

THE PRESIDENT GOES ON A JAUNT.

While Michigan, the nation and much of the world bowed heads in grief over the passing of Senator Arthur H. Vandenberg, one of the greatest statesmen of the present generation, the President of these United States took his yacht and went down the Potomac on a pleasure jaunt with a group of his old cronies. Quite amazing, isn't it, to think that a President of the United States would chase off to Kansas City to attend the funeral of a grafting old political ex-convict who made a fortune from fallen women and other forms of graft, but when a great statesman like Arthur Vandenberg passes, Truman runs off on a yachting trip. But what else might one expect of a fellow who will go hide under the bed rather than meet face to face a great military leader he removed from an important military command—and now seeks to smear the record of a soldier who has devoted his entire life to his beloved country?

NOT A GOON—BUT A NEW DEALER.

Governor Williams surprised many Michigan people by his appointment of a United States senator, they were surprised because he didn't pick one of the outright labor goons for the job, as most people thought he would.

But he did the next nearest thing—he picked Blair Moody, the one-sided biased political writer of The Detroit News, who is not a goon, but a good friend of some of the goon bosses.

There is not much that can be said about Moody—he will know his way around in Washington, but you can bet your last dollar that when it comes to voting, he'll be Johnny-on-the-spot for everything that Harry and the boss goons want from the United States Senate.

Judging entirely from the column he has written in The Detroit News, the new Senator will be a biased, one-sided and strictly a New Dealer-Fair Dealer or whatever you might call it, from the minute he starts voting in the senate until he goes out, which WILL BE right after the next regular election.

Who suggested Moody for senator? You can bet your last dollar that it came from Harry The Hater, who wanted Moody appointed as a reward for his service to the New Deal.

IT IS AN IDEA, ANYWAY.

A well known and progressive thinking citizen the other day was discussing the future of Plymouth, pointing out that it was one of the most fortunate cities in the state of Michigan. He declared that Plymouth does have one big problem, its city limits are too restricted.

"Maybe we can get the township to annex the city of Plymouth. As I see it that is about the only way we can solve some of the problems that confront us," he said.

The writer suggested that we be permitted to use his name in connection with the idea. He held up his hands in Holy Horror and said "NO."

Talk in the past has been about the city annexing the township. Now it seems talk is about the township annexing the city. At any rate it is an idea to think about and discuss and cuss about.

PYGMIES IN WASHINGTON.

The past few days, apparently, have been tough ones for the pygmy politicians in high executive and state department offices in Washington. It seems that a couple of them are so small that they were able to crawl under a little bit of a table where they could not be seen or heard during the time that America's famed soldier, General Douglas MacArthur, was being welcomed back to his home in good old America. Both President Truman and his over-educated Secretary of State Dean Acheson, gave public proof of just how small they really are.

The deplorable part of the whole business lies in the fact that we have got to tolerate them for almost two more years—and only the good Lord knows what they will do to our blessed country meanwhile.

WHAT ARE YOU GOING TO DO ABOUT IT?

Michigan state police a few days ago released figures showing that traffic deaths and injuries in Michigan during the year 1950 almost equalled the number of American soldiers killed and wounded in the Korean war up to the present time.

There were 1,607 persons killed in automobile accidents in Michigan and 45,734 injured last year. American casualties in Korea from the time the war started up until April 12, including killed, wounded and missing totalled 59,496, just a little over the total number of killed and injured in Michigan traffic accidents.

WHO IS GETTING THE CASH?

Harry S. Newell, a well known resident of Plymouth, the other day received a letter from a relative who lives down in Illinois near the little community of Marengo. The writer of the letter is a farmer.

Among the matters he wrote about was the question of farm subsidies being paid out by the Truman administration, and being a farmer, he wanted to know who the people are that are receiving these so-called subsidies, when they sell their farm products below the "parity" price.

"That is all this talk. We get 41 cents for a dozen of eggs, but get no subsidy," said the letter. "Farmers were supposed to get this subsidy on corn last fall when forced to sell below the subsidy price, but we got none of it and know no one who did. That is all double-talk."

"Everyone is getting disgusted with the way the administration in Washington is doing. It is a terrible sin the way they did about potatoes, corn and eggs. They stored them to keep the prices up and put purple chemicals on the potatoes so they couldn't be used or planted. But what is the use of talking about it. We will all have to pay for this some day—the innocent with the guilty," said the letter.

And, isn't that the truth!

Three Sections, 22 Pages $2.00 Per Year In Advance

READY, AIM, FIRE. those three words brought forth this blast of powder from some 40 muzzle loaders at the firing line of the Potawatami Valley Muzzle Loading Rifle club last Sunday afternoon at 48814 Gyde road. The scene reminds one of what could have been seen frequently in the early 1800's, when muzzle loaders were much in evidence for war and all hunting purposes. Plymouth supports a very active organization which has 50 members, and meets regularly to use muzzle loading guns. For more details on this unusual organization see page 5 of section 3 this week.

Citizens Seek Quick Action on Hospital..

Plymouth business men and civic leaders have made it evident that they not only believe a hospital for this area is of vital necessity, but that they want something done about it.

President Ray Williams of The Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has received an unusually large number of letters from many prominent residents, who fully realize the need of a hospital to take care of the rapidly increasing needs of this area. Some letters were also sent to the Plymouth Mail.

So that one might gain some idea of the exceptional interest in this project, many of the letters are being published in this week's issue of The Mail.

All of them point out that the rapid growth of this area makes necessary some decided action on the hospital question. The interesting letters follow:

I was very much impressed with the article in your "What I think and have a right to say column" in last week's paper in regard to the very important and necessary need of a Hospital in Plymouth.

I wonder if Our Good Citizens, Business Men and other organizations, realize how serious this Hospital situation really is. We in Plymouth are very fortunate in having the finest staff of doctors in the country, but we are not supporting them or doing them justice. Their hands are tied if we do not support them with a Hospital large enough and properly equipped to take care of the many emergencies and the citizens of our community.

These fine doctors serve approximately 20,000 families in this area and what a problem they have when it comes to getting a sick patient into a hospital. I wonder if we realize how much of their valuable time is lost in traveling 20 or 30 miles to a properly equipped hospital, sometimes twice a day to care of the sick in our community, even though it is difficult to get patient accommodations in these distant hospitals.

Plymouth is the defense area with the number of large industries and more to come and with the thousands of new residents.

City Assessor To Leave For Puerto Rico

City Assessor Edward Potthoff announced that he will leave for Puerto Rico on a leave of absence to act as assistant with the public administration service of the Puerto Rican government. Mr. Potthoff stated he will and will be in the island. None of the property on the U.S. possession has ever been assessed, said Mr. Potthoff.

Mr. Potthoff and his wife, Jean, and two children, Edward and Robert, will live in Puerto Rico for a year. The Potthoffs reside at 169 Pine street.

Exhibit Work of Art Departments

Parents will have the opportunity to view the art work of their children in the annual Industrial and Fine Arts Exhibit on Monday, April 30 in the high school auditorium.

Included in the exhibit are works from the art, drawing, industrial arts, and machine shop departments.

The art classes will show commercial, life, and advanced art. Water color, oil, paintings, charcoal, fashion, drawings, book printing, and clay work will be on display. Prize winning pictures in the Scholastic Art Awards are also included in the exhibit.

Projects and drawings which students have completed this year will be on display.

Students may view the exhibit from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m. and 5:00 to 8:00 p.m. Parents and all other interested persons may come to the exhibit from 7 to 9 p.m.

Refreshments have been prepared by Mrs. Christine Soule and Miss Inez Lundy's home economics classes, and the girls in fine art's classes will serve.

Teachers, whose students will exhibit their work are: William Campbell, machine shop; Keith Bauman, advance shop; Conrad Musco, mechanical drawing; Robert Ingraham, shop mechanics; Mrs. Beatrice Besse, junior high shop; and Mrs. Frances Overton, fine arts.

Merchants Observe National Baby Week

Local merchants will observe National Baby Week which will run April 29 through May 3. Plymouth residents will be able to find all kinds of baby supplies and products at apparel shops, drug stores, food stores, and furniture stores in Plymouth.

Budget Up, But Not Taxes

Susan Beyer, Michael Cloar Win 1st Prizes

Winners of a baby contest sponsored by the Starkweather Mother's club were 14-month-old Susan Beyer and Michael Cloar, two and a half years old. The two babies, who won in the contest of 27 other entries, received good loving cups, contributed by Herick Jewelry.

Susan is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyer of 725 N. Mill street. Michael's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Price Cloar, 915 N. Mill street.

One-year-old Kathleen Dely capped second prize and she was awarded a hand made dress from Beal's Little Shop. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Dely, 448 Roe street.

The Duty twins, 4-year-old Larry and Terry won second prize in the boy's competition. They won a silver cup, fork, and spoon set, contributed by Agnew Jewelers. Parents of the Duty twins are Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Duty, 324 W. Pearl street.

Receiving ribbons as the runners-up were 11-month-old Ronald McGorey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles McGorey, 575 Irwin street; Carol and Carl Glass, 5-year-old twins of Mr. and Mrs. Ora Glass, 520 N. Hollbrook.

All the children crossed the footlights in parade at the Tuesday, April 17 presentation of "Going Places," musical staged by the Starkweather Mother's club.

Rotarians Visit Vast Drill Plant

Nearly 100 members of the Plymouth Rotary club and friends Monday evening, as guests of the Whitman-Barnes company, made a tour of the vast new plant recently opened on Plymouth road.

The visitors were amazed at the size of the plant and of its vast operations.

The concern, more than 100 years old, has without question built one of the most modern factory buildings in the United States. The company produces every conceivable type and size of a drill made, some of them being even smaller than the average size sewing needle.

The visitors were fortunate in seeing the plant in operation, as it is now working a night shift.

Orchestra Will Play in Festival

Paul Wagner will conduct the Plymouth Symphony Orchestra in a musical festival on Monday, April 30. Presented by the combined choirs of St. James Methodist church, Archdale and Puritan avenues in Northeast Detroit, the three day festival will be supervised by Mrs. Edna C. Connor of Plymouth.

The Plymouth Symphony Orchestra will present a program which will include the concerto in E Major by concertmaster Joseph Lazzeroff.

The first event of the program will feature concert pianist Boris Maximovich and his wife, Madame Veronika Maximovich, mezzo soprano, on Saturday evening, April 29 at 7:45 p.m. at the church auditorium. The children's choir will begin the program.

Open house will be held at the church Sunday afternoon, April 29, at 2:30 p.m. for all music lovers.

Exhibits will be featured including a collection of hymnals, a display of musical instruments of historical days, movies showing the development of the human voice, and the progressiveness of the pipe organ from the inception of sound created by the willow whistle to the demonstration of the electronic organ and its functions.

These separate displays and demonstrations will be shown simultaneously in group arrangements.

Featured soloist at the Sunday evening program will be Dr. Roberta Bitgood, organist from Buffalo, New York. She will premier her cantata Job, which will be given for the first time in the Detroit area.

The festival will be attended by music lovers in Plymouth. Several residents have stated that they will go to the festival on all three nights.

Local Man Honors General M'Arthur

As crowds throughout the nation cheer the return of General Douglas MacArthur to his homeland after a 14 year absence, John Jones, local real estate dealer is paying tribute to the General in his own way. A life size picture of MacArthur, clipped from a Detroit newspaper, graces the window of his establishment at 936 West Ann Arbor trail.

Just as everything else has gone up today, so has the '51-'52 budget of Plymouth increased. The proposed expenditures of the city government amounts to $275,520, which is a rise of $30,750 over last year's budget.

But here is the good news, there will be no increase in the city tax rate. Increased state hand-outs will help solve the city's financial problem.

Increases in labor and material costs are the main causes and practically every department shows a proportionate increase. High living costs and competition for manpower necessitated slight salary increases.

A new item in the budget is the planned addition of a Junior Civil Engineer, who will act as an assistant to Director of Public Works. All city employees will receive hospitalization insurance. The new item has been covered by surplus receipts during the current fiscal year.

Expenditures have been provided in the new budget for several changes in the proposed charter. For example, the revised charter will add two more commissioners and a codification of ordinances within two years.

All of these items are included in the general government fund totaling $56,424. Last year the fund was set at $43,135, however actual expenditures amounted to $39,651.08.

Increased valuation of property and higher return of sales taxes means the state will bring in an increase of $25,000 in estimated revenues. There will be no change in the tax rate here in Plymouth. It will remain at 15 mills.

Several items in the budget have been trimmed. For example, in funds for total buildings and structures, the budget committee proposed $13,685. Last year, $14,020 was proposed. The saving is due to the elimination of a caretaker at the comfort station.

The total health and welfare budget has decreased from the '50 figure of $5,650 to $4,250. No funds have been set aside this year for veteran's rehabilitation, whereas last year $240 was appropriated.

Increased services, projects, and salaries are included in the total public works budget at $93,700. In '50, $85,900 was proposed and actual expenditures amounted to $72,857.55.

Revenues from the water department have covered its expenditures and an estimated surplus will probably be deposited in the improvement fund, stated the budget committee.

The addition of another police officer and pay increases are due to new appropriations of $55,360, compared to last year's $48,585. The commission requested that another policeman be added to the present staff.

Funds for the fire department have also increased to $21,590, increasing with the '50 appropriation of $18,695. The higher figure is due to the setting aside of money for a new fire truck and equipment.

Would you like to know where your tax dollar goes? Thirty-four percent of the tax dollar takes care of public works and 27 per cent is used for public safety.

The next largest share of 20 per cent is allotted to general government; care of buildings and recreation both receive approximately five percent, and the rest of the dollar is given to debt, retirement, civil defense, health and welfare and total.

Total tax revenues expected are estimated at $179,500 and receipts from fees, permits, licenses and other agencies are estimated to be $96,020. The city expects to receive $275,520 this year, which includes all the sources of revenue. Last year, the city received $267,279.18.

The '51 budget was read during a hearing last Monday evening and the city commission will approve the budget at its next meeting, Monday evening, April 30.

Michigan Bell Joins Parade to Abolish Nickel Phone Calls

The Michigan Bell Telephone Company today joined the parade to abolish the nickel pay station call.

Erwin E. Scherdt, manager here for the company, announced that 10-cent pay calls will be included in an application to be filed by Michigan Bell with the Public Service Commission May 14 for a rate increase to raise revenues 17 per cent, or $22,000,000 a year.

He said the rate boost would amount to less than 4 cents a day for most residence telephone users here.

Scherdt said the rate increase is urgently needed to help the company meet the mounting costs of doing business, including higher taxes, wages, and costs of materials, and to assist it in providing the service the state will need during the national emergency.

One of the last survivors against the tide of inflation, the 5 cent charge at public telephones has remained undisturbed since the organization of Michigan Bell in 1904. In proposing to abandon it, the company follows a national trend. Ten-cent charges are in effect in New York, Minnesota, Illinois, and certain cities in South Dakota and Iowa. Application for the higher charge, has been made in New Jersey, Idaho, and on the Pacific Coast. Michigan Bell estimated the increased pay station charge would raise revenues $2,600,000 a year.

Under the application, monthly increases for the various types of service at Plymouth would be as follows:

Residence service: Individual-line, $1; 2-party line, $1; 4-party line, 75 cents; rural, 75 cents; extension telephones, 15 cents.

Business service: Individual-line, $2.50; 2-party, $2; rural, $1.50; extension telephones, 25 cents.

Long-distance rates would remain unchanged.

Scherdt said that Michigan Bell has been in a "continuous financial squeeze since World War II between inflation and the time lag in obtaining rate relief," citing the year and a half delay in getting the rate increase of last June.

Unlike most industry, we have had to operate under higher costs for many months before additional revenues could be obtained. Furthermore, those revenue increases have never caught up with the postwar rise in our costs.

In payrolls alone, not counting all the other rising costs of doing business, general wage increases have added $40,000,000 more a year to the company's expenses than 10 years ago, including the $5,000,000 additional payroll expense incurred by the wage increase of last November. Rate increases, during the same period, have yielded additional revenues of only $21,000,000. Improvements in the telephone art, economies and growth in the volume of business have permitted us to fill part of the gap but inflation has moved too rapidly to let us absorb the entire amount of the added expense.

Recalling that the company provided major installations at 79 military and 86 war-production establishments during the last war, Scherdt said that Michigan Bell is again moving ahead on a number of the same types of projects for the new emergency. In addition, 19,000 families are waiting in line for service and 133,000 customers are waiting for higher grades of service.

"While material shortages will substantially curtail our ability to clear unfilled orders," he said, "every effort will continue to be made to satisfy civilian needs to the extent that national policy will permit."

"Michigan Bell entered the last war with at least some reserves of equipment. Such reserves do not exist today because of the unprecedented postwar telephone growth."

To provide for these military, war-production, and civilian needs, Michigan Bell will require millions of dollars of new capital. The company already has spent more than a quarter of a billion dollars on construction since V-J Day.

"That does not mean that our customers are being asked to finance the company's expansion program. The money for expansion must come from investment."

"A fair return to the owners of the business is an essential cost of operating the business. It also follows that the company's earnings must be fair to attract new capital from investors.

LEE COOLMAN, left, newly elected commander of Plymouth's VFW Post 6695, receives congratulations from Dan Grubesich, retiring commander, following the meeting last Wednesday at the Veterans Memorial building. Grubesich during his term of office has been instrumental in planning and securing land for the new VFW clubhouse. The new commander expects that the building will be completed during the summer months. Announcement was made that the annual Poppy sale conducted by the VFW and its auxiliary will be held the latter part of May.

"In postwar years, Michigan Bell's rate-of-return for investors has averaged per cent compared with 12 per cent for 1,700 manufacturing companies in the country and nearly 17 per cent for the 36 largest Michigan manufacturers."

"As a natural monopoly, we do not expect, nor do we need, as high a return as competitive business but Michigan Bell's postwar earnings have been too far out of line to permit it to do the telephone job that the people of this state want and should have done."

Scherdt said that, "while revenues have increased 21 per cent through rate increases in 10 years, the value of the 'telephone package' has grown much more. For one thing, the number of telephones has more than doubled. For another, the no-toll-charge area of most customers has been increased through the introduction of extended-area service. In the last two years, 13,000,000 calls changed from toll to local, no-charge category due to the inauguration of extended-area service."

"The fact that so many people wait in line for service and so many customers want better and more expensive grades of service is pretty evident that telephone service today has a high value at a low price."

"Actually, the average worker earns enough to pay his telephone bill in a third less time today than before the war—3.9 hours before the war and 2.2 hours now."

We think we have done a good job in keeping rate increases as low as we have. The overall cost of living has gone up 82 per cent in the last ten years with a 21 per cent rise in this company's revenue through rate increases."

"Michigan Bell cannot isolate itself against the economic facts of inflation but, even with this application, the total revenue increase from rising rates would amount to only 38 per cent in the last decade."

Telephone service still would be one of the cheapest items in the family daily budget. The proposed minimum residence rates would be 10 to 14 cents a day—much less than such things as a package of cigarettes, a loaf of bread, or a gallon of gasoline."

"Michigan Bell is the state's fifth largest private employer. It spends millions of dollars a year in Michigan communities in payrolls, and new construction. It provides a service absolutely vital to the military and production needs of the defense program."

"Certainly, the few extra pennies a day that a rate increase would cost most telephone users should not be too much to ask to preserve the financial health of an enterprise that means so much to our citizens at this time of national emergency."

Robbery of $60 Occurs in Lawyer's Office

Sixty dollars was stolen from the law office of W. Lee Butler sometime during the night of Thursday, April 19. Police found the cash box open and the inside doors locked.

The thieves have not been discovered yet, but police suspect that someone hid in the office when it was locked up for the night.

City Charter Revision Committee Hopes to Complete Work by June

Progress is reported by the nine-man charter revision committee elected last fall. The second reading of the charter is being completed and the committee hopes to complete the third and final reading by June.

Meeting once a week since last November, the committee has discussed many important changes in the present charter. One of the more important issues under discussion is the city manager's power to appoint and dismiss city employees.

Chief argument of those who favor giving the manager this power is that he is responsible for governing the city and should have men under him upon whom he can depend.

The Appeal Board established by the voters last year is also under discussion and may be dropped. This board consists of three members who review and decide on any dismissals.

The length of terms for city commissioners has been discussed for change from the present two year tenure. Many persons think that two years is not sufficient to acquaint a new commissioner with the problems of city government. On the other hand, some believe that a four year term would tend to keep competent persons from running for the office.

The old charter contains a provision which prevents the city from making any contract exceeding $1,000 with any firm in which a commissioner is interested. This limitation is expected to be omitted from the new charter.

There is a feeling among the committee members that the jobs of City Manager, Treasurer and Clerk are too important to be combined. Another provision of the proposed charter is that these offices be kept separate, although they could be combined with other offices.

Although the public has been invited to attend the meetings of the committee, little interest has been shown by city residents. The committee meets the first Wednesday of every month and each of the following Tuesdays at 7:30 p.m. in the council chambers. Members of the committee are: Don Sutherland, chairman; Clarence Moore, vice chairman; James Houk, Gladys Tillotson, Russell Daane, Frank Arlen, Howard Carson, Catherine Henderson, and Robert Nulty.

Cancer Society Asks For Funds

A drive for funds by the Plymouth chapter of the American Cancer Society is under way and some progress has been reported by Mrs. Austin Stecker, chairman of the drive.

Assisted by co-chairman Mrs. H. W. Frisby, Mrs. Stecker plans to contact everyone in the Plymouth area by mail, asking for contributions to the drive. Cancer is one of the leading killers of people in this country. It is estimated that 22 million Americans are destined to become victims of the disease. However, with their program of research, education and service, the American Cancer Society offers every hope for effective cure.

Donors to the drive will have the satisfaction of knowing that they have contributed to this great work. Among the other services of the American Cancer Society is a loan service to cancer victims.

Plymouth suffers from the disease can receive many items on such a loan basis by contacting Mrs. Stecker at 643.

Items available are hospital beds, Stryker beds, bedside tables, wheelchairs, bedpans, rubber sheets, Afghans, back rests, rubbing alcohol, vaseline, soap, adhesive tape, absorbent cotton, hypodermic needles, bed jackets, hospital gowns, and Zinc stearate powder.

For Good Looking Lawn, Begin Now to Condition it

The last snows have melted and we prepare to greet the season of sunshine and flowers, mud and mosquitoes. In the spring, say the poets, a young man's fancy turns to thoughts of love. Most of us, however, turn to thoughts of our lawn.

Remember those vows you made last year? Next year, you said, that lawn is going to be the best in the neighborhood. Well now is the time to begin to keep that vow.

After its long winter sleep, your lawn is as hungry as a bear after a winter's hibernation. It needs some breakfast badly. But don't bother with bacon and eggs, or coffee and doughnuts. Your lawn will be quite content with a balanced meal of nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, in a percentage of 10 to 6 to 4.

Just spread the mixture about your lawn at a rate of one pound per 100 square feet. This process is known as broadcasting.

If you aren't able to procure the 10-6-4 mixture, you can substitute one of the general purpose mixes which contain four to five percent nitrogen, such as 5-10-5 or 4-12-4. However, since these are lower in nitrogen, increase the application rate. For the 5-10-5 it should be doubled; two pounds per 100 square feet. For the 4-12-4, make it two and a half pounds per 100 square feet.

Don't make the mistake of applying lime to your lawn. Even if your soil does have an excess of acid, there is so much lime in Michigan water that every time you turn on the sprinkler, you apply lime to the soil.

The first warm day that finds the soil moist and workable is the time to get out your tools. Diligent application of a rake is necessary to remove that winter's accumulation of cigarette butts, paper, orange peelings, and dead leaves. Follow this up with a once-over with a heavy roller.

Now comes the best part. According to experts, it is best not to start mowing the grass too soon. Just stretch out in your easy chair and let mother nature take over for a couple of weeks.

If for some reason you cannot find time to take care of your lawn this spring, don't worry about it. NEXT year you can get to work and have the best lawn in the neighborhood.

Great Britain is now burning half a million more tons of coal a day than her nationalized mines can produce.

From time to time we have read in our daily newspapers of the dire necessity for expanding the hospital facilities of Detroit and other adjacent cities. What about Plymouth, a city of over 6000 population located immediately adjacent to a very rapidly expanding industrial area, with its almost total lack of hospital facilities of any kind?

This is a situation in which your Chamber of Commerce could and should interest itself in undertaking to provide Plymouth with reasonable facilities of this kind. It is, indeed, a deplorable situation that a resident of this city or an employee of this industrial area, when requiring hospitalization, in an emergency or otherwise, must first be transported to Detroit, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, or Northville. While it is reported that the hospitals located in the above mentioned cities have been very cooperative in attempting to take care of the Plymouth requirements, nevertheless it should be almost self evident that a community of this size requires the facilities of a hospital of a 100 bed capacity to adequately serve the needs of its people.

(Signed: H. O. Mohrmann)
Vice President and Cashier
Plymouth United Savings Bank

I wish to give my views concerning the need for a larger, more modern equipped hospital in Plymouth to meet the urgent needs of a fast growing Industrial and Residential Community such as we find ourselves in.

The distance necessary to reach Ann Arbor or Detroit hospitals, the waiting that is necessary to gain admittance because of their crowded condition, makes it all the more necessary that a hospital be built in the immediate environs of Plymouth.

I can think of no better service that the C of C could do for Plymouth than to start a hospital fund with the thought towards erecting a new, modern hospital.

(Signed: Ernest L. Henry)

It is my understanding that the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce is attempting to bring a hospital to Plymouth.

For reasons too obvious to mention, I heartily endorse this project and will be glad to contribute in a tangible manner proportionate to my ability.

(Signed: Dunbar Davis)

I am pleased to hear of the prospects of erecting a hospital in the vicinity of Plymouth, come time in the near future. For many years we have been handicapped by inadequate facilities in this region. Our nearest large hospitals have been seventeen to eighteen miles in various directions. I have been on the Medical Staff of both Mt. Carmel Mercy hospital in Detroit and St. Joseph Mercy hospital in Ann Arbor, but because of their distance from Plymouth I have been unable to use their facilities, except occasionally. The need for a modern hospital of fifty beds or more has been many years. I hope that your efforts in this project will be very successful.

(Signed: W. W. Hammond, Jr., M. D.)

There are many thousands of us in the Plymouth area who like the sound of that "Freedom from Fear" quotation. One of the fears from which we are not free is the time element between an emergency and arrival at a hospital.

I have anxious thoughts about my boys and my wife when I consider that in an emergency the lapse of time in travelling so many miles to a hospital might be the difference between life and death. God forbid that this tragedy should occur. But, before it does happen let's do all we can toward building a hospital HERE!

Picture in your mind, if you will, a whole community of folks deeply concerned with the problem of distance of present hospital facilities. Think, too, of the consternation we feel about taking our loved ones to an institution so far away that our family physicians can not readily attend our sick. Doctors who are familiar with our cases can certainly do a more efficient job than strangers of equal abilities. These same medical men are very busy, and a nearby hospital would conserve their time and energies, too. Thus giving them more time for their other important duties. Besides the inconvenience to physicians please think of the difficulties of visiting patients while they are confined in these far-away places. Let's do all we can toward building a hospital HERE!

These distant hospitals are already taxed to the limit of their abilities by the overwhelming demands on their inadequate space and personnel. Sometimes, as we all know, it is difficult indeed to get accommodations in them, and practically impossible on short notice. It is imperative that we have a hospital in Plymouth—thus relieving the existing distant ones of some of their burden, a burden that should rightfully be attended to in our own community. So—let's do all we can toward building a hospital HERE!

Consider the number of us who are so vitally concerned with this problem. It is not only the need for a hospital by our residents of the City of Plymouth, but also for us in the adjacent rural areas. These "rural" districts, incidentally, are becoming very heavily and thickly populated. In fact they are practically urban in their nature. We have a great concentration of people here too. Add to these totals the inhabitants of the dozen or so communities that are very close to us, communities that are by nature as well as geography a part of the group that can be served by a hospital. Let's do all we can toward building a hospital HERE!

(Signed: Carl Caplin)
Men's Wear

We have felt that Plymouth could use a larger hospital for a long time.

In the 15 years I have been here I have seen this community double in size and we know I believe that the Manufacturing industry in Plymouth has increased tremendously.

This points to a tremendous growth and no telling what our population will lead to in the next few years.

In order to maintain and hold this continuous growth I am sure a larger hospital would not only be beneficial to the city but in many cases save many lives and that is what we are primarily interested in.

(Signed: Wm. A. Rose)
Plymouth Hardware Company

We sincerely urge you to do anything you can to bring about the erection of a hospital in Plymouth. We believe that the need for one is now imperative!

We are among the newer families in the district of which there are many. Perhaps, in the past when the population of this area was small the advisability of such an undertaking was dubious from a financial standpoint. But now, with the in-pouring of additional thousands of people the necessity seems very apparent.

The out-country section of Wayne county is fast becoming one of Michigan's most heavily populated. We have advanced in all facilities except the hospitals necessary, which have been neglected completely.

Let's do all we can to have these much-needed facilities built as quickly as possible.

(Signed: D. H. Agnew)
Jeweler

I am writing to request that you, through the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce, do everything possible to make possible the erection of at least a 50 bed hospital in the immediate future.

Plymouth's need for an adequate hospital has long existed; now with the intensive Industrialization extent in our vicinities it is more than a need—it is a stark necessity.

Please do everything possible to bring Plymouth's hospital into a reality.

(Signed: Joe Merritt)
Insurance

We have felt for many years that Plymouth was greatly in need of a modern hospital.

Today, as far as we are concerned, this need has become imperative.

Plymouth has grown very fast and in view of the industrial expansion in our area a hospital might mean the difference between life or death to any number of our own citizens. It is a shame that the people of Plymouth must go so far for hospital service.

Certainly in view of the future that is practically upon us, no effort will be too great to see that Plymouth has its much needed hospital immediately.

(Signed: Russell Powell)
M. Powell and Son

I read in the Plymouth Mail we are asked to write your committee about a hospital—I've written twice to the Plymouth Mail about the need of a hospital.

It will take cooperation from all Plymouth people.

Why not buy several cars, sell tickets for two months, then say 5 good television sets, then cars, again. Have several dances. All donations to go to the fund after expenses are met. Or sell shares also to the hospital. No one would lose—Plymouth has a future.

Perhaps some of our more fortunate families would donate the ground—2 or 3 miles out. Some may wish to donate work. Everyone has a share in this.

We need a large hospital but it could be planned for wings to be added from time to time. Be sure to have enough ground for this expansion. We could even start with a 25 bed hospital. We can gradually build up to a 100 bed, etc.

I am ill at present but later I will be so glad to sell tickets and help in any way I can.

As I said before Plymouth has a future and a need for a hospital to meet the needs of a growing city.

(Signed: Louise Leadbetter)

It has been brought to my attention that the Hospital Committee of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce has found the facilities inadequate to meet our needs. In my opinion they are entirely right and deserve the combined support of everyone in this area.

In the first place every family in Plymouth Township and even the adjacent townships need the security of a good, well-operated hospital in their times of illness or emergency. With our population growing the way it is, it seems absurd that we do not have means of this type already in operation.

Secondly, with the large number of fine industrial plants which are being built or already in operation in this area, the need for a hospital becomes even greater. Although we are only a small operation from the standpoint of number of employees, we still have already felt the need for a hospital in the case of injury or sickness. I can well imagine how important this must be to a plant employing several hundred men and women.

Fund, which while a worthy undertaking does not include Plymouth in the scope of its benefits. Actually, these contributions should have been made to a local fund to realize the benefits of local group insurance plans.

Both industry and unions should be vitally interested in a project of this kind, as the group hospital plans now written into union contracts are of little value under the present crowded conditions.

You have started a good work so don't let it cool off.

(Signed: Russ Walker)

The following is my personal opinion on the subject of a Civic Hospital.

I have been in Plymouth 24 years and had the pleasure of seeing this community grow and improve its facilities to render better service not only to our own residents, but to thousands for many miles around us.

For years I heard talk of a hospital, every one that I ever talked to agreed that a city hospital is of the most vital necessity, yet nothing constructive has ever been started to achieve this goal. I had a lot of sickness in my family and it may be the reason why I am so concerned about a hospital. Even though I live in Detroit, my first concern as far as the welfare of a community is concerned, is Plymouth.

I sincerely hope that my remarks will be of some value.

(Signed: David Galin)

Congratulations to the Chamber of Commerce on the move to construct a hospital for the city of Plymouth. This has long been a pet project of mine but so far all of the efforts put forth by various groups to make it a reality have failed. I sincerely hope that this effort will be rewarded by success.

A hospital for this area, especially in view of the rapid growth of the area, is the No. 1 project at this time. With the increasingly large numbers of factory employees and their families, many of whom will require hospitalization during the years to come, it is extremely important.

This letter is to endorse one hundred per cent the projects which you have before you and to assure you of my personal cooperation in any way that I can be of assistance. Please do not hesitate to call upon me if there is anything that I can do to be helpful.

(Signed: E. C. Hough)

I am very interested in the points that Dr. R. R. Barber stated so very clearly to the citizens of Plymouth about the great need of a hospital. As Dr.

Barber pointed out not only is the population increased but with the heavy thought of an A-Bomb attack and where would we help the people of Detroit, we have no place to help them. Not only has the need of a new hospital been brought up once but three times and no one has done a thing about it. Also the hospital we have now is very old and noisy around it with the school near it. I do think Dr. Barber is right, we have three schools in Plymouth so I think the citizens could afford one modern hospital. I am very proud of our town and its citizens and I know I want anything, action will be made as quickly as possible. I would be more than happy to contribute if you would like me to.

(Signed: Miss B. Brink)

We feel as though Plymouth should by all means have a hospital.

(Signed: Howard and Mabel Sharpley)

It was inevitable that our committee on the study for hospital needs in the Plymouth area would discover that existing facilities are inadequate. There has been an apparent need for more hospital beds and corresponding services in the area for a great many years. One needs only to note the tremendous population increase in the Plymouth area during World War II and the post-war years to realize how this long-felt need has been increasing steadily.

As one who has personally used Detroit hospital facilities, and one who has had an opportunity to discuss this problem with Plymouth doctors at some length, may I say I am firmly convinced there is a serious need for additional hospital service in this area. I am in complete agreement with the findings of the committee, and sincerely hope a continuing study of the problem will result in an early solution.

(Signed: Robert O. Wesley)

TO MICHIGAN BELL TELEPHONE CUSTOMERS:

Notice of Application to the Michigan Public Service Commission by the Michigan Bell Telephone Company
For Authority to Make Effective Certain Schedules of Rates, Rentals, and Charges

Higher costs inevitably mean higher prices, and the cost of furnishing your telephone service keeps on going up. As the result of wage increases for our employees last November, greater taxes, and the higher costs of services and materials, the rates authorized by the Commission last June are now insufficient to cover our needs. For that reason we shall apply to the Michigan Public Service Commission on May 13, 1951 for authority to apply the proposed rates shown below, and ask the Commission to set a date for a hearing on our request.

EXCHANGE RATES (Excluding Federal Tax)

For rate purposes, exchanges are divided into groups according to the total number of telephones that can be reached without a toll charge. The present grouping is based on the number of toll lines.

In service in each exchange or zone on September 30, 1948. The proposed rates are based on the number of telephones on December 31, 1950.

PRESENT SCHEDULES BASIC MONTHLY EXCHANGE RATES

Group 6 rates, as shown in the following table, now are applicable in PLYMOUTH.

Customers' Corner
Courtesy doesn't add anything to the high quality or superior value of the food you buy at A&P.
But it is the ingredient that makes your shopping trip a pleasant experience rather than a tiresome task.
That is why the men and women who operate your A&P work hard not only to give you prompt and efficient service, but to be courteous and friendly, as well.
They know that even the pressures of rush-hour shopping are no excuse for rudeness.
If they ever fail to make your trip to A&P a pleasant one, they want to know about it. Please write:

How would you like to RE-BUY everything in your house?

- if everything
burned TONIGHT?

The furnishings in your home are probably worth 5 or 10 times what you think they are.

You've accumulated them
one at a time—a chair, a book, a picture, a suit of clothes, a set of dishes—so you underestimate their total value.

Your insurance on these things is probably only a fraction of what it should be. For example, just list the things in one room, and see! Or ask us for a form on which to make a complete inventory of your household possessions.
And we'll tell you how inexpensive complete America

CASH AND CARRY SAVES THE DIFFERENCE

You save time
when you call by number

You'll save yourself time, these busy days, by keeping a list of the numbers of the out-of-town telephones you call most often.

When you call by number,
the Long Distance operator doesn't have to take the time to get the number from Information so your call goes through faster.

That means better service for you—and better service for all America, right now when telephone lines are carrying urgent industrial and military calls.

P. S. When you don't know the out-of-town number, why

Show Product in Life Magazine

Dramatic use of Zonolite vermiculite to insulate a white-hot ingot being shipped by railroad is featured in the April 16 issue of Life magazine, reports Dave Mather, Plymouth Lumber & Coal Co., who handles the product locally.

According to Life, two months of processing time were saved because the ingot was shipped white-hot, at a temperature of 1770 degrees. Shipped by rail, it traveled from Dominion Steel and Coal corporation's steel processing plant at Sydney, Nova Scotia, to the firm's forgoing operation at Trenton, 200 miles away.

Previously, these ingots had to be shipped cold because no adequate insulation was available. Cooling and reheating of steel ingots is a lengthy process, made obsolete by the new method.

The shipment dramatically illustrated the effectiveness of this strange mica-like insulating mineral, which is more familiarly known as a home insulation material, or as a substitute for sand in making lightweight, chipproof plaster or insulating concrete. Known as the fireproof material used in building, vermiculite withstood even the extreme white-heat of this ingot.

It is understood that no other insulating product could have performed this job, states Mr. Mather.

Mined by the Zonolite Company in Montana and South Carolina, Zonolite vermiculite is processed for local dealers by Zonolite Company, 14300 Henn avenue, Dearborn, Michigan.

Percy Craig Spence, President of Sinclair Oil Corporation, will be the honored guest and chief speaker. Mr. Spencer succeeded Harry F. Sinclair as President in 1945.

Madonna College Offers Concert

Madonna college will present the Wyandotte Choral Society in a benefit concert at DeSales auditorium on Sunday, April 29, at 8 p.m.

Highlights of the program will be Victor Herbert's "Romany Lull" with a solo by Marjorie Rupert, "Die Erst Die Ruh" by Franz Schubert, Rossini's "La Danza" and "Scene and Prayer" from Cavalleria Rusticana by Mascagni.

The public is cordially invited to attend.

Use Tape Recorders in Multiple Way....

A piece of apparatus that possesses limitless possibilities in the sphere of education, scientific research, industry, psychiatry and entertainment is a tape recorder. The machine that talks back is used to take dictation in business offices, preserve airline communication exchanges, in automobile industries to analyze the sounds of cars and engines, store information, and to direct machinery operations, plus many more important uses in business, industry, and government.

The tape recorders and shellac phonograph records were almost invented at the same time. A Danish inventor, Valdemar Poulsen, introduced it at the Paris Exposition in 1900.

It is a machine that has been also utilized successfully by homemakers to record their children's voices and special events in a family's history. One lady in Plymouth, uses the tape recorder in a semi-business and hobby capacity.

Mrs. Margaret V. Saxton of 587 W. Ann Arbor trail, in addition to her activities in church work, homemaking and numerous hobbies, operates the Jewel-hall Recording company.

With a tape recorder and a recording machine, she is able to record events in town and voices of individuals who would like to have a record made of their voices.

Among the recordings she has made, Mrs. Saxton has recorded square dance calls, tap dances, concerts of the Symphony Society and other musical events, book reviews and speeches. St. John's Episcopal church Bible study groups, and class night at Plymouth High last year.

Mrs. Saxton said that she uses her tape recorder at parties where guests have found a lot of enjoyment and entertainment in recording their voices.

How did Mrs. Saxton become interested in tape recording? When the tape recorder was given a great deal of publicity during World War II and several companies began manufacturing them for general use, she thought she would like to have one.

The tape recorder did not become widely used until World War II, when it was used by the Navy in sending confidential messages and in research.

Mrs. Saxton purchased one and began experimenting with the tape recorder. At that time, she was doing social work in Wayne with the Diocese of Michigan.

When she visited families, who had moved to become war workers in the industries near Wayne, Mrs. Saxton brought her tape recorder along.

People always seemed to be interested in the machine that could record voices and talk back, and it proved to be quite successful in getting people to relax and to set them at ease, said Mrs. Saxton.

Mrs. Saxton tells of an interesting experience with one person whose voice she had recorded on one of her calls. A riverman from Missouri, who came to Wayne to retire, had recorded his voice, telling of his experiences sailing along the Missouri river.

One week later, the man died and his wife, who was grief stricken, remembered the tape recording and asked Mrs. Saxton to make a record of it. Mrs. Saxton says that the riverman's wife was somewhat comforted after she received the record.

How does a tape recorder work? Mrs. Saxton demonstrated the apparatus to a Plymouth Mail reporter. First the individual begins speaking and his voice is picked up by a microphone. The sound is caught by sensitized tape, which is coated with a solution of iron oxide.

If an error occurs in the recording, for instance if someone makes a mistake in a song or coughs during a speech, the flaw can be erased.

The tape can be either rewound and one can record over the flow, or the tape can be edited with scissors and gummed tape. Mrs. Saxton says that she prefers the first method, because it is a much simpler way.

Then after the voice is recorded, Mrs. Saxton times the tape recording, and edits it to make sure the recording is perfect. The tape recording is then transferred to a record, which Mrs. Saxton makes on a cutting table. After the record is made, she plays it back to make sure that it is perfect.

The other part of her recording equipment, a large speaker, is used to detect small flaws.

Mrs. Saxton's recording apparatus is equipped with two channels, so that a soloist may "dub" in accompaniment by an orchestra or piano by means of another recording.

The possibilities for a tape or wire recorder are boundless, said Mrs. Saxton. "Just think what a wonderful thing it would be for a blind child to learn from pre-recorded recordings, as it hears lessons from records or a tape recording."

Mrs. Saxton also said she saw no reason why tape recordings were used at the recent flower show in Detroit. A hidden tape recording was used in advertising an automobile. As the various parts of the automobile moved, the recording explained the function of each part. "It was very effective," said Mrs. Saxton.

Two articles describing the multiple uses of a tape recorder are featured in the April issue of national magazines. Aside from the part the tape recorder plays in industrial and business organizations, the tape that talks has a place in the home.

Practically every family possesses a scrap book or a photograph album and the book holds a treasured place in the home. But today many families who own a tape recorder have a scrapbook that talks.

Just a few of the occasions that are recorded include birthday parties of the family's offspring, family reunions and gatherings, recordings of the children's voices as they grow up, and scores of memorable events.

A tape recorder is a fairly inexpensive and easy way to keep memories forever.

For a homey meat dish, dip slices of bacon square in milk, then in corn meal and bake. Make a milk gravy from the drippings and serve over mashed potatoes.

Learn Economy In MSC Class

Many women contribute to the income by saving money rather than earning it. Membership in more than 2,400 home demonstration groups, sponsored by Michigan State college's Cooperative Extension Service, makes this possible.

Through their extension lessons from the college, the local groups learned many ways to save money. They were taught by their group leader who in turn was trained by MSC extension specialists in home economics and county home demonstration agents.

Approximately 40,000 women enrolled in these home extension groups learn a great variety of subjects. Their projects cover the fields of foods and nutrition, clothing, home furnishings, health, home management, land, and child development.

Members of home demonstration clubs learned skills that benefited them not only this year, but will be of aid in years to come. They learned to make their own clothing and how to sew for their children. Their homes show many improvements for little money because of slip covers, refinished furniture, and other money-saving practices.

Community projects interest many of these groups, through aid to the Red Cross, hospitalized veterans, safety campaigns, and civic improvement.

National Home Demonstration Week April 29-May 5, is planned as an annual observance and review of the work of the more than 1,000,000 members of home demonstration clubs throughout the nation.

—says Mrs. Noble Swisher, Chicago, Ill.

"MY 1948 DODGE STILL LIKE NEW!"

"Smart Buy's Roadmaster"

FIREBALL POWERED

It started the very day the 1951 ROADMASTER made its first appearance—and has been building up ever since.

Folks looked at the fresh new styling—the power—the features—the fabrics—the cloud-soft cushions—and the prices—and said, "Here's the smart buy in the fine-car field."

Why don't you come and see for yourself what a sensational buy this proud beauty really is?

It's a honey to handle—a joyous thrill to ride in—and just about the handsomest thing on wheels.

It has room, and poise, and a level-going gait that comes from coil springs front and rear.

There's a triumphant thrill in the willing obedience of its Fireball power and the luxurious ease of its Dynaflo Drive, which doesn't cost you a penny extra.

There's a sweeping view fore and aft through sweepingly broad glass areas, and the new clarity of an instrument panel with greater visibility at night.

Even the brakes are new, self-cooling, with a grip that takes hold like steel fingers in a velvet glove.

Here indeed is a car that is fine in bearing, in action, and in the precision of every structural part—a ROADMASTER custom built by Buick. When will you try one as our guest?

Believe It or Not These Scenes Can be Found Near Plymouth Almost Any Sunday

PRETTY GIRLS shoot as well as men, it was learned at the Sunday shoot of the Muzzle Loaders. Pictured here, left to right, are Mrs. Kenneth Richards, Robert Reed, and Elaine Truesdell, three ardent fans of the antiquated muzzle loaders, who are regular visitors at the range when the clan gathers for action. Mrs. Richards, the former Elaine Truesdell, resides with her husband and father at 42759 Cherry Hill road. She is one of about 20 women who participate regularly in the shooting matches of the club.

The weapon which provided our forefathers with food, protection and recreation is returning to popularity. A group of Plymouth men have organized a club which devotes itself to the old-fashioned, muzzle-loading rifle.

The Potawatami Valley Muzzle Loading Rifle club was organized a year ago, taking its name from the Indian tribes which once inhabited this area. Chief founder and first president of the club was Joe Silcocks, of 48814 Gyde road.

Silcocks has long been interested in guns and several years ago began a collection of muzzle-loading rifles which now numbers almost two dozen.

The club, a charter member of the National Muzzle Loading Rifle Association, holds shooting matches the third Sunday of each month at 1 p.m. on a range at Napier and Powell roads. The weapons used range from early flintlocks to the percussion rifle of the Civil War period.

These matches are very colorful events. On Sunday afternoons the shooters and their families gather at the range, much as their ancestors did, picnic baskets and all, the men taking their places on the firing line, the women and children gathering in the shade nearby.

Three separate events are scheduled at each shoot: one bench rest and two offhand or standing. Each shooter has two targets, one for as many practice shots as he desires, and one for his score shot.

Officers for the club this year are Robert Reed of Northville, president; Edward Ebert of Plymouth, vice president; Ernest Swaim, secretary-treasurer; Joe Silcocks, senior range officer; and F. A. Freund, range officer.

The Kentucky rifle, as the flintlock is known, has an interesting and varied history. Originated in Pennsylvania about 1730, they were taken into Kentucky by Daniel Boone and his party of settlers. Modeled after the European rifle, they were lighter, with a longer barrel and smaller bore.

Most Kentucky members of the Revolutionary Army carried the gun, and they have been credited with winning the battle of Kings Mountain, where, with equal forces involved, the American dead were 28 as compared to 225 for the British.

Having proved their worth, they became the official gun of the United States Army until they were replaced in 1840 by the percussion cap rifle.

The gun is loaded by first putting the powder charge into the muzzle. This charge varied with the size of the gun, a 45 calibre weapon taking a charge of 30 grains. Only black powder can be used, smokeless powder being too powerful for many of the old, hand-torged guns.

Then the ball, wrapped in a wet cloth, is inserted into the muzzle and pushed down with a ramrod. Powder is placed in a small pan near the breech of the gun and is ignited by a spark from the flint which is struck when the trigger is pulled.

Occasionally the powder in the pan will ignite without igniting the powder in the barrel. This gives rise to the well-known expression, "flash in the pan."

The idea of a muzzle loading rifle club was originated by a group of interested men in southern Ohio in 1931. The association today numbers 6000 members nationally.

The local Potawatami unit now numbers 21 members and is growing regularly. New members are welcome and visitors are invited to witness the monthly shooting matches. A turkey shoot ends the seasons shooting which begins in April and lasts until November. Last year the club gave as prizes a turkey and a chicken. This year nine turkeys and two ducks will be the rewards.

The club is considering plans to cooperate in the Detroit birthday celebration this summer. Leather has been ordered for authentic buckskin clothing, which with coonskin caps and powder horns give the members an air of having stepped out of a history book.

Membership dues are $3.00 a year with the member supplying his own gun and equipment. The rifles cost between $100 and $150, and can be ordered from dealers throughout the country. Plymouth residents who are members of the club are Joe and Sanford Silcocks, Edward Ebert, Paul Jackson, F. A. Freund, Wyath Dunn, Bob Scheppele, James Schomberger, and Virgil Joseph.

Roger Babson Says --

Babson Discusses Education Employers Want

Babson Park, Mass., April 26. I have a conviction that the education and the welfare of our country are inseparable. I wonder if the draft planners in Washington realize how important education is to our survival.

Country Club Colleges

But merely "going to college" does not necessarily mean getting an education. In many cases it means four more years of loafing. No wonder the only institutions which are holding their own in enrollments are Negro colleges—the colored people appreciate education—while theological schools show an increase of 15.2% for 1950 over 1949. The real reason why some Liberal Arts colleges are having such a hard time getting students is not due so much to the draft, but to the fact that so many employers don't want young men from the Ivy colleges. This in part explains why enrollments in men's colleges for 1950 were 9.3% below 1949, compared with a drop of only two-tenths of 1% in women's colleges.

Large private universities in the midst of building and expansion programs must now curtail sharply any further outlay. Some Liberal Arts colleges that cater solely to men may be forced to close for two or more years or offer accelerated work. If not heavily endowed, they may close their doors for the last time this coming June unless Uncle Sam soon gives them a helping hand by subsidizing accelerated work.

1951 Enrollment

Too many Four Year Ivy colleges are not only wasting a year of students' time and money, but are actually training them to be drones rather than workers. To overcome this handicap, an interesting experiment is to be tried at Eureka, Kansas, the center of the U. S. Here a Fifty Weeks Course of 40 hours a week (the same as the young man would work if engaged in industry) will give a student in these fifty weeks all he would get his last year of high school and his first year in college.

To me the best part of the "Eureka Plan" is that it trains students to work instead of play. Probably few students will accept the opportunity, but those who do will be in great demand for executive jobs by industry if not drafted, or by the armed forces if drafted. They surely never would be used for cannon fodder.

Education Must Not Be Neglected

General Eisenhower has said, "A nation depending on guns alone for its defense will soon be a corpse in armor." Character and education are bulwarks against the totalitarian state. Hitler failed because he lacked these fundamentals. Stalin will fail for the same reason. Hitler spent, and Stalin is spending, huge sums for training—not character and educational training—but in teaching men to destroy instead of to construct. This is where the enemy is weak. This is where we can be strong with our good State Universities.

Surely Mr. Malik has taught us that the cultural and ideological struggle is every bit as important as military battles in conquering Communism. Mr. Vishinsky has said, "We shall conquer the world: not with atom bombs, but with something the Americans cannot produce—namely, propaganda." It ought to be crystal clear, therefore, that we must keep our educational system in the best possible working order if it is to meet this new kind of attack successfully.

Schools and colleges cannot discharge this grave responsibility if they are financially handicapped. Our government should, therefore, seek practical solutions at once which will give us, not only the military strength to survive, but also the guarantee of maintaining our educational system intact. This is the vehicle which is so important to us in this battle of ideas, brains, and doctrines. But the Government should make sure that the students so helped are taking some form of accelerated education so as to learn to work fifty weeks a year and forty hours a week.

Starkweather and Pierson Win Auto Club Safety Patrol Honors

Plymouth's Starkweather school and the nearby Pierson school district will be honored as two of the 79 Michigan elementary schools having outstanding safety patrols in their areas this school year, according to Automobile Club of Michigan records.

In recognition, each will be invited to send a safety patrol boy on tour to Washington, D.C. from May 10 through May 13. Ernest P. Davis, Auto Club safety director, announced. Names of the boys, to be selected by school and Club officials, will be determined soon.

"School officials, local police and the safety patrols deserve the thanks of all Livonia and Plymouth residents. They and leaders of 1,200 other schools in this program helped Michigan in 1950 record the lowest child pedestrian fatality total in its history," Davis said.

State Police records reveal only 50 child-pedestrians age 5 through 14 killed in 1950, with 131 killed in 1931. During that period traffic has increased over 100 percent, and every other age group has shown large death increases.

Michigan's 79 school patrols singled out for honor were selected on basis of efficiency and effort, as revealed in school records. One requirement in selecting schools was that their safety patrols had to be operating on the first day of school. Educators, police, and Club safety workers are now encouraging all schools to select safety patrols for next fall before school ends this spring. This will help forestall a high accident toll when schools open.

All expenses of the patrolers' trip by special section of a crack train to Washington, D.C. will be borne by Auto Club as a small reward from the motoring public to Michigan's 41,500 AAA safety patrols.
