Urge Citizens' Co-operation For Sunday Blackout

City To Observe Total Darkness For 15-Minute Rehearsal

The cooperation of every citizen is needed to make Sunday's blackout complete. The practice total blackout is ordered as a rehearsal for the protection of life and property during possible air raid attacks. The 15-minute blackout Sunday evening will afford an opportunity for practice for citizens and civilian defense volunteers.

The air raid siren will sound at the city hall at 9:57 Sunday evening and police squad cars will sound sirens on the main streets and house lights will be turned off immediately and air raid wardens in each block will report violations.

All lights and illuminations outside or visible from the outside of any building shall be immediately turned out. Lights inside any building may be kept on only where through the use of shades, blinds, curtains, paint, cardboard or other devices no lighting is visible from the outside. Pedestrians in the downtown section are to seek shelter in the basement of the postoffice building where employees will be in attendance.

Propose Change In City's Milk Ordinance

Commission Gives First Reading To Amendments

The city commission Monday night at its regular meeting passed on first and second reading proposed amendments to the city milk ordinance which will permit Detroit milk dealers to operate within the city of Plymouth.

City officials also declared that the contention made by some of the milk dealers last week that the cost of inspection would be increased will be avoided by the acceptance of the city of Detroit milk inspection reports. Local dealers had declared that the change would result in additional inspection costs and more use of gas and tires.

Attorney Paul Voorhies, a former resident of Plymouth and now a prominent Detroit attorney, appeared before the commission relative to the change in the ordinance. He declared that if the ordinance was changed his client planned to rent his vacant store on South Main street and establish not only a milk business but also put in an ice cream parlor. It developed at the meeting that it is Ira Wilson, also a former Plymouth resident, who desires to enter into the milk and ice cream business in the com-

City Tax Rate Remains $12.80

Commission Passes Budget At $109,000

Property owners will pay taxes at the same rate as last year, $12.80 per thousand, it was determined at the city commission meeting Monday evening. The commission confirmed the 1942 assessment roll at $8,008,170 and passed the annual budget recommendations.

Gas Rationing To Be Ordered To Force Drivers To Save Tires

We are to blame for it ourselves—that's what they say down in Washington, up in Lansing and everywhere else—because we are going to have gas rationing.

Everybody has driven their cars "as usual"—everybody has driven as fast "as usual"—and everybody seems to think that there are plenty of tires remaining to be burned up in the good old ways. After July 1, it's going to be a different story. The government has decided that there is but one way to save tires, and that is to keep auto drivers from having gasoline—so after July 1 there is going to be about enough gas given to each automobile driver to permit him to drive his car around the block.

Maybe that will help save the tires—of which there are going to be no more until America wins the war.

John F. Root and Lewis H. Root Succumb Sunday

Brothers, Members Of Pioneer Family, Die Few Hours Apart

John F. Root and Lewis H. Root, brothers and members of one of Plymouth's oldest pioneer families, passed away only a few hours apart Sunday. Death came to Lewis, 77 years of age, late Sunday afternoon after a two months' illness, and his elder brother, John, 81 years of age, succumbed Sunday evening following a long illness with pneumonia.

John Fairman Root, born on July 5, 1860, and Lewis H. Root, on February 27, 1865, were the sons of Elizabeth Fairman and Henry R. Root, a third son, Seb, died in Colorado in 1913. They attended the old Kenyon country school near the Root homestead west of town and were graduated from the Plymouth high school. John Root was also graduated from the Michigan Agricultural college in the class of '81. He attended class reunions there every year until his health began to fail in 1935.

The first ancestors of the Root family in this country were born in Hartford, Connecticut and the family later moved to Piermont, New Hampshire and Upper New York state, according to the family's historic book of genealogical records. In 1825, Parson Wadsworth and Roswell Root, grandfathers of the recently deceased brothers, came to Plymouth and established a 400-acre homestead and log cabin on property which extended from Ann Arbor road to Joy near Ridge road. That community corner of farms was then known as Borodino. The corners included cooper'smith and blacksmith shops, a general store and a postoffice of which Squire Roswell Root was postmaster. A fine Michigan colonial home, present residence of the Lewis Root family, was built on Ann Arbor road in 1876. John Root built his present family home nearby on Ridge road in 1905.

In 1890, John Root married Lily Sly, who died in 1925. Born of this marriage was a son, Henry Clark Root. In 1928, John wed Mrs. Theresa O'Bryan of Adrian. He is survived by his widow, son, Henry; grandsons, Claude, stepdaughter, Mrs. Cleo T. Aldrich and six step-grandchildren of Clavton, Michigan. He was a Golden Jubilee member of the Grange, active in numerous farm organizations and a member of the Calvary Baptist church. While he spent all of his life working on the farm, he loved to travel and had toured 46 of the United States.

Lewis Root married Ada E. Cuffman of Morrice, Michigan, who preceded him in death three years ago. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Mabel C. Williams and three grandchildren, Russell, Clarabelle and Fay Jr.

A double funeral service was held at the Schrader Funeral home Thursday afternoon. Burial for John Root was in Kenyon cemetery and interment for Lewis Root in Riverside cemetery.

Memorial Day To Honor War Dead And Present Defenders Of Nation

Saturday, May 30, Memorial Day, will hold special significance in the hearts of all Americans this year. On that day America will pause to honor the memory of the brave young defenders of the American way of life who gave their lives at Pearl Harbor, Bataan, Corregidor, Java, Coral Sea and the battle of the Atlantic, and the memory also of thousands of mothers' sons stationed in training camps across the country many miles from home.

Forty-four years ago knew the saga of Cuban liberation, the resonance of the battle cry, "Remember the Maine," and the glory that was Dewey's. Eighty years ago marked the beginning of the struggle to keep the Union intact and preserve liberty and unity. Memorial Day was not formally observed by our citizens until following the Civil War. Commander Logan of the Grand Army of the Republic issued the order to his comrades of that organization to honor and revere the memory of their fallen brothers by gathering in their post rooms and from there parading to the graves of their sleeping comrades to place flowers and flags there. The ranks of these veterans of the Union are now nearly depleted. None are now left in Plymouth and the flag which they so proudly carried at the head of Eddy post of the G.A.R. on Decoration Days of long ago rests enshrined at the Plymouth city hall. Young comrades of the Spanish-American and the first World War now carry on the tradition of service to their memory and to the memory of their own comrades in arms. Let all citizens pause and join the veterans on this Memorial Day next Saturday.

'M' Club President

CLARENCE H. ELLIOTT

Local U. of M. Club Elects Officers

City Will Be Host To Alumni Convention

At a meeting of the board of directors of the Plymouth University of Michigan club held last Thursday, Clarence H. Elliott was elected president for the coming year; Paul Harsha, vice-president and Mrs. Thomas Bateman, secretary-treasurer. The new president appointed the following committee chairman: Miss Edna Allen, membership; Paul Harsha, program; Evered Joffie, subscriptions for the "Alumnus" magazine and Mrs. Richard Brand, publicity. The local club will be host to the annual convention of the U. of M. Alumni association on Saturday, June 13. The program will include a luncheon and business meeting followed by an afternoon golf tournament at the Plymouth Country club. Dr. John Olsaver will serve as golf team chairman. It is expected that 50 delegates from each of the districts will attend the convention, the first held in Plymouth. Members of the board of governors and of the local U. of M. club are requested to attend and receive delegate guests.

Last week's board of governors meeting was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Dubce. Following the business meeting, the guests enjoyed a buffet luncheon and social evening.

City Begins Summer Schedule Of Garbage Collection June 1

The city's department of public works will begin the summer schedule for the collection of garbage on June 1. Collections will be made as follows for garbage: Precinct 1, Monday and Thursday mornings; Precinct 2, Monday and Thursday afternoons; Precinct 3, Tuesday and Friday mornings; and Precinct 4, Tuesday and Friday afternoons. Collections will be made at stores and business places Wednesday and Saturday mornings and rubbish will be collected throughout the city on Friday and Saturday.

John Blyton Heads Merchants Bond Committee

Retailers To Stage Big Drive During July

Plymouth retail merchants are now preparing for an all-out drive among the stores for an intensive sale of war bonds and stamps during the month of July.

John Blyton, who has been designated the chairman of the merchants' committee, will in the next few days select his executive committee among the retailers who will have charge of the biggest retail drive ever conducted in America.

Oscar Webber of the J. L. Hudson store, has accepted the state chairmanship. He is at present busy setting up his state-wide retail committee composed of retailers in every city, village and hamlet in Michigan.

The campaign will be known as the "Retailers For Victory" drive and will start on Wednesday, July 1 and continue for the entire month of July.

Each store in Plymouth, no matter what line of merchandise it handles, will be asked to take part in the drive.

Mr. Blyton states that he will keep the city advised as plans are more fully developed.

Week-End Takes Accident Toll

Two Lose Lives And Five Persons Hurt

Three Plymouth youths were seriously injured when their automobile crashed into the rear of a tow-truck early Sunday morning on Ann Arbor Trail west of Hix road. The injured are Clair McGarry, 18, driver; Robert McGarry, 22, both of North Mill street, and Elton Williams, of South Main street. Driver of the truck was George E. Miller, of Northville. The two McGarry youths were taken to Eloise hospital. The elder brother suffered serious internal and head injuries. Williams is in University hospital with internal and head injuries. The auto was demolished.

Two persons were injured in another automobile accident at the corner of Mill and Main streets in Plymouth early Sunday morning. A car driven by Walter J. Gorecki, 23, of Detroit, failed to stop for a stop street sign, according to police, and hit the side of a car driven by Peter Tross of Northville. Gorecki suffered head injuries and a lacerated lip and Howard Harders, of Northville, a passenger in Tross's car, received head injuries.

Two youths were killed and a young woman and another youth were injured seriously early Friday morning when their speeding automobile left the pavement on a curve on Ann Arbor Trail west of Wayne road and crashed into a tree. The fatalities were Raymond Lassen of Garden City and Ronald Jones of Ford road, Dearborn township. The driver of the death car, Joseph Brimer Jr. of Dearborn and Miss Virginia Adie of Garden City are in Eloise hospital with serious injuries. Lassen was the son of Patrolman Joseph Lassen of the Garden City police.

Boy Scouts Hold Court Of Honor

Program At Training School To Be May 28

Court of Honor for Boy Scouts of Plymouth district will be held at the Wayne County Training school next Thursday evening. The program will begin with a concert and specialties by the Plymouth high school band, under the direction of Clarence Luchman, at 7:45 o'clock. The Court of Honor will convene at 8:15 o'clock and various awards will be presented. Scouts of Troop P-3 will give a demonstration of Scout messenger work for defense with four color bearers and 12 bicycle riders. Guest of honor at the convocations will be Amos R. Shields, Scout executive of the Detroit Area Council. The climax of the Court of Honor will feature the presentation of two Eagle badges to Malcolm MacGregor and Howard Dickie, assistant scoutmaster, both members of Troop RG-1 in Rosedale Gardens.

Herman Bakhaus, proprietor of Cloverdale Farms dairy, is confined to the University hospital, Ann Arbor, where he underwent an operation for appendicitis the early part of the week.

2 GOOD REASONS FOR A PRACTICE BLACKOUT

May 28 To June 3 Michigan Days For Merchants

Retailers Will Feature Products Of Wolverine State

Michigan's more than 12,000 independent retail food stores will swing into action in the 1942 "Michigan Days for Prosperity and Victory" program May 28 to June 3. Their stores will be festooned with window signs and store banners telling the story to Michigan consumers that they are engaged in this gigantic program to promote the sale and consumption of Michigan grown and Michigan processed food stuffs.

Michigan's thousands of independent grocery stores are the largest single buying group of Michigan products in the state and they have pledged themselves to make this sale of Michigan grown products a year round project, according to a statement by Cecil E. Taylor, of Lansing, Michigan, president of the Michigan Retail Grocers and Meats Association.

Buy a Veteran Poppy Saturday!

Veterans' Groups Sell Patriotic Flowers

Each year on the Saturday before Memorial Day, patriotic Americans wear the poppy to pay tribute to the first World War dead. On Saturday, May 23 (tomorrow), the women of the Ex-Service Men's club and the American Legion auxiliary and veterans of both organizations will ask all to wear poppies in honor of the war dead and to make contributions for the widows and fatherless children. The day should have high significance for us all. We cannot honor the dead and aid the disabled without thinking of the sacrifices they made and of the sacrifices their young comrades in arms are now making for America and for you. The poppies, exact replicas in paper of those which grew along the battlefield in France, have been made by needy disabled veterans to earn a livelihood for themselves and families.

Turning the calendar back 24 years from today to May, 1918, veterans recall that then, as today, we faced a powerful enemy arrayed against us in armed warfare. Then as today, men were pouring overseas by the hundreds of thousands, ready to give their lives in defense of our country's rights and ideals. Then (Continued on page 2)

Veterans Plan Memorial Day Parade Program

Carl C. Matheny, Boy's State Leader, To Be Guest Speaker

The largest parade and Memorial Day program in Plymouth is planned by the joint American Legion and Ex-Service Men's committee for next Saturday, May 30. The parade, to be led by the massed colors of all participating organizations and the Plymouth high school band, will form at the corner of Mill and Main streets at 9 o'clock Saturday morning. Preceding the parade, firing squads of the American Legion and the Ex-Service Men's club will conduct services for the sailor dead at the bridge over the Rouge river at Riverside park. The parade will proceed from Main and Mill streets to Kellogg park. Following the flag raising, the program will take place at the soldier's monument in the center of Kellogg park.

Guest speaker for the Memorial day program will be Carl C. Matheny, Detroit attorney, who is director of the Wolverine Boy's State, a program sponsored by the American Legion for government practice for high school students throughout the state.

Following the playing of "The Star Spangled Banner" by the Plymouth high school band under the direction of Clarence Luchman, the girls' double quartet will sing several selections and day the audience in community singing. Members of the double quartet are Lois Ridley, Joann Steinhurst, Marie Ann Miller, Margaret Nichol, Esther (Continued on page 4)

Group Plans For Sunrise Service

Raymond Bachelder Is General Chairman

The Civic committee Monday evening appointed Raymond Bachelder as general chairman of the committee in charge of plans for the fifth annual community Sunrise Service. The general committee includes Alfred J. Smith, Frank Hamill and Guilford Hartling. Members of the assisting committee include Mrs. Sidney D. Strong, Mrs. William Vanderveen, Mrs. Wallace Osgood, Mrs. William Hartmann, Mrs. James Sessions, Mrs. W. S. McAllister, Mrs. George Parmalee, Mrs. Sven Eklund and Mrs. Miller Ross. The committee will meet soon to set the date in June for the Sunrise service which will be held in Riverside park and also to select the guest speaker for this year's occasion.

Each Home To Be Asked To Display Bond Pledge Sign

Monday And Tuesday Set Aside For Nation's Most Important Civil Effort

Every home in Plymouth a loyal American war bond pledge signer! That is the aim of some 50 or 60 patriotic Plymouth women who will Monday and Tuesday give all of their time in a nation-wide drive to help the United States to secure funds with which to conduct the war for our national preservation.

It is not an easy task for any person to go from house to house ringing door bells, but Uncle Sam has asked it, and Plymouth is not a city where any one turns down an appeal from their government.

It is urged that some member of the family who will know something about how much the family can invest each week or each month in war savings bonds, kindly arrange to be at home on Monday, so that it will not be necessary to make "call backs" in order to secure your pledge, states Mrs. Clara Todd, general chairman of the committee.

This will make the work much easier for the women who have volunteered to do this tremendously important work for the government. If you are not at home, it will make another call necessary at a later date, and this the committee wishes to avoid insofar as possible.

It is highly essential that every home in Plymouth have one of the pledge cards displayed in the window of their home. In order to secure one, it is necessary to sign a pledge blank.

Legion Auxiliary Sponsors Drive

Group Proposes To Buy Resuscitator

A campaign for the purchase of a resuscitator, for use in reviving those overcome by drowning, suffocation, strangulation, electrocution and asphyxiation, is being sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary of the Myron H. Beals post in Plymouth. The resuscitator is a much-needed piece of life-saving equipment, declares Mrs. Ruby Terry, president of the Legion auxiliary. The equipment will be kept in the city hall and will be available at all times without cost wherever needed.

"The auxiliary hopes that the plan meets with the general approval of the people of Plymouth and vicinity to be served. The group also wishes it understood that this plan is not in any way to be considered a request for donations nor will any cash donations be accepted. Representatives will call to explain the plan and will carry a letter of introduction and identification signed by the officers of the Legion auxiliary. All residents in the city and rural vicinity will be called upon. Your support of this plan may be the means of saving human lives," declares the auxiliary president.

The machine is of the latest type to be used for artificial respiration of any kind and the mechanical resuscitator is considered more satisfactory than manual methods. Frequently the condition of the patient will not permit manual methods, it is pointed out.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher entertained last Friday evening the ladies' bowling team of the Fisher Agency. The affair took place at Northwood Inn with dinner and dancing. The young ladies on the team are Merle Smith, Doris Curtis, Alberta Van Etta, Lucile Mathias and Miss Betty Lucile.

Stage Send-Off For Inductees

Citizens And Band Attend Ceremony

A delegation of about 200 citizens assembled at the local draft headquarters last Friday morning to stage the first civic demonstration organized as a "send-off" for army inductees. The program was sponsored by the local Junior Chamber of Commerce. Representatives of the community included Red Cross canteen workers, members of the Rotary and Kiwanis clubs, city officials and employees and the employees of many local business firms. The high school band, under the direction of Clarence Luchman, played for half an hour before the group embarked and concluded with "The Star Spangled Banner" by the Star Spangled Band. The Red Cross canteen corps served breakfast to the inductees and various groups presented cigarettes, candy and copies of The Plymouth Mail to the youths. The Salvation Army distributed "good will" boxes to the homes of local inductees before the ceremony Friday morning.

The following men were inducted into service after passing physical examinations in Detroit Friday: Darold R. Cline, Burroughs avenue; Mahlon J. Johnson of Fairfield avenue and George Sklepowich of Plymouth road; Plymouth: James M. Van Valkenburg, James Harper and John R. Stoddard of Northville; William Clark, Garden City; Robert Losee, James Springstein, Erwin Bluhm, Waldo Pratt, Charles Bastin, George Houghton, Glenn Leeman, E. Avolodo and Joseph Prazuck of Detroit. Volunteers who enlisted from this local board include Daniel Grubesh and Jason Cousineau of Plymouth; Ernest H. Baker, Northville; John A. Schmidt, Donald M. Armstrong, Clifford Steenrod, Garnett Eberle and Robert Castro of Detroit. Julius Sner, Powell road, is in Henry Ford hospital suffering with a broken elbow caused by a fall from his wagon.

County Republicans Meet Here To Plan For Fall Campaign

Republican township officers from all parts of Wayne county came to Plymouth last Thursday night for the purpose of discussing plans for the forthcoming political campaign. The meeting at the Mayflower, called by William Van Moll, of Trenton, vice chairman of the Wayne county Republican committee, was attended not only by some 150 township officials but by Secretary of State Harry Kelly, Republican State Chairman John Dethmers of Holland, Matthew Bishop, chairman of the Wayne county committee, John D. Ahrens, manager of the Wayne county secretary of state's office and many other prominent Republicans. Mr. Kelly was given a most enthusiastic reception and Chairman Dethmers declared that there is every reason to believe that the fall campaign will result in a Republican victory. G. Oliver Frick of Detroit, chairman of the thirteenth Republican congressional committee, and Elton R. Eaton of Plymouth made brief talks. They were welcomed to Plymouth by Fred D. Schrader, well known Republican and president of the Mayflower Hotel company.

The American Way...

In these grave times, all Americans must stand shoulder to shoulder to maintain our American way of life, our American standards.

As an organization devoted to public service, we pledge anew our allegiance to the ideals which have made America the finest country on earth.

Regardless of race or creed or position, we serve all who are in need with reverence, dignity and faith.

Receive Letter From Dr. Rufus

Physician And Wife Working At St. Croix

A letter was received by the Rev. and Mrs. S. S. Clouston last week from W. Carl Rufus, of the University of Michigan and father of Dr. Howard Rufus who left Plymouth in January to undertake public health work in the Virgin Islands.

The recent rumor circulated in Plymouth regarding the reported death of Mrs. Rufus, like the premature report of Mark Twain's death was slightly exaggerated. Mrs. Rufus writes Professor Rufus from Ann Arbor.

Perhaps some of their friends in Plymouth will be pleased to know that we receive letters from Howard and Hilda frequently and regularly. Both are excellent correspondents. Their work at Charleston hospital includes some of the ordinary clinical and medical treatments. The institution also contributes to the public health of the city and surrounding country. Howard has been teaching a class of nurses and Hilda has been demonstrating first aid.

"Soul and Body" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, May 24. The Golden Text (Matthew 42:11) is: "Why art thou cast down, O my soul? and why art thou disquieted within me, saying, 'Behold I shall be saved; for I shall see Jesus, who is the health of my countenance, and my God.'" Among the Bible citations are the passage (Psalms 116: 7-8): "Return unto thy rest, O my soul; for the Lord hath dealt bountifully with thee. For thou hast afflicted my soul from death mine eyes from tears, and my feet from stumbling." Correct answers to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 427): "Life is the law of Soul, even the law of the spirit of Truth and Soul is never without its representative. Man's individual being can no more disappear or be unconscious than can Soul, for both are immortal."

as today, behind them was a united nation, every man and woman serving in every way possible. A few short months over there, after a few months of preparation over here, were enough to win the victory.

In May, 1918, American troops were only beginning to arrive at the front in force, and in November the peace of the world was re-established. In the history of those few months there is much to inspire the American people of today. A nation which 24 years ago was capable of such great accomplishment in such a short period most certainly is capable of even greater accomplishments today. Advancing against today's problems with the spirit of 1918, we will again win a glorious victory. As the olive-drab lines of American troops advanced across the poppy studded fields of France, men gave their all for America even as today their sons and thousands of other valiant sons of America are giving their all at Bataan, Australia and in the Coral Sea. The poppy is the symbol of remembrance of the men of '18 and the soldiers of '42.

Find Program Of 1882 Graduation

Days Of Years Ago Are Recalled

Copies of Class Day exercises and commencement programs of the old Plymouth Union high school, dated June, 1882, were brought into The Plymouth Mail office this week as commencement time again approaches. The programs are the souvenirs of Mrs. Chauncey Baker of North Main street, one of two remaining members of that graduating class. The former Miss Hattie A. Marshall and Mrs. Jay Burr of Ann Arbor Trail, formerly Anna M. Wilcox, are the only living members of the class of '82.

Mrs. Baker also has a photograph of the interior of the old Methodist church of Plymouth, scene of the commencement exercises, which burned 25 years ago. The program for Class Day exercises, held June 22, 1882, included music by a quartette; prayer by Rev. Mr. Carroll; instrumental duct, "Tripping Through the Daisies," by Miss Missie Coleman and Carrie Peck; class oration by George Hunter; vocal duct by the Misses Gail and Coleman; class history by Bert C. Shattuck; prophecy by Mary E. Andrews and a trio, "The Mermaid Evening Song," by the Misses Coleman and Gail and Dr. Safford. Mrs. Baker was recording secretary of the class.

The second annual commencement program of Plymouth Union high school on Friday, June 23, 1882, featured a male quartet; instrumental duct by Mrs. J. L. Gale and Miss Coleman; "Contrast Between Ancient and Modern Civilization," by Owen L. Miller; "The Power of Words," by Clara E. Bidwell; musical selections by Miss Carrie L. Peck, Mary E. Andrews and Minnie L. McGill; vocal duct by Mrs. L. C. Hall and H. H. Safford; "Nature and Art," by Fred E. Shattuck; "The Fraudulent Cloaks," by Hattie A. Marshall; vocal solo by Mrs. C. De Muth; "The Three B's," by May A. Miller and "Tune" by George Hunter and an instrumental duct by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Safford followed by the presentation of diplomas. The program concluded with a comic quartet, "We all Have a Very Bad Cold."

Mrs. Ella Smith Chaffee, preceptress of the Union high school at that time, is another Plymouth resident who participated in the commencement of that day by signing the diplomas of the graduates.

ELAINE EIFERT WED In Holland Saturday
Elaine Eifert of this city, became the bride of John Eifert, of Redford, at a ceremony performed Saturday evening in the parsonage of the International church in Holland with Rev. C. M. Beertuis officiating.

The bride wore a simple, light dress of light blue with matching accessories. She was attended by Mrs. James Start, of Holland, who wore brown cope with tan accessories.

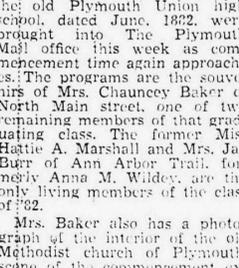

Mr. Start attended the bride-groom.

The young couple will make their home in Plymouth for the present.

These slime-forming "bugs" attack GIANT TURBINES

...thirsty machines, like thirsty men, need PURE WATER

Under the microscope on the slide above, you see a "slime-forming" organism magnified 400 times. This tiny growth doesn't look much like a saboteur — yet it can cut down the load-carrying capacity of giant turbines in Detroit Edison power plants. That is, it could if it were permitted to thrive. But an hourly gas attack effectively smother's it.

In manufacturing electric power for war production in factories and for use in stores and offices and homes, Detroit Edison power plants require three times as much water every day as the entire city of Detroit. The water is used to cool thousands of condenser tubes over which exhaust steam from the turbine is passed. Slime-forming organisms in the water attach themselves to the insides of the tubes and foul them. This lowers the efficiency of the condenser, turbine, and the entire plant, and wastes fuel.

An early way of remedying the trouble was to shut down the turbines and manually clean the condensers by forcing rubber plugs through the tubes. But even with the best hand-cleaning job that could be done, the maximum load-carrying capacity is reduced. And all during the time the tubes were being hand-cleaned, the turbine was out-of-service... a matter especially serious in these days when our generating equipment must be kept running at top efficiency. So a chlorine "gas attack" has come to the rescue. The water is dosed with chlorine every 60 to 90 minutes, killing the "bugs" that form slime. This chlorination has ended the slow "bottleneck" job of cleaning thousands of tubes individually. And it has maintained practically new equipment performance of the condensers — doubly important in our wartime operation. The Detroit Edison Company.

Merchants' Team Wins Game, 15-1 Defeats CIO Team For Second Victory

The Plymouth Merchants, formerly the Schrader-Haggerty team, won their second game of the season Sunday, defeating the CIO Local No. 187 team in a three-hitting contest, 15 to 1. The leading hitter was Clarence Levy with five hits in five times at the plate. He drove in five runs and scored three runs himself. G. Molnar, winning pitcher, struck out nine men.

The Merchants' team won the first game from General Motors' Truck of Pontiac by a score of 11 to 3. The leading hitter of that game was Joseph Schomberger, now a sergeant in Uncle Sam's Army and stationed at Pendleton, Oregon. He connected with two hits out of three trips to the plate. Next Sunday's game will be at Beech road south of Six Mile road, with Plymouth Merchants seeking a third straight win against Goddard's Bar team.

Inmate, Thirty Years In Prison

Mrs. Frances Dewey At DeHoCo Since 1912

The oldest inmate of the Detroit House of Correction in length of residence observed her thirtieth "anniversary" last Saturday. She is Mrs. Frances Dewey, a little woman 63 years of age who is only five feet tall and weighs 114 pounds. A former resident of Ypsilanti, she was committed to the old House of Correction near the Eastern market in Detroit 30 years ago on May 16, 1912.

In observance of her "anniversary," Mrs. Dewey was the guest of Superintendent and Mrs. A. Blake Gillies and Miss Grace Travis, matron of the women's division, at the Penn theatre Saturday evening. The occasion marked her first visit to Plymouth and she especially enjoyed the audience singing of the old song, "Bicycle Built for Two."

Mrs. Dewey is an outstanding inmate, according to Warden Gillies, not only for her length of residence but for her perfect record of good behavior during the past 30 years. She has served her time under the administration of six prison superintendents during the years.

Sentenced in Washtenaw county circuit court in 1912 to serve a life sentence, Mrs. Dewey still maintains her innocence. At the time of her trial, she rejected a chance to plead guilty to a lesser offense in order to obtain a shorter sentence. Born at Crystal Lake on November 11, 1879, youngest of a family of nine children, she lived in many parts of the state as her parents moved from town to town in search of work. She went to work housekeeping at the age of 12 and was married at 15 years. She became the mother of two children and five years later was remarried.

Commenting upon the excellent care received during her residence at the House of Correction, Mrs. Dewey declared, "Prisoners have all the chance in the world here, more than a great many ever had on the outside."

Mrs. Dewey, considered a model inmate, has worked in the dining room, laundry, warden's residence, matron's quarters, housekeeping and in the orchards and fields of the institution. For the past five years she has worked making inmates' garments on a power sewing machine five days a week from 8 a. m. to 4 p. m.

The most "remarkable" thing that has happened to her during the 30 years, Mrs. Dewey reports, was the receipt of a portable radio last December which she ordered from a distant city. She is an ardent fan of Jack Benny and the Lone Ranger program. After 30 years away from the "outside," Mrs. Dewey presents a cheery disposition and a philosophical attitude toward her many years of imprisonment.

With Plymouth Boys Defending The Flag

Lionel Coffin, former Plymouth insurance agent, writes from McChord Field in Washington this week that he receives The Plymouth Mail regularly and has had letters from many of the local JayCee members and other friends.

"Life in the Air Corps is the best of any branch of the service and being a draftee I feel fortunate in being in the air corps. Of course, there are all types of men and I have made some nice acquaintances with the soldiers and also some civilians. I am still in the 42nd group but am now in the new squadron. It's very much a tactical outfit and that is the reason, no doubt, that we cannot get a furlough. The morale is tops, and all the men are conscientious and hard working. Our barracks are crowded but not for long. There are new barracks and a new mess hall being built."

"We sleep double-deck, eat cafeteria style and take all we can eat. It's only 30 minutes to Tacoma by bus and the fare is 30 cents round trip. There are many men from home in this group including Harvey Cooper of Rosedale Gardens, Lorne (Bud) Archer, Alex Milne of Northville, Ralph Frank of Farmington, Donald Dunn, Emerson Robinson, Ray Parmenter, Phil Rodman, Bob Burley, Henry Cummins and Milton Moe."

"I like my work very much. I keep records of every take-off and landing, and use the teletalk equipped with four telephones. I call in to headquarters as to whether the flight is local, mission or cross country and they in turn call anti-aircraft, ships, subs or planes to determine if the ship is friendly or not. I work on an average of 11 hours out of 24, and then have 24 hours off duty. The visibility hasn't been 50 miles for about two weeks. Mt. Rainier is 30 miles away. Say hello to my friends in Plymouth and give them best regards from me," concludes Soldier Coffin.

Private Harold Johnson has been transferred to Long Beach, California and assigned to pursuit ship P-38. His squadron is the famous World War outfit of Captain Eddie Rickenbacker who is now training the boys in engine mechanics. The boys are all proud of their leader and former World War hero.

"The next best thing to being home is being able to read in The Plymouth Mail about what the home folks are doing and I most certainly appreciate your thoughtfulness in sending it to me every week," writes Private Richard Hower, who is now a student in the radio school at Scott Field, Illinois.

"I was inducted at Fort Custer where I stayed about four days. From there I was sent to the air corps replacement training center in northern Texas where I received my basic training and took the examinations for the various air corps technical schools. I am now studying to become a radio operator. From here I will be sent either to a tactical unit or an advanced radio school. You keep 'em buying and we'll keep 'em flying," concluded Private Hower.

Mr. and Mrs. Chester Keller of Five Mile road have received personal messages from their two sons in the armed services during the last two weeks. Paul Keller, who is in the Coast Guard service in the Gulf of Mexico, called his mother last Sunday from New Orleans. He has been in the center of the torpedo zone in the Gulf of Mexico, scene of recent Nazi sub prowling. His base is Port Town, Louisiana. He will complete his first year in service in July. On the previous Sunday, Mother's Day, Edward Keller wired from Pearl Harbor to say that he is well. He also wired a dozen red roses to his mother for the occasion.

Mrs. Margaret E. Pierce, a week ago was most pleasantly surprised when she received a telephone call from her nephew, Corporal Gerald E. Norgrove, who is with the army in California, telling her that he is getting along fine and thoroughly enjoys reading The Plymouth Mail. "It's one of the highlights of the week," he declared over the phone.

Metzetal, Allene Parmalee, Ruth Keefe and Shirley Bassett, with Ruth Drews as accompanist. James Latture will introduce the guest speaker.

Shirley Bassett will present a recitation, "In Flanders Field," to be followed by a reading, "Answer to Flanders Field," by Jack Kenyon. Following the program, wreaths will be placed at the foot of the monument in memory of veterans of the Civil War, Spanish-American War and World War. The invocation will be delivered by Rev. S. S. Closson and the benediction by Rev. Walter Nichol.

Organizations which will participate in the Memorial Day parade and ceremony include the American Legion and auxiliary, the Ex-Service Men's club and auxiliary, Red Cross motor corps, canteen corps and officials, Boy Scout troops and messenger and first aid units, Girl Scouts, Girl Reserves, air raid wardens, auxiliary firemen, auxiliary police and Civilian Defense officials. It is also expected that drum and bugle corps from a Boy Scout troop in Detroit and a Legion and VFW post in Detroit will participate. The committee of sponsors extends a general invitation to all organizations in the city to participate in the parade and requests that representatives contact Arno B.

Thompson, committee secretary. Transportation will be provided. An event apart from the Memorial Day program to which the public is invited to remain will be a civilian defense demonstration in Kelllogg park by auxiliary firemen and wardens on methods of handling and extinguishing incendiary bombs.

Dealers Association, a Michigan affiliate of the National Association of Retail Grocers.

Mr. Taylor points out that because each independent grocery store in the state is individually owned, the farmer has an immediate outlet for his produce, permitting him to dispose of a large part of his products to the grocer without the necessity of moving it through a middleman's hands.

"As independent grocers, we are convinced of the necessity of a long range program for the promotion of the sale and consumption of Michigan grown and Michigan processed foods," states Taylor. "Michigan agriculture is still the largest enterprise in this state and the prosperity of the entire state can only be assured when Agricultural Michigan is solvent."

Calling attention to the independent grocers place in the present war effort, Taylor points to the close relationship existing between the farmer and the independent grocer in promoting the sale of the farmers' goods as a sound program to assure Michigan of a financially sound agricultural buying group in the post war days. "If industrial Michigan is to have a market after the war for its farm machinery, trucks, cars and other things necessary to the farmer, he must be kept solvent, and there is no other way to do this than for the independent grocer to serve as his outlet for the profitable sale of his goods on a year round basis," states Taylor.

The independent grocers of the state at their 1942 annual convention in this month, went on record as being behind the "Michigan Days for Prosperity and Victory" program, as a group.

Central School P.T.A. Postpones Meeting

The regular monthly meeting of the Central Parent-Teacher association, which was to have featured a mothers' tea on Tuesday, May 26, has been postponed because of sugar rationing. The meeting will be replaced by the school's annual May Festival, a program of music by choral groups and the rhythm band of Central grade school. The date and program details for the May Festival will be announced later.

Mr. and Mrs. Norval Welch Ayers and baby son of Monroe spent Sunday at the home of Miss Mabel Spier. Mr. Ayers is assistant city editor on the Monroe Evening News.

Thursday evening, May 14, the Lydia Bible class of the Calvary Baptist church, held their annual meeting at the home of Mrs. Rogers, Ann Arbor Trail. Mrs. Johnston, of Novi, was the speaker. Special music was furnished by Mrs. Clinton Postiff, Rosalind Postiff, Atholene Kissive and the Williams sisters, Mary and Roxie. All officers were re-elected.

What You Buy With WAR BONDS

The 155-millimeter gun is the modern version of the old "GPF" of World War I days. It has a range fifty percent greater than the old gun, having a 95-pound projectile approximately 15 miles. It is capable of high road speed and each one costs $50,000.

Arsenals of America are working at terrific speed turning out this long range, effective weapon for our armed forces. You and your neighbor working hand-in-hand in unity can make possible the purchase of an adequate number of these guns by buying War Bonds. Put 10 percent of your income in War Bonds to help reach your county quota, every day.

The ordinance will be up for final passage at the next regular meeting.

A petition was also presented to the commission, signed by patrons of L. A. Bordin, milk supplier, in favor of continuing delivery service of unpasteurized milk. Dr. Luther Peck, city health officer, also presented a talk on the necessity for pasteurization.

The effect of the proposed amendment to the milk ordinance is to permit large dairy companies outside of Plymouth to enter business in the city. The present fee basis according to mileage rates from the city limits has served to protect the business interests of local milk dealers from outside competition.

"It can't happen to me. I'm in the safest spot in the world. I live in Detroit."

If that's what you think you'd better learn this little geography lesson. And learn it quick.

Look at the map again. Follow the arrows from Norway. They make it terribly clear that a Berlin bomber, using Greenland as a stepping stone, could drop its load on Detroit as easily as on New York.

And military experts say that this is just the course an enemy air attack would probably follow. For while the Atlantic coast is fairly well protected by an arc of newly acquired bases, America has a wide open back door through the wilderness of Canada. That door leads straight to Detroit's defense industries—industries that feed war material for the entire world.

Yes . . . and your home is alongside. Now perhaps you know, as you never did before, why you should be eager to lend your money for war bonds.

Lend that money freely. Buy all the stamps and bonds you can afford. Then buy more.

U. of M. Displays Work Of Plymouth Artist

Mrs. Erma H. Hughes Forms Distinctive Sculpture

One of the pieces of sculpture on display at the thirteenth annual exhibit of sculpture, now being held at the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor, is a nude study, an original composition by Mrs. Erma H. Hughes of Plymouth.

Mrs. Hughes, wife of Dr. M. W. Hughes, local osteopath, has a great interest in art, reflected in the quality of this piece of work. Also in the exhibit is a portrait study entitled "Carol," which shows Mrs. Hughes' ability to catch the characteristic traits of her model. The local sculptress is a graduate student at the University. Under the direction of Professor Avard Fairbanks, she was encouraged to develop an original product of her own imagination. She first made a clay sketch or model. Through accurate measurement, Mrs. Hughes planned an enlargement and then built an armature, the inward frame which supports the study. She added clay and completed the armature by carefully following the small sketch.

The work of art by Mrs. Hughes which is now on display was made by the process known as the reverse impression. A first coat of blue plaster in sections was put over the entire clay model, followed by two or three coats of plaster, with reinforcements, until the thickness is about an inch. When set, the sections are removed and the clay and armature are cleaned out of the mould which then forms a reverse impression. The impression side of the mould is shellacked and the sections put together. Then white plaster is poured in until a thickness of a few inches is formed. Later after the plaster has set, the outer layers of the mould are chiseled off and the blue coat of plaster removed by chipping. The completed study was shellacked and painted ivory color.

An important feature of the exhibit is a half-size model of the heroic size statue called "Lincoln, the Frontiersman," by Professor Fairbanks. The large bronze statue is to be sent to the Hawaiian Islands to be erected at the Ewa Plantation school near Honolulu. A replica of the heroic size head on display and also a number of other pieces of work by Prof. Fairbanks. The exhibit is being held at the Michigan League building and will continue through May 30.

Admiral Is Cousin Of Dentist's Wife

ADMIRAL J. H. HOOVER

Of more than special interest to Plymouth residents is the news coming from the island of Martinique pertaining to the negotiations being conducted between the governments of the United States and France, due to the fact that Admiral John H. Hoover, who is acting for the American government, is a cousin of Mrs. S. N. Thams of 475 Jener Place.

Dr. Thams stated yesterday that the last time the family had had a visit with the famed Admiral was a number of years ago when the naval official was on the way to Montana to see his father, who is a newspaper publisher in that state. The Admiral's father is a brother of Mrs. Thams' father.

Police Convict In Burglary Case

Prosecutor Praises Plymouth Officers

The Plymouth police department obtained two convictions in circuit court last week against suspects arrested in breaking and entering and auto theft cases in Plymouth. A jury found Frank Thompson, a Negro, guilty Friday of breaking into and entering the home of Harold Jacobs of Holbrook avenue on March 7. The suspect who entered a plea of not guilty was convicted on fingerprint and footprint identifications and photographs. He was charged with gaining entrance through a second story window and stealing a wedding ring, dime bank and clothing. Thomas Schultz of Detroit pleaded guilty Thursday before Judge Ira Jayne on a charge of stealing the automobile of Anthony Bender in Plymouth on April 27. Detroit police apprehended the suspect and recovered the stolen car.

High praise was extended Plymouth police for the completeness of the evidence they presented in the Thompson case.

Mrs. John Henderson of this city, and Mrs. Edward Bogart, of Northville, attended a dinner and shower, Thursday evening of last week, in the home of Mrs. Grace Schers, in Detroit, given by the Eloise Rowlee club for Mrs. Vera Young.

The Happy Helpers of the Lutheran church met Friday evening in the home of Hildur Carlson on Sunset avenue to honor Mrs. George Britcher. The group also presented Miss Carlson with a beautiful lamp as a surprise gift for her new home.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Wiedman plan to attend a semi-formal affair, Saturday evening, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Schultz, in Rosedale Park, in celebration of the silver wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Anton Dohmen, also of the park.

Mr. and Mrs. William Gayde, Miss Clara Wolf, Miss Amelia Gayde and Sarah Gayde were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Rantz, in Toledo, Ohio. Mrs. Sarah Von Nostitz, of that city, accompanied them home and is spending the week with her sisters, Mrs. Gayde and Miss Wolf.

Mr. and Mrs. Fletcher Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fisher have invited about 20 guests for a miscellaneous shower, Saturday evening, honoring Wilma Finrock, of Detroit. The party will be held in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fisher on Mill street, which will be decorated with bouquets of garden flowers.

Induct Auxiliary Police Officers

Officials Present Mock Trial Program

Plymouth's auxiliary police force was sworn in by C. H. Elliott, coordinator of local defense, at a special defense meeting last Thursday evening in Central grade school auditorium. The members of the auxiliary force received their identification cards of authority from civilian defense headquarters.

William Flannigan and John W. Mowatt of the Wayne County prosecutor's office, with the assistance of local citizens, presented a "mock trial" which illustrated the rules and duties of the public and auxiliary police officers during blackouts and air raid rehearsals. J. Rusling Cutler presided as judge; Assistant Prosecutor Flannigan served as prosecuting attorney; Mr. Mowatt, witness and interested taxpayer; William C. Smith, offender charged with violation of blackout ordinance; C. J. Thumme, arresting officer and John Crandell, defense attorney.

Violators of blackout restrictions were labeled "sixth columnists" defined by Prosecutor Flannigan as the fellows who listen to the fifth columnists. Mayor Ruth Huston-Whipple spoke briefly and outlined the provisions of the proposed blackout ordinance now being formulated by the city commission in Plymouth. The meeting concluded with the civilian defense movie, "Air Raid Wardens." The group also observed a minute of silence in honor of the late George Gorton, a former member of the auxiliary police unit.

Mill Street Open To Truck Traffic

Re-route Trucks Off Main Street

A splendid example of the cooperative spirit that will help win victory in the war effort was evidenced last week at a special meeting of the city commission. A delegation of Mill street residents and representatives of various trucking companies expressed cooperation with a plan to re-route heavy trucks going north and south onto Mill street to relieve traffic congestion on Main street through Plymouth.

A communication from several sand and gravel companies in Plymouth and Northville expressed appreciation of opening Mill street to truck traffic. The representatives agree to enforce a speed limit of 20 miles per hour in the city of Plymouth. All trucks going south of Plymouth will be routed through Mill street and Lilley road to Ann Arbor road and trucks going east of the city will be routed through Starkweather avenue to Main street and then east on Main.

It was pointed out at Tuesday's meeting that Sheldon road is unsuitable for heavy truck loads; that the Mill street pavement is eight inches deep and will bear heavy traffic and that Mill street residents will not be obliged to pay any future assessments for paving replacements.

Truck traffic has been prohibited on the new Mill street pavement from Northville road to Main street during the past year. In an effort to relieve traffic problems and aid truck transportation of vital war materials to the bomber plant in Ypsilanti, residents of Mill street agreed to the plan to permit truck traffic for a 30-day test trial upon the recommendation of Police Chief Charles J. Thumme.

Great Lakes adult smallmouth blackbass planted by the conservation department in Ackerman lake, Alger county, and East Twin lake, Montrency county, have demonstrated that they will spawn successfully in their new inland lake homes. And measurements of tagged bass in East Twin lake and Long lake, Alpena county, have shown they grow at least as well as fish native to the inland waters.

Lawrence Smith Wins Engineering Honor

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred J. Smith of North Main street have received word from their son Lawrence who is a senior at the University of Michigan that he has just been elected to membership in Beta Epsilon Chapter of Eta Kappa Nu, a national electrical engineering honor society. Lawrence graduated from the Plymouth public schools in the year of 1938. He was the only senior elected to membership in the society. The qualifications for membership include marked ability as evidenced by scholarship and individual attainments.

Miss Huger To Direct Radio Program

The many Plymouth friends of Nellie Beatrice Huger, of Detroit, will be pleased to learn that she is in charge of the music for the radio program, "Little Church of the Air," sponsored by the Detroit Council of Churches, which returned to the air, over station WWJ last Sunday and will be heard each Sunday morning from 9:30 to 10 o'clock. Miss Huger, formerly of Plymouth, is a sister of Mrs. Earl Fluelling of this city. Recently Miss Huger was highly honored when one of her pupils was chosen from a group of 400 to audition at Town Hall in New York.

'V' HOURS for CALLING!

TELEPHONE LINES—especially those handling interstate Long Distance calls—are busier than ever before, with Armed Forces and War Industry depending on the telephone to direct troop movements and speed production.

That's why we ask you to do your telephoning during the "V" hours, between the peaks. Peak periods, when lines are most congested, are from 10 to 11:30 A.M. and 2 to 4 P.M.

Material shortages will not permit us to increase facilities as we should like to, so we must conserve what we have to meet war needs.

Take advantage of the "V" hours for your telephoning. You will get faster, more satisfactory service, and you'll help speed the messages that speed Victory.

Frosh Lose To Dearborn 5-0

Plymouth's freshman baseball team lost to Dearborn, Monday, May 18, on Plymouth's diamond with a score of five to nothing. The Plymouth players were: Hoffman (ss), Shely and Bird (3b), Hessler (lf), Hall (c), Robinson (cf), Riebas (rf), Rock and Folsom (2b), Aubry (1b), Cummings and Skoglund, pitchers. Waldecker played (rf) for Dearborn. Forster (2b), Wagner (cf), Shumer (c), Neundorf (ss), Mistecki (3b), Numan (1b), Gurney (lf), and Titus was pitcher. Forster, Neundorf, and Gurney, each scored one run and Titus scored two.

Third League Match Is Golf Victory

Plymouth came through with a 61-51/2 victory in their third league match with Wayne last Monday, May 18 at Hilltop Country club. Kenneth Hart, P.H.S. No. 1 man, shot a 46-41 for a score of 87, losing the first nine, winning the last nine, and the 18 from Temple of Wayne. Harold Schultz, Rocks' second man, shot 49-49 winning his first nine, losing the second nine, and winning the 18 from Goodrick. Zimmerman, Plymouth third man, lost his game to Hargraves, Plymouth's number four man, Jackson, shot a 52-56 winning the first nine, and tying the last nine, winning 18 from Kelley.

Wayne Trounces Rocks 9-4

The Wayne baseball squad combined nine hits, two of which were triples, and eight errors made by the Rocks to push across nine runs to beat Plymouth 9-4, in a seven-inning league game played here last Monday afternoon. In the first inning Wayne, Nieman opened with a triple to left field and promptly scored on Kubitsky's single. He also scored when Ross threw Hubble out at first. Wayne scored three runs in the second without getting a hit. Plagens walked, and after Piacoinh and Nieman flew out, Kubitsky also walked. Both runners advanced on a wild pitch and Plagen then scored when Hunt let Hubble's grounder go between his legs. White and Dobozy were also safe at first on errors scoring Kubitsky and Hubble.

Three more runs were added to Wayne's total in the fourth frame. White walked and scored on Dobozy's triple. After Miller struck out, Solomon beat out a hit to Schaufele scoring Dobozy. Solomon then scored when Plagens walked and Piacoinh singled. By combining two walks, a single, one error, and a stolen base Wayne tallied one more run in the sixth. Plymouth tallied for one run in the second inning when Williams doubled and Hunt singled. In the fifth frame for Plymouth Wood walked, went to second on Newton's ground out, and scored on Woods' single after Ross had struck out.

Two more runs for the Rocks were scored by Schwartz and Sheppard in the sixth. Schwartz was safe at first on the Wayne pitcher's error on a ground ball. Sheppard walked and both runners advanced on a wild pitch. They then scored on Newton's single to right field. Box score: Plymouth, four runs, five hits and eight errors; Wayne, nine runs, nine hits and one error. Starting line-up: Wayne: Nieman 3b; Kubitsky cf; Hubble 1b; White 2b; Dobozy c; Miller rf; Solomon ss; Plagens lf; Piacoinh, p. Plymouth: Woods lf; Schaufele 3b; Schwartz ss; Sheppard cf; Williams c; Hunt 1b; Wood rf; Newton 2b; Ross p. Substitutions: Mores for Miller in the sixth inning.

Dear Readers,

V. M.: Did you find that Round Square George Chute sent you for? In accord with the rationing program, we found a revised edition of an old favorite: Roses are red, Violets are blue, Sugar is sweet, Remember * * * ? We don't think it gives a speaker much confidence to have a black cat walk across in front of him at an Honor Banquet! L. H.: If this about the tuba is true, here's a little poem for you: Pulling its tones way up from Cuba, This mass of brass is called the Tuba. A bulky weight it seems to be To dangle gaily on one's knee, A few "Picturesque Speech and Patter" written to fit P.H.S.; B. Wooster: A trumpet pulling here's a tale into a thin, sweet thread of sound. FLASH: We hear the seniors expect to graduate Good luck. Sincerely, Ue Morons.

Masterful Hurling Stops Rocks

Behind the masterful three-hit pitching of Pio, the Ypsilanti baseball squad played errorless ball while collecting five hits for seven runs to whip the Rocks 7-1, in a seven-inning league game played at Ypsi Thursday, May 14.

The Rocks' lone run came in the fifth frame when Wood singled to right, took second as Hoffman walked, went to third on Hancock's fielder's choice, and scored on Schwartz's single. The first four men up for Ypsi in the first inning scored. King opened up the inning by getting on first when Schwartz bobbled his grounder. He then stole second and went to third when Sheppard's throw to second went into center field. Moffett singled, scoring King. He also went to third on a bag peg to second by Sheppard. Lawrence beat out an infield hit, Moffett scoring. A. Herbst walked and went to third when Lawrence scored on a passed ball. When Wood threw a wild pitch, A. Herbst scored. The next three men then were put out, ending the inning. In the sixth frame, Ypsi scored three more runs. Moffett beat out an infield hit, went to second on a wild pitch, and tallied another run for Ypsi when Williams misjudged Lawrence's fly to right. Lawrence went to second on another wild pitch by Wood. W. A. Herbst singled to left field. Lawrence was out at the plate attempting to score on a fast relay from Woods to Newton to Sheppard. H. Herbst singled and A. Herbst scored when the peg to Newton at third was wild. H. Herbst also scored on this bad peg to third. The next two men were then easily put out.

Box score: Ypsilanti: Seven runs, five hits and no errors; Plymouth: One run, three hits and five errors. Starting line-up: Plymouth—Hoffman 2b; Hancock cf; Schwartz ss; Sheppard c; Williams rf; Hunt 1b; Woods lf; Newton 3b; Wood p. Ypsilanti: King 3b; Moffett ss; Lawrence c; A. Herbst 1b; H. Herbst 2b; Freeman lf; Greenfield cf; Smith rf; Pio p. Substitutes: Hall batted for Newton; Ross batted for Wood; and Vetal batted for Hoffman.

Who's Who In P. H. S.

This week: With six languages and debate, too—try getting a word in edgewise. No P.H.S. student needs even one guess to figure out whom this week's title refers to, for who has not heard of or knows—Dorrit Strauss. The six languages mentioned in the title include English, German, French, Spanish, Italian and Catalan. The Catalan is a mixture of French and Spanish spoken in certain sections of the two countries. Dorrit hastens to assure one that although she cannot fluently speak them all, she has been a regular member of the debate team for the past two years and will represent that group at the honor banquet this spring. This year Dorrit represented our school in the oratory contest in Ypsilanti and placed third, which is remarkably well. She also won a medal in debate for outstanding work. Now to get back to languages. Dorrit relates the tale of her first school year in America. Knowing only scraps of English, she was called upon to give a report in class. In presenting this, Dorrit used many "swear words" (not fit to print) which she had picked up, thinking they were adjectives only the very intelligent used. Innocently she wondered if this was so funny. Dorrit hastens to assure one that she knows better now. Next week: Dynamic Dramatist Deluxe. Drs. Ed and Alta Rice, Chiropractors, X-ray service, 747 West Ann Arbor Trail, Ph. 122—Adv.

Shoemaker Wins Ace Contest

Having an open date in their schedule last Wednesday, the local golf team participated in an inter-squad holes-in-one contest at their home course, the Hilltop Golf club. The idea of the contest was to find out which golfer could come nearest to getting a hole-in-one on the fourth hole, which is 130 yards long. All boys were to hit six balls from the number four tee, but only the nearest ball was to count. Elmer Shoemaker won the golf pin given the school by the Scholastic Magazine. His nearest ball was a very fine shot which landed on the green and rolled to within six feet of the hole. Harold Crisp, and Harold Schultz tied for second place with shots which landed thirty-two feet from the pin.

Plymouth Men Place In Regional

Plymouth's track men earned 14 and five-sixths points at the Regional Track Meet at Ypsilanti Saturday, May 16. Two Plymouth men, Behler and Ribblett, were in the heats in the 100-yard dash. Behler received two points for placing fourth in the finals. The winner's time was 10.3 seconds. The same two men were in the heats of the 220-yard dash and Behler also placed fourth in this. The time of the victor was 23.5 seconds. Wellman tied for fifth in the pole vault in which the winner went up 11 feet and six inches. Ribblett placed fifth in the broad jump. The winner jumped 21 feet, eight inches. Kirkpatrick took fifth place in the half mile. Nagel tied for first in the high jump by going up five feet, six inches. Wooster made fourth place in the 440-yard run after blacking out. Plymouth's relay team placed third. Waack ran for Ribblett because Ribblett had injured himself in the broad jump. Sexton placed sixth in the mile, and Thams took sixth in the shot-put.

P.H.S. Tooters Have Rooters

The band, under the direction of C. A. Luchtman, deserves high praise for their public spiritedness. They have been especially commended by city officials for turning out in time to play for the recent group of draftees from Plymouth. The music was said to have cheered the boys to the end. During the numerous public appearances the band has made this year, they have shown not only their willingness to cooperate by nearly 100 per cent attendance, but have demonstrated, through the quality of their programs, the earnestness they have put into their practice hours. It is a pleasure to report, as we near the end of this school year, that the student body, as a whole, is very appreciative of the fine work done by the band. Three cheers for Plymouth high school's band!!

Senior Sketches

Maxwell A. Todd of 551 Adams street is the son of Arthur and Clara Todd of 207 Ann Arbor street. Max, who was born in Plymouth and has lived here all his life, has attended night school for some time. He lists drama club and being drum major as his accomplishments. Eugene Nichols merely said "Wouldn't you like to know?" when asked what his future aim was. He was born in Evanston, Wyoming and has lived in Howell, South Lyon and Brighton before moving to Plymouth. He has traveled through northern Michigan, Central Illinois and the Smokey Mountains but now resides at 15595 LaSalle road with his parents, Harold and Marie Nichols. His achievements have been two years of track, one year of cross country, and one year of football. Girls who say they haven't a thing to wear are his pet peeve.

Class News

Miss Hamill's current event classes have been debating whether India should have her complete freedom or not. Modern history classes have been debating whether or not the Central Powers were the cause of the present war. This debate is probably especially helpful because it gives students a much clearer understanding of the present world conflict. Mr. Blunk's trigonometry class is studying the solution of oblique triangles. His business training class is studying the importance of how to keep a job. Bill Osgood brought several pieces of leather handwork to Mr. Reeves seven-B group. His father, who used to work on the rubber plantations in Liberia, brought them back with him. The handwork included pocket books and cases for metal boxes. He also showed the class a machette that came from Liberia. Mr. Lature's government class is studying about elections, the different ways to nominate and the correct way to vote. Mr. Hedrick's science classes are studying the human machine in relationship to hygiene. Miss Baker's arithmetic classes are learning about squares, rectangles, parallelograms, and trapezoids. Miss Soule's 7-A foods class baked cookies and put them in containers which they decorated themselves; these containers were made of tobacco cans, coffee cans and boxes. Mary Agnes Evans was voted the most attractive. The home economics meeting of May 12, was held in Dearborn. Several girls from Plymouth attended. Home Ec girls have been working on subjects for the school exhibit this week; among their accomplishments were "Substitutes for Sugar," "Victory Gardens," and "How the public will be affected by the shortage of tin." Notice—The Home Economics club will hold its next social meeting in the park on Tuesday, May 25. Dorothy Fisher and Pat Hudson will be the hostesses. Reading "The Death of the Wired Man" by Robert Frost, one of the well-known and better of the contemporary poets. Miss Walldorf's 11A American literature classes have defined their definition of home from discussing the poem. Mary and Warren, two characters in the poem are discussing their ideas of home after a former hired man comes to their farm to die. The class disagreed with their definitions and wrote their own. Some of the best are: "Home is the place I always want to get away from but am always glad to return to." "Home is a place that contains memories cherished when you are gone away from it." "If you make it so, home is a place where one may find comfort, contentment, and peace when from all other places you are ousted." "To me home is that white cozy frame building that I always miss so much when I am away, and where my family's warm greeting makes me feel contented and happy." "Home is the place where, one is always welcome, never hungry, nearest to happiness, and can fall on his desires."

Schools Held Big Vocations Exhibit

The art, home economics and shop departments, the Girl Reserves, and the Red Cross displayed the projects made during the year last Thursday, May 14. The woodworking division of shop exhibited a beautiful desk, an end table, a coffee table, baseball bats, a dog house, magazine racks, a bookcase and some lamps. The division working in metal displayed an indirect lighting system, a beautiful magazine rack, modern lamps, tools and even a dust pan. There was a moulded figure of Lincoln, an electric motor, and a large collection of model airplanes both solid and structural. The art department showed excellent paintings in water colors in chalk and in oil. Many original and odd designs were on display also. The home economics sewing department held a display of all the clothing from seersucker suits to formal, made during the year. There was also a clever housing plan displayed. In the cooking department there were various displays on vitamins, food canning, and drying, healthful menus, helpful units on how and what food to buy, and how to save sugar and find substitutes. A very fine victory garden was worked out and a list of food a defense worker should have daily in his lunchbox was on display. Those knitted squares the Girl Reserves made were combined into an afghan for display. The Red Cross displayed the waste paper they had collected and the clothes made. Harold Young also had a collection of minerals on exhibition.

Afternoon Snacks Given For Mothers

The 8B girls of Mrs. Hecox's food class entertained their mothers at an "Afternoon Snack" on Wednesday, May 13. The unusual table centerpiece was a May Pole, Anna Spitz, who was general chairman of the party, served lemonade, cookies, and mixed nuts. Each mother received a corsage of red tulips, lily of the valley, and violets. About 40 girls and their mothers were present. The second tea of the week was held on the following Thursday, by Mrs. Soule's 8A food girls. They served tea, punch, tiny cream puffs, macaroons and brownies. Each girl had for her part in the program the presentation of her mother with a corsage of lilies of the valley. Divine Love always has met and always will meet every human need.—Mary Baker Eddy.

The Plymouth Gun club participated in the William Randolph Hearst match, sponsored by the Detroit Times, last Sunday at the Agricultural building at the State Fair grounds. Members of the team were Harold Pankow, Harold Brown, Russell Cunningham, Peter Foster and Earl Rubert.

Historic Vessel Scrapped

Built 98 years ago, the U. S. S. Michigan, first ironclad ship built by the Navy, has been scrapped and her metal used for war purposes. The ship, now better known as the Wolverine, has been a tourist attraction at Erie, Pa., for several years.

Northville Wins 11 Inning Game

Rocks Lose Pitching Duel, 3-2

Coming to bat in the last of the ninth inning with the score tied up 2-2, Ray Hartner, Northville pitcher, smashed out a home run, winning the game for Northville in a non-league pitcher's battle at Cass Benton park last Tuesday afternoon. LaRue was on base when hit by a pitched ball. He then went to second on an error by the short stop but was able to go only to third when Woods smashed out a line-drive that hit the umpire. Schwartz then grounded out.

The game was featured by fine pitching throughout, there being but seven walks, five by Sheppard, Plymouth's infielder, and eight by Northville batters.

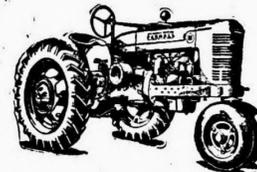

Box score: Northville: Three runs, five hits, and six errors. Plymouth: Two runs, six hits, and one error.

Starting line-up: Northville: McDonald cf; LaRue c; King 1b; Hartner p; Wendt 3b; Light ss; Bessley rf; Slessor 2b; Folino, lf. Plymouth: Hancock cf; Woods lf; Schwartz ss; Sheppard p; Williams c; Hunt 1b; Ross rf; Newton 2b; Vetal 3b.

Take a Look at Tomorrow! Order Your Farmall Today

Young men working on the farm today may be off to camp tomorrow. Production of new farm machines to take their place will, in some degree, be limited by production of war machines. But of this you may be sure: the Farmall Tractor on your farm won't be called away for military service! Play safe... buy your Farmall now. And be sure to get a Farmall big enough to give you ample power for all the work you have to do.

State Outlines Transit Plan

Local Committee To Enforce Program

City Manager C. H. Elliott and John Dalton, chairman of the local defense transportation committee attended a meeting of the Michigan State Safety Commission in Lansing last week. A four-point program of the Michigan plan for war transportation conservation to be carried out in each municipality was discussed at this meeting.

The plan to be effected locally includes staggering hours in factories, stores and schools; sharing rides; protecting war workers from traffic accidents and better use of the streets to reduce accidents and relieve traffic congestion.

"The automobile owner must be made to realize that his only hope of continued transportation except on his own feet lies in conserving and protecting the life of his present tires and automobile. They are no longer merely his individual property; they are vital resources of the Nation at war," declared Maxwell Halsey, state administrator of the transportation committee.

"This is an industrial production war; the transportation link to the factory, to the assembly line and to the battle front is vital. Many view mass transportation systems as their ultimate transportation resource. But many transit systems are already overtaxed. To provide facilities to replace private car transportation would mean that the national industrial effort would have to be turned from tanks, guns and planes to production of buses, street cars, trains and track," concluded Chairman Halsey.

Records Reveal 1929 Assessment Was Peak

Records reveal that Plymouth's highest assessed valuation was $7,239,000 in 1929 when the tax rate was $15 a thousand. Generally, the high valuations correspond with the peak periods in general prosperity. In 1931, the assessed valuation was $6,106,298 and the figure dropped to $4,852,454 in 1934, lowest since the 1920s. The assessment has gradually increased since that year and reached the peak again this year with $6,008,000, which is the highest in recent years due to increased building activity.

Draft Ordinance For Blackouts

Council Proposes Enforcement Law

The first draft of a proposed blackout ordinance for the City of Plymouth was presented to the city commission at its regular meeting Monday evening. The ordinance was reviewed ready for enactment at the June 1 meeting.

The ordinance provides for "blackouts and air raid protection regulation affecting the conduct of persons, firms and corporations during blackouts and air raids; authorizing the manager to make certain rules and regulations involving the public peace, health and safety, defining offenses and prescribing penalties."

"The city officials feel confident that citizens will cooperate 100 per cent during any and all blackout and raid rehearsals, but the proposed ordinance is intended to insure protection for all citizens in the event of singular willful violations," declares City Manager C. H. Elliott. Violators of blackout regulations at the present time face prosecution under the state blackout laws but all municipalities in the state are adopting blackout ordinances for the welfare of all the people.

The ordinance governs blackout and air raid protection measures as authorized or ordered by the Army or Navy only, and outlines rules for lights and illuminations; duty of occupants, owners and lessees; operation of manufacturing plants; pedestrians; vehicular traffic and use of highways. The measure also prohibits unauthorized warning or all-clear signals, provides for no municipal or private liability and provides that the penalty for violation of any provisions of the ordinance shall be a fine not exceeding the sum of $100 or imprisonment in the Detroit House of Correction for 90 days or both in the discretion of the court.

Probably the most remarkable linguist the world has ever known was Giuseppe Caspar Mezzofanti, who was born at Bologna in 1774, created a Cardinal of the Church in 1838, and died at Rome in 1849. The list of languages and dialects which he acquired reached the astonishing total of 114.

Speakers Debate Plan For County Reform

Mrs. Ada Murray, president of the Plymouth League of Women Voters, announced the following appointments of committee chairmen for the ensuing year at a meeting last week Friday in the auditorium of Central grade school: Mrs. Harry Deyo, government and its operation; Mrs. Ruth Huston Whipple, government and local affairs; Mrs. Sidney D. Strong, government and education; Mrs. John Scheel, government and social welfare; Mrs. Maurice Woodworth, government and foreign policy; Mrs. Thomas Bateman, government and economic welfare; Mrs. Maude Bennett, finance; Mrs. C. H. Elliott, war-time activities; Mrs. C. H. Elliott, Mrs. James Sessions and Mrs. Bruce Woodbury, by-law revisions; Mrs. Mrs. Carlton Lewis, transportation; Mrs. Bruce Woodbury, Mrs. P. E. Foster and Mrs. Frank Learned, telephone contacts.

The League's meeting featured a debate between William Lovett of the Detroit Citizens' League and Mayor Ruth Huston Whipple of Plymouth on the proposed plan for the re-organization of government in Wayne county.

Mr. Lovett listed as reasons for the proposed amendment need of reform because of "waste and graft exposed by the Ferguson grand jury investigation which revealed that one in each 36 on the Wayne county payroll receives $5,000 or more", because of duplication in county insurance contracts, and because there is no "responsible head of the Wayne county government." The board of supervisors consisting of 161 members, larger by about 40 than the state legislature, appoints or elects a board of three auditors, declares Mr. Lovett.

Mr. Lovett stated that the proposed amendment cannot change any other county organization than Wayne county; change state-county bureaus or functions; change or abolish local units such as schools, fire or police; change township organization or the judicial system. The amendment proposes to reduce the number of supervisors from 161 to only 21 members. He listed the following population statistics: Detroit, 1,623,000; urban out-county, 410,000 and rural out-county, 150,000.

Mrs. Whipple offered the following objections to the proposal: "The City of Detroit is financially hard-pressed and needs relief; $304,000 per year is paid to Wayne University by the out-county and it is considered a city institution; Recorder's Court, normally a county but really a city court, is paid for by the county; the county pays welfare benefits to Detroit; provision is made for adoption by a voting majority of Wayne county as a whole; and the amendment states that the county will have power to contract with other government units for the performance of many functions."

Mr. Lovett countered that Wayne University is a county school, open to county students, and that the county bears 20 per cent of the cost; that Recorder's court is a circuit court, and that the power to contract is a protection for the county.

Township Adopts Zone Ordinance

Consultant Submits Building Code Draft

Livonia's proposed zoning ordinance was approved at a joint meeting of the township board and zoning commission Monday evening at the township hall.

The proposed ordinance was referred to the township board following the final hearing Friday night at which several suggestions were made for minor amendments.

The new zoning regulations will become effective within 21 days following Monday's enactment. Glenn Phillips, zoning and planning consultant, also submitted a draft of the proposed building code at Monday's meeting. The township board will study the proposal and appoint a building inspector for the township at a future meeting. Livonia voters approved the suggestion for the establishment of a building code by a four-to-one majority in the April election. The special proposal carried by a vote of 245 to 52.

The voters of the township authorized the drafting of a zoning ordinance at the spring election a year ago. Six public hearings in various districts of the township have been held in the last three months.

Over 200 Attend Church Banquet

Program Includes Music, Puppet Show

Nearly 200 guests attended the mother and daughter banquet sponsored by the Presbyterian ladies' auxiliary Friday evening in Rosedale Gardens. The banquet tables were decorated with garden flowers and individual bouquets of old-fashioned nosegays.

Miss Nancy Pettibone presided as toastmistress; Miss Eleanor McDonald delivered a toast to the mothers and Mrs. C. J. Bristol responded with a toast to the daughters. Mrs. John Forsyth delivered the invocation and Mrs. Edward Luttemoser served as song leader with Mrs. Fred Vandevender as accompanist.

The program of entertainment included piano selections by Miss Allene Burns and Miss Ila Culbertson; a solo by little Carolyn Brooker accompanied by her mother, Mrs. O. L. Brooker; a reading by Mrs. Ralph Timmins; a trio selection by Fred Van Deynder, E. Townsend and Ralph McDowell; a cornet solo by Bob VanDeynder and a puppet show presented by Jimmie and Ralph McDowell.

ELTON R. EATON Editor and Publisher
STERLING EATON Business Manager

AN INDEPENDENT NEWSPAPER

Entered as Second Class Matter in the U. S. Postoffice at Plymouth, Michigan

Member National Editorial Association, The Michigan Press Association, University of Michigan Press Club and The Metropolitan Group of Newspapers.

THE PEOPLE CAN DO SOMETHING ABOUT IT.

The Plymouth Mail is complying with numerous requests it has received to reprint an editorial written by John J. Knight and published in last Sunday's Detroit Free Press. It follows:

By the action of some 200 of its members who participated in an undignified scramble for unlimited gasoline ration cards, the Seventy-seventh Congress has again confirmed its reputation as one of the worst in history.

It has been a time-serving Congress absolutely devoid of leadership. It has shown but little understanding of the problems which it debates, no comprehension at all of its responsibilities as a legislative body and a complete lack of vision, foresight, courage and independence.

"Bundles for Congress" and the "X" gasoline rationing farce are but symbols of its restricted collective mentality and utter inability to sense the national temper before hearing from the people back home.

For this sad state of affairs, the blame must be placed squarely upon the voters themselves. They are to blame either for not voting at all or for failing to participate in party primaries where the opposing candidates are selected. All too often, the voter's abdication of his rights in the party primary leaves the selection of both candidates in the hands of party bosses. Thus, when he goes to the polls in the fall, he is virtually disenfranchised because he must choose between two utterly undesirable office seekers.

CAPABLE MEN HAVE HESITATED to run for Congress because it meant the absolute subordination of their own ideals if they expected to be elected. For years upon end, it has been traditional that no candidate for Congress who hoped to be successful could afford to offend the farm bloc if he came from an agricultural area or the labor vote if he hailed from an industrial district. Then he has had to cater to the Townsendites, the wets and the dries, the old age pension folks, the racial and religious groups and, at the same time, contrive to extract a few campaign contributions from self-seeking industrialists and business men.

Is there any wonder that we have no Websters, Clays or Calhouns in the Seventy-seventh Congress? There is not even one good orator of the Borah variety to focus public attention on the fact that Congress does nothing about anything until public opinion becomes so strong that they have to bow to it.

It is significant that public opinion has been miles ahead of the Seventy-seventh Congress throughout its undistinguished career. If we are looking for complacency, more of it can be found in the halls of Congress than in any other part of the country.

The excuse has been made that President Roosevelt's popularity has in itself reduced Congress to a mere shadow of its former self; that senators and congressmen who oppose his will are usually defeated and that poorly qualified candidates are often elected because of their facility for clinging to his coattails.

GRANTING THERE IS AMPLE GROUND for this charge, the fact remains that a number of courageous senators of the President's own party have dared to stand up against him when they thought him wrong and have been re-elected.

Generally speaking, the people like independence of thought. They do not expect a member of Congress to be perfect and they are willing to overlook honest mistakes if they are convinced he is conscientiously accepting the responsibility of his position.

The truth of the matter is, today the people are leading Congress. Every poll that has been taken reveals that the people are thinking well in advance of the men who represent them in Washington.

For years it has been considered political suicide to advocate a sales tax of any kind. Today, most people recognize its need if we are to come anywhere near raising the tremendous war revenues that are required. But the average congressman doesn't like the thought of having a vote for a sales tax appear on his record because he is afraid it might be used against him in some future campaign.

STEP BY STEP IN THE PROGRESS of the war, the people of this country have forced action by Congress when it was inclined to hesitate and hope. They have accepted every government restriction and regulation without complaint. They are willing to give up sugar, coffee, tires and even automobiles if their sacrifices are needed to win. They want to get along with this war, not prolong it. They have never resented being required to do too much but their tempers have run high when the Government has asked for a little of them.

In spite of all its shortcomings, Congress still stands as one of the essential pillars of our republic. The legislative branch will become even more important in the post-war era when there are vital treaties to be negotiated and plans formulated for worldwide reconstruction.

A weak, do-nothing post-war Congress could easily jeopardize everything for which we are now fighting. The fruits of victory can be lost overnight by concluding a bungling, vindictive and unrealistic treaty of peace.

A stupid, spineless post-war Congress which yielded to the insistent demands of each selfish pressure group could very well throw this nation into an economic tailspin from which there could be no recovery under our present system of government.

A war-weary, tired-of-it-all post war Congress lacking the courage to preserve the fundamental institutions and guarantees upon which this nation attained its present stature could easily pave the way for a ruthless dictatorship such as we are now fighting in Europe.

What can the people do about it?

WELL, JUST THIS! Since December 7, they have demonstrated far more unity and clear thinking than has emanated from the halls of Congress.

They are today telling Congress what to do. And Congress is heeding their voice!

Why, then, can not the people exercise a corresponding measure of vigilance back home in selecting the men and women who are to represent them in Congress? Why can not they show more interest in their primary elections, urge good candidates to take up the fight against stupidity and laziness?

But, for example, how many voters even know the names of their own congressmen right here in Detroit?

Why do they not demand proper representation from their own districts and make their congressmen as constantly responsive to their will as they have shown can be done since Pearl Harbor?

The people have it in their power to restore Congress to its former high estate when courageous men were sent back term after term because the people knew they were statesmen first and politicians second.

WITH THE EXCEPTION of Illinois and a number of southern states where primaries have already been held, the people can do something about it this summer. If you love your country, if you do not care to see the sacrifices you are making come to naught, if you are thinking of your boy or your neighbor's boy in service, if you believe in America and the things it represents, get busy and help nominate good men and women for Congress in both major political parties.

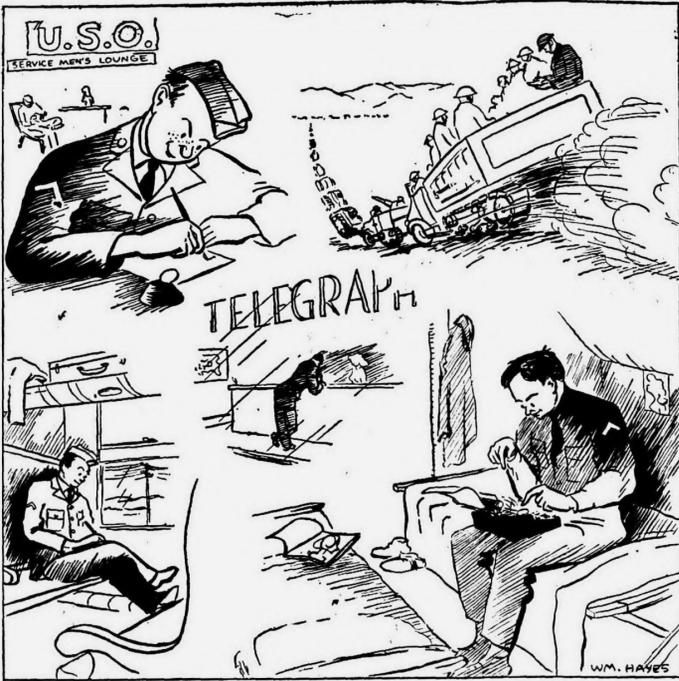

They will represent you in Washington during the most critical period of our history. They will determine how your money is to be spent and they will enact laws which will have a direct bearing upon every phase of your daily lives.

In effect, they may determine the kind of a country in which you and your children will live for years to come.

The spineless Seventy-seventh Congress now assembled in Washington should be a direct challenge to every good citizen to see to it personally that the Seventy-eighth Congress will be a better one.

Is this too much to do for your country—and for yourselves?

They'll Read Each Line a Thousand Times

The hats cost from $5.00 to $8.50 each. The total bill was $225. Brown refused to pay the bill. We know and you know he is being cussed by the men who bought the hats and probably by some of those who wore the hats. When the time comes these men will knife Vern Brown, but they won't tell the reason why they hate him.

Brown somehow never seems to have learned the cute little tricks and the smart little extravagances which pee-wee politicians love so dearly—especially when they are spending state money. Probably Vern is so old he never will learn. He's been doing things the other way too long. His sagacity in this respect is well known.

Brown has done an outstanding job in his department. We wonder if the people of the state appreciate it? Can a man in public office be popular prosecuting such a policy in these billion-dollar expenditure days—Schuyler Marshall in The Clinton County (St. Johns) Republican News.

lion people, managed by Mayor Jeffries, found it necessary (or thought so at least) to call for the boys out in the sticks to go down there and keep the whites from murdering the negroes in the "housing settlement." Detroit seems to think some times it is the whole state of Michigan but when it comes to some one taking the knocks and fighting their battles, they have to send out state and call in the boys off the lineotype machines, from private business, etc., while the guys in Detroit go about their way with no inconveniences. We don't blame the governor, for he was requested by Mayor Jeffries to send the troops down there. On the other hand we understand many Detroit people are just as sore about it as we are, and that Mayor Jeffries will find this out at the next election. If the Japs were landing in the country and headed for Eaton county we would all close up and fight, but when it comes to a city of two millions not being able to handle a little matter like the Detroit affair—then we're just not that patriotic.—Robert Gifford in The Eaton Rapids Journal.

Americans consider it our right, as a free people, to criticize our government—it's the American way.

True it is that things are not going just as we would have them. We think that our government should have been foresighted enough to have built pipe lines from the Texas oil fields to supply the densely populated section of the New England states and avoided a gasoline shortage. We feel that our government should have constructed synthetic rubber plants months ago and thus solved the rubber problem. We believe that we should have been better prepared for the outbreak of war. But after all it is still our government, with all its mistakes, and it is the best government on earth at that.

As Judge McPeck stated in his talk to the Men's Discussion club last night, we people left at home will be called upon to sacrifice little in the war effort as compared to the boys at the front and we should cultivate a more charitable attitude toward our government. We shall have to live more simply in order to save money for higher taxes and we shall have to go without many luxuries but most of us will be healthier for it and perhaps happier.—John Lignian in The Olivet Optic.

In Plymouth and Vicinity—Interesting News of Days Gone By Taken From The Plymouth Mail Files

Mr. Pierce of Cleveland and Mrs. D. Shaw of Detroit have purchased the Strobber property on the Plymouth road for a consideration of $10,000. They expect to erect a fine residence on the same in the near future.

H. C. Robinson is having his farm property wired for electric lights. Mr. Hood of Plymouth is doing the work.

H. C. Hager met with what might have been a serious accident on the Plymouth road last Saturday, when the radius rods of his car snapped and before he could regain control of his machine, it collided with a telephone pole, smashing the windshield but fortunately Mr. Hager escaped personal injury.

A most enjoyable day was spent by the G.A.R. and the W.R.C. at the Ryder homestead Tuesday. A fine dinner was served at noon followed by a social time. There are only a few of the boys in blue left in our community.

Clifford Tait spent the weekend with his sister, Mrs. I. Whitaker.

Mrs. Myrtle Murray was pleasantly entertained at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Glenn Lyke on Wednesday of last week in honor of her birthday. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Blunk and daughter of Plymouth and Mr. and Mrs. George Roberts and daughter of Salem were also present.

There has been so much cloudy weather lately it's a wonder anything grows. The farmers are very busy putting in crops. There will be a large acreage of corn. Wheat is looking fairly well in this section. There is a big shortage of seed potatoes. People are glad to get anything in the shape of a potato to plant. So far very few lawns are being plowed. Perhaps the farmers will get in line if the war lasts long enough.

Mrs. Henry Andrews entertained the L.O.T.M.'s and friends at a thimble party at her home on Depot street last Friday afternoon. About thirty ladies were present and a fine potluck supper was served.

A lively runaway occurred on Blunk avenue Sunday evening about 8 o'clock when a colt hitched to a breaking cart, belonging to Lloyd Palmer, became frightened at an automobile and broke loose from where it was tied at Irving Blunk's milk house and made a dash for home. Various parts of the cart and harness were scattered along the route, but luckily no one happened in the way of the frightened animal. The school census is now being taken in the village.

The Daisy factory was closed down the first of the week on account of the breaking of the main shaft.

C. A. Fisher is driving a new six-cylinder seven-passenger Buick car.

Rev. Frank M. Field and family were surprised recently on the former's birthday by about fifty members of the Methodist congregation, who spent a merry evening together and left a number of substantial reminders of their visit.

A number of people who have been looking around the new school building have noticed a strange freak of physics in a broken window on the west side. The glass is broken out in such a way as to leave a pretty accurate outline of the lower peninsula of Michigan. A slice of the thumb is cut off at the side but Saginaw Bay, Traverse Bay, and the contour of the Lake Michigan shore are all there in striking likeness.

The ladies of the cemetery society will give a night cap social at the home of Julius Landau Friday evening, May 25. Supper will be served.

Mrs. Minnie Randall of Saginaw, Mrs. Len Vickery of Waterford, Mrs. W. A. Eckles of East Plymouth, Mrs. M. M. Willett and Mr. and Mrs. Ezra Rotnour were guests of Mrs. Archie Herbeck at Northville Tuesday.

William Sutherland has sold the remainder of his farm on Golden street to Powers and Honeywell of Flint, who expect to plat the same into lots soon. These gentlemen recently sold at auction a part of the lots in the new Puritan Holm subdivision and great credit is due them for the improvement made to the suburban part of our village.

About twenty-five friends and neighbors gave William Hillmer a pleasant surprise at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Olds, last Saturday evening. The occasion was his seventy-first birthday. After a social evening a fine supper was served and the guests departed at a late hour wishing Mr. Hillmer many more pleasant birthdays.

A full-page advertisement appeared in The Plymouth Mail announcing the sale of remaining lots in the Puritan Holm addition at auction. Prior to the sale there will be a flag raising ceremony. A tall pole and bannocks will be raised on the property and later offered to the village to erect on whatever site they may select on Decoration Day.

Eleven million male citizens from 21 to 30 years old inclusive will be subject to draft by the President of the United States, according to the universal service bill enacted by Congress this week.

Roger Babson Says . . .

Outlook For Utility Companies Grows Bright

Babson Park, Mass., May 22—Due to the war, we have lost sight of many activities of the New Deal. Among these is the "death sentence" provision of the Holding Company Act. In its recent annual report to Congress, the SEC stated that there would be no moratorium on the "death sentence" because of the war. Hence, utility holding companies may continue to be liquidated. Among the most orderly of such break-ups is that which has been taking place for some time in the North American system. This was one of the first great holding companies to bow to the SEC. Stockholders will undoubtedly receive far more in liquidation than the currently quoted price for this stock. The gross income of most utility holding companies is better than ever. They are really suffering from high earnings which spell higher taxes. Hence, gross is up; but net is off. Operating units of holding companies have in many instances during the past year been called upon by the government to expand their systems and up their generating capacity for the expanding war program. This has entailed considerable new construction at high costs. Holding companies have, hence, been obliged to go to the banks to provide funds for their subsidiary companies.

The majority of the utility holding companies have become reconciled to the Holding Company Act and are willing to break up. It must be remembered, however, that there are outstanding in the hands of the public huge amounts of bonds which must be taken care of in some way. Due to the SEC requirements it has been particularly difficult for several past years for these companies to carry on any refunding operations. This situation is now worse than ever due to the necessity of keeping the banking and public market open for such new financing and refunding operations as becomes necessary for U.S. Treasury requirements.

There is many a city throughout the country in which property owners think they pay almost no municipal tax due to city-owned utilities. However, while the property owners in these localities may not get much of a tax bill from the municipal authorities, they are paying taxes just the same. Such taxes are buried in the bills they receive for electric power, gas and other municipal services through the relatively high rates they are paying therefor. In the majority of instances it would probably be cheaper, for most such cities to buy their juice from outside private utilities, have it delivered to a central switchboard, and distributed over city and town-owned lines. This is true in my own home town where residents enjoy some of the lowest light and power bills in the country.

To aid utility holding and operating companies now suffering from high taxes, I believe that legislation should be passed to allow these companies rate increases to cover their tax bill. A customer might get a $6. utility bill a month with a separate item thereon of $2. for taxes. In this way the government could use the utilities as tax collectors in a fair and above-board manner. If the utility companies would voluntarily change their methods of billing or if they were provided with rate increases to take care of a portion of their taxes, both investors and consumers would be treated more fairly. Today the utilities are being treated like a tax collector who might be compelled to pay all taxes out of his own pocket instead of being permitted to collect them!

One thing more, I hear much complaint that the SEC is hurting investors by forcing the holding companies to dissolve. Let me say from personal experience that the SEC is working hard to protect all legitimate investors. If the stockholders of the utility companies will follow cheerfully the suggestions of the Commission as to swapping securities and purchasing operating companies' shares, they need suffer no shrinkage in any actual values they ever had.

I am decidedly bullish on most utility operating companies' preferreds and some holding companies' preferreds. Ordinarily I do not like preferred stocks. They are a hybrid type of security and generally speaking I was brought up to avoid them. Ordinarily, from an investment point of view, I would prefer a first mortgage bond having a distinct claim upon the assets of a company or else a common stock having voting power and a real chance for profit. Today, however, all the stocks of well-managed utility operating companies seem to have discounted the worst.

I have already referred to the remarks of Edward Eicher, former chairman of the SEC, that war conditions would not be allowed to delay the execution of the "death sentence" of the Holding Company Act. Recently, however, Edmund Burke, Jr., a distinguished member of the Commission, told the New York Savings Bank Conference it is unlikely that the SEC will require or even permit widespread sales by holding companies which will harm legitimate investors. From the very first I have had confidence in the SEC and believe that those who cheerfully follow their instructions will get on O.K., provided they subscribe to their proportional interest in the properties that have been separated.

For a while I was troubled by the possible effect of inflation on the utilities. Ordinarily, they and the railroads would be the worst sufferers. Yet the New Deal crowd now is rendering the utilities a real protection against inflation. Washington is making a serious effort to help the utilities keep down costs. Hence, the utility club is really developing a silver lining!

VERN BROWN IS TOO OLD TO LEARN THE NEW TRICKS

The office of auditor general of a state is not generally looked upon as an apprenticeship to higher honors. That's the way the way the State Fair, were refused by the political boys consider it. If a Auditor General Vern Brown, man does nothing in this office, he is soon forgotten. If he does his duty, it is frequently unpopular with those who do the shouting. Watching expenditures, refusing payment of questionable bills, stopping leaks here and there in the public treasury—those are the duties of a conscientious auditor general.

As we write we read of how bills for ten-gallon hats bought to give to visiting politicians are being introduced. That's the way the way the State Fair, were refused by the political boys consider it. If a Auditor General Vern Brown,
