

Plan 75 Unit Subdivision

City commissioners gave final approval Monday night to plans for a 75-home subdivision to be constructed on the western side of Plymouth along Sheldon road. It will be known as Parklane Subdivision.

Homes valued at over a million and a quarter dollars will be built on the 20-acre plot by an Oak Park firm, Al-Bil Homes, Inc.

Location of the new subdivision is south of Hough woods. Streets located in the new project will be continuations of Garfield avenue, McKinley avenue and Lincoln avenue, all north and south streets; and Carol avenue and Beech street, east-west streets.

Although Sheldon road bounds the subdivision on the west, there will be no homes facing that road.

Albert Simkins and William Rotherberg, partners in the building firm, state that two models will be started within 30 days. The property, purchased from Dr. Walter Hammond last year, will be served by the sanitary sewer being proposed by the city.

The 75 homes will be of brick construction, will be of ranch style and will be priced in the $15,900 to $17,900 range. Plans call for construction of both three and four bedroom models. All will have basements.

Besides sewers, the subdivision will have city water, gas heat, sidewalks and concrete paved streets. The builders state that they plan to leave as many trees as possible standing.

If the proposed sewer is laid this summer, the 75-home project will be completed this year, the builders declared. They will handle their own realty transactions.

Al-Bil Homes, Inc. has constructed many homes in the Oak Park area, including a large subdivision.

The subdivision plot as approved by the city commission Monday night and previously by the planning commission contains lots ranging in width from 50 feet to 75 feet. The majority are 60 feet. Depth of the lots range from 120 to 160 feet.

Streets will be 60 feet wide.

Local Jr. High Band Wins Top Festival Award

A record was established Saturday afternoon at the District Band festival of Region 4, held at Wayne university, when the Plymouth junior high school band was awarded first-division (superior) rating following competition against six other bands from Detroit-area schools entered in their classification at the event.

Band Director Laurence Livingston stated that he believed this was the first time in Plymouth junior high history for the school band to achieve this honor.

The 85-member band received the superior rating from three concert judges and were awarded the same rating for their skill in sight-reading. The group was entered in the Class C, Junior High 3, division at the district event.

As top-place winners in their classification, the local band will go to Muskegon on April 14 for an overnight trip and competition against other Michigan school bands in the state contest to be held there.

A car driven by Michael O'Conner, 325 Liberty street, received minor damages last Friday night when it was struck by a C & O locomotive.

Police said that O'Conner was driving west on Farmer street when the rear side of the vehicle was struck by the train backing north across the crossing.

Editor Tells of News Censorship Attempts

Increasing governmental attempts to censor news and failure of outside forces to sway newspaper policy and politics were two areas discussed by Pulitzer Prize winner Royce Howes in an address before the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce last night.

Over 80 Chamber members and guests heard the address of "Your Right to Know" following a dinner at the Mayflower hotel. Howes is associate editor of the Detroit Free Press and won the Pulitzer award last year for his editorial concerning the Chrysler strike of 1954 which idled 45,000.

Answering charges that newspapers are a one-party press because they are controlled by their advertisers, Howes declared that it has to first be assumed that every advertiser is of the same political belief, "which is anything but the case." He added that he has been in the newspaper business a great many years, both as a reporter and executive, and "I never yet have had any advertiser mention his political beliefs, much less demand that the paper parrot them."

"Sure, advertisers want favors sometimes," the speaker asserted. "But what he wants is mention of his new fixtures, or to have the story of how somebody sprained an ankle on his escalator played inconspicuously."

Howes said that an advertiser knows better than to try to dictate politics, even if he wanted to, "for the very good reason that an equally important advertiser is likely to be his political opposite."

Attempts to apply pressure to newspaper policies are made, the associate editor admitted, but they don't come from the commercial people. "They come, frankly, from religious and racial groups—or probably it would be fairer to say self-starting zealots who profess to speak for religious and racial groups and who get a few others to go along with them for window dressing. Editors are acquainted with their tactics and are rarely impressed."

In his remarks about press censorship, Howes noted that the International Press Institute recently announced that it finds only four countries have unrestricted freedom of information. "You probably are sitting there wondering what the other three are besides the United States," the newspaperman declared. "It may shock you quite a bit to hear that the United States isn't even on the list. The four nations are Britain, Denmark, Sweden and Belgium."

He mentioned that one new method of censorship is the misuse of "security." Although Congress is now investigating censorship disguised as security (and Congress itself is not guiltless), Howes said that department and bureau heads who want to keep the facts of government from the public are employing some 50 different laws provided for them by Congress.

Typical of congressional discoveries was the case of the federal official who said that he gave news freely but only to "responsible" reporters. "What he meant when he said 'responsible' was really 'friendly.' That is, he gave information only to reporters whom he could count on not to say anything unfavorable about his department."

Howes also mentioned the new approach to suppression with laws which would drastically penalize any paper that printed facts reflecting on office holders' conduct of public affairs. Bills to this end have already been presented in Georgia, Mississippi, and Kentucky.

The Free Press editorial writer also criticized Senators Eastland and Jenner who "have cost you taxpayers a substantial amount of money with tactics which try to pin a Communist label on certain papers, and notably the New York Times. All that is necessary to determine whether a publication is Communist tinged is to read it," Howes stated, "assuming the reader is intelligent enough to recognize the Communist Party line when he sees it."

Donald Burleson, president of the Chamber of Commerce, introduced the speaker. Master of ceremonies for the evening was William Sliker, general manager of The Plymouth Mail. The Reverend E. B. Jones, pastor of Riverside Park Church of God, delivered the invocation.

Guests included Mrs. John Henderson, Republican committeewoman from this area; Orville Tungeate, president of the Plymouth Democratic club; and other visitors representing business and industry.

Fire Chiefs Here Today

Between 75 and 100 fire chiefs are expected to invade Plymouth this noon when the Southeastern Michigan Fire Chiefs association holds a meeting here.

Fire Chiefs Robert McAllister of the city and Howard Holmes of the township will be host to the group at the Mayflower hotel. The speaker will be the fire chief at Wurnsmith Air Base at Osoda.

The local fire chiefs recently returned from a meeting of the Fire Department Instructors conference at Memphis, Tennessee.

Set $5,516 Easter Seal Fund Goal

A goal of $5,516 was announced this week by Easter Seal Chairman Charles Finlan, as he launched the 1956 mailing campaign for funds for crippled children to be raised during the annual Easter Seal campaign which officially opens Saturday, March 10 and continues through April 10.

The 23rd annual Easter Seal drive is sponsored by the Wayne Out-County Chapter, Michigan Society for Crippled Children and Adults, Inc. For many years the Plymouth Rotary has conducted the campaign in the local community.

Assisting Chairman Finlan with the more than 6,000 appeal letters which are being mailed to Plymouth residences in hopes that they will contribute generously to this great cause were Milton Orr, Albert Hubbs, Robert D. Willoughby, Earl West and Charles H. Bennett.

Seventy-five canisters are being placed in the business establishments throughout Plymouth for the patrons convenience.

A goal of $40,000 is the aim of the Wayne Out-County Chapter to enable them to continue services to 200 handicapped individuals living in Western Wayne County. Fifty-two crippled persons live in the Plymouth area who depend on the generosity of Easter Seal contributions to bring them, care, treatment and other services.

Funds contributed to the local drive help support the Chapter services which include transportation to clinics, hospitals, treatment centers, occupational therapy to the homebound, day camp for crippled children, recreation programs for teenagers and adults and educational assistance.

The 1956 Easter Seal campaign will be conducted nationwide March 10 to April 10.

Four Plead Guilty To Market Theft

Four youths who burglarized a Joy road market last Thursday night and dumped the cash register on Ann Arbor road near the Elks home have been apprehended and have pleaded guilty to the charge.

The Wood Handy Store, located at Joy and Dix road, was the target of the four Thursday night. Kicking in the front door glass, they quickly made off with the cash register, four cases of beer, three half-gallon jugs of wine and a fifth of wine.

At 12:17 a.m., a Detroit woman called Plymouth police to report that her car almost hit a cash register which lay on U. S. 12 near the Elks club drive. It had been on or a few dollars in pennies, according to store proprietor Harry Wood.

Wayne police picked up the four after an alert was sent by Wayne county sheriff's authorities. The four, whose addresses were not learned by press time, were David Applegate, Robert Bator, Orville Hobbs and Ronald Fielhauer.

State police have also sought custody of the four in connection with other burglaries in the area. They pleaded guilty in a preliminary hearing and were bound over to circuit court.

Crash Seriously Injures Three

Three Plymouth men were seriously injured last Saturday night when the car in which they were traveling rolled over on Ridge road and crashed into a utility pole. Injured were: Dallas Rockwell, 814 York street, driver of the car, compound fractures of both legs; Otis Burns, whose address was given as Dansville, Alabama but who reportedly works here, fracture of both legs and internal injuries; Cecil Russell, 921 Sutherland, lacerations of the left leg, lower forearm, scalp and possible internal injuries.

The three were taken to University hospital in Ann Arbor.

State police said that the accident happened on Ridge near Geddes road. Rockwell was apparently driving too fast, state police reported, and the car went off the road, rolling into the pole. The vehicle was completely demolished.

Plymouth police reported that they were called to Rockwell's home earlier in the evening to investigate family trouble. Rockwell was told to leave the home.

Seek Early Start On New County Water System

A subcommittee of the Wayne County Board of Supervisors has urged an immediate start on western Wayne county's proposed water supply which will affect the Plymouth area.

But those without water facilities in this area shouldn't count on a water main at their front doors right away. A completion date of 1960 has been set.

The $65,000,000 project was approved by voters of the Plymouth area and others in Wayne county at an election in the spring of 1955. The new system may not actually serve Plymouth and vicinity, but will relieve the Detroit water supply enough so that the Detroit mains can be extended here. Details of this arrangement have not yet been announced.

An 80-acre site will be purchased in Ewerse township on which a filtration plant is to be constructed. The water intake source will be located east of Fighting Island channel in Ontario waters. Water here, according to County Engineer Leroy C. Smith, is above minimum purity as required by the U. S. Public Health Service.

Plans call for the water tunnel to stretch five miles from the intake to the filtration site. Other sites were considered, such as off Fort Wayne and near Belle Isle, but these costs would be considerably more, engineers declared.

Actual construction is not expected to start until next year.

'Gretel' to Appear On Godfrey Show

Those who heard the Cuban soprano Ana M. Martinez-Casado in the role of Gretel in the Plymouth Symphony's opera presentation last Christmas time, will again be able to hear the talented singer next Monday night when she appears on Arthur Godfrey's Talent Scouts show.

Over 1,400 people jammed the high school gymnasium on December 11 to hear the "Hansel and Gretel" opera in which Miss Martinez-Casado sang a leading role. Monday's show starts at 8:30 p.m. on WJBK-TV.

1st Resuscitator Run Runs Afoul

For the first time since they announced that they had a resuscitator service, Plymouth township firemen were called upon Friday night to use their new machine—but they didn't get to.

The confusing situation began at 11:42 p.m. when Homer Millard, 14908 Manor, Detroit, suddenly collapsed while bowling at the Arbor Hill alleys. Although the establishment is in Plymouth township and is next door to the township hall, someone called Plymouth city firemen.

But township off-duty firemen who were in the building at the time rushed next door and got their resuscitator. Just as they were about to administer oxygen, firemen said that a woman came rushing up demanding that the man not be given oxygen and that he be moved to another part of the room. She stated that she was a registered nurse.

Firemen said that they argued and even attempted to push the woman out of the way, but she persisted so long that the victim regained consciousness. A local physician arrived a few minutes later and said that Millard had fainted from over-exertion. Firemen quoted the doctor as saying that oxygen would have helped revive him.

Flue Causes Fire

Township firemen were called Tuesday morning to extinguish a blaze in a home on Sheldon road which last year was partially destroyed by another fire.

Tuesday's fire in the home occupied by John Thario, 14373 Sheldon road, was started by a defective flue on a coal stove, firemen reported. The flue projected through the ceiling before entering the chimney and had no asbestos protection, they added.

Flushing around the hot flue started a fire. Water was poured on the fire by the residents and it was nearly extinguished when firemen arrived.

Predict 2,000 More Employees by 1958

Construction of a 204,000 square foot addition to the Plymouth division plant of the Burroughs corporation and expectations of employing 2,000 more people by 1958, were announced this week by John S. Coleman, president of the company.

The new one-story building will increase the size of the Plymouth division plant on Plymouth road to 840,000 square feet, or 19 acres of manufacturing area. This will increase floor space by nearly a third.

"The new plant is needed to provide manufacturing and assembly space for expanding product lines," Coleman declared in his announcement.

"It is scheduled for completion during the first quarter of 1957 and if present economic trends continue, it is expected that by 1958 an additional 2,000 employees will be required to man it."

There are 3,500 men and women presently employed at the Plymouth division, making it one of the biggest single employers in the community.

Location of the proposed addition will be immediately behind (north) of the present buildings. This will be the third expansion of the corporation's Plymouth operation since 1950. In that year a one-story 150,000 square foot addition was built and another plant of the same size was added in 1952.

The new building will be similar to these in design. The other Plymouth division plants consist of a five-story main building, power house and a 100,000 square foot warehouse.

Burroughs occupied its first plant in Plymouth in 1938 when the five-story main structure and power house, facing on Plymouth road, were completed. These two buildings were designed by Albert Kahn, the multiple story structure being patterned essentially after the Burroughs Main plant in Detroit.

New buildings added in 1950 and 1952 were one-story plants to facilitate new concepts of manufacturing.

Before World War II and for some time afterwards, the Plymouth division was devoted to the manufacture of a variety of the company's products, including the cash registering machine, calculator, office chairs and supplies and defense products.

During World War II the plant was engaged almost exclusively in the manufacture of the famed Norden bomb sight. Some defense work is still being carried on at the plant which is considered classified by the Air Force.

In 1949, the plant took over production of the Sensitive Accounting machine which it has been producing ever since.

Commissioners passed another resolution concerning the condemned Joseph Bailey home at 644 Herald street. This resolution makes it possible for the city to tear down the building if Bailey doesn't, and to assess any costs against the property or owner. Bailey has four weeks to raze the building.

City Gets Offer To Aid Progress

While most citizens who appear before the city commission are there to ask something or to make a complaint, commissioners got a welcome change Monday night when two different groups appeared offering plans for city progress.

Don Lightfoot, representing the Rotary club, read a long list of equipment that the club intends to supply for a new playground located at the east end of Wing street, at Pine. The money will be turned over to the city to make the purchase. A request to hold a community picnic on the playground site this May was also granted the club.

$27 Reported Missing From Methodist Safe

About $27 in bills and change was taken from a safe in First Methodist church sometime between March 1 and 5, it was reported Monday to police.

Police said that there were no signs that the safe had been tampered with. The discovery was made by the church office secretary who said that the safe was last opened last Thursday and that when she reopened it Monday, the money was gone.

An investigation is continuing.

Members of the Garden club told of their plans to launch a "Litterbug" campaign in Plymouth which will begin during Paint-up, Clean-up, Fix-up Week. Mrs. Sidney Strong and Mrs. Paul Wiedman, spokesmen for the group, told of the several dozen signs which they intended to erect reminding citizens about the "Litterbug." A "Litterbug dance" for high school students and an educational program for young boys and girls is also being planned. Sacks for disposing of litter will be distributed.

Capacity Crowd Attends Mozart Birthday Concert

The 200th anniversary of Wolfgang Amadeus Mozart was given special commemoration Sunday afternoon by the Plymouth Symphony orchestra and Civic Chorus in an all-Mozart concert before a capacity audience at the Plymouth high school gymnasium.

Popular Soprano Norma Heyde thrilled the concert-goers with her presentation of the Exsultate jubilate and Coronation Mass. Contralto Florence Ellison, Tenor Harper Stephens and Wallace Schronsack, bass, also gave excellent performances in solo appearances.

The concert, fifth of the current tenth season, marked the only appearance this year of Director Fred Nelson's Plymouth Civic Chorus. Their performance was most impressive and brought long applause from an appreciative audience.

Miss Heyde, who Plymouth Conductor Wayne Dunlap glowingly refers to as the finest soprano voice he has ever heard, was particularly brilliant in the Coronation Mass with the trio of Plymouth soloists.

The program included Symphony No. 40 in G minor, Exsultate jubilate Motet for soprano and orchestra and the Coronation Mass.

The Plymouth Symphony orchestra will make its final appearance of the season April 8. The program will feature Flutist Nelson Hauenstein and Marilyn Martin, harpist.

When Children Won't Eat

By C. C. Wiltse, Richard C. Wiltse, Registered Pharmacists

Few doctors advocate forcing a child to eat. Still there are minimum requirements of certain foods that must be consumed daily if the child is to grow and be healthy.

When your children bypass all your schemes to get those necessary vitamins into their systems daily, the best thing to do is consult your doctor. There are many drug forms of food chemicals which will adequately make up the deficiency.

If your doctor prescribes one or more it will be to your advantage to secure them from a quality pharmacist.

Girl Scouts to Celebrate 44th Birthday Sunday

Mayor Russell M. Daane has officially proclaimed the observance in Plymouth of Girl Scout Week during the dates March 11-17, in keeping with a nationwide tribute to the organization founded March 12, 1912 by Juliette Low in Savannah, Georgia. More than 400 Brownies and Girl Scouts of Plymouth will commemorate the event.

people of Plymouth are aware of the important contribution to community welfare being made by Girl Scout leaders through their work with the youth of the nation. The nationwide organization is composed of more than 2,000,000 Girl Scouts and over 300,000 adult leaders.

Various activities have been planned for the Plymouth observance which will open on Girl Scout Sunday, March 11, with uniformed attendance of Brownies and Scouts at churches of their choice. Sunday afternoon, March 11, a Scouting day will be held from 3 to 5 p.m. in the high school gymnasium to acquaint the community with Scout activities.

Exhibits for the Scouting day have been prepared by individual troops on such phases of Scouting as camping, dramatics, homemaking, arts and crafts. Patrol equipment for use at the first national Girl Scout Roundup this summer at Highland Recreation area will be displayed by Troop 1 under the leadership of Mrs. Sheldon Baker.

Scouts from Troop 3, directed by Mrs. William Edgar and Mrs. E. P. Light, will present a dramatic skit at the event, entitled "First Aid in the First Troop," the skit portrays an incident which occurred in the first troop of Girl Guides. It will be presented in the high school auditorium several times during the afternoon.

The film "Hands Across the Sea" will also be shown in the auditorium throughout the afternoon. The film was taken in Switzerland, Wales, the Netherlands and in this country to show similarity of purpose in Girl Scouts and Girl Guides throughout the world.

A special feature of the Scouting day will be the Play Group, baby sitting service conducted by Troop 6 under the leadership of Mrs. Woodrow Tichy and Mrs. M. Canine. Parents may leave children ages 3 to 5 to be entertained by troop members while they enjoy the exhibits.

Purpose of the fund is to promote Girl Scouting and Girl Guiding throughout the world. Throughout Girl Scout Week a miniature camping scene will be on display in Davis and Lent window. The exhibit has been prepared by Troop 1 with Mrs. Sheldon Baker as leader.

Mrs. John Lodge is chairman of Scouting day, assisted by Mrs. J. E. Cooper, Mrs. William Edgar, Mrs. David Mather and Mrs. Clifton Tillotson.

Some time ago we used to "pop the cork" on these columns pretty regularly . . . did it for several years, in fact. Then we got typewriter cramp in our fingers and put the cork back on the news bottle for a while.

Guess what happened? You're right . . . a torrent of protests. Our "public" insisted that we take up where we left off . . . at least that's the way we like to think of it. We were accused of "deathless run out of words. Our 'deathless prose,' it was rumored about town, had actually curled up and died. So, after mulling it over for a while, we decided to put the lie to those wild rumors. If nothing else, we'll prove that the well hasn't dried up after all.

We're glad to be back, too. 1956 looks like a year that will have a lot of news worth commenting on, and we're happy to give our friends and customers a crack at our opinions. Look for us each week in this space. And when you stop in at the store, let us know what you think of these column comments. Don't pull any punches, either. We hope you make it a habit to stop by . . . for a snack or a cup of coffee at our counter . . . and, of course, for everything in toiletries and cosmetics and drugs. Remember . . . The following girls were recently invested as Intermediate Scouts into Troop 12: Sally Anthony, Mary Jane Calleja, Patricia Carey, Jane Drobeck, Joy Geng, Sally Gilles, Mary Ellen Hinckley, Elaine Hunter, Suzanne Miller, Barbara Shinn, Sharon Stremick, Cheryl Thomas and Joanne Wood.

Historical Society Hears Paper by E. J. Cutler

An autobiographical paper, entitled "The Personal Experiences of Edward J. Cutler in the Planning and Building of Greenfield Village" will be read by its author tonight, March 8, at a meeting of the Plymouth Historical Society at 7:45 in the Veterans Community center on Main street. Refreshments following the meeting will be served by Mrs. Ethel Clark assisted by Mrs. Iva Bentley, Mrs. Ina Culver and Mrs. Bessie Dunning. It was announced that Volume II of the "Plymouth Pioneer Papers," a compilation of papers written and given by members of the society since 1950, has been placed in the Dunning library. The volume was dedicated to Ruth Huston Whipple, charter member of the society and its third president (1952-53). A copy of the Pioneer Papers has also been sent to the Burton Historical library in Detroit.

Woman's Club Holds Birthday Celebration

Approximately 100 members and guests gathered Friday afternoon in the VFW hall for the 10'clock celebration of the 63rd birthday of the Plymouth Woman's club and observance of its Past Presidents' day.

Highlighting the event was a recognition service for past presidents. Also on the program were selections by the organization's glee club and a slide presentation on "Guatemala, Land of Eternal Spring" given by Mrs. Max Williams of Royal Oak as guest speaker. Cutting of the three-tier anniversary cake launched the tea following the program.

Honored were 17 of the club's former presidents now residing in the Plymouth or out-of-state areas. Presiding over the meeting was 1955-56 president, Mrs. Leslie Daniel, who was assisted in the recognition service by Mrs. Austin Pino, program chairman, and Mrs. David Gates.

The former presidents highlighted their presidential terms from the club's early days as "The Ladies Literary Club," to such activities as membership in the State Federation of Women's clubs, organization of the glee club, sponsorship of Plymouth's Red Cross drive and Girls' State representatives. Founding date of the organization was March 4, 1893.

Principals in the recognition service were Mrs. Ada F. Murray, Mrs. Charles Rathburn, Mrs. George S. Burr, Mrs. Robert Wiloughby, Mrs. Milton R. Laible, Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing and Mrs. Murray O'Neil.

Letters from the following past presidents unable to attend the event were read at the meeting: Mrs. R. E. Cooper of Palms Verdes, California; Mrs. J. Merle Bennett (Moss) of St. Petersburg, Florida; Mrs. William A. Ottwell of Burbank, California; and Mrs. Paul Christensen of Vista, California. Other notes of regret were received from Mrs. Charles Humphries, Mrs. D. N. McKinnon, Mrs.

B. R. Gilbert, Mrs. Ray Johns, Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel and Mrs. John Henderson.

Presentations by the Glee club, under the direction of Mrs. Gerald Hondrop, were: "Let There Be Music," "Oh, Lovely Clouds," Mozart composition arranged by club members Mrs. Lewis C. Litzner; "Sunshine of Your Smile," "Thanks Be to God" and the "Happy Anniversary Song" written by Mrs. Hugh Law, also a club member.

The color slide presentation given by Mrs. Williams in native Guatemalan costume, was accompanied by a handicraft exhibit from the region. Typical scenes from the Central American country were shown, illustrating customs of native inhabitants and mountainous terrain of the region. Mrs. Williams stated that the Republic of Guatemala is approximately the size of Louisiana, with nearly 70 per cent of its three to four million people of Indian ancestry, the other portion of mixed descent. Language of the country is Spanish with religion largely catholic.

Mrs. Williams is a member of the Speakers Research Bureau for United Nations in New York. She is also national president of the Motion Picture Council in the U. S. with headquarters in Washington, D. C.

Tea chairman was Mrs. Earl West. Mrs. Ada F. Murray was given the honor of cutting the three-tier birthday cake as former president with the longest term of office among those in attendance. Presiding at the tea table were Mrs. George Burr and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing.

Starts Self-Testing Television Service

A "do-it-yourself" television and radio tube-testing service has been installed in six retail stores in the Plymouth area by West Bros. Appliances. According to owner Earl West, the handy innovation will allow persons having radio or television trouble to take the tubes from his set and check them at a nearby store. New tubes will be available at each store to replace the old ones.

"We believe customers can save the cost of a service call and also get prompt service in the early evening by visiting one of these nearby service centers," West said. The stores having the tube-testing service are: Beyer Rexall Drug (Forest Avenue store), Community Pharmacy, Dennis Grocery, Delys Market, McAllister Bros. Grocery and Atchinson Service in Northville.

LETTERBOX

Thank You

Mr. Sterling Eaton, Editor The Plymouth Mail Dear Mr. Eaton: Your interest in the health and welfare of our community as evidenced by your generous support of the March of Dimes has been an important factor in the success of the 1956 campaign.

The public service The Plymouth Mail renders to its readers is far reaching in its results. The fight against polio is not over in spite of the encouraging victory we have won through research so far. By giving the facts to your public on every phase of the fight against polio you have brought the day nearer when that dread disease will be a thing of the past.

As yet we do not have the final figures on the campaign but, as always, we shall let you know as soon as possible.

Again our warmest thanks and all good wishes for continued prosperity.

Sincerely, Charles L. Gehringer Campaign Director

To The Editor Plymouth Mail The Plymouth Branch of the American Cancer Society wishes to thank the Girl Scouts of Plymouth under the direction of Mrs. Clifford Tillotson and the people who so generously contributed white goods to make "The Material for Cancer Dressings" drive such a success.

This writer believes this is an opportune time to thank the Plymouth Mail and its staff for their wonderful job on publicity, not only now, but in the past. Without their help no drive or project can be a success and they have certainly been behind us 100%. We also want to thank those who moved the material from the Memorial center to the Cancer society offices.

We of the ACS wish to extend an open invitation to the people of Plymouth to visit our center at 821 Penniman to see the work that is being done in the never-ending battle against cancer. Volunteer workers are always needed in this work. If you can spare even an hour of your busy week, it will be greatly appreciated. We can lick this enemy if we learn the facts and do our bit to help.

Plymouth Branch American Cancer Society Mrs. Roy Wheeler and Mrs. Eunice left Monday for Tampa, Florida, where they will visit Mrs. Wheeler's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Griffin.

One of the two teams who participated in the opening day of the Legion's State Bowling tournament at Bay City on February 25 and 26, placed in ninth position for the initial standings. The auxiliary is making the arrangements for the supper. It is our hope that both the department commander and president will accept the invitations to attend which have been forwarded to them. Circle this date on your calendar and make your plans now to attend this function.

Caution Ice Fisherman To Be Neat, Tidy

Ice fishermen were cautioned this week against causing summertime accidents.

The warning may be confusing at first glance, but winter carelessness often leads to injuries on bathing beaches later in the year.

Bottles, cans and other refuse left on ice-covered lakes now can create hazards during the summer months. Ice movements and water action deposit debris at or near lake shorelines.

Bottles which sink into deep water are moved along the lake bottom by water action and find their way to beach areas after the ice has melted.

"Litterbug" activities can be costly for the guilty person. One such offender recently was assessed $14.80 in fines and costs in a Kalamazoo justice court for leaving broken bottles on an ice-covered lake.

Evans Products Purchases West Coast Hardboard Firm

E. S. Evans, Jr., president of Evans Products company, announced today that arrangements have been completed to acquire control of the business of Chapman Manufacturing Co., Inc. of Corvallis, Oregon. The Chapman company is a manufacturer of hardboard sold throughout the country.

A new corporation has been organized, controlling interest of which is owned by Evans Products company and the balance of which is owned by a syndicate headed by Fred C. Dally of Chicago, Illinois. This new corporation holds the contract for the acquisition of the assets and business of Chapman Manufacturing Co., Inc., subject to certain liabilities. Upon completion of the acquisition, which is expected to be consummated in about three weeks, the business will be conducted under the same name. No change in present personnel or management is contemplated, according to Evans.

Sales of the hardboard will be under the direction of W. J. Ritchie, vice president of Evans, who is in charge of sales of Evans complete line of wood products which includes fir plywood, battery separators, and lumber.

In announcing the acquisition, Evans said, "we have long been interested in the more efficient utilization of wood. Our wood products laboratory at Coos Bay has been conducting research tests on the uses of wood residue for several years. Last year Evans introduced the Evante battery separator, which, like hardboard, is also made from wood residue." Wood residue for the production of hardboard will be obtained from Evans' other west coast mills, as well as from outside plants.

The acquisition of the Corvallis plant adds control of another plant to the four the company now owns and operates on the west coast. Evans opened two other wood product plants in 1955, one at Gold Beach, Oregon and another at Vancouver, B. C. Its plywood plant at Roseburg, Oregon, began operations in 1953. Evans factory at Coos Bay, Oregon has been in operation for over 15 years. A sixth plant here in Plymouth where the executive offices of the company are located.

Besides wood products, Evans manufacturers railroad loading equipment, truck and bus heaters, aircraft engine parts and bicycles and velocipedes.

Mrs. Lloyd England and daughter, Gerry, of Sunset avenue entertained at a mother-daughter tea on Saturday of last week. Guests included Mrs. Bernard Curtis and daughter Marilee; Mrs. James Gretzinger and daughter, Mary Jane; Mrs. Walter Packer and daughter, Pamela.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Goddard of Beck road have just returned from two weeks spent in Georgia and Florida.

Federal Government To Share Woodlot Costs

Farmers can get up to 75 per cent of the cost of improving their woodlots under the Agricultural Conservation program.

Raymond Locher, Lansing, an ACP specialist, said that a farmer can get federal help for shrub planting, forestry improvements including pruning, thinning and protection of desirable trees—and fencing. But not every county will have these cost-sharing features, Locher indicated. The local Agricultural Conservation and Stabilization office can give details.

Mrs. Martin Kreeger of Butwell street was guest of honor at two stork showers recently. PLYMOUTH HIGH SCHOOL journalism classes toured The Plymouth Mail office and plant last week to see first-hand how a weekly newspaper is produced. The 25 students are from grades nine through 12 and are taught by Miss Elizabeth McDonald. They are pictured here studying the complex Linotype machine operated by Eugene Dallas while Sam Stephens, left, explains.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

Americanism Chairman Catherine Cline announces that information is in the high school concerning the rules and prizes for the annual essay contest sponsored by our V. F. W. auxiliary. Pupils are asked to prepare and submit an essay on the subject, "AMERICA, BEACON OF HOPE" the essay to be not more than 1,000 words. Deadline date for entries is March 15 and all essays will be judged on subject matter, organization and correct usage. For further information, call Chairman Catherine Cline, or the high school principal, Carvel Bentley.

Also underway, is the poster contest open to grade school pupils, under the direction of our Youth Activities Chairman Jean Olson and her committee. This subject will be "Safety, and What it Means to Me." Deadline will be announced at a later date, but should be sometime in April. Cash prizes will be awarded and we hope to see many students taking an interest in the contest. Don't forget about the Post Fish Fry this Friday, March 9 from 5:30 to 7 p.m. at the Post Hall. We are anxious to make a success from these dinners, so we urge all our friends and members to join us. Men In Service

Private First Class Douglas Howard Green, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard C. Green of 9465 Ball street, Plymouth was graduated Friday, March 2, from the radar repair course, Radar division of the Signal school at Signal Corps headquarters, Fort Monmouth, New Jersey.

Green, his wife Rosaine and seven-month-old son, Douglas, are temporarily residing at 99 Branchport avenue, Long Branch, New Jersey. Their permanent home is 3312 Polk avenue, Dearborn, Michigan.

The 22-year-old signalman graduated from Michigan State university in June 1954 and entered the military service in March 1955.

Graduates of the Signal School Radar division are skilled in the installation, maintenance and repair of radar, AAA director and electronic fire-control equipment under combat conditions. This 33-week course is one of the most highly specialized phases of Signal Corps training.

Green will be reassigned to utilize his training with the Army Field Forces.

Mrs. Mayme Staats, who has been the guest of her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pint of Schoolcraft road, for the past two weeks, returned Wednesday to her home in Des Moines, Iowa.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Finlan are vacationing in Florida for a few weeks.

Urge Hunters Return Season Report Cards

Small game hunters are urged to mail their season report cards to the Conservation Department's Lansing offices. The green report cards were issued to hunters when they purchase licenses.

This year, report cards were not issued with deer hunting licenses. Instead, special post cards have been mailed out to more than 10,000 deer hunters who are asked to take part in a hunting information survey.

Special survey cards also are being mailed out this month to obtain other information, including 4500 on the small game season, 2300 on archery deer, 200 on camp deer and 1200 in a special opinion poll.

Grange Cleanings

We had a fine meeting on March first. A wonderful supper as usual. Our worthy master had a rather novel plan which he proceeded to try out, filling all the officers chairs with substitutes from among the "rank and file." It worked splendidly, too, and was enjoyed by everybody. Milly and Charlie put on a game that was a lot of fun. Lloyd Fillmore showed two reels of very lovely colored pictures. A very good attendance. Two new members.

Our next meeting on March 15 is to be of special interest, as Scio grange is coming to visit us and will put on their play which is very funny so don't miss it. Come and show our sister Grange that we appreciate their coming.

Of course you all know that it is Blue Cross time again during the last week of March. Please pay your Blue Cross promptly and by check if it is possible. Do not worry about all the things we read in the papers about the Blue Cross. Everything will be straightened out and be all right. It is certain that even at its worst, Blue Cross is a tremendous help and a matter to be thankful for. You may pay your dues at the March 15 meet-

This guy isn't as worried about the picture as he seems to be. I found out later he'd stuck his payroll in that drawer and when I popped out he started worrying but fast! I didn't even know it was there and here I'd been sitting on it for two hours! He'll probably change his hiding place now and he should! The next guy that climbs into his desk drawer might not be as honest as I am—or so dumb! I keep reminding myself to remind you folks that the boss and me are so interested in photography we like to shoot the breeze about it. If you do too, come on in and shoot. You don't have to buy anything. Just see if you can top our tall stories.

See you next week, SNAPPER

Promotions Made At Burroughs

Two Plymouth residents, Charles Mufford and Clarence Holman have been appointed foreman at the Burroughs corporation's Plymouth division, it was announced by Robert A. Niemi, general manager.

Mufford, who resides at 124 North Holbrook, is beginning his 30th year with Burroughs. He joined the Detroit Plant in 1926, as a crew machine operator. In 1937, he was made job setter in the screw machine department, a job he held until transferring to the Plymouth Division in 1949.

As the Korean war moved into its second year, Mufford was assigned to defense work and in the latter part of 1951, was promoted to assistant foreman on the night shift. Prior to his new appointment, he served as assistant foreman of the hand screw machine department (nights) and the miscellaneous machine operations department for defense work.

Holman, who lives at 204 Jay street, has spent his entire Burroughs career in the Plymouth Division. In 1946, he became a bench inspector in the inspection department. Before assuming his present position, he was a quality control leader and a quality control systems man in the quality control department.

Who's New in Plymouth

Sightless Man 'Reads' 200 Books Since '49

Charles H. LeFevre, Sr., 124 High street, Northville, estimated recently that he has "read" better than 200 books in his spare time since July, 1949, for an average of more than 30 a year over that span.

Two hundred books in six and one-half years is heavy reading for any normal person, but in LeFevre's case this accomplishment is even more impressive.

For he is totally without sight. A victim of glaucoma, a condition of the eye marked by the hardening of the eyeball, the 76-year-old Northville resident was deprived of the use of his left eye in 1944 and became completely blind when the impairment destroyed his right eye in 1949.

Yet still he has been able to read a history of both the Revolutionary and Civil wars, and countless other books, novels and stories including the Reader's Digest each month and "Gone with the Wind" twice.

He does so, not through the cumbersome use of Braille, but rather via a service offered by the Department of the Blind of the Wayne county library. The service, known as "Talking Books," has been in operation since 1934 and was developed by the American Foundation for the Blind of New York.

It has since grown to be a national arrangement, whereby the Library of Congress supplies books and equipment which are in turn distributed by local agencies throughout the country. One such distributing agency is the Wayne county library headquarters in Detroit, together with its many branch libraries, two of which are in Plymouth and Northville.

The Talking Book reading machine service consists of providing visually handicapped adults with a portable electric player and long-playing records on which books have been professionally recorded. The records are 12-inch ones with 15 minutes of reading contained on each side. The portable player is given on an indefinite loan basis.

The service is available to any adult whose vision is impaired to such an extent that he is unable to read ink-print. There is no charge for the service. Records are sent back and forth from library to reader in fiber cases, postage free. The machines are repaired without cost to the user.

There are some 2200 titles in the collection and a printed catalog of these selections is available to users. The collection is well-balanced, including fiction, travel, biography, history, mysteries, westerns and the Reader's Digest. The Bible is available on 169 records. No music records are handled.

Returning to LeFevre, who is one of many local patrons of the service, the advantages of the project are easily recognized. LeFevre, despite his handicap, is cheerful and pleasant, not outwardly bowed by his impairment. He enjoys letting his reading pile up for the winter months, when baseball is no longer on the radio.

Then he relaxes with his player and records and "reads" prolifically. The week prior to The Mail's interview, he had listened to 46 records comprising four stories and more than 11 hours of listening time.

LeFevre, a widower, lives with a son, Clifford, while two other sons, Charles, Jr., and Lawrence, also live near him in Northville. Well known in both the Plymouth and Northville areas, he worked 41 years as a butcher before he was stricken.

The player machine he now is using is his fourth. LeFevre, with acute perception known only to those who rely entirely on their hearing, has recognized his present player as the same one he had as his second.

Another Northvilleite, also well known in Plymouth, plays a large part in LeFevre's life. She is Mrs. Harry F. Wagenschutz, 341 Beal street, Northville, who, as a girl, made purchases for her mother at LeFevre's meat counter. Mrs. Wagenschutz is a member of the five-person Wayne county library board, which operates all Wayne county libraries, save for those few libraries which are privately run.

She visits LaFevre often to bring him news of the "Talking book world" and to keep him informed on the Wayne county library Blind Department services.

Mrs. Wagenschutz explained that visually handicapped individuals who wish to take advantage of the Talking Book project may obtain further information by calling TEmple 1-6910 or writing to the Department for the Blind, 3681 Trumbull avenue, Detroit 8. This department provides Wayne county and the Detroit Metropolitan area with both the Talking Book service and Braille books. The rest of the State of Michigan is provided with identical service by the State Library for the Blind at Saginaw.

ALTHOUGH totally blind, Charles LeFevre of Northville, has been able to "read" more than 200 books since he was stricken with his handicap in July, 1949. He does so through the use of the Wayne county library's Talking Book service. Pictured with him here at his record player, on which he plays the recorded books, is Mrs. Harry Wagenschutz, also of Northville, who is a member of the Wayne county library board.

Heart Scientists Seek Answers to 3 Problems

Since 1949, more than 13,000,000 dollars have been channeled into research throughout America looking toward the prevention and control of diseases of the heart and circulation. The Michigan Heart Association, through funds received from the Michigan United Fund and from Memorial Contributions, has expanded over $600,000.00 for local cardiovascular research projects conducted in Michigan institutions. Because heart disease is our biggest public health problem it is important that we take stock of the research objectives that are involved.

Answers to many hundreds of questions are being sought. Most of them are highly complex. One group of scientists, for example, seeks to discover new knowledge about contraction of the heart muscle; another, to find basic facts about the nature of blood clotting. Yet another is investigating the role of the glands in maintaining blood pressure. Such a list could be extended greatly. But behind all this tremendous research activity stand three supremely important, still-unanswered questions. They are:

1. What causes the arteries to become thickened, roughened and narrowed (arteriosclerosis) interfering with blood flow and nourishment of the tissues?
2. What are the exact mechanisms responsible for the abnormal constriction of the smallest arteries leading to high blood pressure (hypertension)?
3. What are the exact mechanisms through which strep infection leads to rheumatic fever, and consequently to rheumatic heart disease?

To put this in the simplest possible terms, research scientists want to find the basic and underlying causes of disorders commonly known to laymen as hardening of the arteries, high blood pressure and rheumatic fever. These three conditions are responsible for more than 90 per cent of all heart disease. Once the causes are found, the chances of discovering cures or controls will be increased immeasurably. The importance of these studies to millions of Americans—living and yet unborn—is suggested by figures which show that nearly 800,000 persons die each year from diseases of the heart and blood vessels, and more than 10,000,000 are affected by them in this country alone. In other words, heart and circulatory diseases are responsible for more than 52 per cent of all deaths. They affect about 1 out of 16 persons. They constitute the nation's No. 1 health problem by a significant margin.

Heart disease is not a remote and abstract health problem; instead, it is one which exists as a real potential threat to every family and individual. Nor is heart disease an exclusive liability of old age. If we consider only deaths of persons under 65, we still find that mortality from heart disease exceeds that of the next five leading causes combined.

That is why research support gets top priority in the Heart program.

The public has every reason to be optimistic. No medical problem is necessarily beyond solution, and today the greatest research attack in medical history is working to discover causes and develop cures for the heart diseases. Many brilliant advances in prevention, treatment and surgery have been scored. A great many exceptionally promising clues have been unearthed and are being intensively pursued.

Yet research alone does not afford a full answer. Your Heart Association also concerns itself with applications of the fruits of research. It supports programs of professional education, making possible the speedy and accurate transmission of the newest research findings to your doctor. It also supports programs of public education designed to eliminate needless fears and to encourage early diagnosis.

Finally, your Heart Association supports an ever-broadening plan of community heart programs intended to help heart disease sufferers to continue as useful and productive members of human society.

Thus, there is in progress a planned, coordinated, three-way attack on the heart diseases carried on and spearheaded in Michigan by your Michigan Heart Association.

German Lectures On Healing at 8th Science Church

Application of God's healing power to the solution of the problems of men and nations will be the topic of a public lecture on Christian Science, to be delivered at Eighth Church of Christ, Scientist, 20011 Grand River, Detroit, on Monday, March 19, by Friedrich Preller of Berlin-Dahlem, Germany.

On an extensive tour as a member of the Christian Science Board of Lectureship, Preller will speak at 8 p.m. on the subject "Christian Science: Its Healing Message for Men and Nations." The lecture is free, and the local members have invited the public to attend.
A native of Silesia, Germany, Preller became interested in Christian Science in 1918, and received a healing of hip disease that had resulted from a boyhood accident. An authorized teacher of Christian Science, he has devoted his full time for many years to the practice of Christian Science healing and to the service of the Christian Science organization.

Investing in good stocks is wise for the man who (1) can forget his money for a number of years, if necessary and who (2) will not get in a position where he must have that money immediately.

Students Take Burmese Viewpoint for Model U. N.

Four Plymouth high school students, John Small, Ray Spigarelli, John Vos and Charles Westover, members of Miss Gertrude Fiegel's government and history classes will represent Burma while attending the Seventh Annual Model United Nations assembly for High Schools at Hillsdale college, Hillsdale, Michigan on Friday and Saturday, March 23 and 24.

NEWS SCHOOL

As spring nears the senior class begins many of its varied activities, including the prom, mixers, assemblies, and graduation announcements.

Gail Foreman and Richard Morrison, co-chairmen of this year's annual senior prom, "Enchantment in Pastels" are busily making arrangements for the memorable affair, to be held on Saturday night, April 28, from 8:30 to 12 p.m. The Bob-o-links, under the direction of Bob Richardson, will provide the entertainment.

Seniors were unable to have a senior mixer recently because the facilities needed for the senior activity were already in use. A mixer will be held in the near future when such space will be available.

As part of the closing of the school year, each senior class is given an opportunity to present a Senior-Farewell assembly. The assembly committee chairman, Jan Ponto, announced that this year's assembly will be presented May 28.

Graduation announcements were recently ordered from the offices of the Plymouth Mail for those seniors interested. The material consisted of name cards and formal announcements.

The senior trip plans have been completed recently and all are awaiting May 30, of this year, to begin this activity. Approximately 105 seniors have deposited a $5 down-payment with the understanding that they will be on the roster for the trip.

New Arrivals in the School Library

Most of the new books recently received by the Plymouth high school library were true adventure stories and dramatic novels.

In the former class there is "The Lure of Danger," tales of adventure compiled and edited by Margaret C. Scoggin. These are stories concerning men of our day who made danger their business and came back to write of the adventures into which their jobs took them. These heroes are men who dared the pressure of the ocean depths to raise sunken gold or who walked the ocean floor to rescue trapped submarine sailors.

"The Keys of the Kingdom" by A. J. Cronin, author of such novels as "Hatters Castle" and "The Citadel," is the life story of a man to be long-remembered. "The Keys of the Kingdom" holds the interest of its reader through dramatic scenes for which Dr. Cronin is famous, and the story of its chief character, Francis Chisholm, a Scottish priest. Many other people through this novel Chisholm's relatives, the girl he loved as a boy, the nuns who helped him at his mission, priests, and officers. To thousands of readers, regardless of creed or faith, this Scottish priest, hater of cant and lover of his fellow man, is a truly great human being.

Assemblies to Mark St. Pat's Day, Easter

The assembly committee of Plymouth high school is currently at work on future plans with a St. Patrick's Day and Easter observance in the near offing. Senior representatives are Chuck Moiso, Carol Partridge, Jan Ponto, and Pat Clifford; junior representatives, Chuck Westover and Kay Porter; and sophomore and freshmen representatives, Ann Hulsing and Karen Lent, respectively.

On February 13, a Lincoln's Birthday program was produced and presented over the public address system, by the juniors and seniors, which was narrated by Jan Ponto. On February 22, the freshmen and sophomores presented a program over the P. A. commemorating the birthday of George Washington. Shug Watson was the narrator of their presentation.

Local Y-Teens, Hi-Y Plan Lenten Service

Y-Teens of Plymouth high school, a branch of the Y.W.C.A., is planning a Lenten service to be held in the latter part of the month with the Hi-Y club. Eileen Wilton, devotions chairman, assisted by Hospital Chairman, Theresa Carpenter, are in charge of the event.

Last week Y-Teens held their annual "Date with Father," with Kay Sempliner, co-chairman of the meeting, a potluck dinner, followed by games and songs was featured. Planning the party were Karla Herbold and Judy Elliot, co-chairmen.

Jane Hardimon and Betty Worth recently represented the club at the annual Y-Teen conference held in Battle Creek. Delegates from all over Michigan gathered to discuss new ideas for club activities.

The assembly is being sponsored by the Hillsdale International club, Hillsdale Rotary club and other Rotary clubs of Michigan. The Plymouth representatives will represent the views of the agenda presented by United Nations leaders and the country of Burma as well.

Registration for the model assembly will be Friday morning, March 23. The first plenary session of the assembly will take place in the College church where assembly members will elect officers, president, chairmen of committees and "rapporteurs." At the general session, debates will take place similar to those of the United Nations. Later in this same day "international representatives" will go to committee meetings to discuss topics, using the view point of their respective countries.

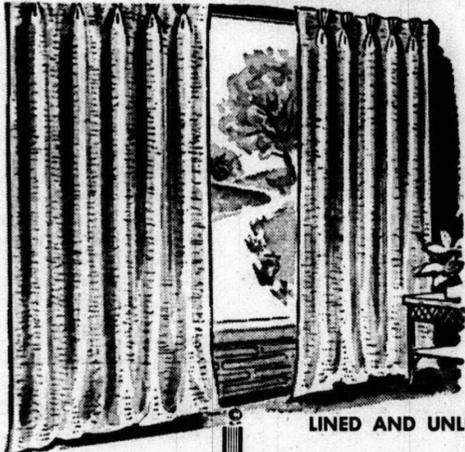

The topics of discussion will include disarmament, the admission of Japan and China, the Middle-East problem, the Algerian, Moroccan and Israeli situations, status of the territory of South West Africa, and the Togoland problem.

John Small will represent Burma at the Political and Security committee, discussing problems of disarmament and membership of China and Japan; Ray Spigarelli will attend the Ad Hoc Political committee where the questions of Algeria, Morocco, Middle East and Israel will be discussed; and Charles Westover will participate in the Trusteeship committee dealing with the problems of the territory of South West Africa and the Togoland proposals. John Vos will serve as alternate.

The quartet meets each Wednesday after school discussing the above mentioned problems and deciding how Burma should stand on these world situations.

Swimmers Close Season With Easy Win over Ypsi

The Plymouth high tankers brought their 1955-56 dual-meet swimming season to a highly successful ending last Thursday evening by trouncing visiting Ypsilanti 63-23 here.

The locals, under the leadership of Coach John McFall concluded their current competition with the victory over Ypsilanti to wind up with a final nine-win and three-loss record.

The only setbacks the Rocks suffered were to Lincoln Park, Birmingham and Ann Arbor.

The fact that there were no seniors on this year's squad was no handicap to the Plymouth crew throughout the now-ended campaign. It also is indicative of what is to be expected next year. Over the course of the battling since December, the locals smashed with ease previous pool and team records by large margins, continually showing decisive improvement over previous squads and leaving the scene for the nonce with top exceptions for the 1956-57 year.

Captain Bill Brandell of the Rocks had a power-packed season as he cracked the former 200 yard freestyle records, breaking his own marks several times, and ending up with the new pool and team record of 2:02, which was set in the Ypsi meet. Jack Taylor followed Brandell for second in this event with a time of 2:14 while John Siefker (Y) picked up a third.

The initial event of Ypsilanti meet, the 50 yard freestyle, saw Don Carney of Plymouth hit the finish line with a winning time of 25.6 for a first and five points. Succeeding Carney was John Williams with a 26.3, while Jim Mikesell picked up third place honors for the losers. The only first to be captured by the Rocks' guest came in the 100 yard breaststroke at which time Tom Scovill picked up a first place with a time of 1:12.7, while Bob Isbester and Bill Tonkovich placed second and third respectively for Plymouth.

Other firsts to be captured by Plymouth in this meet were as follows: John Gregory, winning time of 1:05.7 in the 100 yard backstroke, Gary Wright, captured a first in the 100 yard freestyle with the time of 55.8, and a first in the 150 yard individual medley relay with the time of 2:02. John Walker of Plymouth took the diving event for the locals as Art Losse did not compete for points.

11 Local Tankers In State Contest

Eleven members of Plymouth's highly successful 1955-56 varsity swimming team will journey to Ann Arbor March 9 and 10 to participate in the state class "A" tank meet which will be held in the University of Michigan Intramural building.

The Rocks will place entries in nine events in the battle, winner of which will be the top-ranked "A" swim squad in Michigan. Accompanying the locals on the quest for post-season honors will be Swimming Coach John McFall.

In order for high school tankers to gain a position in this state meet it is necessary for them to swim their respective events in certain qualifying times during the season. In the case of divers a first-place finish must be recorded during dual-meet competition.

Plymouth's entries in the state meet are: Bill Brandell in the 400-yard freestyle and 200-yard freestyle; Arthur Losse and John Walker in the diving; Don Carney in the 50-yard freestyle; Mike Todd in the 100-yard breaststroke; Gary Wright and Jack Taylor in the 200-yard freestyle.

Dennis Baker in the 150-yard freestyle; John Gregory, Mike Todd, Dick Showers and John Williams in the 200-yard medley relay; and Gary Wright, Dennis Baker, John Williams and Don Carney in the 200-yard freestyle relay.

The behavior of Americans abroad is not all that it should be, and too often the complaint is vocal volume and braggadocio.

Ferguson Earns Second Team All-League Berth

The Plymouth Rocks failed to place a single cager on the official Suburban Six All-League basketball first team which, along with the second team and honorable mention awards, was released last week by the circuit's half-dozen varsity coaches.

However the locals' Tom Ferguson earned a berth as center on the second string All-League squad and three other Rocks, Ken Calhoun, Dick Davidson and Jack Carter, won honorable mentions.

Livonia-Bentley, league champ this year with an 8-2 card and Redford Union dominated the top ranked quintet, each school gaining two positions on the loop's theoretical best team. Trenton had one player on the first five, and Redford Union wound up the conference battling tied for second with identical 7-3 showings. Plymouth closed with a 4-6 record.

Cagers Face Ypsilanti In Regionals Tuesday

The Rocks' opening round opponent in the class "A" regional basketball tournament will be Ypsilanti on Tuesday evening, March 13, at 6 p.m., as determined by game pairings made last Thursday in Ypsilanti. The tournament will be held in the new Michigan State Normal college field house in Ypsi.

Bentley high school, Suburban Six league champ this year, drew bye in the first round of action. Other games that same evening will feature Monroe against Wayne at 7:30 p.m. and Ann Arbor battling Jackson at 9 p.m.

In the second round of play Bentley will face the winner of the Plymouth-Ypsilanti contest at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 15, and the victor of the Monroe-Wayne match will meet the winner of the Ann Arbor-Jackson pairing at 8:30 p.m. that same night.

Final round of this regional action will be held Saturday, March 17, at 9 p.m. At that time the remaining two cage quintets will square off to decide the regional crown.

All tickets will be sold at the door.

Lakers Hand Rocks Seventh Loss, 70 - 60

Apparently in one of their worst losing skids of recent years, the Plymouth high school varsity cagers suffered their third defeat in a row Friday night, this one to Walled Lake, 70-60.

It was the Rocks fourth setback in their last five games and doomed them to a less than .500 season record. They stand presently at 5-7 for the campaign's work with one contest left, that with Wayne here tomorrow.

The locals were tagged with the loss in the fourth period of play but it was not a collapse that brought on the defeat. Rather the Rocks simply were unable to match the Lakers high-scoring final thrust. In the closing eight minutes Plymouth dunked in 16 points, a seemingly sufficient offensive burst.

But Walled Lake at the same time was pouring home 26 points so easily squelch the Rocks' hopes. Prior to the onset of the fourth frame both teams were leadlocked at 44-44.

Plymouth Cage Coach Charlie Ketterer commented that his players did a good job in the first half but were unable to keep up with the hustling Lakers over the span of the last half. The locals, after trailing 15-16 at the end of the first stanza, moved into a slender two-point 31-29 halftime margin thereby setting the stage for Walled Lake's rally in the second 16 minutes which decided the tilt.

Additional road-blocks in Plymouth's path Friday evening were thrown up when starting center Tom Ferguson quickly drew three personal fouls in the first period and then fouled out of the battle early in the second half. Jerry Steele, who replaced Ferguson also fouled out and Biff Tait filled in during the remainder of the game.

Plymouth's centers were able to score only 10 points from that position over the course of the contest.

Pacing the local scoring attack was Dick Davidson, who dunked in 10 field goals and four free

Tripp, Bathey Try Recreation Cage Tournament Play

Although the regular recreation basketball season ended officially three weeks ago here, two teams from the local four-member recreation conference are staying off their respective closings of the 1955-56 campaign.

The two are Geo. Tripp and Bathey Mfg., both of whom are entered in post-season tournaments which could bring them further cage honors.

The Tripp quintet earned the local recreation crown by virtue of a 16-2 showing. Consequently the Trippers, as league champs, automatically gained a position in the Michigan class "B" recreation tournament which will be held in Adrian March 17 and 18.

However Tripp may be engaged in battle prior to these dates. If more than eight teams, the limit allowed, enter the state battling, an elimination play-off may be staged to slice the total of teams to the required eight. This elimination action may be on the Plymouth court with the Trippers and an entry from Wayne involved.

Bathey finished the regular season tied with Tait's for second place with an 8-10 card. Then Bathey captured honors in a local season-end tourney here which determined who would represent this conference in the Inter-City recreation basketball battling to be held this week in Highland Park. Bathey ousted both Tait's and Brader with three straight victories.

Now Bathey will face a team from Waterford in the first round of action in the Inter-City tourney. The game will be held at Hackett Field House, Third and Pitken avenues, Highland Park, at 9 p.m. tonight. Other teams in Bathey's bracket include Dearborn and River Rouge. The winner from this bracket will play the winner of a higher bracket March 12 at 7:30 p.m.

The voting machine is much more complicated than its simplicity of operation indicates. Each machine is comprised of 28,000 parts.

Bathey Corners Recreation Play-off Basketball Honors

Local post-season recreation basketball honors were cornered last week by Bathey's cagers when they ousted a die-hard Tait's Cleaners crew Thursday by a 50-46 tally. Tait's wound up second in the year-end tourney while Brader finished last.

Bathey lay idle Tuesday, February 28, as Tait's administered last rites to Brader, 66-62, to make that much easier the job the Bathey quintet faced. Earlier Bathey had reeled off victories over both Tait's and Brader to accomplish one-half the work in the two-game defeat elimination tournament.

Tait's Ko'd Brader Tuesday and then was handed its own walking papers Thursday by the determined Bathey five, who finished the regular campaign in a tie for second place with Tait's.

As a result the Bathey quintet journeys this week to Hackett Field House in Highland Park to compete in the inter-city recreation cage battling there. Last week The Mail erroneously reported that league-champion Geo. Tripp was also entered in the Plymouth post-season tourney. In correction Tripp's cagers were automatically placed in the state class "B" play-off March 17 and 18 by virtue of their crown.

Tait's 66-62 elimination victory over the Brader team only earned the Cleaners a brief reprieve last week on Tuesday. Big noise for Tait's in winning was the 49-point scoring spree executed by the combined efforts of Bob Bruce and Bud Nedry. Bruce alone totaled 28 counters on nine field goals and 10 free tosses. Nedry posted five buckets and added 11 out of 12 charity throws.

Tait's opened slowly and trailed 13-16 at the end of the first quarter. But paced by Bruce's 12 points in the second frame Tait's claimed a 36-29 halftime margin and widened it to 52-44 at the start of the final period.

Brader had ample opportunity to overhaul the eventual victors when Don McIlmurray drew a two-shot foul with 13 seconds remaining in the game. But he missed them both and Tait's gathered in the rebound. Tait's Pat Robinson was fouled and cashed a free toss to give his squad a two-point edge. Then Nedry was fouled and dunked in both his charity tosses to bring the score to its final mark.

On Thursday Tait's ran headlong into the Bathey squad, who with two wins and no defeats had taken an early lead in the local post-season tourney. Tait's brought along its one-win and one-loss record and was promptly ousted by the Bathey crew.

Tait's drafted the services of lofty Phil Straub, a teammate from earlier in the year, in an attempt to ward off the Bathey offense. Even with Straub's added height under the boards, Tait's was inept at controlling the ball and handling rebounds.

However Tait's did reach a 15-13 first-quarter lead and held a 26-23 halftime command before Bathey collected its offense and started to roll. Dwight Eckler's 14 point contribution in the third and fourth frames gave the Bathey five sufficient punch to stave off the hopeful Tait's quintet. Dick Day added eight over the same span to help the winners.

It was the third quarter that told the story when Bathey pumped 17 points to Tait's meager total of nine.

High-point men on the Bathey Day with 14. Tait's was paced squad were Eckler with 20 and by Nedry with 17 and Bruce and Robinson each with 10.

WITH PLYMOUTHITES IN THE SERVICE

Residents Home On 14-Day Leave

Two Plymouthites were home this week on 14-day leave following completion of nine-weeks of Navy recruit training at Great Lakes, Illinois.

They are William C. Hartmann, Jr., whose parents reside at 383 Blunk, and James H. Stevens, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Stevens, 998 Church street.

Hartmann, a fireman apprentice, is a graduate of Plymouth high school, class of 1952, and General Motors institute in Flint. He will report to the USS General W. A. Mann in San Francisco, California on March 10.

Stevens graduated from Plymouth high school in 1951 and from Michigan State Normal college, in Ypsilanti, in 1955. A seaman apprentice, Stevens is scheduled to report March 9 to the USS Colonial on Coronado Island, San Diego, California where he will serve in personnel work.

Registration Closes Monday for Work Simplification Course for Women

Next Monday is the last day for Plymouth homemakers to register for the free classes in work-simplification being offered at the Salvation Army Citadel by the Michigan Heart association.

So far, there have been nine women registering for the course at the Adult Education department at Plymouth high school. Registration for the free course can be completed by phoning the department at 895, Extension 4.

The first class of the series will start next Tuesday. Meetings will last from 1:30 to 3:30 p.m.

Any homemaker may enroll in the program although women with an ailment of the heart or blood vessels, hypertension, hardening of the arteries, coronary heart, rheumatic heart, varicose veins, etc., will be admitted to the classes first.

The classes are being made possible by the Michigan Heart association through funds received from the United Foundation Torch drive and Plymouth Community Fund. Homemakers are given free instructions in practical ways of making their house-keeping simpler and easier by eliminating unnecessary steps and wasted energy in the preparation and cooking of meals, washing and ironing, bed making and other household duties.

"Buying expensive appliances for the home is nice," explains Mrs. Hannah Pretzer, instructor for the course and a member of the Wayne university home economics department, "but everyone cannot afford them. We emphasize the little things which will conserve a homemaker's time and energy. Sometimes a small rack which costs 29 cents can save a lot of steps." Mrs. Pretzer stated, "or the addition of a shelf that can be made for almost nothing saves a tremendous amount of reaching and bending."

By simply reorganizing kitchen utensils and equipment into efficient work centers one homemaker who attended the "Heart of the Home" classes was able to learn how to save as much as 67 miles of walking per year in preparation of just one meal per day.

Each homemaker will attend four two-hour lecture-demonstration classes which will be held March 13, 20, 23 and 27.

The program is endorsed by the Wayne County Medical Society and doctors of medicine are urged to refer their cardiac patients to the classes.

The parachutist was dangling rather forlornly from a big oak tree.
"I was trying to make a record," he shouted to the farmer below.
"Reckon you did it, stranger," observed the farmer. "You'll be the fust man in these parts to climb down a tree withouten he clumb up fust."

Have you been out shopping for your new Easter wardrobe and found you have gone from a size 14 to 16 or 18? We have just the solution to your problem. A national organization called TOPS (Take off Pounds Sensibly) meets every Monday evening in the multi-purpose room of the Rosedale Gardens Elementary school from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. This organization is open to all women in Livonia and the Livonia branch is called Slenderettes. We understand that many women that belong are not necessarily overweight but are taking precautions not to start gaining. Every Monday when you arrive you are weighed and for every pound you have gained that week you have to contribute 5c to the kitty. If you have lost a pound or two you receive a small prize. Just the knowledge that someone else is keeping track of your weight will help you to say no to those desserts and that second helping of potatoes.

Chips from the Rock

If you don't think the newsprint situation is rough read this: If it hadn't been for our good friends the Averills at the Birmingham Eccentric it's possible we couldn't have published this issue in its entirety this week. Their loan of three rolls of print on Tuesday made this issue possible. Truly we are grateful.

First real sign of spring... Myrn Smith, president of Plymouth Finance Company checking over his 18 foot, 5,500 gallon swimming pool, to see what repairs it will need before setting it up again in his beautiful back yard.

Sometimes you wonder if anyone ever reads the material you send back home when on a vacation trip. Proof one person did was when Judge J. Rusling Cutler told us he enjoyed the nicest free vacation trip with us this year, via our column. After he pointed out that a five dollar bill hardly bought hamburgers for his family to lunch on, if on a trip, he said they let us pay the bills and they read about the people and things we saw at no expense to them what-so-ever.

Plymouthites can be warned now to be on the look-out for a real Indian encampment in the center of our town this summer, along with live buffalo roaming Kellogg park if Rotary's present plans to raise funds jell beyond the early talking point. Money so raised will be used to pay the local club's pledge of $15,000.00 toward the new Crippled Children's Center to be built on Middlebelt road.

There's a shopping center in the future for Plymouth, says Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay. At least he says three or four serious groups have been haunting his offices to work out many of the early details in connection with the same.

A new innovation for over-worked housewives is a foil broiling pan big enough to hold two or three steaks which, after being used, can just be thrown in the rubbish. A large box of the same arrived at our home from the Harry Lushes out in California who remembered my traveling secretary saying she had never seen anything like them before.

It took the members of the Michigan Hotel Association, assembled at the Harris Hotel in Kalamazoo, two and a half hours to consume Marine Captain McCutcheon's $64,000 dinner menu according to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lorenz who attended the affair. General Leon Harris, owner of the hotel and host to the group, went to great length to duplicate exactly the menu which won the Captain the $64,000.00. It was good, too, said the Lorenzes.

On Washington's birthday George Burr hung his big American flag out in front of his home on Sheridan street. Returning to the house he and his wife stood in the living room admiring the flag. While they were looking out the window a small boy came down the street, stopped and looked at the flag, then glanced up and down the street. When he observed no one was coming he put his hand across his chest and repeated the Pledge of Allegiance which they could plainly read on his lips. "You never can tell about these youngsters today and they surprise you with the darndest things," said Mrs. Burr.

Funny what different people bring home from vacation trips or have sent back to the old home town. In this case truck farmer Ray Grimm, down on Wayne road, had 1,100 pounds of various rocks shipped to his basement stone cutting room where for the next couple of years he will follow his hobby of cutting and polishing all kinds of precious stones.

There is a sure way to get better highways in Michigan and throughout the rest of the country. Let L. B. Rice, local Automobile Club manager, show you the newly proposed "AAA Motorist's Program for Better Highways," then write your Congressman demanding he take action to get us better roads with Federal aid whether he agrees with this particular plan or not. Your effort will surely help. The AAA plan suggests a 15 to 18 year program with an increased gas tax of a cent and one half, a boost of one cent per pound on tires and tubes all which would raise a total of 41 billion dollars over the 18 year financing period.

Washington Quiz

- Q—Is there a historical record of when the calling of the Constitutional Convention was first discussed?
- A—According to colonial historians the idea was first broached at a meeting at Washington's home at Mount Vernon where the Maryland and Virginia Commissioners met to discuss problems all trade relations between the colonial states. They sent out of interstate navigation. The meeting turned to a discussion of notices to all the states to send delegates to a convention in Annapolis in September, 1786. Only five state delegations appeared. The Annapolis meeting sent out a call for a convention in Philadelphia in May, 1787 and then adjourned.
- Q—What is the proper form for addressing a letter to the President?
- A—The address should be merely, "The President, The White House." The salutation in a letter should be either "Mr. President" or "Dear Mr. President."
- Q—Did George Washington ever live in the White House?
- A—No.
- Q—How much was George Washington paid as Commander-in-chief of the Revolutionary Army?
- A—Nothing. Only his actual expenses. He himself claimed he was "considerable loser."
- Q—Did Washington keep a record of his expenses during the war?
- A—Yes. He kept a daily record. It amounted to about $64,000 and was presented to the Comptroller at Philadelphia for payment at the end of the war. The manuscript is now on file in the Register's office in the Treasury building, and is considered one of the most interesting of the early American historical documents.
- Q—When was the budget system introduced in the Federal Government?
- A—In 1921 when the Budget and Accounting Act was passed.

The right of the people to know is basic to the preservation of our freedom, and fundamental to our American way of life. The infringement of this right, whether by government or by groups, or by individuals, no matter in what small measure it may begin, will lead to tyranny and the death of liberty.

State Legislature to Acquire Many New Faces Next Year

Vast changes in the legislative lineup already have been promised for next year, mainly in the Senate.

Retirements and quests for higher offices will make the major changes in the physical—but probably not the political—face of the Senate.

Senator Creighton R. Coleman (R-Battle Creek) majority caucus chairman, will run for Congress from the third district, Senator Cora M. Brown (D-Detroit) will seek the first district seat.

Miss Brown summed it up for herself, Coleman and others making the try for Washington: "There's so much more that can be done for the people on the Federal level."

If Miss Brown and Coleman both arrive in the House of Representatives together, they will be in position to re-enact many legislative battles on the Lansing scene.

Resignations have been decided upon by Senators Robert E. Faulkner (R-Coloma) and Clyde H. Geerlings (R-Holland).

Geerlings said he was quitting after two terms because he is "tired of being a champion of lost causes" and Faulkner, chairman of the labor committee, said his variety store business required his attention.

Gasoline prices, an issue for years, have escaped state controls proposed by Governor Williams. The plan for a "watchdog" committee with powers only to call in manufacturers and wholesalers to explain price changes increasing has been killed in committee.

Death came to the plan just 23 days after Williams made the proposal, based on an investigation conducted by Atty. General Thomas M. Kavanagh. Kavanagh urged that gasoline stations, refiners and blenders be licensed and the entire business be defined as a public utility and placed under the public service commission.

Look for more action next year on this idea, from both Republicans and Democrats.

Stronger penalties for distributors of obscene literature have been passed by the 1956 legislature, and will become effective in the spring. They will be liable for fines of up to $1,000 and jail terms of up to a year.

The stiffer penalties were a direct outgrowth of an investigation which turned up sales of obscene literature being peddled among Detroit high school students.

"But we know that the problem is statewide," said one legislator.

Dissatisfaction with the record of Rep. Donald Hayworth in Washington has created a near-panic in the sixth congressional district—Ingham, Livingston and Genesee counties. Hayworth, a Democrat, voted with Republicans on the farm orce support issue and at a dinner meeting pledged support to President Eisenhower's foreign policy "regardless of the Democratic candidate in 1956."

Democrats and union leaders who supported Hayworth in 1954 challenged his stand. Hayworth said he voted the way farmers of his district wanted him to vote on the price support issue and that he resented anyone dictating his vote on any bill.

After a flurry when reports came that Hayworth would be abandoned as the candidate in 1956, the party and labor leaders made peace with him.

A meeting to choose a new candidate in Flint was called off and Raymond H. Rappaport, of Lansing, Ingham county party chairman, said:

"There are no issues which cannot or will not be resolved with Rep. Hayworth."

Cramped for space, the legislature has passed a resolution reserving for itself the top two floors of the capitol when they are vacated.

Plans are already in the making to build a new building for the Michigan Supreme Court, now occupying the third floor.

Divisions of the Secretary of State's office, which had the fourth floor, already are moving into new quarters in other buildings.

The plan is to remodel the two floors for legislative offices, hearing rooms and other functions which have been crowded into cubbyholes on the second floor.

Do - It - Yourself Education May Reduce Teacher Costs

Babson Park, Mass. I now see no way to cut costs of operating primary or grammar schools, believe, however, that high schools and colleges will become more efficiently and economically operated. The self-service supermarket will show the way.

DO-IT YOURSELF MOVEMENT

Some educational experts are urging cities and towns to spend less on buildings, libraries, and equipment and devote more of the total allotment to teachers' salaries. This may be good politics, but it is not in the students' interest. I favor building better schools with better libraries and equipment, but having fewer teachers. Then pay better salaries to these fewer teachers.

The most vital field for a "Do-It-Yourself" campaign is that of education. A parent can buy a set of encyclopedias for $100 which contain more information than is contained in the heads of all the teachers in your community. Moreover, the training and discipline of self-education is even more valuable than all the facts that can be learned. Hence, I forecast that the next great movement in education for those above 13 years of age will be teaching students to learn without teachers. I wish that some city would put the manager of a self-service supermarket on their school boards.

WHAT DOES YOUR SCHOOL BOARD KNOW?

To begin with, you probably don't know who are on your local school board. If not, send to your superintendent of schools and ask for a list of the members and the business in which each is engaged. I wish that the number of children each has in the schools. You may be surprised to find how poorly chosen these men and women are for this work.

In too many cities, school board members are interested in getting income for themselves or friends as doctors, builders, insurance agents, bank officials, storekeepers, etc. These school committee members naturally take the advice of the Superintendent of schools who is an honest man but is guided by the colleges which determine what shall be taught and how. The superintendents and school principals are too often judged by the number of students they pass along to the colleges, and promoted accordingly. They are fine men and women; they deserve much better pay, but they have very little freedom.

WHAT IS EDUCATION?

I have just been reading reports of the recent Conference on Education held in Washington. The great demand there was for federal aid without federal interference. Very little discussion was devoted to what should be taught our children and how. No time was given to discussing lowering the cost or raising the efficiency of schools. The great need today is to tackle the educational problem as we have T. B. and polio and cancer.

I have in mind a family of four grown-up brothers all of whom attend the same schools and had the same teachers. Yet three of the men are today useful in their communities and hold good positions. One of the boys was a "delinquent" and is now a ne'er-do-well supported by the first three. The question the mother asks is: Did the schools have any effect on the character or "life" of these boys?

TRAVELING TO THE MOON

The books most popular with the youth today are books on "space travel"—that is, going to other planets. It is said that Washington is having more inquiries about the earth "satellites" which are to be released than about any other subject. Why is it that young people are so much more interested in other worlds than in learning about their own world and how to live in it? Something is wrong somewhere. Education should teach how to live. It should help parents mold character.

Teachers should be spiritually minded in order to be efficient. Although they should be paid better salaries, yet this salary should not be based upon the degrees which they have received. Looking back over my school life, it was the teachers with the biggest hearts who won my interest and awakened a desire for knowledge and service.

To get back to my main appeal: One sure way to increase the efficiency and reduce the cost of our schools and truly help our children is to teach children where to find their own answers to questions and awaken in them a desire for more knowledge. We need teachers born with a love for children and trained as helpful librarians.

"One of the major problems facing the country is to maintain an adequate flow of well-qualified young people into our engineering colleges."

WILLIAM E. HALL, Maj.-Gen., Assistant Chief of Staff for Reserve Forces:

* THINKING OUT LOUD *

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

When you get old enough to vote and must make up your mind whether to become a Democrat or Republican, what factors do you think will enter into making this decision? Have you already made up your mind?"

LON HADWIN, 472 Holbrook (freshman): "I'll probably be a Republican because that's what my dad is. I've read in history about the Republican and Democratic parties and I have decided that I like the Republicans better."

MYRON HOPPER, 1815 Haggerty (freshman): "When I get older I will be a Democrat because that is what my parents are. I think the Democrats will take the next election."

SANDRA ORTMAN, 44600 Joy road (sophomore): "My parents both vote for the Republicans so I guess I will, too. I think that most Republicans so far have been pretty good."

CATHY THOMPSON, 1061 Ross (sophomore): "I think that I will vote for the man who can do the best job—not for the same party all of the time. If I have to be one or the other, I think I'll be a Republican."

Eighth-Grade, Other Students Win Art Awards

A watercolor painting by an eighth grader at Plymouth junior high and artwork submitted by four other junior and senior high school students were chosen among 3,000 entries for prize awards in the annual art contest sponsored by Crowley Milner and the Detroit News.

The exhibit, held at Crowley Milner, started February 20 and ran through March 3 when students were given an opportunity to sell their work.

Legion to Expand Citizen Training Among Youth

More know-how in the operations of democratic government is being sought for young people by the American Legion and Auxiliary through nation-wide development of the organization's "County Government" program. Mrs. Fern Burleson, Americanism chairman of the Passage-Gayde unit of the Auxiliary, has announced.

The "County Government" program, already in operation in several states, is designed to give high school students a thorough understanding of the operation of their own county government. Mrs. Burleson explained. The program is sponsored by the American Legion and Auxiliary in cooperation with school and county officials. It is an extension of the "Boys States" and "Girls States," which have been conducted by the Legion and Auxiliary for more than a dozen years.

"Boys and Girls States and the Boys and Girls Nations have been successful in giving selected high school students experience in operating the machinery of state and national governments," said Mrs. Burleson. "Boys and Girls County Government brings similar training down to the 'grass roots' of our democracy and makes it available to all high school students. "We believe that if the citizens of our counties know their county government and insist that it shall be good government, we can be sure that the state and national governments also will be good. We hope that by giving our boys and girls this citizenship training, we will not only be building for better government in the future, but will interest the adults of their families to a point where they, too, will seek fuller knowledge of governmental operations and thus become more informed and capable citizens."

Pineapple Oat Crisp

Hot, spicy Pineapple Oat Crisp is an answer to busy homemakers who want to serve an easy-to-make filling dessert. There's no long time preparation—just arrange the pineapple in the baking dish, then sprinkle with the oat-crumb mixture.

The crunchy oat topping, rich with brown sugar and butter and lightly spiced with cinnamon, is so simple to make. It bakes to a crisp candy-like layer, the perfect cover-up for chunks of pineapple and colorful slices of maraschino cherries. Either regular or quick-cooking rolled oats can be used.

Since this dessert is so good served warm, you can put it in the oven just before dinner. Then bring it to the table right in its own baking dish, resting it in a pretty wrought iron rack or on a colorful ceramic tile.

Breakfast cereals are a willing ally to nutrition-minded, budget-wise homemakers. When used as an ingredient they add variety, interest, flavor and texture, and they are inexpensive. In addition to these qualities, breakfast cereals make important contributions of protein, the B-complex vitamins, minerals, and food energy. Look to the breakfast cereals on your kitchen shelf for added variety and nutrition the next time you make desserts, cookies, breads, candies, pie crust, muffins, or meat loaves.

Pineapple Oat Crisp
 3 cups pineapple, chunk style 2 (4 ounce) cans
 1/2 cup maraschino cherries, cut in half
 1/2 cup granulated sugar
 1 tablespoon lemon juice
 1/2 cup sifted all-purpose flour
 1 cup rolled oats, uncooked
 1/2 cup brown sugar
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 cup melted butter or margarine

Arrange fruit in 10 x 6 x 2-inch baking dish. Sprinkle with sugar and lemon juice. Combine dry ingredients, add melted butter, mixing until crumbly. Sprinkle crumb mixture over fruit. Bake in a moderate oven (350°-375°F.) 30 minutes. Serve warm or cold with top milk or cream. Yield: 6 servings.

Shoes Given New Interest

The most apparent change in the shoe scene is that heels are getting slimmer all the time, even though their heights are not towering. The desire of American women for comfortable glove-soft shoes, on heels they can enjoy wearing, has prompted the entire shoe industry to come out with high-fashion styles incorporating all these features.

Colored heels on patent, suede and calf shoes are a spring fashion note. Many black patent shoes are being set off by a gold ornament instead of the more expected trim or piping. This gold gleam is going to head into Summer. You will see many white shoes being piped in gold kid or with tiny gold buttons. This is said to be in keeping with the Oriental fashion trend generally.

The neutrals in the beige-to-brown family are very popular. Such colors as flax tones, French bread coloring, turtledove and maple are getting a big reaction from Style-wise women. Yellow is going to be an important color for late Spring and summer.

Marbled effects will play a fashion duet with bright solid leathers. In a basic color, such as black or dark blue, they are a fine investment because they make a versatile accompaniment for your fashions, be they a suit or a sheath dress.

Another bit of novelty is the lining of your shoe. You will see patterns from gay stripes, bright solids and even polka dots. Bags to match the shoes will feature the same lining.

Clothes Close-ups

By D. C. P.

Here Today! Gone Tomorrow!
 Designers are striving to achieve the "soft look" in the '56 silhouette. To interpret this, they are using many of the new soft woolen fabrics that combine wool with the precious fur fibers such as Angora, muskrat, beaver, cashmere.

The National Institute of Drycleaning in Silver Spring, Maryland, is concerned over the number of low-quality wool-cashmere fabrics consumers are purchasing with the thought that they are buying quality merchandise. Mr. Clay Hardin, Chief Analyst of NID's Garment Analysis Department, has noted that after cleaning these fabrics many of the small hair fibers fall out.

Investigation of this problem has uncovered the fact that some manufacturers are using low quality wool. They are using a coarse beard hair or guard hair, at one time used only by the carpet trade. Now it is being diverted to fabrics manufactured for wearing apparel. Some fabric mills buy this low grade wool, chop it into small pieces, one-eighth to three-eighths of an inch long, and then introduce it into wool or blended fabrics. With wear and cleaning, these short hairs fall out. Many of these fabrics are labeled as containing 10-20% cashmere, when actually the percentage is less. In fact, it isn't there at all when it "falls out!"

The Right Choice For Lenten Meals

Spinach and Cheese Soufflé—there isn't a more perfect Lenten dish to be found anywhere. And made with quick-cooking tapioca, it's guaranteed to be "delicate of texture, tender and light."

Whether you serve it for lunch, dinner or supper, good accompaniments are chilled tomato juice, a crisp green salad, coffee and a delicious pineapple pudding garnished with whipped cream and nut meats.

Spinach and Cheese Soufflé
 1 box (11 ounces) quick-frozen spinach
 1 tablespoon finely chopped onion
 2 tablespoons butter
 1/4 cup quick-cooking tapioca
 1 teaspoon salt
 Dash of pepper
 1 1/2 cups milk
 1 cup grated American cheese
 1/4 cup butter
 4 egg whites
 4 egg yolks

Cook spinach as directed on package. Drain. Meanwhile, sauté onion in 2 tablespoons butter in saucepan until tender but not brown. Combine tapioca, salt, pepper, and milk; add to the onion. Cook and stir over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil. Remove from heat; add cheese and 1/4 cup butter and stir until melted. Add spinach and mix well.

Beat egg whites until stiff. Beat egg yolks until thick and lemon colored. Add tapioca mixture to egg yolks and mix well. Fold into egg whites.

Spoon into 2-quart casserole. Place in pan of hot water and bake in moderate oven (350°F.) 50 minutes, or until soufflé is firm. Serve with mushroom or egg sauce. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

Dry Milk O.K. in Recipes With High Fat, Sugar Content

When you bake a cake with a commercially prepared mix, do you hesitate to use reconstituted dry milk instead of fluid milk? If so, this is one worry you can scratch off your list, declares a Wayne County Home Agent. She explains that most commercially prepared mixes for cakes, ginger-breads and muffins are relatively high in fat and sugar. Michigan State University research has shown that this compensates for the lack of butterfat in the non-fat dry milk solids.

recipe is very lean in fat and sugar. Mixing up your own home-prepared mixes for muffins, biscuits, cakes, etc. is easy when using dry milk solids. Perhaps you would like to have this easy cocoa mix on hand for a quick snack on a cold evening. Just combine 1/2 cup sugar, 2/3 cup cocoa, 3 cups dry milk solids and 1/8 teaspoon salt. Combine them and store in a covered container. To make the beverage, use 1/2 cup mixture to 1 cup water. Add the water gradually, stirring until smooth. Bring to a boil over a low flame, stirring constantly. Then place over boiling water and cook 15 minutes. If you wish, beat it until frothy with a rotary egg beater just before serving.

For the price of a pound of Bermuda onions you can cook three complete meals for a family of four on your electric range—the only range that is "white-glove" clean. That's why smart homemakers say:

"You can Live Better... Electrically!"

Don't Touch That Dial! Leave Thermostat Alone

Are you a "thermostat" dither? If so, it's costing you money. A thermostat dither is a person who is constantly fussing with the thermostat which controls the house heating system. He's forever turning it up or turning it down in an effort to make the house comfortable.

From the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Association, spokesman for the warm air heating industry, comes the word that thermostat dithering is a costly wintertime activity that affects comfort performance as well as economy of operation. The Association points out that except where occupants of a home just can't agree between themselves on that temperature with which they are most comfortable, constant readjustment of the thermostat setting signifies one or two conditions.

The first can be the result of a popular misconception of the function of a thermostat. Too many people think of it as a speed control with which they can make the furnace work faster or slower.

As an example: many folks will turn their thermostats back during the night, and in the morning move the setting up to 80 or 85 degrees in the expectation of getting heat into the rooms as quickly as possible. These folks are fooling themselves and it's costing them money.

Actually, a thermostat functions more like a light switch than an accelerator. Pushing harder on a light switch does not make the light burn any brighter. And pushing the thermostat setting above the desired temperature mark will not cause the heat to come any faster or any warmer than what the equipment has been designed to deliver.

The furnace will merely operate longer until the room temperature agrees with the increased setting, or until someone becomes sufficiently uncomfortable to turn it down.

But by this time considerable heat will have been left in the ducts and furnace, which will continue to be added to the living area, making the occupants even more uncomfortable. This is heat that is paid for, but not enjoyed.

LIVABILITY—that's the theme of this attractive living room. Fireside chairs by a massive fireplace for a quiet evening alone, or a convenient (and comfortable) card table set when guests arrive. Living isn't confined to the indoors, either, for whole walls of glass on both sides of the room (the patio side is pictured) give the feeling of living with the outdoors. Thermopane in the windows insulates against cold in winter.

Summer House

A summer home by the beach or in the mountains can be a very practical matter for city-dwelling families of moderate means. First, it's a permanent vacation spot and saves travel costs over the years. It can be used on week-ends throughout most of the year. During the height of the summer the small house may be rented and bring in enough revenue to cover its upkeep. Built at relatively small expense, the vacation home should be easy to maintain and offer the usual comforts and conveniences of your real home. Bathroom and kitchen, for instance, should be done in a durable finish such as ceramic tile which is simple to keep clean and resists the hardest wear and tear. It should have at least a minimum of modern kitchen appliances, two bedrooms, a dining-living room area, and a large terrace or sun deck in a weather-proof material like quarry tile.

The rich colors now available in various types of paint make excellent backgrounds for the effective modern lines of well-finished blond furniture.

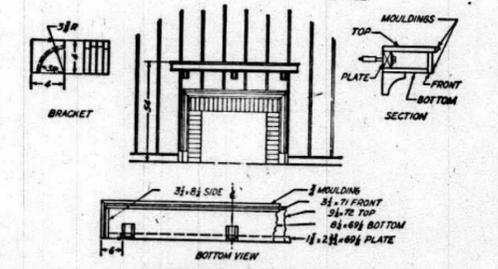

HERE'S HOW . . . MAKE A FIREPLACE MANTEL

Install this mantel over a new fireplace or use it to replace a worn or unattractive one. It can be attached to masonry or to plastered walls.

Cut all parts to sizes shown. Rip the 2 23/32 plate from a 2 by 4. If the wall is masonry, install four masonry anchors well-spaced at desired height. If wall is of frame construction locate studs. Bore four 1/2-inch holes in plate to correspond to anchors or studs and fasten plate with 1/2-inch lag screws long enough for at least 2 inches of thread to grip.

Make each bracket as shown, from four 4-inch squares of 1-inch lumber, two with a 3-inch arc cut out and two with a 3/8 inch arc cut out. Glue the four pieces together under pressure with the smaller pieces in the middle. Align back edge of bottom with back edge of brackets. Drive 2-inch No. 10 wood screws through bottom into top of each bracket. Use glue on all joints. Attach bottom board to bottom edge of plate with six 1 1/2-inch No. 10 flat-head wood screws. Counter sink heads.

Use 10-penny finishing nails to attach sides to plate and bottom. Fasten front to sides with 10-penny finishing nails and bottom with 8-penny finishing nails. Mount top with 6-penny finishing nails. Use 2-penny finishing nails to attach 3/4-inch moulding around top edge—and flat moulding around bottom edge. A moulding strip may also be added to the back edge. Miter corners. Set nails and fill holes, and and finish to taste.

HOME OWNERS QUESTION BOX

Question: For some reason, running water into our kitchen sink splashes water all over the place. I don't know whether the pressure is too strong, or if the angle of the faucet is at fault. Is there anything I can do to stop this annoyance?

Answer: As mentioned in the January issue of The Family Handyman, you can attach an aerator device to the faucet. You can get one in your hardware store. One type can be inserted whether the faucet is threaded or not. Be sure, however, that when attached, the bottom of the aerator is not below the rim of the sink as suction could draw water into the water supply when the sink is brim full. It is for this reason, too, that a hose attachment is not recommended if the end of the hose is allowed to dangle into the sink.

Question: Would appreciate any information on how to make a nice lawn on a hard clay soil. Have received much advice on using sand in the clay, black dirt over it, etc. What do you suggest?

Answer: A simple way to make clay usable is to apply one of the new chemical conditioners which surround the clay particles and permit water to enter and keep the ground from baking. You can also work in a quantity of compost, green fertilizers, or peat moss in place of these but the cost may be, and the effort is, definitely greater. Sand is apt to bake right into the clay. Covering the surface with top-soil (black dirt) is expensive, and doesn't improve the clay which deep-rooted grass could utilize. Try the conditioners, and plenty of organic fertilizers, and your lawn will be successful.

Question: There is a tile kitchen in the home we just bought, and the cracks between tiles are very greasy and dirty. Is there anyway I can get this clean without half killing myself? I have used hot water and all kinds of soaps and even a knife trying to get the dirt out.

Answer: Use ammonia—straight or diluted with a little water—and a stiff brush. This will remove all dirt and grease. The fumes are potent, so ventilate the room well as you work. If the tile cement itself is dark, scratch out slightly with a pointed tool, then repoint the joints with a pure-white plastic compound now available, and which can be squeezed directly into the cracks from the tube. This material is waterproof.

Interesting News About Your Home

A new process finishes colored concrete in brick or tile patterns at half the cost of conventional materials. New tools designed for the purpose of impressing fresh, colored concrete, with various patterned surfaces, are now being manufactured by a well known California concrete company.

The process makes possible the manufacture of various brick, tile or other patterns on the job. It is the result of four years development work and has been subjected to severest tests.

The tools are constructed of a cast-aluminum alloy, light enough but strong enough to withstand heavy use and obtain the required penetration.

The method of installation is simple and the manufacturer claims that with the use of their tools any experienced cement finisher can create either brick or tile patterns in colored concrete in about the same time it takes to lay gray slab at only a fraction of the cost of the conventional materials. The process can be used for any flat surface and is ideal for patios, swimming pool areas, interior floors—any place tile or brick would be used. The advantages claimed are quick drying surfaces when wetted and the absence of shrinkage cracks running through the concrete.

Good kitchen lighting cuts fatigue. For good general lighting in most kitchens, you need either three 20-watt, or two 25-watt, shadow fluorescent tubes with glass or louvers, or a 150-watt incandescent lamp in a 12-inch enclosing globe. In addition, you should have shielded ceiling fixtures with 150-watt standard bulbs or a fluorescent tube over sink and stove.

For each 25 to 30 inches of counter space, a 20-watt fluorescent tube attached to the underside of wall cabinets from the edge to flood the entire work counter without glare.

These standards were reported by Rutgers University.

BATHROOM VALUE

Clever, practical ideas that really aren't costly can increase the sales value of a new or remodeled home. One such excellent idea is to incorporate a slight degree of pitch or slope in your bathroom floor so that drain can be installed near the bathtub, shower area, sink or cleaning and save all worries about the children's splashing water on the floor. Because most all quality bathroom floors are surfaced with waterproof ceramic tile, water from overflowing sink or tub will run right down the drain. A floor drain will also lighten cleaning chores; a quick wipe with the mop, let the dirty water and rinse run down the drain, and presto, the job's done. In fact, hosing down a floor of this kind is perfectly practical.

In the ancient Greek language, the term "paint" meant "many-colored."

Wallpaper Is An Easy, Economical Way To Give Drab Older Rooms Smart Look

A good homemaker is quick to catch on to new and easy ways to improve her home. She knows what experts in the decorating field are saying, that with the right choice of wallpaper anyone can make the single most dramatic change in any room decoration at the least expense.

Many new manufacturing processes have been adopted by the wallpaper industry. Wet-strength paper stock has produced a wallpaper that is easy-to-handle whether it is wet or dry. By eliminating the fear of tearing the wallpaper, the industry has given added confidence to the home decorator who is hanging paper for the first time.

Also, for the homemaker who wishes to hang paper herself, wallpapers today may be purchased both trimmed and pasted. All that is needed is to read the simple instructions enclosed with every roll of paper telling how to "submerge in water and hang."

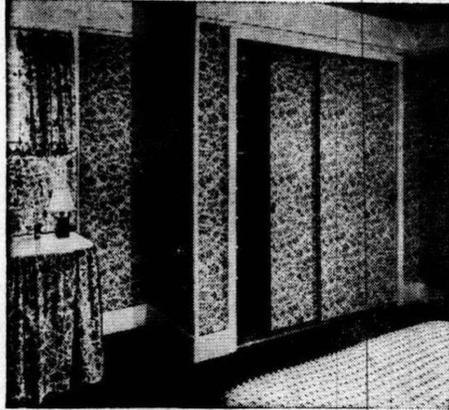

This is a great time saver, and, by having the paper electrical-ly trimmed there is complete assurance of a needle-straight cut throughout the entire length of the roll, allowing each successive strip to have a matching pattern.

With so much of the work done for her it is simple to see how the modern homemaker can re-wallpaper a whole room in a short time. Whether the paper is purchased with edges untrimmed, trimmed, or trimmed with the paste already applied to the back, one way to give a smart professional look to the wall is by "butting the edges." As one strip of paper is hung and the next is put up... slide the edges together closely with the palm of the hand. It's a good idea to use a seam roller or caster to roll down the seams between two strips for a "tight joint."

Another improvement in today's wallpapers is the addition of plastic resins. These plasticized wallpapers come either plastic-coated or plastic-impregnated. In either case, the consumer can learn just what type she is getting by referring to the back of the paper.

A trend in the completely scrubbable wallpapers is that they are available now in patterns so lovely to look at they have taken on more "territory" in the home.

These new, easy-to-clean papers are often light and airy in feeling. Repeat patterns with a scenic effect, miniature florals, finely drawn figures and interesting geometrics are now found and are used not only in the kitchen, but in the dining room, in a den, foyer or game room.

WALLPAPER TRICKS—An old room takes on a new bright look with matching-pattern wallpaper and fabric. Space-illusion is created by covering the closet doors with the same paper as the walls. Wallpaper can help hide many architectural flaws. To further create the idea of more space, vanity skirt and curtains also match the paper.

KITCHEN VIEW

Hours at the kitchen sink can be made less tedious with a picture window opening on a view of the back lawn, says June Cabot, home arts consultant for Libbey-Owens-Ford. If such a window is impossible, however, an alternative is a plate glass mirror reflecting the room and eliminating the "blank look" of the wall.

Two New Service Stations Open Here

Two new service stations that were opened recently in the Plymouth area are the Standard service station (above), 1220 West Ann Arbor road, and the Speedway "79" service station (left), 14888 Northville road. Although both stations are presently in operation, each will hold official grand openings in the near future. The celebration for the Speedway station is slated for April.

Owner Marvin L. Robinson at the Standard station explained that this is his first venture in such business. A Plymouthite of 14 years, Robinson has as a qualified mechanic and station operator his son-in-law, Robinson is a former Evans Products employee and lives at 9054 Oakview. His station was opened February 16.

Speedway "79" station owner Nat Cogan, a Detroit resident seeking a home here, initiated his new outlet February 6. Cogan explained that he has owned and operated gas stations for about 18 years in various places. One of the special features at his station is the fact that it is equipped to repair tubeless tires.

Plymouth Girl Joins Marines on Birthday

Miss Norma A. Leslie, daughter of Mrs. Elsie M. Drake of 234 West Ann Arbor trail, was sworn in as a private in the Women Marines on her 18th birthday, February 28, at the United States Marine Corps Recruiting station in Detroit, it was announced this week. Eighteen is the minimum age requirement for the women Marines.

Private Leslie graduated from Plymouth high school in June 1955 where she was a member of the girls swimming and basketball teams. After graduation she worked as a telephone operator for Michigan Bell Telephone company, Plymouth, for eight months prior to entering the service.

Enlisted for three years, Private Leslie left Wednesday, February 29, for eight weeks of recruit training at Parris Island, South Carolina, where she will be indoctrinated in the fundamentals of service life, discipline, physical fitness, first aid, chemical warfare, and other subjects necessary to carry out her duties as a Woman Marine.

Upon completion of her "boot" training, she will be transferred to one of the many posts or stations of the U. S. Marine Corps, situated throughout the United States or the Hawaiian Islands.

Triumph Over Old-time Killers Raises Child Life-expectancy Today

A child today can expect to live as long after he graduates from college as his grandfather could expect at birth. The Michigan Department of Health makes this observation on life expectancy figures. National records, says the health department, show that life expectancy in 1900 was 47.3 years, contrasted to an average lifetime of 68.4 years in 1950.

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, State Health Commissioner, adds that studies of Michigan's population present "some findings which may seem almost unbelievable, but are highly significant in terms of the need for broadened local public health services."

For example, the commissioner said: In 1954, there were 400,000 more children from five to 19 years of age in Michigan than there were in 1930. Births in the state have gone up from 99,106 in 1940 to over 190,000 yearly. And ratio of births to deaths has climbed from 190 births per 100 deaths in 1940 to 316 births per 100 deaths in 1954.

Dr. Heustis noted that one reason for the drop in deaths is the triumph over many old-time killers, such as scarlet fever, whooping cough and typhoid. He said the infant death rate in Michigan also has been cut—from 157.1 deaths per thousand live births in 1900 to 25 in 1954.

But the state health chief issued a stiff caution against relaxing health safeguards and services. On the contrary, he said as far as public health departments are concerned, "basic child health programs such as well-baby conferences, vision screening, hearing conservation and nutrition education need broadening to protect the increased number of Michigan youngsters."

As well as holding the line against older health hazards, the commissioner noted that both state and local health officials have urged more forceful programs against such newer threats as mental illness, home accidents and chronic diseases, which are rapidly coming into the health foreground.

MSU Course Aids Hospitals

A ten-week training course for food service supervisors of Michigan hospitals got underway at Michigan State university on Monday of this week to continue through May 4. Aimed directly at food-service supervisors from small hospitals not able to obtain qualified dietitians, the course is the first of its kind anywhere, points out Margaret Gillam, director. It, too, is directed to those who assist dietitians in large hospitals. Formerly dietetic specialist of the American Hospital Association, Miss Gillam has had experience organizing and directing dietary departments at the University of Michigan hospital and the New York hospital—Cornell Medical Center. After almost two years of planning, the Michigan Hospital Association and Michigan Dietetic Association, working with Michigan State University, have designed the training course. Financial support has also come from a $45,050 grant of the W. K. Kellogg foundation on a three-year basis.

Cadillac

At Home... Among Strangers!

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more.

We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know and understand this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a plus value when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your next car?

It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation as well.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel . . . and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move from every standpoint.

Social Security Question Column

Send your Social Security questions directly to the Plymouth Mail. They will be answered in this column or directly by the Detroit Northwest Social Security office at 14600 Grand River, Detroit 27, Michigan.

1. I was 65 last year but would like to work on until I can be sure I'll get $108.50 social security. What is the earliest time I could retire? J. C.

Answer: If you earned at least $4,200 in 1955 and at least $2,100 by July 1, 1956, you can expect to receive the maximum social security payment of $108.50. You may be eligible as early as April 1956.

2. Recently I got a copy of my birth certificate and found that I have a different first name than the one I've always used and worked under. Do I have to start using this name so that I will be sure of getting my social security when I'm 65? P. L. G.

Answer: For social security purposes you do not have to use your name as shown on your birth certificate. You may if you wish ask to have the social security records changed to show this name.

3. Have payments to women age 62 started? I am past 62, should I file now? G. S. I.

Answer: At the present time social security payments may be made to women age 65 and over unless they have children under 18. The law has not changed so you do not need to file now unless you are 65.

Michigan was first in the nation in the development of roadside parks and picnic tables.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Michigan's inland lakes will be closed to spear fishing after February 29, but the ban does not apply to Great Lakes waters.

March 1 also marks the opening of smelt dipping season, but smelt runs usually do not get under way until March and peak activity comes during April.

Meanwhile, 1956 listings of waters open to spearing and bow and arrow fishing during the May 1-August 15 season are available now.

Spears or bow and arrow may be used on these designated waters—with or without artificial lights—for the purpose of taking carp, dogfish and garpike.

The 1956 list, which includes many rivers and lakes not designated last year, can be obtained from the Conservation Department's fish division, Lansing, 26.

The 19th annual observance of National Wildlife Week has been scheduled for March 18-24 by the National Wildlife Federation.

The 1956 Wildlife Week theme will be "Save Endangered Wildlife" and a nationwide educational program will point up the plight of fish, birds and animals that face extinction over vast portions of their natural range.

Included in the "endangered species" category are the rare whooping crane, a species down to its last 28 individuals now wintering in Texas, and the ivory-billed woodpecker which some experts believe may already be extinct.

Other species to receive attention are the grizzly bear, Everglade kite, Eskimo curlew, Attwater's prairie chicken, lake sturgeon, bighorn sheep, sea otter, Key deer, California condor, Montana grayling, trumpeter and the lake trout of the Great Lakes.

Early response to the Conservation Department's deer hunting survey has been described as "very good."

More than 75 percent of the 10,200 questionnaires have been returned by deer hunters.

L. Eberhardt, in charge of the project, said results of the survey will be available in spring if hunter response continued at the present level.

Eberhardt said mailings have been started on several other surveys, including small game hunting, archery deer hunting, camp deer kill and a special opinion poll of hunters.

Most Michigan hunters will be turning to other activities with the March 1 closing of rabbit and snowshoe hare seasons in northern parts of the state.

Rabbit hunting season in the southern region ended January 31.

Only bobcats, foxes and coyotes will be legal game after March 1 and even bobcats will be protected after March 15 in the lower peninsula. The cats are considered a game animal in the lower peninsula, and may be hunted only during the December 15-March 15 season.

An annual reminder to ice fishermen comes from the Conservation Department: Be sure your shanty is high and dry before the ice breaks up.

State law declares that owners shall remove their fishing shanties before conditions become unsafe. Failure to obey the law can result in fines up to $50 and/or 30 days in jail.

In addition, if the shanty breaks through and conservations officers have it removed from the water, the owner must pay the cost of removal.

A four-year study of black bears in the upper peninsula indicates the black bear, tough and wily as he is, can be live-trapped.

Game workers at the Conservation Department's Cusino wildlife experiment station have live-trapped 44 bears since 1952; of the duped animals, 27 were males.

The trapping experiment was designed to gain more information and habits. After being trapped, the bear was put under anesthesia, weighed, measured, tagged, had a claw clipped and was released before he regained consciousness.

Reports on tagged bears killed by hunters supply data for the bear study project. The greatest distance traveled by a tagged bear before being shot by hunters was 14 miles and the greatest time lapse between tagging and recovery was 151 days.

Of the 44 bears handled, the heaviest weighed 425 pounds while the smallest was a mere 12-pounder.

Additional information on bears has been gathered from deer hunters who bagged bears during the U. P. deer season. Questionnaires were circulated at the Straits and 44 already have been returned.

Hunters are urged to check venison and other game meat in their frozen food lockers.

The law requires that special permits be obtained if game meat is kept more than 60 days after the close of the season. This 60-day period has elapsed on most game species.

Game meat may be stored indefinitely under permits which are issued by conservation officers.

Communities interested in developing recreation programs will find valuable information in a recent report published by the Michigan Inter-Agency Council for Recreation.

Ernest V. Blohm, executive secretary of the council, said the report is designed to outline local and state responsibilities in recreation. The booklet also lists some of the functions and achievements of the council during the past year.

The council, formed in 1949, is a cooperative organization of 19 state governmental agencies and associate members. Gerald E. Eddy, director of the Conservation Department, is chairman of the council's executive committee.

Recreational information and assistance are available to communities that contact the Inter-Agency Council's office at Lansing, 26.

More than 1,500,000 fishermen tested their skill in Michigan's lakes and streams last year and made record catches in at least one region.

A check of records at Traverse City showed people caught more big fish in the Grand Traverse area in 1955 than in any previous year.

The Traverse City chamber of commerce awarded 260 Che-Gon plaques to fishermen who landed exceptionally big fish in the area. The plaques get their name from the Indian term for "big fish."

Heading the list of big fish awards were 129 brown trout, including 116 from Lake Leelanau in Leelanau county. The largest brown trout recorded in the area was an 11-pounder taken from the lower Borden River.

Other record catches include a 27-inch rainbow trout which weighed nine pounds, 11½ ounces; a 22½-inch largemouth bass which topped six pounds; and a 19¾-inch smallmouth bass, weighing five pounds, 10 ounces.

INCOME TAX FACTS No. 3 Don't Pay Tax on Wrong Income

(This is one of a series of articles on federal income tax filing. The articles are based on information provided by the American Institute of Accountants and the Michigan Society of Certified Public Accountants.)

You may think that listing your income is the easiest part of tax filing. Actually, according to the Internal Revenue Service, this is where taxpayers make the greatest number of errors.

Not all the money that may have come to you during 1955 needs to be reported on your tax form.

For example you may have received "dividends" on an insurance policy. Don't list them as dividends, because they are considered merely a refund of part of the premium you paid.

Don't include Social Security benefits, Railroad Retirement Act benefits, or payments received under Workmen's Compensation laws. Don't list gifts you received, although the giver may have to pay a gift tax. However, tips and other compensation for services must be reported.

Do not report inheritances and bequests. The estate may be taxed but the recipient.

Personal Damages Not Taxed
Damages received for personal injuries are not considered taxable income, whether awarded by a court or settled out of court.

When listing your income you can also forget about government benefits to veterans and their families, except non-disability retirement pay and the interest on terminal leave bonds.

The interest on state and municipal bonds is also tax exempt. Although compensation for services is generally taxable, whether paid in money or otherwise, the law specifically exempts the rental value of a parsonage furnished to a minister or the rental allowance expended by him for this purpose.

The official tax instructions contain a list of the types of income which should or should not be included in your tax return. It is important to check this carefully.

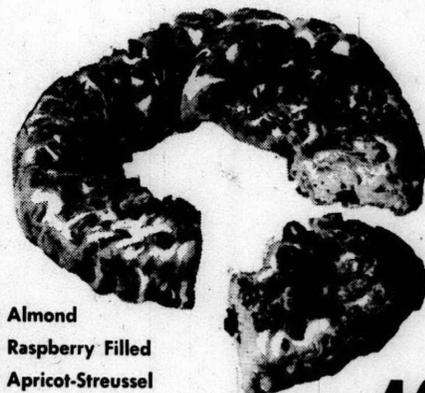

Prizes and Awards
There is an interesting rule on prizes—they are only taxable if you worked for them. Even the slightest action on your part to earn the prize—such as appearing on a quiz program or writing a slogan—makes it taxable income. But prizes awarded for scientific, literary or other achievements without any action by you to bring about your selection would be regarded as gifts to you rather than taxable income.

Some income, such as limited amounts of "sick pay" and the first $50 of certain dividends, must be explained in the tax return but are not taxed.

The instructions that come with your tax forms give further information. Help is also available from the Internal Revenue Service, which urges you to consult a properly qualified advisor if you need outside assistance.
