Schedule Parade On Veterans Day

The nation's second observance of Veterans Day will be commemorated in Plymouth tomorrow with a downtown parade starting at 7 p.m.

At least three veterans organizations will march in the parade which will start from the Veterans Memorial building.

The high school band will also march if weather permits and several other organizations have been invited.

Marching will be the posts and auxiliaries of Passage-Gayde Post No. 391 of the American Legion, Mayflower Post No. 6695 of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and Myron Beals Post No. 32 of the Legion (Livonia.)

The VFW firing squad will head the parade with color bearers in uniform. Leaving the Veteran's Memorial, the parade will move south on Main street to Wing; turn right on Wing to Forest avenue, north on Forest to Ann Arbor trail; east on Ann Arbor trail to Main street, and north on Main street to the Veteran's Memorial. Refreshments will be served the participants following the parade.

Co-chairmen of the event are Commander Albert Holmbe of the Legion and Jack Olsaver of the V.F.W.

All merchants and residents are being urged to display the flag of the United States in front of their

Although Veterans Day being observed Friday will not have any effect on merchants, the post office, National Bank of Detroit and First Federal Savings & Loan company will be closed. There will be no mail delivery Friday, the postmaster announced. Both the bank and loan firm will remain open until 5 p.m. Thursday (the normal Friday hours) but will not open Friday. No commercial establishments are known to be closing in observance of the day.

businesses and homes during the day as a tribute to America's veterans of all wars.

Veteran's Day came into being for the first time a year ago, replacing Armistice Day which commemorated only the signing of the World War I peace. The day is set aside "as a remembrance for those who placed their love of God and country and their devotion to liberty and freedom above life itself."

A number of local Legionnaires will be in Battle Creek this Friday and Saturday for the homecoming celebration for J. Addison Wagner, newly elected national commander of the Legion. The parade will be at 1 p.m. Saturday. Admiral Arleigh L. Burke, U. S. Chief of Naval Operations, will be the banquet speaker.

Kaiser Bill Burned in Effigy

What Was Nov. 11, 1918 Like in Plymouth?

What happened in Plymouth 38 years ago, on November 11, 1918?

That was the day when the "war to end all wars" came to a close and the village of Plymouth, like communities all over the world, joined in the peace celebration. What kind of a celebration was it?

Looking into the files of The Plymouth Mail, a complete report of the historical day was published. It describes the "monster parade" and tells about the burning of the Kaiser's effigy.

But nothing can describe the day better than the story itself which follows in its complete text:

"Plymouth citizens were awakened before dawn Monday morning to a genuine peace celebration, with enthusiasm undampened by a hoaxed report and the disappointment of last week Thursday.

"The first noise to be sounded was the whistle at the Pere Marquette round house, and the engines in the railroad yards, which began blowing at four o'clock. Despite the false alarm of Thursday, our citizens awoke with readiness to receive the expected good news. With the shrieking of the whistles and the clanging of the church and fire bells, came also the firing of guns and revolvers and the shouts of the joyous citizens.

"The town was awake and in

More to Receive Salk Polio Shots

School children from kindergarten through the fourth grade can now get Salk polio shots from their family doctor, it was announced by Mrs. Mary Carless, school health nurse. Not eligible for shots are those second and third grade pupils who have already received them.

One thousand cards were sent home with youngsters in the eligible age groups and parents must send these to their family doctor if they want their child vaccinated. Local doctors do not have a supply of the vaccine on hand but can obtain it from the Wayne County Health department only when they turn in the signed cards from parents.

The vaccine is being supplied free with the only cost being the office charge made by the family physician. Pregnant women will also be made eligible for the vaccine.

Mrs. Carless reported that so far, the number of cards received by doctors has been very light. According to Dr. Albert E. Heustis, state health commissioner, right now is an ideal time to get polio vaccine, although the current polio season is about over. "This is the best time to start protection against paralytic polio next year," he declared.

Deer Comes to Town

While deer hunters polished up their guns last week in preparation for the new season, at least one animal got smart and headed for the city where it was out of bounds for gunmen.

Police said they received several telephone reports last Friday at about 12:32 p.m. telling of a deer which was in the area of Auburn, Sunset and Blanche streets.

One report said that the animal was standing in the lawn of William Hester, whose home is on Auburn at Blanche. The deer apparently became wary of city life in a hurry and disappeared into the nearby countryside.

BUCK FEVER was running high Tuesday in Plymouth when hunters got a glimpse of the six deer and two antelope hauled into town by Frank Weller, left, of 293 North Holbrook, and Elmer Horvath, right, of 794 York. Six days in Montana accounted for the huge bag including two bucks of 305 and 301 pounds. Ozzie Hinote, Powell road, and Paul Forchette of Detroit accompanied Weller and Horvath. They reported seeing 82 bucks and hundreds of antelopes. Michigan deer season begins next Tuesday. A noticeable dip in population is expected to be noted that day as local hunters head northward.

Collision Injures Plymouth Couple

A Plymouth man and his young wife were seriously injured last week in a head-on collision while returning from Tennessee where, ironically, they had been visiting the husband's brother who had been critically injured in another accident.

Doyle Clemmons, 25, and his wife, Shirley, 18, of 565 West Ann Arbor trail, are in the Health Center at Coldwater, Michigan, recovering from injuries received at 8:10 a.m. Wednesday of last week near Coldwater.

Relatives report that Mrs. Clemmons is suffering a broken thigh bone, fractured skull and facial lacerations, while her husband has a fractured leg, cuts on the chin and elbow and damaged teeth. The driver of the other car, George Spang, 24, Olivet, Illinois, received back and chest injuries. Branch county sheriff's officers said that it has not been determined how the accident occurred.

Mrs. Clemmons' brother had not been expected to live when the Plymouthites went to see him. He is now recovering rapidly. Clemmons works at the Ford Motor company in Livonia and Mrs. Clemmons at the Harvey Container company. Mrs. Clemmons is the former Shirley Wall.

Speaker Urges More Public Affairs Interest

An opinion that business and government are not only compatible, but that businessmen should make a full contribution to the process of making political decisions, was expressed by John S. Coleman, president of the Burroughs corporation, when he addressed the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner Wednesday night.

The event, held in the high school auditorium, also featured reports of the Chamber's 1955 activities, the presentation of the gavel by President J.M. Robison to Donald Burleson, the president-elect, and the awarding of certificates to retiring board members.

Leaving the board of directors this year are Robert Waldecker, Charles Sawyer, L. B. Rice and James Thomas. The National Anthem opened the evening, followed by the invocation by the Reverend Henry Walsh, D.D.

Frank Henderson served as master of ceremonies during the evening. Dinner music was played on an electric organ by Richard King and solos were offered by Joseph Cicirelli, tenor, of Novi. About 200 persons attended the affair.

Using the subject, "Business and Government: Are They Natural Enemies?", the speaker declared in his opening remarks that they are not. Much of the legislation that business once opposed, he said, is now accepted both by business and by the community as a whole. "The fact is that the climate in which business now operates has greatly improved. We have had 10 years of unparalleled prosperity. More recently an increasing number

Phoenix Road Name Dropped By County

Phoenix road is no longer Phoenix road, the Wayne County Board of Road Commissioners declared in a resolution received here this week. It's Five Mile road.

The resolution declares that the section of Phoenix road between Northville road and Napier road at the Washenaw-Wayne county line no longer has any direct connection or special relationship to the name of Phoenix, but is actually a connection between two sections of highway known as Five Mile road.

The board resolution added that this results in considerable confusion to the motoring public which can be avoided by a change in name.

New Telephone Books Are Here

Some 9,700 new editions of the 1955-56 telephone directory are being distributed this week by the Michigan Bell Telephone company.

The new directory will make it possible for Plymouth subscribers to get rid of the two directories they now have. Listings for Ann Arbor, Livonia, Northville, South Lyon, Wayne and Ypsilanti are included in the Plymouth directory.

Last March, because Wayne and Livonia switched to new exchanges, it was necessary to bring out a supplementary book with their new numbers. Plymouth's new directory is buff-covered, changing from the gray color of this past year's book.

Home Building Permits Counted

Building permits for 80 dwelling units have been issued in Plymouth township during the first three-fourths of 1955 and 70 permits have been issued for Plymouth city units, according to a survey released this week by the Detroit Metropolitan Area Regional Planning Commission.

The survey includes the months from January through September.

Rec'd township again led the area in home building permits with 1,837 during the nine-month period. This was followed by Dearborn township, 1,513; Taylor township, 1,388; and Livonia, 1,230.

Looking at other Plymouth neighbors, Canton township issued 45 home building permits during the nine months; Northville city, six; Northville township, 31; and Salem township, an estimated 15.

Sells Items Made By Handicapped

Plymouth Rotary Anns will sponsor their annual sale of articles made by the homebound handicapped beginning Tuesday, November 15, and continuing through Saturday, the 19th, at the Kroger store on Forest avenue. Proceeds from the event are returned to the individual handicapped persons who made the articles sold.

Each year the Rotary Anns have volunteered their time to do the sales work for the severely disabled served by the Homebound Occupational Therapy department of the Easter Seal agency. Chairman for this year's event is Mrs. Harold Curtis.

A variety of homemade gifts, including hand-tooled leather goods, hand-decorated stationery of original design, baby wear, aprons, rugs and many kinds of novelties will be offered during the five-day sale, which will be held during store hours.

All articles were made by physically handicapped people who are unable to work away from their homes. Their diagnosis includes polio, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, strokes, newly blind, arthritis and many other conditions.

By purchasing Christmas gifts at the Rotary Ann booth, the chairman added, residents will be helping a severely disabled person to help himself.

3 Walled Lake Youths Caught Shoplifting

Three Walled Lake boys were arrested Monday for shoplifting in Kresges, Police Chief Kenneth Fisher reported this week.

The three — two of them only 13 and the other 16 years of age, were held by the store management when it was discovered that they had taken some items. Police held them at city hall and then turned them over to Walled Lake police for prosecution.

Under a new juvenile court set-up, youngsters arrested by police are turned over to authorities in their home towns for prosecution.

Community Fund Still $8,100 Short of Goal

Here's Highlights Of New Water, Sewer Authority

Articles for the incorporation of the "Townships of Plymouth and Canton Water and Sewer Authority" are being printed for public inspection in this week's issue of The Mail. Resolutions calling for incorporation of the authority were approved last week at meetings of the two township boards.

The nine-page document is presented in 19 articles with its purpose being to "acquire, own, improve, enlarge, extend and operate a sewerage disposal system and/or water supply system."

Not until the articles are published and placed on file with the secretary of state and the county board of supervisors is the incorporation effective. Here are some of the mechanics of the authority:

As a corporate body, it can sue or be sued. It will continue perpetually until dissolved by act of the two parties.

Two persons from Plymouth township and one from Canton will compose its governing body, called a board. After the first board, members will serve three years. Members will be paid salaries "reasonable and consistent with responsibilities."

An organization meeting will be held on November 15.

Residential Donations Lagging; Deadline for Giving Extended

Despite the fact that only 355 residential pledges have been returned from the 5,300 letters sent into homes, the Plymouth Community Fund has reached the $19,389 mark—still 32 per cent short of the goal.

The fund drive had been tentatively scheduled to close today but it has been decided to carry the campaign into extra innings to allow more people time to send in their donations.

At a weekly meeting of the Community Fund board of directors Tuesday night, it was reported that the home solicitation drive is the source of the greatest disappointment. There were 5,300 letters containing pledge cards sent out to householders in the community prior to the campaign opening. A count of 355 responses was a definite indication that householders have fallen behind in their usual heavy response.

With the fund drive still $8,100 short, board members seemed certain that the straggling donations will make up the difference and put the campaign over the top once again.

For those who may have lost or never received a pledge card through the mail, the campaign chairmen, George Witkowski and Mrs. L. B. Rice, urge that a check be made out to the "Plymouth Community Fund" be placed in an envelope and addressed to the fund in care of Box 356, Plymouth, Michigan.

They said that some business and professional people who live outside the Plymouth area but work here have not given donations because of the slogan, "Give Where You Live". The co-chairmen state that the slogan is directed to employees and that business owners or professional people can help the community where they earn their livelihood by donating here, although they reside elsewhere.

The co-chairmen point out that citizens should not feel that they are making one donation to the community fund. "Instead, you are making 30 donations. Ten of these are for local agencies and 20 others are for agencies on which we may someday rely." These include research projects, help for the blind, etc.

"Add up what you would give to these many agencies if they approached you individually," Mrs. Rice and Witkowski declared. "That should be your donation to the Community Fund."

Community Fund drives in some communities have house-to-house solicitors, the two chairmen continued. "In Plymouth we rely on householders to respond to a request made by mail. There are still 4,945 homes and businesses which have not responded to this appeal."

The board of directors has submitted the following list of commercial, industrial and professional solicitations:

Ann Arbor Construction company, $75; Automobile Club of Michigan, $175; Beyer Rexall Drugs, $50; Blunks, Inc., $125; Carl Caplin Clothes, $25; Cassidy's, $50; Cloverdale Farms Dairy, $75.

Commissioners Wade Through Varied Agenda

Sewers, selling of city property, speed limits and police cars were some of the subjects on the city commission agenda Monday night which consumed three hours of time.

City Manager Albert Glassford reported that he would like to hire a person to begin obtaining rights of way for sewers in the southern section of the city. Laying of the sewers may mean tearing up of some streets and yards in the city, he added, and that rights of way will need to be granted. The city manager was asked to get an estimate from Herald Hamill, the consulting engineer, of when the project can begin.

On the subject of sewers, the commission received a letter from the Wayne County Road commission asking their opinion of allowing more of Northville city and Dearborn township to become a part of the Middle Rouge Interceptor service area. It was pointed out that the sewer could already be overloaded — that no one seems to know for sure. Outcome of the discussion was a motion to have the city manager notify the road commission that the city commission is in favor of the Northville request (about 40 homes involved) but objects to the larger Dearborn township request.

A letter was received by the board of education asking that the city sell land to the schools located between Blanche and Farmer behind the high school, in

Training School Sets Open House

An invitation to visit the nearby Wayne County Training School during National Retarded Children's Week has been extended by Dr. Pasquale Buonticento, the medical superintendent.

The open house will be held next Wednesday, November 16 from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m. Plans provide for visiting school classes, shops, children's cottages, various service units and discussion sessions.

Upon invitation, staff members will appear before interested groups to explain the school's purposes and activities during the week. A single staff member or panel will illustrate their presentation with colored slides.

The Training school is located at Sheldon and Phoenix roads. Mental retardation is described as a condition of impaired or incomplete mental development dating from birth or an early age, usually associated with slowness to develop and limited ability to learn, reduction of social aptitudes and limited vocational capacity.

About three per cent of the nation's population (about 4,800,000) are mentally retarded. There are 300 new cases added each year, based on the current U.S. birth rate. Mental retardation is nine times more common than cerebral palsy and 10 times more than crippling polio.

Wendell Morris, Pleasant Ridge city commissioner, has accepted the 1955 campaign chairmanship for the Michigan Association for Retarded Children. A total of $100,000 has been set as the goal for the 1955 campaign in Michigan.

Audience Applauds Guild's Production of "Murder"

Some 500 play-goers enjoyed the first production of the Plymouth Theatre Guild this season during the three-night presentation of "Dial M for Murder." The super "thriller" received high praise from the audience for its precise acting and professional use of sound effects.

Jean Ann Aubrey and William McKinnon were the central characters in the suspense-filled play which found J. H. Wilcox playing the role of McKinnon's accomplice in the murder plot. Outstanding supporting performances were turned in by Warren Harris and Russell Wallace.

Special comment arose from the telephone sound effects. Rugged so the audience could hear "both ends" of the phone conversation, the story moved swiftly and effectively to keep the audience in studied suspense.

Directed by Will-o-Way's William W. Merrill, the play was produced under the management of John H. Lodge. Douglas Haver-shaw was stage manager, while Ruth Barney was in charge of publicity.

Other members of the staff were: Russell Creel, J. H. Wilcox, C. V. Sparks, Lydia Argo, Dorothy Smith, Johnnie Lodge, Effie Kuisel, Betty Mende and Mary Ann Robinson, tickets; Maude Laury and Ruth Larson, program; Barbara Noe, prompter; Jeanine Dahlager and Martha Shoemaker, properties; Adele Miller and Angel Lind, patrons; Mr. and Mrs. Garland Wright staging; Stanley Dahlager, lights; Dick Wallace and Doug Stewart, sound; and Lillian Dickinson, Judy Sechlin, Saxie Holstein and Betty Gondek, make-up.

The next production of the Theatre Guild will be "Sabrina Fair." It will be presented in February.

"Ford Girls" Gather For Reunion Dinner

Approximately 100 women, representing former employees of the Ford Motor company's Phoenix plant and those associated with the Ford plant in Ypsilanti, gathered for their fourth annual reunion dinner at the Masonic Temple Thursday evening.

An election of officers was held following the dinner and entertainment program. Heading the club for the ensuing year are Mrs. Molly Tracy, president; Mrs. Pauline Stayman, vice president; Mrs. Maxine Rogers, secretary; and Mrs. Gladys Baker treasurer.

Program chairman was Mrs. Theresa Cameron. Mrs. Ruth Holland was in charge of contacting the members. The dinner was served by members of Plymouth chapter No. 115, Order of Eastern Star.

Mrs. John Radosky of Penniman avenue is convalescing at St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor, following surgery.

Carrie-Saxton Nuptials Read At Episcopal Church, Detroit

Dressed in a gown of lace over ivory satin, Miss Molly Stark Saxton of Plymouth repeated nuptial vows with Donald Edward Carrie, Detroit resident, on Saturday, November 5, at a candlelight ceremony held in St. Martin's Episcopal church, Detroit. The Reverend William Logan officiated the 8 o'clock ceremony.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Dean F. Saxton of 585 West Ann Arbor trail and Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Carrie, 9808 Yosemite, Detroit.

The bridal gown was fashioned with fitted bodice, off-shoulder collar and long fitted sleeves of lace which came to a point at the wrist. The full, bouffant skirt terminated in a cathedral train.

Her fingertip veil of illusion was held by a satin cloche. Pearl earrings and choker, gift of the bridegroom, were worn by the bride, and she carried a bouquet of white chrysanthemums. She was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. John Wieck, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Her dress of aqua velveteen was styled with fitted bodice, scoop neckline and elbow-length sleeves. The full skirt was of ballerina length. Mrs. Wieck wore a floral headpiece and carried a bouquet of yellow roses with bronze mums.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. William Saxton, Mrs. Leverett Crise, and Miss Isobel Burrell. They were gowned identically to the matron of honor and carried bouquets of yellow roses and mums in autumn shades.

Robert L. Carrie, Jr., assisted his brother as best man. Ushers were William Saxton, Leverett Crise, Andrew Gordon and Jack Kennedy.

Mrs. Saxton chose a grey, street-length dress with rose accessories. A blue street-length dress with white and blue accessories was selected by the bridegroom's mother. Both wore pink rose corsages. The altar of the Detroit church was decorated with baskets of white chrysanthemums for the wedding ceremony. Organist was Mrs. Winifred Stoddard.

The reception for 200 guests was held in the church parlors. Attending from out of state were friends and relatives from Ohio, Virginia and Massachusetts.

For traveling to Virginia, the new Mrs. Carrie selected a turquoise velveteen sheath dress with winter white and black accessories.

The couple will make their home at 23886 Beech road, Detroit.

Double Orchid Blooms

Rare sight on a November day is an orchid in full bloom — and a double one to boot!

That's the case in one local home. Mrs. Alice Willett of 352 Joy street reports an orchid plant, brought from Florida two years ago by her daughter, is now sporting a double bloom.

Credit goes to the local resident's green thumb since most greenhouses will admit that growing orchids in wintertime is a precarious job at best. Along with orchids, the hobbyist enjoys raising African violets and other houseplants.

The November meeting of the Lutheran Ladies Mission Society will be held at 7:15 p.m. on Thursday evening, November 17, at the church. Beginning at 8 p.m. Missionary Habben will be present to relate his experiences in North Rhodesia for all the congregation.

Library Marks Book Week Observance

Displays of reading material and start of its children's "story hour" will mark the Dunning library's observance of national Book Week, November 13 to 19, according to Head Librarian Mrs. Agnes Pauline.

Book displays will be set up in the Davis and Lent window as well as at the local library. At 4 p.m. Tuesday, November 15, the first in a series of weekly "story hours" for children will be given. The program will conclude with a Christmas recitation on December 13. Mrs. Pauline will conduct the series.

Purpose of Book Week is to focus attention on the importance of good books for children. "Today's books for children are more interesting and attractive than ever," the librarian added. The day has passed, she explained, when a children's book was a thinly-disguised geography lesson or moral tale designed solely to instruct. Present-day books have vitality, imaginative quality and wide range of subject matter.

Book week was founded in 1919 by Franklin K. Mathiews, chief Boy Scout librarian.

The Washtenaw Dental Assistants Society will hold their monthly meeting Wednesday, November 16 at 7 p.m. at the Elks' club in Ann Arbor. There will be a dinner and meeting. All new members are welcome.

Club to Honor Local Women

Nine residents of the Plymouth area will be selected and honored as "Women of Achievement" during the ensuing months through June in connection with a new feature incorporated into the program of the Business and Professional Women's club, it was announced this week by the organization.

Individuals selected for this honor will be women employed in the Plymouth area who have undertaken some outstanding activity apart from their job. Candidates, chosen each month will be honored at the organization's dinner meeting, held the third Monday of the month.

Selection will be made by a committee from the Business and Professional Women's club.

New Organization Battles Dread Children's Disease

An organization which will battle a disease that strikes children with a mortality rate greater than that of paralytic polio and is the most prevalent of all chronic children's diseases has been founded in Michigan.

This was promised today by Douglas Adair, president of the newly created Michigan chapter of the National Nephrosis Foundation. "Nephrosis," said Adair, "kills one out of every two children attacked. In spite of its prevalence and deadliness among children, less is known about its cause, treatment or exact nature, than is known about cancer."

The organization's first concern is to get members throughout the state and to build local chapters in as many cities and localities as possible. Those interested in helping such a program should contact Douglas Adair, General Motors Building, Detroit 2, Michigan or phone TUxedo 1-6061.

Childhood Nephrosis is a disease that is primarily evidenced by disturbed kidney function although it also disturbs other bodily functions. Unlike other diseases that attack children, Nephrosis usually lasts several years, years in which the parents never know whether the child will live or die. Death can come suddenly or after years of suffering.

Pointing out that it is possible that a child may suffer from Nephrosis without showing any outward signs of it, Adair said that, "Ordinarily Nephrosis is first indicated by a swelling around the eyes in the morning. As the illness progresses, the swelling will increase and spread becoming evident in the abdomen and the feet. It may soon include the entire body."

The new Michigan foundation has three primary purposes:

1. To establish one or more clinics to care for victims of Nephrosis.
2. To establish a research center to learn the cause of Nephrosis and to develop a cure.
3. To provide a fund on which parents can draw to take them through the expensive periods of treatment of Nephrosis.

Tape Recording Set for Meeting

By popular demand a tape recording of a talk given by Dr. Ernest M. Ligon of Union college, Schenectady, New York, will be presented at the next meeting of the Character Research group at 8 p.m. Wednesday, November 16, in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred VanDyke, 9585 Joy road.

The talk, heard by the group at their last meeting in the Richard Wernette home, is based on recent findings of the Home Dynamics Study in which 500 families in the U.S. participated. This research was conducted in an effort to discover factors which contribute toward making a creative home atmosphere in which children may develop their full potential.

Results are of tremendous interest to both parents and persons working in the field of parent-child relationships. Anyone interested in attending the meeting on November 16 may call Mrs. Van Dyke.

St. John's Auxiliary Completes Preparations for "Cook's Tour"

Final plans for the "Cook's Tour" to be sponsored by the Women's Auxiliary of St. John's Episcopal church on Thursday, November 17, were announced this week by the organization.

The event will be held from 12:30 to 5 p.m. It will start at the church where ticket holders will be given a map of the city containing highlights of the tour. Planned for the itinerary are visits to the home of Dr. and Mrs. John Vos in Plymouth Hills, the Lewis Goddard residence on Beck road and the Sidney Strong home on William street.

Interesting feature of the Vos residence, a ranch-type home with contemporary furnishings, is the circular living room containing a curved window-wall. The home also features an outdoor living room with built-in grill.

The Goddard residence, built into the side of a hill, was designed by Frank Lloyd Wright.

The recreation room in a separate building will also be visited. The Sidney Strong home has been selected as a model retirement dwelling by the Gerontology division of the U of M's Institute of Human Adjustment in Ann Arbor. It has been the subject of several magazine and newspaper articles.

The "Cook's Tour" has been so named because of the various types of food which visitors may purchase at each stop. These will include main dishes, salads, pickles, relishes, jams and jellies, hot breads and desserts. Tea will be served throughout the afternoon in the parish hall of the church, where visitors may also purchase aprons and other gift items which will be on display.

Reservations for the tour may be made with either Mrs. Walter K. Sumner, ticket chairman, Mrs. Walter Hargrave or Mrs. James Hardimon.

Methodist Women Announce Plans for December Event

Taking its theme from the popular motor, power and foodaramas now sweeping the country, the Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church is planning its own "Giftarama" as the annual bazaar sponsored by the organization during the pre-holiday season.

This year's event has been set for December 7, it was announced by Mrs. W. C. Gemperline, general chairman. On that date, the public has been invited to a showing of a complete line of gifts, including those for Yuletide giving as well as for other occasions. Hours are from 1 to 8 p.m.

Months have been spent by members of the WSCS in preparing this gift array. Results of their handicraft will be seen in the hundreds of aprons, pillow cases and many other items displayed at the event. Rainbowed hankies with dainty edgings will vie for attention with such articles of jewelry as matched sets of earrings and pins in modern design.

Gifts for toddlers will range from apparel to cuddly toys. Besides complete wardrobes for a favorite doll, there will be a number of brand-new additions for the youngster's collection. From the Central Bake shop, visitors may purchase freshly-baked rolls, cookies, cakes, pies, baked beans and other edibles. A Christmas tea table will offer its wares between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m. Beginning at 5 p.m. a complete dinner will be served in the dining hall of the church.

No single item on the Yuletide Giftarama will be priced over a dollar and a half. This policy will also hold true for dinner tickets, the chairman added, which children may attend for somewhat less. Tickets may be obtained from Mrs. Harry Mumby, committee chairman, or from any member of the WSCS.

Mrs. George Burger of Bucyrus, Ohio, is visiting in the home of her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James Sponseller of Parkview drive. She is also getting acquainted with her new granddaughter, Ellen Christine.

The ladies Auxiliary of the Ex Servicemen's club will meet at the home of Mrs. Albert Groth, 311 North Harvey street on November 18, Friday, beginning at 1 o'clock.

The two days old son of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Schroeder of Marlowe was rushed from Beyer Memorial hospital, Ypsilanti, on October 30, to University hospital, Ann Arbor, where it was necessary for him to undergo surgery. He is coming along nicely, but will be in the hospital for some time.

Season's Second Concert Slated for November 20

The ever-growing Plymouth Symphony orchestra, now numbering more than 90 players, will present its second concert of the tenth season Sunday, November 20. Featured artist will be Nathalie Dale who will perform the Tchaikovsky "Violin Concerto."

The orchestra opened its season October 16 before an audience of more than 500. The first concert featured Evelyn Woods, pianist, and marked the return of Conductor Wayne Dunlap, who last year studied under a Fulbright scholarship in Vienna, Austria.

In addition to Miss Dale's performance the orchestra will present the "Brandenburg Concerto No. 1" by Bach and the ballet, "Appalachian Spring" by the contemporary American composer, Aaron Copland.

Each of these works will be performed for the first time in Plymouth.

"Appalachian Spring" received the Pulitzer prize for music in 1945 as well as the award of the Music Critics Circle of New York for the outstanding theatrical work of the season. "Brandenburg Concerto No. 1" will feature three oboes, two horns and an unusual "piccolo" violin contrasted against the string section of the orchestra. The "piccolo" violin is but one-quarter the size of a regular violin and will be played by the orchestra's concert master, Josef Lazaroff.

All Plymouth Symphony orchestra concerts are given in the high school gymnasium at 4:00 p.m. and are open to the public without charge.

Circle 1 of the First Presbyterian church will meet at the home of Mrs. Kenneth Failing, 351 W. Liberty street at 10:30 a.m. sharp on Thursday, November 17. Please bring Bible and sandwich. At 1 p.m. those interested will take part in the "Cook's Tour" of homes, sponsored by St. John's Episcopal church women.

Evans' New Plant Nears Completion

A fifth plant of the Evans Products company—manufacturers of damage-free freight car loaders, Evans-Colson bicycles, custom truck and bus heaters and plywood—is nearing completion at Gold Beach, Oregon.

The new plant, according to an announcement by E. S. Evans, Jr., president, will produce green veneer used in the manufacture of the company's fir plywood. Veneer produced at Gold Beach will be shipped to Evans' Coos Bay, Oregon, plant for processing.

The new facility is being constructed on a tract purchased from the Hunter Creek Lumber company. Included in the timber stands purchased to supply the new plant was a 747-acre tract of Indian trust land, for which two Indians will receive $1,175,000.

At the mouth of the Rouge River the new plant is 50 miles north of the Oregon-California border.

In addition to the new plant and the Coos Bay operation, Evans has plants at Roseburg, Oregon, Vancouver, B.C. Its main production facilities and administrative offices are in Plymouth.

Tiger Hunt Film Shown Kiwanis

Kiwanians went tiger hunting in India Tuesday evening via the colored movies and dialog of Chester Williams of Ypsilanti.

Mr. Williams, partner in the Wood, Williams & Copp Manufacturing company, is an avid hunter who decided last year to seek bigger game.

In his 30 days in the Himalaya mountain area, Williams shot and killed two 500-lb. tigers plus numerous smaller game. He pointed out that from three to five thousand people are killed yearly in India by tigers. Some 80,000 meet death by snakes, he added.

Hunting expeditions are conducted by elephant. Williams stated that the Indian elephant can be expertly trained and that they are the only type seen here in circuses, etc. The African variety cannot be domesticated.

To lure the tiger into range, live animals are left in known tiger areas while the hunter is perched high in the trees on a specially constructed platform. From a standing position, tigers can leap 35 feet in the air, Williams said. He added that after shooting his first tiger natives regarded him as a "savior" sent to protect them from evil. Hundreds of bouquets of flowers were left at his cabin by women. He also pointed out that women in India do 95 per cent of the hard labor, while men do some cooking, Williams was introduced by Lincoln Lantz, program chairman.

Beyer's Boy-Girl Contest Underway

Eight boys and eight girls stand to win prizes ranging from a bicycle to a portable phonograph this year in the Beyer Rex-all drug stores' seventh annual Boy's and Girl's contest, which gets underway today.

Starting today (Thursday, November 10) the big contest, where youngsters with the most votes are judged winners, will run to the week before Christmas, announced the owner of the two local stores, Robert O. Beyer, this week.

Prizes include two bicycles, a doll set, chemistry set electric trains and numerous other items.

The rules for the contest are easy, explained Beyer. He told how votes could be gained at the rate of one vote for each penny of purchase. At the end of each week a list of the leaders would be posted in his stores' windows.

At the close of the contest, the top vote-getters, one boy and one girl, would each receive a sparkling new bicycle, while 14 other boys and girls would win additional prizes: a total of 16 prizes in all.

Beyer explained that youngsters 16 years of age or younger are eligible to enter. Boys and girls should go to the two Beyer stores in Plymouth to get further information about the contest. The two stores are located at 165 Liberty and 505 Forest.

Commissioners Wade

front of Starkweather school and vacant lots to the south of Starkweather school. A committee headed by Commissioner Harold Guenther appointed a month ago recommended that the Farmer street property be leased, not sold, so that the property may some day be possibly used for a community center.

A check will need to be made to determine questions on title for the properties near Starkweather. It was recommended that a joint meeting of the commission and board of education be held.

A letter was read from R. H. Steingard, 3185 Lotz road, which protested a speeding ticket given him last month for driving 35 miles an hour on Mill street, between Plymouth road and Ann Arbor trail. He said that he was undoubtedly going 35, but that he feels that signs should be posted. He said that he also feels that 25 miles an hour is too slow in this location which is bounded by machine shops.

Commissioner Ernest Henry said that he too felt the speed limit too slow on this street. Mayor Russell Daane said that a state law of 25 miles an hour would be effective in the city where no signs are posted.

A communication from Chief of Police Kenneth Fisher advised against changing the speed limit "due to the number of school children crossing the street." City Manager Glassford said that additional 25-mile-an-hour signs have been ordered.

Bids for a new police car were examined and purchase of a Plymouth V-8 from Forest Motor Sales for $1,150 plus trade-in was approved. Authority was also granted to advertise for bids on another police car.

Commissioners have been talking in recent months about renting of police cars from various dealers. It was reported that Commissioner Harry Roberts, as superintendent of the local Utility Lines Construction company, has offered to service police cars at a nominal cost. Since a public officer must take an oath in such matters to swear that the service is a benefit to the city and not for personal gain, the commission approved the offer pursuant to the taking of the oath. Commissioners also voted to take bids on a six-foot fence to place around the East-Central Parking lot and a seven-foot barbed-wire fence for around the new well field.

In the citizen suggestions department, Earl Wolfe, 1365 Sheridan, offered to sell the city property he owns on the southwest corner of Ann Arbor trail and Mill street. The city had shown their interest in purchasing the properties. Wolfe said he would sell the whole parcel for $35,000. Commissioners expressed the opinion that this was too high and the matter was dropped.

The city manager was authorized to take bids on a transmitter house to be built under the water tower behind the Presbyterian church. McNamee, Porter & Seeley, consulting water engineers, recommended that the house be built to take care of equipment now located in a man-hole below the tower. Flooding often damages these controls.

Commissioners also asked the city manager to check a possible parking lay-out for turning the Giles property on Fralick avenue into a city parking lot. The 48 by 207 foot lot is being offered at $20,000.

Six men were named to the new Ten Year Planning Committee. Returned were City Planner Sidney Strong and Ezra Rotnour and City Commissioners Marvin Terry and Ernest Henry. New members are City Commissioners J. Rusling Cutler and Harold Guenther.

held the first secular day of July each year. They will elect their own chairman and vice-chairman, and a secretary-treasurer who need not be a member of the board. A board member can be removed at any time for a valid cause. In case of a vacancy, the board itself appoints a person to fill the unexpired term.

Meetings will be held at least every other month. It will take two members to form a quorum. For passage of a resolution or ordinance providing for issuance of bonds or execution of contract, there must be a unanimous vote. For other matters, a majority vote is sufficient.

The articles also allow the board to acquire private property by purchase, lease, gift, devise or condemnation, either within or outside its limits. They may enter into contract with any non-constituent city, village or township to furnish sewage treatment, water, etc.

To obtain funds, the authority can issue negotiable bonds on contractual full faith and credit pledges of each contracting municipality, or self-liquidating revenue bonds. The board may hire all necessary officers and employees to carry out the functions of the authority and to fix the compensation.

An annual budget and audits will be made.

Speaker Urges More Public Affairs Interest

of our friends and colleagues have been invited to share in Washington heavy responsibilities of government."

Coleman added that there is no longer a divorce between government and those who manage industrial and commercial enterprises. "It is sometimes said that we now live in a period where there are no issues," the speaker told his audience. "Though political debate always has a certain degree of heat, I think most of us will agree that we have in the last two years enjoyed a period of rather unusual moderation. In short, the American people have a breathing space."

But one thing is certain, Coleman remarked, "The passage of time will inevitably sharpen again the issues in American politics." He added that he would not guess when the time will come, but suggested that business take this relatively peaceful period to develop and practice a realistic philosophy of business and politics.

He then suggested that businessmen must concern themselves not only with business, but with every important aspect of American life. "Not least, they must concern themselves with politics." He pointed out that the larger setting of business is politics — war, defense programs, recession, monetary policy, taxation, tariff, racial discrimination and collective bargaining.

"There is not one of these subjects that does not closely affect our companies. Yet these are all to a large extent political questions. Let no one tell you," he asserted, "that businessmen must stick to their desks and keep out of politics. We are already in politics, as deeply and probably more deeply than any single group in this country."

He indicated that only a program or policy that can win popular consent is practical in a democracy. If business is to attain the influence which we feel it deserves, we must, in the same signs of the times, determine what is the general sense of the community, and give leadership and direction in terms of those implacable political facts."

The Burroughs president indicated that he was not saying that businessmen must have views on every conceivable public question. There will always be some questions where our opinions will be more of value than others. "Moreover, most political issues are complex and the manner of our intervention must naturally be determined by the circumstances."

Coleman also asked that businessmen support and encourage colleagues who take part in formation of public policy. "Inevitably as we participate more and more in political debate, we will be putting our necks out on controversial issues," the industrial leader stated. "Perhaps many of us will be in the position of saying things to which some of our colleagues, our stockholders, our customers, will take exception. Perhaps we may prefer the safer course of silence."

"But every businessman has not only the right, he has the obligation to speak out," Coleman declared. "On some issues we will agree; on some we will disagree — but let us preserve, above all the American spirit of debate. The important thing is that all sides be heard and that an issue be thoroughly debated before it is determined."

He concluded by stating that management is the most important function in American society. "The fact that the question of enmity between government and business is sometimes raised, is evidence that much remains to be done to find that basis of cooperation between them that is necessary for the achievement of our urgent social purposes. In that task," he added, "society has the right to expect leadership from the business community. It is a legitimate expectation. We should respond to it with vigor and good will."

Fred VanDyke was chairman of arranging the annual dinner. Special guests attending the annual dinner were Don C. Weeks, director of the Michigan Department of Economic Development, and Theodore Littlejohn, Burroughs public relations director.

Its limits shall include all of the territory embraced within the corporate boundaries of its constituent municipalities. It shall possess all of the powers granted by statute and by these Articles, and those incident thereto. The enumeration of any powers herein shall not be construed as a limitation upon its general powers unless the context shall clearly indicate otherwise. It shall have a corporate seal.

ARTICLE V.
This Authority shall continue in existence perpetually or until dissolved by act of the parties or by law: Provided, However, that such Authority shall not be dissolved if such dissolution could operate as an impairment of any of its contracts.

ARTICLE VI.
The fiscal year of the Authority shall commence on the first day of July in each year and end on the 30th day of June of the following year.

ARTICLE VII.
The governing body of this Authority shall be a Board of Trustees, hereinafter referred to as the Board, which shall be made up of two representatives from the Township of Plymouth and one representative from the Township of Canton, who shall be appointed by the respective legislative body, on or before the 15th day of June of each year that a term of office expires, and each trustee after the first Board shall serve for a full term of three years, beginning with the first day of July next following his respective appointment: Provided, However, that the first Board shall be made up of the two persons appointed from the Township of Plymouth, one for a term expiring June 30, 1956; another for a term expiring June 30, 1957; and the member of the Board appointed from the Township of Canton shall be appointed for the term expiring June 30, 1958. Each respective member of the Board shall qualify by taking the constitutional oath of office and filing it with his respective Township Clerk.

The members of the Board of Trustees shall be paid salaries which are reasonable and consistent with their respective responsibilities and duties and in addition the Board may authorize the payment of the actual expenditures of any member incurred in connection with the business of the Authority. The Board shall meet on the first secular day in July of each year at 2:00 o'clock p.m., at the place of holding the meetings of the Board for the purpose of organization. Any Board member may be removed at any time by depositing any meeting either before or after the holding thereof, by the legislative body of the legislative bodies of the municipalities which such Board member represents.

ARTICLE VIII.
In the event of a vacancy on the Board the legislative body of the municipality selecting such representative shall fill the vacancy for the unexpired term. The Board shall act by motion, resolution or ordinance. For the passage of any resolution or ordinance providing for the issuance of bonds, or the execution of any contract, there shall be required the unanimous vote of the members of the Board. The charges specified in any such contract or contracts shall be subject to increase by the Authority at any time if necessary in order to provide funds to meet its obligations. Any contract authorized herein shall be for a period of not exceeding forty years.

ARTICLE XV.
The Board shall have power to hire all necessary officers and employees to carry out the functions of the Authority and to fix the compensation therefor: Provided, However, that no officer or employee of any constituent municipality shall receive any compensation from the Authority except by the unanimous vote of members of the Board: It is further understood that the Board may contract with either constituent municipality or of some outside governmental agency for the purpose of examining and preparing an eligible register of prospective employees for the several classifications of officers and employees needed to operate such facilities.

ARTICLE XVI.
The Board shall cause an annual audit to be made of its financial transactions by a certified public accountant and shall furnish at least five copies thereof to each constituent municipality.

In the event he shall be unable to act or shall neglect to act, then the Township Clerk of the Township of Canton, Michigan, shall act in his stead.

ARTICLE XVIII.
This Authority shall become effective upon the filing of certified copies of these Articles, as provided in the preceding Article.

ARTICLE XIX.
These Articles of Incorporation may be amended at any time so as to permit any city, village or township to become a member of this Authority, if such amendment to and the Articles of Incorporation are adopted by the legislative body of such city, village or township proposing to become a member, and if such amendment is adopted by the legislative body of each constituent municipality of which the Authority is composed. ## WHY DO THEY - Drive Miles for Koch's Meat Products??

Here Are A Few Primary Reasons:

- To begin with, only the choicest cuts of fresh-killed, Government-inspected meats are used in processing our products - -
- We buy the highest best Spices direct from the importers who bring them here from the far corners of the world - -
- From these choice spices we mix and blend our own Seasonings, with precision and accuracy, according to our private formulae right here in our own plant - -
- No artificial preservatives of any kind are ever used on our premises - -
- All curing vats, sausage tubs, mixers and utensils - even smoke-house rods and bacon hooks - are made of Stainless Steel - -
- All utensils and processing equipment are sterilized AFTER EACH OPERATION - -
- We operate the most scrupulously CLEAN and SANITARY Sausage Kitchen to be found ANYWHERE. State and County Inspection records will attest this statement.
- Each operation in our production is supervised by one of the proprietors - -
- Add to the above, the "know-how" gained from years of experience, plus a personal pride in upholding a reputation extending back over four generations - and you have a fairly consummate answer to the question posed in the above caption.

Who's New in Plymouth

DISTINCTION OF BUILDING his own home goes to Arthur Smith of 9125 Beck road, who started construction a year ago last spring. Now almost complete, the newcomers were able to move in the first of August. They are originally from Detroit. Pictured with Mr. and Mrs. Smith above are their five youngsters (l. to r.) Pamela, 5; Tom, 3; Virginia, 7; Deborah, 4; and Michael, 9 months. Smith is employed with Ford Engineering and Research department, Dearborn. Both liked the community's appearance and were drawn to Plymouth since Smith's father, H. Max Smith of Ann Arbor, had constructed homes in this area a number of years ago.

Grange Cleanings

Those Grange members who did not attend the meeting of last week Thursday surely missed something good. However there was a fine attendance and everyone enjoyed the program immensely, it was a complete surprise.

The "wedding" which had been advertised for some time was a "howling success" to judge from the shouts of laughter. The personnel was as follows: Milly Rienas, the bride; Charlie Rienas, bridegroom; Bessie Salow, maid of honor; John Oldenburg, best man; Albert Groth, preacher; Vivian Wise, mother of the bride; Paul Nash, bride's father; Isabel Taylor, bridegroom's mother; Kenneth Lumm, usher; Molly Groth, soloist; Mildred Collins, pianist. Little squares of cake and sweet cider were served at the "reception" which followed the ceremony. It was a clever little skit and was appreciated by the crowd. "A little nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men" you know.

Mrs. Amy Northrup is in Acheson hospital at Northville. Has had a bout with pneumonia. She is some better from that but is being kept there until her condition improves.

Our meeting of November 17 is to be a Thanksgiving meeting with the program along that line. We all have much to be thankful for.

It was voted at the last meeting to start the Lily club season with a meeting on November 14, but later it was decided to postpone the party owing to the fact that so many will be gone hunting at that time. So a later date will be decided upon and will be announced at Grange. Watch for it in this column.

Announce Plans For Pack Meeting

At a regular monthly meeting of committeemen and den-mothers of Cub Scout Pack 4 at the home of Cubmaster Sam Hudson, plans for the November pack meeting were discussed.

Because the regular pack meeting night would come the day after Thanksgiving, the date has been moved forward one week to Friday, November 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Presbyterian church. Theme for this month is "America the Beautiful." The skit by Den 3 will feature Thanksgiving in Pilgrim times. Christmas gift projects will soon be underway throughout the pack.

The new den-mothers taking over for the period of November to March are Mrs. Glenn R. Steele, 1150 Dewey; Mrs. George Bowles, Plymouth Colony; Mrs. Rex Smith, 598 Ann; Mrs. Landon Taylor, 402 Pacific, and Mrs. Howard Hunt, 104 Holbrook. Boys 8-10 interested in cub-scouting may attend the pack-meeting, or may contact cubmaster, Sam Hudson or John Wallace, assistant cubmaster.

Recalls History Of Thanksgiving

November 1, 1955

Mr. Sterling Eaton
 The Plymouth Mail
 Plymouth, Mich.
 Dear Sir:

Enclosed is a bit of family history in regard to Thanksgiving which would be appropriate to publish at this time.

Yours very truly,
 Harry Hale Newell
 335 S. Harvey st.
 Plymouth, Mich.

The original Thanksgiving in the United States of America is attributed to William Bradford, first governor of Massachusetts Colony. He proclaimed Dec. 13, 1621 as a day on which the Pilgrims of Plymouth should thank God for their freedom of worship and for the bountiful harvest and providing happy homes in spite of all the hardships and hazards. The celebration lasted for a week, joined in by the Wampanoag Indians. The last Thursday in November for all the states was proclaimed by George Washington at the request of Congress he named Nov. 26, 1789. Never again until 1873 did the country celebrate Thanksgiving. While Sarah Joseph Hale was schoolteacher at Newport, N. H., she wrote Little Booppe that all young children are familiar with. In 1827 Sarah Hale as editor of the Lady's Magazine, wrote an editorial urging a unified Thanksgiving Day, she continued to promote the idea, starting in 1846 while editor of Godey's Lady's Book, she started a heavy campaign, writing to governors of states and territories urging state Thanksgiving Days. She also wrote thousands of letters to senators, Congressmen and other influential people. By 1852, she had won 29 states and all territories. In 1863, after the Civil War, at the White House she urged President Lincoln and he proclaimed Thursday, Nov. 26, 1863. From then on to 1939 most presidents named the "last Thursday" in 1939 F.D.R. changed it to the "next to last Thursday." Confusion and resentment resulted, so in 1941 Congress established the fourth Thursday in November as Thanksgiving Day.

Fortnighters To Meet

 Plans and ideas regarding future programs for this Couples club will be discussed. All couples of the church are invited to come, bring some friends, their favorite records, and their suggestions for Fortnighters for next year.
 Refreshments will be served. Committee for this month is Mr. and Mrs. J. Craig Bowly, Mr. and Mrs. Hyrt DeMerritt.

Circle 5 Announces Change in Meeting Time

A change in time for its meeting on Thursday, November 17, has been announced by Circle 5 of the Presbyterian church. The group will meet at 10:30 a.m. in the home of Mrs. Carvel Bentley, 1381 Sheridan avenue, instead of 12:30 as previously scheduled.
 A luncheon will follow a discussion on the American Indian, planned for the meeting.
 Members of the Chakmas tribe of southeastern East Pakistan love tobacco. Dark and strong, the native leaf is smoked by nearly everyone, from children of 4 to patriarchs of 80. Pipes are made from gourds and sections of bamboo. Some are 3 feet long.

PART OF 330 pounds of clothing donated by residents on World Community Day for needy peoples overseas is displayed above by committee members (l. to r.) Mrs. Vera Moyer, Mrs. Neil Wick and Mrs. Sam Hudson, chairman. The observance, sponsored locally by the Plymouth Council of United Church Women, was held Friday in the Salvation Army citadel. Those attending also donated funds for processing of clothing bundles and mailing of food packages overseas. Chairman of World Community Day was Mrs. Thomas Bateman.

Girl Scout News

Activities of newly-formed Troop 18 are underway following an investiture service at the Kiwanis-Girl Scout lodge. Thirteen new Brownies received their pins and presented a program for their parents. A flag ceremony and friendship candle service were followed by refreshments. The troop received a gift of an American flag, staff and standard from the V.F.W. auxiliary. Leaders of the troop, which is sponsored by Starkweather P.T.A. are Mrs. Charles Zoet and Mrs. Daniel Spence. Elected to office at their last regular meeting were Chairman Mary Jane Croff; Secretary Luann Penny; Treasurer Karla Wilkins; Sunshine Carol Zalma and Publicity Gail Burden.
 An overnight trip to the Kiwanis-Girl Scout lodge was a late October event for Troop 21. The Scouts spent much of their time practicing camp-craft requirements. At their regular meetings work on a Good Grooming badge has been made most interesting by a visit from Ellen Smith of Ellen's Hair Shoppe and a talk by Mrs. Norman Atchinson. Mrs. Wayne Rubey and Mrs. Lloyd England are the troop leaders.

During the recent school vacation Troop 20 spent a day and night at the Girl Scout Lodge. In the afternoon they entertained Fly-up Troop 15 and taught the younger girls games and knot-tying. Mrs. Thomas Thorpe and Mrs. Eldridge Raven are the leaders of Troop 20.

School Counselor Lists Additional Scholarships

Promising seniors of Plymouth high school have the opportunity to compete for one or more of the many scholarships offered, according to Miss Ruth Butts, school counselor.

Scholarships not previously listed include those of the University of Michigan Regents-Alumni, Michigan State University and General Motors Institute.

The Regents-Alumni scholarship is available to students in the upper one-third of their class who need assistance. Amount of the award for the freshman year covers general and athletic fees and is renewable if the records are good.

A scholarship at MSU is offered to those who are in the upper one-third of their class, have a "B" average, and show leadership in extra-curricular activities and participation in community affairs.

General Motors Institute offers three forms of scholarships: Two hundred fifty four-year scholarships awarded by private and public colleges from funds provided by General Motors, in the College Plan.

The National Scholarship plan awarding 100 scholarships each year for four years in an accredited college or university of the student's choice with awards from $200 to $2000 per year, according to the needs of the field of study.

Four-year cooperative course in English and business administration where students earn enough money by alternating study periods with practical experience in General Motors to almost pay the entire cost of their education.

Students or parents may contact Miss Ruth Butts at Plymouth high school for further information on scholarships.

The nation's first regularly scheduled air passenger service originated in Michigan in 1926 when Stout Air Services began round trip flights daily between Detroit and Grand Rapids.

Manager of the current GAA volleyball tournaments at Plymouth high school is Judy Wilson, who has her own little tasks to keep the ball bouncing. Her duties are: 1) setting up the tournaments which are held each Tuesday afternoon, 2) assembling and putting away equipment, and 3) taking the roll call.

Six teams, with 15 girls on each, compete in the tournaments. Joan Killingworth is captain of team one; Mary Taylor, captain of team two; Doris Moran, team three; Beverly Tacia, team four; Joy Kalmbach, team five; Nancy Eaton, captain of team six.

Each girl receives 10 points for attending a tournament and the manager receives two extra points. Basketball tournaments will follow the volleyball tournaments.

Redford Union, Bentley Attend GAA Playday

Next playday for the Girl's Athletic association is Tuesday, November 15, at Plymouth high school. Bentley and Redford Union are the schools attending, with 20 girls represented from each school.

Whether or not high school students should buy class rings will be the subject of a panel discussion next Thursday night, November 17, when the tenth grade parents and their teen-agers hold their second meeting of the year.

The panel, composed of both parents and sophomores, will discuss the value and disadvantages of class ring purchase. Held in the high school auditorium, the meeting will begin at 8 o'clock.

Kenneth Hulsing will serve as moderator. Parents participating are Frank Spigarelli, J. E. Cooper, Mrs. Claude Eaton, Mrs. Dennis Watson, Hugh Law and Mrs. Henry Jensen. Principal Carvel Bentley will present the factual material such as cost of rings and procedures which have been followed in previous years.

A representative group of 10th grade students will be selected soon to serve on the panel.

Parents of all freshmen and the freshmen themselves are invited to attend as guests of the 10th grade parent group.

Parents and Youngsters to Discuss Class Rings: To Buy or Not to Buy

With 54 state parks, Michigan has the greatest number of any other state.

On the steering committee planning the meetings this year are Warren Worth, chairman, Mrs. Oscar Alsbro, Mrs. Harold Anderson, Mrs. Edwin Campbell, James Hardiman, Mrs. William Herbold, James McKenna, Harold Shirey, Mrs. James Spigarelli, Mrs. Alvin Stace, Principal Bentley and Miss Virginia Olmsted, class advisor.

As a freshmen parent group last year, a guide for teen-agers was successfully formulated at a lively panel discussion. A spokesman states that it is the feeling of the group that mutual understanding brings mutual respect and cooperation.

Much of the program was devoted to "supervision and curriculum development" discussion with "continuity in curriculum" being the theme. The local superintendent served on a panel which discussed the role of the principal in curriculum development.

Beyond the Realm of Argument!

This is the season when conversations turn easily and often to motor cars. And, in almost any gathering, you're likely to find a wide difference of opinion about the relative merits of the year's automotive offerings. Until the talk turns to Cadillac!

Here is one car concerning which most motorists have a meeting of minds. And never before has Cadillac left so little room for argument as in 1956!

Certainly no one could behold the new Cadillac without recognizing it as the "car of cars". Its beautiful, graceful, flowing lines . . . its regal bearing on the highway . . . and its long, low silhouette are simply too significant to misunderstand. Surely no one could ride in a new Cadillac and not agree that it is the Standard of the World. Its new fabrics and leathers are rich and luxurious almost beyond belief . . . and its interior appointments have been crafted with a jeweler's skill.

And we doubt if anyone could drive a new Cadillac and not understand that it is the finest-performing motor car of all time. Its great new engine is a revelation in power and performance . . . its new Hydra-Matic Drive is incredibly smooth and responsive . . . and the car rides and handles and moves with almost unbelievable ease.

Truly, the evidence on the side of Cadillac has never been more abundant—or more apparent—than it is today.

Why not come in soon—and see for yourself? We'll be delighted to introduce you to Cadillac's great new styling . . . and to arrange a demonstration at the wheel . . . and to acquaint you with Cadillac's two new models, the Sedan de Ville and the Eldorado Seville.

You'll agree, we're certain, that Cadillac for 1956 is beyond the realm of argument!

Rocks Surprise Walled Lake, 27-7

Plymouth Totals .750 Grid Card

Despite the fact that the Rocks failed in their defense of the Suburban Six league crown from last year, they nevertheless compiled a more than respectable 1955 over-all card.

In addition to six wins and only two losses for a .750 average during the season, Plymouth succeeded in placing three players on the first string all-conference team. In league play the locals slipped to third place with a 3-2 card when Trenton and Allen Park nosed down the Rocks.

Here is a composite scoreboard of the eight battles in which the Rocks engaged this campaign.

37	Northville	0
6	Belleville	0
34	Bentley	13
7	Trenton	18
13	Redford U.	6
7	Allen Park	13
33	Garden City	12
27	Walled Lake	7
184	Totals	69

Plymouth's gridders wrapped up their 1955 football battling on a high note Friday evening when the locals spanked hard-fighting Walled Lake, 27-7, in a win, sixth of the season, which earned the Rocks a .750 mark for the year.

Exhibiting a slashing ground-gaining attack coupled with 90 yards via the air lanes that kept the Lakers "honest," Plymouth built a 14-0 lead in the first 35 minutes of play.

The locals, who watched their margin dwindle to 14-7 when Walled Lake sent home a tally midway through the third stanza, roared onward to clinch the victory with two more touchdowns in the game's closing minutes.

Sparking the Plymouth win, which disappointed the shivering Walled Lake partisans, were the Rocks' Quarterback Jackie Carter and Lefthalf Kenzie Calhoun. Calhoun with 127 yards gained in 16 trips paced the Plymouth ballcarriers, while Carter garnered 90 yards in the air on seven pass completions in 10 tries.

Captain Lindy Mills added a sparkling 40-yard sprint amidst an 87-yard Plymouth march which boosted the locals to a commanding 21-7 fourth quarter lead. George Pine scored his only touchdown of the year with two slender seconds of play remaining to wind up the night's activities.

Both teams battled to a standstill through the opening period and midway into the second quarter before Plymouth broke the scoring ice. Taking possession on an exchange of punts at the mid-field stripe, the Rocks rode in on Mills' two-yard dive for the score.

Highlighting the approach were the short yardage gains of Pine and Mills, while Calhoun set up the score with a 20-yard burst off his own left tackle. Dick Davidson converted the extra point to give the locals a 7-0 half-time lead.

Receiving the opening kick in the third quarter, the Rocks hastened to improve their advantage. After Mills had gained five yards, Calhoun erupted with a 40-yard spurt which brought the ball to the Lakers' 15.

Struggling against the Walled Lake defensive unit, the Rocks strove to a first down on the five, were pushed back to the nine from where Calhoun, on fourth down, wrapped his end and paraded over for the score. Again Davidson converted, boosting Plymouth to 14-0.

The Rocks, having contained a rugged Walled Lake offense this far, were caught unawares when the Lakers' triple-threat full-back, John Walker, took the ensuing boot and returned it to the Plymouth 35.

Four straight completions, the only ones of the night by the Lakers' quarterback, rattled the Rocks' aerial defense and sent the Walled Lake right end into Plymouth's end-zone moments later. It placed hosting Walled Lake right back in the ball game when the extra point was good.

Then the Lakers resumed possession of the leather on an exchange of punts to sustain a drive that carried to the locals' 13-yard stripe. At this point, with the chips down, Jerry Hearl intercepted a Walled Lake pass to snaffle the threat.

Turning about, the Rocks ground their way 87 yards upfield with Mills' 40-yard run contributing the biggest single spark. Carter ate up 12 yards when he was forced to run with the ball on a pass play. Calhoun and Pine gained another 25 yards on the way and it was Calhoun who swept in for the tally from five yards out. Davidson's extra point upped the locals to 21-7 at the fourth quarter.

Total aftermath, yet furnishing plenty of interest, was Plymouth's fourth and final touchdown.

Starting on their own 20-yard line, the Rocks rolled 80 yards in 11 plays with Pine snagging Carter's pass for the tally. Pine, who had not scored all season, carried the final three plays aiming at the goal line, but could not burst the Lakers' defense.

Finally, with only two seconds remaining in the game and Walled Lake in a seven-man line, Carter hit Pine in the end-zone from four yards out to close the 1955 grid wars at Plymouth.

Davidson had no chance to attempt the extra point when the pass from center was too high. Final count: Plymouth 27, Walled Lake, 7.

Leading the Plymouth ground-gaining was Calhoun with 127 total yards, while Mills added 85 on 18 attempts. Davidson gained 44 on nine carries and Pine capped the backfield with his 29 yards in seven runs.

Carter's passing hit for seven completions in 10 tosses and a total of 90 yards aerialwise. His longest single completion was 20 yards to Jim Grabowski in the fading seconds of the second quarter, when the Rocks were striving for another first half TD.

Coach John Hoben, commenting on the team's performance in its wind-up contest, listed Plymouth's mechanical wares as extremely good. He felt that the blocking and tackling were some of the best displayed this year by Plymouth.

Bright hopes for next year were brought out by Hoben as he listed sophomores and juniors who played fine games. Bob Drobek, a 15-year-old tenth grader, performed well both ways at right tackle, while Don Alsbro at end and Dave Walasky in the backfield had good nights.

NEWS FROM OUR NEARBY NEIGHBORS

THIS IS the albino crow, banded in The Mail last week. It was shot earlier by Howard Bowring, 15805 Bradner. The crow, which Bowring first thought was a pigeon, is on display at the Guntzville Taxidermy, 24293 Taft road, Northville. The albino crow occurs about once in every 500,000 times.

Quiz Winner Earns $10.00 With 4 Wrong Answers

It was quite a problem to uncover this week's "Pick-the-Winners" football quiz first-placer, but The Mail finally found him. He's Louis McLean, 14-year-old Plymouth freshman, who captured the games' top ten dollar prize by having only four errors in his entry. In addition, he foresaw the professional game score to be a 24-10 affair, favor the Lions. (Actual was 24-14.) Earning the second-place prize of seven dollars this week was Jim Herter, 15559 Bradner, while third place and three dollars went to Dorothy McGrath, 300 Dunn court. Jim and Dorothy also had only four miscues, but their pro game prognostications were not as accurate as top winner, Louis. Jim figured the Lions to win by a 31-24 mark and Dorothy had them as 13-6 victors.

Plymouth Readies For Defense Of Cage Crown

Initial basketball drills began last week at Plymouth high school, where the Rocks are readying themselves for the defense of the league crown that they share from last year with Trenton. In addition, the locals will kick off their first season of basketball under the new direction of diminutive Charlie Ketterer, transformed football coach, who supplants John Sandmann, athletic director. The Rocks will hail the return of only four lettermen from last year's team, which racked up an 8-2 league record and raced to the second round of district cage play-offs. Back under the fold this season are Dick Davidson and Tom Ferguson at forwards, and Jack Carter and Lindy Mills at the guard slots. Opening the drills last week was a formidable force of hopefuls comprised of tenth, eleventh and twelfth graders that were not playing football. With the close of the gridiron campaign at Plymouth the end of last week, a number of additional players arrived for the practices this week. The first game of the 1955-56 action will be with Northville here on the night of December 2. All varsity games will be preceded by a junior varsity tilt, which will begin at 7 p.m. Grid Coach John Hoben will coach the junior varsity this year, while Bill Harding, last year's JV mentor, will head up the fortunes of the junior high cagers for 1955-56.

Mrs. Clark, then head of one of the Northville Presbyterian Church circles was famous for her milk gravy and she supervised this particular production once each year over a long period of time. Yearly when the menu was to be served there were some ten or twelve Plymouth Rotarians who were called on the phone and given personal invitations to that particular meeting.

The last such occasion was only five years ago and yet there wasn't a member of the Northville Rotary club at the table that ever heard of the menu's origination or of the Plymouth club participating in the treat. Time surely flies.

Few people know one of Plymouth's most avid duck hunters is R. T. Sheehan of the Sheehan Conveyor Company out on Territorial road. There isn't a weekend during the season that he isn't out on some bay bagging his share of ducks. But his hunting came to an end as soon as it started last week, when five minutes after he and his partner entered their blind, a big flock of Canvasbacks flew over their decoys. Both hunters emptied their guns and with three shells each had bagged ten ducks. The Michigan limit is four ducks per day per hunter.

Probably Harry Lush and Margaret Wilson of the Penn theater have no idea of the relief the installation of their automatic answering telephone, number 1909, has given our household. For years local residents who have destroyed their Plymouth Mail or forgotten where it is have called our home evenings to find out what is playing at the local movie houses. It has become so much of a habit that we regularly have laid the theater ads by the phone each week to save us time in answering the calls. Perhaps if we had known of this fancy phone system we might have had one installed ourselves.

At a Detroit dinner meeting last week Mayor Russell Daane was introduced to Sprague Holden, head of Wayne University's Journalism department. Imagine their surprise when it dawned on each that they hadn't seen or heard from each other since 1924 when they graduated from high school together in Grand Rapids.

It took Edwin Schrader about one minute to remind us we had forgotten about his father's furniture store on Penniman avenue in our column last week. I don't know why we did because we spent hours there listening to some of the tall tales Fred used to tell. Blunks now occupy the building which at one time housed the Masonic Temple on the second floor. We also forgot to mention the Wolf's market which was operated by a chap whose first name was Ben in the building now occupied by First Federal Savings and Loan. Next door on the east of Wolf's market was Alex Vateck's Palace of Sweets, now Seyfrieds.

To also help us get things straight Gerald Watson dropped by Saturday to tell us the candy store on Main street we mentioned was Murrys and that on Saturday night he and Lee Jewel used to project movies from the park across the street to the second story of that same building for all to see.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

"Do you believe that Princess Margaret was correct in her decision to not marry Peter Townsend?"

MRS. JOHN WALASKAY, 42007 East Ann Arbor Trail: "Religious principles in our own church don't allow marriage under similar conditions, so I would say that she was right. If he had not been a divorced man, it would have been different. As for age, there are some happy marriages where the age difference is a lot."

MRS. ELOISE MONTGOMERY, Northville: "No, I don't think she did right. If she was really in love, she should have married him. Love comes but once in a lifetime."

MRS. ROGER SMITH, 8340 Canton Center road: "If she was really in love, she would have given up everything else. 'Love conquers all,' they say. But I suppose she has a duty to her country. But I guess if I were her, I would have married him."

MRS. ELIZABETH WILLIAMS, 15830 Northville road: "In my opinion she did the right thing. It was the church which made it not unworkable. That's the way I feel."

Annexation Issue May Prove Beneficial to Area Growth

Let's look at the annexation issue in retrospect. Nearly everyone agrees that we would have a more harmonious community today if the whole thing had never started. It is indeed unfortunate if any friendships were broken as a result of the controversy. But we believe that an intelligent citizen should realize that holding a grudge against a person because of their personal beliefs is nothing but childish.

Certainly we do not alienate friendships because a person thinks like a Democrat or a Republican, or a Catholic, Protestant or Jew, or roots for the Yankees instead of the Tigers. Holding differences of opinion is as American as apple pie and the Constitution.

Despite the charges, counter-charges and any evil which may have come out of the election, it was bound to produce some good.

Perhaps more than any other single thing in the history of our community, the issues at hand made the public more aware of what makes their governments tick. Hundreds of people were exposed to such foreign subjects as millage rates, methods of bonding, costs of government and problems of development.

Although this newspaper has attempted to explain as fully as possible what goes on in our city, township and school administrations, it was amazing to discover how little some citizens knew about these things—even to knowing names of the main township and city officials. Their local civics I.Q. has probably jumped 100 per cent since the annexation talk started.

It is possible that growth of this area has been speeded many years due to the annexation election. Although there has been talk about sewer and water systems in the township and a completion of the city's sewer system for many years, officials of the two governments earnestly rolled up their sleeves after annexation battle lines formed and they have tried to get something underway since.

Like any campaign, promises have been made. The authority formed by Plymouth and Canton townships is expected to produce water and sewer systems and the city is expected to complete its sewer system and improve streets. Sewer and water developments mean growth and growth brings problems.

We believe that it is imperative that citizens take more interest and responsibility in helping to solve these problems as they arise. In the city and township we have about 7,000 registered voters (and perhaps several thousand unregistered ones). Last week we had 2,924 voting in the two areas. This was a tremendous vote compared to the mere 682 who voted last spring on the $3,000,000 school expansion program. Our point is this:

Should it take a highly controversial issue and do voters need to be fighting mad before they go to the polls? The annexation issue may "blow over" but interest in local affairs should not.

Third Annual Michigan Week Already Planned by State

Michigan is starting fast and early to count its blessings for 1956.

The third annual Michigan week has been scheduled for May 20-26 and committees already are at work.

It is the annual toast to business, industry, education, the resort areas, agriculture and all the things that makes the state something extra special to its citizens.

The advertising value of Michigan Week has been demonstrated. Business is booming and more people are coming to the state to spend their money and vacation time.

Russel Swaney, head of Detroit's Federal Reserve Bank, is Wayne County chairman for the 1956 Michigan Week. He will appoint chairmen for each of Michigan's other counties.

With details yet to be worked out, the Week will again begin with Spiritual Foundations Day May 20 and end with New Frontiers Day on May 26.

Mayors will again exchange cities in a rewarding feature of Michigan Week.

"The sponsors believe next year's Michigan Week will see the greatest outpouring of pride and enthusiasm that the people of a state have ever shown for the place they live and work," said Walker L. Cisler, president of Detroit Edison Co., and president of Greater Michigan, Inc., sponsor of the celebration.

Michigan Week, after two years, is standardized — starting the third Sunday in May, late enough for good weather for outdoor celebrations, and early enough to be a major event of the school year.

Again headquarters of Michigan Week will be in the office of the Department of Economic Development in Lansing.

There will be an official proclamation of the week by Gov. Williams and all citizens will be asked to show why they're "proud to live and work in Michigan."

Dry groups have found ready agreement among state officials in an attempt to outlaw the sale of "near beer" for children in Michigan.

The beer is one-fourth of one per cent alcohol, a content so small it does not come under the state's definition of an alcoholic beverage.

The Rev. Ross J. McLennan, executive secretary of the Michigan Temperance Foundation, started the ball rolling against "near beer" and said he would offer a bill to the 1956 legislature.

Frank Blackford, chairman of the Michigan Liquor Control Commission, agreed immediately. He said:

"I don't like it as a parent or as a state official."

Ralph W. Daniel, executive director of the Michigan board of alcoholism, said he, too, would go along with the idea of banning the sale of beer for the consumption of children.

"When you give beer to children in any form, you're dealing with dynamite," he said.

The weak beer is sold by food wholesalers and is distributed in several large and small cities in the state.

Michigan physicians, dentists and veterinarians will hear leading civil defense authorities discuss the medical aspects of civil defense in an intensive one-day symposium in Detroit, November 16. As the first symposium embracing such a variety of professions, this is looked upon by civil defense officials and others as a pilot project which may set a pattern for similar national activities.

Its purpose is to assist in the development and training of auxiliary medical aid to staff improvised hospital units and casualty care stations during time of national disaster.

Subjects scheduled for discussion are: "Nuclear Weapons and Radioactive Fall-Out Patterns," "Chemical Warfare," "Biological Warfare," "Evacuation Policy," "Psychological and Sociological Consequences of Disaster," and "United States Public Health Service Responsibilities in Civil Defense."

The state's new Fair Employment Practices Commission has laid down the ground rules for its function in government.

It calls upon the people of Michigan to cooperate to end discrimination in employment. In a policy statement, it said:

"Prejudice and discrimination against any individual or group because of race, creed, color, national origin, religion or ancestry are contrary to our great American tradition of equal opportunity and treatment for all. They are threats to peace and public welfare."

The right of the people to know is basic to the preservation of our freedom, and fundamental to our American way of life. The infringement of this right, whether by government or by groups, or by individuals, no matter in what small measure it may begin, will lead to tyranny and the death of liberty.

State Building Program at $97 Millions

Michigan has a $97,918,995 State building program underway at the present time — one of the greatest construction undertakings in its history.

This was disclosed here by State Rep. Arnell Engstrom, of Traverse City, Chairman of the Sub-Committee on Capital Outlay of the House Ways & Means Committee.

"Few realize the magnitude of the present program," Engstrom said. "It is the largest ever placed in operation by the Legislature both from the standpoint of work underway and work planned for the future."

Work is actually underway on $49,421,495 worth of projects, and planning money has been appropriated for $48,497,500 in new buildings, Engstrom said.

The total building program is broken down into $51,348,500 for higher education, $29,012,460 for mental health, and $17,558,035 for other facilities such as prisons, state police posts, armories and conservation projects.

"Despite some pressure to do so, we did not appropriate loosely," Engstrom said. "Our current appropriations were based on what could be accomplished physically within the present fiscal year. On many badly needed new projects, such as mental hospital beds, we appropriated the money to plan new facilities with the obligation of providing construction money when full plans and specifications are presented to us."

In the mental health field, the total program includes 2,183 additional beds in the mental hospitals, with special emphasis on the State Home and Training Schools at Coldwater, Lapeer and Mt. Pleasant. Of the total, 805 will be devoted exclusively to children, 650 of those to nursery cases. The program will also see the completion of Children's Hospital at Ann Arbor and Hawthorne Center at Northville.

Roger Babson To Make Your Million Bucks Keep in Balance, Be Patient!

Babson Park, Mass., As I look out at the trees, from where I am writing, I am amazed at their balanced shapes. How do the limbs know when to stop growing in order to keep the entire tree so symmetrical? I am told that if several limbs should be cut off on one side, the tree will partially replace these limbs before growing in height. I know that if you pull off one of the two big claws of a lobster so as to throw it out of balance, it will grow another claw to get back into balance.

WHAT ABOUT US HUMANS?

We are surrounded by miracles but the greatest miracle of all is seen when we look into a mirror! Among many other wonders is the fact that our two legs grow equally so as to balance in length, weight, and girth. The same applies to the arms, hands, and feet. As food, drink and air enters our bodies our wonderful automatic factory divides the proteins, fats, and minerals so that the same quantity goes to both sides of our bodies to keep them in perfect balance.

But our brains do get out of balance. The insane and senile people are the commonest illustration of this; but every one of us gets tipped on some one subject. Furthermore, some persons get enthusiastic over every new fad and are always optimists; while others are like my friend, Mr. Humphrey B. Neil of Saxon River, Vt., who has been successfully taking the "contrary side" of every question. I believe very few investors have made and kept a fortune by always being either bearish or bullish. The big fortunes, in stocks, commodities, and real estate have been made by recognizing that nature is constantly working for a balanced situation. Hence, base your investments on Newton's Law of Action and Reaction!

APPLYING NEWTON'S LAW TO YOUR REAL ESTATE

Some communities today are booming. Others are standing still. It is safe to forecast that this situation will be changed some day. Therefore, those who are pessimistic or uncertain as to the future should not now move to some busy city like Detroit. Some day Detroit may suffer from great unemployment, while your city may then have no jobless. Most graduates from colleges are now crazy to get into "electronics"; but before many years, electronic jobs may be selling at "a dime a dozen." Furthermore, I have learned that SOMEONE

SOMEWHERE is always making millions in every industry.

Don't be like the cow that always wanted to jump the fence to get into the next pasture. A distant field may look green, but when you get there you are often disappointed. Stick to the city and church where you were born and have friends. Make good in the industry in which you have been trained. Keep in balance. Farming or dairying, which now is not prosperous, will come back into you can depend upon the Good Lord to keep your body, below your neck, in perfect balance; but for some reason, He leaves the brain to you to keep in balance.

REAL ESTATE VALUES

Many letters come to me from readers asking advice about selling their real estate. I cannot answer these, not knowing the conditions in different sections of the city. This, however, I say: If your property is in a poor section of the city which has "run down," I probably would advise against selling now, but if it is in a booming section, I might advise you to sell. All real estate prices will tend to balance, as years go on. Probably some outlying property, now selling cheap, is a better buy than downtown property in the heart of the business district.

A final illustration of the way prices balance up (if we let God run them) is the record of the automobile. This has brought country people into the business centers to buy. As a result, business real estate has gone up in price. Now automobiles have increased so, and parking cars has become such a nuisance, that "Main Street" property may be reaching its peak. I forecast that many vacant lots, formerly having no buyers, will sell at a premium for parking purposes. So it goes! The real estate wheel of fortune is always slowly revolving. Those few who have the courage to buy low and sell high, make money. Those optimists who buy when everyone else is buying, usually lose money, but the few who help balance the wheel through good times and bad make a fair profit with serenity.

MILTON R. YOUNG, U. S. Senator from North Dakota:

"Right or wrong, we can never sell the farmer on the justification for reducing the price supports when industrial wages are up and profits from industry are at an all-time high."

Mrs. Lickfeldt Recommends Date-Nut Treat

A suggestion for a delicious date-nut treat comes this week from Mrs. W. E. Lickfeldt of 41395 Wilcox, former home economics instructor at Michigan State. Presently employed at the children's nursery on Joy road, the resident has also taught mathematics at Plymouth high school.

Popular with the Lickfeldt family is this recipe for "Date Balls," which makes an excellent dessert in either nugget or roll form. As a yuletide suggestion, "Date Balls" may be decked out with colored candies and wrapped in tinsel for Christmas giving.

Here's the recipe:

Date Balls
Ingredients:
1 cup of dates (pitted and cut into fine pieces)
1/2 to 1 cup of nut meats
1/2 cup of marshmallows (chopped)
1 dozen graham crackers (or ginger snaps)
2 tablespoons of milk (recipe may take more or less depending upon freshness of dates and marshmallows)

Method:
Break graham crackers into small pieces and crush with rolling pin. Sift. Place dates, nut meats, marshmallows in bowl and add portion of milk. Use hands and squeeze the mixture together. Add remaining milk and continue to mix.

Add about 1/4 to 1/2 cup of crumbs to above ingredients and mix. Drop by teaspoonful into the remainder of crumbs and roll into small balls.

The mixture may be formed into one large roll, sliced and served with topping of whipped cream. If roll is wrapped in waxed paper and placed in the refrigerator it will keep for almost a month, Mrs. Lickfeldt adds.

Using her favorite variation on ingredients, Mrs. W. E. Lickfeldt sifts crushed ginger snaps for "Date Balls" while six-year-old Patty tries out the marshmallows.

A comprehensive study of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce is included in the Survey of Local Chambers of Commerce made by the Chamber of Commerce of the United States, according to Dr. J.H. Robison, president. A copy has been received by the local Chamber.

The Plymouth Chamber was one of 1,017 selected for a study which is the most detailed analysis of the effective and embarrasing activities of America's local Chambers of Commerce ever prepared. The 82-page booklet, which is the seventh survey of this kind made, may well be called the Chamber of Commerce Executives' Bible.

The local Chamber is also co-operating with the Michigan Manufacturer and Financial Record in the preparation of the 8th edition of the Director of Michigan Manufacturers. The 480-page directory is revised and corrected every two years and the new edition will be issued next June. Its listings show all manufacturers in Michigan and show executives with titles, products manufactured, number of employees, year established, etc.

New, Pink Lightbulbs Enhance Atmosphere of Modern Home

New pastel pink colored light bulbs have been announced by three major light bulb manufacturers.

These new bulbs are available in sizes the same as other bulbs, explains an extension home furnishings specialist at Michigan State university. Wattage numbers include 60, 75, 150, 50-100-150, and 100-200-300.

The specialist says the pink bulbs are good for many uses. They provide a soft light, reduce glare and shadow, flatter complexions and produce a pleasing atmosphere for comfortable living.

Pink bulbs will enhance warm colors in fabrics, foods and furnishings. But she warns, do not use them in reading lamps, because of the lower output of light due to the pink color.

Do not use them for sewing, because of the lower output of light and because color in fabrics may be distorted. Another

"don't" to remember in using pink light bulbs is when applying make up. Miss Marion says that under white light, there will be less chance of misapplying cosmetics.

Miss Marion says red-orange and yellow-orange colors are enhanced or enlivened by pink light bulbs. These colors, in home furnishings, take on a fresh look, she comments. With cool colors such as greens and blues, the pink bulb tends to subdue and gray.

These changes may not be unattractive. Deep, dark colors (warm or cool) will be affected less than delicate pastel colors with the use of the pink bulbs, the expert concludes.

U. S. Department of Agriculture specialists say that most fruits have better flavor, texture and color when frozen with sugar or syrup than when packed unsweetened.

Molasses Hot Breads Rival Dessert

Homemade bran muffins and brown bread, fragrant of molasses and served hot, are enough to make a person pass up dessert. They give a special touch to an otherwise simple meal.

Cereals and unsulphured molasses, staples on the pantry shelf, present themselves anew as hot breads. The bran muffins and brown bread with their whole grain or enriched cereals provide significant B vitamins and iron and help out with protein. Unsulphured molasses gives them a taffy flavor delight, and count on this sweetener for its energy values as well as its excellent source of iron.

Molasses Bran Muffins

- 3/4 cup shortening
- 3/4 cup unsulphured molasses
- 1 egg
- 1 cup bran
- 1/2 cup milk
- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 1/2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1/2 teaspoon salt
- 3/4 cup finely cut dates

Blend together shortening and unsulphured molasses. Add egg; beat well. Stir in bran and milk; let stand until most of moisture is taken up. Sift together flour, baking powder and salt. Add to molasses mixture with dates, stir only until blended. Fill greased muffin pans 3/4 full. Bake in moderate oven (350° F.) 30 minutes.

YIELD: 12 small muffins.

Molasses Brown Bread

- 1 cup sifted all-purpose flour
- 2 teaspoons baking soda
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 cup quick rolled oats
- 2 cups corn meal
- 1 cup unsulphured molasses
- 2 cups sour milk
- 1 cup raisins

Sift together flour, soda and salt. Add quick rolled oats and corn meal; reserve 1/4 cup in which to coat raisins. Stir in unsulphured molasses and sour milk. Mix raisins with 1/4 cup dry mixture; add to batter and mix well. Turn into 4 greased No. 2 cans, filling each 3/4 full. Cover with metal foil or 2 layers of brown paper tied in place with string cord. Place on rack in large kettle with tight fitting cover. Pour in boiling water to approximately 1/2 of the height of can. Steam 2 hours.

YIELD: 4 loaves.

Here's New Gem for Crown Of Favorite Apple Recipes

'Tis time to consider and cook a host of happy desserts such as Apple Pandowdy, Dutch Apple Cake, Apple Turnovers, Apple Dumplings, or any old-fashioned apple favorite you particularly cherish.

While you're concocting wonderful apple dishes, you might like to include a new one made with this delicious fruit and a contrasting partner mellow banana. When cooked, as in a baked dessert, the banana lends a honey-like flavor to apple dishes. Try Banana Apple Scallop for a new recipe in your apple collection this autumn.

BANANA APPLE SCALLOP

- 3 firm apples
- 3 firm bananas*
- 1/4 cup granulated sugar
- 1/4 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
- 1 teaspoon grated lemon rind
- 2/3 cup coarse graham cracker crumbs
- 1/4 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 1/4 cup chopped nuts
- *Use all-yellow bananas

Wash, core, pare and slice apples. Peel bananas and cut into slices about 1/4-inch thick. Mix together granulated sugar, cinnamon, nutmeg and lemon rind. Place alternate layers of apples and bananas into a well-greased shallow baking dish, sprinkling each layer with the sugar and spice mixture. Blend graham cracker crumbs, brown sugar and butter or margarine. Fold in nuts. Sprinkle on top of fruit mixture. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 30 to 40 minutes or until apples and bananas are tender. . . easily pierced with a fork. Serve hot with hard sauce, cream or sweetened whipped cream. Four to six servings.

When your cookbook says to cut meat "julienne" style, cut it into long, slender strips. To "lard" a roast means to insert strips of fat in gashes made in the meat or to insert them into lean meat by means of a larding needle. "Marinating" means to allow the meat to stand in French dressing or a mixture of oil and vinegar. To "saute" means to cook in a small amount of hot fat.

To keep the yolks centered, food specialists suggest storing eggs with the large end up.

Home Economist Gives Ten 'Quick Meal' Ideas

Different dishes that can be prepared in a short time — that's what the business girl-homemaker seeks. Here are 10 "Thirty Minute" dinner suggestions for her given by a well-known home economist.

First, take the cuts of beef and beef combinations. In place of meat loaf, bake your regular ground meat mixture in muffin pans. Beef patties are an old stand-by. But give them a new look as a part of a grill combination.

Barbecued ground beef is a quick choice. Brown the ground beef, then add barbecue sauce and simmer for 30 minutes. Spaghetti Hamburg is still another quick range-top serving. Brown 1 pound of ground beef and season with salt, pepper and 3 tablespoons of grated onion. Add 1 small can of mushroom pieces. Then fold in 1 No. 303 can of prepared spaghetti and heat thoroughly.

Sausage patties, links or country-style sausage are quick dinner time meats. Place them in a frying pan with 2 or 3 tablespoons of water. Cover and simmer 8 to 10 minutes, then uncover and lightly brown. Serve with fried or glazed apple rings. Here's a tempting Canadian-style bacon dish — one you'll proudly serve when guests are coming to dinner. For each serving, you need a 1/4-inch thick slice of bacon and 1 large tomato. Cut the tops from the tomatoes and remove pulp. Place tomato on bacon in a baking dish. Fill tomatoes with canned baked beans. Cross half strips of bacon on tomato and bake at 400° F. for 20 to 30 minutes.

Bright colors and unusual colors are being used in unexpected places in many modern homes. Shocking pink walls combined with gray and black furnishings was the note of one modern living room and dining room in an exhibit representing the latest in modern decor.

The kitchen in this same house was done in pale rose and lime green. The total effect, to one used to seeing more conservative colors used was a bit overpowering, but not as bad as it sounds. These new dramatic color schemes can be refreshing and gay. However, remember that, for the most part, they are extreme and to be effective must have the exact complement in furnishings and bric-a-brac. For this reason, this type of decoration can be quite expensive.

If money is no object, go ahead and indulge your taste and fancy with the help of a good decorator. If, on the other hand, you must watch your pennies, it is much better to go in for a more conservative decor. In the first place, most of us have pieces of furniture and bric-a-brac that we wish to keep in our homes for sentimental reasons. Or, we may be making out with certain pieces until we can afford something else.

Under these circumstances, it is far wiser to use soft muted background colors for walls and use the bright dramatic colors for accent only.

Sagging cottons can be revived with a gelatin solution bath. Dissolve a tablespoon of plain gelatin in a little cold water and then add a gallon of hot water to make the solution.

Hog marketings are expected to continue their increase with the high week probably coming in late November. Prices are now at the lowest point of the past nine years.

Carry a pencil and eraser when you wash your windows. Wrap a bit of cloth around the eraser end of the pencil to get at corners easily.

General Recommendations Given For Installation of Flooring

Installation of all flooring materials should be in accordance with the specific instructions of the manufacturer. General recommendations as to underflooring construction and adhesives are fully discussed here.

Some flooring materials — asphalt, cork, linoleum, rubber and vinyl — tend to reflect irregularities in the underflooring on which they are laid. For good installation of these materials, therefore, the underflooring must be made smooth. This can be done by placing an underlayment (mastic, hardboard or plywood) on top of rough concrete subfloors or wood subfloors.

The underlayment also helps to prevent the finish-flooring materials from cracking or splitting due to movement of the subfloor if it changes in temperature and moisture conditions cause the subfloor to expand and contract.

The underlayment for a concrete floor, slab or suspended, is nails should be driven flush with the underlayment.

Hardboard sheets should be laid so that their joints are staggered.

Generally, because of cost, interior grade plywood is preferred; however, since this plywood comes apart if constantly subjected to water, exterior grade plywood is recommended if excessive water spillage is expected.

The top surface of plywood should be as nearly perfect as possible. Plywood having one good side is acceptable even though the other side is rough and has open knots.

A lining felt (perforated 15-lb saturated asbestos felt) is usually used over board underlayment. This felt absorbs minor irregularities in the plywood or hardboard and helps to prevent the finish-flooring material from cracking, splitting or ridging as a result of movement of the underlayment. Some adhesives stick better to lining felt than wood, particularly unsealed wood.

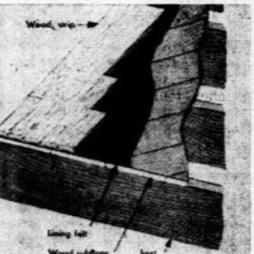

Lining felt is also used between wood finish-flooring and the wood subfloor to deaden noise.

Finish-flooring must be firmly fastened to the underflooring to avoid buckling or cracking. Adhesives are used to fasten asphalt, cork, linoleum, rubber, vinyl, wood block, and ceramic tile. The latter can also be set in a bed of cement mortar, as are brick, cement tile, flagstone and slate. Nails are used for strip wood flooring, and nails and screws for plank flooring.

concrete floors. Badly damaged concrete should be resurfaced with a mastic underlayment or a smooth troweled cement finish. A very thin asphalt "cut-back" cement, which is especially alkaline- and moisture-resistant, is recommended as a primer 1) to seal porous sand dusty concrete subfloors which show signs of dampness, and 2) to coat concrete floor slabs which show signs of dampness, and 3) to prepare concrete subfloors for the adhesive when asphalt or vinyl asbestos tile is used.

Remove any surface oil or grease from concrete with an alkali-type cleaner or a solution of tri-sodium phosphate. Rinse floor with water and dry thoroughly.

Always use the adhesive recommended by the manufacturer for the particular type of flooring material and its condition of use. The general types of adhesives commonly used are listed.

Preparation of Wood Underflooring: So that adhesives can attain their full bonding strength, all underflooring must be thoroughly dry and free from grease, oil, wax, paint and varnish. These can be removed by sanding, scraping, or using a chemical solvent. Be sure all traces of the latter are removed before the adhesive is applied.

Because too much penetration of the moisture from the adhesive causes boards to cup, a sealer should be applied to wood underfloors after sanding. It should be allowed to dry thoroughly.

Preparation of Concrete Underflooring: To secure a good adhesive bond on concrete subfloors, remove all loose particles and concrete dust by wirebrushing. Use a crack filler to close up cracks and small holes in old Paste: Water soluble. For installing linoleum, vinyl, rubber and cork on suspended wood and concrete subfloors.

Asphalt adhesive: A thin ("cut-back") asphalt cement. Moisture- and alkali-resistant. For installing asphalt and vinyl asbestos tiles on concrete floor slabs, especially those below grade. Use over a primer.

Emulsion: A water emulsion of asphalt. Resistant to moisture and alkali. For installing asphalt and vinyl asbestos tiles on suspended subfloors (wood or concrete) and concrete slabs and below grade.

Waterproof-cement adhesive: Special purpose adhesive for 1) cork-backed and unbacked vinyl, rubber and cork applied to concrete floor slabs at grade, 2) non-porous materials, 3) floors where excessive surface moisture cannot be avoided, 4) seams of roll material.

Wood-floor adhesive: Used to install wood block. Commonly referred to as a "flooring mastic," as distinguished from "underlayment mastic."

Ceramic tile adhesive: Water-resistant organic adhesive meeting Department of Commerce commercial standard CS 181-2.

DESIGN C-358. The plan provides for living room, combination kitchen-dinette, bath and four bedrooms. Flexibility is afforded by the partition separating the two rear bedrooms, which can be replaced by a folding partition, or eliminated entirely to form one large bedroom. The generous cabinet space in the kitchen-dinette includes a snack bar and closet. The bathroom has two lavatories with a glass partition and folding door. Plans call for wide siding and a combination of brick and vertical redwood in front, brick and picture window. Floor area is 1288 sq. ft and cubage is 24,472 cu. ft. ## Now It's Time to Prepare Your Home For Winter

This is the season when a home owner should go over his property from cellar to attic, and put it into condition for the winter. Small deteriorations detected and repaired immediately will save work, trouble and large expenditures in the future, and protect the health and living comfort of a family.

Here is a guide of major points about the home which a home owner should check now, suggested by the Construction Research Bureau, national clearing house for building information.

Basement — Check heating system. Have it thoroughly cleaned, and any worn parts replaced. Inspect plumbing pipes for cracks or leaks, shown by moisture or dripping. Make sure hot water supply is adequate. Check condition of electric wiring. Put in a set of new fuses of proper amperage. Look for frayed cords, loose wires or cracked insulators on all household equipment. Clean sink grease traps, and make certain that sewage disposal pipes are not clogged.

the roof exits of chimneys and air vents. Look for corrosion or loose connections on television antenna and cracked lead-in wires. Check installation to insure that it is solid enough to withstand bad weather conditions.

Gutters and Leaders — Clean leaves and all other debris from roof gutters and rain water leaders, making sure all leaders discharge water so it flows away from house foundations.

Chipped or Cracked Stonework — Carefully go over inside and outside of foundations, and other masonry. Repair chipped or cracked cement, stucco or mortar. Replace loose bricks with water-tight cement.

Walls — Examine outside walls of house for any damage caused by wind, water or settling. Check all interior walls for cracks and condensation.

Storm Windows — Make certain that storm windows are painted, in good condition and entirely weather-proof. Be sure all snow removal equipment is ready for use.

Garage — Clean and overhaul garage. Dispose of all rubbish. Roof, walls and windows should be in sound condition, and doors should work easily.

As a general rule, water heaters should be placed nearest the outlet or outlets that call for the greatest quantity of hot water. Sometimes, however, this involves excessively long pipe runs to other fixtures. In this case, the Plumbing and Heating Industries Bureau points out, it is best to install a second water heater to serve the other fixtures and outlets.

Mother Can Work, Watch

Windows and Doors — Go over all windows and doors to insure they are weather tight. Caulk any cracks, and replace cracked or broken glass. Put protective covers on all air-conditioning units.

Floors — Check all floors and stairs for loose boards. To prevent accidents, fasten securely and install Kenflex slip-resistant vinyl asbestos tile.

Chimneys — Inspect all flues, dampers and fireplaces. See that they are soot-free and in safe condition for winter fires.

Roof — Check roof thoroughly for loose or cracked shingles. Inspect all flashing, especially such vulnerable points as where roof joins sidewalls and around

With a work-and-play center such as this interior plan provides, Mother can carry on other tasks and at the same time give her children ample attention. Facilities for sewing, washing, drying and ironing are handy next to the play area and to the kitchen, beyond an open doorway and look-through opening. The gate can bar the doorway or enclose part of the play space. As befits the practical layout, Marlite panels with durable baked-plastic finish are used on ceilings. Yellow and white panels on walls and white blocks on ceilings are combined with planks of natural walnut pattern on cabinets, play table and hollow posts and beams. The paneling is easy to wipe clean and needs no redecorating.

Be a step ahead of cold weather!

William H. Hamlin
James G. Christensen

Recently taking part in a major amphibious exercise on the southeast coast of the U.S. with the 2nd Marine division, Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, were Marine Sergeant William H. Hamlin, son of Mrs. Vi Hamlin of 758 North Holbrook street, and Sergeant James G. Christensen of 9295 Northern street, Plymouth.

The exercise, involving 80 ships, 347 aircraft and 42,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel, began October 19 and was climaxed by an amphibious assault on Onslow Beach, North Carolina, November 3.

Supported by ships of the Atlantic Fleet, the Marines landed by helicopters, surface craft, sea planes, land planes and submarines. They were opposed by a simulated enemy force of Marine "aggressor" troops.

The maneuver provided realistic training in all phases of amphibious warfare, including the simulated use of offensive and defensive atomic weapons.

Donald A. Dee

Private Donald A. Dee, son of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Dee, 11030 Loveland, Livonia, is assigned to the Aggressor Force in Exercise Sage Brush, largest Army-Air Force maneuver since World War II, now being held in Louisiana.

Some 110,000 Army troops will test the latest concepts of bacteriological, atomic, chemical and electronic warfare. The exercise will end December 15.

The Aggressor Force furnishes opposition to the regular maneuver troops in simulated battles.

Private Dee entered the Army last February and is regularly stationed at Fort Belvoir, Virginia, with the 13th Field hospital.

Dorothy J. Sackett

Dorothy J. Sackett, daughter of Mrs. Joan Sackett of Gilbert street, Plymouth has recently been promoted to the rank of petty officer in the U. S. Navy, it was announced this week.

Miss Sackett, H. M. 3, is stationed at the U. S. Naval hospital in Great Lakes, Illinois. She entered the navy in January, 1954, and completed basic training in Bainbridge, Maryland. She received her hospital training at Great Lakes.

Diabetes Death Rate High in Michigan

Among the five leading causes of death in Michigan, diabetes is the only disease with a Michigan death rate which is higher than the rate for the country as a whole, the Michigan Department of Health said today.

Health authorities said that Michigan's diabetes death rate in 1954 was 20.9 deaths per hundred thousand population, considerably higher than the estimated rate for the nation which stood at 15.4.

Reporting 1,469 diabetes deaths in Michigan last year, the department pointed to excessive thirst, loss of weight, continual hunger and frequent urination as most common symptoms of the disease. Health officials cautioned that you are more likely to develop the condition if there is a history of diabetes in your family. Studies cited also show that the disease occurs more often among overweight persons and among people over 40 years of age. Urging more emphasis on early detection of diabetes, the department noted that "the disease often can be found even before symptoms occur through tests of the blood and urine which can be made by your doctor."

Alcohol and driving are a bad combination but no worse than jurors and law enforcement officials who do not throw the book at offenders.

Let the Doctor Outline Weight Reducing Plan

Although currently popular weight reducing clubs may be helpful for many people who need to take off excess pounds, the Michigan Department of Health today warned against joining unsupervised clubs, "which may result in the very thing you are trying to avoid: nutritional deficiency."

According to Mrs. Alice Smith, chief of the health department's nutrition section, weight reducing groups should be formed "only with medical guidance and supervision."

Nutritionists, Mrs. Smith explained, have become concerned about the unsupervised clubs, which are established on an emotional, rather than a scientific basis, and "may result in harmful dieting."

"Usually, persons joining the unsupervised clubs don't stick to the deficient diets long enough to harm themselves," Mrs. Smith said. "They end up right where they started — and as a result of the discouraging experience, may throw caution to the winds and court obesity."

The health department nutrition specialist counseled that weight control — keeping within your fight weight level — usually can be achieved through understanding and applying the rules of good nutrition, "often by adopting some new food habits which you can live with and be happy."

"But weight reduction," she urged, "is a medical matter, in which the doctor should play a leading role."

Urge Shelter for Radioactive Fallout If Within 15 Miles of Target Area

Every family living 15 miles or more from a potential target for nuclear attack should provide itself with a permanent shelter for protection against radioactive fallout.

This is the advice given by the Federal Civil Defense Administration in a new Technical Bulletin prepared as part of a continuing program to provide guidance to the states, localities, industry, and the general public in planning protective measures against the effects of radiation from the fallout of nuclear weapons in areas beyond the blast zone of the weapon.

The bulletin, entitled "Shelter From Radioactive Fallout" is being distributed to all civil defense organizations throughout the nation, and is also available from the U.S. Government Printing Office, Washington 25, D. C., for five cents.

The bulletin provides engineering drawings and construction details of both permanent and emergency temporary shelters, but gives the following cautions: "The time available even between a serious worsening of the world situation and an enemy attack might be insufficient for providing emergency types of shelter. In such a situation, families which had provided themselves with permanent shelter would in all probability survive, while those who depended upon providing shelter at the last minute would be caught without sufficient time to prepare one."

Families living inside the 5-mile primary blast hazard zone should have shelters to protect them from blast, as well as radiation, the bulletin points out. The instructions contained in the publication pertain to protective measures against fallout radiation and shelter construction for persons outside this area, and for evacuees from the initial radiation of a thermonuclear bomb.

In addition to providing specific details for construction of both permanent and emergency types of shelters, the bulletin includes the following general advice:

1. For dwellings with basements, a reinforced concrete, concrete block, or brick corner room with 16-inch thick walls will make an excellent shelter.

2. Another good type of permanent shelter for a house with a basement is a reinforced concrete or masonry outside underground shelter adjacent to the basement wall, with a doorway into it from the basement. This shelter should have at least a 6-inch reinforced concrete roof and two and a half feet of earth cover.

3. For basementless houses, the best permanent type of home shelter is the outside underground shelter. There are many acceptable designs for a shelter of this type which provide protection from radiation. Cost would largely control the comfort and convenience they provide.

4. In homes, the basement generally offers the best location for emergency temporary shelter from radiation since, usually, a considerable portion of the walls are below ground and are made of concrete, masonry block, brick or stone, all relatively dense materials and thus resistant to the penetrating rays of gamma radiation. The greater the percentage of basement area below ground, and the smaller the window and door area, the better the protection.

5. For dwellings without basements, the problem of providing emergency protection against fallout becomes more difficult. One method which can be used is to select a small first-floor room, preferably a room with the least exterior wall area, and sandbag the walls on the opposite sides; that is, in the adjacent rooms. Also sandbags should be placed on the second floor or in the attic space over the selected shelter room.

For emergency temporary group shelters, the use of trenches, caves, mines and culverts, with appropriate cover, is recommended.

Research Boosts Profits From State Blueberry Crop

Research has again given a boost to the Michigan blueberry industry.

Another new blueberry variety has been developed that fits Michigan growing conditions and can make use of still more of the state's poor farming lands.

The new variety, called Sunray, was developed by the U.S. Department of Agriculture. It has the same medium early growing season as Stanley, a popular variety with many Michigan blueberry growers. The Sunray, a high quality berry, is larger in size than Stanley, according to Harry K. Bell, extension horticulture specialist at M.S.U.

The state's blueberry industry has developed into a three-million-dollar business as a result of research carried on at the M.S.U. South Haven experiment station.

In addition to this research, the Michigan Agricultural Experiment Station cooperates with the USDA in testing blueberry varieties. Much of this testing is done on a blueberry farm near Flint.

Current research at the South Haven station is aimed toward developing a blueberry variety that will fit into growing conditions for the Upper Peninsula of Michigan. More than 1,000 hybrids are tested each year in the search for suitable varieties.

It's been estimated that the value of white pine lumber cut in Michigan exceeds by 10 times all the gold ever taken out of Alaska and triples the value of all the gold dug in California.

Letter Reveals Abe As No Horseman

In the eyes of at least one soldier of the Grand Army of the Republic, dignity went out the window when the President of the United States clambered aboard his horse to review the troops in November, 1861.

In a letter, now in the Michigan Historical Collections at The University of Michigan, to a relative in Decatur, Mich., Charles B. Haydon, a second lieutenant in Company I of the state's 2nd Regiment, wrote:

"The grand review must have been exceedingly interesting to the President. . . His horse had to go at a keen run. . . One hand hold of the bridle, the other convulsively clutched in the mane of his horse. . . never relaxed its hold except for a moment to crowd his hat further down over his eyes."

"His long legs were well clasped around the body of his horse, his hair and coat tails horizontal. He looked as though he was determined to go through if it killed him but would be most slightly glad when it was over."

The President, of course, was Abraham Lincoln.

Lt. Haydon, who was in formation with regiment, added, "I would gladly have given $10 to have been loose so that I could have seen the whole spectacle."

Lake Huron freighters anchored two miles offshore from Alabaster, Michigan, take on gypsum cargoes by a continuous overwater bucket conveyor system extending all the way from shore.

Michigan is the only state which permits a manufacturer the option of paying personal property tax on either the inventory value as of December 31, or on the average value throughout the year.

Last Film Program Slated for Tuesday

As the closing program in its adult film series, Dunning library will present two color reels, one on skiing and the other a travelogue, on Tuesday, November 15, at 7 p.m.

The series, which began October 11, will be resumed in February, Mrs. Agnes Pauline, head librarian, announced. During the interim a story hour for children has been scheduled for Tuesday afternoons at 4.

Films to be shown in connection with the adult program Tuesday evening are "Skifully Yours" and "Coral Wonderland." The first was filmed at Sun Valley, Idaho and includes skiing demonstrations by Olympic stars. Close-up shots of the Barrier Reef Islands and their unique fish and underwater creatures are contained in "Coral Wonderland."

For '56 New Sweep-ahead styling New Sizzle to match

The 1956 Buick SUPER 4-Door Riviera

WHAT YOU SEE pictured here is Buick for 1956—and it nods to no equal for looks and action.

You can judge the first part as your eyes rove from the wind-splitting "V" of that gleaming grille to the sassy slant of that rear-fender profile.

And you see it in every clean-sculptured line—in the rich new fabrics—in the smart color harmonies—in the jewel-like fittings—in every detail of décor.

But what you see from the curb is more than matched by what you feel at the wheel—and you can take that as gospel.

For this Buick gets its zoom from a big 322-cubic-inch V8 engine lofted to a new record high in power and compression—and from a spectacular new advance in Variable Pitch Dynaflow.*

Great New Getaway With Better Gas Mileage
Who's new in the '56 Dynaflow is this: in the first inch of the pedal's travel—and not with wide-open throttle—your Buick gets going from a standing start like a lark leaving the nest, with not a hint of hesitation between take-hold and take-off.

Its acceleration that's silk-smooth, instant and certain. And you get it—along with a bountiful boost in gas-saving mileage—right in the normal driving range, where your gas pedal spends most of its time.

But comes an emergency—a sudden need for safety—surge action to get out of a tight spot—and you floor the pedal to switch the pitch of this airplane-inspired Dynaflow. Instantly and smoothly, you're at full-power acceleration—a thrill beyond words.

There's a lot more we could tell you about these great new Buicks for 1956.

About a brilliantly styled new instrument panel. About a superb new ride with deep-oil cushioning. About a wholly new front-end geometry that adds a serene "sense of direction" and a new ease of handling to every Buick's every inch of travel.

About greater new safety, too—from smoother, surer, Safety-Line brakes—from new Safety-Aim headlamps—from new interlocking safety latches—from a new Safety Power Steering†—from the added protection, at your option, of seat belts and a soft padded cover on the instrument panel. Plus, of course, the extra safety of panoramic windshield visibility, of tubeless tires, of Safety-Ride rims, of torque-tube stability.

But the best way to get the whole story of the best Buick yet is right at the wheel of one of these '56 beauties. Drop in on us this week and let the thrills fall where they may.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflow is the only Dynaflow Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

keeping in touch

FROM HARTMAN, Arkansas comes word from Mr. and Mrs. Burt Tomlinson, former Plymouthites. They "keep in touch" through The Mail, which they have taken for the past nine years.

A FORMER Plymouth city manager, Adolph Koenig, now serves the Walled Lake area in the same capacity.

TWO PLYMOUTH artists have exhibits in the 4th annual Michigan Artists Exhibition at the Detroit Institute of Art. The exhibition opens next Tuesday evening when winners of the $3500 in prizes will be announced. Harold Stein, 641 Forest, has entered "Skylight", an oil painting; Donald S. Thrall, 288 Irvin, has two water colors, "From Santo Domingo" and "On Contemplating Venice".

MEMBER OF a kitchen equipment class at Michigan State university comparing and judging the results of electrical products is Ellen Daane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell M. Daane of 530 Garfield. Ellen is a junior at State majoring in home economics.

A THOUGHT FOR THIS WEEK: There is no expedient to which a man will resort to avoid the real labor of thinking.—Sir Joshua Reynolds.

Social Security Question Column

More questions and answers on Social Security are answered in the Mail in cooperation with the Detroit-Northwest Social Security Office 14600 Grand River, Detroit 27, Michigan Readers are invited to send their questions directly to the Plymouth Mail.

1. I have a couple of houses which I rent. Can I pay the Social Security tax on this rent that I get in order to get Social Security? I get a pension from State retirement but would like to be able to get Social Security too. J.D.

Answer: No, you cannot pay the Social Security self-employment tax on income received as rentals. This cannot be considered as net earnings from self-employment for Social Security purposes.

2. I've heard there has been a change in the Social Security law. Will this change mean payments for me? I have been a widow since 1948 and am now only 60. I cannot get a job. B.B.

Answer: There has not been any recent change in the law. Payments cannot be made to a widow under 65 unless she is a widow with children under 18.

3. I do day work and none of the people I work for pay Social Security for me. They say they don't have to. Is this right? N.M.

Answer: The answer to your question depends upon your wages. A domestic worker's wages from any employer for work in a private home are under the Social Security law if they amount to $50 or more in cash in a calendar quarter. A calendar quarter is a three-month period beginning January 1, April 1, July 1, or October 1.

The ignorance about this part of the nation, in other areas, is only equalled by our ignorance about other sections.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Damage to the pheasant population in about 10 square miles of good ringneck range south of Holland was extensive during a recent severe hail storm.

Hailstones said to be the size of golf balls pelted a swath across Allegan county in the storm that flashed off Lake Michigan last week.

Conservation officer Harry Plotts of Allegan said 24 dead pheasants were gathered from one 10-acre field. A total of 100 were found in a brief search of the damage area. No attempt at a complete survey was made but damage appeared general.

Roofs were damaged, windows broken and field crops wrecked. Fifty-two of the pheasants were autopsied at the Conservation Department's game division laboratory at East Lansing; skull fractures and other broken bones were common in the birds.

Conservation Department field crews planted 4,750,000 young trees on public lands in northern Michigan this fall.

Plantings in upper peninsula forests totaled 1,750,000 trees, while 3,000,000 were set out in the northern lower peninsula. Another 500,000 trees will go into the ground in the spring to complete the fiscal year schedule.

The Department's field administration division loaned tractors, drivers and transportation to help forestry crews complete the huge job before winter.

The fall's work is the first large block carved out of a proposed 250,000-acre program of planting 200,000,000 trees on public-owned lands in northern Michigan during coming years. Yearly plantings will be stepped up as the program gets into full swing.

"There seems to be no question about it, pheasant hunting success is above last year and the highest in at least 10 years."

This was the summary appraisal made by the Conservation Department's pheasant specialist Ralph Blouch as the October 20-November 10 season moved toward conclusion.

Reports of interviews with hundreds of hunters showed that the vast majority saw more birds and had better success than last year.

Interviews of individual hunters by field workers throughout southern Michigan were backed by controlled checks at the Prairie Farm near Saginaw, at Rose Lake wildlife station near Lansing and at Swan Creek wildlife station in southwestern Michigan, all of which showed success above last year.

Blouch estimated before the season that hunters would bag 1,250,000 birds; a statistical poll last year showed that 1,126,000 ringnecks went home to the table.

Hunting at the Swan Creek and Fennville areas hit a popularity peak last Sunday, but the wily Canada goose refused to play much of a part in the whole show.

A total of 1059 permits were issued for hunting in the two areas on the single day, an all-time record.

The record army, however, bagged only 28 geese. Success has run somewhat behind last year. At present, 4000-4500 Canadas are in the two areas and about 7000 in the entire southwestern Michigan area.

At Pointe Mouillee in southeastern Michigan, hunters have bagged 4128 ducks and coots and four geese. The total is well ahead of last year.

Three hunters pleaded guilty and paid fines in Allegan justice court last week for violating hunting regulations at the popular Swan Creek goose area.

Thomas Selvestrini of Battle Creek and E. J. Maier and Malcolm O. Smith of Kalamazoo each paid $32.80 fines and costs for hunting unlawfully in a restricted area.

The hunters had somehow obtained shooting permits for a three-hunt limit restricted area and had been using these illegally.

Final trout plantings of the year are being made in Michigan lakes, completing release this year of more than 1,000,000 legal-sized fish, plus about 300,000 fingerlings.

Conservation Department fisheries workers say legal rainbows and brooks are going into lakes already closed to fishing, while fingerlings are being planted in both open and closed waters.

Only a few plantings will remain to be made in lakes after the extended fall rainbow season closes on November 30.

Twelve fires burned 30 acres of state and private forests and grasslands during the past week.

The latest fires increased the 1955 damage to 7,203 acres throughout the state. A total of 1,147 fires were reported during the first 10 months of the year.

Gives Union View Of Automation

A belief that automation will be a boom to America but that planning must be done to relocate those forced into unemployment due to automation was expressed to Plymouth Rotarians last Thursday by Malcolm Evans of the UAW-CIO education department.

The union official stated that there was a time when unions reacted to new machines in fear that they would produce mass unemployment. The union now believes that new ideas and machines will produce high standards of living, he asserted.

If the employer, employee, and consumer are to benefit by automation, "we must take into consideration those who will be laid off," Evans declared. As consumers drop off, business drops off.

The speaker stated that the future can't be predicted, but that before we get jammed into a situation where everyone gets hurt, the union is proposing joint study committees composed of labor, industry and government on national, state or even local levels. The study committees, he added, should take a look at what might happen to employment in face of automation.

The U. S. Chamber of Commerce and National Association of Manufacturers has indicated that automation problems will take care of themselves, Evans said. "We don't want to take a chance," the union official explained.

Evans quoted Walter Reuther as saying that the 30-hour work week "is on the books" as one answer to automation.

Plymouth Theatre Patrons to Cast Ballots on Best Performers, Films

Plymouth theatre-goers will join millions of other Americans this month in having their first opportunity to make their own selection of the best pictures and the best performances on a nation-wide basis.

From November 17 to 27, the Penn Theatre and more than 10,000 other participating theatres throughout the country, will give each patron a ballot on which he may make his selection in each of five categories:

The best picture of the year, the best performance by an actor, the best performance by an actress, the most promising new personality (male) and most promising new personality (female).

Votes will be tabulated daily and made public locally. After the close of the contest, the final count in each theatre will be verified by a committee of local citizens and sent to a nationally-known public accountant firm.

National totals will be kept secret by the accountants until the night of the award ceremony which will be held in Hollywood early in December. Margaret Wilson, Penn Theatre manager, said that all of the films nominated have been shown here.

In the past there have been many awards or nominations of best pictures and best performances. One of the most popular has been the annual "Oscar" awards of the Academy of Motion Picture Arts and Sciences in which the members of the Academy, all Hollywood professionals, select the best picture and the best performances but also make a number of technical awards.

Polls have been made among patrons in scattered cities but this will be the first conducted on a country-wide basis.
