Our Guy in the Sky

It Had to Happen - - the Landing

EDITOR'S NOTE: This, the fourth in a series of articles written by Jim Sponseller, who is trying to find out if the average man in the street can become a man in the air—with plane, of course.

BY JIM SPONSELLER

The process of learning to fly is a long and arduous one. It is not just a matter of getting into a plane and taking off. It is a process of learning to control the plane, to understand the instruments, and to develop the skills necessary for safe flight.

But last week as I phoned to make an appointment for another lesson, Al nonchalantly mentioned that it was time I do some take-offs and landings.

Somehow, I had a hunch he would get around to that some time. Arriving at his Mettetal Airport office the next day, Al also announced that we were going to try instrument flying too. And to top off the surprises, we were not going to take the Piper Cub as usual. We needed a plane with more instruments so we were going to take the Piper Tri-Pacer.

The four-place Tri-Pacer was only slightly different than the two-place Cub. It was a little larger in size, of course, and it had a larger engine. But basically, I found, it was operated in the same manner.

"You take it off," Al declared as I swung the plane onto the runway after the warm-up.

Ordinarily, I happily relinquished controls at this moment until it got off the ground. It was a chilly day, but I started to prespree.

"Give her steady throttle," Al added as the ship moved ahead. After the throttle was pushed in all the way, I noted that the ship was heading toward the left side of the runway.

"Keep her straight," the instructor advised calmly. "I shoved in the right rudder pedal and now the plane was heading toward the right side of the blacktopped strip. I gave it some left rudder. Had I been driving down a highway, I would have been ticketed for reckless driving.

"Any attempt to anticipate future volumes is at most, highly speculative and superficial. This concept is reflected by the Council itself in the extreme generalities and lack of specifics in the performance data recorded for Council activities in this same budget.

"Financially I ask for no increase of funds. The Mayor's request for stringency is reflected in my budget in spite of recognized spiraling volumes arising from the City's continuous growth. Except for increased costs in the Election Commission budget which would be incurred

'OFF THE POLICE BLOTTER'

Radio Fleet Out Halloween

With a portable radio station at headquarters, a fleet of 10 cars manned by amateur radio operators and auxiliary police went on patrol Halloween night in Livonia.

They augmented the regular patrol of 12 police cars, all of them assigned to roam the subdivisions and keep mischief at a minimum.

Sgt. Robert Van Dyke, a radio man, man, himself, manned the project. The operators, members of MARS, the Military Amateur Radio Society, all have licenses.

Tire slashing, sugar in the gas tank, garbage strewn, stolen tires and much other mischief of ancient design crowded into the police records in the days prior to Halloween.

It's also hunting season, with a rash of complaints. A bullet passed right through a garage at 20281 Osmus. Hunting is illegal in the City, so it says here. But big fat birds are being brought down all over the northern sector on the sky.

Two Detroitters were in the Livonia jail this week, as a result of police coming upon one of them in the act of stripping a new car.

850 at Emerson

About 850 Emerson Junior High School parents and students visited the building during the school's annual open house, given by the P.T.S.A.

Visitors had an opportunity to learn about the school program and to meet teachers and principals, as well as seeing the building. Parents followed an abbreviated version of the daily program of their own children to see the classroom surroundings in which their boys and girls work and hear an explanation by the teachers of the material covered in various courses.

The evening closed with a social hour in the cafeteria.

Police noticed a new Chevrolet standing in front of a 1956 Olds, with some new parts lying around. Bruce W. Butske, 20, 9655 Sorrento was arrested when he emerged from the woods and admitted that he and a companion had stolen the Chevy from the parking lot of Hanley Dawson at 14501 W. Seven Mile.

They were doing the stripping in a wooded area north of Six Mile and east of Fairfield. The companion, Paul W. Wells, 12994 Archdale, Detroit, was apprehended at Seven Mile and Osmus by officers Bilbia and Grote.

Wonderland Auto wash was broken into during the night. Loot: one TV set.

Reports of homes being entered during the night came from 30036 Five Mile and a model home at 30048 Five Mile. Another model home at 15139 Ellen Drive was entered and furniture taken.

Water was gushing high at Deering and W. Chicago. Cause: a broken water main, hastily repaired.

A black 1961 Ford was stolen from Cloverlanes parking lot on Saturday night.

Marie Writes Sharp Protest

Mayor Brashear announced he would veto the action, and City Clerk Marie Clark blustered the City Council for its vote last week to call off a plan which would divide Livonia into more voting precincts.

Mrs. Clark wrote a letter which concluded: "To junk a good plan and to squander the $550 already expended on it is, in my opinion, reckless use of the Council office."

The idea originated with the Election Commission (composed of Mayor, Clerk, City Attorney) and was sent to the Council for approval. It called for creation of just about twice as many voting precincts as now exist.

Livonia, with the same population, has about half as many precincts as neighboring Redford Township. Both local political parties long have protested that Livonia is inadequately represented in party affairs.

The Council approved the plan unanimously when it first came to the table. Many days later, Jack Salvatore offered a resolution to "reconsider" the first one. It passed last Monday, 5-1, over the protest of Rudolf Kleinert.

In her letter "respectfully requesting" the Council give this matter further thought and return to the original plan, the City Clerk reported that many hours of work and some expenditure of funds had taken place from the time of the Council's original approval until the later cancellation.

She said: "The fact that much later the plan was brought back to the Council and summarily rejected can only mean that pressure came from some new source, yet unexplained officially. The fact that no conferences, discussions or joint analysis was conducted between the Election Commission and the City Council leaves the obvious suspicion that the Council didn't want to be troubled by the facts. It was insulting treatment of the Election Commission."

"I do not believe I can be criticized, gentlemen, for starting this work after your resolution of Sept. 25, in view of your unanimous action, which gave me no indication that you might completely reverse your decision a month later. It was only prudent on my part to start the job, because only one who works with the registrations can understand the many problems, steps to be taken and time involved."

"This is an issue which I think lies above party machines and is really a test of whether the political parties can directly represent the people based upon the population involved," Brashear said.

We talk of changing the apportionment so that certain areas can obtain better representation, but by failing to provide the proper number of precincts we are preventing our own people from being adequately represented. I believe the Council should act entirely on non-partisan motivations and that providing true representation to both political conventions is certainly an excellent test of non-partisanship.

Certainly it costs money to make changes and to provide proper public service and benefits, but I believe that the people of our city are justly entitled to representation based on the city's true population. I do not believe that Livonia people want to live in the past or to be penalized by an outmoded precinct structure.

A lively response to Livonia's newly inaugurated classes for baton-twirlers has sent the Department of Parks and Recreation in search of a qualified instructor.

Robert Girardin, director, said the department needs one more instructor who is qualified to teach Livonia youngsters. He asked applicants to call the recreation office, GAfield 1-2000, extension 64.

LOOKING AROUND LIVONIA

Some neighboring communities (there is one) are passing resolutions to exempt all fall out shelters from assessment for tax purposes, and Livonia's Council has the same idea under examination.

Livonia's Planning Commission reportedly turned down use of a five acre site on Harrison (south of Six Mile) for a church, and there are some unhappy parisheners.

Because the regular meeting date would fall on Thanksgiving, Livonia's Board of Education has scheduled that session for Nov. 21 rather than Nov. 23.

City Clerk Marie Clark slapped back at the City Council in a communique this week. The Council solemnly passed a resolution last week asking for the Clerk's "performance budget data" and a local periodical distorted the whole thing to sound like the absence of same was paralyzing budget study.

Wrote Marie: "What is this data so essential to the proper evaluation of the activities of my Office? A portion of the budget representing but $125,264.00 of a total $3,685,805.00 total budget (or more explicitly, only 3% of the entire budget). It is nothing more than a reiteration of information supplied the Council more than nine months ago in the Mayor's Annual Report. The report is a compilation of statistical data for each department and section of the City government, indicating, as in the instance of my department, the volumes of activity accomplished during the year, from the number of dog licenses issued to the number of draft registrations prepared.

"Any attempt to anticipate future volumes is at most, highly speculative and superficial. This concept is reflected by the Council itself in the extreme generalities and lack of specifics in the performance data recorded for Council activities in this same budget.

"Financially I ask for no increase of funds. The Mayor's request for stringency is reflected in my budget in spite of recognized spiraling volumes arising from the City's continuous growth. Except for increased costs in the Election Commission budget which would be incurred

Walt Rensel Wreaks 'Miracle' With Handsome New Blunk's

The "blunk" and "wreak" dream is his, says Mr. Rensel.

Early American tradition had it that all the way back to 1600, the way of life was a part of the American way of life.

Meyers-Rensel Vows Exchanged

Ceremonies on October 27 joined Kay Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Art Meyers of Brighton, to Walter Rensel Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Rensel, Plymouth, in marriage.

Rev. Walsh performed the ceremony in the presence of a large number of guests. The bride, dressed in a white gown, carried a bouquet of white flowers. The groom wore a tuxedo. The ceremony was held in the presence of a large number of guests.

Community Fund At 60% of Goal

Plymouth's annual Community Fund drive—aiming for a Friday deadline—is more than 60 percent complete today.

Russell Isbiter, general chairman of the drive, reported that $26,888 in donations had been received by Monday night.

"This is about 60 percent of the goal," he said. "November 3 is the final day of the drive." The annual collection began last week and division chairman in business, industry, residential or other related areas have been assisted by more than 200 workers during the drive.

The drive will wind up with a dinner Friday night at 6:30 at Lof's Arbor-Lil Restaurant. Complete reports of all chairman and a final tally will be announced at that time.

LOOKING AROUND Plymouth

Walter Rensel has put together a floor covering and appliance store on Starkweather Ave. which is a match in handsomeness for any in the whole metropolitan area.

Every retailer in the area should drop in to visit the new Blunk's this week. It is a notable example of someone really "building the better mouse trap" as well as just thinking about it.

Many persons are studying the "future" of Plymouth from many angles these days. Some are "gloomy."

The fact is that Plymouth is and will continue to be a decent and refined place to make a residence.

Unfortunately, it's going to become increasingly more expensive to enjoy these advantages.

Growth of the school district, and the influx of new homes into the general area is certain to increase property taxes. At the same time, there has been a reduction in the number of commercial and industrial taxpayers, plus a sharp lowering of their assessments.

This means the difference will be absorbed, in a rising degree, by home owners.

It will continue until and unless new commercial and industrial units arrive. This is not apt to happen for a long time; quite the contrary, more reduction of those ranks appears inevitable in the immediate future.

There are many who shed no tears over Plymouth's settling down as primarily a "residential" area and who care little or nothing about the fate of the downtown retailer or the small factory.

This is a logical point of view but it still must be understood.

To have such a community will cost money, more every year.

Incidentally, we believe the day is here when local government should and must grant substantial property tax relief to retired persons living on small, fixed incomes.

Someday you'll benefit from some service covered by the Community Fund. Today others need benefits which your contribution will help provide. Be an honest neighbor. Give to the Community Fund now.

This is the first issue of The Livonian which has offered a Plymouth Edition. It will be delivered to every home in the City and Township every week.

The same newspaper goes into every home in Livonia and 5,000 in northern Nankin.

For some advertisers, this is an ideal package for saturation coverage of their market at relatively low cost.

For want ad users, it offers 31,000 homes where the classifieds are read avidly each week. Readers mean results.

If you're selling something, your phone will ring five times more from buyers if you take the message to 31,000 homes than if you take it to 6,000.

Try a Want Ad experiment for yourself. You'll be amazed.

City Water in Township Faucets

Plymouth Township residents turned their taps and drew Detroit city water last week after nearly a century of dependence on backyard wells.

Final approval was expected this week by the Wayne County Health Department and the Detroit Water Board for the use of all water lines which have been installed.

The move affects all residents in the eastern part of the Township—east of Sheldon Road.

Already Township officials were heralding the move as a new inducement to industry to move into the area.

"Naturally," Clerk Fred Miller said, "industry is going to be interested in this news if they want to locate. That's been one of the major factors in this decision—to provide for local residents and attract industry as well."

Local homeowners will have the option to tap into the new water lines or to continue to use their wells.

Miller said, "It is entirely their decision," he told The Livonian. "However, the time may come," he added, "when it will be compulsory. But not at present."

The new water system has been under construction since February after bonds for the big construction project were sold last January. The area affected by the new system contains residential, commercial, light and heavy industry zoning, according to Miller. It includes most of the major roads in the east part of the Township.

Sterling Eaton Mail Publisher

Return of the weekly newspaper The Plymouth Mail to its former owner, Sterling Eaton, was announced this week by Paul Chandler, editor and publisher since May, 1956.

"The directors of Chandler-McKay newspapers notified Mr. Eaton last week that unless he felt able to make a downward adjustment in the long-term debt to him resulting from the original sale of the newspaper, we would return the property to him immediately."

"Mr. Eaton assumed ownership and has been publisher of The Mail since last Wednesday."

Chandler-McKay newspapers will continue to publish The Livonian in the city of Livonia and The Redford Observer in Redford Township.

"We will also publish a Plymouth edition of The Livonian," Chandler said. "This is to provide advertisers including users of our effective classified ads, low cost coverage of the Plymouth area."

"The Livonian now provides absolute saturation coverage — in every home that is — of Livonia, northern Nankin Township, Plymouth Township and Plymouth."

Kurt Thrun Goes Hawaii

City, Township Boards to Meet

The Commission will hold its regular public meeting next Monday at City Hall.

Next meeting of the Plymouth Township Board has been set for Tuesday, Nov. 14, according to Township Clerk Fred Miller.

Area To Hold Second Meeting

The newly formed West Suburban Chapter of the Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan will hold their second regular meeting on Nov. 20.

This new organization includes Redford Township, Livonia, Nankin, Clarenceville, and Plymouth.

The Children's Leukemia Foundation of Michigan is a non-profit volunteer organization dedicated to help the cause of those afflicted with Leukemia, Hemophilia, and all serious blood diseases. Help is provided by research grants, direct medication, and equipment aid, the donation of blood and counseling, especially for those parents of afflicted children. No deserving case is turned down and help is available for adults as well as children. For the children there are toys, favors, summer picnics, Halloween and Christmas parties.

"Some members have never been exposed to these serious blood diseases, amongst their loved ones. They realize the worth of their efforts and attain a great degree of satisfaction in helping their more unfortunate neighbors. They realize it could happen to them. They like all in the foundation are striving for the day when a cure is a reality instead of a hope. So those interested enough to ask, curious enough to investigate, and enthusiastic enough to assist, we can use your services and support in anyway," said Mrs. Asher, working to start the new chapter. For further information call Mr. or Mrs. Asher Smith, Greenleaf 4-3855 or 4-5557.

Fort Knox, Ky.: David L. Clemens, 23, son of Mrs. Ruth M. Clemens, who reside at 10000 Levan Rd., Livonia, is presently assigned to Company D, 10th Battalion, 4th Training Regiment where he is taking his eight weeks of Basic Combat Training.

FRANK DUNCAN will be the evangelist for a week of meetings at the Galleian Baptist Church, 28875 West Seven Mile Road, Livonia. Services will be November 6-12 at 7:00 P.M. each evening.

Mr. Duncan speaks God's message that calls Christians to repentance and sinners to salvation in Christ.

Herbert Noe, the pastor, says, "Revival from God is an absolute must for our nation today if we are to stop Communism from without and moral decay within."

By MRS. L. B. SCHECK

Is freedom without knowledge possible in today's world? In the strong belief that freedom must be preserved by knowledge, Protestant and Orthodox church women in the United States are preparing for their annual observance of World Community Day, Friday, Nov. 3. United Church Women of Livonia announced plans for the local observance.

"Freedom to know," the World Community Day theme for 1961, highlights United Church Women's program of peace, education and action. On November 3, church women of the Plymouth, Livonia and Redford Township area will be part of a nation-wide observance, giving expression to their belief that the mission of the church and world affairs are interdependent and interlocking in their concern for people of other lands. Mrs. William Horie, Jr. will direct a group from Hope Chapel in a skit "That All May Know and Be Free" at 1:30 in Rosedale Gardens Presbyterian Church, Hubbard and W. Chicago. The program will be followed by a Fellowship Tea. Nursery care available for children.

Mrs. Lester Larrabee, World Community Day chairman, reported that in keeping with the emphasis on education, church women are making school bags and equipping them with basic school supplies. These will be distributed in Latin America where an effort is being made to increase educational opportunities.

"We are also sewing simple school outfits and collecting children's used sweaters and coats in answer to an urgent plea from the mothers who are our Central and South American neighbors," Mrs. Marcel Fendelet, Co-chairman added. "Mothers are keeping their children home from school in the crowded areas outside of the cities because of lack of clothing."

World Community Day is sponsored annually by United Church Women, a general department of the National Council of Churches of Christ in the U.S.A., representing 12 million Protestant and Orthodox women in the United States. Mrs. Francis B. Sayre, Washington, D. C., is national chairman for the observance and Mrs. Esther W. Hymer, New York City, is director.

The offering received on World Community Day will help train Latin American women in adult education, either in their own or other countries and further United Church Women's International Relations program.

Workers will be provided for other newly established programs planned by the churches as a more effective service in areas now lacking in educational opportunities. Of special concern are women who have not had any schooling, and the young women who left school at an early age.

Latin America has before it a colossal educational undertaking, if it is to meet the needs of this new period of its history. The task includes providing opportunities for forty-four million illiterates and about fifteen million children of school age not in school. Primary schools are lacking, secondary education is insufficient, and out-of-school education for adults is lacking in the areas where there is the greatest need. It is this need which United Church Women will help meet on World Community Day.

Today's need for spiritual discernment will be emphasized Sunday at Christian Science church services.

Scriptural readings in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "Adam and Fallen Man" will include these words of St. Paul (I Cor. 2).

"Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth: comparing spiritual things with spiritual. But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him; neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned."

Madonna Changes Honor Policy

With the publication of the 1961-1963 bulletin, Madonna College has changed its policy concerning the awarding of honors to the students.

Presently a grade point average of 3.5 or better during a semester will merit a place on the Dean's list. Heretofore an average of 3.25 was required.

To merit second honors, students must attain an average of 3.25-3.4 whereas the previous requirement called for a 3.24 average.

Each course receives a grade which represents the results of class work and examinations. Grades are given a certain value of honor points; thus A has 4 points, B - 3, C - 2, and D - 1. Each semester the average of these points is considered in awarding honors.

Sisterhood Plans Fourth Annual Dance

Plans for the fourth annual square dance, sponsored by the Livonia Jewish Congregation and Sisterhood are in the final stages.

This event will take place Sat., Nov. 11, at 8:30 p.m. at Bentley High School, Five Mile and Hubbard and the donation is $3.00 per couple.

Refreshments will be available and many door prizes will be given away to some lucky winners.

Chairmen are Rivian Altshul, Seymour Ungar and Bert Stein. For tickets and further information, please call ave Foster—GR. 6-1245 and Faye Levy—GR. 6-1725.

He is presently pastor of three congregations in and about Mobile. Officiating as Liturgist will be Pastor Arthur Wacker of Ann Arbor. The service will also feature choral renditions by a children's chorus of over one hundred voices under the direction of Mr. Ronald Kaiser of Ann Arbor, and by a mass adult chorus made up of members of the participating congregations under the direction of Mr. Ronald Gresens of Wayne. Extension Club Hears Of Foods Of Scandinavia

The Ridgmont Homes Extension Club has their October project lesson Scandinavian foods and customs. Mrs. George Hardy gave an interesting talk about the historical background of the Scandinavian countries, their waste land because of the mountains, and how the people there utilize every inch of ground space possible for raising their crops and vegetables and grain for their cattle.

In Denmark they raise excellent lean pork, because of a special grass growing there. Denmark is also known for her dairy products. Fish are very plentiful, and are prepared in various ways.

Scandinavian people are very artistic in preparing foods. They take great pains in setting a beautiful table at all times, displaying their linen, china and crystal.

Mrs. Robert Stoddill prepared some Scandinavian delicacies for the club members to fete on, with coffee and tea, after the business meeting.

Mrs. James McIntyre, Fashion Editor, gave a report on Fall and Winter Fashions.

Mrs. John Parkinson, Marketing Editor, gave a report on the best food buys for October.

Mrs. John Bowser, on Nathalie, was hostess for the evening.

Increases in industrial production now taking place, which require fattening pay-rolls and adding overtime, will strongly support consumer retail buying in the months ahead.

Kids Create Murals

Montgomery Ward of Wonderland had the most colorful windows in the city to help celebrate Halloween. Some businesses discourage window "treatments" but Ward's encouraged it by running a contest and awarding prizes.

Twenty-two artists entered the competition using poster paints and the results were amazing.

A galaxy of color and variety of them greeted all customers at the store. There were witches, ghosts, goblins, spooky houses and pumpkins in profusion.

The contestants ranged in age from 7 to 40 and were asked to classify their painting in one of three groups: (1) Humorous (2) unusual and (3) creative.

The winners were Billy Smith with his "Hector and the Spectre" in the humorous classification; Mike Brown in the unusual class for "Halloween fun don't you think so darling?" and Tina MacKenzie with her "Witches Brew" in the most creative category. The three winners each won a $25.00 merchandise prize of their choice. All contestants received a box of Halloween candy for their effort.

The windows were judged by Al Webber and Bill Wupper of the store.

Chevrolet Welcomes Public in Livonia

Chevrolet Motor Division's Livonia Spring and Bumper plant here will hold a public open house on Friday, Nov. 10, in observance of Chevrolet's Golden Anniversary. It was announced today.

Plant Manager Leo M. Seidl said the local facility will be open to the public from 9:00 a.m. to 9:00 p.m. on November 10.

"This open house is being held at the start of Chevrolet's second half century of automotive production to give our friends and neighbors in the Livonia area an opportunity to make themselves more familiar with our operations," Seidl said.

"Chevrolet - Livonia is one of 31 Chevrolet manufacturing and assembly plants across the nation which will open their doors to the public on November 10," he continued.

Seidl said personnel at the local plant have been busy for weeks making plans and preparations for the open house.

"We have arranged what we think the public will consider a most interesting tour of our operations," he explained.

News And Views In The City This Week

Reader Speaks Up

A BACKSTAGE VIEW of the Meredith Marionettes rehearsing "The Golden Fish" to be presented at Washington School in Livonia on Nov. 2. The annual visit of the nationally famous puppeteers is a gala occasion for Livonia youngsters. This year's presentation will feature imaginative, enjoyable things for children to see, a friendly bear, an underwater scene, colorful costumes and an exciting story. Tickets for the one performance are available from Mrs. Roberta Spencer GL 3-5285 or the Washington School.

Evelyn MacQueen of 18525 Middle Belt Road, associate director of theatre for the U. of D. will, on Nov. 8, begin reporting and analyzing current events as they relate to both Broadway and local theatre on "New Magazine" on WTVS, Channel 56. The new and revised format of this nightly TV news program will assume an expanded image for developing news in depth. As well as reporting current events, it is the purpose of the program to incorporate a staff of some 15 news writers into researching and developing features that point out undercurrents of tomorrow's news.

OPEN LETTER TO WILLIAM BRASHEAR:

We commend the Election Commission for its foresight in recognizing the need for more precincts in the City and for its recent recommendations to the City Council to correct the situation.

We find that after once approving your recommendation, the City Council members have now seen fit, for some reasons of their own, to rescind their previous action. It is obvious that the cost of the necessary improvement is not the real reason behind their action because they were aware of the cost involved and it has not changed since their original vote.

The basis for real "grass roots" government in the United States is the precinct. Any time the further development of precincts is thwarted at a local level it further enhances the opportunity of placing more power in the hands of fewer people leading to the creation of "political bosses".

The Republican Party of Livonia has long respected the non-partisan complexion of our city. However it has now become so apparent that pressures from without our city are being exerted on local officials influencing their decisions that we feel justified in bringing one of these situations to your attention. These outside influences are finally recognizing that Livonia has come of age and is now a community to be reckoned with. By denying Livonia more precincts her voice is weakened in District and State Conventions where candidates are selected to appear on the ballot.

For example, our neighboring community of Redford Township (comparable in population to Livonia) has 49 precincts sending 98 representatives (49 for each Party) to Party conventions for the purpose of selecting candidates. Residents of Livonia are handicapped inasmuch as they only have 26 precincts or 52 votes (26 for each Party) in convention.

We strongly believe that those Livonians who are interested in having more of a voice in their government will share our concern in this matter. The decision of the Council members to deny Livonians these needed 30 additional precincts is irresponsible. Therefore, because you are Mayor and have all the powers of your office at your disposal, we urge that you correct this injustice and veto the action taken by the Council on Monday, October 23rd.

Respectfully yours,
The Republican Party of Livonia
F. J. Westfall, III,
Chairman

Editor:

Well, I see where espiode number three played and it stinks as usual. The citizens of Livonia know the city is growing fast, so we are going to have to change the Precincts to take care of the growth.

Suppose it would cost $50,000 for machines and personnel to man them, now. What is it going to cost later? Just because a political party has a machine set up to run on present voteage are they afraid they will not be able to control the area in case more delegates are needed?

But political debts must be paid at all costs, so hence the change of minds in the council.

I hope that this spring we will elect some people to our Council who can at least think clearly and not do as some politician says.

No back room deals, either.
Earl N. Houghton

Rocks Champions All The Way

Champions all the way! It made no difference whether Plymouth High School's football team won, lost or tied against Redford Union last Friday night.

Coach Mike Hoben's Plymouth forces already had tucked away the school's sixth Suburban Six League grid title in nine years.

But there was a matter of pride at stake. All of which no doubt explains the roaring rally Plymouth staged to best Redford Union, 26-20, in one of the most thrilling games seen in these parts in a long time.

With the triumph Plymouth finished its league schedule with a perfect record of five victories and no defeats. The heartbreaking loss left RU with a 2-3 standing in the conference and a share of fourth place instead of a tie for second spot.

For the better part of three quarters, it was Redford Union's night.

RU jumped into an early 13-0 lead when the spectacular passing of Chuck Shelton set up a three-yard run by Jim Spayd for one touchdown and then a two-yard buck by Ken Wangbichler for another score.

Most teams would have folded. But not Plymouth.

By halftime, Plymouth had sliced into the RU lead when Dick Schryer ran into pay-dirt. That made the intermission tally read 13-6 for Redford Union.

Early in the third period HU struck again. This time a Shelton pass to Rudy Speerschneider sailed 30 yards and put the ball in position for Wangbichler to crash across from the one. Spayd converted and RU held a commanding 20-6 edge.

Certainly at this stage Plymouth appeared doomed. But, the Hoben team wasn't dead.

Before the quarter ended Hugh Sarah streaked in from the 11 and with the conversion Plymouth lagged by only seven points.

Early in the fourth stanza,

Jim Dart went 32 yards for a counter. But the Plymouth extra-point try miscued. It was still RU on top. However, the lead now had narrowed to one point, 20-19.

Time was running out. With some five minutes left, Plymouth took over around its own 30. The land of gold stretched a mighty long way off. But Dart, Schryer and Sarah gulped up the ground in short order. And with a long pass from Schryer to oDn Stremick for 27 yards chipped in, Plymouth quickly had the ball on the Ruu 15.

On the next play, Sarah scampered across and Plymouth had capped a sensational comeback. It made a little difference now when Wayne Cummings fashioned the extra point.

The defeat nullified a dazzling passing exhibition by Redford Union's Thornton. He drilled 30 aeriels, completing 18 for 210 yards. Johnson and Speerschneider each picked off six passes, while Spayd nailed three.

The game produced some other interesting statistics as Redford Union became the first league foe to tally more than one touchdown against Plymouth.

In the first period, Plymouth controlled the ball for only three plays while RU ran for 12 and passed on 11 more. It was RU passing eight times and running 10 in the second period as Plymouth ran 12 and passed three.

RU moved six times on the ground and eight times in the air in the third period as Plymouth settled for eight running plays and one aerial. In the closing period, Plymouth ran 15 times and passed twice to three RU aeriels and eight runs.

Dart and Sarah were the chief ground gainers for Plymouth which picked up 221 yards on the ground and 52 in the air. Dart carried 11 times for 84 yards, Sarah eight for 47.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

MAKING IT SHORT AND TO THE POINT:

In passing out the area's football orchids, let's start with little St. Agatha High School from Redford Township. Here's a Class D school from an enrollment standpoint which has whipped teams with Class B and Class C standing. That's the same as the Tigers winning from Denver or Birmingham.

We might add—and unhappily so—that St. Agatha officials are going to face a problem hanging on to Dave Brazil, their football and basketball coach.

Like his dad, the famed Lloyd Brazil of the University of Detroit, Dave is destined for greatness in the coaching ranks.

It's almost a cinch, he'll receive overtures from Class A and B schools in the near future. Nobody could blame Brazil if he accepted a chance to move up the ladder.

More orchids belong to Mike Hoben for the job he turned out in leading Plymouth to the Suburban Six League championship. Not too many rated Plymouth as the team-to-beat in the pre-season selections.

This makes six titles in nine years for Plymouth. You'll go some to find very many schools which can match the record.

Yes, Redford Union and its coach, John Rogers, deserve some orchids.

After going without a victory in something like 22 straight games, RU arose to win a couple in the league and make its presence felt in most every game.

It sounded funny, but really it wasn't.

Football coaches usually are the ones who come down with ulcers.

In the Jack Hudnut family — he's the veteran grid mentor at Livonia Bentley High School who moves to new Franklin high in Livonia next fall—the coach is okay, but it's his wife who has been struck with ulcers.

How does Mrs. Hudnut explain her plight?

"Simple," she says. "The coach just has to worry about his players and winning. The coach's wife has to worry about the players, winning and the coach, too."

Watch for Livonia's Knot-hole basketball team to appear on television one of these fine Saturday noons with the Detroit Pistons on Channel 7.

The kids, who are being sponsored by the Recreation Department in the Pistons' city-wide knot-hole circuit, spent a couple hours Tuesday before the cameras at Broadcast House on Ten Mile Road.

On deck, too, were several of the Pistons who offered pointers to the youngsters on how and how not to play basketball.

The youth program is a public service enterprise staged by Channel 7 in connection with the President's Physical Fitness program.

Happy to welcome our Plymouth friends aboard ship. We couldn't do so at a more appropriate time what with the Rocks celebrating the capturing of the Suburban Six League football and cross-country titles.

With the high school basketball season just around the corner, there's one new rule which you should know about.

The preps will follow the professionals in not awarding a free throw when an offensive foul is called. In other words, if Livonia Bentley has the ball and one of its players charges or blocks, the foul will be called and assessed against the guilty player.

But the opposing side won't shoot a free throw. It merely will gain possession of the ball at the nearest out-of-bounds spot.

See Bright Days

If the showing of its all-sophomore football team means anything, Livonia Franklin High School appears headed for some bright days when it starts tackling varsity rivals next fall.

Troia twice dashed around end for touchdowns. The first time he went 20 yards, the second 40. Black also engineered a pair of TD's, going 20 and 10 yards on rollouts.

The Franklin gridders have won five of their six games with two tilts remaining, against Taylor Center Thursday and then at Walled Lake next Wednesday.

Union Reserves Swamp Pakers

Redford Union high school's reserve football team found Allen Park no trouble last Thursday. The score was 26-0 for RU.

Coach Hails Bentley Rally

Coach Jack Hudnut takes pride in talking about his Livonia High School football team.

"Sure we didn't win the Suburban Six League championship. (Bentley wound up tied with Allen Park for second, each with a conference record of three wins against two defeats.)

"But these kids did a fine job. Remember we got off to our worst start in history. We lost our first three games. Since then we've won three out of four.

"These boys could have quit. But they didn't. And as a result they've gained considerable respectability for a job well done."

From a Bentley standpoint, it's a shame the school's griders couldn't have played every game they did last Friday night in running over Trenton, 49-0.

Trenton was minus some of its regulars because of injuries and other matters.

"But it wouldn't have made any difference," said Hudnut afterwards. "Our kids would have beaten any team last Friday night... and that includes Plymouth's league champs."

Bentley truly capitalized on its opportunities as very little went wrong for the Livonians. They had the ball for only 11 different series of downs and on seven of the occasions the Bentley forces wound up with a touchdown. They added five extra points and picked up a safety.

The massacre of Trenton started when Jim Johnson barged across from the one-yard line in the opening quarter to cap a 32-yard drive which began after Bentley has gained the ball following a partially blocked punt.

The second quarter saw Bentley count three touchdowns plus a safety. Ernie Benyon began the TD parade on a two-yard smash. Tom Handyside then broke loose on a 61-yard scoring gallop through the line. A 25-yard pass from Paul Portney to Craig Mapes produced another six pointer.

Just before the intermission, Boris Dimitroff spilled a Trenton back in the end zone for a safety.

Bentley upped the score in the third quarter to 37-0 when Steve Powers drilled a 30-yard pass to Handyside. Lanny Carrier booted his fifth straight conversion at this point.

Shortly afterward, Dimitroff enjoyed one of the great thrills which come to a lineman who seldom get their hands on the ball or make a point. He picked off a Trenton pass and dashed 52 yards to the land of honey.

To finish the night's scoring, Rick Davis pegged 42 yards to Carrier.

All that's left for Bentley is an invasion of Farmington next Friday afternoon. Bentley will catch Farmington all fired up. The letter ended a 14-game losing streak last Friday.

The kickoff is set for 3:30 p.m.

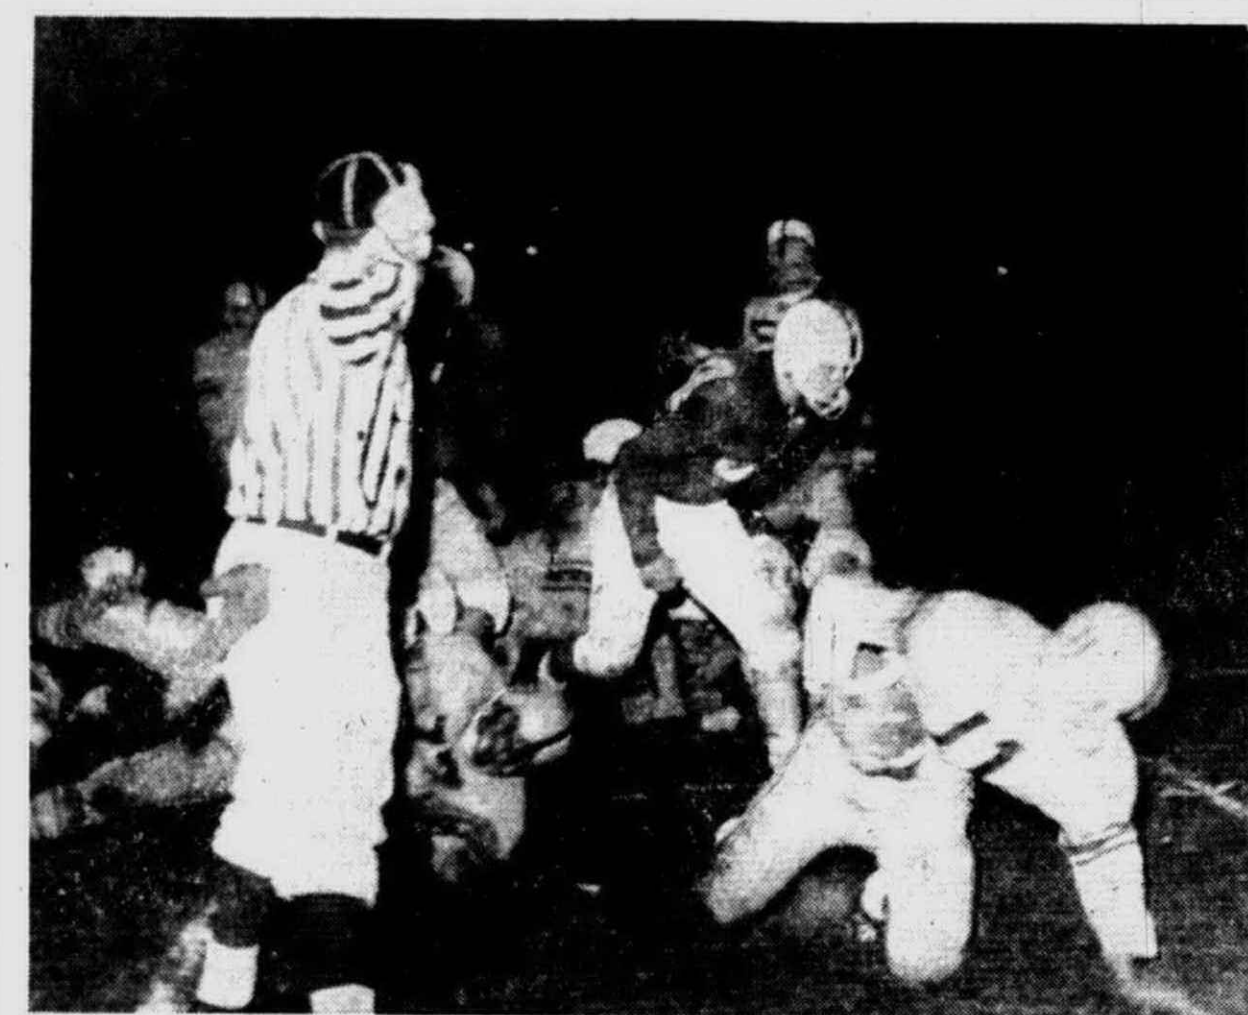

Kaufer Stars In Jays Win

Thurston high school's reserve football team accomplished what the Blue Jays varsity couldn't... the second stringers downed Lutheran West, 26-7.

Dave Kaufer was the hero for Thurston. He ran for three touchdowns on dashes of 35, 20 and 10 yards.

Harry Atkins took a pass from Tom Tanner on a play which covered 50 yards to wind up the Thurston scoring.

Tom Belton, former two-time Big Ten tennis champion from Michigan State, is superintendent of parks and recreation at Austin, Minn.

"BACK BOYS" is the order to Plymouth as Sandy Black charges ahead for what he hoped was a gain. Nevertheless Plymouth won the game 26-20. Hot on pursuit of the ball carrier is R. U. player Mike Srock.

Season Too Long

Maybe Thurston high school's football team should never have embarked on the second half of its 1961 schedule.

Everything was pretty nice for the Blue Jays in September and early October. At least they were unbeaten with two wins and two ties and figured prominently in the picture for the Mid-Wayne League championship.

But the roof fell in. The Jays now have dropped their last three games and that's left is next Saturday afternoon battle with Redford Union for the Township championship. The kickoff at Thurston is slated for 2 p.m.

"There was a pretty good reason for our losing (20-0) to Lutheran West last Friday," declared Coach Gordon Young. "We started the game with six of our first stringers out with injuries and then we lost Keith Spicer (Thurston's fine quarterback) with an ankle injury."

Another reason—but hardly a good one—was the fumble which bestruck Thurston. Three times the team bobbled inside the Lutheran West 20 and the Lutherans grabbed the pigskin on each occasion.

And then there was the match by Thurston to the Lutheran two where the Jays ran out of gas and yielded the ball on downs.

Richard Niemi was the big gun for Lutheran West as he scored his team's first two touchdowns. He scampered 30 yards around end in the first quarter and then went the same route in the second stanza to give his team a 13-0 edge at the intermission.

In the third quarter a 50-yard gallop by Harry Dubke wrapped up the West scoring and the rest was strictly a defensive performance as far as the winners were concerned.

Thurston Coach Young is hopeful all of his regulars will be back in time for Saturday's clash with Redford Union.

"We've kicked away some golden opportunities this fall," said Young. "Maybe we can at least haul in the township laurels."

However, the ways things have been going for Thurston, the Jays must rate as a two-touchdown underdog for Saturday's contest.

Before the curtain drops on the Clarenceville campaign next Friday, an opportunity will present itself for the Livonians to engineer one of the major upsets of the season in suburban and state-prep football.

For Clarenceville has a home date with Northville's newly crowned Wayne-Oakland champs. Win, lose or draw against Clarenceville-Northville has the undisputed tucked away following last Friday's developments which saw Northville crush Clarkstone, 52-0, while second-place Bloomfield Hills was jolted by West Bloomfield.

Clarenceville will fire its star one-two punch of Ron Ridling and Monroe Ashley against Northville. Ridling and Ashley have developed into a pair of terror runners.

The pair is averaging better than 12 yards per carry. What's more, each has built up a reputation for scoring on spectacular runs.

Take the game with Brighton. Ashley started the scoring with a 24-yard run. He also ran for the point.

A little later it was Ashley again. This time he went 71 yards, an effort which Ridling duplicated just before the half ended. After Ridling's run, Ashley went over for the extra point — and what a point it proved to be.

With a 20-point bulge, Clarenceville appeared to be in for a picnic.

But Brighton had different ideas. Andy Marks scooted 40 yards to the Clarenceville 2 and two plays later bounced over from the one.

In the fourth period Bob Amenson dashed over from the nine and then it was a Marks pass to Tom Barker which pulled Brighton within a point of a tie. But the conversion failed and Clarenceville escaped with the victory.

The Jug Remain's at Riley

Like Michigan and Minnesota, Riley and Whitman Junior High Schools of Livonia battle for their own Little Brown Jug each year in football.

And just as Minnesota won last Saturday to retain possession of its prized jug, so did Riley beat Whitman, 25-7, to keep the bucket for which the two junior highs fight.

It marked the third time in the five years that the schools have had the Jug at stake that Riley has taken the laurels.

The passing of Harvey Jaksch featured the victory which kept Riley unbeaten in Livonia's Junior high circuit. Jaksch hit George Reck on a pass-run play covering 56 yards for the first Riley TD, then clinched on a seven yard aerial to John Harrison for a score.

Harrison ran 17 yards and Dennis Lopez six yards for the other Riley tallies, while Harrison added one extra point.

Whitman Junior High blanked Bryant on a pair of explosive runs. Ron Estep cut loose on a 45-yard gallop just before the end of the half. Then Bob Geisler went the same distance in the third period.

Estep ran for both the conversions.

Emerson stepped out of the league and was no match for Plymouth, bowing, 34-0.

500 Year Hopes Slim

Livonia Bentley high school's reserve football team must win its final two games of the season to finish with a 500 record.

A 13-6 loss to Belleville last Thursday left Bentley with a 2-4 mark. Larry Carr, accounted for the only Bentley score on a 20-yard run.

Belleville tallied on a punt return and short run while capitalizing on fumbles.

Bentley hosts Trenton Thursday evening and winds up at Berkeley next Wednesday night.

Police Watch For Crowders

With the bad weather ahead, Livonia police officers have begun to concentrate their enforcement efforts on the violations that cause rear end accidents.

Sergeant Robert Thorne of the Traffic Bureau pointed out that, historically, rear end collisions always increase at this time of the year.

"Slippery pavement, obscured visibility, more hours of darkness, with an earlier dusk coming when many are still on the road, all lead directly to rear-end collisions," he said. "These conditions aggravate the violations that contribute to the collisions."

"The principal violation is following too closely, with exceeding a safe speed, which may be lower than the legal speed, exceeding the legal speed, and defective and inadequate lights also contributing substantially to the problem. Too many drivers ride almost on the bumper of the car ahead. This can only result in an accident if not today then at some tomorrow."

"As a result our enforcement efforts are being stepped up against these violations that cause or substantially contribute to rear end collisions," Sergeant Thorne said.

Every driver must give himself more room, so that he can be certain of being able to stop in an emergency.

MILITARY CADET

Gordon Military College opened for the 110th year recently with the largest enrollment in the history of the school.

Cadet James Shinaver, the son of George Shinaver whose address is 20315 Farmington Rd., Livonia, is enrolled in the high school department.

Nature Lecture Season Opens For 1961-62

The 1961-62 school lecture series provided by naturalists of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority will begin its annual five-month program on Thursday, November 2.

Two schools in the Livonia area are among the first to schedule lectures in the current series.

Rainer Brocke, authority naturalist, will visit Cooper Elementary School on Monday, November 27 and appear at Jefferson Elementary School on Tuesday, November 28. A total of seven lectures will be given in the two-day period to Livonia students.

Bill Hopkins, chief naturalist, pointed out that Authority naturalists are available to give illustrated lectures on topics of natural science at schools in the counties of Livingston, Macomb, Oakland, Washtenaw and Wayne from November 1961 through March 31 (1962).

Over 39,000 youngsters in the five-county area participated in the lecture program during the 1960-61 season compared to over 17,000 in 1959-60.

This free service may be obtained by contacting the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority, 1750 Guardian Building, Detroit 26 and requesting an appointment. Each school can be visited only one day each year.

Forest wildlife, birds, cold-blooded animals, flowering trees, signs of spring and Michigan rocks and soils are the topics available for youngsters in grades 3 through 12, with seven topics accompanied by slides and three illustrated by motion pictures. Each lecture covers approximately 45 minutes.

A special 30-minute program is designed for youngsters in kindergarten through the second grade with a slide talk entitled "Plant and Animal Faces" or movies explaining pond life or wild animals. The material in all lectures illustrate Michigan natural resources and many of the photographs were taken in Kensington Metropolitan Park southeast of Brighton.

Other services provided to school groups include visits to the Nature Center at Kensington Park for nature lectures and guided field trips along the nature trails in parks of the Huron-Clinton Metropolitan Authority. Advance appointments are required.

In addition to Kensington Park, nature trails are located at Metropolitan Beach near Mt. Clemens, Lower Huron Metropolitan Park near Belleville and Hudson Mills Metropolitan Park, located 12 miles northwest of Ann Arbor along the Huron River.

Livonia Cagers

Livonia's entry into the Detroit Pistons' Knott-hole Basketball League will be featured on television Saturday, November 3, it was announced by the Department of Parks and Recreation.

The youngsters, sponsored by "Teen Athletics of Livonia," will make their appearance on WXYZ-TV at noon. The youths have also been invited to participate in a basketball clinic sponsored by the Detroit professional team.

84 AREAS NOW:

State's Ski-Centers At All-Time High

Michigan is making a determined bid to capture the title: "Ski Capital of the Nation."

Ten new ski centers have been added to the state's roster of winter offerings, bringing Michigan's total to 84 winter sports centers—more than any other state in the nation, according to the Michigan's tourist council.

THE COUNCIL also reports that many of the 74 previously established winter resorts are improving and expanding facilities for the 1961-62 season.

Dotting the Michigan map from the far reaches of the upper peninsula to the fringes of metropolitan Detroit, the 84 areas will offer ski slopes for beginners as well as experts and intermediate skiers.

Pre-season estimates by the state tourist council indicate some 180,000 skiers will make an average of three trips each to Michigan's ski centers during the coming winter season.

They are expected to spend more than $18 million on the sport, not including equipment purchases, according to the most recent ski industry studies.

A NEW statewide winter vacation map-guide pinpointing locations and describing facilities of all of Michigan's winter sports centers will be available after Nov. 10 from the state tourist council. Free copies can be obtained by writing to: Ski Map, Michigan Tourist Council, Lansing 26.

In addition to downhill skiing, Michigan's winter scene also features cross-country trails, slalom bowls, toboggan runs, skating rinks, ice fishing, ice boating and hunting.

To assure a longer ski season and more reliable snow conditions, 19 ski centers will have snow-making equipment in operation this year. Night skiing will be offered by 35 areas.

Indoor facilities at Michigan's winter sports centers include lodge, dormitory and motel accommodations, restaurants, snack bars and lounges. Skis, boots and poles can be rented at most of the areas, and several centers offer special "ski week and weekend" package vacations at attractive rates that include lodging, meals, equipment and instruction.

THE 10 NEW ski centers—opening their first full season of operation this year —include one in the upper peninsula, six in the western lower peninsula, and three in the eastern half of the lower peninsula.

The U. P. now has 16 ski centers with the addition of Thunder Bowl, northwest of Manistique in Hiawatha National Forest. This area has six ski slopes, tobogganing and skating, and a chalet with snack bar.

In the lower peninsula, new areas and their announced facilities include: Pleasant Valley, southwest of East Jordan; two ski slopes, night skiing, skating and a warming shelter with a snack bar.

Bear Hills, at Bear Lake, north of Manistee; seven ski slopes, tobogganing, skating and sleigh rides, night skiing, and a warming shelter with a snack bar.

McGuire's Ski Resort, south of Cadillac; two slopes, night skiing, skating and tobogganing, a lounge, warming shelter and snack bar, with lodging and meals on the premises.

Grand Haven Ski Bowl, at Grand Haven; five ski runs, night skiing, and a warming shelter with snacks.

Eskar Hills at Middleville, four slopes, snow-making equipment, and a warming house with snack bar.

Qualify For State

All the sports' glory at Plymouth High School this fall hasn't been grabbed by the footballers.

The Rock's cross country team not only has matched the footballers in winning the Suburban Six League title, but also finished second in last Saturday's state regionals at Farmington and this Saturday goes after state honors at Ypsilanti.

Plymouth will send a seven-man entry to the state Class A meet as the result of taking second place behind Detroit Redford in the regionals. Redford won with 24 points to 79 for Plymouth.

Thurston followed in third with 153. Then came Detroit U. of D. with 174 and Livonia Bentley with 176.

Byron Lattier and Tony Hunt lead the Plymouth field in the state. Jim and Ward Griffith also will vie for Plymouth at Ypsilanti. So will Dennis Knapp, Robert Wintenhaller and Herb Park.

Thurston, meantime, earned two at-large entries in the state finals in Don Keller and Ed Christie.

Keller ran second in the overall regional field, being beaten only by Redford's Dick Sharkey who set a new course record when he was timed in 10:03. Christie was 21st in the race.

An ankle ailment slowed Roger Hamilton, Thurston's star runner, to the point he finished far back—in fact, he was 72nd.

Bill Persh of Thurston was 23rd, Ed Dahlka 36 and Cas Jankauskas 71st.

Ron Grant, John Krygier, Dave Temple, John Hicks and Bud Cicciarella finished in that order for Bentley, whose showing disappointed many. Redford Union's team didn't wind up among the first 10.

In the Suburban Six League meet, Plymouth swept to an easy victory with 23 points as Latter won the race with Hunt second. The Griffith boys came in fifth and sixth Knapp ninth.

Livonia Bentley took second place honors with 43 points as Paul Rieker crossed in third spot and Temple fourth. Redford Union ran third, scoring 87 points.

Guy In Sky

"Pull her back," Al directed as the plane bounced a little. I steadily pulled back the control wheel and the plane suddenly lifted off the runway and within a few seconds we were sailing over Joy Rd.

Making a left climbing turn across the City, I headed toward our favorite flying grounds west of Northville. I was already familiar with instruments in the Colt but there were three new ones in this ship.

One was a rate-of-climb indicator, which simply told how many feet per minute the plane was climbing or dropping. Another was a gyro-compass, which is a more accurate type of compass than the magnetic type, also found in planes.

The third was an interesting gadget called an artificial horizon. It appears to have a little "airplane" floating in the middle that tells you at a glance if you are flying even with the horizon, or whether one wing or both are above or below the horizon.

Reaching into the back seat, Al handed me a black plastic hood, I didn't know if I was expected to do a welding job or rob a bank. "Try this on for size," he declared as I fit it on my head.

It was like looking down a tunnel and all I could see when looking straight ahead was the array of unseeing instruments staring back at me. This, I learned, was the general idea.

"Keep the plane straight on level by just looking at the instruments," he asked. I complied — to the best of my feeble ability. "Now, 90 degrees to the right," he continued. "Now 180 to the left . . . go up to 2,600 feet . . . 90 to the right."

During the next 30 minutes, I maneuvered the plane in turns, and climbed up and down over miles of land that I never saw. Needless to say, one has to have someone else in the plane to keep an eye out for other aircraft when one performs such an exercise. Surprising even myself, the plane flew quite well by just following instruments.

Heading back to the airport, it was now time for my first landing. I tried to appear calm as we flew over the west side of the airport to check the wind sock. ("It can change while you're away," Al warned.) It hadn't.

Flying parallel with the runway, but opposite of the landing direction, I cut the power down and pulled on the carburetor heat. This is called the "downwind" leg.

After passing the airport a half mile, a left turn is made into what is called the "base leg." Finally, another turn is "How in Hannah's hat will I ever hit the end of that tiny made directly toward the runway for the "final approach." "I mumbled as the plane nosed down further. My mouth grew dry. The strip now grew larger and larger.

If I followed instinct, I would now pull up while still 50 feet off the ground. "Power off all the way," Al commanded as we came within a few hundred yards of the runway's end. In a moment we were over the runway. "Pull back the wheel," he added, I obliged. "Further back . . . further back . . ." he commanded rapidly.

The control wheel was nudging my stomach and I thought the plane was going to stand on its tail.

But suddenly, there was a little jolt and the plane was on the ground!

Before I could heave a sigh of relief, I learned that my job wasn't over. "Keep her straight," Al declared as the ship sped down the strip toward the left. Again, I would have pocketed a reckless driving ticket if this had been Plymouth Road.

"Taxiing back to the parking area, I was quite proud of myself, but a little skeptical that I had actually landed the plane. "Just what per cent of that landing did I do?" I finally inquired.

"Why, all of it," Al replied reassuredly. "I kept my hands on the wheel, just a case."

Although still skeptical, I didn't pursue it further. Flying instructors have to be good psychologists to boot, and giving the student confidence is half of this game.

Of course, I won't let him know that I know this.

The Board of Education, administrators and wives visited the new construction to the Edgewood Elementary School, the Junior High School and the Senior High School, October 19.

At the Edgewood Elementary School, Mr. William Jackson, Principal, led the tour in the seven classrooms, boiler room, and storage room addition.

Mr. Arthur Mann, Junior High School principal, took the group through the enlarged shower room facilities. These facilities will provide for the increased number of pupils now enrolled in physical education.

FACTS and OPINIONS BY PAUL CHANDLER

This "economy" image easily can become a community state of mind. It has become that in Redford Township. It could happen here, or anywhere.

And it should be recognized for what it is . . . community self-hypnosis, in the long run. Citizens who accept it on face value are deluding themselves.

In local government, as with everything else, one receives what he pays for. Nothing is free. If you save a dollar and take a risk, there's always a chance you'll lose a gamble—as, for instance, with a defective bus exhaust, or an open ditch.

Facts and Opinions has strong, deep feelings about the responsibilities of local government toward its Senior Citizens. It is one of the major new problems of this generation. Within five or six more years, retired men and women will constitute 12 percent of the local population, and in far too many cases they are people with lost purpose and confused direction.

But it is cruel and inhuman—and, yes, in certain cases dangerous—to pretend to be providing such a program without also furnishing adequate funds, counting on, among other things, a broken down discarded bus that wasn't good enough for school children.

If economy is necessary, then abandon the program . . . any program . . . until it can be done right. To pretend and improvise and self-delude is only to postpone facing the issue. Yet, the day of truth always arrives.

It ultimately will come to Redford Township, incidentally, on the college matter, on drainage, on inadequate police protection, and on all else.

The college mistake will be felt when the kids leave high school and the college board and room bills land on the family treasury, if the youths are able to find a place at all in some distant, crowded school.

Disease and danger lurk in open drains. Burglaries, degeneracy, and fear thrive when the police protection is weak.

House values shrink in such communities. Small budgets and "low taxes" mean nothing by themselves. They cover only what they pay for.

And they deceive those who refuse to think about it.

Welcome To St. Agatha Mission

New Lutheran

Koenig has been working in the Livonia area since his arrival in the city on August of this year. All of the homes in the northwest section of the city were paid a personal visit by him.

His main concern, "was not just to find families who are Lutheran, but to find families who are not going to any particular church at all." The Pastor further has stated that the findings of his canvass reveal that there is a need for a church to serve this area.
