Couple Take Wedding Trip to Niagara Falls

Loretta Booth of Walled Lake and Elmer Sperkowski were united in marriage on Saturday, November 11 at 10 o'clock. The Rev. A. K. MacRae officiated at the ceremony.

Witnessing the vows were Dorothy Mass, sister of the bride and Cyril Whittington. Mr. and Mrs. Sperkowski left for a week's honeymoon at Niagara Falls and enroute home will visit with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith of St. Thomas, Ontario.

The young couple are making their home in Northville.

Joan Ventura Is Bride Of Jacob Hanna

The parlor of the First Presbyterian church was the setting for the marriage of Miss Joan Ventura, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Ventura of Olson drive, in Garden City, to Jacob Clifford Hanna, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Essick of Plymouth.

Rev. Henry Walch officiated at the 6 o'clock rites before a group of relatives and friends. Norma McDowell presided at the piano and "Because" and "I Love You Truly" were sung by Miss Marjorie Thomas.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a dress of pink winter wool with black accessories and her corsage was of orchids. Joan asked Miss Beverly Hokenson to be her maid of honor. Beverly wore a maroon colored suit with grey accessories and a corsage of gardenias. Robert McIntyre was the bridegroom's best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ventura wore a dress of raspberry wool with black accessories and Mrs. Hanna was dressed in maroon crepe with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of white mums and carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception for about 50 guests was held in the home of the bride's parents in Garden City.

For her going away outfit, Mrs. Hanna wore a suit of navy blue with matching accessories and her orchid corsage. The young couple are spending a week at a cottage on Portage lake after which they will make their home in Garden City. Both young people attended Plymouth High school.

Barbara Leadbetter Becomes Bride of Lester H. Brown

Mrs. Lester Brown

In a quiet ceremony, Barbara Joan Leadbetter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Burt Leadbetter of Plymouth, and Lester H. Brown, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brown of Newburg road, were married on Saturday, November 11 in the Newburg Methodist church.

The Rev. G. MacDonald Jones officiated at the 4 o'clock rites. Only members of the immediate families were present. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

For her wedding, Barbara chose a dress of all-over lace in beige color, ballerina length with mits and hat to match and a shoulder length veil. Her corsage was of white roses and baby mums. Lois Minehart, her only attendant, also wore a beige colored dress with brown accessories. Her corsage was of yellow mums and pink roses. The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Ray Finney.

Mrs. Leadbetter, mother of the bride, wore a black taffeta dress with grey accessories and a corsage of yellow roses. Mrs. Brown wore blue crepe with brown accessories and a corsage of plum colored mums for her son's wedding.

Refreshments were served to over 50 guests in the young couple's new home on South Main street. Guests were present from Detroit, Ypsilanti, Canada and Plymouth.

The bride chose a plum colored suit with grey accessories for her wedding trip which will take the young couple into northern Michigan.

Mrs. Brown is a graduate of Plymouth High school with the class of 1950. Lester is a graduate of the Ford Trade school.

After November 20 the Browns will be at home to their friends at 550 1/2 South Main street.

Plan A. A. U. W. Branch Meeting

The group of local women who are forming the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women will hold the second meeting for organizing on Tuesday, November 21, at the home of Edna M. Allen at 305 Arthur street at 7:30 p.m.

At this time forms containing the college data for those organizing the group will be filled out and sent to the state organization. By-laws must be drawn up and approved also by the state group.

Since anyone who has attended a college accredited by the A.A.U.W. for two years, is welcome, there will also be a discussion of a meeting place to accommodate a larger group.

To Wed Saturday

Mr. and Mrs. John Burgess of Wayne road announce the forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Shirley Ann, to Irving Shoenbridge of Northville on Saturday, November 18, in the Newburg Methodist church.

AMAZING...

Yes truly amazing, that's the only word we can think of when we see and hear the response to our announcement of the opening of a branch bank in Livonia.

It will be the policy of this bank to keep you informed of our plans as they develop and we assure you that no time will be lost in bringing about the realization of this program which incidentally we have been working on well over a year.

The demand of residents and businessmen in Livonia to become stockholders in our institution, along with those of Plymouth people has far exceeded our expectations. In fact in the first week over $50,000 has been subscribed in Livonia alone. The confidence you have expressed in our expansion program is most gratifying to the officers and directors of this bank and we want you to know every effort is being put forth to bring about the opening of the bank in Livonia as soon as possible.

The opening of our bank in Livonia will insure its customers of the finest in banking service. Our facilities will be enlarged and keyed to meet the demands of the community it serves. Management will be local in both instances so that the needs of the area being served will be uppermost in our minds and the continuation of our well established policy of serving our customers best will remain the backbone of both institutions.

I.O.O.F. News

All brothers and sisters of both our respective lodges are urged to render all the assistance possible from the financial and physical standpoint to our building committee. Yes, at last we are on our way to having a new home on our building site. Thursday evening a number of faithful and ambitious brothers turned out and started digging the trenches for the foundation. Sunday at 12:30 they were done and ready for the cement to be poured. At the time this writing reaches your homes it is hoped some of the cement blocks will already be laid. Let's all get behind the wheel now and really help in every way possible so we can make rapid progress on our new lodge home and possibly have it ready for our installation of officers for 1951.

Another Rebekah Baked Goods party was held Saturday evening November 11. All reports are that a nice crowd turned out and all who attended had an enjoyable evening.

Let's have an active winter in our lodges by having events of some sort often. If you have any good ideas bring them up at our next meeting. Your officers are

Mark National Diabetes Week

Dr. Harold Brisbois, Plymouth health officer, announces that this week has been set aside as National Diabetes Week with the purpose of acquainting the public with the good to be derived from early recognition and treatment of the disease.

"By taking simple tests anyone can discover whether he or she is a diabetic and if so should receive the necessary medical treatment," Dr. Brisbois said. He recommends that a specimen of urine, taken about two hours after a full meal, be taken from every member of the family to a doctor. In this way diabetes can be detected.

The Wayne County Medical Society is cooperating with the American Diabetes Association in conducting a campaign to discover the unknown diabetics in the community.

Chaplain Speaks on Education Week Program

"We cannot have true education without knowledge of God," the Rev. Father J. McPhillips, chaplain to the Catholic students at the University of Michigan, told a large audience observing National Education Week in Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church hall on November 9.

Speaking on "The Catholic Student on the Secular Campus," Father McPhillips said in part: "The Catholic student's problem is like that of Catholics in any other position—that of living a spiritual life in an atmosphere steeped in materialism. Some professors who may be authorities in their respective fields and may have only the best of intentions, nevertheless may not know the answers when it comes to religion."

"Since so much of the opposition to the Catholic church results from a misunderstanding of its teachings, it is particularly important that the student avail himself of the opportunities afforded by the Catholic chapel to deepen his knowledge of his faith. It follows that no Catholic should attend a secular university unless he is mature with regard to his spiritual life."

Concluding, Father McPhillips emphasized the happy relations enjoyed with the administrative officials of the university.

Father William P. Mooney, pastor of Our Lady of Good Counsel church, paid tribute to the personal sacrifices made by Plymouth Catholics in order to provide a religious education for their children. He averred that the influence of the new Catholic school here is already being reflected in a deeper spirituality in the community and predicted many constructive results as time advances.

It Is Matt Powell!

Yes, believe it or not, the handsome gentleman pictured above is none other than Matt Powell. The picture was taken when Matt was a gay young blade out in Illinois and all these years it has rested in the attic of a former schoolmate of Mr. Powells who presented it to Matt on a recent visit to his old home town. First correct identification of the picture won for Nancy Worth of 51000 North Territorial road, the grand identification prize of a package of Black Jack chewing gum awarded by The Mail's picture editor.

Father-Daughter Banquet a Success

More than 100 Girl Scouts and their fathers and friends met last Thursday night, November 2, to make the Livonia Girl Scouts' second annual Father-Daughter banquet an over-the-top success.

The banquet was held at the Newburg Methodist church hall, and was served at 6:30 by the ladies of the Newburg Women's Society.

Social items can be phoned to 1755.

Book Week Display at High School Library

A prize winning bulletin board display featured the observance of Book Week November 13 to 17 in the Plymouth High school library this week, announcing the names of the new fall books available to students.

The board, designed by Beverly Ross and Gwen Phillips, won an award at the Clear Lake workshop of the Michigan Student Librarian Assistant association in October.

This year's slogan for Book Week, "Make Friends With Books," is depicted on the board by a poster made by Ingrid D'Aulaire, noted illustrator.

Let us not be weary in well doing, for in due season we shall reap, if we faint not.

Costumes Feature Historical Meet

The authentic antique furnishings of the Roderick Cassidy home on North Territorial, road formed a perfect setting last Thursday evening for the meeting of the Plymouth Historical Society.

Members came to the meeting dressed in the fashions of over half a century ago. Many of the ladies present wore wedding gowns, "appearing out" gowns, paisley and cashmere shawls, bonnets and plumes. Mrs. Maud Cooper read a most interesting paper on her girlhood days in Plymouth during the meeting.

William (Moose) Skowron, Purdue grid star, signed a bonus baseball contract with the New York Yankees at between $25,000 and $30,000. He was slated to be a right half this fall. Purdue has appealed to Commissioner Chandler.

"I REMEMBER"
BY THE OLD TIMERS

From Valle B. Kirkham of Colorado Springs, Colo.: I remember, at my grandmother's old home, the hake, a comb for dressing hemp. And the candlestick molds with which candles were made to light the homes.

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: Here are some more old-fashioned remedies I remember: castor oil on warts, cobwebs (out of the attic or barn) for fresh cuts, sulphur and molasses for spring tonic, slippery elm bark made in a poultice and applied warm to remove a thorn or needle from hand or foot, a cold steel knife on a bump. How many other old-time remedies can you old-timers remember? Let's hear from you!

From Mrs. A. of Bristow, Okla.: I remember when William McKinley and William Jennings Bryan were running for President, their pictures were on lamp chimneys. My father purchased what he supposed to be a picture of McKinley for our lamp chimney. The storekeeper, it seems, slipped in Bryan's without father's knowledge. When Father arrived home he placed it on the lamp, but then noticed the mistake. Bryan was quickly thrown out the door — and did Dad blow his top!

From Mrs. Ida Kittleson of Mt. Horeb, Wis.: I remember when my grandmother used to put a yoke on her shoulders, go to the well, break the ice on the water, dip in the pail, carry it up to the kitchen, then put it on the stove to warm for her two cows and also for her own use. Such were the pioneer days.

A man may fall into a thousand perplexities, but if his heart be upright and his intelligence unclouded, he will issue from them all without dishonor.

For Power with Economy... it's High Compression!

FOR HIGH COMPRESSION... IT'S THE "ROCKET"!

Ever since Oldsmobile introduced the "Rocket" Engine two years ago, seems like everybody claims "high-compression"—but nobody explains it. The phrase simply means squeezing the gasoline into a smaller space before exploding it. This gets more power out of the same amount of fuel. But the engine must be designed for high-compression all the way through to assure smooth, quiet, gas-saving performance. The "Rocket" is 100% high-compression from the crankshaft out. And the lowest-priced "Rocket" Engine car is Oldsmobile's "88." Makes good sense to try it soon—doesn't it?

Scientists Mark Thanksgiving

As is customary in all Christian Science churches, a special Thanksgiving service will be held on Thanksgiving day in the church edifice, corner Main and Dodge streets, at 10:30 a.m.

Following the usual order of service there will be a brief period in which members of the congregation may express their gratitude for healings and other help which they have received during the past year.

The Golden Text from Psalms (107:21-22) is appropriate for the occasion and reads: "Oh that men would praise the Lord for his goodness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men! And let them sacrifice of thanksgiving, and declare his works with rejoicing."

The Bible citations include Malachi (3:10): "Bring ye all the tithes into the storehouse, that there may be meat in mine house, and prove me now herewith, saith the Lord of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it."

Among the citations from "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, (Preface vii.) will be the following: "To those leaning on the sustaining infinite, to-day is big with blessings."

A survey by the Am. Inst. of Public Opinion indicates that more men would prefer to marry a pretty girl without money than a non-pretty girl with a financial plus. (We are not trying to discourage ladies with large bank accounts.) It looks as though the Cinderella story is still good for a lot of mileage. Other gentlemen hedged... saying character, intelligence, common sense; cooking, personality or a good disposition were more appealing than cash or glamor. Somewhere along the line every young lady should have a chance. Of course, if you're rich, pretty and can cook, you'll make out.

This is The Cottage That Spending Money and Spare Time Built

Money that wasn't spent for golf games, bowling alley fees and checking auto expenditures, his enabled Ray Crites, operator of the Plymouth Gas & Oil company, to build this cottage at the corner of Main street and Franklin avenue, plus his own time, effort and ability to recently complete a double summer home over at Walled Lake as any one could do so.

But it has taken more than three weeks to build the cottage, which can be used for all-season residential purposes, but to be found after he closed his service station in Plymouth.

"The thing that surprised me the most was the fact that the money I spent, frequently only $3 or $4 at a time, was money that I saved by doing things I or some of my presentable recreational activities. When I got a few dollars, I would go and buy two or three stacks of comic books, or a two-by-four, or something else I needed," said Mr. Crites the other day.

"The next three or four days I would spend using this material in the construction of my summer home. So, you see, I thought I never would get the job done, but one would be surprised to know how much progress can be made by utilizing the hours that Milestone in a Career!

We see it happen over and over again—and it's one of the greatest satisfactions we enjoy in this happy business of selling Cadillac cars.

It's when a man comes into possession of his first Cadillac—and we see the wonderful things it does for him.

We see his happiness as he places his order—not as the result of a sudden inspiration, but because he has gradually reached the conclusion that he has earned the right to enjoy the unquestioned best.

And then we see him on that happy day when his car is available for delivery—and he settles himself so proudly behind the wheel.

He's a little quizzical, we sometimes note. Could it be, he wonders, that he has been anticipating a bit too much? And then he's out in the street—headed for home the long way round.

Those are thrilling days that follow.

There's the first long ride with the family . . . the first trip to the office . . . and the time he learns, in an emergency, that his car is worth its whole price in safety alone.

And then, almost before he knows it, the odometer registers a thousand miles—and he's back to tell us all about it. And, perhaps, to grumble a little bit at giving it up—even for a little while!

Yes, it's a priceless privilege to watch all this. Makes a man feel that he's doing good.

Five Beautiful New Homes Near Columbian Hough Subdivision

First of the five new homes to be completed in this fast developing area on the west side of the city is the beautiful brick home of Mrs. Nell Curry near Sheldon road on the south side of Maple street.

Practically ready for occupancy is the new home of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Taylor being erected on the south side of Park Place facing Hough park near the center of the subdivision.

Next door to the Taylor residence on the west is this interesting new rambling home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nulty which lends charm and character to the attractive residential area in which it is being built.

The north side of Maple street, facing the center of Hough park is the attractive home being built for Dr. and Mrs. John Olsaver. This home is distinguished by its unusual architectural features and was first to have a completely automatic sprinkling system to help maintain its unusually attractive appearance.

Last of the new homes to be started in the subdivision and probably the largest of the group is the attractive residence pictured here, from the McKinley street side, under construction for Mr. and Mrs. David Mather. The beautiful Mather residence will be the fifth full two story home to be erected in the area, being preceded by the attractive homes of Dr. and Mrs. John Olsaver, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Daane, Mr. and Mrs. Dow Swope, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wesley, and Mr. and Mrs. Ciro Scalingi.

DALE CARNEGIE
 AUTHOR OF "HOW TO STOP WORRYING AND START LIVING"

Strange Sense of Honesty

A FRIEND OF MINE NAMED GEORGE, who doesn't want his name used, but who lives in Hackensack, N.J., works for the telephone company. It is his business to see that people who damage the company's property pay for it, as they should. But it is amazing says George, how many people who will be honest otherwise, will try to squirm out of a bill due a big company, though they wouldn't think of trying to cheat an individual.

Recently he had a case in which a doctor's wife was learning to drive and hit a telephone pole, causing considerable damage. George followed the usual procedure in making collections. He called the husband of the woman, a doctor in good standing, and got all the information required by the legal department of the company.

A few days later his telephone rang. It was the doctor, much wrought up. He had learned that someone else had hit that same pole some weeks before so he didn't feel he should stand for all the damage that had been done. He was very indignant about it all.

There was just one thing to do, stave off the doctor until he cooled down, and in the meantime get information on what he claimed. He checked the police department, made a thorough inspection of the pole. Everything indicated that the doctor's wife had done the damage. The doctor's claim seemed so unjust that George's own indignation was aroused. He felt like calling up the doctor and expressing that indignation to a man trying to get out of a just bill.

Then he stopped to think what would happen if he did a fight, of course.

He thought it over and this is what he actually did: He called the doctor on the telephone and said, "Doctor, you have a good argument. Here's what I suggest that you do: get all the information about that other accident you have heard about, and when our legal department comes to collect, give the information to them. If someone else should pay for that damage, they will see it at once."

To George's surprise this was the response the doctor made to his suggestion: "Well, really, I don't want to shirk any responsibilities that are mine."

250 Seniors to Tour College
 Approximately 250 high school seniors taught by the Felician Sisters in the Detroit, Saginaw, Manistee and Bay City areas will attend the annual College Day sponsored by the Student Association of Madonna college today.

The day begins with registration at 10:30 a.m. followed by a tour of the college and the campus. Guest speaker for the day is Dr. Clara Yastroch, director of St. Anne's Community house in Detroit.

Outstanding features of the afternoon are the bulletin board displays depicting pictorially not only the opportunities offered by the college, but scenes of college life and activities as well. Information booths are set up in prominent locations for the benefit of the visitors.

The pre-college committee was established to follow up with a plan of personal contact for all students who express an interest in attending college next fall.

News Of and For the Farmer . . .

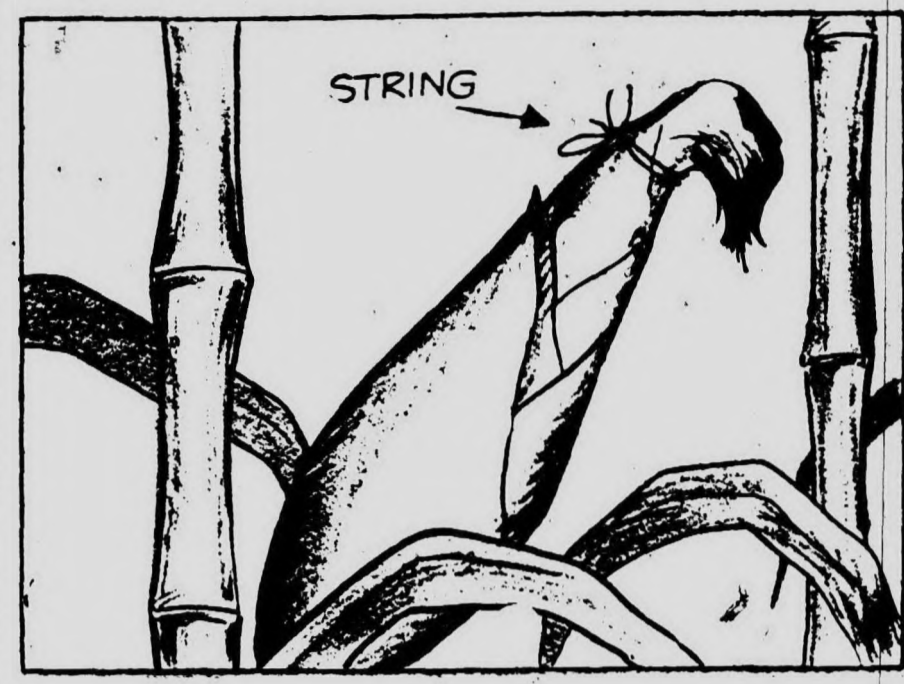

Acid Poisoning May Affect Cows

If any of your cattle begin to stagger as if drunk, they may have been poisoned by prussic acid. Michigan State college extension veterinarians say it pays stockmen to keep a sharp lookout for signs of prussic acid poisoning.

The acid, which contains cyanide, is often present in plants damaged by wilting, bruising or frost. Second growth of grass, following the first frost, usually contains the poison.

If in doubt about pasture, the veterinarians suggests you remove all stock from it. Then place a few less valuable animals on the pasture to see if it contains the acid before releasing all stock to graze.

FENCE LINES

Tying the tops of the husks with thread or cord when the kernels start to develop protects your corn from the birds.

Handling and Storage of Soft Corn Needs Extra Care

High moisture content in some of Michigan's corn crop means that special care will be needed for handling and storage, says Michigan State college crops specialist, Leyton Nelson.

The farm crops department has compiled a list of suggestions for soft corn. Many may already be known to corn growers, but the agricultural workers believe a review is timely due to the estimated soft corn crop this year. Their general recommendations are as follows:

1. Ensiling both fodder and shelled corn.
2. Sorting and early feeding of soft corn to hogs and other livestock.
3. Delayed harvesting to allow maximum field drying.
4. Clean husking to eliminate trash that reduces crib ventilation.
5. Use of screens on the elevator to remove shelled corn and trash.
6. Good distribution in the crib to avoid pockets of shelled corn and debris where spoilage is most likely to start.
7. Storage of corn in narrow cribs to help natural ventilation.
8. Use of adequate ventilators in cribs.
9. Storing of corn in the field in small stocks.
10. Sorting out most immature ears from corn which is to be cribbed. The immature corn should be used before spring.
11. "Hogging-off" or allowing cattle and hogs to harvest corn.
12. Use of commercial dryers, available in some parts of the state. Some elevators are equipped to purchase soft corn on a grade basis, less charges for transportation and drying.
13. Consult local elevator manager for information regarding handling soft corn.

Dairying Vital to Most Farms

Investment in dairy farming in Michigan amounts to more than two and a third billion dollars. Dr. Earl Weaver, head of the Michigan State college dairy department, reported this week. This, he cited, was greater than many of the large auto manufacturing corporations in the state.

In pointing to the size of the dairy industry, Weaver said 80 percent of Michigan's farmers depend on dairying for a part of their income. He added that one out of every six persons in the state depends on dairying for a part or all of his income when equipment manufacturing, dairy plants, distributors and others are included.

Married men are considered to be the best listeners. It's probably another case of practice makes perfect.

Things don't just happen—somebody makes them happen.

It's Barnyard gossip . . .

A regular milking routine is best, say Michigan State college dairymen. Cows are largely creatures of habit—signs such as feeding grain, the rattle of milk pails, and washing the udder, set up responses to prepare the cow for thorough milking.

A home-made electric fence controller is an invitation to disaster, say agricultural engineers at Michigan State college. The toll of dead animals each year is testimony to the fact that home-made controllers often turn into "booby traps."

The ram you buy should be better than most of the ewes in your flock—he can do much for the average flock in stepping up quality of lambs. Look for a ram that is large for his age, showing good growth characteristics, and one that is active, vigorous and free from any defects.

Soil conservationists at Michigan State college advise leaving crop residues on the surface of the land as much as possible over winter. Straw stubble, sod, and even weeds offer good winter protection for the land.

You can save yourself a lot of trouble by not borrowing any.

If everyone profited by their mistakes many would be able to pay dividends.
