What I Think and Have A Right to Say
By ELTON R. EATON

THE RIGHT LOCATION.

Senator G. Elwood Bonine of Cassopolis and Senator Edward Hutchinson of Allegan county to our way of thinking, are among some of the best legislators ever to serve in the Michigan legislature.

They are pro-public in deeds as well as thoughts. They are both high type citizens and are not given to hasty decisions.

But we must disagree with them in their efforts to locate the proposed new tuberculosis sanatorium for southwestern Michigan somewhere else than in or around Kalamazoo. While seemingly because of the fact that Senator Bonine is from Cass county and Senator Hutchinson is from Allegan county one might think their interests in some other location than Kalamazoo might be because of a desire to have the sanatorium located in one of their own counties, we have enough regard for the high standard of both of these legislators to know that that factor, if a factor at all, is a minor one. They doubtless believe, and honestly so, that some other location would be more desirable.

But we do not agree with them. Kalamazoo is the ideal location for the proposed new tuberculosis sanatorium, just as Northville was the right location for the new state hospital being erected in western Wayne county.

In locating a new state institution two of the most important factors must be considered, the accessibility of the institution for the public, and the other factor must necessarily be a sufficient supply of good water. Fortunately for southwestern Michigan, the water question is not a difficult problem, but it should be added that the territory around Kalamazoo has one of the best supplies of the best water found anywhere in the country.

Kalamazoo has for more than a century been a sort of "capital city" for southwestern Michigan. As a result all transportation systems, rail, air, and bus center in that city. It is the duty of the state to see to it that a state institution is so located that it will be easily accessible to the relatives, friends and others who find it necessary to visit these institutions.

That is highly important. Any one in Michigan can easily find his way directly to Kalamazoo. But how about other proposed locations? None is in such a central spot as Kalamazoo, and not a place can be found in southwestern Michigan that is as easily accessible to a patient or hospital visitors as Kalamazoo.

We think the board that originally recommended Kalamazoo as the best site for the new state tuberculosis hospital used good judgment—and we think it is a duty of the legislature to affirm the selection of Kalamazoo as the site for this highly important and badly needed institution.

The public of all Michigan will pay for this new institution and its maintenance. As long as the public must bear the burden, let's make it as accessible to the public as humanly possible. We think both Senators Bonine and Hutchinson after more mature consideration will agree with us on this point.

ALL GOOD CANDIDATES.

These seem like fortunate days for Plymouth—fortunate we mean in our local political situation.

We have a group of candidates seeking election as members of the new city commission who can vote for and feel that no matter who is elected, we have made a good choice.

Every one of the candidates is well known in the community. All have been more or less active in various types of community work. All of them are highly competent and, if elected, we know that they will do what they think is for the best interests of the city.

These good citizens became candidates, feeling that the days of cat calling, rumor mongering, half-truths and the like are a thing of the past in Plymouth.

We feel as they do about it. We believe we can look forward to a period of community harmony, whereby we can all work as a unit for the progressive city in which we live.

Mayor Cass Hough and the retiring members of the present commission have done a good job in the brief time they have been in office. No one can rightly find fault with what they did—and they are entitled to a good, big thank you from all of us.

"A DEBASED BUDGET."

Life Magazine ordinarily assumes a somewhat middle-of-the-road course in its editorial discussions. But recently it went way over on the other side in its justified criticism of the recent budget message that President Truman sent to congress.

It pointed out in strong words that Mr. Truman who has been asking for "unity" on the part of all the people in this country, could himself do something towards following the suggestions he preaches.

Readers of The Plymouth Mail will be interested in the following editorial in Life about the Truman budget congress is now considering:

Mr. Truman, who does have something of a head for figures, has dared critics to try and cut his brand-new budget. In briefing the reporters, he remarked that when people make wild statements about how many billions they can save out of the budget you can be morally certain they don't know anything about the figures. He would like his critics, he added, to know half as much about the figures as he did. Well, Mr. Truman was safe enough on that one. The budget of the U.S. is so vast and so complicated that no critic on the outside looking in can have a thorough grasp of its detail. Senator Byrd, a dedicated student of budgets, has said that this new budget can be cut by $7 billion. But even Senator Byrd might agree that he would have to be the President himself to judge with certainty just how much can be cut.

The real trouble with Mr. Truman's budget is not in the arithmetic—the totals add up all right—but in the attitude of the Administration. It is an attitude of political dissimulation, an attitude which debases and weakens the President's call for extraordinary effort to meet extraordinary necessities. Under the cloak of imperative need Mr. Truman proceeds once again to put forward a thoroughly discredited political program. For example, the taxpayer is told that new "direct payments to producers" of farm commodities are among the necessities of the times. In other words the Brannan plan, which was repudiated by nearly every Democratic candidate at the last election now turns up in uniform. Health insurance is also considered necessary to the nation's defense, and Mr. Truman proposes a "small payroll tax of one fourth of 1% . . . to provide for initial expenses." It is deceptive to call anything about this budget "small." It is deceptive to call anything about this budget "small." A big budget and a big tax increase are certainly in order—all the American people ask is that they not be kidded in the process.

Mr. Truman is smart enough to know that he has little chance of putting through such measures. Congress will probably dump them again as it has in the past. But no act of Congress can change the petty political outlook implicit in their re-statement at this time and in this form. Mr. Truman, who has been making increasingly frequent appeals for unity, can himself make a major contribution to unity by practicing what he preaches in the more inspired parts of his message.

A TIP TO THE LEGISLATURE.

In view of the nature of the appointments that the Governor has made to the liquor commission, it might be a good idea to do a little amending of the liquor law so that the legislature can keep direct control of the liquor business in the state. Not having a copy of the law kicking around just at present, we can't make any direct suggestions as to how it can be amended, but you can bet your last dollar that Michigan will be far better off if the legislature can set up some kind of direct control of this immense state business. The nature of the political appointments made by Soapy justify any action the legislature might desire to take.

North Korean Explains U. S. Role in Korean War to Optimists Club

A former resident from North Korea, Harry Whang, defined the role of the United States in the Korean war Monday evening at the Optimists' dinner meeting in the Hotel Mayflower.

"Why is the United States fighting in Korea?" Whang asked. He answered his question by saying that confusion has resulted because Americans do not realize that the Korean war is a continuation of World War II.

He stated that the three objectives of World War II had not been fulfilled. The announcement of the Cairo conference in 1943 declared that Japan must be defeated, Korea must be made a free and independent state, and that Formosa and Manchuria must be returned to China.

Thus the United States achieved its first objective, but couldn't complete the second objective because of Russia's interference, Whang said.

The North Korean cited as evidence of Russia's designs the presence of Russian troops as early as the Communist regime and her plans to divide Korea into two spheres of influence. Japan was to share half of the Korean territory. Japan grabbed all of Korea at that time, and he continued on her policy of aggression.

At the end of World War II when she would expect Korea to become an independent state, she was again divided.

Whang called this plan a "mystrerious one." He told how he went to Washington to discover why this arrangement was made. He could not find a clear answer to the puzzle.

"But last May, I went back to Korea and everyone there seemed to know the answer. They said the two cousins did it—Uncle Joe and Uncle Sam," he said.

Whang believes that it was not the United States' intention to work with Russia without resort to war. The U.S. concurred in the division of Korea.

Whang pointed out that Korea was given to Japan to appease her, but that aggression didn't stop there. Japan later conquered Manchuria and China, then on to the Philippines.

"Suppose the United States withdrew from Korea, do you think aggression would stop there?" No," said Whang. "Russia has already designs on the peninsula."

Merchants point out that in addition to the specials mentioned in their ads there will be hundreds of other items in their stores marked down for this great sale. Special merchandise has been ordered in many cases for the sale and in others standard items have been taken from the counters and reduced to make the values offered to buyers more than worth while.

Symphony Notes

By Grace Von Bergen
Lovers of good music managed to forsake their TV sets to come to the concert and hear vibrant music of the orchestra and to hear a true artist of the keyboard—Evelyn Woods.

Evelyn looked like a dream girl in her net and brocade formal. One wondered of the countless hours of tripping notes that have sped under her nimble fingers. She made us proud that Plymouth possesses such talent within its community.

A floral centerpiece with red and white carnations and blue iris completed the tea setting. There were chocolate hatchets on the table and displayed on the wall was Old Glory.

A few musicians were missing from the scene, due to illness, pressure of new defense duties, and other reasons. However, Ralph Freedman, principal of the second violin section was on hand. He is a Colonel, and is extremely busy with meetings nearly every day of the month.

Pauline Sterling has been absent from the cello section, while she is changing her place of residence. Fred Britner was ill and Mary Ferguson has been at her mother's home in Kansas.

A newcomer to the scene is Ralph McGreal, French horn player, who hails from Connecticut and New York City. He is most enthusiastic about the orchestra and is a proud father. Yes, sir! He showed us a picture of his baby.

A copy of the Tennessee Waltz was spied under the classics on whose piano? Anyway, Carl Groschke says the number is a good seller.

Mr. Gallimore, who so painstakingly takes care of the scrap book is very proud of the achievement of the orchestra. The book is complete with programs, clippings, and pictures.

The Plymouth Mail is much in evidence for its fine co-operation in publicizing reviews and advance notices. Well, as one of the patrons, it should be!

A big belated happy birthday to Fred Nelson whose birthday occurred last Sunday.

New Hospital - New Offices....

PLYMOUTH PHOTO

Supervising the rebuilding of a hospital is just part of a day's work to Plymouth's well-known physician, Dr. A. C. Williams, left, and his associate, Dr. W. C. Herbold, right, who in addition to this extra-curricular activity are also moving into the Ann Arbor Trail offices, recently vacated by Dr. Harold J. Brisbois. These two local practitioners are taking an active part in the supervision of the complete remodeling of the Garden City Hospital which is being completely rebuilt and enlarged from its present 15 bed capacity to 38 beds. In addition to the increased patient capacity new operating rooms, kitchens, elevators, and other modern facilities are being added. Other than their off hours spent at the hospital these two busy Osteopathic physicians are busy enlarging and remodeling the facilities formerly occupied by Dr. Harold Brisbois in the Finlan building on Ann Arbor Trail where they will continue their practice in the future shortly after the first of March moving from their present Starkweather avenue location.

Wintertime Supper for Teen-Age Cooks

Pianist Miss Evelyn Woods Stars as Soloist in Orchestra Concert

By Grace Von Berger

Evelyn Woods, concert pianist, gave a brilliant interpretation of Tchaikovsky's Piano Concerto in B flat minor, when she appeared as soloist with the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra last Sunday afternoon.

The orchestra under the direction of Paul T. Wagner accompanied Miss Woods. Included on the program were Beethoven's "Egmont Overture" and Symphony No. 3 in F Minor by Brahms.

The piano concert is well-known to many, and is even appreciated by those who consider symphonic music high-brow. This is due perhaps to the popularization of the theme melody by Freddy Martin a few years ago.

Having heard Vladimir Horowitz perform this work piece some years ago, the writer has sometimes been dubious when the number appeared on the program as to the performer's ability to cope with the concerto.

However, the rendition of this work by Evelyn Woods left nothing to be desired excepting that she be more appreciated by the music world.

She has a surprising amount of strength for such diminutive proportions, and she possesses a sureness and a precise touch which makes every note stand out.

The concert was not too well attended but an opportunity to hear Miss Woods is still possible next Sunday, Feb. 23, at 4 p.m.

News From Dr. R. Ray Barber Plymouth Health Officer

February is Social Hygiene month, and Dr. Ray Barber, health officer calls attention to the need for finding every unknown case of venereal disease and having the person be under treatment by a physician.

The total number of cases of venereal disease reported in Detroit area was slightly higher than the year previous. It was 12,607, compared with 11,790 in 1949. One encouraging fact was that a lower percent of the cases reported last year was newly acquired syphilis, and a higher percent was syphilis acquired some years previously. This means that fewer of the newly reported cases were in a stage where the disease would be passed along and infect others.

Dr. Barber says venereal disease always has increased in times of turmoil and when large numbers of men and women were taken away from their homes and home towns. In such times it is more important to know about venereal disease and to act wisely to prevent its spread. He says venereal disease is the concern of all of the people, and that parents, ministers, teachers, youth counselors and leaders, as well as physicians and public health workers, have an important part in preventing its spread. Youth leaders and others do this when they help to make young people feel more secure, provide good leisure-time programs, and set the example of leisure well-adjusted adults.

He gives these suggestions to parents: Realize that children learn most about personal living from the example they see in their own homes.

Know about the normal sex instincts of children at different ages. Be ready to talk to your child in simple language and without embarrassment.

Set an example of successful marriage and family living as a part of this education in personal living. Be willing to share the problems in child guidance with experienced persons such as the teacher, minister or family physician.

You'll be turning broccoli and cauliflower out of a can as perky as the fresh vegetables soon. Nobody has been able to do it before, because these vegetables can't stand the high heat of sterilization. But California scientists are making exciting discoveries by sterilizing with a penicillin-like germ killer called subtilin instead of heat. Corn canned this way pours from the tin raw, like quick frozen corn.

TASTY TRICKS WITH CARROTS
Crisp sweet carrots have become a year around fresh vegetable.

Hamburger Pinwheel
1 pound hamburger
1 cup bread cubes
2 tablespoons milk
2 tablespoons minced onion
1 egg
1 1/2 teaspoons salt
1/2 teaspoon pepper
Filling:
2 tablespoons shortening
1 cup minced onion
1/2 cups chopped cooked carrots
1/2 teaspoon salt
Combine hamburger with remaining ingredients. Pat out into rectangle one-half inch thick on wax paper. Prepare filling by browning onions in hot shortening, add carrots and salt. Spread carrot mixture over meat and roll as for jelly roll.

Place on rack in shallow baking dish. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) about 45 minutes. Slice and serve with gravy made from drippings.
Yield: 6 servings.
Mild flavored carrots combine easily with other more strongly flavored vegetables such as onions.
Savory Carrots and Onions
Clean six medium sized carrots and cut in half lengthwise. Peel and cut two large Spanish or Bermuda onions into thick slices.
Simmer together in a small amount of salted water in a covered pan. Cook only until the crispness is gone, about 15 minutes.
Drain and add two tablespoons melted butter. Sprinkle with fresh cut or dried parsley leaves. Serve hot with your favorite beef or pork roast.
Yield: 4 servings.

Thieves Strip Tires off Car

Four new tires and wheels were stolen Monday night, February 13, from a 1950 Chevrolet, which stood outside Bateman's home at 1347 W. Ann Arbor trail. The automobile is owned by the Pittsburgh Consolidated Coal company, where Bateman is an engineer.

The Plymouth police department believe thieves outside of the city are responsible for the theft.

START CHICKS RIGHT...

BUILD BETTER LAYERS This Easy Way!

It's easy the Larro way. Only one mash for the first 12 weeks. Then only one change of mash and grains. No hand feeding of grains after 12 weeks. What could be easier? But best of all, this simple Larro plan has been tested and proved by thousands of poultrymen. It's the way to grow uniform pullets that have vigor, big frames and fully developed egg-laying ability at hatching.

Low protein growing mash does not supply all the nutrients needed by a half-grown chick, and they do mean another change of feed. If you want to save work—if you want to grow profitable layers—come in or phone for your free copy of the Larro Chick Builder folder. It can pay you well.

It is reassuring, when you buy a Cadillac, to know that you yourself will make the decision as to how long you wish to keep it—and how far you wish to drive it. The car will be at your service throughout your pleasure.

Give it reasonable care and reasonable usage, and there is no practical limit to a Cadillac's utility. Authenticated records show various Cadillacs well into their second five hundred thousand miles of service.

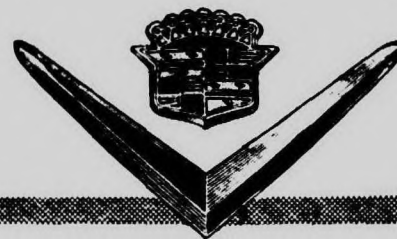

Of course, the original owner seldom has any requirement for such exceptional mileage. Being progressive, he wishes to change his cars sufficiently often to keep pace with Cadillac's advancement in design and appearance.

But he benefits, all the same, from this wonderful capacity for service. It means that, month after month and year after year, his Cadillac performs magnificently—with the minimum of care and attention.

The great Cadillacs for 1951, now gracing America's streets and highways, are built in the finest traditions of Cadillac quality. If you have not inspected them, you ought to do so. We'd be happy to see you—at any time.

We are sorry indeed that delay in delivery of new Cadillacs continues unavoidable. Not only is the demand beyond all precedent, but much of the company's materials must, of necessity, be allocated to defense production. Thousands of Cadillac's craftsmen are already engaged in this effort. If you are waiting for a Cadillac, please be patient—but hold to your purpose. There is no substitute for the "Standard of the World."

Post Commander Criticizes VA

"Michigan has been chosen as the battleground in a new experiment by the Veterans Administration, and the American Legion doesn't like it," Herald E. Wilson, commander of the Passagay-Gayde Post 391, American Legion, recently announced.

Commander Wilson was referring to the alleged statements which VA patients were "required" to sign authorizing their transfer to hospitals in Kentucky, North Carolina, Ohio and Wisconsin.

The statements, if not signed, would result in the patients being threatened by the VA with removal from VA roles, thus putting the veteran on state welfare dependency for the remainder of his treatment, said Wilson.

Such a move, according to Wilson, would result in the eventual removal of 350 veterans, under VA treatment in city and county hospitals for tuberculosis, to hospitals elsewhere.

"These veterans have earned the right to treatment close to home. It's hard for a man spending one to three years in a hospital to be far from his home and family, and this move by the VA, if successful, would do just that," stated the commander. "The conditions uncovered serve to point up the action which every citizen must take if Michigan veterans suffering from service-connected TB are to have the treatment they have earned."

tary potential of Japan, the tin in Malaya, and valuable bases in the Philippines.

Whang reminded the Optimists that the United States receives 70 percent of its tin from Malaya and that the U. S. could not keep a definite defense line, if the United States withdrew from Korea.

After the South Koreans fought so hard side by side with the United Nations' armies, how could the U. S. withdraw from Korea? If the U. S. withdrew from South Korea, the U. S. would be killed and democracy will end in Asia," the North Korean stated.

Whang believes that Japan, the Philippines, Malaya, and all Asia would then eventually fall to the Communists. He said these people would be too afraid to resist.

Whang also pointed out the fate of the United Nations if the United States withdrew from Korea. "There won't be any more meetings and only an empty building would be left in Manhattan, which will stand as a symbol facing the statue of Liberty."

The tricky political problem of whether the Koreans after liberation from the Communists would turn to Communism was touched upon by Whang. He said this possibility was false.

Although under the so-called land reform, land was taken from the landlords and parceled out to the individual tenants, the North Koreans did not actually gain anything, Whang said.

"The North Koreans under state ownership are not even getting half the goods they had formerly received."

To indicate how happy the North Koreans are under Communism, Whang pointed out that out of a North Korean population of 13 million, eight million fled to South Korea.

The repercussions of Communism on culture in Korea and Asia were also discussed by Whang. Family relationships, moral concepts, and Christianity are all under tremendous danger from being stamped out by the Communists, Whang said.

Whang showed as an example the many instances in Korea where sons shot their fathers.

"Communism is the most diabolical system I have ever seen," he declared.

To acquaint the Optimists with the Korean people, Whang told of an instance where the Japanese tortured the North Koreans. The North Koreans were singing "Nearer my God to Thee."

"These are the type of North Korean citizens we are fighting for," Whang stated. "How can we say that the United Nations armies should withdraw from Korea."

Whang concluded his speech by drawing a picture of the Communists, who are similar to octopuses who suck the blood of everyone. "We must fight against them," the North Korean declared.

Harry Whang studied business administration at the University of Chicago and Columbia university. He was affiliated with the Chase National bank and he is now in charge of the indoor garden department at J. L. Hudson's.

Explain Social Security Law for Farm Employees

Now that many Plymouth farm workers are covered by social security, the Northwest Detroit Social Security office offers information as to just who is covered by the new law and under what conditions.

Farm owners or operators are not eligible for social security because farm self-employment is not covered under the amended Social Security Act. Hired farm workers, however, came under social security as of the first of this year, if they earned $50 or more cash wages in a calendar quarter and are regularly employed by one farm operator.

Under the new social security law, in general, a regularly employed farm worker is a person employed by one farm operator on a full time basis for a period of several months. A calendar quarter is the three month period beginning on January 1, April 1, July 1, and October 1. A farm worker, to have his cash wages count toward old-age and survivors insurance, must:—first, work continuously through a calendar quarter to establish a service relationship, then be continuously employed by the same farm operator, and earn not less than $50 cash wages for 60 or more days of work in each consecutive calendar quarter.

The Social Security field office at 12065 Wyoming at the corner of Grand River in Detroit urges workers to inquire concerning their rights under Social Security.

For details regarding the amount of tax, tax return forms, when to file, etc., the farm operator or employer should contact the Collector of Internal Revenue. There is a Collector's office located at Lahser road and Grand River in Detroit.

If you have a social item or any other local news, phone 1755.

Report of Mr. Nelson's discussion with Mr. McQuillan of the Federal Priorities Board concerning the matter of priorities for school buildings was made.

Mr. Nelson was instructed by President Wesley to write the following letter to the contractors: Gentlemen:

Several days ago, I discussed with Mr. McQuillan of the Federal Priorities Board questions concerning securing of building materials for our gymnasium. He informed me that steel is becoming scarce, so structural steel should be fabricated at the earliest possible date and should be placed on the site as soon thereafter as possible. Aluminum, copper, brass and stainless steel may be very difficult to obtain after April 1, 1951.

The Board of Education has requested me to secure statements from contractors concerning:

1. The amount of materials (fabricated and otherwise) they have on hand for the Gymnasium-Natorium-Band Room.
2. What portion of the structural steel is not fabricated?
3. What is the earliest date of composition and delivery of structural steel?

The Board of Education would appreciate statements relative to the above questions. Your reply will be sincerely appreciated.

Very truly yours,
H. A. Nelson, Supt.

The Grange meeting of February 15 was not as well attended as it should have been, but 36 members were present to hear Mr. Hartom speak of some of his experiences in World War I and II.

On Thursday, March 1, there will be the usual pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. and it is hoped and urged that all the members turn out. That is to be an evening of fun and enjoyment for everyone. Something different is planned.

On Saturday, evening, March 10, there will be a card party at the Grange hall. Everyone is welcome. Come and bring your friends, also a card table. A quilt will be given away.

Mr. Fred Eberts is at home now after more than two months in St. Joseph's hospital where he suffered the amputation of his right foot.

Each woman is asked to donate 25 cents in order that a sum may be raised for the home economics group contest on hand made blouses, which will end in May. There can be a rug making contest also if more than three women signify a desire to make a rug.

Mrs. Isabel Taylor entertained the 500 club last Friday.

Mrs. Fred Arend of Saline will be present at our March 1st meeting to tell us of the work of the health committee. It is important that our newly appointed health committee be there.

Grange meetings are the first and third Thursday evenings of each month.

Social progress makes the well-being of all more and more the business of each; it binds all closer and closer together in bonds from which none can escape.

Be Kind To Hungry Birds, Throw Crumbs Outside

Be a good samaritan to the bird population of Plymouth. The winter with its huge snowfall and sleet has narrowed a bird's chances for survival to practically nothing.

Conservation officials suggest that residents place dry bread or cake crumbs on a paper or in a pie plate in their backyards.

Another treat for the feathered friends would be a small piece of suet tied on a string and hanging from a branch.

Robins and Sparrows might be around for the spring if their needs are remembered now.

See first that the design is wise and just; that ascertained, pursue it resolutely; do not for ever the vein of thought reaches one repulse forego the purpose that you resolved to effect.

Rocks Lose 3rd League Game; Trenton Nabs League Leadership

By losing their third league game in succession the Plymouth Rocks dropped the league leadership to Trenton, who by defeating Ypsilanti have won at least a tie for the championship. Plymouth lost to Redford Union by the score of 55 to 43 last Friday night. The Rocks seemed to hold their own until early in the second half when Redford Union began to control the backboards and scoring baskets on tip in shots.

Al Finney, Wally Dzuris and Jerry Finnegan led the local quintet in scoring with 12, 11, 10 points. Keating led the victors with 10 points. Trenton is now leading the league with seven victories and two defeats. Ypsilanti is tied with Plymouth for second place with six victories and three defeats. Trenton has a chance to win the league as they play the lowly Belleville quintet who have yet to win their first league game. Plymouth still has a mathematical chance to share honors in the League if Trenton is defeated.

DeHoCo Better Bankers, 47-43

DeHoCo finally won their second game of the season Tuesday, February 13, as they edged out First National 47-43 with Slessor leading the victors with 17 points.

DeHoCo led throughout the game as they held a five point lead in the first quarter which enabled them to win the game. In the second quarter First National lowered this lead to three points as they scored nine points to DeHoCo's seven. The third quarter was deadlocked as each team scored 14 points. In the final period DeHoCo held on and scored 12 points to the Bankers' 11 to win the contest.

Dobbins followed Slessor in scoring for the victors with 10 points. Ebersole paced the losers again with 17 counters followed by Norman who collected 12 points.

The Plymouth Mail forfeited to Tait's Thursday, February 15, as they have dropped out of the league due to the absence of players. The Mail squad was already out of the playoffs and have one league game remaining which will not be a forfeit.

Editor-Plymouth Mail
Dear Sir:
Just a few lines to let you know how much I enjoy reading the Plymouth Mail. I believe that the Plymouth Mail makes some of the service men over here forget sometimes that we are even over here fighting.
For myself I would rather have the Plymouth Mail than anything else, except a discharge from the Army or a transfer to the States.
I just finished reading the issue of 4 January 1951, in which there is an article about the Service Men. "With Our Men In Service" in this article is too much about the Marines and not enough about the U. S. Army. I believe that the Army men would like a little more about the Army.
I can't think that all the men would want to go into the Marines when the Army has so much to offer. At least that is what the Plymouth Army Recruiting Sergeant told me in 48 when he got me.
Yours truly,
Allen J. McMann,

Square Dancing Sparks Fun Night

The response of the seventh, eighth and ninth grade boys and girls was very poor last Friday night for the first of a series of the planned Junior high fun nights, due largely to bad weather, however, some did show up and those who did had lots of fun.
A group of 24 children from the Wayne County Training School immaculately dressed, even including corsages made up from their own greenhouse, were there and put on a wonderful demonstration of square dancing.
The officials and teachers who accompanied these children and all others who had anything to do with their training are to be congratulated on the fine manner in which the group conducted themselves.
Jim Bell, a Philadelphia Athletics Farm team pitcher was on hand to do the calling for the latter part of the evening which was square dancing. The chaperones and children all took active part in the dancing.
The next fun night for Junior High kids will be announced later and will be as soon as possible. Ballroom dancing and games will be the order of the evening.
The Plymouth Recreation department would like to see a large turnout for these parties and future plans are to give you what you like and want in entertainment.

A sky-riding automobile just flew from Connecticut to Los Angeles. It's equally at home on the highway or the skyway. . . . and it requires only two minutes to switch from one use to the other. Sounds great for getting out of crowded traffic, or evading that unhappy invitation to pull over to the curb, buddy. The machine was designed by Robert Fulton . . . not to be confused with the fellow who dreamed up the steamboat. It goes up to 90 miles on the highway and cruises at 110 m.p.h. in the air. However, you'll have to remember not to get out to look at the tires when you're in the clouds.

In case you've been wondering what's behind the high board fence on Main, between Taylor & Blyton's and the D & C, just come around to our side entrance and you can see all. We don't presume the new building will go up as fast as the old ones were torn down, but if you'd be a sidewalk superintendent, watch the progress from the side of our store.

One of our authoritative sources stopped in to tell us he knows the laziest woman in town. She puts pop corn in her hot cakes so they'll turn over by themselves. OK . . . OK . . . so it's corny. But here's something that isn't. When you have a prescription filled . . . you don't dare take chances with its accuracy. You want to be absolutely sure of the very best, dependable service by skilled pharmacists. And that's just what you get when you bring your prescription here to PETERSON DRUG, 840 W. Johnson-MacGregor Rites Read Saturday Evening In Plymouth

The First Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday, of the marriage of Barbara Johnson, daughter of Mrs. Sarah Johnson, of Plymouth, and Bruce MacGregor, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. R. MacGregor of Mettrose, Rosedale Gardens.

The Rev. Henry Welch, officiated at the evening rites. Two selections, "Through the Years" and "The Lord's Prayer," were sung by Earl Reh during the ceremony. Bouquets of snapdragons and mums decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her brother, David Johnson, Barbara wore a white satin gown with a train. Seed pearls decorated the Peter Pan collar and the gown featured long pointed sleeves. Her fingertip veil hung from a pearl trimmed lace cap.

The bride's sister, Mrs. Willard Otis of Ypsilanti, was matron of honor. Bridesmaids included Sally Daster of Grosse Pointe and Mrs. David Johnson of Plymouth. All three attendants wore white nylon eyelet over yellow taffeta gowns. They wore headbands of white flowers and carried snapdragons and roses. Little Susan Grace Williams served as flower girl. She was dressed in yellow and carried a basket of flowers.

Cecil Denton Gives Lecture on Christian Science Here Tuesday

A lecture on Christian Science entitled "Christian Science: The Awakening to Spiritual Reality" will be given by Cecil F. Denton, C.S., of New York City, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts, on Tuesday, February 27 at 8 p.m. at the high school auditorium.

The address is given under the auspices of the First Church of Christian Scientists of Plymouth. The public is invited to attend and hear his talk which is reported in part here.

A Lecture on Christian Science entitled "Christian Science: The Awakening to Spiritual Reality" by Cecil F. Denton, C.S., of New York City, member of the Board of Lectureship of The Mother Church, The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.

In the Christian Science text book, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," its author, Mary Baker Eddy, declares (p. 95), "Lulled by stupefying illusions, the world is asleep in the cradle of infancy, dreaming away the hours." And she adds, "Material sense does not unfold the facts of existence; but spiritual sense lifts human consciousness into eternal Truth." It was the mission and life purpose of Christ Jesus to rouse human consciousness from its lethargic and limited concepts of life and being into the radiant realization of spiritual dominion as made manifest in health, success, and happiness. "I am come," he said, "that they might have life, and that they might have it more abundantly" (John 10:10). And today, through the teachings of Christian Science, the Christ, Truth, still calls to you and me, asking, in the words of the Scriptures (Prov. 6:9), "How long wilt thou sleep, O sluggard? when wilt thou arise out of thy sleep?" When, indeed? Shall not our answer be, "Now"? Shall we not awaken now to the illusory nature of all discord and adopt the spiritual sense, which "lifts human consciousness into eternal Truth"? How pertinent, today as of old, is Paul's wise reminder to the Romans (13:11), "Now it is high time to awake out of sleep."

Mrs. Eddy's Mission
Just as it was the mission and life purpose of Christ Jesus to rouse human consciousness into the realization that salvation is not something reserved for the hereafter, so it was the divine mission and life purpose of the Discoverer of Christian Science to reveal to humanity the Science of Christ's Christianity. True, spiritual healing as Jesus demonstrated it continued for some three hun-ded years after the Master's ascension, but it was then lost to the world until Mrs. Eddy, over 80 years ago, became cognizant of the "naturalness of the operation of divine law in human affairs." This was indeed a discovery—a discovery which brought to her awakened thought health in place of pain and illness, supply in place of lack.

In his biography of Mrs. Eddy, Dr. Lyman P. Powell tells us of her early background, which was rich in educational reading and in religious experience. He also quotes from her autobiography, "Retrospection and Introspection," Mrs. Eddy's recollection of her spiritual yearnings. "From my very childhood," she writes (p. 31), "I was impelled, by a desire and thirst after divine truth, to a desire for something higher and better than matter, and apart from it, — to seek diligently for the knowledge of God as the one great and ever-present Spirit from whom we live."

Jesus' Teachings Awakened Thought
Not only in what Jesus did, but in all that he taught, do we find the Master's devotion to the liberating of mankind through spiritual awakening. You will recall that early in Jesus' ministry his healing work brought him fame throughout all Syria. He left the multitudes that followed him and went by himself up into a mountain where his disciples came to him. In what has become known as the Sermon on the Mount, he then gave these first students the basic teaching of Christianity, which, through its teaching and practice, is destined to establish peace within individual hearts and in the affairs of the nations.

In her volume, "Miscellaneous Writings" (p. 25), Mrs. Eddy refers to the Sermon on the Mount, "in its direct application to human needs" as confirming the conclusion "that there is but one God or Life, one cause and one effect." Think of it! Could anything in this world be more pertinent than this teaching which has such direct application to human needs?

It is significant that Jesus began his preaching with a series of Beatitudes. He knew that not only do certain righteous qualities of thought bring blessing into one's experience, but he knew also and proved that regardless of the seeming severity of any human experience, the law of divine Love is ever present to replace sorrow with joy, poverty with useful supply, and disease with normalcy. Therefore, every seeming adverse circumstance is not an affliction, but is a challenge to demonstrate the true man's God-given dominion. He awakened to the realization that the Christ, Truth, is adequate to meet every situation. Small wonder, therefore, that Jesus should introduce his memorable teaching with these Beatitudes.

"Blessed are the poor in spirit!" When the Master said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit; for theirs is the Kingdom of heaven" (Matt. 5:3), he was not saying that to be bankrupt of Christ is to possess the Kingdom of heaven. One Bible translator renders the phrase "poor in spirit" as "the gentle in spirit" (Ferrar Fenton). Gentleness, therefore, is a spiritual quality and those who express that trait are manifesting that which characterizes the Kingdom of heaven within, within your consciousness and mine.

Job's servants had to give way to a gentler sense before he could see the need of praying for his friends. And whatever would bind you and me in terms of self-will or unrelenting human opinions must give way to that gentleness which is the very Christ within us, that effortless which makes demonstrations of divine might so natural and spontaneous. Gentleness, therefore, is not weakness or aimlessness. On the contrary, it is strength, because it is devoid of the debilitating effects of tension or friction. Paul recognized that "the fruit of the Spirit is . . . gentleness" (Gal. 5:22), and in his letter to the Ephesians he wrote, "Be ye kind one to another" (4:32). To make the kingdom of heaven manifest in our homes, our church, our practice, or our business, we need that quality of gentleness which inspired Mrs. Eddy to urge a pupil to have "a cell less in the brain and a fibre more in the heart . . ." (Twelve Years with Mary Baker Eddy, by Irving C. Tomlinson, p. 133).

Healing Incident
When Jesus said, "Blessed are the poor in spirit," he must have meant also that blessed are they who feel the need of spiritual-mindedness, those who, conscious of their lack, turned unto the Lord and he delivered them out of their distresses" (Ps. 107:6). Such was the cry of a young mother and father whose little six-year-old daughter lay helpless before the dread disease named infantile paralysis. Two physicians who had been called on the case held consultation and declared that the child could not possibly live through the day. The parents, learning that a Christian Science practitioner was in their vicinity, having been called there on another case, asked her to come and help them.

The practitioner, upon entering the house and becoming aware of the tragic fear of the parents and the urgency of the child's need asked them if they believed God could help them. Faced with their own spiritual barrenness and consciousness of the fact that they did not even own a Bible, they said, "We do not know God and feel unworthy to ask His help, but could you help us find Him?" The practitioner then explained to them in simple words that God is man's very life and His love is unvarying, and that they had at that moment recourse to His law of divine justice, which is ever present and ever adequate. She assured them that even as God was their Father-Mother, so He mothered and fathered their little one at all times. She then asked the father to take her Bible and read the ninety-first Psalm, and gave the mother Science and Health, requesting that she read the Lord's

Flash pasteurization spurs Michigan apple juice industry

In 1950, half a million bushels of Michigan apples, which otherwise would have been a loss to their owners, were converted to top-quality apple juice, thanks to efforts of the Michigan State College Agricultural Experiment Station. Flash pasteurization at packing time was found to preserve both color and flavor of the juice, making it available for year-round use. The research workers have also found a way to fortify apple juice with Vitamin C. Improvements in packing have helped reduce costs and speed up operations. As a result, a million bushels of Michigan apples should be profitably converted into juice in 1951. For further information about these new developments, call, write or visit your County Agricultural Agent.

Prayer with its spiritual interpretation, given on pages 16 and 17 of our textbook, in humble obedience these two put their precious child in the practitioner's care and eagerly sought the truth from the books.

Closing the door, the practitioner, alone with the child sat quietly by the bedside. Shutting out all material evidence, she earnestly prayed for that spiritual light which would reveal the present perfection of the child, that kingdom of heaven within. Almost immediately the child's breathing, which had been heavy and labored, became quiet, and she dropped into a natural sleep. Her entire body became relaxed and normal, and when she awakened an hour later, she sat up in bed completely refreshed and well, using her arms and limbs in perfect freedom, whereas before they had been stiff and paralyzed. Calling the parents to the room, the practitioner rejoiced with them and their little daughter in the realization that God was not a God afar off, but a God at hand.

Because of the humility of these parents, who recognized their need of knowing God, they were receptive of the divine idea.

which brought healing to their home. Truly, "blessed are those who feel poor in Spirit! the Kingdom of Heaven is theirs" (Matthew's translation).

Persecution and Triumph

The final Beatitude of Jesus pertains to persecution for righteousness' sake and for being a follower of the Master, Christ Jesus. Now that any stand for divine Principle invokes the jealousy and persecution of the carnal mind. But Jesus never once implied that persecution will be a heavy burden or a long race. He did say we would have tribulation in the world but that we should be of good cheer, for he had overcome the world. The Christ still overcomes the world's resistance to spiritual awakening. Christ, Truth, does make our burden light through the assurance that every problem which confronts us is as nothing before the power of the Christ. Oh, yes, our groans may be evil, and our, but the Christian Scientist is secure in the midst of opposition, for he knows that any attack of mortal mind is not upon person but is upon what that person expresses of the Christ in his or her mind and in his or her life. Therefore that consciousness which, like Daniel, is innocent of fraud or pretense will find no occasion to have any sense of persecution. That is the reason the Apostle Paul could say, "None of these things move me" (Acts 20: 23) and it was out of deep experience that the Discoverer of Christian Science could write (Poems, p. 12):

"Then His unveiled, sweet mercies shined light,
Life's burdens light,
I kiss the cross, and wake to know
A world more bright."

Prayer Brings Spiritual Awakening

Perhaps in one instance did the Master do more to give his disciples and the world the key to awakening to spiritual dominion than when he gave what we gratefully know as the Lord's Prayer. In this prayer Christ Jesus replaced that sense of petition to God which classifies man as a miserable sinner with a sense of oneness with God which brings blessing and healing. Throughout her writings Mrs. Eddy has laid great stress upon the importance of the spiritual sense of the Lord's Prayer, and it is well known that the Lord's Prayer with its spiritual interpretation given in Science and Health plays a large part in the daily thought of the Christian Scientist. Science and Health speaks of "the heaven-born aspiration and spiritual consciousness, which is indicated in the Lord's Prayer and which instantaneously heals the sick" (p. 16).

The Spirit of Prayer

It is highly important that we remember that Jesus prefaced his instruction regarding prayer with this admonition: "After this manner therefore pray ye" (Matt. 6: 9). It is never the words alone which bring healing, but rather the realization of the truth which the words convey. "After this manner therefore pray ye" means for one to adopt the spirit of true prayer, which is not petition to a far-distant God, but is conscious at-onement with God, wherein man discovers that as God's reflection he has all that God has. David declared, "I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness" (Ps. 17:15).

Conversation, in its better part, may be esteemed a gift and not an art, yet much depends, as in the tiller's toil, on culture, and the sowing of the soil.

Seventh Graders to Hold Dance After Game

After the Plymouth-Wayne game the seventh grade will sponsor a dime dance. Refreshments will be sold following the game and after the dance.

Under the supervision of Miss Cairns, the seventh grade has collected old comic books, literary books, and used toys which were taken to the Maybury Sanatorium in Northville. The students delivered the gifts February 1, but because of the rule that no one under the age of 15 is allowed to enter the building they were unable to deliver the gifts in person.

For that real "South-of-the-Border" heat, a Texas chef pops little stuffed pancakes into a can. Slide them into your oven for another 15 minutes, and they emerge piping hot and as spicy as Mexican chile. Claimed the first ready-to-eat enchiladas ever canned.

GENE AUTRYS

... of course, it's ELECTRIC!

GENE AUTRY, star of his own television and screen productions, also starring over CBS radio

"Inside the oven or on top of the range, food cooked electrically is 'tops' with us," says Mrs. Gene Autry. "My husband calls our Electric Range 'civilized cooking,' with its perfect temperature control and clean heat. And I like the way it keeps my pots and pans clean—the way they hug the top of the heating elements, there's practically no heat wasted into the kitchen."

For any kind of meal, an Electric Range is thrifty to use. Food waste is cut down because you get uniformly good results. And you're not tied down to continual pot watching, because this modern range does the waiting for you.

Roger Babson Says --

No Need of World War III Now
Washington, D.C., Feb. 22. Only a spiritual world awakening can prevent another World War some time. Wars appear to be one of God's ways of bringing people to their knees. There, however, is no need for another World War now.
Neither U.S. nor Russia is Ready
The basic reason why no World War is probable this year is that all nations are waiting to learn what atomic bombs can do to ground troops. To answer this question is the reason for the Nevada Atomic Experiments of the past few weeks. The Korean war has shown that ordinary bombs, dropped from the air, have not succeeded in destroying ground troops. The infantry no longer marches in concentrated ranks as they used to do. Now they are so spread out that the individual soldiers are 50 or more feet apart.

For nine months of the year our bombers have been useful in destroying bridges and smashing supply lines. During the remaining three months, after the rivers freeze, these bridges and highways were no longer necessary and the bombers were greatly handicapped. This explains why the Chinese armies waited until the rivers froze up before they attacked. This further explains one reason why our military experts do not expect Russia to attempt overrunning Europe before October or November, if then. The other reason is that Russia wants to gather her much needed crops from Bulgaria, Rumania, Poland and Czechoslovakia before war begins. But the real reason Stalin has delayed an attack on Europe is his fear of what the new form of atomic bombs could do to masses of foot soldiers and tanks.

World Oil Situation
Irrespective of the bomb, the United Nations could delay a World War for many years if it would only use its great organization (the 10,000 employees and annual expense of $40,000,000) for constructive work. Today these delegates are wasting their time on foolish arguments. They should be ashamed of themselves. Let me give one of the many possible illustrations of what I mean.
Nearly all the top brass are agreed that Russia's first attack will be against Yugoslavia, Turkey and Greece, to get the oil fields of Iran and neutralize Italy and France. Here are the powder kegs which could destroy the world. Yet, it must seem terribly wicked to God to see His people go to war over the fair distribution of oil which He has freely given to all. People who own and develop oil land are entitled to receive fair compensation for their risk and expenses; but God will not forgive the hogging of this precious oil against the welfare of mankind. It truly seems as if the entire world is crazy not to insist now on a fair distribution of this oil to all nations, including Russia. For not leading such a movement, it seems as if the United Nations is the "international insane asylum" of our world.

Causes of War Differ
There are many causes of war. God made people different and made nations different. Some are black, others are white; some are lazy, others are industrious; some are intelligent and other are ignorant. Nations also differ as to climate, rivers, harbors, and other resources. It would take a century to equalize many of these differences. The world's oil, however, which is needed everywhere by every nation, could be fairly distributed by the United Nations. Until every nation—including Russia and China—has a fair quantity of oil, we must expect another World War. As God sends His rain on the just and distributed by the United Nations, should send the oil of Iran to every other nation, instead of cowardly sitting by and making speeches.

What the UN Should Immediately Do

The United Nations should stop arguing over technicalities and calling each other names like silly children. The delegates should realize that God gave the world the great oil fields. The delegates should insist that Iran shall have a just recompense and not be scared by bribes, threats or intrigue, whether by England, Russia or the United States. The United Nations should further insist on a fair distribution of this oil and have all nations recognize that they need not resort to war to keep from being shot off from these God given resources. This is an illustration of what the United Nations should plan and fight for. Have we "Christian" nations forgotten THE FOUR FREEDOMS, to which Churchill and Roosevelt agreed when World War II was going against them?

Last Rites Held for M. J. Murphy

M. J. Murphy, a resident of Northville for over 30 years, passed away at Atchison Memorial hospital, Northville, February 16 at the age of 88. A leading Democrat in Western Wayne county and well known to Plymouth residents, Mr. Murphy was first vice president of the Brotherhood of Trainmen for over 25 years.
Funeral services were held Monday at 9 a.m. at Our Lady of Woods, officiating. The Rosary was said Sunday evening at the Casterline Funeral in Northville. Interment was made in Rural Hill mausoleum.

Mr. Murphy was born in Windham, Ohio, and he made his residence both there and in Cleveland for many years. He was the son of the late William and Mary Murphy. His wife, Emma, preceded him in death in 1948.
He is survived by four nephews, Joseph L. Kane, Edward F. Murphy and William M. Murphy of Cleveland, and Robert Murphy, Sr., of Detroit; and two nieces, Sister M. Leonard and Mrs. Elizabeth Varnes of Cleveland.

Few persons have sufficient wisdom to prefer censure, which is useful, to praise which deceives them.

Here's what's NEW about styling
Distinctive new lines, massive new grille, new two-tone cab trim, and new appointments make these the best-dressed trucks on the road! Lower hood lines make it easier to see more of the road ahead. More comfortable, redesigned seats, too!

Here's what's NEW about ease of handling
You can turn these new trucks sharper—in a smaller circle. Handling is easier because of new worm-and-roller steering gears, more convenient steering wheel angle, cross-steering, wide front tread, and short wheelbase.
