Plymouth Business Grows Slowly, Study Reveals

One of the lowest rates of business growth in Wayne County has taken place in Plymouth over the past 14 years.

That's the finding of a metropolitan area survey released this week by a Detroit financial agency.

While businesses in Wayne County jumped from 3,089 in 1947 to 6,492 in 1962, the corresponding rise in Plymouth was just a shadow of the figure.

A total of 266 businesses existed in Plymouth in January, 1947, the survey said.

In January, 1962, the figure is 280—for a total gain of 24.

Only Northville, which had 90 businesses in 1947 and 104 in 1962, had a lower growth rate.

The survey was released by Willard S. Garrison, District Manager of the Detroit office of Dun and Bradstreet, Inc., who also announced that requests for financial statements were mailed to 44,246 business concerns in Wayne, Oakland and Macomb counties.

Garrison noted the total for 1961, when compared with previous years, shows a continued emigration to and growth in the suburban business community at the expense of the city of Detroit. Excluding Detroit, the area's business population jumped from 8,756 in 1947 to 18,200 in 1961. During the same period, Detroit declined from 28,026 to 26,046.

How did Plymouth's neighbors fare?

In Belleville, 101 businesses in 1947 compare to 191 today. Dearborn shows a jump from 971 to 1,685.

Garden City businesses increased from 93 to 262 and Wayne businesses went up from 324 to 410.

Total number of businesses in Livonia is 509. That community was not surveyed in 1947.

The figures, obtained from a physical count of the Dun and Bradstreet Reference Book, include wholesalers, retailers and manufacturers but not service or professional businesses, banks, brokers, beauty and barber shop operators.

FACTS and OPINIONS by Paul Chandler

In the long run, the prime hope for re-kindled industrial prosperity in Michigan is a pool of manpower with skills in other than automobile production. In today's world, this generally means electronics, physics, mathematics.

When the manpower is here, along with Michigan's inherent natural resources, then industry will be interested in investment.

In our particular area, the hope to train and make available manpower trained in the modern skills, lies with the recently approved Community College.

No millage to sustain this College yet has been asked of the residents. Yet, there is planning, designing, office-work, and paperwork which must take place in the immediate weeks to get the project to a stage where it will make sense to the voters when offered.

It is much to be hoped that the business and commercial interests of the area—who know better than most average householders the problem of sustaining Michigan's economy—will analyze the situation and see if they can't come to the aid of the hard-pressed Board of Trustees to keep the project moving in this interim period between approval and regular income.

We were much depressed to hear that the Plymouth Board of Education had deferred an interim appropriation to the Community College, because it was concerned whether it could meet "its own school requirements."

To lapse into Biblical parlance: "What availeth it a Board to provide 12 grades of education, even with no half days, if at the end of the 12 grades the students are dumped into the streets untrained for a place in the economy?"

Better there be half-days in first grade than unemployment, despair and delinquency at 18.

Old readers of this column (that means three years back, or more) will recall that we greeted the entrance of George Romney into public affairs with pleasure and zest. Our first words on the subject came when he pitched in to put over a school millage project in Detroit that seemed hopeless. It was long before "Citizens for Michigan", or talk of his running for Governor, or his Constitutional Convention career.

Romney seemed then, and does now, a rare species of "idealist", meaning he seemed to be doing things to make his world a little better to live in, rather than trying to make his own life a little better in the world.

He has personal religious drive, but that isn't all.

His entrance into Republican politics has been greeted a little rudely, because he wasn't invited, and that's something this penman can understand sympathetically from personal experience.

Nonetheless, the observers outside all parties are talking about him now as a possible Governor and a possible President. Somehow it's a cheering thought this cold and bleak January evening.

Cup of Coffee?

For nearly 150 Plymouthites, their daily cup of coffee means a trek to a Penniman Ave. drugstore.

The 150 men—and women, too—are members of one of the community's "different" organizations—Sandy's Coffee Club.

On special shelves at Sandy's Drug Store, 859 Penniman, sit 150 individual, double-size coffee cups—each with a different name printed on them. They're maintained by the drugstore daily for the "club" members who sto there for a coffee break.

"We got this idea," says Mrs. Lee Linsky, proprietor with her husband, Sandy, of the store, "from a Chicago saloon. Many of our customers are local businessmen and they like the idea of having their own cup on our shelves. Most of our members are frequent customers but a lot aren't and come here only occasionally. Regardless, their personal cup is always here waiting for them."

The Linskys have owned the drugstore for the past 2½ years and live in Detroit. During the past holiday season they received requests from club members to give cups as Christmas presents and are considering this move in the future.

Anyone may join the "club" and the dollar fee helps pay for their personal cup, designed by Marian Davis of Howell.

Are the drugstore's waitresses trained so they can match a face with the proper cup?

"Most of the time," Mrs. Linsky says, "the waitress knows if a customer has a cup here or not. Sometimes, though, they have to ask. But usually our waitresses get to know all cups and all customers."

Officials Speak Over Radio

Radio speakers boomed forth the voices of a number of Plymouth officials Thursday night.

Radio station WWJ presented a special salute to the community and opinions were heard from city manager Al Glassford, Mayor pro-tem Marvin Terry, Mayor Robert Sincoc and School Superintendent Russell Isbister.

George Burr, curator of the Plymouth Historical Society, also spoke before the microphones on the 21-minute show.

With Terry, Sincoc and Isbister discussing municipal affairs and school and recreation facilities, Glassford spent most of the time describing the city's council-manager form of government.

Soon we will be adding a fifth director—a director of urban renewal to administer the affairs of our Mill Street Urban Renewal Project," he said. "We are attempting to clear housing from a district which will remain industrial and the resulting small parcels of land will be consolidated into larger parcels of land and offered for sale as industrial sites."

Police Arrest Youths; Solve 31 Area Crimes

Police cracked open a theft ring responsible for 31 major crimes in Plymouth and scores more in Livonia and Plymouth Township last week and placed a number of juveniles under arrest.

The youngsters—who will be tried in three communities—admitted under questioning to a series of breaking-and entering and larcenies over a period of time spanning two years.

All of them were in the 17 to 20 age bracket.

Among the crimes solved by the arrests was a breaking-and-entering into the home of a Lakepointe Village family in Plymouth Township last month that netted hundreds of dollars in bonds and cash. Most of the other loot in the youths' crimes was in the form of tires, wheels, auto accessories and home furnishings.

One unsolved unarmed holdup—dating back to August, 1960—was admitted by the youths. It took place on Plymouth's Main Street in a parking lot.

One other important crime solved by these arrests, Plymouth Police Chief Ken Fisher told The Livonian, "was the breaking-and-entering of Bathey Manufacturing Co. last year when several expensive micrometers and tools were taken. We've recovered most of these."

Fisher said most of the other loot had been disposed of by the gang and that many of the wheels reported taken from the autos were at the bottom of Wilcox Lake in Plymouth Township.

"In many cases," he said, "the youths stripped the tires from the wheels and sank the wheels in the lake."

Police still are working on getting an estimate of the worth of the loot taken. "It could range upwards of $1,000," Fisher said, "and probably much more."

"Those involved are all chargeable," he said. "We're co-operating with the Wayne County Sheriff's Department for those offenses which took place in Plymouth Township and with the Livonia Police Department with the offenses which took place there."

Most of the thefts involved truck and auto tires, including some truck wheels valued at $400 each.

State's 'Equalization' Policies Draw New Plymouth Wrath

Plymouth's continuing battle on property assessments raged again last week when City Assessor Kenneth Way sharply criticized the State Tax Commission for "not giving orders."

Way reported to the City Commission on action taken at a meeting between assessing officers of Wayne County and the State Tax Commission to discuss problems and policies for 1962.

"The Tax Commission,"

Death Calls Two Plymouth Residents

Funeral services for Mrs. Mildred Charron, 15121 Northville Rd., Plymouth, were held Wednesday morning.

A native of Ridgetown Ontario, Mrs. Charron, who was 55 at the time of her death, moved to Plymouth in 1950. She was a member of the Rosary Society of Our Lady of Good Counsel Church and a member of St. Michael's Church in Canada.

Surviving are her husband, Ovilla, her mother, Mrs. Mary Hetherington, two sons, Walter Homewood and Arsene Joseph Charron of Ontario, and two daughters, Mary Jan of Plymouth and Mrs. Boulah King of Durand, Michigan. A sister, Wallace Hetherington of Livonia and a brother, Frank Hetherington, of California, also survive. Eight grandchildren were left also.

A rosary was said at Schrader's Monday Evening and services were conducted from St. Michael's in Ridgetown. Interment was in the Canadian city.

Thomas Richard Houghton, Sr., 34710 W. Five Mile, passed away January 5 in Wayne County General Hospital.

A commercial builder, Houghton came to the Lake Orion, He was born in Toronto, Ontario.

Surviving are three sons, Howard, of Plymouth, Thomas, Jr., of Garden City and Robert of Garden City. Four daughters, Mrs. Viola Fine, St. Petersburg, Florida; Mrs. Audrey Matt, Detroit; Mrs. Norman Skoglund, Plymouth and Mrs. Betty Galpin, Plymouth; also survive. Seventeen grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren are also among the survivors.

Funeral services were held Jan. 8 at Schrader Funeral Home with Rev. Henry J. Walch, D.D., officiating. Interment was at Riverside.

Serving as pallbearers were Dale McKinney, Howard Houghton, Donald Houghton, Lex Skoglund, Lynwood Fine and Robert Grieves.

Way reported, "is negotiating with the City of Detroit and with the Wayne Bureau of Taxation on a yearly basis to attempt to achieve uniformity gradually over a period of years." This has been the crux of Plymouth's dispute, and last year protests were filed by the city when County officials hiked equalization after the city had followed state regulations to the letter on tax assessments.

State regulations call for a 46 percent of cash value assessments while county practice has been around 80 percent, Plymouth officials told The Livonian.

Way reported to the Council:

"I stated that the assessors' basic problem is that the State Tax Commission, which is the boss in the assessment field, has not been giving orders and, therefore, the assessors do not know what standard to follow and I personally would never go through another appraisal such as we did in 1959 when we attempted to achieve uniformity and the Tax Commission permitted a levy of a 30% penalty on our assessments."

"I told the Commission that the data that they used

Township, City Officials Meet

Members of the Plymouth City Commission and the Plymouth Township Board met in a joint, informal meeting at City Hall Monday night.

Purpose of the meeting, officials said, was to discuss communities.

Several other assessors had comments and criticisms of the way the State Tax Commission handled appeals and decisions.

(Editor's Note: Staying on the New Year track for another year, Plymouth area residents were asked by The Livonian's man-in-the-street reporter this week.

"What Was The Most Significant News Item in 1961?"

(Interviewed outside Kroger's store in Plymouth, here are the replies.) Lynn Thuer, 11211 Haggerty, Plymouth Township, said: "I think mostly it was Khrushchev's testing of H-Bombs while negotiations in the United Nations were going on."

"I'd say probably shooting man into space was the biggest story," Barbara Kessler, 38847 Orangelawn, said. "I think it's important to the world to know that we're keeping our country well-protected."

"I think the Cuban situation is one problem we got in 1961 that is kind of a bad situation," replied A. G. Griffith, 1212 West Ann Arbor Trail.

To Mrs. Lillian Finnegan, 798 Blanche St., "It seemed like the world made more progress in 1961. Putting man into space was an indication of this."

(Each week The Livonian asks Plymouthites a question of current interest on main streets in the community. If you have a suggestion for a question, mail it to Plymouth Edition, The Livonian, 33050 Five Mile Rd., Livonia, Mich.)

City Opens New Meeting Room

A new meeting room to help ease the burden of space on local governmental agencies will be put into use in Plymouth.

Members of the City Commission decided last week to renovate a room in the house next to City Hall, where the Department of Public Works now has its offices.

"There have been as many as four meetings in one night here at City Hall," one commissioner pointed out. "We should provide enough space so that all groups will be able to meet."

The Commission allocated $300 to paint the inside of the room and to make necessary renovations.

In other business, the Commission heard a claim for bursting of a water line under Penniman Ave. Insurance will probably cover the damage, City Manager Al Glassford said.

The bid of Standard Oil Co. at 13.2 cents per gallon for regular grade gasoline and 16.9 cents per gallon for premium gasoline was accepted on motion of Commissioner Hartmann and the bid of Sinclair Oil Co. for lubricating oil was accepted.

Use of mercury vapor lights on S. Main from Maple to Wing Street was approved by the Commission over standard lights. The Commission passed the second and third readings of amendments to the swimming pool ordinance.

The Commission also voted to purchase a house three doors east of City Hall as part of the business redevelopment program for the city.

Ronald Funk Married Suzanne Gauss, Ann Arbor

MRS. RONALD FUNK

In an 11 A.M. service Sat., Jan. 6, Suzanne Sheryl Gauss of Ann Arbor, Michigan was united in marriage with Ronald Paul Funk, 9814 Horton Avenue, Livonia, Michigan.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold E. Gauss of Ann Arbor, and the groom the son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Funk, Livonia. Father Sabourin officiated at the ceremony in St. Thomas Apostle Church.

Emphasizing her wedding day radiance, the bride's gown of crystal white coronation taffeta was styled with regal simplicity. Circlets of pearls frosted the delicate peau d'Ange lace which formed the bodice designed with deeply cuffed scalloped decolletage and long traditionally tapered sleeves. Garlands of lace etched a rose motif over the bouffant skirt which belled from the waistline and, in a fan shaped panel also of peau d'Ange, spread to a graceful circular train.

A wreath of gleaming pearls with forehead cluster of iridescent paillettes and pearl drops clasped her tiered veil of silk illusion.

She carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and a white orchid.

Serving as maid of honor was Miss Patricia Papineau of Ann Arbor, Miss Jeannette Haines, Miss Kirsten Neilsen, Miss Karen Gosseaux, Miss Judith LaPointe, all of Ann Arbor, were bridesmaids.

The best man for the groom was Joseph Zias of Ypsilanti, and R. J. Martin of Grosse Pointe, Gerald Dobbs and Robert White of Ypsilanti, and Robert Beech of Livonia seated the guests.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

Let me be counted among those glad we are no longer supposed to have "the Kennedy look" to be fashionable. It seemed easier for some of us to look like Jack than Jackie.

Of course the coming Spring challenge is probably even more insurmountable, in that we are supposed to all acquire and maintain "the little girl look" with lifted bust lines, ruffles, full skirts, and doo-dads. If this would be enough, I'd go the route, wouldn't you?

Rita Perna, Fashion Coordinator for Montgomery Ward & Company, writes us from Chicago the accent on color will be green, yellow and pristine white.

In California I noticed these colors in bright, and beautiful prints with demure round collars and long sleeves. Long sleeves seemed to be the big thing.

Ever since returning home I've had a yen for a long-sleeved something but have been out of luck. California, however, is ahead of us three hours in time, four months in weather, and a whole season in activity. They began square dancing before us and now are growing tired of the twist or exhausted.

Miss Perna says blue will replace pink as the "extra special" color this year. I hope the range won't be imitated in lipsticks. Pink was so popular, but blue? But if fashion dictates... why fight it?

As we ladies go more feminine the trend in home furnishing, according to the release from the Interior Decorators of N.Y., are supposed to transfer from informal Early American to Elegance.

Basic colors are yellow, orange and green. These colors are carried out in the new "Style House", model home now open at 24025 W. Six Mile Road near Farmington Road in Livonia. Their colors are labeled bitter green, burnt orange, and coin gold.

To add to the "Elegant" look is an octagonal shaped coffee table with cherry wood top and an antique white lacquer base.

Replacing Early American decor is Italian classic - in the model home this is further carried out in a low lamp table of cherry with burnished brass door pulls.

I have nothing against Italy and adore pizzas and Dean Martin, but for a cozy room and casual living Early American furniture, colors, and mood are easy to live with.

While la Kennedy may not be our fashion leader this coming year she certainly established herself as a charming personality on our American scene. She set a new goal for careful grooming, created a genuine interest in our county's early heritage by replacing and rejuvenating treasures in the White House of by-gone years.

By contrast some of our "fashion queens" from Hollywood are almost unrecognizable without benefit of their camera man.

It was a great shock to me sitting at the table next to it at lunch at John Scott Trotter's restaurant, in L.A. the lady with a "balled-up" cardigan sweater, baggy slacks and sneakers - conspicuous only by her unidy dress, turned out to be June Allyson. I nearly flipped. This, I was told, is the rule rather than the exception. Loretta Young, Joan Crawford being among the exceptions.

Women in public eye, seen in public places, should assume the responsibility of being well groomed at all times. It would set a good example for the those of us that run out with our hair under a head-rag, runs in our stockings, and run down heels - all boobos of fashion.

If the list isn't too long we can add good grooming to our list of resolutions for 1956.

Since Mrs. America, Lila Masson is a neighbor of mine, she will certainly serve as my ideal - long before she received this title she could have been a candidate for Best Groomed Woman of the Year. Fortunately there are many other candidates I can think of in Plymouth, Livonia, and Redford.

Reader Speaks Up

EDITOR:

We should like to express our appreciation to the members of our community — your readers — for the very finest evidences of Christmas generosity and good will toward our hospital during the season just past. The fine response to our requests for gifts for our "forgotten" patients; the generous replies to the Michigan Association For Emotionally Disturbed Children's desire for trading stamps which is making the impossible — 1,918 trading stamp books for a new bus for our Children's Service; the volunteers who participated in Christmas parties on our wards and in the dispatching of incoming presents to our patients — these are but a few of the evidences of thoughtfulness that come to my mind.

It is these kindnesses, noted by us not only during the December weeks, but throughout the year, which prompt the members of my staff to join me in saying "Thank You," and in wishing each of your readers a good New Year!

Sincerely yours,

Plymouth Bows in Low-Scoring Duel

3-Point Quarter! But Bentley Wins

Yep, it did happen! Livonia Bentley high school's basketball team scored only three points in the final quarter, but managed to hang on and beat Plymouth, 30-25.

"I never saw a game like this one," commented Coach Bob Bentley of Bentley when it was all over.

"Ditto," said Charlie Ketterer, the Plymouth coach.

In a day when the ball swishes through the hoops at better than a two-point-a-minute clip for most teams—Detroit Northwestern high scored some 113 points last Friday—Bentley and Plymouth struggled through an evening in which it appeared the baskets were covered up.

Bentley managed only 13 baskets, while Plymouth could find the range only eight times from the floor. At the foul line, it was Plymouth by a 9-4 margin.

"Neither team seemingly could hit that basket," Coach Bentley added. "Why in the first half, Plymouth threw up 31 shots and made only four."

Bentley had control all the way, leading 12-6 at the end of the first quarter, 21-13, at halftime and 27-18 going into the final stanza.

What happened that Bentley made only three points in the closing eight minutes? "We had to play control ball," declared Bentley. "We lost Vern Bergman, our top rebounder, on fouls in the third period. With Vern out of there we knew we didn't have much of a chance to get the ball off our offensive board and we faced problems, too, on defensive problems."

"So we chose to hold on to the ball as much as possible and run out the clock.

We settled for one basket and one free throw and still managed to win by five points.

"I doubt if we could ever win another one like it."

Greg Maps paced the Bentley attack with six baskets and two free throws for 14 points. Lannie Carrier and ities for 13 points. Dan Stremnick with two hoops and one foul for five points Bergman each had three baskets and one charity for seven points.

For Plymouth Eloy Menchaca showed the way with five baskets and three charand Don McMullen with 1-1-3 accounted for the rest of the Bentley baskets.

The victory was Bentley's second in three Suburban Six League starts and put them in a tie for second place just a game behind unbeaten Redford Union.

Plymouth's reserves gained some salvation for their school by ending Bentley's four-game winning streak, 31-29. Kisa beth with 13 points and McIntyre with 10 topped the winners.

Bentley played minus Bill Bollin, its star forward who was on the bench with a stomach ailment.

RU Cagers Now Sitting on Top of The World

So far, all's wonderful for Redford Union High School's basketball team.

It's taken the RU cagers just three conference games to gain undisputed possession of first place in the Suburban Six League.

A 53-41 romp over Belleville last Friday night shot RU into the command position with no company.

And what about the future? RU Coach Dick Nycum refuses to predict a bed of roses.

"This isn't an easy league in basketball," Nycum said after last Friday's romp. "Next Friday it's down to Allen Park. They're tough. And we still have two games with Plymouth and a return trip to Bentley, among others."

"But, I do think we have the stuff which can keep us up there, although we can't expect to keep on winning the way we played against Belleville."

Could a team win by 12 points and still be off?

"Definitely," said Nycum. "We were sluggish all night. Fortunately, Belleville had the same post-holiday troubles we did."

There were some bright spots in the RU effort, Nycum admitted. The rebounders, led by Ken LaPla, enabled RU to enjoy control of the boards. That always helps.

Then, there was the team shooting average of 36 percent — not bad for high schoolers.

And, there was the realization that RU downed a major threat while playing without standout forward Curt Johnson, who may have to miss at least one more game with an injury.

"Curt's return will help tremendously," Nycum added.

Redford Union never trailed, taking a 10-6 first-quarter edge against Belleville. The margin was expanded to 21-15 at halftime and to 41-31 at three-quarters.

LaPla again led the scorers, collecting 17 points. Keith Zollweg followed with 15, while Tom DeWitt scored 12.

Mike Griffin, Larry Braithwaite, Chuck Shelton and John Cross, each made two points, while Jim Spayd accounted for RU's other point. Frank Nauley paced Belleville with 17 points.

The RU cagers also enjoyed a breeze session, blasting Belleville by a 53-22 score. Everybody on the RU squad played and most everybody scored.

Bill Maibach led the pack with 10 points. Bill Driscoll followed with eight.

Franklin Rolls Wins To Two Victory

Livonia Franklin high's basketball team remained unbeaten by whipping Monroe Jefferson, 36-22, and Southfield, 54-14, in weekend action.

Bob Varty bagged 22 points and 20 rebounds against Monroe and 20 points and 23 rebounds against Southfield. Larry Duffield had 22 against Southfield and 13 against Monroe.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

Quite the swimmer — meaning Sophomore Ken Wiebeck of Thurston High School.

If you don't think so, take a gander at the weekly ratings of state prep swimmers which appear every Friday in The Detroit News.

Young Mr. Wiebeck, according to the latest rankings, topped three categories and helped Thurston's 200-yard medley relay team to a second place standing.

This, mind you, is not for just the suburbs or Metropolitan Detroit. It's for the entire state of Michigan.

Consider Wiebeck's feats. He's covered the 100-yard breast stroke distance in 57.4 seconds, which is 3.2 seconds faster than the No. 2 prep in this category. The time also is 1.1 seconds under the state Class A record.

In the 100-yard free style, Wiebeck has been clocked in 50.6 seconds, two-tenths over the state standard and a half-second faster than his nearest rival.

Then there's the individual medley, another 200-yard event. Wiebeck has raced the distance in 2:12.7, just a half-second over the state record and almost five seconds better than the second man in the individual ratings.

"Ken's a wonderful competitor," says Joe Mrcna, the Thurston swimming coach. "For a kid to do so well so early in the season is exceptional. And, just think, he's only a sophomore. Wonder what he'll do as a senior!"

It would appear Kenny could emerge as the foremost swimmer the area ever has produced. Time, of course, will tell.

The Mid-Wayne League of which Thurston is a member expands to eight schools this fall with the additions of Inkster and Lutheran West.

This will mean schools will tackle seven conference rivals in football. It won't leave more than two chances to book non-league rivals.

It could mean the end of the Redford Township classics between Redford Union and Thurston in such sports as football and basketball. One hopes the schools can continue to get together—in all sports.

How are your eyes after all the television bowl games? Doesn't it strike you, too, that the bowl business is getting out of hand? As long as there is television to toss in fees of from $75,000 to $100,000, the bowl craze will continue to grow . . . just like the twist.

And, who says, the twist is a dance?

Put this one down in your little black book. When Dave DeBusschere winds up his collegiate career at the University of Detroit he'll sign professional contracts to play both baseball and basketball.

He won't sign with any team in either sport which demands he restrict his efforts to the one activity.

Livonia Bentley will host both district and regional basketball tournaments in March . . . a tribute to Athletic Director Les Anders and his staff for the way they've handled state tourney games in other years!

Rocks Conquer Bentley In Swimming Duel

It was a honey of a swimming meet Plymouth and Livonia Bentley staged before the Rocks emerged with a 55-46 victory — their fourth win in five meets this season.

The triumph also gave the Rocks a 3-0 standing along with Trenton in the Suburban Six League race and it means that something must give this Thursday when the two schools clash in a showdown in the Trenton tank.

While the Rocks soared on in conference action, the defeat ended Livonia Bentley's unbeaten pace in the loop. Bentley had won its first two league attractions.

Gary Gould again was the big splasher for Plymouth. He scored a double by winning the 50-yard dash in the excellent time of 23.8 seconds and then coming back to win the 100 free in 53.6.

Gould's effort in the 50-yard sprint gives him the No. 5 slot in the state ratings, six tenths behind Darryl Kifer of Wayne, who has produced the best clocking for the "shorty" race so far this season.

Dick Michaels in the Back stroke, Phil Bender in the breast stroke, Dick Michaels in the 200-yard free and Mark Schultheiss also scored individual victories for Plymouth.

Winners for Bentley were Dick Osborn (400-yard free), Russ Walker (butterfly) and Ron Klassen (200-yard individual). The schools broke even in the relay races.

The complete results:

400-yard free style: 1—Osborn (B), 2—Klassen (B), 3—Dick Alford (P) Time - - 4:36.5.

50-yard Free style: 1—Gould (P), 2—Jim Winebrenner (B), 3—Ken Fischer (P). Time — 23.8 seconds.

100 - yard Butterfly: 1—Walker (B), 2—Dick Taylor (P), 3—Jim Shaw (B). Time — 1:03.7.

100-yard Breast stroke: 1—Michaels (P), 2—Dick Vots (B), 3—Tom Hoffman (P). Time — 57.8 seconds.

100-yard Breaststroke: 1—

Plan For Paying Teachers On 'Merit' Offered

Questions of whether or not Livonia school teachers should be paid on a "merit" basis entered its first stages of discussion before the board of Education Tuesday.

Given the title of "career teaching program," guiding principles for the merit system were presented to the board by a committee of administrators and teachers. The program would provide "additional pay for additional experience and training" by teachers be given while still maintaining a regular "sound salary structure."

(Merit pay systems usually provide higher pay for instructors who have been determined to be "above average" or "superior.")

into difficulty — usually because teachers say it is difficult to find an objective rating system to judge between "good" and "better" teachers.)

The principles state that the major purpose of a career teacher program should be to improve instruction. "Such improvement would come about through the ability to attract and hold the most able teachers by offering the possibility of salaries comparable to other professional careers," the report says. It also emphasizes the importance of an acceptable class size, teaching equipment and clerical assistance in maintaining quality instruction.

The committee proposes that career teachers have the opportunity of earning salaries which provide a standard of living comparable to other professions requiring similar talent and training.

"Thorough study and acceptance before it should be adopted," the committee said. "Drafting of the career teacher program should be a cooperative effort of teachers and administrators, supported

Ex-Mayor Gets Bank Promotion

A former Plymouth mayor has been elevated to the post of executive vice-president of the Fort Wayne, Indiana, National Bank.

Russell M. Daane, who served as mayor of the community from 1952 to 1957, received the promotion, according to an announcement of the bank. He joined the institution in May, 1958, as vice president in the commercial loan department. He was later named senior vice president and elected to the bank's board.

For four years, Daane served as a state bank examiner for the Michigan State Banking Dept. and he also was executive vice president of the Plymouth United Savings Bank.

Among Daane's community activities include 26 years perfect attendance at Rotary Club, director and treasurer of the Chamber of Commerce, director and vice president of the Fort Wayne Fine Arts Council, a board member of that community's Philharmonic Orchestra and chairman of the United Community Chest Drive.

DeMolay Honors Ronald Hubbs

Ron Hubbs of Plymouth, the State Master Councilor of the Order of DeMolay will be honored at a dinner and reception followed by a dance in the Plymouth Masonic Temple on Saturday evening, January 13, following an afternoon meeting of the State DeMolay Board. Richard Huebler, formerly of Plymouth and also a former State Master Councilor will act as toastmaster.

A large delegation of the State Officers will be in attendance, together with the Executive Officer and member of the Supreme Council of DeMolay for Michigan, Mr. Harold F. Koch of Dearborn; Mr. Richard A. Brand, the State Deputy for Michigan DeMolay for the Grand Lodge of Michigan Masons; and representative groups from the state organizations of the Grand Lodge of Masons of Michigan; the Order of Rainbow for Girls and Job's Daughters.

Plymouth Chapter, Order of DeMolay is sponsored by Plymouth Rock Lodge #47 F. & A.M. and Plymouth High Twelve Club; is now in its twelfth year, the present Master Councilor is Tom Hoffman. For reservation information call William Ellis, Jr., GA 1-6940.

by the citizens of the community. Teachers should be involved in every step in its development.

"To insure that the program is fair to all, procedures for evaluation must be as objective, valid and reliable as possible," the principals stated. "Well-defined standards of evaluation must be understood and agreed to by all concerned. This evaluation should be based on information collected by more than one individual and in many instances."

"If observers are used, they should be trained for the highest degree of reliability and objectivity," the report continues.

The committee emphasized that the number of teachers to be approved as career teachers should not be limited to a certain quota. Teachers may nominate themselves for the program or be nominated by another staff member.

All data submitted by observers or by the teacher review board, to be composed should be studied by a re- of teachers and administrators. An appeal board should provide opportunity for decisions of the review board to be appealed.

Livonia Superintendent of Schools Benton Yates said that the committee hoped that the remuneration for future career teachers would be a substantial amount. Safeguards should be established to provide for a continuous program from one year to the next.

Finally, the report called for periodic evaluation of any career teacher program by those concerned and provision for rejection of the program if "it does not appear to justify its purposes" after a trial period.

Teacher members of the committee are Pat Basile, of Franklin High School; Dick Kremkow, Bentley High School; Mary Davis, Pierson School; Bernard Grenda, Hayes School; Arthur Anderson, Whitman Junior High School; and Marvin Liberson, elementary physical education resource teacher.

Building Fund Campaign Starts For Livonia's First Synagogue

Goal of $150,000 Births Is Anticipated

Jerome L. Friedman, President of the Livonia Jewish Congregation announced plans for the construction of a new synagogue. With a goal of $150,000, the Livonia Jewish Congregation starts its building campaign to erect a new structure on Seven Mile Road, just west of Osmus.

Planned as a modern edifice, the synagogue will be able to use the building for worship, education and social events. The building will have a main auditorium, six classrooms, a Rabbi's Study, kitchen and general office space. Emphasizing a glass dome, the main auditorium will be lighted by a hexagonal-shaped roof, which will follow the pattern of the face brick buildings, parking for a large number of cars is also planned. The firm of Joseph and Orbach Associates of Plymouth were hired to design the new building.

Chairman of the building fund campaign is Jack A. Horwitz a vice-president of the congregation. He will be assisted by a large committee, including co-chairmen Asher Smith, Stanley Finkelstein, Dave Foster, Sam Firestone, Jacob Ber-

The $150,000 edifice will look like this when completed. Livonia's first synagogue will be located on Seven Mile Road, just west of Osmus.

Leadership Training Institute at St. Alphonsus Parish, Dearborn, on Sunday, Jan. 21, from 2 until 7:30 P.M. The three cooperating deaneries are Wayne West Central (which covers most of this area), Wayne Central and Wayne Southern.

The coming Institute is one of five regional institutes held in the Archdiocese of Detroit since last Fall. It is open to all Council women in the three deaneries and to their friends. There is no registration fee and a special attraction of the day will be a spaghetti supper for all those in attendance. The supper, for which there is no charge, will bring to a close a day devoted to talks by Archdiocesan officers and chairmen and workshops in which audience and participants will seek to find some solutions to mutual problems. The aim of the Institute is to give the average council member a better understanding of the work of the Council and the reasons for its existence. The formal of the Institute is based on a National Institute held at Marygrove College last August.

Reservations are requested and may be made through the parish chairman or by contacting Mrs. Max Ramboff at TI 6-3009. Mrs. Charles Kleinbrook, 8201 Hazelton, Dearborn, president of

During the three or four weeks before Christmas, employees of the Plymouth-Cranston Office, National Bank of Detroit, planned purchases for patients at Northville State Hospital, 41001 Seven Mile Road, Northville. Miss Pat Slavin, a bookkeeper of the Branch, who resides at 9147 Seminole, Redford Township, suggested such a plan for the Branch employees, in the place of an exchange of gifts among them. "The idea appealed to many of us," commented Mr. Robert Kenyon, 11697 Brownell, Plymouth, Branch Manager, "and we learned there was a real need for these gifts for forgotten patients at Northville State Hospital. Our employees, day by day, brought in beautifully wrapped gifts until we had sixty of them to send on their way to the hospital. We know we made a brighter Christmas possible for those who received them." (L.R.) Mr. Robert Kenyon, 11697 Brownell, Plymouth, Branch Manager; Miss Pat Slavin, 9147 Seminole, Redford Township bookkeeper; and Miss Bev Spencer, 39100 Six Mile, Livonia, bookkeeper.

Lutheran Church To Expand In Livonia

The Timothy Lutheran Church, 8820 Wayne Road, Livonia dedicatory ground breaking ceremonies for the expansion of a Livonia church will bring a number of visiting clergymen Sunday.

The ground breaking ceremonies are for an $120,000 expansion program. Included in this expansion will be a two-level structure that will add 7,886 square feet of floor space.

The ground breaking and special service are scheduled for 3 p. m., according to Rev. Glenn Wegmeyer, Timothy's pastor.

Here to participate in the special service will be Rev. E. H. Schalhauser, a director of evangelism in The American Lutheran Church, and formerly assistant to the president of the Michigan District. Rev. Schalhauser works out of the national headquarters in Minneapolis, Minn.

He will be joined by Dr. C. Umhau Wolf, pastor of St. Paul Lutheran church, Toledo, Ohio, the mother church of the former Livonia mission; Rev. Robert Brown, Wayne, Mich., whose church, Prince of Peace, is the nearest TALC neighbor, and Rev. Robert Wietelman, assistant to the Michigan district president of the TALC.

The brief history—the first service was March 6, 1957—and rapid growth of Timothy Lutheran Church is a story that is being repeated in suburban communities throughout the country.

The present church building was dedicated in November of 1957 with 93 charter members and Rev. Glenn Wegmeyer, a Capital University (Columbus, Ohio) graduate and former Alpena, Mich., resident, as the pastor.

Today Timothy lists 333 confirmed members and 649 baptized members with three Sunday morning worship services and two church school services.

The expansion program will provide greatly expanded facilities for all phases of the church program, according to Clifford D. Merriott, chairman of the building committee. Others on the building committee are Ralph Dreisbach, Edward Weber, James Wilked, John Miller and Paul Lidridge.

Zermack and Daniels of Ann Arbor are the architects for the $120,000 expansion.

Winter Activities Begin For Children, Teens, Adults at "Y"

Northwest Branch YWCA winter activities for children, teenagers and adults will begin Sat. Jan. 13 at the Branch building, 25940 Grand River, and at Cody High School, 18845 Cathedral. A complete program of Swimming Instruction, including classes for Beginners I and II, Intermediate, and Life Saving, plus a Mother-Tot class and a class for Adult Women, will be scheduled during the morning hours at Cody. Boys and girls, 6 years and up, may enroll also in Gymnastics and Tumbling, Hobbycraft, Bowling and Games, Tennis, Dramatics, Painting, Knitting and Creative Dance. The classes which begin at 8:45 a. m. will run for a ten week term. At the Branch building Sub-Teen Capers Program for Girls 7 thru 12 will include Ballet and Tap Dancing, Fencing, Art (painting, drawing & sketching) and French. Skilled instructors will teach each of these subjects. In the afternoon teenage girls may enroll in Charm and Modeling, and Sewing. Social Dancing will be offered to boys and girls of Junior and Senior High age. Mr. Don May, well-known dance instructor, will give a basic course in all of the latest dance steps from 3:00-4:00 p. m. each Sat. afternoon. Pre-registration is urged for all of these activities.

The Branch is scheduling special activities on Tuesday evenings this winter for both men and women. Social Dancing for beginners and intermediates will be taught by Mr. May, and Mrs. Helen Stewart will teach Oil Painting. Mrs. Emily Murphy will conduct a Charm class on Tuesday evenings for young career girls and homemakers; Mrs. Florence Bragg will teach sewing; and an experienced Yoga teacher will give instruction in this art.

Other evening activities include Contract and Duplicate Bridge on Monday evenings, and a Special Advanced Dancing class on Thursday evenings. The Star-Liters, a social group for single adults, meets each Friday evening.

There are a few openings in the Ladies Day Out programs on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursdays, which include nursery care for children 3-5 years of age. Many classes are limited so early registration is urged. Ladies Day Out activities will begin Jan. 16th. Call KE 7-8500 for further information on any of the above programs.

Five members of the Provisional League of Women Voters of Livonia attended a League state workshop on the Legislative Aspects of State Government and Building Active League Memberships, in Lansing, Jan. 10. A visit to a Con-Con plenary session at Convention Hall in the afternoon followed the joint workshop sponsored by the League of Women Voters of Michigan, 10:00 a.m. to 2:30 p.m. at the YWCA Building, 217 Townsend Street.

Attending from the Livonia League were Mrs. John Goldstick, Mrs. Charles Geiser, Mrs. John Laue, Mrs. Bruce Woodbury and Mrs. Lottie Phillips.

To date League of Women Voters representatives have presented eleven testimonials on various aspects of state government before Con-Con committees as well as maintaining an active daily observer program of Con-Con activities.

3rd Victory For Matmen

Thurston high school's wrestling team came up with victory No. 3 in four meets last Thursday by turning back Livonia Bentley with little trouble. The score was 39-10.

Jerry Scane and Doug Schyck scored falls for Thurston in the 138 and 165-pound divisions, respectively.

Other victories for Thurston were turned in by Bob Bedard (95 pounds), Tom Craig (103), Jack Provencal (112), Mike Mitchell (120), Jack Pilarski (133), Norm Martin (145) and Bob Stockton (180).

Heavyweight Bob Cameron of Bentley gained a victory by beating Jerry Wiebeck while Davis of Bentley, a 127-pounder, downed Jim Martin. Thurston's Jim Urek wrestled Bentley's Vaughn to a draw.

St. Agatha Drops 3rd. Of Season

There's still little to cheer about — basketball speaking — at St. Agatha High School in Redford Township.

Coach Dave Brazil's team shows the lack of experienced personnel in game after game. As a result, the team's record now stands at one win in four starts with Ypsilanti St. John the latest to down St. Agatha, applying the damage last Friday night.

The score was 47-35 and St. John never had much difficulty. At halftime the count was 28-18.

Bob Dorchy paced the losers with 10 points. Jim Harrington clicked for nine while Don Jetke and Bob Davis each had six. Doug Graeber dropped in three.

The St. Agatha reserves, however, had themselves a merry night in scalping St. John, 21-11. It was the reserves' second win against as many losses.

Mike Romer was the leading scorer for the winners with 10 points. Mike Steen was next with four. Phil Davidson, Rick Collins and Bob Hughes each picked up two points while Don Lilly had one.

R.U. Bested Once More In League

One of these days Redford Union High School's swimming team will come up with a victory.

It could come Thursday when RU hosts Allen Park. So far, RU has its troubles under Coach Ralph Deetz. The Townshippers are still to win.

Latest loss came against Belleville last Thursday by a 56-49 score. But there was one bright ray of sunshine — Bill Truesdell took his first crack at swimming the 100-yard butterfly and won.

Truesdell, a senior, continues his unbeaten ways in the breast stroke. He was timed in 1:08 as he scored his seventh straight success. Bob Haltom accounted for two victories when he won both the 400 yard and 200-yard free style events.

The RU free style relay also came home a winner as Bob Kerr, Laird Kelly, Eugene Templein and Jack winning performance in 1:49.

Ken Bracker of RU was second in both the 50 and 100-yard free style races. Dan Shoemaker was second in the butterfly as was Dean Schechter in the backstroke. The RU medley relay also was second.
