ALMOST AS TALL as three-year-old Johnny Magnusson was the stack of pancakes dished up Saturday at the Plymouth Kiwanis Club pancake festival. Hundreds of youngsters, parents and Plymouth area residents attended the annual affair and devoured thousands of blueberry and plain pancakes, sausages and cups of coffee.

Hungry Plymouth Mouths Devour Kiwanis Flapjacks

Blueberry pancakes topped the menu Saturday for hundreds of Plymouth area families who attended the Kiwanis Club's annual Pancake Festival.

Scene of the yearly event was Masonic Temple and besides the blueberry delights, sausages, coffee and plain flapjacks were on the table.

Guests sat at a dozen long tables and were served by headwaiters Fred Van Dyke, Ralph Carter and Jo Graves. Joe Near, Jim Jabara and Bob Meek manned the cashier's desk and checking the guests were Marvin Terry, Frank Terry and Bill Lyons.

Gerry Fitch co-ordinated the event for the service club.

Kiwanis members who flipped the pancakes, cooked sausages, washed dishes and served customers included: Wendell Lent, Ed Rice, Ralph Carter, Austin Whipple, Walt Gempeline, Stewart Olford, Bob Barbour, John Blossom, Arch Vallier, Marv Sackett, Bill Herbold, Harold Fisher, Ralph Taylor, Ernie Henry, Warren Worth, Sam Knapp.

Max Allen, By Becker, Ken Corey, Dutch Atchinson, Jim Houk and Harry Wiley.

Also George Burr, Roy Fisher, Harry Reeves, Eric Bradner, Jim Sexton, Horton Booth, Bill Sempliner, Jim Winterhalter, Duane Sheldon, Harry Christensen, Claude Murray, Fred Thomas, Webb Kincade, Fred Foust, Truman Felker, George Lawton, Bill Elzerman, Leo Schultz, Gerry Fitch, John Wallace, Harry Wagonschutz and Norbert Loft.

PANCAKES WERE THE big item on Saturday's menu at the Kiwanis Pancake Festival in Masonic Temple. Here is part of the crowd that filled the building's main hall for twelve hours, from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Seven-Mill Tax Issue Faces Voters in April

Bad Checks Flood Area,

More than $600 worth of bad checks—stolen from a Plymouth business place—have been circulated in this area, Chief of Police Ken Fisher said this week.

Two arrests — one in Plymouth and one in Livonia — were made this week, and at least one of the two involved has been bound over to Circuit Court for trial.

Arrested were Gerald Campbell, 28, of 582 Kellogg St., and Gerald Newsome, of Forest Ave. Campbell pleaded guilty to a charge of uttering and publishing and was bound over for court trial. Fisher said, and Newsome was put in jail by Livonia Police, he said.

The arrest was made, according to Chief Fisher when Campbell cashed a check for $61.37 at the Food Fair Market on S. Main St. last February 23. The check had been made out falsely to him on one of several stolen from Max's Ashland Service, 903 Ann Arbor Road.

Police traced the check to Campbell's address and arrested him on March 7. "He made it easy for us," Fisher said.

Discuss Plans for Parking

Members of the City Commission met Monday night to discuss two alternate parking plans for the central parking lot. A committee-of-the-whole meeting followed the special session.

Approved were specifications for a Hartsooth St. paving project and curb and gutter improvements for:

Dewey from Hartsooth to Ross; Harding from Hartsooth to Birch Estates; S. Harvey from Wing to Ann Arbor Rd.; Maple from S. Harvey to McKinley; Roosevelt from Hartsooth to Birch Estates; Ross from Evergreen to McKinley; and Ross from S. Main to S. Harvey.

FACTS and OPINIONS

by Paul Chandler

Despite an otherwise tone in the Detroit press, the prospects of the State Legislature passing a bill to permit a Wayne County income tax this year are as faint as a firefly in a coal mine.

Wayne County's Board of Supervisors "approved" the county income tax idea narrowly last week, but representatives from Plymouth, Livonia and Redford were in the stout "no" column, and the total opposition was substantial enough to give the negative bloc in Lansing all they need to justify to themselves turning down the idea there.

Mayor Brashear of Livonia asked two good questions when he voted "no." "What relief has been promised on property taxes, if the income tax were adopted? Any?" And also, "I hear the argument that the State keeps too much money there sent it from outstate. What assurance is there the County won't keep too much there, when sent from the outlying communities?"

Facts and Opinions would add one more observation—until some provision is made to include revenue for schools in it too, the income tax idea is a flyspeck approach an elephant problem.

With a "Sunday closing law" about to become a major matter in this area (and in the State Legislature), two local college political science students have called our attention to a law passed in regular state legislative session in 1846.

"It was passed and never has been repealed or taken off the books," said Sheldon Larkey of 29620 Ravine and Stephen Stocker of 1952 Stout. "It just never seems to have been enforced."

With something of devilish intentions, they're thinking about swearing out a formal complaint and to bring it to local police to insist an enforcement."

The 1846 statute does permit, on Sunday, yet, "the making of mutual promises of marriage." But the full law also says:

No person shall keep open his shop, warehouse, or workshop, or shall do any manner of labor, business, or work, or be present at any dancing, or at any public diversion, show, or entertainment, or take part in any sport, game or play on the first day of the week.

"The foregoing provisions shall not apply to works of necessity and charity, nor to the making of mutual promises of marriage, nor to the solemnization of marriages.

"And every person so offending shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten (10) dollars for each offense."

Our readers who live under Township government may or may not know of two provisions which now appear approved by the convention and ready to be offered in the revised Constitution.

One would extend the terms of Township from officials from two years to four years — and, of course, make elections that much less frequent.

Another would instruct the Courts to give more weight to Township ordinances.

And, as reported once before, "Justices of the Peace," as such appear to be written out of the revised document.

9 Named To College Committee

Citizens from the four school districts have been named to a "Central Publicity Committee" by the Board of Trustees of the Northwest Community College.

The committee will encourage a "yes" vote on the request for one mill which will be on the ballot June 11 in Livonia, Garden City and Plymouth.

Still to be appointed is a "Citizens Committee," which will assemble on April 18.

Appointed to the publicity body were:

Jimmy Chaffins, 8194 Donna Rd., Livonia; Herbert Kagen, 20361 Weyher, Livonia; Robert Kavelman, 325 Sunset, Plymouth; Maurice Kelley, 35655 Minton, Livonia; Melvin Kuehn, 20125 Weyher, Livonia; Kenneth Lindner, 30541 Elmwood, Garden City; Donald A. Seller, 122 Ross, Garden City; John M. Sutherland, 8159 Perrin, Garden City; Dr. A. E. Van Ornum, 1348 Maple, Plymouth.

Teachers Slated For $300 Raise

A seven-mill school tax proposal for next year and seven-and-one-half for four subsequent years will face Plymouth area voters on the ballot in April.

After a month of search and inquiry, the Board of Education announced its millage request to the public at a meeting Monday night. It formally adopted a proposition and took legal steps necessary to get the proposal on the ballot April 16.

Included in the request is a renewal of 3.5 mills which expires this year. The rest is new.

If voters approve the issue, a higher salary structure for teachers—including a unique "earned increment" plan—will be the chief result.

Operating costs for the new Junior High School-West, scheduled to open this year, will also be met from the millage proposal and other miscellaneous expenditures are earmarked from the vote too.

Earlier last month, a Citizens Committee—appointed to study the question of school finance—had warned that as a result of its research there was "a firm conviction on the part of all the members that the electorate would not approve a 7-mill ballot proposition for operating purposes."

Board members pointed out, however, that the seven mills being asked also includes an "earned increment" plan, originally suggested by the Citizens Group.

Under this proposal, in order to qualify for regular salary increases, teachers would have to take at least two hours of graduate work at college, participate in Board of Education workshops equivalent to this amount or travel extensively enough to make a difference in their teaching.

The Board's salary proposal includes:

A starting salary of $5,000 (compared to the present $4,700) and the first proposed $4,900 for a bachelor's degree and a maximum of $7,800.

A starting salary of $5,300 for a master's degree with a maximum of $8,650.

Starting salary of $5,600 to a maximum of $8,950 with a master's degree plus 30 hours of graduate university credit.

The Board also agreed to pay half the cost of employee hospitalization insurance and to pay part of the cost of university tuition for teachers.

Extra salary payments for each credit hour of university training beyond the degree also were proposed.

The Board's final action Monday did not come until after several meetings with representatives of the Citizens' Committee and the Plymouth Education Association, a teacher's organization.

First indication of what the Board would finally decide came after a meeting last Wednesday. Executive session meetings before that had laid the groundwork for the decision.

The Board's first thought, as requested by the Education Association, was to put two proposals on the ballot—one for operating costs and one for salary increases. Conference between the Board, the PEA and the Citizens' Committee resulted, however, in the final compromise.

In other action, the Board continued its efforts to pare down its proposed budget to keep within anticipated revenue. One of the items under discussion is the possible closing of outlying schools in the district — Canton Center, Cherry Hill, Hough and Truesdell, most of them one or two room schoolhouses with 30 to 40 pupils each.

Campaigning for the April election is expected to start immediately with Board of Education members, teachers and members of the Citizens' Committee all planning to play an active part in the get-out-the-vote drive.

New Co-op Nursery Opens in Plymouth

Nearly 25 youngsters gathered at the Plymouth Salvation Army citadel last Monday for the first session of the Plymouth Community Co-Op Nursery.

A brainstorm of several Plymouth mothers, the Nursery is the result of more than a year's work. It will provide a 12-week course, ending May 25, for three-to-five year old youngsters.

The three-hour session will meet every Monday, Wednesday and Friday and will include stories, games and snacks.

"We were able to pick up used toys when a nursery in Brighton closed," Mrs. Philip Settles, president of the Nursery, said. "Members donated the rest but we will welcome any additional toys in good condition the public may care to distribute.

Mrs. Settles continued, "Since there is a fully equipped playground in a park a half-block away, we decided no outdoor equipment will be necessary."

Altogether, 22 mothers will help in shifts to supervise the new school. Mrs. James Sponseller, a Sunday School teacher at First Presbyterian Church, will act as teacher for the youngsters. Car pools will take the kids to and from school, according to Mrs. Robert Stenger, vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. Bruce Wise, corresponding secretary; and Mrs. Paul Kauffman, treasurer.

Registration cost is $5 and there is a monthly tuition of $10. A full term will get underway next September.

Check 1200 With X-Rays

More than 1200 Plymouth residents have been checked for tuberculosis by having chest X-rays during the past week.

That's the number, according to the Wayne County Health Department, of Plymouth community residents who have taken advantage of the mobile health unit in the city.

The unit ended a four-day tour of the community Monday, with a four-hour stint at the Beyer Rexall Drug Store parking lot, Main and Mill. Prior to that it had been stationed at the A&P parking lot on Ann Arbor Rd. and on Main St. in front of the S. S. Kresge Store.

Administered by the unit were X-ray exams for detection of tuberculosis and blood tests for detection of diabetes and syphilis.

LINED UP FOR tuberculosis chest X-rays Monday were these Plymouth area residents at Main and Mill Streets. Fred Butterfield, Hazel Mueller and children, Hazel and Fred, were among 1,200 persons who took advantage of the X-Ray unit stationed at Beyer Drug Store, S. S. Kresge Co. and A&P Food Market through co-operation of the Wayne Co. Health Dept.

Woman Organize Blood Donors

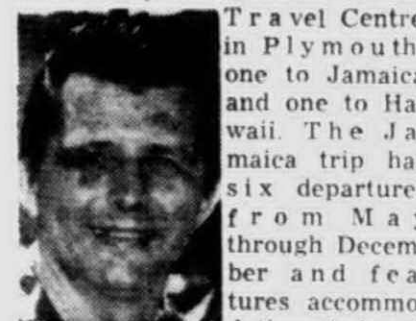

Registration of prospective donors to visit the Red Cross bloodmobile on Friday, March 23, when it is stationed at Our Lady of Loretto parish, 17175 Olympia, Redford Township, are continuing to be taken by the National Council of Catholic Women chairmen who are sponsoring its visit, and at the Red Cross Regional office in Livonia. Mrs. Edward M. Burke is general recruiting chairman.

N.C.C.W. units whose chairmen are making appointments are: Mrs. Frank Schank, for St. John Bosco parish; Mrs. Claire Palmer, for St. Agatha parish; Mrs. T. Kuzma, for St. Valentine parish; Mrs. Richard Sebastian, for St. Priscilla parish.

This is the first time these women have sponsored a Red Cross bloodmobile visit although the National Council blood group account is one of the oldest associated with the Red Cross Detroit Regional Blood Program, having its first bloodmobile in October, 1948. Mrs. Burke and Mrs. James Wilson, who is the Red Cross blood program chairman for Redford, have invited members of all blood groups in the community to take advantage of the convenience of having the bloodmobile located here. The bloodmobile will be open for donors from 3 to 5 and 6 to 9 p.m. These hours make it possible for persons who are free to visit the bloodmobile during the day to do so, leaving facilities available in the evening for those whose daytime schedules make this necessary.

Donors may designate to which blood group account credit for their donation is given, may deposit to a "self" account, or replace blood already used by a patient. Persons with no other affiliation are urged to designate the Redford Community Blood Group Account and then would be eligible to call on the resources of that account in time of emergency. Red cross volunteers from the community will assist the professional staff during the visit of bloodmobile.

To Women It May Concern

By MYRA COX

This is the week to salute women who work—it is supposed to be our week.

So few women do not work these days—they are those, of course, who do not get a weekly pay-check—but what women do you know who doesn't work?

Those maintaining a home supposedly have so much time on their hands they are asked to participate in charitable functions and service projects so often—anyone who has gone the route can tell you—it is more time—consuming than the job of being girl Friday to the key man in the corporation or for that matter working on a weekly newspaper.

We do have a friend though. Dr. Jean Driscoll spoke frankly to her audience of "The Complete Woman" lecture series last week. (I'm bucking to see if we can't bring this to our area—it's a wonderful assortment of lectures that make you glad to be us).

Dr. Driscoll said women today have a tough time. She said a woman working is not treated equally with men—is seldom paid equally and is certainly not promoted equally.

I broke two lead pencils on this bit, writing so furiously—but I knew a living example of this.

A capable friend of mine in Redford Township was absolutely the epitome of efficiency. She could organize, supervise and revitalize any business or problem just as well as the tallest of mental-male giants. She was working side by side with two young men in a wholesale paint office. She one day decided to buck for a raise to lessen the inequity between herself and the men in her midst. Supervisor laughed and said "no"—he shouldn't have laughed—well, she quit—but instead of reconsidering, boss went out and hired another man—and another two men had to take my friend's place and the best part of the story is she went into competition with the gentlemen—they tried to buy her back—but she is on her own—with banners flying—I'm on her side.

Dr. Driscoll said it was worse for the woman in the home. In the traditional family role, women are often condemned if they do and condemned if they don't work that is!

Says Dr. Driscoll "If they don't work outside the home, women sometimes are accused of being parasites of raising 'mama boys' or of growing fat, neurotic or alcoholic for lack of enough to do and lack of self-esteem."

"If she doesn't 'keep up' with her husband and if her children go about their own lives—as they should—she may find herself alone in middle age."

"But if she does work, she is expected to carry on her household tasks as usual and keep track of children too."

Dr. Driscoll's future look for us is this in a nutshell.

She thinks because of the increase in need for skills and talent, employers may offer women more, and make allowances for their necessary role in the family.

Also, increased automation of household and commercialization of services—it takes less time to make a meal today if you use your noggin than it did to read a recipe in the old days) it will be easier for women to do both—and well.

First, we must get it out of our head that to prepare food out of a box, bag or can is not good—the old-fashioned way is the best from scratch—not true ladies—more vitamins are maintained with frozen food—more pure flavor in the package than ever before—we just have to change our thought that because it is done quickly it is not worthy or best for our families—this the good doctor didn't say, I did.

Finally, Dr. Driscoll offered these suggestions to women:

"Whether we are unmarried career women, working wives or doing our best in our family role, we should make clear what we would like. We are people."

"Gauge the difficulties in our way and try and overcome them. There is no point in being passive and waiting for other forces to change the world and our personal lives."

"As mothers, I think it is high time we stop accepting and propagandizing the traditional idea of the role of the sexes, in the name of making our children 'well-adjusted.'"

This is what Dr. Driscoll suggested women teach their children:

The girls should be told that "they have a responsibility in this world and to use their talents in the best possible way—that dates and boyfriends, marriage and motherhood are not the whole of life, perhaps even the latter sacred symbols are not enough for life."

"And teach boys that besides their responsibility to succeed in a career, they also have a responsibility to be a husband and a father and to share in the work of creating and raising a family and in making a rewarding meaningful marriage."

TOPS Name New Queen

Rita Buckner is Queen for the month of the Livonia TOPS club, Mrs. Florence Hammond "Changettes." She totaled up a weight loss of 20 1/4 pounds.

Two of January "Queens" received lovely gifts from the group because they qualified at the second social of the year as the best losers (weight that is) of the month. They were Jean Borsa and Lorna Nicholson. They each lost a little over eight pounds.

If you would like to "Take Pounds Off Sensibly," you are welcome to join the next meeting. The Changettes meet every Wednesday at 8 p.m. at Shear School on Schoolcraft in Redford Township. Call Billie Camilleri, GA 1-8965, or GA 4-0794 for further information and encouragement.

Belonging to another TOPS club, Mrs. Florence Hammond of Redford Township, was hardly recognized by friends she hadn't seen for a while. She piled up a weight loss of 70 pounds.

Cub Scout Pack 761 entertained their parents at the Annual Blue and Gold Banquet on February 28 at Whitman School.

Cubmaster Tony Lambert gave the invocation after which a pot-luck dinner was served. The dinner tables were attractively decorated with centerpieces and place mats that the scouts had made.

The scouts in Den 4 with Mrs. R. Stetson as Den Mother presented a skit on the true meaning of cubing. Den 5 under Mrs. H. Wright presented riddle skits highlighted by the appearance of Abraham Lincoln taking off in a helicopter.

Achievement awards were presented to the Cub Scouts by Cubmaster Lambert. The Robin Hood Trophy for the best project and the Honor Pennant was won by Den 6 with Mrs. R. Luster as Den Mother. Den 8, under Den Mother Mrs. O. Johnson, was awarded the project

It's Familiar Story: Bentley in Regional

The state Class A high school regional basketball tournament at Livonia Bentley this week produced an old story:

LIVONIA BENTLEY WAS THERE AGAIN.

For the fifth straight year, the Bentley cagers hauled in a district meet championship last week when they first dumped Thurston, 49-41, then conquered Redford Union in a spine-tingler of a final, 37-36, Friday night.

Thus Coach Bob Bentley will leave behind a perfect record in district action when he takes leave of Bentley High for his new assignment as basketball coach next fall at Livonia's new Franklin High.

Five teams and five district kings . . . that was the mark of Bentley as Bentley's coach.

Going into this week's regionals which started Tuesday night, the Bentley coach and team was gunning for its first regional crown. But Bentley faced some rough going, because the field of opposition listed Pontiac Northern, Pontiac Central and Detroit Redford, the latter having eliminated defending state champion Detroit Catholic Central last Friday.

The Bentley-Redford Union district finale followed a pattern now typical every time the two teams meet on the basketball court.

One had to have a strong heart to survive the night's action which left a capacity throng in the Bentley gym exhausted.

Bentley was in front most of the way. The first quarter saw the Livonians with a 9-4 edge. The advantage was sliced to 18-16 at halftime and the count read 26-24 in Bentley's favor going into the last quarter.

Bentley managed to open the lead a little, but Redford Union came right back and the teams struggled bitterly the rest of the way.

Free throw shooting actually decided the battle. Redford Union made for more baskets, but Bentley meshed 13 charities to RU's four.

Both teams had opportunities galore in the closing minutes. At one point Bentley muffed eight out of nine free-throw tries, while DU wasn't able to come up with the BIG basket necessary to pull ahead.

Dorothy Rovin Gets "200" Bowling Pin

Dorothy Rovin is proudly wearing a special pin this week. She received it last Sunday when she bowled 202 in the Meadowbrook Club mixed-doubles league at Livonia Lanes on Five Mile Road. She has been a bowler since 1951 and sports a 130 average.

Greg Mapes topped the winners with 14 points, while Lonnie Carrier had 12. Curt Johnson and Len LaPla each had 12 for the losers.

With the victory, Bentley evened the year's play with RU. The teams had met four times. RU copped the first two, Bentley the next pair.

Incidentally, it marked the second straight year that Bentley had subdued RU in the district finals.

Redford Union had won its way to the district title game by rallying from a 25-22 halftime deficit to decision Southfield, 55-45. The Townshippers came through with a 19-point third quarter to go ahead for keeps.

LaPla starred with 17 points while Johnson made 14. Larry Braithwaite 11 and Mike Loukinen 10.

In beating Thurston in its first district contest, Bentley held the lead all the way. The Livonians held a 25-19 bulge at halftime. The closest Thurston was able to come was three points.

Carrier engineered 18 points for individual honors for the winners, but had to yield game laurels to Cas Jankauskas, who wrapped up a brilliant season for Thurston, with a 20-point explosion.

Keith Spicer added 10 in a losing cause.

AFTER THE THRILLING VICTORY, Bentley's joyful basketball warriors gathered around

Hot-Shooting Rival Subdues Plymouth

It was a case of too much hot shooting on the part of Ypsilanti Central.

As a result Plymouth High School's bid for state basketball honors was cut short at one game in the district Class A tournament at Ypsilanti last Wednesday when Ypsilanti emerged with a 68-57 triumph.

The game was decided in the first half when Ypsilanti fired in 18 of 31 shots from the floor for an almost 60 percent mark. In contrast, Plymouth had to settle for only nine successes in 37 attempts.

In the final statistics, Ypsilanti finished with 25 out of 60 tries from the floor, compared to Plymouth's 22 for 78.

"That first half ruined us," said Ketterer later. "They seemed to be on a roll and we helped with some defensive lapses."

Until the game with Ypsilanti the Rocks had taken pride in their defense which had yielded an average of only 48 points per game.

After the first half, the closest Plymouth could come to Ypsilanti was 10 points as Ernie Slater tossed in 21 points to pace the winners. Mike Bass bagged 18 points and Ivory Oliver added 12 to the winners' collection.

Dick Schryer clicked for 15 points and Dan Stremmick 13 for the losers, who ended the season with an overall record of six victories and 10 losses.

With the finish of the season, the Rock players voted Stremmick, their senior forward, as the campaign's most valuable performer.

Closing Moments Too Much

For a few minutes Saturday night at Pontiac Central high's gym, it appeared that Clarenceville High School's basketball team might engineer a major upset in the Class B district finals.

After trailing Clawson high by as many as eight and nine points in the third quarter, Clarenceville stormed to within a point of a tie early in the closing quarter.

But when three players fouled out and star forward Lee Corcoran had to remain on the bench, because he was suffering from the flu, Clarenceville wasn't able to keep going and Clawson walked away with the game and district crown, 65-52.

"Our kids put up a fine game," declared Clarenceville Coach Dave Schaefer.

"I thought they might pull it out, but we just didn't have the bench to do it. It actually wasn't until the last two or three minutes that Clawson put us out of the game."

Bill Wheeler was the driving star in Clarenceville's comeback. He meshed 16 of his 24 points in the second half. Ron Ridding and Dave Graves each finished with seven points for the losers.

In the first round of the district, Clarenceville had eliminated Orchard Lake St. Mary's, 48-45, in a thriller.

Wheeler topped all scorers with 17 points. Ridding had 13. Corcoran 8, Gary Gearhart, 6. Graves 3 and Clark 1.

No Honors For Thurston In Wrestling

No championship honors came the way of Thurston High School's wrestling meet in last Saturday's state Class A finals at Ann Arbor.

Mike Mitchell, in the 120-pound division, turned in the best individual performance by an Eagle when he won three matches before losing in the quarterfinals.

Norm Martin, 145-pounder, scored a pair of triumphs before being bowled from competition. Jerry Scane, 138, and Jack Pilarski, 135, fell in their first tests while an ankle injury kept Doug Schyck from participating.

Township Preps Set Swim Marks

They'll talk for years to come about what happened in the 1962 state Class A high school swimming championships last weekend in the University of Michigan pool at Ann Arbor.

No less than eight records went by the boards—and three of them were accounted for by young men from Redford Township.

Ken Wiebeck of Thurston, a sophomore sensation who bids well to develop into one of the state's all-time great tankers, splashed his way to two of the state records. In fact, he set one record, then re-smashed it.

And, as expected, Redford Union's Bill Truesdell climaxed a perfect season by roaring to a record performance to win the 100-yard breast stroke.

Analyzing the efforts of Wiebeck and Truesdell at Ann Arbor, here's just what each did:

WIEBECK

Established a new state record of 57.7 in the afternoon preliminaries in the 100-yard back-stroke, then came back with a 57-8 clocking as he breezed home a victor in the evening finals. Dick Michaels of Plymouth placed second to Wiebeck in the finals.

In the 200-yard individual medley, Wiebeck was timed in 2:11.07 for a state record in the preliminaries. Came the evening finals, he literally set the waters of the University of Michigan pool steaming as he won in 2:09.98 to erase his mark which had stood for only a few hours.

TRUESDELL

Unbeaten in dual meets all season and in the regionals, dashed to a new state record of 1:03.0 in the preliminaries and won the final in 1:03.3. Lee Driver of Birmingham Groves, who had cracked the state Class B record last year, was second to Truesdell, while Plymouth's Phil Bender was sixth.

Thanks to Wiebeck's two firsts, Thurston collected 14 points to finish in a three-way tie with Detroit Eastern and Birmingham Groves for third place.

Mic Mac 5's Vie in Meet

Both Redford Township and Livonia will be represented in a basketball tournament sponsored by the Mic-Mac Athletic Club of Detroit for boys under 12 years of age.

Action begins this Thursday evening at Cody High School in Detroit with Livonia going against the Mic-Mac Nationals in the first game at 7 o'clock.

The Redford Township Junior Athletic Association's entry will engage East Bethelhem Lutheran Friday evening at 8 o'clock in the Fisher School gym at 10000 Crosley in the Township.

Birmingham Seaholm and Grosse Pointe compiled 32 points to wind up as co-champs in Class A and thus dethrone Plymouth, which managed to place only two men in the finals—Michaels who was second in the back stroke and Bender who was sixth in the breast stroke.

Redford Union earned seven points on the merits of Truesdell's victory. Livonia Bentley didn't qualify a performer for the state meet.

St. Agatha Bows Early In Tourney

Life was short, but hardly very sweet for St. Agatha High School's basketball in the Class D district tournament at Detroit St. David's gym.

The Redford Township quintet bowed out in the first round to St. Leo, 41-36.

St. Agatha Coach Dave Brazil did have reason to salute his cagers.

"We improved considerably over the season," declared Brazil. "When we met St. Leo previously, they scalped us by something like 25 points."

In the district encounter, St. Leo gained a 17-14 halftime lead, but St. Agatha rolled back to go in front, 23-22, in the third quarter.

Then four straight baskets shot St. Leo in front for keeps, although St. Agatha stayed close all the way.

Bob Dorechy accounted for 15 points for St. Agatha, while Jack Harrington meshed eight and Don Jetke six.

The defeat was the tenth in 12 games for St. Agatha during the season's play.

SPORTS OBSERVER

By George Maskin

It must be said of Charles E. Forsythe that he rules over Michigan's annual high school basketball tournament—for that matter, all prep sports—with an iron hand.

He concedes to no school, no team, no individual. Nor does he play any favorites.

The operator of this corner learned as much many years ago during our "hey day" as a prep basketball official. We had received an assignment to work in a nearby district tournament.

However, a week before hand, we found that we couldn't get away on one of the nights. We called Forsythe, asking if we could swap a date with another whistleblower assigned to the same tournament.

Despite the fact we had chronicled schoolboy sports in Michigan for a great many years at that time . . . despite the fact we had typed many a glittering word about Forsythe's work as the state director . . . he replied that he couldn't make a change.

"If I change for you, George, I'll have to make switches for other referees," he told me. "You know what that might lead to . . . trouble and more trouble."

All of which leads us to the suburban school which last week forfeited a district game because the action happened to conflict with a previously scheduled banquet.

Forsythe was mad when the news reached him. The school will be slapped down as soon as Forsythe and the State Association Athletic Council meets on the day following the state finals in East Lansing.

What irritated Forsythe was that the school didn't have to enter the tournament. Participation is strictly on a voluntary basis.

In fact, after a school filed its entry blank, Forsythe permits a certain grace period in which the officials can make up their minds and, perhaps decide not to go into the state meet.

But when a school waits until the draw for a district meet has been set up and then takes a powder . . . well, it will have its knuckles rapped and deservedly so.

You easily can see what might happen if two or three or more schools were to balk at playing after a district meet had been set up.

It could mean that only one or two schools were left to fight it out for district honors while elsewhere seven or eight schools were locking arms.

"All we ever ask is for a school to let us know in ample time," says Forsythe. "That isn't too much to ask . . . or is it?"

Mr. Forsythe, you are so-o-o-o right.

SPEAKING OF THE State Prep tourney, Did you know that—Of the 756 high schools classified with the State Association, all but five vied in last week's districts?

It took a record number of districts, 104, to accommodate this year's field?

Of the 104 district sites used this year, only 12 of them hosted a similar meet 10 years ago?

Approximately 12,000 boys made up the teams in this year's tourney?

The State had to hire 485 referees to work in district meets? The state takes out a blanket liability policy to cover all paying spectators?

The attendance for the district, regionals and final rounds will hit a staggering 650,000 a new record?

All of the 156 winning district tournaments received identical trophies and 15 medals for members of their squads?

This year's final program will begin at 11:30 a.m. on Saturday, March 24, when the Class B title will be decided?

The Class D final will begin at 3 p.m., the Class C at 4:30 p.m. and the Class A at 8:30 p.m.?

If you're going to East Lansing you'll need three tickets to see the three different seasons?

Local Doctors Are Involved In Infant Fluorine Studies

Attending the Fluorine Research conference held at Brook Lodge, Kalamazoo, March 1 and 2 were Doctor Robert I. Jaslow, Medical Superintendent of the Plymouth State Home and Training School and Doctor Henry Kanar, staff dentist at the Institution. Doctors Jaslow and Kanar presented a paper entitled "The Procurement of Samples From Infants For Balance Studies".

The Fluorine Balance studies are being made in an effort to determine the effectiveness of various fluoride compounds in the control of dental caries. At present, fluoride is usually ingested in drinking water, in which it is present either naturally or by chemical addition, or may be applied topically by dentists.

The work done at the Plymouth State Home consisted of developing methods of collecting samples and administering the various compounds being tested so that the amount of fluoride retained in the system could be accurately measured.

Doctor Kanar, his wife, Nancy, and two children reside at 14277 Westmore Drive, Livonia.

Association for Retarded Extends Open Invitation

The Western Wayne County Parents Association for Retarded Children extend an invitation to all interested parties to attend their Monday, March 19th meeting at Emmerson Jr. High School West Chicago at Middlebelt in Livonia Room 25 at 8:00 p.m.

The topic for the evening "What can be expected from the Trainable Child".

The speaker Sister Mary Solanus I.H.M., has a masters degree in Special Education and is working on her Doctors Degree, at Wayne State University.

At Marygrove she is in charge of the teacher-training program for teachers of exceptional children. This program trains teachers for all types of children, visually handicapped, the deficient in hearing, orthopedic, gifted, retarded, speech impaired, and the maladjusted. Sister opened the Marygrove Speech Clinic for all types of Diagnostic testing and speech therapy. The Marygrove Clinic is one of three such Clinics in the city.

In addition Sister has worked with the retarded and the trainable at Coldwater State Home and Training School for five years.

A large turnout is desired to show Sister and others like her that there is a definite interest and need to continue, the education of teachers, in this field, for the education of these children.

Mayor William Brashear adds his wish that all interested parties would avail themselves of this opportunity to attend this informative session.

Testimonial Will Honor Dr. Bergman

Livonia, Plymouth area residents will gather with other metropolitan Detroiters next Friday to honor Dr. Walter Bergman, a local resident who has been hospitalized for several months. Bergman, 62, who lives on Inkster Rd. in Farmington Township served the Detroit Board of Education as Director of Research for many years and taught at the University of Michigan and Wayne State University.

He was one of several northern white Freedom Riders who was beaten by a mob outside Anniston, Ala., last May. The beating he received contributed to his hospitalization.

Norman Thomas, Socialist leader and Presbyterian minister, will speak at the testimonial dinner Friday. Local residents serving on the sponsoring committee include Jerry and Rosina Raymond, of Oak Drive, Livonia, and Rev. Walter Kellison, pastor of Farmington Universalist-Unitarian Church.

Dinner tickets are $10. The affair will begin at 6:15 Friday at Metropolitan Methodist Church, 8000 Woodward Ave.

Outside Agencies Help Curriculum

In a report to the Livonia Board of Education March 1, Asst. Supt. Paul E. Johnson listed about 30 curriculum studies or pilot teaching projects now being carried out in Livonia schools, many of which are made possible by the cooperation or financial support of outside agencies. Some of these cooperative projects are outlined below.

Hawthorn Center, located close to the Livonia school district, with a member of the Livonia Board of Education, Dr. Ralph D. Rabinovitch, as its director, is cooperating with the schools in at least three present projects. Most comprehensive of these is the continued help given Livonia's classes for emotionally handicapped children, beginning with the screening of children with emotional problems to determine whether they should be placed in special classes, and following up with regular consultations with the staff and other follow-up services.

A long-term project to discover how well reading ability can be predicted at an early age has been carried on by Hawthorn Center, using 75 Livonia pupils in their own schools for study. The children were tested at the beginning of the first grade and at the end of each year following to determine the actual progress of those whose tests indicated either that they would be very good readers or that they would have considerable trouble with reading.

A recent study by Hawthorn Center is giving six eighth grade students from each of two Livonia junior high schools special work for an hour and a half a day at the Center. Purpose is to discover whether these "underachievers" will do work closer to their actual ability level when they are taught in small classes and to discover what techniques are most effective in helping them to progress.

The district is cooperating with Henry Ford Hospital in a research project in which 12 children with speech articulation defects receive free diagnostic testing at the hospital.

Development of a new high school course in electricity and electronics is being carried out with the help of the Department of Public Instruction through use of National Defense Education Act funds for equipment.

Courses in science, foreign language and mathematics are being improved and enlarged with the use of equipment furnished on a matching basis by NDEA funds. NDEA funds also help to improve the counseling program in junior and senior high schools.

National Area Redevelopment Act funds will supply a program for re-education of unemployed persons recommended by the Michigan Employment Securities Commission. Classes will be offered evenings in the Livonia Public Schools under the Extended School Services program, probably beginning early in April. Training classifications to be included are clerk-typist, stenographer and service station attendant.

Livonia schools cooperate

PATRICK STOLNICKI, 13 of 8891 Riverdale, Redford Township, visited New Concord, Ohio March 3 when John H. Glenn Jr. had his homecoming from his trip into space. Patrick, accompanied by his uncle Frank Slomzenski was so delighted in the faith the town had in their native son, he asked if he could pose by the sign, also his own hero.

with three separate types of programs which train student teachers, supplying additional help in this manner to the classrooms teacher and Livonia pupils. These include the teacher internship program of Michigan State University; the Teacher Education Experimental Project of Wayne State University, with funds from the Ford Foundation; and student-teacher education programs of the University of Michigan, Wayne State University, Madonna College, University of Detroit and others.

A well-known Wayne State University psychologist, Dr. Jacob Kounin, has used Livonia classrooms for observations of teaching techniques which are successful in helping emotionally handicapped children make adjustments and learn in the normal classroom situation.

Experimental use of free materials from Encyclopedia Britannica Films Inc., has given eighth grade French classes the opportunity to study with films and tapes made especially in France for use with a text in junior high French.

In addition to the projects specified, Dr. Johnson reported that the school system has cooperated with numerous surveys and studies conducted by governmental agencies and educational institutions.

The general coordinators for elementary and secondary curriculum, Dr. Bernice Roberts and Dr. Leslee Bishop, presented reports on current progress in curriculum improvement studies now being carried on in Livonia schools will be reported in an article to follow.

Subject for the next Board study meeting, Thursday, March 15, at 8 p. m., will be "Proposed Program in Extended School Services and Adult Education for 1962-63." The public is invited to attend all meetings, which are held in the Board of Education office building, at 15125 Farmington Road. Next regular Board meeting is March 8.

21 Compete in Clarenceville For National Scholarships

Twenty-one juniors at Clarenceville High School took the 1962 National Merit Scholarship Qualifying Test, David McDowell, principal, announced today.

The test was administered at the school at 9 a.m. March 6. All students who wished to be considered for Merit Scholarships to be awarded in 1963 took the test at that time.

The qualifying test was a three-hour examination of educational development. The test is the first step in the eighth annual competition for four-year Merit Scholarships provided by the National Merit Scholarship Corporation and by sponsoring corporations, foundations, associations, unions, and individuals.

The number of scholarships awarded in any year depends upon the extent of sponsor participation. In 1961, 945 Merit Scholarships were awarded; 556 were provided by 133 sponsors and 389 by the Merit Corporation. There are 3,275 Merit Scholars attending 403 colleges in the current academic year.

The test scores of students who are examined in March will be reported to their schools by May 15. The scores are used by class advisors in many high schools to help students make decisions about college attendance and field of study. Many students who do not expect to win a scholarship take the test in order to learn more about their individual strengths and weaknesses in the areas measured by the test.

Some 10,000 semifinalists, the highest scorers in each state, will be named early next fall. Names of semifinalists are published in a booklet which is distributed to all colleges and to other sources of financial aid for undergraduates. Further, their names and test scores are sent to the colleges they express an interest in attending as their first or second choices. The order of preference is not shown.

An additional 25,000 students, selected on a national basis, receive letters of commendation for their high performance on the qualifying test. These students are considered for special awards made through the Merit Corporation, and their names and test scores are also sent to their first and second choice colleges.

Each semifinalist will be asked to take a second examination. Those who repeat their high performance will become finalists in the Merit Program. Winners of Merit Scholarships will be selected from the finalist group on the basis of school records and recommendations, test scores, extracurricular activities, leadership ability, and accomplishments outside the classroom. Each finalist is awarded a certificate of merit attesting to his outstanding performance.

The scholarship stipends are based on financial need. The minimum award is $100 and the maximum is $1,500. The average stipend awarded to freshman Merit Scholars in 1961 was $847. Each scholarship constitutes a form of educational insurance, since the stipend may Casts finally were removed this week from the fractured hand and fractured foot suffered five weeks ago by Mrs. Laura Callow, 15511 Oak Dr., in an accident where her car was struck by one driven by Ollie Dryden, 17, of 29173 Grandon. Mrs. Callow also suffered gashes requiring 25 stitches. Dryden pled guilty before Judge Lorian, had his license suspended for 60 days, and paid $50 fine.
