MRS. LEONARD KRAMER, of Plymouth, literally had her arms full last Thursday afternoon when she posed for this picture with her newly-born triplets (from left) Brenda Louise,

Deborah Lee and Linda Sue. The triplets were born in a span of eight minutes Wednesday morning at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor. Mr. and Mrs. Kramer live at 9409 S. Main St.

3 Tiny Tax Deductions Born in 8-Minute Span

In a twinkling of time last Wednesday, Mrs. Leonard C. Kramer, of Plymouth, presented her astonished husband with three new tax deductions at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor.

All three are girls and "doing fine" at last report, as is the mother.

The triplets abruptly increased the Kramers' family to six members, including five-year-old Tommy Kramer who "just doesn't know quite what to make of it all," according to his father.

Mr. and Mrs. Kramer, residents of Plymouth for 18 months, live at 9409 S. Main St. He is an engineer for Ford Motor Co.

Brenda Louise, Linda Sue and Deborah Lee Kramer made their appearance in a brief span of eight minutes

Wednesday morning. Brenda, the first-born, arrived at 5:34 a.m. and weighed 5 lbs. 14 oz.

Linda was born at 5:40 and weighed in at 6 lbs. 6 oz. Deborah, the youngest, made her debut at 5:42. She weighed 5 lbs. 12 oz. The babies were born about eight days early, Mrs. Kramer said. There were no complications during the births.

A preliminary x-ray had hinted that Mrs. Kramer might give birth to quadruplets, but a later examination confirmed that "only triplets" were on the way.

The 40-year-old mother was wreathed in smiles Thursday afternoon as she held all three babies during a picture-taking session in her semi-private room at St. Joseph.

The triplets, one asleep and the other two oblivious to the goings-on, rested peacefully in their mother's arms. They were less than 36 hours old when they posed for the portrait.

Kramer, forced into the background while the babies visited their mother, was as much smiles as his wife. "How about that?" he asked. "How about that?"

Mrs. Kramer earlier had said that her husband "was quite proud." It turned out to be an understatement. "Tommy seems quite pleased, too," she added, describing her son's immediate reactions.

The Kramers do not expect any problems of being over-crowded in their home here. "We're renting a fairly large house," Mrs. Kramer said. "and I don't think it will be too bad when we take the triplets home."

Originally from Allentown, Pa., the Kramers moved here in early spring of last year. Kramer is a service engineer at the Ford technical center on Middlebelt near Plymouth Rd.

Both maternal and paternal grandparents live in Pennsylvania.

The Kramer triplets were only the sixth set born at St. Joseph Hospital in 22 years, according to nurses there.

Plymouth hasn't had a set of triplets in more than three decades, long-time residents said. Last known triplets born here were Jean, Jane and June Trapp, born in 1931, to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Trapp of Salem.

Trapp Triplets Now 32

The birth of triplets to a Plymouth couple last week brought back fond memories to Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Trapp, of 9383 W. Six Mile Rd.

And well it might. Thirty-two years ago Mrs. Trapp gave birth to triplets — all girls, as was the case with Mrs. Leonard Kramer last Wednesday morning. Mrs. Trapp's three daughters — now grown and married and mothers themselves — are believed to be Plymouth's most recent previous set of triplets.

Travel Series Opens Oct. 12

Local residents are being cordially invited to board a "Freightboat to Asia" at 8 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 12, in the Junior High East gymnasium.

The event is the first film presentation of the Plymouth Lions Club Travel & Adventure series. John Weld will narrate a memorable journey to the exotic country of the orient.

Father Dies, Son Injured In Collision

A 45-year-old Plymouth man was killed instantly and his 16-year-old son critically injured Saturday evening when their car was struck head-on by another auto on a side road near West Branch during a hunting trip.

Dead is Cleo Delbert Foreman, who lived at 9315 Marlowe Ave. His son, Ronald, a PHS junior, is in St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Ann Arbor undergoing treatment for injuries suffered in the collision.

A relative said that the Foreman auto, containing five people, was traveling a side road near West Branch in Roscommon County. As the car came over a rise in the road, it collided with an oncoming auto in which there were three persons.

The driver of the other auto was killed and both passengers injured. The four passengers in the Foreman auto suffered varying injuries, the relatives said.

Ronald Foreman was treated at a hospital in Gladwin, the relative said, and then taken to St. Joseph Hospital in Ann Arbor. Services for Mr. Foreman (Continued on page 6)

Weld, a novelist and storyteller, will lead the audience by color film to such countries as Japan, Hong Kong, Bangkok, Singapore, India and Ceylon. It is one of the most comprehensive and authoritative films ever made, a spokesman said.

Taylor Acquires Full Ownership In Stamping Co.

Elvin Taylor, vice president for the past 13 years of Plymouth Stamping Co., 315 W. Ann Arbor Rd., has acquired full ownership of the 31-year-old firm, it was announced jointly this week.

He has purchased the interests in the firm held previously by his brother, Ralph Taylor, and Clarence Moore, who was one of the founders of the company in 1932.

Plymouth Stamping, employing 80 workers, specializes in the manufacture of metal stampings and assemblies for the auto industry.

Called by Commissioners Human Relations Group To Check Discrimination

Formation of a Human Relations Commission to prevent discrimination in the Plymouth community received unanimous approval of City Commissioners Monday night.

A resolution setting up the special body was passed swiftly following a minimum of discussion.

The resolution reads in part:

"The Commission (shall) immediately study and recommend effective and legal remedies against discrimination in housing and employment and attempt to create through education, a favorable climate for welcoming all persons into the City of Plymouth regardless of race, color or creed."

A related purpose of the Commission, according to the resolution, will be to promote the social welfare of all of the residents of the City as well as those persons employed within the City's boundaries.

While the resolution, as it presently reads, pertains essentially to the City itself, all of the City Commissioners are hopeful that the Human Relations Commission ultimately will encompass the entire Plymouth community — meaning precisely the School District.

In fact, Mayor Richard Wernette has already met once with Township Supervisor Roy Lindsay to discuss the matter, and the two will meet again shortly.

Meetings with Canton Township officials are also pending, according to Wernette. "We're working most hopefully toward establishing the Commission on an area-wide basis," he said Monday night.

Presbyterian Men to Hear Negro Pastor

The Men's Council of the Presbyterian Church will meet this Wednesday evening at the Church for a pot-luck dinner. Program for the evening will include a talk by Negro minister Rev. James Mitchum, of the intergraded St. Andrews Presbyterian Church of Detroit.

His subject, according to the local Church's weekly bulletin, will deal with the racial situation in the United States. All men of the Church are invited to attend.

The Nov. 13 meeting of the Council will feature Congresswoman Martha Griffiths as guest speaker. The wives of Council members are invited to attend this meeting.

"I can assure you that whether the Commission is area-wide in scope or participated in only by the City alone, it will crystallize with in the next month."

Wernette himself will make the appointments to the Commission if only the City pursues the project. If it becomes area-wide in nature, the task of appointing members to the Commission will be shared by Wernette, Lindsay and most likely Canton Township Supervisor Louis Stein.

Membership in the commission is expected to be between nine and 15, Wernette indicated.

He suggested that among its members would be representatives from the Plymouth Ministerial Association, each of the local service clubs, the School District, and persons from the community at-large.

Only point for discussion on the matter when it came up at the very end of the Commissioners' meeting Monday night was whether the enabling resolution should actually be passed at this time or not.

Homecoming Has Festive Air at PHS

By Judy Burgett

What do Linda Barney, Sue Cooper, Paula Hurson and Nancy Reed have in common?

For one thing, all four of these charming members of Plymouth's senior class are vying for the crown, robe, floral bouquet and title of Homecoming Queen 1963.

One of them will be chosen to reign over Homecoming festivities at PHS this Friday evening when the Rocks, seeking to stretch their winning streak to five straight, this year, take on Allen Park.

Linda, the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Barney, of 934 Hart-sough, is secretary of the senior class. Sue can be found leading the varsity cheer-leading squad. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Cooper, 1375 W. Ann Arbor Tr.

Paula is a member of the PHS Pep Club, as is Nancy, who is also captain of the cheerleaders. Paula's parents are Dr. and Mrs. R. D. Laird, 42752 Ford Rd., while Nancy is the daughter of Mrs. Esther Reed, 11100 Gold Arbor.

Four Chamber Directors Picked

Harvey Ziel and Wendell Lent were re-elected as directors of the Plymouth Chamber of Commerce in voting last week and Cecil Sharrard and Douglas Blunk were elected new members of the board.

Ziel, Lent and Sharrard each received three-year posts on the governing board and Blunk was elected for a two-year term.

Selection of a president of the Chamber for the coming year will be undertaken after nominations are made shortly.

Some Commissioners suggested that the "area-wide" aspects be ironed out first, but finally a motion to adopt the resolution was entered and it passed swiftly.

The exact wording of the resolution is as follows:

WHEREAS, among the responsibilities of the City Commission is the responsibility of the health and welfare of the community's citizens.

AND WHEREAS, the area of human rights is included in this area of responsibility.

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the City of Plymouth establish a Human Relations Commission for the purpose of promoting the social welfare of all its citizens and or those employed within its boundaries.

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Commission be particularly directed to give its attention to the problems of its youth, its economically and severely deprived, and its aged; and that the Commission immediately study (Continued on Page 2)

Corporate Gifts Furnish PCF with $2,500 Start

PLYMOUTH'S 1963 Community Fund drive will officially begin at 11:45 a.m. Thursday when these two youngsters share the distinction of lighting the symbolic torch in Kellogg Park. Boy Scout George Jackson, 12, is a member of troop No. 1531 and the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, 1448 Palmer. Nine-year-old Meg Johnson is a Girl Scout in troop No. 298 and the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Johnson, 489 Blunk. The torch-lighting ceremonies will be followed by a traditional "kick-off" luncheon at the Hotel Mayflower. Goal of the Fund drive this year is $66,480.

'Blazing' Performance Planned by Firemen

Firemen from more than a dozen communities will combine forces here Wednesday evening to present a spectacular Fire Prevention Week program at the carnival grounds opposite the VFW Hall on Mill St.

The event, an annual affair, is being hosted by the fire departments from the City and Township of Plymouth and Canton Township.

It is designed to draw attention to Fire Prevention Week, which began Monday, and illustrate the important need for all residents to practice common sense fire safety in their daily pursuits.

There is no admission and everyone is invited.

An impressive parade of fire department equipment will open the program. It will begin at 6 p.m. from behind the Township Hall and will proceed through the Township and City and will eventually conclude at the carnival grounds where a series of fire-fighting demonstrations will follow.

Coordinators of the evening's events are Charles

Groth, of the City's fire department, Louis Norman, acting chief of the Plymouth Township fire department, and Fred Korte, Jr., chief of Canton's fire department.

Two early corporate gifts amounting to $2,500 this week gave added impetus to the 1963 Community Fund drive which gets underway Thursday with an objective of $66,480, largest goal in the Fund's 18-year history.

Burroughs Corp., traditionally the largest single corporate donor to the Fund here, sent word that its 1963 contribution would match the $2,300 gift from the company a year ago.

Simultaneously, Bathy Mfg. Co., one of the 52 other industrial firms that will be contacted during the course of the campaign, announced it will contribute $200 to the drive.

The $2,500 "head-start" on the campaign is described as the "vanguard of generosity that is certain to put the 1963 appeal over-the-top."

George LaForest, who is filling in for vacationing industrial chairman Elmer Hedlund, echoed Hedlund's earlier statement that the industrial phase hopes personally to account for at least $45,000 of the total campaign objective of $66,480.

Last year's industrial effort raised more than $41,000 at a time when the goal was $45,050. However, when all the contributions were in a year ago, Fund officials were literally astonished to learn that the gifts totaled $65,000, nearly 50 per cent above the established goal.

Ceremonies this Thursday will officially begin the 1963 drive.

With general campaign chairman Bob Stremich presiding, a torch-lighting ceremony will be conducted in Kellogg Park at 11:45 a.m. with a traditional "kick-off" luncheon to follow shortly.

A Plymouth Boy Scout and Girl Scout will share in the actual torch-lighting. The two youngsters are: George Jackson, 12, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Jackson, 1448 Palmer; and Meg Johnson, 9, the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Johnson, 489 Blunk.

Already the torch itself has been erected on its familiar pedestal in the park.

The luncheon, slated to begin at 12-noon, will be held in the Mayflower Hotel. All divisional chairmen and many of their workers are invited, as are the members of the campaign committee, the Fund's board of directors and various City and Township officials.

Kiwanians Plan Rummage Sale

Annual rummage sale by members of the Plymouth Kiwanis Club will be held Friday and Saturday, Oct. 18 and 19, in the basement of the Plymouth Credit Union, 500 S. Harvey St.

Hours of the event are from 9 a.m. to 7 p.m. Oct. 18 and from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Oct. 19.

5,500-Square-Foot Addition Underway Here For Camping Trailer Manufacturing Facility

Manufacture of an economically-priced camping trailer will get underway in Plymouth shortly, according to Harold Guenther, a partner in E-Z Enterprises on Main St. here.

He said production of the collapsible trailer will begin on a limited basis within the next few weeks and that a planned 5,500-square-foot addition to the present "E-Z" Enterprises building will be devoted to the trailer's production.

Work on construction of the addition, measuring 50-feet by 110-feet, will begin immediately, Guenther said eventually the trailer will be produced at a rate of about 10 a day.

The addition, which will expand the E-Z plant to 250-feet by 60-feet, will be finished within a few months. Limited production of the trailer will get underway in E-Z's existing facilities.

The trailer will retail for $795, complete with a 110-volt electrical system and a "patio" attachment, Guenther explained. A nation-wide distribution system, utilizing franchised regional dealers, is in the process of being established, Guenther explained.

Guenther said the trailer, when fully unfolded, will sleep up to six persons on cots that come with the device. Opened up, the trailer will measure 7-feet by 12-feet. It will collapse to a compact 6-feet by 7-feet for easy hauling by any auto, he said.

The trailer won wide acclaim late last month when it was displayed at the Chicago (Continued on page 6)

All these representatives will be found in the annual Homecoming parade, which will begin at 7 p.m. Friday. Riding on the Senior float, which will be shaped as an open flower, will be the senior candidates, who will be followed by the junior and sophomore choirs, in their respective cars.
Also included in the parade will be a Student Council car, which will carry the three exchange students, Yvonne Bradley '64, Lucy Phinith '65, and Hector Mara '64, and a new addition, the Pep Club car.
After the football game and the half time crowning, the newly chosen queen and her court will "reign" at the annual Homecoming dance, which is sponsored by GAA, on Saturday, Oct. 12.
Elsewhere around the school, a new French club, under the direction of Mr. John Hopkins, has begun work on their new constitution. Last week these "Clubbers" helped in promoting French-American relations by visiting the French warship "Guepratte," which docked in Detroit harbor.
New Madrigal singers, a group that specializes in songs of the sixteenth century, have been chosen, although they are short on male voices. Laura Lehnhardt '64, Mary Canning '65, Marna Roy '64, Chris Cutler '64, Ann Mills '66, Jeff Gustafson '66, and Bill Way '66 make up this year's group.

Burroughs, will remain with the company in executive positions. The amount of the transaction was not disclosed.
Elvin Taylor previously owned a one-quarter interest in the firm, as did his brother. Moore held a one-half interest in the company.
The new full owner announced that Plymouth Stamping will soon open a new division here which will manufacture specialized automatic assembly machines for all phases of the industrial world.
Founded May 23, 1932, Plymouth Stamping originally was located on N. Main St. in the former Markham Air Rifle building near Amelia St.
In 1952, the firm was moved to its present location on Ann Arbor Rd. west of Lilley Rd. The plant comprises 30,000 square feet of floor space, encompassing both manufacturing and administrative areas.
During recent peak periods, Plymouth Stamping has had as many as 130 employees.
"The company will continue to concentrate on its stamping and assembly manufacturing operations," Taylor said. "The only significant change will be the opening of the new automatic assembly machine division which will also be located here on Ann Arbor Rd."
Elvin Taylor, 48, went to work for Plymouth Stamping in 1933. He became vice president in 1950.

said the program is "for the benefit of the public."
The series of demonstrations, Norman said, will get underway about 7 p.m. A wide display of fire equipment will also be shown, he explained.
The various demonstrations will include:
Batting an oil-pit fire; illustrating the use of a "dry powder" extinguisher which literally smothers a blaze; fighting a burning building; extinguishing burning magnesium; and other modern fire-fighting techniques.
A water-ball fight between opposing teams of firemen will also be a feature of the program. It has always proved particularly popular with past fire prevention crowds here.
Among the fire departments expected to be on hand, in addition to those from the City and Township and Canton Township, are those from: Detroit House of Correction, Salem, South Lyon, Superior Township, Nankin Township, Wayne County Training School, Livonia, Reedford Township, Wayne, Ypsilanti Township and Northville.
More than 2,500 spectators turned out for the colorful and informative program a year ago. Norman expects a still larger crowd this time.

Trapp Triplets

Trapp (in that order) were born Sept. 2, 1931, in Salem Township. Their parents were living on Tower Rd. at the time and had a Plymouth mailing address.
A Detroit physician, Dr. Roy Tupper, came out to the family home to deliver the babies, who weighed a total of about 15 pounds, Mrs. Trapp recalls.
The very next day, Mrs. Trapp said, Dr. Tupper delivered a set of twins and later that month he was jokingly honored by a number of his fellow physicians for having delivered the most babies that month.
The three Trapp triplets graduated from Northville High School and have since married.
June is now Mrs. Fred Brockmiller, of Brighton. She has three children of her own. Jean is Mrs. Eugene Huyck, of New York. She has two children. Jane is Mrs. Lora Davis, of Illinois, and is the mother of two.
Mr. and Mrs. Trapp have two other children, Marvin, 38, of Whitmore Lake, and Mrs. Donald Kimmel, of Dixboro. Another son, Roland, is deceased.

Board Committees Discuss Tax Millage Renewal Here

The School Board's committees on finances and facilities met jointly Monday evening to discuss the needs surrounding an election involving a tax millage renewal sometime later this year or early in 1964.
No action was taken, although a previous meeting had indicated the date of the election would be either Nov. 25 or Feb. 15.
A five-mill building and site sinking fund is expiring, together with three mills of operating levies. The Monday night session debated the merits of calling for an exact renewal of this amount. It also touched on the wisdom of asking for four mills for the site fund and four mills for operating expenses.
However, if the proposition finally winds up on the ballot, it is not expected to exceed the total of eight mills that expires.
School administrators are fearful that the present operating levies will be insufficient to sustain the District over the coming few years. In fact, pressures are building up to urge the state to increase its aid to schools.
At present, the Plymouth School District receives about one-third of its annual income in the form of State Aid, an allotment based on the per capita enrollment in the system. Last year, State Aid to the School District here amounted to $879,000, on a formula of $165 per student.
The balance of income to the District is derived from local property tax.

Eber Readman

Plymouthite Eber Readman has been appointed assistant to the general manager at Burroughs Corporation's Manufacturing and Engineering Division here.
In making the appointment, General Manager D. E. Stromberg said:
"Mr. Readman's extensive experience will be of great assistance in division management."
Since joining Burroughs in 1934, Readman has held supervisory positions in corporate production control, manufacturing operations and marketing liaison at the Plymouth plant.
Long active in civic affairs here, Readman and his wife, Phyllis, live at 1310 West Maple.

Commissioners Wade Through Busy Agenda

Commissioners waded through a lengthy agenda Monday night at City Hall and then at the last possible moment passed a resolution enabling the formation of an anti-discrimination Human Relations Commission for the entire Plymouth community.
Previous business matters during the Monday night regular session were largely on the routine side.
Commissioners learned that Northville Township will not ask for City water after all. Instead, Northville will seek Detroit water for an area that is suffering from an acute shortage of water.
A contract to install a sanitary sewer to service the Crestwood Park apartments was awarded to Capoccia Bros. Excavating Co., of Detroit, in an amount of $14,560. It was the second time bids had been taken on the project. Initial estimate of the cost of the job was $13,000.
Certain property owners along Sutherland, McKinley and Maple Sts. will be directed to have new sidewalks installed in front of their homes, as a result of other action. The City will have the work done and bill the property owners if the owners neglect the directive.
A five per cent cash discount was authorized for purchases of cemetery lots or crematory niches in Riverside Cemetery and Riverside Mausoleum.
Commissioners heard a report on progress to date on the City's Urban Renewal project along Mill St. and gave Manager Albert Glassford permission to proceed with plans for the installation of a storm sewer to service the area.
Glassford was asked to submit a comprehensive report on the U. R. project at a future meeting. Commissioners learned that Glassford would be attending an International City Manager's conference in Denver next week.
He was asked to stop enroute at Chicago and inquire as to the status of the City's request for a federal grant on the proposed water reservoir here. Glassford will also attempt to learn when funds from the federal government on the new City Hall will be available.
Glassford was given permission to acquire a postage meter for the City's use. Authorization was given to accept bids on the purchase of two pickup trucks for the DPW. Commissioners also authorized the purchase of a fire department squad truck.
A meeting to establish a policy on the use of the City's portable band shell was set, and the preparation of specifications for a new tractor were called for.
Discussion was given to the eventual disposition of the City-owned house at the northeast corner of Harvey and Penniman, but no action was taken. Full payment was authorized to complete the purchase of Adell Criger's home on Dodge St.

Forum Leaders to Assess Need for Youth Facilities

Discussion leaders from last month's Open Forum met with moderator Russell Isbister last week to "critique" the Forum series and they agreed upon a plan to assess the community's possible need for further youth activity facilities.
Isbister explained, too, that another Open Forum will be held later this year. Two have already been conducted, both aimed at a consideration of the significant problems which the community may expect to face in the decade ahead.
Isbister was directed to contact all of the community's civic organizations and churches and invite them to send representatives to a special meeting Oct. 30. It will be held at 8 p.m. in Junior High East.
Purpose of the meeting, Isbister said, will be to provide the Open Forum leaders with a chance to hear individual reports on the nature of current youth programs being conducted in Plymouth.
On the strength of the reports, Isbister explained, the discussion leaders—who comprise an informal "steering committee"—will attempt to make an assessment of existing youth activity facilities and whether further such facilities are necessary.
The study is tied to the possibility of building a Community Center here eventually. It has been suggested that the Community Center include certain facilities for local youth programs. The exact need for such added facilities has been tentatively questioned in the absence of a comprehensive study of the situation.

INSTANT TONIC

Back in the old days a thing called a "tonic cup" was a favorite remedy for almost anything that ailed you. Cheap, too. You took a cup made of bitter wood... added hot water... let it steep. Then, when bitter, you drank it. Simple? Yes. Too bad it didn't do any good. Nowadays science gives us more reliable medications. So, play safe. When you or a member of your family is ill, seek professional care. See your physician for diagnosing and prescribing... call us for prescription service.

Bitten Boy Begins Series of Shots; Dog Still Missing

Several calls from local residents reporting the possible sighting of a black and white stray dog that bit eight-year-old Michael Smith on Sept. 27, reported in last week's Plymouth Mail, failed to lead to the capture of the dog.

Because of the time element and possible danger to the young Smith boy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur M. Smith, of 9125 Beck Rd., began the rabies vaccine series. The shots will be administered every day for 14 days or until the dog is located.

If the dog should be found, the shots will be halted while the dog undergoes examination for the presence of rabies. If the dog is found rabies-free the shots will be discontinued. If the dog is determined to have rabies, the shots will be resumed.

The dog that bit the young Smith boy on the left hip while he was riding his bicycle in front of the Cameron Lodge home at 49910 Joy Rd. was described as being black and white, having wavy hair and fluffy ears and a pug nose, resembling a cocker spaniel to some degree.

Anyone having any information on the dog is requested to call either the Wayne County Sheriff's Department (PA 1-2222) or the Smith home (GL 3-5321).

Farmington Girl Dies in Ann Arbor Rd. Crash

The first fatal accident in at least two decades at the intersection of Ann Arbor Rd. and Sheldon took place last Tuesday noon, claiming the life of a 16-year-old North Farmington High student.

Kathryn Sevin, of Farmington, died at mid-afternoon Tuesday as a result of injuries sustained when the 1962 Thunderbird in which she was a passenger collided with a Kroger Co. transport van.

Driver of the sports car, Donna Rader, 17, also of Farmington, suffered minor injuries in the mishap, was treated at St. Mary Hospital, Livonia, and released.

Wayne County Sheriff's detectives are investigating the accident and said that the Rader girl faces a possible negligent homicide or manslaughter charge. The detectives said the Thunderbird, traveling south on Sheldon, failed to heed a stop sign and slammed into the side of the truck.

Miss Sevin was thrown to the pavement by the force of the crash. The two girls were North Farmington High classmates.

The truck driver, Alton Clark, 59, of Roseville, was treated for shock. He was not otherwise injured. Sheriff's deputies absolved him of blame.

Miss Rader told deputies that the brakes on the Thunderbird failed as she approached the Ann Arbor Rd. intersection. A caution signal was recently installed at the corner.

The two girls, along with other North Farmington High students, had been granted an informal holiday while an accreditation conference was being held.

State to Honor Local Man For His Work in Air Safety

A Plymouth man, the aircraft maintenance director for Burroughs Corp., will be honored next Tuesday in Lansing for outstanding contribution to air safety in the state of Michigan.

William Granton, 47, of 14922 Robinwood, will be presented a special citation for his work in the field of air safety by James Ramsey, director of the Michigan Department of Aeronautics.

The ceremony will take place at Lansing's Capitol City Airport Tuesday afternoon.

Granton will receive not only a special citation but a gold replica of his aircraft mechanic's license as well. He will also become eligible for a regional competition, in which the top honors will be a trip to Washington, D.C., and a visit with President Kennedy.

A World War II Navy aircraft mechanic in the South Pacific, Granton is being cited partly for his efforts re-years later. His headquarters are at Detroit Metropolitan Airport where Burroughs has four company airplanes hangared.

He heads up a team of mechanics that services and repairs the Burroughs planes there.

Granton describes himself as a "weekend airplane mechanic" in the years before World War II. As a Navy mechanic he took extensive aircraft maintenance courses and at first serviced small planes which were catapulted into the air from the deck of a cruiser.

Later in the war he was transferred to the U.S.S. Saratoga, a carrier, and helped service its fighter planes.

The Saratoga was damaged during combat, and then after the war was one of the Navy's "guniea pig" ships that was sunk during an atom bomb test at Eniwetok atoll.

For 10 years after the war, Granton worked for General Motors Corp. in its aircraft division. He joined Burroughs in 1955.

Both Granton and his wife are natives of Highland Park. They have a daughter.

Struck by Car, Boy Not Seriously Hurt

A six-year-old Plymouth boy escaped serious injury last Friday evening when he was struck by an auto as he bicycled into the street in front of his home.

Loren Vogras, 6, of 300 Lindsay Dr., was hit by a car driven by 22-year-old Richard Boden, of 42150 Riveroaks Dr., Plymouth. Police exonerated Boden, who said he was driving about 10 miles an hour when the boy appeared in front of him on a bicycle.

By re-designing a previous type of collapsible trailer, which was on the market only briefly, Guenther said his firm has come up with one "which we think is much more convenient and liveable."

He explained that the trailer is assembled of steel structural supports for sturdiness and stability. He said much of the remainder of it is of aluminum construction to keep the weight down.

Local contractors have already started work on the construction of the 5,500-square-foot addition to the present E-Z Enterprises plant here. When it is completed, manufacturing of the trailer will be stepped up. "We've got to work up to about 10 trailers a day," Guenther declared.

Plymouth will be the only manufacturing site for the trailers "at least to start," he added.

E-Z Enterprises previously has engaged in the manufacture of drapery hooks and drapery hardware. But increasing entry into the field by other manufacturers has cut the profit margin to a bare minimum and the move to manufacture camping trailers was described as a future effort to diversify, Guenther said.

E-Z Enterprises now employs only about eight workers, but once manufacture of the collapsible trailer gets underway, Guenther expects his number of workers to increase to about 20.

Widely-known for his efforts in local civic and charitable affairs, Guenther is also a partner in a trailer financing firm elsewhere. He said that full-financing services will be made available to purchasers of the trailers.

Guenther also has business interests in Puerto Rico, where he and his associates operate a building industry supply firm.

CONFIDENCE

The Basic and Controlling Factor of All Successful Business Institutions

DAVIS AND LENT

MEN'S and BOYS' WEAR and SPORTING GOODS STORE

Located at 336 SOUTH MAIN ST. PLYMOUTH, MICHIGAN

It is a wealth of fine old traditions that cause people to cherish, respect and cling fast to time-honored institutions. Other things may change, may lose their luster or vanish entirely with the passing of the years, but the traditions of old progressively conservative institutions stand out above this shining scene.

What are these traditions and how have they come into being? They are the basic ideals upon which these institutions were founded, now solidified and crystallized by unwavering adherence through successive generations. Time has incorporated them as integral parts of the institution.

The same process is found in the evolution of great social and commercial institutions as well. The ideals which inspired founders and drew our fathers and grandfathers to DAVIS & LENT as far back as 1933 and the traditions formed by more than 30 years of unshaken fidelity with the ideals of courtesy, quality, genuine worth and fair dealing remain unchanged.

The spirit and ideals have now become traditions, but a business that never ventures from the beaten path cannot develop its full possibilities. Real progress begins where rules leave off. The follower cannot be the leader. The store that would grow and prosper in an impressive way must set the pace.

Davis & Lent has always been HOME OWNED. The Owners of this fine store have always lived in the Plymouth Area, taking part in Civic affairs.

Today the entire business world is readjusting itself to meet the conditions of a new period. We, too, find it necessary, compulsory, if you please, to increase our business to meet today's existing conditions.

With this thought uppermost in mind, we are making plans and preparations for the Greatest Selling Event in the 30 years of our business life... a store-wide selling event of high-grade men's and boys' wear and sporting goods merchandise.

Proclaims Week For Physically Handicapped Here

Mayor Richard Wernette, of the City of Plymouth, has proclaimed the week beginning Oct. 8 as "Employ the Physically Handicapped Week" here.

Created by an act of Congress in 1945, the week is observed annually.

Wernette issued the following proclamation:

"Whereas the first full week in October of each year is designated as National Employ the Physically Handicapped Week, and whereas equal opportunity for employment is basic to our belief in human dignity and should never be denied to any person because of physical impairment,

"Therefore, I do call upon our people to observe the week of Oct. 8-12 as Employ the Handicapped Week, in the City of Plymouth. I urge other public officials, as well as leaders of industry, labor, civic, veterans, agricultural, women's scientific professional and all interested organizations and individuals, to participate in this observance."

AT THE JOINT-SERVICE-CLUB meeting last Tuesday evening, sponsored by the Kiwanis Club, all of the 200 in attendance were able, through the aid of special Bell Telephone System equipment, to speak to Commander John Davis of the North American Air Defense Command in Colorado Springs, Colorado. The guest speaker, James E. McClune of the Bell System, explained the connection between his company and the current space program. He then placed a long distance phone call to Commander Davis in Colorado and through the aid of loud speakers the audience was able to question the Commander about the North American Defense System. '58 PHS Graduate Awaits Peace Corps Assignment

Plymouth's second member of the U.S. Peace Corps, Anne E. Dennany, 23, has arrived in the Philippines and expects to receive her assignment orders shortly in the City of Manila.

A 1958 graduate of Plymouth High with an English degree from Wayne State University, Anne is the daughter of Mr. Murray Dennany, 11750 Priscilla Lane.

Anne Dennany

As a Peace Corps volunteer, Anne joins another Plymouth youth, Robert Catlett, 1956 Roosevelt, in an experience that undoubtedly will play a significant role throughout their entire lives.

Catlett, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Catlett, is serving in Ethiopia. "Anne has always been an idealist," said her mother last week, soon after her daughter had departed for the Philippines. "Ever since childhood, she's shown a keen sympathy for people and their problems."

"I don't want to minimize her love of adventure, though. I think that's as much a reason for her going as her altruism," Mrs. Dennany said. The mother is a special education teacher at Wayne County Training School and has lived here since 1950.

Anne, a June graduate of Wayne State, was among two groups of Peace Corps volunteers who recently were sent to the Philippines where most of them will teach in elementary and secondary schools and universities.

Anne arrived there Sept. 22 after completing a 10-week training program at San Francisco State College. She volunteered for the Peace Corps last spring and, shortly thereafter, was informed she had been assigned initially to the training program in San Francisco.

She recently wrote to her mother that she would spend two more weeks in Cebu and then be sent to Manila to receive her final assignment. She was due to go to Manila about Oct. 10.

Mrs. Dennany, who has four other children, said that Anne attended the University of Michigan for a year and a half after graduating from PHS in 1958. She worked for half a year in New York City and returned to Plymouth to complete her bachelor's degree at Wayne State.

Her mother said that Anne may decide to go back to college for more studies after her two-year tour with the Peace Corps. "I think she might want to get a master's degree in English," Mrs. Dennany said.

During her junior year at Plymouth, Anne was an exchange student in Germany. Asked if her daughter was widely traveled, Mrs. Dennany said, "I think she would like to be widely-traveled." Anne has two sisters and two brothers. They are: Mrs. Lewis McDonnell, of Memphis, Tenn.; Mrs. Richard Plunkett, of Long Island, N.Y.; James, an English instructor at Central Michigan University in Mt. Pleasant; and John, a 1960 graduate of PHS and now a junior at MSU.

Anne's two sisters and her older brother, James, are graduates of the University of Michigan. Mrs. Robert E. Fisher, Mrs. Arthur Jacobs and Mrs. Lawrence W. Becker plan to attend the luncheon and fashion show Wednesday evening sponsored by the Catholic society at Botsford Inn.

THIS IS NATIONAL FIRE PREVENTION WEEK
October 6th Thru 12th

As local sponsors of the Hartford Insurance Group's Junior Fire Marshal program, we urge you never to be "fire" careless. Instead, we ask you to join your youngster, or your neighbor's, and millions of American boys and girls who are helping to snuff out fire hazards through the Junior Fire Marshal safety program. Do it this week, and all through the year.

This is your Junior Fire Marshal watching a fire hazard...

THIS IS YOUR JUNIOR FIRE MARSHAL WATCHING YOU!

ARE YOU A FIRE HAZARD?

Do you sometimes smoke in bed, overload your home electrical system, forget to clean storage areas periodically, or commit other little oversights that can lead to big fires? Or do you try to eliminate fire hazards—always?

The Junior Fire Marshal Program is sponsored in Local Schools by Independent Agents... with the Cooperation of School Officials and the Fire Department.

TREASURES FROM Plymouth Pantries

MRS. ALLAN MURDOCK, of 1397 Sheridan Ave., this week's guest cook, has agreed to share her recipe for "Lasagne." Mrs. Murdock is pictured beside her "piece de resistance," a handmade embroidered sampler electric clock, which she made in her spare time.

A taste treat with an Italian flair is in store for our readers this week when they try Mrs. Allan Murdock's recipe for "Lasagne."

The Murdock's have been residents of Plymouth for the past six years, moving here from Dearborn Township.

The last few months have been busy times for the Murdock family, as since moving into their new home at 1397 Sheridan Ave., they have been occupied with getting settled, redecorating, etc.

When not caring for her two children, Linda, a kindergarten at Bird Elementary School, and 17-month-old Peggy, Mrs. Murdock likes to embroider samplers and read books. She leans toward the mystery-type.

Engaged Dani Lee Ray

Dani Lee Ray

Mr. and Mrs. William E. Ray, of 1380 Palmer, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Dani Lee, to Bruce William Austin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steven Kuzma, of 312 Ann St.

Miss Ray is a 1963 graduate of Plymouth High School. During high school she was a member of the band for four years and attended the Interlochen Arts Academy for three years. She is presently employed by American Automobile Association, Plymouth office.

Mr. Austin graduated from Plymouth High in 1961 and attended Eastern Michigan University where he was a member of the University's gymnastics team. He is currently stationed with the U.S. Marine Corps in San Diego.

A November wedding is planned.

On Saturday August 24, Miss Sharon Ann Wesley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Wesley, of 1393 Carol St., became the bride of Michael G. Kelley, son of Mrs. Joel Berkowitz of Detroit and Mr. Glen Kelley of Redford, in a double ring ceremony in Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor length gown of eggshell peau de soie accented by a bodice of chantilly lace with appliqued seed pearls. The straight lines of her princess style skirt were given added interest by a back panel which fell into a short train.

Her elbow length veil was held in place by a matching pillbox hat of lace and seed pearls over peau de soie. Both the gown and veil were designed and sewn by the bride and her mother. She carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Elaine Mathews of Plymouth who wore a floor length dress of yellow brocade. A back panel fell from the neckline of the dress to the floor, while two small bows accented the waistline and a matching bow connected the back panel to the dress. Miss Mathews carried a bouquet of yellow and white carnations and the bridesmaids carried bouquets of yellow and tangerine carnations.

The bridesmaids Sherry Kelley, sister of the groom, Maureen Wesley, sister of the bride, Miss Joan Greene, the bride's former roommate at Michigan State University, and Miss Ann Scott wore gowns identical to the maid of honor. Matching pillbox hats held their yellow veils in place. Penny Wesley, sister of the bride, was flower girl. She wore a short white organdy frock and carried a basket of tangerine, yellow and white rose petals and carnations. Brian Wesley, brother of the bride, was ring bearer.

Servio Ricciardi, of Dearborn, served the groom as best man and Larry Wells, Al Runge, Otto Bufo and Byron Williams, all of Plymouth, seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Wesley chose a turquise acetate sheath with matching jacket and white accessories. Mrs. Berkowitz wore a powder blue dress and a jacket with matching accessories, both wore white orchid corsages.

A reception was held at the Knights of Columbus Hall for approximately 200 guests from Detroit, Grand Rapids, East Lansing, Dearborn, Salem, Wayne, Marshall, and Birmingham, Michigan.

For her honeymoon to northern Michigan and Mackinac Island the bride wore a going away suit of royal blue crepe with matching accessories.

The new Mrs. Kelley graduated from Plymouth High School in 1961 and attended Michigan State University. She is now employed at Consumers Power Co. in Livonia. The groom graduated from Plymouth High School in 1959 and attended Ferris Institute. He is now employed at Hydromation Engineering in Livonia. They are making their home in the Sheldon Apartments on Sheldon Rd.

Members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the Daughter's of the American Revolution are wearing proud smiles these days.

Reason for the broad grins is the fact that the chapter can boast of four state officers, which is most unusual according to Mrs. F. R. Hohelisel, regent.

Members holding state titles are Mrs. Robert D. Willoughby, of 14061 Ridgewood Dr., state chairman of national defense and D.A.R. national vice chairman of the Children of the American Revolution committee; Mrs. Harry Devo, 606 Church St., State chairman of Insular; Mrs. Claude Cruse, of Northville, state registrar; and Mrs. George Merwin, of Northville, state chairman of the Children of the American Revolution.

Nearly half of all the Great Lakes ports handling a million or more tons of cargo annually are in Michigan.

AAUW Seeks Used Books For Annual Sale

A request for used books of all kinds is being made by the Plymouth branch of the American Association of University Women during the weeks of Oct. 14-26.

The books, priced from 5c to $1.00 according to content and condition, will be sold next April 30 - May 2 at the AAUW Annual Book Sale. All profits go to the Fellowship Fund which provides assistance to women in graduate studies at home and abroad.

Novels, textbooks, histories, pocketbooks, reference books, valuable magazines, autologies, children's books, "how to" books, and almost every other type of book is needed and welcome. This is a golden opportunity to clean out the attic and the bookcase and let those old book friends be of use and pleasure again. Some other person will enjoy your old favorite, and its price, though modest, will help a deserving student continue her work.

Collection boxes will be in four Plymouth stores Oct. 14-26: Stop and Shop, Kroger, A & P, and Food Fair. If you prefer a pickup from your home, please call Miss Weberlein at GL 3-0485 or Mrs. Maas at FI 9-2847.

This is important and must be placed on the U-F card for the contribution to be credited to the Plymouth Community Fund.

Nila Magidoff to Open Town Hall Series; Slezak to Appear Later

Nila Magidoff, heroine of the best-seller "Nila" and wife of former N.B.C. correspondent Robert Magidoff, who broadcasted from Moscow during the war years, will be the opening lecturer of the 1963-1964 season of the Northville Town Hall Series, on Thursday, Oct. 17.

The Town Hall Series is sponsored by Our Lady of Victory Church, Northville. Lectures are held at the P&A Theatre, Northville, beginning at 11 a.m. and are followed by celebrity luncheons during which the day's speaker answers questions submitted by those attending the lecture.

Mrs. Magidoff was originally scheduled to speak at the March 19 lecture, but a delay in completion of a Walt Disney film, made it impossible for actor-writer Walter Slezak to appear at the opening lecture of the Series, as was originally scheduled, thus necessitating the realignment of speakers. Slezak will speak on "Show Business is No Business" on March 19, 1964, the date originally scheduled for Mrs. Magidoff.

Russian-born Mrs. Magidoff's talk, entitled, "I Return to Russia as an American," will offer an unusual, off-beat report on the human element in the USSR — on how life of the people has changed from the days of Stalin. She will tell about a Moscow public bath house, a Soviet fashion show, a Bolshevik wedding ceremony and report on her meetings with people who returned from concentration camps after Stalin's death.

During her year's in Russia, the speaker led many lives. After her schooling she went to Moscow where she designed clothes, worked in factories, explored the wilds of Central Asia, traveled around Europe as a Merchant Marine Sailor Third Class, and became an author and noted Moscow newspaper woman.

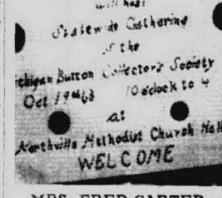

She married her husband in 1937 and in 1941 received long-awaited permission to leave the USSR and arrived in America one week before Pearl Harbor. After the hostilities, already a U.S. citizen, she rejoined her war correspondent husband in Moscow and left with him in 1958 when he was expelled on trumped up charges of spying on behalf of the U.S.A.

Following the lecture a Celebrity Luncheon will be held at Meadowbrook Country Club. Reservations must be made by Monday preceding the lecture. Telephone reservations to Mrs. W. Leonard Howard at 349-1643.

A limited number of tickets are available for the five-lecture series and may be purchased from Mrs. J. W. Cheetham at 349-1016.

Guild's 17th Season Moves into High Gear

The Theater Guild's 17th season moves into high gear this week as Director Bob Wall begins rehearsals for "Money... Who Needs It?" The comedy, with a cast of 12, will be the Guild's opening presentation of the 1963-64 season.

June Dolengowski, 1416 Palmer, is producer of the show and Wall, who has any one wishing to help backstage may contact June at GL 3-8337. A number of positions have yet to be filled.

A concentrated rehearsal schedule has been announced for "Money." A well-constructed and gag-infused production, "Money" presumably will require only a minimum of rehearsals, Wall said.

A four-day run is on tap for "Money," beginning Thursday, Nov. 7. It will be held in the small auditorium at the senior high annex. A Sunday performance at 7 p.m. on Nov. 10 will conclude the presentation of the first production.

Among the cast members already selected are Sharon Andrews, 1480 Palmer; Alice Wright, 4340 Gyde Rd.; Russ Wallace, Nancy Thompson, Norma Loveless, Howard Eager and Ray Maidment Jr. Mary Kusel, 656 Harvey, will serve as an assistant director.

Tickets for the show will go on sale Oct. 22 at Melody House. Advance reserved seats will be available.

FAIR NOTICE

Somewhere in your slide files or print envelopes at home there are probably one or two color shots that you think are extra-good. They could be anything from baby's cross-eyed look at the single candle on his first birthday, cake to Dad's siesta in a hammock after a bout with the family lawn mower.

Until it closes at the end of the month, the Kodak International Color Picture Competition offers a chance for both recognition and remuneration for exceptional color pictures involving people. To qualify, the picture must have been taken on Kodak color film and be appropriate to the theme of the contest, "The World and Its People." Anyone — amateur or professional — can enter (except, of course, people connected with the operation of the contest).

A panel of judges will select 300 winners, each of whom will receive a Silver Medal of Achievement and a cash prize of $100. Moreover, the winning photos will be put on display at the Kodak Pavilion at the 1964-65 New York World's Fair, where they will be seen by an estimated 70 million people. They'll also be shown at other exhibits in the U. S. and abroad.

So look through your picture files and select the color photos you think are exceptionally good. Or shoot some new color pictures. We'll be glad to show you how to get the best print or duplicate slide made and entered in the contest.

Bring in that potential winner now. Or come in and ask for a rules folder. But remember that the competition closes on October 31.

Grange Cleanings

Jesse Tritten
GL 3-6387

The first October meeting of Plymouth Grange was held last Thursday night at our hall on Union Street. Starting with a pot-luck supper at 6:30 p.m. our business meeting followed at 8:00 p.m. The chief business of the evening consisted of election of officers. The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master - Jesse Tritten, Overseer - Fay Brown, Lecturer - Mary Fillmore, Steward - James Farquhar, Assistant Steward - Claude Eckles, Chaplain - Mildred Rienas, Treasurer - Irma Brown, Secretary - Isabelle Taylor, Gatekeeper - John Carlson, Ceres - Gladys Carlson, Pomona - Evelyn Fischer, Flora - Emma Schaufele, Lady Assistant Steward - Helen Eckles, Executive Committee Member - Harmon Gates.

The really big activity of Plymouth Grange, open to the public, and about which we have been talking and planning for many weeks, is upon us. That is our Annual Fall Bazaar and Turkey Supper to be held this Saturday, October 12. If you have not already made reservations for that good Turkey Supper, served family style, do so at once. Servings at 5:00, 6:00 and 7:00 p.m. It may already be too late to get tickets for the hour you might prefer. Make reservations by calling GL 3-3030.

The Bazaar opens at 10:00 a.m. and our Snack Bar will be open from 10:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. and will feature good home made vegetable soup and ham sandwiches. The booths at the Bazaar will feature flowers and produce, gifts and novelties, for all ages, and for all occasions, and including many new and different gift items and Christmas decorations. Parcel Post packages have come from near and far and the element of suspense is always fun. Of course there will be fancy-work of all kinds and aprons, dozens of them, dolls and toys that will appeal to all ages, and baked goods, including those good Grange Cookies that many people have enjoyed this Fall. Who knows what may be found in Hubby's Hobby Hut? They aren't talking, but we have reason to believe they have been working and may come up with some surprises. Oh, yes, don't overlook the candy booth. No better place could be found to satisfy that sweet tooth, but don't stop to count calories. Why not make a date now to meet a friend at the Grange Bazaar and shop and enjoy the many pretty things and lunch at the snack bar? Come back in the evening and bring the family for the Turkey Supper, but be sure you will be served by making your reservations early. Your Grange friends are ready, willing and able to serve you. See you Saturday, October 12.

Because of the Annual Session of Michigan State Grange October 15 to 20 there will be no October meeting of Washenaw - Wayne - Panama Grange. The November meeting will be with Plymouth Grange.

The busiest waterway in the world is the Detroit river, which carries more tonnage annually than the Rhine, Thames, Seine and Volga rivers combined.

Symphony Membership Drive Raises $2,005 of $3,500 Goal

With the first free concert of the 1963-64 season set for Oct. 19, the Plymouth Symphony Society's membership drive thus far has raised $2,005 toward a current goal of $3,500, it has been announced.

A total of 145 memberships have been subscribed with many of these coming from out-of-town residents, a spokesman explained. Membership subscriptions will provide a part of the symphony's 1963-64 budget of $11,210.

Meanwhile, literature describing the opening concert is being distributed to some 800 persons in the Plymouth area this week. It also asks for further support in the membership campaign.

Persons receiving the literature are those who have either requested it or have previously shown an interest in the Symphony Society in one form or another.

Membership Chairman Mrs. Dean Manley said that residents wishing to be placed on the Symphony's mailing list may request this service by writing the Symphony Society at P.O. Box 99, Plymouth.

Mrs. Manley explained that the industrial and business phase of the membership campaign will begin Nov. 10 with George Lawton chairman of the industrial portion and James Taylor as business membership chairman. Sam Hudson is chairman of the newly formed organization membership phase.

Industrial goal has been set at $1,500; business, $1,600; and no specific goal has been determined for the organization category.

This year's Symphony budget is $11,210, with memberships intended to provide $6,600. Another $2,200 will come from fund-raising projects conducted by the Symphony women's league, and the Community Fund has granted the Symphony $2,000.

An evening performance will mark the start of the new Symphony Concert season Oct. 19. The concert, free to all comers, will be held in the senior high gymnasium.

Soloist will be Robert Shulman, a talented young pianist from Detroit. He is the 1963 winner of a $1,000 Grinnell Foundation Award. Shulman will play Bartok's piano concerto No. 3.

Next concert is Nov. 17.

Public Safety director Kenneth Fisher thought a warning to local parents as to the penalties of private and city sign destruction by some of our local youngsters might be appropriate at this time.

Pointing to the fact that many local realtors have complained of late of malicious destruction of their signs around town and the City itself is also having trouble with its street signs from the same sources... namely youngsters.

Says Fisher... the maximum penalty for any one caught doing this sort of thing is $300.00 and parents might well make this a subject of conversation in their homes with their youngsters before one of them becomes involved in such a situation.

Patrons of the National Bank's Ann Arbor branch will soon miss the friendly greeting of manager Leonard Brudzinski who is being promoted to wider horizons in Garden City.

In training to one day become a full fledged manager, localite John Pint will move to the branch to disperse his pleasant personality upon the patrons of this institution... certainly a step in the right direction for these two bankers as well as the institution itself.

The tragic death of the young girl, in the traffic accident at the corner of Sheldon and Ann Arbor roads last week, again points to the increasing hazard of that intersection.

Expanding population on the south and west of the city is bringing an ever increasing flow of traffic in that area and presently we consider this corner one of the most dangerous we have. The alarming number of accidents recorded there indicate that the flashing light, installed not too long ago by the county, may not be the perfect answer for traffic control and perhaps to avoid more serious accidents there a full fledged stop light should be installed.

We might add that we're not particularly happy to see stop lights mushrooming on our busy intersections but if there is no other way to avoid accidents then we must urge their appearance. A growing area is just naturally faced with increasing traffic problems and positive control seems more logical than stop signs or warning lights.

And... on the subject of area growth while being confined to my home I have watched with great interest the new high-powered power lines being installed along the railroad from the city west.

A little investigation with the Detroit Edison Company revealed some most interesting observations, especially interesting, I should think, to the members of our business community.

Should any of them be considering what the future might hold for their growth during the years ahead I believe they can take heart from the actions of the Edison Company who are spending thousands of dollars in this area... all in preparation of caring for the expanding population.

Not too long ago the retail community was concerned with the effect that major shopping centers under development would have on their businesses when they opened. Interestingly enough, several shopping centers have opened and what has happened to our home-town retailers? Most of them, the great majority in fact, have been and are presently racking up sales as high or higher than they did in the past.

There has been some speculation on what effect Hudson's new Wayne road shopping center will also have on this area when it is opened a couple of years hence. Interestingly enough, one of our local merchants who has a friend interested in the new shopping area and has considered opening a store there himself had this observation: "My friend told me they expected to draw practically all of their business away from the other shopping centers in western Wayne county. Sure they expect to draw from Northville, Plymouth, Wayne, Dearborn and all of the other communities in the western section but, as the population increases, there will still be enough customers to patronize all the progressive stores in the home-town areas." This from one of the executives of the new shopping center under construction.

PHOTORIAL

Granted the Edison Company has no competition in its major commodity... power. But it is progressive enough to know that the thousands of new homes that will spring up throughout this section will demand their services and they intend to be ready to serve those customers.

They are basing their expansion... and I will only talk about Plymouth though their program includes Northville and some other west and southern adjoining areas... on the fact that Plymouth township's population is about 9,000 today but seven years hence they think it will be 16,000. They have even projected the number of homes they expect to be constructed each year in our various subdivisions, proposed subdivisions and growth at large.

Again, interestingly enough, last year Edison customers used 40,684,537 kilowatt hours of electricity in the area. By 1970 Edison expects to sell 90,000,000 kilowatt hours to this area, more than doubling their present sales in seven years. That's the reason for the new power lines and the new Sidney sub-station on Powell road just west of Ridge, which, incidentally, will be in operation any day now.

If the Edison company and Consumers Power and Michigan Bell are convinced of the tremendous growth potential of this area, and there is no question but what they are, then there should be ample opportunity for home-town business firms to snare their share of this growth potential and should they be able to only retain a portion of patronage from this new potential their businesses should flourish in spite of the out-of-town attractions which are, and will be, competing for our residents dollars.

A few months ago Bernie Morrison of Famous Men's Wear, in a particularly informative letter which we printed, pointed out the fact that Plymouth has stores providing competitive quality merchandise at competitive prices and our merchants provide service equal to any.

As this is being written Hugh Jarvis Gifts are completely remodeling and modernizing their store. Recently completed are new beautiful fronts on the Fisher-Cassidy corner, Johnny's Market, Franklin Life building, etc. These all add up to steps and expenditures taken to provide better attractions for our present and new residents. Perhaps we're not spending a portion of a quarter of a million dollars, as is Edison here, but each dollar spent thusly is bound to help in the retention of business in our business community. I like the Edison faith in this locality and, believe me, I have it, too.

The Plymouth Mail Plymouth, Mich. Dear Editor: After reading John Millhorne's "Who Speaks for Suburbs" column of September 29th (Free Press), my hypertension jumped up when he criticized the Suburbs for not having leaders. Please print this "Open Letter" to Mr. Millhorne.

Sir, it may just be that we suburbanites are more democratic than the big cities. You see, when everybody is free to do his and her share in a community, there is no need for dictatorial leaders to take orders from like in big cities. The less politicians there are the less mud slinging and confusion, the less leaders to gripe to, and the less taxes.

The Vigilance Tax Committee was not formed by suburban mayors to gain publicity as you imply. These mayors represented the wishes of their people. We are proud to know our public officials look out for our hard earned tax money. That is why we elected them, you nut. Detroit looks out for its selfish interest, why can't our little suburbs at least defend themselves? When we don't say anything, you say we don't have the leadership, when we do say something, you complain anyway.

If Detroit wants to squander its money on a throw away the fundamental rights of its citizens as a majority, it does not mean everybody is to follow. And please don't take somebody else's money in doing so. We cannot afford sky-scraping towers and swanky Cobo Halls. We pay high gas taxes to finance freeways to get to Detroit where all roads lead. Not only is Detroit getting the benefit of highways, but also the multi-million dollar viaducts.

You ask: "where are the suburban leaders who are trying to prepare their communities for the racial changes?" It may be educational for you to know people have moved into suburbs just because of racial tensions in big city. They migrated to live their own God-given life of freedom from fear and tension. Now you want to stir up a hornets nest in the suburbs.

Sincerely, Charles J. Zack 1350 Willard Rd. Plymouth

Larry Taylors, Both PHS Graduates, Will Live in Paris for Next 15 Months

Editors Note - Presented below is a letter received by The Plymouth Mail from Larry Taylor who will be making their home in Paris, France, during the next 15 months. Because of its interest we reprint it below in its entirety.

Dear Sir: Of interest to your paper and many readers may be the fourth coming second honeymoon planned by my wife Mrs. Carolyn Taylor who plans to leave Metro Airport Oct. 20 to join me in Paris, France. I am currently serving with the U.S. Forces in Europe as a Military Policeman with the 67th MP Company. My wife and I will be in the Paris area for the next 15 months.

Before entering the Army in January 1963 I was employed in the accounting office at the University of Michigan and attended Clear College at night. My wife took a leave of absence as secretary to the Controller at The U. of M. effective Sept. 32. We made our home at 312 N. Holbrook St., Plymouth. Our home was rented and my wife lived with her parents Mr. and Mrs. Frank Crowell, 494 N. Mill Street, Plymouth. My parents Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Taylor, manager of the Penniman Building for the past 10 years, plan to move into their newly purchased home on Holbrook Street. Both of us are graduates of Plymouth High.

We will be making our home with a French family at Rue Achères, Maisons Laiffite, S&O, France. The family speaks very little English, likewise, we speak very little French. They have expressed a desire to help us if we will return the favor. In all, European living is much different than that of the American way. It is going to be an experience for both of us.

If you think our adventure would be of interest to the Plymouth residents we will be glad to submit letters to you from time to time.

Additional information concerning my wife's future trip may be obtained from her, prior to her leaving on Oct. 20, at 494 N. Mill, telephone GL 3-3474.

I have been receiving The Plymouth Mail since my arrival in France. I would like to express my thanks for a fine paper. You really don't put the importance to a home town paper until you go away. Even though it travels by boat mail and I receive it 4 weeks later, it is fresh news to me.

Congratulations again on a fine paper. We are looking forward to seeing our friends and becoming a resident of Plymouth again.

Sincerely, Larry G. Taylor PFC, 67th MP Co. APO 163, New York, N. Y.

When Dave visited the showing with his parents, who reside at 615 Kellogg, he dropped his name in a drawing box with the hopes of winning the 27-inch television set Allison Chevrolet was giving away. He won it. He is pictured here with Frank Allison handing over the prize.

Sports

IN AND AROUND PLYMOUTH

SPORTSEEN

By Jerome O'Neil

(EDITOR'S COMMENT: With Detroit working tirelessly toward winning the Olympic Games, the following article is particularly timely, we feel. It is reprinted from The Christian Science Monitor and was brought to our attention by Mrs. Norma Cassidy.)

By Monitor Staff and Sports Writers
How good a citizen is a "good sport"? Does a nation's or a people's attitude toward sports influence its moral fiber and attitudes?

The answer to these questions loom increasingly important today.
Because sports—with their influence for either good or bad—are enjoying probably their highest peak of popularity throughout the whole world. The bulk of the world's peoples are touched by them at some time—if not as players, then as spectators.

One factor responsible for the phenomenal growth of sports is the development of modern communications—above all, television.

In 1960 when television in the United States brought to viewers the Olympic Games for the first time, a striking new audience was discovered.

Last year the three major American television networks spent some $50,000,000 on sports programming.

But beyond the shores of wealthy America, where most people have both the money and leisure to spare for sports, there is a similar, expanding interest.

It ranges from the village clearings in Southeast Asia where young men scuff footballs or basketballs in the dust, to the steaming interior of Africa, where athletes of new young countries aspire to Olympic honors.

Most sportsmen welcome all this. They say it will foster unselfishness, teamwork, and physical wholeness. They say an enthusiastic interest in sports is very often a deterrent to delinquency and vice. They say sports encourage international fellowship even among citizens of countries which are politically at loggerheads.

Sources all over the world indicate more people are playing or exerting at something.

No one denies that wherever this urge follows the highest ideals of sports, a boon to individual and collective morality must result.

In Japan, according to Avery Brundage, president of the International Olympic Committee, the Olympic principles of fair play and good sportsmanship now are being taught in the public school system.

On the other hand, there is no denying that sports in certain instances can tempt men to the lowest of characteristics, too.

In the wake of big-money sport presented as pure entertainment for huge spectator audiences, there has come corruption, game "fixing," and other ethical questions:

• What about the growth of gambling on sports? What about the $3,069,463,825 bet on racetrack parimutuel systems in the United States last year? What about the $81,000,000 of the six big football pools in Britain last year?

Supporters of pro boxing point out that to ban it would merely drive it underground and away from the controls that now exist.

Basketball scandals, colleges' bidding for high school and foreign athletes, the vast recruiting competition in the United States are cited as examples of professionalism in college sports.

But, Mr. Brundage, arch guardian of the traditional definition of the world "amateur" which rules out any financial gain whatsoever, has informed national Olympic committees that athletes who receive subsidization in any form—be it government sponsorship or university athletic scholarships—will not be considered amateurs eligible to compete in the 1964 Olympic Games.

It was their founder, Baron Pierre de Coubertin, who saw them as the "free trade of the future," their establishment meaning that "the cause of peace will have received a new and powerful support."

His words form the Olympic credo which, in essence, sportsmen down the ages have found to be a goal worth seeking:

The important thing in the Olympic Games is not to win but to take part; the important thing in life is not the triumph but the struggle; the essential thing is not to have conquered but to have fought well.

PASSES KEPT Redford Union off balance last Friday night and enabled Plymouth's running game to operate effectively. Rocks' quarterback John Daniel didn't meet with much success on this pass attempt, however. While his crouching linemen give him a measure of protection, Daniel uncorks a pass intended for end Dick Egloff. Instead, a leaping Redford Union defender blocks the pass and the ball drops harmlessly to the ground. The white line designates the path of the pigskin. With the ball in the air (circle), Daniel is about to be tackled (center). Plymouth fullback Dave Agnew is at left. Daniel completed six passes, four of them to Egloff for 83 yards. Agnew contributed two touchdowns as the Rocks racked up an easy 26-7 win, their fourth straight this season and eight in a row going back to last fall.

Plymouth dampened the hopes of over 4,000 Redford Union Homecoming fans by twisting the tail of the Panthers to the tune of 26 to 7 last Friday night.

It proved to be a perfect night for football, for the Plymouth fans, as the Rocks ran, passed, blocked, tackled, and generally looked like a well coached, talented football team.

There was a nip in the air which may have lent itself to the crispness of contact that took place on the field.

Plymouth came into the game fearing the passing attack that Redford Union was sure to throw against them. The previous games had left Plymouth's defensive backfield untested and Coach Mike Hoben worried about it being the Rocks' undoing.

Captain Dick Egloff helped still any fears by intercepting a Panther pass on their first series of plays. To further comfort Hoben end Terry Clark dragged in another Redford Union pass on the Panther 16 yard line, the second time Redford Union had the ball.

The interception proved to be the Rocks big break as fullback Dave Agnew carried the ball around left end to score behind a fine block by quarterback John Daniel. Roy Chappell booted the extra point giving Plymouth a 7 to 0 lead.

Agnew had a good night as he reeled off yard after yard. He set up the Rocks for their second touchdown by ripping off 2 runs totaling 45 yards and then pulled into the end zone for his, and Plymouth's second T.D. of the evening.

Hoben praised his junior quarterback and well he should as Daniel completed 6 passes for 103 yards, including a touchdown toss threaded between 3 Redford Union defenders into the arms of end Jim Lake.

Captain Egloff was the principal receiver of Daniels' tosses as he snagged 4, one while being pulled down by a tackler, for a total of 85 yards.

The half ended with Plymouth holding a comfortable lead of 19 points. The Panthers roared back at the first of the second half by pouncing on a Plymouth fumble and scoring from 9 yards out.

Plymouth picked up its last 7 points after tackle Dave Sackett fell on a ball at Redford Union's 30. A Daniels to Egloff pass and an Agnew run put Roger Tobey in scoring position as he scampered 5 yards to pay dirt. Chappell converted and the scoring ended with Plymouth ahead 26 to 7.

After the game Hoben said, "We have good balance in our backfield." This was proven as three of the backs were involved in the scoring while the other back, Gary Grady, had a T.D. called back because of a penalty. Hoben also stated that Hal Smith, Kevin Huntington, Charlie Provov, Paul Densmore, Sackett and Lake were especially sharp on defense, but that Egloff again this week scored the most points on defense. Hoben has set up a special scoring system for his defensive team in order to keep track of the defensive action.

Hoben makes no prediction about the Rocks outcome this season, but would rather play one game at a time. He said, "You never know from one week to the next just what will happen."

Friday a big, strong underfrated Allen Park team will try to spoil Plymouth's Homecoming Celebration by attempting to upset the league leading Rocks. According to previous scores this game should prove to be another test for Plymouth's power while providing plenty of excitement for both teams of fans.

Frosh Falter First Time Lose 13 to 4

The Plymouth Junior High East Freshman football team suffered its first defeat of the season at the hands of a fine defensive team, Wayne West, by a score of 13-4.

Coach Dick Hill's boys were stunned by two Wayne Touchdowns in the opening quarter and were never able to get enough offensive steam up to push the ball into the end zone.

After the boys settled down, Wayne was unable to sustain a drive and on two occasions the Frosh defensive team trapped a Wayne back behind the goal line to provide Plymouth's only scoring during the game.

Hill said after the contest that he was disappointed in the lack of offensive charge and hoped that his team would work harder in the next few days to correct the situation.

This week, Plymouth will travel to Wayne to meet Wayne Adams at 4 p.m. Thursday.

To Elect Officers

New Junior League officers will be elected for the 1963-64 year at a meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, Oct. 15, in the office of the Department of Public Works.

Incumbent president Joseph Bida has been nominated to serve another year in the same office. All voting members of the Junior League are urged to attend the meeting.

Harriers Find Right Path, Drop Allen Park, 27-32

Plymouth boys ran close together, all within 30 seconds, such consistency proved to be the Parkers' downfall.

Although Allen Park took the top two places, it wasn't enough as John Bowsman, John Bates and Mike Bentley took the next three places followed by an Allen Park runner placing sixth. The coming in 7th, 8th, 9th and 10th were Steve Ward, Hal Kuisek, Jim McKindler and Frank Dorset.

Sandmann stated that Allen Park's team has improved over the past few years and he was encouraged by the Rocks fine showing.

He believes that the boys will improve by hard work along with more meet experience and if the runners with the best times move up into one or two of the top places, Plymouth will have a good solid team.

This Friday the harriers will travel to Belleville to meet a team who is about even in the won, lost column. The teams seem to be about equal in strength which should provide an exciting meet.

Bow and Arrow Hunter Bags 150-lb Spikehorn

Five years of deer hunting with a bow and arrow finally produced results last week for 31-year-old Sheldon Fulton, of 8867 Oakview.

Former Plymouth Star Given M.V.P. Award at Banquet

Dick Schryer, a football, basketball and baseball star at Plymouth last year, was awarded the Most Valuable Player Trophy for best all-around player in the National Amateur Baseball Federation playoffs in Youngstown, Ohio. Dick played with the Citizens Mutual team who won the Class D title in Detroit and advanced to the National playoffs.

The team won 7 out of 8 games to win the national tournament for the second year in a row. Schryer played outfield in all eight games, accumulating 11 hits in 23 at bats. He scored 6 runs, had 6 R.B.I.'s by collecting 3 homers, a double and 7 singles and also stole 3 bases.

He is a freshman at the University of Michigan, attending on a full baseball scholarship. Dick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Schryer, live at 150 S. Union St.

Junior High East News and Notes

A new student council executive board at Junior High East has been announced. It consists of: Sally Van Antwerp as president; Carol Engstrom, vice president; Candi Muehlbauer, recording secretary; Sue Van Antwerp, corresponding secretary; Darryl Dusibier, treasurer; and Toki Bobos, historian.

Thursday, Oct. 3, was the first "color day" of the year at Junior High East. Students turned out in red-and-white costumes to help boost school spirit in anticipation of the football game that afternoon. However, Junior High East lost, 15-4. The color day, as well as lobby decorations and the other various festivities were arranged by Priscilla Jenkins, who did a fine job.

The first Fall Mixer was held Friday evening, Oct. 4. Engstrom, the pattern of the final dance a year ago, it included outdoor games. It concluded at 5 p.m. For the past week, students and faculty members have been busy preparing for the first PTSA meeting. It will be a novel meeting because for 10 minutes, the parents will actually take over the students' schedule and learn once more how it feels to be a pupil. Carol Overholt has been heading up the student preparation. She will have maps of the school posted at strategic points and speakers will also be on hand to welcome parents.

Induct New Cubs

Nineteen new cubs were inducted into the Bob-cats of cub pack No. 1533 Sept. 25 during a regular meeting at Starkweather school. The pack is sponsored by the Rotary Club. The den mothers are: Mrs. Robert Blasingame, Mrs. James Brown, Mrs. Almond Carpenter, Mrs. Larry Grimes, Mrs. Florence Hallam, Mrs. Harold Jacobs, Mrs. Wheeler and Mrs. Robert White. Larry Grimes is the Webelos den leader.

A rocket derby is being planned for the November meeting and the next regular pack committee meeting will be held at the Arthur Gardell residence on Thursday, Oct. 10. H. E. Wilson Joins Royal McBee Corp. Harold E. Wilson, 8810 Sheldon Rd., has joined Royal McBee Corp. as a typewriter sales representative at the company's Detroit office. Wilson, 41, attended the University of Oklahoma and was previously with Western and Southern Life Insurance Co. at Detroit.

The life-long Plymouthite, an employee of Matt Powell & Son Stroh's distributor, downed a 150-lb spikehorn buck last Thursday evening near Bitely, Mich., using a 44-lb. test bow and a standard steel-tipped arrow. He bagged the deer from a distance of about 65 feet, he said. Although Fulton had shot three deer previously with a rifle, it was his first with a bow and arrow. The feat is highly-regarded among hunters.

Suburban 6 Standings

After Friday night's battles we find Plymouth on top in the league standings with two wins under its belt against no losses. The Rocks showed that they're the team to beat if anyone has hopes of taking the Suburban Six crown this year.

Besides Plymouth's win over Redford Union, Trenton edged Bentley 7-6 when the Bentley Bulldogs failed to convert an extra point in the last quarter. Allen Park was leading Belleville 2-0 in the fourth period of its game only to have Belleville come from behind by getting a safety and scoring a touchdown to defeat the Parkers 8-2.

Featuring this weeks play will be undefeated Plymouth's homecoming contest with Allen Park at the Rocks Athletic Field.

Plymouth	2-0-0
Belleville	1-0-1
Redford Union	1-1-0
Trenton	1-1-0
Bentley	0-1-1
Allen Park	0-2-0

Admission Forms To Schoolcraft Available Oct. 15

Application blanks for admission to Schoolcraft College will be made available starting Tuesday, Oct. 15, the college has announced. With construction of the first phase of college buildings now well underway, the first students will be admitted to classes next fall.

High school seniors may obtain admission forms at the office of the college registrar, on Newburg Rd., during regular office hours. The office is open from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. weekdays. For students who are employed during the daytime, the college offices will also be open Oct. 15 and Oct. 17 from 6:30 to 8:30 p.m.

Residents of the college district must enroll before May 1 in order to receive priority consideration. Beyond that, the college will consider applications only on a basis of merit and not necessarily on the basis of residence in the district. Tuition is $105 per semester for students living in the district and $165 for non-resident students.

The college has also announced a schedule of counseling tests. The day-long test at Plymouth High will be administered Saturday, Feb. 29. No state can show a better record of business success — large business and small business alike — than Michigan.

SHELDON FULTON, of Plymouth, had been hunting deer with a bow and arrow for five years without success until last Thursday evening when he downed a 150-lb. spikehorn buck with a steel tipped arrow from a distance of about 65 feet. He was hunting near Bitely, Mich. Fulton, a life-long resident, is shown here with his kill. He also shot a 30-lb. fox with a shotgun during the same trip.

Two Housewives Battle Air Pollution Problem

A struggle by two local housewives to "clear the air" in the northeast corner of Plymouth Township seems no nearer a solution today than it was 10 years ago when they first took up the challenge. Mrs. Fred Davids and Mrs. Michael Small have been arguing for stricter air pollution controls here in hopes of reducing so-called industrial "fall-out."

"All we would like to see is clean air and a livable condition around our neighborhoods," the two women declared. Mrs. Davids, of 39627 Plymouth Rd., has lived here since 1946. Her home is within a half-mile of the nearest industry. Mrs. Small, 39200 Schoolcraft, is a 10-year resident and lives about one-quarter mile from the nearest industry. Both complain that soot and "flyash" from local factories invade their homes, soiling furniture, carpets, walls and fixtures. The two women say the industrial soot is harmful to autos and the outside of houses.

"When it falls," said Mrs. Small, "it falls on every blade of grass and on absolutely everything. It's a nuisance and a health hazard. We have to breathe this air."

Having talked and corresponded with executives of local industries as well as Township officials and people at the Wayne County Health Department, the two women now are hopeful that a legal opinion may be the answer to the problem. Sometime ago, Mrs. Davids, husband a captain with the Michigan State Police, appealing. He asked that the prosecutor's office be requested to give an opinion on the applicability of the Township's air pollution — or smoke abatement — ordinance.

Mrs. Davids said the legal opinion, when it is issued, will determine whether the ordinance applies to the industries in the area. "If it does," she said, "then I should think they (the industries) would have to comply with the ordinance. Everyone else has to comply with the law."

The ordinance, according to Mrs. Davids, was written in 1957. It places certain restrictions on "air contaminants, particulate matter of dust, odor and gases."

The women have also circulated a petition and gathered 186 signatures of residents in their neighborhoods. The petition reads: "We, the undersigned, do hereby respectfully petition and urge the governing board of the Township of Plymouth to take the necessary and positive action to bring about the abatement of a serious nuisance in said township."

"Said nuisance being as follows: 'The constant presence of soot and fly ash in the windward areas of coal-fired chimneys stacks located in an area bounded by Haggerty Rd., C & O railroad, Eccles Rd., Plymouth Rd., and the immediate surroundings.'"

"This nuisance being one of long standing has caused and continues to cause hardship, waste, inconvenience and unnecessary expense, and is a hazard to one's health and well being."
