

“Litterbug” Battle Opens In Plymouth

An all-out war against “litterbugs” and an education program designed to get residents to accept their responsibility for keeping their community clean will be launched this Sunday by the Plymouth Garden club.

The two-week Clean-up, Pick-up, Paint-up, anti-Litterbug campaign is the largest such effort every undertaken here. Every church and club is being asked to cooperate with the program.

Members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce will again scrub down Main street in the business section this Sunday. The Jaycees have been behind the movement for several years.

But the Garden club also is devoting its effort and money to clean up the Plymouth area this year. In a program chairmaned by Mrs. Paul Wiedman, the effort is being carried before children as well as adults.

Here are their plans: 1. 183 litterbug posters will be distributed among every business establishment in Plymouth.

2. Every service station will get a special poster showing the crime of littering the highways.

3. 100 bumper strips are being distributed to establishments with commercial vehicles which plead, “Keep Our Roadside Clean.” The city will use 30 alone.

4. Every school classroom will get booklets with litterbug plays and poems.

5. By cutting out an advertisement found in this newspaper

The state law regarding the disposal of garbage or rubbish along highway reads: “If any person or persons... shall put any garbage, rubbish or waste material of any kind into any highway or to the annoyance of the citizens of the state, every person so offending shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction shall forfeit and pay a sum of not less than $5 nor more than $100, together with the costs of prosecution and in default of the payment thereof, shall be imprisoned in the county jail of the county in which such conviction may be had, not exceeding 90 days or both, such fines and imprisonment in the discretion of the court.”

and turning it into their teacher. 3,000 elementary school children will receive a litterbug button.

5. Every piece of mail sent out by several firms will carry an anti-litterbug message.

7. 3,000 paper bags with handles for use in disposing of refuse in cars will be given to school children.

8. Cloth bags with the litterbug emblem will be sold for car use. These are made by the League for the Handicapped in Detroit.

9. Litterbug signs have already been erected in business sections and a refuse can carrying the litterbug emblem will be placed under each sign.

10. Children will give litterbug skits before several service clubs next week.

Already held two weeks ago was a litterbug dance for high school students. A king and queen were selected.

It is the aim of the Garden club to get people in the habit of disposing of their litter in the proper place, not along the roadside or on the sidewalk. They are also attempting to bring it to the attention of the public that there is a state law regarding the disposal of garbage or rubbish along highways.

Committee chairmen for the program are Mrs. Austin Stecker and Mrs. Roy Lindsay, township; Mrs. Ralph Lorenz, grade schools; Mrs. Charles Nelson, junior high; Mrs. Gail Mason and Mrs. George Schmeman, high school; Mrs. Carl Shear, business; Mrs. Lewis VonStein, service stations; Mrs. Walter Gemperline, churches; Mrs. Sidney Strong, city; and Mrs. Wiedman, general chairman and Scouts.

Tax Increase Proposal Brings Protest by One

There were no objections heard from Plymouth citizens pertaining to the proposed 1956-57 budget when the public hearing was held Monday night, but one of the major taxpayers registered his dissatisfaction with the commission's idea of hiking city taxes 8 1/2 per cent.

Ralph Lorenz, manager of the Mayflower hotel, pointed out the “unfairness” of the state equalized valuation which the commission intends to adopt in order to meet some of the $30,000 deficit in the budget. This equalized valuation, which is already adopted by the school district and county, will increase city taxes 8 1/2 per cent, equivalent to 1.35 additional mills.

The hotel manager said that he had no quarrel with the budget itself, since it was evident that city costs would go higher each year. It was his argument that reappraisals are needed in both the city and surrounding townships in order to assure that everyone is paying their fair share. He noted that the land valuation placed on one of Plymouth township's biggest industries covering many acres is only $38,000 while the corner of land on which his hotel sits is valued at $25,000. Since the majority of taxes are paid to the school district, Lorenz termed this inequity in valuations as unfair.

Especially unfair, Lorenz continued, is the 8 1/2 per cent tax hike on personal property. “If I buy a chair for $20 and have the invoice showing I paid $20 for it, and then at the end of the year have to pay 8 1/2 per cent more than its worth, there is something wrong.”

Commissioners agreed with Lorenz that there are gross inequities in assessments within Wayne county. A county-wide assessment system is probably the answer, City Manager Albert (Continued on Page 8)

List Disposal Sites For City, Township

Every resident of Plymouth, Canton and Salem townships and Plymouth city have a specific place to dump their rubbish, making it needless to dispose of it along roads. A check by The Mail this week listed the following dumping places:

Plymouth city has a rubbish and garbage pick-up each week but if the householder has a very large load or wants to dispose of refuse before the pick-up day, he may secure a permit from city hall and take it to a disposal site on Chubb road, north of Five Mile road, free of charge.

Salem township also uses this same disposal site. It is open from 8 a.m. to 5:30 p.m. weekdays.

Plymouth township has a disposal site on Haggerty road, north of the C & O railroad. There is a nominal fee for dumping, based on the size of the load.

Canton township has its dumping site on Lilley road, between VanBuren and the railroad track. There is no charge.

Two Township Fire Departments Kept Busy Answering Minor Alarms

A rash of grass fires have kept the Plymouth township and Canton township fire departments busy since last Thursday afternoon as Canton was called to answer one such alarm and Plymouth three. In addition Canton also was required to extinguish a chimney which was afire and Plymouth township was alerted to put out a blaze in a small shed in Robinson subdivision.

Canton's two alarm runs took place Sunday. At 11:49 a.m. the department answered a call at the Ronald Hanchett home, 4000 Morton Taylor road, to quell some burning chimney soot. The fire was quickly put out with no resulting damage.

At 3:18 that same afternoon, Canton was required to put out a minor grass fire near the residence of Phillip McNulty, 47874 Cherry Hill. The blaze burned off about an acre of dry grass but did no damage otherwise.

On Thursday Plymouth township's fire unit squelched another grass fire at 1:02 p.m. behind Plymouth Stamping company, 315 West Ann Arbor road. Assistant plant men already on the scene, the township firefighters quickly put out the blaze. There was no damage.

Two grass fires in quick succession on Saturday had the Plymouth township crew hustling. The first one broke out at 2:17 p.m. behind Bonded Beauty Products, 14485 Northville road. It burned off a small area behind the plant, igniting sawdust and shavings collected there. It was quickly put out with no damage resulting.

While the township firemen were battling this alarm, a second call was received to halt a blaze at the intersection of Ann Arbor road and Ann Arbor trail, west of town. This one, received at 2:30 p.m. and answered by the township's second truck, consisted of a fire burning grass on a hill and threatening a nearby orchard there. It was extinguished and the trucks returned at 4:14 to the station.

On Monday Plymouth township was notified at 3:33 p.m. of a fire at 11637 Butternut, Robinson subdivision. This blaze consisted of a frame shed afire. The vacant building, six feet by 10 feet, was nearly leveled before the department arrived. However the fire was quickly brought under control.

Plymouth township firemen assumed that the fire began due to a creeping rubbish fire nearby. The property on which the shed was located was reportedly vacant.

Distribution Based on Wrong Census, Claims Health Officer

Plymouth and other out-county communities are receiving only half as much Salk polio vaccine as they should, based on the number of children now living in this area, it was charged this week by Dr. Howard Cadwell, Wayne county health commissioner.

He claims that the Michigan Department of Health is distributing the vaccine on the basis of the number of children counted in the 1950 federal census—not according to current school records which show that population has climbed rapidly since six years ago.

In a visit to Plymouth several weeks ago, Dr. Cadwell said that he was attempting to find out from the Michigan Department of Health if they were using the 1950 census. In a telephone conversation with The Mail yesterday, he stated that he still has received no answer to his question from the state.

Local physicians receive all of their polio vaccine supplies from the Wayne County Department of Health on Michigan avenue. Since last October, when the job of administering the vaccine was turned completely over to physicians, doctors in the Plymouth area have received 2,383 doses.

Dr. Cadwell says that his department has received 81,816 doses since last October, but that there are nearly 200,000 eligible children between the ages of 5 and 9 and expectant mothers who should be immunized. Each person should have two shots, meaning that at least 400,000 doses are still needed, he added.

Detroit now receives 28 per cent of the state's polio vaccine supply. The Wayne County Department of Health gets seven per cent. Dr. Cadwell claims that the out-county area now has 47 per cent as many children of eligible age as Detroit. This means that the out-county allotment should almost be doubled.

“The great influx of children which has occurred in all areas since 1950 will make it impossible for many children to be immunized before the summer poliomyelitis season,” the health official declared. “It also penalized the out-county physicians who are more limited in their allotments of the vaccine than the physicians in Detroit or of other counties where population growth has not been so marked.”

Dr. Cadwell states that vaccine is now distributed by his department to each city, village and township on the basis of the number of children living there as shown by the 1955 school census. “This is the fairest method I know of,” he added, “but it falls terribly short of meeting the need.”

“We can only hope that increased supplies will become available before the polio season gets underway in order that we can meet the increased demands which a glance at the thousands of new houses and many new schools in this Wayne out-county area tells us are coming,” he added.

Blunk served in the armed forces from 1943 to 1946 and in 1950 was named vocational coordinator to succeed Carvel Bentley.

In other business before the board of education Monday night, there was a general discussion of (Continued on Page 8)

Amelia Pavement Planning Revived

Plans to pave Amelia street which were pigeonholed a year ago by the city commission after too many property owners objected at a public hearing may again be dusted off and presented in 1956.

Commissioners approved a motion at a special meeting Monday night to have the city manager submit plans, profiles, specifications, estimates of cost and other information which will permit the commission to decide if they want to again consider the improvement.

A petition was presented a year ago by adjoining property owners protesting the proposed paving. A motion was then made to table the proposal.

The Amelia street paving project was divided into two segments last year, Main to Farmer, where there are commercial developments, and Main to Mill, where there are homes. Another segment will be added this time, Farmer to Liberty street.

Also included in the motion to secure estimates was a sanitary sewer for Karmada street and storm sewers for several blocks in the southwest section of the city.

Public hearings were set for a water main proposed for Sheridan avenue, east of Lincoln to Joel street (neither streets are constructed). The hearing will be Monday, May 23 at 7:30 p.m.

Chairman Salutes ACS Volunteers

High praise for volunteers who have joined the fight against cancer was voiced today by Duane Sheldon, local chairman of the American Cancer society's 1956 educational crusade in Plymouth which closes the end of this month.

Sheldon declared, "The eventual conquest of cancer as a nationwide achievement must inevitably stem largely from efforts of volunteer workers." Many more are needed, he continued, to continue this work, and particularly on the local level.

The ACS unit at 521 Peppiman avenue performs such services as arranging cancer detection examinations, transportation to treatment centers for needy patients, providing free dressings for cancer victims, family counseling, rehabilitation programs for former cancer patients and public information activities. Office hours at the local unit are 1-4 p.m. Monday through Friday.

Sheldon pointed out that ACS now has more than one million volunteers working throughout the nation, many of them doctors who serve as board members, medical advisors and help direct programs of research and service for patients.

"The number of lives saved annually from cancer can be increased," Sheldon added. "If we have more volunteers to distribute the life-saving information that cancer is most curable when detected early; that annual check-ups are the best safeguards against the disease and that knowledge of cancer's seven danger signals may save a life."

Girl Scout Council Seeks Site For Summer Day Camp

Over 50 Girl Scouts will be without a day camp this summer unless someone can come up with a solution to the problem of finding a site for this activity, is the gist of a situation besetting the Plymouth Girl Scout council.

The week-long camp, held this year from July 9-13, is an annual puzzler for the council which has never had a permanent location for the summer program now entering its fifth year. In the past the council has been fortunate in having someone in the community loan their property to the Scouts for the camp-out. Mrs. Sheldon Baker, day camp director, expressed the current needs as follows:

An area large enough to accommodate approximately 50 Intermediate Scouts (age 10-16) with wooded area for shade, good supply of water and without reasonable access for transporting equipment to the site. The council is also on the lookout for a permanent site which it might lease on a five year basis to enable the establishment of necessary facilities.

Kiwanis lodge, although suitable for Brownie and other beginning Scout activities, is limited in primitive camping opportunities given older Scouts such as tent pitching, outdoor cooking and other skills.

Brownie Day camp is to convene at the lodge on June 18 to continue through June 22. Registration forms were placed in the mails this week. Camp Tonquish was chosen as the name for the 1956 day camp after a contest among local troops for an appropriate title in keeping with Plymouth's colonial tradition. Troop 3, directed by Mrs. E. P. Light and Mrs. William Edgar, submitted the winning name.

Activities at the camp will include handicraft, dramatics, cooking and similar skills. There will be an "evening of the lodge for Brownie fly-ups," those to become full-fledged Scouts. The highlight of the week for the Scouts will be a trip to the Senior Girl Scout Roundup at the Highland recreation area.

Plymouth Unit, County Library Breaks Book-Circulation Record

The area's steady growth in population was reflected last month at the Plymouth branch of Wayne County library, when book circulation soared to a total of 15,020, highest ever recorded for a single month in the 30 year history of the County Library's community branch service.

During the week of March 22-29 alone, some 3,633 books, magazines and pamphlets traveled from library shelves into homes of area residents, pushing the month's total to 2808 over March of the previous year.

Noted for many years for its excellent collection regarding antiques, the Plymouth library has added to these increasing numbers of technical and reference books to keep up with patron demand. It now boasts a total of 16,864 assorted books, pamphlets and other reading material available for public use. To maintain its active collection, the library last year set aside a budget of $7200 to be used for purchase of new books and replacements.

Besides a busy circulation, the library was active during March with a host of community services. Started for the first time was a badge program for Senior Girl Scouts. Two Livonia Scouts, Bonnie Meacham and Eileen Livernois, are now working on their 30 hours required for the library aid bar. Their jobs entail stamping cards for due dates, shelacking and checking children's books, filing pamphlets, straightening shelves, checking returns from the bindery, and similar activities.

Other services performed by the library during March were showing films to junior high school classes, engaging Eldon Kracht, Livonia prospector, to speak on his rock collection displayed at the library, and book reviews by the library staff for clubs and other organizations.

The library also passed Boy Scouts on reading and book-binding badges, showed the Scouts films on conservation, hosted bi-weekly visits of the high school reading improvement class and a children's story hour on Saturdays. Five hundred youngsters at Wayne County Training school also enjoyed a story hour given on their home site by Head Librarian Mrs. Agnes Pauline.

With a good start on exceeding last year's peak circulation of 129,152 by November 30, end of the fiscal year, the library looks forward to completion of its building which will make its services and facilities more accessible to the public.

The library is open each week-day until 8 p.m. with closing hour on Saturdays at 5 p.m.

REHEARSING A SCENE from the hilarious Theatre Guild comedy, "Here Today," is Betty Demorest in the role of Mary Hilliard defaming the fiance for benefit of the potential brother-in-law, Jeffrey, portrayed by Jon Wolfe. Mary's collaborator, Jack Wilcox as Stanley Dale, lends a helping hand while Phillip Graves (played by Jack Scott) watches his ex-wife's antics from right. Setting is Nassau. The show will be presented tonight, tomorrow and Saturday night, April 26-28, at 8:15 in the high school auditorium.

AS A SERVICE to parents attending the Bird Elementary school "Spring Round-Up" Saturday evening, April 28, from 8-9, members of Girl Scout troop six will hold a nursery play group for children three to five years of age. The nursery will enable the parents to tour the "Round-Up" carnival with freedom while the little tots are well cared for by the girl scouts. Illustrating the play period here are three scouts and two youngsters. Scouts are, from left: Nancy Richard, Kathleen Keller and Gay Shirey while Tom Tichy, 5, and Paulette Keller, 3, enjoy themselves under the girls supervision. Although the nursery runs only until nine o'clock, the carnival itself lasts until 10.

MACCABEE NEWS

We missed our commander at our last meeting, although Lady Sackett did very well conducting the meeting.

Sorry so many had to leave before "Good of the Order" hour, as a nice time was had by those that stayed.

It was decided to have a Mother and Daughter banquet on Wednesday, May 2, 6:30 p.m. We hope all members will be present with their daughters. Anyone wanting information, please call Doris Curtis, 2064-M.

We are happy to report Lady Granger is home from the hospital and doing fine.

We were sorry to hear Lady Dicks had been so ill, but glad to hear she is coming along nicely now.

What are Vitamins?

By C. C. Wiltse,
Richard C. Wiltse
Registered Pharmacists

Vitamins are materials essential to health. Alone, they will not sustain life, but they are absolutely indispensable to the body's functions and full and efficient utilization of food.

It is important to choose foods wisely but under modern conditions it is difficult to be certain of meeting all requirements for essential vitamins from food sources alone.

To assure that your vitamin intake is sufficient, you must be certain of the quality and potency of the vitamin preparations taken. Ask your doctor what you need — then buy them from a quality drug store.

This is the ninth of a series of informative advertisements appearing in this paper each week.

Grange Cleanings

We had a very good attendance at the Grange meeting and apron sale and those who were not there missed a lot of fun.

The apron sale was a huge success and we realized a neat little sum for our treasury. The general opinion was that Art Blunk should have been an auctioneer, he is good.

Five new members were received into the Grange at the meeting.

Our next meeting will be May 3, pot luck supper as usual at 8:30. Louise Tritten who is Health Chairman is in charge of the program. There will be a review of the book, "Arthritis and Common Sense," a timely topic as the majority of people now seem to have arthritis in some form.

We are also to have a special treat. Mr. Stein of Wayne will show his pictures of South America which are said to be very fine, so let's have a big turn-out. The pictures will be first following supper then the book review will be at the usual program time.

There were 17 from our Grange who went down to Deerfield to their chicken dinner on Sunday, April 15, and about as many attended the fish supper at Pittsfield on April 11.

Mrs. Adeline Nairn is in the hospital in Belleville for an operation on her foot. She is doing fine.

Mrs. Elizabeth Brodie is visiting her daughter in Flint for a few weeks.

A former resident of Plymouth, Elzerman is shown above with his father, local Kiwanian William Elzerman, and William Thomas, Plymouth representative for Stanley Home Products. EVELYN WOODS GROSCHE and Carl Groschke returned to Plymouth this week after completing a two-week tour of the West Indies, aboard the R.M.S. Mauretania. Mr. and Mrs. Groschke served as entertainers and musicians on shipboard, as well as host and hostess to the five hundred passengers. The ports of call included Nassau, St. Thomas in the Virgin Islands, Curacao in the Netherlands Antilles and Havana, Cuba. The most delightful features of the Caribbean, say the Groschkes, were the tropical climate, rhythmic Calypso music and colorful native costumes.

The strike of a gas well, preliminarily tested at 6 million cubic feet, was reported last week on a Plymouth township farm.

Credits Fire Department With Saving Patient's Life

A note of "thanks" to the Plymouth fire department for their "prompt and courteous response" to a call for a resuscitator has been received by Dr. Frederick E. Bentley, Chief Robert McAllister said this week.

The call to revive a young worker brought to the doctor's office was received by the department several weeks ago. Dr. Bentley attributes the fire department's treatment to saving the patient's life. The patient remained in a hospital for eight days.

Thanks was also expressed to officer Louis Westfall of the police department for his work in the case.

An open mind is an asset but don't let your mind become so open that nothing stays in it.

Across the nation the weather during the past month has been as erratic as a rookie baseball pitcher. And for some reason colds have been hitting one out of every five people on the average. The sneeze has taken the place of conversation. In the midst of this, however, the U.S. Public Health Service claims to have isolated the common cold germ... something scientists have been trying to do for years.

The common snuffle is one of the biggest little annoyances in the country. Nearly everyone gets into the act, and it inspires more home-made remedies than you'd care to try in a lifetime. Obviously, the bug isn't licked yet... but at least the microscope jockeys are on the trail. If they succeed we'll all have to find some other excuse to stay home from work.

In Tennessee a school janitor's wife just gave birth to her sixth set of twins. A card-playing friend suggests this sounds like a full house with deuces wild.

Speaking of colds, as we were above, you'll find that we have complete stocks of cold remedies to combat your family's sniffles. Don't let those Spring colds get you down. Pick up your favorite cold and cough remedies here.

Glassford noted. The commissioners agreed that the proposed state equalized valuation is not the fairest answer to avoiding budget deficit this year...

It was suggested that the city commission get together with the board of education to discuss the inequity of valuations in the political subdivisions covered by the school district.

The only other citizen attending the public hearing was P. Bachelard, renter of a city-owned house at 157 South Main street. He filed his objection to a proposed raise in rent from $75 to $100 a month.

The 1956-57 budget will be about $451,485, which is over $30,000 more than the current year. The state equalized valuation will raise about $22,000 of that amount.

Symphony Board Names Nominees

Four nominees were selected by the Plymouth Symphony Society board of directors last week to replace members whose term of office expires this year.

President Gerald Fischer announced that the names of the nominees will be placed before the membership of the Symphony Society at the annual meeting on May 14 at which time election of new board members will take place.

The nominees are Roland Bonamici, Mrs. George Conover, Mrs. Hay Hulce and Mrs. E. J. Readman.

Leaving the 12-member board after completing three-year terms are Hildor Carlson, Mrs. Michael Huber, William Sliger and Harp-er Stephens.

A fifth vacancy on the board occurred this week when President Fischer announced the resignation of Dr. A. E. Van Ornum. It is expected that another nomination will be made prior to the annual meeting.

Dr. Van Ornum, who has served as a board member for one year, stated that responsibility to other activities made it impossible to continue on the board.

The board, which directs the business of Plymouth's 90-piece symphony orchestra, will report its most successful year to the membership at the annual meeting. Attendance at concerts as well as the financial status of the organization surpassed any season in the orchestra's 10-year history.

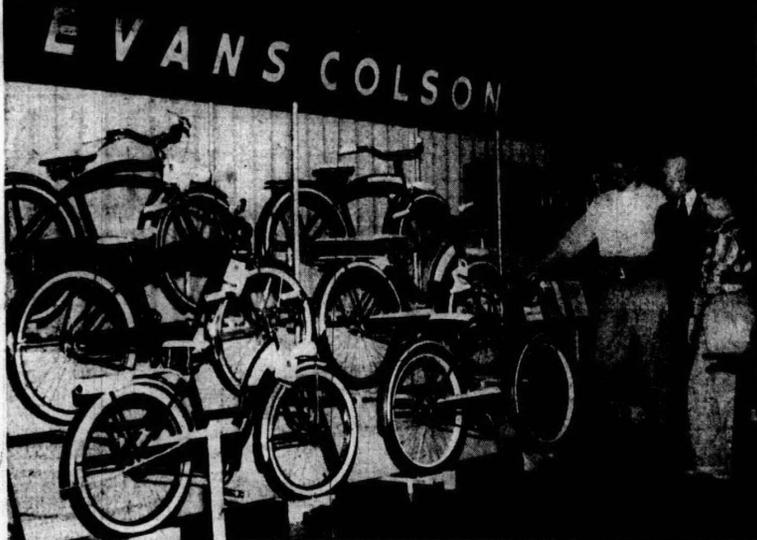

The meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage, Mrs. Harold Todd of Clemors drive, and Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick of Northville road enjoyed dinner Saturday evening at Dearborn Inn.

Two Youths Hurt As Car Hits Pole

Two Nankin township youths were injured early Sunday morning when the car in which they were riding crashed into a service station light pole at North Main and Mill streets.

Injured were Ronald Severson, 24, of 8450 Dakota, who suffered a fractured leg and head injuries, and Ronald AllGood, 23, of 8456 Dakota, who received a fractured knee.

The 1956 car was entering Plymouth from Plymouth road at 3:57 a.m. when the accident occurred. There is a sharp jog in the road at Mill street, the same jog which caused a Livonia police car to hit the same light pole a year ago when they were chasing a speeding car into Plymouth.

Police quoted the driver as saying that he was forced off the road by another car and that he was going 30 miles an hour. The police report declared, however, that there were "burn marks" from the sides of tires found on the pavement for a total of 151 feet. Their report said that they estimated the speed at between 80 and 90 miles per hour.

The injured youths were taken to Wayne County General hospital. The car was heavily damaged.

Honor Safety Patrol Boys Head for Washington Rally

Headed for Washington, D. C. next month after being selected as Plymouth's outstanding safety patrol boys will be Richard E. West, 11, of Smith elementary school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl West, 9087 Ball street.

He will participate in the 20th annual AAA Safety Patrol Rally in Washington from May 3 to 6. Also selected from this area were Elroy Liberacki, 15, of the Wayne County Training school; James Morris, 11, of 42797 West Nine Mile road, representing Northville schools; and James Hawes, 12, of Pierson school in Livonia.

The youths will make the four-day, all-expense paid trip along with 136 other patrolers from the state as guests of the Automobile Club of Michigan. The youngsters were selected as the most outstanding of the 50,000 patrol boys who daily safeguard their classmates at crossings outside 2,200 Michigan schools.

During the honor trip to Washington, they will join 30,000 patrolers from across the United States and Canada in the traditional march down Constitution avenue. The Michigan youngsters will meet congressmen from their home districts at a get-together in Washington arranged by the Auto club. Other events include meeting entertainment world notables and visiting historic buildings, monuments and landmarks.

Fight at Depot Brings Arrest of Three

Three men will go before Municipal Judge Nandino Prongolo on charges of being drunk and disorderly. They were arrested Tuesday morning for fighting at the C & O depot.

Jailed were J. D. Holden, 1333 Springfield, Ypsilanti; Robert Humphreys, 1368 Main, Northville; and Paul Griffin, 1095 York street, Plymouth.

Police Lieutenant Roger Vanderveen said that it has not been determined what the fight was about, but in jail they seemed to be friends again.

Mrs. Otto Beyer and Miss Amelia Gayde spent from Thursday until Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Sullivan on White lake.

THE SMALL HOME

Thousands of homes with under 1,000 square feet of floor space are still being built. They're good buys if made with quality materials like ceramic tile in bathrooms and kitchens. But if they're not-quality made, they will have no re-sale value in a few years. A small home may seem like a bargain at first, but check carefully before buying.

If a flooring paper is laid between the subfloor and finish floor, the Sisakraft product or an approved equal is suggested, as ordinary building papers sometimes absorb moisture and pass it slowly to the wood floor above.

Net Squad Bows To Trenton, 7-0

A well-practiced Trenton tennis team drubbed Plymouth 7-0 last Thursday afternoon in the 1956 net season. It was reported by the Trojans' sixth tennis battle of the year as compared to the local's three-week practice session prior to opening the current campaign.

Only Bob Kemnitz and Mike Stickney, playing in the Rocks' singles competition, came close to breaking through Trenton's tight control of the match. Kemnitz wrestled 2-6, 6-4 and 3-6 before bowing as Stickney posted a 2-6, 6-4 and 2-6 card in defeat.

The two other Plymouth singles players and the three doubles teams in blue and white jerseys could offer little resistance. All five other matches were decided in two sets.

The results included: Jerry Steele, 0-6 and 2-6; Jim Gibson, 1-6 and 1-6; Lee Huber and Chuck Moise, 0-6 and 3-6; George Loeis and Dave Tillotson, 2-6 and 2-6; and Fred Libbing and Doug Rowe, 1-6 and 1-6.

The Rocks next tennis contest is this afternoon when Allen Park provides the opposition for the locals as they still seek a taste of success in the fledgling net season.

When people put profits above principles, the decline may be slow, but it is certain, nonetheless.

Rocks Parade 3 Pitchers in Opener But Still Put Down Belleville, 7-4

A four-run fifth inning followed by two more runs in the sixth enabled the Plymouth Rocks to inaugurate their new baseball year in fine fashion last Friday afternoon as they shaped a 7-4 opening day victory over Belleville.

The game was played on Belleville's diamond with the temperature in the 40's.

Coach Charlie Ketterer paraded a trio of local moundmen before the hosting Belleville batsmen in Plymouth's initial effort at retaining its Suburban Six league baseball crown hauled home from last season.

Winning hurler was Bob Clear, the second pitcher to appear for Plymouth. On the road to his win Clear had to return to the scene in the seventh after being shifted to the outfield in favor of Bob Jenkins at the close of the fourth inning. Starting pitcher was Jerry Drews who was shelled to cover in the first after allowing a single and a walk.

Plymouth controlled the contest and built a 5-0 lead before Belleville threatened. Then the Tigers called a quick run to pare the Rocks edge to 5-1. Plymouth retaliated with two insurance scores in the sixth which Belleville offset with two if its own in the bottom half. The Tigers chased over one final run in the seventh before Clear reappeared to squelch any threat.

The locals opened fire early and stepped out to a 1-0 margin in the second. Biff Tait gained first via an error, moved to second and rode home on Dave DeCoster's single.

But the Rocks' outburst in the fifth was what clinched the decision. DeCoster singled and was sacrificed to second by John Thomas. DeCoster crossed the plate on Clear's two-bagger and Clear scored on Carter's base-hit. Jenkins singled and Paul Cummings and Tait both walked, the latter scoring Carter.

Harv Wells' infield roller was converted into a fielder's choice allowing Jenkins to score. Jerry King ended the frame when he popped out.

Belleville got back one of these runs in the bottom half on a hit batsman, two walks and a single by Fensch.

Plymouth returned in the sixth for two more bites out of the hapless Tiger. DeCoster walked, was sacrificed to second by Thomas and came in on Clear's single. Jenkins' double moments later chased home Clear.

Belleville got to the tiring Jenkins in the sixth as he found it difficult to get the ball across.

Three walks, an error and two outfield flies moved the Belleville squad to a deficit. But Clear came on in the seventh to halt the rally after one last run had scored, thereby bringing the count to its final of 7-4.

Big guns in the Plymouth attack were Jenkins and Clear, who each doubled and singled driving home two runs apiece in four trips to the plate. Carter added two singles and two RBIs in four tries. King and DeCoster rounded out the Rocks' eighth-hit assault, each hitting singles.

Drews, who opened for the Rocks, lasted the first inning. Clear took over the mound duties through the fourth when Jenkins appeared. He wildly persevered until the seventh when Clear returned from the outfield to put out the fire.

Belleville also had its troubles from the hill. Guistors straggled, gave way to Burns in the second, who in turn moved over for Kinsey. Ostroski finished the stint.

Despite the succession of hurriers the Rocks tossed into the fray, Belleville batters had little success at the plate. The Tigers garnered only five hits with three of these being wasted in the first two frames. Belleville didn't score until the fifth.

Johner paced the Tigers with two singles, the latter of which led to Belleville's final run in the seventh. Angulon and Burns put together back-to-back singles in the second, but the Tigers failed to push anything across.

While the Plymouth varsity was pounding out an opening day win away the local reserve squad enjoyed the same results on the home field. Ken Knipschild's two-hitter formed the backbone for a 3-2 nod over the Belleville Jayvees as Al Runge and Stan Good each got two hits to take local batting honors.

The next varsity game is tomorrow afternoon at Allen Park. Game time is 4:00 p.m.

Thinclads Notch First Win of Season With 64-44 Conquest of Belleville

Rebounding from an opening dual-meet loss at the hands of Redford Union two weeks ago, Plymouth's thinclads took revenge last Thursday when they racked up a decisive 64-44 edge over Belleville in the Rocks' second track and field test of the 1956 slate.

The victory gave Coach Keith Baughman's hopefuls an even record of one-win and one-defeat thus far in the campaign.

In contrast to the loss suffered against Redford Union when a lack of depth showed the Rocks into a second best role, the locals poured on the gas facing Belleville and wrapped up the win with nine second place finishes and seven thirds.

Adding these results to four firsts plus a sweep in the two relay events, the Plymouth crew had little difficulty in hoisting its season card to 5-0.

Point-making honors for the Rocks went to Tom Ferguson, who captured the half-mile race in 2:12.7 and added a share of first in the high jump at 5' 4". Paul Cummings also hit this mark in the high jump to the Ferguson there. Ferguson wound up with nine points.

Dick Manion with a victory in the 180-yard low hurdles coupled with a second place in the 120-yard high pulled down eight points for Plymouth and second highest individual scoring honors.

Best performance of the afternoon was displayed by Belleville's Waite who listed 11 points on victories in the shot put (41' 8") and the broad jump (17' 11") plus a third in the high jump.

The Rocks only out-and-out domination in the meet came in both relays. The locals checked out a 2:44.4 in the medley and a 1:41.0 in the 880-yard relay, both being worth five points apiece and serving to create a sufficient cushion for the lack of ample first-place finishes.

Steve Jewell's nine-foot jump in the pole vault earned the Plymouth squad its only other first. Neither man was able to convert a complete sweep in any of the remaining track or field events. Other scorers for the locals included: Jim Farley, second, 120-yard high; Steve Veresh, second, 100-yard dash; Chuck Westover, second, mile run; Jim Archer, third, mile run; Lon Hadwin, second, 440; Ed Grabowski, third, 440; Mende, third, 180-yard low; Veresh, second, 220; Ed Ziggy, third, 220; Jim Farley, second, 880; Dick Davidson, second, shot; Lindy Mills, third, shot; Veresh, second, broad jump; Myron Hopper, third, broad jump.

The next track meet for the Rocks is this afternoon against Bentley here. Starting time is 4:00 p.m.

Bentley Balance Tips Up Golfers

The Rocks golf squad suffered its second setback in three meets this young season as Bentley high school trimmed the locals 98-378 last Monday afternoon at Western Golf course in an 18-hole battle.

But the tarnish of defeat was somewhat less as Plymouth's Tom Carmichael continued his flashy consistency as low scorer for the Rocks. Carmichael fired an 86 over the par-72 Western layout to capture meet medalist honors.

It was the second time Carmichael posted medalist results in the three Plymouth contests to date. Also it was the third time he wound up low scorer among the four Plymouth linksmen in the trio of tilts thus far.

Bentley's Ray Thompson carded an 89 to pace the Bulldogs on the way to the decision. The Bentley victory was credited to better scoring balance than that exhibited by the Rocks. Bill Rambo shot a 103, Staton Lorenz carded 96 and Kurt Atchison settled for 113 to round out the Plymouth scores.

Gary Whitener with a 91 was second low for Bentley and third low in the meet.

The Russians apparently want to get what they need from Western Europe without selling anything in return and without putting up the cash.

Big business, and most little businesses, are still interested in profits—not social reform or improvement.

At What Age Should SAVING Start?

Many, many First Federal customers have had savings accounts for their children, opened soon after the youngsters were born. They start with a small account for the new baby. Then, it's surprising how such savings grow with money gifts for Christmas and birthdays. Later, the child's own after-school earnings are added. Besides offering important training in thrift, this plan builds savings for college, or for a start in business. Savings here are insured to $10,000.

HERE ARE THE FACTS ABOUT THE MILK STRIKE!

The ill-advised milk strike, in which organized labor endeavored to "take over" the dairy farmers of the Detroit milk shed, proved one thing: That labor union practices and the business of independent farmers don't mix.

It became evident from the start that the instigators were not striking the dairies for a higher price. They had, in fact, agreed with dairies they would take the prevailing market price for farmers' milk!

Instead, they directed their attack against the dairy farmers' own organization, the Michigan Milk Producers Association, which they aimed to control or destroy. In this attempt, forces within organized labor sought to capitalize on the economic plight of the farmer and exploited a minority group of farmers to their own ends.

There should be no misunderstanding the fact that MMPA is a dairy farmers' cooperative, operated by the farmers, for the farmers, to cooperatively market their milk and protect their economic interests. It was the propaganda line of the strike leaders to mislead the farmers and the public in this respect.

The obviously false claim of strike leaders that they won a price increase was a part of this propaganda technique. Actually, nothing good for the dairy farmer resulted from the strike. Rather, only harm was accomplished, the seeds of dissension were sown, and the real issues and facts were wilfully misrepresented.

What Caused the Strike?

The strike stemmed from the ambition of a few within organized labor to control the Detroit milk market and to collect union dues from dairy farmers who ship milk to that market. To accomplish this, the strike organizers turned farmer against farmer in their drive to destroy his cooperative organization.

Who Were the Strike Leaders?

Major leadership and direction came from organized labor. Joined with these professionals were a former union organizer and a small group of dairy farmers who have consistently opposed the methods and policies of MMPA and sought this means of imposing their will on the MMPA membership.

What Were the Real Issues?

This was not a strike for a higher price for milk nor did it accomplish any economic advantage for farmers. The real issue was recognition of the so-called Fair Share group, organized labor's "front", for the purpose of dues collection and check-off. By this action, the strike directors sought to gain control of the assets and functions of MMPA.

Who Won the Price Increase?

The bargaining power of MMPA, carried out in an ultimatum voted at the March 28 delegates' meeting, was alone responsible for the price increase gained on April 1. The Class 1 price of $5 would have been achieved sooner and without ultimatum if obstructionist tactics of strike leaders and others had not blocked price negotiations carried on by the MMPA Detroit sales committee.

What Are the Economic Facts?

The increased price of $5 per cwt. applies only to that portion of the milk used for bottling and fluid purposes. It is not a net price to the farmer, who must pay marketing and shipping costs. Only part of the milk can be sold at this price, the rest must be used for manufactured products at the prevailing market price.

Outside Milk a Problem

Another factor not to be overlooked is the deluge of milk which results in any market where a higher than average price prevails. Competition from outside the milk shed can cause havoc for regular producers, even to the extent of losing their market.

No one realizes more fully the serious problems of the dairy farmer than does the MMPA, whose affairs are directed by these self same farmers. The present farmer price squeeze is the nation's Number One problem. It cannot be solved by mob action nor by looking for help from agitators outside the ranks of agriculture. They have their own axe to grind.

Hotchkin-Hawkins Nuptials Read At Wayne Church of Christ

At an 8 o'clock ceremony held Friday evening, April 6, in the Wayne Church of Christ, Beverly Ann Hawkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Maynard Hawkins of 1942 Berry, Wayne, became the bride of Gene G. Hotchkin, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Hotchkin of 575 Blunk street, Plymouth.

The bride was given in marriage by her father before an altar graced with palms, candelabra and baskets of carnations. The Reverend Joseph F. Jones performed the double-ring rites. Selections of "I Love You Truly" and "O Promise Me" were sung by Joann Stevenson accompanied by Michael Belt at the organ.

Services of best man, guests were seated by Leonard Milross, Richard Hively, Robert Lewis and Jerry Hotchkin, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Hawkins wore a powder blue lace dress with white and black accessories for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Hotchkin selected a navy blue lace dress with pink accessories. Both wore pink carnation corsages.

A reception was held in the American Legion hall in Wayne for 350 guests. From out of town were those from Lansing, Grosse Pointe, Detroit, Ypsilanti, Dearborn, Northville, Romulus, Brighton and Milford.

The bridal gown was styled with bodice of chantilly lace over taffeta, a scattering of sequins at the yoke, mandarin collar and long sleeves. A full skirt of nylon net fell gracefully from the waistline, terminating in a chapel-length train. Securing the bride's fingertip veil was a crown of sequins and pearls. She carried a white Bible on which two orchids, surrounded with streamers, were centered.

Mona Hawkins, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a red, waltz-length gown of nylon net and velvet, with bolero of red velvet covering the strapless bodice. Her bouquet was composed of red and white carnations in cascade arrangement.

Faye Tyler, sister of the bride, and Jane Bailey, a friend, were bridesmaids. They wore turquoise gowns styled identically to Miss Hawkins', and carried yellow carnations in cascade arrangement.

Junior bridesmaids were Ethel Hawkins, sister of the bride, and Janet Hotchkin, sister of the bridegroom. They were dressed in gowns of yellow and pale blue nylon net.

Our fourth quarterly conference will be held on Monday, May 7th at 8:00 p.m. with the Rev. LaVerne Finch presiding. This year we will have a combination Quarterly Conference and Annual Church meeting.

By so doing the entire church will have an opportunity to hear the reports of work done by our several organizations during the conference year. This will mean an informed membership and, we trust, all will be challenged through this direct dissemination of the facts about our church's life. It will likewise provide a medium for a comprehensive understanding of our total program and a democratic opportunity for all members over eighteen years to vote their judgment.

IT'S TORQUE THAT MAKES THE WHEELS GO 'ROUND!

... And the High-Torque Output of Oldsmobile's Famous Rocket Engine is Instantly Translated into Outstanding Performance at the Rear Wheels!

LET'S TALK TORQUE! In plain language, torque is "twist"—like turning a door knob. It's the force that makes the wheels go 'round.

So it follows... the more torque your engine has, the more go power your car has... the more getaway at the light... the more action on the open road!

That's why, when it comes to power, there's nothing like Oldsmobile's Rocket T-350 Engine—because the Rocket is torque TNT! Figures prove it: 350 pound-feet at 2800 rpm (340 pound-feet at 2400 rpm in '88 models).

OLDS CHASSIS IS ENGINEERED TO HANDLE HIGHER TORQUE! Oldsmobile has the chassis to take Rocket torque... a skillfully engineered Oldsmobile chassis with an extra-sturdy, dynamically balanced drive shaft, and an extra-rigid frame that resists twisting and veering.

What's more, the Rocket's got horsepower — to spare! And with Oldsmobile, it's high, usable horsepower... a by-product of engine design aimed straight at the wheels—design that translates horsepower into terrific torque at normal engine rpm's.

TOP TORQUE MEANS TIP-TOP PERFORMANCE! The result is higher torque—silken, responsive Rocket action. Touch the accelerator, ever so gently, you "go"... and we do mean "GO!" You thrill to smoother, swifter bursts of power in medium speed ranges—tip-top performance for everyday use—spectacular performance when you need it... when you want it.

Any way you look at it, you can't top the Rocket for thrills for the money—or for top return when it's time to trade. Stop by soon. Rocket 'round the block... or around the town if you like!

OLDSMOBILE'S ROCKET—a double winner in 1956 Mobilgas Economy Run. Get the feel of top horsepower, top torque in the engine that's an economy champion, too!

Suggestions to Beautify Your Lawn & Garden

HERE'S HOW . . .

MAKE A GARDEN FENCE

An attractive fence can be made with boards offset instead of in line. Determine the board spacing and height desired. The closer the boards and the higher the fence the greater the privacy. Treat the butts of posts with an oil-borne wood preservative. Set the posts six feet apart with about one-fourth of their length in the ground and at least 1 foot in concrete. Fasten 6-foot 2 by 4 rails across the tops of the posts. Cut 1/4-inch mortises in the lower portion of the posts to receive the bottom rails. Cut the rails to fit. Use 20-penny non-rusting nails to attach the top 2 by 4's and to toenail the bottom ones. Stagger vertical 1 by 6-inch boards on opposite sides of the fence and attach with 10-penny non-rusting nails. Paint the completed fence with a good outside paint.

Lawn Needs Proper Care in Spring To Assure Health Throughout Year

While your lawn may not require as much attention as your flower beds—knowing what to do and when to do it will help produce better results and require less maintenance work. It is not advisable to start a permanent lawn in the spring. A temporary one may be planted now, a permanent one should be sown in the fall. However, soil preparation and selection of the proper lawn-seed mixture are important at this time. Reseed thin areas (as weather conditions permit). Fertilize with 10 to 20 pounds per 1,000 square feet. After the area is seeded, it should be lightly raked and rolled. Water well to provide for quicker germination and until it reaches several inches in height. Then set the blades of your mower so that only the top 1/4 inch of the lawn will be cut off. For specific help for spring lawn care, consult your nurseryman. Wisdom comes to individuals in broken doses and a few human beings have much of it.

Roses Provide Beauty Inside, Outside Home

Recent advances in rose culture, makes the family rose garden an investment in living. For families that like beautiful cut flowers in the home and on the grounds, a modern rose plant will yield more returns in cut flowers in its first year than the plant cost originally, according to the American Association for Nurserymen. Rose plants produce a conservative average of three or four blooms annually—will return 9 to 12 dollars in terms of retail values for the bloom alone.

Feed Plants Special Food For Growth

More and more gardeners are finding that the use of special-purpose plant foods give them greener, richer lawns, bigger blooms, larger and tastier vegetables. The reason is that special-purpose plant foods, with formulas fitted to the nutritional needs of grass and various plants, provide not only the primary feeding elements, but also other mineral elements that must be present to boost growth best. It's a fact that unless you feed your lawn and plants the special-purpose fertilizer "fitted" to their special needs, they probably will suffer from a deficiency of certain elements, which will show up in poor growth, color and size. Another important point is that grass and plants use up most of the plant-feeding elements in the soil from past seasons. These nutrients must be replaced or they'll be on a starvation diet and can't thrive fully . . . just as a camel uses up the nourishment he stores away, and then must replace it or starve.

Trees Invaluable To Homeowner

Take care of the trees on your property, for they will yield much pleasure and comfort. If "Only God can make a tree," we at least can nourish and protect it with proper care. Here are some rules for tree maintenance: 1. Pruning—Most trees require periodical pruning in order to keep their shape. Dead limbs and branches also need to be removed. Small trees that can be reached by standing on the ground, or possibly on a stepladder, may be pruned safely by the homeowner. Pruning of large trees is dangerous, however, and is not recommended. Call in a local tree expert. A reliable tree expert always will have insurance that protects his employees while working on your property. 2. Spraying—A regular spraying program is advisable. For practical purposes, insect pests can be divided into two groups: Chewing insects that eat the foliage or fruits and sucking insects which pierce the outer skin of foliage or fruit and suck out the juices. The former are controlled by spraying, insect stomach poisons, and the latter by insecticides which kill insects on contact. 3. Fertilization—Many home owners are apt to feed their fruit trees, but neglect shade trees. They need added food as much as the former, especially where grass is mowed around them and the clippings removed. The fertilizer should contain nitrogen, phosphorus and potash, with 6 to 10 per cent soluble nitrogen. It should be applied at the rate of five pounds for each inch of the tree trunk diameter at breast height. Fertilizer should be supplied to the whole root area. Application is best when a series of holes are bored into the soil about 18 inches apart and filled with fertilizer. Soil augurs are useful tools for the purpose, though many tree experts use air or electric power tools.

POPULAR FAMILY ROOM

TV helped greatly to introduce the family room into the American home setting. But once given a place, the family room has maintained its popularity on merits of its own. When decorated with taste and intelligence, the family room often becomes the most popular area in the whole house. Essential to the design is a versatile material, both practical and beautiful, for floor and walls. Quarry, paver or ceramic tile can be recommended because they're all eminently durable, colorfast and easy to keep clean. Tile, available in 200 colors, is economical, too, because it requires virtually no upkeep. To lay and finish a Northern Hard Maple floor is not a difficult job, but the finest flooring cannot give you a good floor unless you're willing to take the time and precautions to lay it properly over a sound sub-structure. First, make sure of good drainage; get expert counsel if

How To Use Weed Killers

Here are some pointers for using selective weed killers on your lawn: DON'T mix stronger solutions than the manufacturer's directions suggest. DON'T flood the lawn with the material; merely dampening the leaves is enough. DON'T let weed killers come in contact with your ornamentals. DON'T apply just after mowing or just before mowing. DON'T fail to wash your sprayer well after using weed killer in it.

Easy - to - Grow Perennials Add Garden Beauty

June gardens, most beautiful of the year in northern states, are mostly made up of their delightful display upon hardy perennial flowers.

Since early blooming perennials are fully mature when spring arrives, they can develop their flowers much faster than an annual, which must grow to maturity from seed, before it flowers.

A perennial plant lives for years, returning each year to greet you, an old and welcome friend. Yet most can be grown from seed as easily as vegetables, provided they are started in the spring and given the same care as vegetables during their first year.

The complete garden should have annual and perennial flowers, for each has its contribution in beauty to make during the garden year.

Not all the perennials flower in June. By choosing early, mid-season and late varieties it is possible to obtain a "succession of blooms" which will insure in your garden a constant display from earliest spring until autumn of these lovely flowers, which are usually the garden headliners during their season.

Here are suggestions taken from the long list available of perennials that can be grown from seed:

Blue—Anemone myosotidiflora, 1 ft., April-May; Anemone Dropmore, 5 ft., June-July; Delphiniums, Pacific Hybrids, 5-6 ft.; Jupe; Linum perenne, 2 ft., May-August; Platycodon, 2-3 ft., June-September.

Yellow—Anthemis, 2 ft., all summer; Coreopsis, 2 ft., all summer; Gaillardias, 2 ft., June until fall.

White—Arisaema, 1 ft., April; Shasta daisies, 2-3 ft., June-August; Boltonia, 4-5 ft., July-October.

Red and Pink—Hibiscus, 3 ft., August - September; Gaillardia Burgundy, 2 ft., June until fall; Pyrethrum, 2 ft., June; Dianthus plumarius (clove pinks), 1 1/2-2 ft., June; Columbines, 2 ft., June; Carnation Grenadin, 20 in., June; Double Hollyhocks, 5-7 ft., July.

Seeds are available of many other perennials, as well as biennials, which live two years, and can be grown from seed by the same simple methods.

Like the hardy vegetables, seeds of hardy perennials can be sown as soon as the ground has been prepared. Sow seeds in rows, as you sow radishes. When they begin to crowd, thin them out, moving excess plants to other rows. Give them the same care in feeding, cultivating, and watering as you give vegetables, and by fall you will have substantial clumps with heavy roots, ready to move to permanent places in your garden.

All this talk about what the youngsters are doing is silly, especially to adults who recall what they did when children.

Despite the short cuts and quick cures, there is no easy way to anything that is worth much.

Double Hollyhocks Are Among Most Beautiful Flowers of Summer

Well-cared-for trees, handsome plantings of roses, shrubs and lawn plus attractive concrete walls and walks give a look of distinction to an older home. That's why experts agree that investments in landscaping, good masonry and regular home fix-up projects pay big dividends in increased value, comfort and beauty.

Carefully-plotted plantings of lawn, shrubs and flowers can be further enhanced with a flagstone walk. Here a back yard takes on gracious elegance by proper utilization of the small space available.

Give Transplanted Tree Time

If a newly transplanted tree doesn't live up to all expectations this year, don't be too disappointed.

Retarded leaf growth is nothing unusual the first spring after a tree has been moved.

The shock of moving from nursery to lawn or from one type of soil to another frequently throws a tree's growth timetable off schedule. But the tree may prove even more beautiful than anticipated once it gets used to its new environment.

Of course, the home owner should be sure before transplanting that the new climate, soil and temperature range does not differ too drastically from the tree's former environment. A tree native to the deep South can seldom survive in the far northern states, nor can a tree used to heavy rainfall and rich soil be expected to survive in a dry, sandy neighborhood.

But if there is no great variance in the tree's new and old homes, and if care is taken to transplant properly, there is no reason why the moving operation should not be a complete success.

Though the leaves may not be as abundant or as large as the new owner might expect, they will be dark green and attractive if the transplant is in good health. It should show new growth of several inches even during the first season.

Houses with shed or flat roofs should have a vapor barrier in addition to being adequately ventilated. Air circulation between all joist spaces is necessary. Circulation can be supplied to shed roofs by cornice vents. For flat roofs, mechanical or roof vents are recommended in addition to cornice vents.

The right of the people to know is basic to the preservation of our freedom, and fundamental to our American way of life. The infringement of this right, whether by government or by groups, or by individuals, no matter in what small measure it may begin, will lead to tyranny and the death of liberty.

Don't be a Litterbug

You will claim that we are wasting good editorial page space by asking you not to throw tin cans, sacks of garbage and other kinds of litter on your lawn. You will say that you never do such things—and you probably don't. But when it comes to tossing rubbish onto OTHER people's property—that might be a different story.

You realize that if you tossed wastepaper and garbage out your back door, it would be you who would have the job of eventually cleaning it up. And besides, you don't want your property looking like the city dump. But there is no work involved at all if you throw a sack of garbage from a car along a country road or drop an empty cigarette package to the sidewalk. Let someone else worry about keeping their property attractive.

Such people are the targets of the Plymouth Garden club which this Sunday kicks off a campaign against litterbugs. Members of the club are not only putting a lot of time into the campaign, but also much money. Re-education of the old-time chronic litterbug is a big undertaking. But the Garden club is also carrying their program into the schools where it may not be too late to teach that keeping America beautiful isn't someone else's job.

It is estimated that $30,000,000 is spent annually in this nation to clean up litter along state and county highways. You need not go far to see why such money needs to be spent. Along nearly every highway around Plymouth can be found piles of trash which were deliberately placed there by someone who didn't want to bother going to an authorized dump. Along Plymouth's streets are found everything from boxes to half-eaten sandwiches. The most puzzling part of this disgraceful picture is seeing the litter only a few feet away from a disposal barrel.

There was a syndicated cartoon which ran a few years ago showing a family entering a litter-strewn picnic ground. The father is saying: "There's our cans from last year's picnic—it's a wonder they wouldn't keep the place cleaned up!"

Like this man, too many of us believe that it is someone else's job to keep America cleaned up. If each of us would come to realize that America is OURS, that our lawn is extending from the Atlantic to the Pacific, there would be no more need for litterbug campaigns.

In Case of Heart Attack

The American Heart Association has given citizens some advice on what to do in case you are the only person present when another suffers a heart attack. Most of the advice constitutes things which should not be done, but there are some things which you can do.

First, you should call a doctor, of course. Then, you may help the patient take a position where he will find breathing easiest. In addition, you can loosen tight clothing.

You may also provide warmth, cover or extra clothing, if the patient is chilled. After that, there is not too much the ordinary bystander can do.

He should not move the patient or give him anything to drink until the doctor arrives.

The Heart Association has prepared a booklet entitled, "Heart Attack," and it is available to all those who would like to learn the symptoms of a heart attack and what can be, and should not be done, in case of such an attack. The booklet may be obtained from the Heart Association's national office, at 44 East 23rd Street, New York, N. Y.

Washington Quiz

- Q—Can you tell me, what is the Bay City experiment in school teaching? A—It is an experiment introduced in the elementary schools of Bay City, Michigan, whereby the school board hired a number of so-called teacher aides to relieve classroom teachers of all clerical, housekeeping and other nonprofession tasks, leaving the teacher full time for the children in the classroom. A survey had found that the average school teacher spent from 21 to 69% of each school day on extra-curricular tasks and only 31 to 79% of the time actually teaching and counseling children. The aides took the following tasks from the teacher's shoulders: taking roll call, collecting milk and lunch money; rearranging desks; listing library books, correcting papers, keeping records, corridor duty, supervising recess, changing room displays, giving first aid, helping in gym period, handling visitors and messengers, helping student committees, and out of school tasks.

State Politicians Set Stage for Campaign Battle

"Harvest season" is almost here for politicians, and they are eagerly examining the crop of voters.

Democrats are embarked upon a series of "reports to the people" starring Gov. G. Mennen Williams and the five office holders who moved into top state administrative positions 18 months ago. This party is touring the state for a face to face meeting with its many people. While the "report" may have much value to the citizens in general, there can be little doubt that it can have substantial political value to the Democratic party.

Lack of a gubernatorial candidate who can inspire enthusiasm in the GOP has been a matter of prime concern for Republicans. But leaders are not sitting on their hands until they select their man.

They are making things unpleasant, to say the least, for Secretary of State James M. Hare by emphasizing embezzlement charges involving his branch managers, and for Attorney General Thomas M. Kavanagh by underlining his difficulties with traffic regulations.

Democrats will make liberal use of their record since they took control of the state administrative board, and during the four terms of Gov. Williams. They will attack Republican legislators for not coming up with money and laws requested by the Governor, especially in fields of mental health and education.

"A look at the record" will be the defense of Republicans. They will talk of what they did accomplish in these fields; claiming that laws they supported and money they helped appropriate will handle the problems, and without running the state's treasury in the red.

Republican leaders might total the list of appropriations requested by the Governor and show how far the state would be in the hole if the Legislature had acted according to his lead.

A spirited battle can be expected as this campaign gets underway. The prize is high for either party. The loss for either is serious.

Michigan judges have been asked to crack down on bad drivers with stiff fines.

The associations of municipal judges and justices of the peace already have adopted an "advisory" schedule of uniform fines—$1 a mile over the limit for the first five miles, $2 a mile for the second five and $3 a mile for the third five miles of speeding.

A conference of judges and law enforcement officials at East Lansing heard Secretary of State Hare say that the speed limits and other safety laws are "Merely tools."

He said the final answer to highway safety lies with educating the driver and "changing his attitude."

"Until we can do that, we're in trouble," he said.

Vacations will be a big business in Michigan again this summer.

The tall steel work of the Mackinac Straits bridge is drawing sightseers to Michigan, the harbinger of what to expect when the bridge linking the peninsulas is completed in 1957.

Resort owners are beginning to build on either sides of the straits, to be ready to serve the vacationing public—now and when the bridge is completed.

Michigan residents are considered to be the best advertisement for the state's resort areas.

Last year 9,000,000 people spent their vacations in Michigan, 4,000,000 of them state residents and 5,000,000 of them from other states—and nations.

Fishing for walleyes, northern, blue gills, pan fish and trout starts April 28 and bass season opens June 16.

Michigan week will be highlighted May 21 with the annual exchange of mayors.

This is the custom of sending the chief executives of the state's participating cities and villages to other city halls for the day—to see how the other fellow operates.

More than 500 cities and villages are taking part in the 1956 exchange.

Local committees have been organized to make their one-day mayors comfortable, taking him on tours of municipal attractions and swapping ideas on the conduct of local government.

It will be a major day in the Michigan Week celebration May 20-26, set aside for the state to count its blessings and advertise its attractions to the world.

WAGEWORKERS AND BOMBING

Babson Park, Mass. In considering this topic, there are several important factors which must be weighed by both employers and wage-workers. One of the first of these is location. In addition to the question of whether it is a good place to live, a location is either favorable or unfavorable depending upon its suitability for the industry in which you are engaged. If the commodity to be produced is bulky and heavy, accessibility, through proximity or ample transportation, is necessary.

LOCATION AND CAPITAL

A successful steel mill's location is determined primarily by its accessibility to the raw material. Transportation by rail and water is highly essential. Another factor in determining an ideal location for an industrial plant is a market for the finished product. Heavy products are therefore excluded from some markets by consideration of "what-the-traffic-will-bear." A carload of silk can be shipped much farther than a carload of steel, since the rate cost per unit would be much less for silk. This would give it a larger market. Therefore, accessibility to both the raw product and the market for the finished goods is very important in determining an ideal location for a successful enterprise.

Another factor in plant location is CAPITAL (money). In many industries, thousands of dollars must be invested in order to employ one worker. Millions of dollars must be invested to construct a steel mill. Were it not for capital, we could not have ample railroads and airplanes, or tall office buildings, or bridges to span large rivers. We would still be in the horse-and-buggy stage. Capital is what makes it possible for 63,000,000 workers to be employed at wages hitherto undreamed of. The United States is the only nation in which this utopian condition exists.

IMPORTANCE OF MANAGEMENT

An ample congenial labor supply is highly essential for a good industrial plant location. Manufacturers could not do anything without labor. And labor could not be employed by the millions without a large accumulation of capital. Capital depends on labor and labor depends on capital: what harms one harms both. If you are working in a place where the above factors are generally favorable, the next important factor is MANAGEMENT. A manager's functions are to organize, deputize, supervise, and vitalize the organization.

POSSIBILITY OF WORLD WAR III

I am not advising any worker to change the place where he is now working for fear of World War III. I forecast that such a war is not coming at once, and may not come for some time—until after you are retired and have a good home in the South or in California. But I do advise young persons who are just entering industry to avoid certain big cities, some of which are sure to be laid waste in the event of atomic attack. This means that small communities, some miles distant from big vulnerable industrial cities, should be preferred by those who have not already set their "roots" elsewhere.

Most large corporations are now building auxiliary plants in such smaller safe cities and towns. Therefore, when you decide what industry you are best fitted for, and what company you wish to work for, ask the employment manager to give you a job in a small community. This especially applies to prospective graduates of high schools and colleges which are now being visited by employment managers seeking good men and women to join their organizations.

The Escalante, Utah's river of arches, makes such sharp loops and turns in places that it can travel half a mile yet be only 50 yards from where it started.

There are more than 200,000 restaurants in the United States (and all crowded at lunch time, it seems).

ONE GOOD EXAMPLE of how telephone research benefits all of us is the amazing transistor. This versatile marvel, an electronic amplifier, was conceived, invented and developed at Bell Telephone Laboratories. As development progresses, transistors are replacing vacuum tubes in more and more telephone equipment. Tiny and mechanically simple, transistors last longer than vacuum tubes and need little power. These economical features help keep down the cost of providing telephone service.

WHAT DO YOU have planned for, say, next week end?

Perhaps a drive to see some friends or relatives in the next town. Or maybe you're going to spend a quiet two days at home. Either way, the telephone can help you enjoy your week end. If you're planning a visit, call ahead and let the folks know just when you'll be there. And if you're just going to loll around the house, wouldn't that be a good time to talk to those out-of-town friends or loved ones? Telephone calls cost so little and they are so appreciated.

BREAKFAST IN BED is one good example of luxurious living.

But that's a luxury most of us can't often afford. A bedside phone on the other hand is a very inexpensive "luxury." For about $1 a month you enjoy the comfort and convenience of an additional telephone at your finger tips. It will mean the end of stumbling around when you make or get calls at night—you just reach for the phone. To order your bedside telephone, call our Business Office.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

This week we visited the "Opportunities Unlimited" exhibit at the high school where we asked four boys, "After you graduate from high school do you think that you will work and live in the Plymouth area?"

MARVIN HOPPER, 1815 Haggerty: "I will probably work right around here. I want to get into the service after high school and then return to work in some factory around here, mostly because this has been my home and the opportunities are as good here as anywhere."

DALE WILKIN, 7803 Beek road: "I want to stay here and work for my dad on the farm. I like farming. I wouldn't like shop work."

STEVE JEWELL, 873 North Mill: "I am going into the Navy after I graduate and then will probably go to college at Western Michigan. I want to take up forestry so I guess I wouldn't be working around Plymouth—probably up north."

NILS PETERSON, 729 Pine: "I might possibly work at the new Western Electric plant because it seems like a pretty good company to work for. I want to get into electronic work. I want to go to some college, I don't know where, and take engineering."

RESIDENCE and PERSONAL LIABILITY

For every homeowner there are four basic insurance policies that give a sound insurance program: 1. Fire insurance on the contents. 2. Residence and Personal Liability insurance. 3. Automobile Liability insurance. 4. Comprehensive Personal Liability Policy. As a property owner or renter, you are charged with a duty of care towards the public and your guests, as to avoid bodily injury or damage to their property. If, in the maintenance of your residence or apartment, in personal and sports activities, you injured or caused injury to a person; that person has every right to bring suit against you for the damages he suffered. It is not mere heresy, but a fact that one liability suit can take everything you own, and in many cases, tie you down financially for the rest of your life. COVERAGE "A" - LIABILITY The Policy agrees to pay all sums which you shall become legally obligated to pay as damages because of bodily injury, sickness or disease, including death at any time resulting therefrom, sustained by any person, and damages because of injury to or destruction of property, including the loss of use thereof. You will notice, there is no stipulation that the loss must be "caused by accident" as in most liability policies. The policy covers you as the insured, and if they are residents in the same household, your spouse, relatives of either, and any person under the age of 21 who is in the care of an insured. Coverage is provided with respect to animals and watercraft (not over 50 h.p. or 25' length) owned by you or an insured. The Premises include your residence and all private approaches, individual or family burial plots, other temporary premises you may reside at, provided you do not rent or own it; a vacant lot or land, as long as it is not farm land or business property. For an extra premium of $3.00 per year, a cottage may be covered in the same policy for the minimum limits. COVERAGE "B" - MEDICAL PAYMENTS: This is part of the basic policy which includes an allowance of $250.00 per person in the minimum limits. The Medical Payment is payable to any person who is on your premises with your permission, or because of a condition in the ways immediately adjoining. Persons are covered for medical payments if injured by an insured, resident employee in your employment at the time of accident, or by an animal belonging to you. A resident employee is covered who meets with an accident while in your employment. Coverage "B" - Does stipulate that the injury, sickness or disease must be caused by accident in order to be covered. Examples for either Coverage "A" or "B": A mailman slipping on the sidewalk. A guest falling down the stairs. Servant falling off ladder. Your dog bites a child or adult. Your child hitting someone while riding a bicycle at school. Your dog tearing up a guest's fur coat. Your child breaking a window in your neighbor's house. You hit someone with a golf club or ball playing golf. You injure someone while hunting or fishing. When burning leaves or trash you start a neighbor's garage on fire or your children start it. The above instances you may be held liable for are just a few in many hundreds of possible cases that this policy would cover. Probably the most amazing thing is the low cost of this protection. For $10,000 Bodily Injury and Property Damage Limits and $250.00 Medical Payments - the yearly premium is $10.00 for a one-family dwelling or apartment. We recommend an increase of coverage. The reason is obvious, today's costs or claims are much higher and the small increase or difference in rate is very low for the increase in protection. This is an ESSENTIAL part of any one's insurance program. It should be a MUST in yours!

Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel of 232 Blunk prepares ingredients for Fresh Spinach Salad

Bacon, Onion Flavor Fresh Spinach Salad

Coming our way this week is a tasty and nutritious salad, recommended by Mrs. F. R. Hoheisel of 232 Blunk.

Fresh, uncooked spinach, minced onion and bacon tossed in, and a tart sauce as topping are the ingredients to this salad which makes a colorful addition to any table. Serving it at pot-lucks and similar events, Mrs. Hoheisel finds it's also a popular item at home as accompaniment to a casserole main dish. Hot rolls are the finishing touch to a delicious meal.

Here's the way the recipe goes:

- Fresh Spinach Salad
- 1 pound spinach
 - 1/4 pound lean bacon
 - 4 green onions (cut fine)
 - 1 egg
 - 1/2 cup vinegar
 - 1/4 teaspoon salt
 - 1/2 cup water
 - 1 cup sugar
- Thoroughly wash and drain spinach-separate.
- Cut bacon in small pieces and fry until crisp, then remove and drain. Remove frying pan from burner, add water, salt and vinegar to bacon fat. Break egg into bowl. Beat well. Add sugar to egg and pour liquid from pan into bowl with egg and sugar mixture. Stir well.
- Place spinach, onions, bacon in salad bowl. Pour dressing over and toss.

Joseph Skaggs Guests of Honor

An open house on Sunday, April 22 was given Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Skaggs by their daughters, Joan and Eleanor Skaggs in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. The open house was held in the Skaggs home, 47815 Powell road with seventy-five guests attending from Plymouth and Livonia.

Interesting highlight of the day was the discovery of the fact when Mr. and Mrs. Skaggs were married 25 years ago two other members of their family were also married at approximately that same time and again this year three members, one from each of the families, will be making wedding preparations for this summer. In each case the person to wed is the second child in the family.

Teachers Club To Install Officers

Gerald E. Elston, sixth-grade teacher at Smith school, will be installed as president of the Plymouth Education association at ceremonies to be held Monday, April 30, at 3:45 p.m. in Stark-weather school.

He succeeds Earl Gibson, retiring president who is principal of the James Gallimore elementary school to be completed the end of this year.

Others to be installed Monday are Miss June Kelly, vice president; Olivia Bell, treasurer; Mrs. Elizabeth Donnelly, recording secretary; and Mrs. Betsy Sheldon, corresponding secretary.

The new officers will serve for the 1956-57 school year. They were elected last week at a meeting of the PEA.

Government of the people seems to be for the people represented by pressure groups.

Northville State Hospital To Hold Open House Sunday

The citizens of Plymouth are invited by the staff and patients at Northville State Hospital to attend their 4th annual open house this Sunday from 9:30 a.m. through 3:30 p.m.

On coming into Northville State Hospital, one would first be amazed at its structure. It is not like what we would consider a mental hospital to be. Sunlight and fresh air streams through the modern designed glass windows. When you come into its spacious lobby, and go through the well-lighted pastel colored shades were used, 18 various shades were used, you see people sewing, enjoying various recreational activities, working, or busily occupied in one of the hospital's many programs.

This year, patients will act as hosts and hostesses and guides as well as participating in many other activities. Visitors will be shown wards, recreational and occupational therapy areas and the electric shock treatment area. The hospital is continually growing and when completed, the treatment center at Northville State Hospital could be considered a community within a community with its 3,500 patients and over 1,200 staff.

In talking with Dr. Phillip N. Brown about the overall hospital program, he states that: "The Northville State Hospital is being constructed at an opportune time in this period of enlightenment of the public, and it is the highest aim of this hospital to aid, abet, and teach the policies of sound mental health, to prevent where possible, the development of mental illness, and to cure as rapidly and effectively as can humanly be done, those so afflicted.

"For those who are committed to our care for treatment and cure, we shall strive to bring our rehabilitation program to the highest degree possible in the care of the mentally ill. We are far removed from the days of bedlam and all the horrors of the asylums." The hospital is located at 41001 West 7 Mile Road, Northville.

Salad Designed For The Time

Boost your meal planning reputation during the warmer season with intriguing salads. Deviled Ham Delight is a good beginning. It's a superior molded salad, delicate yet flavorful and hardy enough for the menfolk. Serve as salad or for a cold plate meal.

Serve the mold on a large platter and surround it with crisp greens and bundles of canned asparagus or whole green beans, garnished with mayonnaise and pimiento strips. 'Tis a pretty platter and an extra good choice for luncheons or buffet suppers.

Deviled Ham Delight

1 envelope unflavored gelatine
1/2 cup cold water
1 can (12 oz.) vegetable juice cocktail
1/2 cup mayonnaise

2 small or 1 large can deviled ham
1/4 teaspoon onion salt
1/4 teaspoon prepared horseradish
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup chopped ripe olives

Soften gelatine in cold water; add hot vegetable juice cocktail and stir until dissolved. Chill until slightly thickened and beat with rotary beater until fluffy. Fold in rest of ingredients. Pour into mold and chill until firm. Four servings.

Here's Couple Of Timely Tips

When children want to play by cutting many things, fasten a large paper bag to the side of a table with cellophane tape. As they cut, they can simply sweep things into the bag and keep their working surface clear. When cutting time is over, no clean-up is needed except to toss the bag with scraps into the waste basket.

If you have many newspapers and magazines in your home, buy a small size clothes dryer and set it up to hold both papers and magazines. Check through them once a week and discard what's been read.

Before doing any peeling or slicing, spread a paper towel on the working surface. When you're finished, simply wrap the parings and toss them away, leaving a clean surface without wiping.

Chlorine bleach in powdered form is easy to use. Add some water to it, place white materials in it for a few minutes to brighten them.

Planked Fish, Easy 'n Elegant Menu Attraction

Planked fish is really just an elegant form of baked fish. Fish which can be broiled or baked can be planked.

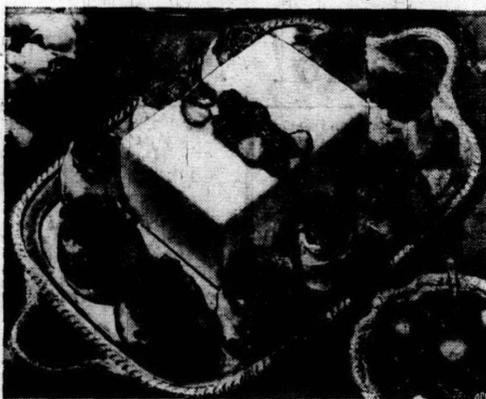

One advantage of planking fish, explains culinary experts, is that the cooked fish may be set on the table without being transferred to a platter. This is often difficult because of the tenderness of baked fish. Also the plank, fashioned from well-seasoned oak, hickory or ash, should be about 1 1/2 inches thick and grooved around the edge and in the middle to hold the juices. Put the plank in a cold oven and preheat it with the oven. Remove the plank and oil it thoroughly.

Place the fish in the center of the plank. Large fish may be split, boned, seasoned and planked flat, side down. Small fish may be cleaned, seasoned and planked whole. Bake in a hot oven (450 degrees) for 10 to 15 minutes and then reduce the heat to 350 degrees and bake until the fish is nearly tender. Allow about 10 minutes per pound.

About 10 to 15 minutes before the fish is done, remove the plank from the oven and garnish it with mashed potatoes. Other vegetables may be added as desired. Return the fish to the oven to finish the baking and to brown the potatoes. Garnish with a little parsley and you have a food picture as pretty as it is good.

The glory of a dessert starts with eye appeal. Here a half-gallon package of ice cream, so easily and neatly unwrapped, comes to the table on a decorative platter. SELECTING YARN- DYED SILKS

BUYING TIPS:
100% yarn-dyed silk fabrics are novelty or luxury items with limited serviceability. Purchase it with that understanding. Do not have your garment fitted too snugly. This fabric has a tendency toward yarn shifting or slippage of yarns.

WHAT TYPE OF LIMITATIONS?
A lightweight silk that has a shiny, metallic-like appearance. It has two sets of yarns; a dark colored yarn and a light colored yarn. It is very difficult to see the dark colored yarns because they are covered with the light yarns.

WHAT CAUSES THE TROUBLE?
The dark dyed yarn bleeds and stains the light yarns when water or beverage is spilled on the fabric; you perspire heavily; if your cleaner attempts to remove a water-borne spot or stain.

WHAT ARE THE LIMITATIONS IN CLEANING?
If your dress is not heavily stained or soiled from wear, it may be cleaned by special handling. If the garment has been discolored from perspiration, spillage of water or a beverage, these areas cannot be cleared up with drycleaning and spotting. If you get spots or stains that require controlled use of moisture in spotting to effect removal, your cleaner will not be able to remove the stains.

Plastic Utility Bags, Handy Household Item

If you haven't yet discovered the many things plastic utility bags can do for you, it's high time to get acquainted with them.

Moisture doesn't go through plastic film—thus dry foods stay dry and moist foods keep moist. What's more, you can see through most plastic films and know what is inside.

Here are a few ways to use plastic bags to help you in the kitchen.

Store opened boxes of sugar and salt in bag-type plastic bags that are held at the top by paper clips.

Store opened packages of frozen foods in the same kind of plastic bag in your freezing compartment or home freezer.

Foods with strong odors should be stored in plastic bags that zip tightly to keep their odors from affecting butter and similar foods in your refrigerator.

Meat stored in plastic bags does not dry out as quickly as otherwise and stays fresh longer.

You can keep a loaf of bread moist and fresh for as long as a week if kept in a plastic bag.

The usefulness of these plastic bags doesn't end in the kitchen—use them to store your off-season items in.

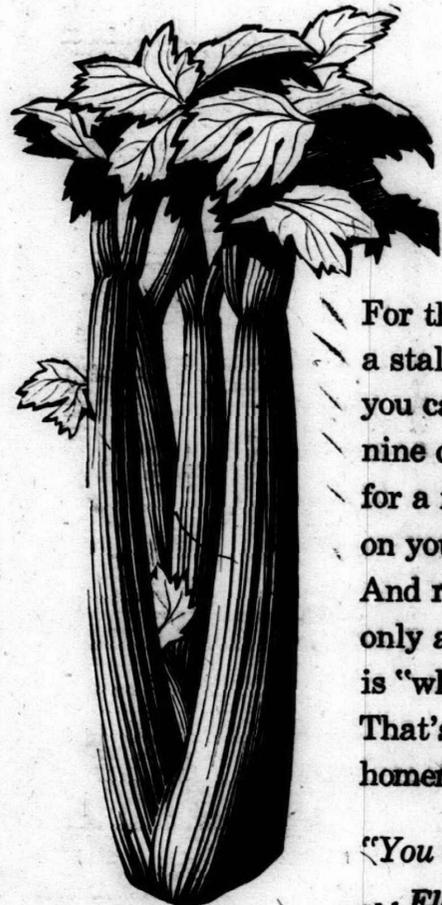

Plastic bags are perfect to store woollens in. Put moth crystals inside the bag and make sure the bag is closed tightly. As an extra precaution sun the items before you store them in the bag.

If sealed very tightly with tape, silver can be kept for long periods, tarnish free.

Keep your dampened laundry in a plastic bag for a couple of hours. The water will be distributed evenly through the clothes and will be easier to iron.

As you learn to use these versatile plastic bags, you will find many more personal uses for them than the few I have listed.

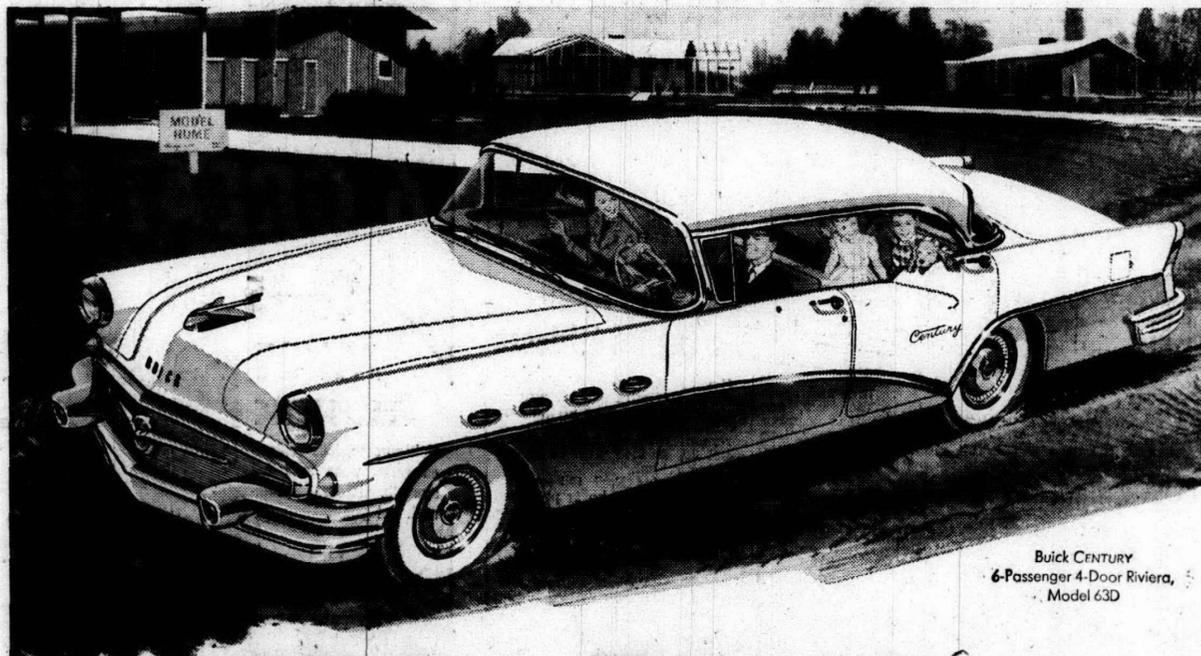

When it is evening, ye say, it will be fair weather, for the sky is red. And in the morning, it will be foul weather today; for the sky is red and lowering.—New Testament.

For the price of a stalk of celery you can cook nine complete meals for a family of four, on your electric range. And remember, only an electric range is "white-glove" clean. That's why smart homemakers say:

"You can Live Better . . . Electrically."

Makes Friends with the Meanest Roads

(Have you tried Buick's great new ride?)

THE SWEET WAY a '56 Buick rides on all sorts of roads is something you find nowhere else on wheels.

Capricious roads that twist and turn—unruly roads that rock and roll—tired roads, battered and beaten—they all seem to wear company manners the moment a Buick approaches.

Why? Simply because Buick comes with what it takes to put any road on its best behavior—the completely ride-engineered combination of chassis, engine and automatic drive that is obtainable in no other car.

And that's gospel truth whether you drive a new SPECIAL, CENTURY, SUPER OR ROADMASTER.

No other car matches the firm, true tracking of Buick's own ride foundation—buttressed by brawny X-braced frame and torque-tube drive—cushioned on coil springs and deep-oil shock absorbers.

No other has such width of tread and length of wheelbase within dimensions so trim and tidy that Buicks turn, park and garage more easily than smaller cars.

No other duplicates the assurance of steering, brakes and rear axle so precisely geared and gaited for the nimble handling that's a safety "must" in modern cars.

And certainly no other name plate promises the soaring sweep of power that wells from the big 322-cubic-inch V8 beneath every new Buick bonnet.

Nor does any other automatic drive put power to its car's rear wheels with the swift, unfluffed pace of Variable Pitch Dynaflo— and that goes double every time you "switch pitch" for whip-quick, safer passing.

But why stop to count reasons—when results are what you're after?

Wouldn't you rather really feel Buick's new "sense of direction" on straightaway, curves and corners?

Wouldn't you rather relax in supreme comfort while tooling this powerful performer over roads you always hated to travel?

Well, sir, we cordially invite you to drop in on us and do just that.

Make it this week, won't you? Sample the ride that has charms to win any old road—and get first-hand figures on prices that make Buick owning a more positive pleasure.

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Plastics Are Spring Tonic

Modern version of the gossip bench uses one melamine laminate plastic topped table to serve two seats. The table top is available in white or pastel melamine laminate; the vinyl plastic covered cushions in lime, coral, green, turquoise or white. Try it tete-a-tete under a long picture window.

Pastels, pacing the current color trend, keep up a clean front by ingenious uses of plastics in new furniture and appliances scheduled for spring furnishings and redecorating, according to Monsanto's color consultant.

The homemaker, who sets a premium on time and work savings, selects chests of drawers, TV tables and dressers which have tops made impervious to food and drink with white melamine plastic that can be "washed down" instead of polished. The use of the hard plastic in pastel colors as a liner for the drawers makes them permanently snag-proof for sheer nylons, lingerie and cashmeres. Chests of drawers, backed with melamine plastic, fit into today's open planning as room dividers. Plastic covered

Control of Thermostat Keeps Home Heating System Honest

If you want to keep a good home heating system honest during the winter, you've got to keep it constantly under control. Otherwise, the home heating experts report, even the best system will waste many of your fuel dollars.

Automatic heating controls are the key not only to economical heating, but to comfort and safety. Therefore, the Minneapolis-Honeywell people emphasize, you should prudently invest in the best control system. Even the best will cost you less than one per cent of the value of your home.

What are the types of heat control systems on the market today? The most advanced is the electronic indoor-outdoor system. It uses two thermostats to sense temperature—one indoors and one outside of the house. An electronic "brain" reaches information on the slightest temperature change in both places, then decides how much heat should be supplied. The big advantage of his system is that it realistically adjusts indoor heat supply according to outdoor weather conditions.

Included in the latest electronic system is a day-night clock thermostat. During the day it controls the burner to maintain the exact temperature desired. At night it

Review Your Home Insurance You May Find It's Obsolete

If you haven't reviewed your home insurance policies within the past year, do it now. They may be inadequate, and you may find your protection no longer is up-to-date or that you're paying more than you should for what you have.

So said A. K. Brocklehurst, president of the Plymouth association of insurance agents, who pointed out "too many homeowners merely renew their policies every three to five years without bothering to find out exactly what they are and are not paying for."

Along comes something like a serious fire or a major storm and the homeowner may be forced to dig into his own pocket because his losses exceed his insurance coverage," Brocklehurst stated.

Also said companies represented in the Plymouth Insurance group have found that when the average property owner renews his policies he tends to overlook these important facts:

The values and replacement costs of his home, household goods and personal property have been rising steadily and substantially.

For example, the replacement cost of a brick home built in 1946 has risen 117 per cent, while a brick home built in 1950 would cost 45 per cent more to replace at today's prices. Similarly, personal assets have been increasing in value.

He may be open to a lawsuit which can threaten his assets if someone is injured on his property or is hurt through his or the acts of members of his family.

He may have coverage duplicated in two policies, which means he is paying for something he already has.

"Trouble is, not enough homeowners seek the advice of a qualified local agent," Brocklehurst asserted. "A few minutes with a local independent agent may result in thousands of dollars saved in the long run."

He urged property owners also to ask their agents about the new package plans recently developed by the insurance industry. These new plans may save homeowners as much as 20 per cent or more under the cost of purchasing the same coverages through a number of individual policies.

These package plans also eliminate duplication of coverages, eliminate the need for a number of different policies each expiring on a different date, and permit a property owner to deal with just one local agent and one company of his choice.

PRACTICAL IDEA

If you're remodeling your kitchen from top to bottom, here's an idea that's really practical. Incorporate a slight pitch in your kitchen ceramic tile floor and install a drain near the sink. When cleanup time comes you can mop the tile shining clean in a jiffy and then drain the water off. It will save lots of time and back-breaking effort, too.

KITCHEN LOCATION

If yours is an active, young family, going in for lots of informal entertaining, perhaps it'd be a good idea to locate that new kitchen right in the middle of the house. In such a plan, the design should flow from one area into another. Here's where ceramic tile proves so useful. The variety of textures, colors and shapes offers a wealth of design possibilities suitable anywhere.

The species of softwood to use as subfloors include Pine, Douglas Fir, Spruce and Hemlock. Plywood in the 3/4" thickness is also recommended, due to its enormous strength factor.

MAKE A KITCHEN UTILITY TABLE

A kitchen utility table can double in the nursery.

Make dowel joints and edge glue two 1 by 12-inch boards for the top and two 1 by 10-inch boards for the shelf. Make the legs and top rails of 2 by 2-inch lumber. Bore a hole for a caster in the bottom end of each leg.

Bore offset holes 3/8 inch in diameter and 1 inch deep in each leg, as shown, and matching holes in the ends of the rails. Bore holes 3/8 inch in diameter and 1/2 inch deep in the legs where the shelf will be joined, slightly offset so the screws will by-pass each other.

Be Sure to Consider Trees On Lot Before Buying Property

In planning a new home on a wooded tract a tree specialist or landscaper should be consulted along with the architect and contractor.

A house is usually only as beautiful as the grounds around it and trees are the ornaments that dress up the landscape. Without attractive trees for shade and leavering, a house may be only a lonesome piece of expensive architecture.

Today, with the rush to the suburbs in full swing, real estate dealers get premium prices for re-studded lots. But only an experienced treeman can tell if the trees are worth it.

Unless the trees are in good health, the extra price paid for a wooded property may be wasted. Some unhappy home owners who purchased properties for the trees growing there have found later that the trees were of doubtful value because of such things as disease, insects or construction work on the home they were intended to beautify.

Before a real estate deal is closed, a careful appraisal should be made of all trees on the site to determine their conditions, species and value. Dead or dying trees should be removed before building begins. So should healthy trees which will eventually be killed by necessary construction projects, such as utility pipes, sewers, concrete walks and deep fills.

Finally, when landscape and building plans coincide, barricades should be placed around trees to protect the entire root area as well as trunk and limbs. This should be done before the first shovel of earth is turned. Otherwise valuable outdoor ornaments may become construction casualties.

Expert Advice on How to Inexpensively 'Fan Condition' Your Home for Summer Months

"Fan conditioning" is a good phrase to describe what electric fans can do to make and keep your home cool and comfortable during the warm, humid summer weather that is just around the corner.

At night after the sun goes down, the thing to do is to expel the warm air from indoors and draw in the cool air from outdoors. You can do that in two ways:

Use an exhaust fan to expel the warm air through a window or other opening, which automatically draws cool air in from outside through other doors and windows.

Or you can use an intake fan to pull in the cool night air, which automatically forces out the warm stale air.

Of these two methods, the exhaust fan method usually has proved to be more efficient.

During the day you use a different method. The house is filled with cool air that has come in during the night. The idea is to keep that cool air—so you close the doors and windows, and pull the blinds down to keep the sun out.

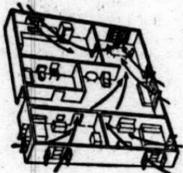

This will not make the rooms 'stuffy'—not if you keep the cool inside air in circulation—which you can do easily with the wide variety of circulating fans available.

There are several schools of thought on how best to circulate the indoor air. Some people like to have a breeze blowing directly at them. Others prefer the type of circulation provided by hasp-sock fans, which set the air in motion in all directions.

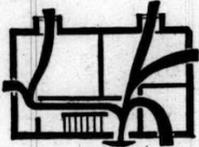

Still others prefer to turn a fan at the ceiling or against the wall, allowing the air to be reflected back from it and around the room.

The best way to find out what suits your particular needs is to try various methods. Use the way that best cools you and your family. The proper method for you will help perspiration to evaporate and leave you feeling cool and comfortable.

Foreign nations, accepting assistance from the U. S., do us no great favor.

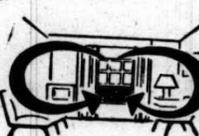

You can cool an entire floor—either upstairs or down—by placing a window fan in the window of the room you intend to use the least. Downstairs, for example, that might be a window in the breakfast room. Then you open the windows in the other rooms, which you intend to use. This will allow the cool air to flow in as the fan draws the hot air out.

Upstairs, the fan should be mounted in a hall window, or at a window in the least used bedroom. If there are other windows in the room where the fan is mounted, they should be closed, to avoid getting ventilation in just the one room where the fan is located.

In rooms where cooling is needed, open all doors and windows. Close off the downstairs area if possible, or close downstairs windows while upstairs is being cooled—for maximum efficiency.

To cool one room, if it has only one window, open it at least 20 inches from the bottom, and as much as possible from the top. Mount the window fan in the bottom part of the window. This will force the warm, stale air out through the bottom and allow fresh cool air to come in at the top.

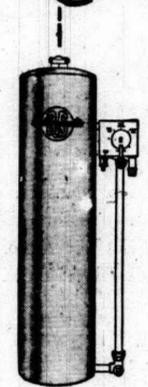

Where there is more than one window, mount the fan in one of them and open another window to let the fresh night air in. For best results, keep other windows and the doors closed.

HERE'S GOOD NEWS! We can rent an R-S Water Softener at a cost that's so low we'll be money ahead when our savings on soap and other things are considered

THAT'S RIGHT! And when we're ready to buy a new R-S Ball-O-Matic we'll get credit for a generous portion of the rent we've paid. IT'S THE BEST DEAL WE CAN GET!

They're both right. The Reynolds Rental Plan is really sensational! You rent an R-S Ball-O-Matic 30,000 Grain Capacity Water Softener for only $3.25 per month. You control it and regenerate it as often as you want. It's yours to use—just as if you owned it.

It will only cost you 13¢ a day (in extreme cases a few cents more) to have all the zero-soft water you need. All the water in your home will be zero soft, and can be used abundantly.

Then, when you're ready to buy a water softener, you receive a credit for the rent you've paid to apply on a new R-S Ball-O-Matic (or you can keep the rental unit, if you wish).

See us today. You can't afford to be without soft water!

Ball-O-Matic water softeners have been manufactured in Detroit since 1931. There are probably more of them installed in this area than of all other makes combined. You are sure with a REYNOLDS quality softener. Factory installation and factory service.

ENGINEERED TO FIT YOUR NEEDS

Cedar-Lined Closets Need No Decorating

Have you ever washed or painted a closet on a warm day? It's hardly a recommended form of relaxation, as any experienced hand will attest.

Yet at housecleaning and decorating time many a busy home owner finds himself in exactly that spot. His schedule may demand that he carry out such projects whenever he can squeeze in the time. If the weather man fails to cooperate by providing a nice cool day, that's just too bad. The job must be done.

Fortunately this disagreeable aspect of home maintenance can be minimized by prospective home builders through thoughtful planning. If closets are lined with aromatic red cedar they will never require washing, painting or other decorative or preservative treatment. Occasional dusting takes care of the upkeep. Closets in existing houses also can be lined with cedar at small cost.

Easy maintenance, of course, is merely one bonus feature of cedar closets. They are noted chiefly for their moth-repelling.

Mild sheet steel is the principal material employed for the construction of fixtures. After they are cleaned and pre-treated for corrosion-resistance, they are spray-painted with a tough-but-beautiful finish, then baked.

own Chevrolets than any other car!

*Of course we haven't actually counted all the Joneses. But it seems a safe guess. Because this year—as they have year after year—more people are buying Chevrolets. And 2 million more people drive Chevrolets than any other car. Maybe you ought to come in and see why this is so.

OUTDOOR NOTES From The MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

"Michigan Conservation," the Conservation Department's 15-minute weekly television show, received a national "First Award" for excellence early this week for service to the people of Michigan and neighboring states.

The award came from the 20th Annual Exhibition of Educational Radio and Television Programs, a competition that judged TV and radio programs from throughout North America.

"Wide, Wide World," Assignment: India, "NBC TV Opera Theatre," "Kraft Television Theater," and other national programs also received awards in other categories of the competition.

The Conservation Department was honored for production of the show and station WKAR-TV Michigan State University, for direction.

The citation was made "For directly serving the people of a wide geographical area with a dynamic program of specific use to viewers; for graphically presenting this program with obvious authenticity; for imagination in conception and presentation; for remembering that pigs-is-pigs, woods-are-woods, and for presenting them as they are—with-out sponsorship or sequins."

More than 200,000 trout fishermen, awaiting the opening of Michigan's 1956 regular trout season April 28, are hoping for warmer weather to make its appearance.

Trout streams are reported generally clear and low, but water temperatures are below normal, limiting fish activity.

Success during the special rainbow trout season which opened April 14 have been spotty because of low water temperatures. Rainfall, which would warm the streams, has been insignificant and rainbow runs have been light.

Fish workers point out that trout activity picks up when stream temperatures are above 40 degrees. At present, water temperatures are ranging in the middle 30's.

Cold water also has limited smelt spawning runs in many Michigan rivers and streams. Millions of smelt are still concentrated in the Great Lakes near stream openings, waiting for the warm water signal which will set off spawning runs upstream.

Meanwhile, many trout fishermen are checking up on general and local fishing regulations while they wait for the season opening. A complete summary of fishing laws is included in the 1956 Fish Law Digest, available from license dealers or the Conservation Department.

Michigan's deer herd appears to be out of further danger after a severe winter which saw starvation take a heavy toll.

Milder weather during the last week allowed deer to range freely out of yarding areas. Most snow had disappeared except in northern parts of the upper peninsula.

Reports of starved deer finds continued and some deer were killed by dogs last week in the Traverse City and Baldwin districts.

Conservation Department fish workers say the hundreds of dead fish showing up on the shorelines of several Michigan lakes were victims of winterkill—oxygen depletion in ice and snow covered lakes.

A. B. Cook, of the Department's fish division, said the winterkill toll was not as general as expected, but many shallow lakes were seriously affected. Dead fish are showing up on beaches as ice disappears.

Under winterkill conditions, fish suffocate because the snow and ice cover on the lake kills oxygen-producing vegetation in the lake.

Winterkill lakes are opened to unlimited fishing during the winter by special order of the director of the Conservation Department so that fish will not be wasted.

Permitting dogs to molest deer brought conservation law convictions to three persons last week.

In a Cadillac Justice court, two Manton residents each were assessed $12.80 in fines and court costs because their dogs molested deer. A Buckley man received a suspended fine and paid $7.80 in court costs for a similar conviction.

In 42 conservation law convictions reported last week, violators were assessed a total of $527.40 in fines and $320.95 in court costs. Money from fines goes to the state library fund.

The fish lift at Newaygo dam on the Muskegon River was completed early this week with the transfer of 10,000 wall-eyed pike over the dam.

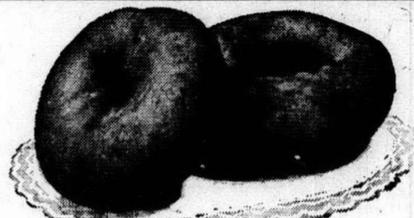

The annual netting and transfer operation allows fish to continue upstream for spawning.
