. The entire Lenten season is designed with that end in view. Avail yourself of this source of never-failing and ever-available strength by attending the church services regularly.

NEWBURG METHODIST church. Verle J. Carson, minister. 9614 Newburg road, Plymouth 860W4. Friday (tonight), family fellowship, potluck supper at 6:30 p.m. Bring the family. Sunday worship at 10 a.m. Message, "I Believe in The Holy Spirit." This is the first in a series of messages on the fundamentals of the Christian faith. Reception of new members. Church school will follow the worship service at 11 a.m. J. M. McCullough, supt. The pastor will conduct a class for children preparing them for membership in the church each Sunday during the Sunday school hour for the next five Sundays. At 4:45 p.m., the Epworth League meets at the parsonage to go to Ann Arbor for the District Youth Rally at which Reverend Janis Laupmanis will speak. Monday, Wayne County Sub-district Missionary Rally at First Methodist church, Wyandotte at 7:30 p.m. The speaker will be the Rev. Janis Laupmanis of Latvia. Monday at 7 p.m., the Boy Scouts meet at the church house. Tuesday, the Red Cross sewing unit meets at 12:30 and the Home Nursing class from 2 to 4 o'clock in the afternoon. Thursday at 8 p.m., the first of our series of mid-week Lenten services with the Rev. Paul Havens, a former pastor of this church as the speaker.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH. Rev. G. H. Ess, Th.D., pastor. The first Sunday in March is our Communion Sunday. Let us all gather for sacred fellowship in remembrance of Christ. But this is also the Sunday when we have combined service of the church and the Sunday school. We begin our meeting at 11 a.m. with a professional by the Junior choir. After the introductory service there will be a message by the pastor followed by the Communion. Then the Senior Choir will sing an anthem and the second part of the service will consist of the dedication of the church banks and the opening of them by the trustees and the treasurer. Then the church banks will be returned to the membership. The distribution of the baptismal certificates will be postponed until next Sunday, March 8. Evening service at 7:00 p.m.; Wednesday prayer meeting at 7:30 p.m. Remember the Red Cross workers meet every Thursday from 10:30 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. They are giving splendid service at this time of great need.

FIRST METHODIST. Stanford C. Closson, minister. You feed your body. Don't starve your soul. Go to church. 10 a.m. Sunday school. 11 a.m. church service. This is a Family Hour. Bring the children. They will enjoy the nursery primary church and junior church. The pastor will talk to the children and preach the sermon. 5 p.m., all young folks are asked to meet at the church to go to Ann Arbor to the Ann Arbor District Youth Rally. Social hour, 5:30; supper, 6:30; service, 7:30; Rev. Janis Laupmanis of Latvia will speak. Monday, 7:45, official board meeting. Wednesday, 7:30, executive board of the Woman's Society. Thursday, 6:30, second in the series of Lenten suppers. Supper is potluck and everyone is welcome. Rev. A. H. Wall-schlaeger of Berkeley is the speaker.

SALEM FEDERATED CHURCH. C. M. Pennell, minister. Sunday morning worship, 10:30 o'clock. Sermon theme: "Lest We Forget." Bible school, 11:45 a.m. Curtis Hamilton, superintendent. Sunday evening hymn-sing, 7:30 o'clock. The pastor of the church will bring a short message on "The Christian Outlook on Today's Conditions." The re-union dinner of the old Bethany class will follow the Sunday school hour, and there will be a program at 3 o'clock. All interested friends are invited to attend the afternoon session.

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST Scientist. Sunday morning service, 10:30. Sunday school at 10:30. Pupils received up to the age of 20 years. Wednesday evening testimony service 8:00. The subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, March 1. The Golden Text (Philippians 4:19): "God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." Among the Bible citations in this passage (Matthew 18:13-16): "When Jesus came in to the coasts of Caesarea Philippi, he asked his disciples, saying, Whom do men say that I the Son of man am? And Simon Peter answered and said, Thou art the Christ, the Son of the living God." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 333): "Christ expresses God's spiritual, eternal nature. The name is synonymous with Messiah, and alludes to the spiritual-ity which is taught, illustrated, and demonstrated in the life of which Christ Jesus was the embodiment."

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Holbrook and Hardin, Lynn B. Stout, pastor. Days of heaven on earth have been ours as we have sat at the feet of those who have been privileged to carry the gospel message to the ends of the earth. As you read this there will be but three more "Round the World" missionary messages. Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Hammond, a young couple, who has spent time in South America will speak tonight (Friday). Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Barrett of South Africa will have charge of all services on the coming Lord's Day. The thing which causes heartaches to the returning missionaries are not the hardships they have been called upon to suffer, but it is the lack of interest upon the part of Christians in the home land in real missionary work. Give these servants of Christ your attendance, at least.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN church. Walter Nicol, pastor. Sunday school; 11 a.m., church worship; 6:30 p.m., young people. Larry Arnold will have charge of the young people's meeting Sunday evening at 6:30 p.m. The subject for consideration is "How to Pray in the Twentieth Century." The board of trustees will meet Wednesday, March 4 at 7:30 p.m. As the church year ends March 31, this is an important meeting. Presbytery and Synodical meetings will be held at the church house Monday, March 2 at 10 a.m. The subject for consideration is Foreign Missions. Returned missionaries and members of the board of foreign missions staff will speak. The next regular service for reception of members will be Sunday, March 12. The date of the annual meeting of this church is Wednesday, April 1.

PENTECOSTAL ASSEMBLIES of God. Berea Gospel Chapel, corner of Mill street and Ann Arbor Trail. Rev. John Walasak, pastor. Sunday school, 10:00 a.m.; morning worship, 11:00 a.m. Sunday evening service, 7:30. Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting Tuesday evening at 7:30. Mid-week service on Thursday evening at 7:45 p.m. Next week the Ladies' Cottage prayer meeting will be held in the home of Mrs. John Mastic, 1142 Holbrook avenue. On Sunday evening we are having a special speaker to bring the message. Come and you will receive a friendly welcome. Stand fast therefore in the liberty wherewith Christ hath made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage." Gal. 5:1.

SALVATION ARMY.—Tuesday, 7:15, service at prison farm; 8:30 band practice, Wednesday, 7:30, prayer meeting; 8:30, preparation class, Thursday, 7:00, Women's Home League; 7:15, Girl Guards, Sunday, 10:00 a.m., Sunday school; 11:00 a.m., Holiness meeting; 6:15 p.m., young people's legion; 7:30 open air 8:00, public salvation meeting. We cordially invite the public to attend these services. Officers in charge, Captain Elizabeth Cadet Lovila Bonser.

CHURCH OF GOD.—333 North Main street. Sunday services: Morning worship and Sunday school (a combined service), 9:45; young people's service, 6:30; evening service, 7:30. Week night services: Tuesday evening, young people's meeting, 7:30. Thursday evening, divine healing service, 7:30. Young and old are invited to attend these meetings. Come and bring a friend with you. Rev. L. D. Wright, 474 South Main street.

ST. JOHN'S EPISCOPAL church.—Harvey and Maple streets. Second Sunday in Lent. Morning prayer and sermon, 10 a.m.; church school, 11:15 a.m. Lenten service every Wednesday evening during Lent at 7:30 p.m. Ladies' Guild will meet at the home of Mrs. G. A. Hartling, 569 North Harvey, March 5 at one o'clock with a dessert luncheon. Children's Lenten mission every Thursday at 4 p.m.

ROSEDALE GARDENS PRESBYTERIAN church. John B. Forsyth, minister. Sunday, March 1 (second Sunday in Lent), morning worship, 11 a.m. Mr. Forsyth will give the second of a series of Lenten sermons on "Are You Alive?" The Men's Round Table will meet Tuesday evening, March 3, in the church basement at 8 o'clock. Topic: "What More Can the Church Do?"

Best equipped optometric service in Michigan. Dr. John A. Ross, Plymouth.—Adv.

Twins Celebrate 82nd Birthdays

FRED AND FRANK WILSON

Frank Wilson of Plymouth and Fred Wilson of Detroit, twin brothers, celebrated their eighty-second birthdays Thursday at a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Wilson and family on Deer street. Guests from Detroit and vicinity attended the party for the two octogenarians. Kenneth Wilson is the son of Frank Wilson.

The Wilson brothers were born on February 26, 1860 in Auburn, New York, and came to live in Plymouth in 1884. Frank Wilson has lived here for the past 78 years and his brother, Fred, made his home in Plymouth until 20 years ago when he moved to Detroit.

Brother Fred is now in retirement, but Frank has worked continuously at the Daisy Manufacturing company in Plymouth since December 5, 1894. While attending school here, he worked spare time on farms around this vicinity and started working regularly at the age of 18. After working at the old Markham factory here, he started on the assembly bench at the Daisy plant and served as shipping clerk there for 25 years.

For the last nine years he has been day watchman at the Daisy factory where he still works 40 hours a week, seven days a week including 12 hours on Sundays and holidays. He has never missed a day on sick leave and he took his first vacation for a week's trip to North Carolina two years ago. He attributes his good health to his record of working every day. Keen and alert at 82, he enjoys listening to the radio and reading the daily papers.

Born during Abraham Lincoln's administration, he has lived through every war since the Civil War in which his father, lost his life. Mr. Wilson has been a member of the Plymouth I. O. O. F. lodge for 51 years and has seen Plymouth develop from "four corners" to a thriving, progressive city.

SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST church. Our Sabbath school services begin at 2:00 p.m. every Saturday afternoon. They are held in the Jewell-Blanch building on the Ann Arbor Trail with preaching service following at 3:15 p.m.

CHURCH OF CHRIST.—188 Liberty street. Eugene Holloway, minister. Bible study, 10:30; communion services, 11:30; song services and preaching, 8 o'clock p.m. Everyone cordially invited to all services.

POULTRYMEN remember RESULTS. That's why so many start their chicks on Larro Chick Builder (with grains hand fed). After 12 weeks they change to Larro Egg Mash (with grains hopper fed to maturity). Talk about economy! As the birds grow older they eat much less mash in proportion to grains. And how they do live and grow! Come in and see us today about your chick feeding program!

YOUR "DREAM" KITCHEN MAY HAVE TO WAIT . . .

This year some of the modern appliances you planned to put into that dream kitchen of yours—to bring you new leisure, lighten your kitchen tasks and save steps—may be hard to get due to curtailed production because of the WAR.

But such a temporary setback should not discourage you. Here's a suggestion. Why not take the money you planned to spend for those appliances you cannot now obtain and invest it in United States Defense Bonds and Stamps? When the WAR is over and America returns to peacetime production, those appliances will again be plentiful and your funds thus saved will be available to you to complete that "dream" kitchen.

A thrifty, practical and patriotic idea, don't you think? You help Uncle Sam, and he'll help you!

Hazelton-Robinson Vows Spoken Saturday at Martha-Mary Chapel

The wedding of Jane Hazelton, daughter of Major and Mrs. Paul Higham Hazelton, of this city, and Marion Moore Robinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Robinson of Orangeburg, South Carolina, took place last Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock in the Martha-Mary chapel in Greenfield Village, Dearborn. Chaplain Wagner, of the Ford Naval Training school, read the service in the presence of 150 guests. The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was charming in a wedding gown of white lace and organdy made empire style, with which she wore a necklace of pearls. White ostrich feathers formed her head-dress which held her fingertip veil of illusion in place. She carried an arm bouquet of white gladioli. Barbara Alice Blakeslee of Birmingham, a classmate of the bride, was maid-of-honor, wearing a gown of blue chiffon and lace and a rose colored hat. Her flowers were pale pink carnations. The bridegroom was attended by Lieutenant John W. Cumiskey of Detroit as best man, and the ushers were Lieutenants John H. Morton of Detroit and Loren P. Scollay of Birmingham. Brown lace formed Mrs. Hazelton's gown with which she wore an orchid colored hat and corsage of orchids. Mrs. Robinson, mother of the bridegroom, was unable to be present. A reception followed for 40 guests in the home of Major and Mrs. Hazelton on Ann Arbor Trail, west, in Plymouth. Mr. and Mrs. Robinson took a brief honeymoon and on March 1 will be at home at 7442 Apollone avenue in Dearborn. For traveling Mrs. Robinson wore a suit of beige and blue wool with black accessories. The bride was graduated from Scarborough School on-the-Hudson and attended Furman University at Greenville, South Carolina. The bridegroom also attended the Furman university and was affiliated with Beta Kappa fraternity.

Former Plymouth Girl Marries Canadian

The St. Mary's church of Walkerville, Ontario was the scene of a wedding ceremony performed by the Reverend Langford on Saturday, February 14, uniting Miss Gladys Bodnar of Northville, formerly of Plymouth, and Joseph Rohatynski of Windsor. Entering upon the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of ivory satin trimmed in lace with a sweetheart neckline, long sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt with a long train and veil held by a dainty tiara of orange blossoms. She wore a single strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a bouquet of white carnations. Mrs. Marjorie Kirchoff, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, in a long blue satin gown. Miss Elmer Bodnar, cousin of the bride, and Miss Betty Lang of Plymouth, bridesmaids, wore pink chiffon gowns and carried bouquets of rose carnations. Little Mary Bodnar as flower girl wore a long pink satin dress and carried a colonial bouquet. The best man was Ferdinand Bodnar and William Paraskevich of Tecumseh and Elmer Kirchoff of Detroit were ushers. Following the ceremony, a reception was given for 150 guests and a five-piece orchestra provided the music for dancing. Following a honeymoon trip, the young couple will reside in Windsor.

Milton Knapp Now A U. S. Naval Reserve

Milton Knapp, 35-year-old Plymouth salesman, has joined the U. S. Naval Reserve and now is undergoing training at the Naval Training Station in Great Lakes, Illinois. Knapp was a member of the sales force of the Northwest Chemical company, before entering the Navy. A yeoman, third class, he has been assigned to the Public Relations office at the training station. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Knapp, 176 South Harvey street, Plymouth.

Present at the banquet with Mr. Nichol, was his wife, who has been at the home of her parents in Virginia during Mr. Nichol's absence in Europe. It was Chauncey Rauch who opened the formalities of the meeting, introducing Edwin A. Schrader as the toastmaster of the evening. Ladies of the church served 318 people, the largest number ever to attend any banquet held in the church. As the result of the careful arrangements worked out, there was no confusion when the large crowd entered and left the banquet room. Patriotic decorations prevailed.

Roy Schepple to Preside at Meeting

The Wayne County Holstein Breeders will meet Tuesday evening March 3 at the Romulus township hall at 8 p.m. according to E. I. Besemer, county agricultural agent.

Roy Schepple, Wayne County Training school, is chairman of the Holstein Breeders. At the meeting March 3 officers for the coming year will be elected. E. M. Clark, fieldman of the Holstein-Friesian association will discuss "The ABC's of herd record-keeping." One out of four applications have to be returned for correction. All Holstein breeders are invited and urged to attend this meeting. Bring your questions on registration and transfer.

Marching Through Northern Ireland

First contingent of the American Expeditionary Force to land on British soil since the last war is now encamped in Ulster. American troops pass through a town in Northern Ireland en route to camp.

No More Blue Gill Fishing!

What a tough time is ahead for Plymouth fishermen!

Saturday is the last day to fish for bluegills through the ice and Sunday is the last day to hunt for snowshoe hares in the upper peninsula, the conservation department reminds sportsmen, in checking these two significant dates on the conservation calendar.

All other game seasons are already closed, though some hunters are keeping in practice shooting crows and hunting bobcats and other non-game animals.

All inland lake spearing also ends Saturday, but anglers may continue fishing pike lakes until March 15 and "all other" inland lakes until March 31, for pike and perch and calico bass. During the spring months when the season is closed on game fish to allow for spawning, fishermen turn their attention to the harvest of suckers and other rough fish making their spawning runs.

The deceased was born July 18, 1893 in Plymouth and was united in marriage to Paul G. Lee December 16, 1914. She lived in and near Plymouth for many years, then moved to Hartland, going to Saline 10 years ago where she has been active in church work. Besides a host of close friends, she is survived by her husband, three daughters, Mrs. William Arthur and Ruth Lee of Ann Arbor; Thelma Lee of Saline; one grandson, Sharon Lee Arthur; two sisters, Mrs. Sylvester Shear of Detroit and Mrs. Harry Brown of Plymouth; one brother, Roy Eckles of Northville and several nieces and nephews. Funeral services will be held at the Methodist church in Saline at 2 o'clock on Friday. Burial will be at Riverside mausoleum, in Plymouth.

JAMES WILLIAMS

Funeral services were held Thursday, February 26 at 2 p.m. from Schrader Funeral home for James Williams who passed away suddenly Sunday, February 22 at Hollywood, Florida at the age of 51 years. Mr. Williams was formerly of Plymouth, Detroit and Cleveland, Ohio. He is survived by his widow, Goldie, one son and four daughters, Mrs. Lillian Gibson of Plymouth; James, Jr., of Detroit; Mrs. Marguerite Cook of Lincoln Park; Mrs. Evelyn Herriek and Mrs. Ardith Lynch, both of Plymouth; also surviving are six grandchildren, four sisters and three brothers, Mrs. Gussie Harbison and Mrs. Louise Potter, both of Detroit; Mrs. Susana VanAcker and Mrs. Minnie Felsner, both of Duck Lake, Fred Williams of Fenton, John and Albert Williams, both of Plymouth. Two beautiful hymns were rendered by Mrs. J. T. Chapman, accompanied at the organ by Mrs. M. J. O'Conner, Rev. Walter Nichol officiated and interment was made in Riverside cemetery.

MRS. FRANK HAMILL

Mrs. Christina Hamill, wife of Frank Hamill, agent for the Pere Marquette railroad in Plymouth, passed away Monday evening following a long illness. Born Christina Delzel Davidson on May 16, 1877 at Strathmeleg, Scotland, she came to America with her parents when she was six years old. They lived for a time in Flint, Michigan, later settling on a farm in Thetford township. At the age of 19, she went to live in Otisville where she met Frank Hamill whom she married nine years later. They made their permanent home in Plymouth 30 years ago. She is survived by her husband, Frank; three children, Mrs. Maurice Woodworth, Doris and Herald Hamill and three grandchildren, Mrs. Bruce Nash and Marcia and Alan Woodworth. She was a member of the First Baptist church. She will be remembered for her courage through years of illness and suffering. Funeral services were held from the Schrader Funeral home Thursday morning at 10:30 o'clock with the Rev. G. H. Enss officiating and at Otisville Thursday afternoon with interment at the Smith Hill cemetery in Forest township near Otisville.

How putting the

on a lump of coal

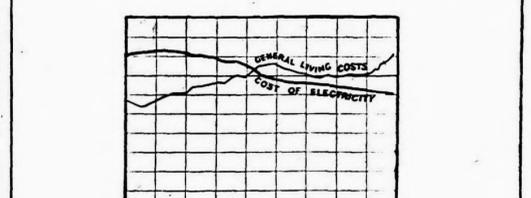

helps lower your electric rates

Most of the electricity produced in the Detroit area comes from coal burned in large power plants. The heat energy in the coal is transformed into electrical energy and sent out to customers' homes over wires. For many years, our engineers have devoted time and effort to squeezing MORE electrical energy out of LESS coal. How successful have they been?

Back in 1906, three-and-a-half times as much coal was required to make electricity as today. In 1912, two-and-a-quarter times as much was needed. By 1925, the amount was down to one-and-a-half times as much. And today, with more energy being "squeezed" from coal than ever before, the amount of coal required is still being whittled down.

Coal is only a small part of the total cost of making electricity. Other factors are involved. But the story of coal typifies the many improvements we are constantly making—large and small—to lower the cost of electricity. The average price per kilowatt-hour paid by our residence customers today is 46 per cent less than in 1921. The Detroit Edison Company.

Telephone between the "humps"!

... Help Speed War Calls!

- ★ THIS picture is to remind you that you can improve your own telephone service and lend a hand in speeding important war messages if you avoid those "peak" periods—10 A. M. to 12, and 2 to 4 P. M.—when telephone lines are likely to be overloaded with calls. Michigan Bell now is handling an average of more than 5,000,000 calls
- ★ daily—many thousands more than ever before. War calls must go through, even though it is becoming increasingly difficult to meet service needs as readily as in the past. By doing your telephoning at off-peak hours, and keeping your calls as short as possible, you will be helping to speed the messages that are vital to victory.

Civilian Rules For Air Raids

Defense Council Urges Home Preparations

In a warning that "it can happen here," the Plymouth civilian defense council this week issued the following instructions to citizens as to what they should do to prepare for possible attacks by enemy airplanes carrying incendiary bombs. In anticipation of possible danger of air raid attack, every household should:

1. Clear attics of all inflammable articles such as excelsior, waste paper, cardboard boxes, etc. and reduce to a minimum all attic storage of furniture or other goods which would hinder free access to the whole attic in the event of fire.
2. Have readily available a rake, a supply of dry sand, a pail or other container suitable for carrying sand and a shovel.
3. When your neighborhood air-raid warden calls, receive him in a cooperative spirit, listen to his advice and post in a conspicuous place in your home the list of more detailed instructions which he will give you.

In the event of an air raid the following rules should be followed:

1. If you are outside when raiders arrive, move quickly but without panic to the nearest available building. If no building is near, lie down away from buildings in the largest available open space.
2. If you are inside, keep away from windows. Remain above or below the street level at which explosions will occur. Generally speaking, a basement is a good place of refuge.
3. Do not telephone under any circumstances. Telephone lines must be kept open for urgent defense messages.
4. If your children are at school do not try to go after them. They will be safer at school than at home.
5. If in an auto pull over to the curb or in a vacant lot on private property; get out and go inside a building.
6. In the event of an incendiary bomb lands on or near your property, you must, under no circumstances, attempt to put it out with an ordinary stream of water. This will cause an explosion. A garden hose adjusted to give a spray will reduce by about two-thirds the burning time of an incendiary and prevent its spreading. The ideal way to handle such devices is by smothering them with sand.
7. If an incendiary lands on a wooden or other inflammable surface, pour sand on it and transfer it with a rake and shovel to a metal container partially filled with sand.
8. Above all keep cool. Remember that the chief objective of the civilian population and disrupt their efforts in support of the war.

Following a raid, you should:

1. Stay indoors and turn on your radio which will soon carry immediate instructions.
2. Do not congregate around fire or explosion scenes. You will interfere with workmen and rescue efforts.
3. Obey instructions from air raid wardens, policemen and firemen.
4. Do not, unless specifically instructed or authorized, attempt to give directions.

B.P.W. Members Attend Meeting

Dr. L. M. Phillips Proves Interesting Speaker

At the Business and Professional Women's club district meeting of the Michigan Federation held at the Highland Park YWCA last Saturday evening, Dr. Lena Madson Phillips, president of the International Federation of Business and Professional Women and doctor of law at the University of Kentucky, discussed "America's Debt to Destiny." Dr. Phillips spoke of the work of the clubs in Europe preceding the war and of their effort in carrying on even in the face of disaster and destruction. She said that Britain had organized an average of one new club every three weeks since the beginning of the war.

The speaker also read excerpts from letters received from the conquered countries of Europe that told of the work still going on in secret. These letters had been written in code as friendly personal notes because the censoring government would not allow women's clubs to operate, she explained.

"We must see to it that our minds and spirits are ready for the new kind of order; that a greater sense of social justice is needed and that there will be no peace until this is achieved," said Dr. Phillips. "To Europe," she declared, "America is the last great hope."

Miss Clara Marsh, chairman of District One, presided at the meeting which included various round-table discussion groups. Following dinner, a program was presented under the direction of Mrs. Emika Kennedy, past president of the state of Michigan and president of the Hostess club. Representatives were present from clubs in Windsor, Rochester, New York and Dr. Sauter, president of the Indiana club. There were also present at the speaker's table, six past presidents of the Michigan club as well as a number of other state officers. Miss E. Margaret Siebert, state president, gave a report on state and international club news and Roy M. Parsons, director of music in Highland Park schools, led the group in singing the international anthem and also gave several solos.

Those attending from the local club were Hanna Strasen, Vaun Campbell, Ingeborg Lundin, Elizabeth Sutherland, Florence Stader and Mrs. Hazel Diack.

By skillful conduct and artificial means a person may make a sort of name for himself; but if the inner jewel be wanting, all is vanity, and will not last.—Goethe.

Commencement Speaker

KENNETH G. BARTLETT

Kenneth G. Bartlett, Plymouth high school alumnus and assistant professor of radio education at Syracuse University, Syracuse, New York, will be the commencement speaker for the 1942 graduating class at Plymouth high school June 11.

Professor Bartlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wyman Bartlett of Plymouth, is director of the radio workshop on the Syracuse University campus. He was graduated from the local high school in 1923 where he was active in public speaking and debate. After receiving his B.A. degree at Albion college, he studied in the law school of the University of Michigan for two years, and completed his master's degree at Syracuse University. The former Plymouth man began as an instructor at Syracuse in 1920 while completing his graduate studies and has been a professor for the last four years.

It is fitting that a successful Plymouth high school alumnus, a professor in one of the country's leading schools at only 35 years of age, address the graduating class at the annual commencement exercises.

"Wild Ride" Ends When Car Crashes Billboard

A "wild ride" ended Thursday afternoon when a car driven by Charles Crofoot of Chesaning, Michigan, careened across Northville road near the junction with Mill street at the entrance of the city, went over the curb and struck a large billboard sign on the vacant lot. The car finally came to a stop at the edge of the curb on Mill street. Both the billboard sign and the automobile were demolished and the driver was fined $25 for reckless driving and charged with damages for the signboard.

Frances Weed Hears From English Friend

Frances Weed, Senior Girl Reserve president met an English refugee girl, Enid Dearle, when she attended the Reserves summer camp near Jackson last summer. The two girls became closely acquainted and as a result Enid told Frances many of her experiences in England. Frances, in turn, reported on conditions in that country to Mr. Reeves' 7-B geography class on Thursday, February 19.

One of the highlights of her talk was that anyone entertaining guests to send their ration cards ahead, otherwise no food can be purchased for them. Children who have been evacuated into the country to go on with their education seldom do any actual studying because they are always worrying about their parents in the city, and when going to and from school the boys and girls are not allowed to walk together but must take separate streets to reach the school.

Rocks Defeated By Dearborn 48-38

The fast moving basketball game between Dearborn and Plymouth resulted in a 48-38 victory for the Phantoms of Dearborn. The teams were about an even match until the second half when the Dearborn five pulled out of a 20-20 tie to outmatch the Rocks. Along about the first of the second quarter the teams were tied at 12 and Plymouth started to pull away with a basket which resulted in the 20 all score at the half. Bob Birt started the scoring in the first half and every one had a chance at the Plymouth basket. Especially spectacular was a mid-floor swisher by the guard, Sheppard. In the second half Owen Gorton started and closed the Plymouth scoring session. The Phantoms held throughout the second half, the decided edge which resulted in Rock defeat.

The Plymouth line-up was as follows: Birt, F.; Gorton, F.; Olds C.; Gillis, G.; Sheppard, G. Substitutes: Ebersole, Donahue, and Kearney. For Dearborn: Chaddock, F.; Linton, F.; Seput C.; Nieland, G.; Gregory, G.

Following the footsteps of their elders the Plymouth second team also gave victory to Dearborn 48-23. Trailing almost all through the game and at the half 22-16 the team was slower than the Dearborn five. High scorers for Plymouth were Hunt with nine points and Newton with eight points.

The fans were entertained during the half-time with a spectacular exhibition of Plymouth baton twirlers numbering 23. After a group display, Louise Carter put on quite an act by herself. It was the group's first appearance.

Wayne Beats Rocks

After playing a tight game through the first half, the Plymouth Rocks were forced to be content with a final score of 53-38 in favor of the Wayne Zebras at the final home game at Plymouth, Tuesday, February 24. Plymouth gained a score of 10-7 at the end of the first quarter in their favor after Gorton, Ebersole and Olds each had made a field goal while Gillis swished two.

Not making the shots as they did in the first quarter, the Rocks were on the short end of a 19-17 score at the half.

High scorer for Plymouth was Ebersole with 11 points. Dale, of Wayne, got 20 points.

Party Given for Pre-School Tots

The Homemaking II girls gave a party for children of pre-school age on Wednesday, February 18. The girls, who have been studying child care, learned about the schedules, bathing, behavior, and habits of small children. Shirley George was chairman of the party, while Joyce Penney took charge of refreshments.

The pre-school age children who attended were Guy Bunney, Hope Tret, Carol Avery, Robert Hugh, Joan Kay Basset, Ruth Ann Slusher, Susan Doly, David Doly, Ronald Paul Funk, Geraldine Mossey, Arthur Ruedisella, and Shirley Ann Saver.

What's Buzzing?

The "Pilgrim Prints" without a column would be like crackers without cheese, so one must be produced for better or for worse. "Imagine-its," have become almost a custom in Plymouth high school here are a few:

Can you imagine—
The lunchroom without broken dishes;

Dorothy Blunk not complaining about an assignment?

The "kids" not throwing snowballs?

Miss Wells without candy bars and knitting?

Fisher without Fisher?

The Lodge brothers afraid of electricity?

A lazy George Chute?

Girls with "brush cuts" and boys with "pigtales"?

The world without wars?

Have you noticed the new sign language circulating through school? Everyone has his own variations.

Interesting study-keeping track of the new war songs.

Male vs/ female and on the female's home ground, too, for the question now arrives of who is the best knitter. In Detroit schools the Junior Red Cross announces that boys are superior to the girls. Competition is starting here.

P.S. Miss Wells will teach anyone to knit who has yarn, needles, and ambition.

"You ought to be in pictures," is what the teachers are being told as photographs in natural setting, school rooms, are taken.

Food for thought was the Red Cross lecturer speaking literally when she said that we were wearing our last clothes?

A parting thought—we would like to meet the two American fliers who flew over Japan and looked out and said "Where's all your silk, worms?"

G. R. Doings

Knitted squares in a wide array of colors are being handed in by the Senior Girl Reserves to be used in making an afghan for the Red Cross.

In the election of new officers held in the Junior Girl Reserve club, Thursday, February 19, the following officers were elected: Annabel Heller, president; Joan Gilles, vice president; Kathleen Fisher, secretary; Irene Niessopal, treasurer; Barbara Stover, inter-club counselor.

Annabel and Barbara attended their first council meeting at the Highland Park Y.W.C.A., Saturday, February 21. Fran Weed and Nancy McLaren of the Senior Girl Reserves, also attended this meeting.

The monthly song fest of the three Girl Reserve groups was held Thursday noon, February 19, in the music room.

Birt Is New Chief of Police

Mayor Bob Fisher has appointed Robert Birt as chief of police for this semester. Louis Kolin, last term's chief, graduated this January.

Birt, in turn, made his semester appointments. Patricia Hudson heads the list as chief justice while her associate justices are Janice Downing, Bruce McAllister, Russell Ash, Bob Bachelor, Bob Wolf, and Rosemary Ray. The duty of this group is well-known by any student who has ever received a ticket for violations in the hall, since they mete out the punishments.

The lieutenant for the first floor hall troopers is Fred Millard. The second floor lieutenant is Junior Russell and the big shot on the third floor is Bill Birt.

Lois Hoffman is the school sergeant for the five-minute between class periods and her main task is to see that the troopers as a whole are always on duty at this time and also to see that they fulfill their duty to the best of their ability.

Senior Play March 19 - 20

"What a Life," starring Rosalind Postiff and Carl Hosier, seniors, will be held March 19 and 20.

Committees have been chosen and the chairmen are as follows: Tickets, Nancy McLaren; lights, Dudley Martin; stage setting, Allene Parmalee; programs, Margaret Bellfleur; publicity, Jeanne Judd; properties, Jane Lehman; construction, Gordon Ross; usher, Agnes Zimba; stage manager, Charles Burger.

The shortened spring vacation was decided on by the school board to permit Plymouth's school term to conform with changes being made in the country due to the present war program.

Inasmuch as farmers are being called upon to raise more food stuffs, the earlier graduation time will permit those students who intend to work on farms during the summer to get on the job helping to fill Uncle Sam's larder when they're needed most.

You Can Do Your Bit

Mrs. Waunda Marzoff, director of the Detroit chapter of the Junior Red Cross, speaking at a teachers' meeting Tuesday told faculty members what the Junior Red Cross in Plymouth can do. Each department in school is able to contribute some help, if it is nothing more than cooperation.

Since the government is asking for fifty per cent of all wool members of the organization are encouraged to use scraps; also small pieces of wool can be sewed together to make lap robes for the injured. Knitting needles are becoming scarce, but boys in shop can make them out of dowel pins. Tin cans, too, are useful because many things can be made from them including large ash trays for barracks and for hospitals for wounded. Every one can help do his part by conserving clothes, buttons, hangers, stamps, thread, and here especially paper. No teacher will mind if one hands in a paper that has been used on one side before.

35 Girls Join Home Ec. Club

Thirty-five new members were welcomed to the Home Economics club at an afternoon entertainment Tuesday, February 17. Marie Johnson was hostess and served punch.

Miss Platt, who is a senior at Michigan State College, addressed the girls on Club Membership. She stressed active membership, and explained what the club means. She is an active member of the college Home Ec. club, which is sending out its own members to talk to the high school groups and make the club a national group.

Senior Sketches

To work with children is the aim of Lila Upton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde R. Upton of 1440 Hagerort highway. Born in Holland, Michigan, where she has visited several times, since she moved to Detroit, and from there to Plymouth at the age of four. Being a member of the glee club and of the Junior Girl Reserves, playing the piano and sewing have kept her busy while in school. "Girls who wear anklets with high heeled shoes" is her pet peeve.

Among other seniors who wish to become nurses is Rosalind Postiff, daughter of Walter and Mabel Postiff of 9163 Lilley road. She has been in Girl Reserves, Junior Play, Senior Play and Library club. Her pet peeve is "apple polishers," as she puts it, or in other words, teachers' pets.

Edward Hickey, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Hickey, resides at 11406 Ingram in Rosedale Gardens. He was born in Detroit, and has traveled through the upper regions of Canada—Calender and North Bay, Ontario. His chief hobby is bowling and he has participated on the music committee for the Senior Prom and in the junior play. As yet he is definitely decided upon his pet peeve, which is road hogs.

Robert Whittaker of Brookville road, was born in Plymouth, the son of Glen and Ira Whittaker. His accomplishment is one year of track, while his hobbies are stamp collecting and target shooting. Robert's aim in life is to be a theater owner. He has traveled in northern Michigan and New York state. Smarty drivers are Bob's pet peeve.

College Semesters Begin in June

Several colleges and universities including the University of Michigan, Michigan State college and Northwestern University at Evanston, are offering a three-year term enabling a student to graduate in February 1945 instead of June 1946. Under this new plan these schools will open the first semester either the first or second week in June.

Long summer vacations started by the agricultural people of the United States, because their sons and daughters were needed on the farms. During these days of war emergency, it is felt that returning to the long vacation period would tune the school activity to the need of the times, and permit the student to employ the vacation period, usually spent in pleasure, in useful work.

Improving the monitor system was the object of Chief of Police Bob Birt's recent activities. Dismissing Bob Thams to walk throughout the high school halls without a permit, Chief Police Birt was attempting to find out if the monitors were on the job. The majority of them were not, having let Thams by with various excuses. Birt then talked to the monitors on their duties and responsibilities. We hope no monitors will be letting their job down after this.

Snoop and Spy

Corrine Schiffe, Lloyd Jackson, Helen Bennett, Donald Showman enjoyed a Saturday evening at the Cherry Hill dance.

The toboggan slide at Cass Benton was the scene of action last week. Among the partakers in the fun (?) were Earl Basset, Gordon Vetal, Don Vetal, Paula Hoenecke, Lois Vetal, Irene Niessopal, Norma Robinson, and Annabel Heller.

Leona Bakhaus and Bob Hull, of the class of '39, attended the Shrine Circus, on Saturday, February 21.

Signe Hodge visited her sister over the week-end in Ann Arbor.

Jack Kenyon entertained Fern Dibooye, Bill Bartel and Carolyn Kirk at his house for a hamburger fry after going to the show in Plymouth.

Margaret Jean Nichol, Dorrit Strauss and Marion Goodman went to a lecture by Hugh Johnson on the Foreign Situation on Tuesday evening.

Joyce Tarnutzer and Larry Arnold, class of '41, went to an Inter-Fraternity dance at the General Motors Institute of Technology at Flint last Saturday.

Marie Ann Miller had a regular old fashioned taffy pull last Saturday night. Among the guests were Ruth Drews, Gordon Ross, Marion Goodman, Louis Kolin, George Chute, Allene Parmalee and Joe Measel.

Dorothea Hance, Dale Curtis, Shirley Bernard, and Leo Kubie attended the Shrine Circus last Sunday evening.

Dorothy J. Fisher entertained Laurel Norris over the week-end. Dorothy and Herbert Brandt, Laurel Norris and James Hull enjoyed Saturday evening at the Norwest theatre and Sunday at the Shrine Circus.

Leaders' Club Elects Members

Three girls were elected to Leaders' Club to fill the vacancies in the sophomore, junior and senior classes on Tuesday, February 17. The three vacancies were caused by the failure of two girls to pass two game tests in a row and one girl's inability to continue club activities. The vacancies were filled by Geraldine Dahmer of the sophomore class, Leona Bakhaus of the junior class and Hazel Pankow of the senior class. These new members, voted in by the other members of their classes, were chosen from a waiting list.

Freshman Hurt on Toboggan Party

George Valrance of 9628 Cranston, Rosedale Gardens, was injured Sunday, February 15, while tobogganing on the hill across from the Northville race track in Cass Benton park. He has a very badly sprained ankle, and is expected to be out of school for a week or more longer.

Stewart Culbertson, who recently underwent an emergency appendectomy, had a black eye as a result of the toboggan hitting a tree at the foot of the hill. Stewart is a sophomore.

J-Hop News

As the J-Hop on March 13 draws near, the various committees are busy. Chaperons and other guests will soon receive their invitations. The theme of the dance, Fiesta, is being carried out by decorations, and the Peter Perry orchestra has been engaged to provide music. Attendance is by invitation only; these can be obtained by calling the school or Louise Powell, Barbara Gadsby, Jean Crandell, Betty Nagel, Shirley Jacobson or Elsirose Koontz.

New Knitters' Group Formed

Elaine DePlanche has conceived the idea of knitting for the Junior Red Cross and Mrs. Henry Baker, who is the local sponsor for the Junior Red Cross, is cooperating with the girls. Every time the girls complete an afghan, they turn it over to her and she puts it to good use. Hence room 21 will be the scene of a gathering of girls, and needles will continue to click every Wednesday at noon. Miss Taylor is backing this ambitious group, and stated that probably at a later date they would be making sweaters. Yarn of any color is acceptable and the club hopes that everyone will cooperate with their needs.

Robert Birt Tests Monitor System

To have an effective student government a high school must have an efficient police force. In P.H.S. the police force works in unison with the judicial department, guiding traffic in the halls and issuing tickets for violations while the judges issue penalties to the violators. Monitors are also stationed in the halls during class time to see that students in the halls have permits to be out of their classes.

Improving the monitor system was the object of Chief of Police Bob Birt's recent activities. Dismissing Bob Thams to walk throughout the high school halls without a permit, Chief Police Birt was attempting to find out if the monitors were on the job. The majority of them were not, having let Thams by with various excuses. Birt then talked to the monitors on their duties and responsibilities. We hope no monitors will be letting their job down after this.

Service Gab

"Hi Amigo,"
"Greetings, Dogface."

"I heard the old man reported you as pot walloper on K.P. for riding the sick list at reveille."

"Yeh, the Devil Dodger and the Sawbones got together and nearly landed me in the clink. Probably some dunguard of a flatfoot will be dragging Emily tonight."

"Oh, by the way, you better quit gold brickin' and repay that white money so I can get a chili bowl and see Patches."

"O.K. Say, I heard the Top has to send his white money to his article of war."

"Yeh, no doubt. This morning the Benzine Board gave high pay private Allen a gig for being a habitual gig-getter."

"If they find Gertrude, he'll get put in the stockade for going over the hill."

"Well, cut the bull and let's go to chow."

Stumped? Well, if you were up on your Army slang, you'd know what it says.

Is There Luck in The Name "Eagles"?

In first place in the seventh and eighth grade division of the intra-mural basketball games are the Eagles having won four and lost no games. Holding second place are the Ballhawks who have won two games and lost two. Tying for third place are the Rocks, Beavers, and Seawolves having each won one and lost three.

Also in first place in the ninth and tenth grade division are the Eagles with three victories and no defeats. Tied for second place are the Musketeers, Five Aces, and the Hotshots, each having won two games and lost one. Ranking third are the Mashers, Indiana, and Minute Men each with one victory and two defeats. In last place are the Wings with three losses.

No More Orangeade

What? No more orangeade? Such questions were asked the lunchroom waitresses in the past few weeks. Because of the war the students of Plymouth high school and the Central grade school will receive no more Bireley's Orangeade. This situation was caused by the drivers of the Bireley's trucks going to work on defense; also the production of orangeade was cut down. However, this is not a permanent situation.

Glee Club to Have Festivals

The senior high glee club has an enrollment of 54 members who are preparing for the spring music festival, to be held March 22 at the high school auditorium.

Another important event the glee club is making preparations for is the Twin-Valley Festival Association contest, to be held April 30, at Ypsilanti in competition with Birmingham, Wayne, and Ecorse.

A new glee club consisting of about 60 eighth and ninth grade boys was just organized under the direction of Mr. Luchtman.

Leaders' Club Elects Members

Waack High Point Man

After gaining a lead at the half, of 5 points, with the score of 17-12, the Rock Reserves were handed a 23-20 defeat at the hands of the Wayne quintet. Able to get only 3 points in the last half, the Rocks faded out in the second half. Waack was high scorer for Plymouth with 8 points.

Junior High to Have Dance Tonight

The junior high school is having a dance tonight, February 27, in the high school gymnasium. Mike Kienschmidt's orchestra will furnish the music. Jacquelyn Dalton, eighth grade president and general chairman has announced the following committee chairmen: Tickets, Barbara Stitt; publicity, Marjorie Elliott; refreshments, Alice Erdelyi; and floor, Douglas Vincent.

Mayor Lists Defense Work

Citizens May Help In Various Programs

Plymouth is leading the state in organization for civilian defense preparations and to stimulate the local defense effort Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple this week issued suggestions for citizens to cooperate and contribute to the local program.

"Every day people telephone and ask what they can do for defense. In addition to buying defense bonds and stamps which Plymouth is doing well, the following are a few of the tasks that need to be pushed immediately," declares the mayor.

"First, register for civilian defense if you have not already done so. Paper salvage is being carried on under the direction of Superintendent George A.

Rosedale Gardens News

"Mrs. Jack VanCoevinger has been fortunate in securing John and Frank Craighead, twins, who will talk on the "Life With an Indian Prince" at the March luncheon meeting of the Woman's National Farm and Garden association of the Rosedale Gardens and Plymouth branches. The Craighead twins, students of the University of Michigan, spent three months on a round the world trip, taking colored moving pictures. They contributed a very interesting article for the February issue of the National Geographic magazine which shows many of their pictures. They returned home last fall and have since written several articles which have been published in the Saturday Evening Post.

Mrs. Fred Weinert was the luncheon guest, Wednesday of Mrs. George Chatelet, in Detroit, following the Fisher Town Hall.

Mrs. Richard Brand and son, Billy, visited her father, Milton Clark, in Milan, Sunday.

Saturday evening the Civic association will hold open house when Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harsh and Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Mason will be hosts. There will be a movie shown and games played with refreshments afterward.

The following from Rosedale Gardens attended the University of Michigan club dance held Friday evening in the Masonic Temple in Plymouth: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harsh, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bruce, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert MacGregor, Mr. and Mrs. John Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Von D. Polhemus, Mr. and Mrs. William Morris, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Crisp, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Stalter, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Burton, Mr. and Mrs. Dudley Apps, Mr. and Mrs. Rex Albright and Mr. and Mrs. Griffith.

The Parent-Teachers' association board meeting was held Monday evening in the school. On Wednesday evening, March 4, the regular meeting and social hour will be held. Father-Contest, Robert Bruce, Charles Bowdlear, Mrs. Ralph Baker and others will take part in a round table discussion on "Keeping Faith with America."

On March 27 the Cooperative nursery school is planning to have an educational project which will be home talent, representatives from all classes from the nursery through the high school having a part. The regular meeting will be held on March 10 at 9 o'clock, in the community house.

Mrs. Ralph Timmins and Mrs. Earl Rubert were joint hostesses, Monday evening, at a party honoring Mrs. Forest Randall, in the home of Mrs. Timmins. Buncce was played for the evening's entertainment. Those present were Mrs. Randall, Mrs. Gerald Mier, Mrs. F. M. Merriam, Mrs. Palmer Fry, Mrs. Lee Fowler, Mrs. Thomas Lyndon, Mrs. George Hamilton, Mrs. Moran Heric, Mrs. Edward Doyle and Mrs. John Forsyth.

The Arts and Letters Book club will meet Tuesday evening with Mrs. Jack VanCoevinger. Mrs. Paul Harsha will review the book, "Young Man of Caracas," by T. R. Ybarra.

Mrs. Fred Weinert, Mrs. Robert Burns, Mrs. Roger Cooper, Mrs. H. H. Shierk, Mrs. Leslie Taylor and Mrs. John Calhoun will be luncheon bridge guests today (Friday) at Mrs. C. Harry Tingey on Rutherford avenue in Detroit.

Mrs. Ernest Bentley entertained her auxiliary group, at dessert, Tuesday preceding the business meeting. Mrs. John Perkins was also a dessert hostess the same afternoon for members of her auxiliary group.

Newburg News

Sunday was Layman's Day in the Methodist church of Newburg with Dennis Constable reading the scripture. Jack McCullough introduced Arthur Norris, of Pontiac, who spoke on "Where Do We Live?"

The Silver tea given in the home of Mrs. Melvin Guthrie Friday was well attended. Mrs. Edward Ayers, program chairman, planned a unique guessing game. Articles were placed on a table representing a song which the ladies had to guess, then all joined in singing the song. Mrs. Russell H. Steinger, of Northville, who spent five years in China, gave an interesting talk. The tea table at which Mrs. Marilyn Simmons poured was gay with a bowl of lovely spring flowers.

The Woman's Society of Christian Service will meet on Wednesday, March 4, with Mrs. Edward Ayers as a potluck lunch and meeting when Georgiana Reid, school nurse of Wayne county, will speak.

Mrs. Harry Gilbert and daughters called on Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith, also Mrs. Mary David, in Redford, Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Clarence Mott and Mrs. Donald Bovee attended an all-day meeting of the extension leaders held Thursday in Wayne.

Jack McCullough called on Mrs. M. Eva Smith one day last week and found her improving nicely.

Mrs. William Loesch was called to Detroit, Sunday, by the death of her father. The funeral was held Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Loesch have the sympathy of their many Newburg friends.

The Fidelis class of the Methodist Sunday school will sponsor a potluck supper this (Friday) evening, in the church hall. Mrs. Edward Ayers will show pictures of the West and a social time will be enjoyed.

Parkview Classic League

Thursday night, February 19, was all or nothing at all night in most matches of this local Classic League. Hudson Motors jumped back into first place by taking four points from Todd's Market while Perfection Laundry and Commerce No. 1 were being hanged a four-point beating by City of Plymouth. Refrigerated Lockers moved back toward the top, into second place, by taking four points from Walter Harms Insurance. Super Shell No. 2 took four from Plymouth Hardware and moved up into fifth place. Oldsmobile Sales grabbed off four from Wall Wire not bettering their own position, but dropping Wall Wire back into sixth place. Hi-Speed continued their march toward the top by winning three points from Wilson Plumbers, Mayflower Taps and Plymouth Country Club split their match, two and two and Perfection Laundry against Mapleclawn Dairy ended likewise. It seems that it was a tough night for everybody. Very few high three game series were turned in; best of these included Hiley Andrews with 627; Jeff Wendland 618; V. Armbruster 593; Bob Blodgett 591; Clarence Levy 590; Bill Rudick 587; Lon Brocklehurst 581; Art Merryfield 576; Hartner 566; Watson Todd 562; Gordon Robinson 561; Doc Lyke 554; Burden 554; and Ed Devine 552. Three-game series under the 500 mark were in abundance, many were under 450 and one or two under 400, but we don't print any of those kind.

EFFECTIVE SUNDAY, MARCH 1, 1942
Announce a change in Bowling Prices
Last September, when there was a general advance in price of bowling throughout the state, we did not raise our prices.
We made it plain at the time that it was our policy not to do so until it could no longer be avoided.
That has been our aim and policy for a number of years. That is our policy today . . . That will be our policy always.
Since 1939, however, everything that goes into bowling has steadily increased.
We have raised our pin boys twice since the first of September in order to give you better bowling. And if we are to maintain the same standard of recreation that you expect and we want to give, we must adjust our prices in accordance with our increased cost.
Beginning on Sunday, March 1, 1942, therefore, our prices will be 25c per line for all open bowling.

Windstorm Firm Sets Fine Record

Insurance Company Holds Annual Meeting

The annual meeting of the Michigan Mutual Windstorm Insurance company of Hastings was held at the home office, January 25. The officers and directors were re-elected. The annual report shows 1941 to have been a very successful year for this reliable old company. The amount of insurance in force December 31, 1941, is $471,762,589.00. This represents a net gain of $13,372,581.00. It can plainly be seen that the company is headed for $500,000,000.00 in force. At its present rate of increase the company will reach this goal within two years.

The number of losses paid during 1941 was 31,049, the largest number ever paid in any single year during the fifty-six years' experience of the company. These individual claims amounted to over $1,100,000.00 and were paid without borrowing money or increasing the number or size of its assessments. The wisdom of the management of this company has been shown in its having a large cash reserve on hand with which to pay this unusually heavy loss.

A new feature has been adopted by the company whereby $400,000.00 in losses are re-insured during 1942. This, together with the splendid financial condition of the Windstorm Company, places it in A-1 condition to meet any eventuality in 1942.

It can be seen that the Windstorm company deserves the splendid reputation it has. Confidence in it is based upon its record of over 56 years of square dealing with its policyholders and the careful, prudent management of its affairs.

This newspaper is publishing a schedule of announcements from week to week, giving more information about this company and its services to those who suffer loss by windstorm.

Prize Winner

DORIS BUZZARD

Doris Buzzard, Plymouth junior in Michigan State college, won first prize in the annual poetry reading contest. It was announced this week by the speech department.

Miss Buzzard's rendition won her the $10 award offered in this year's contest.

Mary Elaine Childs, Detroit junior, captured the second prize of $5.

Communication

Dear Editor: I wish to take this opportunity to thank you for sending me The Plymouth Mail. It's just like a big letter from home every week. It helps a lot in keeping me informed about my friends and what they are doing. Kindly change my address, as I am being sent to a pilot school for the U.S. army.

It is going to be hard to get through, because Uncle Sam does not have time to fool much with pilots these days who do not have much natural ability to fly. In the last class I understand that over 70 percent were washed out. But I plan to work hard and hope for the best, believing that I can serve my country much better as a pilot than I can in any other branch of the service. Thanks again for sending me the paper—and remember the new address.

Gordon A. Moe, (Somewhere in California).

Warns Farmers of Use of Tractor Tires

A. R. West, better known to his many friends as "Jake" West, Plymouth representative of the International Harvester company, has been advised by the company to represent, to warn farmers against the use of tires made for farm implements on automobiles.

"Tires built for agricultural machines are not designed for operation at high speed," said Mr. West.

"The man who buys a rubber tired spreader or mower and switches the casings to his truck is taking a dangerous risk. He should be warned against it."

"This is no reflection on the quality of the tires sold regularly with agricultural machinery. They are built for long life and durability rather than high speed. When used for some other purpose that involves high speed, failure might occur with disastrous consequences to the passengers."

"Pneumatic tires sold with tractors, spreaders, mowers and other agricultural machinery should never be placed under a truck or automobile. To do so invites danger to life and property."

To be what we are, and to become what we are capable of becoming, is the only end of life.—Robert Louis Stevenson.

Woman Fashion Editor Next Town Hall Speaker

Carmel Snow, editor of "Harper's Bazaar," will address the Detroit Town Hall audience in the Fisher theatre Wednesday, March 4 at 11 a.m. on "The Art of Dressing."

Mrs. Snow still retains a slight, but charming trace of the Irish brogue of the land of her birth. However, she left there at a very early age and was educated in Belgium and in Iowa.

During the last war, she was an active Red Cross worker and returned to civilian life to assume the editorship of the American edition of "Vogue" in 1920. In 1922 she left that publication to become the editor of "Harper's Bazaar," a post she has held ever since.

Until the war, Carmel Snow

journeyed to Paris twice a year. Unlike many editors, she must know at first hand what is going on in the field that her publication covers! She has never been content to sit in her office and read reports of the latest doings in the world of fashion. Nearly every opening, in happier days in Paris, but now in New York, finds Carmel Snow in the front row.

Her keen sense of style makes her an expert on today's modes as well as an authority on the trends that make for the dress of tomorrow.

With her husband and three children, Carmel, Mary Paalen and Bridget, Mrs. Snow lives at "Rolling Hill Farm," a rambling house at East Norwich, Long Island.

THE OFFENSIVE

Probably the most cheerful and hopeful expression made by President Roosevelt Monday night in his amazingly patriotic appeal to American citizens, was his declaration that "soon we, and not our enemies, will have the offensive."

It is the offensive, not the defensive, that wins wars. The quicker we can start the offensive stage of this conflict, the better it will be for the Allied nations.

But you can't start an offensive war when ship yards, airplane plants and munition factories are closed down by strikes over the question of whether men shall be paid double time for working on a holiday, such as happened last Monday out on the Pacific coast.

The President very wisely made reference to this subject in his famous Washington day address when he said: "We SHALL not stop work for a single day," in the production of guns and munitions for our boys at the front.

Maybe the shelling of the Pacific coast by a Jap submarine within a few minutes after the President had made his address to the nation, will arouse some of our people to the seriousness of the danger confronting our country. Maybe it will serve to shame (if such a thing is possible) some of our representatives in Washington who have opposed every step the nation has taken to protect itself during the last six or eight years. Maybe it will arouse up to the point where we will buckle in and work as we have never worked before to win an all-out Victory for America!

The President did a remarkable service to the nation Monday night. It is up to each one of us now to do our part, and do it willingly. No sacrifice can be too much for us to make. We should keep in mind that no matter how great the sacrifice we may make, it is nothing compared to that of our boys who have been sent to the front where many of them will make the supreme sacrifice. What ever the President asks, let's do it, and do it willingly! He is simply asking it for our own good—and our own protection.

THE PAY-OFF

During the last years that Felix Flynn was a member of the Michigan state senate, he served as chairman of the senate highway committee. Republican members of the house of representatives at that time deemed it advisable to attempt the enactment of legislation which would to some extent curtail the expansion of the highway department political machine.

When these measures reached the senate, they were referred to the committee of which Flynn was the chairman. Mr. Flynn, at the behest of powerful highway interests, saw to it that the bills were never reported out of his committee. Flynn, who was elected as a Republican, did a far better job of serving the Democratic bosses by killing these bills than he did the interests of Michigan.

Now the political pay-off has taken place. Flynn, long one of Boss McKay's political stooges, has been named a member of the state liquor commission. Governor Van Wagener has paid off Flynn for the services rendered the Democratic machine by Flynn while he was in the senate.

The appointment also gives Boss Frank McKay a man "right in the front office" of the liquor commission. It has often been said that it didn't make any difference to McKay whether there were Democrats or Republicans in control at Lansing—he always had a way of getting the "right man" in the "right place" in each administration.

He certainly has picked off a bonanza in the appointment of Flynn.

If one is interested in any liquor problem from now on, the proper procedure is to see Boss McKay of Grand Rapids first and next see Flynn and tell Flynn you have the blessings of McKay—and from there on there should be no difficulty in getting along very nicely with any of the little or big problems you might have before the liquor commission.

It was astute politics upon the part of the Democratic highway department officials to be able to induce a Republican to do this type of legislative practice. May it be said that the fact they have carried out their part of whatever type of understanding there was, is to the credit of the Democratic officials. The shame lies upon the part of a Republican who would become a party to any such thing.

Well, at any rate, these must be happy days again for the McKay-McKeighan outfit. Flynn's appointment fits nicely into their pattern for what's what in the liquor business.

MARCHING ON TO WAR

We watched another group of young men march to war Tuesday. Swinging along behind a corps of middle-aged veterans of the last great war, behind the school band and American flag, they seemed a strong, spirited lot of fellows. A few moments at the depot for last good-byes, and they went away.

It has happened before in this war and it will happen again. The fitzies are going to the front to fight to preserve freedom. The rest of us may stay behind to maintain the home front. It is the task of we "left-behinders" to make certain that home is as good, or better, when "the boys" come home again.—Wilbur X. Derrus in The Munising News.

HARVEST FOR STAMP COLLECTORS

With new duck stamps, sugar stamps, auto stamps and what have you coming into use per order of the government, the range of the stamp collector is expanding with leaps and bounds.—Charles Seed in The Rochester Clarion.

MONEY TALKS

If raising money will win the war the United States will get it in the bag, for about every day Congress raises billions for this and that just like we buy sugar when we can. Those who have an income tax to pay will realize what we say when your tax is three times as high this year, as last with prospects it will be higher next year. The sad part about this war politics is the fat salaries they are paying in Washington to administer the office of Civilian Defense and raising money to pay pensions to the congressmen, who get $10,000 a year now. President Roosevelt signed the bill to help the poor and weary congressmen. Great time they are having in Washington with out billions. War is a funny thing. Money talks.—William Irving in The Sandusky Republican-Tribune.

CONGRESS NEEDS WATCHING

Bundles for Congress. We certainly should stop long enough in our busy days to watch a few of the efforts our congressmen are making at Washington. It seems rather superficial at this time when there is so much grief and strife in this world to have a group supposedly representing citizens of the United States at Washington vote for themselves a nice sum to become a pension for them after they retire. And we will presume to say that the people who voted them into office will necessarily pay taxes and taxes and more taxes, some of which must go to support our retired congressmen.

An effort made in the House Monday by a congressman from New Jersey to repeal the act was blocked by the presiding officer on the ground that it violated the House's rule against amendments "not germane" to a measure.

Could it be that although none of them want to admit that they voted for such a measure, they still would like to have the in-

25 YEARS AGO . . .

And 50 years ago news taken from the files of The Plymouth Mail

The Workingman's caucus was held at the village hall last Friday evening.

The Gleaner rally, held in Penniman hall last Saturday afternoon and evening was attended by a large crowd, the hall being filled.

Miss Bertha Warner, who has been staying with Mrs. D. D. Allen for several months past, has returned to her home.

The senior girls of the Plymouth high school will take charge of the Epworth League meeting Sunday evening in the village hall. Miss Nellie Huger will act as leader.

The Men's Bible class of the Methodist Sunday school gave a stag party at the home of Rev. F. M. Field Thursday evening. This class is just getting under way with a membership drive of about twenty-five. The temporary officers are George H. Johnson, Warren Lombard and Harold Jolliffe.

Floyd Bassett recently purchased the Nankin Mills.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Vealey entertained several relatives at dinner at their home on East Ann Arbor street last Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bradburn of Belleville and Richard Vealey of Northville were the out-of-town guests present.

William T. Pettigill has purchased a new Buick Model 45 of Bentley Brothers, the local agents.

Milton Briggs of Farmington has purchased a half interest in the bowling alley here.

William Tillotson is building a new house on Harvey street. J.H. Patterson has the contract.

The Pythian Sisters will give a dance in Penniman hall Friday evening, March 2. Music by Heaney's four-piece orchestra.

William Blunk has sold the new house he has just completed at Ann Arbor street to Milton Briggs of Farmington. The deal was consummated through R. R. Parrott's real estate agency.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Thumme, who have been residents of Plymouth for the past few months, have purchased a lot at Farmington, and expect to build a bungalow thereon soon.

The dancing party given by the young ladies' club in Penniman hall last Friday evening was a social success. The hall was prettily decorated and excellent music was furnished by Fischers orchestra of Ann Arbor.

The Plymouth Lumber & Coal Co. has another new auto delivery truck. The new truck is a one and one-half ton Hudford, and is certainly a dandy. The Plymouth Lumber & Coal are local agents for this truck in Plymouth.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tait were given a pleasant farewell party at their home last Saturday evening. About fifteen friends were present. Music and cards furnished the entertainment. Dainty refreshments were served. Mr. and Mrs. Tait expect to move to their farm near Salem the first of March.

Dr. Huber, a former resident of this place, who is now a captain in the United States army, was calling on old friends here last Saturday.

William Westfall, who had his foot crushed about four weeks ago at the Ford tractor plant, is now improving and is able to get about the house.

Mrs. William Coverdill gave a farewell party to thirty friends and neighbors last Saturday as she will be moving to Plymouth as soon as the decorating of their new home is completed. Every one had lots of fun as it was a "hard times" party. Hard times refreshments were served. Shingles were used as plates and tin cans took the place of cups.

The following pupils of the Coopers Corners school were neither absent nor tardy during the past ten months, and have earned a half holiday and this notice in the paper: Leroy Gottschalk, Agnes, Ray and Mable Green, Glen, Edith and George McComber, Hazel Hill, Russell Partridge and Howard and Calvin Hearn.

Coda Savery, Charles Bovee and Fred Bird of Lapham's Corners were among the delegates to attend the Republican convention at Ann Arbor last Friday.

Charles Wagonschultz of Livonia Center and Mrs. Lucy Angel were married at the home of the bride's parents near Salem Wednesday, February 14, at high noon. They returned to the home of the bridegroom in the evening, where they were treated to a noisy serenade by the neighbors.

The Sorosis Bible class of the M.E. Sunday school was entertained at the home of Miss Ethel Green Thursday evening, February 15. Officers for the class were elected at this meeting as follows: President, Ethel Green; vice-president, Ruth Jenkins; secretary-treasurer, Winnie Jolliffe.

Many towns no larger than ours boast of their musical prodigies, but as yet we have to hear of one where the animals are so musically inclined that they care to be on the job all the time, but such is the case here, for last Monday when Clarence Stevens of Ann Arbor tuned the piano in the village hall, he removed from the interior a mouse nest which gave evidence of having recently been occupied. He also found a box of tacks in the piano.

ROGER BABSON SAYS

President Needs Your Cooperation

Babson Park, Mass., February 27. Last week I appealed to the 4,000 men in Washington who determine what we can buy. I begged them to be reasonable because the war will finally end—not by lack of men or munitions, but because the home people of some nation will get sick of war. Let not that be our people. I explained that above almost everything else our people want transportation. I repeat, there is no earthly reason why readers need go without 3,500-mile tires. May Washington use sense.

Now, let me urge my 4,000,000 readers to use sense also. We have a right to demand tires, but Washington has a right to run the war without interference or complaints from us. Too much activity is being given by columnists, commentators, and parlor gossips. Washington has a carefully mapped-out campaign which will win the war and bring your boys back home if you'll only be patient.

When I read the papers and listen to the radio I get blue and discouraged; but when I study statistics on steel production, tools, and electric power I become a rip-roaring optimist. The United Nations surely will have a wonderful victory if we people will just be patient and let our government alone. Be content, readers, to operate your jalopies and let President Roosevelt run the war.

The best thing parents can do is to give the United Nations TIME. The Germans and Japs have been preparing for years just how to lick us. Now, let us take all the time we need in preparing to lick them. Mr. President, don't let any Congressman or would-be presidential candidate hurry you. I know your plans; they are sound. Stick to them. Take your time. Don't be bullied into making a move until you are ready.

Let me add that your President wants to protect your boys not only from shells, but also from tropical diseases. This means getting them well-hardened before they leave this country. He is your best friend. I say this not only as a statistician but as one who in 1940 ran against him and got a terrible licking!

A calm view of the mess in which our country now finds itself may briefly be summed as follows:

1. England, Russia, China, and our other Allies are absolutely dependent upon us. If, at any time, we should quit the war, England would starve; Russia would collapse and poor China would be conquered.

2. The United States and Canada must not quit until the Hitler, Mussolini, and Japanese gangs are completely eliminated. The TIME needed to do this is of secondary importance.

Mr. Churchill has enviable powers of persuasion; but he is working for England and not for us. He is asking our President more than he expects to get.

I especially have in mind Churchill's apparent present efforts to throw the Battle of the South Pacific into our lap. As a student of Climatic Statistics, I say that Churchill should not decide where our boys should go. We cannot win this war by going off "half cocked." Our enemies have been years in preparing every detail. We should now adopt the same policy and thereby avoid the tropical trap which has been set for us.

Twenty-five years ago our boys fought in Europe in a climate and with a people to which they were adjusted. Hence, they were not subject to strange diseases. With World War II, the outlook is entirely different. Churchill's present plan appears to be to send boys from Canada and all parts of the United States to Asia, Africa, and the Tropics of the Pacific. With our greatly superior productive facilities we can conquer our enemies if we will only be patient and cut out politics. Parents don't want to appear unpatriotic and are keeping their thoughts to themselves; but many are questioning whether their boys should be sent to these hot and diseased countries,—at least until more adequately prepared.

Congress cannot run the war. Certainly, Congress was behind the President in foreseeing and preparing for the war. If Congress had thought less of getting appropriations and jobs for themselves and had taken F.D.R.'s advice three years ago there would have been no Pearl Harbor tragedy. Now, Congress should not make another mistake and too suddenly throw our boys into the conflict ill-prepared. Parents won't stand too many wretched Congressional errors.

We should confine northern draftees to naval and air work and insist that English Colonials do show work in the Tropics. Our sailors and flyers can afford fighting risks there as they can be fed good American food and would be free from tropical diseases. Military experts will tell you that Germany, Italy, and Japan can be annihilated by our navies and airforces if Russia will contribute Vladivostok and Turkey the Dardanelles. We may be in too much hurry to win the war. Perhaps disease will do the trick if we are patient. If the war can be won at less risk and by taking a longer time, shouldn't this be done? We do not want to unnecessarily send boys from snow drifts into tropical jungles too hastily.

Let us benefit from climate and biology rather than have these used to crush us. Americans can safely be sent to Alaska and Russia; it is also okay to have them in Ireland. But is it good strategy to send our infantry now to Africa and the South Sea Islands? Let us plan for a long war, giving our enemies time to commit suicide. If it is our job to lick the world, let's sit in the driver's seat, give the orders to Churchill and tell him where to send his men!

When in the Orient two years ago, I was told it would be suicidal to send northern troops there except they live in battle-ships and carriers. When the truth is out, it may show the climate, rather than "hordes of Japs" caused Singapore's surrender. We can make our best contribution by working with natural law instead of bucking it. As Alexander Guerry says: "Democracy gives the President and Congress the freedom of choice; but they cannot free us people from the sad consequences when they make a bad choice."
