

Central grade school kindergarteners set the scene for Halloween this year and these five kiddies give a preview of what local residents may expect when local school children parade next Monday noon.

Congress Shall Make No Laws Abridging the Freedom of The Press

What I Think and Have A Right to Say

By ELTON R. EATON

"WELFARE" AND "HANDOUT." Editor Dick Cook of The Hastings Banner in a recent issue of his excellent publication discussed in somewhat of a cynical way the welfare state into which we are drifting.

Editor Cook turns back the pages for a decade or two for the proper background of this brief discussion. He says: "Maybe in the college lecture halls or in the textbooks on government theory there is some difference between the 'welfare' state and the 'handout' state, but as a matter of practical accomplishment a 'welfare' state always has been a 'handout' state and, (human nature and politicians being what they are) probably always will be.

Harry Hopkins once defined the basic working mechanism of the New Deal as follows: "Tax and tax; spend and spend; elect and elect." Mr. Hopkins, we believe, was exceptionally candid and cynical. There were supporters of the New Deal who were true statesmen; men who were attempting to carry on a genuine social crusade.

Read your history books and you will find that the Hopkins definition can be applied to any "welfare" state that has ever existed.

THE PRIZE WINNER.

A few years ago, Missouri conservation department reports, an Oklahoma publication offered a prize for the best essay on two pictures it published: one was of a dilapidated house and the other of a washed-out field.

"Both pictures show white man crazy. Make big tepee. Flow mill. Water wash. Wind blow soil, grass all gone. Squaw gone, papoose, too. No chuckaway. No pig, nor corn, no hay, no cow, no pony. Indian no plow land. Keep grass. Buffalo eat grass. Indian eat buffalo. Hide make tepee, moccasins, too. Indian no make terrace. No build dam. No give a dam. All time eat. No hunt job. No hitch-hike. No ask relief. No shoot pig. Great Spirit make grass. Indian no waste anything. Indian no work. White man heap crazy."

WHAT'S WRONG WITH WORK?

In a recent issue of Printers' Ink there appeared a brief article in which the writer asks "What is Wrong With Work?" There is so much common sense in it that we are reprinting it in full as it hits directly at one of the big problems of today.

It is disturbing to observe how few of our young people know how to work or have any intention of learning. They don't like the idea of work. Yet they want jobs and incomes.

Only a few years ago work was held to be honorable. To be called a "hard worker" was considered high praise. People put in a full measure of hours and applied themselves diligently at their jobs. Nobody thought there was anything peculiar about it. We received a sort of inner satisfaction in doing a job well. Now all this appears to be old-fashioned, and all of us who worked hard in the hope of carving out a niche in the world were dopes. If you don't believe me, just listen in on the youngsters' conversation; or better yet, let them apply to you for "an association with your firm."

No, they don't even apply for jobs any more. They want to "form a connection." And most of them want to start out as executives at executives' salaries.

Just notice the questions they ask you: "What are the hours? When will I get my vacation? Do you have free hospitalization insurance? How about a pension and retirement plan? How soon will I get a raise?"

Another thing that disturbs me is the low grade of effort exerted by the workers who are on the job. Offices, shops, stores and factories are full of indifferent employees who give half measure, who stall on the job, who manage to waste two or three hours each day.

Can it be that a big slice of our population no longer believes in Opportunity? Has so much talk about Security caused a letdown in the vital drive that made America great? Young people used to expect Opportunity. Now they demand Security. Perhaps that's where the difference lies. The fact that jobs have been plentiful the past several years has a strong bearing on the matter. Few of the younger white-collar folks have known what it means to hunt a job for weeks. Maybe the situation will correct itself without our young folks having to learn what it is to need a job desperately. But I can't help wondering if the answer will come out any other way. I hope it will. Somebody tell me. What's wrong with work?

Forest Avenue Paving Project Hits Legal Snag

Legal difficulties have thrown another monkey wrench into the Forest Avenue paving project, resulting in the postponement of awarding the contract for the project. As revealed in the special commission meeting held last Friday evening, a contract cannot be let when the cost involved in that contract exceeds the cost previously estimated at the public hearing.

Since the lowest bidder for paving of Forest Avenue was about $4,000 above the estimate used in the public hearing on the project, the city cannot legally award the contract until another hearing is held and a new estimate is prepared.

A new hearing must be advertised two weeks in advance. New bids for the project must be advertised for two weeks after the hearing. Taking and opening of bids adds another week to the total time which must elapse before the contract may be awarded. Thus, five weeks from the date of the special commission meeting on October 21 will be the earliest possible date when the paving contract will be let.

Because little paving work can be carried on during the winter months in Michigan, the Forest Avenue project cannot begin before the spring of 1950.

The first estimate on Forest Avenue was lower than the lowest bid taken on the project because that estimate was included in an over-all paving program for the city of Plymouth. Overhead costs in the program had wider distribution. Since overhead was spread over a number of streets instead of just one, Forest Avenue shouldered a fraction of the overhead costs instead of all of it, as it will have to do when the project begins.

Canton Township Voters Approve $30,000 Building

The go-ahead signal was sounded Tuesday for the erection of a town hall and fire hall by the voters of Canton township who approved the appropriation of $30,000 from the township funds for the purchase of the site and erection of the halls.

Ballots cast in the election numbered 223 with 157 voting in favor of the appropriation and 66 against it.

The Canton township board is now authorized to expend the $30,000 to purchase an additional site adjoining the present town hall site and to build the town hall and fire hall on that site for the use of the township.

Masons to Visit Masonic Home

The fellowcraft degree team of Plymouth Rock Lodge No. 47 F. & A. M. will exemplify the third degree for Morning Star Lodge No. 556 Saturday night, November 12 at the Masonic Temple in Flint.

The team, together with any other members who would like to go on the trip, will leave Plymouth in a group on the 8:45 a.m. "Streamliner" which will take them to Lansing where Greyhound buses will meet the group and take them to Alma for a two hour tour of inspection of the Michigan Masonic home.

From Alma the group will go to Saginaw and thence to Frankenthum where they will enjoy one of those old fashioned "chicken dinners" and then proceed to Flint for the degree work.

Special rates have been arranged for this trip and any Masons who might be interested in making this trip can get further information by contacting W. M. Leslie Evans or Secretary Oscar E. Alsbro or any member of the degree team.

Dr. Moves Offices

It's moving day for Dr. Myron W. Hughes and his popular wife. Before the day is over Dr. and Mrs. Hughes expect to be located in their new offices and residence at 694 Church street on the corner of Adams.

The Hughes' have leased the former Rauch residence from the Methodist church and expect to be well situated in their new location and ready for business this week-end.

For nearly 20 years Dr. and Mrs. Hughes have had offices and made their residence at 824 Penniman avenue.

Rotarians Present School Authorities With Books

Rotary district governor Charles Miller presents school superintendent H. A. Nelson with 300 books on educational internal understanding for the International Service committee of the local Rotary club of which David Galin is chairman. The books are to be presented, one each of three different kinds, to every teacher in the Plymouth school system. Witnessing the presentation are left to right, Paul Johnson, grade school coordinator; Rotary President Frank Henderson; Governor Miller; Superintendent Nelson; Rotarian Charles Brake; High School Principal Cy Pierce and Dave Galin.

Two Livonia Groups Bid For City Incorporation In Recent Political Moves

Business men and residents of Plymouth are watching with a great deal of interest the filing of petitions for incorporation of Livonia township. Two such petitions have been filed to date.

The first petition was filed with the Wayne County Board of Supervisors back in September and called for the incorporation of the entire geographic township into the "City of Livonia", operating under home rule. Livonia consists of 36 square miles.

A second petition, filed two weeks ago, petitioned for the incorporation of a two square mile section of Livonia township with an estimated $8,000,000 assessed valuation. The entire valuation is approximately $14,000,000.

Township Officials Push Important Sewer Extension

Extra efforts are being put forth by Supervisor Charles Rathburn and members of the Plymouth township board to hasten as fast as possible the extension of the county sewer system from Merriman road to the interceptor in Riverside park, and from there along Ann Arbor road in order to take care of the rapid home building development in Plymouth township on the south side of this city.

"Our drain commissioner, who is looking after the details of this development, has been wasting no time. The necessary petitions have been filed, and hearings held," said Supervisor Rathburn yesterday.

"The legislature at its last session passed a new law which has recently become effective that eliminated one of our stumbling blocks about financing this and other similar projects. Twenty-year bonds can now be sold and we are confident that as soon as the financing can be arranged by the county drain commissioner that we will have sewer service for a very large section of Plymouth township lying south of Ann Arbor road as well as other parts of the township," said Mr. Rathburn.

Conservationists Plan Programs

Members of the Western Wayne County Conservation association will gather at their club house for a regular business meeting the evening of November 2. Hunting will be the main topic of discussion for the evening. Refreshments will be served. Friends of the association's members are invited to attend.

Outstanding events are in the offing for the group which is scheduling their "Hunters' Ball" for Thursday, November 10. Dancing will begin at 9 and continue to 12 p.m. A barber shop quartet will entertain with close harmony. A buffet lunch will be served. Informal and comfortable dress will predominate at the party.

Looking ahead to next year, special attention is focused on the venison dinner to be given on January 4. Word from Western Wayne County Conservation members indicates a delicious dinner and "super special" program are being lined up.

Theater Guild

The next meeting of the Plymouth Theater guild will be held at 8 p.m., November 2, in the Veterans' Memorial center. Mrs. Arthur Bixler, former director of dramatics at Plymouth High school, will speak to the group.

Appoint H. Deyo as City Attorney

Plymouth's city commission voted to appoint Henry Deyo as city attorney at their special meeting last Friday night. Mayor Richwine's request that J. Rusling Cutler be appointed to the position of assistant city attorney to prosecute all of the city's ordinance violations was not confirmed at the meeting.

Commissioners Hammond and Fisher were appointed to the auditing committee. Floyd Tibbitts was named to the city recreation commission.

Elks Initiation Held Wednesday

At formal initiation ceremonies held last night, Wednesday, in the Grange hall, 11 new members were received into the ranks of the Elks lodge. Initiated at the 8 p.m. rites were Walter Jendrycka, Robert Simmons, Robert Ingram, Lee Butler, Henry Raymond, Joseph Marroni, Thomas Martin, Sr., Cecil Owen, Floyd Schafer, Archie Shuffelt and Milton Van Lerberghe.

Palestine Topic of Kiwanis Talk

An international law student from the University of Michigan spoke to Plymouth Kiwanians at their Tuesday dinner meeting. Miss Adelle Hadad, a resident of Lebanon, told the group of problems of the Near East, Palestine and other areas near her homeland.

Visits In Kansas

City Manager of Kansas City, Perry W. Cookingham, formerly of Plymouth, played host to former Mayor William C. Hartmann of this city in his spacious, skyscraper office in the Kansas metropolis last Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Hartmann were visitors in several western cities last week and one of the highlights of their trip was an extended visit with Plymouth's former manager, Mr. Hartmann said that Mr. Cookingham was well versed in the Plymouth political situation and seemed to have better than first hand insight in the turmoil that was recently experienced in Plymouth.

The Hartmanns returned to their home last Saturday after having a most enjoyable Western trip.

Chest Drive Lags As Funds Reach Third of City Quota

With only $4,100 contributed thus far to the Plymouth United Community Fund, progress of the first week of the 1949 campaign is lagging far behind the $11,000 goal set for Plymouth. This amount covers the money collected to date in all divisions of the campaign by volunteer solicitors. Plymouth residents must come through with close to $7,000 in the next two weeks if the city is to meet their quota.

Plenty of Road Work Planned for This Vicinity

Engineer Manager LeRoy Smith of the Wayne County Road commission this week advised Supervisor Charles Rathburn, that considerable road work has been authorized for this part of Wayne county.

Work will begin in the near future for the resurfacing of the Five Mile road from Sheldon road for a distance of two miles west. This section of the Five Mile road has been in bad condition for some time.

The Six Mile road will be repaired for a considerable distance west, also beginning at Sheldon road.

One of the most important projects for the immediate future will be the straightening of the Seven Mile road from the railroad crossing on the south side of Northville to the west village limits, taking all through traffic off the Main street in Northville.

This improvement necessitates an entirely new section of highway west from the railroad tracks, through a portion of the Wayne county parkway system and a section of the Northville-Wayne County fair grounds, south of the race track.

The Plymouth road has recently been resurfaced the entire distance on the triangle just east of Plymouth to the Detroit city limits, making this thoroughfare one of the best highways in the metropolitan area.

B & F Purchases Lodge Building

Purchase of the Lodge Electronic building at 1100 Starkweather street by the B and F Auto Supply was announced this week. In consummating the purchase of the building, B and F owners, William C. Michaels and Floyd Tibbitts said the need for additional storage space for their many parts and parking facilities necessitated the transaction.

Having been in business for the last three years on South Main street the auto supply concern has recorded a remarkable growth and their new building on the north side of the city will provide them with the additional room that they need.

Located on a lot with a driveway completely around the building and ample parking facilities in the rear, the new location will facilitate quicker service to their many customers. The building is 70 feet by 135 feet and will enable the store to carry about double their present stock.

Mr. Lodge, former owner of the store has moved his business to a small new building on the street in the rear next to his home. Moving will be done this weekend and the new owners hope to be open for business next Monday morning.

Peck Is Named

Dr. Luther Peck received notification early this week of his re-appointment to the State Board of Registration of Medicine by Governor G. Mennen Williams. The term to which Dr. Peck was appointed carries to September, 1953.

Governor Williams is the fourth governor to appoint Dr. Peck to the state post and this term will start the 13th year of service for the local physician in the state office which at its conclusion will total up to 16 years as a member of the State Board of Registration of Medicine.

Mrs. Roy Clark and Mr. and Mrs. Arlo Soth will leave on Tuesday to spend the winter months in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida.

tees met at the Veterans' Memorial center to organize under Paul Johnson, chairman of the Fund raising committee. Certain groups were assigned to call upon business and professional people and others for house to house solicitation. Other groups organized for factory and service collection.

Solicitors must redouble their efforts to make sure that all persons in their area are contacted if the city of Plymouth meets their $11,000 goal. Citizens who have not been contacted should mail their subscriptions to the Plymouth Community Fund at P. O. Box 356. While certain groups of volunteers have not completed their assignment, the amounts that can be expected from these sources will fall short of reaching the total goal, reported Carvel Bentley, treasurer of the Community Fund board.

Plymouth has always opened its heart and its pocket books to every worthwhile appeal. This year the community is asked to join with the United Foundation who will receive one-ninth of the amount raised. This amount helps to support 16 health and welfare agencies from which all citizens derive direct or indirect benefit.

The Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Salvation Army, Visiting Nurses' association, Veterans' Memorial center and Recreation commission presented their minimum requirements to the fund. Plymouth cannot let these groups down by not giving enough.

If you have not given, by all means contact one of the following solicitors or mail your subscription to P. O. Box 356.

The following is a list of volunteers who have given their time and money:

Residential Solicitors: Mrs. Douglas Hammill, Mrs. Marvin Partridge, Mrs. Russell Walker, Mrs. Philip Theobald.

Plymouth Stages Halloween Party

All is in readiness for Monday's festive Halloween celebration being planned for Plymouth's young people. This October event is scheduled each year with an eye to making Halloween an evening of wholesome fun and recreation instead of one of destructive tricks.

Plymouth members of the Rotary, Lions, Kiwanis, and Optimists clubs, the Jaycees and their auxiliary, the Chamber of Commerce and the recreation department with teachers and principals from the schools are joining forces to make this 1949 celebration the best yet.

These organizations and their representatives who have worked long hours with the Halloween committee, headed by Herb Woolfwater, deserve orchids and hearty handshakes from all Plymouth residents for their highly commendable and successful achievement.

Window painting this afternoon begins the Halloween agenda. Plymouth merchants have generously donated space on their display windows for the painting of goblins and other traditional pictures. Judging of the various painting done by the city's young artistic talent will begin at 4 p.m. In case of rainy weather, the window painting will be postponed until Monday.

Kindergarten children at the Starkweather school will stage their festivities at 10:15 with refreshments for everyone. Parades at the Starkweather and Central schools will begin at 12:30 p.m. Starkweather children in costume will circle the school area before getting their ice cream and cookies at 1:30.

Youngsters from the Central Grade school, disguised as goblins and witches, will march from the school up Church street, over on Harvey, down Penniman, circle the park and stop at the new theater for a 15 minute program. The high school band will lead them all the way and march back from the theater before the theater program begins for their own refreshments.

Central children will go back to their school in a body led by Mrs. Nellie Bud and teachers for their Halloween treats. The evening's festivities start at 7 p.m. when children meet at the athletic field for a parade to Kellogg park. Refreshments will be served before and after the parade. Preliminary judging of their costumes will be done at the field followed by the final judging at the park. The street dance will begin at 8 p.m.

Recreation Group Sponsors Dance

Plymouth square dancing fans will have an ideal opportunity to display their promenading techniques the evening of November 3 when the recreation department's square dance group sponsors a public dance in the high school auditorium. Anyone who can square dance is cordially invited to attend, including students from Plymouth High school who will be charged 40 cents per couple.

Music by Fred Sarchet's four piece orchestra will be played from 8:30 to 11:30 p.m. Admission for couples other than those from the high school is $1.50 which also covers refreshments. Over 50 persons enjoyed the regular dance put on by the square dance group last week. Dr. Elmore Carney, president, and a committee made up of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Whelan, direct activities of the organization.

Kathryn Turney Garten on Town Hall Nov. 2

Current books and plays will be reviewed by Kathryn Turney Garten, "First Lady of Book Reviewers", at the Detroit Town hall, Wednesday morning, November 2, at 11 p.m. in the Fisher theater.

Miss Garten is more than a sound critic of the arts. She is a trained actress and monologist who makes frequent appearances in summer stock and on the air.

The opening of the fall theatrical season in New York finds Miss Garten among the first-nighters. Most of her reading for book reports is done on trains between speaking engagements, and she is able to memorize entire chapters so that she speaks without notes.

This will be the critic's fifth annual visit to town hall. In a box quiz last year, Miss Garten had the largest number of votes among the speakers for a "repeat" date this season.

Advance reservations for the lecture are available at Grinnell's, Wo. 2-1124.

Music Given by Business Women

Plymouth's Business and Professional Women's club has made a gift of two scores of music to the permanent library of the Plymouth Symphony orchestra. Paul Wagner, director of the orchestra, announced the music selected was the Rumanian Rhapsody Number One by George Enesco and Symphony Number Two by Brahms.

For the past two years the Business and Professional Women as a club have given entire sponsorship to the establishment and support of the Symphony orchestra in Plymouth. This year their music gift plus the memberships they have taken out in the society and their donations to various activities of the group are manifestations of the club's continued interest in the symphony society and its goal "for more and better music in Plymouth."

Maccabee News

Maccabees will meet November 2 at the home of Lady Killingsworth. All members are asked to be present. There will be important business to discuss which will be followed by a social meeting.

Maccabees are glad to hear that the sons of Lady Howard and Lady Johnson are much better. We also send our best wishes to Lady Mary Sackett who has been in the hospital.

Miss McClenahan Becomes Bride of Mr. Lyon in Detroit Nuptials

The Church of the Incarnation in Detroit was the setting at 10:30 on Saturday, October 15 for the wedding of Martha McClenahan and Alva Kenneth Lyon, son of Mrs. Anna Brown. The bride's father is William T. McClenahan of Chicago.

The morning rites were performed by the Rev. Father Clark Attridge before an altar decorated with vases of baby mums and white gladioli. Nuptial music was presented by the church choir who sang during the mass.

For her marriage the bride chose a gown of taupe crepe with brown accessories. Her corsage was an orchid.

To attend her as matron of honor, the bride asked her cousin, Mrs. David Stoffregen, of Cincinnati, Ohio. Mrs. Stoffregen wore an aqua crepe dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow tea roses.

The bridegroom was attended by Louis LeBar as best man. Mrs. Louis LeBar, with whom the bride made her home before her marriage, wore a gown of royal blue crepe with sequin trim and black accessories. She selected a corsage of red roses. The bridegroom's mother chose a cerise gown and black accessories. Her flowers were white carnations.

A breakfast for the immediate family and friends was held at the bride's home on Shadyside immediately following the ceremony.

Upon returning from a week's wedding trip through the East, the newly wed couple will make their home in Pontiac where Mr. Lyon is associated with the Pontiac Press.

Miss Robinson to Wed in November

A November wedding is being planned by Norma Robinson whose approaching marriage to George Kenyon is announced this week by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Robinson of Forest street. Her fiance is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kenyon of West Ann Arbor trail.

The bride-elect has asked Mrs. William Bartel to attend her as matron of honor. Mr. Kenyon has chosen his brother, Robert, to serve as best man. The ceremony will be read in the First Presbyterian church on Saturday, November 5.

OES News

There will be an important practice tonight, Thursday, for all officers except those in the Bible degree team and choir. Practice starts promptly at 7:30.

The regular business meeting will be held on Tuesday, November 1, at 7:30 p.m. It will be followed by a social hour and refreshments.

On Tuesday evening, October 25, Mrs. Erma Hughes, junior past matron, and Arnold Williams, junior past patron, entertained at the Temple for the officers of 1948-49. A very delicious dinner was served and an evening of fun and entertainment was enjoyed by all.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huebler Mr. and Mrs. Manley Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Oral Rathbun and Mrs. Erma Hughes attended the installation ceremony of the Highgate chapter on Saturday, October 15.

On Wednesday evening, October 19, the Grosse Pointe chapter held their installation. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Manley Smith, Mrs. Lucille Smith and Mrs. Gertrude Thorpe.

A covered dish dinner will be held on November 15 at 6:30 p.m. An evening of games, cards and social hour are to be enjoyed. Everyone is welcome.

Jaycees Discuss Yule Activities

A 90-minute program of moving pictures on football, baseball, swimming, auto racing and other major sports was presented at the business meeting of the Junior Chamber of Commerce on October 19. Held at the Pen Mar at 6:30 p.m., the meeting was a dinner affair for Plymouth Jaycees. The movies were shown by John Nelson, program chairman was Douglas Miller.

Among the subjects discussed were the Christmas program held each year for the children and the possibility of holding a "bulldozers" show in the near future.

"Although attendance was fairly good," stated President Marvin Partridge, "we certainly would like to see all members turn out for our November 9 meeting. Plymouth Jaycees need their cooperation."

Jack Weed Visits Historic Plymouth

From Plymouth, Michigan to Plymouth, Massachusetts is a trip that Jack Weed of this city has just taken. He says he isn't back-tracking on the Colonial settlers whose sons and daughters came west, he's gone East on a business trip. The editor of the Detroit Automotive News did find time from his work to take a short run down to Plymouth which is located on Cape Cod bay and visit the historic city after which Plymouth, Michigan was named.

Building exteriors of the future will be made with a few stainless steel panels instead of pieces of brick and mortar, according to architects.

Business Women Hear Mrs. Poole Talk on European Need For Books

Furthering their theme of the United Nations, the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's club decorated its dinner tables with miniature flags of the United Nations, globes and fall flowers for their meeting Monday night in St. John's Episcopal church.

Public affairs chairman Dora Gruebner introduced the first speaker of the evening, Miss Ethel Polk of the Detroit executive office of CARE. Miss Polk first explained the background of CARE, stressing that although it is a non-profit organization, it is a $39,000,000 a year business and that the estimated correspondence resulting from CARE packages amounts to some several tons each year. However, Miss Polk's talk centered around the new CARE book program requested by UNESCO.

CARE is now accepting money for this book program. She further explained that CARE does not accept books for forwarding to Europe but that the money subscribed is used to replace highly technical engineering, medical and mechanical books in the universities and schools of Europe to help them in their "know-how."

Also stressed was the problem of the American tourist who comes home from Europe full of the idea that the American dollar will purchase anything and everything in Europe and forgets what it will also do in the way of food, warm clothes, shoes and morale for the peoples of Europe.

As an interlude between the speakers there was a short round table discussion entitled "Challenge to Mankind" featuring Mrs. Herma Taylor, Mrs. Mary Strasen, Mrs. Ada Watson and Mrs. Mildred Barnes.

Miss Gruebner then introduced the second speaker of the evening, Mrs. Margery Poole. Mrs. Poole spoke further of the need for books in Europe and then talked of the organization of the UN and its beginning. She also discussed the place of women in the UN and how in many small ways the UN has helped bring about changes in women's rights in foreign countries.

Primarily, however, Mrs. Poole stressed the need to get "primer" information to the public and the need to organize a "pilot group" from all the club groups in Plymouth that could be the springboard for getting this "primer" information to the public in order that they may have a working and usable knowledge of the UN.

The Thursday evening Junior Bridge club will be entertained this evening by Miss Regina Polley. The club will have as their guest Mrs. N. L. Heller of Dunkirk, Indiana who is visiting in Plymouth with her sisters, Mrs. Jack Taylor and Mrs. Ralph West.

Duane A. Parkes Opens New Real Estate Office

Duane A. Parkes Real Estate and Insurance offices have opened at 190 Liberty street next to Lidgard's Market. Specializing in automobile, casualty and fire insurance, Duane A. Parkes, Jr. will handle the selling of real estate and insurance while his father, Duane A. Parkes, Sr., will be the real estate broker. The firm occupies the building formerly used for the branch office of the Plymouth United Savings bank.

The junior Mr. Parkes spent nearly two years with the legal department of the Automobile Club of Michigan upon his graduation from law school. His wife, Mrs. Barbara Parkes, teaches home economics at Plymouth High school. They live at 300 Auburn street.

Wm. Rengert now has new fall Davis clothing samples on display. Phone Livonia 2600 for appointment. Call after 5:30 p.m.

Sales of Coffee Soar Tuesday

Attributed to the Free Press article on a forthcoming coffee shortage, sales of coffee in Plymouth's chain stores soared to two or three times the normal volume on Tuesday.

Coffee prices in some instances kept pace with sales and jumped from 10 to 20 cents per pound over prices from the day before.

In a front page story on Tuesday, the Free Press reported that the cost for a pound of coffee would be about one dollar by Christmas time.

The rush for coffee was only a one day affair, however. On Wednesday grocers reported both sales and prices were down to those in effect on Monday, the day before the Free Press story appeared.

Pilgrim Drawn Steel Exhibits Products at Bank

This week's exhibit at the Plymouth United Savings bank is furnished by Pilgrim Drawn Steel, a division of the Automotive Materials corporation. Established in Plymouth in September of 1942, Pilgrim Drawn Steel now operates under normal conditions with from 80 to 100 employees. Pictures and samples of their products, cold drawn steel bars and wire, are on display at the bank as part of a series of exhibits highlighting industry in Plymouth. Officers of the company are L. H. Green, chairman of the board; R. N. Green, president; R. E. Lawlor, vice president and general manager and A. C. Lademann, secretary-treasurer.

The Daisy Manufacturing company will provide the next exhibit at the bank.

Infant Daughter of John Shinn's Dies

Margaret Alison Shinn, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John A. Shinn, died Tuesday morning, October 25. Besides her parents, she is survived by her grandfather, Thaddeus Shinn; her maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George Fadellin of Berkeley, and her twin sister, Martha. Committal services and interment will be at Roselawn cemetery in Berkeley. Reverend Orrin Van Loon of Berkeley Community church will officiate.

Florida Fans Plan Take-off

With the heavy frost "on the pumpkin" the last few nights, Plymouth's Florida contingent is making plans to follow the robins and other birds to the land of sunshine and flowers.

The three cent sales tax voted by the Florida legislature on Florida room and hotel rentals for those who do not stay within the state longer than six months, hasn't so far discouraged a single Florida "fan," as far as known.

Mr. and Mrs. Colburn Dennis of Canton Center road expect to leave shortly after the first of November for Bonga Springs, where they have enjoyed the past five winters. The trailer camp where they spend the winters is one of the most pleasantly located places of its kind in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. West hope to be able to leave for Englewood, Florida, on the Gulf of Mexico coast, shortly before Thanksgiving time. There's a sort of "colony" of genial northern folks who find their way back to Englewood just the minute cold northern breezes start to blow—and the Wests happen to be members of this group.

Just when some of the other Plymouth sun worshippers expect to begin following the sun southward is not known, but it will probably be soon.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Smith of Northville have their plans made to leave for Fort Lauderdale about November 15. The Glen Richardsons of Northville are already nicely settled in their winter home at Clearmont, Florida, where he has been busy repairing some of the hurricane damage their place suffered during the big August "blow."

New Steps For Hospital
Cement steps are being put on the front porch of the Plymouth hospital this week. Doctors and visitors to the hospital have to use the back door until the work is completed.

Clifford M. Holland engineered the Holland tunnel.

Funeral Will Be Held Tomorrow For Mrs. Collins

Funeral services will be held tomorrow, Friday, October 28 at 2 p.m. from the Schrader Funeral home for Mrs. Myrta Collins who passed away Thursday morning, October 25 at the age of 73 years. A member of the First Baptist church, Mrs. Collins was well known in Plymouth and in Livonia township. She formerly lived at 711 Holbrook avenue.

Her husband, Archie L. Collins preceded her in death on December 14, 1945. The last few years Mrs. Collins has been making her home with her sister, Mrs. Jessie Hench, and her niece, Mrs. Iva Albrecht, both of Benton Harbor.

Mrs. Collins is survived by her sister, Mrs. Bessie Hench and her brother, Myron Willett of Plymouth, also several nieces and nephews.

Rev. Benjamin L. Eicher of the First Baptist church will officiate. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

ST. JOHN'S GUILD

The St. John's Guild of the Episcopal church will meet on Thursday, November 3 at 12:30 p.m. Members should bring a covered dish to the church.

Financial Support Given Chamber

An unexpected surprise in the form of an unsolicited check was received this week by the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce to help the group in promotion and execution of their fine Halloween celebration.

The check was received with deep appreciation from one who is interested in the boys and girls in Plymouth and who wanted to add his support to the Halloween project.

The board of directors of the Chamber of Commerce, believing that there are probably a number of people in town who would like to aid in the Halloween project, voted to receive further checks from those who wish to aid in the project.

The checks should be made payable to Chamber of Commerce, Plymouth, Michigan. If more donations are received than is necessary to meet the expense of the project the remainder will be placed in a special fund and will help to assist in the project next year.

It is wonderful to live in a town where people care for things worthwhile and, without solicitation, are happy to support in making a good town better," a C. C. member said.

Fatality Involves Plymouth Driver

Under investigation by the Wayne County Sheriff's department is the fatal accident in which John E. Speck of Wayne was killed by a car driven by Plymouth resident Daniel Grubisch, 11625 Butternut. The accident took place at Plymouth and Farming on roads at 3:30 a.m. Saturday.

Speck was a pedestrian on the road. He died on the way to the Wayne County General hospital. Riding in the car with Grubisch was James F. Myers, 550 Ann street, who was the only witness.

AMAZING HOME HEATER

AMERICA'S NEW TYPE HEATS LIKE THE SUN MILLIONS OF INFRARED RAYS TRAVEL AT SPEED OF LIGHT INSTANT HEALTHFUL HEAT COMPLETE WARMTH HEAD TO TOE AVAILABLE FOR ALL GASES VENTED OR NON-VENTEE

By CARL PETERSON Hollywood and the romance magazines will be unhappy to learn that secretaries are not interested in having office romances with their bosses. This is the word that came out of the convention of the National Secretaries Association in Washington, D.C. One young lady said, "Most secretaries are glad to leave their bosses after eight hours." This is a nasty blow to the modern Cinderella story. If it is taken seriously it will run more movies than loud popcorn bags do. Can you imagine crowds enjoying a show where the gal's idea is to get through work and rush home to curl up with a good book?

We welcome into our organization this week our new Registered Pharmacist, Mr. Otter Watson, who has had many years of practical service and is well qualified to serve your needs. He wants to move into our city as soon as possible.

In Medford, Mass., so many candidates will run for office in November that the ballot is 6 feet long. Sounds like everybody wants to get into the act. There's a long list of reasons why people prefer our prescription work to any in town. First we use only quality drugs. Second our pharmacists are experts. And third our service is courteous and prompt. Drop in and see us. Or phone 2080.

Farm Fire Causes Loss of $10,000 at Farm

Fire of undetermined origin destroyed a large tool shed in which a truck, tractor and other tools and equipment were housed on the Grover Place farm on 590 Northfield Church road about 2:30 p.m. last Thursday afternoon.

Whitmore Lake and Ann Arbor township firemen fought the blaze for two hours and succeeded in saving several adjoining buildings. Total loss of equipment was estimated at between $10,000 and $11,000. Insurance covered part of the loss.

Social items can be phoned to 1755.

Plymouth Firemen Don Their New Uniforms

PlyMail Photo

Shown here are volunteer and regular members of the city fire department wearing their brand new uniforms purchased earlier this fall. The department extends their hearty appreciation to the people of Plymouth for their support of the carnival, donkey olympics and Fourth of July celebration. Funds for these events helped the firemen buy their uniforms. Pictured here are Milan Frank, Dale Rorabacher, Clayton Kops, Clifford Reddeman, Mike Kleinschmidt, Assistant Chief Harold Secord, regular fireman Kenneth Voss, Chief Robert McAllister, James Davis, Captain Lee Gaeke, John Lietz, John Radosky, Robert Secord, Gwynne Fulton and George Curtis. Not present for the picture were Lowell Fulton and regular fireman George Schoenemann.

Visitor From Finland Tells of Scandanavian Heroism During War

Mrs. Signe Nyquist, native of Norway and citizen of Finland, told her Sunday morning audience at the Methodist church that peace is possible through prayer and understanding and determination. She said that if people could understand the cruelty of war "there just never could be another war." The speaker believes that it is the peoples of the world expressing their will for peace that will determine the future. She said, "The United Nations must save us from another war," and gave a picture of how the people of Finland are working and praying to bring about peace and understanding even when they do not understand the motives which prompt some of the action of countries such as Russia, and at one time, Germany.

As president of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of Finland, Mrs. Nyquist has been brought to this country by the Methodist women to learn the methods of work here. Repeatedly she expressed surprise at the crowds of women who get to the meetings here. She said that while the Lutheran church is the state church in Finland that everyone is registered with some church and if not, the ordinary rites of civil ceremonies are very difficult to receive. She pointed out that Baptists, Methodists and Pentacostas are minorities in her country.

The women of Finland over the radio and said in effect, "Finland is not defeated. The spirit of Finland and prayer will save her. We must let our men know that we do not expect them to do so, no matter what the cost." As a result of this call to prayer and sacrifice a revival spread over the land, as did new hope. The churches were filled with praying people ready to sacrifice everything for what they felt to be justice and freedom and right. Most of the meetings are held at night, for everyone is working during the day. There are few lights for evening meetings and many of them are still held in darkness except for a few candles. Sunday services are in the daytime. Finland's chief problem is economic, according to the speaker. The spirit of the people is undefeatable. Reparations must be paid to Russia in goods, machines and produce. This is a heavy burden and makes rehabilitation for themselves very difficult. Rationing is somewhat relaxed but even when things are taken from ration lists most of the people cannot buy them because of the cost. The middle class professional people seem to be having the most difficult time at present. Taxes are high and there isn't enough money to pay teachers and ministers and the professional people even a living wage in many instances.

Fresh fruits are not to be found. Children in Finland born during or since the war do not know what an orange looks like. Canned fruits are obtainable only from gifts packages as is coffee. The Finnish ration of coffee is less than a pound a month for a family. The speaker said that she had had no clothing except that from America since before the war.

Children born during the war or in the first months afterward show results of malnutrition. Her four year old daughter is the same size as the two year old. The two year old had food from American gift packages but the four year old lived through her baby days on rations.

Educators and ministers are in need of books from America. Technical books, psychological, engineering and religious are almost impossible to get because of scarcity and price of paper and newsprint. And "Yes", she said in answer to a question, "we would love to read some good fiction from America too."

Mrs. Nyquist is a guest of the Methodist women in Detroit this week and will leave for engagements in New York on Friday. She will remain in the United States for the National Board Meeting of the Board of Missions at Buck Hill Falls, Pennsylvania in December and sail for home immediately afterward.

Probation Officer Talks to Plymouth Optimists

Chief probation officer of the Juvenile court in Detroit, T. R. Watkins, spoke to members of the Plymouth Optimist club at their Monday night meeting held in Our Lady of God Counsel church.

Widely known in education circles, Mr. Watkins worked personally with Henry Ford in establishing the Ford Trade school. Therefore his message to the Optimists centered about his work for the juvenile.

Banquet Planned by Girl Scouts

Advance requests for tickets to the Livonia Girl Scout father-daughter banquet on November 1 indicate a bang-up crowd will be present, it was announced by Mrs. Russell Wendt, president of the Livonia Girl Scout council. A full program of events has been scheduled for the evening's program.

A roast beef dinner will be served at 6:30 p.m. Tuesday at Hope Chapel on Six Mile road near Middlebelt and tickets will be one dollar per person.

Lester Anders, chairman of the program committee, announces that the Rev. Henry Walsh of Plymouth's First Presbyterian church, will be the speaker. A full program of entertainment has been planned featuring Nyle Jessup, magician; the songs of Norma and Linda Page; community singing led by Rupert Otto, assistant superintendent of Livonia's schools; and Donald Diamond, of the schools' instrumental music department; and with Robert Carlson, of Rosedale Gardens, as master of ceremonies.

Scouts Observe Founder's Day

Girl Scouts in the Plymouth area will pay tribute to Juliette Gordon Low, founder of the Girl Scout movement, next Monday, October 31, as part of their annual observance of national Girl Scout week. Monday is the birth of Mrs. Low who was born in 1860.

Each troop is scheduling special activities to commemorate Girl Scouts Founder's day.

Separate themes have been designated for each day of the week-long observance. Among them are homemaking, citizenship, international friendship, health and safety, arts and crafts, and out of doors.

"Wonder how it would work if we halted all activity in the country some day for at least an hour. During this hour then ask everyone to take that time to just sit down and do some serious thinking and if possible try to figure out what it is all about. Perhaps we could find out just why we are going at such a fast gait, what we really want and if we are going about getting it in the right way."

† REV. ROBERT H. HARPER †

Isaiah Teaches Trust in God
Lesson for October 30: Isaiah 7: 3-7, 12-2; 26:1-7; 30:1-2, 15-17
Memory Selection: Isaiah 12:2

THE PRESENT LESSON begins with God's assurance to Ahaz, the king of Judah, that the designs of Syria and Israel against Judah would come to naught. They would not overrun the kingdom, and they would not set a puppet king on the throne. The House of David would be saved.

The Thanksgiving expressed in Isaiah 12:2 was evidently for the destruction of Sennacherib's host—a miraculous occurrence strikingly described by Lord Byron in his Hebrew Melodies. This deliverance came during the reign of Hezekiah, son of Ahaz. After a plague that fell in the night upon the Assyrian host, Sennacherib fled back to Nineveh, where he was slain by assassins.

The next passage is a song which the prophet declared would be sung in Judah. He evidently had in mind a distant time when Judah should be delivered from all enemies. The trust which is taught in God should be learned now. A great revival of trust in God is sorely needed, not only by individuals, but also by the rulers of nations.

The last passage—against an alliance with Egypt, could well be considered by the nations that face the working out of peace for the world. Whatever may be the value of the international policies of the present, and of this pact or that, and the hope of security through them, the great lesson that should be learned by the nations is that of trust in God to bring all the threatened evils of the time to naught.

"DARLING . . . HAVEN'T YOU GONE TO SLEEP YET?"

"I CAN'T SLEEP . . . MY CONSCIENCE BOTHERS ME."

Tiny thoughts gnaw at a man's mind in the dead of night . . .

"Can't forget the man from the Community Chest who rang my doorbell this evening . . . I wasn't polite . . . Told him I was short of money and couldn't give the way I did last year . . . I think he knew I was kidding him . . . He saw my car on the drive, the kids' bikes, the big dinner on the table . . . I guess I'll call him back and double my pledge . . . Now, conscience, let me go to sleep, will you?"

A man's most valuable possession is not his money—but his peace of mind. If a man could but see with his own eyes the people who benefit from the Red Feather services of health, child care, character building, family strengthening, then he could never be selfish about giving.

Let each man give what his conscience tells him to—and we'll have a better town for living—and sleeping!

Everybody benefits . . . Everybody gives

Miss Annabelle Koch Marries Mr. Lebeck in Newburg Ceremony

Baskets of mums and snapdragons and lighted tapers formed the background for the double ring rites in Newburg Methodist church when Robert Lebeck claimed Annabelle Koch as his bride. The couple was married by the Rev. G. MacDonald Jones at a candlelight service on Saturday, October 22.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Koch of Newburg road are the parents of the bride and Mr. Lebeck is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Lebeck of Asbury Park, Detroit.

As she repeated her vows, the bride wore a traditional white satin gown which she designed. It was styled with a fitted bodice and high neckline with yoke of net giving an off the shoulder appearance. The full skirt fell in a circular train. Applied orange blossoms with seed pearl trim accented the pleated headpiece which secured the bride's fingertip veil of illusion. Given in marriage by her father, the bride carried white mums.

The bridegroom asked Johnny George of Detroit to act as his best man, Lester Brown of Plymouth and Herbert Grant of Belleville seated the guests.

Couple at Home in Garden City

After returning from a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Buffalo, New York, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Daymon are making their home in Garden City.

Nuptial vows were exchanged by the young couple in a ceremony read by Dr. Henry J. Welch at the First Presbyterian church on September 30.

For her wedding the bride wore a navy gabardine suit with pink accessories. Complementing her outfit was a corsage of pink gladioli.

To perform her duties as matron of honor, Mrs. Donald Bennett chose a powder blue suit with navy accessories and a corsage of talisman roses.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Glen, to serve as best man.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Pringle of Knowlson street, Plymouth are the bride's parents, and Mr. Daymon is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Daymon of Garden City.

WWJ's Fran Harris to Narrate Woman's Club Fashion Show

Goodwill Industries of Detroit will present a fashion show for the Plymouth Women's club at the Newburg Methodist church November 4. Telling the Goodwill story during the fashion showing will be Fran Harris, women's editor of radio station WWJ, who will act as commentator for the afternoon's program.

Titled "Fashionscope", the unique show will feature only restored costumes. Goodwill has chosen this manner of showing concrete evidence of the use made of contributed discards which are restored for resale in the Goodwill stores by handicapped men and women. Models from the Patricia Stevens School of Modeling will wear the restored garments.

The Goodwill Industries program employment of those handicapped men and women who are unable to compete in regular industry. Thus, the rehabilitation and training of handicapped people depends upon home discards.

A radio veteran with 18 years background, Mrs. Harris has been heard over WWJ in community news shows and programs since 1930.

During the acute manpower shortage caused by the war, she gathered and reported local and national news on a daily morning program for two and one-half years, thus earning the distinction of being the first woman in Detroit radio history to become a newscaster.

Mrs. Harris has handled celebrity interview programs daily with weekly series on public interest features such as police department programs, Red Feather and Torch Fund series and other public interest programs. These programs have also been sent over WWJ-TV.

Matron of three active and lively children, Mrs. Harris has received many awards for her business, public welfare and journalistic activities. Among them are an AAA award with Paul Williams for "outstanding child safety programs", honorary membership in Detroit Junior Board of Commerce for "outstanding civic service", and the Theta Sigma Phi award for achievements in the field of journalism from the University of Michigan chapter. She is president of the Detroit alumni chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, honorary professional journalistic fratern-

Norma Danlager Vows Repeated by Miss Wargo and Mr. Hoffman at Evening Rites

Another bride to be added to Plymouth's list when Mr. and Mrs. Nobel Danlager of Grace street, Northville, revealed the engagement of their daughter, Norma, to Lawrence Burnette of Plymouth.

Miss Danlager was graduated from Northville High school and is now attending the Detroit Business Institute. The son of Mr. and Mrs. Newman Burnette of Schoolcraft road, the prospective bridegroom attended Plymouth High school. At the present time he is employed by Cadillac.

The date of the wedding has not been set.

Miss Howard Weds in October Nuptials

At a ceremony on October 15 at 8 in the evening Joan Howard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Renwick of Ann Arbor road, exchanged marriage vows with Henry L. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Johnson of Maple street are the parents of the bridegroom. The Saturday evening rites were read by the Rev. William O. Welton at his home on West Ann Arbor trail.

For her wedding the bride wore a beige suit with winter white accessories and a corsage of white roses. As her only attendant she chose Mrs. Fred Bratby of Wayne. With her red suit Mrs. Bratby wore a corsage of yellow roses and navy blue accessories.

The bridegroom was attended by Fred Bratby as best man.

Following the evening wedding Mr. and Mrs. Al Brewer of Mill street were hosts at an open house reception for the newly wed couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are making their home on Maple street.

A two week's honeymoon in Florida followed the wedding of Helen Wargo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Wargo of Detroit, and Warren Hoffman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Hoffman of Merriman road. The ceremony was solemnized in the First Presbyterian church, Plymouth, on Saturday evening, October 15, with the Rev. Woodrow Wooley officiating.

"I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" were the nuptial selections presented by Fred Kendall, soloist.

Chantilly lace fashioned the bride's gown which was designed with a fitted bodice and full three tiered skirt. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a fingertip veil of illusion held in place by a crown of lace. Two white orchids rested on the prayer book which the bride carried.

Proceeding the bride to the altar were her five bridal attendants. Matron of honor, Mrs. Rose Varady, sister of the bride and flower girl, Lonnie Varady, the bride's niece, chose gowns of forest green satin and carried baskets of fall flowers. As bridesmaids, Lois McAllister, sister of the bridegroom, Betty Snow, of Northville and Charlene Neal of Detroit, wore gowns of rust satin and carried baskets of assorted fall flowers.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Clarence Hoffman as best man, while duties of the ushers were carried out by William McAllister, Charles McKinney and Ted Varady.

With her green dress the bride's mother, Mrs. Wargo, wore brown accessories and an orchid corsage. An orchid corsage also complemented the brown dress which Mrs. Hoffman wore.

After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman were honored at a reception held in the Rosedale Gardens club house. About 300 guests extended their congratulations to the newly wed couple.

Upon returning from their honeymoon, Mr. and Mrs. Hoffman will reside on Northville road.

Hearty Breakfast Starts Your Family Out on The Right Foot

Experienced school teachers can almost always spot the Plymouth children who eat skimpy breakfasts and lunches. By the middle of morning or afternoon session their attention begins to lag and it's impossible for them to do good work.

They're youngsters who are more susceptible to colds, too. It's been said that if children ate good meals there would be more As on their report cards and better on the office record because of days missed from school.

The Food and Nutrition service of the American Red Cross reports that a good meal—one that provides what is needed by the body—does not mean an elaborate one. Wise selection on the part of the homemaker insures adequate meals with a minimum of time spent in their preparation.

For instance, your family will get off to a fine start in the morning with a simple combination of fruit, whole grain or enriched cereal served with whole milk, an egg at least occasionally in place of or in addition to the cereal, whole grain or enriched toast or another bread served with butter or fortified margarine, and additional milk which may be used as cocoa. The adults, of course, will want coffee as well as the milk.

Except for the special occasions when you decide to prepare a special treat of freshly baked muffins, waffles or coffee cake the whole meal can be ready to eat in about 10 minutes, even if you're a slow starter. If each member of the family contributes even a little help the job is greatly simplified.

Lunch usually requires slightly more time because it's a heavier meal which should include some sort of a high protein food—eggs, cheese, meat, fish—plus vegetable, fruit, milk and whole grain or enriched bread with butter or fortified margarine.

There are any number of easily prepared combinations that include these important foods. One of the best and easiest can be planned around a hearty soup which contains both vegetable and the protein. These are especially appealing during snappy weather.

If cream soups are such favorites with the family that you like to serve them twice a week, save time by making up a double batch of thin cream sauce at once. Store half of it in a tightly covered pan in the refrigerator where it will keep for at least 3 days. Reheat it over boiling water on very low heat, beating with a rotary egg beater to keep it smooth.

Here's the way to do it:
THIN CREAM SAUCE
Four tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 4 tablespoons flour, 1 1/2 teaspoons salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 1 quart milk.

Scald milk. Melt fat, add flour and seasonings and cook over low heat until flour looks puffy, but do not allow to brown. Stir in milk gradually. Cook over low heat until mixture boils, stirring constantly.

CREAM SOUPS
Combine 2 cups cooked vegetable pulp plus liquid which it was cooked with, three or four cups thin cream sauce. Season to taste with salt and pepper and serve piping hot sprinkled with paprika, minced parsley, chopped chives, toast cubes or grated cheese.

Most of the cream vegetable soups have a better flavor if a little grated onion or onion juice is added to the pulp. Chop the vegetables or force the pulp through a coarse sieve. In all cases, cook them in the smallest amount of water possible.

When using canned vegetables such as peas, beans or carrots, boil the liquid down to about half its volume before adding the chopped or pureed vegetable. Heat the sauce and vegetable to the boiling point before combining them and seasoning to taste.

VEGETABLE CHOWDER
Two cups canned or fresh corn, 2 cups chopped celery, 1/2 green pepper, cut in thin strips, 1 thinly sliced onion, 1 cup canned or stewed tomatoes, 2 teaspoons of salt, 1 1/2 teaspoon pepper, 2 1/2 cups water, 4 tablespoons butter or fortified margarine, 3 table-spoons flour, 2 cups scalded milk, 1/2 cup grated cheese, 1/2 cup chopped pimiento, 1/2 teaspoon paprika.

Place corn, celery, green pepper, onion, tomatoes, salt, pepper and water in kettle. Bring to a boil, cover and simmer for about 30 minutes or until vegetables are tender. Make cream sauce with fat, flour and milk and cook until boiling, stirring constantly. Combine with vegetable mixture. Add cheese, pimiento and paprika and stir over low heat until cheese is melted. Serve at once. Serves 6.

Braising Brings Out Rich Flavor

Swiss steak, pot-roast, fricassee—these terms suggest different meat dishes, but they are all prepared by the same moist heat method—braising.

Best cooked by braising are the less tender cuts of beef: pork chops and steaks which must be slowly cooked to bring out their rich flavor; and veal steaks and chops because of their lack of fat. Whether cooked on top of the range or in the oven, this slow moist heat cooking results in tender, juicy meat that is richly browned with a well developed flavor and aroma.

The first step in braising is browning the meat in its own or a small amount of added fat.

For a richer color and added flavor, the meat may be dredged in seasoned flour before browning. When completely browned, a small amount of liquid is added if desired, the pan is covered and the meat allowed to cook slowly until done. The liquid may be water, milk cream, diluted vinegar, meat stock, fruit or vegetable juice. Herbs, spices and vegetables may be cooked with the meat to add flavor and variety.

In serving, the meat sauce is an important part because it not only contains the good meat flavor, but contains meat food value as well. The rich drippings are often served over the meat or they may be made into a delicious gravy to be served separately.

"EASY DOES IT"

EVER TRIED CORN KERNELS in green peppers as stuffing? Mix the corn with cream, bits of bacon and seasoning to taste. Sprinkle the top with buttery breadcrumbs and bake until the peppers are tender.

Do something different with ground meat by shaping individual loaves out of it. Serve with onions and scalloped tomatoes.

Onions and carrots are among our more plentiful vegetables during cool weather. Cook them together for something different and tasty, then glaze with 1/4 cup butter mixed with the same amount of honey. Turn over and over in a skillet over a low fire until shiny. Extend those shreds of leftover roast chicken with some oysters bury them in a cream sauce and top with grated cheese. Heat until bubbly.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Crisp Oatmeal Cookies (Makes 80)
1 cup shortening
1 cup brown sugar
1 cup granulated sugar
2 eggs, beaten
1 teaspoon vanilla
1 1/2 cups flour
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
3 cups quick-cooking oats
1/2 cup chopped nuts
Cream together sugars and shortening; add eggs and vanilla. Add sifted dry ingredients, then oats and nuts. Shape into rolls and wrap in waxed paper. Chill thoroughly, then slice 1/4" thick and bake on an ungreased cookie sheet in a moderate (350° F.) oven for 10 minutes.

You've heard of deviled eggs, but how about cabbage. Cook the cabbage until tender, then to 4 table spoons of butter add a dash of dry mustard, a sprinkling of worcester shire sauce and salt to taste. It's elegant over the vegetable.

Try heating some thick cream with maple sugar and use as a sauce for hot rice pudding. This makes a tasty, nourishing dessert for a cool night.

Apple pies will be even more taste-tempting than usual if they are seasoned with a dusting of grated lemon or orange peel and some mace as the spice.

Here's Hallow'en party fun for youngsters! On this mysterious night, reveal a tray of barbecued ground beefburgers and crisp potato chips. A cabbage salad rounds out the refreshment which is fittingly served on decorated paper plates.

Where Does Your Food Dollar Go?

The average American family spends one-fourth to one-third of its total income for food. But many homemakers have no idea of just how their food dollars are spent, says Mary Bodwell, agricultural economics department food specialist at Michigan State college.

More of the food dollar goes for meat than for any other single item, Miss Bodwell says. In a basic seven food group breakdown, the meat, fish, poultry, eggs, dry beans, peas and nuts group took 34 1/2 cents of the food dollar. Figures used here are based on U. S. department of agriculture surveys of 68 cities in 34 states, 1948, studying food consumption of city families.

Dairy products accounted for 16 cents out of every dollar. The green, leafy and yellow vegetable group took 5 cents, and another 5 cents went for citrus fruits and potatoes. About 8 1/2 cents went for potatoes and other vegetables and fruits, 11 cents for grain products, 9 cents for fats and oils, and 11 cents for sweets and food accessories.

The average sized city family in the USDA survey ate 166 pounds of food a week, at an average cost of $25.57. Food expense per person was $7.77 a week. Families of three, there-

Menu Pointers For Halloween

Miniature spooks and goblins will be coming out of hiding October 31. Wherever these fun loving figures gather, there's sure to be a joint demand for "tricks or treats."

For a treat in Halloween party refreshment, serve spicy barbecued ground beef over big hamburger buns. These tasty burgers are easily matched with potato chips and a cabbage salad. Hot cider, also, will brighten the witches table that is appropriately decorated with made-eyed pumpkins and wry black cats.

An easily served dessert to complete the bewitching menu is gingerbread baked as plump muffins topped with grated orange rind. Make up your favorite gingerbread recipe, bake the batter in greased muffin pans, then sprinkle orange rind over the top.

Or still another way to carry out October's colors in dessert is with chocolate cake. Bake the batter in cup cake form, then brilliantly cap each cake with orange-tinted confectioner's sugar icing. Chocolate chips may be used to make realistic faces on the top of the little cakes.

BARBECUED GROUND BEEF

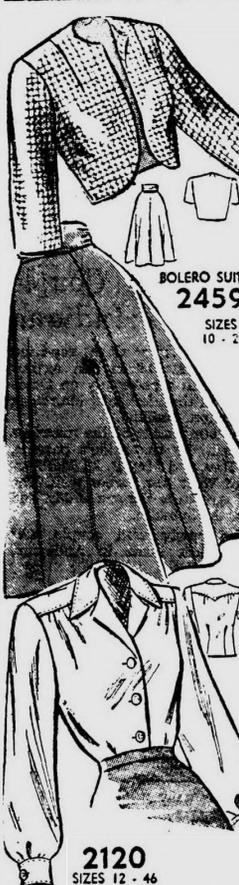

Here is the recipe for the barbecued ground beef:
1 pound ground beef
1 tablespoon lard or drippings
1 cup finely chopped onion
1 cup finely chopped green pepper
1 tablespoon sugar
2 tablespoons prepared mustard
1 tablespoon vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup catchup
1/2 teaspoon ground cloves

Brown meat slowly until crumbly but not hard. Combine remaining ingredients and add to the meat. Cover and simmer about 20 minutes. Serve on toasted split buns. Serves 6 to 8.

POTATOE NESTS

If there are left-over mashed potatoes in your refrigerator, here's a tasty suggestion. Shape potatoes into little nests. Brush the nests with beaten egg and fill each with little balls of seasoned ground beef. Place nests in a moderate oven (350° F.) to cook the meat and lightly brown the potatoes.

Wash Children's Wool Clothing

Crisp fall days will soon be chilly winter ones and your children will be wearing their wool suits again. If you're going to keep them clean the only economical answer is washing.

When washing, washers she advises that you remember to use luke warm water, mild soap and careful handling. Dyes in such garments are not likely to be entirely fast—be sure to get the colors of blands and two-tone materials. Washing quickly, rolling in a towel to remove excessive moisture, and then drying flat on a towel with another towel between the back and front will prevent one color from running into another.

Fast color garments can be hung on clothes hangers and pickets, pleats and tucks smoothed out to make ironing easier. These special features should be considered for they frequently become complicated ironing problems.

Children's play-out, especially the lined ones, are a little more difficult to launder. To wash them before they become too soiled and need all manner of pre-treating to wash, loosen, massage a little liquid soap into these spots with the fingers. Rinse immediately in clean, warm water and allow to become moist. Then wash and roll in a towel to remove excess moisture.

Wool sweaters will keep their shape in washing if rolled in a piece of clean, light-colored old sheet, then pressed in and out of the changing bath. Woolens can be washed in a mechanical washer if allowed to wash only two to three times.

Successful Parenthood

BY MRS. CATHERINE CONRAD EDWARDS
Associate Editor, Parents' Magazine

THE FIRST STEP OF GRAY hair, the first step-up in your dress size, the first time a saleswoman calls you madame instead of miss—all these signs disturb that self-deception we all cling to, namely, that our friends mean it when they say "You haven't changed a bit." But these are mild jolts compared to the one you get when your children first criticize your appearance.

Have they changed, you wonder unhappily, from the adorable youngsters who never stopped short of "the most beautiful mommy in the world" when appraising your looks? They've changed, but not in their affection—it's their eyes that see differently. For to a little child his mother's face is the whole picture—it's warm lovingness, the charm of your smile, the welcome in your eyes when he runs to you. By four or five a child notices and loves it if you use a pleasing perfume. So if you want to delight a small daughter or son keep sweet smelling saphets in your bureau drawers and use mildly scented powders and lotions and a delicate flower perfume. But it's still your face and the lovely scent that follows you which means beauty to the child.

When children start to school they begin to notice the way you dress. If teacher is young and wears bright colored clothes set off by earrings and bracelets your child will begin wanting you to look gay and to jingle, jangle a bit. Children are fascinated by painted nails and will be disappointed if

HAM, CORN FRITTERS

Ham and corn fritters fit easily into many menus. To prepare the fritters, combine 1 cup of whole kernel corn, 1/2 cup ground cooked ham and a small amount of minced onion. Sift together 2 3/4 cup of flour and 1 1/2 teaspoons of baking powder and add to the corn mixture. Add 1 1/4 cup milk. Blend well, then drop fritter batter by teaspoonfuls into deep hot lard. Ham and corn fritters are temptingly served with a well seasoned cream or tomato sauce. If desired, corned beef may be used in place of ham.

Here's the car that brings you, not just a little "more", but the most of the four big advantages people want most in motoring... the most beauty, roominess, road-worthiness and all-round performance. Yes, only in Hudson do you get the priceless advantages of "step-down" design—the basic improvement that makes so much extra value possible. Take road-worthiness, for example:
Hudson's recessed floor and "step-down" design provide the lowest center of gravity in any American stock car—yet there's full road clearance. Result: the safest, steadiest, hug-the-road ride ever known!
Make your date with tomorrow. Find out for yourself why, of the more than quarter-million owners of the New Hudson, 120,000 are people who have traded in cars of other makes to own this exciting automobile. You'll be delighted, too, with the deal you can make on a years-ahead New Hudson!

Start Remodeling Recreation Room

Face lifting on the recreation room in the city hall will be completed in time for the November 1 starting date for the boxing phase of Plymouth's recreation program. The entire room is getting a much needed remodeling job which was begun next week.

Composition blocks which are partially sound-proof are being put on the ceiling. The floor is being re-finished and the walls are getting a fresh coat of paint. Plywood, three-quarters of an inch thick, will be placed on one wall to make a more sturdy place to install punching bags to be used in the recreation department's boxing program. A small boxing ring will be put on the floor for the benefit of Plymouth's potential Joe Louis' and Jack Dempsey's.

Asphalt tile blocks will be used on the floor in the office of Herb Woolweaver, recreation director.

The recreation room will be used for playing chess, bridge and for other activities included in the recreation program as well as for boxing instructions for Plymouth's younger set.

William Fehlig is doing the remodeling which is costing $765.

Starkweather Mothers to Hear Mrs. J. Berkan

Starkweather school's Mother's club will hear a talk on Turkey and practice of diplomacy, as it was understood during the Middle Ages. Machiavelli said that when an evil arises its opponents should temporize with it lest it grow stronger by reason of the opposition. But Machiavelli was noted chiefly for his advocacy of lying and deceit in public affairs. His advice was the antithesis of that contained in the teachings of Christianity.

Yet over several decades there has been a tendency on the part of many politicians to temporize, to compromise with one of the greatest evils of our age. That evil goes under a variety of names. It is called socialism, totalitarianism, communism, collectivism, and by half a dozen other words and phrases. But it is always the same thing—a belief that freedom, economic and political, is not worth fighting for, is not worth the self-discipline and often the real sacrifice its continued possession entails. It is a belief that some fancied social or economic security is preferable to those liberties our forefathers died to gain and preserve. It is a credo which says it is better to be safe than free. It is true that thus far in

All mothers in Plymouth are urged to attend this interesting and worth while program. At the close of the meeting refreshments will be served by Mrs. K. Hirschlieb, Mrs. E. Groschke, Mrs. G. Caldwell, Mrs. P. Cloar, Mrs. H. Raaflaub and Mrs. J. Zittler.

The Ohio university stadium will sport a new stainless steel press box seating 150 newsmen and 16 television cubicles for the 1950 football season.

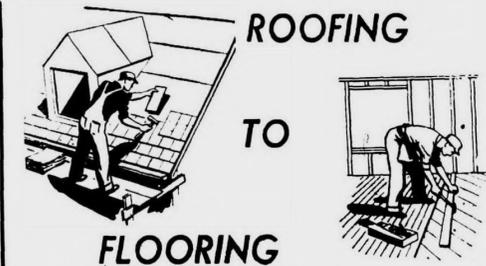

The production of stainless steel in 1948 about equalled the combined production for the five years, 1935 through 1939.

Cotton ... Pumpkins ... Apples Farmer ... Shoeman ... Coal man End Fall Series

Truck gardener Clyde Smith, well known Newburg resident, examines balls from one of his son Everett's cotton plants which provides the Smith household with their yearly cotton supply. Contrary to popular conception cotton does very well in this section of the country and the Smiths have some hundred excellent cotton bushes to prove the point. Shoeman Robert Willoughby, who also buys and processes apples as well as operating his store and three local farms, contemplates his problem of disposing of nearly 250 tons of pumpkins which came from his fields this year. When you eat an apple or pumpkin pie in almost any restaurant it's almost a safe bet to say that the apples or pumpkins were furnished by Mr. Willoughby. The third member of the group is Coalman Tom Bateman, who gathers apples from his trees on Ann Arbor Trail where the basement storeroom is now filled with delicious apple sauce for winter use. His apple crop was better than average and he found that the apple pies that came from Mrs. Bateman's oven seemed to taste better than ever this year.

ON CAPITOL HILL

NEWS and COMMENT FROM CONGRESSMAN GEORGE A. DONDERO

a few unimportant items of the President's program.

All of this should point a political moral, not only to members of Congress and of the administration, but also to labor leaders and others who seek change merely for its own sake or in the hope that by change they may aggrandize themselves or the minority group they represent. Most Congressmen spend much time and effort, and some skill, in discovering what is in the minds of a majority of their constituents. It is their business to do so, for they are "representatives" in fact as well as in name. Ours is a representative government, and will so continue unless the socializers have their way. Therefore the refusal of Congress to adopt the President's welfare state program may be assumed to reflect the real convictions of a vast majority of Americans.

Some proof of this is provided by the recent election of a new member of Congress, John P. Saylor, who replaced Robert L. Coffey, Jr., from the 26th Pennsylvania District. Coffey was killed in an airplane crash. He was a Democrat and supported the Fair Deal. Saylor is a Republican who told the voters of this district, which includes the steel center of Johnstown, that "the issue is the American way of life: free enterprise and opportunity versus the regimented semi-police state." Saylor received the largest majority vote his party has even received in that district.

The time has come, indeed, for those responsible to the American people to stop compromising with the evil of socialism, which would destroy the people's liberties while professing a tender solicitude for their welfare.

The strength of stainless steel has made it possible to make stronger ski poles without increasing their weight.

City Buys New Truck And Police Scout Car

The city's mechanized division of trucks and automobiles was increased last week by the addition of a new police scout car and a new three-quarter ton pick-up truck for the water department.

Also purchased was a Chevrolet chassis for garbage collection which is now at Gar Wood, Inc. having the city's bucket loader transferred to it from the old chassis.

Both the truck and the scout car are Fords and were purchased from Paul J. Wiedman, Inc.

It is predicted that photographic and darkroom equipment will soon be available in black stainless steel to reduce the chance of accidental exposure.

Europe is the second smallest continent in the world.

Easy to clean and sanitary are two reasons cited by dog fanciers using stainless steel food and water bowls.

Seniors Sponsor Halloween Dance

Tonight, Thursday, the "Haunted Hop" will take place in the high school auditorium. The dance will be from 8 to 11 p.m. and grades nine through 12 are invited. The theme for the dance is Halloween and the senior class is sponsoring the dance.

Mary Vincent is general chairman and her assistants are: Jerry Walsh, publicity; Ronald Witt, tickets; Jerry Micol, decorations; Charles Snider, lighting; Katie Trucks, floor; Nancy Stevens and Wesley Potts, music; Joyce Carson and Connie Pascoe, chaperones and Marg Saxton, refreshments.

Because school is closed tomorrow for the annual M.E.A. meeting which the teachers are to attend, the dance will be to night.

Students Will Vacation While Teachers Work

Once again a happy day will soon be here for all the students of Plymouth High school tomorrow when school will be closed so the teachers can attend the annual Michigan Education Association Regional conference. Teaching is the largest of the professions with more than 32,000 of teachers claiming membership in the M.E.A.

At the national level, more than 427,000 are members of the National Education association. Both of these organizations coordinate their interests in promoting programs of great importance to the teachers of the state and nation. Complete programs were provided all members with full details of each meeting. Choice of meetings of greatest value to individual teachers could then be made simply and easily. These programs were mailed to all 1949-50 members.

Colon T. Schaibly, president of the M.E.A. and Lee M. Thurston, superintendent of Michigan State Department of Public Instruction planned to attend each of the eight meetings. Mr. Thurston's talk will concern the adventures of educational progress. Each regional conference planned an N.E.A.-M.E.A. assembly either in the form of a luncheon or dinner meeting.

Students Vote on Charity Drive

Students of Plymouth High school voted on the United Foundation referendum Wednesday, October 19, which was taken to determine whether the high school would put its charities into the United Foundation or continue to contribute them to separate funds.

With 78 percent of the students voting, there were 542 votes for the United Foundation and 341 votes for separate charities. Only 25 votes were voided.

The polls were open from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Wednesday and the returns came out during school hours Thursday morning. There were four election boards.

An assembly was held Tuesday, October 18, with Ronald Witt and Carvel Bentley speakers. They discussed the assets and liabilities of both the United Foundation and separate charities.

Commercial Club Plans Hayride

Highlighting the activities of the Commercial club was their annual hayride and weiner roast which took place Saturday, October 22. All old and new members were invited, and were permitted to bring a guest.

Committees for the event were as follows: Joan Rupp and Norma Hart, general co-chairmen; Joyce Chaney, transportation; Janice Valaika, chaperones; and Joan Rupp, food.

Money Donated by Varsity Club

The Varsity club of Plymouth High school, under the supervision of Coach Hilton Ponto, has donated fifty dollars towards the construction of a broadcasting booth on the high school gridiron. According to Mr. Pierce, high school principal, the booth will be built as soon as possible. The Varsity club will lead a drive to collect more money for this booth.

At the meeting on Tuesday evening, October 18, plans were made for several other projects. Plans were also made for the Varsity club to provide the numbers for the fathers of the football players at the homecoming game with Northville.

A hayride has been planned for Saturday night, October 29. Opinions were also sought on such subjects as initiation, a semi-formal party, and a formal or semi-formal dance to be sponsored by the club. All members were presented with copies of the club constitution, through the work of their new adviser, Hilton Ponto. This was done to give the club members a chance to become familiar with the club's powers and regulations.

Official Proceedings of The City Commission

A special meeting of the City Commission was held in the Commission Chamber of the City Hall on Monday, October 10, 1949 at 7:30 p.m.

Present: Mayor Chute, Commissioners Hough, Peck and Thams.

This was the night set for the hearing on the proposed construction of curb and gutter around Liberty Park and along property abutting Liberty Street at Starkweather westerly for a distance of 132 feet.

Several of the interested property owners were present and expressed their views. A letter from Karl Starkweather was also read expressing his view.

The meeting was recessed at 8:52 to draft a resolution and was reconvened at 9:03.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Thams:

Whereas, a public hearing has been held on October 10, 1949, as advertised, to hear any objection to the construction of a curb and gutter around Liberty Park and along property abutting Liberty Street at Starkweather Avenue westerly for a distance of 132 feet, and WHEREAS, objections to the construction of a curb and gutter along the abutting property at the outer boundaries of said street have been received by the City Commission, and WHEREAS, it has been determined that curb and gutter should not be constructed along said abutting property.

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that curb and gutters shall not be constructed along the property abutting Liberty Street at Starkweather Avenue westerly for a distance of 132 feet, as advertised.

Ayes: Mayor Chute, Commissioner Hough, Peck and Thams.
Nays: None.

It was moved by Commissioner Peck and supported by Commissioner Thams that the City Manager and City Engineer be instructed to investigate the question of a curb and gutter around the central parkway area of Liberty Park and to report complete findings at the next regular meeting of October 18.

Ayes: Mayor Chute, Commissioners Hough, Peck and Thams.
Nays: None.

The City Manager asked for the approval of change order No. 2 to Division A of Contract No. 6 of the Waterworks const. project held by Burger and Dobbs in of $510.21 be approved.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Thams that Change order No. 2 to Division A of Contract No. 6 of the waterworks construction project, held by Burger and Dobbs in the amount of $510.21 be approved.

Ayes: Mayor Chute, Commissioners Hough, Peck and Thams.
Nays: None.

The following resolution was offered by Commissioner Peck and supported by Commissioner Thams:

WHEREAS, there is to be held in the City of Plymouth, a special municipal election on October 17, 1949, and WHEREAS, in accordance with the state election laws providing for gatekeepers, said provision may be waived by the City Commission.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED that in accordance with the state election laws, the appointment of gatekeepers for the special municipal election to be held on October 17, 1949, be waived.

Ayes: Mayor Chute, Commissioners Hough, Peck and Thams.
Nays: None.

It was moved by Commissioner Hough and supported by Commissioner Thams that the meeting be adjourned. Time of adjournment was 9:25 p.m.

Col. Richard H. Moore Views Army Exercises

Lt. Col. Richard H. Moore, now a student at the Army's Command and General Staff college, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas, will be an observer at the Air Force-Army exercises to be held at Eglin Air Force base, Florida, and Fort Benning, Georgia, from October 23 to 29.

Colonel Moore is the son of Mrs. William K. Moore of 253 Irving street.

The demonstrations to be presented by the Air Force and the Army will include an airborne operation at Eglin field and a display of the infantry-artillery-tank-air team in the attack at Fort Benning.

Approximately 600 students and faculty of the Command and General Staff college, the Army's highest level educational institution, will attend the exercises. Officers attending the ten month regular course of the college, commanded by Lt. Gen. M. S. Eddy, are being prepared to qualify for duty as commanders and general staff officers of divisions or larger organizations.

The conservation department's first large scale reforestation program since 1941, which calls for a fall planting of 3,000,000 trees in ten Northern Michigan state forests, is nearing the half-way mark. Tree planting crews are expected to set out the remaining 1,600,000 seedlings by October 31.

Fall rains in Northern Michigan have made planting conditions ideal. In the Upper Peninsula, crews are setting out two-year-old red and jack pine seedlings in Mackinac, Grand Sable, Mainistique river, Sturgeon river and Lake Superior state forests. Similar plantings are being made in northern lower peninsula Fife lake, Presque Isle, Pigeon river, Houghton lake and Black lake state forests.

Another 3,000,000 seedlings will be set out next spring. Fishermen can now take cisco, whitefish, suckers and carp with spears and artificial light on specially designated lakes in northern lower and upper peninsulas, except Higgins lake, and November 1 in southern Michigan. The season on Higgins lake opens November 1.

The conservation department has added 14 new lakes, half of which are in Oakland county, to the list of lakes open to private anglers. A special spearing season permits the utilization of a fish crop that is not taken in any other way.

The transfer of fishing activity from Lake trout—which are being destroyed in the Great Lakes by the parasitic sea lamprey—to other fish like the chub threatens the commercial fish resources of the Great Lakes, the U. S. Fish and Wildlife service said today. The Service explained that the indirect effects of the sea lamprey on the fishery are as important and destructive as the direct effects.

Lake Huron's trout fishing has been completely destroyed by the sea lamprey. Lake Michigan's is 50 percent reduced, and Lake Superior's potentiality is 30 percent below that of former years—the latter's decline caused by the increased rate of exploitation, rather than by direct attack of the sea lamprey. This decline in trout fisheries has caused fishermen to redirect their efforts to other species of fish.

The take of chubs in Lake Michigan has increased more than 400 percent in the last few years. Commercial fishermen are greatly concerned about the maintenance of the fishery under this increased catch.

Fishery scientists at the Great Lakes laboratory of the Fish and Wildlife service at Ann Arbor, Michigan, emphasize that any program directed toward the study and control of the sea lamprey must take account of these indirect effects of the sea lamprey, such as increased exploitation of the remaining trout.

Purification of sea water by distillation is foreseen as one possible future source of water for growing centers of population on the Pacific coast.

Head your Buick for our fountain of youth
NOW'S the time when Autumn calls you out for a ramble in your Buick.
Slide under the wheel and answer that call! Take a Fireball cruise through the countryside, with your heart growing lighter and the years slipping off your shoulders at each mile!
Just one reminder, though. Make sure your Buick is in top shape to keep step with you. First bring it in to us—and let us clean summer's dust out of your air filter, flush out tired summer crankcase oil with its grit and goo, check your carburetor adjustment so that you're getting the most powerful, most economical mixture with October's cooler, heavier atmosphere.
We can do this quickly, economically, with a sure touch. Our thorough Buick training and long Buick experience in doing each job the factory-designated way have earned us a reputation—we're the "Fountain of Youth" for Buicks.
To make it easy, we've printed a Fall Check List below. Just tear this out, drive in this week and hand it to us—and when you head out for the open road there'll be a happy smile on your face!

Dale Carnegie
 Author of
 "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS and INFLUENCE PEOPLE"
 Be Yourself and Succeed

RALPH WALDO EMERSON said in his essay on Self-Reliance, there is a time in every man's education when he arrives at the conviction that envy is ignorance; that imitation is suicide; that he must take himself for better or for worse, as his portion; that though the wide universe is full of good, no kernel of nourishing corn can come to him but through his own toil bestowed on that plot of ground which is given to him to till.
 But Douglas Malloch said the same thing in another way:

CARNEGIE

"If you can't be a highway, then just be a trail,

If you can't be the sun, be a star; It isn't by size that you win or you fail—

Be the best of whatever you are!"

Charlie Chaplin, Will Rogers, Mary Margaret McBride, Gene Autry and millions of others had to learn the truth of what Emerson and Malloch said—and they had to learn it the hard way.

When Charlie Chaplin first started making films, the director insisted upon him imitating a popular German comedian—whose name, by the way I don't even recall. Charlie got nowhere until he acted himself. Will Rogers twirled a rope in vaudeville for years without saying a word. He made no progress until he discovered his unique gift of humor and began to talk as he twirled his rope.

When Mary Margaret McBride went on the air, she attempted to portray an Irish comedian. She failed. But when she became herself, a plain country girl from Missouri, she became one of the most popular—if not the most popular—of the radio stars.

You are something new and different in this world. There's no one just like you. Make the most of that. You can only sing or paint or write what you are. You can only invent what you find inspiration for within yourself. You must be what your experiences, your environment, and your heredity make you.

So let's not imitate others; let's find ourselves and be ourselves.

Babson Discusses the Advantages of Making a Will

Too many people die without leaving a will. The result: financial tangles, family squabbles, lawsuits, and the disposition of the property entirely contrary to the wishes of the deceased.

Why Make a Will?

Some day each of us will die. Making a will can neither hasten nor retard death, but a properly drawn will, executed by a competent lawyer, may save post-mortem disputes and prevent the distribution of an estate contrary to the wishes of the testator.

For example, property belonging to an intestate estate usually cannot be sold without a license from the court. This costs money. A will saves this difficulty. The testator can direct exactly how his property is to be disposed. Everyone, man or woman, who has real estate, bank accounts, securities, or a car should have a will and he should not wait until he is upon his death bed, either, to frame this important document.

Property Distribution Without a Will

Every state has laws concerning the disposition of property for those who are too lazy to make a will. Let us suppose you are married, your wife is living, and you have young children. You die, leaving a modest amount of property. You leave no will. In most states your wife is entitled to only one-third of your property; your children, whether you have one or a dozen, to the other two-thirds. Your wife must be appointed legal guardian which involves an appreciable expenditure from your children's share of property. Your wife's share of the property may soon be exhausted trying to support the children. When your children come of age and receive their inheritance, they may not see fit to aid their mother. Thus your widow lives on "old age assistance" because you failed to spend $10-$25 a half an hour with a lawyer.

We all know of situations where, without a will, property and especially real estate has passed along, by law, to children not on speaking terms with one another. One of the inheritors may wish to sell, rent, or otherwise dispose of the property. The consent of other brothers and sisters who have a similar interest in the property cannot be obtained. The family squabble continues and all parties lose money via lawsuits. Or, consider the case when a man dies and leaves no children but leaves other relatives. In Massachusetts, for example, if the estate is $10,000 or less, the wife gets all. If the estate totals more than $10,000, the wife gets the first $10,000 and only one-half the additional value of the estate. The long lost relatives get the rest! Wherever you live, the legal disposition of your estate may be quite contrary to your wishes.

Why Procrastinate?

Don't be foolish! I knew a thrifty Scot who said he would save ten dollars and a visit to his lawyer. He got a sample form of a will, copied it, but failed to have it witnessed by the proper number of witnesses required by his state to make this document legal. The probate court tossed it out and the old man's wishes went to the winds.

A friend of one of my business associates died the other day. She was a widow in her middle fifties. She had no children nor near kin. She left no will. She had talked to many about her estate and what she had her heart set on doing with it when the time came. Then she hastily added: "I have 25 more years to live and plenty of time to think about a will." She would shudder now. I am sure, could she see the property being divided up by the law among all her first cousins.

It used to be the custom among English lawyers, at professional meetings, to offer the first toast to those who wrote their own wills! They know that carelessly written wills bring the lawyers lots of business.

A PEEK at the STARS

PLATTER CHATTER

VICTOR: A unique album and one that should sell big is Victor's "Jolson Sings Again," in which RCA's top bands recorded songs featured in the picture by the same title. . . Sammy Kaye is there with "Baby Face," Phil Harris does "Is It True What They Say About Dixie?" Vaughn Monroe is solid with the heart-rending "Sonny Boy" and Tony Martin comes up with "Toot, Toot, Tootsie Goodbye," all of which spells good music. . . In singles, Vaughn Monroe's latest, "Vieni Su" looks like a winner. . . It's backed by "Blue for a Boy, Pink for a Girl."

COLUMBIA: "Reminiscing With Dinah Shore," an album with the Dixie gal singing such old favorites as "Little White Lies," "I'll Be Seeing You," "They Can't Take That Away From Me" and others in the best Shore manner. . . This, too, looks big commercially. . . In singles, Dick Jurgens has a cut in "Wedding Bells" backed with the pretty "Meadows of Heaven," and Les Brown has a new coupling that has possibilities, "Let Me Grow Old With You" with "You're Different" on the flip.

CAPITOL: Capitol's latest is a fine Christmas offering. . . "Father Flanagan's Boyston Choir" singing such favorite Christmas carols as "When Christ Is Born," "O Holy Night," "Silent Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful" and "O Come All Ye Faithful" . . . Scouting Around the Sunset District

There are several issues of importance to district Scouters and their friends which should be discussed at this time. First of all your reporter wishes to tell you that our good friend and Scouter, Amos Shields, has undergone his operation which was of a serious nature, and is now at his home where he will have to be confined for a somewhat lengthy convalescence. We hope that many of you will find the time to drop him a line of comfort during his period of inactivity. His address is 18057 Northlawn, Detroit 21, Michigan.

District Scouting received another "shot-in-the-arm" on the occasion of the Explorer Round table meeting held at the Newburg church last Wednesday night. Edward Wilson, of the Area council presented a training film and further commentary on the aspects of the newly revamped Explorer program which is being activated at the present. We are of the opinion that a great many points of haziness were completely cleared up in your minds by virtue of his timely assistance.

LeRoy (No Snow) Rafferty, chairman of the C and A committee made his report of the annual fall camp-out, which we released in a previous issue, and further advised that the Dawson City sweepstakes were now in the planning stages. He stated that this winter event would be held Sunday, January 8. We think that this program will be better and bigger than ever in point of program content than those of the past and that all of the district's Scouts will be on the ball as usual.

Looking over the past 15 years we find that the Scouting child has grown into a thing of large stature and that its future is as rosy as its past has been. Due to the foresight of its leaders who have guided its destiny down through the years the movement is truly strong and solvent at this time.

According to the media of the third quinquennial report on meeting the recommendation of the 1939 Council Re-organization committee as compiled during September 1949 we submit the following facts for your edification:

On December 31, 1934 the council boasted a membership of 11,857 Scouts, Cubs and leaders. As of September, 1949 this total was boosted to the total of 38,369. This can be broken down to represent 248 Cub Packs and 708 Scout troops inclusive of the members of the Explorer (senior) group and re-divided into 12,774 Cubs; 16,061 Scouts and Explorers, plus 9,674 adult volunteer leaders and 21 Scout executives. All this coupled with the dividend of 1,293,644 man hours of volunteer leadership, makes us all think of the possibilities for the future.

HAROLD'S HEATING HELPER

SINCE MODERN NOTIONS CAME TO STAY—WE'RE BETTER OFF IN EVERY WAY

The Detroit Area council owns 2,615 acres of camping property and has further use and control of another 2,775 acres of campable acreage which serves to provide an estimated 127,000 boy-days of camping per year under suitably Scouting trained personnel. This, too, is an item of interest well worth remembering.

Membership in the council is second only to the city of New York and its operating budget is the lowest of any metropolitan area. From the position of "step child" in the community 15 years ago the council has won and held the respect, admiration and co-operation of the business, labor, industrial, social, religious, educational and civic agencies of the community.

The council and its executive board is among the strongest, most interested, progressive and representative groups of citizens in social work in the area. Its business management is on the highest level—sound, effective and economic.

The council and its willingness of good men to serve in Scouting and the comparative ease of securing supplemental funds are great indication of the public's approval of Scouting as a community aid to the problems of youth.

We of Scouting are proud to serve the interests of these people who recognize the true worth of our Scouts—the future citizens of America.

It's Tops - from the bottom up!

Delivered here—at new lower Golden Anniversary prices, you can buy this 135-HP Packard Eight, six-passenger Club Sedan for only $2,116

Fact to remember: When you look at a car, any car, you only see about 40% of what you're paying for.
That's why—when experienced buyers come in to look at a Packard—we often invite them to take a "road's-eye view." We like to show and describe hidden values such as these:
Double-solid-panel body construction—over a frame that looks husky enough to be a battleship's backbone!
Special alloys that make the engine almost "wear-proof." Fact: In high-speed, 25,000-mile endurance runs, Packard cylinder wear is less than the thickness of this newspaper page!
Extra ball and roller bearings—more than you'll find in any other car in Packard's price class. Like the jewels in a fine watch, these costly bearings guard vital parts against wear.
The list goes on and on, and on—and it covers all the big reasons for Packard's superior safety and comfort . . . and Packard's amazing economy.

And how consistent has Packard quality been—in the hidden features, as well as the on-the-surface features? Answer: Of all the Packards built—in the last 50 years—over 50% are still in service!
