

400 Attend New Church Ceremonies

Seven persons using a gold-gilded spade took turns in breaking ground Sunday afternoon for the new St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church at Penniman avenue and Garfield.

An estimated crowd of over 400 watched in the hot summer's sun as Reverend Edgar Hoenecke, pastor of St. Peter's since 1929, took the first spade of ground for the $229,000 church.

The Reverend Gerhard Press, president of the Michigan district, delivered the main address for the ceremony. Reverend Hoenecke was master of ceremonies.

Wayne County 4-H Clubs Hold Eighth Annual Fair

The eighth annual Wayne County 4-H Fair, now being held at the Belleville Fairgrounds, will continue to draw big crowds through August 22, its closing date. Exhibiting their projects and participating in the demonstrations are members from the Plymouth 4-H clubs, as well as adults from this area.

The exhibits have been divided into such categories as livestock, which includes cattle, horses, sheep, swine, poultry and rabbits; gardening, canning, food preparation, clothing, home-making, handicraft, electrical, conservation and flowers.

Scheduled for this annual fair were many events, such as yesterday's band contests, square dancing, entertainment and crowning of the queen. Also taking place yesterday was the judging of all exhibits, with the exception of livestock, which will take place today.

Canton Township Gets 1,200 Gallon Tanker

The Canton township fire department Monday added a new 1,200 gallon tanker to its fire-fighting equipment, announced Assistant Fire Chief Fred Korte Jr. The addition of the tanker brings the department's capacity up to 1,700 gallons.

Others following the pastor in turning shovels of earth were Walter Schultz, president of the congregation; George Bartel, chairman of the Board of Trustees; Leonard Arnison, chairman of the Building committee; J. E. Brinks, chairman of the Building Finance committee; August Parkow, oldest member, representing the men of the church; and Mrs. Otto Beyer, daughter of one of the church's 12 founders, Peter Gayde, representing the ladies of the church.

Greetings were read to the gathering from Mayor Russell Daane and Sterling Eaton, editor and publisher of The Plymouth Mail, and appearing to deliver greetings was Harry Larsen of the National Bank of Detroit, representing the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce.

The messages praised the congregation for its ambitious undertaking. They pointed to the esteem in which the community holds the congregation and they complimented the membership for selecting the colonial type architecture. The Chamber of Commerce has been spearheading a drive to encourage colonial architecture in Plymouth.

Excavation for the new sanctuary was actually started last week in order that the contractor's completion date of May, 1955 can be met. It was on the brink of this excavation that Sunday's ceremony took place. On the platform were seated the speakers, elders, deacons, and those breaking the ground. An electric organ and the choir provided music for the occasion.

Light refreshments were served in the nearby day school following the program. The completed church auditorium will seat 550 persons. In the basement of the building will be Sunday school rooms, social rooms, a kitchen and offices.

In the spire of the church will be a cluster of bells donated by the families of Peter and William Gayde and Otto Beyer.

The board will call 44 men in all.

Parents Report Son Missing

Thirteen-year-old Michael Kelley was reported missing Tuesday evening by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Glen S. Kelley of 498 Pacific. The boy, wearing a yellow T-shirt and blue jeans and riding a black and white bicycle, apparently became dejected after being reprimanded by his father for entering an abandoned railway building with a group of other boys.

The Kelleys reported their son's disappearance to local police when he failed to come home for dinner Tuesday evening. Mr. Kelley said that Michael had approximately $8.00 with him which he had withdrawn from a savings account built from summer odd jobs. Michael is 5-feet 4-inches tall, weighs about 115 pounds and has brown hair and eyes. Anyone having information as to his whereabouts should call the Plymouth police department.

Lack of Quorum Adjourns Commission

The regular meeting of the City Commission was adjourned after five minutes Monday evening in the absence of a quorum. Several of the commissioners are now on vacation.

Present at the meeting were 20 persons from Plymouth township, just south of Plymouth, who have petitioned for city water. They were asked to attend the next meeting on Monday, August 23, at which time they will be heard.

Girl Scout Commissioner Joins In Rejecting Illinois Legion Charges

Assurances were given today to parents of Plymouth Girl Scouts that the girls' organization remains devoted to service in the training of girls to be reverent to God and loyal, patriotic citizens of the United States.

The statement was made by Mrs. Eber Readman, Plymouth Girl Scout Council commissioner, in reply to a resolution passed recently by the Illinois Department of the American Legion which declared that there were "un-American influences in the Girl Scout handbook and its publications."

It was the Illinois Legion's anti-subversive committee which condemned the Girl Scout handbook and offered the resolution before the state convention. A former state commander and Legionnaire in Savannah, Georgia resolved to ask the Legion national convention to "erase the blot on the fair name of two million Girl Scouts put there by the Illinois Department."

Mrs. Readman said, "The opening words of the Girl Scout promise, 'On my honor I will try to do my duty to God and my country...' which is taken by every girl and adult in Girl Scouting, are the best evidence of this devotion. The Girl Scout program has been developed to give girls concrete opportunities to put this promise into action."

Asks Registration Of New Students

Boys and girls who have never before been enrolled in the Plymouth public schools, or high school students who have decided to change their courses, are being asked to complete these details during a registration period which begins this Monday and ends Wednesday, September 1.

With school opening Thursday, September 9, school officials are asking that students enroll during the registration period and not wait until school starts. New students in the school district planning to attend the high school will register with Miss Ruth Butts, high school counselor, at her office in the high school building. Unregistered students who will attend the junior high or elementary schools should enroll with the principals of the schools they will attend. Hours will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m.

If it is not known what school a child is to attend, the information can be obtained by calling the superintendent's office. September 1 will also be the deadline for students desiring a course change. Principal Carvel Bentley announced. Miss Butts will also be in charge of this activity. The principal reminded students that if a course change is wanted, it should be done immediately. The later a student waits, the less chance he will have in selecting the classes wanted, the principal added.

All students either planning to work during school hours (8:30 a.m. to 3:30 p.m.) or to enroll as trainees on the Occupational Training program are requested to contact Mr. Blunk in room 23 at the high school between August 23 and September 3, so that proper arrangements to be excused from school may be made.

Several Plymouth men joined in the fight to save the Houk cottage by forming a bucket brigade. With cottages sitting only 15 feet apart, their work and action by the firemen prevented spread of the blaze down a row of cottages of which about eight are owned by Plymouth families.

Houk, manager of the Fisher Shoe store, lives at 364 Adams street. Leveled by the fire which started at 6 a.m. were cottages owned by Alton Matevia, Middlebelt road, Livonia, and Glen Stevenson of Detroit. The fire is believed to have started in the Stevenson cottage fireplace while its occupants slept. It jumped to the Matevia cottage. The Houk cottage was located on the other side of the Stevenson cottage.

Houk's neighbors, many of them from Plymouth, joined in a bucket brigade which threw water on the side of the Houk cottage. The Houks were in Plymouth at the time. The charred side of the cottage must be replaced as well as some of the roof. There was also considerable smoke damage. Total loss of the two destroyed cottages was estimated at $17,500.

Other Plymouth people owning cottages along the south side of the lake beside Houk are Dr. Harry Balfour, Carl Shear, Jack Taylor, Ralph Taylor, Miss Margaret Dunning, Evered Jolliffe and J. W. Blickenstaff.

Industrialists See Brighter Job Outlook

Despite the considerable number of unemployed in the Plymouth area which is now double that of a year ago, local industrial executives and businessmen expressed high optimism this week by reporting steady and even increases in business.

Plymouth, like almost all communities across the nation, has been hit during the past year by lay-offs due to a number of reasons. Termination of defense orders, for example, has

Finds No New Polio Cases In Plymouth

Plymouth residents will be glad to know that there have been no new outbreaks of polio in the city, according to a report by Dr. R. R. Barber, city health officer.

The only two cases in Plymouth so far this year are those of Nancy Lou Young, 1270 Junction, and Lois Ann McCullough, 755 Beck road. Although no information is available on Lois Ann's condition, Mrs. Young reports that Nancy Lou is showing some improvement. The latter is recovering from a combination of the bulbar and regular type of polio.

Emergency Drive To Be Launched By Polio Movie

Plymouth's emergency polio campaign will be given a send-off today by a free matinee movie designed to make viewers more aware of the disease that rages in the late summer. The film, sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, will be shown at the Penn theatre at 2 p.m. Thursday. There will be no admission charge for the educational movie.

The "Emergency Mothers' March," headed by Mrs. Harry Bartel, will be held on Tuesday, August 31. Mrs. Bartel was also chairman of the January polio fund drive which received a very successful response from local residents.

The drive will carry the need for funds to every Plymouth home, as volunteers conduct the "tap on every door" campaign. So far, support has been pledged by Mrs. Orval Bloomhuff of the MOMS club, Mrs. Dale Renwick of the Navy Mothers, Mrs. Marie Thompson of Passage-Gayde American Legion auxiliary, and Mrs. Ed Olson of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary. Many more volunteers are needed, stated Mrs. Bartel, and she urged anyone willing to give some time on August 31 to the campaign to call her at 1842-W.

The campaign locally will be just a part of the effort being made on a national scale to add necessary money to the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis. Much of the money was used in inoculating some 650,000 children with the new polio vaccine. Michigan has 113 polio victims so far this year, two of whom are from the Plymouth area.

Teen-Agers Get Fun Night Events

In an attempt to give Plymouth teen-agers something to do, at least on one evening a week, the Recreation department has organized teen-age fun nights. Interest has been high, according to director Herbert Woolweaver, who said that 90 local teen-agers attended the third event held last Thursday evening.

The fun nights, which will be held each Thursday from 8 to 10:30 p.m. until school begins, hold appeal for both the younger and older teen-agers, Woolweaver said. During the evening the young people can dance in the auditorium, get refreshments in the kitchen, or enjoy games in the gymnasium.

No admission is charged for the fun night, and refreshments are sold at cost, Woolweaver said. Music for dancing is by records, many of which are favorites brought by the teen-agers themselves. Parents act as chaperones. "So far the fun nights have been improving each week," he pointed out. "If interest remains high," Woolweaver added, "arrangements will be made to continue the fun nights throughout the school year. We hope to make it similar to a regular teen-age canteen."

Salem Church Scene Brow - Pickard Rites

The Salem Federated Church was the scene on Saturday evening, August 14, of the wedding of Coralee Jeanne Pickard and Harry Brow. The Reverend Douglas R. Couch officiated at the eight o'clock double ring candlelight service.

Coralee was lovely in a gown of Chantilly lace over ivory satin with illusion neckline and long fitted sleeves. The full skirt swept into a chapel train and her fingertip length veil was held in place by a tiara of seedpearls. Her only jewelry was a strand of pearls, the gift of the bridegroom, and she carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis.

Mrs. Lora Davis of Kankakee, Illinois, was the matron of honor. She wore green net over taffeta with matching stoll and headpiece and carried a bouquet of green carnations.

Bridesmaids were Arlene and Mary Alyce Pickard, sisters of the bride. They wore identical gowns of blue and yellow net over taffeta with matching stoles and headpieces and their flowers were blue and yellow carnations.

Elizabeth Pickard, another sister of the bride, was the little flower girl. She carried a white lace basket of flowers. Her gown was of orchid net. Richard Brow, Jr., nephew of the bridegroom, was the ring bearer.

Richard Brow served his brother as best man and seating the guests were Robert Pickard, brother of the bride, and George F. Smith.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the church dining room.

The young couple are honeymooning for two weeks in northern Michigan and Wisconsin. For traveling the new Mrs. Brow wore a blue linen dress with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

They will make their home at 9590 South street in Salem after returning from their honeymoon.

Russell Maxwells Return to Ohio from Michigan Honeymoon

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Maxwell

In a four o'clock ceremony in the Christian Church of Nelsonville, Ohio, Miss Mary Margaret Courtney became the bride of Russell L. Maxwell. The double ring ceremony was read on Sunday afternoon, July 11, by the Reverend J. A. Long.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Courtney of Columbus, Ohio, and Russell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John T. Maxwell of Plymouth.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of embroidered nylon net over satin with long sleeves ending in points over the hands. Deep points of the embroidered nylon net fell gracefully over the bouffant skirt. The headpiece of satin and lace, adorned with seedpearls, held the bride's fingertip length veil and she carried pink and white carnations fashioned in a colonial bouquet.

Mrs. Myrna Bean, matron of honor, wore a waltz length gown of light blue net with fitted bodice and full skirt. Her headpiece was of carnations and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Gerald Walbrook of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was the best man and ushers were Gene Brown of Long Island, New York, and Jack Bisquick of Allentown, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Courtney selected a blue and white printed silk dress with which she wore navy accessories. Mrs. Maxwell wore an aqua and white sheer dress and white accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink and white carnations.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony at the home of the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Courtney, in Carbon Hills, Ohio. Hostesses for the reception were Miss Sherry Evans and Mrs. Jack Whitmore.

For the young couple's wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride changed to a beige suit with matching accessories. Mrs. Maxwell is a graduate of Ward high school in Carbon Hills, Ohio. Russell was graduated from Plymouth high school and is presently serving with the United States Air Force at Lockbourne Air Force Base in Columbus, Ohio. MARCH OF DIMES

PLEASE!

YOUR HELP IS NEEDED NOW!

Margaret Rose speaks for all polio sufferers who depend on the EMERGENCY MARCH OF DIMES - August 15 through 31 - to get well.

She is one of the 67,000 polio victims of 1953 and previous years who still need expensive care and treatment.

Margaret Rose doesn't realize that the March of Dimes last January did NOT meet the needs of 1954.

She doesn't understand how much money the polio prevention programs cost or why they are so important.

During 4 of her 6 years you have given her the best medical care available, as well as new braces, crutches, and shoes when she needs them.

Until a preventive vaccine is proved effective, there will be thousands of girls and boys - and men and women, too - who will need YOUR help.

Give Generously To The

EMERGENCY MARCH OF DIMES

PLEASE MAKE YOUR CONTRIBUTION DURING PLYMOUTH'S HOUSE-TO-HOUSE CANVASS, BEGINNING AUG. 31, OR SEND YOUR CONTRIBUTION TO WAYNE COUNTY CHAPTER, 153 E. ELIZABETH STREET, DETROIT 1, MICH.

BEFORE and AFTER...

YOUNGSTOWN AND DAVE GALIN STEPPED INTO THESE PICTURES THAT SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.....

Their preference being YOUNGSTOWN, they called old "kitchen expert" Galin and with the Anstice ideas and my know-how and experience we designed and completed this beautiful YOUNGSTOWN kitchen at the right, with which the Anstices are most pleased and of which I am also proud.

(We are informed that "Window Shopping Sue" will do a story on the Anstice kitchen in the building news of next week's Mail. We invite you to read it and get all the details on this very compact, beautiful kitchen.)

Mrs. Harold Anstice (below), of 209 Ann street, had an idea that she wanted a new, modern kitchen to replace the older facilities shown at left. Her good husband Harold fully agreed with her.

The Lapham 4-H club, under the leadership of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Conant of Napier road, came away from the Washtenaw County 4-H fair with 10 blue ribbons, six red ones and one white.

Edward Clinansmith, Nevin and Ronald Compton, Berva Adams and Jean Nagy received red awards on their vegetable baskets, and Jimmy Davis received a white award.

Salem "Up and Down Saddlers" a group of 15 4-H saddle club members, sent seven members and their mounts to the 4-H fair at Ann Arbor last week. In the pony class Sandra George on "Goldie" took second. Cheryl Ritchie on "Mike" was third, and Joan Wilson on "Spunky" was fourth. tion of the Girl Scout Handbook in apparently led to a misinterpretation of our program. In the interests of clarity, some words have been revised and the reprint of the Girl Scout Handbook will be off the press in September.

"We have never to the best of our knowledge reviewed a book by a Communist in any of our publications, nor do we intend to do so," the commissioner asserted. She pointed to the stated policy of the National Board of Directors which reads:

"Each book should be judged on the merit of its content, with the provision that if the author is a person known to us to stand for a philosophy or ideology inconsistent with the Constitution of the United States, or in contravention of Congressional enactment, we will not review the book, film or play in any of our publications."

Mrs. Readman stated that she believes the citizens of Plymouth are entitled to know the facts concerning the charges made against the organization and that she "is confident that on the basis of these facts, they will continue to find us worthy of their trust and support."

"We feel that this attack will serve to strengthen our zeal to carry out our wonderful program which has as its main objectives the teaching of American Citizenship to our girls," she concluded.

bright economic future are Robert Niemi, manager of the Burroughs corporation Plymouth plant, and Frank Henderson, part owner of Plymouth Planting.

Niemi claims that his own plant is well stabilized and he foresees no downturn in business. Since Burroughs sells machines to other businesses, Niemi uses this as a barometer to indicate how other businesses are doing. Business machine sales are remaining normal, he added, which means that business is still not doing too bad.

Henderson says that his company had experienced a little slackening for six or seven weeks this summer, but that they expect to keep busy for some time to come. In talking with other industrialists and salesmen, Henderson reports that all outlooks on business are favorable.

Ernest Henry Entertains Club at Summer Home

Postal Supervisor Ernest Henry's cottage on Lake Huron near Au Gres was the scene of the annual summer meeting of the Plymouth Turkey club last weekend. The sixteen-year-old social club, whose members consist of Henry, Roy Fisher, Kenneth Corey, Byron Becker, Don Herrick, Edwin Schrader, William Henry and Patrick Murphy, meets twice a year at sumptuous turkey dinner feasts prepared by chef Ernest Henry.

HIS INABILITY to speak and hear has been no barrier to Gordon Goebel, 346 Auburn, who is spending his summer at home between terms at the Michigan School for the Deaf in Flint. Gordon received an invitation for a visit last week from a fellow student, George Munroe, of Romulus. So Gordon hopped on his bicycle and peddled there, staying for a few days. The round trip was 29 miles. His parents are Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Goebel.

Find Woman's Body In Newburg Lake

The body of a woman was discovered at 2 p.m. Monday floating in Newburg lake by John Kummer, 801 North Waverly, Dearborn, and Ronald Davis, 16400 Bell Creek lane, Livonia. When the youths saw the body floating in the middle of the lake, they got a boat from the comfort station, secured the body and then notified the Livonia police upon reaching shore.

The woman, Mrs. Marguerite Bernier, 16705 Harrison, Livonia, was 58 years of age. Reported missing at 1:30 p.m. Monday by her son, Peter, police said the latter described his mother as having been in a mentally-upset condition.

Powell Enlarges Local Facilities

Workmen are progressing rapidly on the addition to the M. Powell and Son building on the corner of Lilley and Ann Arbor roads. The addition will provide 36 additional feet to the west of the present building running the entire length of the garage for additional garage and storage space.

According to Russell Powell, new offices are being constructed in the front of the present building and when finished the Stroh's Distributorship will have a beautiful pine finished conference room in addition to a greatly enlarged business office.

Work will be completed sometime early this fall.

A Layman Says...

Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God. Hebrews 12:2.
The secret of detachment from the world is attachment to Christ. As our hearts are occupied with Him, our bodies will be occupied for Him, and we shall learn to rightly value the truth of that couplet:
"Only one life, 'twill soon be past,
Only what's done for Christ will last!"
May it be ours to lay to heart these things, and thus come to a fuller appreciation of what is involved in this needful exhortation, "Looking off unto Jesus, the Author and Finisher of our faith." (A.P.G.)
O eyes that are weary and hearts that are sore,
Look off unto Jesus and sorrow no more,
The light of His countenance shineth so bright,
That on earth as in Heaven there need be no night.

Rosedale to Get New Lutheran Congregation

Rosedale Gardens will get a new Lutheran congregation with the Reverend Kenneth D. Larkin of Davenport, Iowa to serve as pastor. The Board of American Missions of the United Lutheran church in America called the young minister to organize the new congregation. The area was approved by the National Lutheran Council and the Detroit Council of Churches.
The parsonage and lots for the site of the future church have already been purchased. It will be located on the corner of West Chicago Avenue and Farmington Road. The address of the parsonage is 33129 West Chicago avenue.
The Reverend Kenneth D. Larkin graduated from Davenport high school, and Augustana College, Rock Island, Illinois. He received his degree in Theology from the Chicago Lutheran Theological Seminary in Maywood, Illinois. He was recently ordained by the United Lutheran church in Davenport, Iowa. His present telephone number is Webster 3-0089.
Plans are underway for starting church services and Sunday school this fall.

A SONG FEST is being enjoyed by the David E. Francis family of 9461 Brookline and their two young guests. Seated at the piano with Mrs. Francis are granddaughters Susan, left, and Sharon Jeffrey, right. In the background are Francis and son, Severn. Mr. and Mrs. Francis, who have three other children now living in the Detroit area, moved to Plymouth from Detroit about a year and a half ago. Francis is employed at the Barnes-Gibson-Raymond plant on Plymouth road, and the family attends the Methodist church.

Chips from the ROCK

Where is it? That's what Howard Green, salesman at Pease Paint and Wallpaper store wants to know! Last week Mrs. Robert Kisabeth came into the store and rented Pease's electric floor waxer and polisher. She told Green her gray Pontiac was parked right in front of the store and to just put it on the floor of the back seat. He did and she signed rental papers then went to the car to drive home. All was fine but the waxer wasn't there and it still hasn't been seen or heard of since.

Joe Miller, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Miller of Ann Arbor trail, writes from Germany of the fine friends he made while on a boat cruise on the Rhine river. A very distinguished couple, when learning the young American soldier on board was from Michigan, invited him to their table for a glass of wine. It turned out the couple were Captain and Mrs. Cesar Scavardia, life-long friends of the writer to whom they asked to be remembered. Captain Scavardia will be remembered as a former director of the Michigan State Police and Police Chief of Flint. At present he is director of all civilian and military police for the U. S. in West Berlin.

Sessions Hospital's most difficult patient proved to be Richard Bartel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bartel. It seems young Richard was readied for an appendix examination and probable operation. When nurses went to his room to take him to the operating room he was gone. A phone call later from the patient informed his parents he was enjoying a dish of ice cream at a local soda fountain. His family rushed him back to the hospital where with better luck nurses got him to the operating room. An examination revealed all the flurry was for nothing as he didn't need the operation after all!

Sometime ago we mentioned the lack of church bells in the community. Weeks later a local minister told us it was probable his church might secure a set of bells as a result of our mention, and Sunday of this week a definite announcement of the gift to the new St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church was made public. Donors of the bells for the new church are members of the Gayde family, the Gayde Estate and members of the Mrs. Otto Beyer family of Plymouth.

In the prediction department... We firmly believe Michigan will have its first Republican governor in six years when the fall election smoke has cleared away... Reasons... For the first time in the efforts of the Republicans to unseat Williams they have a young man who campaigns on the same level with the present governor. He pounds the pavements and is equally as good a handshaker. As a Detroit he will command much more support in Wayne county than any other candidate has because of his life-long activities with organizations in that city. Thirdly, it shouldn't be overlooked that in the last two elections Williams held his seat only by virtue of recounts and neither candidate had the vote getting power of Leonard. And last, but not least, he is capable of making an outstanding governor for the state, and the voters know it!

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

"There has been some controversy lately about the wearing of blue jeans to school. Do you think students should wear them?"

MRS. ROY LEEMON, 10490 West Ann Arbor road: "I definitely don't think girls should wear them to school. As for boys, we live on a farm and my son who is now in college never wore jeans to school because he always associated them with the farm and work. So he always wore slacks."

DAVID FLUKER, 312 Blunk: "I don't think boys should wear jeans to school. I prefer to see them wear dress pants because they look a lot neater."

MRS. WALTER PAGENKOPF, 11666 Haggerty: "I think it's about time for boys to go to school dressed decently. Blue jeans are good if he has to do some rough-house work at school."

CLIFFORD MANWARING, 499 Auburn: "Girls definitely shouldn't wear them and it would be nice if boys would wear ordinary slacks. It would cost me more money if they wore slacks (he has a son) but I think if a boy dresses neater, he will be neater. It's the same old story, if you dress like a bum, you'll act like a bum."

MICHIGAN MIRROR

By Gene Alleman
Secy. Mich. Press Ass'n.

Shape of things to come in fall election campaigns is taking form.

Democrats held their state convention in Grand Rapids August 14.

Republicans will hold their convention in Grand Rapids August 21.

Both parties met in the same place this month but only one can occupy key offices in the state administration.

Both parties expect a tough battle before the election. Both are preparing for it.

A Democratic leader, while predicting victory for his group, says, "You can't expect the GOP to not become heavily involved in a campaign affecting the senator who is head of the national Republican policy committee. They'll be in there pitching with all they have."

Republicans are well aware that the popularity of G. Mennen Williams and the relative heavy Democratic vote in the primary spell out a serious problem for them in November.

Importance of the senatorial race can hardly be overemphasized.

Last week Senator Homer Ferguson announced that President Eisenhower will appear in Michigan some time before the election. This, of course, will be designed to aid his campaign. Ferguson and other GOP candidates are expected to make the fullest use of Eisenhower's popular appeal.

Drew Pearson, in his Washington column, predicts that if Ferguson is re-elected by "a wide enough margin," he will be named Senate majority leader.

The oft-repeated charge that Ferguson has support from Hoffa and the AFL because he was instrumental in calling off a Congressional investigation of the teamsters by Representative Clare Hoffman is denied emphatically.

A state Republican spokesman agrees that the investigation was called off but places responsibility on "high officials including a Democrat from other states" who were worried that it would spread from Michigan to areas that would embarrass them.

The farm vote is taking on an unusual importance.

Democrats are sure they see a trend in rural areas in their favor.

The CIO, strongly behind Phil Hart for lieutenant governor, has but little choice when it comes to a senatorial candidate. With Moody out, they are forced to embrace, however reluctantly, Patrick V. McNamara. McNamara's AFL background seems to preclude an enthusiastic support.

The CIO expects to campaign for the farm vote. They will make a big play at Michigan fairs. They will work from tents with speeches, arguments why the farmer should go Democrat, and reams of literature to help him remember their best points.

This action started at the Ionia Free Fair and will continue at Mason, Traverse City, Charlotte, Cadillac, Allegan, Saginaw, Adrian and Hillsdale.

But farmers will be reminded of what happened to them because of the recent milk strike in Detroit. GOP campaigners will point to the cut dairy farmers accepted several months back so that the price of milk could be reduced one cent per quart to consumers. They will then describe the Detroit strike which ended in higher pay for the unionized delivery men and higher cost for the consumer.

"How can the CIO expect to win farm votes when they pull this sort of thing?" asked one Republican worker.

Best way to win the election, say Republicans, is to build up a heavy outstate vote. By rough figures, they compute that there were 275,000 Democratic votes cast in Wayne County to 111,000 Republican. But in the rural areas there were 349,000 Republican votes compared to 86,000 Democratic.

An important reason for the heavy Democrat vote in Wayne, they say, is the hot campaign to elect Hart over Fitzgerald. They believe many GOP voters will appear in the fall election.

Biggest worry for Democrats is what will happen to the primary vote for Fitzgerald.

The Williams camp made it clear that they had no objection to Fitzgerald because he was backed by the Teamsters Union. They considered him a poor party man. While anxious not to chase away any votes, they claim they have no plans for overtures to the Hoffa group. Nor have they received any.

The Williams group does not like to think about the possibility, however remote, that many of Fitzgerald's votes will switch to GOP.

Republicans think that most Democrat campaigning will boost Gov. Williams; that McNamara and Hart will be little more than coattail riders.

Important test for GOP will come at their convention.

Can party unity be maintained? There have been indications that the best way to do this is to re-name the incumbents: Brake for treasurer; Martin for auditor general; Cleary for secretary of state; Millard for attorney general.

This won't satisfy everyone, of course. The upper peninsula wants to be represented on the ticket. If this happens, some incumbent would have to bow out. Former senator George Higgins, who withdrew from the race for governor, has announced that he would like to be secretary of state. If Higgins can't be fitted in, what will become of him?

Conflicting reports can be found regarding the sentiments of Donald S. Leonard, successful GOP candidate for governor. On the one hand, he is said to favor the existing set-up. On the other, he is said to want a U P candidate for auditor general. Since Frank G. Millard, attorney general, is unpopular in rural areas because of some of his decisions regarding township government, he appears to be on shakiest ground. There are rumors of plans to shift Martin to Millard's position to Leonard's wishes. Then a U P candidate could be picked for auditor general.

Ford Tank Plant Now Producing Transmissions

Start of production at Ford Motor company's Automatic Transmission Division plant in Livonia was announced this week by M. L. Katke, division general manager. The plant formerly made M-48 medium tanks for the Army.

Automatic transmissions made by this plant and by the division's other plant in Cincinnati will be used in the company's passenger cars and trucks. First assembly line to begin operation at Livonia is devoted to Merc-O-Matic units for installation in Mercurys.

Production at the Livonia plant will climb rapidly, reaching volume output by late this year. Parts for Fordomatic units also are made at Livonia and shipped to the Cincinnati plant for assembly.

Tooling up for transmission production has been going on since the last Army tank rolled off the assembly line in October, 1953. Approximately 1,200 machine tools have been received and installed since that time.

Employment at the Livonia plant currently totals 1,600 and is expected to rise to 3,000 people when peak schedules are reached this year.

The Federal government is helping to support more than 40 different programs carried on in states and communities. In 1952 the federal share of the cost reached $2.3 billion, a sum of equal to about 24 per cent of all state tax revenues.

ROGER BABSON SAYS:

BABSON DISCUSSES NEW TAX LAWS

Babson Park, Massachusetts. The new tax law will help everybody. It is the first complete revision of all the Federal tax laws which has taken place for many years.

HARD LUCK AND BABY SITTING FAVORED

One of the first things recognized is that we all should get easier tax treatment for misfortune. This includes everything from sickness and accident to business losses. Not only are allowances made for this year's hard luck, but we are also allowed to charge these losses against a greater number of previous years' gains. Limited child-care expenses for low-income parents are exempted.

You may deduct medical expenses above 3 per cent of income, instead of 5 per cent as at present. But you must remember that from now on you may only deduct sums spent for drugs and medicine above 1 per cent of your income. Mothers, or widowers, who must work to support children under 12 or other dependents, and any woman whose husband is incapacitated, or working couples with combined family income of less than $4,500 may deduct up to $600 spent for child care. If you miss work because of an illness or an injury, you are entitled to tax exemption on payments made to you by your employer up to $100 a week. The exemption does not apply in the first seven days of an illness, unless you are hospitalized.

RELIEF FOR DIVIDEND AND RETIREMENT MONEY

If you are a stockholder, you won't have to pay any tax at all on the first $50 of income in dividends. Furthermore, you can take 4 per cent of any dividend income above $50 and deduct that from your tax payment. Although the double taxation of dividends is wrong and dishonest, I do not feel so badly that the President's request was not fully granted, especially in the case of young people. Older people who cannot work and are wholly dependent upon dividends should have total relief, but not everyone. In fact, the discrimination should perhaps be by ages, rather than by the total dividends received, except when they are reinvested in the stock of the same company. You won't have the basic 20 per cent tax rate on the first $1,200 of retirement income received after you pass 65. If you are a retired Government employee such as a teacher, fireman, or policeman, you can get the benefit even though you're under 65. If you have a child who is under 19 or is in college and who has a job which pays him more than $600 a year, you can continue to list him as a dependent with a $600 exemption on your return if you pay half of his support. If your husband or wife dies, you may continue for two years to get the full benefit of income splitting by a joint return.

HELP FOR BUSINESSMEN

If you are a businessman or farmer, you may use the new double declining-balance method of quick depreciation on a plant or piece of equipment. This means that in the first years of life, you can write off twice the amount for depreciation now allowed; thus you can concentrate most of the write-off in the early years of use of the item. A corporation may get other relief, including: More liberal treatment for research expenditures; greater freedom to set aside surpluses; the right to offset a loss against profits of two prior years instead of one as now; greatly expanded depletion allowances for mining companies; a cutoff date of April 1, 1955, for the 52 per cent corporation tax rate, when it automatically drops to 47 per cent. If you are a farmer putting a lot of money into soil rebuilding, you may deduct these outlays up to 25 per cent of your gross business income.

INSTALLMENT BUYING

To help business, installment buying is being encouraged by allowing you to deduct the carrying charges on all such purchases. To help churches, hospitals, and colleges, we can deduct, as tax-exempt income, 30% of our contributions to such, instead of the former 20%. The main purpose of these new tax laws is to help struggling parents and struggling businessmen. Big business and the rich are benefited very little.

The date when we must file our returns is extended from March 15 to April 15. Furthermore, married couples filing joint returns and who have a family annual income of less than $10,000 (most of it subject to withholding) no longer need to file an advance estimate of their tax. This simplifies filing for millions of people. For these changes we can thank both the Republicans and Democrats.

Polio Hits Hard Again This Year

The latest reports on the incidence of polio this year are discouraging. The number of cases reported so far in 1954 is running about 24 per cent above the average for the last five years.

It is true that last year's total was slightly higher, but the total in 1954 is definitely far above the average. This is occurring despite the use of two vaccines.

The new Salk vaccine, which some hope will provide the permanent answer to polio, was given to only about four per cent of the nation's children in the first three grades of school, and therefore, its beneficial effects will be very limited in 1954.

The use of Gamma Globulin, the only preventative against paralytic polio now generally available, has been more widespread but its supply is also limited. About 2,000,000 doses were available this year—about twice as many as were available in 1953.

It is estimated that results of the use of the new Salk vaccine will be available by next Spring, and the nation will then learn whether a preventative for the dread disease has at last been found. Meanwhile, the polio danger continues to loom as large as ever, and strike down children at an appalling rate.

Since this is the peak season for polio, every precaution should be taken to lessen the danger of the disease and, in areas where polio becomes widespread, no delay should be permitted to slow up the search for gamma globulin, which has proved 88 per cent effective over a period of five weeks. A limited supply of this vaccine is still available.

U. S. Applauds End of Colonialism

From the State Department comes word that United States diplomats abroad will begin taking full advantage of the decline in colonialism. American diplomats are said to be ready to accept much of the credit for British evacuation of the Suez Canal Zone, the French decision to grant full independence to Indonesia and the French decision to grant more and more autonomy in North African colonial possessions.

If the State Department's announcement—an unofficial one—actually means that U. S. diplomats will play on this theme, it is a significant decision and will enhance the prestige of the United States in many of the world's underdeveloped areas.

It is no secret that the flame of nationalism is burning fiercely in many African and Asian colonial territories today, and that those who oppose this trend are badly out of step with the mood of the times. The United States, a country which earned its freedom by throwing off the shackles of colonialism in a bitter war, should never be placed in the position of backing such a system.

Unfortunately, this has occurred in Indochina, and the United States has been forced (by other and more important considerations) to stand by Great Britain and France in other cases where colonialism was at least part of the issue involved. If the United States is now to make it clear to all the world that it is dedicated to the task of gradually eliminating colonialism from the face of the earth, then this government is sure to win millions of friends in faraway areas on several continents.

New Books at Dunning Library

Dunning Library received five new books in their latest shipment, all of which are non-fiction. One of the "teach yourself books" on "Astronomy" by David S. Evans is non-technical in content, written for the enjoyment of the man in the street. Hobbyists who collect buttons as their specialty will want to read "The Button Collectors' History" by Ford. Not only does this book cover button-collecting, but it is also a study of costume and costume accessories.

Also in the new shipment is a book by Vicars Bell entitled, "On Learning the English Tongue," and one by Dorf, "Visualized World History." Many interesting facts are compiled by the Bureau of Commerce, under "Statistical Abstract of the United States, 1953." In addition to these there is Bogardus' "Sociology," fourth edition.

The Library's circuit books, loaned to this branch on a three-month basis, have been increased by three new members. They are, "The Guidance of Learning Activities" by Burton, Donald C. Peattie's "A Natural History of Western Trees" and "Conscience and Compromise" by Edward L. Long, Jr. The latter book deals with the application of Christian faith to the decisions of everyday life.

Other circuit books, which have come in previously but have not been brought to your attention in this article, are "A History of Ohio" by Roseboom and Weisenburger, John and Alice Durant's "Pictorial History of American Ships," and "Zapotec" by Helen Augur, a portrait of Southern Mexico and its 3,000 year-old culture. A history of costume from that of primitive peoples down to present day, with special emphasis on the 19th and 20th centuries, is covered in Carolyn G. Bradley's "Western World Costume—An Outline History."

This is to mention only a few of the many worth-while publications found among the circuit books. You will discover any number there to suit your every taste and interest.

Library Announces August 25 Film Titles

Titles for the August 25 film programs to be given at Dunning library have been announced by Mrs. Agnes Pauline, head librarian. Starting at 2 p.m., children through the eighth grade may see "Shep, the Farm Dog," "Adventures of Willie Skunk" and "The Zoo."

"The Golden Twenties" will be featured at the adult program starting at 7 p.m. that same day. Running a little over an hour, this film is composed of news-reel shots of the Jazz Age and is narrated by Red Barber, Elmer Davis, Robert Q. Lewis and Frederick L. Taylor.

HEALTH AND BEAUTY

Summer is harder on your eyes than any other season. Bright sunlight and reflection actually bleach out your eyes. The heat dries the delicate skin around the eyes causing lines to deepen and new wrinkles to form.

The heat and, particularly, the hot winds dry the natural moisture from the eyes. This results in the hot, burning sensations so often experienced during the summer.

Good sunglasses will protect your eyes and are one of the most important investments in health and beauty protection you can make. Cheap dark glasses can cause all kinds of eye trouble.

The most satisfactory dark glasses are those with optically ground lenses which have been treated to screen out the burning rays. If you wear glasses regularly, sunglasses in your prescription are best. Sunglasses which clip on over your regular glasses are said by doctors to be harmful.

Sunglasses come in so many different colors, sizes and shapes that it will be no trouble to find a pair suited to your face and color.

Remember, however, that the lenses must be large enough to cover the entire eye area.

Use a mild eye lotion in your eyes several times a day if you are at the beach, traveling, etc. If your skin tends to be dry, use eye cream on the lids and under the eyes.

Teen Age Game Night Successful; Another Tonight

The Thursday fun nights inaugurated at the high school under the supervision of the recreation department, recently are proving a huge success to Recreational Director Herbert Woolweaver. Last Thursday around one hundred took advantage of the opportunity to play games, dance, play cards, eat, etc., and meet teen-agers in a night of fun and games at the high school.

The auditorium is available for those who want to dance, while the large gymnasium is divided with one side for basketball and the rougher games, and the other for card-playing, ping-pong and visiting. Refreshments are provided at cost to those who wish something to eat.

Teen-agers come here at no cost whatsoever, and many parents have also been up to look over the night's activities, and feel it is a truly fine thing for the youngsters in the city. One was heard to comment that this should become a permanent thing so as not to find Plymouth teen-agers doing what their big-city youngsters are doing in Detroit.

At present it is planned to have these social evenings one night a week, on Thursday from 8 to 10:30, until school starts in September, but if they prove popular they might be continued in the fall and throughout the year, possibly on a Saturday night.

The next one is tonight from 8 to 10:30 p.m. Any teen-ager in Plymouth is welcome—there is no charge.

Tour Globe in Coffee-cup

Will you take your coffee black or light, with sugar or without, served in a jumbo cup or demitasse? Do you prefer it made with beans roasted to a delicate cinnamon shade, to a deep, hearty brown-or, perhaps, toasted to a rich brownblack?

Here in the United States, we demand our coffee clear and fragrant, strong but not bitter. We thought, though, that you might like to try coffee as enjoyed by people in other lands, so this is what we're going to do. We're going to take you on tour to learn coffee-making around the globe.

First of all, let's run through the rules for making our own coffee well. A coffee-pot should be sparkling clean-and that means a thorough sudsing after each use to remove the bitter oils that collect on the sides. Be sure that your coffee is fresh and of the correct grind for your brewing method. Then, remember that it takes two level measuring tablespoons (or one Standard Coffee Measure) of coffee to each three-quarters of a measuring cup of fresh, cold water to make a flavorful brew. Use water from the cold tap, since water drawn from the hot tap often gives coffee a flat taste. Never brew to less than three-quarters of the full capacity of your coffee-maker, and take care with the timing. Percolators should perk six to eight minutes only, and vacuum coffee should brew for no more than two to three minutes after the coffee has risen to the upper bowl. Finally, never let coffee boil.

Coffee In Other Countries

And now we're off! We find ourselves first in Arabia, where the average Arab drinks twenty-five to thirty cups of coffee a day, roasting his coffee-beans at home pounding them in a mortar. He boils water in a long-handled pot called an "ibrik," tosses in the pulverized beans and lets the brew foam up, three times, removing it from the heat each time. Then he serves it in tiny, egg-shaped cups called "finjans."

Now-on to Europe! In Italy, coffee beans are roasted very dark, ground fine, and brewed, usually, in an Espresso machine which uses live-steam pressure. The coffee is served strong and black with lots of sugar. Actually, a good Italian demitasse coffee can be made in small "machinettas," available here, or in any drip or vacuum coffee-maker, using two level measuring tablespoons of Italian-roast coffee to every three ounces of water. Sometimes a twist of lemon peel or a cinnamon stick is used to stir the coffee, giving it a slightly spicy flavor.

On our way home, we stop off in Paris and Vienna. During the day, the French people drink demitasse coffee similar to the Italian, but brewed in an ordinary French-drip pot. For breakfast, though, our happy lot is cafe-au-lait, equal parts of fresh, strong coffee and hot milk, poured simultaneously. In Vienna, they top their cafe-au-lait with a teaspoon of unsweetened whipped cream.

Well, here we are, home again. Feel exhausted? How about a nice cup of coffee?

Forecasts NewStyles, Materials

San Francisco—Even greater emancipation for American women is promised with the fall fashion forecast.

Since the days when Susan B. Anthony led the militant feminists toward suffrage, women have found greater freedom in work and in play-and in their dress.

A California designer, champion of casual clothes with a cosmopolitan look, leans heavily on separates in support of the feminine cause. In her new collection are wondrous fabrics, where miracle fibers have been introduced to long-accepted material materials so that the clothes may be washed at home. And pleated skirts never die and never ask to be rejuvenated.

An example of fabric news is Donegal tweed, the Irish highlands fabric, which gets combined with 15% nylon for a smooth polished look. Tubnet jersey, smooth and cashmere-soft with a silk-like luster, is a blend of 80% orlon and 20% wool, hand washable and free from shrinkage. Flannel, with its half orlon and half wool flannel composition, banishes moth worries. Warm, without weight, it has a rich worsted-hand look. And it recovers rapidly from wrinkles. Velvet, with its fine lustrous pile-fast twill, also takes to tubbings.

The fall silhouette is a tribute to the women who want to be youthful and charming - and women. It's a twofold silhouette. Dresses include the slim-molded line from shoulder to hem and the full-skirted line.

The full skirt, treated to a built-up midriff, goes from typewriter to dance floor with elegance. Slim skirts, while reed-like in appearance, offer walking grace because of controlled pegs, and pockets are conversation pieces as well as catchalls for overflow handbag needs.

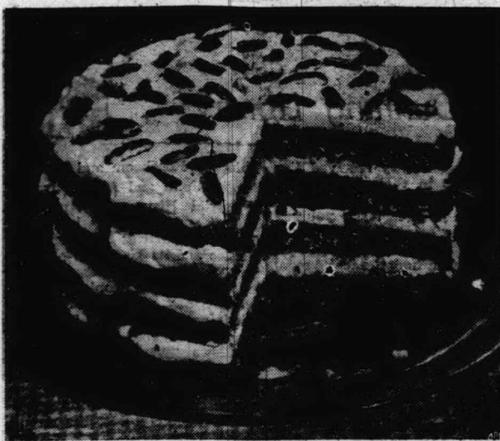

Collars are large and important news. The boy's shirt, which women long have coveted, gets sissified with a soft-rounded collar. And then a mile of ruffles converts the boy look to a demure one.

Full-length slacks, walking shorts and smart-pants-abbreviated slacks in exciting and subdued colors offer further emancipation for women in their leisure hours.

This fall the news is that the silhouette, the fabrics, the styles and the colors all invite the eye of women for their most emancipated moods.

It is possible to make a rustic dining table from logs and slabs. If, after having constructed such a table you find insects infesting the legs or other heavy parts, douse the infested sections with carbon tetrachloride. It will be absorbed by the wood and kill the insects.

Spice Party Layers

Giving a new twist to her newest creation, Ann Pillsbury has given the old flavored spice cake a modern glamor role. Here's how she helps you prepare easily this tasty, different looking, party cake.

Bake Spice Cake Mix as directed on package in two 8 or 9-inch layers. Cool. Whip 2 cups (1 pint) whipping cream with rotary beater until stiff. Blend in 1/4 cup sugar and 2 teaspoons vanilla with a few additional turns of the beater. Divide each cooled cake layer into two layers, making four layers in all. Do this by placing heavy sewing thread halfway up side of cake layer. Gently pull thread back and forth in sawing motion to cut through cake.

Spread top of each layer with one-fourth of the whipped cream. Then stack layers and decorate top with slivered pecans or other nuts if desired.

Broiler Needs Care Before and After Use

Home economists offer home-makers these suggestions for cleaning and caring for broilers:

Grease the rack of the broiler with salad oil or shortening before using it and it will be easier to clean.

After broiling, pour off all the drippings as soon as you have removed the food. Use paper towels to wipe off both the pan and the rack.

Then fill the pan immediately with very hot water, and add a soap powder or detergent. Let the pan and rack stand until you are ready to wash them. With fresh, hot suds, you'll find them easy to clean.

If you don't care to save the drippings, add enough trisodium phosphate to form a soap curd. Then it can be flushed down the drain. If food sticks, you can use steel wool pads containing soap if your broiler is aluminum or stainless steel. Enamel broilers, however, require more gentle treatment.

You may want to remove the broiler when using your oven. This will prevent any possibility of cracking of the enamel of warping of the metal pan.

When you are packing sweaters for travel, fold in the sleeves and roll the sweaters to prevent ridges.

Numerous Stories and Legends Surround Origin of Sandwich

There are almost as many different theories about the origin of the sandwich as there are varieties of this great American favorite. Despite the numerous legends and stories, however, there is still much doubt about the actual beginning of the sandwich—but it has been around a long time.

Earl of Sandwich

One of the most popular and colorful of these stories concerns a romantic figure of 18th century England. He was the Earl of Sandwich, whose name at least, the food combination bears. The Earl, who twice was First Lord of the Admiralty, was a man of many parts and one passion—gambling. He would sit at the gaming table for 24 hours at a time, refusing even to take time out to eat.

During one of these prolonged set-to's with Lady Luck, this British nobleman thought of a way to satisfy his growing hunger and at the same time not miss a hand. He ordered his servants to prepare pieces of meat between two pieces of bread. In this way, he could eat with one hand and continue his playing.

Other gamblers were quick to copy the Earl and it became quite common for them to order the "same as Sandwich". The shortened version, "sandwich", gained in popularity and the practice of eating two pieces of bread with a filling, soon spread throughout the world.

Other Theories

Other stories go back even further. Some say sandwiches in one form or another were common with the ancient Babylonians, and that the Greeks and Romans enjoyed this type food at their fabulous banquets.

Another theory is that the sandwich was invented by priests of the pre-Christian era who ate sacred wafers spread with honey. Still another is the belief that the sandwich was invented in 50 A.D. and was used as part of the Passover observance by a Jewish teacher named Rabbi Hillel.

Today sandwiches play a big part in the food habits of almost all Americans and people elsewhere in the world. They are used as the main item on the family noon-day table or at supper. Sandwiches are an integral part of every lunch box, and of course, they are the most important part of any picnic.

The variety runs all the way from the simple bread and a filling sandwich to the elaborate openface sandwich or the fantastic king-size "Dagwood" creation made famous by the comic strip "Blondie".

Picnic Favorites

Two favorites on any picnic, at the ball game or in the home are the hot dog and the hamburger. These two sandwiches alone have many fascinating stories concerning their origin and development.

Take the hot dog, for instance. Its ancestor, an elongated sausage was invented by butchers in Frankfurt, Germany about 1852. Here we got the name frankfurter. A form of frankfurter was introduced in this country about 1883, but it wasn't until some 10 years later that it gained its present form and real popularity. It was at the Chicago World's Fair that the wiener and the bun got together. The piping hot wieners were a great favorite with the crowds, but they were too hot to hold. The vendor at first provided white gloves for the hot-dog lovers to use while eating the "red hots." This didn't prove too profitable as the gloves had a way of disappearing. It was then that the idea came of placing the hot wieners between pieces of bread. A special, long bun was the obvious development and so we got the hot-dog as we know it today.

My recipe for

always successful in my

ELECTRIC RANGE

Besides her women's club and church activities, Mrs. Edward Swackhamer enjoys a round of golf. Naturally, like all good cooks, she also likes to entertain friends. It's easy to make cooking—even for parties—a pleasure instead of a chore. Her guests particularly enjoy her wonderful crushed brittle party cake—made in her electric range, of course.

345,000 of your neighbors have already found out what a difference there is in cooking the flameless electric way. There's no more scouring of blackened pans. You never have to guess about cooking temperatures... all you do is set the switch to the exact heat needed and walk away. Your modern range does the rest for you, electrically!

CRUSHED BRITTLE PARTY CAKE
1 large sponge cake, uniced
2 cups whipping cream
2 tablespoons sugar
Slice sponge cake across into 4 layers. Whip cream, add sugar and extract. Spread bottom layer of cake with whipped cream, sprinkle with 1/4 of the crushed brittle. Repeat with next two layers. Place top layer on cake and frost entire cake with whipped cream. Sprinkle with remaining brittle and silvered almonds. Let set for two hours. Keep in cool place.

BRITTLE
1 1/4 cups granulated sugar
1/4 teaspoon instant coffee
1/2 cup light corn syrup
1/2 cup hot water
1 tablespoon sifted soda
Mix sugar, instant coffee, corn syrup and hot water together in saucepan. Stir until sugar is dissolved. Boil to 350°-400° F. without stirring. Remove from heat. Stir in soda. Pour into ungreased 9 x 9 inch pan. Cool until hard. Crush.

Buick's biggest hit brings you a 3-way bonus

1. You get the car that's in step with tomorrow

From stem to stern, Buick today is styled a year ahead—with long, low glamor lines, with the very look of tomorrow, and with that broad panoramic windshield that many other cars won't have till 1955. Equally important, you get in Buick advanced V8 power, big room, luxurious comfort, the famed Million Dollar Ride—and all for prices that start just a few dollars above those of the so-called "low-price three." Is it any wonder, then, that Buick today is outselling all other cars in America except two of these "low-price three"?

2. You get the car that's a sure high resale value

Buicks have always had a high trade-in value. But the 1954 Buick has an extra advantage in its year-ahead styling. That means your Buick will stay well up in the style parade for years to come—will stay fresh and new-looking well into the future. So you're bound to be way ahead in actual dollars when trade-in time comes.

3. You get a bigger allowance from our volume business

Every month's sales figures this year have firmed this fact: Buick sales are soaring; Buick is outselling all other cars in the nation, regardless of price range, except two of the "low-price three." So with this tremendous volume, we can—and do—offer higher trade-in allowances. Come in, see and drive a new Buick—then check for yourself that our volume business really does mean a far bigger allowance for you.

Come see for yourself why—

ANOTHER GLIMPSE OF MODERN LIVING at its best is shown above in the living room of "Cliffside," the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. McAllister, 47033 Timberlane, in Northville Hills. The original interior design of this attractive home and the decorating were done by the McAllisters. The McAllister's young daughter, Dawn, is relaxing with a magazine in the comfortable, luxurious living room. The walls are a deep red, with gray ceiling and drapes. A striking white, cement block, built-in fireplace is visible at the upper right. All individual paint colors were custom-mixed and adapted for this room by Pease Paint and Wallpaper Co., of Plymouth.

Joist - and - Rafter Framing Construction Considered Universal, Least Costly

Editor's Note: This is the third and final installment on the subjects, Wood Framing, Lumber and Construction, reprinted here in part from information supplied by the Small Homes Council, U. of Illinois.

In joist-and-rafter construction, ceiling joists extend from the exterior walls to a load-bearing partition which runs the length of the house. Rafters are supported at the eaves by the exterior walls. At the peak of the roof, the rafters bear against a non-structural ridge board which extends the length of the house. The ceiling joists, functioning as a tie, prevent the rafters from spreading. If rafters are braced, the length of span can be increased.

Joist-and-rafter construction can be used for gable and hip roofs, but it is usually limited by building codes to roofs sloping 5 or more inches in 12. For roofs of lesser slopes, construction should be modified by providing a vertical support at the peak of the roof framing. Joists and rafters are commonly spaced at 16 or 24 inches. The latter is the most economical spacing.

Joist-and-rafter construction is a universally acceptable framing system and is known to most workmen. Other advantages are: Roof loads can be carried to the walls without causing ceiling deflection.

Common types of sheathing and finish materials can be used. Insulation can be easily placed advantages, as compared to truss construction, are:

A longer time is required for erection and, hence, there is longer exposure of material to weather.

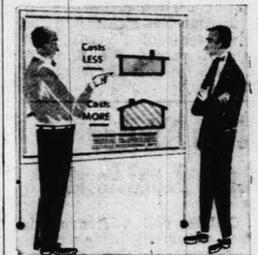

Roof framing must be accomplished by men who work "in the air," supported by either ceiling joists or scaffolding.

In most framing systems, the exterior walls must bear vertical loads (weight of roof, ice, snow, occupants, furnishings). Such walls are "load-bearing walls."

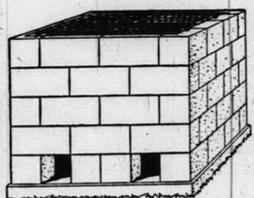

In other framing systems, the vertical loads are borne by posts. The exterior walls merely close in the structure and are referred to as "curtain walls."

by increased gable-end and roof-framing costs.

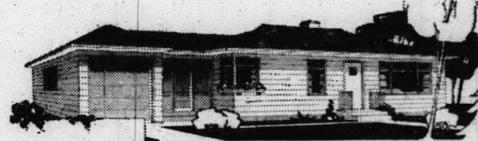

An increase in the spacing between the primary framing members for example (spacing trusses 8 feet rather than 2 feet on center) reduces the square-foot cost of the bare framing. This saving, however, is quickly lost when the necessary coverings for the wider spacing are added due to the fact that heavier materials must be used for sheathing and ceiling. Where other considerations dictate the use of wider spacings, it is generally more economical to use (subframing (purlins) and conventional covering materials.

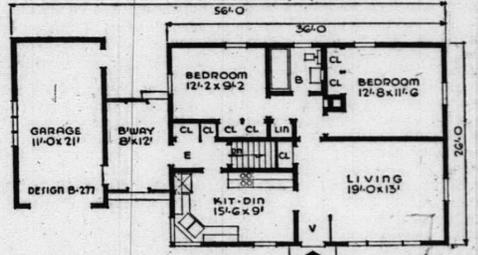

Handy Incinerator
For burning household rubbish, an incinerator built of concrete blocks on a concrete foundation is excellent. The base is 4 by 5 feet, and the concrete should be reinforced with chicken wire, according to Family Handyman. Use standard size building blocks, setting the first course on a thin layer of mortar and leaving two 8" x 8" spaces at the front to provide ample draft for complete incineration. The cover is turkey wire, 1" x 2" mesh, with welded joints so the wires won't separate due to the heat. Eye-bolts may be inserted in the joints between two of the top building blocks, if you want to hinge the mesh cover by looping down two pieces of the wire into the metal eyes.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. B-277

DESIGN B-277. A simple rectangular plan reduces the cutting and framing costs to a minimum. This is such a plan, without projection, and including full basement, living room, combination kitchen-dinette, two bedrooms, bath, breezeway and garage. Plans call for frame construction, asphalt shingles and wide siding. Kitchen cabinets spaced for saving steps and a dinette in the kitchen. Wardrobes are used throughout with a hall linen cabinet, coat closet and a supply and coat closet in the side entry. The floor area is 936 sq. ft. and cubage is 19,386 cu. ft. not including breezeway and garage. For further information about DESIGN B-277, write the Building Editor, The Plymouth Mail.

Texture Emphasizes Accessory Interest

A coffee table top that is marred or shabby-looking can gain style and add character to the room, by means of a new decorative trick.

Measure the exact size of the table top. If oblong, you may desire to work out an individual design in 9"x9" Kenflor vinyl tiles; if round or oval, Kenflor by the yard can be cut with any good household scissors to fit the table. Then cement it fast.

Suitable metal edgings can be purchased from your flooring dealer to finish the edges, and presto, you have a smart coffee table from the vinyl flooring material left over from your new floors.

The National Mineral Wool Association recommends that insulation of a new house be started only after all plumbing, heating and electrical work have been installed. By doing so, you will minimize the chance of having the insulation disturbed—and it will do a more effective job for you.

BUILT-INS

Built-ins are an important feature of the modern house. They add a lot more space to rooms and do away with unsightly shelves and cabinets. Bathroom design today has great emphasis on built-in's. Recessed hampers in the bath's clay tile walls, for instance, make for tidiness, save space.

Something new has been added to acoustical ceiling tile! And that's the new random-hole treatment. You can get these tiles, which are used to deaden sound, with either the random or uniform-hole motif at the Plymouth Lumber and Coal company on Main street.

The tiles are easy to install and you homeowners might want to put them up in the rumpus room or children's playroom—wherever you want to cut down on noise. Not only are they practical, but this new random-hole treatment creates an unusually attractive effect. Along with installing those new ceiling tiles and general refurbishing of your home, you'll want to be sure to keep the place looking just as spic and span as when you first completed your

HERE'S HOW ... MAKE AN AQUAPLANE
Aquaplaning is fun! A broad "plane" for the beginner is easily made of 1-inch lumber preferably light-weight. Three pieces of 1 by 7 1/2-inch lumber are edge glued to form a rectangular slab, 60 inches long and 22 1/2 inches wide. The top pieces, or cleats, are each 1 by 7 1/2 by 22 1/2 inches. Holes are drilled, as shown by the dots in the drawing, for three dozen No. 14, 1 1/4-inch brass, flat-head screws to be countersunk. Set the boards in place as shown, and with a nail mark the position of the holes on the bottom boards. Then drill holes 1/2-inch deep into the bottom boards to accommodate the screws.

Dr. F. W. Bramigk, our local physician, a former resident of Germany, was elected president of a newly formed American academic society at a meeting of the organization Monday night, at Harmonic Hall, on East Grand River avenue in Detroit.

About three o'clock Tuesday afternoon, a grass fire in the rear of the H. S. Lee Foundry and Machine company's plant called out the fire department. The fire had gotten quite a headway, and before the flames could be controlled they got into a pile of lumber in the rear of the John Mertens place. The blaze was finally subdued before any great damage was done.

Shortly after 8 p.m. Monday night members of the fire department were called into service with gas masks to enter the Plymouth United Savings Bank where the janitor accidentally discharged the tear gas bombs

Egyptians Visit America, Stay in Plymouth Home

Gratitude for an opportunity to visit the United States and emphasis on the importance of the work that the Institute of International Education is doing was expressed by an Egyptian couple visiting a few days in Plymouth last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Essayed Elmolla and their 20-month-old daughter, Sohair, of Cairo, Egypt were able to get a glimpse of American family and community life when they stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Miller Ross of 50,000 Ann Arbor road.

Coming to the United States on their first visit last October, the Elmollas spent the year at the University of Michigan, where Elmolla was an exchange professor. In his native country he is a professor of mechanical engineering, at the University of Cairo. Arrangements for his trip were made through the Institute of International Education and he was sponsored by our State Department, his passage being paid with Fulbright funds. Mr. Elmolla stressed the importance of the Institute's work in promoting international understanding and good will through the exchange of persons from foreign countries.

Flying here from Egypt last October, the Elmollas landed in New York and were particularly impressed with the friendliness of the American people and their readiness to go out of their way to assist them. They also noticed the increasing interest on the part of Americans in international relations.

Mrs. Elmolla was especially impressed with American fashions and the freedom enjoyed by American women, such as their being permitted to meet with both men and women friends without a chaperone. This was a new concept for her since she was raised in a conservative Moslem family. She was not permitted to go out with young men, with or without a chaperone, and the Elmolla's marriage was arranged by their parents.

The Elmollas will take back with them many new ideas for their home. The garbage disposal unit found in many American homes intrigued Mrs. Elmolla, and her husband remarked that refrigerators and electric stoves are both expensive to buy as well as to operate. Mr. Elmolla added that only about 10 per cent of the Egyptians have either gas or electric stoves in their homes, although the percentage is growing. Kerosene stoves are most widely used.

The Rosses introduced Mr. and Mrs. Elmolla to Greenfield Village, Belle Isle and the Northland shopping center. Mr. Elmolla also visited the University of Michigan Engineering School and the industrial plants of this area. Spending the remainder of their stay in American sightseeing and getting acquainted with the American people, the Elmollas will leave by boat for Egypt on September 3.

Expect Michigan Apple Shortage

If the only apples that will satisfy your taste are the Delicious variety, you'll probably find fewer apples and higher prices in Michigan.

That's the word from Michigan State college. Though the total state apple crop will be 14 per cent below average, Delicious will be much below that.

Imports from supplies in other states may take up the slack here, though.

The Michigan apple crop is forecast at about 5.7 million bushels, 30 per cent below 1953. There will be a moderate supply of Jonathans and MacIntosh. However, if your favorite is Northern Spy, they will be a good buy this year.

The price is tied to the overall U.S. crop and the consumer purchasing power, rather than the Michigan production only. And the U.S. crop will be plentiful.

It is early, as yet, to make final predictions on the total crop, especially on prices. More complete and accurate forecasts can be made around September 1.

Auto Club Manager Gives Advice For Aid Following Auto Accident

- What would you do in case of an auto accident during a trip away from home?
- Ask L. B. Rice, Automobile Club of Michigan's Plymouth Division manager, and he'll suggest "eight simple steps." They are intended to help you meet what could be a difficult and trying circumstance. Here is Rice's list of things to do:
1. Stop immediately after an accident.
 2. Determine the extent of injury to individuals and give all the aid and comfort you can. But don't try to move anyone who may be unconscious. You'll be helping plenty if you stop severe bleeding and keep the victim warm.
 3. If an accident results in damage to another person or to his property, always be certain to identify yourself fully to the person, irrespective of who may be responsible for the accident. Failure to do this may result in your being charged with leaving scene of an accident, a serious offense.
 4. Call the police. If anyone is injured, police will bring an ambulance and physician.
 5. Get names and addresses of all possible witnesses.
 6. Check your surroundings carefully—the position of the cars, license numbers and anything you feel has bearing on the accident. Step off distances, if possible.
 7. Do not discuss the accident with the other party.
 8. If you are insured, report immediately to your insurance company the details of the accident, even though it may appear trivial.

Timpona Announces Arrival of New Stamps

According to a recent announcement by Postmaster George Timpona, two new stamps will be available to Plymouthites at the local Post Office. Starting September 4, a new four-cent airmail stamp will be placed on sale. The central subject of this stamp will be an American eagle in flight, silhouetted against white billowing clouds. A shaded area of sky will form the outline of the stamp.

The new two-cent Jefferson stamp will be on sale September 16. Red in color, the central subject of this stamp will be a likeness of Thomas Jefferson.

Cadillac

In today's teeming traffic, no-one is "accident-proof." Protect yourself against financial loss due to damage and injuries caused by your car. Insure today!

You Know So Much About Its Owner!

Of course, you don't know the name of the gentleman who holds the title to this beautiful automobile. We can't tell you ourselves who he is. We don't know his name, or his occupation, or the mission that brought him to this particular spot.

And yet, we feel—as you undoubtedly do—that we know a great deal about him!

We would surmise, for instance, that he is a well-known and widely respected member of his community—and a prominent figure in his daily profession.

We would guess, with reasonable certainty, that he is a person of sound judgment and excellent taste.

We would be willing to venture that he places great value on the comfort and safety and well-being of his family and his friends.

And we would feel safe in saying that he is the sort of person you would like to know.

For anyone who has enjoyed the privilege of daily contact with Cadillac owners—as we have—understands that the vast majority of the men and women who drive this distinguished car share a great common bond in all these respects.

Owners, the world over, will testify that the wonderful things a Cadillac says about you constitute one of the finest rewards of Cadillac ownership. But it is important to remember that Cadillac's eloquence is essentially a by-product of Cadillac's quality.

And this quality has never before been so manifest as in the Cadillac creation currently in our showroom. It is beautiful... and distinguished... and luxurious... and fine in performance—to a degree unprecedented, even for the "Standard of the World".

Why not stop in and see us soon for a personal inspection and demonstration? You'll be a most welcome visitor at any time!

Grange Cleanings

Tonight is the fourth and last picnic. It will be held at the same time and same place. If it is raining come to the Grange hall.

On Monday of last week Mrs. Lunn, Mrs. Taylor and Mrs. Vealey attended the funeral at Redford for Ray William Joy, the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Joy of Plymouth. He was a very fine young man.

The Plymouth Grange lost one of its old-time members last week by the death of William Greer. Several of the members attended his funeral.

Mrs. Dorothy Fredericks of Ann Arbor and Mrs. Jesse Tritten were at East Lansing last week from Thursday through Saturday, attending a five-state lecturers course. Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Ohio and Michigan were the states represented by about 180 delegates. Much interesting and helpful knowledge was gained. Mrs. Fredericks is Pomona lecturer for Washtenaw county. Mrs. Tritten is state health chairman.

The important date of the Grange rummage and bake sale is rapidly approaching. It will be held on September 10 and 11. Remember the bake sale is on Friday only but the rummage sale will be on both days.

Soon our Grange's regular meetings and activities will begin again. Let us strive to make the meetings more interesting and attractive. We have a splendid group of members who appreciate worth-while programs.

The first meeting of our new year will be on September 2. It will be pleasant to meet our friends again after the summer vacation.

This is the first of 11 sewer and paving projects scheduled by the city for improvement this year.

One Stroke Keeps Caplin Away From National Meet

A Plymouth teen-age golfer missed by one stroke of qualifying to enter the National caddie golf championship at Columbus, Ohio as he came in third in the Michigan caddie tourney at the Pontiac country club last week. Tyler Caplin, co-captain of the Plymouth high school golf squad last year, shot a 72 to finish third behind the winner, who had a 69, and the runnerup who shot a 71. The first two went to the national finals.

Young Caplin has been a caddie at the Meadowbrook country club this summer. There were 24 teams in the state with over 100 caddies competing. The Meadowbrook team missed by one stroke of taking the team honors; they shot a total of 310 to North Hills 309.

Caplin graduated from Plymouth high school last June where he competed in golf, basketball and cross-country, and plans to enter college this fall.

SPORTS FLASHES
The Sporting News by J. G. Taylor Spink

There is no need to have concern for the Pittsburgh Pirates. They are rebuilding, and that rebuilding is on schedule. One of these days they'll have a great team again.

Those are the words of the Pittsburgh general manager, Branch Rickey, Sr. While now 72, he's still young at heart and abounding with twice as much energy as many men half his age.

Some Pirate followers have felt, and even have said, that Rickey was leading the club to the brink of financial and artistic disaster. They have said that he has cost the Pirate owners $1,850,000 and has piled up an indebtedness of $1,400,000. But to Rickey it's part of his long-range plan. "We'll do the job," he said the other day. "It has cost us money and time and much energy, but we are on schedule—perhaps even ahead of schedule—and we'll succeed. There's something more than hope in this organization," he added, "there is faith. Out of faith come some facts, some knowledge and some results."

What, he was asked, does he have to show for his expenditure of money, time and energy? Well, he had an answer. "We have more than 400 players in our farm system, many of them bonus players who can be considered above the average of ability. We have 14 clubs in our farm system, and they are doing well." He went on to point out that of the 14 farm clubs, seven were in first place in their leagues as of July 27. Out of the 14, only four were worse off than third.

It has been pointed out by baseball men that the Pirates didn't have many players of any worth in the farm system when Rickey took over, but now have a vast system and many players who will be major league stars one day. The Pirates have been hurt perhaps harder than any other club by the armed services draft, because they were building with young players, but Rickey said that from now on just about as many of his boys will be getting out of the service as there are going in.

Rickey doesn't claim to be a miracle man. It takes money and time to build. It took him six years to build the St. Louis Cardinals into a pennant winner from a last-place club, and it took him three years in Brooklyn. But in Brooklyn he had the nucleus of a good club. Under Rickey's leadership, the Cardinals won six pennants and the Dodgers two.

There are several ways to build a ball club, Rickey said, such as buying old selling players, trading, getting players on waivers or drafting them. Maybe a winner can be built up that way, but only a temporary winner. He himself, he said, knows only one way. That is to draw from the free agency field, young players who have a future. These boys, he said, will give you not only one pennant, but several of them. And, at 72, that's what he's aiming at.

Clark Griffith suggested that the majors abolish the farm system. Let the minors go back to individual ownership, he said. Commenting on that, Rickey said Griffith was 40 years behind time. It would be wonderful, he said, but it wouldn't work. The minors can't support themselves, he said, but must have the aid and comfort of the major leagues. The farm system is here to stay.

Olds Scores Win

Rain halted Beglinger Olds Saturday night, but Ann Arbor couldn't halt them Sunday night as the Olds team romped to an easy 12 to 2 win. The Plymouth city champs scored in every inning but the fifth with three runs coming across the platter in the first inning and four more in the second.

Ann Arbor had beaten Jackson in the first round as Olds drew the bye. In the lower bracket Monroe bested Ypsilanti 1 to 0 in a tight duel between two good teams, but Adrian then disposed of Monroe 8 to 1 on Sunday night. Olds faced Adrian on Monday night to determine who would enter the state finals at Wyandotte August 27, 28, and 29.

Gabby Street pitched for Olds and tossed a steady game throughout to record the win. Manager Doug Egloff led the attack with 4 hits in 4 times at bat, one a booming triple.

The results of this tourney will be available next week.

FORD already has "tomorrow's" features
Ford brings you features today that the other low-priced cars can offer, at best, sometime in the future. FORD gives you Ball-Joint Suspension for easier riding and handling Ball-Joint Front Suspension is the greatest chassis advance in 20 years. It does away with old-fashioned kingpins. You get superbly easy handling . . . a far smoother ride. And wear points are cut from 16 to 4.

FORD'S worth more when you sell it, too
Analysis of used car prices shows that Fords return a higher proportion of their original cost at trade-in time than any other car! When you consider Ford's low initial cost . . . Ford's low running cost . . . and Ford's high resale value . . . it's easy to see that Ford is your best buy.

And we are giving the best deals in 30 years

Merchants Lose Sunday's Contest; Must Win One of Two Final Games

The Plymouth Merchants nine in the inter-county league were surprised last Sunday by the Dearborn Vagabond Kings, who replaced the defunct Local 49 club a month ago, and were handed an eighth defeat by a score of 10 to 3. This loss makes the season record an even .500 percent with two games left to play—the Merchants must win one of these to gain the championship playoffs which begin in September. The two remaining games are with first-division clubs, River Rouge and Wayne.

In the game Sunday the local nine started off strong by scoring three markers in the first inning, but were not able to dent the plate thereafter as the Dearborn hurler recovered in grand style to stop every threat. He had a tryout with the Chicago Cubs earlier this year.

In the first inning walks to the first two men, Eddie Kubitsky and Harold DeWulf placed men on first and second and both advanced on a wild pitch with one out. The next man grounded out but Al Moers came through with a single to score the two runs, and stole second from which he scored the third run on a single by Pete Collura. That was all for Plymouth as only five men reached first base the remainder of the game, three on singles and two on bases on balls.

Ed Hock started for Plymouth and was off his usual form being hit freely until he was relieved in the fifth inning by Chuck McIlhargey, who tossed a creditable game the rest of the route. Poor support in the outfield hurt Hock to no end in critical situations as three routine outfield flies were dropped and another misjudged. Young Hock allowed 10 runs and 10 hits, walked three and struck out one man in four innings; McIlhargey allowed no runs and only one hit, walked one and struck out two men in his 4 inning stint.

Horseshoe Entry Deadline Nears

Entries for the local horseshoe tournament conducted by the Recreation Department close Saturday. The tourney being run in connection with the Detroit Free Press to find the champion amateur horseshoe pitcher in Michigan will take place in Riverside Park August 28 with the winner advancing to the state finals at the Michigan State Fair September 4 and 5.

The local tourney will be run on a best two-out-of-three basis with each game at 21 points. All equipment will be furnished and there is no cost whatsoever. Anyone can compete regardless of age with one exception—no one who has competed professionally in this sport may compete.

Herb Woolweaver states that a number of entries have already been received and much enthusiasm is shown for the forthcoming tourney. If anyone wishes to enter all he has to do is call Mr. Woolweaver at the high school and register and full information will be given him. That must be done by Saturday.

The winners scored 4 runs in the first, 2 in the third and 4 more in the fifth inning.

Plymouth had a total of 5 hits; two by Al Moers and one each by DeWulf, Collura and Russeau. Eight batters went down swinging at the third strike.

Sunday the Merchants play River Rouge at Riverside Park at 3:30 p.m.

"B" Teams Gain Playoff Berths

The powerful Northville VFW softball team in the Class B league cinched first place by percentage last week as they trounced Carr's Plumb 22 to 4. A barrage of 24 hits which included a home run and three triples highlighted the attack. Atchinson held the losers to but 6 hits, and also had a perfect day at bat with four straight singles. Light had a homer as did Bloomfield for the losers.

Wall Wire, fighting for a chance to gain the playoffs, wall-chopped Plymouth Stamping 28 to 10 in another free-swinging ball game. The winners counted 10 runs in the fifth inning to put the game away. Boland, Schoeneman and Warkup each contributed a home run for the winners with Bennett clouting one for the losers. This win allowed Wall Wire to enter the playoffs with the aid of a previously rained out game.

Three teams began play Monday night for the right to take home the old milk can, which serves as a trophy in this league. Wall Wire met Daisy Monday night with the winner playing Northville VFW Wednesday night. If another game is necessary the finals will be played tomorrow night at 8 p.m.

The final standings were as follows:

	W	L
Northville	6	1
Daisy	5	1
Wall Wire	3	4
Plymouth St.	2	6
Carr's Plumb	1	5

Sport Glances . . .

by "Professor" Edgar Brown
 The Football Writers Association recently honored the late Grantland Rice by awarding him posthumously the Football Writers Award and establishing the Grantland Rice Memorial Award, which will be presented annually to the college player selected by the writers as outstanding in the nation.
 This is a fitting tribute to one who gave so much to sports. I think the passing of Grantland Rice removed a foremost sports writer from the American sports field. Mr. Rice did not confine his literary works to the printed newspaper page, but was a notable author and poet as well. There have been a lot of nice articles written concerning his great contribution to sports by much better qualified writers than myself, but I would like to comment on one of his poems, which contains a few lines that go like this—"And when the Great Scorer comes to write against your name, He will not mark whether you won or lost, but how you played the game." Remember those lines? All athletes and many others have heard about them. Aren't they terrific with their message? The game referred to could have been anything from an athletic contest to any phase of the game of life—one of the most complicated games!

Football Players To Get Uniforms Starting Tuesday

Football uniforms will be floating through the air in another week or so on the high school athletic field. Head Coach Charles Ketterer sends word that uniforms will be issued beginning next Tuesday to the 21 letter-winners returning from last year's championship squad, and to the many newcomers expected to try out this year. Practice will not begin until Monday, August 30, because of a Michigan High School Athletic rule that states that practice cannot begin until the Monday preceding Labor Day.
 Coach Ketterer says all boys who plan on being at the first practice must have had a physical examination before being issued a suit next week. Blanks have gone out, and these must be returned to the high school principal's office, signed by a doctor and the parent, before the uniform is received. Any new football prospect, who did not receive a physical blank, may secure one at the principal's office the high school. Coach Ketterer will be at his office all day next Monday to interview new football prospects, or to answer questions pertaining to the sport.
 Uniforms will be issued according to grades. Seniors will receive them on Tuesday, August 24; Juniors on Wednesday; Sophomores on Thursday, and anyone else on Friday and Saturday; On the above days uniforms will be issued from 9 to 12 in the morning and from 1:30 to 4:30 in the afternoon.

Those lines simply mean—did you win or did you lose? It really doesn't make much difference as long as you played the game to the best of your ability in a clean, sportsmanlike manner. How more simply could one put it with as much meaning?
 Yes, I believe those few lines should make an impression on every man and woman, every boy and girl, in the world in which we live today.
 The Olds team came through like champions in disposing of the Cavalcade threat. The former champs lost three contests to the Olds outfit, and the latter must be mentioned as a great team in the clutch for when the chips are down they play their best.
 The league had four really good hurlers this year in the persons of Street, Thibodeau, Lowe, and Wicker, and I would hesitate to rank them in order when at their best.
 There were also some mighty good hitters headed by the best slugger to hit the league in a long time, Walter Londeau, who compiled a .510 batting average this season to plague all the hurlers, especially the good hurlers.
 It was fun keeping track of the batting averages this year even though a tremendous amount of work. The game scorers, Jack Carter and Dick Noll, did a magnificent job in keeping the score-sheet exact.

That Davis & Lent team in Class E has had a great season this year and are now playing in the state finals in Saginaw, and I wouldn't be surprised to see them go all the way. The team is coached by Eugene Carter, and composed of young high school players under 16 years of age. They are undefeated this year, and these lads have gained a lot of valuable experience which will aid them in their baseball future a great deal.

MODEL LAW
 Everyone respects the law of gravity because it always operates uniformly, impersonally and without delay.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

The wedge-tailed eagle, often known as the eagle-hawk, is the world's largest eagle. Its nest may be as much as eight feet in diameter and nearly that deep.

Davis & Lent Nine Competes In State Finals

The Davis & Lent team is still rolling along undefeated and as a result of winning the district Class E title at Dearborn last week are now playing in the state finals at Saginaw.

The Plymouth nine didn't have an easy time in winning the Dearborn district crown and had to go extra innings to defeat last year's state Class E championship Hamtramck team 1 to 0. Dick Day hurled one of the best games of his career as he blanked the former champs on three hits in eight innings. Young Day struck out 10 batters, and walked only one man, and then singled in the winning run in the eighth inning.

These two evenly-matched teams played splendid, errorless ball with several fielding gems on each side. The locals broke the scoreless deadlock in the first extra inning when Ken Calhoun led off with a walk, Fairbanks sacrificed him to second, Jack Carter singled him to third, and then with one down, Day came through with his game winning single to break up the game.
 Plymouth had 7 hits, Chuck McKenna had two, a single and a double; and Dick Day, Jack Carter, Cliff Tait, Fairbanks and Foreman one each.

The Davis & Lent nine entered the state tourney at Saginaw Tuesday and played the first game at nine o'clock against winners of other state districts. If successful in that first encounter, the team had to play again at one o'clock the same day. Results will be on this page next week.

NURSERYMAN PETER Christensen of Ann Arbor road impressed fellow nurserymen throughout the state recently with an address given at the Eighth Annual Nursery and Landscape Management conference at Michigan State college. Christensen revealed a new technique for watering potted plants. The new method drew many questions from the 250 delegates. The system employs the use of concrete bins to display the potted plants. The bins are then filled with cinders and occasionally filled with water. This eliminates the constant time-consuming chore of hand watering the plants.

Nurserymen Visit Michigan State For Conference

Several Plymouthites were among the 260 registrants at the Midwest Nursery and Landscape Management conference held last week at Michigan State college. Attending the conference were Neal A. Akerlind, 11289 Haggerly; Peter Christensen, 38901 Ann Arbor road; Jim Davis, 1653 Marlowe; Charles N. Dickow, 45480 Five Mile road; Ned Forster, 50000 West Ann Arbor road; and Mr. and Mrs. George E. Merryweather, 49629 Ann Arbor road.

The registrants were urged to point out to homemakers that "a modest investment in home beautification means hundreds of dollars in increased property valuation."

"We must educate people in the value and pleasure of beautifying their homes," declared Donald P. Watson, Michigan State College horticulture expert. "People could exist without beautification of home areas, but they can't live as well without the adventure in living beauty that the nursery and landscape business provides," he contended.

The nurserymen and landscapers were challenged to be more aggressive in developing their nursery-crop business. Watson told the delegates that they were "important members of a growing industry—one that surpassed many other crops in Michigan." Michigan nursery crops grossed cash receipts of $9,001,000 in 1952, to top even the internationally-famous Michigan cherry crop gross of $8,354,000.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

A special deer season in the northern lower peninsula involving hunting quotas and areas will be recommended to the conservation commission this year, game men report.

The recommendations for quotas and areas will be a change from last year, when 100,000 hunters took about 26,000 deer during a general one-day, any-deer season north of M-55.

However, the conservation department's game division will recommend no change from last year in the archery or regular seasons.

Field investigations show that south of highway M-55, the herd may be "bumping the ceiling," but so long as no top-heavy surplus is evident, no special season is being recommended.

North of M-55, however, game men say the surplus of deer justifies taking bucks, does and fawns in limited numbers and in locations where deer populations are evidently high.

Game workers are thus recommending that the lower peninsula north of M-55 be divided into three hunting areas and that drawings provide permits for a limited number of hunters in each area.

The proposed area 'D' would include all the land between M-55 and M-72 from Harrisville to Acme. That area is from Lakes Huron to Michigan and includes the Leelanau Peninsula. Game studies indicate that 40,000 permits should be issued in this area, giving an expected 27,000 in-the-field hunters and a kill of 8000 deer.

Proposed area 'B' includes the area between M-72 and M-32 from Lake Huron west to US-131 in Antrim and Kalkaska counties. Game men suggest that 20,000 permits would provide 11,500 hunters and a total special season kill of 3600 deer.

Area 'A' will be recommended to include the territory north of M-32 and east of Cheboygan, Black Lake, Onaway, Wolverine and Gaylord. A proposed 21,000 permits is expected to provide 10,700 hunters in this northern-most area, with a total kill of 3000 deer.

These quota-area recommendations are made on the basis of a one-day, December 1, special season. An alternate plan would provide a December 1-3 season with the same areas and roughly half as many permits, but no change in expected kill.

The commission will consider the recommendations, hear delegations from sportsmen and other groups, and is expected to settle on its choice of regulations for 1954 at the August 12-13 meeting in Lansing.

Visitors to northern Michigan this year are again urged to be cautious of bears when traveling in the out-of-doors.

Campers, hikers and tourists should not try to feed or stand close to "semi-tame" bears.

Field workers report that a dry July in the northern areas has cut into the expected berry crops and sent bears looking elsewhere for food.

Bears found near city garbage dumps, resort areas and other similar places should be cautiously avoided. Photographs should be made from a distance.

The bear is one of the most burly and treacherous of animals. His moods are variable and unpredictable. He should be left strictly alone.

Sales of resident fishing licenses appear to be lagging behind last year's all-time high, conservation department officials report.

At this date last year, slightly more than 600,000 had been reported sold. To date this year, 561,000 have been reported sold.

However, A. L. McNeil, in charge of license sales, says a shift this year in the method of reporting sales may account for some of the evident slump.

About the same number of non-resident licenses have been sold to date this year as were sold last year at this time—about 113,000 each year—but sales of trout stamps are down more than 11 percent. Last year at this date, 131,000 had been sold; to date this year, 116,000 have been reported sold.

Sales of both hunting and fishing licenses during the fiscal year of 1953-54 were the highest ever reported in the state; McNeil says he expected some cutback this year from those levels.

Michigan should be proud. Mr. Dock Rivers, age 104, recently rode a bus from his home in Chicago to southwestern Michigan in order to fish in the St. Joseph River.

Mr. Rivers seemed unconcerned by the long journey to arrive at what he must have considered "good fishing."

For some unexplained reason, no rabid foxes have ever been reported found in Michigan, conservation department workers report.

Rabies has been discovered in foxes in Minnesota, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana and Ohio, but to date health authorities have no record of the disease in any Michigan fox.

However, a rabid raccoon has been found in recent years and a few rabid skunks have been found during each recent year.

Any of a number of mammals common to Michigan is susceptible to the dread disease and anyone nipped by any wild animal should try and get the offending creature to health department or conservation authorities for observation. If the animal must be killed in the process, the head should be preserved for laboratory analysis.
