

Champion Containers Strike Ends as Union Ratifies Agreement

A meeting that lasted late into the night Monday between representatives of the Union and Champion Containers, Inc., brought agreement on all issues and ended a strike that has shut down the local plant since July 5.

The settlement was reached at the offices of the State Labor Mediation Board in Detroit.

Members of Local 1005 of the United Paperworkers of America, AFL-CIO, met Tuesday and ratified the new two-year agreement which provides for a general wage increase now and permits the union to seek further increases next year.

Company Vice-President Jack McFald said yesterday that maintenance employees are already at work and other employees will be recalled shortly. He added that the new agreement disposed of all issues and indicated that plans to expand the company operations in the near future will proceed.

The seven-week-old strike was one of the longest in the Plymouth area in many years. It was marred by one alleged case of violence which is still pending in court. But otherwise, pickets which were stationed at the plant on Sheldon road and at the temporary offices on Ann Arbor road were peaceful.

Sitting in on most of the negotiations were State Mediator Stan Dorby and Federal Mediator Harry Caton. Dorby said yesterday that "people on both sides made a great effort to reach agreement." Some of the early meetings proved fruitless, but meetings in the past two weeks brought rapid agreement.

A five-cent general increase was granted, along with some additional increases in certain classifications. There was also a revamping of the vacation set-up. The company has agreed to re-hire three employees who were discharged. They will be able to return to work 10 days after ratification by the membership. That took place Tuesday.

The strike involved about 75 hourly employees. While the strike closed down all operations here, other plants of the parent organization, the Ohio Boxboard company, attempted to fill orders of the local plant. Ohio Boxboard, with its main plant in Rittman, Ohio, took over the Champion Container company in January of this year.

The name was changed at that time from Champion Corrugated Container corporation to Champion Containers, Inc. This was the 14th plant obtained by Ohio Boxboard and the fifth corrugated plant.

There have been plans made for a $200,000 addition to the plant. Floor space would be increased from 50,000 to 75,000 square feet.

Bicycling Accident Claims Life Of 15 Year Old Plymouth Boy

Funeral services were held Monday morning at Our Lady of Good Counsel church for 15-year-old Daryl Lynn Tonkovich, who was fatally injured when struck by a semi-trailer truck Friday morning as he rode his bicycle on East Ann Arbor road.

The youth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tonkovich, 11429 Southworth, died Saturday in Wayne County General hospital. He suffered a skull fracture and multiple injuries.

Daryl was riding his bicycle on the shoulder of the road near the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad viaduct when the accident occurred. He was traveling east and was returning home for lunch, having just finished mowing a lawn in town.

The truck driver told Wayne county sheriff's deputies that he heard a thump as his truck passed the boy. Looking back, the driver saw Daryl on the ground by the side of the road.

The trucker, Leonard Wilson, 40 of Willow Springs, Illinois, made a statement at the Wayne county prosecutor's office and was released. The sheriff's report stated that it appeared that the boy lost control of his bike and hit the side of the truck. The bicycle was not damaged. Sheriff's officers said there was no pedal on the left side of the bike.

An ambulance rushed the boy to Wayne County General hospital where he was attended immediately. He died at 12:30 a.m. Saturday.

Rosary was read Sunday night at Schrader Funeral home prior to the funeral service Monday morning. Burial was at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.

Daryl was born in Northville on January 21, 1941. Survivors include: his parents; two brothers, Dennis, 10, and Dale, 9; a sister, Doreen, 6; and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Tonkovich.

He had completed his freshman year at Plymouth high school last June. He was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel church and the Explorer Scouts here. He competed on the high school swimming team and on the junior varsity football team.

Daryl had been mowing lawns and doing other jobs in order to save money for a camping trip that his Explorer Scout troop was to take last weekend. He had saved all the money and his clothes were all packed for the trip.

His fellow Scouts, who post-mortemed their trip into northern Michigan, served as pallbearers and honor guard at the funeral. Pallbearers were Thomas Keeler, Thomas Ebersole, John Luther, Stephen Johnston, Jeffery Yeoman and Michael Stickney.

The trucker, Leonard Wilson, 40 of Willow Springs, Illinois, made a statement at the Wayne county prosecutor's office and was released. The sheriff's report stated that it appeared that the boy lost control of his bike and hit the side of the truck. The bicycle was not damaged. Sheriff's officers said there was no pedal on the left side of the bike.

Predict Record School Enrollment

Classrooms Again to Overflow With Estimated 4,100 Pupils

Enrollment in the Plymouth Community School system will climb over the 4,000 mark for the first time when school opens two weeks from today, and somehow school officials have squeezed this record number of students into the same classrooms which were called "overcrowded" a year ago.

Officials estimate that there will be 4,100 pupils in the district's schools on opening day, nearly 300 more than started on opening day a year ago. With an average of about 35 pupils to a classroom, the 300 more students would fill about eight classrooms.

But there are no new buildings to open next month in the Plymouth system—meaning that the present schools will be bulging far beyond capacity.

As an example, Smith elementary school was originally designed for 420 pupils. It is expected that 525 will show up for the first day of classes. To accomplish this, regular classrooms will continue to handle more than the usual amount of pupils, the multipurpose room (auditorium) will be used for two regular classrooms and the library and teachers lounge will be used for regular classrooms.

There will also be three sessions of kindergarten a day instead of two, 8:30-10:30, 10:30-12:30 and 1-3 p.m. There will be one and one-half kindergarten teachers per building. There will also be an extra teacher to assist teachers whose students will require additional work in fundamentals.

The board of education had hoped a year ago to have the James Gallimore school on Sheldon road completed by this fall, but sewer problems, which still remain, gave the school a late start and it is not expected to be completed until the end of this year. Even then, unless a sanitary sewer is found, it will not open.

Many of the "war babies" who caused the overcrowded elementary schools have now reached the high school and enrollment there is also becoming a problem. When the new junior high school is completed, the present junior high will be converted for senior high use, but that is also expected to someday be overcrowded.

High School Principal Carvel Bentley estimates there will be between 1,125 and 1,150 pupils in the upper four grades on opening day. Last year there were 1,001, at the beginning of school and 966 as school closed last June.

Principal Bentley said that the school auditorium will be used for two courses this year, geography and home-family living. "Every room in the high school will be used every hour of the day," he added. There will be two students in the large and small-sized lockers.

Five more courses will be offered for credit this year in the school system.

Plymouth Seeks Fine Money Lost In Circuit Court

An attempt to recover fines collected by the Wayne County circuit court in ordinance cases appealed from Plymouth's municipal court is a job now being undertaken by the city commission.

Municipal Judge Nandino Perlongo first brought it to the attention of the city early this year that the local government is losing hundreds of dollars yearly because the case is taken to the higher court.

As an example, a drunk driver was fined $100 and costs late last year by Judge Perlongo. The defendant appealed the decision and the case was later heard in circuit court in Detroit. The circuit court judge upheld the lower court's decision.

But what happened to the $100 fine?

The city claims that it has never received any of these fines. Just because the defendant appeals a case, should the local government lose its claim to the money?

City Attorney Harry Deyo and Judge Perlongo both are of the opinion that the community originally handling the ordinance case is entitled to the fine.

City Manager Albert Glassford said that he wrote the county treasurer, county auditor and prosecuting attorney a month ago asking for the fine money. He added that no replies have been received.

Another Circus Arrives Saturday

The second opportunity to attend a circus in less than two weeks will be available to Plymouthites this Saturday when the Hagen Bros. show pitches its tents on Lilley road across from the school bus parking lot.

Hagen Bros. will feature two performances, a matinee at 2:15 and an evening show at 8 p.m. The circus, in its first annual tour, is presented by the Plymouth Optimist club and by the local Chamber and Junior Chamber of Commerce.

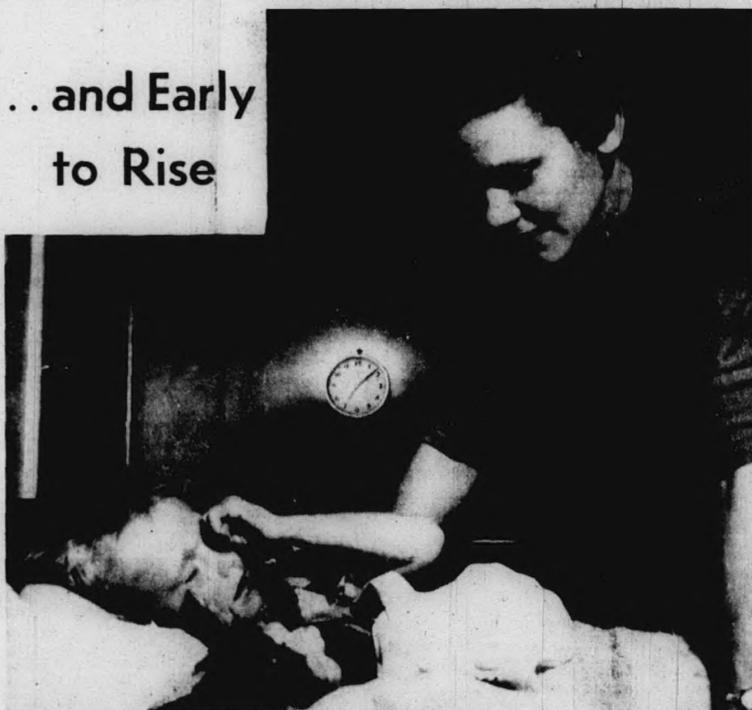

Tickets are on sale through Optimist club members and Junior and Senior Chamber members. They are also available at the Chamber of Commerce office on Main street.

Stop and Shop supermarket, Forest avenue, will give away 500 tickets to the circus over the course of today, Friday and Saturday. During Saturday morning, an elephant and clown will be at Stop and Shop to entertain passers-by and promote the show.

Among the acts on the program are bareback riders, a herd of performing elephants plus the famed High School Liberty horses. A host of clowns and many circus and television stars will cap the two shows.

and Early to Rise

IT'S EARLY to rise for Plymouth's children once again when the new school year begins here September 6. Some youngsters will awaken to their first day at the schoolhouse. Practicing the routine of getting up is Brian Young, 5, with the assistance of his mom. Brian, who starts kindergarten this fall, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Young, 9039 Ball.

148-Member Teaching Staff To Include 34 New in System

Thirty-four new teachers will join the Plymouth Community School faculty this September, making the 148-member staff the largest in the local system's history.

Six more teachers than last year have been added to the staff with the new jobs being created due to new courses and extra elementary classes.

There were 18 teachers who left the school system last June through resignations and three others retired.

Teachers will get a two-day head start on their pupils in the back-to-school movement. A pre-school conference will take place on Tuesday and Wednesday, September 4-5. (See story of full schedule elsewhere.)

Filling vacancies in the Plymouth system remains a problem, but not nearly the problem that most of the state's schools find annually. Most of the vacancies were filled soon after school was dismissed in June. Plymouth's nearness to colleges and its salary schedule has been a factor in finding and attracting new teachers.

Teachers will have a little "fatter" pay envelope this year due to a salary schedule increase approved by the board of education last spring. The average raise for a teacher with an AB degree will be $550 while the MA degree holder will get an average raise of $650.

New teachers, the jobs they will fill and the college from which they graduated are:

Allen school: Patricia Johnson, first grade, Michigan State; Olive Elwyn, first grade, Albion; Margaret Bishop, third grade, Adrian; Rita Rose Munzer, fourth grade, Milwaukee State Teachers; Michael Toth, fifth grade, Eastern Michigan.

Bird: Marilyn Thompson, second grade, U of M; Florence Lickfeldt, third grade, Eastern Michigan; Patricia Hunt, fourth grade, U of M; Beulah Markhus, sixth grade, U of M.

Smith school: Mary Dunham, first grade, Western Michigan; Joan Geis Homeister, first grade, Elmhurst college, Illinois; Carolyn Tulledge Greenway, second grade, Michigan State; Joan K.

Plan New Building for A&P; Other Businesses Shift Sites

Construction of a new A & P supermarket building at Ann Arbor road and South Harvey street was announced this week, along with other shifts in businesses and locations in downtown Plymouth.

Final approval was given the supermarket's building plans last Thursday night by the city planning commission, thus removing one of the last big steps needed to get the building underway.

The Sutherland Greenhouse, one of the community's old-time business establishments, is being torn down to make way for the giant store and its parking lot. Also to be removed is a home located west of the greenhouse. The job of removing the greenhouse was nearly completed this week.

A & P, now located at 822 West Ann Arbor trail, has been considered overcrowded for its supermarket operation, but specifications for its new building indicate that there will be plenty of room.

The proposed building will have 13,500 square feet of floor space. Its outside dimensions will be 108 by 125 feet.

There will be 58,000 square feet of parking space, enough to accommodate between 160 to 170 cars. The paved and lighted parking lot will be to the front and at the Harvey street side of the building. The building will be located in the northwest corner of the lot which will measure 261 by 339 feet.

A spokesman said that construction of the building is expected to start sometime in September and the building should be completed in about four months from the starting date.

Builders of the structure will be the Robel Real Estate and Building company of Walled Lake. The building is being constructed for sale to A & P by William Sutherland and his son Donald H. Sutherland.

Movement of the supermarket to the Ann Arbor road makes the second major business switch to the area within a year. The National Bank of Detroit opened a branch a year ago at Harvey street and Ann Arbor road, opposite the A & P site.

Meanwhile, several other stores have announced shifts in location or sale of their business.

Jackson's, Inc., located next door to A & P, has announced the sale of its stock and movement from its location. Owner

Planners Suggest Change In 11 City Street Names

Name changes for 11 more streets have been proposed by the city planning commission, but opposition to at least one of the changes has already been indicated with a petition from homeowners.

Unlike several weeks ago when the city commission, upon recommendation of the planning commission, approved four name changes at one time, the planners have now decided to hold separate public hearings on the proposed changes. In addition, property owners along the affected streets will be notified of the hearings.

Purpose of the current move to change street names, city and planning commissioners say, is to reduce confusion where streets of different names continue into one another.

At their meeting last Thursday night, planning commissioners received a petition from Burroughs street residents who state that they do not want the name of their street changed to Sutherland.

Suggested changes are:

1. Brush to Linden. Linden is a new street in Hough Park subdivision No. 2 that will be a continuation of the present Brush street.
2. Ann Arbor street to Ann Arbor trail. The term "trail" has been commonly used for a number of years but was never officially changed.
3. Harding to Pine. These two north-south streets are in direct line and are now disconnected by a field.
4. Penniman to North Territori-

School News Found In Today's Edition

Maybe some of Plymouth's young folks would rather not think about it, but schools will be opening Thursday, September 6. And to help youngsters and parents get ready for that day, The Mail is today featuring "Back to School" items and pictures.

Such things as the year's schedule, enrollment figures, new teachers and new courses will be found in this issue. There are also advertisements displaying school needs for various age groups and offering some bargains in apparel and supplies.

Parochial Schools Await 510 Pupils On Opening Day

Although no structural changes have been reported, Plymouth's two parochial schools, Lutheran Day and Our Lady of Good Counsel, have added to their teaching staffs and spruced up their headquarters for the 510 youngsters who will be starting classes in the educational institutions within the next two weeks.

The Lutheran school will open Wednesday, September 5. Principal Richard Scharf, estimated that 100 pupils will be registered at that time, approximately the same number as last year. LDS instructs youngsters of kindergarten age through eighth grade.

Added to the teaching staff of three this year was Miss Carolyn Smith of Manitowish, Wisconsin. A June graduate of Martin Luther college in New Ulm, Minnesota, she will teach kindergarten, first and second grades. Scharf and Miss Dolores Becker are the other teachers.

The Lutheran principal reported plans to remodel one of the classrooms for library use this year. The school, completed in 1947, is located at 1309 Penniman, adjacent to St. Peter's Evangelical Lutheran church which was dedicated last September.

Our Lady of Good Counsel school will open its doors to approximately 410 pupils on Thursday, September 6, exceeding last year's total enrollment by 60 students. The school, located at 1151 Williams, is directed by Sister Mary Victorine as Mother Superior. First through eighth grade are taught there.

Three new members have been added to the Good Counsel teaching staff of eight. They are Sisters Mary Josepha, Mary David and Madeline Marie who will instruct fifth, sixth and eighth grades. Others on the staff include three sisters and two lay teachers, Sister Mary Victorine, Sisters Mary Pauline and Mary Fredrika, Mrs. Geraldine Wingard and Mrs. Rita Munzer.

The Mail Observes Start of 70th Year

Today the Plymouth Mail begins its 70th year of service to the community. The numbers we carry under the name of the paper on page one today read: Vol. 70, No. 1, which means the first paper of volume 70. A "volume" is a year's publications.

So, in a curious mood, we have pulled out the paper marked Vol. 1, No. 1 to see what interested the community in 1887. Page One on that day was three-fifths devoted to advertisements. E. W. Beam, Wagonmaker, "Wishes to say to the people of Plymouth and vicinity that he has re-opened his Wagon and Carriage Shop, and will do work in all its branches. Also, Horseshoing."

In another column it is proclaimed, "Public Sentiment Has Declared Us Entitled to FIRST PLACE in the ranks of drygoods, hats and caps. We did not beg the place, but we did try to deserve it, and the steady appreciation of our efforts has been delightful." The signature on this is "Geo. A. Starkweather & Co."

Also on Page One we learn that "HOUGH pays the highest market price for grain and sells coal, lime, salt, flour." C. A. Frisbee, dealer in lumber, lath, shingle and coal has "Prices as Low as the Market will allow." However, in another ad, "the champions of low prices are to be found de facto in the general store of H. Dohmstreich & Co."

The price of the Plymouth Mail in 1887 was one dollar per year. J. H. Steeres was editor and publisher, his office being in the Punches Block, on south Main street. And here is some front page news:

"Bad colds are very fashionable this year."

"The Ypsilanti Fair comes off Sept. 27."

"Half fare on the railroads to this place next week to attend the encampment."

"Jackson claims to use 316 telephones and thinks the rent of them is too high. There is no doubt but what the charge is excessive and should be regulated by the legislature."

"The young ladies of the Baptist Church will give a peach and cream social at the parsonage this evening. As the ladies are anxious to make several dollars they would be pleased to have a good turnout."

"The reunion of the army of the Tennessee in Detroit commenced Wednesday, with a large attendance."

"The second annual reunion of the Soldiers' and Sailors' Association of Wayne County will be held at the Fair Grounds, Plymouth, Sept. 21 to 23."

In the same first issue there was an editorial that had been reprinted from the Baltimore American. Titled, "Newspapermen Are Hard To Kill," it said: "In the main, journalists are hard to kill. They work under many difficulties, the majority of them at night, subject to hurry, and what would be to other people worry and excitement; yet they hold out pretty well. In these days, when the world is rushing on in all lines at a breakneck speed, all the events in its path must be chronicled daily, and it is the business of the newspaper to do it, and it does so it with a zeal, fidelity, and accuracy."

If that was the mood of the editor 70 years ago, it is still the mood today. The Steeres, the Sampsons, the Eatons, and other good men have "worked under many difficulties, many of them at night" in bringing the Plymouth community a constantly improving newspaper for 70 years.

On this anniversary we all owe them our admiration and gratitude.

Dorothy Keen Speaks Vows At Methodist Ceremony

Dorothy Gayle Keen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Keen of South Main street, became the bride of William Paul Petraszewsky, son of Charles Petraszewsky of Schoolcraft road and the late Mrs. Petraszewsky, at a ceremony performed in the First Methodist church of Plymouth Saturday evening, August 18.

The rites were read at 8 o'clock by the Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson. Soloist was Calvin Moss, cousin of the bride, with "Benediction" and "The Lord's Prayer" as the wedding selections.

Candelabra and baskets of white gladioli and chrysanthemums formed a decorative setting for the nuptial ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, approached the altar in a floor-length gown of organdy and imported Swiss eyelet over white taffeta, fashioned with decollete neckline. A pearl tiara secured her fingertip veil with scalloped edging, matching the scalloped eyelet tiers of her gown. White orchids centered on a Bible, gift of the bridegroom, composed the bridal bouquet.

Mrs. Carolyn Jendrycka, sister of the bride and matron of honor, was dressed in a gown of white eyelet over blue taffeta, styled similarly to that worn by the bride. She carried pink carnations in cascade arrangement.

Mrs. Peggy Garchow and Mrs. Carol Wassenaar were the bridesmaids. Their gowns, styled identically to the above, were of white eyelet over pink taffeta. They carried blue bouquets.

Flower girl was Connie Petraszewsky, the bridegroom's niece, who was dressed in a pink organdy frock with floral hat. Bary Pate, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer for the nuptial ceremony.

Mrs. Keen selected an ice blue dress with matching accessories and pink rosebud corsage for her daughter's wedding.

Assisting his brother as best man was John Petraszewsky, while ushers were William Wassenaar and Jeff Hubbell.

A reception for 100 guests was held in the church parlors following the ceremony. Attending from out of state were residents of Canada and Tennessee. After the church reception the bridegroom's father was host to 50 relatives and friends at his residence, 30991 Schoolcraft.

For going-away, the bride chose a pink sheath dress, pink eyelet duster with white accessories and the orchid corsage from her bridal bouquet. A week's wedding trip in the north had been planned by the couple.

The bridegroom attends Michigan State Normal college. Both are graduates of Plymouth high school. The couple will reside at 30991 Schoolcraft road in Plymouth.

Local Home, Site of Hospital Auxiliary Meet

Mrs. Spencer Hilton of Plymouth, newly-elected president of Garden City-Ridgewood Osteopathic auxiliary, was hostess to the summer round-up meeting of the group yesterday afternoon at a luncheon in her home, 44925 North Territorial road.

A tentative program for fall activities was discussed including a dinner dance for staff doctors, new interns, and their wives. Obstetrical equipment recently purchased by the auxiliary was presented to both hospitals. The groups is tentatively planning to "decorate" the waiting room at Garden City hospital.

Others serving with Mrs. Hilton during the coming year are: Vice President Mrs. Robert Ogden, Inkster; Recording Secretary Mrs. Andrew Fortine, Wayne; Corresponding Secretary Mrs. Charles Masten, Inkster; Treasurer Mrs. Robert Gardner, Wayne; Public Relations Director Mrs. Robert Rosbolt, Garden City.

Sextons Plan Open House

Holding an open house this Sunday for their son, William, and family of Redwood City, California are Judge and Mrs. James Sexton.

The event will be held from 3 to 6 p.m. at the Sexton residence 1043 Penniman avenue.

The William Sextons are marking their first visit home in four years and will spend two weeks here. Mrs. Sexton is the former Mary Mitchell. The couple and their three children plan to return to California September 2.

Teachers to Meet For Conference

The Plymouth community school district's annual pre-school conference will be held September 4 at the high school from 9 a.m. until 3:30 p.m. The purpose is to acquaint teachers with each other and to discuss the program for the coming school year.

Actually the conference is a two-day affair including Wednesday, September 5, in the plan. On Wednesday from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. the teachers will attend individual conferences and discuss work schedules. The second day has been planned by principals in preparation for the opening day of school which is Thursday, September 6.

Tuesday's agenda includes a coffee and introduction period from 9 a.m. to 9:30, following which greetings will be made by Russell Ibbister, superintendent of schools, and Harold Fischer, president of the board of education.

The eight various school principals will then introduce their respective teaching staffs. Fred Nelson, vocal teacher, will conduct a singing period. Nancy Tanger, Bird Elementary school principal, will tell about the extended school opportunities in 1956, which deals with the summer program and its success.

Robert Smith, high school science teacher, will conduct a panel of teachers discussing the use of science in the curriculum. At 11 a.m. Plymouth Education association activities will be previewed by Gerald Elston, PEA president.

During the afternoon staff meetings will be held in separate buildings, at which time teachers will be introduced to the rooms in which they will teach.

Published every Thursday at 271 S. Main street, Plymouth, Michigan in Michigan's largest weekly newspaper plant.

Former Exchange Student Plans Marriage at Catholic Church

Announced this week was the engagement and approaching marriage of Franz M. Euringer of Regensburg, Germany, who resided with the Edwin Schraders of South Main street during 1951 as an exchange student under the Plymouth Rotary club program. He was enrolled as a Plymouth high school senior during his stay here.

Franz will marry Miss Barbara Hallmann of Frankfurt, Germany on September 15, the ceremony to take place at Our Lady of Good Counsel church in Plymouth. The bride-elect arrives September 10 in New York on her first visit to this country and will reach Plymouth a few days later.

The couple plans to live in Chicago, Illinois where the bridegroom-elect is employed by the Conrad Hilton chain of hotels. He returned to this country in February after study at a hotel college in the Bavarian Alps and employment at the Frankfurter Hof in Frankfurt. Miss Hallmann was employed at the Frankfurt bank.

MATCHING G-E DRYER AUTOMATIC CONTROL ADJUSTS to the drying time and temperature of any fabric! Simplifies Drying, Damp-drying, Sprinkling and Fluffing. Needs no special wiring—completely automatic on either 115- or 230-volt circuit.

The new G-E Filter-Flo washer cleans and recleans the wash water to give you cleaner clothes. And the hot, sudsy filtered water that is cleaned and recleaned during the first wash can be used over again for a second wash! That's economy washing that cuts down your water heating bills and saves the expense of many pounds of detergent. You don't have to "baby-sit" with complicated controls—only General Electric makes it so conveniently automatic—just push a button to save suds, push another button to return the sudsy, filtered water.

Mrs. Della M. Villerot
 Funeral services will be held Friday at 9:30 a.m. at Our Lady of Good Counsel church for Mrs. Della M. Villerot, who died Tuesday at Livonia hospital. Mrs. Villerot who was 74, resided at 42580 Joy road. She had been ill for more than a year.
 The Rosary will be recited this evening at 8 p.m. at the Schrader funeral home. Burial will be at Holy Sepulchre cemetery.
 The deceased is survived by one son, Harold Villerot, of this community and two grandchildren. Her husband preceded her in death in 1948. Mrs. Villerot was born September 22, 1881, in Detroit, the son of Frank and Sophia Mette Bieke. She was married to Eugene Villerot.
 She came to this community in 1932 from Detroit and was a member of Our Lady of Good Counsel church there.

As far as we are concerned, popular music is here to stay, on radio and everywhere else, including the bathtub, where some really cool notes are often struck.

Elections are often won and lost on the silliest of things.

WORKERS RECOVER the body of George Garrison, 29, who died Wednesday noon when he was buried under 10 feet of clay as he worked on a sewer project at Wentworth and Middlebelt roads in Livonia. One other man, George Brandon, escaped from the 20 foot deep ditch as it caved in on Garrison. A Negro, Garrison, who lived in Detroit, is survived by a wife and one-year-old son. He was working for F. Reed and Hawk, Inc., contractors.

Board Searches For School Site

Three school board members walked over land in the north-east corner of the township last Monday night in search of a school site. The trip preceded a special meeting at the high school.
 Since two board members and the superintendent were absent, no action was taken concerning the site. But it appeared to be more suitable than the site offered several weeks ago by builder Fred Greenspan, who wants to sell some of his land for a school to the board.
 The rub comes as to location. Greenspan's offer of a site has so far been rejected by the board because of terrain. Accomplished by W. C. Johnson, of Waring and Johnson, zoning consultants, the three board members tramped over the area in search of a more suitable place to build a school. Greenspan was not with the group so it has not been determined if he would agree to a different location.
 Two representatives of the Wayne County Department of Health attended the special meeting to discuss the possibility for a sewer for the James Gallimore school. They recommended that the board meet with Canton Township Supervisor Louis Stein and developers in the area to discuss the problem further.
 We don't know of anyone who has been shot in church recently. It's safe; try it.

UNCORKING THE NEWS
 by Carl Peterson

Well, the recent appropriations for the Navy sure would have been a big surprise to Robert Fulton. In his day a budget like that would have built a whole new Navy . . . and fed the army to boot. Did you know that it was August 17, 1807, when Fulton gave his steamship, the Clermont, its first real test run up the Hudson River to Albany?
 Young Fulton was a lad who had more determination than a kid begging to go swimming . . . and his head was brimming with more ideas than a quiz expert on television. Fulton designed canals, torpedoes, submarines . . . and a 44-gun battleship. And his big idea, the steam ship, sure has gotten us out of plenty of hot water!
 A Duluth feed store advertises, "This is the only place in town where you can get a chicken dinner for ten cents." And there's more than a grain of truth in the claim. You'll find a whole kernel of truth in any claims we've made about our prompt prescription service. Partridge Announces He'll Hold Golf Meet

Local golfers last week were once again offered the opportunity to battle for the city golf championship title when Casey Partridge announced that he would conduct the annual affair at his 18-hole Plymouth Country club layout.

Walsh Offers Second Plan For Golf Test

The second announcement for plans of conducting an annual city golf tourney was made Tuesday by Jerry Walsh, 290 South Main. It came five days after Casey Partridge of Plymouth Country club issued his statement.

Walsh, well-known local golfer, indicated that he had made an agreement with the owners of Brae-Burn golf club, 10860 West Five Mile, to hold the tournament there on September 15, 16 and 22. It would consist of 54 holes of medal play, following 18 holes of qualification.

Reportedly the more recent plan has the backing of many local golfers, including Defending Champ Jim McAllister and Three-Time Winner Tom Loek. In contrast to Partridge's proposal to limit entrants to those living in the Plymouth school district, Walsh said that his contest would be open to persons living in the Plymouth and Northville area.

Tentative plans include having entry blanks available at McAllister's grocery store on Northville road for those persons living in that area. Another downtown Plymouth location would offer entry blanks for this area.

The calendar of competition for the tourney, as proposed by Walsh Tuesday, slated 18 holes of qualification on Saturday, September 15. The 54 holes of medal play would be held on Sunday, September 16 (18 holes) and Saturday, September 22 (36 holes), Walsh said.

To Visit Here Again

Mrs. Hendrika Boersma-Smit, who recently visited this city on an exchange plan regarding the local recreation set-up, will return to Plymouth for a second visit on August 25. She will leave September 4.

Mrs. Boersma-Smit, a member of the executive committee of the Netherlands cultural council, is from Amsterdam, Holland, and was in Plymouth earlier this summer. She will return to her homeland late next month.

Playoff Results

The Michigan Recreation Association softball tournaments have begun with many Plymouth teams being entered in competition. At the completion of the first round of action in the A league, Plymouth's only team turned out victorious with a 4-1 margin over the P. L. A. V. squad from Wyandotte.

The announcement by Partridge apparently solved the problems with which the tournament has been faced since this golf season began. Lack of a promoter and sponsor threatened to kill the event this summer.

Persons interested in entering the tourney may do so by contacting either Partridge, himself, at Plymouth Country club or Jim McAllister at phone 1313. McAllister, 1955 city champ, is a second organizer of the current contest, Partridge indicated.

Prior to the statement by Partridge that he would hold the tourney, it had appeared as if there would be none this year. The interest in the event had been retained from previous seasons, but the organization was lacking.

In other years, the Chamber of Commerce or local businessmen had promoted the tournament.

Women Golfers Finish Fourth

Plymouth's five-member golf team finished last out of four cities competing in the Michigan Regional association's women's golf tourney held Saturday at Groesbeck course in Lansing.

The local quintet wound up trailing Pontiac, Lansing and Dearborn. At the end of the regulation 18 holes of play Pontiac and Lansing were deadlocked for first place. An extra hole earned Pontiac the victory.

Medalist for the Plymouth team was Mrs. Beverly Everson. Her teammates included Mrs. Jane Carmichael, Mrs. Jane Todd, Mrs. Vic Partridge and Mrs. Lee Rambo. Plymouth finished third in 1955.

Low scorer for the contest was Mrs. Zada DeBolt of Pontiac with 90. Women's par at Groesbeck is 33.

Jim Salsbury, Detroit Lions guard from UCLA, works as a stunt man and a movie extra during his off-seasons from football.

Supino Snips Sandlotters' Win Streak

The Plymouth Merchants suffered their first diamond defeat in six league contests Sunday when Club Supino rallied with two runs in the sixth inning to nip the locals, 6-5.

Prior to the two-run winning outburst by Supino, the Plymouth sand-lotters blasted across five runs in the top of the sixth to take a slender 5-4 lead. Five errors afield sent the Merchants down.

Nevertheless Merchants remained in a tie with River Rouge for possession of third place in the Inter-County circuit. The Rouge team also lost, as did second place Northville. Of the upper division clubs only front-running Romulus managed to card a victory.

Merchants fell behind in the bottom of the second when Supino tagged Dick Sheppard, on the mound for the locals, for three quick runs. Errors helped. Then in the third Supino scored a lone run, Ed Hock replaced Sheppard on the hill for Merchants.

But with Doug Fairbanks' two-run homer in the sixth as the big noise, the locals took a short-lived lead when they came up with a five-run rally. However Supino tied it and went ahead for good in the bottom of that frame with two more tallies.

Loser was Hock, winner was Weipert. Merchants hurt at the plate when seven locals went down on three strikes. Plymouth got eight hits, five in the sixth inning. Supino garnered seven safeties.

Other scores in the league Sunday: Saline beat Northville, 3-2; Romulus pasted River Rouge, 15-5; and Lincoln Park's contest with Pressler was postponed.

The final results will appear in the Mail when the playoffs are completed.

Fans sometimes think of professional baseball players as glamorous stars who lead unusual and exciting lives. This, of course, is far from being true.

Ball players are ordinary fellows, just like the guys in the neighborhood, except that they possess tremendous natural talent in sports that sets them apart from other people.

But nowhere is their "normalness" more apparent than on the road when, after a day game or before a night game, time hangs heavy on players' hands. Away from friends and family, the players cast about for varying forms of recreation.

On the Tigers, for example, Frank House, Al Kaline, Bob Kennedy, Jim Blevins, Ray Boone and Steve Gromek go to the movies. Almost without exception, they like Western films best.

Cards Favorite Diversion Card-playing, particularly on monotonous long railroad trips, is a favorite diversion of Bill Hitchcock, Red Wilson, Bill Tuttle and Jack Phillips, who comprise a bridge foursome.

Harvey Kuenn, Bill Hoelt and Paul Foytack, prefer hearts, while Earl Torgeson, Steve Gromek, Virgil Trucks and Jay Porter favor pinocle.

Charley Maxwell, on the other hand, is kept fairly busy with his studies in a correspondence course in accountancy. When he has some spare moments, he likes number painting and reading mystery fiction.

Jim Brady and Jack Tighe enjoy singing and they're at it quite a bit around the clubhouse or on the way to the ball park. Hoelt is the team cut-up and one hardly knows what gag he'll pull next.

Keeping in Business Crossword puzzles are perused avidly by Trucks, Hitchcock, Porter and Hoelt. Jim Small prefers to work with his new weight-lifting outfit that he hopes will help develop his wrist and forearms for greater hitting power.

Walter Masterson, who was in the shoe business during the time he was out of baseball, seemingly knows every retailer and wholesaler in every town the Tigers visit. He's always ready to steer a teammate to a "good deal" if the teammate is in a buying mood.

103 Gridders Open Drills

There will be one hundred and three boys vying for eleven starting positions as the Plymouth High School gridiron team takes the field next Monday, August 27, for the first day of practice. Among the crew will be nine returning lettermen. They are: Kenny Calhoun, fullback, Don Alsboro, end, Eddie Ward, end, Bob Drobeck, guard, and Biff Tail, center; besides these starters from last years squad there were letter winners, Bob Clear, end, Jim Grabowski, end, Jerry Hearl, halfback, and Jerry King, quarterback.

Other hopefuls listed by head-coach Mike Hoben were: Dick Showers, Halfback, Harvey Wells, Halfback, Dave Walaski, Halfback, Larry Gavigan, guard, Larry Keeth, guard, Tom Caldwell, guard, Dick Paulger, center, and Bob Truesdell, tackle.

Sophomores who show some chance of gaining a varsity berth are: Myron Hopper, Jim Urquhart, Ron Turket, and Eddie LaRoach. Absent from last year's squad due to a bad shoulder, but who should be a strong contender for the quarterback slot this season is John Thomas, who will be a senior this season.

Coach Hoben will suffer the loss of such outstanding gridders as all league first string competitors, Lindy Mills, Ray Spigarelli, and George Pine who has been invited to early football practice at Eastern Michigan college at Ypsilanti.

Hoben will be assisted on the field by John McFall on the line, newly acquired Bill Brown, who will replace Coach John Sandmann who will head the cross country squad, Roger Smithing, reserve coach, and Frank Sullivan, freshmen coach.

Besides these three all stars the '56 Rocks squad placed Jack Carter on the all league second squad, and Paul Cummings, Jim Jones and Dick Davidson all were given honorable mention. There was a total loss of 14 to graduation. With the loss of such valuable men Mentor Hoben's hopes to raise his team from their 6-2 record of last season which placed them in third slot in the Suburban 6 loop were dimmed but not shut out completely.

"Big Mike," as he is often referred to, sums up the league as such, Allen Park, Bentley, and Redford Union, will be the teams to beat, the power of the league has shifted to these three. Trenton is always rugged although they have only two of their eleven letter men returning. Bentley has a young team with the majority of the power returning. Allen Park, essentially the whole team will return. Redford Union has a new coach with nine of the eleven starting line up returning. So summing up such a report would leave one to believe it would be a tight five team race with Belleville bringing up the rear.

Hoben will be assisted on the field by John McFall on the line, newly acquired Bill Brown, who will replace Coach John Sandmann who will head the cross country squad, Roger Smithing, reserve coach, and Frank Sullivan, freshmen coach.

Football candidates will get their first work out Monday and will practice twice daily until the school term begins. Then they will shift to the regular afternoon practice.

Uniforms will be issued to seniors and juniors today, to sophomores Friday, and to all stragglers on Saturday. The time will be 9:00 a.m. The coach hopes to cut the squad to about 30 and will begin scrimmage sessions on the third day of practice.

This football schedule will be as follows:

Sept. 14	Northville	here
21	Allen Park	away
28	Belleville	away
Oct. 5	Bentley	here
12	Trenton	away
19	Redford Union	here
26	Garden City	here
Nov. 2	Ypsilanti	away

2 Softball Teams from Area Still in MRA-MSA Playoffs

Two area softball teams are still in the thick of things in the Michigan Recreation association-Michigan Softball association regional playoffs. The teams, Chevrolet spring and bumper in class C and Livonia Merchants in class D, have both advanced to the final round of play.

Chevrolet will face Jackson Kelsey-Hayes at 8:30 tonight behind Plymouth high school. Livonia will take on Jackson Acme Industry at 7 p.m. tonight on the same diamond. The finals are a two-game KO affair.

The winners will go to the state tourney which begins August 31. Both Livonia and Chevrolet were respective district champs here in order to move into the regionals.

Other local softball squads faltered along the way in other class competition. Begliger Olds in class A lost 3-1 to Menhart Olds of Wyandotte last Thursday night. In class B Livonia Office supply met defeat 5-1 at the hands of Trenton K of C in the semifinals.

In hardball playoffs in class F Fisher's shoes lost 8-3 to Battle Creek in the state semifinals and in class D Plymouth Elks were stopped 4-0 by the Dearborn Industrialists. Class F is for 14 years and under boys, class D for 18 and under.

FISHER'S SHOES CELEBRATES 15th ANNIVERSARY

Blake W. Fisher

James C. Houk

Fisher's Statement Of Policy

The Fisher policy throughout the years has been with one thought in mind—that the customer is the most important person in our store.

We would not at any time fit a shoe or recommend anything that we would not accept for ourselves.

In pursuing this policy for 15 years, it has given us a steady growth of customers in all our stores. We will continue this policy in our three stores and will always strive to maintain our reputation as "Plymouth's Family Shoe Store." We consider it a privilege to serve you.

Two-Week Observance Climaxes 15 Years of Serving Plymouthites

Heralds Grand Opening Of New Store in Wayne

We at Fisher's are extremely proud of our past record of serving your family's shoe needs. This service has been made possible by the loyal patronage of our many friends and customers for which we are deeply grateful.

We cordially invite everyone to visit us during our Anniversary Celebration in Plymouth and the opening of our new store in Wayne, Michigan. Come out and join the fun — you may win one of 12 valuable FREE PRIZES!

Fisher's Shoes, one of Plymouth's most modern and complete shoe stores, is observing a double celebration this week — the anniversary of 15 years in business in Plymouth and the grand opening of a third retail store in Wayne, Michigan. Owners Blake Fisher and James Houk, looking back on these past 15 years, say they are already looking forward to the next 15 years as an opportunity to serve Plymouth area residents even better in the future.

Fisher's first store was situated in the same place it is now but it looked entirely different then. The present store, shown above, is the result of a complete remodeling and modernization of the old store which took place in early 1953. Since then, Fisher's has continued to grow by offering the best in nationally advertised footwear and the most courteous, personalized service to their customers. Donald Zander is now co-manager of the Plymouth store.

Fisher's 6 POINT Fitting Plan

WE DO 6 THINGS TO MAKE SURE YOUR SHOES FIT:

1. Measure both feet
2. Fit big toe at inside of shoe.
3. Fit small toe at outside of shoe.
4. Allow 1/2" from end of toe.
5. Fit heel wide at bottom and snug at top.
6. Suggest regular intervals for re-checking size.

Plymouth 4-H Club Members Make Sweep at Fair

HOLDING HER TROPHY, RIBBON, and the prize black Angus that won them all is Janet Willoughby, of 44661 W. Ann Arbor trail. Janet's steer, Buckham Trojan Pride, was chosen grand champion beef cattle at the 4-H Fair held last week in Belleville.

COMPETING AND WINNING seems to be the knack that Bob Franklin of 47970 Gyde road has conquered. Bob is pictured here accepting some of the many prizes he won as runnerup at the 4-H Fair horse show competition. Riding on Ski-Hi, Bob lost his title of grand champion by a single point as he tied Sue Sempliner of Plymouth for second place.

FIVE TIME GRAND CHAMPION Dave Brinks has just collected his fifth straight grand champion dairy trophy. Dave's cow was judged tops in its class from all over Wayne County. He also collected six other blue ribbons.

Area Youngsters Win Trophies, Ribbons in Three Categories

There were three main classifications to compete in at the Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville last week. There was horse showing, cattle and dairy showing, and exhibition of crafts, Plymouth, which entered approximately 50 boys and girls, won "no more" than three of them. With entrants becoming eligible for state competition in all three classes.

In 4-H competition the classes are divided into A, B, C, with the A class being very good, the B class good, and the C class fair. Breaking the A class down a little finer they classify the riders into 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, with 1 being the best and so on down the line. Mentioned in the following story are just the top five winners of each class who were entered from the local area.

HORSE SHOWING

In the colt class 1-2 year old halter, Mary Travis, placed fourth as Plymouth's only winner. In the model saddle class 3 years and older at halter Plymouth placed Barbara Reid in second, Ann Henry third, Betty Webberline fourth, and Gary Wright fifth.

Winning the model stock class for 3 years and over at the halter was Bob Franklin. Barbara Reid placed second in front of fourth place Daryl Wright in the flat saddle 3 gaited class.

Sue Sempliner took Plymouth's first first place of the afternoon in the girls western pleasure class for 14 and over with Sharlene Moer placing fourth, and Judy Wall fifth. In the 13 and under class Ginny Franklin was second as Toni Shettleroe finished in third.

In the girls horsemanship class for 13 year and younger little Ginny Franklin picked up her second ribbon when she came in third. Toni Shettleroe took third, with Connie Shettleroe fourth.

Fourth in the boys 13 and under horsemanship class was Billy Zacharies, with Bob Koers taking fifth.

Last years champion, and one of Plymouth's finest riders, Bob Franklin garnered first in the boys 14 and over western horsemanship class, with Jim Magraw coming in fourth. In the same competition in the girls class Sue Sempliner, another fine rider from Plymouth, also captured first with the Northville Western champion Ellen Cowgill. A local girl, finishing second, and Ann Henry fifth.

The final horse class found Sharlene Moers, fourth, and Sue Sempliner, fifth, in the girls trail class. In the boys division of the same class Gary Wright took his third and final ribbon of the afternoon's competition.

Last Saturday evening when all big prize winners were brought out, the fine horsemen and women from all over the country presented a thrilling and very worth while exhibition. All horse classes used for competition was demonstrated with extra features such as barrel bending, speed and action, and a game of musical chairs on horses as well as a square dance on horse back.

The highlight of the evening was the presentation of the Linda Hershey Memorial Trophy with last years grand champion Bob Franklin doing the honors. Winning the trophy was Barbara Horst of Wyandotte with a total of 31 points compiled with her three gaited English mare. Tying for second were two local riders, Sue Sempliner and Bob Franklin, each ran up a total of 30 points.

CATTLE SHOWING

Buckham Trojan Pride, a grand name for a grand champion black Angus steer, Janet Willoughby, who entered her first 4-H competition this year, carried home the trophy ribbon, and all the glory that a grand champion beef can afford. Janet resides at 44661 W. Ann Arbor trail with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Willoughby.

"Old timer" Dave Brinks did it again! He's raised another grand champion dairy cow. This marks the fifth straight year Dave has won the 4-H honor which probably makes him the most "winningest" farmer in the region. Dave, who stays with his parents at 48734 W. Ann Arbor road, also took six first place ribbons with his other bovine entries.

Taking honors for the grand champion Angus steer was Don Wilkin of 7803 Beck road. Don's brother Dale was reserve grand champion Angus winner.

Richie Schmidt, of 7639 Lilley road, raised the grand champion Hereford steer. Richie was entering for his second year, last year he took second.

EXHIBITING SHOW

The following list of people have made themselves eligible for state competition by winning in their respective fields at the 4-H Fair held in Belleville this past week.

Nancy racked up a double win in exhibition by winning both the vegetable basket display, and the flower arrangement. Nancy lives at 7773 Canton Center road with her parents.

Also winning in the vegetable basket display was Mary Jane West. She collected her second blue ribbon when she took first in Entomology. Sharon Byer won a first place slot with her coffee cake in cooking competition with a remark like "Ummmm was it delicious" coming from the judges. Sharon was awarded first in the meal accessories class to round out her collection.

First year freezing is the class won by Pat Hauk. Patricia Chixby took a first in clothing, and entomology. Sally Jo Mathias received Plymouth's twelfth first place when she won the conservation and forestry class.

Ann West and Marjorie Reddeman each took a first in wildflower exhibiting. So when state exhibition time rolls around Plymouth will be fourteen strong in their representation.

It's Just Their Nature
No one knows why hens like to crowd into the same nest while other nests are empty.—Southern Planter.

EXPLAINING THE PEPPY 4-H outdoor cookers display is Janet West of 8705 Sheldon, who is now going on her fifth year in 4-H activities. Included in the display are many outdoor fire arrangements, a properly packed picnic basket, and Janet's purse. All members of the club received blue ribbons for their display which was reported to have been one of the best in recent years.

JOHN MERRIFIELD

Master of Ceremonies for Farm Fun Frolics at the Michigan State Fair will be John Merrifield, WWJ and WWJ-TV farm editor. This all-farm show in the Coliseum is scheduled for Sept. 4, 5 and 6, in the middle of the State Fair at Detroit, August 31 through September 9.

SUE SEMPLINER, of 40633 Ford road, riding on her mount Nugget finished second in total points at the Wayne County 4-H Fair held at Belleville last week. Sue collected two firsts to account for 16 of her 31 points.

Residents Win Zone Offices In Moms Club

Mrs. Carrie Gladstone and Mrs. Hazel Norgrove of Plymouth were elected to offices in Zone 2 of the Past Presidents organization, Mothers of Men in Service, Inc., at an annual meeting held last week at the Veterans Memorial center, Main street.

Mrs. Gladstone was named vice president and Mrs. Norgrove historian of the group which was organized to provide scholarships for future nurses. Names of scholarship candidates are obtained through the Tri-County Nurses Council, Detroit.

Others elected at the meeting were Mrs. Rose Mack of Allen Park, succeeding Mrs. Lloyd Alber of Pinckney as president; Mrs. Myrtle Sleep, Allen Park, recording secretary; Mrs. Mollie Kirkwood, Dearborn, treasurer; and Mrs. Edith Foust, Dearborn, chaplain.

Mrs. Gladstone was hostess for the dessert-luncheon preceding the business meeting.

Officers will be installed at a state party to be held September 12 at Galloway Lake. Next zone meeting will be September 19 at the new president's home in Allen Park.

Mock Attack Set For State Fair

A colorful and exciting mock Marine attack will be staged in front of the Grandstand during the Michigan State Fair, August 31 through September 9, Donald L. Swanson, general manager, announces.

The attack demonstration will show how a small but well trained unit can accomplish the difficult task of liquidating a well fortified enemy position. The mock attack will be held Wednesday, September 5, at 4 p.m. There will be no Grandstand charge.

Assault weapons will include a light machine gun, flame thrower, smoke grenades, rifle grenades, 1/4 pound blocks of TNT, and automatic rifles.

ELEVEN-YEAR-OLD Larry Carver replenishes his supply of school items as the beginning of the 1956-57 year approaches. Larry, who will be a seventh grader, is typical of youngsters preparing to return to classrooms this fall. Kresge clerk Lois Adams, who also will return to her books as a senior at Plymouth, is shown making the sale.

Pupils to Find 10% Increase in Book Prices

The price of textbooks will go up about 10 per cent. Plymouth high school students will discover when they patronize the school book store next month.

Principal Carvel Bentley said that the increase is about the same as a year ago.

The book store, located on the first floor of the high school, will be open all day Friday, September 7 and Monday, September 10. Principal Bentley said that pupils should be sure that they know the title of the required textbook before it is purchased.

Sales at the high school book store gain "big business" proportions during a year's time. There were about 3,000 volumes sold during the past school year. The gross sales were $16,000. Despite this large gross, there is no profit realized because books and other supplies are always sold at cost.

Pre-school hours of the book store will be from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. On school days, the store will be open from 8 to 8:30 a.m., noon to 12:30 p.m. and 3:30 to 4:30 p.m.

For those students not wanting to buy new textbooks, another "store" can be found at the high school where used books are sold. Operated by the "Pilgrim Prints," the school newspaper, the store was started three years ago and has proved successful.

The used book store serves as a clearing house for students wanting to sell their books as well as for those who don't want to buy a textbook at "new book" prices. The used book store will be open the same dates as the new book store.

Only students in grades nine through 12 need to purchase their books. Elementary and junior high students must buy the necessary pencils, erasers, rulers and other sundry items.

Local Defense Unit To Observe "Week"

The Plymouth township civil defense unit will hold a meeting during Observance of Civil Defense week, September 9-15, at the Plymouth township hall, it was announced this week by Director Leo Flowers. He will announce a date for the meeting at a later time.

Flowers explained that it is the intent of the local unit to take an active part in the observance. Plans include practice target shooting by the civil defense police under the supervision of Vaughn Smith. At the same time several civil defense pamphlets will be given out.

Local Knights Announce Meeting, Coming Events

Plymouth council No. 3292, Knights of Columbus will hold their regular business meeting at 8:15 p.m. Monday at the K. of C. hall on Union street. It was announced this week by Grand Knight Larry Zielasko.

Approximately 18 members of the local council attended the K. of C. convention parade in Detroit, Sunday. The Plymouth council also held its annual social picnic at the Tony Zielasko farm on Hix road Sunday.

Coming events on the local calendar include activities in K. of C. Boys club, plans for the Council Corporate Bank and a Father and Son Corporation Communion.

Boys, grades 1-4, will be enrolled September 17 at the K. of C. hall on Union street for the Boys Club sponsored by the local council. Enrollments will be taken for those in grades 5-8 or September 19.

The Corporate Communion will be held at 8 a.m. September 3 at Our Lady of Victory church Northville. Grand Knight Zielasko has urged all Knights and their sons to plan to attend this special Mass. The Fourth Degree Honor Guard, which normally does not function on the last Sunday of the month, will be present to assist at Mass. A breakfast will be served immediately afterwards at the K. of C. hall in Plymouth.

Fraternal Activity Chairman

Mrs. Agnes Pauline of Merriman road, Livonia, returned home Sunday after visiting relatives near Holland for several days last week.

"Doc" Cline, of Hamill street in St. Joseph's hospital, Ann Arbor where he was taken last Monday after a 22-foot fall where he is suffering from severe bruises and a broken heel.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Minchart of Clemons drive were breakfast guests last Wednesday morning of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage also of Clemons drive.

Howard McClellan announced that arrangements are being made for members to donate blood to the Council Blood Bank within the near future. The bank is for use of members and their immediate families.

Sept. 5, Deadline For Nominations In Rural Election

Nominations for the 1957 election of community committeemen in Wayne and Washtenaw counties will close September 5, the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation committees reminded area farmers this week.

Nominations are to be made by community election boards and by petition. All petitions for additional nominees must bear the signature of 10 eligible farmers in the community from which they are to be elected, and be returned to the county offices before September 5.

Election ballots will be mailed to eligible voters September 10 and must be returned to the respective county ASC offices by September 20. Three committeemen will be elected from each community to represent their constituents in the administration of national farm programs through the ASC.

Each of Washtenaw county's 20 townships will serve as individual communities. In Wayne county, Community No. 2 will be comprised of the entire Canton township. All of Plymouth, Northville, Redford, Dearborn, Livonia and Grosse Pointe townships have been grouped in Community No. 6, with Nankin and Romulus township designated as Community No. 7.

Wayne County ASC committee is located at 3901 Newberry St., Wayne. Address of Washtenaw ASC committee is Washtenaw County Bldg., 101 E. Huron St., Ann Arbor.

Two Injured in Crash

Two persons suffered minor injuries Monday morning in an auto accident at the intersection of Ann Arbor road and McClumpha. Neither person was from Plymouth.

Edward Parsons, 47, of Detroit suffered lacerations of the face and knee when the auto he was driving struck another car driven by Anna Lee Viers of Inkster. A passenger in the Viers' car, Elizabeth Ish, suffered cuts on the head and back.

Both parties were treated at Wayne County General hospital. A report on the accident at the Wayne County Sheriff's department stated that apparently the Viers' car stopped at McClumpha for Ann Arbor road and then pulled out into the path of Parsons' vehicle.

The Parsons' auto struck the first car broadside. The accident occurred at 9:30 a.m.

Churches to Call On Non-members

With an estimated 3,000 homes in the area whose occupants have no church affiliation, Plymouth's churches are sponsoring a united house-to-house canvass within the next two months.

The Reverend Melbourne I. Johnson, pastor of First Methodist church, is chairman of the canvass. Using lists of those living in the Plymouth vicinity, local pastors have checked off those who belong to their own churches. Those remaining will be called upon.

Reverend Johnson said that there are approximately 3,000 homes that local ministers have not claimed as having members.

Laymen from all the churches, including the Catholic and Protestant denominations, will take part in the canvass. The exact date for the canvass has not been set but is expected to be in September or October.

Three questions will be asked those solicited. They are:

"Are you now actively affiliated with a church?" "If not, do you have a church preference in the community?" "Would you welcome a call from the church of your choice?"

If the householder shows interest in a church and would welcome a call, the preferred church will be given the name to make the contact.

George Jackson has indicated that he may enter the floor covering and decorating contracting business, rather than continue as a retailer. No other location for another business has been announced.

Papes' House of Gifts, located across the street from Jackson's, Inc., plans to move into the paint and floor covering store room when it is vacated sometime next month. Owner Richard Papes states that the larger floor area will allow for expansion of his gift and greeting card lines.

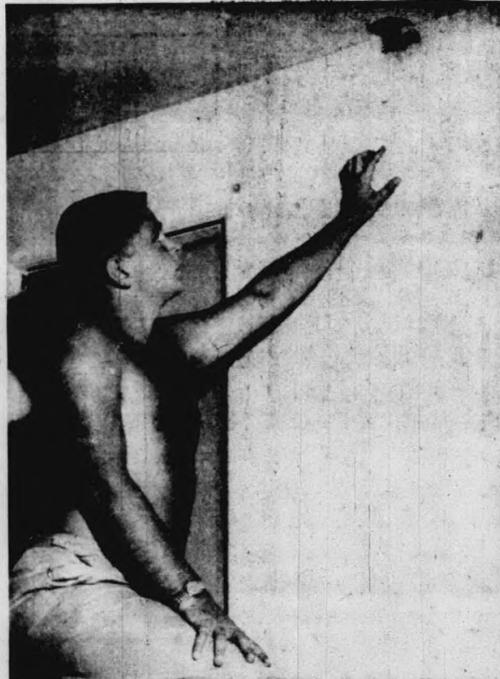

Capitol Shirt Shops, located next to Papes', expects to be out of business by October 1. In its place, is expected to come a branch of a store operating in Northville, Famous Store for Men and Boys.

Mrs. Carrie Gladstone, operator of a dry goods store at 578 Starkweather avenue, announced this week that she was going out of business. She said that she has found no buyers for her store. A closing-out sale is now in progress.

EXAMINING one of the holes blasted in the wall of his parents' home during a heavy electrical storm last week is John Small, 18. A bolt of lightning struck the Small home early last Thursday morning, narrowly missing the elder Small as he lay in bed.

Lightning Causes $2,000 Damages To Canton Home

An estimated $2,000 in damage was the result when lightning struck the John Small home at 1125 Canton Center road early last Thursday morning during a sudden and severe thunder storm. The bolt of lightning, which blasted the northwest corner of the house and made a shambles of a bedroom, narrowly missed Small as he lay asleep. Small's son, Ronald, 15, had just gotten up for a drink of water, thus leaving empty his bed which apparently took a direct hit.

Damage to the home included a battered roof. Several bricks in the upper wall were caved inward by the force of the strike. Considerable wiring throughout the home was burned out and light bulbs were shattered. The bolt put several large holes through the wall of the bedroom.

The home was hit at about 12:45 a.m. as three members of the family were downstairs and three upstairs. Mrs. Small, Ronald and John, 18, were downstairs. Asleep above them were the elder Small and two children, Richard, 16, and Jim, 11.

John attempted to stop a number of passing autos in order to contact the Canton township fire department. The township fire phone was out of order. Finally a state police car was notified and the troopers called the fire truck. Firemen made sure that there was no threat of fire.

The upstairs rooms in the home had just been remodeled. The house was covered by insurance against damage from lightning, it was reported.

high school. A course called "annual publications" will be conducted for youngsters on the yearbook staff. The commercial department will also have a retailing course. Driver education, offered two years without credit, will now become a credit course. First year French was offered for the first time last year and now the second year course is being offered. Dramatics is the fifth new class being opened.

In the elementary grades, instrumental music will be offered for the first time during the class day.

A full day of school will be held on the first day. School bells will ring at 8:30 a.m. Teachers will begin their 1956-57 school year two days earlier, on September 4, when they report for the pre-school conference.

Plymouth Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay will be in Crystal Falls in the Upper Peninsula today through Saturday attending a board meeting of the Michigan Township Officers association. As a member of the board, the supervisor will help plan the group's activities for the remainder of the year.

Residents Object

a water main for a block of Herold street. A public hearing on the assessment roll for these projects has been set for Monday, September 10. One property owner objected to the Herold street project.

In other business before the commission, a motion was made to change the minimum retirement age for city employees. At present, a city employee can work until the age of 70. The new ruling states that an employee can retire at the age of 65, but obtain a year-to-year permission for up to five more years of work if the employee cannot be replaced or is of great value.

A motion was made to send out cards to property owners affected by assessments in the future, informing them of the date of public hearings. Law requires notices of hearings to be published in the newspaper and posted on three public bulletin boards.

A lengthy discussion took place concerning the running feud between the Broen Metal Products company on Hamilton street and some of the neighbors. Residents want the city to prosecute the firm for an alleged noise nuisance. City Attorney Harry Deyo reported that the city would have a difficult time proving the noise, but that he has suggested that the residents hire their own attorney and file charges.

The city recently brought the firm before the planning commission on charge of violating the zoning law regarding the use of two lots for loading and unloading trucks. The zoning board of appeals upheld the decision and the firm has informed Deyo that an injunction may be sought.

Deyo told commissioners that the zoning law was there before the plant was enacted and that it is now operating under a "non-conforming" use. It cannot increase its size of operation, Deyo added, and to prove that it is making more noise than it did in previous years is something that those living in the area, not the city, would need to somehow prove.

The commission took no action, although it was suggested that the city and the citizens could enter into a joint suit if the company does not follow the zoning board order to cease use of the lots for unloading purposes by September 1.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Dobson of Ann Arbor trail and Miss Carol Wohlgenuth of Ford road flew to Ft. Leonard Wood, Missouri, to visit Donald R. Dobson over last weekend.

WATCH FOR OPENING OF N. D. ?

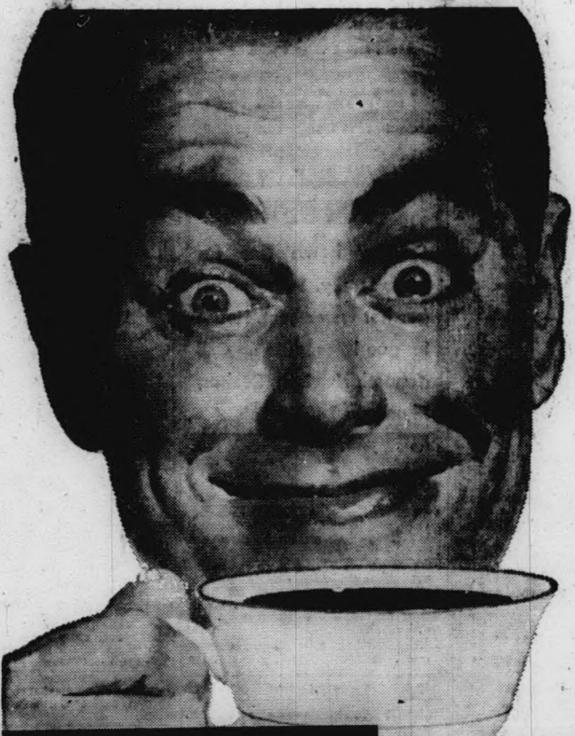

Library Open Saturdays After Labor Day Weekend
 Starting September 8, Plymouth branch of Wayne County library will resume its Saturday hours for the fall and winter months, it was announced this week.
 The local branch will be open weekday evenings until 8 and on Saturdays until 5 p.m. Opening hours will remain the same.
 "Mrs. Upton's pet dog has been run over; she'll be heartbroken. Don't tell her abruptly."
 "No I'll begin by saying it's her husband."

New Hudson Man Urges Letter Writing Crusade
 A New Hudson (Mich.) man is asking Plymouth area people to join a growing national movement to write letters urging the release of American missionaries and other persons imprisoned by the Chinese Communists.
 The request is being made by Daniel F. Foley, Jr., who is director of the letter campaign in the Detroit regional area. Letters should be addressed to Mao Tse-Tung, chairman of the Chinese People's Party, Peiping, China.
 Under the name "Freedom Crusade," the campaign was initiated in April by the Rev. Fr. Harold W. Rigney, SVD, Chicago, a former prisoner of the Reds. It is estimated that more than 500,000 letters have already been sent to the Red Chinese leader Mao Tse-Tung.
 The campaign is being waged in New England, Detroit and Chicago and is rapidly spreading to other parts of the United States. Father Rigney said that there were specifically 13 Catholic and Protestant missionaries being held prisoner when he left China. How many other Americans are being held is not definitely known. Estimates range into the thousands.
 It is requested that the letters be sent air mail. The postage rate is 25 cents. To estimate the number of letters sent, those who write have been asked by Foley to send a report on the number of letters to Michigan Catholic, 944 Selden, Detroit.
 Now that we are in the second half of 1956, what can you say for your use of the first half?

Plan Corn, Chicken Feed
 Plymouthites attending matinee or evening performances of the circus this Saturday can make their day complete by attending a corn roast and chicken barbecue to be sponsored by Plymouth Elks lodge No. 1780 at the Elks temple, 41700 Ann Arbor road.
 Dinner will be served from 5:30 to 9:30 p.m. As an added feature, dancing will follow immediately after the last serving.
 If it gets down to the dollar bill, the friends who step aside and exhibit graciousness usually are allowed to exhibit it.

SCHOOL BUS TRANSPORTATION

All bus routes will maintain the same schedule as last year for at least the first week of school except in cases of kindergarten bus routes. Parents of kindergarten students will be notified prior to the opening of school regarding bus transportation for their children. In a few instances, the number of the school bus will be different but the time and route schedule will remain approximately the same.

It is the policy to transport only those children who live more than a mile from school. It is the recommendation of the State of Michigan that students in kindergarten through grade 6 may be required to walk up to one-half mile to a bus stop and that students in grade 7 through grade 12 may be required to walk up to one mile to a bus stop. It is also the recommendation of the State of Michigan that buses be required not to make more than three stops per mile. These designated bus stops will be determined by the Director of Transportation.

We must have the cooperation of students and parents in observing some very simple rules in order to help transport your children safely. They are as follows:

1. Students will remain in their seats at all times.
2. Students will refrain from throwing paper and trash on the floor of the buses or out the bus windows.
3. Students will refrain from putting hands and heads out of the bus windows.
4. Students will refrain from yelling at passing motorists and pedestrians.
5. Students will obey the driver's instructions.

The cooperation of the parents in bringing these rules to the attention of their children is most urgently needed.

Who's New in Plymouth

A VISIT to Plymouth in June 1955 and business trip here in August proved the turning-point for the Leo Farriers, then farming in Ollie, Iowa. Liking the climate and proximity to the industrial area, they located at 11100 Gold Arbor last November. The couple are seated with their youngsters Diana Lynnette, 5, and 4-year-old Deborah Lee. Farrier is with Lightweight Aggregate company, Livonia, cinder block manufacturers. Mrs. Farrier works at Burroughs and finds time during winter months to pursue her interest in interior decorating, sewing and stencil painting on textiles, woods and glass. Both enjoy gardening and other outdoor pursuits.

Social Notes

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Leppa and son, Roger of St. Paul, Minnesota, spent last week with Mrs. Leppa's cousin, Mrs. George Keeping of Hartsough avenue. While here the Leppas and Mrs. Keeping motored to New Bremen, Ohio, where they visited other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Hartwick and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Gage attended "Riverama" in Detroit Wednesday evening.

Phillip Weyeremiller of Birmingham is spending this week with his aunt, Mrs. George Trinka of Irvin street.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Osgood spent Saturday in Coldwater, Michigan, visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Thorpe have returned to their home on Spring street following a two weeks scenic vacation trip to Banff, National Rock, Jasper, Woho and Radium Hot Springs. Mrs. Thorpe's cousin, Marie Granger of Thamesville, Ontario, accompanied them.

Brian C. Kidston, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Kidstone left August 15 for Camp Pendleton, California, as a recruit in the United States Marine Corps. Brian's brother, Second Lieutenant Roger Kidston is now at Camp Upshur, Quantico, Virginia in the Officers Training School of the United States Marine Corps Reserve.

Township attorney, Earl Demel, expects to return to his home this week after surgery on August 1 in New Grace hospital, Detroit. The Demels live at 13900 Beck road.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schultz of Forest avenue attended the Schambo family reunion at Waltz on Sunday.

Mrs. Otto Beyer spent from Wednesday until Friday as the houseguest of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ballen of Burroughs avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Osgood of Penniman avenue and Mrs. Osgood's mother, Mrs. C. L. Warren of New Orleans, Louisiana, were dinner guests Friday evening at the Edwin Wilder home in Dearborn. Mrs. Warren is spending the summer with the Osgoods.

Mrs. Roberta Steele entertained the members of her staff at Cadillac Drapery at dinner last Thursday evening at Rotunda Inn, Dearborn. Attending with Mrs. Steele were Lila Humphries, Mrs. Wilfred Wilson and Mrs. H. L. Pride.

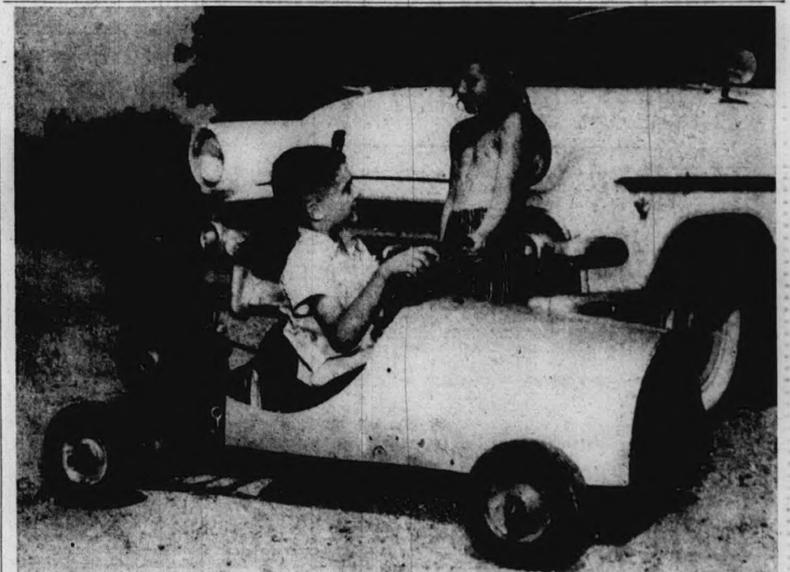

Mr. and Mrs. James Noble Garber of the Ralph Garber Farms, North Territorial road, sailed from New York last Friday for Europe. They will return on September 18 and will take up residence at 336 East Madison avenue, Ann Arbor, where Jim is a law student at the University of Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Beyer spent the weekend in Akron, Ohio, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Al Schuster.

Sunday dinner guests in the Milton Fetner home on McKinley avenue were the Reverend and Mrs. W. T. McCandless, Dr. Virginia McCandless and Mrs. Helen Berry and daughter, Jane Ann, of Grosse Pointe Farms.

Thursday, August 23, 1956, Plymouth, Michigan

Section 3

JERRY SPARR, 10, sits proudly in the driver seat of his personal automobile, a gift from one of his father's business customers. With Jerry is his sister Louise, 7. She thinks the two and one-half horse-power model car is quite something, too.

Veterans of Foreign Wars

On Sunday, September 2, there is to be a fourth District rally at the Memorial home, Military Order of the Purple Heart, 646 Biddle (Jefferson) Avenue.

Wyandotte. Immediately after the rally, a Chicken a la King dinner will be served by Hostess Auxiliary No. 1136, at their Post home, 633 Foard Road, Wyandotte. Registration will be at 1 p.m. for all presidents, delegates, alternates and visitors. At 2 p.m. there will be a rally, meeting, and at 3:30 p.m. a special legislative program arranged by the fourth District commander, with the Department Commander and two or three of our National House of Representatives members, in a question and answer period.

Several letters have been turned over to Legislative Chairman Marie Norman in response to Auxiliary members' requests to investigate various bills of interest to veterans. This certainly proves that our interests in this matter have not been in vain.

Winners in two national high school contests sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Veterans of Foreign Wars were announced at the annual VFW encampment held recently in Dallas, Texas.

Yaraslava Sachno, 18, of Staunton, Virginia won the $1,000 top award in the national high school essay contest.

About 100,000 persons jammed downtown Dallas, Texas Sunday, to watch the Veterans of Foreign Wars parade. More than 10,000 men and women took part in this highlight of the VFW's 57th annual encampment, while a four-plane flight of F-80 Shooting Star jets streaked overhead.

Close behind came a flight of B-47 and B-36 bombers.

Local Girl Sees France In Exchange

Spending a summer in France as an International Farm Youth Exchange Delegate is Gloria Lagness, a 1956 graduate of Madonna college. Gloria was recently living on a farm in St. Denis les Bourg, a region in the South-eastern corner of France.

She explained in a letter that she would live in four different regions in France over the course of the summer. At each location she would probably live on a farm. St. Denis is her second stop.

Prior to leaving the United States, Gloria in June was introduced to a week of orientation at Washington, D. C. While there she met Senators Potter and McNamara of Michigan. Gloria is one of five youths from America who are IFYE delegates this summer.

In France, Gloria and her four fellow delegates were welcomed by embassy officials and their host organization, the Cercle des Jeunes, a young farm group of France.

Gloria reported some of her experiences in France: Natives peering out windows to see the young American girl as she strolled the streets, being treated as a guest until finally getting into a work routine and then being accepted as a member of the family, being introduced to wooden work shoes and other such moments.

Once the assistant agricultural attache visited the farm where she was working in the barn. He asked Gloria where the American girl was. Both laughed when she told him that she was the American.

The only bad thing about making money is that it usually brings added headaches; we never have headaches.

Moms to Install New Officers

Mrs. Adolph Kushler will be installed as president of the Plymouth unit, Mothers of Men in Service, Inc., at ceremonies following a potluck supper to be held Monday evening at 6:30 in the Veterans Memorial center, Main street.

Others to be installed with her as the MOMS slate for the coming year are:

Mrs. Schurmway Rollins, vice president; Mrs. Charles Hewer, recording secretary; Mrs. Arthur Norgrove, treasurer; Mrs. Roy Lare, financial secretary; Mrs. Maude Anderson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Joan Sackett, historian; and Mrs. Laurence Gladstone, chaplain. Mrs. Orvil Bloomhoff, Mrs. Rose Smith and Mrs. Mabel Donahue are the new directors.

The installation will be conducted by Mrs. Laurence Gladstone assisted by Mrs. Joan Huller of Ann Arbor.

Mrs. Arthur Norgrove and Mrs. Gladstone have been appointed chairmen for the MOMS' Tag Day sale to be held September 14.

Mrs. Brickelbaw Feted At Surprise Party

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brickelbaw, Jr. of Salem and daughters, Ruth Ann and Mary Beth, were among those who pleasantly surprised Mrs. Lloyd Brickelbaw Sr. of South Lyon at the home of her son, Jim, at Silver Lake where she and Mr. Brickelbaw were visiting Sunday.

The occasion was a surprise birthday supper planned by Mrs. James Brickelbaw, the hostess, who assisted by her family and other sons and daughters of the honored guest. These included Mr. and Mrs. John Brickelbaw and the sons of Plymouth, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Svabik and daughters and son of Detroit, Lloyd Jr. and family of Salem, Virginia and Charles who live at home.

The honored guest received many lovely gifts. A picnic supper was served, highlighted by a birthday cake topped with candles honoring Mrs. Brickelbaw and others in the family with August birthdays, son John, daughter Lois Brickelbaw of Detroit, and granddaughter Ruth Ann.

David Zink, of Penniman avenue, is a patient in New Grace hospital, Detroit, where he has been more than a week.

10-Year-Old Lad Drives Own Auto

Transportation is no problem for 10-year-old Jerry Sparr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Sparr, 42510 Joy road. A twinkle-eyed, dark-haired youngster, Jerry owns his own automobile.

Jerry's car isn't one of the high-powered jobs that cruise down the road today. Instead it's a model auto or rather a "hot-rod" as Jerry calls it. It's about five feet long and is powered by a two and one-half horsepower gasoline engine. His car is belt-driven.

Jerry's father is a wholesaler-retail greenhouse operator. Through the elder Sparr's business dealings Jerry acquired his auto. It was given to him about two months ago by a customer of Mr. Sparr's.

With its solid rubber tires and low speed driving ranges, the little car goes about 15 miles per hour.

Jerry doesn't have a driver's license, but he never drives on the highways. Instead he circles around his parents' home and the greenhouse nearby. Said Jerry, when asked what he thought about his car: "I like it."

The youngster has an older brother, Dennis, 14, and a sister, Louise, 7. Both seem to enjoy the model auto as much as does Jerry. In addition neighborhood children gather often to take turns driving it.

OUTDOOR NOTES

From The
MICHIGAN DEPARTMENT OF CONSERVATION

Conservation Department personnel are working out details for administration of Michigan's 1956 special deer hunting seasons. Special seasons were established on an area and quota basis in 22 deer starvation and crop damage areas of the state by the Conservation Commission at its August 9-10 meeting. The Commission action is subject to approval by the legislative joint interim committee on administrative rules.

Under the 1956 regulations proposed by the Commission, holders of special permits will be allowed to take one deer of any age, either sex, in designated areas.

Some 65,340 permits will be offered to allow hunters to take 16,995 deer, in addition to the "bucks only" harvest of the regular November 15-30 season.

The Commission set the special seasons after hearing recommendations from the Conservation Department game division, Harry D. Ruhl, chief of the game division, said at least that number of extra deer could be harvested without exceeding "safe biological limits."

In order to obtain a special permit, a hunter must purchase a deer license and apply for the permit by October 10, specifying the area desired. If applications for any area exceed the number of permits, a drawing will be held to determine distribution.

Each permit will be valid for only one area and the permit holder will be furnished a map and description of the area.

In 19 of the areas, the special season is scheduled for December 1-2. In two other units—Bois Blanc Island and the Lake-Newaygo county area—the special season will be concurrent with the regular November 15-30 season. A December 1-9 season again is scheduled for parts of Allegan county where crop damage occurs.

In the upper peninsula, 7000 permits will be offered in five areas and an estimated 1750 deer are to be taken December 1-2 in the first "any deer" season in the U. P. in many years. Another 56,840 permits will be offered for 16 areas in the northern lower peninsula, with an anticipated kill of 15,130 extra deer.

The state Conservation Commission last week approved purchase of 460 acres of hunting lands, 121 acres of park lands and three fishing sites for public use.

The Commission, which met August 9-10 at Higgins Lake, authorized several hunting land purchases to be made with money from the Game Protection Fund, including 160 acres at Hardwood state forest, Cheboygan county; 120 acres at Chippewa River state forest, Mecosta county; 60 acres at Allegan state forest, Allegan county; and 120 acres at Manistee national forest, Lake county.

Park land purchases approved include 68 acres at Ludington state park, 46 acres at Fort Wilkins state park, seven acres at Waterloo recreation area; and one platted lot at Aloha state park.

The new public fishing sites are on Bass Lake, Leelanau county; Union Lake, Branch county; and Lower Herring Lake, Benzie county.

In other action, the Commission:

- Authorized timber sales totaling $11,233 from two state forests. Included are 3630 cords of pulpwood and 188,000 board feet of saw logs;
- Approved revisions of general regulations pertaining to oil, gas and natural wells. The revisions provide for changes and new methods which have developed since the last review of the regulations in 1949;

Approved acquisition of a flowage easement on 400 acres of land at Munuscong state forest, Chippewa county, for the Potomac wildlife flooding project;

Authorized opening of a portion of Sleeping Bear-Glen Lake state park to hunting and trapping during open seasons each year. The area, about 31 acres, has value for hunting, particularly pass shooting of waterfowl as well as some deer and small game hunting.

Michigan's favorable forest fire record was maintained last week as only three fires were reported in the state. The damage total was slightly more than five acres.

Two fires in the northern lower peninsula burned about five acres while one fire was reported in the upper peninsula, with damage to one-tenth of an acre. No fires were reported in the southern lower peninsula.

The latest fire brought the season total to 429 and the damage figure stands at 2281 acres. Last year at this time, more than 3000 acres of public and private forests and grasslands had been burned.

The latest information on the forest resources of Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin has been compiled and is available to interested persons, according to the U. S. Forest Service.

Estimates of forest area, timber volume, growth, annual cut, area planted and other items of interest to timber owners and users have been published by the Lakes States forest experiment station at St. Paul, Minnesota.

According to the report, forests cover 55 million acres of land in the lakes states—45 percent of the land areas of these states. Timber volumes are building up because growth exceeds cut for nearly all species, but second growth stands frequently are inferior to the old growth in stocking and in quality of timber.

Forest inventories are designed to make solid estimates available as often as possible to help in the planning of public and private agencies concerned with forest resources.

The report, entitled "Lake States Timber Resources," can be obtained from the Lakes States Forest Experiment Station, St. Paul Campus, University of Minnesota, St. Paul 1, Minnesota.

The trade-at-home program will work only when it has the support of both Plymouth buyers and sellers.

Social Notes

Mrs. George Jarrett returned to her home in Las Vegas, Nevada, Thursday of last week after spending two weeks with her mother, Mrs. William Farley on Adams street. While here Mrs. Jarrett's sister-in-law, Mrs. Mabel Fair, of Windsor, Canada, daughter, Pauline, and granddaughter, Karen, and her son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Fair also of Windsor, Canada, were guests in the Farley home for the day of August 5. On Monday and Tuesday of last week Mrs. Myrtle Genova and friend, Mrs. Anne Dorn of Auburn, New York were guests of Mrs. Farley and on Wednesday Steven Campbell, a nephew of Drayton Plains, spent the day with she and her daughter, Mrs. Jarrett and Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Fraser of Flint. On Thursday Mrs. Farley accompanied the Fraser's home and remained until Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. David Dodge of this city and Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kirkton of Rochester left Wednesday for a few days in Battle Creek, where they will attend the magician's convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anderson and son, Robert, returned Sunday evening from a three week's vacation in northern Michigan spending the first week with her sister, Mrs. Joseph Karney in Muskegon then on to Charlevoix and Mackinac Island and the last ten days at Sand Point in the Thumb.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Deyo and little daughter, Susan, of Van Wert, Ohio, are expected next week in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Deyo of Church street, for a two week's visit.

Lieutenant Raymond Highfield of the airforce and family, who are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanford Besse of Blunk street and Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Williams of Ann Arbor trail, will leave early next week for Dayton, Ohio, where he will be stationed at Wright Patterson Field.

Sally Morgan is visiting college friends in Indianapolis, Indiana and Louisville, Kentucky for two weeks.

Local U-M Club Reveals Plans for Winter Season

Plymouth's University of Michigan club, with Fred Green of 6121 Lotz road as President, has announced its program of events for the coming winter season.

Opening the season will be the traditional student send-off party for every Plymouth high school graduate planning to attend college this fall. All students, regardless of their college affiliation, are invited as guests.

J. Fred Lawton, composer of the lyrics to Michigan's famous marching song "Varsity"; Johnny Greene, football end for Michigan and the Detroit Lions; and Dick McWilliams, fullback, will be featured guests. Movies of the 1955 football campaign will be shown.

This event will be held September 12 at Bird Elementary school at 7 p.m.

On November 6 a group of Michigan's students from foreign countries will appear at the local high school auditorium to tell of customs in their native countries and of their experiences in matriculating at a large university. Plymouth school students and residents are invited to attend.

The traditional Christmas Carols Sing will be held in December. Anyone interested in this seasonal activity is welcome to join the club in celebrating the beginning of the Yule season.

Madonna Opens September 20

Classroom doors swing open September 20 at Madonna college in Livonia as another school year approaches. Prior to the initial day of classes, freshman days will be conducted September 17, 18 and 19 at the campus. On September 19 all upperclassmen will register for classes.

Newly created office in the administration of Madonna college is that of Dean of Studies with Sister Mary Raynelda acting in this capacity. Previously that position and the presidency were one and the same. The office was split this year.

President of Madonna is Sister Mary Assumpta, while Dean of Women is Sister Lydia. Additional teaching personnel is being considered.

Graduation ceremonies at Madonna will take place June 3.

Biological Scientists Study Great Lakes

A group of scientists at The University of Michigan Biological Station, 20 miles south of Cheboygan, have begun research on the Great Lakes and several smaller lakes from the bottom up.

In their basic research to "see what makes the lakes tick" they are scooping up chunks of the lake bottoms and analyzing the samples for percentages of sand, clay, silt, and organic matter.

This information, coupled with that gleaned from studies of water temperature currents, and primary productivity (such as the production of chlorophyll) will give the group and other researchers a much clearer picture of what goes on in the lakes.

The research group, headed by David C. Chandler, professor of zoology, and John C. Ayres, associate professor of zoology, is part of the Great Lakes Research Institute of the U-M.

"One reason for our concentration on the fundamentals," said Professor Ayres, "is the coming of the St. Lawrence Seaway." He explained that the information collected by the group could well be of great use during the building boom that is expected to follow the opening of the seaway.

An example, he said, is in the matter of water pollution by a planned industrial plant. Because of the research being done now the group would be able to tell engineers what would happen to polluted water entering the lake at a certain point.

The study will actually cover a period of years and will be interrupted occasionally by other projects.

One of these, said Professor Ayres, will occur next summer when the Great Lakes group will begin a study of the seiche, or so-called "tidal waves" of the water which swept in on Chicago's waterfront last year and destroyed thousands of dollars worth of property.

When the wind blows toward an area of the lake over which there is a high pressure area, he pointed out, the water level will rise there and go down in another area. When the wind ceases or when the high pressure area moves on (or both) the higher water will sweep back into the area of lower level. If the change is sudden the result could be a very large wave, or seiche.

Ayres calls the action the "slop effect" and compares it to sweeping your arm through a tub of water and piling the water more deeply in one end of the tub.

"When you stop the action," he said "a wave will sweep down the tub and smack against the other end."

One thing known about a seiche, he said, is its terrific speed. They range from about 60 miles per hour up to as high as 240 miles an hour. The speed depends upon their size, the larger ones move faster than the smaller.

"When the speed is coupled with the great weight of the large ones," he added, "the destructive force is enormous."

At some time in the future, he concluded, it may be possible through the use of this and other material to forecast the possibility of a seiche occurring and its probable direction. If populated areas were in its predicted path they could be warned in advance as is done at present in the case of tornadoes.

Bad Reader May Have Eye Fault

Fifty per cent of all children who fail reading have an uncorrected vision problem, according to the Michigan Optometric Association which recommended better care for the 35 million pupils entering school in September.

The association said the figure was based on a University of Chicago study of causes of reading failure.

As further evidence of the importance of vision to school achievement, it cited an Ohio State university study. There it was found that among children with "normal" vision, 73 per cent were scholastically satisfactory; 27 per cent were partial failures; and none were total failures.

Among children with vision problems, only 44 per cent were scholastically satisfactory; 19 per cent were partial failures; and 37 per cent failed in all subjects.

"With the aid of modern science, almost all children can have their vision brought up to par," the association said. "The greatest need is for more diligence in discovering the cases that need care. Better vision screening methods are needed in the schools to supplement the superficial Snellen letter chart test."

The Association praised modern teachers for their ability to detect symptoms of vision problems observed as the child does his school work.

State's Typhoid Cases Increase

Typhoid fever cases in Michigan are now greater in number than at any time in the last 10 years, and the cause of the increase may be hidden in today's complex and widespread food distribution system.

Total number of cases in Michigan from January through August 10, was 39, an increase of 24 over the same period in 1955 and highest since 1947.

Dr. George H. Agate, Michigan Department of Health epidemiologist, said the increase is still being studied and as yet no conclusive findings have been made.

"It is possible," Dr. Agate said, "that the source of infection lives outside a patient's home community or even outside Michigan. Our experience with an increased number of cases and our search for the cause is similar to what's been happening in several other Midwest states this year.

"Detection of contaminated food is very difficult because of the distance food now travels from point of manufacture to point of consumption. Thus, it is more important than ever to keep known typhoid carriers from handling or processing food," Dr. Agate said.

All cases of typhoid are traceable to persons who either have the disease or have had it and are still spreading the typhoid germ. The germ can be transmitted through water, milk or other food.

There are about 200 known typhoid carriers in Michigan. All must register with the state health department. Local health officials then check, periodically, to see that the carriers practice good personal hygiene and do not work as food handlers.

About five out of over 100 persons who contract typhoid fever and recover continue to discharge typhoid germs in their wastes for the remainder of their lives. The germs often lodge in the carrier's gall bladder and removal of that organ by surgery usually converts him to a non-carrier.

★ THINKING OUT LOUD ★

One question, sometimes controversial, sometimes personal is asked each week by The Mail of four pedestrians along Plymouth's downtown streets. This week's guests are "thinking out loud" on the question:

Do you think that Nixon will receive the nomination this year for vice-president on the Republican ticket?

GORDON NULTY, 574 Auburn: "I don't care to predict but I can't understand all the criticism concerning Nixon. I wouldn't make a prediction because Ike hasn't definitely backed Nixon yet."

TOM CUMMINGS, Northville: "Despite Stassen's efforts I think he (Nixon) will get it undoubtedly. I'd place a bet on it. Whoever the presidential candidate wants, he'll get."

Nulty Cummings Mrs. Murray Mrs. Wilkins

MRS. ADA MURRAY, 643 North Mill: "I think he will. I think he's done a very good job. Herter (Gov. Christian Herter of Mass.) is not as well known as Nixon. I say let well enough alone and keep the one we have."

MRS. PERRY WILKINS, 8880 Elmhurst: "The only thing against him would be his age. A little older man might work out better. A little older man might handle the job more efficiently. I don't know if he'll receive the nomination — it depends on Eisenhower."

Burt Boyar IN NEW YORK

OFF THE RECORD: Ava Gardner will file for divorce from Frank Sinatra in Nevada this fall when she finishes "The Little Hut" in Europe. . . . Sammy Davis, Jr.'s movie studio wants him to clip the tip of his nose before making movies. A minor job. He'll do it the day after "Mr. Wonderful" closes. . . . Elvis Presley's mgr. is looking for a press agent to keep bad stuff about the singer out of the papers. (Ha, ha and ho!) . . . Jerry Lewis' dad Danny is telling every-one, "My son will never go back with Dean." (Wanna bet?) . . . Sid Caesar went to Nassau to lose a cold and came back with a virus. . . . 20th Century Fox is trying harder to plug Don Murray of "Bus Stop" than Marilyn Monroe, the star. The reason's simple: They own Murray but MM leaves them after a few more pix. . . . "High Society" is a lot of fun to watch. Grace, Frank and Bing are all delightful.

Crosby

PARAGRAPHIC: Nina Foch and her husband TV actor Jim Lipton have had tremendously tough schedules recently. Nina's been rehearsing and playing in "The Taming of the Shrew" at the Stratford Shakespeare Festival while Jim's been in New York doing TV shows, etc. They've barely seen each other for two months. Nina told us, "I saw Jim for dinner last night, and he's really very nice. . . ."

BEAU BROADWAY: Maurice Evans' next play (as a producer) will probably be a musical. Most people don't know that he played in musical comedies in London before he became a Shakespearean actor. . . . They're saying Rex Harrison will au revoir "My Fair Lady" when his contract runs out next year, so hurry, hurry. . . . It's so quiet around town, now, that the only noise in nightclubs is the sound of the waiters yawning. . . . Roz Russell will do 20 costume changes in "Auntie Mame" which bows October 31. . . . Jo Sullivan, of "Most Happy Fella" settled down for a long winter's stay. Painted her dressing room blue and white, put in a private phone, TV set, record player and small refrigerator.

FLL BETCHA: Martin & Lewis team up again for night club work within a year. . . . Frank Sinatra will be married within six months. . . . Tickets for Judy Garland's opening at the Palace will be scarce at $100 apiece. . . . Faye Emerson and Skitch Henderson will not divorce because of the children. . . . Eddie Fisher will bomb, lay an egg, flop, fall on his face, etc., in his movie attempt. His warm-as-a-Coke personality will leave even his best fans in pain. . . . Jayne Mansfield and Mickey Hargitay, love him as she may, will never marry. . . . Edward R. Murrow will make a Person-To-Person trip to the Dwight House before election time. . . . Diana Dors, England's "answer" to Marilyn (what's the question?) won't make a dent as a glamor girl here.

PRINTS OF PLAYERS: Jack Palance, who knows his rough looks have made him rich, wishes he looked like a matinee idol. . . . Tony Bennett would have his beak tweaked by a plastic surgeon but he fears it might change the sounds he makes. . . . Cyd Charisse wants Tony Martin to build her a swimming pool shaped, not like a piano or a kidney, but like a girl.

PERSON-TO-PERSON: Called Dinah Shore who was in town for some TV appearances. "Hey," she said, "how come you didn't send me that story you wrote about me last time I was here?" I told her, "But, I did. I thought you'd received it because I didn't get it back in the mail. I lost your California address, so I just addressed it to Dinah Shore, Hollywood, California." She seemed surprised that it didn't arrive. "I never got it," she said. "And that's surprising because I've gotten them with no name or address written on them. One had just a picture of a dinosaur. Another one had a picture of a dining car with the waves lapping alongside of it on the beach. I've got that one framed. Inside the man wrote, 'Well, I just wanted to see if they'd be stupid enough to figure out who this is. Hooray for the Post Office.'"

C'EST LA TVIE: Steve Allen went into a department store, bought a tie and some shirts and said "Charge it!" The clerk took his name and address and asked Allen for some identification. The TV star had none on him. Allen explained he was on television. "I'm sorry said the clerk, but I don't recognize you. I don't watch television." Allen was in a rush to get back to the studio with the shirts. "Do you have a newspaper?" he asked. The clerk handed him one. Allen thumbed through to the TV section, found a picture of himself and handed it to the clerk. "Okay?" he asked. The clerk looked at it. "Okay," he said handing over the shirts.

Enrollment Pinch Reaches Upper Grades in State

With 2,000 new classrooms costing about $100,000,000 being ready for Michigan's school children this fall, the state's public school enrollment will increase 70,000 over last year, Dr. Clair L. Taylor, state superintendent of public instruction, declared.

And for the first time in many years, the enrollment increases will be equally as great in the secondary schools as in the elementary schools.

Dr. Taylor declared that the wartime baby boom has finally struck the junior and senior high schools and is causing expansion of these types of school buildings as well as the elementary grades. Then too, more students are staying in school longer.

There will be a total of about 1,455,000 pupils in school this fall in Michigan, Dr. Taylor estimates.

Although there is still a demand for teachers, the state superintendent said, the shortage in Michigan is not as critical as in years past. There will be 53,000 teachers in the state's public school this fall, or about 2,000 more than a year ago. Dr. Taylor added that the teachers will also be better qualified than in previous years.

"Special certificate" teachers this year will number 6,000, or 1,000 fewer than last year.

Dr. Taylor estimates that the average teacher salary this year will be $4,900 as compared with $4,700 a year ago.

Wins Auxiliary College Grant

Geraldine L. Mosher of 963 West Ann Arbor trail has been named one of 10 recipients of the annual National President's scholarship awarded by the American Legion auxiliary, it was announced this week.

Each scholarship carries a cash grant of $600 for first year college expenses. Winners, all daughters of deceased war veterans, are chosen for their high scholastic standing and activities record.

A June graduate of Plymouth high school, Miss Mosher will attend the University of Michigan, Ann Arbor, this fall. She was recently presented to Mrs. Bowden D. Ward, national auxiliary president, at the August 2-5 state Legion convention in Lansing.

Treat Guests To Nesselrode Chiffon Cake

A cake comes our way this week—one that's kept neighbors and visitors up Plymouth Hills way a-buzz for some time now.

Mrs. Leo Schultz of 12085 Nicholas Lane is the famed recipe owner—her specialty, "Nesselrode Chiffon Cake." Pretty as a picture is this three-layered delicacy topped with pale pink frosting and a grizzling of coconut. Pineapple filling adds a refreshing touch, this one not souring or sogging the layer after the cake has been standing.

Here's the recipe for this treat:

Nesselrode Chiffon Cake

Heat oven to 325 degrees (slow moderate).

1. In bowl, sift together: two cups sifted, all-purpose enriched flour.

Spoon lightly into cup, being careful not to pack:

1 1/2 cups sugar
3 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt

Form a well and add:

1/2 cup of cooking or salad oil
7 unbeaten egg yolks (medium size)

3/4 cup cold water
2 teaspoons vanilla

grated rind of one lemon (about 2 teaspoonsfuls or 1 teaspoon lemon juice)

Beat with spoon until smooth.

2. In another bowl, beat into stiff peaks, stiffer than for meringue:

1 cup egg whites (7 or 8 medium)
1/2 teaspoon cream of tartar

3. Pour smooth batter mixture gradually over beaten egg whites, gently folding until blended. Do not stir. Pour immediately into ungreased 10-inch tube pan, 4-inches deep.

Bake 55 minutes at 325 degrees, then increase heat to 350 degrees (moderate) for 10 to 15 minutes or until top springs back when lightly touched. Turn pan upside down, placing tube over neck of a bottle. Let stand in mid-air until cold. Loosen sides with knife, turn pan over on cake plate. Cut cake in three layers. Recipe makes large cake (16 servings).

Pineapple Filling
1 lb. can crushed pineapple
1/2 cup sugar
1/4 cup water

Bring to boil, thicken with scant tablespoon of corn starch. Remove from stove, add 1 tablespoon butter, cool.

Frosting
1 1/2 cups sugar
1/2 cup water
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
few drops red food coloring

Boil four minutes. Pour slowly into bowl containing two beaten egg whites and beat well with electric mixer. Add 1 teaspoon vanilla. Sprinkle one can of coconut lightly over top and sides.

Mayor's Daughter Marries In Presbyterian Church Rites

Wearing an Italian silk taffeta gown with neckline trimmed in Point de Venice lace, Ellen Betsy Daane, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. Russell M. Daane of 29 Garfield avenue, approached the altar of the First Presbyterian church of Plymouth, Friday evening, August 17, for her marriage to Laurence Arthur Chrouh, II, whose parents, Dr. and Mrs. Chrouh, reside at 8215 Sunderland road in Detroit.

The bridal gown was floor-length and styled with short sleeves. Her fingertip veil was caught by a cap of Point de Venice lace and she carried a bouquet of white rubrum lillies.

Miss Ann Janet Hammond was maid of honor with Mrs. J. G. Rucker, Mrs. David Andrews, Jr. and Miss Barbara Carls as bridesmaids. Their gowns were gold-colored silk shantung in waltz length. All the attendants carried garnet roses and gold-colored chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Daane was attired in a rose beige chiffon gown, the bridegroom's mother in light blue chiffon.

Melvin Guthrie Bleitz was best man for the ceremony read at 7:30 o'clock by the Reverend Henry J. Walsh. Guests were seated by Jack Wallace Sunderland, Roderick K. Daane, Phillip Wilson, David Andrews, Jr. and David Abbey.

A reception for 250 guests followed the ceremony at the Barton Hills Country club in Ann Arbor.

The new Mrs. Chrouh changed to a wheat-colored dress with matching coat in linen tweed for a two weeks honeymoon at Killarney Island in Georgian Bay, Canada.

The couple will reside at 6149 Cottage drive, Sunset Cove, Lake Lansing, Hazlet, Michigan.

Finnish Woman Makes Surprise Local Visit

Mrs. Walter Dzurus, 1317 Sheridan, received a surprise visit last week from a Finnish woman to whom Mrs. Dzurus and her pupils in school have been sending packages for the past seven years.

Appearing at her door last week was Mrs. Signe Niquist of Gam Lakarley, Finland. Mrs. Niquist, a Methodist minister's wife, had appeared in Plymouth a number of years ago as a speaker.

Ever since, Mrs. Dzurus and her pupils in a Livonia school have been sending about four packages a year for seven years to help Mrs. Niquist and her work in the Scandinavian country. The children themselves raised $6 for postage necessary to send the books, clothing, coffee, etc.

Mrs. Niquist has been visiting Mrs. Fred Poole in Detroit. Mrs. Poole is the wife of a former Plymouth minister.

Several Methods for Cooling Dry Throats

Hot summer days demand cooling drinks. At mealtime, after the game or swim, whether it is a small group or a crowd, a refreshing beverage is the first thought.

To Dress Up Iced Tea

1. Make ice cubes of strong lemonade or limeade. Use in place of lemon slices.

2. Freeze sprigs of mint, fresh berries, maraschino cherries fresh or canned pineapple, or slices of orange in plain ice cubes.

3. Freeze gingerale in cubes.

Fresh Mint Cup

4 sprigs fresh mint
2 cups sugar
2 cups water
1-2 cup pineapple juice
1-2 cup lime juice
Green coloring

Strip the leaves from the mint, wash and add the sugar and the water. Bring to the boiling point and simmer 5 minutes. Strain, add the pineapple and lime juice. Color a delicate green and chill thoroughly. Just before serving, add the gingerale well chilled.

Clove Lemonade

2 cups sugar
2 cups water
4 lemons
1 teaspoon whole cloves
Cracked ice
Mint

Place the sugar and water in saucepan. Add the grated rind of 1 lemon, and the cloves. Heat and when the sugar is dissolved simmer for 5 minutes. Add the juice of the lemons, strain, cool and place in a jar in the refrigerator. When ready to serve use 1-4 cup of the lemon syrup to each glass. Pour over cracked ice. Add enough ice water to fill the glass. Garnish with a sprig of fresh mint.

Iced Coffee

Strain very strong hot coffee over ice cubes in glasses. Serve with cream and powdered sugar. Make the ice cubes with coffee.

Iced Coffee With Ice Cream
Serve iced coffee in tall glasses and allow 2 tablespoons vanilla ice cream to each glass.

Sugar Syrup
1 1/4 cups sugar
3-4 cup water
Place the sugar and water in a saucepan. Stir over heat until the sugar is dissolved. Boil 5 minutes. Cool and store in the refrigerator.

Pineapple Mint Punch

1 cups cold milk
2 cups cold pineapple juice
1-4 cup cream
1-4 cup sugar
1-2 teaspoons lemon juice
Dash of salt
12 drops peppermint extract

Combine all ingredients and shake or beat until foamy. Pour into tall glasses, garnish with a sprig of mint. Serve immediately.

Strawberry Punch

1 cup strong tea infusion
1-2 cup lime juice
3-4 cup orange juice
1 cup pineapple juice
1-4 cup sugar syrup (more if desired)

1 cup sweetened strawberries
1 pint gingerale, pale dry
Mix the tea with the lime, orange and pineapple juice. Sweeten with sugar syrup. Add the strawberries and chill well. When ready to serve, add gingerale and pour over ice.

Grapefruit and Ginger-ale
1 pint grapefruit juice
1 quart ginger ale
Maraschino cherries
sprig of mint
Combine fruit juice. Pour over crushed ice.
Garnish with a sprig of mint and a cherry.

Iced Chocolate
2 squares chocolate
1 cup water
3 tablespoons sugar
Dash salt
3 cups milk
Cook chocolate and water over low heat until chocolate is melted. Add sugar and salt, boil 5 minutes, stirring constantly. Add milk gradually stirring all the time. Heat over boiling water. Beat until frothy. Chill and pour over cracked ice or cubes of frozen chocolate. Garnish with a teaspoonful of whipped cream and dust with powdered cinnamon.

Mary Witwer Among MSU Nurse Grads

Mary Ann Witwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Witwer of 593 Edison, Plymouth will wear the white uniform of a graduate nurse for the first time tomorrow, August 24.

Four years of study and training without summer vacation are behind the 22 girls who will receive their M. S. U. pins in a candlelight ceremony at 7 p.m. in the M. S. U. Alumni chapel.

Mary A. Witwer

In addition to becoming graduate nurses, the 22 coeds will receive B. S. Degrees in nursing education. This is the third and largest group to be graduated from M. S. U.'s department of nursing education.

Miss Florence C. Kempf, head of the department, will make the pins presentation. Lloyd C. Emmons, dean emeritus of the college of science and arts, will speak at the ceremony.

James Lytel of the United States Army arrived home Monday, by plane, from Fort Hood, Texas, on a fifteen-day furlough.

On Wednesday he accompanied his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Lytel and sister, Martha, to Pressman's Home, Tennessee, to attend a family reunion of the Lytel family. Before returning home they will also visit Mrs. Lytel's parents in Parkersburg, West Virginia.

NEW SCHOOL FASHION? No, it was just a dare that caused Dennis Drews to stroll down Plymouth's Main street in a skirt last week. The skirt was on sale at Davis & Lent but Dennis, who wanted it for a girl friend, couldn't quite swing the deal. So for some fun, store owner Wendell Lent dared him to wear it down the street. As a prize, he was given the skirt. Dennis is shown with a companion, Pat Nester.

Here's Versatile Waffle to Star In Sunday Night Supper Role

Every home has a Sunday night supper that has a charm all its own. In some families the children are responsible for the preparation and in other the whole family joins in the frivolity of this creative experiment.

Waffles lend a light note to this Sunday supper. Variations to satisfy all tastes are numerous. The batter is easily prepared... this recipe is so easy that children can prepare it by themselves. Made with lard, these waffles contain a richness and flavor that is hard to top. Lard also adds nutritive value, according to home economists.

1/2 teaspoon salt
2 eggs, separated
1 3/4 cups milk
6 tablespoons melted lard
1 tablespoon sugar, if desired
Sift flour, baking powder and salt together. Add egg yolks and milk and beat thoroughly. Add melted lard. Beat egg whites and fold into batter. Yield: 6 8-inch waffles.

As a variation add 1/4 cup chopped crisp bacon or 1/4 cup chopped nuts to the batter before baking.

For a novel idea, serve honey butter as a spread for the waffles. As a dessert, spread waffles with cream cheese and crushed sweetened fresh peaches, raspberries or strawberries.

Waffles
2 cups sifted enriched flour
4 tablespoons baking powder

Use Freezer to Store Lunch-Box Supplies

One or two weeks' supply of sandwiches for packed lunches can be prepared at one time and stored in the home freezer. This method sidesteps the more time-consuming procedure of making up sandwiches every day.

A sandwich taken from the freezer in the morning will slowly defrost and will be ready to eat by lunch time, home economists point out. They suggest that sandwiches be sealed individually in pint polyethylene bags and labeled. When like sandwiches are assembled in large bags, daily selection is quick and easy.

We always find the sight of a pretty young thing worth taking time out for.

Foreign Flair Sparks Back-to-School Duds Tasty Meat Salad Gives Lift To Late Summer Menus

Fashion-wise, the look for little misses this fall is cosmopolitan... with Tyrolean, French-inspired, Ivy League, English and story book styles to choose from.

PARISIAN PRETTIES

The sheath, the sheath skirt and the slimmed down coat... reflect the trend of Paris-inspired grown-up fashions for sub-teens and teens.

Empire front or back treatments on coats and Empire belts or seamings on dresses and jumpers indicate that youth has taken over the Emoire!

Caraco, those brief jackets, front or back buttoned, give smart sub-deds a new type of costume: jumper and caraco; or dress and caraco.

IVY LEAGUE

Setting the pace in sportswear is the Ivy League look! Everything is striped... blazer jackets, caps, dark-toned shirts. The Ivy Bermudas and cable stitch hose are popular with modern misses of all ages. Velvet and leather trims, slim skirts, bulky and patterned sweaters... all give a collegiate look to young undergrads!

TYROLEAN FASHIONS

These pretty and colorful fashions will appeal to the young set—from toddlers through teens. Tyrolean hearts'n flowers prints, beaded vests, aprons, fancy buttons, Tyrolean hats bright felt with appliques and ric-rac and novelty braid trim... all give a cheery look to young fashions.

TWEED TRENDS

English-inspired tweeds have one American in full force with coats, suits, slim skirts and weedy knits in a host of rich colors for fall.

STORY BOOK STYLES

Straight from "Little Women" are tintype prints and provincial pattern cotton dresses. Charmingly styled with high ruffled or anded necklines, long and leg "mutton sleeves, full skirts and touches of lace and velvet ribbon in Victorian colors.

This is a year for color... very color and combination possible. All the old taboos about forbidden colors in children's clothes are gone. Nutshell tones, deep colors, black background prints and Victorian colors give a sophisticated look to all the new fashions for tiny misses through teens.

Polka dots accent this gently flared torso in the latest fashions color, Dutch Blue... sparked with white collars and cuffs. The fabric, "no iron" cotton, like polished gabardine.

Gives Wash-Day Tips For Dark Cottons

Have you noticed? The dark cotton trend continues to be popular. A specialist suggests a few simple aids to help you keep them full colored and pretty. First of all, you'll want to wash them alone or with other dark garments to avoid picking up the lint that comes from light-colored materials.

If you have soft water for laundering, then use a soap. A synthetic detergent usually is best for use with hard water. Otherwise, scum formations may cling to the dark fabric.

If you starch dark cottons, the expert suggests adding bluing to the starch water.

Final reminders are these: Iron or press on the wrong side to avoid that "shiny look." And, for touch-up ironing on the right side of your dark cottons, you'll want to use a press cloth.

Wrinkle Resistance Boon to

Wardrobe. Are the crease-or wrinkle-resistant chambrays really wrinkle-resistant? Perhaps you have heard some reports that they were wonderful for packing and wearing all day without looking rumpled. Then you have heard that they wrinkle about as much as untreated cottons.

Remember that the processes used to give this wrinkle-resistant characteristic are done by many different finishing plants. The quality of a finish depends entirely upon how well it is done at the plant. These finishes will vary just as the fastness of dyes vary. So, you may have garments with wrinkle-resistant finishes that are very effective and others that may be quite disappointing.

A Green Fall

Fall promises to be a big season for the wearing of the green as green tones make a big impression throughout ready-to-wear collections, and in accessories too.

These range from loden (the color as well as the cloth) to the pale, watery greens of the Edwardian era, effective and new looking in fluid fabrics for formal evenings.

Pottery, china and porcelain all are types of ceramics; the difference lies in the translucency of the three. Pottery has none at all; china is more or less translucent; and porcelain is highly translucent.

Tasty Meat Salad Gives Lift To Late Summer Menus

When the weather is still on the warmish side, this is the perfect entree for dinner... a cool meat and vegetable salad. It's an excellent way to have the family receive protein, B-vitamins, iron and other minerals... important nutrients needed by both adults and children.

Well-known home economist mentions that the clue to the finest salads is working with them as little as possible. Gently toss the meat, vegetables and dressing instead of stirring.

Meat salads fit into many menu plans, especially during the warm-weather months. Plan your next luncheon or dinner around a salad like this Meat Salad Bowl.

Meat Salad Bowl
2 1/2 cups diced cooked tongue
1 package frozen green lima beans, cooked

1 cup small radishes, sliced
1 1/2 cups diced celery
1/2 cup diced green pepper
2 tablespoons chopped sweet pickle
1 cup cooked macaroni
3/4 cup French dressing
Combine tongue, vegetables, pickle and macaroni with French dressing. Chill thoroughly. Serve on lettuce cups. Yield: 6 to 8 servings.

Now's the Time to Brush Up On ABC's of Sandwich Fixin'

Whether they're bound for children's lunch boxes or a Labor Day outing, sandwiches should always be fresh and tasty. No one enjoys a dry or too moist sandwich.

It's difficult for Mom to gather all the fixings for a sandwich right before the children leave for school, and sometime it can actually become a chore. According to noted home economist, if sandwich fillings are already prepared and carefully stored...

sandwich-making automatically becomes an easy task.

Some sandwiches can be made ahead of time and stored in the refrigerator or freezer. Other times, just the fillings can be prepared, but still ready at a moment's notice to join the bread.

Sandwich Fillings

Refrigerator: A large piece of meat keeps better than sliced or ground. Keep tightly covered and slice only as needed. Sliced meat or cold cuts may be tightly covered and kept for 3 to 4 days. Ground cooked meat keeps better if mixed with a tart dressing. Keeping time is 2 to 3 days.

Freezer: Sliced cooked meat and ground cooked meat should be divided into small units for quick freezing and quick thawing. Some filling mixtures do not freeze well. Do not freeze filling mixtures that contain salad dressing or mayonnaise.

Textured cottons. High polished cottons. Patent leather prints. Straw fabrics. Sheers and organ-dies. Styled denims. Laces.

YOU CAN HELP WITH CLOTHES' CARE!

Cotton fabrics are susceptible to fabric damage from perspiration, deodorants, antiperspirants if used improperly.

You can protect your cotton garments from fabric damage by the correct application of deodorants and anti-perspirants, and by frequent cleaning of your cotton garments.

YES, DRYCLEANING CLEANS COTTONS THOROUGHLY!

Many persons ask, "Does dry-cleaning really clean cottons?" The answer is, "Cotton fabrics respond beautifully to drycleaning." Modern equipment, scientific methods of cleaning, result in bright, clear, clean cottons.

IT'S THE FINISH

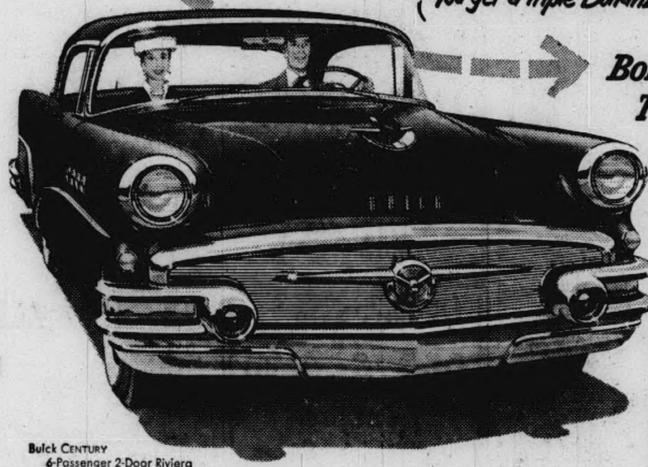

We can improve the appearance of your summer cottons by professional finishing. Home ironing of high-styled cotton garments does not produce the professional look that we can achieve with the use of specialized equipment and trained personnel. Keep your cottons new looking by dry cleaning!

Official Minutes of Your Board of Education

The members of the Plymouth Community School Board assembled at 8:00 p.m. in the home-making room of the high school on Monday evening, June 18, 1956, for a special meeting. Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker, and Mrs. Smith. Absent: None.

The newly elected members, Mr. Mitchell and Mr. Stecker, presented their acceptances and affidavits to the board.

The following officers were elected for the coming year:
 President, Harold Fischer
 Vice President, Austin Stecker
 Secretary, Esther Hulsing
 Treasurer, Warren L. Smith
 Trustee, James Mitchell

The minutes of the regular meeting were read and approved. It was moved by Mr. Smith and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing that the attached bank resolution be passed. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell that the treasurer, Warren L. Smith, be directed by public monies now in or coming into his hands as treasurer in the name of treasurer, in the National Bank of Detroit (Plymouth Branch), the Michigan National Bank of Flint, and the Detroit Wabec Bank and Trust Company.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Smith and seconded by Mr. Stecker that any two of the following three officers be authorized to sign checks drawn on the funds of the Plymouth Community School District:

Harold E. Fischer, President
 Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary
 Warren L. Smith, Treasurer
 Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. Smith outlined briefly the status of the electrical bids on the new Plymouth Community Junior High School. Mrs. Hulsing reported on the meeting of the special committee on attendance areas of the elementary schools. It was proposed that the present areas of the schools remain the same. Teachers hired for the Gallimore School will teach in the multi-purpose rooms, libraries, and other extra rooms of the present schools to help cut down on the teaching load. There will be three sessions of kindergarten each day in the Allen, Bird, and Smith Schools, and possibly the Starkweather School. Only at Allen School, where the sixth grade enrollment numbers are 93 and no more rooms are available, will any shifting of children to another school be done. The sixth grade enrollment at Starkweather School is smaller, and if parents are willing, some sixth grade children from Allen School will be transported to Starkweather School to have the advantage of a smaller class. The teachers have expressed their willingness to cooperate and teach on this basis for a year.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell that the report be accepted. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. Perlongo, the school attorney, arrived at 9:20.

The problem of securing school sites in new subdivisions was discussed. It was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mr. Stecker that the township supervisors and chairmen of the planning boards of Canton, Northville, and Plymouth Townships be invited to meet with the school board next Monday, June 25, 1956, to seek their cooperation in the planning for new school sites in regard to township growth. An open invitation is to be extended to other members of the respective boards.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. Perlongo advised the board that the negotiated bid of Hubbs and Gilles on the electrical contract for the Plymouth Community Junior High School may be accepted. The Attorney General's office and the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction in Lansing concurred in this opinion.

Mr. Perlongo advised the board that they can not take monies from the 1955 bond issue allocated for building new schools to add to the present school buildings. The bonding company would have the right to question any change from the original proposal. The Attorney General's office in Lansing concurs in this opinion.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell that the policy of not receiving any more students resident in the Patchen School District be applied to the Merchant case.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

The meeting adjourned at 10:45 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held in the home-making room of the high school Monday evening, June 25, 1956.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Smith. Absent: Mr. Stecker.

Also present: Administrators Mr. Blunk, Mr. Gibson, and Mr. Isbister, Mrs. Broome, Mr. Emrich, Mr. Hartwick, and Mr. Lindsay from Plymouth Township, Mr. Lawrence from Northville Township, and Mrs. Stein from Canton Township.

The meeting was called to order by the president, Mr. Fischer, at 8:00 p.m. He pointed out that the purpose of the joint meeting with the township representatives was to assist the board of education in becoming better informed in regard to the growth and development in the school district. Other board members noted the pressing problems facing the schools and the need for assistance. A general discussion followed in which opinions were expressed by the respective representatives relative to the projected growth.

It is planned that within the next year 188 new homes will be built in northeast Plymouth Township, and 100 trailers will be located on a site in the northwest part of the township. It was noted that Northville Township restricts new dwellings to one per acre, and that each lot must have a minimum of 150 feet of frontage. It was estimated that within the next two years there will be 1,000 new homes constructed in the north central part of Canton Township.

Representatives of the townships agreed to assist the board of education in the location of school sites by bringing to their attention any preliminary plans for new subdivisions. They also agreed to advise the board of large land purchases for subdivision development. General approval was expressed with the meeting and another will be called in the near future when the need arises.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Smith to transfer $25,000 from the general operating fund to the building site fund.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None.

It was moved by Mr. Smith and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the appointment of the following citizens to the Adult Education and Recreation Commission: Mrs. William Condon, three year term; Lester Herter, three year term

Mr. Robert Smith, two year term. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None.

Mr. Gibson and Mr. Blunk presented for consideration sample desks and chairs to be used in the Gallimore Elementary School. Prices were quoted for each unit. They pointed out that a representative committee of teachers and parents assisted them in the initial selection. No action was taken pending further study.

A special meeting was called for Monday evening, July 2, at 8:00 o'clock. Meeting adjourned at 11:00 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held Monday evening, July 2, 1956, in the Bird and Smith Elementary Schools.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, and Mr. Smith. Absent: Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker. Also present: Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister.

The Board and the administrative staff made an inspection of the Bird and Smith school sites noting the size, condition of the terrain, the creeks, and the areas which might be improved. The meeting convened in the Smith School at 8:45 p.m.

Mr. Blunk and Mr. Gibson presented for consideration sample student desks and chairs for use in the new Gallimore School, prices, and the recommendation made by the Study Committee.

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Smith to accept the recommendation of the Study Committee and purchase the student desks and chairs from the American Seating Company for $19.65 per unit (chair and desk).

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None. Bids for asphalt paving of the drives and parking areas at the Bird and Smith Elementary Schools were read as follows:

Asphalt Paving: Bird Elementary School

Plymouth Paving Company	16,298 sq. ft. @ .17	$2,770.86
Ann Arbor Construction Company	18,440 sq. ft. @ .221	4,089.75
Plymouth Paving Company	27,604 sq. ft. @ .17	$4,692.68
Ann Arbor Construction Company	28,768 sq. ft. @ .216	6,231.00

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Smith to award the paving contract to Plymouth Paving Company. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None.

Bids for the treasurer's bond were read as follows:

C. L. Finlan and Son (North American)	$50,000.00	$100,000.00

It was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Smith to purchase the treasurer's bond in the amount of $50,000 from Gray's Mutual Agency for an annual premium of $244.80. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None.

Bids for Builder's Risk Insurance on the Gallimore School were read as follows:

Gray Mutuals Agency	Completed Value Form Premium for 8 Months	$200,000.	$271.15
Merriman Insurance Agency	$200,000.	$200,000.	$21.24

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing to purchase the Builder's Risk Policy from the Merriman Agency for a premium of $291.24. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, and Mr. Smith. Nays: None.

The elementary principals asked for an adjustment in the elementary secretaries salaries which would permit them to earn more by working more weeks of the year. They pointed out that the additional work and responsibilities carried by the secretaries warranted an adjustment at this time. General approval was given to the request, and Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister were directed to work out a salary schedule for school secretaries and present it for consideration at the next meeting.

The Chamber of Commerce was granted permission to use the south portion of the Junior High School site for a circus. The meeting adjourned at 10:20 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther Hulsing, Secretary

The regular meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the home-making room of the high school on July 9, 1956.

Present: Members Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Administrators, Mr. Blunk and Mr. Isbister.

Also present: Mr. Sponseller, Mr. Crosby, Mr. Sutherland, Mr. Kowalcik, and Mr. Smith.

The meeting was called to order at 8:00 p.m. by the president, Mr. Fischer. Mr. Sutherland and Mr. Crosby, Certified Public Accountants, read a prepared statement to the effect that this firm had examined and found to be cancelled the following bonds:

The entire issue of bonds one through ninety-five in the amount of $95,000 issued on March 1, 1924.

The entire issue of bonds one through one hundred and fifty in the amount of $150,000 issued on April 1, 1927.

The entire issue of bonds one thousand three hundred and fifty in the amount of $1,350,000 issued on May 1, 1949.

Bonds three through twenty in the amount of $18,000 issued in the name of Canton Township School District No. 1 on September 1, 1950.

The Board assembled on the play area at the rear of the high school building for the purpose of burning the above mentioned bonds and interest coupons.

Mr. Blunk and Mr. Kowalcik explained the need for a program of exterior maintenance on the junior and senior high school buildings. They called upon Mr. Smith of Grunwell Cashero Company to interpret a bid proposal in the amount of $3,035 which he recommended in order to correct the situation that at present is causing water damage to the junior high school building. A number of questions were raised and other bid proposals were discussed.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell that subject to further investigation of the reliability of the company, the contract for exterior maintenance on the junior high school building be awarded to Grunwell Cashero Company. Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Upon Mr. Blunk's recommendation it was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the roofing proposal for the entire roof at Truesdell School and the north rear section of the roof at Cherry Hill School.

Tremco Materials	$668.75
Labor	$200.00
Total	$868.75

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. Blunk's recommendation it was moved by Mrs. Hulsing and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the roofing proposal for the entire roof at Truesdell School and the north rear section of the roof at Cherry Hill School.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the following tax rates to be applied to the state equalized valuation for the year 1956-57.

A special meeting was called for Wednesday evening, July 18, at 7:30 o'clock in the Plymouth Township Planning Commission and Mr. Johnson, their consultant.

Meeting adjourned at 11:00 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education was held at the Plymouth Township Hall at 7:30 p.m. Monday, July 16, 1956.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker, and Superintendent Isbister.

Absent: Mr. Mitchell.

Mr. Clayton Koch, chairman of the Plymouth Township Planning Commission, called the meeting to order and introduced members of the Planning Commission and others who were present. He noted that the purpose of the joint meeting with the Board of Education was to assist the Board in the selection of appropriate school sites before the Commission gave final approval to new subdivision developments.

Mr. Fischer pointed to the current needs of the community schools and the necessity for keeping the school expansion program in pace with the population growth.

Mr. Greenspan, a developer, presented for consideration a proposed lay out of a 1,900 home development in Northeast Plymouth Township located north of Wilcox, east of Braden, south of Five Mile Road and west of Haggerty Road. He indicated that the present plan called for occupancy of 100 homes in the next year and the remaining 900 within four years. Marked on the plan was a school site located approximately 3/4 of a mile north of Schoolcraft Road and near the west side of Haggerty Road. Objections to this site were raised by board members because of the creek in the area. Arrangements were made to meet with Mr. Greenspan at the proposed site on Friday, July 20, at 11:00 a.m.

The Board then made a tour of the area to make further observations.

Superintendent Isbister was instructed to invite members of the Joint Sewer and Water Authority to be present at a special meeting called Monday evening, July 23, 1956. He was also instructed to invite Eberle Smith Associates, Architects and Engineers, to send a representative to this special meeting for the purpose of discussing additions to the Bird, Smith, and Allen Schools.

Meeting adjourned at 9:30 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held Friday, July 20, 1956, at 11:00 a.m., at a proposed school site near Schoolcraft and Haggerty Roads. Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Stecker, and Superintendent Isbister. Absent: Mr. Mitchell.

Also present: Mr. Greenspan and his partner, Mr. Straub. Mr. Greenspan, assisted by Mr. Fischer, who was familiar with the area, located for the Board the proposed site as it was shown on the subdivision layout. It was pointed out again by the Board members that the site was undesirable for a school.

It was mutually agreed that further exploration and study was necessary and that, in all probability, the site should be further to the west and north. If children living north of Five Mile Road were to attend the school. Meeting adjourned at 12:15 p.m.

Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

A special meeting of the Board of Education of the Plymouth Community School District was held in the home-making room of the high school on July 23, 1956.

Present: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, Mr. Stecker, and Mr. Isbister.

Absent: None.

Also present representing Plymouth-Canton Sewer and Water Authority were Mr. Finley and Mr. Hamill; representing Eberle Smith Assoc. Architects and Engineers were Mr. E. Smith, Mr. F. Smith, and Mr. Jaroszewicz.

Mr. Fischer called the meeting to order at 8:00 p.m.

Mr. Finley and Mr. Hamill explained the present status of the sewer project which is being designed to serve the area around the Gallimore School. They pointed out that the original project had to be reduced because of the possible annexation of the Burroughs Plant by the City of Plymouth. This threat had an effect on the amount of bonds which could be sold to finance the construction.

They also noted that the bond sale was conditioned by the water supply which, at this time, was somewhat indefinite. The revised plans will be completed in a couple of weeks. When the bonds are sold and contracts let, the construction time will take approximately three months.

It was moved by Mr. Mitchell and seconded by Mrs. Hulsing that for purposes of the record the Plymouth-Canton Authority be asked to confirm in writing the time schedule as explained in the meeting.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

Mr. E. Smith and Mr. Jaroszewicz were asked to express opinions about the practicality and feasibility of adding to the Bird, Smith, and Allen Elementary Schools. They pointed out that eight rooms could be added to each of these schools at an estimated construction cost of $175,000 per school. Furniture, equipment and architect fees would bring the total cost to $200,000 per school. They also pointed out various ways of attaching these rooms in order to tie into the present buildings. Classrooms with a west exposure present some engineering problems because of the light control. It was felt that these problems could be managed. It would take approximately one year to design and construct the additions.

Some discussion followed relative to the adequacy of the sites at Bird and Smith schools and the other facilities in the schools.

Superintendent Isbister explained the plan for constructing a retaining wall and a curb and gutter along the ramp back of the Starkweather School. He pointed out that the wall would cost $4.00 per running foot and the curb gutter $2.00 per running foot on the straightaway and $2.25 per running foot around the curve; approximate cost for the project, $100.

It was moved by Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the superintendent's recommendation on this project.

Ayes: Mr. Fischer, Mrs. Hulsing, Mr. Mitchell, Mr. Smith, and Mr. Stecker. Nays: None.

The proposed site for an elementary school in the Northeast portion of Plymouth Township was discussed. It was the consensus of the Board that it should be located in the general area of Dethloff farm approximately one block north of Five Mile Road.

Superintendent Isbister was instructed to ask Mr. Glassford, City Manager of Plymouth, to prepare a cost estimate for connecting the Gallimore School with the City sewer system.

Meeting adjourned at 10:20 p.m. Respectfully submitted, Esther L. Hulsing, Secretary

Mr. Stecker and seconded by Mr. Mitchell to approve the superintendent's recommendation on this project.

From Loft to Living Room

How an ingenious couple transformed an old unused barn into an attractive home is illustrated in these photographs. The spacious living room-studio was once the barn loft. The biggest change was effected by lining the inside walls and roof interior with large sheets of asbestos-cement board, an incombustible, rotproof material. Beams and rafters were left exposed to give an interesting beamed effect. The only major structural changes were the addition of a picture window and an outside stairway. Asbestos board, which is modest in cost and easy to handle, has hundreds of remodeling uses. It is immune to damage from rust, insects and rodents.

Ranch House Plan Suits Any Area

This modern ranch home with a California touch has a fresh new look. Because it is practical for any climate, American Builder magazine, 79 West Monroe St., Chicago 3, Ill., has selected it as Plan No. 196AN.

The plan includes a combination living and dining room, kitchen, three bedrooms, bath and carport. Both corner bedrooms have cross ventilation. The heating unit is in a small, specially designed room between the living room and bathroom.

The "Monterey" room adjacent to the kitchen and at the rear of the carport could serve as a bedroom, a workshop, a utility room or a playroom.

Specifications call for both fixed and awning windows of ponderosa pine. They are painted to match the redwood siding. A panel "decorator" door, also of ponderosa pine, is painted green, harmonizing with the green asphalt roof. The carport walls are finished in knotty pine paneling, making the carport attractive for use as a summer patio.

Exterior walls are frame and brick veneer. Part of the siding is redwood lumber. The trim around the entrance is stone.

The dwelling has an area of 1,103 square feet, a figure useful in estimating construction cost. (Detailed building plans are available from American Builder Home Plan Service, 79 West Monroe St., Chicago 3, Ill. Refer to Plan No. 196AN.)

Sardines Used as Rust Fighter Turn Basement Into Hobby Room

The old game of "Ring-Around-the-Bath" is almost a thing of the past, as more homeowners in hard-water areas are installing water softening systems. But as these installations age a few years, a new problem of "rust around the water softener" rears its head.

Many a space-hungry Plymouth family are living right on top of a gold mine of wasted space, according to the National Warm Air Heating and Air Conditioning Association.

The water softener combines two of the most rust-creating elements that you could have around your home: Condensation and salt.

This is the space currently taken up by the old gravity-type furnace, which is still so common in older homes.

This versatile Marlite prefinished paneling, is offered in five authentic reproductions of rare, imported marble which capture the beauty and durability of this expensive material.

Well-planned advertising works for the intelligent users, regardless of the state of business.

Washable Walls Big Aid To Homemakers

Readily washable wall finishes are becoming increasingly important in today's homes. Homemakers want walls that resist moisture, grease, acids and stains, and wipe clean with a damp cloth saving hours of housecleaning time.

Newest of the wall finishes is a prefinished hardboard called Marlite plank and block, that can be used for paneling walls or ceilings of any room in the house.

This paneling is available at lumber yards in 10 companion colors styled by Raymond Loewy Associates, noted color authorities. The soilproof finish is fused to a strong tempered hardboard base. Finger marks and smudges can be wiped off with a damp cloth, thus making the walls of your rooms as easy to clean as your range or refrigerator.

Easily Installed Economical as well as practical, this new Marlite plank and block, with its permanent finish eliminates costly periodic repainting and redecorating. The colors stay fresh and new for the life of the house. Both the planks and the blocks can be installed over new or old walls. They are held firmly in place with metal clips which are concealed in the finished installation by an exclusive tongue and groove joint. No adhesive or division mouldings are required.

"56"—The Year to Fix Hardwood plywood played a starring role in Cleveland's prelude to the 1956 national campaign for home improvements which has the slogan: "1956—the year to fix."

The "curtain raiser" featured the first public display of two formerly dilapidated houses which had been completely modernized to show how effectively run-down dwellings can be given new life.

Moved from their original neighborhood sites to downtown Cleveland's Mall, the two homes were a miracle in remodeling.

A particularly eye-catching feature of one house, decorated in contemporary style, is the beautiful walnut paneling of 16-inch plywood planks. Selected for attractiveness, economy and ease of installation, the paneling is used for a wall running the entire width of the house, serving both the living and dining rooms.

A round walnut dining table graces the dining room, where a walnut valance adds interest.

Lovely walnut cabinets are a decorative and utilitarian highlight of the modernized kitchen which is built in an open plan with a serving bar visible from the living area. Birch flush doors are employed throughout, except for one mahogany door on the second floor.

Beautiful cherry plywood is used to striking advantage in the second home, done in traditional style. The cherry paneling of the den is especially outstanding.

Various attractive furniture pieces of cherry include a hutch, a chest and a dining table.

Why We Have Summer Primary

Summer primaries are necessary in Michigan to make it possible for servicemen and women to vote in the general election, according to Secretary of State James M. Hare.

Noting recent criticism of the primary, because so many voters are away from home on vacation, Hare says that this is a real problem, but observes that against it must be weighed the need to allow sufficient time for handling servicemen's ballots.

"Our present schedule for primaries was adopted by the legislature during World War II when hundreds of thousands of our citizens were in all corners of the globe on active service, says Hare.

"We wanted them to have an opportunity to vote. We knew it took a long time for absentee ballot applications to arrive in Michigan from these faraway places, and just as long for the ballots to get back to those who requested them.

"For that reason the time schedule was set up so that there could be reasonable assurance that all the time-consuming steps could be taken care of. This meant that we had to have the primary in August.

"I suppose that there are some who would agree that the average serviceman did not have to participate in the primary as long as he could vote in the final election. I disagree with this line of thought. The primary is just as important to the voter as the final election, because the primary determines what choices will face the voter in November.

Furthermore, the August primary was needed so that ballots could be prepared in time to make the trip to the absent serviceman, be marked by him, and be returned in time to be counted on Election day.

"Surely we should all be willing to undergo the minor rigors of voting in the summertime, or even the need for applying for an absentee ballot, in order to make it possible for American citizens in the armed forces to exercise their right to vote. As long as they are as widely scattered as they still are, this is the least we can do for them," concludes Hare.

NEW BOOKS At The Wayne County

The reading public will find a variety of material to suit their every taste and fancy among the new novels and assorted nonfiction which arrived this week at Plymouth branch, Wayne County library.

Among the new additions were Dorothy Worley's novel, "Enchanted Harbor"; "Deliver Us from Evil," experiences among Vietnamese victims of communism by Navy doctor, Thomas A. Dooley, M. D.; "The Coast of Coral," adventures underwater along the shores of the Great Barrier Reef by Arthur C. Clarke.

Other additions were Anna D. Cord's functional phonetics books, "I Can Read," "Reading's Easy," and "Hear Me Read," Bruce Marshall's novel, "Girl in May," "The Slide Rule and Logarithmic Tables" by J. J. Clark.

Leonard D. White's "The Jacksonians," study in administrative history 1829-61; "Jesuit Relations," edited by Edna Kenton, reports of first Jesuits in North America and beginning of the Catholic movement in this country.

The new shipment also included: Robert Payne's novel, "A House in Peking," "Animals and Other People" by Louis Bromfield, "Dead Warrior," John M. Meyers, the controversial German novel, "The Cross of Iron," by Willi Heinrich; Fred R. Jones' "Farm Gas Engines and Tractors";

"The Road to Glory" by Darwin Teilhet; Drayton Mayrant's novel, "Always a River"; "The Lady and her Doctor" by novelist Evelyn Piper; Koontz and O'Donnell's "Principals of Management," and Robert A. Heildien's science fiction tale, "Double Star."

Concluding the shipment were J. Ralph Dalzell's "Remodeling Guide for Home Interiors," planning, materials, methods; Modern Library edition of William Dean Howells' "The Rise of Silas Lapham," "The Angel Spreads Her Wings," inspiration of "Angel Unaware," and influence of Roy Rogers family in the American home by Maxine Garrison, forward by Dale Evans Rogers; Cyril Pearl's "The Girl with the Swansdown Seat," volumes 1 and 2 of "How to Build Modern Furniture" by Dale Fabbro and an illustrated automotive manual, "How to Fix Chevrolets."

Declares Stockholding Not Privilege of Rich

A major portion of stocks listed on the New York Stock Exchange is owned by persons with income of less than $5,000 a year, a securities specialist said in a speech at Michigan State University.

The impression that stock is held primarily by a few "bloat-ed stockholders" just is not so, said McPherson Browning of the Lansing office of Merrill Lynch, Pierce, Fenner & Beane.

Browning pointed out that one of every 12 American adults is a stock owner. More than half of these stocks are owned by women.

"We believe that if you believe in the future of America as we know it, then perforce you must believe in America business," he said.

"But when you decide to invest, don't plunge into it. Investigate—then invest!"

Health and Beauty

It is very important to take good care of your beauty aids. Have you taken a good look at the articles on your dressing table lately? Is your brush and comb shining clean? Does the powder puff look dingy? Has some of your nail polish become too thick to do a good job with?

The best and the easiest way to clean a comb and brush is to fill the wash basin half-full of warm water and add about a quarter of a cup of ammonia. Soak the comb and brush in the solution for a short time and the dirt and oil will dissolve. Rinse thoroughly with clear warm water. Try to keep your hands from coming in contact with the ammonia solution. It is drying and a great number of people are allergic to ammonia.

Dry your brush in the sun when ever you can. Let it stand with the bristles down so that the moisture will run off.

A soiled powder puff can cause blemishes. Wash the puff in warm soapsuds, using a fingernail brush to scrub the very dirty spots. To dry, pin the puff to the curtain at a sunny window, so that air can circulate through both sides. When dry, raise the nap of the puff by brushing with a stiff brush. A puff should be washed at least twice a week. If you have any trouble with your skin, use a clean puff every day.

Thick nail polish can be made usable by thinning with polish remover or a liquid made for that purpose. If the cap on the bottle sticks, run very hot water over the top for a few minutes and it will loosen.

If the stopper of a perfume bottle sticks, place the bottle in the refrigerator for a few hours. The cold atmosphere will loosen the stopper and it will come out with ease.

It is a good idea to pour a small amount of your precious perfumes into a small bottle for immediate use. This will prevent evaporation, always a problem with perfume. You can protect the remainder by sealing it closed with paraffin or sealing wax.

The best way to win an argument is to exhibit patience and self control.

U-M Experts Seek Cause Of Wild Duck Death Rate

Did you know that from 100,000 to 150,000 wild ducks stay in the southeastern part of Michigan during the winter? These and other figures are being compiled at the University of Michigan in a joint research project with the State Conservation Department. The project, "Cause of Waterfowl Mortality in the Detroit River," is being conducted by George S. Hunt, lecturer in Natural Resources at the U-M.

The project hopes to determine why the ducks die in the river area and what can be done about lowering the death rate.

The study area is an approximate nine square mile region of the Detroit River which includes the island of Grosse Ile. About 5,000 wild ducks live in this region during the winter. Hunt says, and an estimated 500 die every year from starvation, pollution, exposure and lead poisoning.

Cause of death is determined by autopsy, which is performed on ducks found dead in the study area.

The biggest death dealing blow to the ducks is the freeze up of a major portion of the river, he notes. There is plenty of food in the river, Hunt explains, but the ducks can't reach it during this period.

Over 30,000 ducks have been "banded" since 1948, he says. The bands, he explains, keep track of what happens to the ducks for the researchers. "Like a doctor, we want to keep track of our patients," he says.

In 1948 an estimated 10,000 ducks died in the area that is now being studied, Hunt explains. This caused a step-up in the project. Some of the ducks that have been banded since this time have been found as far away as the Bahamas, California, and Alaska. Results of the project will be published within the next year by the Conservation Department, Hunt says.

Little Margie had been attending a birthday party, and now her big sister had come to take her home.

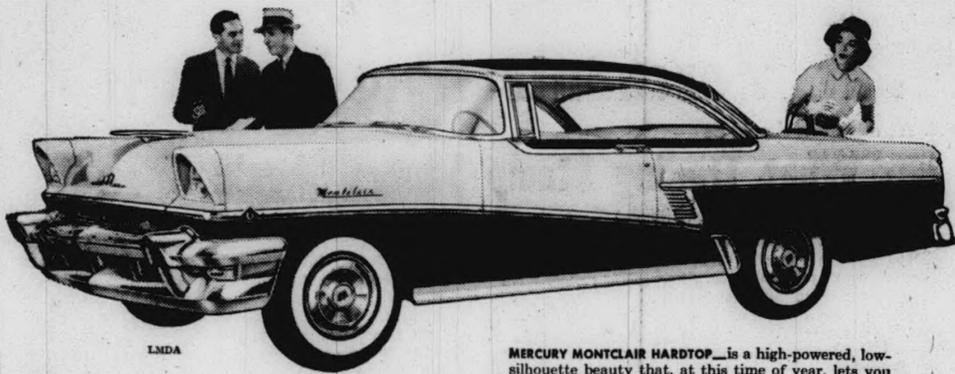

Crossing the street, the sister took hold of the youngster's hand. "My goodness, Margie," she exclaimed. "How sticky your hands are!"

"Well," replied Margie, "yours would be too if you had a piece of chiffon pie, a cream puff, and a chocolate eclair in your muff."
