

Northville To Start Races On September 30

Northville Downs, which carried night harness racing with pari-mutuels to its all-time Michigan high during an 18-day meeting here in late July, will reopen next Monday evening (September 30) for a 30-night meeting through November 2.

With more than 250 of the country's best Standard Bred racers scheduled for arrival at the compact, flood-lighted, half-mile prior to Monday's opening card, prospects are bright for an immediate resumption of the record-breaking pace achieved in the summer session.

During that three-week meeting, four world's speed records were broken, and all Michigan mutuel marks for harness racing were topped. The new racing records were times of 1:07-3/4 for nine-sixteenths of a mile, and 2:13 for 1-1/16 miles, trotting, both by Glenyce, Louis Huber's brilliant eight-year-old mare from Cincinnati; 1:07-1/4 for pacing nine-sixteenths by Miss Ruby, and 3:18-1/2 for pacing 1-9/16 miles by Charmington.

All of the record-breakers, plus many other leading racers now competing in New York and Illinois are scheduled for shipment to Northville early in the impending fall meeting.

The mutuel handle that broke Michigan's records in July turned up an average of more than $120,000 a night, making Northville the fourth highest night harness plant in America. The single night total of $187,132 on the closing night of the summer meeting when 12,181 spectators thronged the plant, was the biggest in Michigan harness history.

Racing during the fall will follow the regular Northville schedule of nine events on each card, with the first post-time at 8:30. The daily double will again be on the first and second races.

AWOL Soldier Believed To Be Woman Molester

Plymouth police believe they have solved the recent wave of immoral advances to women and girls on the streets here. Chief Sackett said Tuesday that an AWOL soldier they picked up and turned over to military police from Selfridge Field was one of the guilty parties if not the only one.

His description tallied with those given by women who had been approached and Chief Sackett said his attitude confirmed their suspicions about him being the guilty one.

The youth's name is not being revealed because of the nature of the case and the other family members who would be greatly and unjustly embarrassed by such a revelation.

Chief Sackett attempted to locate a local victim of the youth's for positive identification but she was out of town. In spite of that Chief Sackett is certain the wave of offenses and attempt attacks will not recur as the result of this youth being picked up and returned to the Army.

Wild Lifers Plan Big Day Sunday

Sunday, September 29, is the date for the fifth annual fall round-up barbecue of the Western Wayne County conservation Association and its going to be something to remember.

President Brick Champe says that members can invite their hunting and fishing friends to attend and that there will be plenty for all to feast upon.

Where are "they" going to get the meat, did you ask? Leave that to the Wild Lifers! There's going to be four roasting places, and the spits have already been set and are ready for the big roasting event to start.

There's going to be a big porker barbecued, a lamb, a goat and maybe some other delicious meat. William Morgan and three assistants, Brick Champe with three Russell Powell and a crew of Francis Beals with three more experts in the roasting business, will start at sunrise Sunday morning barbecuing the pig, lamb and goat and what-have-you.

Those who are going to do the roasting will be on their jobs at sunrise Sunday morning. They are exceedingly anxious to have everything roasted and ready to serve shortly after 12 o'clock. From then until dark, there will be plenty of eats and plenty of good times.

President Champe hopes to have some events that will be both timely and interesting. A crowd of some 500 or more is expected. The event will take place at the new club house on Joy road, just west of Wayne road.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Forrester were guests of the Carsters Sunday afternoon and evening.

Tells of Vastness of Eloise Institution

Dr. Charles Smyth

Eloise Is Vast City, Hi-12 Told

Members of the Hi-12 club had Dr. Charles Smyth of Eloise hospital as their guest speaker at the meeting last week. Dr. Smyth a resident of Plymouth gave his audience some interesting figures showing the immensity of the institution and its work.

The institution is a city in itself of some 10,000 patients and employees, the speaker said. Dr. Smyth is the medical director of Seymour Hospital division of Eloise and the health of all of the patients is the responsibility of his department.

In giving Hi-12 members some idea as to the size of the institution Dr. Smyth stated that normally 1,200 lbs. of meat would be served at each meal. When corn on the cob is served it takes 1,000 dozen ears per meal. The institution uses 1,400 loaves of bread and 70 bushels of potatoes daily. During the winter 125 tons of coal are burned daily. The cannery factory at the hospital has already canned one million bushels of tomatoes this fall.

Dr. Smyth told some of the history of the institution and pointed out the fact that Seymour Hospital was the first in Michigan to have x-ray equipment. He also stated that the equipment in the hospital at Eloise was the finest in Michigan and that patients there receive the finest care that it is possible to give.

The speaker closed his very interesting talk by stating the fact that Eloise had a total bed capacity of 9,253 and had an average daily census of 8,900.

Starkweather To Offer Visual Piano Classes

Visual Method class piano will again be offered in Starkweather School this year. Classes are being organized now and will be taught by Mrs. Esther Verneholm of Dearborn.

At a recital last spring in Detroit given by representative pupils from the Visual Method Piano Classes of schools in the Detroit vicinity, Starkweather was represented by Helena Plummer and Barbara Packard. It is interesting to know that Helena studied three years in the Visual Method Piano Classes without a piano in her home. This method encourages children without pianos at home, to enroll in the classes.

The lessons are held twice each week for half-hour periods at a cost fifty cents per week.

Galín Honored

Members of the Michigan Frozen Food Locker Association elected David Galín of the Purity Market to the board of directors of their organization last Tuesday. The annual convention was attended from this city by Mr. Galín, Clarence Lidgard and Cameron Lodge.

Mr. Galín has been an active member of the association since 1940. The three Plymouthites are planning on attending the national convention which will be held in Cleveland sometime early in October.

Plymouth Girls Arm Themselves With Hatpins to Fight Off Molesters

Here's a fair warning to the sex perverts, the ogglers and the molesters of young girls they try to force their attentions upon when they walk down the streets of Plymouth.

Police have received numerous reports in recent weeks of one or more young men who have tried to force their attentions upon young women.

Better not do it any more-wise guy! Scores of Plymouth girls have armed themselves with old fashioned hatpins, carried in convenient places for quick use. And a hatpin jab can produce a wound that is about as painful as a crack over the head with a baseball bat. It's much more dangerous, too. This is a fair warning so the molesters had better look out from now on. The girls are not toting 45s in their hip pockets, but they are carrying just as deadly weapons—old-fashioned hatpins.

Presbyterians Meet Monday Eve At Northville

The First Presbyterian church of Northville will be host next Monday evening Sept. 30, at 6:00 to workers in this area who will help raise $27,000,000 for the Presbyterian share of the Restoration Fund. Purpose of the three-year fund is to help in rebuilding religious facilities throughout the world.

The dinner meeting in Northville will be attended by workers from the Plymouth, Rosedale Gardens and Garden City Presbyterian churches. It will be addressed by F. R. Van Dis who is in charge of the entire campaign in the Detroit area, and by Jack Van Coevering of Rosedale Gardens, who is the district chairman. Following the meeting, Northville canvassers will begin calling on members of that congregation.

The $27,000,000 which Presbyterians in the United States have set as their quota is only a part of the $112,000,000 fund which Protestants have set up as their goal. The money will be distributed through the World Council of Churches, which has offices in Geneva, to avoid overlapping and duplication. Other denominations will raise their share in proportion to their membership.

To meet its quota in this area, Plymouth Presbyterians will need to raise $5,728 in three years. Northville will raise $7,182, Rosedale Gardens, $4,800 and Garden City, $3,675.

"These quotas are only a measuring stick," said Chairman Van Coevering, in citing the goals for this area. "Actually, this is the first time that the churches have been asked to do something about the destruction of religious institutions abroad. If gifts come from the heart, Christian people will do much more here than merely quotas."

Pleas Guilty To Powell Robbery

William Collins, 19, of Detroit, pleaded guilty Tuesday before Judge Rusing Cutler upon arraignment in Municipal Court on charges of breaking and entering in the night time. He was bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court for trial and returned to jail in lieu of $10,000 bond.

Collins and a pal, who is still at large, broke into the Powell and Son wholesale beer warehouse on US-12 the night of Sept. 4. They damaged the safe and carried away two radios, a quantity of tools and other small items.

State police captured Collins in a stolen car near Rockwood. His pal escaped. Collins readily confessed the Powell & Son job and turned over some of the articles he and his pal took from there. They were identified last week by Russell Powell in Detroit.

Attend Golden Wedding Celebration

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fehlig and Mr. and Mrs. William G. Fehlig and son David were recently visitors to Fowlerville where they were guests at the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. Lester E. Raymer, who are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Fehlig's aunt and uncle.

Mrs. Raymer will be remembered by many of the older residents of Plymouth as the former Miss Clarissa Truessedell. Other friends and relatives from Plymouth who attended the golden wedding celebrating were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Davis and daughter Barbara, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Root and son Claude and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Truessedell.

Daisy Co. Announces Profit Sharing Plan

Plymouth's Old Standby Takes National Lead in Labor Relations Development

Probably one of the most progressive and far-reaching announcements made by any industry in these United States was that of the Daisy Manufacturing Company, made last Saturday when it made public an employee profit-sharing and retirement plan.

Not only did the company make its announcement of a profit-sharing and retirement plan, but it happily surprised the nearly 400 employees gathered in the Penn Theatre by announcing an immediate distribution of profits based on the company's operations from January 1 to June 30, 1946. Checks were passed out as the crowd left the theatre after Cass S. Hough had made known the plan of the company to share its profits with its workers.

It was President Charles Bennett of the company who announced that an important statement of policy was to be made and he called upon Cass S. Hough, to explain the plans in detail.

Mr. Hough briefly reviewed the 60 years of Daisy history, so familiar to old time residents of the city. He told of the ups and downs and of steps taken by the company to lick depressions of the past, especially the one that followed the first world war. "Unlike many businesses which crawled into their shells to wait out the depression, we took the bull by the horns, created new models and kept our business up to standard. We just refused to be licked and we weren't. I give you that only to show you that this business has spirit and get-up-and-go to it. And that is only the beginning," he said.

"Because of mutual confidence, your employee executive committee and the management have been able to keep operating in the face of the longest odds ever quoted on successful production. I couldn't do business on any basis but with 'cards on the table.' I'm the worst poker player in the world (as several of my 8th Air Force gang will attest). I don't know how to 'bargain' in the strict sense of the word, and I'm too old to learn how. But I have yet to see any problem, large or small, local or international, that hasn't been harmoniously solved when people shoot square with one another—with no one holding any aces or jokers up their sleeves. With your continued help and support, your problems will continue to be solved on that basis."

Mr. Hough briefly reviewed proposed revisions of the plan of the company and its employees pertaining to weekly indemnity, hospital benefits, medical services, dependents, old age benefits and even visits of the stock.

"As is customary," said Mr. Hough, "this company's earnings are going to be divided on a basis of share and share alike, regardless of job, pay or length of service. It is my considered opinion that in the sharing of profits, the only equitable basis is a share and share alike one."

He pointed out that all should "bear in mind that this new plan" (Continued on page 3)

Adult Education Classes Will Be Planned Monday

Plymouthites interested in night school classes for an adult education program this year at Plymouth High school are requested to assemble at 7:30 p.m. next Monday night, Sept. 30, at the Central school gymnasium.

At that time the adults planning on participating in such a program will be given an opportunity to make their wants known as far as what curriculum they desire the program to offer.

The program will be arranged entirely on the basis of what the "students" want to study, and how many nights a week they want to devote to the school.

The response to this call for organizing the night school adult education setup for this year will determine just how long the program will continue and on what basis. Classes will not be formed unless a sufficient number of persons desire instruction on that specific subject.

Be there, make your wants known and be satisfied or don't complain after the school gets underway. Monday night is your chance, make the most of it.

Plymouth People Going Meatless for First Time in History

William Gayde, who started working just 60 years ago this year in the Stregm meat market on Liberty street in a building where now stands Grant Simpson's barber shop, yesterday declared that not until last week was Plymouth ever without a fresh meat supply.

"The OPA has got us in the worst mess that we have ever been in before. Right during the depression, people could buy cheaper cuts of meat, but they can't even do that now," Mr. Gayde said. "Never before have Plymouth residents gone without fresh meat."

It was over a half century ago when Mr. Gayde started his own meat market, which he sold a few years ago because of troubles in doing business under the New Deal. Since that time he has been assisting in other local markets—when they have had any meat to sell.

"It's certainly a fine mess" he added. "Local meat dealers have had practically no fresh meat for more than a week—and counters will be bare this week, except for a small supply of poultry."

Beglingers Beat Alpena Club

Plymouth's softball champs—Beglinger's Oldtimers—City Service nine—traveled to Alpena last weekend for a pair of games with that city's championship softball club and won both of them.

In the Saturday night contest with the Besser Manufacturing squad—Alpena's best softball outfit—Gaby Street held them to a pair of singles for a 1 to 0 triumph. Gaby's mates hammered out five safeties but could produce only the lone tally off them.

Sunday's daylight game proved a little more liberal for both sides but Plymouth's best triumphed, 5-1. Street was nicked on eight hits but kept them scattered so they were not productive. Plymouth sluggers were whirling the willow with ease and bunched nine hits to score their five runs.

The Beglinger squad enjoyed the weekend and said Alpena proved themselves fine hosts despite the twin setback. The team made the trip in private cars.

Band Concert Is Big Success

More than 500 persons attended the recent joint ice cream social and concert by the Plymouth Civic Band at the Sarawetech school. It was sponsored by the Starkweather Parent-Teacher Association.

Joe Ribar led his musical aggregation in a series of well chosen and expertly interpreted selections. It was the finest concert the band has yet presented. Everybody agreed the event was a grand one.

One was reminded of the Gay Nineties as band concerts in those days always were connected up in some manner with strawberries, maple syrup or ice cream socials. Anyway everyone had a fine time, lots of ice cream and cake and heard some grand music.

It is occasions like those that make living in Plymouth a luxurious thing to be a part of. Let's have more of them next summer.

Dance Proceeds For Veterans

Members of the Plymouth Women's club are sponsoring a series of dances this winter to raise funds for the Veteran's Memorial Foundation. Tickets are available for local couples who desire them from the Simmons Jewelry store and the first party is scheduled for October 10th.

Arrangements for the series of eight dances were made by a committee composed of Mrs. John Henderson, Mrs. James Keyes, Mrs. Charles Wolf, Mrs. Walter Sumner, Mrs. O. M. Valiquette and Mrs. Cass Hough. All of the proceeds of the dances will go to the Foundation and the Masonic Temple Association as well as the orchestra, who will provide the music, will donate their entire proceeds to the fund.

Quick Success Sought in City Aid Fund Drive

Local residents will soon be receiving through the mails an appeal for aid from the Plymouth Community Fund. Students of the high school, who are recipients of aid from the local fund through their recreation center, are undertaking the tremendous task of addressing envelopes and membership cards for all the residents of this area.

It is hoped by the Community Fund board that the quota of $7,000.00 will be quickly attained and that local people will respond at once to the appeal.

Expenditures out of the fund last year were $800.00 for local Girl Scout work and $700.00 for Plymouth Boy Scouts. The fund also paid the services of the Recreation Center director which amounted to $1,750.00 last year.

The same expenses will be underwritten by the Fund this year in addition to the additional services of furnishing the community with a visiting nurse. About $400.00 has been included in the budget this year for the services of the nurse.

The official date of the opening of the drive is October 1st, and local residents are asked to watch the mails for their letters and to help make the drive most successful by contributing generously and doing so without delay.

Recreation Plans For Plymouthites Await Approval

Through the co-operation of the Plymouth Recreation Commission and Plymouth Schools a very ambitious recreation program for both the parents and students is being planned for this fall and winter.

How successful the program is will depend on the response received from the parents and students. If they demonstrate they want such a program all efforts will be thrown into making the project a success. If the response is feeble then the whole idea will be dropped.

Briefly the tentative program includes a night for parents only at both Central and Starkweather schools for both physical activity and adult education, handicraft or hobbies in addition to square dance instruction. For the dance instruction there would be a charge of thirty cents per person.

The evenings would be scheduled twice a month and would open at 8:30 and continue till 11:30. The plans also call for two evenings a month for early American dance instruction for junior and senior students. The charge would be twenty cents per student.

Scott Colburn, of Ann Arbor, former Ford dance master and instructor, will be in charge of that part of the program if the proposed program takes effect.

For students in the seventh and eighth grade age group there would be clubs for boys and girls with full intra-mural sports schedules which the public schools do not have at present.

Students in the sixth and lower grades also would have opportunity to join special recreation clubs for participation in handicraft, skating parties, hikes, trips, and parties all under qualified leadership.

Junior and Senior high school students, in addition to taking square dancing instruction, also would be privileged to take part in archery and rifle meets on indoor ranges.

Of course there may be additional and better things than what the plans already call for, that's why suggestions are solicited from any interested party.

The main idea is to provide whatever recreational activity the student and parent groups desire, if they desire it. If they don't the recreation commission wants to know that too. So just call 93 and ask for Mr. Knowles and tell him your pleasure. Remember, recreation is just as important in winter as in summer. If you want such a program as outlined here then say so and tell it to the right people. The city recreation unit was designed to serve and the planned program is most extensive. Your co-operation in letting the responsible persons know how you feel and what you'd like to do is necessary if the program is to serve the most, the best, with the least effort.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul J. Wiedman are holding open house in honor of their silver wedding anniversary Sunday, Sept. 29.

Free People To Ever Govern Themselves.

The Constitution of the United States, signed on September 17, 1787, universally regarded as the finest expression ever made of the determination of a free people to govern themselves to protect their liberties, will have its 159th birthday this year.

The delegates had met in Independence Hall, Philadelphia, in the preceding May and had deliberated in secret for four months before agreeing on the final draft of the document. The convention met formally for the first time on Friday, May 25, although only a few more than half the delegates had arrived at that time due to slow travel caused by poor roads.

From seven to nine states were represented at the first meeting. Benjamin Franklin was logical choice for the presidency, but he waived the honor and suggested the choice of George Washington. So the late commander of the struggle for liberty, the man who was destined to become the first President under the Constitution, took his place on the platform on May 28 and the convention entered upon the business of writing the Constitution. This was the start of the drama of writing the Constitution which began 159 years ago.

Pretty Baskets
Ugly waste baskets can be prettied up with slip covers. A simple cover can be made from oilcloth or brightly colored fabric, drawn taut around the basket and fastened with laces running through eyelets worked into the two ends of the material. Oilcloth is good for kitchen, bathroom or a child's room. In a bedroom, use frilly organdy, dotted swiss, glazed chintz.

Wearing Uniform
The veteran may wear his complete uniform from the place of discharge to his home. But he can't take more than three months in travel—and still wear the uniform. Afterward it may be worn on "ceremonial occasions"—parades, etc. The uniform worn is that of the highest rank held.

Unsafe Handling
One-quarter of all industrial injuries may be attributed to unsafe handling of objects, the National Safety Council reports. One-half of these are strains and sprains, one-fourth are cuts and lacerations, and the remainder are fractures, bruises or contusions.

Lapel Button
Honorable service after September 8, 1939, entitles veterans to wear a lapel button. Those who did not get it on discharge can obtain one by presenting their discharge at the Veterans Bureau office in the Penobscot building.

Topping Pie
When you top a pie with meringue be sure to cool the pie first to prevent its becoming watery. To prevent shrinking spread meringue to edges of pastry so it has something to cling to during baking.

Less Cars
Nearly 4,000,000 motor vehicles went out of use in 1942 and 1943 and have not been replaced, according to registration statistics compiled by the Public Roads administration of the Federal Works agency.

Can you afford to be without the things that these fires destroy?? ... can you afford to help pay the additional taxes that these fires will cause?? ... Food supplies so badly needed by the starving all over the world as well as in your own community are being burned up at an alarming rate. In a two months' fire loss survey, 53 reported in food and allied plants with a loss of $7,000,000.00 ... in one flour mill fire alone sufficient flour to provide a daily ration for 6,000,000 people was destroyed ... possibly some of the flour for the bread you did not get was in that mill. Every minute of the day and night somebody's home or place of business is destroyed by fire ... somewhere in this land of ours a dwelling fire occurs every minute and a half on the average ... once every fifty minutes someone is burned to death ... WHAT ARE YOU DOING TO STOP IT???

Daisy Co.

is for all employees, whether salaried or on the hourly basis, whether productive or clerical, every employee of the company shares alike in this profit-sharing distribution.

"The Daisy Company, in the past, has for years paid its employees a bonus at Christmas time," said Mr. Hough. "I want to take just a minute to explain my business philosophy, which is the philosophy of the entire company," he said.

"By and large, in the past, a bonus represented, in total amount, the portion of earnings that management felt it wanted to part with at the time. It was neither guaranteed at the beginning of a year's operations nor was the amount the result of any pre-arranged plan" he asserted.

"For my money, that sort of plan amounts to a 'hand-out'—patronage if you like. And there is no person in the United States who hates a hand-out any more than I do. I want to feel that anything I am paid, I've earned, and earned because of some plan worked out in advance that I knew about and on a basis whereby I could calculate from month to month just about what I have earned under the plan. I know as surely as I am standing here that the big majority of people feel the same way. They want to be paid fairly and squarely. They want all that is coming to them, but not a penny more," he declared.

He pointed out that every employee would know—from month to month—the amount accrued to date for employee dividends. He charged each employee, too, with a very real and personal responsibility for the success of the plan. He made clear the fact that, in a partnership—and that is exactly what this plan amounts to—the earnings are directly proportionate to the overall effort applied by the partners. In this regard, each employee will also know from month to month exactly how much lost time, scrapped material and absenteeism has cost him as a partner during that period.

Looking into the future, Mr. Hough declared that he could see where the successful operation of the plan would be of vast benefit to every one involved, that the overall plan provides approximately a 50-50 share with its employees, of the company's operating earnings.

"So you see, there's every reason in the world why all of us should pitch in and make this plan work," he said.

"We do not consider this profit-sharing plan or any profit-sharing plan, a substitute for fair wages and salaries. But you must remember that profits cannot be anticipated. They are the result of a successful operation at the completion of the operation, and not the result of a bunch of paper work showing what may be done in a certain period. 1946 will go down in history as the most unusual year, business-wise, at least, in the history of the country. Anyone can sell anything for almost any price. Many firms are already well along on digging their own graves as a result of taking advantage of this situation. In pricing our merchandise for 1946, as in all past years, we have priced our product fairly for all concerned," he added.

In conclusion he said, "We've set up a working partnership which should reward all of us handsomely, providing we all try to MAKE it do just that. If we simply coast along, doing as little as possible, nobody will benefit. Under this kind of a working partnership, none of us are working for some vague figurehead called the boss. We're actually working for ourselves. If we do a good job, the rewards will be plentiful. If we don't, we're literally reducing our own earnings. I doubt if any of us are short-sighted enough to do that."

CAN HE SWIM . . . Can a pig swim? Some authorities say they are excellent swimmers, some say no. It is maintained by some that the natural fat keeps them afloat, others insist they would sink from their own weight. Pictured here and hearty is Pig 311, who was said to have been found swimming after the Jap cruiser Sakawa went down following first Bikini atom bomb test.

Body Wastes

Do you realize that your skin is a wonderful organ of elimination—that its myriads of glands throw off more than a quart of fluids daily? Every tiny skin gland is actively engaged in picking out of the bloodstream an abundance of waste or poisonous matter, which the body must eliminate. In this quart of waste fluids, commonly called perspiration, the body is constantly being purged of dissolved salts, acid and organic waste substances.

Keep Dry

To reduce the danger of having the ribs rust, always keep an umbrella open until it is thoroughly dry. A speck of oil can be dabbed on the joints occasionally to keep them from rusting. If plastic or metal tips come off the ribs, don't feel that the umbrella is useless. Often these tips can be put back with rubber cement or fish glue. Small ribs in the covering can be repaired from the inside with the new iron-on mending tapes.

Parasites' Toll

Parasites demand their toll from farm animals, and they take it by force, according to the college of agriculture, University of Illinois. If the animal can eat enough to support itself and its lice, bots, warbles, grubs and worms, it may still drag out a miserable, feed-wasting existence. Records show that when five ears of corn are tossed to wormy pigs, one ear goes to the worms and four to the pigs.

White vs. Yellow Corn

As long as pigs are on pasture, there is very little difference in the feeding value of white or yellow corn for fattening. When fed in the dry lot, pigs gain faster on yellow corn. This is because yellow corn contains vitamins which white corn lacks. When pigs are on pasture, the green crop supplies the necessary vitamins; therefore, either white or yellow corn may be used.

Fifth Lexington

The present USS Lexington is the fifth ship of the U. S. navy to bear the name of the first Revolutionary war battle; the first was a brig, the second a sloop-of-war, the third a sidewheel ironclad steamer, the fourth the aircraft carrier which was lost in the Battle of the Coral Sea.

Involved in Accidents

The young and the old are involved in the greatest number of traffic accidents. Drivers under 20 years of age have the highest accident rate in proportion to the number of miles. From 20 to 50 years the rate decreases, but the rate rises rapidly after 50 years.

Buying Cottons

When buying cottons, be sure they are preshrunk fabrics. This will save later alterations, permit better tailoring because it is unnecessary to make large seams, and save money because no extra fabric must be bought to allow for shrinkage.

Rose Beads

To make rose beads grind petals through a food grinder. Moisten the pulp with a little water; roll into little balls. String while still slightly moist. They retain their fragrance after they are dry.

Vitamin in Rose Garden

Tests show that rose hips when ripe and fresh are so rich in vitamin C that 6 to 8 of these small fruits may be enough to supply an adult's daily needs for this vitamin.

Deepens Color

Heat tends to deepen the color of radiator paint, so if your radiators are to match a color scheme, use paint a shade lighter than you want for the final finish.

Remain Moist

When going away for a few days, soak a large sponge in water and place it at the base of your house plants. They will remain moist for days.

Syrup for Punch

To make syrup for punch boil two cups of sugar and three cups of water for five minutes. Cool, chill and sweeten as desired.

Birds More Numerous

In the Pacific islands birds are much more numerous than mammals.

Tennis Tourney To End Sunday

Plymouth's initial community tennis tournament which will become an annual event is half over. The singles division championship was decided last week with Mike Huber edging out John Angel, 6-3, 7-5, 5-7, 2-6, and 7-3. The doubles portion of the tournament is now in its final round. John Angel and Laurence Fest eliminated Mike Huber and Ray Warner to win the right to meet Austin Whipple and Henry Baker for the doubles titles. It is expected the final match will be played Sunday.

Few Constitutional Delegates Attended

Rhode Island held out on the Constitution and was the last to ratify after it was adopted. Out of the 72 citizens of the 13 states who were accredited as delegates, only 55 took part in its deliberations but only 39 stayed on the job until the end. Those who remained to the end, including James Madison, "the father of the Constitution," were:

Connecticut: Roger Sherman and William S. Johnson.

Delaware: Richard Bassett, Gunning Bedford Jr., Jacob Broom, John Dickson and George Read.

Georgia: Abraham Baldwin and William Few.

Maryland: Daniel Carroll, Daniel Jenifer and James McHenry.

Massachusetts: Nathaniel Gorman and Rufus King.

New Hampshire: Nicholas Gilman and John Langdon.

New Jersey: David Breasley,

Jonathan Dayton, William Livingston and William Patterson.

New York: Alexander Hamilton.

North Carolina: William Blount,

Richard D. Spaight and Hugh Williamson.

Pennsylvania: George Clymer,

Thomas Fitzsimmons, Benjamin

Franklin, Jared Ingersoll, Thomas

Mifflin, Gouverneur Morris, Robert

Morris and James Wilson.

South Carolina: Pierce Butler,

Charles Pinckney, Charles C. Pinckney and John Rutledge.

Virginia: John Blair, James Madison and George Washington.

Canned Needs

When the entire winter supply is dependent on home processed foods—canned, dried, brined, stored or frozen—the approximate necessary amounts and varieties to serve one person 30 weeks are: 20 to 35 quarts of tomatoes; 25 to 35 quarts greens and other vegetables, including 8 or more kinds; 25 to 35 quarts fruits, varied; and 5 to 10 quarts of fruit juices.

Milk Sugar

Lactose, which is the sugar of milk, aids in the utilization of calcium which is vital for the development of all tissues. There is a common conception that all sugars are sweet. This is true of most sugars. Lactose, however, does not share this characteristic and is largely responsible for the bland distinctive taste of milk and its products.

Poison Ivy

To prevent a severe inflammation from exposure to poison ivy, wash and rinse the skin thoroughly several times. Hot water and ordinary kitchen or laundry soap containing an excess of alkali is best. Do not use soap containing oil, for the poison is soluble in oil and will be spread over other parts of the skin.

Shallow Hoe

One of the best ways to keep weeds at a minimum is with a sharp hoe, run just beneath the surface of the soil. After weeds have been removed, however, it is not always good to continue hoeing; in fact, this can sometimes be harmful to shallow rooted growing plants.

Soil Use

A reason for thinning is that there is no use trying to grow more plants than the moisture and fertility in the garden will support, so by removing some of the plants from crowded areas, the others have a better chance to grow.

Mortar Joints

A leading specialist in property conservation advises the painting of porous mortar joints in brick walls as a primary precaution in sealing the wall against moisture before applying the over-all protective coating.

Long Bridge

The Quebec bridge is one of the longest cantilever spans in the world, and provides rail and road crossings of the St. Lawrence river near Quebec City. It allows sufficient clearance for ocean going vessels.

Freeze Quickly

The actual process of quick freezing does not change the vitamin content of fruits and vegetables, but some vitamin loss takes place if the produce is not frozen quickly and kept frozen properly.

Coke Uses

Most of the coke produced in the United States is used in blast furnaces for the manufacture of iron and steel, although a small amount is used for domestic heating.

Safety First

Provide a safe rack for such sharp edged tools as knives, axes and saws. Repair shaky ladders. Nail down loose boards. It pays to prevent accidents.

Warning to Women

Reports that two-fifths of last year's 20,000 fatal farm accidents took place in the home should be further warning to rural women.

Babies Eyes

Eyes of babies are gray-blue, and for several months after birth they gradually develop their permanent color.

Cheaper Production

Better pastures and more temporary grazing crops give cheaper milk, meat and eggs.

Won't Grow in U. S.

Orchids won't grow in our open gardens as they do in Middle America.

BATTING FOR HAY FEVER SUFFERERS . . . Full war on ragweed, which is blamed for most of the miseries of hay fever victims, was opened in Brooklyn as a campaign got underway to eradicate the weed in vacant lots. Photo shows city employees spraying a luxuriant growth of the pesty weeds with a herbicide, dichlorophenoxyacetic. In six to eight weeks, treated plants die from a .01 per cent solution of spraying. Complete control of ragweed is now possible.

WHAT'S YOUR NAME . . . Calmly munching on a sandwich in a Philadelphia police station, where he is comfortably ensconced, this five-year-old lad answered all questions by asking others. He wanted to know all, but told nothing. At latest report the police still were trying to determine his name.

SHATTERS RECORDS . . . Jimmy McLane, 16, former Phillips academy, Andover, Mass., swim star, who shattered one American and one meet record as member of Ohio State team in the National Men's AAU championship.

Harry Krumm Back From Japan

Corporal Harry W. Krumm, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Krumm of 1255 Penniman avenue, who went into the armed forces two years ago just in time to get in on the invasion of Okinawa and then Japan, arrived home this week from Japan where he has been stationed during most of the past two years.

Early in October he will return to Fort Sheridan, Illinois, where he will be given his honorable discharge.

Harry has the honor of being a member of the first invasion paratroop outfit that went into Japan.

Although he will not be 21 years old until next year, he has seen almost two years of active military services. Nineteen months of his time in the army has been spent overseas.

"Am I glad to be home? You can tell the world for me that I am. Nothing looks quite so good as Plymouth," he said.

Corporal Krumm will be remembered as the youngster who brought you the special delivery letters and telegrams before he became a paratrooper. During recent months he has been employed in the army postoffice in Japan.

Moms Club Plans Convention

The Fifth annual state convention of the Michigan Moms of America will be held Wednesday, and Thursday, October 2-3 at the Birmingham Community House Birmingham, Mich. Mrs. Kenneth Foust, Dearborn, state president will preside at all sessions. Mrs. Charles Hewer of Plymouth, a director on the state board, will have charge of all convention equipment.

The annual banquet will be Wednesday evening at 7:00 in the Auditorium with Val Clare, commentator of radio station CKLW will be the speaker taking as his topic "What Price Victory." Election of officers Thursday morning will be followed by a luncheon at the Methodist church at noon, and a tour of Cranbrook Institute in the afternoon will wind up convention activities.

In Washington, D. C., Author Jeff Baker finished a radio skit in which his main character was arrested for parking in front of a horse-watering trough, a few weeks later was pinched the same way.

In San Luis Obispo, Calif., Professor James Merson of California State Polytechnic showed a class now to crank a tractor so as not to break an arm, broke his arm.

Innocent Comment Brings Cat Letters

Although he's no cat fancier, inasmuch as he recently acquired eight coal black cocker spaniel puppies, WJR's Reporter at Large, Bud Guest, has apparently established contact with all the cat-owners this side of Timbucktoo. The thing started with an apparently innocent comment to the effect that Bud had never heard of the belief that white cats with blue eyes are either deaf or blind. Letters began to come in from owners of white cats with blue eyes detailing their pets' infirmities.

One cat was uncovered with seven toes on each of his forefeet. Bud had hardly reported this fact on his program when another letter came in reporting a cat with nine toes on each of his front feet. This particular cat walks as though it was wearing snowshoes—sort of sashays down the street like a sailor home from the sea.

Another cat owner told Bud that her Tabby was perfectly normal, except for a claw growing out of the side of its head. A cat who prefers toothpaste as the main course for dinner and still another who dearly loves raw sweet corn above everything else are in Bud's files. Guest, whose program featuring news from behind the headlines and items from the brighter side of life, is heard at 6:15 p.m. Tuesdays, Thursdays & Saturdays over WJR Detroit. He has also become the office expert on hicough remedies. His listeners have contributed more than 25 different "sure-cures" for this annoying ailment. By far the most horrible was the suggestion for the victim to warm up some skunk grease and drink it. This apparently turns the victim inside out, thereby eliminating the hicoughs, but quick!

REGAINED MEMORY AND RIGHTS . . . Rajah Kumar Ramendra Narayan Roy of India, who was believed to have died and been burned on funeral pyre, 12 years later regained his memory and was awarded his property rights. He reported that rain had put out the fire and brought him out of coma and that for years he wandered as a beggar over India. The Lord Privy Council now has ruled that he is the rightful owner of a huge estate with a yearly income.

of 1945 directs the company to reduce future rates by some $4,550,000 a year. The order is now before the Commission for reconsideration from Circuit Judge Paul G. Eger, of Lansing, and will be returned to him for final arguments and his decision.

In both cases, Michigan Bell has contended that its earnings are not sufficient to justify any downward rate adjustment and that any rate cut would constitute a threat to the quality of service rendered customers.

Farmers Must Register Hunting Cooperatives

Arnold Hauzen, conservationist at Michigan State college, advises that farmers who desire to register their Williamson plan hunting cooperatives should send in applications at once. Applications may be sent to the Department of Conservation, Lansing, or to Hauzen in the department of conservation at Michigan State College.

To qualify for state cooperation, each Williamson plan club must include not less than one section of land or more than 10,000 acres. The plan takes its name from the original plan formed in Williamson township in Ingham county nearly 20 years ago. Farmers in the plan require hunters to leave their cars parked in a member's yard. The hunters then receive a permit tag which entitles them to hunt on that farm and adjoining cooperative land. Each farmer has a limited number of tickets to issue. This makes the number of hunters at any time within reason of the space and game in the area.

Last year 40 clubs with a total of 168,592 acres in 19 counties operated in Michigan.

The Michigan conservation department has cooperated with the plan for the past ten years and believes it to be a successful protection for the farmer and a benefit both to the hunter and to the protection of game.

The conservation department furnishes signs which indicate to hunters that hunting is by permission only. Permit from one farmer allows hunting on adjoining farms belonging to the same cooperative.

Cleaner Bag

A dirt clogged vacuum cleaner bag slows the cleaning and overworks the motor. Let the cleaner clean the bag. Attach tools, leave bag outlet open—turn so dust will not cause annoyance. Empty bag, turn and clean.

Pot Holders

Round pot holders can be cut by using a saucer for a pattern. They are especially handy when taking food from the oven, as there are no corners to drop into the food and get sticky.

Vitamin in Milk

The vitamin A content of milk varies with the feed of the cow. Winter milk of barn fed cows contains approximately half as much vitamin A as does the milk of cows on good pasture.

New Industries

Fifteen of our major manufacturing industries have been developed since 1870, and it has been estimated that they have created 15 million jobs that never were dreamed of before.

Keep Kettle Fresh

To keep your tea kettle fresh, boil a weak solution of bicarbonate of soda solution in it periodically and then wash with soap and water.

Pullets Get Colds

Close the back and side ventilators of the laying house as the nights begin to get cooler. Pullets will get colds, unless drafts are prevented.

Money to Burn

When leaves burn, money goes up in smoke, for those leaves composted for the garden would save on fertilizer costs.

Sweet or Sour?

More than 9,000,000 bushels of the present crop of apples will be made into vinegar, while about 1,750,000 bushels will be used for cider.

State Supreme Court Upholds Bell on Refunds

The State Supreme Court has upheld the Michigan Bell Telephone Company in its contention that retroactive rate adjustments are illegal, setting aside an order of the Michigan Public Service Commission directing the company to refund $3,500,000 to customers on 1944 bills.

In a unanimous decision, the court affirmed the opinion of Justice Leland W. Carr, who ruled in favor of the company when on the Ingham Circuit bench. Justices Carr and George E. Bushnell, along with former Justice Raymond W. Starr, did not participate.

The ruling is expected to invalidate ordered refunds totaling $7,000,000. A second order directs refunds of 3,500,000 for 1945, but James W. Williams, assistant attorney-general, has said the order will be revised to eliminate the refund provision.

Declaring that the Commission's power to fix rates is limited to orders "which are prospectively effective," the Supreme Court held that the regulatory body "exceeded its power in attempting to enforce its order retroactively."

Besides the refund provision the Commission's second order

Science Lecture October 7

A free lecture on Christian Science will be given in the edifice of Eighth Church of Christ, Scientist, Detroit, Grand River at Evergreen Road, on Monday evening, October 7th at 8 o'clock.

Undoubtedly there are many people who would be interested in hearing an explanation of this religion. They see congregations emerging from Christian Science churches, smiling and happy. They wonder why.

Harry H. Messenger, Chairman of the Board of Eighth Church of Christ, Scientist, which is sponsoring this lecture, said today, "Christian Science lectures provide a way for people to learn facts about this religion from an authoritative source. For example, the lecturer who will speak next Monday night, Harold Moller, C.S.B., of Chicago, is a member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston Massachusetts."

Mr. Messenger emphasizes the fact that these lectures are free, and that all are invited. Seats in the auditorium will be held until 7:45 for the special use of those who have never before heard a Christian Science lecture.

In Houston, Jasper Barrett, father of 31 children, grandfather of 91, great-grandfather of 99, great-great-grandmother of 95, died at the age of 121.

World crude oil production in 1946 is expected to be about 23 per cent greater than in 1941.

Button Collections of Plymouth Women Among Best in Country

Plymouth is a hobby conscious town and boasts of many collections of almost everything collectible, stamps, antique furniture, dolls, china, old glass, and last but not least, button collections.

There are three members of the state society and Log Cabin group No. 1 of Detroit living in Plymouth. They are Mrs. Ada Murray, Mrs. Mary Starkweather and Mrs. Katharine Todd.

Mrs. Mary Starkweather began to collect buttons in 1938. From the very beginning jet-black glass buttons were her favorites and she has been steadfast in gathering them for her collection. Now she is one of the foremost collectors of this type of button in this section, and her collection is very beautiful.

Mrs. Starkweather has several cards of silver lustre and iridescent jets that are outstanding. Her cards of mourning jets are very tastefully mounted, and are her special favorites.

Mrs. Katharine Todd is an ardent collector of old furniture, china, glass, and buttons. Her main joy in life is to attend an auction and she always comes home with some wonderful bargain.

Mrs. Todd has several cards of colorful covered buttons that would be hard to beat. Her cards of these buttons are second to none in this class and are very colorful and beautiful.

She has mounted many of her finest buttons in cards covered with black velvet, thus displaying her carved pearls, cut steels, and stray buttons to the best advantage.

Mrs. Ada Murray of Plymouth Branch Wayne Co. Library, began collecting buttons in the summer of 1938. She realized that new pieces were very hard to get. She decided to collect something smaller, now her buttons collection is also getting slightly out of hand.

Mrs. Murray was fortunate to have a long charm string given her during her early stages of button collecting and friends and patrons of the library have aided in enlarging her collection.

Mrs. Murray has a large collection of stray and fable buttons, mounted in walnut trays. She has tried ever since 1939 to assemble an outstanding card of hand buttons but has not reached her goal. She has a number of them in brass, jet, etc. There are several left hands on the card although right hands predominate.

She has two cards of fan buttons with several rare fan buttons included. She has ships, anchor, colored glass, lithographs and some early one piece brass buttons.

Appeal Board Hears Three Cases

Meeting twice a month to facilitate Livonia Township building, the Zoning Board of Appeals met Thursday evening at 8:00 p.m. at the Town Hall and gave their approval to the three cases that came before them.

The first case, William Gamble of 13533 Warwick requested permission to leave in the basement of his incomplected home on Schoolcraft Mr. Gamble was given a temporary six months permit and at the end of the designated time his house is to be finished.

Fank Dow of Sunbury was the second case and he requested permission from the Appeal Board to build a gas station and garage at the northwest corner of Harrison and Five Mile Rd.

George Phillips who lives directly behind the prospective garage joined some objections, but the point was brought out by the Board that no repairs can be made out side of the garage building and the Building Ordinance prevents having a junk yard there. Mr. Phillips then gave his approval.

The third case, that of Herbert Rapson, in which Mrs. Rapson asked the Board's OK to construct a kennel in the rear of their home at 19595 Merriman Court. She also presented a petition signed by the neighbors in the locality stating they had no objections. In this case the Board also gave its approval with the stipulation that the kennel was to be a hobby and not a commercial enterprise.

Three adjourned cases were also taken up by the Appeal Board two were denied and one was approved. At the Sept. 5th meeting, Sterling Jones requested permission to locate a used car lot on Joy Road and due the fact that the area was not large enough, Mr. Jones withdrew the request. In the second case, Mr. Mason, the Building Inspector, stated that Brothers had complied with the four foot lot line and the 'Stop Building sign had been removed. A building permit has since been taken out by the Orrs.

At a special meeting held Saturday morning, the case of Geo. and Paul Taylor who are building a home on Auburndall in Rosedale Gardens, was taken up and the Board's decision was that the recorded restrictions in Rosedale call for a three foot line therefore it would be a hardship for the Taylors to abide by the four foot ordinance, consequently the Stop Building Notice was removed.

In Doyestown, Pa., Prisoner Robert Henderson broke out of solitary, smashed through a steel mesh grating, broke a closely leaded window, squeezed his 170 lbs. between two iron bars, scaled a 10-ft. fence, escaped over a 32-ft. wall.

We're Trying to Make Telephone Service Go Around, Too!

A lot of people are still waiting for telephones. To provide as many of them as possible with service, we're having to limit most new installations to party lines.

This, of course, is a temporary measure, designed to give more service to more people sooner. As additional facilities become available, we'll be able to give individual-line service to those who want it.

Meanwhile, you can help make party-line service good service by observing these simple rules:

- 1 When the line is in use, please don't interrupt except in case of emergency.
- 2 Keep all calls as brief as possible.
- 3 Avoid making several calls in immediate succession.
- 4 After every call, hang up carefully. One receiver off the hook puts all the telephones on the line out of service.

LAWNS: For greater, stronger and healthier root growth, a richer green and more surface protection for the coming winter—use Ra-Pid-Gro NOW . . . (2 pounds to each 20x50 foot area) . . . and water well weekly as usual.

HOW ABOUT YOUR PLANTS?
All living things require regular feeding . . . plants, animals, and humans alike. In the case of your plants, nature provides them with food through the soil. However, before they can use any of that food, it must be dissolved by rain or watering, for plants live on a liquid diet. Then, too, most soils are deficient in one or more of the elements the plant needs for healthy growth. That is the reason why you should feed them regularly with RA-PID-GRO. That is why they thrive and bear so miraculously on a regular diet of RA-PID-GRO.

PM Track Work Keeps 200 Busy

More than 200 laborers are currently engaged in extensive operations designed to improve the Pere Marquette roadbed between Plymouth and Wayne and Plymouth and Salem in both appearance and durability.

Operations between Plymouth and Wayne are about completed. Work on the roadbed between here and Salem will start soon.

Pere Marquette officials said the work consisted mostly of replacing worn ties and rails and spreading new ballast. In some spots the present ballast is cleaned and re-spread. In places where it has washed or blown away the roadbed is being balanced.

The operations will serve a dual purpose. They will both improve the appearance of the roadbed and at the same time put it in top condition for trains to operate at increased speeds in safety.

Crews that are doing the work are housed in special "boarding" cars located on a siding just east of Haggerty road back of the Burroughs plant. Buses that can be operated either on rails or roads transport the men to and from the cars.

Attends School In California

Robert K. Brown, aged 24, draftsman and ex-GI, is one of many young married men who served their country in the late war in the armed services who have enrolled in the University of Southern California College of Aeronautics on Hancock Field, taking advantage of the educational provisions in the federal GI Bill of Rights.

Young Brown, a graduate of Plymouth High School and the son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Brown, 11715 Jarvis street, Plymouth, has enrolled for a course in aircraft and engine mechanics and also for a course that will lead to a private pilot's license. He wishes to acquire these attainments as a prerequisite to his chosen life work as a draftsman. He hopes the work will lead to the position of a drafting instructor later on.

After graduation from the Plymouth High School in 1939, Brown enrolled for basic engineering in Ohio State University prior to the war and went from there into the Army Air Force in 1942, where he served as an airplane mechanic, then as a link-trainer instructor for flight students, and then as a draftsman in the then secret plans for a jet plane. He devoted altogether 29 months in his jet plane work.

Discharged only last March, he has enrolled at Santa Maria for a course to better fit him for his civilian career. He is living with his young wife at 503 South Pine street, Santa Maria, California. Brown, who was a sergeant when discharged, is one of the 90 percent majority of students on this campus with war records. Many of the enrollees are girls. They fill one dormitory on the campus.

Observance For Handicaps

It's not what is gone but what is left that counts when an employer considers a handicapped veteran for permanent employment", Clarence Jetter, manager of the local USES office said today in outlining the objectives of National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week October 6-12.

Mayor Lidgerud has issued a proclamation setting aside this week for observance by Plymouth residents. In his proclamation the mayor cited the excellent record of handicapped persons during the war while the able-bodied were on the fighting fronts.

Pointing out that many veterans and war workers acquired some form of handicap as a result of the war, USES Manager Jetter said it is the obligation of everyone to help handicapped persons to obtain employment for which they are qualified.

"Few handicapped persons," he said, "will accept work which they are not qualified to perform. Some are qualified for certain types of work but are not aware of their abilities. It is the job of the USES to advise and counsel such workers, and, when the skill or ability is found, to refer the worker to an employer who is in need of the particular skill or ability."

Mr. Jetter said that more than 15 handicapped workers had been referred to jobs in Plymouth during the past month. Others are waiting for referral to the right jobs, he said. Many employers so far have been most cooperative in hiring these workers but more jobs for the handicapped are needed to aid applications at USES offices, Mr. Jetter said.

Veteran Is Back Writing Policies Makes Record

Joe D. Merritt the Plymouth lad who languished in a Japanese prison camp for 3 years and five months, has proved that the hard-earned experience did not dull his initiative.

After being discharged last May, Joe came back to Plymouth and resumed his business as an insurance broker as of June 1.

He lost no time, and for that month, according to company records, Joe placed third in the United States for life insurance policies written and sold.

For July, Joe led the country for "life production" among all other agents representing his company. This was heralded in the Wisconsin National Life magazine along with a picture of Joe. The story said that for July Joe had written policies amounting to $161,301.

But, Joe wasn't through. Although in August he slipped to second place for business produced that month.

When company records for the fiscal year which ends in August, for district managers were totaled Joe was in second place in the United States for the year. But, Joe's year was only three months long. That's the type of go-getter Joe is.

Joe is very proud of his record and justly so. He was honored by the company last week-end at a district managers' meeting in Oshkosh, Wis.

Joe took the streamliner to Grand Rapids and flew from there to Oshkosh. He reported a most enjoyable trip. Joe's district includes all of the area from Detroit city limits to Romulus to Whitmore Lake to South Lyon and back to Detroit.

Joe reported that the War Department this week had released figures about the group of prisoners in which he was included. Joe was one of the 26,700 men captured at Corregidor and the 3,661 who survived the ordeal. In other words the Japs starved, beat or worked to death 11 out of every 13 men taken prisoner at Corregidor.

2. Should I use plain or iodized salt for my canning?
3. How much syrup should I make for a half bushel of peaches?
4. Some of the pears I canned yesterday did not seal tightly. What should I do?
5. Should I paraffin jelly immediately or wait until it sets?
6. Some of my jars are only half full after canning. Should I open them and add more liquid?

HERE ARE THE ANSWERS . . .

1. Saccharine or brown sugar is not recommended for the canning of fruit; but honey or corn syrup may be combined with sugar in the making of syrup.
2. Plain or iodized salt may be used in canning, although plain salt is generally recommended in the preparation of pickles.
3. A half bushel of peaches will require 10 to 12 cups of completed syrup.
4. Open jars, drain syrup. Heat syrup to boiling point and pour over fruit in jars. Use new lids and reprocess for egg-half of the original time.
5. Use paraffin immediately.
6. Loss of liquid in a jar does not affect the keeping quality, provided the seal is perfect.

All-Stars Lose Title By Forfeit; Ruling Stuns Club

The Charles J. Martin Open Baseball Tournament is over. It ended here Sunday at Riverside Park with twin bill between the Plymouth Sport Shop All-Stars and E & L Transport, of Dearborn.

By virtue of four wins and being the only undefeated team in the tourney, the all-stars went into the doubleheader as the favorites. Dearborn's club had won three and lost one.

In the first game the Plymouth outfit were trounced 8-2 by a determined Dearborn club. (Had the all-stars won that game they would have won the tourney and only had to play one game.)

The all-stars were then determined to win the second game for by so doing they could still cop the tournament title and $150 Jackpot that went with it.

Threatening weather halted the start of the second game. Both teams wanted to play it however, so both agreed that it could not be called. To win, either team had to play a full nine innings. If rain or darkness forced the game it would have to be re-played. Both teams agreed to those rules.

Dearborn went into the lead and also began to employ tactics designed to "hurry" the game, the all-stars charged. They accused the Dearborn hitters of striking at anything the pitcher threw just in order to get the full game played and win the tourney.

This action nettled the Plymouth 9, already smarting under their first defeat of the tourney. They had a lot at stake and it was only natural they should wish to play the game as it should be. The alleged "hurrying" tactics of the E & L Transport players upset them considerably.

They set about to force the game into a proper pace and spirit. They spoke to the umpires about the Dearborn club's actions but got no support to their charges.

Suddenly the chief umpire, Earl T. Gray, president of the Michigan Inter-County Class A Baseball League, and a Plymouthite called the game and declared the Dearborn nine the winner by reason of forfeit at the same time charging the all-stars with deliberately "stalling."

The decision stunned the crowd and the all-star squad, manager George Molnar said. But, Mr. Gray was the chief umpire and what he said was law on the diamond. Therefore the all-stars nine accepted the decision but not without bitterness and not without the feeling they had been unjustly discriminated against.

Mr. Molnar made no comment other than he "felt bad for his boys."

Former "Devil" Is Army Officer

From Printer's Devil to an army Commanding Officer is in brief the story of Lieut. Ernest M. Engleson, who was a pretty good "Devil" back in the days when "Devils" were plentiful around The Plymouth Mail office.

Lieut. Engleson the other day sat down to his typewriter and wrote the following letter to the editor of The Plymouth Mail:

"My assumption that you still have a column for Service Men may be in error, and if so, you may regard this letter as a personal greeting.

"Perhaps you don't remember the 'tee-headed printer's devil' that worked for your paper while going through high school. It may be better if you do not, for I was continually getting into trouble. Since then, I have made an effort to find out just what in h--- I was good for, to put it plainly, and have tested several talents, mostly since entering service four years ago, and after the dust cleared, I settled on two or three as permanent pursuits.

"Overseas, I received some notice for my art, writing, singing, and work as an investigator in the Intelligence office. Back in the States, I received a Commission in the Corps of Military Police as an investigating officer. Shortly thereafter, and by insistent demand, I was transferred to the Detroit area, but there was little work for my speciality, so I was sent out to Selfridge Field as a Police and Judo Instructor, Athletic Director, and Company Officer in the 728th. In August, the 728th MP was transferred, as a unit, to the 5th Army Headquarters at Ft. Sheridan, Ill.

"At present, I am Company Commander of Company 'A', and to stay consistent with my past experiences, I have written a book on town patrol, now used by our Battalion in both Chicago and Detroit. I expect to return to the Detroit districts as the Detachment Commander of the unit there about the tenth of next month. I know there is no danger of being put to work if I should visit my boyhood place of employment. It would be nice to see the old gang again, so if you won't mind, I will try to "pull an inspection" at the earliest opportunity.

"After re-reading what I have typed thus far, it gives me the impression of someone blowing his own horn, which may be very true. If you remember the printer's devil and his fumbling fingers, you may be inclined to over-remember the spilled cases of type, dropped forms, and off-set printing of expensive stock. I shudder with horror. Hoping for forgiveness, I remain, etc."

Fair in the Light of Memory Shines
MICHIGAN, My MICHIGAN
BY • ELTON R. EATON

Probably not one pheasant hunter out of a hundred thousand in Michigan knows that it was former Governor Alex Groesbeck who made pheasant hunting both possible and legal in Michigan. Upon his recommendation, the first pheasant hunting season in Michigan was in the fall of 1925. During the four years previous to that time, he had directed the conservation department he created to raise as many pheasants as possible.

They were planted in all parts of southern Michigan where it was believed they would do well. Not only did the liberated pheasants survive, but they became most prolific in their newly adopted surroundings. Pheasant hunters say that pheasant hunting was "rotten" last fall. It was—and it will not be much better this fall. But last year hunters killed over a million pheasants in Michigan.

Thanks Governor Groesbeck, Mr. Pheasant Hunter, for making possible this most popular hunting sport of the fall.

There are no new rules on firearms for hunters to observe this season, but the old rules are all in force, and enforced. For waterfowl only shotguns may be used, of 10 gauge or smaller bore, and they may not have a capacity of more than three shells in barrel and magazine. Where plugs are necessary to reduce capacity to three, the one-piece wood or metal filler must be incapable of removal through the loading end.

For other hunting, no automatic, semi-automatic or auto-loading shotgun or rifle larger than .22 caliber rim fire may be capable of holding more than six shells at one time in barrel and magazine. Tracer and explosive bullets are banned.

Conservation officers are particularly concerned about violations of the law against carrying loaded guns in a car, for besides being illegal it is hazardous, and the cause of gunshot deaths and injuries.

Wayne county didn't fare so well this year in the distribution of pheasants by the state conservation department. Up to the present time not a single bird has been released in Wayne county, as far as anybody can find out.

Twenty-one counties have shared in the releases to date: Jackson, Washtenaw, St. Clair, Allegan, Monroe, Kalamazoo, Kent, Calhoun, Branch, St. Joseph, Van Buren, Barry, Cass, Livingston, Berrien, Hillsdale, Oakland, Ottawa, Lenawee, Midland and Muskegon.

Special attention has been given to stocking state-owned lands open to public hunting, with releases made already on 11 state game areas: Swan Creek, Dansville, Gratiot-Saginaw, Barry, LaPeer, Oak Grove, Port Huron, Fulton, Gregory, Gourneck and Flat River; and on five state recreation areas: Waterloo, Highland, Pontiac Lake, Holly and Brighton.

With the largest production of pen-reared pheasants in years available for distribution, some birds may be saved for release during the hunting season, and they had better be released in western Wayne county.

Early and late waterfowl shooting is offered hunters this year by Ontario, where the season is September 16 to November 29 in the northern district and September 25 to December 9 in the remainder of the province. The bag limit for ducks is 12 a day, including one wood duck, 150 a season; for geese (other than brant) five a day, 25 a season.

Upper Peninsula trappers collected more than 88 per cent of the $20,245 in wolf, coyote and bobcat bounties paid by the conservation department this year to the first of September. Heaviest take of the season is expected this month, as more predators have been bountied in September than in any other month for the last seven years.

Wisconsin deer hunters will wear no back tags this season "because of a critical shortage of materials and printing facilities."

Signboards, fireplace parts, picnic tables and garbage cans are the objects usually attracting the attention of vandals and thieves in state parks, but the first letter of the season with which a penitent tourist returned stolen property came to Leonard Jensen, manager of Hartwick Pines state park, and contained—a penpoint! It was taken, the reformed tourist said, from "the old lumberjack camp where the bottled snakes are."

Taking note of the disposition of "grass pike, commonly called pickerel" being taken from one of the lakes near Ludington, the public domain commission in January, 1917, officially declared that grass pike is not to be considered obnoxious fish within the meaning of the act providing for removal of obnoxious fish from the waters of this state.

So members of the Conservation commission at their meeting up at the Higgins Lake Training school, decided they were going to protest the order of the United States Fish and Wildlife Service in prohibiting Canadian geese hunting this fall!

And they call themselves Conservationists! It's a funny thing. This section of Wayne county can claim more successful geese hunters than probably any other part of the state. They not only hunt geese up around Saginaw bay, but they stalk the wiley old goose up along the eastern coast of Lake Michigan north of Traverse City. They know how and where to hunt to get Canadian geese.

One would naturally think that these geese hunters would be the ones to protest loudest about the prohibitive order issued by the Wildlife Service.

But not one has made a protest! Surprising as it may seem to some, all that I have talked to, have applauded the action of the Wildlife Service in giving full protection to Canadian geese this fall. These local hunters frankly state that they have noted a decline for several years in the geese flights to the south. Fewer and fewer geese have been killed each fall. They all agreed that it was about time something was done to give Canadian geese a chance to come back.

Now comes the Michigan Conservation commission voicing its approval of the wails of the game hogs of the state!

These "Conservationists" even went so far as to instruct Director Pete Hoffmaster to write the Wildlife Service in Washington in protest to the order!

Here's one time the Commission went way over on the wrong side of the fence, apparently to please some of the game hogs that swarm out of the city of Detroit.

We commend the United States Fish and Wildlife Service for its good judgment in closing the 1946 hunting season on Canadian geese.

Seldom do we have occasion to find fault with the Michigan Conservation commission, but here's one time the members have won for themselves a good spanking out back of the barn.

Seventy-nine were arrested for violation of the laws on carrying guns in cars and in game areas, and on killing deer out of season.

Better Living Begins...

In A Modern GAS KITCHEN

Wood and plaster don't make a house a home. It's comfort, convenience, beauty and all the time and labor-saving equipment that contribute to modern living. And for the homemaker, better living starts when she is provided with a modern Kitchen. For her the Kitchen is the most lived-in room in the house. She spends the greater part of her work day in the Kitchen. No wonder a New Freedom Gas Kitchen is the thing she wants most. It's the work-savingest kitchen of them all with plenty of cupboard space, a shining sink, a good looking automatic gas range and all conveniently arranged to make "Kitchen time" easy and more enjoyable. Best of all, when automatic gas is on the job, there will be plenty of hot water for every need. Why not start planning your "New Freedom Gas Kitchen" today?

Plymouth Farmers Who Butcher Beef Hit Hard By New OPA Rules

Some OPA hound-dogs came yelping into Plymouth the other day to let the world know that they are once again running at large and cracking down on the poor farmers and other people who at one time thought it is wise to raise a little surplus food for winter use.

This time the louse-hounds were ugly and ready to bite anybody who doesn't obey some new rules that some nit-wit down in Washington has concocted chiefly for the farmers.

Rear this, Mr. Plymouth Farmer! When you butcher that beef you have been raising this summer, Mr. Farmer, for YOUR OWN USE, you have got to grade the beef when you cut it up—and if you don't know HOW to grade it, you have got to call in some butcher who knows how to grade it and mark each piece with a blue pencil.

Maybe you don't know it, but there are four grades of beef in that nice young steer out in your pasture, says the OPA.

You have got to mark some cuts double "AA." That means that slice of beef your wife may take out of the ice box is a "choice cut" of beef. (Just as though she didn't know it.)

The next best cut you must grade "A." That's supposed to be a good cut of beef.

Then the next cut have to be marked "B." That means that the piece of beef marked with the letter "B" is only commercial beef. Commercial beef means that its beef you could sell at one time, but now you can't sell it, even though you must mark it "B"—which means commercial beef.

The lowest grade you can mark is "C," which means just ordinary, common beef. Now, Mr. Farmer, if you haven't got a blue pencil with which to mark each piece of beef you cut up, better get one. If you can't get the right kind blue pencil purple will do. There's a sort of pencil made out of vegetable coloring which will not make your scribbled-up beef taste too bad.

But here's the best one of all beginning with the neck of your beef, you must mark every two inch piece of beef that comes out of the critter right back to the tail. Remember, its from the neck to the tail.

These fuzzy-wuzzy OPA planners down in Washington forgot to say just how to grade the two inch pieces of the beef tail. So be careful how you grade it. Maybe the big pieces will be double

"AA" cuts or maybe the long-haired blunderbusses will say that the tail end of the tail should be graded just ordinary common beef. Who knows? Be alert when you grade the tail of that beef! Don't fool yourself either. These patent-feather checker-uppers when in Plymouth the other day, sniffed around the food lockers, too. If you have some one else slaughter that beef for you, he's got to grade it. And if you take your meat down to one of the food lockers in or around Plymouth, the food-locker man has got to see to it that each piece of beef is graded and properly labeled.

So, there you are good folks. Its tough, but its one of "them-thar" new regulations out of Washington.

P. S.—Have you registered to vote in the fall election? You have until October 16 to do so. New registration is necessary in Plymouth and Canton townships. If you vote right during the next two years, maybe we can call the hound-dogs off, but meanwhile be careful so you won't get bitten.

Geography Class Visits Rouge Plant

The forenoon geography classes taught by Mr. Bernard Stadtmiller visited the Ford Rouge Plant on Thursday, September 19. Rose Ann Ewer has furnished the following account of the trip:
 The morning geography classes left at 8:30 Thursday to go to Ford's Rouge Plant. The trip was made in the school buses which were rather crowded and took about forty-five minutes. We first stopped at the Rotunda Building where we had to sign safety cards. Then three buses took us to the rolling steel mill which was the first building we went through.

The first thing we saw was a man operating a machine which shoveled the steel scrap into the furnace where the hottest of fires is needed for melting steel scraps. Next we saw a man with a long poker with a cup on the end. He was testing the steel. He took some of the steel out of the furnace and poured it into a mold. Further on we saw the rolling process. A large crane would take the hot steel out of the mold and put it on the rolling machine. This would flatten it out and lengthen it. During this process water was being poured over it to cool it.

Further on we saw the large sheets of steel as it is when finished. Then we saw people working on the fenders and doors. The buses then took us to the motor assembly building where we saw them assemble the motors. As we came out of this building we saw a new Mercury on display.

We then got on the buses again and started for the final assembly building. On the way we passed the coke ovens where they heat coal in a closed vault without oxygen. We also passed the docks where they unload the raw materials such as limestone and iron ore. Coke, limestone, and iron ore are combined to make steel. We then arrived at the final assembly building, where they have three assembly lines. We first saw just the frames of the cars. Then they put on the shaft for the steering wheel and the gear shift and added some of the wires, the motor, and the radiator. All along they were adding other small things. Next came the front part of the car, the fenders and grill. After they had done that the car moved down the line and the body was placed on the frame. We then arrived back at the school around one o'clock in time for our fifth and sixth hour classes.

AUTUMN Time for a Greyhound Color-Tour

... along flame-bright highways

It's a grand time for travel and sightseeing. Mother Nature's brilliant fall show is on display. Trees are dressed in fiery reds and golds. Hills and valleys are tinted in vibrant rusts and browns. The countryside is a bright crazy quilt of warm, glowing color.

The best way to enjoy a "close-up" view of this autumn spectacle is through the large picture frame windows of a Greyhound bus . . . windows especially designed for greater looking pleasure. And Greyhound's deep cushioned, reclining seats add enjoyment to every mile.

Take your autumn trip now! Seats are more plentiful. Departures are frequent. Fares are still at their low pre-war level.

BERSON

Gloucester, Mass., Sept. 27.—
As this is my last column to be written this year here at the World's Largest Fishing Port, I wish to say something about the fishing industry, its opportunities for employment and investment looking ahead over a long term.
OCEAN ALWAYS GETTING RICHER

First, for a little biology: Even 126 years ago when our ancestors landed at Plymouth the ocean was probably richer in vitamins, minerals and amino acids than the soils of New England and Virginia. But as soon as our ancestors began to cut the forests and plow the land, every rain took these "good essentials from the soil down the brooks and rivers into the ocean. As our population has increased and the farms have multiplied a million times.

As a result of the above, our farms and their products (crops, cattle, poultry, eggs, milk, etc.) are constantly growing poorer while the sea and its products (fish, lobsters, crabs, oysters, etc.)
are constantly growing richer.
Moreover, the attempts to restore the land through fertilizers, ultimately further add to the richness of the ocean into which these chemicals soon flow.

WATCH FOR NEW FOODS
As a result of the above action, the flora of the sea is now very rich in iodine, iron, calcium and other minerals in addition to the "vitamins. All of these properties give health, vigor and gracefulness. For instance, this flora is said to contain, or a certain quantitative comparative basis, 16 times more food-calcium than milk; 10 times more food-iron than liver or spinach; 14 times more food-sodium than carrots or turnips; 12 times more foodpotassium than tomatoes; 38 times more food-phosphorous than rhubarb and 85 times more magnesium than squash!

There are over 400 different species of sea plants with some 93 food elements which have been washed from the soil into the sea. Hence, the best soils today have less than 20 of these minerals, while most soils upon which our market vegetables are raised have almost none. This explains why all fish—especially "whole fish" such as smelts, cardines, soft-shell crabs and oysters—are such valuable foods;
also why the oils which fish store in their livers are so rich in vitamins.

REMEMBER THE MERMAIDS
Hence, the most beautiful skins, most graceful bodies and most attractive vigor was possessed by the "mermaids" legendary inhabitants of the ocean! They, moreover, personify what it is possible for you and the likewise
"o get from the sea foods.

Also remember that the sea food and dairy industries are the Coastal Cities' best all-year insurance against starvation in case of World War III. With bridges down and railroad terminals smashed, these cities could be isolated from their present food sources. The ocean and our fishing and lobster fleets cannot be bombed away.

INVESTMENT FEATURE
Someday the "waste", which is now one-third or more of the fish, will be a valuable product.
In addition there is the unlimited sea vegetation which is now being harvested. When I was a boy fish were shipped to the Central West only as salt-dried cod or salt "wet" mackerel. Today, all kinds of fish are iced as soon as caught; they are cleaned on the wharves as soon as landed; and immediately sent to the big freezers carefully the fish are shipped as needed to every city of the U. S. this both stabilizes the industry throughout the twelve months and enables people everywhere to get fresh fish at all times. I'm inclined to believe that if Horace Greely were alive today instead of saying: "Go West, young man," he would say: "Go to sea, young man." The ocean is the new frontier of America.

In Milwaukee, Mrs. John Elliott, haled into court for non-payment of rent, tearfully old about her five children whom her husband had deserted, received donations of $73 from courtroom onlookers, $10 from the judge, $5 from complainant Vincent McHugh.

In Minneapolis, workmen began tearing up a pavement, stopped in amazement: they had uncovered six bottles of pre-Prohibition brandy.

Salvation Army Fund Drive Due To Surpass Goal

Latest reports on the progress of the Salvation Army fund drive in Plymouth and Northville indicate the goal of $2,750 will soon be attained and probably surpassed.

R. D. Willoughby, Plymouth chairman of the campaign, said more than $1,000 already had been subscribed. He urges those who have not yet contributed to mail their donations to Major Cynthia Taylor, Salvation Army
head here.

This week workers were soliciting business places. All residential sections are being canvassed through a direct mailing system.

Mr. Willoughby and Major Taylor reported that Northville business houses had responded generously. They also said manufacturing plants in both communities were making employee solicitations. Federal, municipal and education personnel in both places also are contributing.

It is expected that the drive will be concluded within a very few days.

Only 69 Vote At Special Election

Sixty-nine Plymouth electors stampeded into the City's four polling locations Sept. 16 in a frenzy to cast ballots in a special election to approve or reject recent action of the city commission in approving a 30-year franchise for the Detroit Edison Co.

Sixty-seven of them cast approving votes while two sturdy dissenters voted no. Therefore by virtue of a common majority the Detroit Edison will continue to supply Plymouth's needs for electric service until 1976 at least.

The vote by precincts was as follows:

Precinct	Yes	No
Precinct 1	18	0
Precinct 2	8	0
Precinct 3	28	1
Precinct 4	13	1

All expense of the special election was underwritten by the Detroit Edison Co.
