

A WAAC IS WELCOMED TO PLYMOUTH MAIL'S
ARMY-NAVY PAGE.

Here's the biggest army-navy-marine news of the week! A WAAC is welcomed to The Plymouth Mail's news page devoted to our fighting boys—AND NOW GIRLS—in the services of our country.

Auxiliary First Class Marilyn Martin, former clerk of the Plymouth police department, has written to the Mail and asked if it is proper for a WAAC to say something on the soldiers' page.

Welcome, thrice welcome! So to WAAC Martin goes the honor and distinction of being the first fighting Miss from Plymouth to find a place in The Plymouth Mail's soldier page.

In an interesting letter from the Arkansas Polytechnic college, located at Russellville, Arkansas, Miss Martin says:

"I have finished my basic training at Fort Oglethorpe, Georgia, and am now attending this college for six weeks, taking an army administration course. There is little excitement about here, but the citizens are grand to us.

"At first it was somewhat difficult changing from civilian to military life, but I sincerely recommend it to any one who really wants to be of service to our country. I have received The Plymouth Mail and it means as much to me as it does to the boys from Plymouth who are in service."

The Plymouth Mail will welcome frequent letters from the WAACs and WAVEs from this city who are fighting for our homeland.

THIS SOLDIER LAD IS LIVING IN THE "RITZY" RITZ-CARLTON HOTEL.

It's no longer necessary to be a millionaire to spend a few weeks or months in the ritzy Ritz-Carlton hotel in Atlantic City, New Jersey. All you have to do is become a soldier in Uncle Sam's army, and then be fortunate enough to get an assignment which takes you to Atlantic City, and if you are still lucky, you may be assigned to a room in the Ritz-Carlton, right near the famed Atlantic ocean board walk. All of this is the good luck that has come to Private Alan Bennett, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Merle Bennett of this city. The Plymouth Mail has been assigned to the signal corps attached to the Army Air Corps, and according to his letters, he is thoroughly enjoying his interesting work.

PRIVATE DONOHUE ENJOYS A FURLOUGH

After enjoying a five-day furlough at home with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Donohue of Kellogg street, Private H. E. Donohue has returned to Camp Carson, Colorado. The Plymouth Mail declares that a soldier's life in the Rocky Mountains provides plenty of excitement.

CARL LAMPTON LIKES HIS LIFE IN UNCLE SAM'S GREAT NAVY

Carl A. Lampton, who is for the present stationed at the U.S. Navy hospital in Brooklyn, New York, writes to The Mail that he is highly pleased to think that he selected the navy as his branch of service in which to serve.

"They certainly treat you right, and even though we work pretty hard, that doesn't make much difference. I had my boot training at the Hospital Corps school at Great Lakes. From there I went to Portsmouth, New Hampshire, where I was given ward duty and now I am located here," he writes.

"In all my traveling around, I have seen only one boy from Plymouth, and then only long enough to say hello and goodbye.

"Getting the home town paper is just like getting a letter. Maybe I should say it is better than getting a letter, because there is so much news in it that no one writes about."

HOWARD EBERSOLE
THOROUGHLY ENJOYING FLORIDA WEATHER.

Howard R. Ebersole, who has recently been transferred from Orlando, Florida to Bradenton, in the same state, in a letter to The Mail, declares that the weather in this interesting Gulf port city on the west coast of Florida, is most delightful at the present time.

"The sun shines all day and we have delightfully cool breezes at night. And the good people of Bradenton are sure one hundred percent for the soldiers. It almost makes me think of Plymouth, they are so good to us," he writes.

"Upon reporting for duty after my recent leave, I was assigned to a separate battalion and we are now undergoing field training and living in tents again. This is an aircraft moving battalion and I am in a radar reporting company as a platoon commander. Nearly one-fifth of the men with me are from Michigan, and our battalion executive, Lieutenant Elwood, is a former Michigan Bell Telephone company man from Mt. Clemens. We certainly do have some mighty fine officers and men in our outfit. Thanks a million for The Mail."

SPRING HAS ARRIVED IN WASHINGTON,
WRITES JOE CALOIA

Spring arrived in Washington much quicker than it did in Plymouth according to a letter to The Mail from Joe Caloia, a lad from this city who enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard. He is assigned to duty in the nation's capital and likes it there very much.

"It is very beautiful here in this city at this time. The grass is green and everything looks spic and span!" he writes. "But here's one for the books. Yesterday I washed my clothing and hung out 'my wash' to dry in the wind. One of the fellows came to me a little later and asked me who had their clothes hanging out on the line to dry. I told him they were mine and he advised me that I had better look after them. The wind had blown the line where my clothes were fastened, into the Potomac river. I had to do some lat wading to get them out and do my wash all over again. But such is life in the Coast Guards."

HAROLD GRANGER NOW AT PERRIN FIELD

Continuing his flying education, Aviation Cadet Harold D. Granger, 20, of Plymouth, has arrived at the Army Air Forces Basic Flying school at Perrin Field, Texas, after completing his primary training at Coleman.

Cadet Granger, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don M. Granger, of 8641 Center road, will have three months of rigorous training in 450-horsepower planes here before he goes to an advanced flying school.

PAUL THAMS ENTERS
KENT STATE UNIVERSITY

Paul F. Thams, 21, of Plymouth has arrived at Kent State University at Kent, Ohio for course of instruction lasting approximately five months prior to his appointment as an Aviation Cadet in the Army Air Forces Flying Training Command. During this period he will take numerous academic courses, as well as elementary flying training. Upon completion of the course he will be classified as a navigator, pilot or bombardier and go on to schools of the Flying Training Command for training in these specialties.

"Jake" Shoemaker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Shoemaker, is home on special leave because of his mother's illness. Jake has been transferred from Great Lakes to Philadelphia.

ERLAND BRIDGE, BETTER KNOWN AS "SONNY" BRIDGE, IS HOME FROM THE NAVY ON A BRIEF LEAVE OF ABSENCE.

Erland Bridge, better known as "Sonny" Bridge, is home from the navy on a brief leave of absence. This is Sonny's first visit back to Plymouth since his 30-day leave of absence last fall. At that time he was given the long leave due to the fact that the aircraft carrier, the Wasp, he was on, was sunk in the south Pacific. Sonny made his escape by leaping into the ocean.

LIEUTENANT GAUNTLETT AT MIAMI BEACH SCHOOL

Second Lieutenant David R. Gauntlett, a resident of Plymouth is now attending the Officers Training School of the Army Air Forces Technical Training Command at Miami Beach, Florida. He is undergoing a six weeks course of military instruction and physical conditioning. The course will prepare him to take over executive duties directing vital administrative and supply operations of the rapidly expanding Army Air Forces, thus relieving trained pilots for full time flying duty.

AS A CIVILIAN LIEUTENANT GAUNTLETT LIVED AT 1014 DEWEY STREET.

His wife, Mrs. Marjorie Gauntlett lives at that address at present.

HERBERT BURLEY IS HOME ON FURLOUGH
FROM TEXAS FIELD

Herbert Burley, better known as "Herb" to his many Plymouth friends, is home from Moore Field at Mission, Texas on a 10-day leave. Herb says he likes the army fine and has a job charting maps for cross country flights in the navigation section of the air corps. The only complaint Herb has about his present location, is that goat meat is frequently served on the menu. He used to enjoy it at Conservation Club barbecues, but for a steady diet it isn't good, he declares.

During the last hunting season he spent a week-end with Blake Northrup who is stationed near by and the two of them enjoyed good duck shooting on the Gulf of Mexico. For relaxation, Herb follows his old sport of bowling and has an average of 163, which isn't up to par. He blames that on the hot weather, because it is usually 90 to 95 most of the time at Moore Field. Herb, like a lot of the other boys away from home, says that without The Mail he wouldn't be able to get along. It even keeps him posted on members of his own family because he didn't even know his brother-in-law, Robert Diekmann, had been promoted until he read it in The Mail.

Midnight Fire
Destroys
Grocery Store

Bartlett & Kaiser
Suffer Loss—Quick
Work Saves Block

Only quick work of the Plymouth fire department is believed to have saved the city Saturday night from a major conflagration when fire destroyed the interior of the Bartlett and Kaiser grocery store on Penniman avenue.

Fire departments from the Detroit House of Correction and from Northville were called to assist the local department, when it became obvious to Fire Chief Fred Wagenschutz that the fire might get beyond the control of the local firemen.

However, when the outside departments arrived, the fire was out.

Fire in the grocery broke out sometime after 12:30 a.m., and before 12:45 a.m., the chief said. He declared that he had been in the alley at the rear of the store at 1:30 and had talked to William A. Kaiser, co-owner of the store at that time.

When the alarm was turned in, ten firemen responded. When the chief arrived, the grocery was full of smoke, but there was no sign of fire, but after the front and rear doors were opened, there was a sudden blast and the entire interior of the store was enveloped in flames.

The fire appeared to be centered in the floor. The firemen stretched three lines of hose before the fire was extinguished. They were delayed at one point when the cap of a fire plug blew out and reduced the pressure.

Chief Wagenschutz said that the fire might have been caused either by rats or by failure of the electric wiring. He pointed out that it is an old building which has been remodeled several times, and that each time some loss in the safety of the building might have been incurred.

The fire chief said he had inspected the store last Wednesday and had found it all right at that time.

The entire contents of the store were lost, for although some of the cans of food may be salvaged, they will be of little value, he said. The floor of the store is sagging and is declared to be a hazard. The building is owned by George Taylor of Northville. William A. Kaiser said that he and Mr. Bartlett had not determined whether to remodel and reopen the store. He said the entire stock was lost in the blaze and that because of restrictions now in force that he and his partner would not decide until sometime later whether they would continue in business. They have operated at the location of the fire for the last ten years.

47 Boys Will Leave Saturday
For Fort Custer

Some To Enter
The Navy, and Others
The Marines

There will be 47 from Plymouth and vicinity who will leave Saturday for services in Uncle Sam's army. The boys will meet at the Plymouth induction office at 2:30 and from there will march to the Pere Marquette depot where they will leave at 3:30 o'clock for Fort Custer.

It is possible that some of the inductees who have decided to enter the navy or the marines, will leave Plymouth before the larger group that will go to Fort Custer.

Plymouth citizens will see to it that the boys are given a good send-off, however the band will not lead the parade Saturday.

The list of inductees follows: Carl H. Schultz, 321 Randolph, Northville; Jay D. Tidswell, 8426 Linwood, Detroit; Gerald A. Stewart, 20020 Hubbard, Farmington; Donald D. Blake, 16808 Garfield, Detroit; James K. McGowan, 19303 Centralia, Detroit; Raymond K. Dill, 15206 Sumner (Brightmoor), Detroit; Harry E. Larkin, 533 Horton, Northville; Roy F. Robert Kisabeth Seriously Wounded
While Fighting Germans in Tunisia

Sergeant Robert Kisabeth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kisabeth of 399 Ann street and husband of the former Betty Curtis, now employed as traffic clerk of the Plymouth telephone office, was seriously wounded in action in Tunisia on March 27, according to a telegram received this week by his parents from the war department in Washington.

"Bob," as he is best known to his host of youthful friends in Plymouth, entered the army on October 20, 1941 and was rapidly promoted until he became a sergeant.

The fact that he was wounded on March 27 and no word has been received since would indicate that he is doubtless making a speedy recovery.

This news leads to the belief that there are a number of Plymouth boys in the African campaign that is proving so disastrous to Hitler.

Bob was married to Miss Curtis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Curtis on March 15, 1942 while stationed at Fort Dix, New Jersey. The wedding was a military event at the camp. It was soon after this that he left for overseas.

Plan Leadership Course For Girl Scouts

Two Energetic Workers Seeking Volunteers

A Girl Scout leadership training course will be given in Plymouth under the direction of Mrs. Arthur Jenkins and Miss Olga Trucks. First meeting will be held in Room 13 of the high school on Thursday evening, April 15 from 7:30 to 9:30.

All who are interested in the Girl Scout movement, are invited to attend the opening session. All phases of Girl Scout leadership will be discussed. Further information may be obtained from Mrs. J. R. Wither or Mrs. H. L. Poppenger.

The Girl Scouts are looking forward to the visit of Miss Lela Thomas, one of the national Girl Scout staff members, who will be in Plymouth in mid-May to help set up a Girl Scout association. Activities planned for Miss Thomas while she is here include a meeting of the entire Girl Scout adult membership. Representatives of other groups in the city which are interested in the Girl Scout movement will be invited to this meeting.

New Mayor To Be Elected
Monday Evening

Hint Carl Shear
May Be Selection Of Commission

The new city commission will organize itself into a body politic at its first meeting next Monday night.

The organization meeting will follow the last meeting of the present city commission, which will close out all old business before surrendering authority.

In Plymouth political circles it was rumored that Carl Shear, elected in the April 5 election, would become the new mayor.

From reliable sources it was learned that Henry Hondorp might not be willing to accept the title of mayor again as he has already served two or three terms.

Shear, head of the Plymouth Buick company, also is a member of the Plymouth Price and Rationing Board, and has been in charge of distribution of gasoline ration books. As mayor, he also would be chairman of the Plymouth Defense Council.

In addition to organizing itself, the new commission also will make all necessary appointments next Monday night. Included in the list of those to be appointed are city treasurer, city assessor, members of the board of review, four members of the Wayne county board of supervisors and the board of registration, of which two members of the city commission must be members. A mayor pro tem, to serve in the absence of the mayor will also be elected.

It is generally admitted that the new city commission will have the most difficult task of any commission in recent years.

While the present commission went through the period of organization for the war program, the new commission will have the job of keeping the city running despite the dearth of materials for efficient city management. Another major problem outside the war program is the contemplated city recreation program, which may be sharply questioned by some of the members of the commission.

Father and Little Daughter
Die in Flames

Plymouth Firemen
Save Life Of One Child

Leonard Davidson, 27-year-old truck driver for the Rambolin Acres dairy and his four-year-old daughter, Margie, burned to death Sunday night when their farm home at Lilley and Joy roads caught fire from an undetermined cause and was destroyed.

The little girl was barely alive when she was brought to the Plymouth hospital and died minutes later.

Davidson died in University hospital three hours after the fire was discovered.

Another daughter, Janice, six years old, crawled under the bed after the fire started and saved herself, although firemen worked over her for fifteen minutes with an inhalator before she was revived from the suffocating fumes of the smoke.

Mrs. Mary Davidson, mother of the two girls, was at work at the Kelsey-Hayes plant at the time of the fire. She collapsed when she was notified of the tragedy and was admitted as a patient at the University hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. John Cochran, parents of Mrs. Davidson, who with two other sons, John and Denver Cochran occupied the lower portion of the old farm house, also were absent at the time of the fire.

Denver Cochran, who discovered the fire, said that he was attracted to the yard by a streak of fire moving through the yard. It was Davidson.

New City Well Stands Test

But Lowers Water In Wells To North

The city really tried out its new water supply well last Tuesday, pumping a million, two hundred thousand gallons of water in eight hours.

The test began at 8:30 in the morning and ran through to 4:30 in the afternoon. The first two hours, the pump was operated at a rate of 4,000 gallons per minute. At that rate, the level of the water in the well dropped to 49 feet and held at that level for the period.

The second two hours, the pump was operated at a rate of 3,000 per minute, and the level held steady at 41 feet; the third two-hour period pumped at 2,000 gallons per minute and the level rose to 31 feet and the last two hours was pumped at a rate of one thousand gallons per minute and the water level held steady at 21 feet.

City officials are convinced that the supply is ample for any demand which might be placed on the well in the future.

It was pointed out that at a rate of 4,000 gallons a minute, the well could produce enough in 24 hours to supply a city of 30,000 people.

The city officials were unimpressed by reports from residents north of the city in the Phoenix subdivision that their wells had gone dry during the pumping period.

City Manager Clarence H. Elliott said that his reports indicated that the wells had "come back" in the subdivision by early last evening, and that the supply is still good. He pointed out that sinking wells lower in that area might still provide the necessary water and added that with its current supply that the city will be able to supply water to all of the residents of the subdivision at pressures adequate for any use.

Details of how the sugar will be allotted will be announced later.

Workers, Business Men and Children
Take Part in Great War Bond Drive—
Hope to Put Plymouth Far Over Quota
Of Quarter of a Million Dollars

There is no fanfare! There are no marching bands and street parades! There is no pomp or flag-waving! But 5230 patriotic Plymouth citizens and their hundreds of loyal neighbors who live across the border lines in the townships, are marching forward to one of the greatest victories they have ever won!

They are showing good old Uncle Sam that here in Plymouth and vicinity, a little spot on the map named in honor of one of the shrines of American history, that the people of this generation and age are just as willing to sacrifice and give, as did the Pilgrim fathers who suffered, starved and died for the same freedom that we are again fighting for today.

When the roll is called at midnight April 30, in the nation's greatest war bond drive in history, the citizens of Plymouth will be found leading the procession for the four freedoms, just as they did back in 1620.

How is the war bond campaign going in Plymouth? Ask any of the mothers who have sons in the navy—ask the workers—the business men—the school children—ask the farmers—ask the anxious fathers and mothers whose sons are on the fighting fronts in all parts of the world.

Yes, ask the MOTHERS and FATHERS of Plymouth boys who have already made the supreme sacrifice that you and I might live in peace and contentment!

Little boys and girls in the kindergartens and the lower grades of the Plymouth public schools are selling thousands of dollars worth of bonds.

In the higher grades, according to a check made Tuesday night by James Lature, who is directing the school bond campaign, a total of $27,677.50 worth of bonds had been delivered by the students.

The members of the seventh grade still lead, with a total sale up to Tuesday night of $11,698.90. The high school Juniors follow, with a total of $4,708.20. The eighth grade has sold $2,305.60. The Ninth grade has sold $3,594.40 worth of bonds and the Tenth grade, $2,815.20. The Seniors have a total of $2,597.20 to their credit.

It was the rare privilege of the 1200 school children of Plymouth Tuesday morning to hear a most inspiring address by Michigan's war bond chairman, Frank N. Isbey of Detroit, who drove to Plymouth to speak directly to the patriotic school children of this city. He told them what their brothers were fighting and dying for. He told them that we must win both the war and the peace—WIN, so that the boys and girls of today will have a good world and a peaceful world in which to live.

What about the men in Plymouth factories who are working diligently and faithfully to provide our boys at the front with everything they need to help win this victory? What are they doing? They are right out in the front line trenches, not only giving ten percent of their pay checks every payday, but in many cases twelve percent, and even more, on top of that.

Here's a good example of what these good Plymouth citizens are doing. Just before he entered the army, Robert Kisabeth was employed at the Wall Wire Products Company. Tuesday his associates in the factory learned that Bob had been gravely wounded in Africa.

It didn't take these patriotic American citizens long to decide what to do. Earl O'Day, president of the Wall Wire union, when called by phone yesterday, told The Plymouth Mail that the men in the factory had decided to buy a bond for Bob, so that when he gets well and comes home, he will have a little something extra for himself.

"We don't know just how big a bond we can buy for Bob," said Earl O'Day, "but we are going to try and make it a fairly good sized one. It will be a few days before we will know just how much money we can collect, but all the boys are anxious to do their share."

Yes, Mr. and Mrs. Plymouth, the employees of the Wall Wire plant are not only using more than ten percent of their money to buy war bonds, but they are buying extra war bonds, too—and now they are going to buy a war bond for one of their associates who has been dangerously wounded in Africa.

That's real America patriotism! And it is that spirit which fills EVERY factory in and around Plymouth.

Warden Blake Gillies of the Detroit House of Correction yesterday reported that the prisoners in his institution have caught the spirit of the great drive and there is barely an hour of the day that he is not requested to buy additional bonds for some of the prisoners out of their meager savings.

William Rose, Commander of the American Legion, declares that every member of his post, is busy selling bonds, and Carl Blach, chief of the Plymouth Ex-Service Men's club stated yesterday that he is hopeful that his organization of former soldiers will make a record of which the city will be proud.

Bert's Place, under the capable direction of Mrs. Swadling, has already exceeded its quota, and Plymouth's biggest little eating place is now out to double its quota of war bond sales.

At an enthusiastic meeting of the employees of the Daisy Manufacturing company Wednesday noon, it was decided that the entire group would buy a war bond. The amount will not be known until all pledges have been received, but according to Harold Curtis, one of Plymouth's Gallant 60,000, who attended the meeting, was high in his praise of the fine spirit shown by the Daisy workers.

Maury Arnold of the Kiwanis club and Russell Daane of the Rotary club, chairmen respectively of the bond committees of these organizations, say they expect to far exceed the quotas that were originally set up by them.

At a meeting of the energetic members of the newly organized Navy Mothers' club? One mother who had expected to find difficulty in selling a thousand dollars worth of bonds, reported that she had sold more than $9,000 worth in one day.

The great bond drive in Plymouth is under way. You can bet that Plymouth will not fail! A quarter of million dollars is our goal! That's a great amount of money, but Charles Garlett, city chairman, who will soon start preparing data, declares that he believes Plymouth will not only reach it, but far exceed it!

Followers of bowling in this vicinity await a real treat Monday evening, April 19, at the Livonia Recreation alleys when the Gears team of the Detroit Ladies' Major league are to appear in an exhibition match against the Livonia All-Stars.

Leading the Gears team will be Miss Elvira Heins, the 20-year-old girl who is carrying an average of more than 180 in her second year of league competition.

Miss Heins not only is the top woman bowler in Detroit, but many shrewd observers claim she is on her way to national acclaim within another year or two.

Details of how the sugar will be allotted will be announced later.

Father And Little Daughter Die In Flames

whose clothing was burning. Cochran caught him near the corner of the house, and after extinguishing the flames rushed him to the hospital.

Denver said he looked in the house and could see no flames at that time, but when he returned the house was a mass of flames. John Cochran, his father, had returned home meanwhile and had crawled in the front window of the farm house and carried out the two girls. Margie was rushed to the Plymouth hospital by the fire department, but she died minutes after her admission. Davidson's condition was so serious that he was moved at once to University hospital, but it was reported that he was burned so badly that there was little hope of saving his life.

The inhalator squad worked for 15 minutes on Janice before she began breathing normally again. She also was brought to the Plymouth hospital, but then removed to Ann Arbor, where her condition Monday was much improved.

Although firemen were inclined to believe the fire was caused by inflammable material located too close to the oil heating stove in the upstairs portion of the house, Denver Cochran said he did not know and probably would never know what caused the blaze.

The Davidsons occupied the upper floor of the old house and provided their own heat. The two girls had gone to bed, and Davidson was with them alone when he ran from the house, his clothes afire.

Davidson had been employed at the Rambin Acres Dairy more than a year and was a highly respected employe, according to M. Fillmore Hardy, president of the Dairy company.

The elder Cochran is a farmer and occupies the 80 acres across Joy road from the house where he lived.

Leonard Davidson was born at Coffeyville, Kansas, but had been living in Plymouth more than four years. In addition to the wife and daughter, he also is survived by his mother, Mrs. Pearl Davidson, who lives at 41767 East Ann Arbor Trail and by a brother, Raymond, who lives at the corner of Pearl street and Starkweather avenue.

The little girl was born in the Plymouth hospital.

The house was destroyed. It was owned by Messrs. Helwick, Kenyon and Wendt, all of Detroit.

The Plymouth fire department which answered the call, the second major fire in 24 hours, was handicapped for lack of water. All that was available was the 275 gallons in the booster tank carried on the truck.

A small amount of the furniture and clothing in the house was saved.

Deaths

MRS. IRENE THURMAN.

Irene Rollins was born June 30, 1861 to Benjamin and Evaline Rollins in Clay county, Missouri, where she spent her girlhood days. On April 3, 1884 she was united in marriage to Eugene S. Thurman in Clay county, Missouri. Mr. Thurman preceded Mrs. Thurman in death on October 17, 1938, and Mrs. Thurman passed away at her home, 36715 Ann Arbor Trail early Saturday evening, April 10 at the age of 81 years, nine months and 11 days following a long illness. ### County Health Department

Ask Wayne County To Establish One

About thirty people representing various county organizations were present at the special meeting called by the Wayne County Health Guild, recently in the Wayne high school. Dr. Engelke, director of the Washtenaw county health department, outlined the activities of a county health department. Washtenaw county supervisors and the health department have set up certain sanitary and health regulations for the county. The department has jurisdiction over towns and villages that do not have a full time health department as well as the rural areas. The department works hand in hand with the supervisors and local health officers in solving health problems.

Dr. Engelke, gave in detail some of the problems that the health department has had to solve. Their sanitary engineer inspects all school and other public and semi-public water supplies, they inspect restaurants, milk supplies and trailer coach parks. The department receives daily reports from the various sections of the county. If a communicable disease is reported from a certain place, then the doctors and schools in that area are notified. An article appears in the local paper telling of the outbreak of the disease and giving the symptoms. Thus, everyone is on the alert and serious epidemics can be avoided.

... "I helped cook 'em in my kitchen!"

This is more of a woman's war than any war that has ever been fought!

"From the heroic nurses of Bataan... to the women at home faced with the problem of preparing nutritious wartime meals for their families... we're all playing a vital part in helping to win this war."

"But there's another way we can show our patriotism that many of us have probably never considered... and that is by avoiding wasteful use of Gas... in cooking and especially in house heating and water heating."

"Most people think of Gas only as a household fuel... the truth is, it's also used in making nearly every kind of fighting weapon that goes to our men... planes, ships, tanks, guns, bombs!"

"Gas makes them faster... and that means lives saved! It's much more economical... and that affects all our pocketbooks. It's easier to control... and that means finer planes, better equipment for our husbands and sons!"

MEETING WARTIME NEEDS

Today the Gas industry is producing more Gas than at any time in history. Yet because of the demands of war production you are urged to use Gas wisely—don't waste it!

CALVARY BAPTIST CHURCH. Ann Arbor Trail at Elizabeth street. Lynn B. Stout, pastor. Phone 629-R. It is a critical time in the experience of anyone when he confronts for the first time these stubborn facts, that many professing Christians are not walking in love. If he be not careful the milk of human kindness in his heart will sour, and he will become cynical and morose. Or, if he be not grounded in the faith, there is danger that he may make shipwreck, and leave the church and the work of God.—Rev. Wilson Whitney, in Epochs of Christian Experience. Next Lord's Day at all services: Rev. Al Telder will be the speaker. You will find a welcome and enjoy the fellowship of Calvary church. Why don't you "drop in" next Sunday and let us get acquainted with you? I find the doing of the will of God leaves me no time for disputing about his plans.—G. MacDonald.

"Doctrine of Atonement" will be the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Christian Science churches throughout the world on Sunday, April 18. The Golden Text (Galatians 1:34) is: "Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ, who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father." Among the Bible citations in this passage (II Cor. 5:18): "And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation." Correlative passages to be read from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy, include the following (p. 23): "Wisdom and Love may require many sacrifices of self to save us from sin. One sacrifice, however great, is insufficient to pay the debt of sin. The atonement requires constant self-immolation on the sinner's part."

John Moyer Recovers From Injuries

John Moyer, who was badly injured some months ago while employed at the new plant of the Pilgrim Products company, has sufficiently recovered from his injuries to be able to be about again. His injuries were so severe that it was necessary for him to be confined to the University of Michigan hospital for a number of weeks. But he has made an excellent recovery and is now able to be about the city again.

Night grain-shocking parties by local business men and other town volunteers helped save the grain crop in Alsworth county, Wisconsin, last year, as many as 10 grain fields being cleaned up in a single night.

Makes Appeal For Loan of Your Cash to Uncle Sam

Frederic Schader Tells of Necessity Of Bond Purchases

(By Frederic L. Schader)
The Second War Loan Drive is on right now. It is a drive to raise through the sale of War Bonds the sum of $13,000,000,000. Michigan's share of this amount is $362,500,000.

That sounds like a lot of money . . . but it costs money to wage a war, and all of us must contribute toward meeting this cost by loaning our money to the Government. We are not asked to give it to the Government, only to loan it, and our principal will be repaid to us with interest.

If we should lose the war . . . and there isn't any guarantee that we can't lose it . . . our money would be worth nothing. The enemy would take over the country and everything that we have away from us. By everything we do not alone mean our worldly possessions, but our very lives and liberties.

We know you want America to win this war. And yet . . . what are you doing to bring Victory sooner? If Japanese bombing planes were swooping over your home . . . if Nazi guns were blasting at your city or town, would you hesitate to put everything that you own into the fight against the invader? Must we wait until our homes are destroyed and our children murdered, before digging down into our bank accounts and loaning our Government the money to prevent these things happening?

There is but one thing that we who are not on the fighting front should do, and that is to put every dollar above the actual cost of living into War Bonds. No matter how much you are investing now . . . do more. The most you can invest is the least you can do. It is a small thing to ask when you think of the sacrifices that our fighting men are making to keep the enemy from our shores. They give their lives, while we only lend our money.

There are but two weeks left for you to do your part in the April drive for the $13,000,000,000 to finance the war effort. Get in touch with one of "The Gallant 50,000 of Michigan" and give your subscription to the Second War Loan. The dollars you lend may save a life.

There is a tannal American, saying that "money talks." Today your money invested in War Bonds and other Government securities is heard on every fighting front. It is heard in the sound of bombs falling on Berlin . . . in the roar of heavy artillery on the North African front . . . in the savage whistle of bullets in the New Guinea jungles.

Right now we here on the home front are in the final phase of the April Second War Loan Drive to mobilize your money into the greatest chorus of defiance . . . defiance to dictators and destroyers of human freedom.

During the final week of this drive in which our Government must raise $13,000,000,000 from the public to finance the war effort, we here in Michigan must make certain that we do our very best to meet the state quota of $362,500,000.

Every cent that we have above actual living expenses should be invested in War Bonds. It is not only our duty to invest this money with Uncle Sam, but we owe it to the boys of Plymouth who have gone into the armed forces. They must have everything that is necessary for them to achieve Victory.

If you have already bought your Series "E" War Bond limit of $5,000 and have additional money that you can invest buy either Series "F" or "G" Government Bonds.

There are bonds to fit every need and every purse.

For the country's sake . . . for your own sake . . . for the sake of the men that are fighting for us . . . invest to the limit in War Bonds and do it now. Remember our men are giving their lives . . . all that you do is lend your money.

When the money that you now lend your Government comes back to you you will receive four dollars for every three you now invest.

It is estimated that American housewives during 1943 will can more than five billion jars of foods, or enough to supply every man, woman, and child in the country with about 40 jars of food.

Work absences in a Cleveland, Ohio, plant were reduced by a labor-management drive from 22,000 hours to 8,500 hours in a four-month period, in spite of increased employment.

THE OLD JUDGE SAYS...
"Sure been a great year for crops, Judge... best we've had in quite a spell."
"That's true, Henry... all over the country. As a matter of fact, there's been quite a surplus supply of grain according to some figures I saw in one of your farm papers the other day. But that surplus is being used to mighty good advantage and is making the contribution of you farmers to the war effort more important than ever.
"Here's just one example of what I mean. The beverage distilling industry alone will use 100,000,000 bushels of this surplus to make alcohol seriously needed by the government for gunpowder, synthetic rubber, chemicals and medical supplies.
"See, keep it growin' Henry... you're doing a great job."

Today it's service for the Service first - for all those, in uniform or work-clothes, who are actively contributing to Victory over the Axis. Transportation for these essential travelers is Greyhound's first responsibility under present conditions.
Carrying selectees to examination centers - soldiers and sailors on leaves or furloughs - troops on maneuvers or emergency moves - men and women to their vital work in war plants - this is Greyhound's major wartime job.
And this job is a big one - measured in numbers of passengers or areas served. For Greyhound reaches directly more war plants, military camps, shipyards, air fields, navy bases, big cities, cross-roads towns, farm centers than any other transportation system.
If occasionally you are inconvenienced or delayed, please keep on taking it with a smile. This isn't some other fellow's war - it's yours and ours and we all have to do everything we possibly can to help win it.

Will Recommend Ohio Applicant

Recreation Board Makes Selection

The new city recreation commission has recommended the appointment of Carl Worden of Lakewood, Ohio, to be the new recreation director for the city of Plymouth.

The action was taken last Thursday night after the members of the commission had talked with Worden at length concerning a possible program and what it would do.

Worden, at present, assistant recreation director for Lakewood, would be appointed to head the recreation department by the city manager, subject to approval by the city commission. However, it was learned authoritatively this week that there already has crept into the new city commission some talk against the program, and City Manager Clarence H. Elliott said that nothing would be done toward the appointment until the matter has been thoroughly threshed out before the new city fathers.

Opposition, if any, to the program it was learned was based on just whether or not the new recreation program would be of any material value in halting juvenile delinquency.

This matter also was discussed by the recreation meeting when it was organized Thursday night. At that time Worden told the recreation authorities that he could guarantee no results, and that there is more to a recreation program than mere entertainment of juveniles to keep them off the streets.

"The recreation program," said one commissioner, "is no cure all for juvenile delinquency, nor is it intended as such. The juvenile delinquency problem merely brought to the forefront the need for such a program in Plymouth."

"A recreation program is for people of all ages, for boys and girls, men and women, and families as a whole. It is a means of refreshing ourselves from the rigors of present day living."

The recreation commission was created by the present city commission which leaves office next Monday night, to be succeeded by three of the present commissioners and two who were elected April 5.

Whether the new city commission will take the same attitude toward the program as the old, is problematical. The motion authorizing the employment of a recreation director was made before the old commission by George Robinson, who was defeated in the election.

Worden, who is 42 years old, has been assistant recreation director at Lakewood since 1935. He is the father of five children and told the recreation commission that he was much impressed by the city during his visit. He said he would recommend no program until he had been here at least two weeks, and that all phases of it would develop slowly and gradually. He thought that juvenile delinquency would be curbed through the program, but that it would not cure all of the ills.

Worden was educated in the Galion, Ohio high school and took special recreation courses at Kent State Teachers' college in Ohio. He is highly recommended by Paul Rehms, superintendent of the Lakewood schools. Rehms formerly was superintendent of the Grosse Pointe schools.

Golf Season Opens This Week-End

CASEY PARTRIDGE

Casey Partridge, manager of the Hilltop and Plymouth Country club golf courses, has announced that both courses will be open for play this week-end.

At the same time, he said that several golf leagues are now being organized along with the sixth annual Plymouth league.

Mr. Partridge said that there will be a sufficient supply of golf balls to complete the season, but that the supply of golf clubs probably would not last beyond mid-summer.

Rotary Elects Baker President

New Officers Are Named By Board

Garnet W. Baker will become the next president of the Plymouth Rotary club, assuming his responsibilities upon the first meeting of the club in July. He has just been elected president of the organization to succeed A. Blake Gillies, warden of the Detroit House of Correction.

John MacLachlan, manager of the Michigan Bell Telephone company's office in Plymouth, was elected vice president and Harold Curtis becomes the new treasurer. William Wood remains as secretary of the club, having served in that capacity for years. Even though these are war times, the membership of the club remains practically unchanged. A number of members last Monday attended the district conference held at Grosse Pointe.

Annual Luncheon Of Woman's Club Today (Friday) At 1 P. M.

The annual luncheon of the Woman's Club of Plymouth will be held on Friday, April 16 at the Episcopal church at 1 o'clock. Members are asked to bring a box luncheon. Tables will be set up and coffee and tea will be served by the church ladies. Proceeding the luncheon, a special meeting will be called at 12:30 o'clock. These meetings are both very important and it is hoped there will be a large attendance.

The committee for the day is as follows: Chairman, Mrs. Rolfe Smith; assisted by Mrs. J. Merle Bennett, Mrs. Grayson Jones, Mrs. L. Partridge, Mrs. John Dalton, Mrs. Earl Wellman, Mrs. Austin Whipple, Mrs. Robert Wesley, Mrs. Wyman Bartlett and Mrs. Anna McGill, the honorary member for the day.

Voters League Elects New Officers

Mrs. Maude Bennett was elected president of the Plymouth League of Women Voters at the annual meeting of the organization held at the home of Mrs. Clarence H. Elliott last Friday.

Other officers elected were Mrs. Jess Hines, first vice president; Mrs. James Sessions, second vice president; Mrs. Frank Nair, third vice president; Mrs. Mary Foster, recording secretary; Mrs. Bernice Fountain, corresponding secretary and Mrs. Catherine Henderson, treasurer.

The organization agreed to the purchase of a war bond to be contributed eventually to a community house.

Mrs. Perry Parker, of Wayne, attended the bride and was attired in pale green with gardenia corsage.

The bridegroom was attended by Stewart Robinson, of Northville.

Mrs. Mining, the grandmother, wore a navy blue crepe dress and Mrs. John Mining wore black. Each wore a gardenia corsage.

The ceremony took place in the chapel at Fort Leonard Wood, Missouri, the chaplain officiating.

The bride was given away by Captain Raymond Duke, formerly of Dearborn.

A soldier friend of the bridegroom sang "Sweet Mystery of Life."

The bride wore a beige suit, with brown accessories and the matron of honor, Mrs. Laval Rustin, of Wayne, chose a green suit and beige accessories.

Private Laval Rustin, also stationed at Fort Leonard Wood, was the best man.

Ten guards of honor made an arch with fixed bayonets, through which the bride and bridegroom walked.

After the ceremony the couple was presented with a lovely gift from the boys in the barracks.

Finger Prints School Children

Chief Thumme Has Completed Task

Chief of Police Charles J. Thumme has completed the finger printing of 450 school children.

The finger prints, which will be sent to the FBI and the state bureau of identification at Lansing, are intended only for identification purposes.

The finger printing of the children has been made an annual task for the chief of police, who believes that many cases of mistaken identity could be solved if all persons were finger printed.

The work in the schools was done by the chief, assisted by Patrolman Louis Sherman, Judge J. Rusling Cutler, Edward McDonald of the Detroit House of Correction, and the following school students: Madeline Simpson, Betty Solberg, Beverly Elchels, Norma Jean Strutz, Florence Davis, Bernice Whyatt, Barbara Martin and Edward Sinta.

A total of 175 students in the high school were printed. Most of the others were in kindergarten and other lower grades. Almost all other children in the schools had been finger printed previously.

"Navy" Takes Intra-Squad Meet

In the first Plymouth school intra-squad track meet of the spring season held last Friday the veteran-heavy "Navy" squad easily overcame the "army" squad by placing seven firsts, five seconds, and three thirds to the army's three firsts, three seconds and five thirds. Most of the timings were slower than usual because the squad is not yet in perfect condition.

Wiseley and Robertson, both of the Navy squad, took first and second places respectively in both the low and high hurdles. R. Behler, Navy, took first, and H. Harsha, Army, took second in the hundred yard dash. Donahue and Dethloff, both of the Navy, took first and second in the mile run. Hal Young, an Army man, copped honors in the 440-yard dash by clipping it off at 51.2 seconds. Second place was taken by D. Johnson of the Navy. By doing the 220-yard dash in 27 seconds flat, Behler placed first, followed by Harsha. The half-milers were led by W. Keefer, whose time was 2:26. Mason finished second, closely followed by MacGregor in third place.

The relay team of the Navy, composed of Tom Robertson, Duane Johnson, Dale Wiseley and R. Behler, beat the relay team of the Army: Hugh Harsha, Ralph Bachelder, R. Kurtz, and Jim Nagel. The Navy's time was 1:25.

Bob Schepple, Navy, heaved the shot put 38.1 feet to take first in the shot put, beating Thams of the Army, who heaved it 35 feet. Nagel was the only competitor in the high jump.

Here's The Way To Kill Cutworms

Garden Pest Does Much Damage

Damage from cutworms to early garden crops can be prevented by distributing poison bait over the prepared ground two or three evenings before seeding or setting transplants.

Cutworms winter as half-grown caterpillars in protected places. They require wilted food and each individual spends most of the night cutting down plants for consumption the following evening. Having typical cafeteria appetites these cutworms normally cut down several times the amount of food they naturally require. Cutworms are active at night and for best results the poison bait should be spread late in the afternoon or early evening.

Sodium fluosilicate is now substituted for Paris green or white arsenic as a poison for cutworms, reports Prof. E. I. McDaniel at Michigan State College. The fluosilicate is used in the same proportion as suggested for Paris green or white arsenic. It is poisonous to high animals and the same precautions must be observed in keeping this away from livestock as suggested for the arsenicals.

A very satisfactory bait can be made as follows: Bran, 5 pounds, sodium fluosilicate 4 ounces, molasses one pint, water to moisten. One orange or lemon, peel and all, finely chopped, adds to the attractiveness of the bait. Mix the molasses and the poison with two or three pints of water and add to the bran. Stir thoroughly and add enough water to make a thick batter. Ten pounds of bait is usually recommended for a quarter of an acre of land, or one pound of the dried bait treats a garden plot of 40x50 feet for one application.

This same bait is effective for slugs and millipedes when placed in protected places such as under boards or in crevices.

Helen Reed Becomes Bride of Joseph Malik

At noon on April 2, Joseph Malik of Plymouth and Helen M. Reed of Napier road were united in marriage by Rev. C. M. Pennell at the minister's home on Napier road. Stanley Malik was his brother's attendant. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Dora Reed. A group of relatives and friends witnessed the double ring ceremony which was preceded by the reading of the Spring Song from the book of Solomon and other scripture selections. The bride wore electric blue crepe and her corsage was of pink carnations. Her hat and full length coat were light tan and accessories were in luggage tan.

Reject City's Hospital Plea

No Federal Funds Are Available

The city's application for federal funds with which to construct a municipal hospital immediately, has been turned down by the Federal Works Agency, after a survey had been made by the United States Public Health Service.

City Manager Clarence H. Elliott has received the following letter from L. A. Gillett, regional director of the federal works agency:

"In reply to your letter of March 6, 1943, requesting that Federal funds be made available to assist the city of Plymouth in erecting a new municipal hospital, we are now in receipt of the report of the U. S. Public Health Service in order to get immediate construction of the hospital. It had been the contention of the city officials that the hospital was needed because of inadequate facilities at the present time while the city is in the center of numerous plants now operating on Health Service on this proposed application.

"We quote in part from this report: "This office has reviewed the available information concerning this project and information derived from survey of this area, and considers that immediate and necessary needs for hospital facilities at Plymouth, Michigan, which is in the Willow Run area, will be met, for the most part, by the construction of the new hospital at Ypsilanti and by the proposed use of the facilities of Eloise hospital for pay patients."

"Accordingly, I regret to inform you that there is no probability of favorable action at this time on your request for assistance in the construction of the proposed facilities."

The city had requested the federal funds, along with proper war production.

Earl Gray Heads Canteen Fund

Takes Over Work For This Period

Earl Gray has become director of the Plymouth Canteen club fund for the months of April, May, June and July, it was announced this week by Arno B. Thompson, who has been fund director since last August.

In his March report, Mr. Thompson said that a total of 35 clubs in Plymouth have contributed to the Canteen club fund a total of $976.12. Four hundred and two boxes have been packed by the Salvation Army and the Red Cross Motor Corps has made delivery to all inducted and enlisted men living in the Plymouth district.

The boxes have been given to 156 army men, 40 navy men, two WAACs and one WAVE since December 4. Previous to that time, 202 boxes were delivered, but not classified by services.

Winter Kill Of Bees Is High

Honey Crop To Be Low This Year

If Michigan's bees go to war, literally, this spring and summer those persons who get stung can blame the weather of the past winter for rousing bee tempers.

Beekeepers are reporting colony losses ranging from 10 to 50 per cent of their colonies, according to R. H. Kelty, Michigan State College beekeeping specialist. Of the state's 150,000 colonies, an estimated 25,000 have been killed off since November.

Kelty recommends beekeepers find out if bees need extra feeding, close up tightly any colonies killed out during the winter. Colonies killed by disease should be destroyed by burning. Colony houses in which bees died from winter cold can be opened up when new colonies or package bees are ready.

Package bees (purchased from handlers in the south will fill many of the empty colonies this spring, since honey is scarce and prices are good. Kelty advises ordering package bees now for delivery from April 25 to May 15. Each package will require 10 to 15 pounds of sugar or reserve honey for food. Sugar should be on hand before the bee packages arrive. Honey producers needing sugar to feed bees may apply as industrial users to county rationing boards. As much as 10 pounds of sugar per colony can be obtained if needed. In an emergency, beekeepers may even use five pounds of sugar from their 1944 quota. Kelty recommends that enough honey is left in hives in 1943 to feed bees next winter.

During the 1942 prune harvest in Payette county, Idaho, all business houses closed until 4 p.m. daily so that employes could help get in the crop.

In Belgium, 14-year-olds are being taken from their parents by the Nazis and indentured to German "foster parents" as farm laborers.

Many Students Try For Navy

Nearly Half Hundred Take Examinations

Forty-three young men have taken the examination at the Plymouth high school for possible entrance to a navy or an army course leading to a commission. All high school senior boys took the examination and three previous graduates also responded to the invitation of the armed forces.

The examination was divided into four categories—vocabulary, reading, mathematics and science.

The examination papers were sent to the armed forces at Columbus, Ohio, where they will be graded. The highest scorers in the nation will be given an opportunity to work for their commissions. Buy War Bonds

Has Our Town Gone Mad?

YOU Bet it has—fighting mad!! But don't take the artist's picture too literally. It is merely his way of describing what the people of Plymouth are doing when they buy War Bonds.

A lot of war material has already been purchased with the money provided by the people of Plymouth. Sales of War bonds through this Bank alone amount to over 539 thousand dollars to date and in addition the Bank has invested over 1 million 125 thousand dollars of its depositors funds in United States Government securities. But—we all must do more!

Thirteen billion dollars must be raised in America. Michigan's quota for the lower peninsula alone is 357 million, 500 thousand dollars. Plymouth's quota is 250 thousand dollars. So, we must do more. As a Bank we must buy more U. S. Bonds. As a Bank we must sell as our patriotic duty and without any remuneration of any kind an increasing number of War Bonds. As individuals, we, every one of us, must buy all of the War Bonds we can possibly afford. We have to match as best we can, the sacrifices of those Americans who are toiling and sweating on dozens of battlefronts and don't forget—the bloodiest is yet to come. The plain facts are these—if we are going to remain free people—if we are going to win this War of Survival, the most important thing you can do today is to help the Government make up the 13 billion extra dollars this month. During the next few days you will be called upon by voluntary bond salesman who are contributing their time and efforts to this drive. BUT, don't wait. Make up your mind now to march right down to your bank, postoffice or anywhere they sell War Bonds and do your duty. In doing your duty you are doing yourself one of the biggest favors of your life!

United States War Bonds are the greatest investment in the world—bar none. They are investments tailored to fit your particular requirements. With deepest respect and reverence we remember those of our Plymouth boys who have given their lives for us and their country. We pray for the safety of all of the many Sons of Plymouth parents who are now serving in the armed forces wherever they may be. May they soon be returned to us victorious in the preservation of the four freedoms that we all value so highly. Freedom from Want. Freedom of Speech. Freedom of Worship. Freedom from Fear.

For your country's sake—for your own sake—invest ALL YOU CAN! There are seven different types of U. S. government securities—choose the ones best suited for you.

Pigeons Should Lay Eggs Soon

Mr. Hedrick said last Thursday that one of the pairs of pigeons kept in the biology room should lay an egg any day now; it is hoped that there soon will be little pigeons, called squabs.

Also among the queer assortment of experiments in the lab is a small victory garden of tomatoes planted about three weeks ago; it seems to be coming along very nicely. Perhaps the day will come when the biology department will be able to furnish the vegetables for the cafeteria.

In connection with their study of the lowest forms of animal life the students have prepared a culture of protozoa, a one-celled animal, and are observing the growth of that culture. To study and observe specimens more accurately the students have a microscope and various other equipment.

Freshman Win Basketball Tourney

James Burr's freshman basketball team defeated Irene Niedospal's junior team by a score of 11 to 10, to win the spring round-robin, girls' basketball tournament last week.

This game was especially close and well-played according to Miss Olmstead. There was a tie for second place between Leola Laughlin's and Irene Niedospal's teams. The tie was played off, Irene's team defeating Leola's to go on to give the winners a tough battle.

This ends the basketball for this season. As soon as the weather is warmer Miss Olmstead plans to begin baseball and tennis. There also will be a shuffleboard tournament this spring. To take the place of sports that have to be discontinued Miss Olmstead plans to have a five-mile hike each week. The final round of the ping-pong tournament will probably be played off this week. Lois Veer is one of the finalists. The semi-final round to decide who will oppose Lois will be played between Ellen McAninch and Eleanor Hart.

Ellis Brandt Made Editorial Director

Ellis Brandt, who graduated from Plymouth high school in 1939 and is now a senior majoring in journalism at Michigan State college, has been chosen editorial director of the State News, the college paper which has become a daily only within the last few months. Under the tri-weekly set-up Ellis worked as associate editor for two years and for the past two years he has been assistant senior editor in charge of night editors. In addition to his journalistic activities in college he also has worked for the United Press service in Lansing.

School Food Supply Rationed

The school cafeteria is operating on an industrial rationing system. Prices in the cafeteria have gone up a few cents, but they still are moderate because of the small overhead and non-profit basis.

The foods classes of the Home Economics department have also been cut on their food supply. Because of this shortage the instructors have been giving demonstrations instead of letting each girl experiment. This has worked very satisfactorily states Mrs. Soule. The importance of using fresh vegetables and unrationed foods is stressed in the classes.

To date, however, the cafeteria and classes have had an ample supply of food to run smoothly.

Contest Winners Speak at J.C.C.

James Lature, Louise Powell, Marion Goodman, Edith Nolte, Dorothy Fisher and Patty Hudson were entertained at dinner Wednesday night by the Junior Chamber of Commerce honoring them for winning in a speech and essay writing contest recently sponsored by that group in conjunction with Americanism week. Louise Powell, first place speech winner, gave her speech, "Still Fighting for Freedom." Marion, first place essay winner, gave hers, entitled, "I'm Glad I'm An American." Edith spoke on "Americanism—What Is It?" Dorothy read her essay on "Racial Prejudices." Patty, representing the speakers' bureau, gave four patriotic poems.

'Souls Unconquered'

(By Jack Huebler, 10A) The busy turmoil in the streets, the never ceasing chatter Has finally ceased until the day the conquered people rise once more. The beggar's weary cry is gone, the market's voice is still; Nothing but their dust remains, for all is ended.

The babbling laughter of tiny souls, which blended music with the day, Is absent now, and where they played lifeless figures lie; Angelic faces smeared with blood, their hands all bent with former pain, Lie cold and hard grasped to the earth, for all is ended.

Where costly homes and tiny huts once lined the winding ways, Nothing now but blackened beams to tell us of their fate. In these ruins lie more dead, there's none to ever say Who they were, or why they died, for all is ended.

The savage race of monster-men must finally be destroyed. Our wrongs must be avenged by men who've kept their honor free. Lives of pureness, clean and fresh must be again re-born, Then only may we live again; not now—for all is ended.

Then beauty shall again come forth from out the misery of those oppressed, Achievement then may rise again from the hearts of those who fell. Glory shall again come forth from those of future splendid nations And of the toil and strife they'll say, "We thank thee God, for all is ended."

Billy Bond and Stanley Stamp

One day, not so very long ago, Billy Bond and Stanley Stamp met to discuss a problem. The problem was the war. "If the people would only realize that a war is going on," began Billy. "Oh, but they don't," put in Stanley. "If they did they would not just be sitting around at home."

"Some of the ladies are waking up and turning in their old silk and nylon stockings, and that helps," added Billy. "But not enough," spoke someone. The startled boys turned around and to their surprise who was standing there but Uncle Sam.

"Oh, hello Uncle Sam," said Billy and Stanley. "Hello boys," answered Uncle Sam. "What are you going to do about your problem, or didn't you know?" "Frankly we don't," said the boys. "Well," said Uncle Sam, "why don't you have a contest?"

"That sounds like a good idea to me," said Billy. "What do you think about it Stan?" "It's okay with me, and I'll challenge you and we'll see who can sell the most stamps or bonds," replied Stanley. "And off they went. Stanley to sell stamps and Billy to sell bonds. Stanley went to all the schools he could, and sold stamps to the students. Billy sold several thousand dollar bonds and many, many smaller ones. When they met again and discovered that they both had sold the same amount of stamps and bonds, so Uncle Sam bought each of them a hundred dollar bond which made them very happy."

Here and There

Betty, Schultz of Kalamazoo, Sam Virgo, U.S.N., Sally Haas and Dick Virgo danced at the Sugar Bowl in Ann Arbor Saturday night. "Sonny" Bridge, U.S.N., LeRoy Woodard, U.S.N., and Clifford Waack, U.S.N., visited school while on leave from the navy last week.

Dolores Wilson, Fritz Van Loo, Betty Houghton, Betty Batt, Donna Cramer and Barbara Green and Dolores' cousin, Anita Norveil, of Wisconsin, danced at the Grande Friday night. Libby Neale, Dick Neale, Margaret Jean Nichol and Link Hale attended the Sportsman's Show at the Olympia Sunday night.

Joyce Whitehead, Lois Hoffman and Corrine Schiffe went to the dance at Cherry Hill Saturday night. Jackie Dalton entertained after the dance Friday night Natalie Reitzel, Dick Tarnutzer, Emmy Lou Hough, Chuck Strachan, Marilyn Vershure, Bob Chute, Catherine Moss, Bernard Birt, and Ralph Bachelder.

Dot Fisher and Kay Fisher were guests of Cadets Robert Fisher and Leonard Zyrb, USNR, at a wings party at Highland Park Junior college Saturday evening. Ruth Granger, Olive Arnold, Barb Litsenberger and Mazie Bakewell saw the Andrews Sisters at the Michigan last Monday night.

Janet Strachan, George Chute, Marjorie McKeague of Northville, Jim Sexton, USNR, Patty Hudson and Joe Measel had a party at George's Saturday night. Signe Hegge, Jack Baker, class of '42, Wilma Lounsbury, Bruce McAllister, '42, Patty Hudson and Bob Bachelder, '42, saw "Andy Hardy's Double Life" at the Michigan Theatre in Ann Arbor Sunday.

Fern Dipboye, Betty Grammel and Beth Hobeisel were guests of Dorrit Strauss Sunday. Shirley Luttermoser was the guest of Joyce Koranda of Detroit Friday. They attended a dance at the Fisher Y.M.C.A. Who is occupying the time of erry H. and Audrey M. on Saturday nights lately? The U. of M. is rather far away in the time of gas rationing, isn't it girls?

Shirley Luttermoser has been passing her Friday evenings at the dances in the Fisher Y.M.C.A. Could it be a sailor, Shirley? What's this going around school about Tom R. and Ernie E. What did really happen Saturday night, fellows? Chuck Strachan isn't a good housekeeper: Look under the sofa if you're not convinced. Buzz—Washington, D. ### Light Classic Music Featured in Concert

With the High School Glee club, the orchestra, and Mrs. Bixler's drama club, the annual spring concert, under the direction of Mr. Luchtman was held in the high school auditorium on April 15. The program was made up of light classic music by the glee club and the orchestra, and a play, "The Spoiled Brat." The glee club sang sacred music in the last part of the program.

Odds and Ends

Any senior high girl interested in giving one hour each week to war work, meet with the Junior Red Cross on Thursdays to knit or make scrapbooks.

The Senior Girl Reserves sold approximately 250 pounds of salt water taffy," stated Faith Brandt, chairman of the Ways and Means committee. Betty Hines was high saleswoman, selling 42 pounds which entitled her to a premium. Billy chose defense stamps as her gift.

According to Mr. Evans, a halogen acts the same way as a red-headed girl. He must have been thinking of Nancy Baker. Mr. Blunk has been re-decorating his classroom by trading pictures with Miss Lovewell. Mr. Blunk said, "If the size of the pictures makes any difference, I got the best of the deal."

If you see any of the chemistry students' hands and notice the yellowish fingers, don't think it's nicotine, for they've been experimenting with bromine and iodine.

Court punishments are tough. B. Bakewell, so whistling at the girl troopers isn't profitable. Have you heard about the discouraged rooster who leaning against the fence said: "Oh, what's the use,—a rooster today and a feather duster tomorrow!"

The latest thing in the scientific field: Jim Measel has discovered that fluorine is used in fluorescent lights. The Home Economics girls seem to be putting their training to good use; they clean both the sewing and cooking rooms. The girls also have made drapes and have refurnished the furniture for the teachers' room; they also have been repairing electrical devices.

Some band members are already worrying about how they are going to explain that E in band to their parents when report cards come out. Isn't recruiting fun? It looks like spring isn't the only thing that turns a young man's fancy to love. Music is now taking its toll. Has Wendell been serenading beneath your window Virginia?

I wonder what B. Grammel is using to dye her hair? The piano bench was nice, wasn't it M.J.? Norma, what did you do to Bob, Saturday night that put him to bed the next day?

We hear P.H. has her driver's license. With this 35-mile-per-hour limit we hope she doesn't drive as fast as she talks. Recently while experimenting with hydrogen fluoride, the chemistry classes etched initials, emblems, and names on small pieces of glass. Some of the etchings read as follows: C'est la queere, Rosie Ray '43; P.H.S. 1935; Irene plus D.P.; but the best of all was "Buy War Bonds and Stamps."

When Miss Allen looked over the spelling papers from her English 12 class, she said they were enough to make a saint swear. These pictures for the annual certainly reduce one's ego; there should be a law against people turning in pictures taken three or four years ago. Did you hear about the cow that ate blue grass and then mood indigo?

Have you heard about the new victim boy? A girl from the office came into Mr. Evans' physics class looking for Richard Vi-a-ro, alias Dick Virgo. Mr. Evans remarked that it must be Dick's new brush cut. Jack Anderson remarked that the only thing that he has against dictionaries is that they don't contain any indexes.

Heard reading very amorous poetry in the library the other day; Jack Anderson, Miss Allen would appreciate your efforts, Jack. The poets say love sometimes works miracles. Who's the handsome soldier Dorothy Rowland writes so many letters to? We should like to know why Reta has been keeping a diary for the last few months. Has life become more interesting?

In Great Britain, when the present six months' surplus stocks of hats are exhausted, women will be able to buy new hats only at the rate of one every three years—and men only one hat every five years.

Music Activities Hit A New High

Music activities have been hitting a new high in the last two weeks. Saturday the band played for the inductees but it has been decided among school and draft officials that the band will not play for the soldiers any longer because so many band members work in factories and stores.

Twenty boys and girls from the Girls' Double Quartet and the Boys' Twelve Plus were the guests of the Redem Lutheran church of Detroit, where Mr. Luchtman is choir director and organist, on April 8.

In the grade school gymnasium where a Defense Rally was held April 5, the Boys' Twelve Plus and the String Ensemble were on the entertainment program. Those in the String Ensemble are Ardis Curtis, Marvin Meppans, Ruth Campbell, Evelyn Elliott, Gerald Allen, John Guettler and Marilyn Vanhoy.

The String Ensemble played Friday, April 9 for the women's organization of the Episcopal church.

Upton Coaches Freshman Squad

Bill Upton, who is ineligible for spring sports because he is a half-year student, is coaching the freshman baseball squad, thereby aiding the Varsity coach, Mr. Tomshack. Bill is to have complete control over the squad of nearly 30 boys. The squad is now practicing five nights a week behind the school on the field constructed last fall. As yet a schedule has not been drawn up but Bill says the squad is rapidly being developed in preparation for an active season.

Thirty-Two Seniors Honor Students

When the averages for the senior class were compiled for the three and a half years, thirty-two students were found to have averages of ninety or over. The following are arranged in order of their standings except that there are several ties: Jean Crandell, Mildred Bruce, Margaret Jean Nichol, Signe Hegge, Ione Stuart, Harriet Mitchell, Dorrit Strauss, Willie Lee Punsick, Lois Hoffman, Betty Nagel, Louise Powell, Fern Dipboye, Carolyn Kirk, Ruth Granger, Shirley Jacobson, Faith Brandt, Irene Engelson, Lorraine Geary, Marion Goodman, Janice Downing, Robert Wolf, Betty Grammel, Rosemary Ray, John Schwartz, Virginia Moss, Leona Bakhaus, Jack Kenyon, Robert Lindberg, Richard Vergo, Kathryn James, and Dorothy Fisher.

The percentage of honor students this year is very high; over one fourth of the class is included in this group. There were twenty seven girls and five boys. These honor students are to plan the program for senior class night.

Junior Girls Form New Club

Last December a group of Junior girls decided to form a club to promote friendship among the girls. Later they decided to make this a service club. It is called the LAM Service Club. There are now 12 members. They are: President, Barbara Butt; secretary, Nancy Baker; treasurer, Norma Robinson; Mary Brandt, "Jeep" Hart, Dorothy Rowland, Reta Daggett, Dorothea Petschulat, Irene Niedospal, Bernice Whyatt, Annabelle Heller and Virginia Woolsey. They meet Tuesday noon in study hall. Their pins are black and gold.

One of their first jobs was scrubbing tables, chairs, cupboards and washing dishes and towels in the lunchroom. A LAM girl will also be available any hour to help in the lunchroom. The LAM's have taken over the Lost and Found room and cleaned it out and listed the articles. They will be on hall duty every other week, and will help Mrs. Strasen give shots and check on the health of the grade school students. They also plan to have a physical fitness program for members of the LAM's.

Band Needs 68 To Reach Goal

All out to get a newer and larger band, the members of the band have turned in the names of 32 students who definitely are going to learn to play the respective instruments they chose. From the returns of the first week, it is shown that more are needed to play flutes, trombones, basses, baritone, French horns, and clarinets. With two weeks left in the recruiting drive, the band members have 68 more recruits to find.

Recruits thus far are Wanda Hunt, trombone; Patsy Lockard, clarinet; Jacqueline Boyd, trumpet; Jay Daggett, trumpet; Donna Swarback, cornet; John Henderson, trumpet; Robert Beckel, bass; Dick Bacon, bass; Ann Carter, drum; Elsie May Keeping, drum; Roderick Daane, clarinet; Shirley Heish, clarinet; Darlene Lunning, clarinet; Charles VanLandingham, trumpet; Frank Hoken, trumpet; Tom Hopson, cornet; Don Coon, clarinet; Harry Curtner, trombone; Lois Bryan, drum; Jay Hanna, trombone; Ted Campbell, saxophone; Jim Wiltsie, cornet; Howard Town, drums; Ralph Richardson, clarinet; William Brown, baritone; Oceana Balle, saxophone; David Arigan, trombone; Virginia Osterhaut, cornet; Ruth Popovich, saxophone.

your 2 BUILDING PROBLEMS

Come in and talk them over!

Nearly every farmer today has two important building problems. The first is to get the small buildings and equipment to carry out 1943 production; the second is planning for the improvements that will be built in the future. We believe we can help you with both these problems!

While some materials are almost impossible to obtain, this isn't true of all items. Even though we may not have the exact materials you want, we can probably figure out some way in which you can get the small buildings, the repair and maintenance, or lumber-built farm equipment or feeders for poultry, hogs, cattle, or nests, troughs and other items.

Your second job is planning today for the structures you're thinking of building in the future. Careful planning now can assure better buildings suited to your needs and budget.

In planning tomorrow's buildings, you'll find the designs of our 4-Square Farm Building Service very helpful. These designs cover a wide variety of farm buildings and equipment, all developed after careful field study, every one farm-tested. When you examine the working drawings, you'll see how advanced construction knowledge gives you better buildings without increasing cost.

We'd like to suggest that before you decide that materials are not available, that you come in and talk it over.

WHO, BUT HON. CHASE S. OSBORN.

A few days ago there came to the editor's desk a volume from the pen of Honorable Chase S. Osborn, famed Governor of Michigan, in which he tells the fascinating story of the origin of the poem "Hiawatha," written by Henry Wadsworth Longfellow. A hasty glance through its many pages reveals the fact that Governor Osborn has delved deeply into the early history of the Upper Peninsula and the northwest to produce all of the facts set forth in his new volume.

And who, but the distinguished Mr. Osborn, could produce such a fascinating work the accurate history of the Ojibway Indians, of Henry Rowe Schoolcraft in whose honor Schoolcraft county was named—and who but Chase S. Osborn would produce a beautiful picture of Michigan's famed Tahquamenon falls and then on the very next page print the verses of Longfellow's poem written nearly a century ago in which he said:

"And thus sailed my Hiawatha
Down the rushing Taquamenaw,
Sailed through all its bends and windings,
Sailed through all its deeps and shallows,
With his friend, the strong man, Kwasing,
Swam the deeps, the shallows waded."

Did you ever travel up and down the beautiful Tahquamenon river in the Upper Peninsula? If you have, then you know of the rushing waters, the bends, the windings, the deeps and the shallows of the Tahquamenon, so vividly pictured by Longfellow nearly 100 years ago. Truly, our famed Chase S. Osborn has rendered a great service to our state in the presentation of such an interesting and historically correct volume.

"IMMUNITY."

There were a lot of stories during the last 1942 primary campaign pertaining to the political support of a so-called rock-ribbed law enforcer by nearly all of the elements of the "under-world." After these many, many months, it begins to look as though there was something to it, even though we thought at the time there wasn't the slightest basis for these rumors.

Now comes the information that the wife of a notorious graft collector of our great metropolis, was issued a state liquor license right during the heat of the last primary, August 5, to be specific. The attorney for the notorious graft collector says he and his "client" visited this "rock-ribbed law enforcer" candidate and he says the official thought it perfectly O.K. for the license to be issued to the family of this notorious graft collector.

The official in question when asked about the statement of the attorney for the graft collector, said he only defined "the meaning of the word IMMUNITY."

And what is the definition of the word IMMUNITY? The dictionary says it means that one is FREE from obligation, that he is EXEMPT from all evils, that he has been granted a SPECIAL PRIVILEGE!

In other words, the graft collector and his attorney were told that as far as the LAW was concerned, the graft collector was a free citizen, whose sins and crimes had all been washed away and that he was entitled to SPECIAL PRIVILEGE!

And that is going right down in the gutter to get votes, no matter who the candidate may be. At the time these stories were floating around during the campaign, we didn't believe them—but such EVIDENCE as has recently been revealed has entirely changed our mind.

Wild Lifers Re-elect Champe

Club Holds Annual Election, Fish Dinner

Dr. Brick E. Champe was Monday night re-elected president of the Western Wayne County Conservation club for another year. With the exception of one year, Dr. Champe has been president of the club ever since it was organized.

George Hess was re-elected vice president, Ernest Henry was re-named secretary and Jack Taylor of the First National bank its treasurer.

No changes were made on the executive board, the following being re-elected: William T. Pettingill, John Crandell, Floyd Reddeman, William Gayde, Hugh Horton, Russell Powell, William Morgan, Charles Messmore, Harold Bloom and Jack Weed.

Like all of its past events, the annual fish dinner that preceded the election, was more than a "marked" success.

There was plenty of fish for everybody—the members enjoying both smelt and lake pickerel.

When such famed cooks as John Crandell, Maurice Woodworth, Ezra Rounour, Harry Rackham of Northville, J. Rusling Cutler, William Gayde and Ernest Henry, take the griddle in hand, one knows that the fish are going to be fried to the satisfaction of a Queen's taste.

Table service was briefly delayed by an "argument" between barristers serving in the kitchen as to just how crisp the fish should be fried—and when lawyers argue, folks might just as well wait, and that's all there is to it. But—wasn't it good when they finished their job! No question but what the arguments helped.

During the 1942 African campaign, a British signal cypher "Rommel's panzers retire" was decoded as "Rommel's pants are on fire."

Will Raise 250 Tons Of Pumpkins

Bob Willoughby To Help Pie Eaters

If Robert Willoughby can save the day, pie eaters in this part of the state are not going to go without pumpkin pies next fall and winter.

"Bob" is plowing up acres and acres of ground out on his Salem township farm, making the soil ready for the biggest crop of pumpkins ever grown in Michigan.

"I have already contracted to raise 250 tons that will go direct to the bakers in Detroit. If my plans go through, there will be, maybe, a hundred or two more tons that will provide delight for the lovers of pumpkin pies next fall," stated Bob yesterday. "I'm trying to get more land on which to plant pumpkins."

In addition to all of these nice, big yellow pumpkins that he is going to plant to help relieve the pie shortage, there's going to be a great big field of corn for the cows and chickens—and maybe he'll raise one or two onions for "ye editor."

Babson Says--

Retailer Outlook More Encouraging

New York City, April 16.—At one time in his life, my father was a small-town merchant. Hence, I have always been interested in and sympathetic toward the problems of retailers. All of us come into closer contact with the business of retailing than we do with any other type of enterprise or industry. From the cradle to the grave, we are all customers of retail stores.

The retail business should not be thought of as being confined solely to department stores, drug stores, specialty shops, grocery chains and a few other familiar stores. The watchmaker who occupies only desk space as much of a retailer as is the head of a large department store. This is likewise true of the boy behind the soda fountain, true of the photographer, the shoe repairer, the optician or any one of many thousands of extremely small businessmen. All are earning their living through performing services for consumers and by providing various kinds of goods for the buying public.

For the most part, the days of the old-fashioned merchant are over. His place has been taken by the chains which have long struggled to build up and maintain their present efficient system of distribution. These chain stores—and the large department stores—are performing a real service and are here to stay. With the aid of Chambers of Commerce, Boards of Trade, Advertising Associations and Retail Groups, the art of retailing has been placed upon a high professional and ethical basis. Except for necessary Federal regulations and health and safety laws, retailers should put up with only a minimum of state supervision.

In my boyhood days the small local merchant occupied an important place in the retail trade. He still can hold his position but the nature of his business is changing considerably. His opportunity now rests with lines which require personal attention and expert knowledge. Even the chains are finding this out which explains why there are ten per cent less chain stores today than ten years ago. Some of the big chains have closed twenty per cent of their stores. For every old door of opportunity closed, two new doors are opened to young people of character, energy and vision.

Of course, we are living in an age of red tape. But I sincerely hope that our Federal-imposed regulations will not be followed by a wave of state bills and laws restricting the many auxiliary services associated with retailing. These small businesses comprise the foundation of our retail industry and should remain as free from interference as possible. Certainly, nothing should be done that would raise the cost of doing business. State bureaucracies, supported by fees from retailers for examinations and licenses, would be difficult to get rid of. Rationing and price ceilings may be necessary for many goods sold through retail channels, but such Federal controls are very different from what might be handed down by our separate states.

The customary spring shopping season got off with a good start. It is being aided by a late Easter and I look for generally good retail trade this month. It may be below a year ago in terms of volume, but last year was abnormally high. For the most part, retail inventories are adequate today. Lack of transportation though is a serious handicap in making available in every part of the country sufficient merchandise to meet rising consumer demands. This, however, should cause people to buy at home and again get acquainted with their local merchants instead of depending upon mail-order catalogues and a Saturday trip to big Government war expenditures in February of this year were more than four and a half times the United States Public Debt on March 31, 1917.

Almost 3,000 miles of access roads to mines, quarries, and forests will be built in 1943 to serve war production purposes, with the largest unit cost for New York state, one mile at $39,300.
