To Decide Monday On School Bond

Between 700 and 1,000 voters in the Plymouth Township School District are expected to cast their ballots Monday to decide on a $3,000,000 bond issue—the largest financial venture ever attempted by the local school system.

The special election will be held in Room 14 of the high school with polls opening at 7 a.m. and closing at 8 p.m.

With the $3,000,000, the board of education plans to construct and equip a junior high and two elementary buildings, purchase school sites, remodel the present junior high for senior high use, refund the 1949 bond issue and pay the first six months' interest on the $3,000,000 issue.

Despite the record-breaking size of the proposal, it will not raise the present school tax rate, school officials point out. To accomplish this, two of the present levies would be canceled and two others reduced. This would provide seven mills which would be levied for 14 years.

It is expected that eight booths will be set up for voters Monday. There are two proposals upon which a vote must be taken. Proposal 1, which will ask approval of the seven-mill levy, can be voted upon by any registered voter.

Proposal 2, which grants authority for the board of education to sell $3,000,000 worth of bonds, can be voted upon only by registered voters who are tax-paying property holders. Voters will be required to sign one of two cards when they appear at the poll. One type of card is signed by those who qualify to vote only on Proposal 1. The other type is signed by those qualified to vote on both proposals.

Because of the simplicity of the voting, paper ballots will be used instead of voting machines.

School officials say they are "very optimistic" when they predict that 1,000 people will vote. There are about 7,000 registered voters in the school district—4,600 in the city and 2,400 in the township. There are also eligible voters where the school district extends into other townships.

The proposed bond issue is the result of present overcrowding in the elementary grades and a study of enrollment and population trends. Enrollment in the school system has jumped on the average of 200 per year since 1950.

If the bond issue is approved, the first project will be construction of an elementary school on Sheldon road. This would not be ready until September 1956. Until then, all elementary schools would need to use their libraries and auditoriums for classrooms. (Three are already using their libraries and one is also using its auditorium.)

The second project would be a

Name McFalda General Manager At Champion

Another step in a program of rapid expansion and modernization was completed last week when Champion Corrugated Container Corporation announced the appointment of a new general manager, the addition of a plant manager, and the installation of three pieces of equipment.

John J. McFalda, General Manager, was elevated to his new position from that of plant manager. McFalda began his career with Champion in 1946, when the firm was one year old, as an hourly production employee. His rise has paralleled that of the firm, and he has been one of those highly instrumental in Champion's present high position in the Michigan container industry.

As McFalda assumed his new duties, the firm announced the appointment of Jack McCalligan as plant manager. McCalligan comes to Michigan from Cleveland, Ohio, where he was employed as Consulting Engineer by Helmick & Associates. In the past few years he has been directly concerned with the installation of incentive and time study programs in major corrugated container plants throughout the country.

Champion's modernization program continued with the installation of two new "Universal" semi-automatic tapers and a special sheet cooler designed to condition the "hot" sheets from the corrugator to normal room temperature before processing.

Race for Township Clerk Post Develops

Mrs. Thomas Range, 41770 Schoolcraft road, will be a Democratic candidate for Plymouth township clerk when the biennial spring election is held April 4. It was learned this week by The Mail.

There were no Democratic nominees for clerk on the primary ballot February 21, but Mrs. Range received three write-in votes. Her Republican opponent on the April 4 ballot will be Norman Miller, the present township clerk. It had previously been reported by The Mail that there would be no contest for township clerk.

Mrs. Range is a part-time employee of the Plymouth office of the Michigan Auto License bureau. Sketches of each candidate in township and city races will appear in next week's edition.

Main Street Bids Now Being Taken

Step No. 1 in the big job of rebuilding Main street from Penniman avenue to Mill street will take place April 7 when city commissioners open bids on the project.

Contractors are now being asked to submit their bids. At a special commission meeting on Thursday, April 7, the bids will be examined by the commission and a decision probably made.

The city's consulting engineer, Herald Hamill, has estimated the cost of the construction at $140,000. From Penniman to a point 120 feet north of Church street, the pavement will be 44 feet wide. From there northward, it will be 40 feet. It will be wide enough for four lanes of traffic.

Approval of the widening and paving plan took place last October. Since then, detailed plans were drawn up and approval was necessary by the State Highway department and Municipal Finance commission.

Some of the preliminary arrangements have already been completed such as are necessary with the C & O railroad and property owners.

Local Construction Firm Announces Plans for 100-Home Development

Un-springlike Storm Injures One

Fallen limbs and trees, broken windows and at least one injury when a limb crashed through a moving car was the result of Tuesday's high winds which lashed Plymouth along with the rest of the Midwest.

Escaping serious injury and possibly death when a limb five inches in diameter smashed through the windshield of his car was Charles Davis, 9011 Ball street.

Davis was on his way home from work at the Burroughs corporation at 8:15 a.m. Tuesday. He had stopped at a bakery and then continued homeward through a driving rain. While on Harvey street between Penniman and Ann Arbor Trail, the limb suddenly smashed through the windshield. It demolished the dashboard and twisted the steering wheel.

Stunned and his clothing torn, Davis jumped from his car and limped to the office of a nearby doctor, found nobody home and walked to a phone booth on Forest avenue where he called police. He was later taken to Sessions hospital in Northville where he was treated for bruises to his hip, hand and knee.

Several large trees and limbs fell during the day. A tree nearly 40 feet tall fell against the Hugh Gardner home, 144 East Pearl street. Although it leaned against six windows, none were broken.

A large limb fell on the home of William Hobson, 264 West Ann Arbor Trail. It ripped the eaves trough, broke down a fence and caused water to seep into the home.

A large tree also fell on East Ann Arbor trail west of Harvey. It fell into the street, causing no damage.

The Sunoco service station at Holbrook and Main street had two windows blown out. Estimate of the damage, one a large plate glass on the side of the building and a smaller one in front, was placed at over $200.

The wind kept the Detroit Edison and Michigan Bell Telephone companies busy. Reports of fallen wires were numerous in the area.

There was also a report that a sudden blast of wind caused a driver to lose control of his car on Hagerty road near Allen school, causing it to go into a ditch.

WHAT HAPPENED when a limb crashed through the windshield of a car driven by Charles Davis, 9011 Ball street, is being examined here by a patrolman shortly after the limb was removed by city workmen. The mishap took place during Tuesday's violent wind-storm.

Commissioners Taking Look at New Site for Garbage-Rubbish Disposal

City commissioners will travel into Salem township this Saturday morning to inspect a possible new site for burying the city's rubbish and garbage—a problem that has been with the commission for nearly two years.

In a report to commissioners at their meeting Monday night, City Manager Albert Glassford said that the Salem township board is asking neighboring cities of Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti and Plymouth to dump their rubbish into three unused quarries in the township to eliminate the hazard they cause.

Glassford said that the nearest quarry, located on Chubb road, would take years to fill. At present, garbage is being buried in a sanitary land fill north of Junction street beside the city garage, while rubbish is being dumped at $1 per load in a pit owned by the Schoolcraft Sand & Gravel company on Eckles road. There would be no charge for dumping in the Salem township quarries.

City officials have been attempting for some time to locate a site where rubbish and garbage can be buried at the same time. This would mean that garbage and rubbish could be picked up at the same time from householders and would eliminate an extra tour of the city by pick-up trucks each week.

City's Largest Building Program to Start Soon

One of the few major undeveloped areas inside Plymouth's boundaries will be the site of a 100-unit home construction program, it was announced this week by a local construction firm, Turk & Ramsey, Builders. Cost of the new development will be nearly $2,000,000.

Located in the city's southeast quarter, it will be bordered by the school district's new junior high school site and by Maplecroft subdivision.

Mrs. Hough To Chairman Spring Ball

Under the direction of General Chairman Mrs. Margaret Hough plans were being made this week for the annual Symphony Spring Ball to be held at the Plymouth high school auditorium Friday, April 15.

Mrs. Hough announced that the Plymouth Symphony Society had again secured the popular Sammy Woolf and his orchestra for the affair. Woolf has performed at two previous Symphony dances and moved highly entertaining and popular with dancers. His orchestra is well known in Detroit night club, TV and radio circles.

The Symphony dances, sponsored by the Society at Christmas and in the spring, have become the social highlights of Plymouth. The events have been particularly well attended by vacationing college students as well as the general public. Dress is optional and dancing continues from 9 p.m. until 1 a.m.

Assisting Mrs. Hough on arrangements are Mr. and Mrs. Harry Draper, Harper Stephens, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Besse, Mrs. Charles Humphries, Mrs. Knut Anderson, Miss Hanna Strasen and Miss Hildur Carlson. The decorations committee is headed by Mrs. Ray Hulce who will be helped by Mrs. David Wood, Mrs. Harold Guenther, Mrs. William Congdon, Mrs. M. J. Huber and Mrs. Harrison Moore.

Tickets are available from any committee member as well as members of the Plymouth Symphony Board.

Dry Weather Brings Grass Fire Wave

Dry weather has again brought a wave of grass fires in Plymouth township. Fire Chief Bud Holmes declared this week. As always, the fires were caused by house-holders who fail to stand by as they burn wastepaper and other rubbish.

Firemen were called out three times last week to extinguish grass fires. The chief pointed out that incinerators of wire especially need close watching because of sparks which easily blow from them. Chief Holmes also reminded citizens that a permit is needed from the fire department to burn large rubbish piles.

Purchase of the 28-acre tract was made from two persons, Mary C. Mertens, 882 South Mill, and Leo J. Hughes, 880 South Mill.

Some of the present streets bounding the properties on the West and north will be extended through the development. The northern boundary street will be Carol avenue and the southern boundary will be Edison. Between these two will be an extension

Increasing Attendance Forcing City's Churches to Build

Population gains in the Plymouth area and an apparent trend toward a "return to religion" has prompted nearly every church in the city to start or plan for the construction of additions or entirely new churches.

Two churches are already in the midst of construction work, three others plan to get started this year and seven more hope to begin building within the next few years.

One congregation, Church of the Nazarene, moved into its new church building on East Ann Arbor Trail last year. Next in line are First Baptist and St. Peter's Lutheran churches which are now well into their building programs. Additions to First Presbyterian, Calvary Baptist, and First Methodist church are all expected to get underway this year.

The seven churches hoping to start construction within the next few years are St. John's Episcopal, Church of Christ, Scientist, Riverside Park Church of God, Our Lady of Good Counsel, Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Assembly of God and Seventh Day Adventist. Like the school system's elementary buildings, Sunday schools are feeling the pinch of increased enrollment. A number of the building programs are designed to increase classroom space for youngsters.

The largest building program currently underway is the new St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church. Builders estimate that the new building under construction at Penniman and Garfield avenues will be completed sometime in June.

Ground was broken for the $229,000 edifice on August 15 and the cornerstone was laid October 31. The auditorium will seat about 550 people. The basement floor will include an auditorium for social functions, Sunday school rooms, a kitchen and office. The present church is at the eastern end of Spring street.

First Baptist church, located at Mill and Spring streets, started their expansion work two weeks ago by tearing out the rear wall of the building. A false wall has been constructed inside so that services can continue. A 24-foot extension will be added to the rear of the building. This extension, costing about $30,000, will enlarge the sanctuary and provide additional classrooms, an office, baptistry and choir room. The interior of the auditorium will also be modernized.

An addition to the First Presbyterian church is scheduled to start within a few weeks. Groundbreaking will take place April 3. The $150,000 addition on the rear of the present building will increase Sunday school classrooms to 22, provide a relocated kitchen, an enlarged dining room, a chapel, rehearsal and robing rooms for the choir, an activity room for Scouts and additional storage space.

Dedication ceremonies for the Presbyterian addition are expected in October.

Calvary Baptist church on West Ann Arbor Trail has announced its intentions to build a $50,000 addition onto the present structure. Construction is to get underway sometime this year.

An educational unit 37 by 80 feet is to be constructed east of the present building. The present building is also being remodeled for classrooms and the front of the building changed into a colonial motif.

The official board of First Methodist church has approved conversion of the gymnasium into Sunday school classrooms. Architectural plans are now being drawn to use the upper part of the gym for classrooms while the lower half will be used for a meeting hall. Church gymnasiums, it was found, are no longer being built due to recreational facilities being furnished by public agencies.

It is hoped that this part of the program can be started this year. Meanwhile, church officials are also looking forward to an enlargement of the church auditorium proper. The auditorium now holds about 350 people. An addition would increase this to about 500. The official board now owns the property of Dr. M. W. Hughes beside the parsonage and recently purchased the Bolin property behind the Hughes home. By relocating the parsonage, the church enlargement could be made and parking space provided.

Church officials estimate that by converting the gymnasium instead of constructing a new building, they are able to save $75,000.

In "perhaps two years," the congregation of St. John's Episcopal church may start construction on a new church on Sheldon road. A site has already been purchased on which a parsonage was constructed two years ago.

Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church has a committee now discussing plans for a new church. The present building is much too small for permanent church use and would be used for other purposes. The Reverend Father Francis Byrne said that construction may be started as soon as next year.

The Christian Science church of Plymouth has purchased a building site for its new church. It is the Walter Kellogg Sumner home at 1078 West Ann Arbor trail. There have been no definite building aims set by the membership.

Hopes of building a church of their own in several years are being expressed by members of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. A committee has been formed to develop a program. The congregation has been holding services in the Masonic Temple for the past few years.

Plymouth Assembly of God, located on East Ann Arbor Trail, has developed a building fund to construct an addition for Sunday School facilities. The membership contemplates construction next year.

Seventh Day Adventists are also among the congregations wanting to construct a new church. Services are now held in the IOOF hall. There are no definite plans as to where or when a building can be constructed.

Members of the Riverside Park Church of God, located at Plymouth and Newburg roads, are actively engaged in building fund work right now. The building fund campaign opened last month. Tentative plans call for a new chapel to be added to the present building.

The Salvation Army is among the few churches not planning any expansion. The present Citadel was constructed only a few years ago and is large enough for present needs.

ONE HUNDRED homes mean a lot of building ahead for Kenneth Ramseyer, left, who shows a plat of the development to James Latture, local real estate agent who will sell the homes. The development was announced this week by Turk & Ramsey, Builders.

Barbara J. Goodale Weds Livonia Resident

At a ceremony held Saturday evening, March 5, in the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, Barbara Jean Goodale became the bride of Douglas A. Shaw of Livonia. Barbara is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Loren J. Goodale, 196 Hamilton street. The bridegroom is the son of Mrs. R. Douglas Shaw, 15674 Stamford road, Livonia; and the late Mr. Shaw.

The Reverend Henry J. Walch read the 8 o'clock nuptial service before an altar graced with baskets of gladioli, and stock. Candelabra and palms completed the church decorations. Soloist for the wedding ceremony was Miss Margie Thomas.

Given in marriage by her father, Barbara wore a gown of chantilly lace styled with sweetheart neckline and large regal collar. The all-lace bouffant skirt of the gown terminated in a cathedral-length train. The bridal veil, of finger-tip silk illusion, was secured by a crown of seed pearls and sequins. A colonial bouquet of white carnations with white orchid was carried by the bride.

Maid of honor was Miss Beverly A. Goodale, sister of the bride. Her gown was aqua crystallite in waltz length styled with long torso and empress collar. The matching bolero had three-quarter length sleeves. Miss Goodale carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations.

Betty Grann of Plymouth and Hazel Hinkson of Wyandotte were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the maid of honor's with the exception of the color which was pink. Bouquets of aqua carnations were carried by the bridesmaids.

The flowergirl was Annette J. McMullen, niece of the bride. She wore a light blue dress and carried pink carnations. Attired in navy blue suits, David Kurtz, nephew of the bridegroom, and Alan J. McMullen, Barbara's nephew, were ringbearers for the ceremony.

Douglas asked David Marsh of Detroit to be his best man. Seating the guests were Loren J. Goodale, a brother of the bride; Robert Shelton and Jack Kurtz of Livonia.

The bride's mother chose a dinner-length dress of gray lace over tea rose for the occasion. Her accessories were of tea rose hue. Mrs. Shaw selected a navy blue dinner-length gown, worn with pink accessories. Both of the mothers wore pink camellia corsages.

Following the ceremony a reception attended by 150 guests was held in the church parlor. Attending were friends and relatives from Plymouth, Livonia, Northville, Wixsom, Inkster, Wayne, Birmingham, Detroit, Dearborn and Lakeland.

For traveling to the Smoky Mountains and Fort Lauderdale, Florida, the new Mrs. Shaw changed to a grey tweed suit with peacock blue and white accessories, worn with the orchid from her bridal bouquet.

The couple will live in Livonia until July when they will move into their new home in Franklin Knolls, Michigan.

Barbara is a Plymouth high school graduate of 1951. Douglas graduated from the local school in 1950.

Parade of Bands Slated March 29

When postponement of the "Parade of Bands" was necessary last month due to the great amount of absences from the bands, the date was changed to March 29. Under the direction of Mr. Lawrence Livingston, the band students from all the elementary grade schools, junior high, and senior high schools will participate.

The selections to be played by the senior band are "His Honor March," by Henry Fillmore; "Victor Herbert's Favorites," by Victor Herbert; "Night Beat," by Harold L. Walter; plus the three numbers this group played at the band festival held in Ypsilanti on February 26, where they received an excellent rating. Also to be played are "Symphony No. 1 in E Flat," by Camille Saint-Saens, "Au Pays Lorrain," by G. Baly, and "Pride of The Marines," written by Austyn R. Edwards.

LEANING AGAINST the home of William Hobson, 264 East Ann Arbor Trail, this large limb did only minor damage despite its size. It fell about 8:30 a.m. Tuesday at the start of a wind, rain and snow storm which lasted all day.

PLANNING THE SIXTH annual "White Breakfast," held during Holy Week of each year, are the above members of the Women's association of the First Presbyterian church, sponsors of the event: From left, General Chairman Mrs. Roy Jacobus, Mrs. Lee Coolman and Mrs. Carvel Bentley. The Lenten observance will be held April 7 at 10 a.m. in the local church.

Students Attend Hi-Y, Tri-Hi-Y Program

Two Plymouth high school students, Tom Rowe and Foster Brown, attended a meeting of the Tri-Hi-Y and Hi-Y at the Wayne University Student Center in Detroit on Saturday, March 19, from 2:30 to 11:00 p.m.

"Looking Ahead," the theme of the program, was planned by the Metropolitan Hi-Y Council. Reverend Harry Rine DeYoung spoke at the opening and closing of the program which consisted of discussion groups and talks.

Topics discussed were: College, including scholarship; Draft and effect, National Politics, Dating and Marriage, Maturity, Growing up; Brotherhood, World Peace; Detroit's Future, Teachers and Schools, and Vocational Guidance. The program was a date affair at which the girls provided a box lunch and an evening dance followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Elliott of Kalamazoo, former Plymouth residents, were weekend guests last week of Mr. and Mrs. T. P. Bateman of West Ann Arbor trail.

Police Summarize City's Accidents

When and where is it most dangerous to drive in Plymouth? Where do most of the people live who have accidents here and are most of the drivers in mishaps men or women?

Those are a few of the questions that the Plymouth police department has answered in an accident summary for 1954. A total of 181 drivers were involved in 117 accidents inside the city during the year. (Not counted are many very minor mishaps on which a complete accident report is not filed.)

The most dangerous intersection last year was South Mill and Ann Arbor trail. Nine mishaps occurred there in 1954. A traffic light has now been installed. South Main street, which starts at city hall, is the most dangerous street. Twenty-two of the accidents happened along the route last year.

The report also shows that the most dangerous hour to drive is between 5 and 6 p.m. More accidents happened on Saturday than any day of the week.

There were 139 male drivers involved in the accidents; 42 female drivers. Ninety-three drivers involved in mishaps were from Plymouth; 88 lived elsewhere. Sixty-eight accidents happened in shopping areas; 49 happened in residential districts.

Improper turning was the largest cause of accidents, followed by following too closely, not granting the right-of-way and driving in the wrong lane.

Forty-eight of the accidents involved drivers from 25 to 34 years old; 41 accidents happened to drivers 20 to 24, and 35 accidents involved drivers 35 to 44. There were 12 mishaps involving teenage drivers.

Mr. and Mrs. George Evans and son, Robert, of Flint, were Sunday callers at the Robert Lidgard home on Pine street.

To Trade Mayors With Hazel Park

The Mayor of Hazel Park in Oakland county will become Plymouth's "mayor-for-a-day" next May 16 when Exchange of Mayors Day highlights the Second Annual Michigan Week.

Harry Larsen of the Plymouth branch, National Bank of Detroit, has been appointed by Mayor Russell Daane as chairman of the celebration here. The week is from May 15-21.

Last year, the first time that Michigan Week was attempted, the mayors of Plymouth and Benton Harbor were exchanged. Mayor F. J. Flaugh was a guest of Plymouth city officials and other civic leaders throughout the day while Mayor Daane was treated to similar festivities in Benton Harbor.

Pairings for the Exchange of Mayors Day took place in Lansing with Governor Williams drawing the first ten pairings. Some 497 incorporated cities and villages were paired by drawing.

In most municipalities, elections on April 4 will bring about a change in mayors. In Plymouth, the reorganized city commission will elect a mayor from its ranks at the first meeting following the election.

Detroit's mayor will be exchanged with the mayor of Algonac (population 2,639). Livonia's mayor will be exchanged with the mayor of Pinckney in Livingston county; Northville will exchange with Centerville in St. Joseph county and Garden City will exchange with Center Line in Macomb county.

Study Committee Chairman Named

City commissioners accepted the resignation Monday night of the chairman of the Plymouth Community Study committee and appointed Carl Caplin, the vice-chairman, to fill the vacancy.

As was announced last week, Frank Henderson had filed his resignation as chairman "due to the pressure of personal matters." Caplin served as "temporary chairman" of the first committee meeting March 8. Caplin is a township member of the committee and Henderson was a city member.

Don Ward was named by the commission to fill Caplin's former post as vice-chairman. Henderson's resignation also left a vacancy on the 16-member city representation. Named to fill that vacancy was Dean Saxton, 585 West Ann Arbor trail.

The next meeting of the committee is Tuesday, April 12.

Mrs. John Miller entertained the members of her Birthday club Monday afternoon in her home on Irvin street. Mrs. Paul Wiedman was guest of honor at the party.

Noted Book Reviewer To Speak in Plymouth

Arrangements have been made by St. John's Auxiliary for the presentation of a lecture by Mrs. Charles Denger of Jackson, well-known book reviewer, on Thursday, March 31. Open to the public, the event will be held at 1 p.m. in the parish hall of St. John's Episcopal church.

A former president of the Diocese of Michigan, Mrs. Denger has proved a popular speaker throughout the state. She is on a return engagement to Plymouth, having given previous talks before enthusiastic local audiences.

The guest speaker has selected for her March 31 book review Irving Stone's best seller, "Love Is Eternal."

Dislikes Sunday Ordinance

To the editor:

In a front page story appearing in The Plymouth Mail for the issue of March 10, 1955 it would appear that after March 29th it will have become a crime for any person to sell a used car anywhere within the good city of Plymouth on Sunday. In fact he cannot, under penalty of the law, sell any kind of a car on Sunday, either new or used, and not even though he knows that the would-be buyer would use the car to more often take his family to and from a Plymouth church. But it will still be all right, it would seem, for any one located just outside the city to do this thing.

Not only cars, but in Plymouth on Sunday, after March 29th, there are still other things which the local purveyor of goods must not sell. These include, so the story goes, furniture and floor coverings, electrical appliances, television sets and radios. To sell any of these things in Plymouth on Sunday, so it seems, will soon become a sin and a disgrace—subject to all the penalties of the constitutional or otherwise law.

But the owner of a business in Plymouth need not, however, feel too badly about this new state of affairs. The druggist, for instance, need have no fear in selling a Sunday customer a gallon of ice cream—just so long as he makes sure that at the same time he does not also sell him an electric razor. After March 29th, should Mr. Druggist condescend to sell a friend an electric toaster on Sunday—well, he'll have to do it on the sly. Otherwise, fine or imprisonment will be staring him in the face. But there will still be many goods which the local merchant can sell on Sunday without fear of prison bars.

And it also seems that it will still be all right for the Plymouth theatre owner to sell kiddies tickets to see a cop-and-robbers movie play on Sunday. On the other hand, no Plymouth man may sell any daddy of these kiddies a TV set on Sunday, so that junior can see the same cops and robbers on week days instead of on Sundays. Then too, it will still be o.k. for the gas station attendant to sell gas to any Plymouth motorist just before he sets out to see a Sunday baseball game. Whether or not it will still be lawful for the same attendant to sell the motorist a new tire on Sunday has not been learned.

Then once again, while it is not traditional for Plymouth lumber yards to stay open on Sunday, yet there is no known law to prevent them from doing so. And if one of them did open on Sunday, or if a new lumber dealer came to town and did open on Sunday, he would still be entirely within his rights to sell a do-it-yourself Sunday customer a trailer load of building material. But he must ever be on guard lest he make the mistake of selling to the same customer on the same day, and on the side, a washing machine. It is not known by this writer, however, why the selling of lumber in Plymouth on Sunday would be right, whereas the selling of a washer would be a sin.

Much more could be said about this new city ordinance which becomes effective March 29th, about its constitutionality, about the American way of life, about free enterprise, about the keenness of American competition and all that, but the honest opinion of many local citizens would seem to be that all the facts behind it have so far been unrevealed. Can we now not have all the facts behind this new and restrictive Plymouth city ordinance?

On the face of the situation this new city ordinance may seem sufficiently harmless, but what are the facts behind the face? Do the people before hand have a right to know all the facts? Does the new ordinance contribute to the greatest good to the greatest number of the Plymouth consuming public? Is this new ordinance to make us the laughing stock among other communities? Has the selling of consumer goods in Plymouth on Sunday ever been a menace or a problem? What is the problem? If there be no problem, then why the ordinance? Who is affected—adversely or otherwise—and why? Let's have the facts.

This writer is not an irreligious individual. This writer does not believe in the wanton commercialization of Sunday. This writer believes in the moral code and this writer believes in the good life. All this, however, is beside the point. Americans are a free people—at least we have been free and let us forever keep green the faith that we can continue to be free. America became great under principles among which is the one which established this freedom, and a facet of which decrees that we shall have no arbiters to instruct us what we shall do or not do on Sunday which we cannot with propriety and in good taste do on all the other days of the week.

Respectfully submitted by Karl Starkweather

Girl Scouts
Need Leaders

With a waiting list of some 50 prospective Brownies and 25 girls who would like to become Girl Scouts, the Plymouth Girl Scout council has sent out an appeal for more leaders, assistant leaders and troop committee members.

Plans are under way to begin a basic training program for women interested in Brownie and Girl Scout leadership so that new troops may be set up to take care of the many youngsters who would like to participate in Scouting.

The first session in the training course will start this Tuesday, March 29, to be followed up by subsequent Tuesday sessions on April 5, April 19 and April 26. Each training period will be held between the hours of 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge. They will be under the leadership of Mrs. Robert Houston assisted by a committee of volunteer trainers.

Those attending the program are asked to bring their lunch. Coffee will be furnished at the lodge. Anyone wishing further information may call Mrs. Houston.

Supported by the community fund, the Girl Scout movement in Plymouth offers a fine lodge, day and conventional camping at Cedar Lake as well as a program of weekly troop activities. At present 275 girls are registered in 17 troops.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Conery and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Terry were the Saturday evening dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Brocklehurst of Wing street.

Architects, accountants, engineers, and funeral directors are now included under social security beginning 1955.

Finals for Speakers

Final exams already have the students of the speech classes concerned as they are to prepare a speech on an approved topic and the address is to be at least twenty minutes long.

Also, upon meeting this final test the speakers are to be provided with an audience as in the past and will deliver the prepared message in the auditorium.

In this way the students will be experiencing something new even in their final exam.

Surviving are his wife, Clara of the Livonia address; two sons, David E. of Dearborn and Charles J. of Columbus, Ohio; a daughter, Mrs. Elizabeth Weiss of Lansing, Michigan; one brother, Dr. William A. Rebert of Dayton, Ohio; and five grandchildren.

The Reverend Robert Weiskotten of New York and the Reverend Waldo Egbert of Clawson, Michigan officiated at the 4 p.m. services held Saturday, March 19, from the Schrader funeral home. Interment was made in Bethlehem cemetery, Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Amelia Rosenberg
In ill health for the past 10 years, Mrs. Amelia Rosenberg, 94, passed away Sunday, March 20, at the Ypsilanti State hospital. She had formerly resided with her nephew, Fred Gates, of 174 Harlberg.

Born in 1861, Mrs. Rosenberg came to Plymouth in 1925. Her husband, Charles, preceded her in death. She is survived by only nieces and nephews.

Services were held yesterday for Mrs. Rosenberg at 9:30 a.m. from the Schrader funeral home. The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson officiated. Interment was made in Alma, Michigan.

Vincent D. Schaar

Services were held in the Reorganized Latter Day Saint church in Lake Orion, Michigan, on March 11, for Vincent D. Schaar, father of Mrs. Russell Knight of Brookville road. Mr. Schaar passed away the morning of March 8 at the Veteran's hospital, Dearborn. He had been in the hospital five weeks.

One of the early residents of the Thumb, Mr. Schaar was born November 17, 1874, at Bay Port, Michigan. As a young man, he had worked in the lumber camps and on ships on Lake Huron. His early married life was spent in Detroit, where all his seven children were born.

In 1918 the family moved to Lake Orion, where Mr. Schaar and his son Livingston were contractors. Ill health caused him to turn his business entirely over to his son, and the past several years were spent with his various children after the death of Mrs. Schaar in 1940.

During 1954 he resided with his daughter and son-in-law, the Russell Knights, but was in poor health most of the time.

From the time of his baptism in 1897, to his death he was actively engaged in church work, being especially interested in Sunday school.

He is survived by his seven children, a step-mother, five brothers and five sisters.

Set Schedules For All Junior Police Activities

Activities of the Plymouth Junior Police have stepped up with the addition of boxing, rifle shooting and a drum and bugle corps.

Meeting in the Bronson building in the Central Parking Lot, the Junior Police organization is only several months old. It has gained the support of nearly every men's organization in the city.

In addition to the general meeting of the group, weekly activity meetings are held. Here are the dates for boxing, movies, drum and bugle drill, archery instruction and rifle club meets:

Boxing started March 7 and is held each Monday through April 25. Meetings are from 7 to 8:30 p.m.

Junior Police movies are held each Friday night through April 29. These meetings are from 7 to 8 p.m.

Archery instruction, because of the large enrollment, is divided into two sections each meeting night. Tonight's schedule is 6:30 p.m., I.D. card numbers 271 to 305, at 8 p.m. Nos. 306 to 375. March 30 at 6:30 p.m., Nos. 200 to 235 at 8 p.m., Nos. 236 to 270. March 31 at 6:30 p.m., Nos. 271 to 305; at 8 p.m., Nos. 306 to 375. April 6 at 6:30 p.m., Nos. 200 to 235; at 8 p.m., Nos. 236 to 270. April 7 at 6:30 p.m., Nos. 271 to 305; at 8 p.m., Nos. 306 to 375.

The rifle club, sponsored by the National Rifle association, will meet each Tuesday from 7 to 8 p.m.

The drum and bugle corps, under the guidance of the Mayflower post, V.F.W., holds its meetings each Saturday morning from 10 to 11 o'clock. Meetings are scheduled through April 30.

Versatile Family room takes relaxed furniture arrangement, simple lines and sub-dyed colors as restful background. Uses hardy upholstery and accessories that can "stand the gaff." New High Nob carpet features a hand-crafted texture that will take plenty of rough wear. An ideal set-up for Rumpus Room or T.V. Room.

Offers CD Home Protection Course

The second series of training sessions in Civil Defense home protection exercises will be held March 28 and April 4, 11 and 18. It was announced this week by the Office of Civil Defense. The notice was especially directed to members of Parent-Teacher associations.

The sessions are designed to acquaint women with methods of caring for their own families in case of disaster. Several representatives from out-county P.T.A.'s attended these earlier sessions when the first series was held six weeks ago.

Classes will be given by the Detroit CD office at 900 Merrill Plaisance, Palmer Park District, Detroit. Classes are held in two sessions, one in the afternoon from 1 to 3 p.m. and the other in the evening from 8 to 10 p.m.

For further information, contact can be made with William B. Davis at University 2-9975.

American families are spending more time at home it seems, since the "do-it-yourself" activity amounted to a $6-billion business last year.

Two Plymouthites Picked to Compete In Talent Show

Two Plymouth youngsters were named this week as final contestants for the April 1 Amateur Variety show to be sponsored by the Northville American Legion post.

Chairman Paul Burnham announced that a saxophone solo by Vern Diedrick and a tap and ballet dance by Janelle Steinhoff would be featured among the 25 talent acts selected for the event.

The Plymouthites were among the 50 area youngsters from 12 to 18 years of age competing Friday night as entrants in the show. Now chosen as final contestants, the local residents will compete the night of the event for $100, $75, $50 and $25 awarded as prizes. An applause meter will determine the selection of winners.

Richard Kline, chief announcer for WOPN Pontiac, will emcee the April 1 show which starts at 8:30 p.m. in the Northville Community building. Evelyn Woods of the Plymouth Music center will be pianist for the event.

Tickets will be on sale this Saturday morning, March 26, at the Plymouth Stop & Shop. They will be available up to the date of the show at the Plymouth Music center, Northville Florist and at the door of the Northville Community building the night of the event.

A cheerful temper joined with innocence will make beauty attractive, knowledge delightful and wit good-natured.

Found Not Guilty In Assault Case

A verdict of not guilty was returned by a jury Monday in an assault and battery case filed against the caretaker of the township dump.

In one of the city's infrequent jury cases, Steve Muska, 9191 Sheldon road, was found not guilty of charges against him filed by George Zamboras, 12701 Dump court.

The incident happened February 21 when Zamboras took a load of trash to the dump on Eckles road near Schoolcraft. The plaintiff said that Muska told him where to dump the trash, but he found the site so muddy that he dumped it in a different spot.

Zamboras then claimed that Muska started to yell at him, came racing up and struck him in the face. Zamboras' glasses were broken and his face cut.

The defendant claimed, however, that Zamboras was lifting a box, slipped and fell, striking his face against the box.

Municipal Judge Nardino Perlongo presided at the trial.

of Palmer. Extending from the north will be Fairground and Virginia avenues.

If the school bond issue is approved by voters next Monday, construction will be started on a junior high building which will be adjacent to the new housing development. The 20-acre school site will be south of the homes.

Only in the southwestern section of the city will there remain large areas of residentially-zoned land still not subdivided.

Attendance High At "Colorama"

In spite of the snowy gale which swept into Plymouth late Tuesday afternoon and raged most of the night, an excellent attendance was reported at the Pease "Colorama", held in the high school auditorium that night.

Three hundred residents braved the storm to hear the featured speaker, Miss Irma Dutrieux, color stylist from South Bend, Indiana, demonstrate the correlation of color, fabrics and furnishings in the home.

Starting off her talk with a color film on "Creating a Home," the color stylist presented a wide variety of color schemes in keeping with the varying tastes and budgets of her listeners.

Using a floor plan of an entire house, Miss Dutrieux demonstrated how colors may be blended from room to room to achieve an integrated appearance of the home's effect. Also discussed was now to set the theme of a room through use of wall paints and papers, color and fabrics.

Following intermission Dan Sneberger, carpet representative, spoke on types and qualities of carpeting for the home. A film, "Miracle under Foot", was presented to show the use of carpet in the home and its coordination with other decorations and furnishings.

A display on problem walls and how to correct them was set up outside the auditorium. William Baker of Detroit, specialist in this field, answered questions posed by visitors. Howard Green of Pease Paint and Wallpaper, sponsor of the event, demonstrated refinishing furniture at a similar display.

To Decide Monday

junior high to be opened in September 1957 and the third would be another elementary school to be opened in 1958 or 1959.

About $90,000 is slated for the purchase of school sites. Another $340,000 will go to refund outstanding bonds issued back in 1949. To remodel the junior high when it is vacated and to change classrooms in the present senior high, another $100,000 would be set aside. Interest of $50,000 would then be paid to cover the first six months of the bond issue.

If the bond issue is approved, here is how the school board would get the seven mills needed from previous levies in order to stay within the present school tax rate:

1. Cancel the present five mills for the 1949 bond issue by paying it off. Mills gained 5
 2. Cancel the present one mill levy approved last year for building and site purposes. Mills gained 1
 3. Reduce a tax levy voted in 1951 from one mill to one-half mill. Mills gained 1/2
 4. Reduce a tax levy voted in 1952 from two mills to one and a half mills. Mills gained 1/2
- Total Mills Gained 7

Health Class Studies Food Meal Planning

For the past week the seventh grade health class has been studying a unit on nutrition. The students have studied food values and calories in different foods, and have planned many menus which would be nutritious and appetizing.

The class took a survey and found that many girls were not eating proper lunches when they bought them in town. They also found that the school offers a well balanced and appetizing lunch every day.

Last week the girls each "chipped in" money, and bought food for a lunch they had planned.

To Sponsor Card Party

A Spring Card party, open to the public, will be sponsored Monday night by the Plymouth unit of MOMS of America, Inc., at 8 p.m. in the Veterans Community center, Main street.

Refreshments will be served and prizes awarded at the event. Ticket chairman is Mrs. Adolph Kushler.

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

In working for the My World badge, junior high school Scouts of Troop 14 are being acquainted with other countries and customs of other people. On Tuesday, March 8, they enjoyed a visit from Mrs. Samuel Hudson. Lovely colored slides of Scotland and England were shown by Mrs. Hudson. She told the girls many interesting things about her native land. On March 15, Miss Marion Kaufman of Rosedale Park in Detroit was the guest of the troop. Troop 19 and 23 also attended to hear Miss Kaufman tell of her travels in Japan where she spent some time with the U.S. Government special services division. She had many interesting pictures to show.

Members of Troop 6 gave a play as part of their Second Class badge requirements. The audience was composed of members of Troop 17. Following the play, refreshments were served by Troop 6. Mrs. Woodrow Tichy and Mrs. Robert Barbour all leaders of T-6 and Mrs. Earl Luehling and Mrs. James Gretzinger of Troop 17.

Brownie Troop No. 18 met Monday of this week and worked on the requirements for being a tenderfoot Girl Scout. They also made nesting-material articles for birds which they mounted on platform stations. Mrs. William Rudick has been assisting Leader Virginia Adams during the month of March.

The same boiler that supplies heat for the house may also be used to melt snow and ice on sidewalks and driveways, says the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau. The same boiler will also heat the water for the bathroom, kitchen, and laundry in the summer as well as in the winter.

Plan Organization Of Men's Garden Club

A movement is under way in Plymouth to organize a Men's Garden club which will eventually be affiliated with the Men's Garden Clubs of America, an organization with approximately 160 member clubs throughout the U.S.

Spokesman for the nucleus group, Vernon E. Muller of 624 Sheldon road, said the first organizational meeting would be held Friday, March 25, at 8 p.m. in the Veterans Community center, 173 North Main street.

All men interested in gardening and fellowship offered by the organization are invited to attend this meeting.

None can love freedom heartily but good men; the rest love not freedom, but license.—John Milton.

Korea Bonus Forms Available Saturday

The local American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts announced that application forms for the Korea bonus will be available to Plymouth veterans this weekend.

The Legion will set up its "Operation Korean Bonus" this Saturday and Sunday, March 25 and 26, at the Veterans Memorial home on Main street. Local Legionnaires will be on hand to assist veterans in filling out applications from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m. Saturday and from 1 to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

Arrangements for a similar service are being made by the Veterans of Foreign Wars, Mayflower post. Applications will be available from 2 to 4 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday at the V.F.W. hall.

Michigan taxpayers voted November 2 to approve payment of the $80,000,000 bonus.

Looks like Buick's Biggest Year

It's been happening week after week.

More people coming in every day to see, sit in, sample and select the '55 Buick of their choice. More people than ever before in our history.

That's why you see so many new Buicks on the road today. And that's why—to meet this unprecedented popularity—Buick production has been boosted to the highest levels of all time.

Buick Sales Are Soaring

The simple measure of it all is this: Buick is so "hot" an automobile that it now outsells all other cars in the United States except two of the best-known smaller cars. And for reasons sound, substantial and thrilling.

Buick styling, you see, was never so crisp, clean, distinctive. Buick horsepower was never so high—Buick interiors never so rich—Buick's great ride never so satin-smooth and steady.

But there's something else, too—something vastly different and exciting.

Never before was there any motoring thrill like the thrill you get from Buick's spectacular new Variable Pitch Dynaflo.*

It lets you do what a pilot does—switch the pitch of your driving propellers—one way for gas saving in cruising—another way for instantaneous acceleration and getaway.

Your propellers are inside the Dynaflo unit, spinning in oil. You change their pitch merely by pressure on the gas pedal. You get action that was never in any earth-bound vehicle before.

No wonder we're writing up orders and selling Buicks at a rate that's making this the biggest year in Buick history.

And no wonder—when you see our price tags—that more and more people can afford the price of a new Buick.

For all the way up the line—from the budget-priced SPECIAL to the custom-built ROADMASTER—each Buick is a stand-out buy in its field.

Why not come in for a visit this week and get a down-to-earth look at the hottest Buick in history?

*Dynaflo Drive is standard on Roadmaster, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Thrill of the year is Buick

April 2 Lily Sale Planned to Aid Easter Seal Fund

A lily sale in connection with the annual Easter Seal drive will be held in the Plymouth shopping district on April 2, it was announced this week by Mrs. Doris Hardimon, chairman of the event.

Funds contributed to the month-long Easter Seal campaign, which started March 10 and closes April 10, help support therapy treatment for crippled individuals, transportation to clinics and treatment centers, recreation program and summer day camp at the Kiwanis Girl Scout lodge. More than 6000 appeal letters have been mailed out to residents, in an effort to meet this year's goal of $3000.

Easter Seals provide treats along with treatments for crippled children in Plymouth and southwestern Michigan.

According to Mrs. Herma Taylor, R. N., executive secretary of the Wayne Out-County chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, planning the annual summer camping program for crippled youngsters is about the pleasantest job Easter Seal workers do.

Every summer, approximately 100 children, teenagers and adults spend many happy days at the Plymouth Girl Scout Cabin despite their braces and crutches. It is part of the rehabilitation offered by the Wayne Out-County chapter, made possible through Easter Seal funds.

"Many crippled individuals spend too much time at home and too little time with others," Mrs. Taylor said. "Summer camping gives them an opportunity to let themselves go. It provides healthy recreation and through it, offers a wide range of experiences which help to increase self reliance and social competence."

Mrs. Taylor was guest speaker at the Plymouth Rotary Club meeting, last night. She will show the Easter Seal Camp film, "Summer Magic," to the Plymouth Rotary Anns, at their meeting on Monday, March 28.

Grange Gleanings

The Big Night is over, the play was a complete success. A good crowd came and everyone enjoyed it all very much. The big question in everybody's mind was "What wholesale house did the salesman deal with?" He did his part very well. The play is being put on at Pittsfield this week, also at Deerfield.

The regular Grange meeting was very good and a fine attendance. One new member was received into our group.

We regret the loss of our brother, Herbert Culver. Several of our Grange members attended his funeral Saturday at the Episcopal church.

Our next meeting will be on April 7. Our usual pot luck supper and we hope there will be a good crowd.

And now don't forget the card party on Saturday night, March 26. Bring your friends and fill a table or two. Play any game you care to. High score prizes at each table. Refreshments after the play, down stairs.

Nice crowd at the Lily club on Monday night, March 14. The hosts were Mr. and Mrs. John Root and Molly Tracy. Pedro and 500 were played and everyone had a good time. These small gatherings contribute much to the life of the Grange as there is a closer fellowship than is possible in large groups. Every Grange member is automatically a member of the Lily club so the new members should come to the club meetings held the second Monday evening of each month.

Northville Resident Wins Recent Legion Contest

The name of Kenneth Krezan of Northville was released this week as winner of the oratorical contest sponsored by the American Legion on March 4 at the Redford Township Legion home. Thomas Rowe of Plymouth was close runner-up.

Following the March 4 contest, Krezan went on to participate in the Zone contest held at Royal Oak where he placed third in the event. Finals were held March 16 at St. Johns with first place going to Diane Dembinsky of Detroit.

A sign in the Everglades National Park in Florida warns would-be anglers that "fishing within one mile of Royal Palm Ranger Station is for the birds." The sign illustrates the point by a picture of a bird holding a fish in its mouth.

PLYMOUTH WINS FOR 1955 STYLING OVER "OTHER 2" LOW-PRICE CARS BY VOTE OF ALMOST 4 TO 1

THOUSANDS PREFER PLYMOUTH'S STYLING IN NATION-WIDE SURVEY!

A well-known independent research organization asked thousands of people—in New York, Chicago, Detroit, Atlanta, Dallas, Los Angeles—to compare the appearance of '55 models of the three low-price cars. Opinions were received from men and women—from people of all ages—from owners of all the different makes of cars. The results are below.

HERE'S WHAT OTHERS THOUGHT OF PLYMOUTH!

Compared with low-price car "A"	Compared with low-price car "B"
Plymouth is better looking 62%	Plymouth is better looking 66%
Car "A" is better looking 16%	Car "B" is better looking 17%
Almost 4 to 1 in Plymouth's favor!	Again, almost 4 to 1 for Plymouth!
(22% liked "both about the same")	(17% liked "both about the same")

HERE'S WHY YOU'LL PREFER PLYMOUTH, TOO!

Plymouth '55—with THE FORWARD LOOK—is the only low-price car to offer you honestly new styling, instead of a mere face-lifting. It's bigger than the "other 2" cars (longer than car "A" by 8.4 inches!). It's lower and sleeker, with a host of styling advances that wins the most applause in the lowest-price field. See everything Plymouth has to offer today!

Yes, the big swing is to Plymouth—See it today—drive it away!

Nothing Like A Dish of Spiderwort For Delicious Meal, Says Professor

How about some spiderwort, pickered weed, sheep-sorrel, or pigweed for your next meal!

No fooling, says Felix G. Gustafson, professor of botany at the University of Michigan, there are many Michigan wild plants that when properly cooked can make delightful - and adventuresome - eating.

Many of these were standard items in days gone by, but have disappeared in favor of foods that lend themselves to mass production.

All those mentioned so far are potherbs. Suitable for greens when young and tender, they may be cooked like spinach and served with butter and vinegar. Other substitutes for spinach include such plants as bracken fern, lambquarters, shepherd's purse, mustard, mallow and fireweed.

A second group of potherbs or greens is too strong flavored or bitter for most palates, and so

Auxiliaries Start Program to Aid Retarded Children

Work for retarded children is drawing increased interest and attention from the American Legion Auxiliary's one million members, according to Mrs. Melva Gardner, child welfare chairman of the Passage-Gayde unit of the Auxiliary. This work is a new phase of the Auxiliary's national child welfare program and the Auxiliary is seeking to give expanded cooperation this year to organizations devoted to the welfare of mentally retarded children, she explained.

"Since we became interested in the problem of retarded children," said Mrs. Gardner, "American Legion Auxiliary child welfare workers have been amazed to learn that this condition afflicts ten times as many children as crippling polio. Among children of veterans, who are the Auxiliary's special interest, there are estimated to be 800,000, mentally retarded. Authorities tell us that 300 retarded children are born in the United States every day.

"We have also learned that much can be done for these children, and we intend to make it our purpose to see that everything possible is done in our communities. We are hopeful that our large membership can help the National Association for Retarded Children arouse the people of America to concerted action on this problem. Great progress has been made in solving other health problems through vigorous public action, and we can hope for the same results when the same thought, effort and research are devoted to the mentally retarded."

French Morocco's native goats, numbering some 8,000,000, not only are subject to a tax, but for centuries have been known to climb trees, browsing on lofty branches.

Announce Committees For Cancer Crusade

Names of the chairmen of the local committees spearheading the American Cancer Society's 1955 educational Cancer Crusade have been announced by Charles Wyse, Crusade chairman for a tri-county campaign. "Work is to be divided so that the achievements of these groups will count to the utmost in the continuing battle against mankind's cruellest enemy," Mr. Wyse explained.

"Our publicity committee will have articles in several area papers and will tell what is being done about cancer in Plymouth and throughout the country. Other committees will see that people in every field become part of the crusade, with showing of special posters, exhibits, and motion pictures. Volunteers enlisted by another committee will supply cancer information to shoppers in the busier areas in Livonia, Northville, and Plymouth. Headquarters of the local ACS Chapter is 821 Penniman.

The Committee heads are: Melvin Blunk, factory coverage. His committee will do the contact work in the larger surrounding factories, getting literature accepted is the objective. Employees will receive literature in General Motors, Barnes Gibson and Raymond, Fords, Northville and Waterford plants, Ford Transmission, Ford Central Parts Warehouse, Daisy Products, and Evans.

Theatre chairman, Mrs. Harry Bartel, will approach movie houses locally and in Northville, and secure space for movies in Livonia. Dates of Cancer movies will be released at a later date.

Assisting Publicity Committee-woman Mrs. William Norman is Mrs. C. O. Hammond, Northville; and Mrs. Robert Bruce and Mrs. Earl O'Hara, Livonia. Mrs. Joseph Wieland, Livonia, is representing that area in general capacity of Livonia Crusade.

"I am sure that we have an exceptionally able group of chairmen to direct the various phases of the campaign," Mr. Wyse said, "however more volunteers are needed to carry the facts about the cancer peril to the people of Plymouth, Northville, and Livonia. The more volunteer workers, the more intensive effort can be realized toward conquering this merciless foe.

Noted Evangelist To Speak Sunday At Baptist Church

Dr. Cletis R. Brown

Dr. Cletis R. Brown, director of evangelism for the East Central area of the American Baptist Home Mission society, will be guest speaker for the 11 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. services this Sunday, March 27, at Plymouth's First Baptist church, North Mill at Spring street.

Dr. Brown's appearance at the Sunday services will mark the closing event in a week-long period of personal evangelism being observed by the local church. He has also conducted services held earlier this week.

Well known as an official in the field of evangelism for the Baptist denomination, Dr. Brown assisted evangelist Billy Graham two years ago in the setting up of the visitation evangelism program in Washington, D. C. He has also worked with Charles Templeton in the organization of an evangelistic program at Charleston, West Virginia in which 80 churches participated.

As East Central Area director for the American Baptist Home Mission society, Dr. Brown has under his supervision the states of Michigan, Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia.

Prior to his present position with the Society, the evangelist was pastor of the First Baptist church of Kokomo, Indiana for 11 years. He has studied at Franklin college, Colgate, Rochester Divinity school, University of Chicago, Moody Bible institute and the University of Syracuse.

Local Baha'is Join Observance Of Youth Day

Baha' World Youth Day will be observed by the Baha'is of this area at Detroit and Ann Arbor tomorrow, March 25. Mrs. Lawrence Thomas of 42033 Van Born road announced. Baha' youth in the area will attend either conference.

Theme of the meeting will be "World Peace Through World Faith." Baha' Youth, 15 to 25 years of age, have invited all youth to join in discussing the obstacles impeding the realization of world peace, and the Baha' teachings for its attainment. "We see international peace eluding all political efforts made to establish it, Mrs. Thomas stated. "Political and economic principles have no power to control the masses of men unless they possess a moral quality penetrating to the very soul, and claiming the same loyalty we pay to truth in all its manifestations. Moral quality is the expression of faith in the living God, the God of the entire human family."

"Youth of today, without discrimination of race, class or creed, must accept the challenge to seek and live by the moral truth upon which lasting peace can be built. The Baha' faith proclaims the coming of world peace through the recognition of the oneness of mankind and the fundamental oneness of religion. By allying themselves with this God-ordained principle, youth can work to attain world unity through one universal cause, one common faith."

The man who admits a foolish act now and then is to be trusted. The "wise guy" who is never wrong should be left alone.

Latter Day Saints Sponsor Film on Bible

A film presentation on "Our Bible; How It Came to Us" will be given this Sunday, March 27, under the sponsorship of the Plymouth Congregation of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

The program will be held at 7:30 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, Union street at Penniman avenue, and is open to the public.

Divided into three parts, the film will cover: Part I, formation of the Bible; part II, the Bible spreads across Europe; part III, making of the English Bible. The film was produced by the American Bible Society.

Refreshments will be served following the presentation.

Name Committee To Study Building Of New Church

Bishop O. Kenneth Byrne of the Detroit International stake recently visited the Plymouth Congregation of the Reorganized church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints to assist in the setting up of a building committee.

Elected to this committee by the local congregation were: Elder Gerald Fitch, Elder Russell Knight, Priest Warren Perkins, William Michaels, Maude Sterner.

Ex-officio members of the committee are: High Priest W. Blair McClain, stake president; Bishop O. Kenneth Byrne, stake bishop; Elder Robert C. Burger, presiding elder of the Plymouth congregation; and Dale Parker, bishop's agent.

Ordained to the office of elder at a recent service were Robert G. Burger and Russell Knight. Richard Taylor was ordained to the office of teacher. High Priest W. Blair McClain addressed the candidates for ordination at the service.

On March 13 the Plymouth congregation met with the 21 other congregations of the Detroit International stake in an all-day conference. Principal speaker at the meeting was Apostle D. O. Chesworth.

Recollection Day Attendance to Top That of Last Year

Advance reservations for the Day of Recollection for all women scheduled for Sunday, March 27, at Our Lady of Good Counsel Catholic church indicate that the record attendance of last year will be exceeded, the Reverend Francis C. Byrne announced.

The event, which includes both single and married women, will be held from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the parish hall, corner of Arthur and William streets.

In Mediator Dei, the Encyclical Letter of Pope Pius XII on the Sacred Liturgy. His Holiness urges "spiritual retreats in order to reflect more intensely on eternal truths" and even suggests monthly days of recollection for the sake of cultivating piety.

The constantly increasing number of local Catholic women who are striving to live the life of the Liturgy will welcome this opportunity to usher in Passion Week with a retreat right in their own parish.

Father Raphael, O.F. M. Cap., Superior of Saint Bonaventure Priory of Detroit, will be the leader of these spiritual exercises.

Diseases of the heart and circulation, responsible for nearly 800,000 deaths yearly, are the nation's No. 1 health problem.

New Billy Graham Film Scheduled

"SOULS IN CONFLICT," new film release by Billy Graham Evangelistic Films, Inc., will be shown in Plymouth on April 18 at 7:30 p.m. Local arrangements are in charge of Pastor P. J. Clifford. The film will be shown at Calvary Baptist Church. All seats are free.

"SOULS IN CONFLICT" was filmed during Graham's world-publicized London Crusade. It is a full feature-length film in color and it is through screen presentations such as the one scheduled for Plymouth that the Graham organization anticipates surpassing the success of an earlier film, "Mr. TEXAS," described as "the world's first Christian Western," which played to more than 5,000,000 persons in its first two years of showings, and to which 135,000 "decisions for Christ" are attributed.

The story of "SOULS IN CONFLICT" encompasses the lives of three "typical" individuals, troubled with the present and completely confused about the future. Joan Winmill, star of the British TV thriller, "Epitaph for a Spy," plays an actress; Eric Micklewood and Charles Leno portray a jet pilot and a factory worker, respectively. Their need for a soul-satisfying religious experience is realized when each attends one of Graham's meetings in Harringay Arena, London's vast sports stadium.

The first recorded strike or work stoppage in this country took place in 1776 when painters in New York City turned out for higher wages.

The very best compliment you can pay The Plymouth Mail is to keep your subscription paid up, believe it or not.

Lions Benefit Wrestling Show To Feature Four Top Matches

Six professional grunt and groaners will move from their TV wrestling arenas Saturday evening, April 2, and invade the Plymouth high school gymnasium. The half dozen well-known grapplers are slated to appear on the card of the Plymouth Lion's club annual benefit wrestling show, the proceeds of which will go toward local sight conservation and youth activities.

Featured on the program are Barney (Irish Sampson) Deighan versus Jim Bernard, Jack Britain against Al Warshawski and Tuffy McCra battling Ivan the Terrible. The last two are a pair of midge wrestlers. Final bout of the evening will be an Australian Tag match, with all six grapplers involved.

Barney Deighan is a six-foot, 255-pounder with a 55" chest and a 21" neck. His main point of offense is his crushing strength. Al Warshawski is another colorful groaner, who became interested in the profession in the army's regular conditioning program. He is an ex-army officer.

The two tiny toughies on the card are both crowd-pleasers and wrestlers. Ivan the Terrible steps directly out of an Al Capp cartoon to portray the inhabitants of Lower Slobbovia. Actually he is from the Ukraine and extremely rough and merciless. Ivan is a proficient master of the art of Judo. Tuffy McCra is an even-tempered lad who might give the impression of an all-American boy. Speed and efficiency are the characteristics of this small-scale rough and tumble.

Tickets to the event, will be sold by all Lion's club members, from various local business stores and also may be purchased at the door. The club extended a free invitation to all Plymouth cub, boy and girl scouts to attend. They will be admitted by uniform or other form of identification.

The profit will be used by the Lions to aid the local areas in additional youth activities and also in sight conservation. Committee chairman Bob Erdelyi this week explained how the sight conservation is strictly local and not national in scope. He added that it will spread into neighboring communities. Cameron Lodge, Jr. is chairman of the affair, with Bill Fehlig and Erdelyi as co-chairmen. All are Lions.

"A" League Recreation Cage Teams Lose Out in Tournament Play-Offs

Plymouth's recreational post-season basketball hopes were snuffed out last week when two local cage teams were handed defeats as they tried to battle their way through two different play-offs.

George Tripp's, Inc. cagers, men's "A" league season winners, were beaten by the Van Meter Insurance agency from Wayne in the play-off that eliminated the odd team entered in the Michigan Recreational class "B" tournament at Marshall.

In addition the second place finisher from the Plymouth men's league, LaFontaine Erection, was downed by the Detroit representative, Puri-Test Drive-in, at the Inter-City tourney held at Hackett Field House in Highland Park.

The cagers from Tripp's, who had powered their way through the regular season with a 12-1 record, were disposed of by a fast-breaking, race-horse squad from Wayne. The final score was 72-60. In this tilt both teams played fairly evenly throughout the first three quarters, even though Wayne jumped off to an 8-0 lead in the opening minutes. The Trippers trailed 19-13 at the end of the first stanza and led 35-26 at the half.

But it was the last half that told the story as Van Meter's cagers dumped in 46 tallies compared to the local squad's 25. During the last quarter Wayne's depth showed on Tripp's tiring five, and the neighboring city quintet raced to the win.

Pacing Van Meter was Whitaker with twelve field goals and six free throws for a total of 30 points, while Tripp's scoring was carried by Heaton with 17 and Pierce with 15.

By losing the George Tripp's squad was eliminated from com-

"Diz" Trout Writes Baseball Column

As ol' man baseball makes his yearly appearance once again, The Mail is happy to announce a new addition to its sports coverage. Each week Paul "Diz" Trout, ex-pitcher for the Detroit Tigers, will present the warm and human inside story of baseball in his own personal column entitled "Hickory and Horsehide."

"Diz" describes his column as filled, not with fancy words but just factual, down-to-earth stories written from plain old experience. He plans to portray the life on road trips, in the locker rooms and feelings of raw rookies.

A twirler turned sports announcer, Trout now assists Van Patrick in broadcasting the Tiger's baseball battles. Goal for his column, says "Diz", is to build up a following for baseball among the younger kids in order to teach them the meaning of fair play. Read the first column this week, and watch for "Hickory and Horsehide" in the coming weeks.

Local Baseball Nine Faces Trenton In Opener of New Diamond Season

Plymouth high school's baseball squad will ring up the curtain on the new diamond campaign next month, as the local athletic program shifts from winter to spring sports. The opening battle for the Rocks in the current season pits Trenton against the locals, Friday, April 22, here.

An even dozen lettermen return from last year's nine which posted a 6 won and 5 lost record to settle into third place in the 6-B league conference. Last season's carry-overs are Bob Middleton, Dan Clifford, Larry Wilhelm, Dick Day, Chuck McKenna, Roger Peterson, Hank Bonga, Jack Carter, Dale Wilkin, Ed Wall, Jim Sorenson and John Agnew.

At the present baseball mentor Gustav Gorguza has his hopefuls going through their drills in the high school gymnasium, but with the advent of better weather, Gorguza plans to chase his squad outdoors onto the diamond behind the school. The players recently elected Dick Day as this year's team captain. Day, a pitcher, was voted most valuable to last season's nine.

The Rocks will meet each of the other league teams and also neighboring Northville in home and away tilts to complete a twelve game schedule, which is slated to run until June 6. Last year one game was cancelled.

Only serious loss to the locals was the graduation of Tom Rutherford, first string catcher, and shortstop Denny Luker, who moved to New Jersey. But with 12 hold-overs from last season, including two catchers and one shortstop, the locals ought to be able to absorb these shortages.

"The team should be a fair ball club", said Gorguza this week. "It will rest heavily on the pitching. We have two good pitchers, but both have been plagued with injuries. Trenton and Allen Park will give us the most trouble."

Sand is almost never used for sandpaper. The chief substance used is garnet abrasive.

Thinclads Work Out for Track Season

The plunking of basketballs on the Plymouth gym floor has ceased, but now there is a new sound to take its place. For the past two weeks Coach Keith Baughman has been putting thirty-three prospective trackmen through their paces, thundering around the gym. In preparation for their opening meet of the 1955 season the Rock thinclads have been working out in the gym, hoping for better weather that will allow them to invade the large oval behind the school.

When they do get outdoors, the trackmen will face the task of defending the league crown they won last May. In shooting for another title Coach Baughman will build this year's young squad around eight returning lettermen, six of whom are seniors. The repeaters from the championship team of '54 are Bob Danol, Jerry Swain, Wayne Smith, Russ Mecklenburg, Earl Fulton, and Lee Juve, the six seniors who will be back; Tom Ferguson, a junior, and Dick Showers, a sophomore.

The team needs an assist from the weather though, if it is to work into good shape before the initial meet of the season. Coach Baughman now has less than two weeks to round the candidates into condition for the opener against Redford Union, Wednesday, April 6. The tilt with the Panthers will be the only dual

The sleek, blue Cadillac glided to a halt in front of the hotel. A muscular young man, dressed in stylish casual clothing, alighted and moved to help his pretty wife from the car. As a porter hurried to remove the expensive luggage, another well-built young man, just leaving the hotel, spied the new arrival and rushed to greet him warmly.

A few minutes later another car came to a halt in front of the hotel, this one a battered, old jalopy, its occupants three youths with crew cuts and subdued manner. As the youths alighted from the vehicle, one stubbornly pulled back his cheap suitcase from the extended hand of the porter.

The scene was Lakeland, Florida, since 1934 spring training site of the Detroit Tigers. The hotel was the New Florida, Tiger headquarters during spring practice.

Pattern Repeated
The year—well, it could be this year, or last year or even next year. It really doesn't matter. The pattern of spring training is virtually always the same, be it the Tigers, Yankees or Indians.

The young man in the Cadillac and the one who greeted him are established major league players, poised and self-assured, men who have worked long and hard to achieve the status of baseball stars.

The three youths are rookies, getting their first tryout with a big league team. Nervous and uncertain, they are nonetheless determined to show that they have the stuff to make the grade.

They're after the jobs of the man in the Cadillac and his teammate. Perhaps some of them will succeed. Maybe they'll drive a big

Rocks Take 3rd in AAU As Tank Season Closes

Plymouth's swimmers wrapped up competition for the year last Sunday, March 20. The tankers did it on a happy note as Coach John McFall's entries qualified eight boys for the finals and rolled up 26 points to place third in the fourth annual A.A.U. Swimming Championships at Detroit's Patton Memorial Pool.

At the conclusion of the preliminaries in the afternoon, Plymouth had qualified two boys in both the diving and the 50 yd. freestyle, one each in the 200 yd. freestyle, the 100 yd. breaststroke, and the 100 yd. freestyle, plus a 200 yd. speed relay quartet. The eight entries who divided up these places then came back in the finals to place third out of approximately twenty-five teams that were entered in the all-day carnival.

Bill Brandell earned more points than any other Rock on the strength of his second place effort in the 200 yd. freestyle. In the course of the event Brandell broke the previous state record by the winner, Andy Morrow of Denby Swim Club, finished well in front to set an even faster standard.

Another second place was racked up by the 200 yd. relay team when Dennis Baker, Gary Wright, Don Carney, and Chuck McKenna were nosed out for first place and had to settle for the 10 points that go with a runner-up spot.

In the other individual events Plymouth scored heavily enough to complete the total of 26 points. The two entries in the 50 yd. freestyle, Don Carney and Chuck McKenna, finished fifth and sixth, respectively, to total three points, two for fifth and one for sixth. The Rock's dual entries in the diving, Art Losse and John Walker, came through with some needed points as Losse, after qualifying sixth, took a third and Walker netted a sixth.

Swimming his third event, Chuck McKenna wound up with a sixth in the 100 yd. freestyle to add another single point to the Plymouth total. Mike Conrad did some fine swimming as he coped a fifth in the 100 yd. breaststroke for two more points to round out the 26 scores notched by the eight local tankers.

For the meet, Bill Brandell paced Plymouth with his 5 points, followed by Don Carney and Chuck McKenna, who netted 4 1/2 apiece, and Art Losse with 4. Then came Gary Wright and Dennis Baker with 2 1/2 each, Mike Conrad with 2, and John Walker with 1.

Aside from post-season competition, the scoring totals for the fourteen dual meets Plymouth had had have been compiled. Art Losse, the Rocks' fine diver topped the team with 66 points. Art notched ten firsts during the year to earn 99% of the points that he could have possibly earned. Close behind Losse, Bill Brandell and Jim Zukosky shared second spot in the point-gathering contest with 63 apiece. The top ten on the squad is rounded out by Bob Packard, 58, Chuck McKenna, 57, Dave Beegle, 54, Mike Conrad, 54, Gary Wright, 52, Don Carney, 48, and Dick Showers with 38 points.

Closing out a successful season Coach McFall gave Varsity awards to seventeen swimmers. Of those seventeen, twelve will be back next year to try to improve on the record of 9 wins, 3 losses and 2 ties compiled by this year's young squad.

Supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emil LaPointe of Joy road on Monday, March 14, were Mrs. LaPointe's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Weiss, Sr., of Redford. The occasion for the gathering was to celebrate the fourth birthday of Mark, youngest son of the LaPointes.

The regular monthly meeting of the Wesleyan Service Guild of the Newburg Methodist church was held on Monday, March 14, at the home of Mrs. Carl Lampton on Roe street in Plymouth. There were 12 members and two guests present. Mrs. William Kenner acted as president in the absence of Mrs. William Eastlake. Mrs. Kenner also led the group in their devotions and Mrs. Kenneth Sorenson had the program for the evening. Mrs. Roy Wheeler, President of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church, and Mrs. Elsie Cochran from Novi were the guests of the evening. Members present were Mrs. Mildred Remy, Mrs. Dorothy Fittler, Mrs. Laurel Dorr, Miss Dorothy Blanton, Mrs. Jane Kenner, Mrs. Lucy Sorenson, Mrs. Dorothy Ritzler, Mrs. Eloise Mackinder, Mrs. Mary Foreman, Mrs. Leola Coole and Mrs. Florence Peterson. At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be held on Monday, April 11, at the home of Mrs. William Kenner on Narise drive. All members and friends are cordially invited to attend.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Gennis of Joy road treated their daughter, Kathy, on her 12th birthday to a show in Detroit. Miss Jean Sorenson, who lives on Ravine drive, accompanied the Gennises on this outing and was also an overnight guest in the Gennis home. The date for this very important occasion was Sunday, March 13.

The March meeting of the Sacred Heart Circle of St. Michael's Catholic church was held at the home of Mrs. Emil LaPointe on Joy road on Wednesday, March 16. The meeting which began about 8:30 was attended by only three members. They were: Mrs. Wilford LaBelle, Mrs. Arthur Gennis and Mrs. Stanley Belanger. The lesson on Mercy Killing was studied after which the chairman, Mrs. LaBelle, advised the group of coming events in the church, sponsored by the Altar Society, at which some of the circle members are asked to volunteer their services. One of these will be the Teen dance on April 15 to be held in the basement of St. Michael's school. Robin Seymour of "Bobbin with Robin" fame will be the feature attraction of the evening and will spin records for the entire dance. It is hoped that there will be a goodly crowd to attend this function. Further, in keeping with the circle meeting, it is hoped that there will be more ladies to the next meeting which will be held at Mrs. Wilford LaBelle's on Joy road on Wednesday, April 20. All ladies of the Joy road-Newburg road area are cordially invited to attend.

"Faith and Begorra" there was a birthday party given in honor of Mrs. Arthur DeCoster whose birthday falls on good old St. Patrick's Day. Present for the festivities were Mrs. Raymond Peterson, Mrs. Bert Overmyer, Mrs. Claude Desmond, Mrs. Arthur Gennis and the honored guest, Mrs. DeCoster. After a delightful lunch, birthday cake and all, the group spent the afternoon playing Canasta.

Paul Overmyer, Bruce LaPointe, Robert Pregitzer, Richard Kennitz and Arnold Heilman, all boys in the Thunderbird Patrol of Boy Scout troop 270 of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church, enjoyed themselves at their last patrol meeting on Thursday, March 17, by indulging their appetites in hot dogs and hot chocolate provided for them by their Patrol Dad, Emil LaPointe. Along with the pleasure also came some instruction by Mr. LaPointe in the art of fire fighting, with a mind toward Civil Defense.

The regular monthly Pack meeting of Pack 270 of the Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian church was held at the church on Friday evening, March 18. The meeting was well attended by the parents of the cubs and things got off to a fine start with two fine skits concerned with the theme for the month, "Knights of Yore." There were as usual fine exhibits of the individual dens' craft work since the last pack meet. For the most outstanding exhibit, Den 2 received the Award Pennant and Den 4 received the attendance pennant for the most nearly perfect representation of parents. Cubmaster Ken Rotch welcomed the following, three Bobcats to the pack: James Goodwin, Bill Hatcher and Ronnie North. This is indeed an auspicious occasion for these boys so the pack's ceremonial board was used for the desired effect. Receiving Wolf Badges were Stephen McIlvain and Glen Cummins. Bear Badges were awarded to Gary Schoeneman, James Drewry and Charles Hoffman. James Drewry also received a gold arrow point under that badge. The assembled parents were reminded by Bill Black, chairman of the pack committee, of the approaching Bake Sale to be held on Saturday, March 26, at the S. Kresge Store in Sheldon center. All mothers were urged to support this event, by baking their very best goodies and donating them to the cause. Pack 270 was also privileged to attend in masse the Sports, Boat and Travel show at the State Fair on Saturday, March 19. As usual, the boys turned out in goodly number and had a very fine time.

Next Sunday, March 27, there will be a pot-luck lunch at the hall of the Newburg Methodist church for all representatives of organizations of the church. Women's Society of Christian Service, Wesleyan Service Guild, Fellowship Class, Fidelis Class and Methodist Youth Fellowship. After lunch, the business of the afternoon will be primarily to co-ordinate the various organizations in the serving of church suppers and luncheons. In the evening of the same day, the Reverend and Mrs. Allen Rogers of Detroit will be the guests of the church at the 7 p.m. service. Both are very fine soloists and the Reverend Rogers plays five instruments and Mrs. Rogers is the accompanist. It is urged that the members and friends, of the Newburg church, fill the church for this very worth while evening. Refreshments will be served at the close of the service in the hall, by the Wesleyan Service Guild.

On Saturday evening, March 19, the members of the Joy road Canasta Club had an evening "out on the town." After a delightful dinner at Frames restaurant in Detroit the group took in the last performance of the "Tender Trap" at the Cass theatre. The ladies enjoying this festive evening were: Mrs. Stuart Flaherty, Mrs. Clifford Hocking, Mrs. William Kenner, Mrs. Les Durbin, Mrs. Claude Desmond, Mrs. George Simon, Mrs. Enid Stannitz, Mrs. Edward Howden and Mrs. Emil LaPointe.

Tuesday, March 29, is the scheduled date for a meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. E. Ayres on Ann Arbor trail. The purpose of this meeting is to begin evening circles in conjunction with the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Newburg Methodist church. It is hoped that all women of the church who cannot attend the afternoon session of the society will make an effort to attend this special meeting to become more acquainted with the evening circles' function.

St. Michael's Altar Society is sponsoring a rummage sale in the very near future. Please save your usable discards for us, such as: clothing, toys, magazines, books, small household articles and records.

Don't forget that on Saturday, April 23, at the Newburg Methodist church there will be a Smorgasbord dinner served in very elegant style. Tickets are now available and will be from now until the time of the dinner. The serving will begin at 5 p.m. and continue through 7 p.m. All proceeds will go the church building fund so everyone is cordially invited to attend.

Mrs. Niel Suddendorf and her son Niel of Newburg road spent the weekend of March 19 visiting relatives in Columbus, Hamilton and Cincinnati, Ohio. They returned to their home on Monday, March 21.

The Community club of the Patchen school met at the school on Thursday, March 18, with 24 members present. After the usual business meeting the group assembled to play games. The first prize was taken by Mrs. Jean Heilman; second by Mrs. Marion Littlefield and the low prize was won by Mrs. Laura Mende. Mrs. Francis Zukosky was the recipient of the mystery prize. At the club's next meeting on April 21, there will be an election of officers and all members are urged to attend this very important meeting.

Sunday, March 20, Mr. and Mrs. John Duczer of Newburg road had afternoon visitors in the persons of: Mr. and Mrs. Steve Resetar of Ypsilanti, Mr. and Mrs. Nick Mucker of Plymouth and Mr. John Haush of Albany, Louisiana.

Every Friday, except the first Friday of every month, there is a Teen-age dance held at the Civic hall on Newburg road and Ford road. The first dance begins at 5:30 p.m. and lasts until 7:45 p.m. This early-hour dance is for the juniors, and then at 8 p.m. the older group of young men and women take over the hall. All the dancing is done to records and they are always well attended.

Sunday afternoon, March 20, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Frycklund and their children Shirley Ann and Harry Lee visited with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mende of Newburg road.

Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Flaherty of Narise drive were privileged to attend the Olympia to witness the hockey game between the Detroit Red Wings and the Montreal Canadiens.

Mr. and Mrs. George Newton of Arden street, Rosedale Gardens, entertained friends at a birthday party in honor of Mrs. Newton on Saturday, March 19.

Guests present for the celebration were the Newton's daughter, Edna, Mr. and Mrs. Mike Lisal of Detroit, Mr. and Mrs. John Duczer and Niel Suddendorf, Sr. of Newburg road and Mrs. Emily Longhurst of Ann Arbor trail. The guests all played Canasta during the evening and delightful refreshments were served by the host and hostess to round out a very enjoyable evening.

Sure and it was a great day for the Irish on Thursday, March 17, at the Rosedale Gardens Community house at 9611 Hubbard. The Rosedale Gardens Woman's club held their "Green" Elephant Party. Admission was some useful or decorative object they no longer had any use for in their home. Each package was either wrapped in green paper or they were tied with green ribbon. A game was then played and when you won you picked up a gift that the committee had placed on the table. What made the game so interesting was that when you won if you saw a prize that someone else had won that took your eye you very politely went over to them and took it from them. It happens every year that there are one or two presents that pass into nearly everyone's hands at least once during the evening. After a very amusing game in which nearly everyone went home with a prize, cupcakes and coffee or tea were served by Ruth Haab, Emma Kruger, Clare McFada and Shirley Robinson.

The Livonia Civic Theater is presenting the play "Ladies in Retirement" at Bentley high school on the evening of April 16th. We were pleased to hear that Dagny Peterson of 9629 Crans-ton will be seen as Leonora Fiske, the red-wigged old actress who is Ellen's victim in her murder plot. To hear more of this interesting drama why don't you plan to attend?

At the last Rosedale Gardens Civic Meeting a motion was made that we, as residents of Rosedale Gardens, go on record with the Council that we do not want any routing of buses through Rosedale Gardens. We have narrow streets and our children mean too much to us to run the risk of having buses going up and down any of our streets. We hope that the Council reconsiders the proposed bus route.

Congratulations to Thomas Pope, son of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Pope, 11411 Berwick who was one of 138 students who made the honor roll at Alma College for the fall term. To qualify for the honor roll, a student must maintain a "B" average in all his work during the semester.

St. Michael's Altar society is sponsoring a dance for all teenagers on Friday, April 15, in the school hall. Your favorite disk jockey, Robin Seymour of "Bobbin with Robin" fame will spin the records from 8 to 11 p.m. and the price will be .75 drag and .50 stag. Hope you all keep this date open.

The one and only serious mistake is to be afraid of making mistakes. —C. A. Smart

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Michigan's deer herd is struggling through the last weeks of winter.

"We checked parts of Gladwin, Baldwin and Lake counties last week," says Ilo Bartlett, department deer authority. "People who think there are no deer left in Michigan ought to get on a pair of snowshoes and look at some of those swamps in the north country. Deer trails are packed down and icy. Large numbers of the animals are feeding heavily on tops and branches left on the ground after winter timber cuttings."

So far, department workers have reported only scattered starvation losses. If the spring breakup comes soon, the herd is expected to come through in fair shape despite this being the most severe of the last three winters.

"This next month will be the payoff for those any-deer seasons of the last three years," Bartlett says. "Any-deer seasons reduced the wintering herd so all remaining animals could have more food. It's been a tough winter for deer. These tagend weeks of March are toughest because deer are weakest now and food is thinnest. But I think we can hope to get through without severe losses."

A statistical random sample of total losses for the winter will be made as soon as the weather breaks. Michigan's heaviest loss occurred in the winter of 1950-51, when an estimated 40,000 deer starved.

Trout will not be planted by the conservation department in any Michigan waters where they might migrate into waters closed to the public. This long-standing policy of the department will be carefully enforced during the coming trout planting season.

Discussion recently between conservation commission members and representatives from the Michigan United Conservation Clubs indicated that many streams crossing private land are being closed to public use. "There seems to be a trend in this direction," said Harry Gaines, executive-secretary of the MUCC.

Fred A. Westerman, chief of the department's fish division, said he would instruct his staff to observe this policy carefully during the pre-season trout planting period this spring.

William Medore Leonard, 68, conservation department land appraiser for southern Michigan, died at his home in Battle Creek Monday morning, March 14. Death was attributed to a heart attack.

Leonard worked with the department from 1949 until his death. He joined the state land board as an appraiser in 1939 and was with the organization until it was consolidated into the department's lands division in 1949. Before that, he worked as production manager for several manufacturing firms. His wife, Hattie, survives.

Michigan's conservation commission recently went on record favoring an international fisheries treaty for the Great Lakes.

President Eisenhower recently handed the treaty to the senate and asked that it be ratified. Under its terms eight states and Canada will be able to program fish research and sea lamprey control on the lakes. Until now, this work has been handicapped by a lack of coordination.

The conservation commission authorized purchase of 455 acres of land for addition to dedicated state forests and game projects during its regular monthly meeting. A fishing site on Lake Lavine in Branch county also was authorized for purchase.

A second bid of $242,000 will be made for the 3350-acre Vernor estate, located inside the dedicated boundary of Lapeer state game area. The land was recently placed on sale but an original department bid of $200,000 was topped by a private individual. Federal Pittman-Robertson funds will be used for the purchase.

Connor's marsh flooding project 15 miles east of Grayling was approved. About 225 acres will be flooded in AuSable state forest to provide waterfowl and bird-bearing habitat.

About 4000 acres of state land in north Delta county will be offered for iron ore lease. A large iron ore production firm asked the sale after recent geophysical explorations. Easements, land exchanges and general land matters were approved. The commission will next meet in Lansing April 14-15.

Michigan Full of Legends, Folklore, Says Wayne University Professor

Michigan, particularly the Upper Peninsula, is full of native legend and folklore, according to Thelma James, professor of English at Wayne University, and head of the University's folklore project. The project includes collecting and recording folk music and crafts of the ethnic groups of Michigan with emphasis on Metropolitan Detroit.

"There is a great amount of material right here in our own state which we do not have recorded," Professor James said. "This year we are primarily concerned with getting the folk music tape-recorded and the folk tales on file here at Wayne."

Nearly 70 nationality groups are represented in Michigan, the largest of which are the Poles. A large Finnish population predominates in Northern Michigan; the Dutch on the west shore around Holland, Muskegon and Grand Haven; the Cornish in Northern Michigan mining areas and German settlements near Saginaw, Frankenmuth and Detroit.

"There is no form of history which reveals more of the social background and culture of a people than do its traditional songs transmitted from generation to generation by the lip to ear method," Professor James said. "In Michigan it was the lumber camps and other work groups which contributed much in preserving and distributing all manner of folk music throughout the state."

"The University receives requests for information from people all over the world and receives many contributions. We hope that those who know tales, songs, ballads, legends and weather lore will send them to the Wayne University folklore archives."

A man telephoned his doctor, asking him to come as quickly as possible. "My wife has appendicitis."

The doctor retorted: "Nonsense! I took your wife's appendix out three years ago, and I never heard of anyone having a second appendix."

To which the husband replied, "Ever hear of anyone having a second wife?"

Three-Way Crash Injures Three

An Ypsilanti housewife and her son received minor injuries last Friday morning when two cars and a truck were involved in a collision at Ann Arbor and Haggerty roads.

Sheriff's officers said that Guido Rubago, Wayne, was driving south on Haggerty when his car entered the intersection and struck a car traveling east on Ann Arbor road driven by Harold Branham of Ypsilanti. The Branham car skidded sideways along the road and struck the side of an oncoming truck driven by Alex Hackney, Birmingham.

Both Mrs. Branham and her son, Harold, Jr., 5, received head injuries. Rubago told sheriff's officers that he stopped on Haggerty before entering the intersection but Hackney claimed that he didn't. No citations were issued.

The Branham car received heavy damages while the other car and the truck were damaged less.

Favorite Recipes From Plymouth's Kitchens

Lowly Carrots Make Fancy Vegetable Dish

Recommended this week is a tasty vegetable dish often served at the Walter Hammond residence, 302 Sunset avenue.

We think you'll find this recipe for Carrot Loaf something new and different in the way of a vegetable suggestion for your dinner menus. The recipe, Mrs. Hammond tells us, is one she found in the University of Michigan Alumni Recipe book.

Here's how she prepares her favorite dish:

Carrot Loaf

- 1 1/2 cups of cooked carrots, mashed
- 1/2 cup of soft bread crumbs
- 2 egg yolks, well beaten
- salt and pepper to taste
- 1/2 cup of milk
- 1/2 cup of liquid in which carrots were cooked
- 1 teaspoon of grated onion
- 2 egg whites

Mash carrots and mix thoroughly with bread crumbs. Add egg yolks, salt and pepper, liquid and onion, and blend well.

Finishing up the preparation for her favorite vegetable dish, Carrot Loaf, Mrs. Walter Hammond scoops the mixture into the ring mold.

Last, fold in stiffly beaten egg whites.

Turn mixture into greased ring mold, place mold in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees) for one hour or until a silver knife dipped in the mixture comes out clean.

Remove from mold and fill center with creamed mushrooms.

Since the Carrot Loaf is rich, Mrs. Hammond often serves it with just meat and a salad. For variation, another vegetable such as peas may be substituted for the mushrooms.

Disabled Vets Preparing Now For "Poppy Day"

Poppies by the millions are being made in veterans hospitals and workrooms throughout the United States in preparation for the annual observance of Poppy Day in May. Mrs. Phyllis Hewer, Poppy chairman of Passage-Gay-de unit of the American Legion Auxiliary, reported. Disabled veterans of three wars are being given employment by the Auxiliary in a nation-wide poppy industry which will produce 25,000,000 of the little red memorial flowers before Poppy Day.

This is the high point of the poppy-making season," said Mrs. Hewer. "The veterans are working to fill the orders for poppies sent in by the Auxiliary's 14,000 local units, whose members will distribute them throughout the nation on Poppy Day to be worn in honor of the war dead. Many units have increased their poppy orders this year.

The work is very popular among the hospitalized veterans. It gives them something interesting to do to help pass the long hospital hours, and provides an opportunity to earn money for themselves and families. It is also valuable as occupational therapy, helping veterans get well by exercising muscles and occupying minds.

"The poppies are made in replica of the famous Flanders' Fields poppy, the little wild flower which grew and bloomed in the World War battle cemeteries in France and Belgium, providing the only floral tribute to the heroic dead. Ever since World War I, this poppy has been the memorial flower of The American Legion, and of the British Legion as well. Poppy Day contributions of those who wear the flower provide the major financial support for the rehabilitation and child welfare activities of the American Legion Auxiliary.

"The poppies which we will Poppy Day are being made in Michigan V.A. hospitals, under the direction of the Michigan department of the Auxiliary. We hope that everyone will 'Honor the Dead and Aid the Disabled' by wearing one on Poppy Day."

County Agent Points Out Ways To Minimize Food Spoilage

Homemakers would be indignant if anyone accused them of throwing fifty cents in the garbage pail. They would be very much on the defensive if anyone hinted that they had thrown in a dollar. Isn't it well that no one evaluates all of the food that goes into the garbage pail?

"That is not wasted food," you say—"it was spoiled!"

Why should we permit food spoilage in this land of home conveniences? Is there any reason for our failure to safeguard our foods? Eleanor Mullikin, Wayne County Home agent gives us a few reminders:

Perishable foods requiring refrigeration include milk, meat, sea foods, fresh asparagus, green corn and other juicy foods such as peaches, tomatoes, lettuce and celery. Bacteria in foods do not multiply as rapidly at low temperature—hence the need for refrigeration.

Fruit Dish Makes Good Eye-opener

"Good breakfast means good morning," and as a suggestion for brightening up breakfast, why not try serving bananas in these simple ways.

Quick Hint for Slicing Bananas
For real efficiency, slice bananas right in their peel, like this: remove a lengthwise section of the peel, about 1 inch wide, extending from end to end. Slice the banana crosswise inside the peel using a sharp stainless steel or silver knife. Slide banana slices from peel to plate. It's time-saving and sanitary. Be sure the bananas have yellow peel flecked with brown, as this means fully ripe bananas at peak of flavor, sweetness and digestibility. Serve sliced ripe bananas as the breakfast fruit course, with milk or cream, or use to top ready-to-eat cereal.

French Toast a la Tropics
Use your favorite recipe for French Toast. Slice a fully ripe banana, flecked with brown, over 1 slice of the Toast. Cover quickly with another piece of French Toast, making a sandwich. Serve hot, with syrup, honey or confectioner's sugar, if desired.

Banana Omelet
Use your favorite recipe for preparing omelet. When omelet is cooked on underside, remove from oven, peel a slightly green-tipped or all-yellow banana, and slice thinly over half of omelet. Place pan under broiler, leaving broiler door open, and temperature set at 350° F., until omelet is dry on top. Make a crease through center. Fold top half over bananas. Slip onto platter. Serve with broiled ham, or bacon, and toast.

Keep Small, Useful Articles in Handy Spot

Pins and needles, and paper and pencils are the little things that make running a household easier.

And running a home can be easier still if these small pieces of equipment are placed at strategic spots in the house, say home management experts.

Extra brooms and dustpans, for instance, can save steps if kept in several places where they will be used—front hall, basement and back door.

Spare needles, thimbles, scissors and thread for light mending can be kept at the ironing board as well as at the sewing machine. If you clip magazines or newspaper articles and recipes, another pair of scissors can be kept near where you read the material.

The experts also suggest keeping postcards and a pen near the radio or television set for making requests by mail. Pencils and note pads are handy for taking telephone messages and making kitchen shopping lists.

Spring Snack Tray

You can be an artist at arranging foods for family and guest snacking if you have on hand some fruit, cheese, and snowy doughnuts. The colors of the foods themselves are appetizing, and their shapes suggest many ideas for appetizing arrangement.

For a spring snack tray suggestion, you might choose a small red cheese for a centerpiece. To "open" it, lay a cookie cutter, or any home-made cardboard design over it, and cut just through the red wax. Any assortment of cheeses your family likes may accompany it. Choose fruits for juiciness and color, and easy out-of-hand eating.

Doughnuts are a natural accompaniment for such a tray. Choose cook book quality doughnuts (they're cake batter), from your grocer's ready-to-eat cake department, and give them generous space in your arrangement.

Fix a tray like this on a night when the family sits and works together. Make it for your guests, and school and church affairs. Nothing need be wasted for each food has many other uses.

Here's New Salad Suggestion

THIS WEEK'S RECIPE
Party Salad
(Serves 6)

12 cooked prunes
24 roasted unblanched almonds
1 package raspberry flavored gelatin
1½ cups hot water
1 cup undrained crushed pineapple
3 ounces cream cheese

Halve prunes, remove pits and place almond in each half. Dissolve gelatin in hot water; add pineapple and chill until slightly thickened. Cream cheese until soft and smooth. Blend thickened gelatin mixture with cheese. Place prunes, almond side down, in mold. Cover with gelatin mixture and chill until firm. Unmold on crisp greens and serve with mayonnaise.

In recipes calling for cake flour it is important to follow the directions. Cake flour differs from all-purpose flour in quantity and quality of the protein and, therefore, in scientific combination of ingredients, cake flour is important when called for.

Urge Planning Before One's Hospital Stay

So you are going to the hospital! Although "going to the hospital" is much more common than it used to be, many people still have a feeling of uneasiness about it.

When you know in advance you'll be a hospital patient, you can prepare for it. An authority from the nursing education staff at Michigan State college, advises you to prepare mentally and physically. Accept your doctor's advice and know that your decision to go to the hospital is for the best.

Don't be ashamed; if you feel uneasy or don't understand something, ask questions. Your nurse is prepared to give you information to put your mind at ease. If your questions pop up before your arrival at the hospital, call them for information.

To prepare yourself physically, be sure you have taken the prescribed medication while waiting to enter the hospital. Get a proper amount of rest and avoid people with colds. The expert also suggests you do what you can to give yourself a feeling of well-being. For example, if you are a man, have your hair trimmed; if you are a woman, have your hair shampooed and set.

Think carefully of the things you will want to pack to take to the hospital. Storage space is usually limited at hospitals so pack systematically. It's a wise idea to make a list of all things you take, in case someone else helps you pack to return home.

Careful preparation to go to the hospital will make hospitalization much more comfortable and easier on all concerned.

Touch of Italy Accents This Budget Beef Dish

Select such cuts of beef as arm or round steaks, use the correct method of cooking them and you have good eating in a budget-wise way. Braising (browning slowly in lard or drippings, then cooking slowly, with a small amount of liquid, in a covered utensil until tender) is the best cooking method to use for these two cuts of meat. It brings them to their tender and flavorful best.

In this recipe, some typically Italian-style flavorings and vegetables have been used. The method is still braising, as you can see, but the accent is Italian.

Italian Steak
1½ pounds arm or round steak, cut ¾ inch thick
2 tablespoons lard or drippings
1 4-oz. can mushrooms or ½ pound fresh mushrooms, sliced
½ cup sliced onion
2 tablespoons chopped green pepper
1/3 cup chili sauce
¼ cup water
1 teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon pepper
½ teaspoon garlic salt
½ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ cup sliced stuffed olives

Add mushrooms, onion and chopped green pepper to melted lard or drippings. Cook 5 minutes. Blend in chili sauce, water, salt, pepper, garlic salt, Worcestershire sauce and sliced olives. Place steak in frying-pan and pour sauce over it. Cover and bake in a slow oven (300° F.) 1½ to 2 hours, or until tender. 6 servings.

Because copper destroys vitamin C, foods should not be prepared in utensils made from this metal. However, the contact does not result in food poisoning.

A WALL-LENGTH antique china cabinet is only one of the many beautiful wood-panelling features of the Leo Arnold home at 8975 Beck road. Arnold, who is a local builder, and his wife finished the interior of their home completely in wood-panelling, with neither plaster nor wall-paper. Included is the living room done in mahogany and a bedroom of white knotty pine. Also in the picture at right on the wall is an antique spoon holder of Mrs. Arnold's, who is an avid antique collector.

Corrugux, a colorful fiber glass reinforced plastic building material, is translucent yet can be nailed, sawed and drilled like wood.

Building Sliding Door Made Easy When Proper Materials Are Used

Today, with do-it-yourself materials, sliding doors are a cinch!

Doors of any size may be the sliding variety. These have the advantages of taking up no valuable room. They are inexpensive, simple to construct and easy to maintain.

They may be operated on special hardware, in the case of closet-size doors, or simply run in sawn grooves, in the case of cabinets.

The fastest-growing materials for sliding doors are plywood and preswood. Their toughness, resistance to wear, excellent finish qualities and easy workability make them ideal. Thicknesses from 1/4" to 3/4", in sizes for the smallest cabinet door to doors for a closet, are available at lumber yards. The half-inch and three-quarter-inch thicknesses are known as Panelply.

Special decorative finishes are available, too. These include the popular "Peg-Board," with its many evenly-spaced holes; black preswood; leatherwood, with a surface resembling Spanish-grain leather; ridgewood, a linear textured hardboard, and marlite, a predecorated panelboard which is available in numerous colors and patterns.

Any decorative coverings may be applied to the smooth-paneled doors. These include wax, stain, varnish, shellac, paint, enamel, lacquer, wallpaper or fabric. Application may be with brush, roller or spray. Another method is tinting, with a color in oil considerably thinned by turpentine.

For closet-size sliding doors, preswood or plywood on a wood framework may be used instead of the thicker Panelply. Hardware for this thickness door may be purchased at Plymouth lumber yards, the source of the hardboard, plywood and paint.

HERE'S HOW ...

MAKE A HI-FI PLAYER CABINET

A cabinet for the high fidelity set is a project for the skilled home craftsman. It provides space for the amplifier, below; the tuner, center; and the record player in the top.

Top, end, and door panels are edge-glued 3/4-inch lumber or of hardwood plywood. The back panel is 1/4-inch hardwood plywood. Shelves and dividers are of 3/4-inch lumber. Rabbet the back edges of the top and end panels 1/4 by 1/4 inch.

Fasten the bottom to the ends, using glue and No. 4 flathead screws, 1 1/2 inches long. Then make the shelf assembly, using glue under pressure. Attach two 3/4 by 3/4 by 4-inch blocks to the ends to support the side shelves, using glue and 1 1/4-inch screws. Fasten the dividers to the bottom with 1 1/2-inch screws.

Add the top, using glue and wood blocks as shown. Fasten the back panel in place with 3/4-inch screws.

Assemble the legs as shown and attach to each corner with glue and screws, counterbored. Mount doors with recessed butt hinges. Detail of panel fronts for the tuner and amplifier will depend upon the location of control knobs. Mount the record player on roller drawer rails.

Natural Cork Shades Give Elegance to Modern Homes

There is little doubt that the "cork look" is to be one of the New Looks of 1955. The mellow warmth and richness of pure cork color are strongly influencing creative design in every field, from feminine fashions to home decoration.

Cork's look of elegance, traditionally associated with luxury and prestige, is a leader in smart handbags and gloves, decorator fabrics, fine table tops and distinctive backgrounds for every color and decor scheme in today's home.

The beautiful, much-desired random tones of the cork look are especially effective in floor and wall coverings. Leading decorators are using the cork look to give unobtrusive luxuriousness and loveliness to floors and walls in every type of room, from pretty bedrooms to impressive living rooms.

The cork look now can be the proud possession of homeowners who choose resilient asphalt tiles for their floor and walls. This asphalt tile flooring is available in four natural random cork shades, ranging from a soft, but spirited, beige through rich medium beige tones to a warm, deep hue. These true shades of cork color provide innumerable decorative and individual design possibilities.

One of the country's most famous decorators has used the four shades in his design for a distinguished and unusual modern living room. The warm-toned, pure cork color tiles are installed in a random geometric pattern of squares and oblongs which emphasizes their lovely cork texture and cork colors.

One corner of the living room is occupied by a brick fireplace which opens on two sides to the width and length of one end of the room. This is painted in sunny yellow and has a black iron grate and fixtures. The large bay window at the fireplace end of the room has been curtained in warm, russet-colored fabric that blends with the floor tile colors, and has a lounging nook upholstered in russet material. The long side wall is painted stark white, with the end wall around the nook finished in the same sunny yellow used on the fireplace bricks.

A black-framed Oriental screen, a large black-framed Chinese picture, a gay Oriental print with mat and frame in cork colors, a smart white wood slab table and brass articles are among the well-chosen accessories used in the room.

Leading interior decorators suggest using Corktone tile in a single shade to create an effect of spaciousness; combining the simplicity and rich good taste of light and dark cork color tiles in a classic checkerboard or hollow square design; or using two, three or four cork shades in basket-weave, ribbon bands, diagonal stripes or any other exciting floor design desired. These experts agree that cork shades, installed on walls, as well as on floors, give a look of welcoming warmth and richness throughout the house, serving as a perfect foil for every type and period of furnishings from traditional to modern.

Fireplace Spells "Home"

A fireplace is an expensive feature, but to many home planning families it spells "home" and is therefore worth it. Remember these pointers in designing it: Make it a major feature of the room. Locate it so that furniture can be grouped around it easily. Have the facing and the hearth made of a fireproof material such as clay tile, which won't be damaged by smoke. Save on materials and labor for the chimney by locating the fireplace on an inside wall.

Hardwood Flooring Plentiful

There is no shortage of Northern hardwood flooring, according to Mr. W. W. Bamble, Jr., White Lake, Wisconsin. Mr. Gamble, Vice-President, Maple Flooring Manufacturers Association, speaking to lumbermen in meeting at Land O'Lakes, Wisconsin, recently, said: "...the present stands of Maple and Birch trees will serve future generations as a source of supply for fine flooring for many years to come."

Light scratches on furniture may be concealed by rubbing them with equal parts of boiled linseed oil, turpentine and white vinegar.

Plan Hunting Is Much Like House Hunting

Plan hunting is much like house hunting. In both cases you are looking for a suitable home for your family. The type of plan you are looking for will depend on your building budget, family needs and your lot.

Early in your search you must decide on the general arrangements, number of bedrooms required, whether or not you will want separate dining room, breezeway and attached garage. This will narrow the field and reduce the number of plans you will want to study.

In any house certain fundamental principles will make the operation of a household simpler and easier. Foremost of these is free circulation between rooms, the ability to reach any room without first passing through another room. This may call for a little more hall, but is well worth it.

The kitchen, if properly planned, is the place where most of the drudgery of housekeeping can be eliminated. Refrigerator, sink and range should be located so a natural sequence is set up in the movement of food from storage to preparation to cooking. Space for eating in the kitchen is a must.

A small bathroom is normal for a small house but a recessed tub, away from the window, is a most desirable feature.

Bedroom sizes depend on personal preference and the amount of furniture to be used. Check wall space for beds. You may want two possible bed-rooms to provide for the almost inevitable shifting of furniture.

The success of a plan depends a great deal on the closet space available; "A place to put things." One of the most important closets is one near the side or rear entrance where family traffic is heaviest. Do not overlook linen, storage and bedroom closets.

Use of picture window, or window wall, depends on the degree of privacy you want and the location or facing of your lot. Your living room should comfortably care for family and guests. Be sure to consider the idea of including a fireplace. It adds much to the livability of your room at relatively small cost.

Choose your plan carefully. You may have to live with it a long time.

A SMALL HOUSE PLANNING BUREAU DESIGN NO. B-341

DESIGN B-341. For economy in building, this plan is hard to beat. The combination of the simple rectangular shape of the floor plan, without costly projections, and the flat roof results in substantial savings in the labor of cutting, fitting and framing. For further information about DESIGN B-341, write the Building Editor, The Plymouth Mail.

Kitchens Take Over

In many respects the kitchen is replacing the living room as focal point of interest in today's quality home. The kitchen is being planned as a play and hobby center, an area for informal entertaining, and a frequent gathering place for the entire family. Two things have made this possible: the wise use of quality materials such as durable ceramic tile for floors, walls and countertops, and the swift progress made in the kitchen appliance field. Automatic appliances are now compact, work efficiently and economically. They take less space and do more work. What with the national trend to larger families and a closer family life, the kitchen—always the heart of the house—has become a multi-purpose room ready to serve any and all occasions.

Presidential Paint

On a recent visit to his farm at Gettysburg, President Eisenhower inspected the color of the paint being readied for the barn, then decided to change it. Being an artist of no mean ability, he went to work with the painter and turned out a sample of the color he preferred. Then he called for his wife to admire it—even Built-ins take years off the appearance of a home's interior. An article in Home Modernizing magazine shows how functional, too, these modern items can be. Not only do they save space by making use of wall instead of floor areas, they also reduce clutter and make possible organized storage because they can be installed near point of use. The pictures below show examples.

ROVING PHOTOGRAPHER Mrs. George Schmeman of North Territorial road wandered down Mexico way on her vacation tour and snapped this picture of Dr. and Mrs. Rafael Davila and four-year-old son, Randy, in Mexico City. He has two more years of internship at the Spanish hospital, Mexico City, following which the family will move to Puerto Rico.

State Police Cars Get Another Plate

Michigan State Police patrol cars will soon be wearing a second license plate.

The new permanent-type plates have blue numerals on a reflectorized gold background. They will replace the present permanent gold numeral-blue background plates on the rear of patrol cars. Due to the nature of the reflectorized material, a dark background is not practical.

The present plates will be sent to Michigan State Industries for repainting in the new color combination and will then be placed on the front of the patrol cars. They will not be treated with the reflectorized material.

A second plate was decided upon to afford easy front and rear vehicle identification.

The use of reflectorized material is experimental. If it wears satisfactorily, it might be considered as an added nighttime safety device for cars of the general public.

The permanent plates, in use since September, 1954, match the colors of the patrol cars and carry a State Police designation.

In 1948 Oslo, Norway's capital, underwent one of the largest city expansions on record. On New Year's Day it bulged out to 26 times its former size by swaling 175 square miles. The city now has the distinction of being almost half forest.

Vegetable Gardening Serves As Highly Profitable Hobby

Men hobby gardeners are inclined to specialize, concentrating their efforts upon one class of plants. More numerous than any other group are the vegetable growers, who assert that no other branch of gardening brings its devotees and their families such great rewards.

These are not in money savings, they contend, as much as in the superior quality of garden fresh vegetables, which are served on the family table while young and tender, with flavor unimpaired by a long journey from field to market.

Many surveys have established that leisure hours passed in vegetable gardening earn high pay, when the value of the harvest is considered. But much more important is the sense of achievement which the gardener feels, in having produced by his own efforts, "vegetables of superb taste and texture which cannot be bought in the market."

You can test the truth of this if you have a sunny area in the back yard 500 to 1,000 square feet, with well drained soil. The larger area is sufficient to grow most of the fresh vegetables which a family of four can eat during a harvest period of four to five months.

This will not allow for sweet corn, potatoes, cabbages, peas for canning, or any considerable quantity of vine crops except those grown on a fence or trellis. Another two thousand square feet would be required to supply the family with all.

The ideal shape for a 1,000 square foot plot is oblong, say 20 by 50 or 25 by 40 ft., with the shorter distance running north and south.

North and south rows, give more even distribution of the sun and it is easier to divide up space among your different crops, when you deal with 20 or 25 foot rows, rather than fractions of long ones.

Your plot must have sunshine. Six hours full sun is usually assumed to be a minimum. But many of the crops you will want to grow need full sun all day long, and will suffer from any limitation of it. Trees too nearby, which cast little shade in mid-summer, when the sun is high, may seriously affect yields in the fall.

Never surround a small vegetable plot with shrubs, but a picket fence five feet high bordering the east, north and west sides will add 450 square feet of valuable air space on which tomatoes, pole beans, cucumbers, melons, or similar vine crops can be grown to perfection.

Such a fence has no roots, casts no harmful shade, and allows the air to circulate freely around the plants that cling to it. The south boundary should be open to the full sun, with no climbers or pickets to cast mid-day shadows. Use a wire fence here only if required for protection.

The important point is to avoid a layout which results in any row being shaded for more than a brief interval of the day, by its companion crops, the garden enclosure, or outside objects. Sunshine is far more important than soil.

Make your vegetable garden as near as possible to the kitchen door, so that vegetables can be harvested just before they are cooked, or processed for canning or freezing. With some a delay of minutes may suffice to dull the keen edge of their supreme flavor.

In the country as a whole the average payment to recipients of old-age assistance more than tripled between 1936 and 1953, rising from $15.59 a month to $51.50 a month.

Plan Landscaping With Neighbors

The good neighbor policy should extend to the landscaping. What you do in the front or back of your house may be strictly your own business. Chances are, however, you can secure attractiveness of the home grounds and make suburban living even more gracious if you consult with your neighbors on planting plans.

Such is the advice of tree experts who point out the people next door may even let you plant a tree on their property that will throw desired shade on your home.

Many weekend gardeners can't resist the urge to place shrubs along the lot line. Emphasizing lot lines merely makes the property seem smaller, as a rule. If plantings can be avoided forward of the building line, each neighbor will enjoy full sweep of lawn. In planting trees, keystones of the landscape, your favorite locations may be detrimental to your neighbor's views. On the other hand, since the sun is no respecter of property lines, friend neighbor may reap all the benefits of your plantings. It is essential your landscaping be modified to suit existing trees on adjoining properties. Perhaps it will be more appropriate to plant shrubs rather than major trees. Otherwise, there might be too much shade to permit lawn growth.

Neighboring planning on landscape improvements will pay big dividends in the improved looks of the individual home property, and immediate residential area.

HEALTH and BEAUTY

Any woman whose skin presents a fine, velvet bloom is lucky beyond words. Women born with this great asset are few. There are many today who cultivate and create a lovely complexion through proper diet, powder and powder-blended foundations.

The proper diet requires a little self control at times but the end results in face and figure more than compensate. Eat foods that are high in vitamin A. These include almost all vegetables, especially green, leafy ones almost all fresh fruit, especially citrus fruits—dairy products—be sure to drink at least one pint of whole milk each day. If you must diet use skim milk and watch the amount of fat you eat.

Exercise and fresh air will benefit both your complexion and figure. Poor circulation is often the cause of a muddy, tired looking skin.

The skin deep part of a beautiful complexion can come in the form of loose powder, a bottle of powder-blended foundation or a cake of cream-blended powder. Which ever you choose, it is important to take your time and buy carefully.

These powders should be chosen for texture as well as color. Some companies design their powders in both light and heavier textures. Heavier powders have more clinging power and absorb more of the skin's natural oils. They are best suited to an oily skin.

Face powder colors belong in three large groups—the pinks, who do wonders for a sallown skin; the neutrals which are best for a ruddy complexion; and the goldens which add warmth to a pale complexion.

of Pontiac's 200-HP Strato-Streak V-8!

If all the talk about horsepower has left you confused, let this one simple fact set you straight.

Model for model, the sensational new Pontiac Strato-Streak V-8 delivers more horsepower per dollar than any car in its field. And that fact holds good whether you specify the four-barrel carburetor—a low-cost option that puts 200 eager horsepower under Pontiac's handsome hood—or the regular 180-horsepower Strato-Streak V-8.

The Strato-Streak V-8, part and parcel of every Pontiac, produces performance as fresh and distinctive as Pontiac's Twin-Streak styling and Vogue Two-Tone beauty—with traditional Pontiac dependability and the greatest economy in Pontiac history.

But Pontiac's extra value doesn't stop with power. Its Shock-Proof chassis, wide-stance rear springs, long 122" or 124" wheelbase, recirculating ball steering and bigger brakes provide fine-car comfort and handling.

Come in at your first opportunity and road-test Pontiac's spectacular Strato-Streak V-8 performance and you'll quickly see why sales are now at an all-time high!

You can buy a big, powerful Pontiac for less than many models of the lowest-priced cars and much less than stripped, economy models of higher-priced makes!

FOR THE FUTURE OF YOUR CHILDREN

PROPOSAL 1 will ask you:

To approve a transfer of 7 mills in our tax levy to retire $3,000,000 in bonds.

PROPOSAL 2 will ask you:

To grant authority for the board of education to sell $3,000,000 in school bonds.

YOUR PRESENT SCHOOL TAX RATE WILL NOT BE INCREASED!

These are our needs:

Statistics may be boring—but citizens of Plymouth Township School District are faced with some facts they dare not ignore! Boys and girls are ALREADY overcrowding our elementary schools. Three schools are using their libraries for classrooms. One of these also uses its auditorium. Next September all elementary schools will need to convert their libraries and auditoriums into classrooms.

Junior High enrollment last October 1 was 469. It is anticipated that 525 will be enrolled next fall. This is an increase of 56 students. With 35 to 42 pupils already filling each classroom, where can we put an additional 56 boys and girls? Sacrificing the Junior High library for classroom space is the only solution.

We are living in a growing community. Plymouth and Plymouth Township had a combined population of 11,582 when the federal census was taken in 1950. It is estimated that there are 2,100 more people today. And in four more years, authorities expect another 2,800 men, women and children. Our school population back in 1950 was 2,400. An average of 200 extra children a year have been pouring into classrooms, placing today's enrollment over 3,400. Our school census shows that we can expect these or even higher gains in enrollment indefinitely.

These are just a few of the statistics which point to the serious problem ahead. The solution is obvious. More classrooms must be provided.

Here's what your "YES" vote will do:

2. BUILD AND EQUIP A NEW ELEMENTARY SCHOOL ON SHELTON SITE TO BE OPENED IN SEPTEMBER 1956	460,000.00

Two important elections are facing Plymouth area voters: one this Monday involving a $3,000,000 bond issue for our school system; the other one week later to decide who will guide our city and township governments for the next few years.

With names of many capable candidates appearing on the April 4 ballot, it would be difficult for The Mail to recommend to its readers those persons who could best serve the public. If voters should err in their judgment of these candidates, it is their privilege to vote them out of office at the next election or even sooner. But a wrong decision by voters at this Monday's special school election could not be corrected as easily.

It is our opinion that the education of our youngsters will be impaired if this bond issue is not approved. In our way of thinking, half-day sessions or crowding pupils into school libraries, auditoriums and teacher lounges do not lend themselves to good education. With the cooperation of voters who approved building bond issues in past years, our school system has avoided half-day sessions or serious overcrowding.

This year, however, Bird school has had to utilize its auditorium and library for classrooms, Smith and Starkweather is using its library and Hough school first graders and kindergarten children are on half-day schedules. All elementary schools will be using their auditoriums and libraries for classrooms next fall and the junior high will even have a class in its library.

The board of education, with the aid of the School Community Planning Group, is not stumbling blindly into a building program. Much time and energy has been spent in analyzing the annual school census, monthly enrollment trends and statistics from area planners. They know that nearly 200 homes a year are being constructed in the city and township; that manufacturing employment is continuing to climb; and that a population of 13,700 in the city and township today will at least reach 16,539 by 1959. They know that our elementary schools are filled to over capacity right now; that the junior high will be over capacity next fall and that these growing youngsters will make the high school bulge at the seams a few years hence.

A property owner may well agree that more classrooms are needed, but if he is normal, he will ask what effect a bond issue will have on his annual tax bill. It seems unbelievable in these times, but the board of education and their accountants have come up with a remarkable $3,000,000 pill to cure classroom shortage ills for some years to come and yet will not raise our present school tax rate. This is the kind of remedy we like—one that goes down smoothly, is completely tasteless and still cures the sickness.

Favoring this school construction program and its painless financing is not enough. The only opinions on this subject that count are those of citizens who will go to the polls this Monday. Whether a parent or not, we are urging your support of this bond issue. Half-day sessions and the like were unheard of when we were in school. We owe our young people at least an equal opportunity for education.

- Q—Can you give me the average salary of school teachers in the nation?
- A—The Tax Foundation has recently conducted a survey and finds that average beginning salary of teachers with a college degree in cities is $3,115 with the average maximum with a Doctor's degree is $5,805. Generally the lowest salaries are in the south and in rural areas salaries are generally below the averages.
- Q—Has the "Oil for Education" bill been introduced in the Senate?
- A—Yes, by Senator Lister Hill, Alabama, and 35 other sponsors, including 30 Democrats, five Republicans, nine independent. It would earmark royalties on publicly owned oil reserves in the continental shelf for educational purposes and asks $1 billion for emergency relief in construction funds.
- Q—What was the first state to ratify the constitution?
- A—Delaware on Dec. 7, 1787. Next in order came Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Georgia, Connecticut, Massachusetts, Maryland, South Carolina, New Hampshire, Virginia, New York, North Carolina and then came Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.
- Q—What day is observed as Pan-American Day?
- A—April 14. It was on that date in 1890 when the first international conference of American states met in Washington and formed the Pan-American Union.
- Q—May newspapermen attending the President's press conference quote him?
- A—No. Only when the President gives direct permission. Otherwise they are limited to indirect quotations.
- Q—Why do members of the Senate address the Vice President as "Mr. President?"
- A—Because the Vice President is technically the president of the Senate.
- Q—What has become of the drive to get the government out of competition with private industry?
- A—The Budget Director, only recently issued a directive to all agencies of government to prepare an inventory of all commercial activities and an evaluation of all manufacturing activities included in this inventory. The directive says that each agency will be expected to discontinue all commercial activities unless it can be shown it would not be in the public interest to procure the products or services from private industry.

Dow Averages Throw Fulbright Committee Into Perplexing Problem in Mathematics

Babson Park, Massachusetts. Certainly, the Fulbright Committee has displayed ignorance and inability to intelligently discuss Stock Market procedure by the foolish questions they have asked.

DOW-JONES INDUSTRIALS
They seemed utterly at sea when discussing the "Dow Industrial Average" and comparing same with the highs of 1929. As most readers know, this average is made up of thirty stocks, closing on March 3rd at the following prices:
Allied Chemical & Dye	100
American Can	41 1/2
American Smelt & Ref.	46 3/4
American Tel. & Tel.	185 1/2
American Tobacco	65 1/2
Bethlehem Steel	128 3/4
Chrysler Corp.	70 3/4
Corn Products Refining	87 3/4
duPont de Nemours	173 3/4
Eastman Kodak	73
General Electric	51 3/4
General Foods	77 1/2
General Motors	96 1/2
Goodyear Tire & Rubber	56
International Harvester	38 1/2
International Nickel	65 1/2
Johns-Manville	89 3/4
Loew's, Inc.	19 1/2
National Distillers	22 3/4
National Steel	65 3/4
Proctor & Gamble	101 1/4
Sears, Roebuck	85 1/4
Standard Oil of Calif.	79 3/4
Standard Oil of N. J.	114 1/4
Texas Company	93 3/4
Union Carbide & Carbon	85 3/4
United Aircraft	82 3/4
U. S. Steel	79 3/4
Westinghouse Electric	79 3/4
Woolworth (F. W.) Co.	51 1/2

The Committee members worked with pencil and paper trying to get an average which checked with the Dow-Jones Average for that day. They could not make it check; hence, they "smelled some monkey business by Wall Street." They forgot entirely that prices must be adjusted to stock dividends, split-ups, and other changes in the number of shares.

SIMPLE ILLUSTRATIONS
For instance, take a stock such as General Motors which last split two for one. In order to give the new quotation after the split a fair comparison, the new quotation must be adjusted for splits, stock dividends, etc. All this would be simple were it not for the fact that some of the 1929 stocks have been dropped from the Average.

Furthermore, there have been mergers which required higher mathematics to make the correct adjustments. These were made in order to be fair. It is very wrong for any member of the Fulbright Committee to suggest juggling. In fact, of the 1929 Dow-Jones List of 30 stocks only 17 remain in the present list of 30 stocks. Incidentally, it is rather interesting that the Wall Street Journal—owned by the Dow-Jones Company—apparently desires to sidestep this entire Average problem.

OTHER AVERAGES
There are other important "Averages" such as the New York Times' Averages. Their Industrial Average is made up of 25 stocks; but the comparison may easily be checked. If the New York Times' Average goes up, the Dow-Jones Industrial Average usually also goes up, but by a varying amount, their leading newspapers have separate Averages; but if plotted, they all will be nearly parallel movement.

The Boston Stock Exchange broadcasts the "Babson Averages" each Monday through Friday at noon and after the close of the market. The real value of these Averages is not to compare with 1929; but to compare with "yesterday" or a "week or month ago." Now just a word regarding "Specialists," which seemed to trouble the Committee.

SPECIALISTS DESCRIBED
In fact, the "Specialist" is the protector of the public who buy and sell stocks. He is charged by the New York Stock Exchange with a very specific and extremely responsible duty, namely that of "making a market" in one or more issues. To do this he must often risk his own funds by buying a stock in a falling market at a higher price than the public will pay at any given moment. In a rising market, the specialist is expected to sell stock from his own account at a lower price than the public is willing to sell. This prevents wide gyrations in the market price of any given stock, and protects a hurried seller from being "clipped" by being forced to accept a low price for his stock. Conversely, an anxious buyer is protected against paying too high a price at any given time.

About one-quarter of all New York Stock Exchange members act as specialists. One specialist may handle a number of stocks, but, in the case of very active issues, there may be a number of specialists handling the same issue. The Exchange has rigid rules governing the market experience and financial standing of specialists. The specialist must assume full responsibility for all orders to buy or sell turned over to him, maintaining a fair and orderly market in the stocks in which he specializes. His personal interests in the market must at all times be subordinated to the best interests of his customers. He cannot buy for his own account until he has executed all public orders held by him at the given price. In a nutshell, the specialist is a very important wheel in the Exchange's machinery—absolutely necessary to its smooth functioning. And I repeat, he is there to protect the buying and selling public.

THE $64 QUESTION

This is what can be done to help the innocent investor not to get hooked by tips. The simplest protection would probably be to confine the investments of all dispensers of tips—see Financial Supplement of New York Times—to U. S. Government Bonds or bank accounts only. Yet, this would not prevent Winchell from passing out tips, as he now claims that he has no direct or indirect interest in any stock which he recommends.

Forty years serving Stock Exchanges makes me believe that the best protection is education and publicity. Some have suggested that the specialists' books of unfilled orders be made public for a time in advance of execution. This would not, however, be possible in rapidly moving trading such as takes place on the floor of the Exchange. Furthermore, a true picture would be most difficult to obtain as orders on the books can be pulled out any time. Thus, the specialists' books shift with the varying attitudes of the public. Perhaps it might help if investors who buy and sell in small lots were required to put limits on their orders. All in all, however, I conclude that the real question is one of educating the buyers and the sellers of stocks.

The good are better made by ill. As odours crushed are sweeter still. —Rogers.

MOSE H. DIEHL, 405 Scarsdale Road, Tuckahoe, New York, in July of 1944 was, with his Division, sent to France to go into combat.

The ships were lying off Utah Beach and they were waiting for the barges to take them into the beach. They could hear the distant rumble of the artillery and could see the beach just ahead where so many thousands had given their lives but a short time before.

Like the others on those ships, he found himself becoming nervous and depressed because he knew the only path ahead was one of hardship, casualties and for many, death. He remembered a devotional booklet that had been given him several months before by his church. He dug it out of his pack, opened it and read these words: "Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid." There came over him a peace and calm he says he shall never forget. He realized those words were spoken centuries before to men who also feared the future; to men whose future was as uncertain as was his. He accepted those words as a Divine promise that whatever his lot was to be, whether it was to be life or death, he would be prepared for whatever might occur. His future was not a matter of chance, but was in the hands of an all-seeing and all-knowing God, a God who knew what was best.

Ever since he has carried those words with him, and he says he has repeated them a thousand times, in the service and out, and they have always given him peace and courage.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal, is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

"There was much furor over the release last week of the controversial Yalta papers. Do you think that documents such as these should be made known to the public?"

CHARLES CUSTER, 11926 Newburg road: "Yes, I think they should be released. The public is entitled to know about the policies of our government. We should know what agreements our country has made with England and Russia."

FORREST MORGESON, 1116 Roosevelt: "I don't think the average person is well enough versed on such matters to know what is good for them to know and what isn't. It is always easy to criticize afterwards. It is good to know what is going on but it is also so easy to find fault with decisions made 10 years ago."

MRS. DON HICKS, 44475 Governor Bradford: "Yes, I do think it is important to know what has gone on. The public should not be kept in the dark."

HAROLD ENTERLINE, 11850 Haggerty: "I definitely believe we should know. The papers should have been released to the Congress years ago so that they could have known what our policy was. Perhaps the average citizen would not have been versed enough to have used the knowledge but I believe its use by Congress could have been for the good of the country."

— READING THE MAIL — Mystery in the Air

Near San Antonio the other day Lt. Col. W. D. Beane had to jump out of a jet training plane. It was after dark, and the weather was strictly nowhere.

Beane did exactly that. He pulled back the canopy and ejected himself. His plane sped off into the night, to crash at an unknown spot, and Beane pulled his rip-cord.

Half an hour later, the pilot was still hanging up there in space. He told friends later that he couldn't even see the top of his chute much of the time, so bad was the weather.

Strong updrafts in freak weather were holding Beane up. It has happened before, but seldom do pilots happen to bail out in such upcurrents. Beane finally came down, after going up, then down, then up, and then hanging there, about stationary, and landed in a tree. He was not injured seriously.

This story reminds us that the weather—the most talked of subject in the world—still has a few tricks the experts don't understand. Just why tornadoes build up when they do, and how, is not certain.

Just why hurricanes do what they do, and how, is not understood. Just why the sky suddenly clears up, when the experts correctly read all the indications as pointing to rain, is a mystery. The airstreams which push along transoceanic planes at great speed are another mystery—not even recognized until in recent years.

For centuries man has been traveling on the ground and on the sea. He has become well acquainted with sudden flash floods, quicksands, mountain dangers and all the hazards of earthly motivation. But we have been traveling through the air only a few decades. And there are a lot of questions yet to be answered. Flying and flights are not yet routine.

Tiny Moons

Amateur Astronomer John P. Bagby, of Chicago, has discovered what he thinks are small moons only 475 miles from the earth's surface. They are actually small satellites spinning around the earth at about 18,000 miles an hour.

The discovery—yet to be verified—is of tremendous military and scientific significance, and means that these small moons will probably be the first heavenly bodies to be reached by the scientists of the future.

Bagby's discovery was made with a six-inch, home-made telescope, and he has recruited a team of skilled amateur astronomers to help him identify the moons he thinks he has found. The answer to the question whether the little moons are actually there will probably be finally determined in the next few months.

Meanwhile, it appears that man's ageless search for these small moons, which from time to time have been reported by astronomers, might have been ended.

School Aid From State?

MICHIGAN VOTERS will be asked April 4 to install in the state constitution a plan to help local school districts finance new buildings with a $100,000,000 bond issue.

It was written by educators who know the potential problems and enacted by legislators who were convinced it existed.

Clair L. Taylor, superintendent of public instruction, called schoolmen together last fall for a try at solving the crisis on a statewide basis and the proposal is the result, Taylor said:

"The legislature is to be complimented for putting the proposal on the ballot. If approved by the voters, it will help the most seriously distressed school districts and help education."

Taylor painted a picture frightening to lawmakers: The state will need 2,000 more classrooms a year for the next five years to handle an increased enrollment of 70,000 new students annually.

School financing in Michigan has always been a local problem, with a lift from the state sales tax diversion, and legislators feared any further involvement would jeopardize local control.

But, they heard of the school districts on the fringes of metropolitan areas where new subdivisions will quadruple enrollments in some districts next year and eghulf local financing plans. They were told of half-day sessions in crowded schools, the overload of students on teachers.

After several conferences, the proposal—drafted first in Oakland county—was shipped into the legislature under the sponsorship of Senator William S. Broomfield (R-Royal Oak).

It first called for a $200,000,000 bond issue, but educators agreed that half that amount would be enough for emergency money.

Here's how it will work. School districts facing a classroom crisis will be forced to levy up to 13 mills in school taxes for buildings. If the need is greater, the system begins to work.

Districts will certify their needs to the state and get approval to go on building. Anything that cannot be covered by the local 13-mill tax will be picked up by the state.

The state fund will be used to make annual payments of principal and interest on the local school bonds. The proposal also would pledge the full faith and credit of the state behind the local bond issues to obtain lower interest rates.

School districts also would be permitted to use the state funds to re-finance existing bond issues, cutting interest rates on which they are now paying.

To get the state's money back, the districts would be required to continue the 13-mill levy after their needs drop below that point, using the excess over a 30-year period to repay the state. Taylor said:

"We want to educate our children, a right they have by being Americans. That, we hope, is one of the answers to the problem."

He said the $100,000,000 "probably" would not be all used and that the first year's lending program would affect 46 districts, most of the southeastern section of the state, and the first year's loans would approximate $3,000,000.

DEMOCRATS in the Senate finally got a home of their own. It is the first-floor office in the capitol building formerly occupied by Grand Army of the Republic records and one secretary. The office has been moved to other quarters.

For years, Senate Democrats have complained that a third-floor caucus room is a little snug for two desks, two secretaries, a filing cabinet, an electric heater and 11 Democrats.

Last year, Lt. Gov. Clarence A. Reid, a Republican, invited the minority party to use his office, a spacious, carpeted room on the second floor.

Lt. Gov. Philip A. Hart, a Democrat new this year, issued the same invitation, just to be bi-partisan.

But when the GAR office was moved, the Democrats were waiting. The room now is brilliantly lighted, has a tile floor, three desks and plenty of room for Democrats and a few visitors, occasionally.

There's only one complaint now: There is no way to install a loud speaker from the Senate like other rooms have and the secretaries must rely on telephones for information from the Senate.

"This is better than nothing, though, and almost better than anything," said Senator Charles S. Blomdy (D-Detroit), minority floor leader.

CUPID HAD HIS DAY in the legislature, with a bill to cut the waiting period between obtaining a marriage license and the wedding from five to three days.

Senator Carlton H. Morris (R-Kalamazoo) sponsored the bill. "Young people have problems, too," he said.
