There should be little reason for any Plymouthite to be on the highways Independence Day this year, if it's entertainment he seeks. Just about everything one could hope for in a typical American Fourth of July celebration will be offered this year—except for the fact that the celebrating comes on Monday, July 5. The event is expected to attract a record crowd.

Highlighting the affair will be the appearance of Governor G. Mennen Williams, Cowboy Colt and Soupy Sales. The famous Motor State Shows will also lend the carnival atmosphere with an array of 10 rides and some 20 shows. The carnival will continue throughout Tuesday and Wednesday even though Plymouth's official celebration is confined to Monday alone.

The annual Chamber of Commerce event gets underway at 10:45 a.m. with the traditional parade. The Kiddies' parade will lead the procession assembling at the Kroger parking lot coming directly north on Main street to Church street, Adams street and thence to the high school athletic field, scene of the festivities. Swinging in behind the parading children will be the main parade which will form on Forest avenue and then proceed up Wing street before turning north on Main street. Parade Chairmen Roy Rew and Robert Waldecker promise the largest array of vehicles ever assembled for a parade here. Included will be Cowboy Colt with his famous trick horse, Pal; also army equipment from the 425th Infantry Regiment and the "B" Battery of the 177th Field Artillery; 21 bathing beauties (see their pictures on pages 4 and 5 of section 3) competing for the title of Miss Plymouth and displayed in brand new convertible automobiles; the high school band; the popular 4-H club and their prize-winning horses; plus many other local organizations to be represented by officers or floats.

Carnival activity will get underway promptly at 1:00 p.m. and throughout the afternoon and evening a program of entertainment will be provided for both young and old. The complete schedule of events appears on page 1.

Special prizes will also play a big part in the day's fun with awards to the best floats and horses in the main parade and prizes for the Kiddies' parade to be given out by Cowboy Colt. The popular television favorite will also perform with

AN AMERICAN FAMILY, 179 years after the signing of the Declaration of Independence, is still able to maintain its priceless heritage of Life, Liberty and the Pursuit of Happiness. It has taken seven conflicts since the Revolution to protect these privileges and our system of government—a system which offers the common man the highest standard of living anywhere. Marvin Criger, who joined millions of other American young men in the second world conflict, is pictured with his wife and children, Duane and Nadine, enjoying some of our commonplace and often-forgotten freedoms. Their home is at 454 Arthur.

Plumbing Firm Safe Cracked

The annual safecracking ceremony at the John M. Campbell, Inc., plumbing and heating shop took place last Friday night with thugs getting away with $119.18 in cash and stamps and causing $250 in damage.

Although there has been no willingness by the management to make the safecracking an annual affair, Campbell points out that the office safe has been cracked around this time of year in 1952 and 1953. The plumbing concern is located at 38630 Plymouth road.

Livonia police have turned up no clues in this case. The persons breaking into the safe during the previous occasions were not as lucky. The first culprit, from Plymouth, and the second, from Northville, were both arrested shortly after the incident and both were placed on probation.

Last Friday's entrance was gained through a window. The safe was ruined as it was broken open. A cash amount of $109.18 and stamps valued at $10 were taken.

On Friday, June 11, a safe was cracked at the Hillside Inn on Plymouth road and $459 was taken.

Mr. and Mrs. Eber Readman and family of Blunk street spent last weekend vacationing at Crawton Inn on Lake Erie.

16 Teachers Hired to Fill Fall Roster

Though it has been only three weeks since the Plymouth township public schools closed their doors, Superintendent of Schools Russell Isbister has already completed the faculty roster for next fall by securing 13 replacement teachers and teachers for three newly-created positions. One other teacher will return after a year's leave of absence.

A state-wide shortage of teachers still exists and many schools will be searching for replacements as school opens next September, but Plymouth's teacher turnover was not only comparatively small this year, but the job of finding replacements proved not too difficult. Part of the credit for the small turnover, the superintendent stated, should go to the public which expresses its faith in the profession by recognizing teaching as a profession.

Major factors which have caused resignations here include women teachers who must move when their husbands get jobs elsewhere and those married women teachers who choose to rear a family.

The three new jobs starting next fall are high school English, junior high vocal music and elementary grade librarian. Gloria

Local Businesses Begin Remodeling

Two remodeling projects are underway in the city, one at Community Pharmacy and the other at Willoughby Brothers. C. Wiltse of Community Pharmacy reports the addition of a new, more-modern fountain which he feels will service people better, be handier for the employees and enhance the appearance of the store.

Willoughby's has undergone extensive alterations in the rear of the store. The entire back wall has been ripped away, and the shoe-repair department moved to the basement, according to Robert Willoughby. A new entrance to this department from the parking lot will be constructed, and drive-in service for shoe repair will be featured. In addition, there will be a new entrance from the parking lot to the main part of the store. Plans are being drawn up for future remodeling, but have not reached the blue-print stage as yet.

To Hold Services For William Bake

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. today, July 1, for William S. Bake, well known resident of Plymouth for the past 40 years. Mr. Bake, who was prominent in civic affairs, passed away on Monday morning in the Henry Ford hospital, Detroit, following a long illness.

Mr. Bake was born in Jefferson county, Ohio in 1881. Following his graduation from the National Normal university at Lebanon, Ohio, he served as principal of public schools at Laurelton, Ohio while taking his post graduate work at Mount Union college. In 1903 he entered the civil engineering service for the Pennsylvania railroad in Pittsburgh.

His railroad work took him to Grand Rapids in 1907, and in 1909 he was made a life member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, an honor resulting from his many constructive engineering efforts in the Midwest and Southern states during the period from 1903 to 1906.

He came to Plymouth in 1914. Until 1946, Mr. Bake was general

Attendant Parking Begins on Tuesday

Newer Fire Siren Replaces New One

Plymouth's "bigger and louder" fire siren which was installed only four months ago on the downtown water tank quickly ended its term of service here last week when the motor burned out, apparently due to heavy rain.

Since the siren was guaranteed water-proof, the Chicago manufacturer agreed to make a replacement but delivery could not be made for 10 days. Fire Chief Robert McAllister shortened delivery time by nine days by hopping into a city car and driving to Chicago to personally pick up the siren.

When residents heard a fire siren scream last Thursday night for only 30 seconds, they heard the new siren being tested.

Drill Test Well In Water Search

An attempt will be made within the next few days to locate another well field for Plymouth by drilling a test well on optioned land.

City Manager Albert Glassford said that a test well will be drilled late this week or early next week on a 10-acre plot owned by C. H. Wines, located near Six Mile and Beck roads. The city has an option on the land and will undoubtedly purchase the acreage should the well show adequate water.

The present city well field is located about a half mile south of the drilling site. Although the city has enough water to take care of present needs, the city commission has asked for expanded water sources to take care of increasing demands. Industry is especially asking for greater amounts.

City commissioners have also turned down numerous requests to allow more water taps for homes outside the city limits on the grounds that they must first insure adequate supply to water users in the city.

The Detroit House of Correction recently turned down Plymouth's request to lease or purchase land which could be used for a well field.

Property Owners Can Expect City Tax Bills Today

Thirty-five hundred Plymouth property owners will open their mailboxes today or tomorrow and find a brown envelope which will mean unhappy tidings for their pocketbooks, but will keep the city government and its services functioning for another year.

The envelopes contain the annual tax notices which were dropped in the mail yesterday by the city treasurer, Charles Gallet.

A total of $241,346.69 will be flowing into the treasurer's office should the collection be 100 per cent. But there are always several delinquent taxpayers and their tax bill will be fixed two per cent after the August 10 deadline. Another penalty of one per cent will be added for each succeeding delinquent month.

Taxpayers will note that the city rate has gone up a half mill since last year's payment. The rate is now $15.50 for each $1,000 of valuation. The half mill (or 50 cents per $1,000 valuation) was added to finance the repayment of $97,000 worth of Middle Rouge Interceptor Sewer bonds which were sold last March.

The $241,346 collected through these taxes represent about two-thirds of the amount needed to operate the city government during the fiscal year which begins today. The other third is derived from fees, permits and licenses, receipts from other agencies, sales of services, rentals, fines and penalties.

Here's how the city will spend your tax dollars this year:

About $101,700, (27.5 per cent) will go for general government; $10,000 (2.8 per cent) for buildings and structures; $114,090 (30.9 per cent) for public works; $110,990 (30.1 per cent) for public safety; $4,700 (1.3 per cent) for health and welfare; $8,700 (2.3 per cent) for parks and recreation; $8,451 (2.3 per cent) for debt retirement; and $9,910 (2.7 per cent) for retirement.

hours of free parking in the lot. Other parking lot users will pay 10 cents for the first two hours, and five cents for each additional hour.

City commissioners gave their approval to the experiment last week. Although city personnel will be operating the lot, merchants are underwriting the test up to 90 days and will stand behind any losses.

Present parking meters will not be removed but will not be in effect during the test.

Final plans have established one entrance and one exit for the lot. The only entrance will be the alleyway between Peterson, Deane and the D. E. Co. off Ann Arbor trail. Cars will follow the drive around the lot to a point at the northwest corner. There, an attendant will be stationed and motorists entering the parking area will be given a parking check.

Just as in downtown Detroit parking lots, the parking check will be stamped with a time clock and payment will be made according to the hours a car is parked in the lot. Upon leaving, the car must again pass the attendant where the fee is paid, but the only exit will be along the alleyway at the extreme northwest corner of the lot which leads to Harvey street. The other alley to Harvey street will be blocked off.

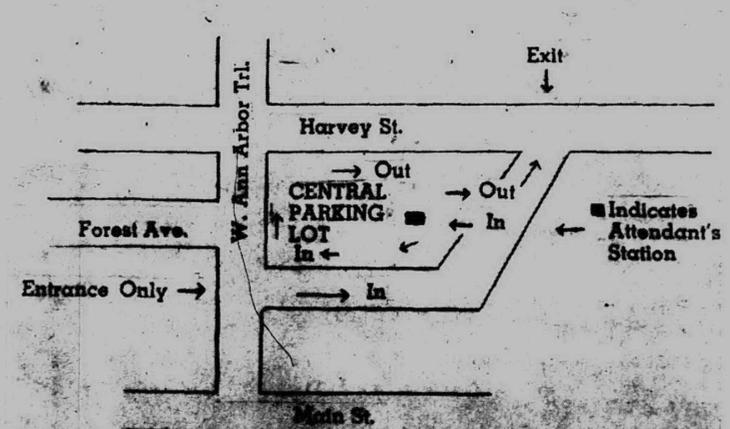

Here's how a customer can receive free parking.

Participating merchants have purchased stamps from the city. The stamps have a value of 10 cents each, enough for the first two hours of parking. Retail merchants have agreed to place a stamp on a customer's parking check with purchases of $3 or more. Only one stamp will be honored by the attendant.

As an example, a customer parks in the lot and receives a parking check. He shops in a store and makes a purchase of $5. The merchant places a stamp on the back of the parking check. The customer then perhaps shops at five other stores and makes similar large purchases. He will receive no more stamps. After three hours, he returns to the car, and presents his parking check to the attendant as he leaves the lot. The attendant will give the motorist two hours (10 cents ation to Courtney Spencer) had fled the state but a telephone call was received by Plymouth police Wednesday morning from an attorney who said that he was representing Ray Courtney and that his client would give himself up.

Wayne county sheriff's detectives are investigating the case because the theft of the checks took place outside the city. When Courtney Spencer presented the check at the Kroger store, the clerk took it for approval to Miss Lucille Zauha, who is in charge of the check cashing booth. The store manager, Roland Widmayer, was also present.

The Wall Wire Products check looked suspicious to Miss Zauha because the written amount was out of place. She then compared signatures of the check's writer with another Wall Wire check and they did not match. As Spencer waited patiently, Widmayer called Wall Wire and learned that the company was

250 Blank Checks Stolen from Wall Wire Give Start to Short - Lived Forgery Business

A potentially profitable business of forging and cashing 250 checks stolen from the Wall Wire Products company here was abruptly ended last Friday afternoon when one of the three men allegedly involved in the ring was arrested through the alertness of a Kroger store cashier.

Courtney Spencer, 30, Walled Lake, stepped up to a Kroger check-out counter operated by Mrs. Howard Green and produced a $74 check to pay for a carton of cigarettes. Today, he is being held in Wayne county jail along with Burt Gooch, 50, of 736 Penman avenue, on a charge of uttering and publishing (passing forged checks).

A search has also been going on for Ray Spencer, 30, of Livonia. He was named by Courtney Spencer as being involved in the forgery operations. It was first believed that Ray Spencer (no ra-

28 Area Wells Now in Progress

No fewer than 28 wells are being drilled in the area northwest of Plymouth which centers around the Washtenaw, Oakland and Wayne county intersection.

According to the drilling activity reports compiled by the "Oil and Gas News" magazine, the largest share of the drilling is taking place in Salem township, Washtenaw county. Twelve wells are in progress there.

Lyon township in Oakland county is also a busy place for drillers. There are 10 rigs at work there. In nearby Novi township, Oakland county, five wells are being drilled. Only one well is now being attempted in Northville township, Wayne county. There are several other wells which are not in these totals which are either producing, been found dry or were capped.

The latest discovery was made in Salem township by W. C. Taggart, original wildcatter in that area. Named the Kehrl-LeMaster well, it is estimated by Taggart to be a 100 barrel a day producer despite rumors that it is much better. The Roy LeMaster well, first and still the biggest in the area, is flowing at a restricted rate of 600 barrels a day.

The Rotary delegation included President Louis Goddard, Harry Mohrmann and Larry Lyons.

Library Plans to Offer New Series of Film Presentations for Summer

Another service to be offered by the Dunning Branch of the Wayne County Library, according to Mrs. Agnes Pauline, librarian, is a film program each Wednesday throughout the summer. The first program will start July 7, consisting of two sessions, one at 2 p.m. for children through the eighth grade, and the teenage and adult-session starting at 7 p.m. The former children's room will now serve as a projection room for the films.

If sufficient interest warrants it, the programs may be continued through the fall, particularly the adult program. The films being shown are from the Wayne County Library's Audio-Visual Center, a new department which was organized less than a year ago. The Audio-Visual Center now has over 500 film titles available to schools, business and social groups and organizations in Wayne county.

Beginning at 2 p.m. July 7, the first program will be mainly for children and consist of the following films: "Water Safety," "Canoe Country," and "Three Wishes." "Canoe Country" will be shown again, in addition to "Mighty Muskie" and "The Loon's Necklace," for the teenagers and adults at the evening session starting at 7 p.m. On Wednesday, July 14, "Pacific 231" (Arthur Honnegar's symphonic poem portraying visually and musically his impressions of a train ride through the French countryside) and "Thomas Jefferson" (as statesman, diplomat, man of let-

Assault In Car Charged by Wife

Charges of assault and battery were brought against Jack Travis, 40, of 6515 Canton Center road, by his wife following an incident at Main street and Ann Arbor trail last Saturday morning. Police said that Travis struck his wife several times as they sat in their car and that Mrs. Travis jumped from the car and fled. A warrant was filed for the arrest of Travis and he was arrested in Adrian later that day. Plymouth police drove to Adrian and brought him back. The defendant was heard before Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo Monday. He was given a fine of $15, placed under probation for two years during which he is to refrain from drinking intoxicants and is to pay $15 per week for the support of his children.

Family Plans Vacation Of Uranium Prospecting

How about uranium hunting for an exciting, and maybe profitable, vacation? That's what Mr. and Mrs. Vern Sturm and their two children of 9464 Elmhurst have planned for their three-week holiday. Complete with Geiger counter the Sturms will set out on July 10 to explore the Colorado Plateau in search of valuable uranium.

Prize-Winning Dog Lost Since Friday

During a thunderstorm last Friday a white and lemon prize-winning pointer strayed away from his home at 21633 Beck road, Northville. The dog, Champion Sun Fire of Franfield, is owned by J. P. Malley. Now 13 years of age, the pointer is too old to hunt or show any longer. In his prime, however, he was one of the greatest show-winning pointers of his day and twice came away with "best in the show" honors. The dog is now a pet of the Malley family. Malley said that the pointer answers to the name of "Sonny" and urges that anyone seeing the dog report it to him. A cash reward or a puppy has been offered by Malley for "Sonny's" return.

Attractions Mean Distractions For the Man Behind the Wheel

Distractions cause 75 per cent of all automobile accidents, according to a prominent woman traffic judge. Window shopping, looking at pretty girls, settling squabbles among children in the back seat, headwiveling conversations with passengers, lighting a cigarette—these are the things that cause accidents, in the opinion of Judge Geraldine F. Macelwane, of the Toledo, Ohio, Municipal Court. Hearing 80 to 120 traffic violation cases a day, she qualifies as an expert on human behavior behind the wheel. In 1953, she heard 7,300 traffic cases. "It takes only a second of distraction on the part of the driver to cause a serious injury or death," Judge Macelwane points out. "If a moving car is left unguided, even for a second, a serious accident can result." She cited the example of a tearful and trembling young mother who recently appeared in her court. The mother had made the common mistake of allowing her small child to stand on the front seat beside her. "As the driver of the car ahead signalled an intention to turn left, the child diverted the mother's attention for an instant—long enough for the car ahead to stop for oncoming traffic," Judge Macelwane said. "The woman crashed into it, the child required hospital treatment, and she was hailed into my court on a reckless driving charge." Improving the driver's knowledge and attitudes is more important than punitive action in such cases, Judge Macelwane believes. "Although women can rally public support for enforcement and engineering advances, they can be even more effective in reducing accidents by focusing attention on more common dangers, like distraction," she says. One among every ten active registered nurses is enrolled with Red Cross for community service in case of local emergency needs, such as epidemics or disasters.

Northville Wins

Northville VFW handed Wall Wire a first defeat of the year in a softball game in the Class B league. Northville won handily by a 9 to 2 count. Wall Wire, who scored all 12 runs in one inning last week to defeat Daisy, just didn't have it last week.

Northville started out fast and marked up 6 counters in the first two innings on 6 hits, 3 walks and two sacrifices. Ash had a triple and a single for the winners with Light contributing a double and a single and Wallace getting two singles.

Atchinson tossed the entire game for the winners allowing 6 hits in striking out 2 and walking 2. Reeves was the loser and was touched for 10 hits as he struck out one man and walked 5 men.

Fox had two singles for the losers in two official times at bat.

Late Rally Wins

The Barnes, Gibson & Raymond team in the Men's Softball league fell apart in the last inning and the Plymouth Merchants won by a lop-sided 14 to 1 score last Thursday evening on the diamond behind the high school. The winners counted 7 runs in the last inning on 4 hits, 3 walks and an error. Harold Secord had a single and a double in this frame besides pitching two-hit ball to win this game.

Secord struck out 3, walked 1 and hit 1 batsman with Ward being charged with the loss.

Jay Daggett led the stickers with 3 hits in 5 times at bat; McIntyre and Secord had two each. A single in the sixth inning following an error scored the losers lone run.

Township Civil Defense Meets U. S. Standards

The Plymouth township Civil Defense office has met U. S. Civil Defense requirements, announced Leo F. Flowers, director of Plymouth township Civil Defense. Flowers said that this is important in that the U. S. government will pay one-half the price of equipment when an active Civil Defense organization meets the standards.

Arrangements have been made between the local township office and Thomas Fitzgerald, Director of Civil Defense of Ann Arbor, to aid each other in the time of attack or disaster. A similar arrangement has been made with Detroit.

Director Flowers will attend the next Wayne county Civil Defense meeting in Dearborn on July 7. Directors from all the cities and townships of the county are expected to attend.

Flowers also announced that he had been invited to witness the next atomic bomb test in 1955, and that Ralph B. Guy, former Chief of Police and municipal judge of Dearborn, has been appointed legal advisor to the Plymouth township Civil Defense organization.

Sport Glances

by "Professor" Edgar Brown

Hundreds are taking advantage of the cool swimming pool on these blistering hot days, according to Pool Director John McFall. In fact, there were so many youngsters in the first three grades division that the class had to be split up into two four-week sessions with 100 the first month and another the second month. Of course 100 is too many for a beginning class in swimming, so that had to be divided into two half-hour sessions of 50 each.

All this division was tried to be done in an orderly way, but there were some complaints regarding vacations, etc. One must realize that a program has to be orderly, and for the good of all, must be of a convenient size. Someone may not get the swimming time he wants, but he must realize that the swimming instructors are doing everything possible to give everyone an opportunity to swim. It is quite a problem.

The Plymouth Merchants team in the Inter-County league are doing very well this season having won 6 and lost 3 to date with one-half the season over. Sunday the Merchants played exceptionally well in downing Grandale 3 to 2. If any baseball fan is looking for some good games to watch he should take himself to a nearby park on Sunday and watch these games. The teams are good and provide a lot of high-class baseball.

The big Fourth of July Celebration is nearly here again. Each year the kiddies and grownups look forward to this anniversary of our national independence with great anticipation. It isn't quite like the celebrations in the old days when we could purchase all sorts of firecrackers in any store and have a big display in our backyard, but it is safer now, and the Chamber of Commerce does put on a gigantic display of fireworks under the expert guidance of the fire department.

The kids do look forward to the fireworks and the carnival, and it is nice that the Chamber of Commerce puts on such a festival as Plymouth has—this is one holiday that never should be taken for granted and in a passive way, for it means so much to America and Americans.

The teams in the Men's Softball league this year are on a more even basis than heretofore. Any one of three or four teams could come out on top in this final local league. Games are played each Monday and Thursday night on the field at the rear of the high school, and many fans take advantage of the good band of ball played there. It is impossible to tell just how many see these as more sit in cars outside the fence than on the bleachers provided even though there is no admission charge.

SPORTS FLASHES
From The Sporting News by J. & Taylor Spink

Although Roy Campanella previously announced he had decided against a post-season barnstorming trip, the Dodgers catcher has changed his mind and will make another tour next October, reports THE SPORTING NEWS. The trip will be far more extensive than any he has headed in the past. Campanella revealed that the jaunt will take him to Hawaii, Manila, Japan and Central America. Campy said he would try to interest Curt Simmons and Robin Roberts in making the trip, indicating it would be worth $7000 to each of the Phillies pitchers.

Milwaukee continues to mean money—big money—to visiting clubs. Leo Ward of the Cardinals says that the $30,000 check he picked up in Sudsville for a recent series with the Braves was the largest he had taken out of a city since he became traveling secretary of the Redbirds back in 1938. And Bob Rice, the road secretary of the Pirates, was handed a $20,000 check for the Bucs' share over the June 5 weekend, which represented the largest taken by a Pittsburgh club in Rice's eight years on the job.

Five years ago, Gabe Paul, general manager of the Reds, claims Branch Rickey, then with the Dodgers, offered him $300,000 for Herman Wehmeier. On June 11, this year, Herman was sold to the Phils for a wee trifle over the $10,000 waiver price.

Baseball's newest iron man, 28-year-old Eddie Yost of the Senators, has played more than 700 consecutive games since July 6, 1949, which is only nine years behind Lou Gehrig's record of 2,130 games in a row for the Yankees.

The National League's No. 1 swing team, the Cardinals, leading in team batting, hits, runs and total bases—has a jukebox in its clubhouse presided over by Doc Harrison Weaver, the club's veteran trainer. Just before the June 15 swapping deadline, Weaver labeled one of the numbers on the juke box "June 15" as a gag. When a player pressed that number the machine played the record, "You're Gone."

If you like to take family shots around the house and have been coming up with stilted, startled and stary-eyed subjects peering out of your pictures, it's high time you tried bounce flash for its relaxed and highly satisfying results. Careful shots are far easier with this technique and your exposure problems are reduced to next-to-nothing. You can work in high or low key and, additionally, the bounce flash lighting doesn't tend to drop off suddenly behind the subject, leaving him bathed in a stark, harsh light like an escapee atop a prison wall.

There are two basic means of handling bounce flash. First, you can leave the flash on the camera and merely point it ceiling-ward or you can take the flash bulb off the camera and use it in a reflector attached to an extension cord.

Kids particularly look kindly on this lighting method as it does away with the discomfort of direct flash or flood. It's a good technique, folks; simple and rewarding. Try it. A visit to THE PHOTOGRAPHIC CENTER will also be rewarding, for we can SAVE you time, SAVE you money, and SAVE you disappointments. No matter what your Photographic Problems bring them to 821 West Ann Arbor Trail and let us SAVE THE DAY for you.

Set July 12 Golf Deadline

Plymouth golfers may have a real battle on their hands to retain the city title within Plymouth's boundaries this year as Tournament Chairman L. B. Rice reports a number of entries from the surrounding area. "We're getting several entries from Northville and Livonia and competition should be keener in all flights," Rice stated.

Dates for the annual Chamber of Commerce event are July 17 and 18 at Bob O'Link golf course. Entry fee for the two days' play is $5.00 and entries may be made at the AAA office, Berry & Archison, Davis & Lent, Bob O' Link, Plymouth Mail, Chamber of Commerce office. In Northville golfers may sign up at Turnball Electric and Marr Taylor Ford agency. Deadline for entries has been set as Monday, July 12. This will allow publication of the July 17 qualifying round starting times in the July 15 edition of The Mail.

Kelly Cops Elks Event

At the recent annual decathlon, which is sponsored each year by the local Elks club, Jerry Kelly won the senior division award with a record of 9620 points. The intermediate division crown was taken by Kenneth Calhoun with 9360 points; and Myron Hopper copped the junior crown with 8805 points. Each boy was awarded a gold medal for winning his division title.

The decathlon, a meet consisting of 10 events—chinup, standing broad jump, 100 yard dash, situps, broad jump, high jump, standing hop, step and jump, running hop, step and jump, shot put and pushups, in which each contestant is awarded points according to the time, distance or performance he does, has many keen competitors each year. This year nearly 100 boys participated in the events.

The decathlon is divided into three age groups according to grades. Those in the 7th and 8th grades compete against each other, as do those in the 9th and 10th, and those in the 11th and 12th grades.

In all divisions this year 10 gold medals were awarded for top performances, with 23 silver and 6 bronze medals going to those doing better than average work. Besides the winner, Kelly, in the senior division, Russell Mecklenburg was second with 9580 points, and Lee Juve was third with 9525—each received a gold medal.

Gold medals in the intermediate division were awarded to Ken Calhoun, John Thomas, Ron Markham, Hal Becker, Bob Cloar and Tom Ferguson. Myron Hopper was the only contestant in the junior division to receive the gold award.

LaFontaine is the new team leader after scoring 17 hits against Champion Corrugated last week.

In Class B, Fox of Wall Wire leads with a perfect average of 6 hits in 6 times at bat. Carter, whose team did not play last week, still has a .625 average for second place. Daisy is the new team leader.

Hearst Tourney Here Next Week

Plymouth will play host to a number of Class D baseball teams in the Hearst National Junior District baseball championship next week in a tournament that begins Tuesday, July 6, on the local athletic field. The winner from here will advance to a tournament at Dearborn beginning on July 17.

Members of losing teams also have a chance to advance if they are good enough to be picked by managers for an all-star team that will also advance to the Dearborn tourney to play against like all-star teams picked from other districts. The team winner, and another all-star outfit will be picked from the Dearborn tourney to compete in the state finals at Briggs Stadium on Tuesday, July 20. The national finals are at the Polo Grounds in New York on August 11.

Other district playoffs will be at Adrian, Owosso and Port Huron. At Briggs Stadium the winners from the outstate tourney at Dearborn will compete against the Detroit champions.

The Hearst tourneys are sponsored locally by the Detroit Times.

Wall Wire, Daisy Lead In Class B

The Daisy team in the Class B Softball League came back with a vengeance after the unexpected defeat handed them by Wall Wire last week to drub Plymouth Stamping 23 to 5 last Wednesday evening.

Daisy scored in every inning but the fifth, and counted 11 runs in the first inning. Six hits plus three walks and two errors provided the big margin in the initial inning. Smith had a single and a triple in that inning for the victors.

Harold Williams tossed a steady game to chalk up his second win of the season as he yielded 7 hits, struck out 2 and walked 2 men. Zuehlke was the loser, and was replaced by Talick in the second inning.

B. Wriska led the Daisy hitters with 4 safeties in 5 times at bat. L. Wells had 3 as did Smith and Darnell.

Bennett had a home run for the losers.

The standings in this league are as follows:

Merchants Win On Late Rally

Pitcher Ed Hock batted and hurled the Plymouth Merchants nine to a 3 to 2 win over Grandale in as close a ball game as one will see for some time in the Inter-County League. The Merchants entrenched themselves more solidly in third place in this fast league, and barring a complete reversal of form during the last half of the season, practically assured the team a place in the league playoffs which begin on Sunday, September 5. To get in the championship playoffs a team must have a .500 percentage, and the Merchants now have a .6 won and 3 lost record for the season, and have yet to meet some of the weaker teams in the league.

Plymouth had to come from behind to win this game when the losers counted the lone two runs in the first inning as a fielder misjudged a fly ball, and then slipped and fell to the ground as the ball sailed over his head for a double. Three doubles in the first inning were good enough for the two runs which stood up for a 2 to 1 lead until the Merchants tied it up in the top of the sixth inning. In this inning, John Keros, a new fielder for the Merchants, hit a hot grounder to the shortstop, who let it trickle through his legs for an error. Al Moers sacrificed Keros to second from which he scored on a solid single to center by catcher Rousseaux.

The winning run was scored in the top of the ninth inning as Ed Hock socked a double to open the inning and scored on Kubitsky's single to right field. Plymouth had scored once in the first inning on three solid singles by Kubitsky, Krause and Keros.

Newcomer John Keros led the stickers with three singles in four trips to the plate. Hock and Kubitsky each had two hits with Krause and Rousseaux each having one bingo.

Hock struck out 9 men and walked one in limiting Grandale to 7 hits. He was in complete control after the first inning. The game was played with few errors on either side.

This weekend the Merchants play two games—one on Fourth of July Sunday at Riverside Park with Auto Club. This should be a good holiday game as Plymouth edged last year's champions 5 to 4 in an earlier game this year. The game begins at 3:30.

On Monday, July 5, the Merchants play Farris Furniture at Bell Creek Park on Inkster road and Five Mile. Farris defeated Plymouth in an earlier contest 4 to 1. This game is also at 3:30 in the afternoon.

Plymouth Third In Inter-County

With the season half completed in the Inter-County baseball league, Taylor Merchants and Wayne are tied for first place. Wayne dropped a game to Teamsters Sunday by a close 3 to 2 score to drop into a first place tie with Taylor, who downed the hapless Cubs by a surprisingly close 4 to 3 count.

Other games saw Farris Furniture winning over Northville 4 to 2; Plymouth downing Grandale 3 to 2; Auto Club trouncing Local 49 24 to 2; River Rouge winning over Dietrich, and Wyandotte and Food Fair playing to a 10-inning 2-all tie.

Sunday Auto Club plays Plymouth at Riverside Park at 3:30. Pete Olson, University of Wisconsin sophomore, who is now pitching for the Auto Club, is expected to pitch against Plymouth Sunday, Monday, July 5. Plymouth journeys to Bell Creek park for a game with Farris Furniture. The locals defeated Auto Club in the first game of the season 5 to 4, but lost to Farris 4 to 1 in a later game.

All teams with a .500 or better average at the end of the 20-game schedule will enter the championship playoffs beginning the first Sunday in September. Those under that percentage will compete in a consolation tourney.

The standings as of this week are as follows:

Team	W	L
Taylor Merchants	7	2
Wayne	7	2
Plymouth	6	3
Farris Furniture	6	3
Teamsters	6	3
River Rouge	6	3
Northville	5	4
Auto Club	5	4
Grandale	4	5
Wyandotte	3	5
Food Fair	3	5
Dietrich	2	7
Local 49	2	7

To Try Little League Ball

Little League baseball, which has been growing rapidly throughout the country the past few years, is going to be given a trial in Plymouth this year on a small scale. Softball Supervisor John Sandmann says that if enough boys under 12 years old are interested, a league of a few teams will be formed with the possibility of expanding next year into a full-fledged league.

Little League baseball was started a few years ago with the blessing of organized baseball, and has developed to such a state that these youngsters have their own world series each year. Locally the teams will be under the direction of the Recreation department.

Seventy lads were out to opening practice last week, and if anyone under 12 is interested he should come out to practice at 3 p.m. on Mondays and Wednesdays of each week at the high school athletic field. Everything is furnished except a glove.

The number of teams in the local league will depend upon the number of boys interested. A few games will be played on Tuesday nights under the lights later on in the season, according to Mr. Sandmann.

LaFontaine Pins Defeat On Champion Corrugated

The LaFontaine team went into a second-place tie with Olds as they easily won over Champion Corrugated 11 to 1 last Thursday night in a Men's softball game. The winners scored 3 in the sixth and 5 in the seventh innings to put the game away.

Two home runs—one each by Kethum and Wellman, the pitcher, featured the sixth inning attack. Wellman allowed but 4 hits, struck out 5 and walked one man. Don Huebler was leading batsman with 4 hits in 4 times at bat—two singles, a double and a triple; Wellman had 3 hits, and Garbowski, Ribblett and Kethum two apiece. Ron Hees had a triple for the losers.

Local Boys Take Office At Wolverine Boys' State

The three local boys, who attended the 17th annual Wolverine Boys' State at Michigan State college, were named to various official positions in the mythical 49th state. David Goss was named probate judge, Thomas Sawyer to serve on the State Board of Education, and Thomas Rowe, a member of the Board of County Supervisors.

They were among 1,000 high school boys from all over the state of Michigan participating in the annual "49th State" which is designed to instruct and educate the youths on the principles and values of a democratic and constitutional form of government.

Boys selected to attend the eight-day session are chosen for their qualities of leadership and good citizenship. Formed into two political parties (the Federalists and Nationalists) on their arrival at the campus, city and county groups were formed and the youthful participants elected their own officers.

Government Services, a new class discussion subject added to this year's schedule, took the interest of a majority of the 1,000 youth, who chose this topic above six other subjects which included Highways, Subversives, Conservation, Traffic Safety Programs and Citizenship.

At noon, Thursday, June 24, the entire assembly marched into Lansing where Wolverine Boys' State officers visited similar elective offices in the State Capitol. The newly elected Boys' State governor, Gerald Rider of Lansing, and his staff "took over" the operation of Michigan's capitol while sessions were being held by Senate, House, and Supreme Court in State Chambers.

Now in its 17th year, the American Legion in Michigan has sent 15,293 boys to take advantage of its youth training program based on the principles of good government.

Governor G. Mennen Williams; Michigan State College secretary, Karl H. McDonel; state Legion commander Billy R. Wickens of Midland; and the Legion's national Americanism chairman, J. Addington Wagner of Battle Creek all gave brief addresses.

LATEST IMPROVEMENT IN THE PROGRAM of increasing the efficiency of the Plymouth Post Office is the addition of 16 fluorescent lighting units over the mail sorting boxes. Installation of the lights was completed last week. Postmaster Timpona said that the new lights, besides being more restful on the eyes of post office employees, also cut down overhead. Shown at the top, left to right, are Ernest Henry, William Bauman, Ralph Cole, Roswell Tanger, George Wilson and Dr. Timpona. More mail sorting is being done by the carriers pictured at the bottom. They are, from the left, Charles Minthorn, Victor DeWulfe, Louis Robinson, Walter Nisley, James Greenwood and Buford Finley.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

RABIES

One of the most terrible diseases in the world is rabies. It is rampant in this country. "During the five year period between 1940 and 1945, 45,235 cases were reported in the United States, 90 per cent affecting dogs. Contamination by rabid animals jeopardized 150,000 human lives." Most of the infected ones were saved from developing hydrophobia by the "Pasteur" treatment. This is painful, takes time and is not only expensive, but lays the patient open to very dangerous complications at times.

The saliva of an infected animal contains a full dose of the poison. If this comes into contact with an open wound, the person can develop rabies.

Of course, our protection from the development of the dread disease is the Pasteur treatment. This involves a series of injections of anti-rabies vaccine. It is not 100 per cent effective. Sometimes after the treatment there is an aftermath of unpleasant effects.

Real danger arises if the injections are followed by paralysis. Usually this is of a temporary nature, but sometime it may persist and end fatally. The treatments are not reliable in every case. Occasionally, in spite of them, rabies will develop.

The British have completely suppressed rabies in England. This is proof positive that it can be done. Not a single case of rabies has been reported in Great Britain for about 27 years. The terrible sight of a mad dog running wild is completely unknown in the British Isles. There no human beings will die from being bitten by a mad dog.

Many years ago the British devised a method to eliminate rabies. They have stuck to their guns in spite of all sorts of opposition.

The poor victim of rabies suffers extreme pain and thirst, but when he attempts to drink he is thrown into the most violent convulsions. He almost suffocates and writhes in agony. His eyes bulge and death evades him for several days while he suffers unutterable torture. Rabies is incurable once it is developed and no power on earth can heal it.

A Layman Says...

He brought the ark into the tabernacle, and set up the veil of the covering, and covered the ark. (Exodus 40:21.)

The veil, that is to say, his flesh. (Hebrews 10:20)

The manger at Bethlehem did the glory of Christ's greatness, but it revealed the glory of His grace. The thirty years at Nazareth hid the glory of His majesty, but revealed the glory of His obedience and subjection. His unsatisfied hunger in the wilderness hid the glory of His creatorship, but revealed the glory of His trust in His Father. When our Lord was asleep in the boat, His weakness hid the glory of His diety, but revealed the glory of His perfect humanity. The tears He shed at the grave of Lazarus covered the glory of His supremacy over death, but they revealed the glory of His loving sympathy. The prayer He prayed in Gethsemane completely hid the glory of His might, but those words revealed the perfection of His obedience "unto death, even the death of the cross." Calvary covered the glory of His Sonship, but revealed the glory of His love.

We cling to Thee in weakness—the manger and the cross; We gaze upon Thy meekness, through suffering, pain and loss;

There see the Godhead glory shine through that human veil;

And, willing, hear the story of Love that came to heal.

Arthur Lock Revisits England After Absence of 45 Years

Revisiting England after 45 years are Mr. and Mrs. Arthur J. Lock of Russell street. The Locks, who are visiting some of the interesting spots where Mr. Lock spent his childhood, have written home to Plymouth some of their observations of the British way of life.

Lock writes that "there is little change in this country . . . We do not have the sunshine here that we have at home. It gets up to 70 degrees and the people say 'My, but it's hot.' All wear overcoats of Mackintoshes, which are a form of raincoat."

They described shopping in the Ringwood market, which they say hasn't changed in the 45 years. There would be a stand by the gutter with a burlap sack on it. It would be full of beef and liver. You just tell how many pounds you want, they take a knife and cut off the desired piece, wrap it in newspaper and you're ready to go home. If you want a nice finnon haddock they'll shoo the flies off and wrap it in newspaper for you, the Locks said.

As for food prices in Britain, the Locks said that oranges are from seven to 12 cents apiece, grapes are around 50 cents a pound, and steak is 60 cents a pound.

In one of his letters Mr. Lock told of the average day in the life of the English. He said that in the morning they quickly get their work done before the shops open, and then do their shopping. "If they stop in to a friend's house on the way they are given a cup of tea and cakes or bread and butter," Lock said that no less than 10 or 15 people stop into his mother's house for tea every day. Even the painter and insurance man will get their tea and cake.

State Police Urge Cautious Driving This Week End

With the heaviest Fourth of July traffic in history expected this week end, State Police operations have been geared to concentrate patrol coverage in the areas of congestion and high accident rates and pass days of all officers have been canceled to provide maximum enforcement strength.

"But even with the best efforts of every enforcement agency, we can still expect a heavy accident toll unless drivers cooperate by doing the very best job they know how at the wheel," said Commissioner Joseph A. Childs. "Traffic will be heavy and driving much more hazardous."

Childs pointed out that 30 persons lost their lives in highway accidents over the three-day Fourth of July week end last year as compared to 20 during the four-day Memorial holiday week end this year. The average for each summer week end last year was 22.5 deaths.

"Our Memorial holiday record indicated improvement and showed that when they wanted to drivers can do better," Childs stated. "It is our hope they make an even greater effort this week end to stay alive."

Childs urged drivers to plan their trips so that they do not have to rush, use extreme care in passing and "watch out for the other driver, because he can cause an accident, too."

"The only way to avoid an accident," he said, "is by driving as if your life depended upon it, because it does."

All State Police enlisted personnel, including detectives and others on special assignment, will be on duty, which will mean a 20 per cent increase in patrol strength over the week end.

Advice from Travelers Aid Can Make Your Vacation A Real Pleasure Trip

Plymouth people who are planning summer vacations may be interested in suggestions which Detroit Travelers Aid, a Torch Drive agency, is offering summer travelers. Mrs. Agnes Jackson, director of Detroit Travelers Aid, points out that 250 Plymouth people used Travelers Aid service last year. She believes that not only these but many others would appreciate some of the tips that experience has shown make vacations pleasanter.

"Most difficulties that vacationers run into are minor and easily straightened out," Mrs. Jackson said, "but of course no one wants to waste any of that precious vacation. While sudden illness, for instance, is unavoidable, there are many other situations which advance planning can avert."

One group of travelers in particular needs special attention, Mrs. Jackson emphasized. This is the group of young children traveling alone. "For a child who is mature enough," she said, "a train or bus trip alone can be a valuable part of the growing up process. But for children who are too young or inexperienced, such a trip can be an ordeal. She urged that trips for unaccompanied children be planned in advance with Travelers Aid. The workers will help arrange the most suitable schedule for the journey, assist the child in making changeovers without mishap, and insure that he is safely received at destination. This service can be given through the nationwide network of Travelers Aid. Similar help is needed for adults who are handicapped by reason of illness or old age, and of course Travelers Aid is equally at their service.

Here are the Travelers Aid Twelve Points for Vacationers:

1. Plan your trip in advance. Know about change points, and be sure your schedule allows enough time for this.
2. Have identification with you at all times, both on your person and in every piece of luggage. Make sure your identification shows who should be notified in any emergency.
3. Make sure that the hotel, friends or relatives with whom you're planning to stay expect you — and at a definite time and date. (Mrs. Jackson says this can't be stressed too strongly. Too often people plan for surprise visits, only to find that brother Tom and his wife and family have gone on their vacation, so a pleasure trip is a disappointment.)
4. If you're expecting to be met, specify the station at which you will arrive.
5. Take more money than you expect to need, and don't keep it all in one place. (Every pick-pocket knows about the man's billfold in his hip pocket.)
6. Remember that time zones change as you travel across the country, and that the uneven pattern of daylight saving time adds extra complications.
7. Don't overpack. Take what you need, but no more. Try to take only as much luggage as you can handle yourself.
8. Tell at least one close friend where you're going. It may be vital to reach you in a hurry.

And, if feasible, leave your house key with a trusted friend or neighbor. They can check occasionally to be sure that everything is in order.

9. If you have been ill, check with your doctor as to whether the trip is safe. Carry an extra prescription if you must take medication.
10. When traveling with children, be sure to take a few of their favorite toys. A simple first aid kit is important — pack it where you can get at it.
11. If you must wear glasses, have an extra pair with you. And it's a good idea to take along a copy of your lens prescription. There's no point in traveling hundreds of miles to see the sights, and then not be able to see them.
12. If something goes wrong despite all your planning, lose no time in getting in touch with Travelers Aid. Trouble en route can happen to anyone, and it's much harder to handle when you're in unfamiliar surroundings. Look for the blue and white lamp that means service to travelers — easily found in major rail stations or bus depots.

"Use these suggestions as a check list," suggests Mrs. Jackson, "and you'll find your vacation trip can go more smoothly. If you want to check with Travelers Aid in advance, we're on duty at the New York Central station, the Union depot, and the Greyhound bus terminal seven days a week from 7 in the morning until 10:30 at night."

SOON TO GO UP in a cloud of smoke is this old garage being dismantled by members of the Plymouth and Plymouth Township Fire departments. The reason for such antics lies in the part this building will play in the Independence Day celebration. The fateful hour for the garage is 3:30 p.m. Monday, when it will be soaked with kerosene and ignited as part of the Firemen's Exhibit. The firemen will then demonstrate their ability to extinguish the blaze. Formerly located behind the library, the building was torn down and moved piecemeal to the high school athletic field, where it was set up once more in preparation for the celebration.

Smith was among a large group of teachers who were interviewed by announcer Jack LesCooley outside the famous window studio. Smith, who teaches chemistry and physics, will be next year's president of the Plymouth Teachers club.

Durable Highway Signs

Numerous state, county and city highway departments use Tempered Preswood for signs because the material has a low initial cost and the maintenance costs are small while the life of the signs is long.

250 Blank Checks

not yet issuing checks with the high number on the Spencer check. A subsequent look at the company's blank checks showed that 250 were missing.

An alarm system from the Kroger store to the police station was sounded and Spencer was in custody within a few minutes. Gooch, who was arrested later that day, denies any connection with the forgeries. All three men are or were employees of Wall Wire. Courtney Spencer was laid off a year ago. He claims that the check he attempted to pass at Kroger's was his first.

Meanwhile, four other forged checks have returned here through clearing houses up until Wednesday noon. One was reported cashed in Pontiac and another in Birmingham.

Spencer and Gooch appeared before Justice of the Peace George Wicklund of Dearborn township last Tuesday where they were placed under $4,000 bond each. They have been unable to post the bond.

A sheriff's detective indicated that there may be others besides these three men involved.

"Yes," said the old man. "I'll be ninety-six tomorrow, and I haven't an enemy in the world." "A beautiful thought," answered the new vicar.

"Yes, sir," went on the old man. "I've outlived them all."

real estate agent for the Pere Marquette railroad. Following his retirement from the railroad in 1946 he devoted his time and interest to civic and community affairs, serving for several years on the Plymouth City Planning Commission and the Zoning Board of Appeals.

His first Plymouth home was on Penniman avenue. He later purchased, improved and finally subdivided a 70-acre farm on South Main street, creating the Maplecroft subdivision. Here the Bake family lived until 1950. At the time of his death he resided at 15435 Lakeside drive.

Surviving are his wife, Jessie; one son, William of Northville; one daughter, Mrs. Barbara Stecker of Plymouth; four grandchildren; and two sisters, Miss Alma L. Bake of Cleveland, Ohio and Mrs. Sara L. Allen of Monongahela, Pennsylvania.

The funeral will be held from the Sonderegger Funeral home with the Reverend Ray P. Norton of Plymouth officiating. Pallbearers will be Herbert Harms, Clarence Moore, Craig Bowlby, Fred Ballen, Charles Adams and Steven Harholdt. Interment will be in Riverside cemetery.

 The spiritual basis of Man's true independence will be emphasized at Christian Science services Sunday in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God."
 Among the passages to be read from the King James Version of the Bible is the following (Isaiah 33:22): "For the Lord is our judge, the Lord is our lawgiver, the Lord is our king; he will save us."

 Going to Church is NOT a patriotic duty; it is a distinct PRIVILEGE in a Christian nation like ours. The primary reason for going to Church regularly is that we permit our Heavenly Father to feed our souls with the Bread and Water of Life, His holy Word. As a natural consequence the changed individual, the Child of God, will be a better citizen for being a faithful Christian. YOUR soul is important to God and to us; COME, worship with us!

Rocket Lily Blossoms
 Of interest to flower lovers is the "rocket" lily presently blooming in the garden of Mrs. Henrietta Gerst, 41680 Wilcox road. Mrs. Gerst purchased the bulb last year and this year the two stalks have been covered with large, lovely orange blossoms, 12 on the one shoot, and six on the other.
 The plant has been in full bloom for the past two weeks, although some of the blossoms have now begun to fall.

Grange Cleanings
 Tonight is the picnic so hurry and get ready. It is to be in Riverside park, north of Plymouth road bridge. Entrance may be through the park from Ann Arbor road or from Northville road or from Schoolcraft road. If it is raining we will meet at the Grange hall as usual, as near 6:30 as possible.
 Mr. Hodge is at home now and gets about in a wheel chair quite well.

V.F.W. News

The Post is planning a barbecue picnic on Sunday, July 25 at the V.F.W. Post hall. Tickets are available from any Post member or from ticket chairman Lee Coolman. Plan to keep that date open and watch this column for further information.

About 15 Post and Auxiliary members attended the Department Encampment at Grand Rapids. Gertrude Danol acted as page for department President, Ethel Gagner and Virginia Bartel represented the Auxiliary as department cancer chairman. Some of the highlights of the three-day sessions were as follows: On Friday, June 18, they held a joint memorial service at which Governor G. Mennen Williams spoke. On Sunday, the election of department officers was held with these results: Janet Hutzel, president; Frances Hugener, senior vice-president; and Clarissa Leeding, junior vice-president. Our Auxiliary was awarded a trophy for our publicity chairman's scrapbook. For this we wish to thank the Plymouth Mail for the wonderful cooperation they have given us.
 The Auxiliary to Post 5853, District No. 11 at Houghton Lake, took home a total of six trophies, one of which was for contributing the greatest amount of money per member to the National Cancer Fund. They announced also during the Encampment that the Department of Michigan, Ladies Auxiliary presented a $500 scholarship to Frank Smith, one of our V.F.W. National Home graduates.

CELEBRATING THEIR 50th wedding anniversary on June 29 are Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rowe of Miami, Florida. They are seated at the entrance to their former home, 39936 Ford road, Plymouth, where they lived for 22 years. The house, built in 1837, was the home of Mr. Rowe's parents, Emma and Henry B. Rowe. The latter couple lived here for over 50 years. An open house was held Saturday for Mr. and Mrs. Otis Rowe in celebration of the event. Ninety-six guests were in attendance.

Tuberculosis Rate Lower Here

Fewer people in Plymouth caught tuberculosis in 1953 than they did in previous years, figures compiled by the Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Wayne County Health Department show.

Last year in Plymouth there were 16 people who were discovered to have TB and two people died. In 1952 there were 43 people who were found to have TB. In Canton Township two people caught TB and one person died in 1953 as compared to four new cases in 1952.

Medical science is aiding in the reduction of deaths from TB which is the No. 1 killer among the infectious diseases today. An enlightened people who take more care with their health and know the value of periodic X-ray examinations of their chests are helping to find the disease early and preventing the spread of it to other children and adults.

The TB and Health Society, which is supported through your purchase of double bar cross Christmas Seals during the holiday season, is continuously at work to educate both children and adults in the importance of being aware of TB. It also works with physicians and health departments in an effort to ferret out TB cases. The more cases which can be taken out of the community early the less chance for infection.

As an example, an epidemic of TB swept a small town in upper New York state recently. Both children and adults were catching the disease at an alarming rate. After an investigation which revealed the police work of Sergeant Friday of TV fame it was found that a school teacher was the source of the infection which had periled the entire community.

The TB and Health Society is constantly alert and works to keep other agencies alert to the dangers of the idea that "TB is licked." TB is a constant threat as long as one case remains in a town.

Livonia had two more cases of tuberculosis in 1953 than it did in the previous year, figures compiled by the Tuberculosis and Health Society and the Wayne County Health Department show.

Livonia had 14 new cases in 1952 and 16 new cases in 1953. With the rapid increase in population in the city additional care must be taken by the citizens to guard themselves and their families against the disease.

A hair perhaps divides the false and true.

Chips from the Rock

The first mass invasion of summer traffic is now being felt on the highways of northern Michigan. The towns along the Huron shore line are flooded with visitors from down below and traffic roars at a terrific pace up and down the scenic, sprawling pavements.

There probably is no more appropriate time than now to again warn our readers of the dangers they will encounter in travelling on the weekend of the Fourth.

First, it might be well to point out that local business and civic leaders have put forth a mighty effort to provide amusement for our citizenry right here at home this next weekend and it isn't absolutely necessary to fight the traffic to enjoy the holiday.

If you must travel, it might be well to take stock of yourself and make sure, for your own personal safety and that of others, that you can't be classed as a heel at the wheel.

Probably the best summation of the crux of the whole traffic problem came from the President's Conference on Highway Safety when it was agreed that: "If we can figure out how to 'tighten' the loose nut behind the wheel our troubles will be solved."

One might well go further and add: If the loose nut can't be tightened, the only other answer seems to be an action program on a national level, to remove loose nuts from behind the wheels.

The National Safety Council, which is coordinating a nationwide Fourth of July safety campaign, holds up six mirrors. If you can see yourself in any of them, then be prepared to become a holiday statistic.

The Me-First—this is the selfish competitive character who must be first away from the traffic light, can't stand to have anyone pass him, and risks the life of anyone who gets in his way.

The Big I—this is the fellow who is too big for the rules. Others can obey the law and a code of decent and courteous behavior, but not this self-inflated big shot. He's above all that.

The Know-It-All—this driver is good, in his own estimation. He knows just what the other driver is going to do, just how fast he can stop, just how much room he needs to cut in on another car. But the only way this over-confident jerk escapes painful disillusionment is that the really good drivers give him a wide berth.

The Swashbuckler—this fellow thinks he expresses his masculinity or something by living dangerously behind the wheel. He believes that he who hesitates is lost, and that his luck will hold forever.

The Sorehead—this fellow is just plain hostile. He drives with a chip on his shoulder and is ready to lock fenders for any real or imagined wrong. He's sore at everyone, and very brave while surrounded by a steel automobile with the windows rolled up.

The Show-Off—this is the exhibitionist. He's graduated from no hands on a bike to no sense at the wheel. He just wants people to admire his flashy performance, but most other drivers are too busy getting out of his way.

Take a good, long look at yourself in one of these mirrors. See anything?

A heel at the wheel gets by because the good drivers give him the margin of safety he fails to give himself. But the heavy Fourth of July traffic will reduce that margin. Watch it!

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"What has been your favorite vacation trip or place of vacationing?"

MRS. W. B. DOWNING, 288 North Harvey: "I just got back from a trip to California. I drove out and flew back. There is plenty to see with hardly a dull moment. I would recommend the trip to anybody."

ROBERT O. STEVENSON, 232 Maple: "I came to Plymouth quite a few years ago from Kentucky where I was born and I combine trips to visit relatives with a vacation in Kentucky and Tennessee. There is plenty to see in those states. I would say that they are just as good for vacationing as Michigan but Michigan is just as good as they are."

HAROLD ANSTICE, 209 Ann: "I have no particular place I like best. I would like to go to Florida but in Michigan I like the central part or around Cheboygan. Michigan is every bit as good for vacations as other places."

MRS. WILLIAM EASTLAKE, 36609 Ann Arbor trail: "We go to Mirror State park near Pentwater, which is south of Ludington. It has everything you need for a good vacation spot."

Roger Babson Makes Forecast For Last Six Months of 1954

Babson Park, Massachusetts. While most of the columnists and business counselors last December forecast a depression for 1954, I constantly insisted that 1954 would be a "fair business year." This you will find in my Forecast which then appeared in this paper.

GENERAL BUSINESS

(1) Despite my general optimism with regard to prospects for business during the last half-year, there will be many cross-currents. The improvement over the first six months will be no one-way street. Some industries will lag, or fall behind. Others are slated for betterment. Building has held up well, and was the backbone of business in the first half of 1954. The momentum generated should carry through the balance of the year.

(2) Also deserving of attention as in line for continued high activity, or for improvement, are the following industries: Electric power output, aircraft production, rubber manufacturing, household equipment, electrical equipment, petroleum, natural gas, shoes, and textiles. Even the sick coal industry will enjoy some pickup from the very depressed levels experienced during the first six months of 1954.

(3) Due to slip further down, or slated to show the least improvement, are the following industries: Machinery, machine tools, railroad equipment, metal fabricating, steel and iron, and autos and auto parts. In particular, auto output will not match the first half, with competition keener in the last half than at any time since the 1930's.

SALES AND INVENTORIES

(4) As in the case of general business discussed above, sales prospects will rule selective. With purchasing power holding well, demand for food products and soft goods will remain at a brisk pace. The public, however, has learned something about watching their pennies. They have become more price-conscious. For this reason, I predict that the mass distributors, such as the grocery and variety chains, will run ahead of the others saleswise, during the last half-year.

(5) Retail sales in general, although about 4% lower dollarwise, have held up during the first half in terms of physical volume as discounts and other concessions reduced the actual receipts. This is encouraging since it shows that consumers are still willing to spend if the price is reasonable. In terms of units, retail sales will hold up through 1954. Inventories will constantly be reduced during 1954. THE RETAILERS WHO DO BEST IN 1954 WILL BE THOSE WITH THE BEST PARKING FACILITIES FOR THEIR CUSTOMERS.

POLITICAL OUTLOOK

(6) I forecast that the more liberal attitude on the part of the Eisenhower Administration will surely continue through November and perhaps until the 1956 elections. During the past six months rumors have been spreading to the effect that President Eisenhower will not run again; but there is no agreement at this writing by either party as to who the next candidates will be.

(7) The President has won his conflict with Senator Bricker; the House approved his Tax Bill; the Taft-Hartley Labor Bill has been shelved, to the relief of all; and he has so far kept out of the McCarthy-Army row. I forecast that for the balance of the year he will leave domestic affairs to his associates and devote most of his time to helping Mr. Dulles ward off trouble with Russia and China, and avoid another "Korea."

(8) During the first six months of the year a "New Look" has developed in connection with defense expenditures. Appropriations for foot soldiers and certain classes of airplanes have been cut in favor of items for atomic warfare and guided missiles. Best authorities agree that we will get more protection and fighting strength from this change with less cost. As a promise "to get our boys out of Korea" was a great factor in electing Dwight Eisenhower as President, he naturally will hesitate to send U.S. foot soldiers into Indo-China, at least before the coming November elections.

WAR AND PEACE

(9) There will be no World War in 1954 started by Russia or the U.S.A. In the last half of 1954, however, the United States will move closer and closer to the position occupied by Great Britain during the 19th Century. The United States will prepare to engage in small wars anywhere in order to prevent outbreak of a world conflagration.

(10) I predict that the United States in the last six months of 1954 may by-pass the United Nations and try to form a defensive league of nations interested in Southeast Asia. The purpose: To keep the rice, tin, and rubber of that area from falling into Communist hands. Most of the arms and military know-how needed by such an alliance of anti-Communist nations in the Far East will be furnished by Uncle Sam. This means that cuts in arms expenditures, already scheduled for the last half of 1954 by the Administration, may not be put into effect. The Korean situation will remain about as is—"much talkie, no shootie"; but Indo-China will constantly become a greater threat.

(11) Do not forget Europe and the Middle East. France is torn by internal dissension and a blow-off could come there any time. West Germany is growing more impatient with French bickering over the Saar and over the formation of a Western European army including German participation. Russia will strive mightily to widen the split between France and Western Germany by holding out the "bait" of re-union between East and West Germany.

(12) Friction between the Jews and the Arabs in the Middle East is being encouraged by Communist agents. The smoldering fires there could break into flame at any time, requiring a hurry-up call for Uncle Sam's fire department.

STOCK MARKET OUTLOOK

(13) Of course, some day the market (especially the Dow-Jones Industrials) will get a bad wallop with very much lower prices. On the other hand, this may not come during the next few months. Up to this time the high yields of stocks have not appealed so much to investors, owing to the personal tax on both dividends and on income in general. Although stock yields compared with those of twenty years ago are higher if personal taxes are not considered, yet when these personal taxes are deducted, today's yields have not been attractive.

(14) The new Tax Bill and the increased buying for pension funds and investment trusts have, however, increased the demand for common stocks and could hold the market up for some months to come. I forecast that it will be very important to make careful selections of stocks. Don't buy stocks just because they have gone off heavily in price and appear cheap.

(15) Unfortunately, many small concerns will find it more and more difficult to compete with their big competitors. Not only can these big corporations make goods cheaper and have better means of distribution, but they can spend huge sums on advertising, which a smaller concern cannot do. This will be especially evident during the next six months. The companies which will prosper most are those which have inaugurated effective labor-saving programs. Manufacturers will win only if they purchase new labor-saving machinery, spend more money on research and on well-directed advertising.

(16) Automobiles will continue to be hard to sell and easier to buy during the last half of 1954. Both the automobiles stocks and the cars will be in less demand. There will be more bargains in used cars, discounts on new cars, especially cars of the "independent" manufacturers.

(17) Canada will continue to boom during the second half of 1954, but this may be a good time to take profits on Canadian investments.

MONEY, INFLATION, AND INTEREST RATES

(18) When Mr. Eisenhower assumed the Presidency with his Cabinet of "9 millionaires," they proclaimed a new monetary policy which would increase the value of the dollar and raise interest rates. Either fortunately or unfortunately, the economic situation caused a reversal of this policy. The value of the dollar shows no increase over January 1st and this has been hailed by Wall Street as a sign of further inflation. Wall Street has boomed certain stocks accordingly. Interest rates during the second six months of 1954 should average about as at present.

(19) The fear of involvement in Indo-China is strengthening the commodity markets. This takes some of the pressure off of Secretary Benson and those who have been resisting increased tariffs. I forecast an upward movement in many commodity prices—other than farm prices—during the balance of 1954.

(20) Money supplies are on the rise again now. They will continue to expand during the last half. Inflationary effects on the price level will be limited as our capacity to produce is now large. Remember, the surest way to squelch an inflationary fire is with a flood of goods. Inflationary effects of the expanded money supply could also be nullified by the change in the Government's method of collecting the corporate income tax. The new tax law may put the large corporations on a pay-as-you-go basis, squeezing their cash holdings.

(21) Any psychological inflationary flare-ups that may take place as a result of war scares, big or little, will not be long-lived. They will definitely be dangerous to follow up. A word of warning: Don't get drawn into any speculative moves in commodities or stocks based on the outbreak of a small war. If the need arises, our Government will move with lightning swiftness to put controls into effect. They are already "triggered." The only real danger of any federal tax increases will come with the outbreak of another war.

LABOR, BUILDING, AND REAL ESTATE

(22) As to unemployment, I will say that this has increased some over last year, but if considered on a per-capita basis, it is even less than that of five years ago. Look for a moderate reduction in the ranks of the unemployed during the last six months of 1954.

(23) The improvement which I expect in employment should not, however, be sufficient to make union leaders careless. Jobs will still be very much in demand. This should mean that the last half will see no prolonged strikes.

(24) Most union-management settlements will be made with a moderate amount of give and take. Any wage advances will be limited to the neighborhood of a reasonable hourly figure, plus some additional fringe benefits. The Administration and the Labor Leaders will not try to revamp the Taft-Hartley Bill during the last six months of 1954.

(25) My forecast as to the various classes of real estate is as follows:

(a) Large commercial farms will experience a further sag in their land values during the last half-year as farmers' gross income dips lower.

(b) Small farms on the fringes of big city suburbs should hold or rise in price as people get further away from city centers. This move could become an avalanche in the event of really serious war scares.

(c) I look for vacant land in the suburbs to hold its value well. In the big cities it may be another story, unless the land is suitable for parking purposes.

(d) Business properties in the cities may ease somewhat in price during the last six months of this year. Suburban business properties can be expected to hold up. Demand for more shopping centers will be noticeable during the months to come.

(e) Home property (especially the older houses, particularly in the cities) will continue sagging in price. In the suburbs, the bigger home properties will be the newer houses in the middle and lower-price brackets with emphasis on the "ranch-house" so-called.

(f) In the last half-year, construction will still be a powerful support to our economy as it has been for so long. Seasonally, building will hold well, strengthened by continued liberal credit terms. Some boost to building could come in the same half if civilian defense moves create a "dispersal scare." If this happens, look for a rush by many factories to move operations into areas far from bombvulnerable cities.

CONCLUSION: I cannot end this Forecast without reminding readers that we are living in a truly New Era, comparable only with the year I. A. D. 1954 years ago, or the invention of printing 500 years ago. The H-Bomb, in the hands of any ambitious dictator, could bring about unparalleled conditions. These changes could make the things, about which I have written above, of little value or consequence. Only a great spiritual awakening can save us.

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Alleman, Secy. Mich. Press Ass'n.

Michigan citizens will see engineers and businessmen do what chemists have tried to accomplish for many years: make gold out of seawater.

Perhaps the comparison is a trifle figurative. The feat will be achieved with dredges, barges and construction equipment; not elaborate chemical apparatus.

Approval of the St. Lawrence waterway by Congress this year ended a 40 year battle with interests which argued that such a project would mean financial ruin for them. Waterway supporters by no means agreed that these gloomy predictions would come to pass for opponents. But they are sure that the channel will do much to develop this part of the nation.

How much will Michigan benefit from the seaway? Several people have made predictions on this subject. One of the best qualified is John Beukema, chairman of the Transportation Advisory Committee of the Michigan Economic Development Commission. Beukema was for years the secretary of the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce. He knows the seaway subject extremely well since Muskegon, as a port city, has an intense natural interest in seeing the channel become a reality.

"The seaway will have a great effect on Michigan's economy as the invention of the automobile, but it will take time," Beukema told Economic Development Commission members at a recent meeting. "What we must look for is an evolution rather than a revolution."

Beukema dwelled on the time factor. He pointed out that it will take about six years before the seaway is finished. Industries now using railroads and trucks will not change overnight to using ships, he remarked. "It takes time to build up a commerce—and the shipper has to be sold on the benefits of water travel."

Major benefits were divided in two groups by Beukema: commercial and industrial. He predicted that Chicago and Milwaukee will gain most because they are natural supply points for foreign trade to the entire area from water's edge to the Rockies.

Detroit, Saginaw and Muskegon, he predicted, will be "sharply competitive" to supply Michigan.

Michigan people, Beukema thinks, have a limited appreciation of foreign trade, even though it means much to the state even now.

A Detroit Board of Commerce survey shows more than 900 leading industries and establishments in Michigan engaged in import or export trade. Most of this, according to Beukema, moves by rail to New York or some eastern seaport. "Shippers are often surprised," he stated, "to find that the rail rate to New York is as high or higher than the ocean rate to north European ports. They don't realize that much of this cost is due to expense of rail-to-ship transfer at the harbor."

Importance of commerce to a city can be well illustrated by the late Mayor LaGuardia, who once stated that New York's greatness depended on three things: its port and waterborne commerce—its 300,000 visitors and the trade they produced—its manufacturers. He listed them in that order. And he further said that without the port, New York would be a second class city.

Intercoastal shipping is even more important than foreign, says Beukema. "What is it going to mean to the Michigan manufacturer when he can save a third of this freight cost by shipping direct waterhaul through the Panama canal to warehouses in Los Angeles, San Francisco and Seattle?"

Prices on bananas, pineapple and other tropical products should also drop sharply for Michigan consumers when these things can be shipped in by water.

Hens Eating Up YOUR PROFITS?

Feed Economical NEW Larro SURELAY

(FORMERLY LARRO EGG MASH)
You may think you are saving money by buying a cheap feed. But you're probably really losing potential profits. A better feed that produces just one extra egg per bird every month is worth $1.12 more per bag.

A Leghorn hen eats about 40 lbs. of Larro SureLay a year, so 50 hens will eat about a ton. An extra egg each month from 50 hens is 600 eggs or 50 dozen eggs each year. Fifty dozen eggs at 45 cents a dozen is $22.50 EXTRA PROFIT for each ton of Larro SureLay fed.

Just one EXTRA EGG from each bird every month makes LARRO SureLay worth $22.50 more per ton or $1.12 more per bag. And you'll probably find that your hens will produce an extra 2, 3 or even more eggs each month when you feed them LARRO SureLay.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Snow Salad, Ham Loaf

Favorites of the Lloyd Clark family of 11785 Turkey Run are the recipes given here for Fruity Snow Salad and Pineapple Ham Loaf. Mrs. Clark says the salad is both pretty to look at and easy to prepare, and that the loaf always brings compliments.

Helper in the preparation of these dishes is the Clark's little daughter, Debbie, 27 months old. Debbie is always right on hand whenever mother begins to cook.

Fruity Snow Salad
1 tablespoon (1 envelope) unflavored gelatine
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
¼ cup mayonnaise or salad dressing

1 No. 2½ can (3½ cups) fruit cocktail, drained
½ cup chopped pecans
½ cup sugar
1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Soften gelatine in lemon juice; dissolve over hot water. Soften cream cheese and blend in mayonnaise. Stir in gelatine, fruit cocktail and pecans. Gradually add sugar to whipped cream; fold into fruit mixture. Pour into 1½ quart ring mold. Chill until firm. Unmold on ruffle of lettuce. Stand half-slices of pineapple on edge around the mold. Place maraschino cherries between and in the center of pineapple slices. Fill center of the mold with curly endive. Makes 8 to 10 servings.

Pineapple Ham Loaf
1 pound ground-smoked ham
1 pound ground lean pork
2 eggs
¼ cup soft bread crumbs

Mrs. Lloyd Clark and little Debbie begin mixing the gelatine for the Fruity Snow Salad.

¾ cup milk
2 tablespoons catsup
8 slices pineapple drained

Mix together all ingredients except pineapple. Divide in 9 patties. In a shallow baking dish form a long roll, alternating a patty and pineapple slice, starting and ending with meat. First bake for 30 minutes in a slow oven (325 degrees); then baste with Spicy Glaze and bake one hour longer, basting every 20 minutes.

Spicy Glaze
Combine 1 cup light brown sugar, ¼ cup pineapple syrup, 2 tablespoons vinegar and 1 teaspoon prepared mustard.

Both young people were graduated from Plymouth high school. A mid-summer wedding is being planned.

Honor Grads at Party

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Miller, 50580 Proctor road, Ypsilanti, held a party June 8 honoring Judy McCoy, Ronnie Miller, Arlyn Glover, Joyce Gatts, Carlton Bowling and Myrna Miller, graduates of Cherry Hill school.

Refreshments were also served to Mrs. Ruby Nuvien, teacher, Charles Hauk, Darroll Miller, Dolores McLennan, Pat Carvey, Joyce Bowling, Barbara Mulhern, Gail O'Donnell, Jeanette Ridley, Louis Clem, Fern McCoy, Penny Ridley, Rocky Wright, Jim Lobbestael, Anita Bowling and Mr. and Mrs. Roger Felch and son, Stephen.

Approximately 70 cents of every Red Cross disaster relief dollar is spent for rehabilitation aid in the local community, and is given on the basis of need to victims who cannot finance their own rehabilitation without hardship.

New Books at Dunning Library

"Around the World in 1,000 pictures," edited by A. Milton Runyon and Vilma F. Bergane, has made its appearance at the Dunning Library. A photographic encyclopedia of travel to foreign lands, this book will appeal especially to those who have the wanderlust or an interest in photography. Evelyn Berglund Shore's new book, "Born on Snowshoes," contains a most interesting account of the life of three sisters who grew up in the Arctic wilderness.

Also among the new books are "The Second Tree from the Corner" by E. B. White, one of the top sellers; "The Healing Light" by Agnes Sanford, a book on the healing powers of the Christian faith. Compiled and edited by W. G. Bebbington and E. N. Brown is a choral-speaking anthology, "The Choir Speaks."

Three books containing the Pergande practice tests for Civil Service examinations for the U. S. Government positions of "Storekeeper," "Rural Mail Carrier" and "Accountant and Auditor, GS-5 and 6, Accounting and Auditing Clerk, GS-4, Claims Examiner, GS-4, 5 and 6," may also be seen at the Dunning Library.

Mrs. Tritten Attends Conference on Aging

Mrs. Jesse F. Tritten of Plymouth, chairman of the health committee for the Michigan State Grange, was among those who attended the seventh annual conference on aging at the University of Michigan. The event which lasted from June 28 to 30 attracted 400 persons from throughout the nation.

Discussion groups considering the various difficulties of aging were held, paying particular attention to the problems that arise in relation to the size of the community in which the aged person lives.

The conference was held in the hope that it would help emphasize that both the cities and the citizen have a share in preventing problems of housing, health, economics and recreation.

Goyers Attend Annual Shrine Convention

Picnic Is Time For Cameras

No one can ever deny that sandwiches are necessary to the success of a picnic—and so are pickles, cake, cookies, fruit, soft drinks and all the other goodies which make picnic time, good appetite time.

But as necessary to the success of the picnic as the contents of the lunch basket—is the family camera.

Everyone has fun on a family picnic, whether it is off to the woods and far away or no more distant than the backyard. In either case it takes a camera to record permanently the fun and excitement of the picnic day.

One doesn't have to be an expert photographer to get the kind of snapshots which will make the event live in memory in the years ahead. Nor does one have to own an expensive camera bristling with gadgets of every description. These days even the most simple cameras take good pictures. It does help, though, to use a little forethought about the pictures to be taken, rather than going "shutter happy" on the scene and shooting roll after roll of film on everybody and everything.

Don't Pose Picnickers
A major rule to follow is never pose the folks at the picnic. Is there anything sillier than a picture of a group of people posed stiffly and staring blankly at the camera? Have them doing something! Dad, garbed in his chef's hat and apron, can be busily engaged in preparing the frankfurters when you snap his picture. Sister and brother can be lugging the heavy lunchbasket from the car or from indoors to the picnic site. Snap a picture of Uncle Ed down on his hands and knees starting a fire in the grill. In other words—let informality reign.

Another tip for your picture-taking: If you don't do much snap-shooting, don't guess at the exposure settings for your black-and-white film or color. Use a light meter if you can afford one or else buy one of the pocket-size kodaguides which all camera stores carry. These little cardboard guides which cost about a quarter practically do your thinking for you for all kinds of film under all sorts of light conditions. They practically guarantee good pictures!

Take Care of Camera
Another suggestion: if your picnic is being held away from home and you are driving to the happy site, don't leave your camera and film in the glove or trunk compartment of the car. The heat in such closed quarters will practically parboil your film.

If the picnic is out in the country or at the beach, remember to bring along a few extra rolls of your favorite film. You might get caught short otherwise.

One thing more: Be sure and have extra prints made of the best snapshots you take for those folks at the picnic who were not members of the family. Your friends will like to have souvenirs of the happy day too!

Serve Dish With July 4th Theme

Three Cheers for Red-White-and-Blue Shortcake

INDEPENDENCE DAY calls for something special in the way of food, and here's an inspiration—Red-White-and-Blue Shortcake. This original dessert, served with tall glasses of frosty-cool iced coffee, will put a patriotic finish to any hearty Fourth of July meal.

Well, here's Independence Day once again, the most patriotic holiday of them all. Once upon a time, snapping firecrackers heralded its presence, but these are rightfully regarded as too dangerous to use these days. There are safer ways to celebrate-family parties, neighborhood parades and so on, and there are always Fourth of July themes to introduce into the day's normal activities.

Take meals, for instance. You may be doing some entertaining, or it may be just your own family that sits down to dinner. Either way, how about a thoroughly appropriate dessert—Red-White-and-Blue Shortcake?

Finally, a word about table decorations. The themes are traditional, of course—stars, flags, drums and other patriotic motifs. You can easily obtain star-studded paper napkins, and perhaps you could find a toy drum to set flowers in. You can even dress up your dinner-ware by sticking tiny colored-foil stars onto plates, cups, saucers and pitchers—a pretty and original touch.

Red-White-And-Blue Shortcake
2 cups sifted, enriched flour
3 tablespoons sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 cup whipping cream
1 qt. red raspberries
1 pint cultivated blueberries
Sugar

Mix and sift flour, sugar, baking powder and salt. Whip cream; blend in lightly with fork. Roll out ½-inch thick on lightly floured board. Cut into 24 rounds 1½ inches in diameter. Bake in hot oven, 450° F., 12 to 15 minutes, or until golden brown. Meanwhile crush half the raspberries and sweeten to taste. Sugar remaining whole raspberries and blueberries. Split and butter hot biscuits and put together with crushed raspberries. Place 3 on each serving plate. Garnish with whole berries and additional whipped cream.

Makes 8 servings.

Burn Combination Lamp To Rid Mildew In Home

A combination ozone and incandescent lamp fixture, kept burning all summer long, will "clear up" any areas of the house bothered by mildew in warm, humid weather.

Large, dark storage closets, in particular, often smell mildewy. The heat from the incandescent lamp will reduce the humidity and thus slow down the growth of mold and mildew. The ozone lamp will eliminate the musty smell.

You can buy a ready-made fixture or make one yourself, cheaply and easily.

Just wire a standard lamp socket and an intermediate socket in series, screw a 40-watt incandescent lamp into the larger and an ozone lamp into the smaller fixture, and plug the cord into the nearest outlet.

If the bulbs are installed where you can see them, conceal them with a metal shield of some sort. The light from the ozone lamp is harmful to the eyes.

The price for our country's freedom was great; it was a price paid in untold human suffering. Let us remember this price as we celebrate another anniversary of the Declaration of Independence, as we celebrate another birthday of our country—178 years young!

Denim Must Wash For Fashion or Work

Denim, once the mainstay fabric for factory and farm work clothes, has within the past few years become fashion's utility material.

Denim has acquired a lot of new weights, new looks, new colors and new weaves which have found a variety of new uses and which sell denim from the general store to the top fashion establishments.

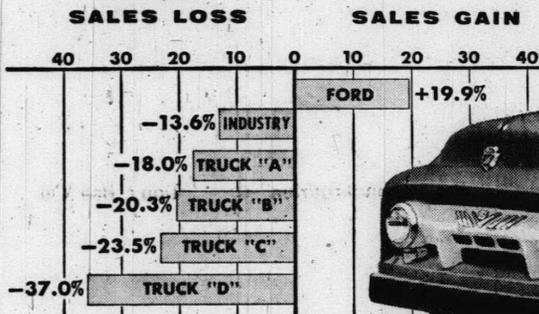

Denims are now soft enough for women's and children's wear, tough enough for washing, and colorful enough to interest designers of dresses, sportswear and accessories. This summer's leisure and vacation time is bringing out a variety of colorful denims designed both for utility and style.

Washability should be the main consideration in the shopper's choice of sportswear, work and utility apparel. Most of the garments are sent to professional laundries and because of the style and color factors involved, must be completely washable.

Other important things to consider when buying denims are colorfastness, shrinkage, and "crocking" (poor dye penetration). "Crocking" may be detected by rubbing the denim with a piece of white cloth... if the color transfers from the denim, it is said to have "crocked".

Helpful Hints Concerning Building, Remodeling, Repairing & Redecorating

REMODEL
BUILD

AN EXCELLENT do-it-yourself project, particularly for summer, is this hexagonal picnic table made by George Witkowski of 1117 Palmer avenue. Witkowski got the plans from a magazine and then set about making the table out of fir wood. He explained that he may drill a hole in the center for an umbrella and may add a lazy Susan. The table will comfortably seat 12 persons and is very easy to build, Witkowski said.

Window Shopping With Sue

Window shopping will be made more pleasant with the construction of the new Pease Paint & Wallpaper store. And, the two studios, which will show off handpainted and scenic wallpapers, will give you an idea just how the papers will look in your own room, whether its modern or colonial. The departments are going to be enlarged too, so it should be a real treat to visit when it is completed.

When the weather is hot the way it is now, you don't like to think about hot things too. But no matter what the weather, you're always using hot water — for washing dishes, clothes, bathing, and so on. And, of course, the ideal thing is to have the water always hot whenever you turn on the faucet. That's what you get when you have a Rheem automatic gas water heater in your home.

Making it a better deal yet, Henry Ray & Son will give you a free home survey and checkup on your hot water system. This means they'll estimate just how much hot water you use and they'll check your present hot water supply. Through such an estimate, they can tell you just what size automatic heater you will require in your home.

might be a good idea to just check on your present outfit.

And for the do-it-yourself handyman, summer is a good time to check your insulation to see if it's doing the job. Or if you're adding on a new room, you'll want to be sure that it's well-insulated. Roberts Supply recommends Kimsul insulation. It's a thick fiber blanket with a reflective aluminum cover and a positive vapor barrier. And it's so easy to use. Just cut the blankets to the proper size and tack or staple them into place.

Sanding Important

A really smooth sanding is the most important part of a good floor finishing job. For Birch and Maple floors, scrape and sand with the grain—lengthwise, using either a cushioned hand sanding block or a power sander. The belt type of oscillating power sander is recommended. No. 2 or 2-1/2 sandpaper is suggested for leveling-off high spots and joints, and No. 1 for the second cut. The final step—most important of all—is the finish-sanding with No. 0 or No. 00 paper (or both, if necessary). Please do not be content with anything less than perfect sanding. The finest finish can never make a poorly sanded floor look like anything but a poorly sanded floor.

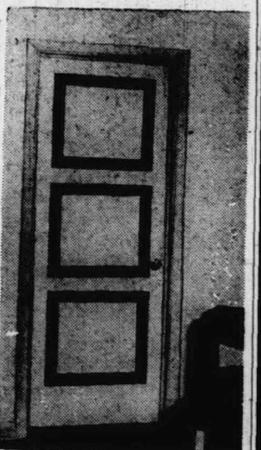

Panel Door Styles In Tune With New Trends

Contemporary architecture has created a demand for panel doors in keeping with the latest trends in interior decoration. A variety of doors are available that offer modern styling, the warmth and beauty of wood, and a range of alternate decorative possibilities.

For the most part, the new ponderosa pine panel doors feature equal-sized panels in symmetrical arrangement, in keeping with the clean-lined dimensions of modern furniture. Attractive three-dimensional patterns are formed by subtle shadow lines created by the panels. The doors range from those with three square panels of equal size to those with squares numbering up to eight.

A popular type is the "Rancho". It is especially designed for interiors of contemporary ranch-type houses.

The warmth of wood can do much for a room finished in natural materials. A room with a stone floor or paneled walls is enriched by panel doors finished in one of the many colored stains now available.

New styles in ponderosa pine panel doors harmonize with contemporary interiors. This door's three square panels are brightly framed to gain a three-dimensional pattern.

Helpful Hints To Keep In Mind When You Plan A New Home

Owning a home, while it is often desirable, is not always a wise financial move. The most important elements involved in buying a house are the purchase price, the cost of maintenance, and the location of the property. The last factor is most often neglected, but it is of major importance. For as towns and cities grow, various once-pleasant neighborhoods deteriorate and properties located there decrease in value. On the other hand, formerly inexpensive areas increase in value while, of course, some areas remain relatively stable. It is not an easy task to guess the areas which are most likely to increase rather than decrease in value.

The cost of maintenance is also a factor which is often neglected—or at least underestimated—by the prospective home buyer. Interest on and amortization of the mortgage, taxes, various forms of insurance, and the cost of repairs and maintenance must be added to the heat and light bills to reckon the true monthly cost of owning a home. The National Housing Agency recently estimated that a man making less than $4,000 a year should not attempt to buy more than a $10,000 home, assuming that he makes a ten per cent down payment and thus has a $9,000 mortgage to carry.

You should be certain you can stand this fixed drain on your income before you assume it. The purchase price is something which most people consider most carefully and on which they have the most accurate information. But even here they would do well to consider the value of the home several years from the date of purchase. For it is not impossible that they would want to sell because of the necessity of moving or because of changing family size and needs.

And here, elements of risk enter, such as the possibility of a drop in real estate values due to a depression, or an excess of house building, over which the individual has no control.

It is quite possible that owning your own home may be a wise financial move. But be sure to take all the pertinent elements into account when you make your decision.

How to Plumb Panel

In putting up panel walls, it's important that the panels are perfectly vertical, or plumb, as the carpenters would say. A plumb, sometimes also known as a plumb bob, may be purchased at the hardware store, but a fairly accurate one can be made by using a tape rule, according to American Builder.

As illustrated, pull the rule partly out of its case and place a small nail through the rivet hole. Now drive the nail partly into the piece to be plumbed. The tape will hang free and its case will act as a plumb bob. Make the panel parallel with the tape, and it will be plumb.

Here Are Four Suggestions For Integrating House, Lot

Every homesite has individuality. Each has its own special features, its own defects. The value of a new home has been greatly increased if construction took advantage of the lot's advantages while correcting its bad points.

Here are four suggestions from Small Homes Guide for a happy union of house and lot:

1. Preserve the desirable natural features of your lot as much as possible.

Let the contractor know in advance what trees and plants you want spared, what lot contours you want to retain. Point out, too, the low spots you want filled with dirt from the excavation.

2. Put the home in the best possible place on the lot.

Try to locate the house where you will be able to use the lot fully for gardening and outdoor living and where it won't be dwarfed by, or dwarf, neighboring homes.

3. Orient the house to cooperate with nature. Take advantage of the prevailing summer breezes, plan to shade the west side of the house and allow for maximum penetration of the winter sun with lots of windows on the south side.

4. Use every inch of your lot. Normally a lot has three principal areas—public, facing the street; service, usually at the side; and private, at the rear.

Today's trend is to make the private area as big as possible in order to enjoy outdoor living. Put the garage as far forward as possible; a long drive wastes space. If a deep setback from the street is necessary, make the normally public area at the front private with tall fences or high hedges.

Project Kindergarten

A housing project at Galveston, Texas, has a three-room kindergarten for youngsters. Interior walls of Oleander Homes Kindergarten are Masonite Panelwood, a smooth, splinter-free hardboard. Blackboards are the same material, covered with slate surface.

Don't Use Oil

Because ingredients are balanced carefully in good quality paints, American Builder magazine advises against thinning house paint with oil. A small amount of turpentine may be added if thinner has been lost by evaporation, or if cold weather has thickened the paint.

Expert drivers never pass unless they have time to get well beyond the car they're passing before they have to turn back into the right-hand lane. An oncoming car has to be a long way off.

"Cutting in" on the driver ahead is like threatening to bump into a man holding a cup of coffee in his hand. He wants to move over but he's afraid of spilling it. The driver ahead hates to slam on his brakes for fear of being hit from the rear — he hates to swerve right for fear of hitting a rough shoulder or taking to the ditch.

When passing never turn in front of a car until you can see it in your rear vision mirror.

Trio Gets 90-day DeHoCo Sentence

Ninety days in the Detroit House of Correction was the sentence given three men who were arrested last week shortly after they loaded 52 feet of stolen telephone cable into their car. They were:

Richard Trevino, 19, Romulus; William Benson, 19, Wyandotte; and Jack McClaren, 23, Romulus. They pleaded guilty to a charge of simple larceny in the court of Judge Edward Bogart of Northville. Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo was out of the city.

The theft took place at the Michigan Bell Telephone company supply yard on Lilly road at 2:25 a.m. on Wednesday of last week. Police patrolling the road saw a car parked beside the roadway. Benson, who appeared to be repairing the car, said that the trouble was fixed and they drove off. The patrolmen then stopped the car for investigation of a defective muffler.

Fifty-two feet of the costly lead telephone cable was found cut into four pieces.

Science Sets Sights on Cutting Cost, Food Waste

Scientists at Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station are turning their guns this week on anything that wastes food — on the farm, in storage, in transport, in display and in sales.

The research and education program in farm marketing authorized in May by the legislature, with funds available July 1, is starting. Coupled with research will be a Cooperative Extension Service program to carry the marketing and consumer information into the field.

The $150,000 authorized for marketing research will be dovetailed into existing projects at Michigan State college to add to results. The hope is to give Michigan better diets at lower costs and give fairer returns all down the line — for farmers, processors, wholesalers, and retailers.

If everything turns out perfect, here are some things that will come from this marketing research project:

Farmers will send leaner meat to your table; and better flowers for the centerpiece will come from florists. You will get good fruits in the spring from Michigan instead of just a glut of them for a few weeks at harvest-time. You'll pay less for shipping and save backaches on handling evergreeners for your yard. You'll have tender frozen blueberries, lower-priced beans and grains because of less waste; better potatoes and better chips and dairy products that keep longer. If you are a farmer, you'll find better markets for your farm woddot-cuttings.

Protection Group Warns Of Discount House Buying

"I've been offered a good deal on a television set by a discount house. Should I risk buying it?"

That is the question many Plymouth people have had to ask themselves. Discount houses have had tremendous but perhaps not surprising growth in the past few years. Though they have not established themselves in Plymouth, discount houses attract customers from long distances.

But whether a person actually saves money buying at "wholesale" prices remains a question. The Community Protection Service committee of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce is one group which has spent some time studying the discount business.

The committee first points out that discount house buying usually involves the purchase of a major item such as a refrigerator, stove, television set or livingroom set. An average person, they add,

Employment Office Difficulties Expected with Increased Benefits

Explanations and applications concerning the new law which raises unemployment benefits to a maximum of $42 a week for 26 weeks is expected to create administrative difficulties for the Michigan Employment Security commission since the law went into effect last Sunday, Gordon Packard, Plymouth office manager, said this week.

"Added to our already heavy claim load, Michigan offices expect at least 10,000 claimants for additional benefits because the duration of claims has been extended from 20 to 26 weeks. Everybody whose claim is in good shape, whose benefit year has not expired, and who has not yet drawn his 20th check, will be able to request the extended benefits," Packard said.

weeks (calendar weeks of employment in covered establishments during each of which they earned in excess of $15) if they are qualified in all other respects may be eligible for an additional six payments.

"Exhaustions of benefits have fallen off 50 per cent in the past few weeks," the office manager said. "This is attributed to claimants who are waiting to draw their 20th payment after June 27." He added:

"There have been many unofficial explanations of this act and particularly of this provision, which have resulted in misunderstandings which will have to be ironed out, individually. "As a result, there may be slower processing of claims for the first few days. We have 300 new employees on the commission staff, and they and our older employees as well, are being trained in the technical aspects of the most complicated law in the Michigan statute books. They are also being instructed to be patient, tactful, and polite to claimants and employers as well.

"In return, we are asking the public's consideration and cooperation during this interim period which may be extremely trying to both of us until we get the gears meshing smoothly. "This is the first time such drastic changes have been made in the benefit structure since the law was first enacted in 1936. Secondly, there will be an addition of nearly $400 to the total benefits available to families of claimants who qualify for them. Furthermore, there is a knotty problem which probably will be solved in the courts—and that is the attorney general's ruling that a spouse may not be claimed as a dependent by a claimant.

"This is also the first time that any dependents other than children have been allowable. Brothers, sisters, or parents over 65 who have been dependent upon the claimant for 90 days now will be eligible for dependencies, but not spouses, unless the courts rule otherwise. "Benefit rates have been raised from a minimum of $6 to $10 weekly and maximum from $27 to $30 for single men without dependents and from $35 to $42 for family men effective June 27," Packard said.

Social Security Office Can Bring Service to Home

Your social security field office is in business to serve you, even if it has to bring these services to your home. There are 19 such offices in Michigan and over 500 offices throughout the country.

If, because of sickness you cannot go to the social security office, a letter or telephone call to the office will bring a representative to your home. He will help you file an application for old-age and survivors insurance payments and advise you of your rights under the law. If proofs or documents are necessary he can help you obtain them.

Whether you visit the field office or are visited at home by the representative, there is no charge for these services. The Detroit-Northwest office is located at 14600 Grand River, Detroit 27, Michigan. The telephone number is Broadway 3-1717. For the convenience of the Plymouth and Northville residents, a representative is at the Plymouth Post Office on the second and fourth Thursdays of each month between 9 a.m. and noon.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Strong competitive bidding sparked recent public auctions of state-owned lands in six lower peninsula counties, land workers say, with more than $128,000 being returned to county treasuries through the sales.

The auctions were conducted by conservation department lands workers in Ann Arbor, Pontiac, Port Huron and Detroit last week. All lands offered in the Pontiac and Detroit sales were purchased and only a few scattered parcels remained in state ownership when the Ann Arbor and Port Huron sales ended.

When state-owned lands are sold, the money paid by purchasers goes into the treasury of the county in which the land is located. As a result of the sales, Wayne county's treasury will receive about $85,000, the Oakland county treasury will receive about $15,000 and Macomb county will get about $13,000. St. Clair county will receive $11,000, Monroe will get $2200 and Washtenaw county will receive about $1900.

In nearly all cases, land offered in the Wayne and Oakland county sales went across the board for prices well above the appraised evaluation.

In recent years, land workers have noted an increasingly high interest in lands offered for sale in metropolitan areas.

Heavy rains throughout Michigan dampened the ardor of many fishermen on opening weekend of the state's black bass season, but field workers report that moderate numbers of anglers were busy on state waters anyway.

The season got under way at midnight on Friday, June 18 and will be open through December 31, except on trout streams and lakes, where it ends on September 12.

Fishing conditions were good during the season's first night and morning, but by noon of opening day, general rains had swept fishermen from state lakes and streams.

Department workers received no special reports and activity during opening hours of the season—before the rains came—was described as "average."

Three hundred rural mail carriers reported seeing fewer ruffed grouse this spring but the same to more deer in the upper and northern lower peninsulas, conservation department workers report.

The carriers recently completed a two-week long survey of grouse and deer numbers for the conservation department. They took the census while traveling regular rural routes; about 100 work in the upper peninsula, the remainder are below the Straits.

During the last three years, the carriers have seen a slow but steady decrease in grouse numbers both above and below the Straits. This is in keeping with the decline expected by state game workers; grouse populations pass through a fairly regular 10-year cycle of abundance and scarcity and are presently scheduled to decline.

The carriers reported that they saw fewer deer in the upper peninsula during 1953 than they did the previous year, but that this spring a slight increase was noted.

In the northern lower peninsula, the carriers noted a general increase in deer numbers in all areas, with the biggest population rise seen in the northern-most counties of the peninsula.

Mail carriers are helping conservation work in many annual census projects during various months of the year. By driving the same route each day and at about the same hour, the carriers are able to keep watch over large areas of the state. Game workers appreciate their efforts and put the census results to good use in wildlife management work.

Only four forest fires, burning 19 acres, were reported in Michigan last week, conservation department workers say.

To date this year, 3010 acres have been swept by fire, well below the total burning to this date in 1951, a year of record low damage for Michigan.

Hunters bagged 1210 black bears during 1953, computed hunter report cards show.

This total was close to the 1157 computed kill of 1952, conservation department records show.

The kill estimate is based on information provided the state agency by hunters themselves.

The "computed" figures are, in general, considered higher than the actual kill, but game workers find the totals useful in showing over-all year-to-year trends.

Bear hunting was carried on during the spring, summer and fall in various parts of the state last year, although most of the animals were taken in the upper peninsula during the regular fall deer hunting season.
