Plymouth area Democrats heard Governor John B. Swainson call for aid this week in "meeting the tremendous challenges of the 1960's."

City and Township Democratic Party supporters joined 700 others from the 17th Congressional District to pay tribute to Swainson, a Plymouth resident, and Congresswoman Martha W. Griffiths at a dinner in northwest Detroit Saturday.

In his first public address following industrialist George Romney's announcement that he would enter the race for governor, Swainson made no comment on the impending contest. But he vigorously defended his administration in Lansing.

Mrs. Griffiths, on the other hand, told Swainson that, "when you beat this guy, you're going to be the most welcome man in Washington."

The veteran Congresswoman, who recently received an appointment to the House Ways and Means Committee, gave a rundown on current issues before Congress and predicted that medical care for social security recipients had a good chance of passing this year.

But her most far-reaching comments for this area were directed at proposals to tie the U.S. to the European Common Market.

"We have almost the greatest foreign trade of any state of the Union here in Michigan," she said. "We're one of the largest traders abroad. Before the walls of European trade harden against us, we have to move into it, or we'll see capital move from here to Europe and our people put out of work."

Sticking to state issues in his talk, Swainson said, "We're now going into the 14th year of Democratic administration in Michigan and there has not been one scandal or any corruption. We've had clean government."

The Governor said citizens must be willing to "support" and to "raise the revenue" for education and welfare programs. "We have 50,000 more children in school this year over last June," he said. "We will have to bear the burden of providing education for them. There is no such thing as a free lunch."

Among Plymouth area residents attending the dinner were Robert Dwyer, City chairman of the party; Mrs. Dorothy Frank, member of the state central committee; Lon Dickerson; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Tungate; Mr. and Mrs. T. Foley, Jack and Jean Scott; and Edward Draugelis.

Saturday's gathering, for which Democrats paid $15 a couple, was described as the largest 17th District turnout of party supporters in five years.

Only reference in his speech to Romney's announcement was when Swainson held up a newspaper and said, "A great announcement was made today." But he referred, instead of to Romney's declaration, as the audience expected, to the announcement that U.S. spy Francis Gary Powers had been released by the Soviet Union. "It's an announcement that makes me very proud," he said. "One man, Mr. Powers, took so much, principally because of the previous administration. Now, 13 months after taking office, Democratic President John Kennedy has secured his release."

College Seeks Administrators

Members of the Northwest Wayne County Community College are looking for two administrative assistants and an architect to help plan the college buildings if voters approve a millage proposal this spring.

And the task of assembling a 20,000 volume library collection for the college is also planned to begin soon, when the Board hires a librarian.

"Until the people vote millage for the college," the Board announced this week, "the Board of Trustees cannot contract for an architect."

"This will present some problems if the planning is to go ahead on schedule. The Board hopes to be able to select an architect at once, though they cannot hire him. It is hoped that the architect will be thinking about the new college so that when he is hired he can start fast."

Members of the Board said they had gone over credentials of a "large number" of architectural firms and now has 15 firms under consideration. Each of the firms will be interviewed by the entire Board over the next few weeks. "It is hoped," Board members said, "that out of this number one will prove to be most desirable and a tentative appointment can be made by the middle of March."

"College buildings are highly specialized. Realizing this, the Board has authorized the President to begin a search for two administrative assistants. It is hoped these people will arrive as soon as is legally possible," Board members continued. "Working with the architect, one in technical, the other in academic areas, they will develop sets of 'educational specifications' for the buildings.

"These specifications are detailed descriptions of what goes on in each department and classroom, and lists the necessary equipment. They are needed before the architect can visualize the new structure. The best college buildings have been built when the architect has been told precisely what facilities each curriculum needs. The administrative assistants will be available to make these plans and to work with the architect in seeing them developed."

Police Nab Factory Thief

A Plymouth resident was arraigned on a charge of breaking and entering this week after Police charged him with stealing more than $500 worth of tools from a city factory.

Placed under arrest was James Findley, 5830 Godfredson Rd. He waived examination and was bound over to Wayne County Circuit Court.

Police connected Findley with the burglary of Transport Control Inc., 498 Farmer St. Friday night at 1:20 a.m.

Stolen from the small plant were wrenches, drills and other miscellaneous tools valued at $528. Police recovered all of the loot.

Wilma Kelm, B.P.W. Officer, Dies at 63

Wilma Anna Kelm, corresponding secretary for the Plymouth Business and Professional Women's Club, passed away Saturday night after an illness of several months.

Confined to St. Mary Hospital at the time of her death, Mrs. Kelm was 63 years old. She lived at 676 Fairground St. and came to Plymouth in 1958 from Detroit. She was a dial appraiser for Western Electric Co. and was a member of Emmaus Ev. Lutheran Church of Detroit. Mrs. Kelm's birthplace was Pittsburgh, Pa.

Surviving are three sons, Ernest of Livonia; William of Haines, Alaska; and Jack of Milford. Seven grandchildren also are left.

Funeral services were scheduled for Wednesday afternoon at Schrader Funeral Home with Rev. Carl E. Nietzsche officiating. Interment will be in Glen Eden Cemetery.

Rusty Water; Break Fixed

Complaints of rusty water from a number of Plymouth area residents led Department of Public Works employees to a 12-inch broken water main at the corner of S. Harvey and Penniman.

The main was broken about a week ago, according to DPW Superintendent Joseph Bida, and was running into the storm sewer.

Because of three feet of frost it took three days to locate the leak. Bida said. The main was repaired Friday night at 10 p.m.

The four-inch snowstorm that hit Plymouth over the weekend was combated with 57 tons of salt. Bida reported, and DPW crews were busy all day Monday plowing all residential streets.

'Richest Man' Next As Theatre Offering

Playwright Dalton Trumbo's light spoof on small-town undertakers, "The Biggest Thief in Town," is currently in rehearsal by the Plymouth Theatre Guild.

The comedy production is scheduled to open a three-day run in Plymouth High School's auditorium on Thursday, March 1, and reserved seat tickets are now on sale.

Directed by Bob Lucchitelli, the play is described as a "light spoof of the undertaking profession, concerning a small town undertaker and the local doctor who try to get the funeral of the richest man in the country, who lives in town."

Barbara Elliot is producer of the play, and the cast includes Joe Dalesandry, Racena Bailey, Bill Mandt, Dave Dahline, Ivan Griswold, Hal Young, Patricia Dorrain, Merl Helft, and Matt Fortney.

Reserved seat tickets, priced at $1.50 for adults and 75 cents for students, are available from Guild members or at the Melody House on Penniman Ave. This is the second production of the season for the Guild and this is the first season in which seats are being sold on a reserved basis. Mrs. Conklin will talk on "Con-Con Happenings."

Looking Around Plymouth

Scenes of Plymouth and surrounding areas will be exhibited in paintings by Stanley Hench, a local art resource teacher, at the Hartley-Powers Gallery, 116 Main St., Northville. A self portrait in oil which won first prize for portrait work at the Indiana Artists Exhibition will also be exhibited.

Adult residents of Plymouth considered the question of facelifting Kellogg Park in downtown Plymouth at a cost of $143,000 this week. Today's column is the second of two concerned with the plan to seek donations from local business, individuals and organizations for the giant project.

"What Do You Think of the Plans for a Kellogg Park Facelifting?"

Replied Doug Neelands, 651 Arthur: "It's always nice when they beautify the city. If the cost isn't too great to the taxpayers, it will be a fine idea."

"I think it should have a change," said Byrdie Alexander, 697 N. Alexander. "The setting of the park is very nice. It would be something for the city residents to look at."

Janet Schmittling, 264 Ann, said, "It would be nice. Everything else is changing. We should change this."

"It would certainly be a beauty spot," said Clarence Pankow, 299 Irving. "It would enhance our city. Many people have spoken about Plymouth as a nice town and this would enhance it even more."

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

Everyplace a taxpayer travels these days, around these part anyway, he hears about rising school needs. Then, simultaneously, he hears that teachers are asking for better salaries.

The first temptation, naturally, is to get sore at somebody and threaten revolt. Later comes a period of "reasonable" analysis and an examination of individual conscience and a weighing of one's responsibility in a community, and to "the kids," even if one no longer has "kids" of his own.

A little later there usually is a slippage period where John Q. Taxpayer is annoyed again by "spokesmen for teachers" threatening that "this is a seller's market and if you don't grant our requests, all the good teachers will leave and your children will be left at the mercy of dullards for their early training."

Then this too passes, and there is an election.

Facts and Opinions would like to suggest that there is too much emotion given to the subject these days, and that possibly cool consideration by all parties might provide one or two brand new approaches.

For one thing, we are not proud of the panic which seems to have beset school boards about whether they are going to be able to "attract" the slips of young misses and the bare-faced lads with cheeks of tan the moment they receive their degrees in education from a University.

This gets down formally these days in the "negotiations" as how long should be the "minimum" for those with a B.A. or a M.A.

Good professional people with genuine ability will go where there is opportunity, because professional people are creative, and optimistic, and self-confident. The "starting salary" isn't the thing with them. They want the chance to really prove themselves, and if they thrive then they expect the real rewards.

Who is attracted by the "big minimum?" Those with an over-inflated evaluation of the immediate, in our opinion.

Hence it is that valuable doctors will start for meals only, for a "chance." And young lawyers work for $50 in stamps, in order to attract, and affiliate with, solid firms. And artists, and musicians, and journalists, and whatever—in the creative field. They want the opportunity, not a fawning school board employment agency saying, "please come with us—you'll make $5 more every week, and we want our kids to have the best."

The point is this: teacher bargaining groups would be in much better shape if they said:

"Let's make this the school system where the new teachers come in and take their chances.

"If they've got ability, they'll someday be the best paid teachers in Michigan.

"If not, well, at least they were swimming upstream."

And, Mr. Taxpayer, it won't cost you a dime. And your kids will have been exposed to Life.

The "minimum" subsidies will have been shifted to the "maximum" opportunity.

Which, legend says, is the rule and hope of this land.

Citizens Urged to Visit Health Detection Unit

A combination health screening program aimed at the detection of tuberculosis, diabetes and syphilis in the out-Wayne County area will be launched when a mobile detection unit visits Wonderland Shopping Center, Plymouth and Middlebelt Roads, Livonia on Thursday, Feb. 22, from 1:00 to 7:00 p.m.; Friday, Feb. 23, from 9:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. and 2:00 to 6:00 p.m. and on Monday, Feb. 26, from 2:00 to 8:00 p.m.

Before the program ends on April 20, mobile units will have visited locations in or near most of the communities in out-Wayne County, according to Dr. Joseph G. Molner, County Health Commissioner.

Dr. Molner suggests that everyone 21 years of age and over take advantage of the unit's services as a convenient way of having a check-up which can be of value in the prevention of early detection of possible disease. Chest x-rays, for instance, in addition to discovering tuberculosis frequently detect signs of other chest abnormalities. Early detection of these abnormalities, which may include lung cancer or heart disease, give the patient the best possible chance for recovery, Dr. Molner said.

Certain persons have a tendency to diabetes, according to medical authorities. This tendency can be found on a screening test long before symptoms appear. Then, under a doctor's direction, with proper attention to diet, weight control, exercise and personal hygiene, the onset of diabetes can be postponed or even prevented.

The mobile unit will be in Plymouth at the time and places.

A&P Store, 1050 Ann Arbor Road: Wednesday, March 7, from 2 p.m. to 8 p.m.; Thursday, March 8, from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. and 6 p.m. to 8 p.m.

The screening program is being conducted under the joint sponsorship of the Wayne County Health Department, the Michigan Diabetes Association, and the Tuberculosis and Health Society, in cooperation with the Michigan Department of Health. In Livonia the screening project is assisted by the Livonia Health Guild. Mrs. Robert E. Blanchard is Guild President.

Livonia Builders Receive $700,000 in Permits

Close to three-quarters of a million dollars in new construction was applied for by commercial and residential builders in Livonia during January.

A report from the City's Bureau of Inspection shows that permits for 44 new residential homes valued at $594,000 and four commercial businesses valued at $83,000 were applied for.

Again this month, no fall-out shelters were applied for, but permits for additions and alterations accounted for $23,002 of the total and garages and accessories accounted for $4,800.

The permits, including electric, heating and plumbing inspection fees, brought $10,517 into city coffers during the month.

Howard B. Middlewood, acting chief inspector for the city, released the report.

There's a Con-Con Now in Plymouth

A Constitutional Convention sessions in Lansing is going on right here in Plymouth.

For students at Plymouth High School, less than three months remain before a specially-formed student convention puts the finishing touches on a school constitution and submits it for ratification to pupils.

Student Council Mayor James Kropf, John Campbell, Virginia Fetter, Janet Graham, Art Gulick, Mary Hulsinger, and Julie Vallier thought of the idea for a local Con-Con recently. Their action came after students failed to approve a student constitution submitted to them last spring after preparation by a seven-man Student Council committee.

"Why not have a student con-con to write a new constitution?" the committee asked. Delegates were elected to the session on the basis of one from each homeroom and members of the Student College were named delegates-at-large.

After election of delegates, the local con-con got down to business by naming Harold Fisher as chairman, Jane Vallier as secretary and James Kropf as parliamentarian. The delegates meet once a week while committees studying individual problems meet twice weekly.

Among the issues which the delegates must tackle is qualification rules for members of Student Council. A provision in the earlier constitution requiring C average for general membership and C-plus for officers was blamed as the reason for rejection by students last year. Many thought the qualifications were "too high."

So far, student delegates to the con-con are studying a number of areas, including rules governing Student Council, a bill of rights, school activities and formation of clubs.

Delegates were told by assistant principal Gustav Gorgue that they could rewrite the old constitution, amend it or let it stand after they studied it. By

Plymouth Farmer Tops Record With Cattle

The Holstein-Friesian Association of America has announced a new lactation average for the registered Holstein herd of Angelo Di Ponto, Plymouth, has five completed production records averaging 13,475 pounds of milk and 477 pounds of butterfat.

Lactation averages are calculated on the commonly-employed two-milkings a day, 305 day, mature equivalent basis. This provides a uniform basis for comparison and selection in registered Holstein breeding programs.

Michigan State University supervised the weighing and testing of production as part of the official herd testing programs of the national Holstein organization.

MEET THE FELIX BUGNELL family of 15637 Foch Avenue, Livonia. They will be one of five families honored by the Michigan Marine Dealer Association as an outstanding Michigan boating family. The search for Michigan's first "Boating Family of the Year" was inaugurated this year to launch the Greater Michigan Boat Show at the Detroit Artillery Armory, Feb. 17. The Bugnells have a crew of 12 children, ages 3 to 20. Says Mrs. Bugnell, "The family boat gives the whole family more fun, more togetherness, and at a reasonable cost, than any other activity possibly could." No comment from Mrs. Bugnell, but who could say she would not be aware of the togetherness of 12 children on anything less than the Dodge yacht.

Michigan Boat Show, This Year, A His, Hers, and Family Affair

Five families have been nominated by the Michigan Marine Dealer Association as nominees for the first "Michigan's Boating Family of the Year" title, to be awarded at the Greater Michigan Boat Show, February 17 through 25, at the Detroit Artillery Armory, 15000 West Eight Mile Road, Detroit. They are: Mr. and Mrs. Norbert Laskowsky, 1072 Satterlee Road, Birmingham, and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Pilot, 20228 Packard, Detroit, and four children; Mr. and Mrs. Richard Bullock, 13672 Vernon, Oak Park, and three children; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Kellstrom, 4141 Audubon Avenue, Detroit. Teenagers Bobby, 15, and daughter, Terry, 13, are safety-trained water sports enthusiasts. Mr. and Mrs. Felix Bugnell, 15637 Foch Avenue, Livonia. The Bugnells have 12 children, ages ranging from 3 to 20. Their crew consists of Diane, 20; Olivia, 18; Valerie, 16; David, 14; Elizabeth, Mary-Ann, and Joseph, 12; Michael, 11; Bernard, 8; Theresa, 5; and Christine and Colleen, 3.

The exciting dilemma of choosing Michigan's Boating Family of the Year falls upon three judges. They are: Mrs. Fred Rypsam, 5796 Yorkshire, Detroit; Commander Carl M. Brendel, Detroit Power Squadron; and, Lt. Ralph N. Penacchini, U. S. Coast Guard, Detroit Base. Judges will meet the families at the Detroit Press Club Thursday afternoon, Jan. 25.

The five families are nominees of individual Michigan Marine Dealer Association members: Ken Rase Boats and Motors, Birmingham; Mac's Sport and Marine, 20411 Van Dyke, Detroit; the Northwest Insurance Agency, 18527 W. Eight Mile Road, Detroit; the Michigan Bank; and Marvin Marine, 25838 Five Mile Road, Redford Township.

Actually women are marvelous converts to "boat living". The complete relaxing, privacy, no telephone, no forgotten bridge dates, etc., are a welcome relief to the harried homemaker.

In keeping with the His, Hers, and Family activity, on Feb. 22 at 3:30 and 8:30 there will be a Fashion show with all kinds of interesting sports clothes featured. This will be the highlight of Ladies Day, Feb. 22.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

It may be tough to be a candidate for public office, but the real badge of valor, in my opinion, should go to the candidate's wife. Particularly in a hot election such as Livonia is experiencing.

It seems men in politics can be fist-waving and bitter enemies on Tuesday, but when the smoke clears, new alliances are formed, and bad guys become buddies, and etc. Very hard on a wife.

Once she has witnessed another person calling her husband a bum, cheat, liar and so many of the unneccessary adjectives used in politics, he's had it.

I talked with the wives of the four Mayoralty candidates and they back up what I say.

Gisella Brashear and Lillian McCann are the veterans of the four. This is Mrs. Brashear's sixth year campaigning as Mayor's wife. A naturally shy person, she has learned over the years to enjoy meeting strangers although she admits even today she does not enjoy "speaking on her feet." She does like to accompany her husband, no matter how many meetings she goes to. She is sure no matter how many meetings she attends she will always be sensitive where it concerns criticism of her "Bill." She has been a gracious "first lady" of Livonia and deserves being well liked and admired.

Lillian McCann admitted she went into the campaign thinking perhaps the time away from home, Jim would be spending, would be harder on their four children than the satisfaction of doing the job. However, having been at several meetings her apathy toward the task has vanished and she wants to be "in the thick of the battle." She said she liked all of the wives and shared a sympathetic feeling for them. She has engaged the activities expected of a wife in politics, Jim having served on the Council.

Bette Moelke is used to talking with strangers, since she frequently helps Harvey in his law office. She has never been close to any form of campaigning before. With five children, most of her activities are confined to her home. The hectic pace of two and three meetings each evening and phone calls by the dozen has been exciting but has changed the serenity of the home. She has given her husband moral support from the first to tackle the job, and isn't sorry.

Marilyn McCarthy perhaps received the biggest shock about the ways of the campaigner. She has the youngest family, of three, and this is the first venture for her husband in any civic activity. In the throes of developing a new business in Livonia, their time has been spent on this and their home. She has heard her husband's "sneal" just once, and was more anxious then he. She does not feel shy with strangers, having been a dental assistant, but she is sure she could never speak on her feet herself.

Since "home" is the one place the Candidate can unwind, relieve frustrations, and let off steam, any wife can realize, if she thinks about it for a minute, the wife is the moral bulwark with the really tough role in the big picture.

Two veteran campaigners I will always remember expressing themselves along this line is Alice Swainson from Plymouth and Alice Beadle from Redford, both favorites without personal enemies and well-liked by Republicans, Democrats and just people.

Alice Swainson said she makes no other dates during a campaign and completely stops her own personal activities. An accomplished musician, in the beginning of her husband's meteoric ascent to Governor, she would have preferred a quieter life, but now she gets into the thick of things and is an accomplished and intelligent debater, in John's favor of course.

Alice Beadle rarely gets into a political discussion. She is friendly and self-possessed, and never, as far as I know, riled by a heckler or critic of Harveys.

She says during a campaign she gears her family and household to assume whatever task is assigned to her—"it's a matter of having faith in your candidate, your party and your friends, and its always worker for me." It must be true because Harvey has never lost an election and as a State Representative for our three districts has been doing an effective job. Just ask Alice.

Reign of Bentley On Court is Over

The mastery that Coach Bob Bentley has enjoyed with his Livonia Bentley High School basketball team over the rest of the Suburban Six League has ended.

In each of his four previous years as Bentley's coach, Bentley had turned out either an undisputed or co-champion.

But no flag will fly over Bentley when the curtain drops two weeks hence on the current basketball chase. The school's flickering hopes went out the window last Friday night when Bentley was clubbed by a rallying Plymouth team, 43-33.

It was the sweetest triumph of the season for Plymouth which has been struggling along throughout the winter and has only two wins in eight league games to show.

For one thing, it marked the first time that the Rocks ever had downed a Bentley team coached by Bentley. Nine straight times, Bentley (the coach) had sent out a Bentley team which had measured Plymouth.

What's more, in the victory Plymouth proved it could come from behind—even after not getting a single point in the entire second quarter and winding up the first half on the short end of an 18-9 count.

Once the third period started, it was a different story. Plymouth took charge and rolled on to take Bentley in fairly easy style.

Bentley (the coach) declared Plymouth's rebounding in the second half decided the matter.

"Their kids dominated the boards on both ends. They were getting three and four shots in a row while we tried desperately to get the ball."

Dan Stremmick dumped in 14 of his 17 points in the second half. Dave Gothard and Dick Schryer both had eight points after the intermission to highlight the closing Plymouth surge.

Coach Charles Ketterer of Plymouth naturally was proud of his crew.

"Bentley (the team) always has been proud of its defense," said Ketterer. "We certainly had reason to be happy the way our kids stopped them tonight."

Incidentally, the last time Plymouth won from Bentley in basketball was just before Ketterer stepped out of the coaching ranks. He remained inactive as a mentor until the start of the present cage campaign.

Greg Mapes and Lannie Carrier each had 10 points in the losing cause for Bentley. The Livonians are 4-4 in the league while leading Allen Park has a 7-1 record. Only two conference games remain.

Plymouth's reserves also won, 40-39.

On Saturday night Bentley visited Jackson and was bombed, 61-37. Lannie Carrier had 10 for the losers who faded after the first period. Bentley's reserves bowed, 63-38.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

The subject of "pouring it on"—especially in school-boy sports competition—always has created a sore spot with the operator of this column.

Nothing disgusts us more than to see one prep coach rub matters in on a helpless foe as was the case last week in the case between a couple of teams in the Detroit Parochial League.

You undoubtedly read the story of how all Saints ran up 151 points to set a state record for a single game in Michigan. Its "poor" rival didn't even have five players on the floor during most of the second half because fouls dented into its ranks.

To the credit of Ralph Owen, the bossman of sports in the Parochial League, he slapped the business to the All Saints coach. The mentor was put on a year's probation for violating the ethics prescribed for parochial coaches.

It wasn't so much that All Saints rolled up 151 points, but the way the team maneuvered which irritated Owen and many others connected with schoolboy sports.

Owen, himself a very successful coach before taking over his present duties, knows that you can't stop kids from shooting for the basket.

"Once a coach tells his kids not to shoot, he's not doing his job either," Owen told us. "But in the case of the All Saints' coach, he didn't substitute until after his team had a 75-11 lead."

More than that, All Saints kept up a pressing defense against a bewildered and outmanned opponent. Certainly, this wasn't necessary.

Owen didn't say so, but the All Saints coach might have tried to work on new passing plays, different types of defense or offense in order to help kill the clock. Even then it's doubtful if the All Saints total would have been too much lower, considering the fact the two schools were so outmatched.

But when a coach admits he's gunning for point records . . . well, that's unhealthy . . . and fortunately the head of the Detroit's Catholic League had the "guts" to act.

The All Saints situation recalls an incident which marked a prep football game we covered some 15 years ago in Grand Rapids.

Catholic Central of Detroit had traveled to the Furniture City to meet G. R. Catholic. The latter was engaged in a hot duel with Muskegon for the mythical state Class A championship.

The coach at G. R. Catholic, knowing that Detroit writers were in attendance and also that Muskegon had won earlier that same day, figured he had to make an impression. So he played his first stringers all the way . . . even with five seconds to go and G. R. Catholic leading, 49-0.

When to pull first stringers always has been a touchy subject for coaches. What constitutes a safe lead is a baffling question.

Are three touchdowns sufficient to warrant a coach to substitute his forces in the third period? How about a 20-point lead in basketball in the third quarter?

Under the modern rules, a big lead can go by the boards in a hurry. Very often a coach, who has jerked his regulars thinking his team is home free, has to rush them back in. By now the starters are cold and sometimes unable to check the surging rivals.

The result: Defeat and sharp criticism for the coach. However, when you have a 75-11 halftime lead in basketball and the other side has only four players left, a coach should have more on his mind than more points.

Getting back to the All Saints deluge. A few experts have suggested that maybe the referees should have the authority to suspend action when a game becomes so one-sided. But why put the referees in a rougher spot than they already are?

Others think the league would do well to try and avoid mismatches. We're certain every circuit does, but you'll always have a few situations where one team is vastly superior to another.

The sole solution rests with the good judgment of the coaches. Most of them we've known in our 30 years on the prep circuit know how to act.

When a rotten apple occurs, it's commendable that men like Ralph Owen are on deck to act—and with no waste of time.

STUNNED BY BELLEVILLE

RU Hopes Flickering

Just as at Livonia Bentley High, they're also singing the basketball blues at Redford Union High School this week. But while Bentley's hopes for at least sharing the 1961-62 Suburban Six League crown have gone by the water, RU still has a flickering chance of finishing as a co-king for the second straight year.

Flickering, however, has to be the word.

RU's stock tumbled heavily when the Townshippers were slapped down by Belleville, 68-58, last Friday night. RU thus suffered its third league defeat in eight games and fell two tilts behind pace-setting Allen Park.

This Friday it's RU vs. Allen Park in the RU gym. RU must win and then hope that it can wind up with another victory the following Friday, while Allen Park is beaten, to finish with a piece of the crown.

Belleville, tied with RU for the top, also has to be considered when it comes to multiple champions.

Redford Union doesn't have the staying power as Belleville. After taking a 16-12 lead at the end of the first quarter, RU saw its edge dwindle to 30-29 at the halftime break.

Then Belleville went to work, outscored RU, 19-10, in the third session, and the issue was settled.

Lionel Thorold, working his jump shot effectively, paced the Belleville victory. Charles Cabana added 16 and Frank Nunley 13.

Curt Johnson topped RU with 15 points, while Len LaPla and Tom DeWitt both collected 13 and Larry Braithwaite eight.

The RU reserves made the evening a partial success for the Townshippers with a 48-40 win. Bill Driscoll starred with 17 points, Ben Maibach had 13 and Bob Mates 10.

The weekend also wasn't a failure for Redford Union. The team bounced back on Saturday to run down Walled Lake, 56-48, as LaPla hit for 22 points and Johnson came through with 10 points.

Also-Ran Days At Thurston

From a contender to team battling to stay out of the second division.

That's the story at Thurston High School these days as far as basketball is concerned.

Two weeks ago Thurston figured as a threat for title honors. But now they're 4-4 in the Mid-Wayne loop and in danger of winding up in fourth place.

If Thurston Coach Bill McDonald were one to offer alibis, he certainly could have a good excuse for the 47-34 thumping his team suffered at the hands of front-running Riverview last Friday night.

Thurston took the floor minus No. 1 scorer Cas Jankauskas who has been averaging around 20 points per game. Jankauskas was home sick with the flu.

Even without Jankauskas, Thurston made a run at Riverview, which currently stands 7-1 in the league, for three quarters.

After trailing, 18-15, at the half, Thurston came back to lead by four points during the third period and lag only 28-26 going into the final session.

The closing quarter was all

One Point Start Fails To Stop Clarenceville

In sports, as in everything else, as long as there's life, there's hope.

To look at the score after the first quarter of last Friday night's Clarenceville-West Bloomfield game, few would have figured the Livonians had a chance to win.

The count read: W. Bloomfield 10, Clarenceville 1. That's right, a free throw by Jerry Cilark was all Clarenceville mustered in the first eight minutes.

Things didn't get much better in the early moments of the second stanza. West Bloomfield picked up four more quick points and now led, 14-1.

But in the six minutes which remained in the first half, Clarenceville came to life. With Gary Gearheart spear-heading an assault, Clarenceville took complete charge and reached the intermission with a 22-20 lead.

Riverview, however.

Lloyd Carr tallied 16 points to top the winners. Keith Spicer had 11 for the losers.

The Thurston reserves had no problem winning by a 38-18 tally. Paul Lawson and Tom Elston each fashioned 10 points. Friday's action will find Thurston at Garden City.

Gearheart accounted for 11 points, Lee Corcoran four and Bill Wheeler, Clark and Dave Graves two apiece.

In the second half Clarenceville maintained its mastery. The rebounding of Wheeler and Corcoran sparked while Wheeler also made nine of his 11 points in the final two stanzas.

Ron Ridling, too, played a big part in Clarenceville's closing rush. He caged seven free throws in the closing quarter to ward off any efforts by West Bloomfield to pull even as Clarenceville went on to win, 48-40.

Gearheart led all scorers with 13 points.

The victory was Clarenceville's second in 10 Wayne-Oakland games and left the Livonians tied with Milford for the cellar spot.

Two road games face Clarenceville this week—at Holly Friday and then at Northville Saturday.

Northville, winners of ten without a loss in the league, is within one triumph of salting away the conference crown.

Clarenceville's reserves bowed to West Bloomfield, 57-34.

THROWS IN 61 POINTS

Just Like Wilt

Meet Cliff Solberg, the Wilt Chamberlain of the Brightmore Church Basketball League.

Solberg hit for 61 points, a league record in pacing Southfield Community to a 135-69 rout of Bethel Baptist. The Southfield total also set a loop mark. It was the Southfield team's sixth straight win and tied them for second place with Redford F.M.Y. and Galilean Baptist.

Galilean knocked Redford F.F.Y. out of a possible tie for first place with Van Born Baptist by gaining a 75-40 win as Glenn Reed scored 24 points.

It's Showdown Time In Swim Battle

The "big one" comes up Thursday night for Plymouth High School's swimming team.

The Rocks will entertain Trenton and must win to pull even with the downriver team in the battle for dual meet honors in the Suburban Six League.

So far Trenton is unbeaten, while Plymouth has lost only once—to Trenton.

In one of the most exciting meets of the season, Plymouth was extended last Thursday to decision Livonia Bentley with Dick Michaels of the Rocks fashioning the night's feature.

He not only set a new pool record with his time of 2:12.2 in winning the individual medley, but he also topped the state Class A record by two-tenths of a second. However, it wasn't Michaels' best time of the season. He has been timed at 2:10.4 for the 200-yard event. The results of the meet follow:

400-yard free style: 1—Michaels (P), 2—Ron Klassen (B), 3—Dick Alford (P). Time: 4:28.6.

50-yard free style: 1—Jim Winebrenner (B), 2—Win Schrader (P), 3—Gary Parker (B). Time: 24.8 seconds.

100-yard butterfly: 1—Barry (B), 3—Jim Shaw (B). Time: 1:02.9.

100-yard back stroke: 1—Tom Hoffman (P), 2—Dick Vots (B), 3—George Gardner (B). Time: 1:04.

100-yard breast stroke: 1—Phil Bender (P), 2—Brian Barants (B), 3—Dean Agnew (P). Time: 1:07.5.

100-yard free style: 1—Dick Osburn (B), 2—Gary Gould (P), 3—John Wolfe (P). Time: 54 seconds.

Diving: 1—Mark Schultheiss (P), 2—Wayne Stevenson (P), 3—Jim McCall (B).

200-yard individual medley: 1—Michaels (P), 2—Klassen (B), 3—Corwin (P). Time: 2:12.4.

200-yard free style: 1—Osburn (B), 2—Alford (P), 3—Tom Blunk (P). Time: 2:07.

200-yard medley relay: 1—Plymouth (Hoffman, Bender, Dave Beglinger and Gould). Time: 1:50.1.

200-yard free style relay: 1—Bentley (Jim Shaw, Parker, Vots, Winebrenner). Time: 1:39.5 (a new pool record).

Matmen Top 2 Foes in One Week

Two more victories were registered last week by Thurston high school's wrestling team which now has a record of 10 wins against one loss for the season.

The first triumph came against Garden City by a 40-8 score as Thurston's matmen saluted their mothers. Winners for Thurston were Bob Bedard, Dave Woloch, Mike Mitchell, Jim Martin, Jack Pilarski, Norm Martin, Jerry Scane, Doug Scheyck and Jerry Wiebeck.

Thurston then bounced back to crush Redford Union by a 42-10 count. Jim Todd, Jack Provencal, Mitchell, Jim and Norm Martin, Scane, Urek, Joe Halonen, Stockton and Wiebeck came through with triumphs for Thurston.

Franklin Quintet Loses to Southfield

The Livonia Franklin high basketball team ran into another "terror" last Saturday night and wound up on the short end of a 45-39 score against Southfield. It was Franklin's fourth loss of the season. Larry Duffield paced Franklin with nine points.

Cloverstars Plan A
Sewing Bee for Spring

When the Cloverstars met at the home of Sandra Hartwich recently. Mr. Robert Pawlson, Wayne County Extension Agent, visited with the group.

A demonstration on hair cutting was given by Mrs. Marchant from the Pri-Bonne Beauty Salon and instructions were given on making a wrist pin cushion. The pin cushions were made during the following two weeks and checked by the leaders when the group met next at the home of Caroline Hood.

Last Thursday the entire 4-H Club gathered at Reed's Department Store to learn different material and sewing supplies. Many of the girls purchased material to make an apron which is the next sewing project to be undertaken.

Global Tourist to Talk in Plymouth

The monthly meeting of the American Association of University Women will gather at the Plymouth Dunning-Hough Library, Thursday, February 15, at 7:45 p.m. to hear a talk about present day Africa.

Miss Sarah Likely, a teacher at the Plymouth High School, recently made a global tour which took 14 months to complete, four of which were spent in Africa. It is this part of her trip that will be the feature point of the AAUW program this Thursday. She will illustrate her talk by showing her own slides taken while in Africa. With the many events of the world taking place in Africa, Miss Likely's impressions should prove to be very interesting, the club states.

The social hour preceding the meeting is chairmaned by Mrs. J. M. Robinson, and she will be assisted by Mrs. J. Eder, Mrs. H. G. Olson, Mrs. Bruce Mackie, and Mrs. Wm. E. Stout.

Mrs. Wm. Secord, AAUW President, and Mrs. John Haas, Legislative Chairman, recently attended a Regional Meeting in Detroit for AAUW, Plymouth Branch. Guest speaker was Mrs. Hanna Kiep, widow of the former German Chancellor to the U.S. and presently the Secretary of Women's affairs of the German Embassy at Washington, D.C.

Mrs. Kiep's speech was entitled "The Walls Came Tumbling Down." She told the group about "the trials and tribulations of families living on both sides of the Iron Curtain" as well as "the deep rooted problems of the Berlin crisis." "Moral support is perhaps the most rewarding help American women can give to the German families during this time of crisis," emphasized Mrs. Kiep.

The above should be the preferred bidding. After an opening spade bid, West must show his strength by a takeout double. In most partnerships, a 3S bid over a double shows 4 or 5 trumps, a singleton or void, and in general, a poor hand as far as point count is concerned. It is more or less a preemptive bid to keep the opponents from finding a fit in their suits. It can be seen that 5 diamonds would only be set 1 trick for an excellent score.

In 4S declarer must be careful in his play because he has 2 club losers and 2 heart losers. If the heart honors are divided, he can take two finesses through East. This will give him a 50-50 chance to succeed. Declarers trying this method, of course, were defeated.

The 100% chance for the contract is to end play East. This is done by trumping the third round of clubs—trumps taken out—ace and small diamond ruffed. Fourth club ruffed and diamond ruffed in dummy. Jack of hearts now led and East is thrown in and must give declarer a ruff and sluff or on a heart return, 10 of hearts will become winner.

In actual competition, 4S was reached by only 3 pairs, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Gordon, Barbe

OPEN LETTER

To The People of Livonia:

Last week you received James McCann's program for Livonia. This program was the same when he was elected to council in 1957 and re-elected in 1960. James McCann's vote has always reflected this program.

We were informed today that one mayoral candidate, in an effort to discredit Jim's program, will publish an unrelated set of resolution numbers and Jim McCann's vote in an attempt to stampede the people at the last possible minute.

Without his knowing the exact advertisement until too late to answer, James McCann only hopes that your vote will not be affected by any distorted last minute advertising.

Sincerely Committee for James McCann
