

HITTING UNDER THE BELT.

Noticed with considerable interest planted articles in Detroit's Sunday newspapers which criticized the state administration for permitting running races during the period of the state fair. The objector, Robert Meyers of Lapeer, resigned from the board, he said, because he was out-voted by his associates in his effort to have the race meet cancelled this year during the fair. We do not care to discuss the merits of the question raised by Mr. Meyer but we do think he went out of his way to give Governor Sigler a foul hit under the belt.

The state fair board is in direct charge of the racing at the state fair grounds. If Mr. Meyer is sincerely desirous of eliminating racing during state fair week why under the sun resign from the board, and quit his fight for the objective he said he hoped to attain?

Our belief has always been that when a man quits cold, resigns and throws up the sponge in the middle of an argument, he is not a whole lot interested in accomplishing the thing he says he is trying to do.

We always thought former State Police Commissioner Olander was about tops in his work, but when we read last winter in the newspapers of his immediate resignation after Governor Sigler had requested it, we made up our mind that there was something wrong in "Denmark." If Olander, was right, why didn't he stick to his job and fight it out, something he had a right to do under the state laws.

The same thing is true with young Meyers. He was a member of the state fair board. He was in a position to keep up a good hot fight next year if he lost this year. And if he lost next year he had a chance to keep on fighting for several years to come. But he quit cold turkey—and thereby in my mind—he killed our belief in any sincerity he might proclaim in the thing he said he tried to do.

All appointments made to various boards and commissions by Governor Sigler have been made with no strings tied to them. The appointees have been told to use their best judgment in behalf of the best interests of the state.

Youthful Mr. Meyers must have accepted the job under these conditions. His resignation and his statement were both in bad judgment and bad taste.

DON'T DO IT!

A few days ago we read of the tragic death of Conrad J. Netting and his wife, of Detroit, in an automobile accident on US-25 near Flat Rock. Mr. Netting had attempted to pass another car in heavy traffic. He crashed head-on into another automobile and brought death to three people and injury to several others.

We have known Mr. Netting over a long period of years. He was a most successful Detroit business man and made an excellent record in the Michigan state legislature where he served for five or six terms.

But he made a mistake so frequently made by automobile drivers, he tried to pass another car in heavy traffic.

Death was the reward!
Detroit lost a good business man and a good citizen, and two good women were killed.

It does NOT pay to hurry in heavy traffic. Go slow! Wait until the opportunity comes when there is no danger in passing the car ahead of you. We do not know all of the circumstances of the Conrad Netting accident, but newspapers say he tried to pass the car ahead of him in heavy traffic.

Just a few seconds of waiting would have saved three lives, injuries to others, and prevented another accident.

ANARCHY IN ACTION.

The march on the little village of Clinton recently by a group of disturbers from Detroit, Toledo, Buffalo and elsewhere who went there to picket a plant where the workers wanted to go back to work and were kept from doing so by 18 or 19 others who didn't want to work, as we see it, is a perfect picture of ANARCHY IN ACTION.

They threatened to tear the factory building down "brick by brick." They threatened to go in the factory and throw out the men and women who wanted to work. They threatened all sorts of violence—and the Michigan state police stood by and let the mobsters run the town.

Maybe we are all wrong—but as we see it, the Clinton incident provides a perfect picture of a complete breakdown in law enforcement and rule by mob. Pictures in Detroit papers of a slender young woman being violently assaulted by a big ox of a woman and her companions, provide plenty of evidence of CRIME. But we haven't read in any newspapers of warrants being issued.

Yes, it was ANARCHY IN ACTION in Michigan.

HUNGER, DESPAIR, HOPELESSNESS, DEATH— The Rewards of Socialism.

In recent months The Plymouth Mail has published portions of letters that have been received by local residents from people in England. We have also printed a few interviews with some visitors to the British Isles in the past year.

The letters and the interviews all tell the same story, they tell of the want and misery and hopelessness of a great people who have been misled into a life of despair by a group of political fakers who have sold them "a bill of goods."

These fakers have talked of a world of plenty without work, of a life of ease without toil, of a government dole if you didn't have enough food to eat in order to keep body and soul together.

England is now reaping the reward of the preachings of these false doctrines. And the reward is hunger and despair—utter hopelessness and an exodus from their native country of all who are able to leave it.

We read the following comment somewhere the other day that gives a pretty good idea of just what Socialism is and does.

It declares that Socialism is the great destroyer of initiative. It places all power in the hands of bureaucrats—and bureaucrats in England are of the same kidney as bureaucrats in the United States or the Soviet Union. Their own interests come first. All the facilities of a swollen super-government are used to keep the people in line. The individual is lost in the red-tape of a government which has its fingers in every phase of human activity. There is little chance for individual progress, and the rewards for work and ambition are severely limited.

The Labor government in citizens came to power by promising that socialism would cure England's economic ills. But it has failed in every particular. Socialization of the coal mines has not increased output nor bettered the lot of the miners. Socialization of finance has not strengthened England's world credit position. The threatened socialization of all British railroads and electric utilities is expected to cause more financial troubles—and to further bureaucratize the country. And the government's projected agricultural "reform" bill has raised a storm of protest, on the grounds that it would permit expropriation of property and a policy of dictation toward farm owners and workers.

Socialism always takes the same course. It exalts the office-holder and crushes the rest of the people. Worst of all, when thoroughly entrenched, it becomes extremely sensitive to criticism and in one way or another stifles opposition. By its very principles, it is the enemy of social freedom even as it is the enemy of economic freedom. The object lesson which a socialized Europe is giving us now should make every American determined to resist its further inroads here.

Athletic Field And School Band Aided

Northville Downs Makes Substantial Gifts to Local Projects

Through the generosity and public spirited attitude of the Northville Downs, the Plymouth high school athletic field construction fund has been increased by a donation of $1500. The Plymouth Junior Chamber of Commerce, which last spring assumed the responsibility of raising sufficient funds to buy new uniforms for the 80 members of the Plymouth high school band, through the same generous spirit of the Northville Downs has also benefited by a contribution of the Northville Downs by a check of $1500.00.

This gift assures the Plymouth high school band of new uniforms when the fall term opens.

Presentation of these checks was made at last Friday's Rotary club meeting by Manager Sam Wiedrick of the Northville Downs Association. Present with Mr. Wiedrick were John Carlos, who is associated with him in the operation of the most successful harness horse race meet at Northville, and Orlo Owen of Northville, who has been resident representative of the Association since the opening of harness horse racing in Northville three years ago.

President George Todd of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and John Gaffield, one of its board members, were present at the meeting to receive from Mr. Wiedrick the contribution for the high school band uniforms.

Sterling Eaton, chairman of the Rotary fund solicitation committee for the high school athletic field, accepted the contribution for the athletic field and immediately presented it to John

No Prostrations as Result of Long Heat Wave

Although this part of the state has experienced the longest continued heat wave known in years, there has not been a single heat prostration case reported in Plymouth or vicinity, according to local police.

While this part of the state enjoyed some slight relief last weekend, the blistering sun returned with full fury on Sunday and has continued to provide almost a daily high averaging from 90 to 98 degrees. Monday the mercury in some thermometers standing in the sun hit the hundred point.

Nights have provided but little relief. Sunday and Monday nights were as hot and humid as were most of the nights of the previous two weeks. Many people put up cots on their porches and in their yards in an effort to find some relief from the heat while trying to get a bit of refreshing sleep.

Others, unable to sleep, got into their cars and drove about the country roads seeking a cool breeze.

A Wednesday evening shower brought temporary relief, but it lasted for only a brief while.

Cloverdales to Play Sport Shop

The speedy Cloverdale team Sunday chalked up another victory in the play-off series now taking place, defeating the E & L team by a score of 7 to 5.

Bob Hitt pitched another one of those crack-bang-up good games he has been doing since the series started, allowing only eight hits.

Hans Kubitsky led in hitting getting four out of five, and driving in three of the seven runs made.

The Cloverdale team will play the Sport Shop outfit on Sunday at 3:30 o'clock in Riverside park. The Cloverdales have won three straight games and the fast Sport Shop team has been defeated but once, so Sunday's game ought to be a fast one.

Of interest to local bowlers is the announcement made this week by Lee Butler, owner of Plymouth Recreation Bowling, of a Head Pin tournament to begin tonight (Friday). The tournament marks the opening of his alleys for the season.

Schools to Open Here Week Later Than in the Past

Monday, September 8, a week following Labor day, has been set as the opening date of the Plymouth public schools.

This action has been taken by local school authorities because of the fact that attendance records for the first school week when the opening has been on Tuesday following the usual Labor day celebration have always been far below the week following.

In an effort to do away with the rush to classify the many students who enter a week late, the later date has been fixed for a trial experiment this year.

School authorities are expecting last year's attendance records to be broken, although they reached an all-time high a year ago.

Indications are that there will be a total registration of more than 2,250 this year. Of this total, there will be about 1,119 registrations from the kindergarten up to and including the sixth grade.

It is expected that the total registration for the seventh to twelfth grades will exceed 1,135. Last year's total registration reached a high of 2,198.

When teachers and students return to their school duties on September 8 they will find a completely renovated and somewhat extensively changed school plant.

The high school principal's office has been moved to the first floor for greater convenience to teachers and students and the public as well.

The library has been divided so as to provide a second study hall in order that greater use can be made of the library for library purposes.

Shelves have been placed in the new wall dividing the library from the new study hall.

Mr. Alford, Junior High Principal will have his office on the third floor where the majority of the 7th, 8th and 9th grade classes are to be held.

The Pilgrim Prints room has been moved from the first floor to the room previously occupied by Mr. Alford.

The coaches will use the room previously used by the Pilgrim Prints as a physical education office.

To Erect Warning Signs on Friday Night Parking

So that shoppers who come to Plymouth Friday nights will not be confused by the parking meter regulations City Manager Harold Cheek has ordered a number of display signs prepared to be placed on light posts about the city pointing out that parking regulations on Friday, the weekend shopping day, prevail until 9 o'clock in the evening.

Numerous people from out of the city who have come here to do their regular weekly shopping, did not know that the parking meters were in use on Friday evenings.

The printed information on the meters pertaining to Friday nights is in such small type that few people have known that it was necessary to pay for the parking of cars on Friday up until 9 o'clock in the evening.

As a result large numbers of police tickets have been issued for over-parking on Friday nights.

The new signs will be posted as soon as received.

About $300 per week is being collected from the parking meters. The police department reports that the number of parking meter violations is dropping very rapidly as people become more accustomed to the new parking system. It is believed that there will be fewer violations on Friday nights. The meters are not used after 6 o'clock on other days of the week.

No Celebrations Planned Here for Labor Day

Labor Day, Monday, September 1, is going to be just another one of those Labor days that has featured this day of holiday rush here, there and everywhere.

Plymouth will add its proper proportion of auto drivers who will help to clutter up the highways and byways of Michigan, Canada and some nearby states.

There are no celebrations planned in this area, although a number of baseball games have been scheduled.

If Monday, September 1 should happen to be a pleasant day, attendants of Plymouth-Riverside park say the crowds seeking recreation and rest in the parks will exceed all previous records.

They make this statement upon the records of the past few weeks, when hot weather has driven hundreds of thousands of men, women and children from Detroit to the nearby parks.

Local gas men say they expect to have all the gas, tires and everything else that will be needed for people who desire to hit the highways and byways.

Will Tell of New Parkway Project

Plymouth Rotarians will hear a talk on the Huron-Clinton parkway project at their meeting this noon. Charles De Turk, director of education for metropolitan authority, will acquaint club members with the immensity of the parkway development which is under way throughout this area.

Mr. De Turk was recently director of state parks for the state of Indiana and until he accepted his present position with the Huron-Clinton project he was associated for a time with the Wayne County Road Commission.

Lady Bowlers Forming Teams

Team members and captains of the Ladies' Parkview Bowling teams met Monday evening at the home of Delite McAllister for discussion of new teams, rules and regulations and election of officers.

New presiding officers for 1947-48 season are: L. Vickstrom, Pres., C. Davis, Vice-Pres., L. Rambo, Sec.-Treas.

All teams entering the ladies' league must have an established team average of between 600 and 700. There are vacancies for a few extra teams and all new team averages must be submitted to Mr. Schuster by September 8.

Lightning Strikes Barn Flames Cause Heavy Loss

William Bakhaus Family Suffers Heavy Loss From Electric Storm

When the heavy lightning and thunder storm passed over this section of Wayne county Wednesday night shortly after 6 o'clock, lightning struck the big barn on the William Bakhaus farm, corner of Warren and Sheldon roads, causing a fire which burned the structure to the ground and destroyed all the stored crops.

George Bakhaus, a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Bakhaus, and a hired man were in the barn at the time it was struck, just preparing to start milking 40 cows that had been placed in their stanchions.

The two young men saw fire start almost immediately, but they were able to free all of the cows and drive them from the barn before smoke caused them to run from the burning structure.

The barn, 120 feet long and 42 feet wide, was soon enveloped in a great mass of flames.

The entire hay crop, as well as a large mow of straw, a granary filled with freshly threshed wheat and several hundreds of bushels of corn left over from last year's crop, kept the fire burning long after the big structure had been burned to the ground.

Two silos were damaged and will probably have to be entirely rebuilt.

The loss will be many thousands of dollars, only partly covered by insurance.

Calls to the Plymouth fire department were delayed because the lightning had put out of commission phones at the Bakhaus and other nearby farms. When the department finally did arrive, water was pumped from a nearby creek into the granary in an effort to check the flames in that building, but without success.

For a time it was feared that the intense heat from the fire might set the house on fire, but this was saved from any damage.

Neighboring farmers took care of the large Bakhaus herd of milch cows and rendered all other assistance possible.

About half a mile east and somewhat south of the Bakhaus farm lightning had hit a tree in some woods and for nearly an hour the tree stood burning from the ground to the topmost branches, providing a most unusual sight in the nighttime.

Garden Club to Meet August 25

There will be a special meeting of the Garden Club, Monday, August 25. Members are asked to meet at 1:00 p.m. for a box luncheon at the home of Mrs. Albert Pint, on the corner of Schoolcraft and Bradner roads.

The meeting was called for the purpose of completing plans for the club's annual Flower Show, which will be held in the Hotel Mayflower, September 10.

A new feature of the show this year will be a display of photographs of local gardens. Those interested are asked to assemble their garden pictures for this unique display. Club members suggested that local residents who do not have photographs might have snapshots taken now and still have time to place them in the show. Full information regarding the picture display and other show entries can be obtained from any member of the Plymouth Branch of the National Farm and Garden Association.

Plymouth's Salvation Army Will Start Drive for Funds September 8

Beginning Monday, September 8, the annual drive of the Plymouth Salvation Army for funds to carry on its splendid charitable work in and around Plymouth during the ensuing year, will take place with Robert D. Willoughby serving as general chairman.

Captain William H. Roberts of the local Salvation Army group, states that the goal has been fixed for $4,000 and he believes that it will be reached through the intensive drive that is being planned by Chairman Willoughby.

Complete details and the names of all the fund workers will be published in next week's issue of The Plymouth Mail. The Salvation Army has established itself firmly in this community as the result of the excellent type of work it has carried on since establishing a branch here a number of years ago.

Golf Players in Hilltop Contest Evenly Matched

In sharp contrast to the bad weather that sent scores soaring during the qualifying rounds of the Hilltop City Tournament last year, the ideal conditions of last Saturday brought forth a barrage of scores so closely grouped that it was necessary in many cases to draw lots to separate the different flights. The 23 who were eliminated out of the field of 77 were for the most part only a stroke or two away from the highest total that qualified the remaining 64 for the elimination match play that began last Sunday.

Keen competition marked the play throughout the day when Robert Ritchie's par 72 round early in the morning remained intact until later in the afternoon.

Making Inquiry Into Cause of Midnight Blaze

Twice within the past nine or ten months, flames have nearly destroyed the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Papile on Jener place just north of Brush street.

Early Thursday morning, shortly before 1 o'clock, flames were discovered leaping through the roof of the four room cottage. The entire interior was a mass of flames and only the outer walls of the house were standing when firemen succeeded in putting the flames out.

It was barely nine months ago when the same house was badly damaged by fire. At that time neighbors and friends extended considerable help to the owner. It had been repaired and recently re-occupied by the same family.

All of the furnishings of the house were destroyed and it is not believed that the structure can be rebuilt this time, so badly is the frame work damaged.

How the fire started is a mystery. The occupants were away at the time and both police and fire officials are making a careful investigation in an effort to find how the fire started. Papile has recently been employed at the Kaiser-Frazer auto plant.

Appointment of Paul D. Davison as Works Manager of the new Evans Products Company plant in Plymouth is announced by E. S. Evans, Jr., president. Davison, who has over 22 years experience in plant management procedures, will direct all production operations in the new Evans plant now manufacturing the Evans Auto-Loader and Utility-Loader for railroad freight cars, bus and truck heating and ventilating equipment, passenger car heaters and oil-burning automatic water heaters, home heaters and furnaces.

The new plant, built in 1941 and purchased by Evans in 1945, is thoroughly modern in all respects. It has over 330,739 square feet of working space under roof with all facilities on one floor to afford maximum stock handling efficiency and straight line production. It has its own power plant and construction is nearing completion on a modern 30,000 square foot warehouse.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gothard of Union street entertained 15 small guests in honor of their son, Gerald's third birthday. The children enjoyed games and ice cream and cake were served.

Kroger Store to be Remodeled Over Week-End

Plymouth's Kroger store will be closed Monday and Tuesday in order to permit an expansion of its floor space and a general re-arrangement of its counters and stock bins.

Manager Roland Widmayer states that workmen will make the improvements to completion so that the store can re-open at the usual time on Wednesday morning.

The change over is necessitated by the addition of another check-out stand which will enable faster counter service when patrons leave the store.

The fruit and vegetable department will be moved to the back of the store where the soap department is now located.

A new mirrored vegetable counter will be installed and the soap section will be moved to the front of the store. The center of the store will be entirely re-arranged with the addition of more and newer display counters.

A meat cutting room will be added in addition to the mechanical basement stock conveyor which has just been built in the store.

Local Youths Favored to Win

Paul Widmayer's Cardinals of Plymouth, champions of Class E Western Wayne League, will represent that league in the state class E Recreation Tournament which opens this Friday, August 22 at Dearborn.

The Cardinals are one of 15 teams from various parts of the state in this class. Other cities represented are Grrosse Pointe, Port Huron, Van Dyke, Wyandotte, Dearborn, Ann Arbor, Pontiac, River Rouge, Adrian, Farmdale, Ecorse, Inkster, Hamtramck and Highland Park.

First round games will be played at 4 p.m. this Friday, August 22 with Plymouth meeting Inkster at Henry Ford school grounds located between Greenfield and Southfield near Michigan. This tournament is a one game knock-out and second round games will be played at 10 a.m. Saturday. Third round games at 4 p.m. Saturday and the finals at 2 p.m. Sunday.

The Cardinals finished their season undefeated with only a tie game against Wayne. The regular team members making the trip to Dearborn are as follows: Jack Scheel, Gerald Harder, Phil Basman, Ronald Hees, Harry Blessing, Gil Waslawski, Larry Finney, Fletcher Campbell, Joe Miller, Ted Thrasher, Neil Lamphere, Irving Stewart, John Wiltse, John Bacheider and Edson Whipple.

In addition the Cardinals were privileged to choose three additional battery men from other teams in the League to bolster their pitching and catching for tournament play. Those chosen were Morley and Brown pitchers from the Livonia Fireman and Piscopink, catcher from Wayne.

It is hoped that a large following from Plymouth will be present to cheer these youngsters on to victory.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Gothard of Union street entertained 15 small guests in honor of their son, Gerald's third birthday. The children enjoyed games and ice cream and cake were served.

OBITUARIES

Donald Purdy Yerkes
Donald Purdy Yerkes, 81 year old lumber dealer of Northville and well known in Plymouth and vicinity, died Tuesday afternoon after a brief illness in Sessions hospital in Northville. His passing removes from activity one of the best known businessmen in this part of Wayne county, where he had lived all of his life.

He was born in Novi township October 22, 1866, the fourth son of Robert and Sarah Holmes Yerkes. When a babe his parents erected the present Yerkes home, known as "Oakland Place" on Base Line road on the north side of Northville, where he spent his entire lifetime except 12 years in Milford, where he operated a flour mill with two of his brothers, Robert and William.

When he returned to Northville in 1906 he entered into partnership with his father-in-law, Lyman McRobert in the ownership and operation of the Northville Milling Co., which was later sold to Henry Ford.

On May 28, 1890 he was united in marriage with Nellie McRobert, who died May 20, 1944. They celebrated their golden wedding on May 28, 1940. The past ten years Mr. Yerkes had spent the winters in St. Petersburg, Florida.

He was an ardent sportsman and years ago earned the nickname "Old Dead-Eye" because of his expert marksmanship in small game hunting.

Small game hunting has been more community-minded than was Mr. Yerkes. While a resident of Milford he served on both the school board and as a member of the city council. When he moved back to Northville he became a member of the school board of that place and through his efforts, the present Northville school gymnasium was built. He was a charter member of the Northville Rotary club and retained his membership until his death. He had served the club as one of its most active presidents. He was also active in the work of the Northville Presbyterian church. Surviving are three daughters and one son, Mrs. Winfield L. Holden of Detroit, Mrs. Harold R. Smith of Grosse Pointe, Mrs. John C. Burkman and Donald P. Yerkes, Jr., both of Northville. Schools to Open Here Week Later Than in the Past

The nurse's office has been moved to the room previously used as a physical education office.

A new sink, new gas stove and new hot water tank are being installed in the kitchen.

In addition to these changes the high school has been repainted

ed throughout, all of the hallways and the classrooms having been thoroughly cleaned and painted. The floors have also been painted and waxed.

The gym floors have been refinished and the ceilings in five different rooms have new Celotex coverings.

A 10-foot sidewalk has been laid from the main building to the band room and the lunch room furniture has been refinished. The floors in three different rooms have also been covered with asphalt tile. Repairs have also been made to the steam pipes from the central heating plant to the Central grade building. Nearly all of the work has been done by the regularly employed school custodians.

New Mannikins Used for Display

It appears that there is something new every day, even in the styles of the mannikins that are used to display to young ladies and women the latest in dress styles of the day.

Mrs. Norma Cassidy "can rightfully boast that she happens to be the first merchant this side of Fifth avenue in New York City to have the new style mannikins to use in the window display of dresses and coats. They are in use in the Cassidy store windows for the first time this week.

The new Cassidy mannikins were made along with a group that was produced for one of the largest stores in New York City.

They are the artist's conception of the eager alert and active young woman of today, states Mrs. Cassidy.

Expert clothes designers, knowing that the greater number by far of American women will vary in measurements, design the new clothes so skillfully that they carry out the lines and styles of this new season in all the range of sizes. Any woman, properly fitted, will appear as well and stylish as it is possible for decorators to dress the new mannikins.

The best mannikins are moulded from living models but each mannikin may represent a composite of the features of two or more models. In working out his idea the artist strives for lifelike action. From that point it is the job of the window designer to carry out this action in position, drape and costume.

Artistic and attractive store windows add much to the appearance of any city and in general opinion the Cassidy store is doing a fine job but, there are many who desire to see women with more rounded contours. But, again, this is only opinion.

The "Lost and Found" column of a Navy Seabee Battalion newspaper in the Pacific during the war offered a reward for a Japanese bugle, trophy of one of the mates. However, in this case the reward was offered not for the instrument's recovery, but for its disappearance. Complain the men who inserted the notice: the owner practiced too much!

President Paul Wiedman of the Rotary club expressed the sincere thanks of the club to Mr. Wiedrick and his associates for their generous gift, which was made at a time when the club was sorely pressed for funds to pay for some of the improvements that have already been made at the field. He asserted that it represented a high type of public service and that the school boys and girls who will benefit by the construction of the new field, would, if present, also extend their sincere thanks.

Speaking for the Junior Chamber of Commerce, Mr. Todd expressed appreciation of not only the members of the band committee, but of all the members of the young business men's organization who have worked diligently in an effort to raise sufficient funds to pay for the new uniforms. He, too, declared that the contribution of Mr. Wiedrick represented the type of public spirit which counts for so much good in the world.

Mr. Wiedrick, who was called upon for a few remarks, declared that he as well as his associates were pleased to be in a position to aid two such worthy projects to which they made donations. He told briefly of the tremendous increase in harness horse racing since the close of the war, and predicted that one of the oldest sports in the world had added much to the enjoyment of harness horse racing fans by instituting night racing meets.

Through organizations or trotting horsemen and the cooperation of public officials in setting up every possible known safeguard, harness horse racing is on its way to an all-time peak, he declared.

DeHoCo Trimmed by Oldsmobile

On Monday, August 18 Oldsmobile upset the favored House of Correction by the score of 5 to 0. Up to this game Oldsmobile had only been able to score one run in four games off the pitching of John Trombley. The famine ended in the fourth inning when doubles by Wilkie and Egloff and singles by Schryer and Bassett produced two runs. To put the game on ice they scored three runs in the fifth on a walk and error and singles by Wilkie and Schryer. The House of Correction collected only four hits off of Street as he struck out 16 batters.

Oldsmobile and the House of Correction have one loss each and will meet on Friday, August 29 at 6:15 P.M. at the High School diamond to decide the Champion of the Plymouth Industrial Class A League. Awards will be given immediately following the game and pictures taken of the Champions.

Daisy Air Rifles and Cavalcade Inn played two games of their two out of three for the Class B title this week. If they split the final game will be played on Tuesday, August 26 at 6:15 p.m. in back of the High School.

lowing the game and pictures taken of the Champions.

Industrial All-Star Game
Arrangements have been made with the Wayne Recreation Department to play a home and home All-Star Game. All-Star players from the Wayne League will play those selected from Plymouth on Wednesday, August 27 at 6:15 p.m. on the High School field. On Thursday, August 28 the Plymouth All-Stars will travel to Eloise field and play Wayne again at 9:00 p.m.

Probable Plymouth lineup:
Wilkie, Oldsmobile, 3b; Martin, Cavalcade, 2b; Epps, Merchants, cf; Leichweis, Cavalcade, lf; Gillis, Merchants, lb; Bridge-Daisy, rf; Bishop, Cavalcade, ss; Schryer-Olds, c or Darnell, Daisy, c; Trombley, DeHoCo, p, or Street, Olds, p; Utility, Cousinaw, Cavalcade, Evans.

Beglinger's Oldsmobile, Plymouth Representative for the State Softball Tournament, will play the first round at Midland, Michigan on Friday, August 22. In the first round they will meet the Championship team of Wyandotte.

The tournament is a two loss and out with the final games being played on Sunday, August 24. Plymouth is in a bracket with Center Line, Kalamazoo, Dearborn, Muskegon, River Rouge, Grand Rapids, and Ann Arbor.

Western Wayne League
Wiedman's Cardinals, Champions of the Western Wayne League, will travel to Dearborn today, August 22, to participate in the Michigan Recreation Association Junior Baseball Tournament. In the first round they drew the champions of Inkster and play them at 5 p.m. at Henry Ford field. Ford field is located just south of Michigan avenue between Greenfield and Southfield roads.

The tournament is a one loss and out. By winning Friday the Cardinals will play Highland Park on the same field at 10 a.m. Saturday.

Fall Tennis Tournament
It appears that there is enough interest to have a Fall Tennis Tournament for men and women living in Plymouth township.

All interested parties are encouraged to appear in Room 204 of the Plymouth City Hall at 7 p.m. on Monday, August 25. The purpose of this meeting is to draw up the tournament brackets, discuss the rules of the tournament and select the location and dates for the competition. At that time also players who would like to play in mixed doubles and doubles will probably be able to find a partner if they do not have one by then.

Everyone who is interested should appear even though you may not have called the City Hall as previously announced in the paper. Entries are still open. Let's all turn out and make this a good tournament.

Plymouth Field Meet

The High School field will be made ready on Monday, September 1 for all contestants to practice for the field meet which will be held on Saturday, September 6 at 2 p.m. Events as listed below will be held. The events for the younger children have not as yet been decided.

Shortly after forcing the surrender of the British Frigate, HMS Serapis, John Paul Jones found that his own ship, Bonhomme Richard, was sinking from damage caused by the enemy. He then transferred to his prize and from the decks of the vanquished Serapis watched the victorious Bonhomme Richard go down.

Fleet Admiral Halsey, commander of the famed Third Fleet which contributed so much to victory in the Pacific, had his first service after graduation from the Naval Academy aboard the old U.S.S. Missouri, precursor of the mighty Missouri aboard which the formal Japanese surrender was signed.

PONTIAC
A fine car made finer

The De Luxe Convertible Coupe has recently been made more beautiful by re-styling the instrument panel in colors which harmonize with body colors; by the addition of deep-pleated, custom-type upholstery; and by the tasteful use of chrome on windshield, rear view mirror and interior garnish moldings.

A Product of General Motors

So many things in its favor!

Ask a Pontiac owner why he recommends a Pontiac—and he will likely tell you there are so many things in its favor that he finds it difficult to enumerate them all.
He likes its "Silver Streak" styling—so distinctive that you can recognize a Pontiac as far as you can see it. He likes its eager, smooth, quiet performance. He likes its comfort and handling ease. He likes the many fine-car features which make it such a pride to own and such a pleasure to drive. He likes its faithfulness—its ability to stay on the job for year after year with undiminished performance. And, of course, he will mention that he gets all this at a price within easy reach of any new car buyer.

Yes, there are so many things in its favor that your next car should be a Pontiac. You can never do better than a Pontiac!

THE SOONER YOU PLACE YOUR ORDER for a new Pontiac, the earlier you will get it. In the meantime, take care of your present car—you will get more for it when your new car is delivered.

THE MASON FLOOR PLAN

THE MASON—Few small houses possess the authentic early American charm of this cottage. The plans provide for construction with either one or two bedrooms. For economy, it should be built without basement. Plans show basement alternate, however. The living room has three way ventilation. The kitchen provides dinette space. The master bedroom is of a size to grace a much larger house. Closets are generous. The exterior charm of this house sets it apart from most small houses. It conforms to the standards of FHA and the National Adequate Wiring Bureau. Blueprints from which this unusually attractive small home may be built, are available. Health Tips

(By The Plymouth Health Department.)

Poliomyelitis, or more commonly known as Infantile Paralysis is a communicable disease.

The disease is most commonly prevalent during the hot months of July, August and September, but sporadic cases may turn up anytime.

It is believed to be caused by a virus. A virus is a type of germ which cannot be seen through a microscope. The true nature of a virus is unknown, we know only its effects.

It is believed that the virus is spread in contaminated water, possibly in milk. It is found in flies.

Symptoms:
The early symptoms are similar to the ordinary cold and so called intestinal flu.

The victim at first complains of a fever, headache, may be nauseated, may vomit and have a more or less mild diarrhea for a few days. This may and frequently is the whole course of the disease and of course it would probably never be correctly diagnosed.

If the disease is to progress, after a few days the patient feels well, then begins to have more fever, headache and stiffness in neck and back. This may persist for a few days and the patient becomes entirely well, no paralysis having developed.

Again after a few days the headache and other symptoms persist and groups of muscles begin to have painful spasms and then more or less complete paralysis after a period of treatment.

There is no known serum or vaccine to prevent or cure the disease, although from time to time some one thinks he has found a way to make one.

A well person may be a carrier of the disease as in the case of Diphtheria and Typhoid Fever.

How to prevent the disease?
The following measures seem to help a great deal.

1. Avoid swimming in polluted water.
2. Strict personal cleanliness. Wash hands often.
3. Avoid exhaustion — especially, children should not be allowed to play until exhausted.
4. Get competent medical service when children show any of the above symptoms.
5. Eat regularly. Get plenty of sleep.
6. Get rid of flies.

The U.S.S. Ingersoll's first service was as flagship of Admiral Royal E. Ingersoll, then Commander-in-Chief, U. S. Atlantic Fleet. The destroyer was named in honor of the Admiral's father, who served with distinction during the Civil, Spanish-American and World Wars, and the Admiral's son, a hero of World War II.

Going to sea in sailing ships at the age of ten, Sven J. Skou, born in Oslo, Norway, completed more than 42 years' service with the U. S. Navy before his voluntary retirement at the age of 64. He participated in seven campaigns from the Spanish-American War to World War I.

To Open Grant House at Fair

Grant House, the dwelling of Ulysses S. Grant when the Civil War General lived in Detroit in 1849 and 1850, will house one of the most interesting exhibits at the Michigan State Fair to be held Aug. 29 through Sept. 7. Through the cooperation of the Detroit Historical Society, the house is being furnished in the period of Grant's time and will be open to inspection from 10:00 a.m. to 10:00 p.m. daily during the Fair.

Miss Marian Herbek, museum assistant, who is in charge of selecting and installing the furnishings as well as a number of authentic Grant relics, plans to follow the 1849 period in the bedroom and the later Grant Presidential period in the furnishing of the living room. A bed that Grant slept in will be on display as well as an old chest, a chest of drawers, Grant's razor and his cuspidor.

Members of Detroit's Women's clubs will be hostesses and supply information to visitors. There is no admittance fee.

Grant House, formerly situated at 1369 E. Fort street, was purchased by the Michigan Mutual Liability Co., in 1936 and presented to the State of Michigan as a museum. It was moved to the Fairgrounds to become a permanent museum.

FAIR IN THE LIGHT OF MEMORY SHINES

MICHIGAN MICHIGAN

ELTON R. EATON

From the Michigan Conservation Department's news bureau there came this week a timely compilation of important changes made in the fall hunting regulations, pertaining to pheasants, duck and deer.

A 12-day pheasant hunting season with the season bag cut from eight to six, a 30 day duck season with the daily bag cut from seven to four, and the opening of additional deer hunting territory are the major new rules for the 1947 hunting season approved by the conservation commission at its August meeting in the Higgins Lake conservation training school.

Michigan shares the nationwide slump in pheasant numbers, and the 10-day shooting season, October 15 to October 26, is expected to reduce the illegal kill of hens.

Summer reports of game men and conservation officers have indicated fewer pheasants than there were a year ago.

Deer hunters have had their territory increased by roughly one tier of counties, as the southern boundary of the open zone has been moved southward to highway M-50 from Lake Michigan to Grand Rapids, along highway M-21 from Grand Rapids to highway M-13 east of Owosso, and north along highways M-13, US-23 and M-47 to Saginaw bay, excluding the Thumb. Expansion of the deer herd and resultant damage to agricultural crops prompted the boundary extension.

Deer hunting regulations are otherwise unchanged, except as the Legislature authorized bow and arrow hunting for "one deer"—duck, doe or fawn—October 11-November 5 in 17 counties besides Allegan; Gogebic, Roscommon, Montmorency, Crawford, Newaygo, Alpena, Benzie, Leelanau, Iosco, Montcalm, Ionia, Oscoda, Ontonagon, Iron, Schoolcraft, Mackinac and Luce.

Michigan's waterfowl hunting regulations, drawn up in conformity with federal rules, permit hunting October 7 to November 5, from sunrise to one hour before sunset, except on opening day when shooting starts at noon. This is an hour less shooting daily than hunters had last year.

The daily bag limit is four ducks, of which one may be a wood duck, the possession limit is eight, of which still only one may be a wood duck. Permissible bag and possession limit for geese is four, which may include one Canada or one white fronted goose. The bag limit for coots is 25. All state regulations on duck blinds have been abolished.

Regulations for hunting ruffed grouse, prairie chickens, sharp-tailed grouse, fox squirrels and gray squirrels, bears, and raccoons, and for trapping muskrats, were approved by the commission exactly as they were a year ago.

when the Congress adjourned and cannot be considered until the 2nd Session convenes on January 6, 1948.

The proposal to amend the Migratory Bird Hunting Stamp Act has the approval of a high percentage of the wildfowlers. They realize that much of the recent serious decline in waterfowl populations is attributed to a shortage of refuges, sanctuaries and feeding areas, especially along the flyways and in the wintering grounds, and they know that the increased stamp receipts will go for the acquisition, development and maintenance of urgently needed duck resting spots.

Federal Aid to State Fishery Bill Blocked.

Millions of fishermen, not only the disciples of Ike Walton, but youngsters with bent pins and string, will be dismayed to learn that passage of the Federal Aid to State Fishery Bill, H. R. 1693, was blocked before the closing of the first Session of the 80th Congress. When the bill was called on the House calendar, Congressman Kean (New Jersey), asked that it be passed over without prejudice. It still retains its place on the calendar and will be considered again when Congress reconvenes on January 6, 1948.

The majority of fishermen who pay the federal excise tax levied on some types of fishing tackle feel that the revenue should be used for fishery restoration, the

Let's Wake Up Rip Van Winkle!

Millions of bushels of food may rot in our fields this harvest time, instead of being available to the markets of the world — because of our shortage of freight cars. Here is a way that thousands of cars can be freed for service—in a hurry.

ARE you interested in the price of food? Does it give you a twinge to see those pictures of mountains of wheat piled on the ground and potatoes going to rot—when there's a desperate world food crisis?

The bottle-neck is our freight-car shortage. But thousands of cars could be freed by a single decision—if old-line railroad managements would act.

Are old-line managements asleep while freight trains creep at a snail's pace—by agreement?

Don't Blame the War!

This is hard to believe, but it's true: we have today only three-fourths as many freight cars in our country as we had twenty years ago. This shrunken fleet is now called on to handle the greatest peacetime traffic in history. And the war itself is not to blame for the shortage—for in no single year from 1925 to the start of hostilities did the railroad industry buy as many cars as it junked. Twenty years is a long time for even Rip Van Winkle to sleep!

What Can Be Done?

There is at least one remedy that can be applied at once—despite the steel shortage and other difficulties in car-building. This remedy requires no new equipment, no period of time to work out—nothing but an act of management:

Lift what appear to be agreements between railroads that deliberately slow down many freight trains!

Here is an example. There are eight important schedule routes by which you can ship "fast" freight from California to Chicago. These routes vary in length as much as 450 miles. But, curiously, the time schedule for each of the eight is exactly 118 hours—and 30 minutes!

Similarly, scheduled freight trains moving west over the important routes from Chicago to the Coast areas, despite great differences in terrain and mileage, take exactly 130 hours—on the nose!

Is This Free Competition?

Could it be that these schedules are fixed by agreement? That the trains which could be fastest are held back for the slowest—so that no road can have even the slightest competitive advantage?

Railroad men know that, in many instances, a whole day could be cut off these schedules between California and Chicago—if managements would simply order it. If that were done, on these roads and on others, it would ease the national car shortage at once!

There is good reason to believe that by lifting deliberate freight slowdowns, on the roads that still practice them, we could provide more cars this summer and fall than our shops can possibly build. And, at this critical time, every car that can be freed for service is desperately needed!

A Call For Action!

The next few weeks will be the most important ones in our food problem. Our wheat crop is estimated to exceed any previous record by 300 million bushels. It is even now being piled in the fields—for want of cars.

If you feel as strongly about this as the C&O does, write to your newspaper and your congressman. Do it today while it is on your mind.

Ask them to stir up Rip Van Winkle—and tell him that time is short. Demand that our trains be scheduled not merely to suit the private deals of the railroads, but so that we can make the best use, for the whole public, of our shamefully depleted stock of freight cars!

Plymouth Boy Scout Writes of Visit to War Torn Sections of Old World

From Jamboree, France there came a few days ago an interesting letter from Ray Highfield, Plymouth Boy Scout who is fortunate enough to be in attendance at the first international conference of Scouts held since the World war ended.

His letter will be of interest to every resident of Plymouth. It follows:

"Dear Editor — We landed at Antwerp, Belgium, Saturday, August 2. We started our tours this morning by going to Ghent and Bruges. In Ghent we visited the Castle of the Counts of Flanders, which was built back in the tenth century to protect a ruler from his people. It had a moat around it but has partly been filled in. In one room they had old handcuffs which were used in the dungeons, also a guillotine with two extra blades. And then the Town Hall and the St. Baafskerk Cathedral which is very large and beautiful with pictures by Ruben in it.

"The people here dress, look like, and live something like Americans. There are many Belgians that speak English and all the store clerks speak at least a little English.

"There are a few pill-boxes that Germans built near a tunnel that goes under a river to the city of Antwerp. One can see holes in the walls of some buildings where shells hit, many buildings are clear down.

"One of the Belgium Scouts said U-I rockets landed here and in other parts of Belgium. But in contrast to this, the countryside is beautiful with small farms and crops.

"Corn is on the averages about five feet high and other grains in the fields are ready to be harvested. Many of these farms grow beautiful flowers in place of grass. The flowers are varied in colors.

Almost everybody here rides bikes and there is a place provided for them at the side of the road, like our sidewalks, only these go from town to town.

"The money exchange rates is 44 francs to the American dollar. To give an illustration of prices here, a scout master paid 20 francs (approximately $5.00) for a pack of American cigarettes."

There is a victory and defeat—the first and best of victories, the lowest and worst of defeats — which each man gains or sustains at the hands not of another, but of himself.—Plato.

Mrs. Lobbitt Goes to World Meet

Mrs. Ray W. Lobbitt of Royal Oak, known professionally as Myrtle Lobbitt, and well known to many Plymouth residents, is one of two Michigan women selected to go to Holland to attend a conference of the Associated Country Women of the World, to which practically every State in the Union is sending delegates.

Mrs. George Lilly of Dearborn is the other woman to represent Michigan at Amsterdam in this first post-war meeting of the association. There will be delegates from at least 39 states.

Formerly on the staff of the Detroit News, Mrs. Lobbitt for several years has been woman's editor of radio station CKLW. During her absence her program will be conducted by John Gordon, supplemented by several guest commentators.

Friday, Mrs. Lobbitt flew to Minnesota to spend a few days with her 83-year-old mother, Mrs. G. R. Ericson of Goodhue. Her European trip will include a few days in England, thence to Belgium, Holland and finally Paris. "I plan to see Mr. and Mrs. George W. Renchard in Holland" said Mrs. Lobbitt, "they are visiting their son, George, Jr., and his wife. And I most certainly expect to look up Mary Morris while in Paris. We're sailing home from LaHavre, France, Sept. 26, on a reconditioned boat, the SS Tiger which was used by the Marines during the war."

When this important association of rural women met in Detroit in the early thirties, Mrs. Lobbitt recalled, Greenfield Village was turned over to them through the courtesy of Mrs. Henry Ford.

"Don't be surprised if I come home with a completely new Persian outfit" laughed Myrtle Lobbitt. "You see, we've been warned to 'travel light,' but we're also admonished to take plenty of warm clothing — not forgetting raincoat, rubbers and umbrella. Then in still another communication we are urged to leave everything we possibly can spare for the needy women of Holland."

Mrs. Lobbitt will be glad, she says, if any women wish to address packages of clothing to her at once in care of the International Conference Associated Country Women of the World, Hotel Krasnapolsky, Warmoesstraat 175-185 Amsterdam C. She will see that they are given to those who lack, and will leave complete instructions in case any packages should arrive after she has left.

The Lobbitts at one time lived in Northville.

Who put the sapphires in Mrs. Murphy's basement?

Tommy Murphy was incredulous. "G'wan, how can there be sapphires in our basement?" he demanded. "Where are they, anyhow?"

"Right in this little black box, son," grinned the Edison man, tapping the Murphys' meter. "In there you'll find tiny sapphire-jeweled bearings, made with the same skill and precision that go into your dad's watch."

The careful workmanship in your meter is reflected in its absolute accuracy, whether it be in your basement or outside your home. And the man who checks that meter is so well-trained that he reads its figures as quickly and accurately as you tell time.

This emphasis on accuracy is part of the Edison way of doing business . . . it contributes to the uniformity and the year-round reliability of your electrical service.

How to Get Rid of That Pesky Fly

Are you playing midwife to a filthy fly? Are you giving her the run of your house, and inviting her to sit at your table?

This is the height of the 1947 fly season, and if you still have flies around your house and barn, today is the time to kill them and DDT is the way to do it. Dr. William DeKleine, State Health Commissioner, advised today.

DDT isn't dangerous unless you eat it, and its cost is little. You can spray the parts of your house which need spraying with about 1/2 gallon of five percent spray at a cost of about $1, and the average size lawn can be treated with a pound of wettable DDT powder mixed with about five gallons of water at a cost of about 50 cents. The average home and lawn can be kept free of flies and mosquitoes all summer and fall for about $5.

Medical men know that flies carry such diseases as typhoid, dysentery, cholera, and polio and many others. Germs of most human diseases are found in human excreta, just as germs of animal diseases transmissible to humans, are found in animal excreta. Some types of flies are born in and feed on excreta, others just walk through it.

The fly who "crashes" your summer feast or picnic or enjoys the freedom of your food cupboard has just been hatched in and recently left the most disgusting, unclean and insanitary places in your neighborhood. She has just waded through matter which you would not willingly touch, matter which you would avoid, matter which you would not even approach. Now she is walking on your food, partaking of it, and contaminating it.

Stable manure is the chief breeding place of flies, but rotting vegetable and animal matter, foul garbage cans and dumps, human and animal excreta, cess-pools, chicken coops, pig pens and cow stables are all excellent hosts to the fly and her offspring. The female fly lays about 150 eggs at a time. Two weeks later, her children do the same. One pair of flies in one season can become the ancestors of more flies than 1,000 men could swat in that season.

It is so true as to be almost an axiom, that of two cities or of two farms in the same temperate belt, the one with the least number of filthy, insanitary, fly-breeding accumulations will have the least flies. That is, of course, unless one of the communities or farms has conducted a DDT campaign against the fly nuisance.

If, even in a community which has no fly eradication program, each householder would spray his own buildings and property with DDT solutions, the danger and nuisance of flies could be virtually eliminated. The cost, in comparison with the comfort and freedom from danger of disease, is very small.

"While the spring is the best time to kill flies because there are fewer of them," Dr. DeKleine pointed out, "they should be killed, and I mean killed, now, even though it is August."

Mosquitoes can be eliminated by spraying stagnant pools with DDT solution. Ant, bedbugs, cockroaches, lice and fleas can be eradicated by spraying the places which harbor them with DDT, the Commissioner said.

Township Will Discuss New Law

New state laws providing for reorganization of township government in certain townships of the state will be discussed at a two-day conference to be held at Michigan State college on September 16 and 17. The conference is being sponsored by the college and the Michigan Institute of Local Government, headed by D. Hale Brake, state treasurer.

The new law, passed by the legislature at its recent session, is intended to give townships power to cope with problems unique to them because of their size or location. Townships which may elect to come under the provisions of the act are those having a population of 3,000 or more, or having 2,000 or more inhabitants if the township adjoins a city with a population of 25,000 or more. The last named group includes what is known as "fringe" areas, or urban townships.

At the two-day conference at East Lansing, methods for changing over to the new type of organizations, and the powers and duties of boards and township officers under the new act will provide basis for most of the discussions. It is expected also that some time will be devoted to general problems of the townships. Speakers or leaders will be chosen from among state and township officials and college teachers with an interest in local governmental problems.

Invited to attend the conference are all township residents who are interested in their local government. Invitations have been sent specifically to township supervisors and clerks in the 65 townships of the state which may elect to come under the new law. However, all other citizens in those townships are urged to attend also.

Townships to which the act applies in Wayne county are Livonia, Naakin, Redford, Romulus, Taylor, Montuagon and Northville.

What is merciful censure? To make thy faults appear smaller? May-be to veil them? No, no! O'er them to raise thee on high.—Goethe.

You do not get a man's most effective criticism until you provoke him. Severe truth is expressed with some bitterness.—H. D. Thoreau.

Now Blows Holes In Steel Rails

Ford Motor Company railroad workers who tend the 135 miles of track in the Rouge plant now are equipped with a "cannon" that will shoot holes in steel rails.

Called a velocity power rail punch by the Mine Safety Appliance Company which manufactures it, this 45-pound, portable industrial firearm is loaded like an old smooth bore rifle. The cartridge is placed behind a punch of desired diameter, the firing pin is attached and the "cannon" fired by a tap with a light hammer.

The explosive force drives the punch through the steel rail, leaving a clean, perfectly round hole. This eliminates the time-consuming job of drilling holes in rails when laying track.

Firing a cartridge slightly larger than .45 caliber, the punch is capable of shooting holes up to one and one-half inches in diameter in three-quarter inch steel. It was used extensively by the Navy in the last war in damage control.

TERRY'S BAKERY

Babson Discusses Labor Conditions

Boston, Mass., Aug. 22.—Last night I spent in Wellesley. Desirous to get to Boston early, I went to the Wellesley Hills railroad station to take the 7:16 a.m. train. This is a very fine stone station of the Boston & Albany (New York Central System) Railroad. To my surprise I found no ticket agent, no baggage master and no newspapers. The doors were locked and bolted.

Why Railroads Lack Earnings

Upon inquiring the reason, I was told later in Boston that, in view of a recent forced raise in wages, the railroad cut down the working hours of the station employees so the railroad did not have to pay out any more money. This, of course, resulted only in enabling the station employees to nibble a little longer in the morning.

The station did not open until 7:30 a.m. Until then no tickets could be bought, no newspapers were available, no baggage could be checked and the public telephone could not be used. I stood out in the mist awaiting my train; but a neighbor who was also shaking the door said: "Okay, I'm going down to the Square and get a bus into Boston."

Why Living Costs Are High

Now let us forget, for a moment, whether our sympathies are with the railroad or its employees. The fact is that only the bus company wins by such nonsense! The employees have no more money to take home; the railroad loses customers; the newspapers lose sales and the public is much inconvenienced. Of course, shorter working hours, higher retail prices—all expanding like a balloon—are bound to collapse sometime. I don't blame any special group; but do say that the present system is a losing game to all concerned and the true reason for high prices.

The hope of every reader lies with more production which means more work by all of us. What we get in money wages means nothing until we turn it into "goods." What we can get for our weekly pay in food, clothing and shelter is our real wages. This can be increased only through increased production which requires longer and better work and more new inventions. In fact, the real reason why wage workers have more goods today is due to inventors and laborers—not to labor leaders and politicians.

What Is the Remedy?

Shall we destroy Unions? No! Shall we abolish collective bargaining? No! Shall we enact more Anti-labor legislation? No! Consumers want happy and satisfied labor with the highest real wages possible. But both employers and wage workers must co-operate to increase production and the quality of the product. This could be brought about by the Union and the employer agreeing on a wage that the "below the average" is worth and then pay a bonus for good work and more of it. Some sort of piecework or incentive pay is the consumer's only hope; and the wage workers make up 60 percent of these consumers.

Then finished costs would then go down causing lower prices to benefit consumers; while both real wages and real profits would go up for the more efficient. How can this be brought about? Well, the first step would be to insert a clause in every labor contract that neither the labor officials nor the company officials can get any pay while a strike is on! This simple clause would do more to help out us consumers than any other one thing.

P.S. I forgot a part of my railroad story. The train conductor was so busy gossiping with a woman that he failed to take up my ticket, although I had it out in sight. After leaving the train at Boston, I hunted him up and gave it to him. He did not even thank me; but I surely am thankful that I own no railroad stocks! Indifference and lack of interest by both employees and stockholders is the curse of the railroads.
